A very pleasant event took place
recently at the home of Malcolm Mc-Intyre's mother, on the tenth concession of Brooke, when all her family met for a reunion. Six sons and three daughters were there to enjoy the hospitality of their old home and birth place. Mrs. McIntyre, who is now eight-nine years of age presided over the bountiful dinner and enjoyed the home gathering very much.
The sons presented their mother with a beautiful ebony cane and a gold band ring, as a little token of love and esteem.

The regular meeting of the Brooke
Women's Institute was held Mar. 10, at the home of Mrs. L. McLean. Owing to the almost impassable condition of the roads, the attendance was not so large as usual, nevertheless lively interest was taken in the Roll call, which was answered by "Labor Saving Devices." The program consisted of an entertaining reading on St. Patrick's Day, by Mrs.
E. Carroll, and an instructive paper on "Poultry for Profit", by Miss B.
McIntyre. Community singing was much enjoyed. The next meeting will be held April 14th at the home of Mrs. D. McNeil.

The most enjoyable evening in the place at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Clarke Taylor, lot 1, con. 12, Brooke when their friends and neighbors gathered to bid them farewell prior to their leaving for their home on the 2nd con. of Plympton. The evening although very disagreeable did not detain a very jovial crowd, which after the presentation and supper, being served by the ladies, betook themselves to tripping the light fantastic until nearly daylight when all repaired to their homes feeling they had enjoyed one of the pleasantest evenings ever spent in the commu-

POWER FARMING LECTURE

A good sized crowd of farmers and others interested attended the lecture given by Mr. Heipel, late president of the Dominion Experimental Farm, at Kemptonville, on "Power Farming and Agriculture." Many practical ideas and suggestions were put forth by the speaker, which were clearly illustrated by the excellent motion picture films. He particularly desired to impress upon all farmers that this is the day of farming by power, and convincingly demonstrated the real necessity of a farm tractor.

The lecture was secured for this town by R. Morningstar, the local Ford car and tractor dealer.

FRIDAYS INSTEAD OF
SATURDAYS

Owing to popular demand and to get the town people an opportunity to attend, as well as those from the surrounding country, the Western Ontario Amusement Enterprises will present their weekly bill at the Lyceum every Friday evening at 8 o'clock, instead of Saturday, commencing tonight (Good Friday). The management has great pleasure in presenting this week Annette Kellerman, the modern Venus in her superb production, "What Women Love." This is really a special attraction in itself, but to give the people of Watford a full bill of features, the program will include that two-reel scream, "The Toonerville Trolley That Meets All Trains," also a high-class educational film.

Watford is very fortunate in being chosen by this excellent company and it is to be hoped that they receive the splendid support which their offerings so rightly deserve.

ANOTHER VICTIM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMEDEO GARCEAU

32 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1915, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the case of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

U.F.O. SECRETARY SHOWS HOW TO CRACK A SAFE

Prominent leaders of the U.F.O. were given a lesson in the art of safebreaking Thursday night. Mr. J. J. Morrison was the instructor. With the aid of a nail-file, a paper knife and a walking-cane, the U.F.O. Secretary laid bare the inner workings of the head office safe.

When the minutes of the Directors' meeting, which had been in session for several days at the Labor Temple this week, were brought down to the office, under a strong guard yesterday evening, it was discovered that the safe would not lock. With the minutes were several important documents which none of the U.F.O. leaders wished to be made public.

While the others were talking about what should be done, Mr. Morrison got to work. In a few minutes he had the whole mechanism apart, had remedied the trouble and was assembling the pieces again. After the huge door was safely locked, Mr. Morrison announced that for ten years he had been a professional "safe-breaker."

But the U.F.O. chiefs were not satisfied with the exhibition of how to close a safe. They wanted to know how to open one. This Mr. Morrison proceeded to explain.

Explosives were not necessary. Given a heavy hammer, a coldchisel, a piece of wire, and luck, and the U. F. O. Secretary would guarantee to burgle a safe in five minutes.

For ten years "J. J." travelled all over Canada opening safes after fires. But it did not pay. He gave it up to go farming.

WHICH LIVE LONGEST ABSTAINERS OR "NON?"

Kitchener, March 17.—Press reports of a statement made by G. D. Finlayson before the trade and commerce commission at Ottawa, to the effect that insurance companies have found that the life of an abstainer was usually of shorter duration than that of a nonabstainer, are the subject of much comment among insurance men of the Twin City.

Mr. McTavish, actuary of the Dominion Life Assurance Company, on behalf of whose bill Mr. Finlayson was speaking, stated to-day that the records of the company during the past four years have borne out this earlier statement. Records in the earlier years showed absolutely the reverse, but taken over the entire period of the company's life there is little difference either way.

REV. W. H. BROWNLEE DIES OF SLEEPING SICKNESS

St. Thomas, March 17.—The city lost one of its most highly respected citizens in the death of Rev. W. F. Brownlee, rector of St. James' Anglican church, which occurred this afternoon about 4 o'clock after an illness of six weeks of sleeping sickness. Mr. Brownlee had been in a critical condition for some time, and although his end was not unexpected, the news of his death will be received with deep regret by his many friends and parishioners, who are aware of the invaluable work he has done in the ministry of the Anglican church, not only in St. Thomas but elsewhere.

Mr. Brownlee was born in Brooke township in 1866, was educated in the public schools, later entering Western University and Huron College, London, where he took his degree in 1891. He was ordained as a deacon by Bishop Baldwin in 1891, and to the priesthood in 1892. After some years of travelling missionary work he was rector of Biddulph, Ridgeway and Southampton churches before coming to St. Thomas in 1910. He was one of Western Ontario's foremost Orangemen and always participated in gatherings of the Orange Order, both in this and other cities.

He was married in 1892 to Miss Lillian Hamley, of Harriston, who, with five daughters and one son, survive. The eldest daughter, Mrs. Reginald Bowler, is in Winnipeg; Frances is in her final year at Western University; Kathleen and Dorothy and Stewart at home. Miss Edith Brownlee, who was visiting her sister in Winnipeg, is expected in the city tonight.

UNDERWATER FIGHT PHOTOGRAPHED FOR "WHAT WOMEN LOVE"

Far down through the glowing opalescent water of Honolulu Bay, two figures were grappling to the death. One was the gorilla-like figure of a man; the other the slender figure of a girl.

