CHANGES RECOMMENDED.

To the Delegates to the Methodist General Conference of 1890:

The following are the alterations in the Book of Discipline, 1886, recommended by the "Commission on Revision of Discipline" appointed by the last General Conference. They are now sent to you in order that you may be prepared to act upon them when they are submitted to the approaching General Conference.

TORONTO, August, 1890.

JOHN J. MACLAREN, A. CARMAN, D.D.,

Secretary. Chairman.

Changes Recommended.

1. Either entirely omit or largely condense paragraphs 63 to 71 inclusive, also pars. 76 to 84 inclusive, as being sufficiently covered by the other portions of this chapter.

2. Par. 90, line 8. Strike out the words "member or" as being inappropriate.

3. Par. 101, line 2. For "(in the Church)" substitute "(at a meeting of the members of the Church)" or, "(at a meeting of the members of the class)."

4. Par. 105. Change to: "The General Conference shall be composed of an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates, elected as hereinafter provided, and shall meet quadrennially," in view of the next item.

5. Combine pars. 106, 107, 108, 109, and 110 with pars. 144 and 145, and insert them under the head of Annual Conferences, as hereinafter set out, as being Annual Conference business, making them agree with the Basis of Union and with each other.

6. After par. 105 insert 116.

7. Next insert 113, 111, 112, and 114.

8. Change par. 111 to read: "Fifty members of the General Conference shall form a quorum for the transaction of business."

9. After par. 114 insert the following from the Basis of Union, (the General Conference, par. 2) p. 264: "No change shall be made in the Basis of Union, affecting constitutional questions, or the rights and privileges of ministry or laity, excepting by a three-fourths majority of the General Conference, and, if required by either ministry or laity, a two-thirds majority of each order, voting separately."

10. Par. 117, read: "The General Superintendents shall hold office," etc.

11. Omit par. 118, as creating an inequality.

12. In order to remove a doubt, change the first sentence of par. 119 to read as follows: "The General Superintendents shall be members and chairmen, ex officio, of all Standing Committees and Boards appointed by the General Conference, with the right to vote; but the one presiding shall have a casting vote only."

13. In par. 125, strike out the last seven words and substitute the following: "as hereinafter provided."

14. After par. 130, insert par. 133, and then par. 135, changing the latter to agree with the Basis of Union (pars. 4 and 7, page 265), to read as follows: "Each Annual Conference shall elect by ballot, without debate, from among its ministerial members, a President. It shall also elect by ballot, without debate, a Secretary," etc.

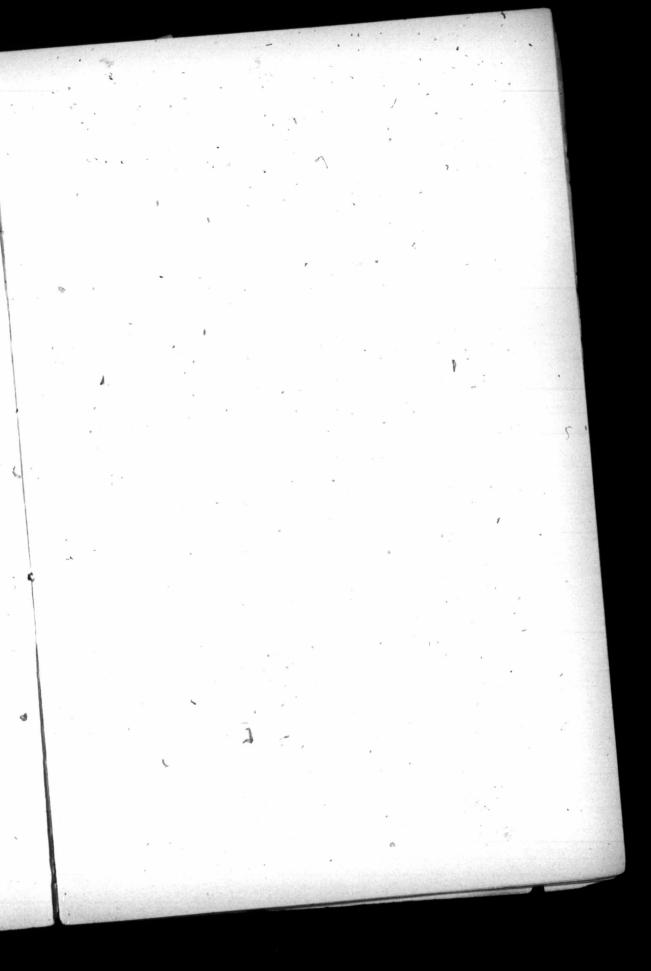

15. Insert par. 131 after 200.

16. Par. 134, line 5. Omit the words "of the previous year."

17. After par. 142, insert pars. 137, 160, and 161, omitting par. 138.

18. After par 143, insert the following, to take the place of the present par. 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 144, and 145:

"144. Each Annual Conference, at the session next preceding each quadrennial meeting of the General Conference, shall divide into Ministerial and Lay Electoral Conferences, for the purpose of electing delegates; each body electing its own representatives. They shall be elected by ballot from within the jurisdiction of the Annual Conference electing them.

"145. The ministerial delegates shall consist of one member for every ten ministerial members of each Annual Conference, of which number the President shall always be one; provided, nevertheless, that a fraction of one-half shall entitle a Conference to an additional representative.

"146. Each delegate to the General Conference must receive a majority of the votes of the members of the Electoral Conference who may be present and vote, in order to an election.

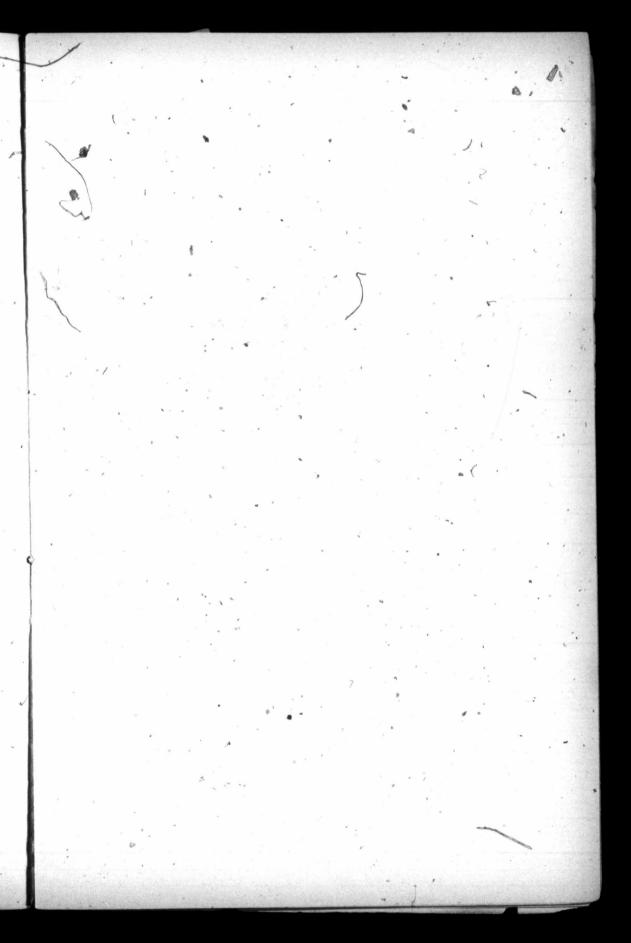

"147. No layman shall be chosen a delegate to the General Conference who is under twenty-five years of age, or who has not been a member of the Church continuously during the five years next preceding his election.

"148. Each Electoral Conference, after the election of the number of delegates to which it is entitled, shall further proceed to elect a reserve delegate, and in addition, it shall further elect one reserve delegate for every ten members, or fraction thereof of one-half, it is entitled to send.

"149. The Secretary of each Electoral Conference shall report to the Secretary of the Annual Conference the names of the delegates elected to the General Conference, in the order of their election; and the President and Secretary shall report, as soon as practicable, their names and addresses to the Secretary of the General Conference.

"150. When vacancies occur in the delegation before the meeting of the General Conference, by reason of death or other cause, the reserves of the respective Annual Conferences shall have precedence in the order of their election, and be notified thereof by the President of their Annual Conference.

"151. At each of the three Annual Conferences succeeding a General Conference, all vacancies in the delegation shall be filled according to the rules in the preceding paragraphs, further ministerial and lay reserve delegates being elected to succeed those who have been taken to fill vacancies, or who have been promoted to a higher place on the list."

- 19. Strike out from par. 156 the following: "which draft shall be printed and ready at the opening of the session for the use of members of the Conference," and make clause 2 read as follows:
