BELGIUM'S FORMAL CHARGES LAY BARE HORRIBLE ATROCITIES

GERMANS STAND ACCUSED BEFORE CIVILIZED WORLD OF TERRIBLE BARBARITIES

Belgium's Report, Presented to Washington, Tells of Fiendish Tortures and Unspeakable Outrages Perpetrated by Invaders on Men, Women and Children—Burning of Louvain Described.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—A resume of the findings of the Belgian commission of enquiry appointed by the King of the Belgians, to investigate the alleged atrocities committed by German troops, by the Belgian today here, was made public today, after the report had been presented to President Wilson. A partial summary follows:

"German cavalry, occupying the village of Linneuse, were attacked by some Belgian troops. The Germans, a German officer was killed by the Belgian soldiers during the fight. None of the civilians had taken part in the fight, nevertheless the village was invaded at dusk on Aug. 10 by a strong force of Germans.

Peasants Butchered.
"In spite of the formal assurances given by the burgomaster that none of the civilians had taken part in the fight, two farms and six outlying houses were destroyed by gunfire and reduced to ashes. No recently discharged firearms were found. Nevertheless, the invaders divided the male peasants into three groups. Those in one group were bound and eleven of them placed in a ditch, where they were afterwards found dead, their skulls fractured by the butts of rifles.

"During the night of Aug. 10 German cavalry entered Velm in great numbers. The inhabitants were asleep. Without provocation the Germans broke on Mr. Deglimme's house and fired into it. They destroyed most of his property. They carried off Mme. Deglimme half naked to a place two miles away. She was then released, and as she fled was fired upon without being hit, however. Her husband was carried to a point in another direction and fired upon; he is dying.

Horrible Mutilations.

Every Man is Interested in the New Hat Styles.
The man with the out-of-date hat is certainly conspicuous in these days of careful dressing.

Among the best known makers a few are named: Henry Heath, London, England, Derby, $4.00; Christy, London, Eng., soft and stiff hats, $2.50 and $3; Hillgate, Eng., soft and stiff, $4; Dunlap, New York, stiff hats, $5; Stetson, Philadelphia, soft and stiff hats, $4 and $5; also a nobby line of American soft hats with the new crowns, dish-shaped brims and broad bands in contrasting and self colors. These are proving immensely popular and are great values. A look over the Dineen stock will result in the purchase of a hat that is becoming in every respect to your individual personality, and that's mighty important to the majority of men.

Belief at Ottawa Is That Short Winter Session of Parliament Will Be Followed by General Election—Hanna and Lucas at Conference Yesterday.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—Hon. W. J. Hanna and Hon. I. B. Lucas were in Ottawa today. The ostensible purpose was to discuss matters in connection with the Canadian Patriotic Fund. However, the Ontario ministers had a chat with Sir Robert Borden and other members of the cabinet, and it is learned that the political situation was the burden of the conversation. The present tentative arrangement of the government is to hold a short session of parliament this winter and go to the country next spring. It is well understood that the government will not wait until the conclusion of the war before going to the country.

On Ontario the government will rely for its main support, and that this province is ready with that support was the general opinion this evening after the visit of Messrs. Hanna and Lucas.

German Cruiser Torpedoed

LONDON, Sept. 16, 9.49 p.m.—The admiralty announces that submarine E 9, Lieut-Commander Horton, has returned safely after having torpedoed a German cruiser, six miles south of Heligoland.

HARWICH, Eng., Sept. 16, 11.55 p.m.—(Via London).—The submarine E 9, which sank the German cruiser Hela off Heligoland Sunday morning, arrived here today and was cheered by the crews of the warships as she entered the harbor.

The submarine fired two torpedoes at the Hela, one striking her bow and the other hitting her amidships. The cruiser immediately burst into flames.

A number of German merchant ships, which were in the vicinity, went to the Hela's assistance, and it is said that a majority of her crew were rescued. The Hela sank within an hour after being hit.

AUSTRIA AND RUSSIA NEARLY MADE PACT KAISER FORCED WAR

Report of Former British Ambassador at Vienna Shows Clearly That Germany Was Determined to Bring on Conflict—Friendly Conversations Were Abruptly Terminated.

LONDON, Sept. 16, 7.40 p.m.—The foreign office issued this evening in the form of a white paper, the report of Sir Maurice de Bunsen, late British ambassador at Vienna, on the rupture of diplomatic relations with Austria, in which the ambassador declares that Austria and Russia had about reached an agreement on the Austro-Serbian dispute when their conversations were cut short by the transfer of the dispute to the more dangerous ground of a direct conflict between Germany and Russia.

"The ambassador says that although two days previously he had refused to consent to the continuance of the conversations at St. Petersburg, Count von Berchtold, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, on July 30, although Russia had been partially mobilized, agreed in a most friendly manner that the conversations should be continued.

Almost Made Terms.
"From now onwards," says the ambassador, "the tension between Germany and Russia was much greater than between Austria and Russia, as between the latter an arrangement seemed almost in sight, and on Aug. 1, I was informed by Count Schebeko, the Russian ambassador, that Count Saporary (Austrian ambassador at St. Petersburg), had at last conceded the main point of issue by announcing to M. Sazonoff, the Russian foreign minister, that Austria would consent to submit to mediation the points in the note to Serbia which seemed incompatible with the maintenance of Serbian independence.