Twenty feet above them the barnacled keel of a tramp schooner wallowed in the swell and cut off the light of the moon.

It was the strangest fight that was ever waged. The man was fighting for the girl and she fought against him, with strength born of desperation, for her honor.

The incident is to be vividly depicted on Saturday night at the Lyceum Theatre when Annette Kellerman appears in her greatest modern comedy drama, "What Women Love."

Bernard McConville, author of many of the Mary Pickford, Norma Talmadge, and Lillian Gish screen successes, wrote a wonderfully dramatic story around Miss Kellerman's ability to live under water and the gripping battle scene is just one high light in the amazing production "What Women Love," a First National Attraction, was produced by Sol Lesser, the young Pacific coast chieftain of the First National Exhibitors' Circuit. It was directed by Nate Watt, who was previously identified with the Lois Weber productions.

Wheeler Oakman, Walter Long, the famous Bull Montana, Carl Ullman and Ralph Lewis are among the famous players who support the star.

TO ALL Whom It May Concern

THE Parliament of Canada has recently passed a bill regulating the taking of the vote on the Referendum in Ontario on April 18. The points to remember are as follows:

1. Every British subject by birth or naturalization, man or woman, resident in the Dominion of Canada one year previous to February 1, 1921, and resident in the Province of Ontario for two months previous to same date, is entitled to vote, unless otherwise disqualified.
2. Voters' Lists used in the last provincial referendum are the lists to be used in this Referendum, subject to revision. Every voter in an urban polling division must be on the list, and will presumably be on the list only in the division in which he resides.
3. In incorporated cities and towns of 1,000 population or over, arrangements will be made for receiving applications from any who are not now on the list on March 29 to April 4 inclusive—except Sunday—when for six clear days officers will sit to receive such applications.
4. In rural polling divisions the voter must be either on the list or be put upon it as a resident and be vouched for as such by another resident.
5. Both affirmative and negative sides have the right to select scrutineers.
6. Women have the right to vote.

Experience in talking about billions of dollars is different from dealing with concrete facts in reference to those immense sums. A daily paper says that an expert cashier can count four thousand silver dollars in an hour, or thirty-two thousand in a day, but to count a billion dollars would require his constant work, at that rate, day after day for one hundred and two years.

EASTER

Angels brought both the messages of Christmas and Easter, yet the tidings of great joy which Easter brings to us are better even than those of Christmas. "Unto us a son is born, unto us a child is given," but the message of springtime, amid the flowers of Joseph's garden is better still "He is not here, He is risen."

The good news of Christmas had a touch of sadness in it. The Holy Child born that day was born into a sad world. He came unto His own and His own received Him not. The shadow of the cross was over His path; while on the other hand the message of Easter is all brightness, it tells of sorrow enduring for the night, but joy coming in the morning. It proclaims the world's greatest victory. It tells man of his eternal destiny. It assures man that he survives the shock of death.

The angels told the women who came early Easter morning to the tomb, "He is not here He is risen"; so we worship a living Christ not a dead Christ. If we are risen with Christ let us seek those things which are above. Let us take higher views of life. Do not let us be in the grave of sin or doubt or indifference, Jesus is not here "He is risen." Our song to-day is:—

Welcome happy morning! age to age shall say;
Hell today is vanquished! Heaven is won to-day.

S. P. IRWIN.

EASTER GLADNESS

Easter! what a thrill there is in that word! And what a liting song of gladness it awakens in the heart of man! It speaks of Earth's Gladdest Day, and its real gladness is born out of its relationship to Good Friday.

"Earth's saddest day
And gladdest day
Lay just one day apart."

A man stood looking at a picture of the Crucifixion in a shop window, and a ragged urchin was also looking at it. The man pretended to know nothing about it and said to the boy, "What's that?" The boy, astonished replied: "Don't you know that is Jesus on the Cross who died?" and he told the story of the crucifixion. "Oh!" said the gentleman, "Is it?" and walked away. In a little while he heard footsteps coming after him. It was the little boy and he said, "Sir, I wanted to tell you that He is alive again." That is the keynote of Easter gladness—Jesus Lives. So our Christain faith centres—not around a crucifix with its lifeless image, but around an empty cross, an empty tomb, and a Living Lord.

Easter tells of an unending life which even death is powerless to touch. Jesus rose triumphant over death, and the man of faith rejoices in the Master's message "Because I live ye shall live also." This faith enables the toil worn pilgrim to go down the dark valley with head erect and the glory-light of eternity shining in his eyes, singing as he goes—"There is no death."

Easter reveals a love which cannot be changed by death. Jesus came back from the grave with His love for His friends unchanged, and this fact brings untold comfort to the bereaved. Our departed ones who died in Christ are not lost to us, they will greet us in love on the other side, we shall meet them again in the Glory land if we are saved by His grace.

Easter proclaims a Risen Redeemer able to save us from our sin. The Cross tells of His sacrifice—Jesus died for us. The Empty Tomb proclaims His victory. He rose triumphant over sin for us. So Easter declares that there is Love enough and Power enough in Jesus to save to the uttermost all who will come in penitence to Him. Why not let Him save you to-day—and thus experience to the full the wonderful Easter Gladness?

T. DeCOURCY RAYNER.

EASTER'S MESSAGE

The death and resurrection of Jesus Christ are the foundation stones upon which rest the superstructure of the Christain Church and the embodiment of her most precious faith in Jesus as the Son of God and as "The first fruits of them that slept." His resurrection is the crowning evidence of his divinity. St. Paul puts it briefly but most comprehensively when he says that He died for our sins and rose again for our justification. So it will be seen that in the fact and doctrine of the Resurrection we have the basis of our securing a right relationship to God and of hope for our own resurrection and eternity with Him in glory. Our own faith thus established and confirmed brings hope and comfort to us concerning the well-being of all our friends who with us have like precious faith. The separations wrought in time are only temporary for though we all die, as indeed we must, and at different times and places yet we shall all live and the "believing" shall all live together and also together with Him, our Lord and Saviour.

Not only does the Word of God attest the resurrection of Jesus in a most positive way but in nature we have a striking illustration and a beautiful symbol in the Spring time, when after the sleep and apparent death of winter all nature strangely stirs herself and new life, out of the bosom of the apparently dead, appears and definitely demonstrates itself with much variety and rare beauty. To be able to believe in the resurrection thus by nature revealed makes it easy and natural to believe in the resurrection of the body. It is as difficult to explain the one as the other but why attempt an explanation. It is demonstrated in nature visible to all men and all men can believe; and just simply to believe brings comfort and hope and hence abiding peace.

The Resurrection is the mighty triumph of the Son of God over Sin, Death and the Grave and for us "This is the victory that overcometh the world even our faith" in the Risen Son of God.

A. C. TIFFIN.

SIGNS OF SPRING

When the women folk start wondering in accents low and dread, If it would not be well to move the cook stove to the shed; When they begin discussing a change in everything, That's a certain indication of the near approach of spring. When they hold an earnest confab 'about the carpet in the hall, And figure that a new one will be needed in the fall; When they speak of all the changes that a week or two will bring, You can bet your bottom dollar that we'll pretty soon have spring.

MAPLE SYRUP REGULATIONS

Dominion Food Inspector William E. Wilson, of the London district, has issued a notice that all containers of maple syrup must bear the producer's full name and address. Failure to comply with this law makes the vendor liable to a fine and seizure of all his supply. Whether the syrup is sold in a gallon can, a quart sealer or a milk can, the producer must have his name printed on it. It must be plainly visible to the public and the can must also be stamped "Maple Syrup". The word "Pure" said Mr. Wilson, is not necessary, as all maple syrup is supposed to be pure.

"If the product is not pure the owner is liable to a heavy fine," he asserted. The order affects all farmers in Middlesex, Lambton, Essex, Kent, Elgin, Norfolk and Brant counties. Careful inspections will be made.

OFFICIALLY APPOINTED

Mr. R. G. R. MacKenzie received official notice of his appointment as census commissioner of East Lambton, last week. The enumerators, some of whom have been appointed and who will begin their work about the first of May, will each have approximately 600 to 800 of population in rural parts and in towns and cities 900 to 1200 of population. There will be thirty-six enumerators in East Lambton as follows:

Six in Enniskillen; Four in Brooke; Three each in Bosanquet, Camden, Euphemia, Warwick and Petrolia; Two in Zone; One each in Bothwell, Dresden, Forest, Alvinston, Arkona, Oil Springs, Thamesville, Thedford and Watford.

DISTRICT MEETING I.O.O.F.

The annual district meeting of St. Clair district, I.O.O.F., of which J. C. Hampton, of Sarnia, is District Deputy Grand Master, held in the I. O. O. F. hall, Sarnia, Tuesday night, was one of the largest and most successful ever held in the district, about three hundred from all parts of the district and Port Huron attending. Port Huron Lodge conferred the second degree and Sarnia lodge the third degree on a class of nearly twenty candidates from Mooretown, Bridgen, Petrolia and Sarnia. The work of these teams was excellent and won the applause of the large number present. During the evening a Union Jack was presented to Port Huron lodge by P. J. W. Simpson, on behalf of Sarnia lodge, the presentation being accepted by P. G. Chas. VanHorne on behalf of the Port Huron lodge. J. R. McLeister, P.D.D.G.M., of Point Edward, was the recipient of a Past District Deputy Grand Master's jewel, and a jewel will also be forwarded to D. E. Leslie, of Hamilton, also a Past District Deputy Grand Master. Following the regular routine an excellent lunch was served by the ladies of the Sisters of Rebekah which was much enjoyed. The ladies are to be congratulated on the success which attended their efforts, and as an appreciation of their assistance a hearty vote of thanks was tendered by J. T. Paton, Past Grand, on behalf of Sarnia lodge. An orchestra was in attendance and furnished music for dancing and a couple of hours were pleasantly spent in this favorite pastime.

SIXTY-SECOND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

One of the most interesting events in the township of Brooke possibly in Lambton county, was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Deans, Sr., lot 3, con. 7, on Tuesday, March 8th, when their children, grandchildren and great-grand children gathered in the honor of the sixty-second anniversary of their wedding day, and also Mr. Dean's 80th birthday. Mrs. Deans being 81 a few weeks ago.

During the evening they were presented with two beautiful oak rocking chairs with best wishes of the assembled company.

Few couples are spared to celebrate their golden wedding day, fewer still to celebrate the diamond anniversary and still fewer to be hale and hearty at the 62nd wedding day.—Alvinston Free Press.

SPRING WEATHER

HARD ON BABY

The Canadian spring weather—one day mild and bright; the next raw and blustery is extremely hard on the baby. Conditions are such that the mother cannot take the little one out for the fresh air so much to be desired. He is confined to the house which is so often over-heated and badly ventilated. He catches cold; his little stomach and bowels become disordered and the mother soon has a sick baby to look after. To prevent this an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets should be given. They regulate the stomach and bowels, thus preventing or banishing colds, simple fevers, colic or any other of the minor ailments of childhood. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TAKING THE CENSUS

For taking the census of Canada which begins on June 1 next, the sum of $1,620,000 has been set aside in the estimates, which will make the cost about 18 cents for every man, woman and child in the Dominion if the population proves to be nine million. The number of enumerators to be appointed is 24,000, and their work in the coming census will be much easier than formerly. There are thirty-six questions in the population schedule. In 1919 agricultural statistics were taken on four schedules, and at this census on one. As annual census figures are now obtained regarding agriculture, mining, fishing, mortality and industry, it was possible to reduce the schedules and questions greatly. The four schedules concern; First, population, with supplementary schedule on the blind, etc.; Second, the agriculture schedule, with name of every farm in Canada, its owner, and details concerning it; Third, the census of animals not on farms, but in towns and cities. The pay to enumerators is five cents for every name on the schedule, 30 cents for details of every farm, 10 cents for every entry concerning animals and gardens in cities and towns, $4.50 in Central Canada and the Maritime Provinces for every hundred names in lieu of expenses for horse hire, etc., $6 per hundred in the Prairie Provinces, and more in British Columbia.

CANNOT BE CENSUS OFFICIALS

The Department of Statistics at Ottawa will notify the Assessment Commissioners in each riding that it will not be permitted to make any appointments of any officials connected with municipal councils to the position of enumerator or any other position in connection with the taking of the census. The reason for this is that there is a lot of information which the Government will require to be taken and which will be of a confidential nature. The Government desires to make it impossible for this information to be used for taxation purposes, either for Municipal, Provincial or Dominion legislatures. This prohibition will extend to Reeves, rural councillors, road masters, etc., or any person connected in any way with Provincial or Municipal offices.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Germany seems to possess the idea that the Allies should pay them for quitting when they did.

