KERSHAW & EDWARDS,

ESTABLISHED YEAR 1838.

IMPROVED FIRE PROOF SAFE.

The favor these Safes have won by their many and severe trials during the last quarter of a century, from the fact that not one has ever failed in preserving its contents thoroughly establishes their reliability, and with recent improvements made during the past two years, we offer them as the most perfect Fire Proof security extant, and free from dampness.

Our Burglar Proof Specie Boxes made of combined iron and steel in a manner peculiarly our own, the steel so highly tempered and placed as to be beyond the reach of, and defy the tools of the most ingenious burglars, and when placed inside of one of our Fire Proofs produce a most perfect Fire and Burglar Proof security. Merchants having large amounts of silver on hand should not be without one.

We also manufacture Patent Combination Bank Locks, and the most modern Bank and other securities.

THE TRADE REVIEW.

MONTREAL, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1886.

THE COMING INFLATION.

NEVER has so much money been poured into the Province as during the past six months. We have had a bountiful harvest of all kinds of crops, and have obtained high prices for our wheat, our barley, our wool, our lumber and every article we have had to sell. The producers having had plenty of cash, the storekeepers have participated in their good fortune. Old debts here have been paid, and new goods have been profusely ordered. Manufacturers have shared in the general prosperity, home manufactured articles of all kinds having rapidly gone into consumption. Forwarders have been busy too, as the Railway traffic returns abundantly indicate. Now, as always happens, this will have its effect; indeed it is already having a very sensible influence on real estate, and we foresee an inflation like that from which we have been suffering so terribly ever since 1857. Farm lands in remote situations will again become the objects of speculation; and vacant town lots, which yield nothing but a plentiful crop of taxes, again be sold at fabulous prices per foot.

Now as in a panic a causeless fear seizes on bodies of men, so in a time of inflation an unreasonable thirst for speculation seizes on those who had no call to enter its giddy eddies. Our advice will therefore probably be for the most part wasted. Yet it may be read and taken to heart by some of our many readers, and we therefore warn them thus:

Let not the tradesman invest one shilling that he can profitably use in his business in farm lands or village lots. This has been in years gone by, and will again be, the ruin of hundreds, aye, of thousands who were doing a safe, steady business and who were surely, if somewhat slowly, advancing on the road to fortune. You buy for a small part cash and a large part credit—you hear people refusing large sums for properties similarly situated to yours—you hold on for a farther rise—you think the tide is still advancing—when all at once the crash comes—you are left with an estate which brings you in no revenue, but which costs you more for interest on unpaid principal than you can spare.

Neither should the farmer be induced to pay too much for new land. Farming, after all, resembles other business—you invest capital expecting a reasonable interest for it, and as you can only expect to realize a certain average amount for the crops to be taken off a hundred acres of land, it is sheer madness to give so much for those hundred acres as to reduce your interest to a ridiculously low figure. Farming land should be singularly stable in its price, bearing a constant and almost unvarying ratio to the average price of grain.

1-ly Montreal.

Nor should the manufacturer lose his wonted caution, and overstock the market. People cannot consume an unlimited quantity of any article. And a market overstocked in time of general prosperity leads to fearful loss when hard times check the general demand. Thus prudence, a virtue at all times, is especially valuable during a mania for speculation. It is harder to exercise it in prosperity than in adversity. It is therefore especially to be inculcated now.

Our Currency and our Accounts.

Our currency is recovering from its derangement. Silver is no longer at a ruinous discount, and one can give four silver quarters for a dollar debt without feeling that he is virtually robbing the receiver of some four cents. But other irregularities remain which should be removed—we mean the diverse local ways of reckoning. One man will count in dollars and cents—another in Halifax pounds, shillings and pence—while in many districts people still reckon by so many shillings, sixpences and threepences York. Let persons of education everywhere discourage such habits, and let the decimal system be the only one sanctioned by the community at large. Still more should the custom be discouraged of keeping accounts in any other way than in dollars and cents. Many large houses, even in Montreal, still make out their bills in £. s. d., and we have lately heard of a public officer whose books have for years been kept in francs and sous. All this complicates business, and embarrasses not only strangers but even our own people. It is an evil which can easily be avoided, and one for perseverance in which no good reason can be assigned.

Oil becoming King.

Petroleum is becoming king in Western Canada. The oil fever seems to be rapidly spreading. It is almost impossible to keep trace of all the new places where wells are commencing, or that it is asserted they have "struck it." We believe there is no doubt that the "precious liquid" was tapped last week in a well belonging to the Scotch Company at Bothwell, and a splendid fifty-barrel well has been struck at Petrolia, between Wyoming and Oil Springs. New wells are about to be commenced at London, the Township of Soho, and many other places. A sale of 400 acres of oil lands on the banks of the Thames, near Kilworth, is reported at $20,000.

Furs.

The Leipsic Fair has not terminated so well as expected, and is no longer a criterion of the London Fur sales. Unless the winter should be very severe, buyers will not realize the high prices lately paid, and must submit to a loss. Minks, we learn, are declining in the United States, and consequently must fall here.

THE LAW OF ACCUMULATION.

EVERYBODY knows that money makes money, but it is not everybody that pays attention to the modus operandi by which this is brought about, and to the practical consequences which follow.

Schoolboys are taught the rule of compound interest, but nine out of ten of them forget all about it for the remainder of their lives. Yet this principle has more to do with the accumulation of large fortunes than any other cause whatever, and it has bearings on the increase of wealth and on the ratio style of expenditure, both personal and national, of which the practical character cannot be overrated.

We read in the papers a few months ago of the death of an eminent London capitalist, who left the enormous fortune behind him of three millions sterling. This old gentleman was over ninety years of age at his death, and it is pretty evident that he was a man of quiet habits and moderate expenditure, letting his capital accumulate from year to year by its own natural force. Now it is only when it has been in operation for a long series of consecutive years that we see what the force of compound interest is. For the first few years the augment is almost imperceptible, but when once the power of increase has become developed, it goes on at an augmenting ratio, until the results are almost incredible. There can be little doubt that in the case just mentioned, the wealth accumulated after the natural duration of life had been reached was far more than in all the seventy years previous.

If money can be invested at eight per cent, and the interest re-invested at the same rate, it will double itself in nine years. Allow ten years for this to take place, owing to loss of time in re-investing, and we reach the remarkable conclusion,—remarkable, we mean, to those who have not thought about it,—that if a man can lay by a thousand dollars at one and twenty, and let it accumulate at compound interest, it will amount to the enormous sum of thirty thousand dollars if he lives to the age of seventy, to sixty thousand at eighty, and to a hundred and twenty thousand at ninety. This is the secret of the large fortunes of the great bankers and capitalists of Europe, whose money goes on accumulating for generations, and augments with prodigious rapidity after thirty or fifty years have passed on.

The great house of Baring have kept a banking account with the firm of Martins, Stone & Co. for a hundred years back, and it was a well known saying of Mr Thomas Baring, that he made a point of never having less than a hundred thousand pounds at his credit.

The process, however, may be reversed. A man saves or spends a thousand dollars needlessly, by the time he is one or two and twenty. What is the effect?—If he lives till seventy he will be thirty thousand dollars poorer for it.—We will say—he will have lost the chance of being thirty thousand dollars better off than he is.

We then arrive at the general truth, that the younger a man is the more valuable money is to him.—We have seen that a thousand dollars is to a man of twenty-one, as the making of a fortune, but a thousand dollars to a man of fifty would be of comparatively small account.

Suppose a man begins life with economical habits, and by rigid self-denial accumulates five hundred pounds by the time he is twenty-five. That sum will amount to a competency by the time he desires to be free from the cares of business, and he can then (and indeed for years before) have the pleasure of laying out his money freely, and without fear, in gratifying his tastes or in doing good.

But if he is inclined to gratify his tastes when young—to buy—we will say—expensive furniture, or to mingle freely in society, so that he never saves at all until he is fifty and forty, what good will five hundred pounds do him then?—It is of course good in itself, but as the foundation of a competency it is utterly inadequate. It would only amount to two thousand pounds at sixty-five, and not to a competency till long after threescore and ten.

The points of the whole matter are therefore this.—Every dollar saved in youth is worth thirty dollars in old age; every hundred dollars spent in foolery or idleness before five and twenty is simply three thousand dollars thrown away of provision for the time when work must be a burden.

Let our young men of business think of this. They are exposed, on entering life, to innumerable temptations to spend. Let such be steadily resisted. The true course in youth is quick saving and careful economy. Bye and bye a time will come when this will bear its legitimate fruits. Then is the time for open-handed freedom in expenditure, when the judgment is matured, when a knowledge of the world is acquired, and when capital has been accumulated to such an extent that even if there is no more saving, there need be no further anxiety.

We may extend the same principle, and it will apply with equal force to the finances of a nation.—When a community is young, every thousand dollars is of consequence, for a thousand dollars foolishly spent will amount to a burden of more than twenty thousand on the following generation. If a community has to borrow at six per cent, the accumulation of principal and interest will amount to thirty thousand dollars in fifty years. It is when we consider how young Canada is as a country that the amount of our debt becomes so very serious a matter. Every million of dollars foolishly or extravagantly spent, or spent in matters of an unproductive and useless character—and alas! how many millions have been so expended—will be equivalent to a burden of thirty millions of dollars within the life time of a number of our children. Doubt it as we may, pool-pool it as many may be inclined to—there is no possibility of escaping from the laws of finance, by which taxation for foolish expenditure goes on accumulating until it amounts to ten or twenty times the original principal, and augments to a greater ratio as time rolls on.

Take the Parliament Buildings as an illustration.—No one, we think, will question that those buildings are as good and as costly as the people of Canada, fifty years hence, would be entitled to. There can be little further question as to the fact that for a million of dollars less than the buildings have cost, every possible requirement of the present day could have been met. We have therefore anticipated the requirements of fifty years hence, and spent a million dollars for the convenience of a coming generation. But what is the effect of it? That coming generation will be some thirty millions of dollars poorer by reason of our thoughtless folly. That extra million will have drawn from the products of the pockets of Canada in fifty years as much money in the shape of taxes as would produce at least thirty millions if judiciously invested, and considerably more, if employed in business.

To this it may be replied that the people would spend so much more if they were not taxed, and that for this reason the true increase is at simple interest, and not at compound. This however is a bare assumption. What we have to consider is the pure possibility of the case, and considered in this light, our conclusion cannot be questioned.

Let us never forget, in considering proposed expenditure, that Canada is a young country, nor fail to forecast its effects on the future. Nothing can be more fallacious than to compare ourselves with countries which have within themselves the accumulations of long generations, and no greater folly can be perpetuated than to measure ourselves by their standard. When we are fifty years older, we may do things with freedom which would ruin us now.

One word as to private saving before we close. Let not man starve either his body or his mind, for the sake of the accumulations of future years. That policy would defeat its own object. Neither let him refuse to give what may be righteously expected of him. That would be dishonourable.

ONLY ONE COURSE OPEN.

OF the many important questions pressing for solution in the United States, there is none of more momentous importance than the conversion of the currency to a specie basis. Matters at present are in a very unhealthy, not to say dangerous position. The immense issue of paper currency during the war has produced its natural effects. Prices have become inflated to an extraordinary extent; speculation has become wild and reckless, and a false and delusive prosperity is beginning to affect the public morality. The danger of a financial collapse is daily becoming more imminent, and can only be prevented by the wisest legislation.

Under these critical circumstances—which may affect Canada as well as our neighbours—it is gratifying to think that there is a man at the head of the Treasury department at Washington, who seems to be equal to the emergency. On the occasion of a banquet recently given to the Hon. Mr. McCULLOCH at Fort Wayne, he entered freely into the consideration of the state of the National Finances, speaking with a candour, patriotism, and ability, which prove him to be a statesman of no common order. He fearlessly told his audience that the business of the United States is in an unhealthy condition—that they are measuring values by a false standard—that an inflated currency is converting the business of the country into gambling, seriously diminishing the labour and industry of the people, and sappling the public morals! Nor did the Secretary of the Treasury stop here. American officials, particularly after a good dinner, generally paint public affairs with the couleur de rose. Not so, Mr. McCULLOCH. With rare but admirable candour, he pointed out that, unless a remedy were provided, this speculation and excitement could have but one end—a terrible financial crash. If Congress enacts proper legislation, to use the Secretary's own words, "we shall reach it probably without serious embarrassment to legitimate business. If not, we shall have a brief period of hollow and seductive prosperity, resulting in widespread bankruptcy and disaster."

Mr. McCULLOCH's remedy for the dangers which assail American business, is a reduction of the great volume of paper currency afloat, and a speedy return to the gold basis. Like the Hon. Mr. Galt, the Federal Secretary is a "hard money bigot." He denounced "an irredeemable paper currency as an evil," only to be adopted in extraordinary and unusual circumstances. "The present unconvertible currency of the United States," to quote from his speech again, "was a necessity of the war, but now that the war has ceased and the government ought not to be borrower, this currency should be brought to a specie standard." He thinks this desirable result can best be attained by Congress adopting such measures as will "authorise the funding of the legal tenders." This being done, the work of reducing the volume of the currency must be gone on with resolutely but carefully and prudently.

Many of the leading financiers of Europe believe that our republican neighbours can adopt no expedients which will long stave off serious financial troubles. Mr. McCULLOCH takes a more hopeful view of the financial situation, and we sincerely trust that his expectations may be realized. The greater portion of his remarks at Fort Wayne are worthy of a statesman occupying his exalted position, and if the threatened financial tornado can be averted, he has certainly pointed out to his nation the true path to solvency and safety. American finances may at present be compared to a balloon, which, during four years of civil war, the Federal Government has inflated and re-inflated until its silken sides have strained and swelled high unto bursting. Mr. McCULLOCH perceives the danger, and hopes to prevent the threatened catastrophe by opening the safety valve, and gradually decreasing the expansion until the danger is past. This policy is begotten of a sound statesmanship, and if heartily sustained by the American Congress, may avert that financial storm, the dark clouds of which must soon dispel the artificial sunshine which momentarily envelops the land.

Those Canadians who advocate the issue of an unconvertible currency for this Province, will find very little comfort in Mr. McCULLOCH's views. So strong an advocate of a specie standard is that gentleman, that he went so far as to say that,—“I have myself no more doubt that these metals (gold and silver) were prepared by the Almighty for this very purpose, than that iron and coal were prepared for the purposes in which they are being used.”

This is taking very high ground. We certainly approve of the gold basis, but we cannot subscribe to the doctrine that it is the only basis which could be adopted. The recent articles in Blackwood's Magazine abundantly demonstrated, that making the quantity of gold regulate the volume of currency in a country has its disadvantages as well as its advantages. We can easily understand how a nation like Great Britain could, in the way suggested by the renewer, issue a certain amount of paper currency without causing either inflation or speculation. To consider this point, however, would lead us into a vast field of thought, not contemplated at the beginning of this article; so we must leave its elucidation to some more favourable opportunity. We would only say, in conclusion, that while an increase of our circulating medium might be beneficial to Canada, we should be careful to avoid wild experiments in irredeemable paper.

THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

AMONG the wonders of America, the City of Chicago is not the least. She is among cities what Jonah's gourd was among plants. Compared with the growth of the cities of the old world, Chicago has literally sprung up in a single night! Her progress has been unexampled in the world's history—and who can estimate what it will be in the hidden future? The resources of the boundless prairies which surround her may also be said to remain untouched, for it is estimated that not over one-eighth of the great West is yet under cultivation. When these magnificent lands are thickly settled, and their riches fully developed, what may not Chicago become? Looking into the dark vista of the future—say to the year 1900—who can predict the size, population, and wealth, of this extraordinary city?

PROGRESS IN POPULATION.

The statistics of the progress and trade of Chicago are full of interest to any thoughtful mind. We have collected some of these from a reliable source, and have pleasure in presenting them. Commencing with population, the rise of Chicago has been unexampled. The following are the returns for each decade since it was a mere collection of huts:—

Year.	Population.
1830.....	70
1840.....	4,853
1850.....	29,963
1860.....	110,973
1866 (estimated).....	196,000

We have been unable to find a statement of its progress in wealth, but it has doubtless been as marvelous as its growth in population. Some idea on this point, as well as the amount of capital employed in the city, may be formed by reference to a single branch of its trade, that is—

THE GRAIN TRADE OF CHICAGO.

The following figures show the quantity of grain (including flour reduced to wheat) shipped from Chicago every five years since 1838—a period of 27 years:

Year.	Bushels.
1838.....	78
1843.....	588,907
1848.....	3,001,740
1853.....	6,412,181
1858.....	20,086,166
1863.....	54,741,839

The shipments for 1864 did not equal those of 1863, amounting only to 47,124,494 bushels. This quantity was composed as follows:—Flour, 1,287,545 barrels; wheat, 10,249,830 bushels; corn, 12,740,549; oats, 16,470,929; rye, 898,536; and barley, 327,431 bush. When the amount consumed in the city is also considered, the trade must be considered enormous, and it gives employment to a whole army of produce dealers, commission merchants, brokers, and others. The famed "elevators" are capable of storing 9,935,000 bushels at one time.

THE HAY AND CATTLE TRADE.

Chicago now surpasses Cincinnati and St. Louis in pork and beef packing. During the past seven or eight years this branch of the city's trade has made rapid strides. The live and dressed hogs received during and since 1860 were as follows:—

Year.	Live.	Dressed.
1860.....	235,149	107,715
1861.....	549,189	128,868
1862.....	1,110,971	287,919
1863.....	1,848,868	888,894
1864.....	1,267,097	143,228
Total.....	4,556,219	949,614

The greatest portion of these hogs were packed in Chicago, over fifty firms being engaged in the business. The number of cattle received in 1867 was only (in round numbers) 48,000, but last year the number had swelled to 848,000! Of this number 92,459 head were packed in the city—an increase of 22,000 over the previous year. Since the year 1860 the cattle trade of Chicago has increased within a fraction of 100 per cent—a rate of increase probably unparalleled.

LUMBER AND WOOL.

We cannot give all the statistics possessing interest connected with Chicago trade, but we make room for the returns of lumber and wool—two articles in which this Province is interested. There has been very little increase in the trade in lumber since 1856. The following figures show the receipts of that article for the past five years:—

Year.	Lumber.	Shingles.	Lath.
1860.....	262,494,628	127,894,000	36,601,000
1861.....	249,308,705	79,355,000	32,587,000
1862.....	305,674,045	131,255,000	23,580,000
1863.....	413,801,818	172,864,378	41,768,000
1864.....	501,592,406	190,169,750	65,953,000
	1,732,871,600	701,089,628	200,889,000

The great bulk of this lumber trade was received through the lakes, and was shipped by the leading railways west and south. The trade in wool does not appear to be so large as at some other points. In 1855 the quantity forwarded was 2,158,462 lbs.; in 1860, it had declined to 839,269 lbs., and in 1863 it came up again to 8,435,967 lbs. Last year, however, shows a large increase. The receipts were 4,304,388, and the shipments no less than 7,554,879 lbs!

NUMBER AND TONNAGE OF VESSELS.

The immense trade of Chicago gives more employment to lake vessels than several other cities united. Deduct the enormous quantities of freight which centres in Chicago, and inland ship-owners might exclaim: "Othello's occupation's gone." The largest number of vessels engaged in commerce on the lakes was in 1863, and were comprised as follows:—

Description.	Tonnage.
124 steamers.....	51,522
286 propellers and tugs.....	78,035
143 barkantines.....	63,651
84 brigs.....	24,142
1,095 schooners.....	225,868
16 sloops.....	725

Total tonnage for 1863..... 470,034

We have no means of ascertaining the exact number of these vessels trading to and from Chicago. We find the clearances from that port in 1864, however, set down in the city statistics as follows:—Number of vessels, 8,824; seamen, 77,055; and tonnage, 2,166,904. This statement is doubtless made up by counting the number of vessels, seamen, and tonnage, every time a clearance was made.