"Count Schebeko, to the end, was working hard for peace. He was employing the most conciliatory language to Count von Berchtold, and he informed me that the latter, as well as Count Forstner, had responded in the same spirit. Certainly it was too much for Russia to expect that Austria would hold back her armies. But this matter could probably have been settled by negotiations, and Count Schebeko repeatedly told me that he was prepared for the acceptance of any reasonable compromise. Unfortunately these conversations at St. Petersburg and Vienna were cut short by the transfer of the dispute to the more dangerous ground of a direct conflict between Germany and Russia.

"Germany intervened on July 31 by means of her double ultimatum to St. Petersburg and Paris. These ultimatums were of a kind to which only one reply was possible and Germany declared war on Russia Aug. 1, and on France Aug. 3.

"A few days delay might, in all probability, have saved Europe from one of the greatest calamities in history. The ambassador then refers to the rupture of diplomatic relations between Austria and the allied powers, the details of which have already been published.

BORDEN GOVERNMENT MAY MAKE APPEAL NEXT SPRING

AUSTRIA'S LOSSES 250,000 SINCE FALL OF LEMBERG

In Addition Hundred Thousand Prisoners and Four Hundred Guns Have Been Taken—German Efforts To Save Austrian Army Have Been Futile.

(Russian Official)
LONDON, Sept. 17, 12.25 a.m.—The official press bureau issued the following announcement tonight: "It is stated from Russian official sources that the rout of the Austrian army in Galicia is complete, the full details have not been received. The Austrian loss since the taking of Lemberg is estimated at 250,000 killed and wounded, 100,000 prisoners, and 400 guns, many colors and vast quantities of stores.

"The Germans made desperate efforts to save the Austrian army, but failed completely. At one point the Germans lost 36 pieces of heavy artillery and 24 another several dozen pieces of siege artillery."

TURKS MASS TROOPS.
LONDON, Sept. 16, 11.10 p.m.—A despatch to the Havas Agency from Petrograd says: "It is announced that the Turks have concentrated a large army on the Bulgarian frontier and that Gen. Liman von Sanders, a Prussian cavalry officer, who trained the Turkish army, is expected to take command."

ON ENEMY'S HEELS.
LONDON, Sept. 17.—The losses in Galicia and Poland, where fighting has been going on incessantly for more than three weeks, are even greater than those in France, and, according to official reports the Russians are still following the Austria and German forces in the hope of striking another blow before they can re-form.

One report from Petrograd says that the Russians have severed communications between Cracow and Przemysl, the two fortresses for which the Austrians and their German allies are heading, and have begun an advance to sever communications between Galicia and Budapest.

Meantime the Russian General Rennenkampf, who, according to Russian reports, invaded East Prussia to compel the Germans to withdraw troops from the west and thus relieve pressure on the allies, is having some difficulty in extricating his army from a difficult position. He has been compelled to fall back to fortresses on his own frontier, where he is waiting for the Germans under General Hindenburg, whom some reports say the German Emperor has joined.

The opinion is held that the Germans plan some bold stroke against Rennenkampf before the troops which have been engaged in Galicia can reach him. It is pointed out, however, that it would be a bold stroke indeed for the Germans to attack the Russian forts on the frontier or invade a country that within a few weeks will be a marsh, and later a snow covered wilderness.

The Servians and Montenegrins continue their advance into Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Servians, it is said, have advanced 25 miles beyond Zemin, so that, in this event it is evident that little opposition is being offered.

Defeated German General Attempted to End His Life

General Friese, whose Artillery Brigade was Surrounded by French and Forced to Surrender, Stabbed Himself Twice in Stomach.

Canadian Press Despatch.
BORDEAUX, Sept. 16, 7.50 p.m.—Another version of the capture of German Gen. Friese, who is said to have attempted suicide, is given by the Troves correspondent of The Temps.

"Gen. Friese, who commanded the 25th Brigade of Artillery," the correspondent says, "was ill in bed with an attack of stomach trouble when the German infantry, which should have supported his brigade, retreated and later was surrounded by French cavalry and compelled to surrender."

"Gen. Friese, on learning this, stabbed himself twice in the stomach. French soldiers later found the wounded officer and brought him to the hospital in Troves."

THE ENEMY AT BAY.

BORDEAUX, Sept. 16.—The following communique was issued this afternoon: "SECTION 1 — On Sept. 14 and 15 the enemy's rear guard attacked by our pursuing forces had to come to bay. They were reinforced by the main bodies of the German armies."

"The enemy fought a defensive battle along the entire front, certain parts of which were strongly organized. This front is marked by the region of Noyon, the plateau to the north of Vic-sur-Aisne and Soissons, the heights of Laon, to the north and west of Rheims, and along one end of which terminates to the north of Ville-Sur-Tourbe,

S. Protests Against Turkey's Abrogation of Treaties, Abolishing Rights.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—While London awaited details of the further advance of the Anglo-French troops in their pursuit of the retreating German armies, semi-official news filtered from the front indicating that success again crowned the efforts of the allies in their attempt to either annihilate the kaiser's forces or force them to surrender large numbers of their men.