For every hour in the year the city of Welland is paying $12 on debentures and interest.

What is the best fire preventative asks a contemporary journal. The answer is, the price of coal.

The bill to introduce a Divorce Court in Ontario has met so much opposition, that it will likely be dropped.

The only wages that were not affected by the war were the wages of sin. They have remained constant.—Kingston Standard.

Germany denounces the bill as a crime against civilization. Well, there's a country that ought to know a crime against civilization when it sees one.

You can get a full course dinner including a bottle of wine in Paris, France, for nine cents. That would not be enough money for the waiter's tip in Canada.

Hon. J. C. Doherty, Minister of Justice, stated in the House that the ballot boxes for the temperance referendum in Ontario are being made by convicts in the penitentiaries.

It would be interesting to discover the number of persons who have violated the O. T. A. and who never broke any other law. We have an idea that if they could be rounded up and fined, the financial problems of the Province would be solved for another generation.

The editor of a certain journal when pressed for details regarding its circulation replied: "This paper goes from Hudson Bay to the Gulf of Mexico; from the Pacific to the Atlantic. Only the fact that its editor works at night prevents it also from going to Hades."—Ottawa Journal.

After six years as chairman of the Ontario License Board, J.D. Flavelle Thursday announced that he was quitting the position on June 1. He declared that there had been no friction or unpleasantness with the Hearst Government or with the present Government. Mr. Flavelle will return to his home in Lindsay.

It's an odd day when a European scientist does not discover something that everybody else has known for a generation. For instance, one has now discovered a disease which manifests itself in an unconquerable desire to write. "Gramphomania" is the new Greek name for the mental ailment that used to be called by the partly Latin partly Greek name "scribendi cacoethes."

A scientist has explained to Toronto that the reason why the winter has been milder than usual is that "The trade winds being stronger this season, they have carried larger masses of warm water into northern regions and a warmer winter in Canada has resulted." If he will now tell us what caused the trade winds to blow stronger the whole secret will be out.

Cultivate the old-time honest practice of returning the articles you borrow as soon as your job is completed. Take a day and gather up your neighbors' goods and don't stop until you land them at the home of the owner. When a man has to phone for the loan of his own step, ladder, cross cut saw, etc., it is time ownership rights were looked up. Not of course not, you never intended keeping them, but why don't you take them back?

P. O. D., writing from England says: The English woman on the streets is no longer the demure and self-effacing person we had been led to believe. It may have been due to the war or to the demoralizing influence of wealthy tourists. But dowdiness is certainly the last thing one would dream of attributing to the woman on the streets of London today. In fact we have been led to wonder how much more they could take off for evening functions other than that of going by-by.

A British Admiralty memorandum on naval estimates referring to the naval policy for consideration at the coming Imperial Conference says that the lines on which it is proposed to proceed are towards the development of Dominion navies under the administrative and executive command of their own officers, each navy being a responsibility for its own Government, all working, however, under the guidance of a common doctrine to ensure intelligent co-operation in a universal system of staff training. It is proposed that a certain number of Dominion officers shall each year take a course in the naval staff college, the Dominions eventually establishing their own staff colleges under the same system.

Radical changes in the system of conducting inquests are proposed in a report by the Public Service Commission tabled in the House by Hon. W. E. Raney. The object of the changes is the elimination of the multiplicity of coroners and inquests. Under the plan laid out public inquests will be held, not by physician coroners as at present but by the local or district magistrate. The doctor however will not be eliminated for provision is made for the holding of preliminary investigations by Associate Coroners who will be medical men. These preliminary inquiries will permit of the facts being secured and upon these facts the Crown Attorney will determine whether a public inquest is necessary. If he believes the circumstances advise it he must so notify the magistrate who may sit either with or without a jury.

The Cobourg Post is responsible for this: "Taxation is the collection of payment for public services. By public services we mean streets, sewers, lights, police, schools, etc. Public services should be paid for as all other services are paid for, that is, according to the value of said services. The value of your house, furniture, garage, auto, etc., is not and cannot be the measure of the public services you have enjoyed. To tax a man on the value of his house as payment for public services is just like charging a man for a suit of clothes by the value of his auto. Taxing a man on the value of private property for public use without compensation—in other words stealing by due process of law. When a man builds, paints or improves his house, he pays for these services to the painter and builder. Why, then, should he be called to pay for these services a second time to the town that did not build or paint—in fact, rendered no services and delivered no goods? To increase a man's assessment merely because he rendered a private service to himself, and, incidentally to the public, through improvement, is, to say the least, unreasonable. If your butcher going past your door, and noticing that you had painted or improved your house, went back to his shop and sent you a bill for twenty pounds of steak that he had not delivered, and did not intend to deliver, you would say he was both a fool and a crook. Then, in the name of common sense, why should the town do a like foolish and dishonorable thing?"

WHEN DAY BEGINS

Different nations have had their own methods of punctuating time. Our calendar follows the Romans in the day at midnight; for all practical purposes we reckon it from sunrise to sunrise. The Athenians and the Hebrews, however, began their day at sunset. In the story of Creation we are told "And the evening and the morning were the first day." This Hebrew habit of beginning the day at sunset has survived even to our own time in regard to the day of rest. The whole significance of Burn's "Cotter's Saturday Night" is lost if we forget that to the Scotch Presbyterian Saturday night was a part of the Sabbath. The week's cares were thrown aside when the peasant saw, in the evening shadows the beginning of the Lord's Day.

CHOP STUFF

Malcolm Blue has been appointed road overseer of Dunwich township at a salary of $900 per annum, such official being now necessary since statute labor was abolished.

Mrs. Mary Perkins of Petrolia lost a son by death in London, Eng., on March 3th, and a daughter in Marine City, Mich., on March 4th. The former was 68 and the latter 70 years.

At a meeting of shareholders and creditors of the Lambton Knitting Co. Ltd., held on Tuesday afternoon it was decided to make a voluntary assignment to Osler Wade, of Toronto. The company's liabilities are about $50,000.

Mr. Neil McDougall, I.P.S., Petrolia, has returned from Toronto where he was near Mrs. McDougall during an operation performed upon her by Dr. Starr, of Toronto. The operation we are glad to state, was a successful one, although it will be a month before the patient will be able to return home.