OTHER BRANCHES OF TRADE.

The above facts will help our readers to form some idea of the extraordinary growth of Chicago, and the immense trade carried on by its citizens. But it should not be forgotten that we have only mentioned a few of the leading features of its business; we have said nothing of its trade in butter, fish, salt, lead, seeds, and other articles, which largely assist in swelling up the aggregate.

THE FUTURE OF CHICAGO.

The people of Chicago have a very good opinion of themselves. This led to the clever hit of Artemus Ward, who declares that Chicago would surpass all the cities of the United States, "did it not, unfortunately, lack confidence in itself!" But badinage apart, probably no city in the world has more reasons to boast of its progress and prosperity than Chicago. It may be truly called one of the wonders of this continent, and in the future it bids fair to rank among the great cities of the world, and become the centre of political power in the great Republic of which it forms a part.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

NOTES OF DECISIONS.

AN insolvent agreed upon a certain composition with his creditors, and was to give them notes endorsed by one of the creditors—call him Smith; another party, Jones, gave Smith a guarantee to protect him against these endorsements. Smith had to pay these notes; and upon his suing Jones upon the guarantee, it was proved that Smith had a secret bargain with the insolvent that he was to be paid in full, although he had represented to the other creditors that he was taking the same composition as they. It was decided that this secret bargain vitiated the whole transaction, and that Jones was not liable upon his guarantee.

It is a settled principle of the courts of equity that the representations of a party to a contract, upon which the other party has relied, and which have been the ground of his contract, must be bona fide and true. Accordingly, where persons are induced to become shareholders in a company by untrue and deceptive statements in the company's prospectus, the contract founded on these statements will be set aside in a court of equity. It has also been decided that not only active misrepresentation will render such a contract voidable, but if the prospectus of a company withholds information as to a fact material to the position of the company, and on which it is necessary that an intending shareholder should exercise his judgment, the court will set aside a contract founded on that prospectus.

On the dissolution of a partnership, each partner is, in the absence of any special agreement, entitled to trade under the name or style of the old firm. A business had for many years been carried on under the firm name of B. & Co. B. died, and his wife for a time continued on, by agreement, in the partnership. The widow and the surviving partner afterwards dissolved by mutual consent, and no stipulation was made as to the use of the name of the old firm. The widow trades under her own name, B.; and the other partner under the style of B. & Co. An injunction was applied for by the widow to restrain this use of the old firm name. It was proved that orders intended for the widow, had been sent to the other house; but still, as there was no fraud shown, the injunction was refused.

A short act was passed in the last session of the legislature to correct a mistake that had been made by many Justices of the Peace. By the former law, the oath of qualification could only be taken before another Justice of the Peace for the same county, but a number of these oaths were made in ignorance before Commissioners. In all these cases the magistrates who acted upon such qualifications were liable to a penalty, and to remedy this, and render valid all past and future oaths of the kind made before Commissioners or clerks of the Peace, the act was passed.

Eastern Townships Trade.

We are pleased to learn from our correspondent at Stanbridge that the exports of agricultural products from the Townships to the States continue with unabated vigour, and at high prices, viz.: Butter, 30c.; fat hogs, live weight, 8½c.; oats, 1c. per lb. &c., &c. There were forwarded from Stanbridge Station, on the Montreal and Vermont Junction Railway, for the two weeks ending the 21st ultimo:

40,000 pounds of butter.....	value.	$12,000
5,400 " of cheese.....	"	540
3 car loads of oats.....	"	714
1 " " flax seed.....	"	1,060
9 " " sheep and lambs.....	"	6,750
3 " " hogs (fat).....	"	4,000
2 " " cattle.....	"	1,800
2 " " lumber.....	"	600
4 " " bark.....	"	200
Potatoes, eggs, &c., &c.....	"	1,000
Total.....		$23,454

Much larger quantities of oats would be shipped, if the railway company could furnish cars.

The amount sent off from other stations, and by other means, will be as much more, thus making the exports from Missisquoi, Brome, and Shefford, nearly, if not quite, $60,000 for two weeks. One interesting fact is that at least $24,000 of this is for butter, which was the production of not more than the two weeks, as the shipments have been regular, and the high prices have brought it forward as fast as made.

Since our last, trade has improved considerably, many buyers from the West having made their second and third appearance. Stocks of Staple Goods of many descriptions are getting very scarce indeed, and sell rapidly on arrival.

GREY COTTONS—Are almost entirely out of the market, many houses not having a piece to sell. Every steamer, however, will bring a reasonable quantity of these and other staples, but the prices will necessarily be much higher; in fact, we think, as high as at any period during the past four years. A good deal of American Cotton Yarn has been brought into this market during the past few weeks, and to show the demand, we need only say that a higher price has been obtained than at any previous time.

Reports from Manchester by the last two steamers show a continued advance, and increased difficulty in placing orders. This fact will prevent the anticipated accumulation of stock in this market in November and December.

LINEN GOODS—Continue to advance. Every steamer brings advanced lists, with, in some cases, a proviso to the effect that all orders will be subject to the list in existence at the time the order shall have been received. Flax is up considerably, and there is an anticipation of a still further advance. We would urge upon Canada farmers the importance of preparing to cultivate this fibre more extensively than ever. It will be found a highly remunerative one, as there is no fear of overstocking the market by too large a production.

CANADA WOOLLENS.—Desirable makes are getting very scarce, and the few in hand will be left over this season.

Indications now are that stocks of all goods will, by the new year, be very light, a desirable position, certainly, for all parties concerned.

Since our last issue business by private sale has been rather quiet, the trade sales of Teas on account of Messrs. I. Buchanan & Co., and Gillespie Moffatt & Co. having deferred buyers from operating prior to results of these auctions. We notice a large number of the trade from all points of Canada are in the city, and prices are likely to reach high for all fine grades of Teas, which are scarce and undoubtedly much in demand. Quotations by private sale are very firm for all desirable kinds on offer. Sugars are unchanging. Coffee is in good supply and moderate demand. Tobaccos firm. Molasses steady. Raisins in active demand and in short supply at advanced rates, with prospect of a further advance. In other goods we have no change of importance to notice; the auction sales pending should establish prices for the season.

As we go to press we notice result of the sale of cargo of Teas, ex Guiding Star, for account of I. Buchanan & Co. The figures realized—particulars of which will be found annexed—establish an advance of from 5c. to 10c. per lb. on all grades of Greens. Young Hysons reached as high as $1.08, and Gunpowders the unprecedented high figure of $1.18 per lb. Much spirit was evinced in the bidding, and the entire cargo was disposed of:—

The market is still very excited in all heavy goods, with an upward tendency, particularly in bars and pigs. A large demand for bars has arisen from Quebec, which have been filled at our highest quotations, and in many instances 20 to 80c. extra have been charged for sizes that are scarce. Many shelf goods are entirely out of the market, in consequence of the non-arrival of three Liverpool ships, which are now about given up as lost. Hence staples of all descriptions are higher now than they have been for some time.

PIG-IRON.—Many brands are entirely sold out; although sales have been made latterly at our quotations, small lots command 24 to 25 dollars; some large lots are still offered for 22 to 22½ dollars net cash.

BOILER-PLATES—Are not to be got unless at 50 to 60 cents advance on last week's quotations, except for thick sizes.

CANADA PLATES—Have advanced fully 50 cents per box, and very few are held in the market.

CUT NAILS.—The makers have entirely sold out and have given notice that no orders can be accepted, for delivery before January. The lots however held by the trade are still selling at our quotations, but firmer than usual.

Prices at present in all departments of the trade are decidedly in favour of the seller.

The hardware trade in Britain is in a most flourishing condition. The different manufacturers have their hands full in filling orders. In Birmingham the orders are so large and numerous, that working for stock is not now carried on to any extent. This certainly is a very encouraging prospect. The orders from America are very extensive, and the English Houses are perceptibly improving their business with this continent, notwithstanding the efforts being made by the Americans to produce articles similar in quality to those of Birmingham. The Iron Trade Circular of Messrs Charles Ryland & Sons, says, with reference to this subject:—

"The revival in export trade with that quarter is really extraordinary, as will be seen from the fact that the shipments of British manufactures from Liverpool during the past month were more than fourfold those of the corresponding month of last year, and exceeding about 70 per cent. the largest exports in any previous month of September on record."

Leather Market.

There is nothing of any particular interest to note this week. Every description of stock is having a better enquiry. The demand is also likely to hold out, at any rate, until navigation closes.

In SPANISH SOLE there is no great activity. Prices are nominal.

Of SLAUGHTER SOLE there is not much stock in the market, and the enquiry is of a very limited character.

In ROUGH the market is bare. A slight advance could be obtained on our last week's quotations.

WAXED UPPER has had a good demand during the week for Canada West, and is considerably reduced in stock. As many as a thousand sides have been disposed of since our last report. Unless the receipts improve to some considerable extent shortly, the prices must continue to favour sellers, as the stock is now very limited.

SPLITS—Some slight additions have been made to the stock; but prices have not been affected, as the demand is not very urgent.

PATENT AND ENAMELLED—Not in so good request this week, nor any prospect of an early improvement.

BUFFED AND PEBBLED—Good demand. Choice lots find ready sale on arrival.

CALFSKINS—Good demand for heavy weights, while there is but a limited stock on hand.

SHEEPSKINS—There have been no receipts of any consequence, and the market remains in about the same condition as noted last week.

HIDES.—Stocks are at present very light. The rates which can be obtained in Montreal for these articles would not, at present, warrant their importation. In Chicago Dry Salted can be had in any quantity. Green Salted are quoted in the West at from 9c. to 10½c. per pound, American currency.