No longer able to resist the terrific onslaught of the British and French offensive, the Germans, despite strongly entrenched positions along the River Aisne, began giving way today. The invaders suffered heavy losses in unsuccessful counter-attacks after they had taken up new positions and had marshaled their forces for the second great battle of the war in progress all along the firing line. The British captured 200 prisoners in the opening skirmishes of today's engagements.

GERMAN ARMY ROUTED?
The army of the crown prince, to the eastward, was routed from Varennes, and was rolled back along the River Meuse toward Luxembourg by a triumphant French force, which now holds the roadways to Metz, by which the crown prince might have retreated to Germany. He was assigned the all-important task of further breaking thru the French lines at the centre of the battle or holding the opposing forces in check. His failure to accomplish his purpose forced the Germans to give battle today all along the line from a point north of Verdun to Noyon, 55 miles east of Paris. The fighting front of the new battle was 110 miles long.

GENERAL POSITION FAVORABLE.
At 5.30 o'clock this afternoon the British war press bureau issued the following statement: "General position of the allies along the River Aisne continues favorable. The enemy has delivered several counter-attacks, especially against the British first army corps. These attacks have been repulsed, and the Germans have given way before our troops and the French armies on our right and left."

"The enemy's losses have been heavy and we have taken 200 prisoners." Despatches from Paris officially announce that the crown prince has evacuated Varennes, where he made his stand against the French after his defeat at Vitry-le-Francois.

70,000 EAST INDIANS FIGHT.
It is said here that 70,000 East Indian troops have been landed in Europe and have joined the allies. When the veil now surrounding the movements to the northwest is lifted it probably will be disclosed that an offensive movement participated in by the entire British expeditionary forces, supported by the French and new reinforcements, is in full swing.

A despatch from Paris says The Petit Journal states it has learned that the kaiser has decided to go to East Prussia to inspect the eastern theatre of war.

ALLIES' LINE HOLDING.
Canadian Press Despatch.
PARIS, Sept. 16.—(11.05 p.m.)—The French official communication issued tonight announces that headquarters sends no new details of the action now being fought along the Aisne River. The text of the announcement follows: "This evening general headquarters has communicated no new information about the action going on along our front."

"As has been remarked before, it is not to be wondered that during the course of a battle which has lasted several days no definite conclusion of any kind can be inferred. We know, however, that up to 6 o'clock tonight we have not weakened on any position."

GERMANS SUFFERED SEVERE LOSS

west of Argonne, prolonged by another which passes north of Verdun (which has been abandoned by the enemy), and reaches the River Meuse, toward the forest of Ferges, north of Verdun.

MANY PRISONERS TAKEN.

SECTION 2.—There have been no new battles before Nancy, or the Vosges. In the course of the pursuit which we carried out after the battle of the Marne, the Germans abandoned to us many prisoners, stragglers who had hidden themselves in the woods. The count of these prisoners and of the amount of war material has not yet been exactly computed for this reason, that the minister of war, not wishing to give fantastic figures, would prefer to wait until a precise statement can be made.

FRENCH RIGHT ON MOVE.

"The situation has hardly changed since yesterday," said The Temps' military review tonight. "The two armies are in contact on the Aisne and the centre, while the French continue to advance between the forest of Argonne and the River Meuse."

"There is a forward movement on the French right which is extremely important. If we reach Montmedy (22 miles southeast of Sedan, in the Department of the Meuse), with sufficient forces, the German left and centre could only escape toward the Sambre River and by the most difficult part of the Belgian Ardennes forest. If it falls back on the Sambre, the left wing will be forced to pass in front of the Belgian army at Antwerp, which is now full of activity."

GERMANS IN LONG LINE AWAIT ONSET OF ALLIES GREAT BATTLE PENDING

Enemy, Strongly Entrenched and Reinforced, Draw Up Over Immense Area—German Rear Guard Repulsed in Counter Attacks—British in Thick of Fight.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 16, 9:20 p.m.—The German army, which less than a fortnight ago was at the gates of Paris and the right wing of which then extended to the southeast of the French capital, is tonight drawn up on almost a straight line, extending from the neighborhood of Noyon, in the west, to Bois Forges, on the Meuse north of Verdun, with its left resting on the German fortress of Metz.

Thus, the right wing, at least, has gone back more than 70 miles in two weeks, while the rest of the army has had to retire before the whole could find ground on which to make another stand against the advance of the allies.

Counter Attacks Repulsed.

The Germans intended to give battle on this line, with the River Aisne in front of their right, the hills of Rheims facing their centre, and the mountains of the forest of Argonne on their left. There seems to be little doubt they went back steadily before the French and English armies until fighting only rear guard action until Kluibr, in command of Gen. von Kluge, got across the Aisne. Then they turned and delivered several counter attacks, which, however, were repulsed. The British official report, were repulsed in the hands of 200 prisoners in the hands of the British.

These counter attacks were doubtless delivered in the hope of giving the troops of the right wing, exhausted by the long advance, followed by an almost as long retreat, the opportunity of resting and preparing for attacks from which they could resist attacks from the allies and in which they could await reinforcements before taking up the offensive again.

Strong Entrenchments.

The Germans are in the hilly country around Noyon, on the plateau north of Vic-sur-Aisne and Soissons and north of Rheims, where they are digging strong entrenchments and getting reinforcements. But even here this right wing, which has up to the present borne the brunt of the fighting in the advance and in the retreat, is not altogether safe, for the French army operating from Amiens clings to its flank, while the British and French forces continue to press in front.

It is essential, however, that they should hold their positions, for they hold the lines of retreat to the north, which would be the only way out if defeat should be their lot. That they realize this is shown by the fact that they have been contesting every foot of the ground with the allied armies the last two days, and that both sides have suffered heavily.

British Rear Guard.

The British rear guard, which it is believed is located in the hills north of Verdun, has taken its full share in this fighting, which on the front has been particularly severe since the Germans crossed the Aisne and made their first determined stand in the retreat from Paris.

The German centre, which in the last few days, has come more into line with the two wings, now stretches from the heights north of Rheims to the western foothills of the Argonne ridge, dipping a little south to touch Ville-sur-Tourbe, just northeast of Camp de Chalons. This is all high, rough ground, in many places covered by heavy forest, which may by this time have been destroyed.

The German left has been driven back a little further than the centre, and holds the ground from west of the Argonne hills, north of Varennes, which the French have recaptured, to the Meuse, which crossed the Conventy, and thence southward to Metz.

The crossing of the Meuse, which the Germans have selected at Conventy, is just out of range of the fortress guns of Verdun, so that as far as the battle now pending is concerned they have not to reckon with this stronghold, except as it offers support to the French in case the allies are compelled to retire.

The Germans on this long line cover a many lines of retreat as possible, including those to Namur, Givet, Metz, Sedan and Stenay, and should soon be ready, if they have not already commenced, to give battle, or, if the offensive comes from the other side, to defend their positions.

Joffre Retains Initiative.

It is believed that Gen. Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, retains the initiative, having received reinforcements to relieve his overworked troops, but whether he will try again to envelop the German right or to break up the crown prince's army on the left, remains to be seen.

Enormous Losses.

Neither side has attempted to make any estimate of the losses in killed, wounded and captured during the battle of the Marne, but they must have been enormous and will doubtless be a blow to all the countries concerned when they are disclosed.

Many German prisoners have fallen into the hands of the British, and a great number of prisoners and stragglers have been taken by the French, that the minister of war refuses to make an estimate for fear of being accused of exaggeration. The losses in killed and wounded scattered thru the field from the Marne to the Aisne that it is feared will be staggering.

REDMOND CALLS ON IRISHMEN TO FIGHT

Must Keep Faith With Democracy of Britain in Return for Faith Kept With Ireland, Says Nationalist Leader in Manifesto.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 16, 10:25 p.m.—The democracy of Great Britain have kept faith with Ireland, and it is now the duty of honor for Ireland to keep faith with them," said John Redmond, the Irish leader, in a manifesto issued tonight, in which he calls on Irishmen to bear their share in the war in which the empire is engaged.

"The Irish people," Mr. Redmond continues, "know and appreciate the fact fully that at last, after centuries of misunderstanding, the democracy of Great Britain have finally and irrevocably declared their trust and give them back their national liberties."

"By overwhelming British majorities charter of liberty for Ireland has been passed in the past few years, and in a few hours will be the law of the land. A new era has opened in the history of the two nations."

Strength to Empire.

"During the long discussion on the Irish problem in parliament and on the platform we promised the British people that if Ireland were granted the same effect in Ireland as in every other part of the empire, notably in recent years in South Africa, that dissatisfaction would give way to friendship and good-will and that Ireland would become a strength instead of a weakness to the empire."

Mr. Redmond then goes on to speak of the war, saying:

"It is a just war, provoked by the intolerable military despotism of Germany—it is a war for high ideals of human government and international relations and Ireland would be false to her history, to every consideration of honor, good faith and self-interest, did she not willingly bear her share in its burdens and its sacrifices."

"We have even, when no ties of sympathy bound our country to Great Britain, always given our quota, and more than our quota, the firing line, and we shall do so now."

"We have a right to claim that Irish recruits for an expeditionary force should be kept together as a unit, and offered, as far as possible, by Irishmen—to form in fact, an Irish brigade, so that Ireland may gain national credit for their deeds and feel like the other commonwealthers, and which, she, too, has contributed an other bearing her name in the historic struggle."

With the formation of an Irish brigade for service, Mr. Redmond asks that the volunteers be put in a state of efficiency as shortly as possible for the defence of the country.

Ignore Lesser Issues.

"It would appeal to our countrymen of a different creed and of opposite political opinions," Mr. Redmond says in conclusion, "so consistently friend them and to allow this great war as is same, to swallow up all the smaller issues in the domestic government of Ireland which now divide us, and let our soldiers are going to fight, and shed their blood and die at each other's side in the same army and against the same enemy for the same high purpose, their union in the field may lead to union in their home, and that their blood may be the seal that will bring all together in one nation and in liberties equal and common to all."

WHAT NEXT FROM GERMANY?

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—(By wireless)—Russian soldiers captured in East Prussia by the Germans are authority for the statement given out here, that the remainder of the Russian Vlna army of 1,000,000 men have been driven southward to the Vistula River positions.

Reports issued by the German War Office say the French troops in the battle of Aug. 25 attacked and destroyed a German field hospital, killing the surgeons and nurses and several wounded German soldiers.

German prospects are said to be favorable in official reports dealing with the battle of the Marne. The general staff says the Anglo-French victory now along the entire battle front have won a decided victory. No details of this engagement are published, however.

STRONGLY ENTRENCHED AGAIN.

An official statement made at the war office today lays much stress on the assertion that the Germans have succeeded in checking the entire offensive movement of the allies in France. The announcement states that the German army is now entrenched in new and strong positions, and that at several points the Germans drove the French lines back on their supports. Regarding the situation in France, the general staff declares that the new plan of campaign is turning out satisfactorily.

The official bulletins point out that the German forces operating in East Prussia continue to drive the Russians back. It is hinted that an invasion in force of Russian Poland may be ordered at any time. It is said General Von Hindenburg is striking at the czar's communications on the east bank of the Vistula, and if the Germans' present movement is successful, it is said the Russians will be forced to withdraw large bodies of men from Galicia, thus relieving the pressure on the Austrian armies.

JAPANESE DROP BOMBS.

TOKIO, Sept. 16.—Japanese aviators have succeeded in dropping bombs on the German headquarters at Kiaochow and doing much damage. They also put the wireless station out of business and then retreated to the fleet undamaged.

RAILWAY STATION TAKEN.

The capture of the railway station at Kiaochow on Sunday by a Japanese scouting party was officially announced here today. The railway station reported is west of Tsingtau, and is about 20 miles from the inner circle of the fortifications which are to be besieged. That Japanese have occupied this station indicates that their attempt to isolate the entire German concession is proceeding in a satisfactory manner, and that the floods caused by the recent torrential rains are subsiding.

TO PREVENT EPIDEMICS.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(8:40 p.m.)—Reuter's Paris correspondent says that 800 firemen left Paris today to carry out, under direction of the army medical service, such sanitary measures on the recent battlefields as will free the capital and the region roundabout from all danger of infectious diseases.

LONDON FEARS ZEPPELIN RAID.

In a statement issued tonight Sir Edward R. Henry, commissioner of police in the metropolis, expresses the hope that the restrictions placed on street and shop illuminations as a precautionary measure against a Zeppelin raid on London may be modified later.

But for the present, Sir Edward says, he is advised by the air department of the admiralty that it is desirable in the interests of public safety that they be continued.

TREASURY BILLS SOLD.

At an average rate of 215.16 per cent, 7500 six months' treasury bills were issued today, for which there were 24,561 applicants. The total applications for the 7500 yearly treasury bills sold at an average rate of 313.32 were 22,487.

BOSNIA WELCOMES SERBIANS.

ROME, Sept. 16.—(Via Paris)—Despatches received in Rome from Servia say that the occupation of Viseegrad is causing extraordinary excitement thruout Bosnia, where the Serbians are being welcomed as liberators.

Despatches also say that Servian cavalry already is approaching Rogatica, Bosnia, with a view to opening the way for the army to proceed to Sarajevo, 28 miles southeast of Rogatica.

ALBANIAN VILLAGES BURNED.

News received here from Albania is to the effect that the insurgents continue burning villages. Among the houses that have been destroyed was one belonging to Monsignor Bianchi, which contained archives of the fourteenth century, a rich library, and a rare collection of works of art. In the house also was an artistic cope, which was a gift of Maximilian, Emperor of Mexico, to Mgr. Bianchi.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS ARRESTED.

The extent to which the Austrian Government is going in its desperate efforts to keep the people from learning of the Austrian defeat in Galicia was shown here today, when three soldiers wounded in the fighting in Galicia were arrested for confessing to relatives here that the Austrians had suffered defeat.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The United States ambassador at Constantinople was instructed today to protest to the Turkish Government against its abrogation of the capitulations. Secretary Bryan so announced late today.

NOTED HUNGARIANS HELD AT BORDEAUX.

Max Nordau, Author and Physician, Sympathizes With French Cause.

Canadian Press Despatch. BORDEAUX, Sept. 16, 7 p.m.—Max Nordau, the author and physician, and Count Michael Karolyi, president of the Hungarian Independent party, are temporarily detained here. Nordau, also born in Budapest, has lived for 35 years in France, and does not disguise his sympathies with the French armies.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Ont., Sept. 16.—The International Fire Works Company of Schenectady, N. Y., has decided to establish a branch here, between 28 and 50 hands to be employed on the start.

SAILED WITHOUT WIRELESS OUTFIT

British Steamer Liable to Large Fine for Disregarding Regulations.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 16.—In opposition to a ruling of the U. S. department of commerce, that U. S. laws cannot be altered by the regulations of any foreign nation, the British steamer Roxburgh today left Baltimore for Bordeaux, France, without being equipped with a wireless outfit, as required by the federal law. The maximum penalty for violation of this law is $5000.

Capt. Harrison of the Roxburgh, when ordered by the collector of the port to equip his vessel with wireless, protested that the British Government had ordered that none of her merchantmen carry a wireless outfit during the present European war. The collector of the port, however, upheld the collector's action. Capt. Harrison then called to his owners, who ordered that no wireless be put on the vessel.

All this was finally decided to violate the federal law, and no notice of the collector. The latter this afternoon sent the case to U. S. District Attorney Hill, with orders to institute action against the ship's master.

GERMAN WOUNDED IN PITIABLE PLIGHT

Former Big Bordeaux Wine Merchant Captive—Two Trainloads Arrive.

Canadian Press Despatch. BORDEAUX, Sept. 16, 9:15 p.m.—Among those who arrived here today in two train loads of German wounded was a man who has a big wing business in Bordeaux. A few days before hostilities broke out he left Bordeaux to join the German colors.

All the wounded were in a pitiable plight. Their uniforms were rags and many were without hats. The faces of all the men were black with dust and their clothes clogged with blood. Some of them were so feeble that they had to be undressed by the sisters of charity, who are acting as nurses.

BANK CLERKS WILL LEARN TO USE RIFLE

A rifle association is now being formed from the members of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. At a meeting recently held at the club rooms at the bank, over 75 members of the staff signified their intention of joining the association and it is expected that this number will be largely increased.

It is understood that the Commerce is the first bank to form such an association, but no doubt others will shortly follow their lead.

at Orsmael and Neerhespen on Aug. 10, 11 and 12: An old man had his arm cut in three longitudinal slices; he was then hanged head downward and burned alive. Young girls were raped and little children outraged at Orsmael, and mutilations, too horrible to describe were inflicted on other inhabitants.

"After an engagement at Haelen, Commandant Van Damme was so severely wounded that he was killed on the spot. He was murdered by German infantry firing their revolvers into his mouth.

"At times the Germans went into the battle with a Belgian flag. No Belgian troops remained behind. A group of German infantry hoisted the white flag, and when the Belgian soldiers approached them to take them prisoners they were fired upon at close range.

Shot Down Civilians.

"Aerschot, a town of 8000 inhabitants, was invested by the Germans in the morning of Aug. 19. No sooner had the Germans entered the city when they began by shooting several inoffensive civilians. In the evening, claiming that a superior German officer had been killed by the son of the burgomaster, the Germans took hold of every man in the city, carrying them 50 at a time, within some distance of the town. There they grouped them in fours of four men, made them run ahead of them and fired upon them, killing 40 of them.

"For three whole days they continued to shoot and set fire to everything in their way.

"About 150 inhabitants of Aerschot are supposed to have thus perished.

"The German army penetrated into Louvain, after having set fire to the surrounding towns and villages.

Orgies of All Kinds.

"From the moment of their entrance into the city, they requisitioned lodgings and food for their troops. They entered every private bank and looted their reserves. They entered private residences and sacked and pillaged them, and indulged in orgies of all kinds.

"They took hostages; all the prominent men of the city were detained. Women and children were outraged and ill-treated by the soldiers.

"Previous to the German invasion, the whole city had been ordered to evacuate to the German troops, or to oppose hostile acts. More than that, all arms belonging to civilians, down to fensyng several being ordered deposited in several days previously in the city hall, and there was not a weapon found on any civilian.

Horrors of Louvain.

"On August 25 an engagement took place in the neighborhood of Louvain between German and Belgian troops. The Germans, repulsed and pursued by the Belgian troops, retreated towards Louvain in full panic. Many witnesses testify that at the moment the German garrison in Louvain was cruelly informed that Belgians were entering the city. Immediately

WILSON IS TREATING BELLIGERENTS ALIKE

Non-Committal Reply is Made to Protest of Emperor William.

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—President Wilson today replied to Emperor William's protest that the allies were using dum-dum bullets. The president's reply follows closely the statement he made today in the Belgian commissioners protesting against alleged German atrocities. His reply to President Poincare's message will follow the same lines.

The president stated that "the United States cannot take definite action in response to the protest" and expressed the feeling that the emperor "does not expect me to say any more."

Dismiss Married Women Is One Girl's Solution

In response to the invitation of the Women's Patriotic League one hundred women and girls met at headquarters, 559 Sherbourne street last evening for the purpose of holding an informal conference on the present situation as it affects women in business and the working women generally. The president of the league, Mrs. W. H. Cummings, presided, and several other prominent women were interested listeners and spectators.

Mrs. L. A. Hamilton told of the Women's Institutes thruout the country, the 25,000 members of which are doing their part to assist in the present crisis. Among the things that present themselves to the city girl out of employment is the opportunity for domestic service in the country. Mrs. Hamilton pointed out that there are many such openings by the acceptance of which the girls might tide themselves over present difficulties and at the same time do a patriotic act by leaving places in the city for other young women with experience in labor organizations stated that one of the ways to relieve the situation is to put all married women out of the home. In the factories, she said, married men are being retained and the single men discharged, so many married men are being retained as instances the married man who works in a factory as an industrialist as himself. She quoted the case of a man who earned five dollars a day and had a wife also out working as a woman who placed from some single woman had to depend upon herself for support. She stated that she was about to take part in the house-to-house canvass which the trades union and unions were about to inaugurate, and she stated that she was sure to give some definite information. There were many women in cafes, she said, earning six dollars a week, while single women walked the streets looking for work.

