

Weekly Colonist

From the Daily Colonist, Nov. 28. LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

State of Timber Limits. It is reported that timber limits on Cowichan lake were recently made by private parties to Wisconsin lumbermen, and that it is their intention to erect mills for sawing for foreign shipment.

Snack Thieves. A few days ago we called attention to the number of snack thieves at present "working" the city, and advised our citizens to be on the lookout for the unwelcome intruders.

An Inevitable Trip. The ship Argyle is now discharging at Victoria's wharf. She is a quiet and uneventful trip and sighted only one sail in the 149 days she was out.

Blind and Winded. Commander Emory and the officers of U. S. Thetis were banqueted at the Driford last evening. About one hundred and fifty gentlemen, including officers of H. M. S. Espiegle, U. S. Fish Hawk, R. C. A., and well-known civilians, surrounded the well filled tables and did ample justice to the excellent supply of dainties provided.

Projected Improvement. On all sides it is admitted that 1888 has been the best year for business that Victoria has ever enjoyed. The value of goods moved has been one-third greater than in any previous twelve months.

Island News. Charles Johnson, a Kamloops painter, drank a bottle of whisky recently, thinking it was water. Mr. J. Lambert, his employer, found him in a state of stupefaction in the Colonial hotel, and advised him to get home.

Development of a Kootenay Mine. Messrs. King and Snider who located a ledge of fine milling ore at Red Mountain, four miles from Nelson, Kootenay Lake, were in the city last week. It is reported they have discovered a three-fifths interest in Mr. Stanley, lately from London, Eng., a capitalist who is interested in Mexican and Californian mines, for a considerable figure.

Unrequited Hospitality. A few weeks ago Mr. John Pollock, who is proprietor of a fish market on Johnson street, became acquainted with a brother Austrian named Dominik, whom he allowed to write some letters in his sitting room, and seeing that he was "hard up," treated as hospitably as a man possibly could.

A Lively Row in Chinatown. Early yesterday morning a Chinaman calling himself Sing, and who was arrested about three weeks ago on a charge of insanity, effected an escape to a house on Fisgard street, occupied by a brother Celestial named Soo Hee and his wife.

A Disgraceful Affair. On Friday night of last week a fracas occurred between two fallen women, inmates of a Broughton street bagnio, who for brutality and fendish ferocity, were unfortunately seldom equaled. Both women had been drinking, and began to quarrel. A jealousy had for some time existed between them and the quarrel terminated in a brutal fight, in which the younger of the two, a former resident of Portland, had her eye closed by a stinging blow. Not content with inflicting this punishment, the older woman set teeth in the arm of her opponent, biting a piece of the flesh out. The extent of her injuries was then ascertained, and the combat was brought to an end. A surgeon was at once summoned, the wound in the arm stitched up,

BETWEEN TWO CONTINENTS.

Victoria Talks to London with Seven Thousand Miles Between. As announced in Sunday morning's Colonist, one of the longest direct conversations ever held over a telephone wire, was listened to on Sunday by Sir D. G. Colquhoun, C.P.R., and H. B. Co., Thomas R. Smith, assistant commissioner of the Hudson's Bay Company, in this city.

Concert and Entertainment. A concert and entertainment will be held in the Philharmonic Hall on Monday evening next, under the auspices of the St. Joseph Social and Literary Society. The first part of the programme will consist of musical and vocal numbers, and will be under the direction of Prof. Agius. In the second part, the programme will consist of plays, which will be produced by the ladies and gentlemen amateurs.

Retaining to England. Mr. R. D. Atkins, who has been occasionally in Victoria for the past several years, is about to depart for England this morning on the C. P. R. Mr. Atkins during his stay in the province has visited several mining camps, and has been favorably impressed. He is confident that the region surrounding Kootenay lake—mounting Todd Mountain, the Hot Springs Camp and the Lead Camp—will in the near future become a large billion producing field.

Quarantine Regulations. The San Francisco agent of the P.C.S.S. Co., recently requested Dr. Wm. Jackson, health officer of this port, to board the mail steamer arriving during the night, and examine the passengers, in order to facilitate the departure for Puget Sound. Dr. Jackson, however, replied that although perfectly willing to do so, the quarantine regulations required the examination to be conducted during the day-time. He would telegraph to Seattle, however, and ascertain if the desired request would be granted. In reply to the telegram the following was received yesterday:

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 19. To Dr. Wm. Jackson, M.D., quarantine officer, Victoria. It is with reference to the quarantine regulations, and the better to afford facility of night inspection for the San Francisco steamer, set the same at Great Falls, which permits of vessels being examined at all hours.

AGAIN ADJOURNED. Dr. G. Hamilton Griffin Remanded Until To-day. It was half-past one o'clock yesterday afternoon when Dr. Gustavus Hamilton Griffin walked into the police court and took his seat beside his lawyer, Mr. W. H. H. Jones, who had just been sworn in as a judge, and anything like a gay and happy mood he appeared to be when he first stood up smiling in the witness chair, and "threatening to kill" was read over to him.

PERSONAL. D. M. Gillivray of Vancouver, is at the Driford. G. C. Harris returned to the city on the Olympian yesterday. H. H. Johns came over on the Olympian yesterday. Capt. and Mrs. Dale of London, Eng., are at the Driford. The chief inspector Russell arrived from the Vancouver coast yesterday by the steamer Yosemite on Sunday. A. Todd and wife, Cowichan, have returned from a visit to Scotland. J. A. Oatbrev arrived from the north on the steamer Barbara Bosworth. John Fanning, curator, provincial museum, returned from the mainland on Sunday night.

LOCAL BRIEFS. It is probable another salmon cannery will be erected on the North Arm of Fraser this winter. The steamer "Lion" discharged 1,000 bushels of lath into the bark Cathack this morning. Francisco Chronicle and Examiner both publish the records and portrait of Dr. Griffin. The class of men taken up at the anniversary services of the Reformed Episcopal Church held on Sunday last, amounted to all to $487.90. Out of the sum possessed by Burdock Bitter this is what may be taken at all seasons of the year, and by either young or old. In this way the three busy "Y's" are always at work and doing good.

THE ASHBORNE ACT.

A Bill Introduced Increasing the Sum to be Applied for by Five Million Pounds. Mr. Gladstone Speaks Against the Measure. The Premier in His Valedictory Speech Moves an Amendment to the Bill in Order to Reduce or Cancel Arrears of Rent.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—In the Commons this evening, Sir D. H. Macdonald, solicitor general for Ireland, brought forward a bill increasing the sum to be applied to the Ashbourne Act, from five million to ten million pounds. The bill was introduced in the House of Commons on Monday last, and was supported by the government, who said that the government thought that the great success of the Ashbourne Act, justified their seeking to enlarge its operation.

Mr. Gladstone moved an amendment that in lieu of £5,000,000, it would be expedient to give a further £5,000,000, in the form of a loan, to be repaid by the tenants from the evictions which had recently taken place, to extend the law so as to include the arrears of rent, and such arrears of rent as might be found excusable. He stated that the amendment would be a great benefit to the tenants, and that he did not desire to stop its operation. He objected to the bill because he believed the government ought to have made it more liberal, and to have enabled it to continue the operations of the Ashbourne Act until spring, when parliament could meet, and then to have passed a bill to do it.

CABLE NEWS.

Lord Randolph Revenges Himself Upon the "Standard" when it Rejoiced over His Downfall. Lord Carnarvon Opposes the Suggestion that Colonial Governors be Appointed by the Colonies. Flimsy Story About the Prince of Wales Falling to Attend the Opening of the Lyric Club.

Lord Randolph and the "Standard." LONDON, Nov. 19.—Lord Randolph Churchill has at last been provided with an opportunity to revenge himself upon the "Standard" for its rejoicing over his downfall when he left the cabinet. Churchill has never had any love for the "Standard," which heartily detests him, and it was with the keenest satisfaction that on Saturday he characterized that paper's recent American articles as the Sokovite affair, as the cheapest and most transparent kind of blarney and bragadocio, since they reflected the opinions of nobody, with the possible exception of the editor, Mr. G. G. Bennett. The remarks of the young Tory democratic leader have received almost general endorsement, and few persons, accepting the "Standard's" views, are of the belief that the articles would better not have been written.

London Socialist Meeting. LONDON, Nov. 19.—The anniversary of the socialist demonstration at Trafalgar Square and the execution of the Chicago anarchists, was celebrated in Victoria Park to-day. The gathering was immense, and speeches were made from three platforms. Mrs. Lucy Parsons spoke from one of the them, advocating the use of bombs, and Commoner Graham occupied another in denouncing capitalists and landlords. Unemployed workers, he asserted, were organized to take possession of land, capital and machinery for their own benefit, and they would continue this struggle until something was accomplished toward the ends sought. Falling to obtain these objects they would remain slaves until the scenes at Trafalgar Square and Chicago were repeated.

Very Flimsy. LONDON, Nov. 19.—It has transpired that the real reasons for the failure of the Prince of Wales to attend the opening of the Lyric club last night are, totally different from those given out by the manager of that organization in explanation of the royal patron's failure to attend. It is stated on good authority that a gentleman who has a grudge against the Prince wrote to the printer of the "Standard" to publish a notice which would impugn him as a witness in a pending law case involving some scandal if he accepted the club's invitation to appear upon receipt of the letter the prince informed the club's executive committee of the circumstances and asked their advice. A meeting was held and the committee reluctantly counselled the prince to absent himself.

Colonial Governors. LONDON, Nov. 19.—Lord Carnarvon has written to the Times opposing the suggestion that colonial governors be chosen by the colonies. The plan, he says, implies the appointment by whatever body the colonies may choose, of a man who is not a member of the colonial parliament, and the abandonment of one of the few prerogatives remaining to the crown in relation to the colonies, as enabling the crown to satisfactorily dispose of the duties of the governor. He says: "The dispute requires careful handling. We must trust to the temper and good sense of both sides."

Another McGillian Case. LONDON, Nov. 19.—It is announced that the Valais authorities intend to proceed with the utmost sternness against Bishop Lognon of Raphon, for presiding at a banquet in celebration of the release of Count von Hatzfeldt from prison, and also for permitting McFadden to be absent from the banquet for the purpose of making a political tour of England. The case is beginning to resemble that of Dr. Mc Gill in New York.

Count von Hatzfeldt. Count von Hatzfeldt, the German ambassador, had a long interview with Lord Salisbury at the foreign office this afternoon on the subject of the railway station incident of the 12th inst. The Count was accompanied by the Countess, and the Empress Frederick, who was inclined to regard as a snub. Lord Salisbury endeavored with success to pacify the irate German, but a telegram from the Count, explaining and regretting the oversight, smoothed matters over and the Count went away content, subsequently repairing to Windsor, where he was dined and fettered until his restoration of resentment remained in his bosom.

U.S.S. Thetis will leave for San Francisco on Wednesday, and will be followed by the U.S.S. Albatross, which will leave for Mare's Island, where she will be docked for repairs.