Gold Fluctuations.

The following table, showing in a condensed form the fluctuations in Gold in New York since the suspension of specie payments up to the end of the past month, will be useful for reference:—

October 31	145	145	145	145	145	145

It will be seen by this table that the lowest price this year, 128½, was touched in May, and since then there has been a steady advance, the highest point being 149, on October 6th, and after that ranging at about 145. The highest point was in July of 1864, when 235 was reached.

Money Market.

Since our last issue, Sterling Exchange has declined still further, in sympathy with the New York market. A considerable amount will probably be sold to-day at about 109½ for cash, which may be quoted as the Bank rate. On this day week Exchange in New York was 109½, while yesterday it dropped to 108½. It is therefore probable that parties wishing to make remittances will take advantage of the low rates, and a considerable amount will, no doubt, be sold. A slight increase has taken place in the price of Gold in New York, as will be seen by the following figures:—

Commercial Education.

The Commercial College, established by Messrs. Bryant, Stratton and Clark, has been in successful operation in the City for the past year. It is one of a chain of Colleges in forty different cities, and if we are to judge from testimonials of eminent Americans, their operations in the United States have been attended with considerable success. Many young men who have attended the Colleges in Montreal and Toronto, have been very much benefited by the practical course of study. We understand that arrangements are being made in Montreal for increased facilities in tuition during the coming autumn and winter. The following from the Board of Trade of Chicago is very flattering to the institution:—

BOARD OF TRADE OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO,
SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Chicago, July 5th, 1865.

MESSRS. BRYANT, STRATTON & CO., CHICAGO:

Gentlemen,—I have the honor to enclose you a copy of Preamble and series of Resolutions adopted by this Board at their session to-day.

Very respectfully yours,
JNO. F. BEATY,
Secretary.

WHEREAS, This is eminently a practical age, in which a thorough business education is the surest guarantee of success, therefore

Resolved, That this Board of Trade hail with pleasure any Educational Institution which affords facilities for qualifying the young for the practical duties of life.

Resolved, That this Board commend Messrs. Bryant, Stratton & Co.'s Commercial College of this city, (one of a chain established in the principal cities of the Union,) as an institution affording unusual facilities for obtaining a business education, and meriting the unparalleled success it has received.

Resolved, That this Board accept the polite invitation of Messrs. Bryant, Stratton & Co., to attend the evening lectures and discussions of their Convention, to be held in this city during the present month.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing Preamble and Resolutions be sent to Messrs. Bryant, Stratton & Co.

The above is a copy of Resolutions adopted by the "Board of Trade of the City of Chicago," on 'Change this day,
CHICAGO, July 5th, 1865.

Secretary.

WEEKLY PRICES CURRENT.—MONTREAL, NOV. 2, 1865.

Large table with columns: NAME OF ARTICLE, CURRENT RATES. Lists prices for various goods including Groceries, Wine, Hardware, Soap, etc.

THE PRODUCE MARKET

The past week has been a very dull one in the flour trade, and although no material concession in prices was accorded, buyers only purchased at or under the lowest quotations current, choice brands being quite unsaleable, except at a price below their comparative value.

Provisions remain firm and unaltered, while Ashes alone have marked a steady advance through the week, closing very firm, and anxiously sought after.

FLOUR.—The general features of the market last noted have continued with little variation. Arrivals are light for the season, but fully equal to the demand, which, for the most part, has been restricted to single hundred or broken parcels for the supplying of actual wants. Prices of the higher grades are nominally unchanged, the transactions being few and unimportant. Proposing purchasers for Quebec and Lower Ports have persistently held off for lower prices, only buying to supply immediate and pressing wants. Supers and the lower grades have therefore moved slowly, and in most instances at some decline from nominal rates; $6.15 to $6.25 have been current rates for strong Canada Superfine, as well as for City and Canada brands from Western Wheat. The general asking price in store is $6.30, but for some days past nothing of note has been done over about $6.20 to 6.25. The improved tone of British advices, added to the recent advance in the Western States, consequent on short receipts of wheat and flour, imparted additional firmness at the close, and induced somewhat more enquiry, though not justifying any advance in prices. The quotations of last week for all grades may therefore be repeated.

BAO FLOUR.—The supply, though not very large, has been ample for the demand, and although no decline of consequence can be noted, sales at former rates have been slow and difficult to effect; $3.35 to $3.40 for best, and $3.30 to $3.35 for ordinary are current rates.

OATMEAL.—Although the offerings have been small, sales have been made with some difficulty, even at rates in the vicinity of inside quotations, we still quote $1.75 to $1.85 as the range for all descriptions, but transactions have mainly been at $1.75 to $1.80.

WHEAT.—The receipts continue small, but the demand has been so languid that to effect sales, lower rates have been submitted to. Latest transactions in Milwaukee have been at $1.15. U. C. Spring is nominally $1.20 to $1.25, but sales are few, as arrivals are mostly direct to millers.

PEASE.—Have arrived sparingly, and have met a healthy demand; good samples bringing $8 to $9 cts. ex car, and $9 to 90 cts. adnat per 65 lbs. They are still wanted, and all arrivals for a time are likely to sell promptly at present rates.

OATS.—Owing to the decline in the leading American markets, the demand has fallen off, and little has been done during the present week. Holders do not press sales, while proposing purchasers suspend transactions till prices in the States are more settled and reliable.

BARLEY.—Continues without notable change, the transactions on the spot are few, and prices mostly nominal.

PORK.—Continues to be held at full prices. Transactions are limited, and in the absence of any probability of early supplies, the present rates are likely to rule for some time to come.

BUTTER.—Receipts are still very light for the season, and, with a fair demand, all desirable parcels have been taken almost on arrival at 23c. to 25c. for good and choice, and a proportionate reduction for medium and inferior. The supply of strictly choice is everywhere short of the demand, and while ordinary is comparatively neglected, fine qualities, fit for city and local trade, are readily taken at full prices.—British advices quote a high range for choice, but very little demand for inferior, and the same is the case in both Boston and New York, where the accumulation of unsaleable descriptions begin to press heavily on the market.

LARD.—Remains unaltered—the demand is the merest retail—the stock being long ago exhausted.

TALLOW.—Good qualities command previous rates, but buyers are not willing to purchase heavily, as it can be laid down at lower prices from the West.

ASHES.—Under the influence of favorable news from Britain prices have advanced to about $6.15 to $6.20 for First Pots; Inferiors being also salable at $6 to $6.10. Pearls are in small supply and less affected, and we quote $5.80 to $5.85 for firsts; inferiors $5.70 to $5.75. Receipts of all kinds are light, but the very remunerative prices now ruling will probably serve as a stimulus to manufacturers to produce more largely than at the low rates lately current.

Stock Market.

There has been a fair amount of business done this week, and the demand continues good for those Banks paying their half-yearly dividends on the 1st December at improved rates—Bank of Montreal having been sold at 116; Ontario Bank at 104; City Bank at 101. Upper Canada is in better demand, 31 having been paid. Merchants Bank has advanced to 106, with good demand, and Bank of Toronto is enquired for at 104.

Buffalo Robos.

The sale of Robos, which took place at the Hudson's Bay Co warehouse, Thursday, 2nd instant, went off with great spirit, and high prices were realized. No 1 Mole Skin, $11 each and others in proportion. Country dealers must govern themselves accordingly.

Live Stock.

The quantity of live stock imported into England during the first eight months of this year exceeded that of the same period of last year by more than half. The number received up to the 31st August, '65, was 646,871, against 406,114 to 31st August, '64—an increase this year of 240,750, or 59 1/2 per cent.

2 1/2 PER CENT.

THE system of charging simply TWO AND A HALF per cent. on the NET cost of all goods held by the subscriber, has been a complete success, and cannot but commend itself to the earnest attention of close buyers and the Trade generally. The undersigned, having had a long and varied experience as an old and practiced buyer in the British and Canadian markets, and the command also of the best cash facilities for purchasing upon close terms, can and does lay down large assortments of Staple Dry Goods, both British and domestic, at prices very much under the rates usually ruling in Toronto; whilst the mode of charging a merely nominal commission of two and a half per cent. upon the net cost price, has, since the time of its adoption, resulted in a large and steady increase of business. Country merchants particularly, and the Trade generally, both in town and country, will best consult their own interest by calling and examining the Stock of Staple Dry Goods in the different departments, and the plan upon which the business is conducted, and are respectfully invited to do so.

Dry Goods Jobber,

ASPHALTE ROOFING FELT,
SHIP SHEATHING FELT,

WATERPROOF INODOROUS FELT,
HAIR FELT FOR COVERING BOILERS AND STEAM PIPES.

Manufactured by McTEAR & Co., Belfast.

THIS FELT is the Cheapest Roof that can be made, costing one-fourth the price of Slates, and much less than Tin or Sheet Iron, while it makes a most durable light roof, and requires very little support. It is much used as a lining under Slated or Tiled Roofs, zinc or lead Flats, and under floorings, to protect the ceiling beneath from wet or damp, and at the same time a seducing sound. It is a valuable lining for Granaries, Warehouses, etc., as rats, mice, insects, or other vermin will not touch it. This Felt suits any climate, as it does not crack from change of temperature, and being non-conducting, resists the heat of the sun and the cold of the frost.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU and SARSAPARILLA for Non-retention or Incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation, or Ulceration of the Bladder, or Kidneys, Diseases of the prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel or Brick Dust Deposit, and all Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, and Dropsical Swellings.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weaknesses arising from Excesses or Indiscretion.
 The constitution once affected by Organic Weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmbold's Extract Buchu invariably does. If no treatment be submitted to consumption or insanity may ensue.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH will radically exterminate from the system Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure, completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury, in curing these unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, immediate in its action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from Broken-down or Delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is sure to affect his bodily health, mental powers, happiness, and that of his posterity. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

 secret of ingredients. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EX-