SEVERITY OF THE SITUATION LOOPS BOUND FOR FIRING LINE

RUSSIA'S BURDEN PROVED COSTLY

Lightened Task of Allies at Great Cost to Herself.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A Petrograd despatch to The Post says: "It is only now that the opportunity presents itself to exhibit in due proportion the self-sacrificing strategy of Russia at the very opening of the war for the purpose of lightening the task of her allies."

The immediate necessity was to prevent the destruction of the French army by rapid diversion. This Russia accomplished magnificently. Her task in East Prussia, right up to Koenigsberg, the ancient coronation city of Prussia, at once relieved Germany to withdraw her best troops from France and replace them with reserves. This movement is still in progress. The services Russia performed were costly to herself, but priceless to her allies.

"It should be put on record now, when changed circumstances are compelling Russia to return to a strategic scheme of her enormous resources, that she has already withdrawn a considerable force from East Prussia, and no surprise will be felt here if Russia withdraws entirely within her own border."

AUSTRIAN ARMY CAUGHT IN BOG

Surrender to Russians of Large Force is Believed Imminent.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Telegraphing from Rome, the correspondent of The Daily Express says: "The surrender of the Austrian army led by Generals Dankl and Von Auffenberg is imminent. The heir to the Austrian throne, Archduke Charles Francis, is with General Dankl's army, which is entirely cut off from communication."

"Five German army corps marching to the relief of the Austrians have been checked at Grodek by the third Russian corps. General Danks' army is in the east, near the west of the River San. Further west a flanking army of 100,000 Cossacks is awaiting it. Its artillery has been lost and its cavalry is in the bog. The last hope of the Austrians is to concentrate between the triangular fortress works of Przemyel, Tarnopol and the Rumanian frontier. It is at all, only by tremendous losses."

FORT TROYON'S RELIEF IMPORTANT TO ALLIES

Will Prevent Crossing of Meuse by German Armies.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Reuter's Paris correspondent says: "The relief of Fort Troyon is likely to have an important bearing on the fate of the German army. The Germans were investing Fort Troyon and the neighboring forts between Toul and Verdun, with the object of opening a way of retreat on their left."

"The failure of this plan means that the French are masters of the valley from Toul to Verdun. Therefore, the armies of the Crown Prince Frederick William and the Duke of Wurtemberg will be unable to cross the Meuse and will have to go farther north and attempt to pass by the Stenay Gap."

FRENCH HANDICAPPED BY LACK OF CAVALRY

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The Daily News correspondent, following the pursuit with the allies, laments the lack of sufficient cavalry. He says: "The French cavalry has not been fortunate in this division. Too often it found its brilliant charges too late, and only swept over the crest when the German guns had secured the range to mow them down. Hence, their support has not always been available at the right moment, but their courage and dash have been characteristic."

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The Daily Chronicle's Antwerp correspondent, in a despatch dated Tuesday, says there are now 100,000 Germans ranged around Brussels, while a Belgian army of 80,000 men has taken shelter beneath the line of the Antwerp forts, and will prove a constant menace to the Germans should they wish to move troops to France.

More About Banking

The newspapers are now discussing banking with more or less ardor. The Globe yesterday has a lot to say about the federal gold reserve, some of which our contemporary thinks is uselessly idle. By the recent legislation parliament released some of this gold so as to help the Dominion to pay its debts and thereby incidentally help business. So far, so good; what about the action of the banks in throwing down the use of bank notes as legal tender in the clearing house settlements between banks? A word from The Globe might strengthen the hands of the minister of finance in asking the banks to live up to the law of parliament. Because, as we have pointed out, the excess currency of the banks would be much more likely to come out and help "to finance business" as Lloyd George suggested to the banks in England.

We would not be surprised to hear today that the Bankers' Association had come to the view that it would be wise on their part to loyally accept the decree of parliament. Parliament did a great deal for the banks in the recent legislation when it suspended gold payment in regard to bank notes; it will not, we trust, be long before the clearing house will have an opportunity of resuming its old practice of gold settlements, and we also trust of having their note currency put back on the gold basis.

The Ottawa Journal, also discussing the bank situation, does not quite see how the public can ask the banks to assist to finance business. It points out that the Bank of Upper Canada, which failed in 1866, failed because it helped business nine years thereafter, when a commercial crisis had obtained. Whether that is so or not, we cannot say; we prefer to deal with the things of today; and if the banks refuse a small loan to the risk of financing business in times of war, they think that they should not take the risk of financing business in times of peace. But if that is the case, then it comes back to the country at large to try and devise a system of banking that will secure bank support in times of stress, and especially a system that will do what Lloyd George wishes to see done, business carried on in any time of trial by the co-operation of state and banks.

Our view is that banking is a public business, that it is based on a public franchise; that money used in banking comes largely from the savings of the people; and that the public in their collective capacity have a right to be heard as to the policy pursued in connection with these common savings; and that some kind of public responsibility goes with the exercise of a great public franchise; and that a banker like a minister of the crown, or like the head of a great railway, has at least some kind of responsibility to the community. Banking is very much of a public service in those countries which now have a modern system of banking, based on a national currency and on the employment of the credit of the nation so as to facilitate trade and so as to find sufficient currency for the purpose of business. All we ask is that our chartered banks somewhat revise their attitude in the light of the modern way of banking, especially in the light of the supreme interest that the public must have in it and in its ramifications.

