FEMALE INFIRMARY

OF

ALL DENOMINATIONS.

GENERAL COMMITTEE :

The Managing Committee and ~~the~~ the Collectors. dele

MEDICAL ATTENDANTS :

DR. ASH.	DR. HIGGIN,
DR. DAVIE.	DR. POWELL,
DR. DICKSON,	DR. TRIMBLE.

The Female Infirmary is supported by monthly subscribers, whose contributions are received by Ladies, who visit from house to house in the districts respectively assigned to them for that purpose.

The medical attendants render their services gratuitously in monthly rotation; each also conducting to its termination the case which he first attended.

The internal duties of the Infirmary are wholly performed by one person, Mrs Ford as Matron, Nurse, and Housekeeper, who receives for her services $25 per month wages, and $5 per week for board, together with fuel and lights. dele

The Ladies of the Managing Committee visit the Infirmary in monthly rotation.

PATIENTS dele

Patients have been admitted into the Infirmary during the past year (most) of which have been cases of great severity. Of these, three have died, and ~~two~~ several have been discharged convalescent. ~~The Infirmary~~ many home and a blessing in time of need to the suffering women. All since

During the past year, Mrs Harris resigned the office of President, and received the unanimous thanks of the Association for her energetic discharge of its duties. By a unanimous vote of the Association, Mrs Hills was elected President. dele

The refusal of the House of Assembly to assist the Infirmary may justify a few words of explanation. Before the Ladies' Association was formed, no provision was made for the sick of the female sex. The Royal Hospital being designed only for men, the surgery, the kitchen, the clothes room, became in turn, in case of emergency, the extempore female ward. The promoters of the Female Infirmary provided for their first patients in private houses. Afterwards, the Managers of the Royal Hospital, having acquired additional accommodation, appropriated a Ward to the use of the Ladies' Committee, who fitted it up at their own expense, paying the Managers $8 a week for each patient, and $5 a week for their nurse's board.

for each patient, and $5 a week for their nurse's board. Several reasons induced, or rather necessitated, a change: first, the intervention of the Indian village, always offensive, and sometimes dangerous, for the visiting ladies; secondly, the difficulty of carrying out their own arrangements in another establishment, to which may be added divided medical opinions as to the salubrity of the site. Under these circumstances, the Ladies' Committee removed their patients from the Royal Hospital, and, by the aid of the public, have erected a handsome building on a noble site, where they are gratified to inform the subscribers they have been able to provide for their patients at nearly the same cost as at the Royal Hospital.

The refusal of the House of Assembly to grant the sum of $250, in lieu of a similar sum voted by them last year in aid of the Building Fund, but not paid, has entailed some inconvenience on the Managers, inasmuch as, relying on this grant, they incurred expenses which they would either have avoided, or have provided other means of defraying. The debt of the site and Building Fund is now $

They confidently rely on a benevolent public to enable them to defray the debt thus contracted, and to aid them in their exertions on behalf of a class of whatever denomination or nationality who have no other refuge but their sympathy.