Burglars entered Cuddy's hardware store and Keyser's pool room, Strathroy, on Thursday night and carried away several Ingersoll watches, safety razors and flash lights from Cuddy's, and about $15 worth of cigarettes from Keyser's. Entrance was gained at Cuddy's by prying open a rear window, and to Keyser's by prying off the lock on the front door.

The funeral of the late John McConnell took place from the family residence, Plympton, on Thursday. Deceased was aged 88 years and 10 months. He had been ill for some time. His wife, three daughters and one son survive, namely: Mrs. H. Whiffon, of Detroit; Mrs. H. Berry, Plympton; Miss Lottie and Thomas, at home. Rev. W. H. Fry conducted the services and interment was made in Wyoming cemetery. The pallbearers were six nephews.

Michael Hillyard, aged about 26, is in Strathroy Hospital suffering from a compound fracture of the arm and a fractured skull, suffered while he was working at a wood "buzzing" bee at the farm of D. Gardiner, near Mount Brydges. He died next day. The saw and engine when set up, were found to be out of position and the engine was being moved when the belt came off the saw pulley. Hillyard tried to put it on while the saw was still running from the momentum and was carried around the pulley.

The death occurred on Sunday at the family residence of Lavina Neeland, wife of Dr. O. E. Brandreth and grand-daughter of Rev. Williston and daughter of Rev. John Neelands in her fifty-first year. Mrs. Brandreth was born in Strathroy and was a member of the Methodist church and took an active part in all church work. Mrs. Brandreth though in failing health was able to be around until Friday when she suddenly took very ill. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, Basil of the Royal Bank staff, Kitchener, and Preston and Morley at home. The funeral took place from the family residence on Tuesday with interment at the Strathroy cemetery.

Mrs. John Morgan, a well-known and highly respected resident of Kerwood, passed away on Thursday, March 10, at the Strathroy General Hospital, where she had been a patient for six months. Deceased was in her seventy-seventh year. She leaves three sons: Truman, of Castor Alberta; Dr. Walter, of Roslin; and Meredith, at home. The funeral service was held on Sunday at 2 o'clock from her late residence and was in charge of the Rev. C. J. Moorhouse, pastor of the Methodist church here, of which she had been a faithful member for many years. Rev. John Morrison, of Sarnia, a dear friend of the family, assisted the pastor. During the service Miss Beatrice Foster sang a solo entitled, "Some Sweet Day." This was by request of the deceased. The pallbearers were her six nephews. The beautiful floral offerings showed the esteem in which she was held. Interment was made at the Strathroy cemetery.

Miss Mary Mansfield is taking two weeks vacation from her regular duties owing to the illness of her father.

Mr. Taylor of the English & Miller Machinery Co., Detroit, was here this week repairing one of our welders.

served. We expect Mr. H. P. Elliott, Consulting Engineer, London, to address this meeting.

The machinists are very busy these days erecting shafting in our new factory and are long the whirr of machinery will be heard in that section.

Didst notice our new heading? With Easter so near at hand and most everyone exhibiting a new creation in millinery we thought it time that the Androck Corner had a new head piece too.

Now we know Spring is here, for has not AH launched operations in beautifying our grounds. He says he is going to run opposition to the Horticultural Society's efforts on our New Post Office Site. If an early start indicates anything he sure has it all over them like a tent.

SEEING SNAKES

(Toronto Star.)

As birds do a great deal of harm to the cherry crop, a way of scaring them off, as given by Senator McLean, of Connecticut, is worth publishing in Ontario. In the south robins and other birds in the winter learn to give a wide berth to the black snake, which is very fond of birds. The senator says if you cut an old garden hose into four foot lengths and put a length of this into each cherry tree, the robins, thinking each piece of hose is a black snake, will keep a long way from those trees.

"MY ONLY BROTHER DIED 150 YEARS AGO," HE SAID

"Have you no kinsmen to help you?" was asked of a poor man who applied for relief in Brussels a few days ago.

"My only brother died 150 years ago," answered the applicant.

Amazing as was his statement, it proved to be true.

A still more extraordinary lapse of time between the birth of two brothers is recorded by Henry Bellender-Ker, a well-known English lawyer of the early nineteenth century. One of the witnesses in a probate action in which Bellender-Ker was engaged was asked if he had any brothers or sisters. He replied "My only brother died 152 years ago."

A murmur of incredulity ran through the court, yet documentary evidence was produced to confirm the old man's statement. His father had married at the age of nineteen, and by this wife had a son who died in infancy. He married again at the age of seventy-five and had another son, the witness, who was ninety-six, when he gave his evidence.

The Fox family can show a remarkable record of this type. There were only two generations in the direct line of descent between Sir Stephen Fox, who was born in 1627 and (so it is said) attended Charles I. on the scaffold, and the third Earl of Ilchester, who died in 1858. Thus it happened that of two aunts of Charles James Fox, one, his father's half-sister, died in 1653, and the other, Lady Sarah Napiner, his mother's youngest sister, died in 1828.

The Maude family is another long-lived line. Captain Francis Maude, R.N., was born in 1798 and survived until 1886. His paternal grandfather was born in 1673, and his father, the first Lord Hawarden, in 1729. The three generations covering 213 years. Lord Hawarden married in 1777, for his third wife, a bride of eighteen, who died in 1851. There were thus 122 years between the birth of the husband and the death of his wife.

THE VALUE OF A GROUCH

Generally speaking, people as a rule haven't much use for the man with a grouch. The man with the cheerful, sunny, joking disposition usually finds the glad hand extended in his direction, and he is counted a good fellow. That's all very well as far as it goes, but a man like that is imposed upon right along. If there are any stale groceries to be gotten rid of, the grocer sends them to him; if the butcher has any particularly tough meat, the good-natured man gets it; likewise if anybody has to be disappointed in any work ordered or goods delivered, the genial cuss is always the victim. "He's a good head he won't mind," is the way they size him up, and he's sure made a mark for things that other people wouldn't stand for a minute. Usually he's good pay, too; never haggles over the price, and pays in advance. But it's the grouchy customer, the known kicker, who gets the service and the best quality goods. Clerks fall over themselves to give the grouch prompt and efficient service, though they do say mean things of him behind his back. What does he care—he's getting what he wants, isn't he? So that in a sense it pays to be grouchy. I've frequently noticed that the people who give the shopkeepers the most trouble and are the hardest to please, are the ones who invariably get the best service and the best quality of goods.

A BIT OF HUMOR!

ON HIS DIGNITY

A small boy, who was sitting next to a very haughty woman in a crowded car, kept sniffing in a most annoying manner, until the woman could stand it no longer.

"Boy, have you got a handkerchief?" she demanded.

The small boy looked at her for a few seconds and then, in a dignified tone, came the answer.

"Yes, I've, but I don't lend it to strangers."

EXTRAVAGANCE

Two oysters were in a big pot full of milk, getting ready for stew. Said one oyster to the other:

"Where are we?"

"At a church supper," was the reply. Whereupon the little oyster said:

"What on earth do they want of both of us?"

HARD BOILED

The sweet young thing was being shown thru the locomotive works.

"What is that thing?" she asked, pointing with her dainty parasol.

"That," answered the guide, "is an engine boiler."

She was an up-to-date young lady, and at once became interested.

"And why do they boil engines?" she enquired again.

"To make the engine tender," politely replied the resourceful guide.

Somebody sent the editor of the Puketown Gazette a few bottles of home brew. The same day he received for publication a wedding announcement and a notice of an auction sale. Here are the results:

"Wm. Smith and Miss Lucy Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm one mile east of a beautiful cluster of roses on her breast and two white calves, before a background of farm implements too numerous to mention in the presence of about seventy guests, including two milk cows, six mules and one bobbed. Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot with 200 feet of hay rope and the bridal couple left on one good John Deere gang plow for an extended trip with terms to suit purchasers. They will be at home to their friends with one good baby buggy and a few kitchen utensils after ten months from date of sale to responsible parties and some fifty chickens."—Exchange.

ABSENT-MINDED

A minister had a habit of forgetting something he had to say in the pulpit. Then, after sitting down, he would arise and begin his supplementary remarks with, "By the way."

Recently he finished his prayer, hesitated, forgot what he was about and sat down abruptly without closing. In a moment, however, he arose pointed his finger at his amazed congregation, and exclaimed:

"Oh, by the way—Amen."

BREVITY

An instructor in short story writing, drilling his class in selection and compression of details, illustrated his lecture with this story:

Two Maine farmers, who were noted for their brevity of speech, met one morning on the village road. They both drew rein.

"Mornin', Zeb."

"Mornin', Hank."

"What did you give yer hoss when he was sick?"

"Turp'ntine."

"Turp'ntine?"

"Yep."

"Git-ap."

That was all.

Next morning they met again.

"Mornin', Zeb."

"Mornin', Hank."

"What did you say you gave yer hoss when he was sick?"

"Turp'ntine."

"Turp'ntine?"

"Yep."

"Killed mine."

"Killed mine."

"Git-ap."

"Git-ap."

GLAD HE TRIED THE TONIC TREATMENT

Through Its Use Strength and Vigor Was Restored.

To be tired after exertion is natural. Rest and food restore the body to normal after such fatigue. But to be tired all the time is a symptom of an anaemic condition that will not be corrected until the blood is built up.

Such an anaemic condition is so gradual in its approach and generally so lacking in acute pains that it is often difficult to persuade the sufferer to do anything for it. But it is not a condition that corrects itself. If the blood is not enriched the trouble will increase. The nerves will be undermined and neuralgic pains will follow. Digestive disturbances often result from thin blood, sleep is disturbed and a general breakdown may occur.

Mr. Wilson Johnson, Ninevah, N. S., says: "A few years ago my system was in a badly run down condition. My nerves seemed always on edge, and I found myself so weak that I could hardly do any work. I suffered from headaches and from pains in the back and under the shoulders, and was often so sleepless at night that when morning came I felt as tired as when I went to bed. I was taking medicine all the time, but it was doing me no good. Then I read the testimonials of a man whose condition had been similar to mine, and who strongly recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to give this medicine a fair trial, and when I had taken six boxes I felt much better. I continued taking the pills until I had taken six more boxes, and I can only say I am glad I did so, as I am now enjoying the best of health, and I advise all men who feel run down to give these pills a good trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

STENOGRAPHER HAS BEST CHANGE TO EARN BIG RESPONSIBILITIES

Was the title of an article in a recent issue of The Toronto Sunday World, the result of an interview with Miss M. McMahon, President of the Canadian Business Woman's largest Employment Bureau.

There is unlimited opportunity for advancement and success ahead of the conscientious well trained stenographer.

Business firms are always on the lookout for young men and women who understand business transactions and how results are arrived at from their proper record in a set of books; those who can write and read shorthand fluently and transcribe it in good English accurately and rapidly on the typewriter. The capable and wide awake young person who is willing to learn can soon make themselves indispensable to the firm with which they are connected.

The regular stenography course as given in the Sarnia Business College gives the requirements of education for a successful business career. You may commence this course on March 29, the first Tuesday after Easter, the beginning of the Spring Term, which continues throughout the summer months. Those interested should write for information.

ONE WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Of Interest to Childless Women.

Toronto, Ontario.—"I suffered for a long time from a female weakness, inflammation, and a terrible backache caused by that condition. One day one of your booklets was left at my door, and I read how other women with troubles like mine had been made well, so I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash, and it helped me wonderfully, and I now have the finest little baby boy that any mother could want. I want to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who has female troubles."—Mrs. JOSEPH LA BELLA, 773 Shaw Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong, and this good old fashioned root and herb remedy contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

DO NOT LEAVE CURRENT ON

Electrically-heated appliances suffer most from frequently being left with current on when actually not in use. This may be avoided for three good reasons: (1) It wastes current. (2) Excessive heat impairs the finish. (3) It is apt to injure the heating elements, which will reach a much higher temperature than the regular working temperature and damage is done.

So that to leave your electric iron without being in use and with current on all the time means a heat that burns off the nickel, burns off the soleplate and does the heating element no good. The best way to make sure that the current is off is to pull out the switch-plug at the appliance; never turns off the current at the lamp socket unless the switch-plug is out.

THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS

In announcing an increase in subscription to $2 per year, the Kincardine Review thus goes into relative values: "When the present publisher of The Review bought the business, a year's subscription would buy a cord of wood two feet long. Now we have to give the paper for three years for a cord of wood sixteen inches long. Since then all the products such as we buy directly or indirectly from hundreds of our subscribers have increased in the same ratio. The $1 we got from the farmer for The Review would buy 8 to 12 dozens of eggs, from 6½ to 8 pounds of butter, from 15 to 20 pounds of fresh beef or pork, 2 to 3 bushels of potatoes, 18 to 20 pounds of fowl, while now a year's subscription will only buy us a peck of potatoes, less than two dozen eggs, 3 or 4 pounds of beef or pork and about two pounds of bacon. Flour was, in those days, only $2 to $2.25 per 100 pounds; today it is $7.00. We could add more to this list to make the comparison complete but these are sufficient to show any reader that he or she is still getting the best of the deal in an exchange of commodities. A newspaper at the new price is still the cheapest article that can be purchased today."

PREPARED TO MARRY

A certain clergyman always felt it his duty to give each couple a little serious advice before he performed the marriage ceremony. He usually took them aside one at a time, and talked very soberly to each regarding the great importance of the step they were about to take and the new responsibilities they were to assume. One day he talked in his most earnest manner for several minutes to a young woman who had come to be married. "And now," he said, in closing, "I hope you fully realize the extreme importance of the step you are taking and that you are prepared for it." "Prepared!" replied the bride, innocently. "Well, if I ain't prepared, I don't know who is. I've got four common quilts and two nice ones, and four brand new feather beds, ten sheets and twelve pairs of pillow slips, four linen table cloths, a dozen spoons and a new six-quart kettle, and lots of other things."

FATHER GNAM ABSOLVED BY POPE

Rome, March 17.—Bishop Fallon of London, Ont., has been authorized by the Holy See to absolve Rev. Philip Gnam, a priest who was excommunicated by a Consistorial decree in May, 1914.

This is the sequel to a quarrel between Bishop Fallon and Father Gnam over the French language and school question.

The case arose when Father Gnam who was in charge of the parish at Wyoming, Ont., questioned the right of Bishop Fallon to remove him to another parish. The case dragged through the civil courts and was carried to Rome, when Father Gnam committed a breach of Church law in calling the Papal Delegate before a civil court as a witness. Father Gnam was ex-communicated. Later he admitted that he was in the wrong, and made a public apology recently, and has been reinstated, and is now in charge of the parish at Aylmer, Ont.

"THEM WERE THE HAPPY DAYS"

I'm thinking now to-day about, the days of long ago, When winds and sun began to melt the deep Canadian snow, As father then would smile and say, I guess we'd better tap The maple trees back in the bush, and get a run of sap.

We kept a few score buckets then, stored somewhere in a loft, And when the sun was getting warm and snow was melting soft, We'd get them down and scrub them out 'till all were clean and sweet, And get the spiles and boiling pan all ready and complete.

Then if Old Sol kept on the job, we'd find a brace and bit, And hitch the team up to the sleigh and take the whole outfit Back to the lot where maples grew, stored with their sweetened sap, Just waiting for the spring to come when Dad would start to tap.

What sport it used to be just then, when days were bright and fair, To gather in the sparkling sap and watch the fire's glare, And see the sap within the pan boil to an amber glow, As hour by hour the boiling mass would sweet and sweeter grow.

And if the run was good and long we'd boil far in the night, And set and watch the shadows dance around the fire light, 'Till Dad would say—I guess she'll do, we'll draw her off right now, For mother will be waiting home to warm us up some chow.

And when the sugaring-off day came, O how we youngsters then Would beg to stay at home from school and work like little men, So we could have a chance to pour hot taffy—don't you know, Out in a pan to cool awhile on freshly gathered snow.

Ah yes, "Them were the happy days," my memory's calling yet, If I could just go back again, I'd surely go, you bet, And gather sap and cut the wood to keep the fire aglow, And eat my fill of taffy hot, poured on a pan of snow.

Reminiscence of forty-five years ago.

THE RAILROAD CLASSIC—FINNIGIN TO FLANNIGAN

(Published by request.)

Superintendent was Flannigan;
Boss av the siction was Finnigin;
Whiniver the kyars got off the thrack
An' muddled up things 't' th' devil and back,
Finnigin writ it to Flannigan.
Ather the wreck was all on' agin;
That is this Finnigin
Reported to Flannigan.

When Finnigin first writ to Flannigan,
He writen tin pages, did Finnigin,
And he told just how the smash occurred;
Full minny a tejus blunderin' wurrd
Did Finnigin write to Flannigan
Ather the kyars had gone on agin.
That was how Finnigin
Reported to Flannigan.

Now Flannigan knowed more than Finnigin—
He'd more idjucation—had Flannigan,
An' it wore'm clane and completely out
To tell what Finnigin writ about
In his writin' to Mister Flannigan.
So he writed back to Finnigin;
"Don't do such a sin agin;
Make 'em brief, Finnigin!"

When Finnigin got this from Flannigan,
He blushed rosy rid—did Finnigin;
An' he said; "I'll gamble a whole month's pa-ay
That it will be minny an' minny a da-ay
Before Superintindint that's Flannigan,
Gi' a whack at this very same sin agin,
From Finnigin to Flannigan
Repports won't be long agin."

Wan da-ay on the siction of Finnigin.
On the road sup'rintinded by Flannigan.
A rail gave way on a bit of av a curve
An' some kyars went off as they made the swerve,
"There's nobody hurted," sez Finnigin,
"But reports must be made to Flannigan,"
An' he winked at McGorrigan,
As married a Finnigin.

He was shantyin' thin weiz Finnigin,
As minny a railroader's been agin,
An' th' shmoky ol' lamp wuz burnin' bright
In Finnigin's shanty all that night—
Bilin' down his repoot, was Finnigin!
An' he writed this here; "Muster Flannigan:

EMMER AND SPELTZ

Judging from the number of enquiries received here, at other agricultural institutions, and by the agricultural press, it appears that much confusion exists in the minds of the farming community in regard to Emmer, Speltz and "Speltz". A few words of explanation, therefore seem desirable.

Emmer and speltz are closely related cereals which resemble wheat, but differ from it by retaining the chaff when they are threshed. This retention is due to two causes, first, the tightness of the chaff around the kernel, and second, the brittleness of the head, which causes it to break very readily, and therefore, makes it more difficult in ordinary threshing to extract the kernels.

There is no such thing as "Speltz" and there is no such word in the English language. When this word is used Common Emmer is the grain which is meant.

Common Emmer is the most valuable of all the varieties of emmer and speltz, but it has been too much advertised and praised by parties who had seed for sale. For ordinary climates it is certainly inferior in usefulness to the grains more commonly grown. It may, however, prove valuable in some cases in very dry districts. It resists drought and rust better than ordinary wheats but it cannot take the place of these, because the kernels do not thresh out clean. Special machinery would have to be used if it were required to remove the chaff. Emmer, therefore, must be compared with other grains and not with wheat. As a rule farmers will find it more advantageous to grow barley or oats than to grow Common Emmer, particularly in climates where there is a reasonable rainfall.

The average yield of Common Emmer during the last eleven years on the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa, has been a few pounds less than that of the most productive spring wheat, and considerably less than was obtained from the highest yielding varieties of oats and barley. The other emmers are less productive, and many of them are coarser than Common Emmer. All the spelts are extremely coarse, and cannot be recommended for use under any circumstances in Canada.

Dominion Cerealist.

CARE OF SEED POTATOES AND PREPARATION FOR PLANTING

(Experimental Farm Notes)

For an early crop, it is a common practice to take the seed tubers to a light room of about 60 degrees temperature by the 20th March, to give them four to six weeks to warm up and sprout. A thick green sprout not more than a half inch long is wanted. The exact gain in growth from this treatment has not been determined. In one trial at the Experimental Station, Fredericton, the difference in growth as between seed so treated and seed taken immediately from the cellar was very slight. Plants from the sprouted seed were only from two to three days ahead of the others.

To kill any spores of common scab and to some extent, Rhizoctonia, the potatoes should be treated with a disinfectant. The safest to use is formalin, at the rate of a pint to 30 gallons of water. The tubers are best bagged and then immersed for two hours.

Investigators are now trying out methods of disinfection whereby the use of heat and greater strength of solution will materially hasten the process of disinfection.

Experiments have proven quite clearly that the most economical way to use seed is to cut to sets weighing not less than one ounce and not more than two ounces, with from two to three eyes to a set. Cutting by a machine or a cutting board may be economical in large commercial operations, but as when using these the size of sets and number of eyes cannot be well regulated nor elimination of internal disease carried out the advantage of speed may not be good economy.

To make sure that no sets infected with Black Leg, Fusarium Wilt, Late Blight and other possible troubles are planted, the best procedure is, first, to throw out all cut and bruised tubers, cut a thin slice off the stem end and then discard any tubers showing discoloration. Two knives should be used, one kept standing in a can of formalin solution; immediately a discolored potato is cut, the knife used should be put in the disinfectant and the other knife taken.

As the sets dry out quickly when cut and will heat if left in piles or barrels, they should be coated with dust, Gypsum, or land plaster, is one of the best materials to use, and if from two to four quarts is spread through the barrel of seed the sets will keep cool and firm with out deterioration for days and even weeks. Air slaked lime is frequently used and sometimes road dust and sulphur. Lime, if not thoroughly slaked, may injure the eyes and make the sets unpleasant to handle. W. W. HUBBARD, Superintendent, Experimental Station, Fredericton.

THE EXPERIMENTAL FARMS SYSTEM

Remark has several times been made in Parliament and elsewhere that the splendid work performed by the Experimental Farms System of Canada is not nearly so widely known and appreciated as it should be. In the Agricultural Gazette of Canada for January there appears an outline of the systems and the tasks in which it is engaged. The Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa is the headquarters of the twenty branch or auxiliary farms and stations. It is stated that there is one farm in each of the provinces of Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, and Ontario, two in Nova Scotia, four in Quebec, two in Manitoba, three in Saskatchewan, two in Alberta and four in British Columbia. There are also two sub-stations in Alberta, two in the Yukon and one in British Columbia. In addition, working with the system are tobacco stations at Farnham, Que., and Harrow, Ont. At all of these experimental and research work of national importance is carried on. Eighty illustration or demonstration stations have also been established in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Quebec, Alberta, and Saskatchewan. Each branch of agriculture is dealt with in actual ex-

A Friend of the Family

Over fifty years ago a young physician practiced widely in Pennsylvania and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. R. V. Pierce, who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions, which he called "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores in the United States and Canada, so that the public could easily obtain this remarkable tonic, corrective, and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks without alcohol—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Introduce pure red blood into the system, and health is assured. When you feel run-down, out of sorts, blue and despondent try the energizing influence of this reliable tonic. You can obtain Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form at all drug stores, or send 10c for a trial package to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y.

OIL BEARING SEEDS

(Experimental Farms Note)

The number of plants which bear oily seeds is very large. Some of the most important of these such as the Oil Palm, Brazil Nut, Peanut, etc., cannot be cultivated in Canada.

Among those which have been tried in this country or which are worthy of trial are Flax, Hemp, Soy Bean, Sunflower, Castor Bean, Opium Poppy, and Rape.

It is unnecessary to say anything about Flax which furnishes the valuable Linseed Oil so extensively used in the manufacture of paints, varnishes, linoleums, etc.

Hemp has ripened seeds each year for several years past at the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa. Hemp seed oil, though not equal in this respect to Linseed Oil, has good drying properties and is used for paints and varnishes, soft soaps and for edible purposes.

Four varieties of Soy Beans obtained from different parts of the world have ripened seeds satisfactorily at Ottawa for several successive years. The oil content averaged a little over 20 per cent. The oil is extensively used in China and Japan for edible purposes and the cake forms a valuable cattle food. In this country the oil is used mainly for soap-making. It has considerable drying properties and is also used to some extent for making paints.

Russian Sunflowers have been cultivated with success at Ottawa. They are valuable honey plants and the dried stems can be used for fuel. Some specimens reached a height of 10 feet with heads 15 inches in diameter. The kernels may contain as much as 50 per cent. of oil. The oil has a pleasant taste and is used to some extent for edible purposes, for making soap, and to some extent for varnishes.

The Castor Oil Plant is grown mainly in warm or tropical countries but ripe seeds have been obtained each year from a number of varieties grown at Ottawa. The worst feature about this plant is that each seed-capsule bursts when ripe and scatters the seeds to some distance around, thus necessitating frequent collection of the seeds by hand. A variety was grown last year which does not appear to have this objectionable feature and will be further experimented with. An analysis of the whole seed, made by the Dominion Chemist, showed from 39 to 47 per cent. of oil present.