BANKING CREDIT.

Editor World: Only yesterday one of our best farmers (here in Essex) was refused a small loan to enable him to harvest his bean crop. It is high time something was done toward remedying the conditions.

Branches of chartered banks are now to be found in every village and hamlet. For what purpose? Not to accommodate the local community, but to borrow money by way of deposit.

The present is an opportune time for the manufacturers and farmers of Canada if they had only proper and adequate financial accommodation.

THE BANKS HAVE FAILED IN THEIR MISSION.

Edmonton Capital: In the financial crisis which accompanied the American war business was stagnated because of the lack of sufficient currency. In other words, the credit system of the country had broken down. In that emergency, the thing that saved the union was the "greenbacks"—a national currency.

In the present emergency in Canada the government has gone on the hypothesis that the bankers of the country are imprudent, has given the banks the right to issue a greater volume of currency—backing every cent of it—and has deposited an amount presumed to be sufficient to guarantee against any sudden occurrence of panic in any quarter.

But the banks are not using the increased scope for the benefit of the public. They refuse to lend the money. In the face of an acute condition created by the war they refuse to be bankers. They are not in a state of war, but in a state of siege.

The cure for this condition is too obvious to require even expression. Call off the bank currency, and issue the national currency direct, as Wilson is doing in United States thru his federal reserve banks.

The banks have failed in their mission.

GERMAN ATTACKS WERE REPULSED NOTED BOER WAS SHOT BY MISTAKE

General Position of Allies Along Aisne Termed "Very Favorable."

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The official press bureau today gave out a statement which says: "The general position along the Aisne River continues very favorable. The enemy has delivered several counter-attacks, especially against the first army corps. These have been repulsed, and the Germans have given way slightly before our troops and the French armies on our right and left."

"The enemy's loss is very heavy, and we have taken 200 prisoners."

From this number about 150 members were selected to go to camp at Long Branch on Friday. The camp will last a month, and this number will be added to from time to time.

To cover the expense of the camp the officers and some friends have donated $500 for the expenses of the camp. Government aid is expected as well.

GERMANS ON DEFENSIVE ON WHOLE BATTLE LINE

Official Communication From Paris Says That, on Rear-guard of Enemy Being Overtaken, Large German Armies Were Rushed to Assistance—Large Number of Prisoners Taken.

Canadian Press Despatch.

PARIS, Sept. 16, 5:45 p.m.—The following official communication was issued at 3 o'clock this afternoon: "During the days of Sept. 14 and 15 the rear guard of the enemy was overtaken by our pursuing force and obliged to turn and face us. Reinforced by large armies the Germans waged a defensive battle along their entire front, on which certain of their positions show strong organization. This front is bounded by the region of Noyon, the plains to the north of Vic-sur-Aisne and Soissons, Laon, the heights to the north and to the west of Rheims, and a line which runs thence to the north of Ville-sur-Tourbe, to the west of the Argonne region and which is continued thence beyond the Argonne by another line which passes north of Varennes, a point that has been evacuated by the enemy, and reaches to the River Meuse, in the neighborhood of the forest of Forges, which is north of Verdun."

Numerous prisoners. "During the pursuit of the enemy, executed by our troops after the battle of the Marne, the Germans abandoned numerous prisoners to our hands. To these men there has been added a large multitude of stragglers who were hidden in the forests. "No exact accounting of these prisoners, or of the war material captured by us, so far has been possible. It is for this reason that the minister of war, who does not want to give out figures which might be considered fantastic, refrains from announcing the details of these captures."

CELEBRATING INDEPENDENCE.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 16.—The celebration of Mexican independence was continued today. Thousands participated in the formal program. There were no disorders. GENTLEMAN JOCKEY IS AMONG GERMANS SLAIN

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A despatch to The Evening News from Copenhagen says that among the deaths reported in the latest German casualty list are those of Captain Bethusy-Huc and Count Saurma Jeltsch, the so-called gentleman jockey.

Gideon Sengier, the Austrian meteorologist, has been killed on the Russian frontier. The correspondent says that all permits for the taking of photographs or moving pictures in Germany have been revoked.

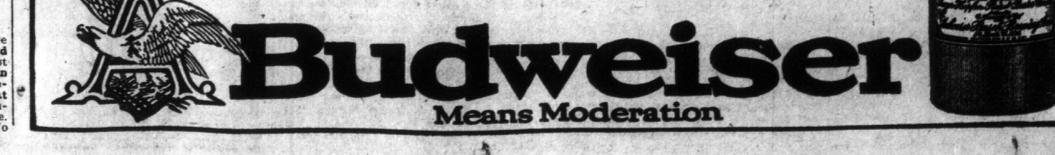

Kossuth—Greatest of Hungarians

THIS noble lover of Liberty was to his beloved Hungary what Patrick Henry was to American Independence. Give me Liberty or give me death! meant to Kossuth all that made life worth the living. He lived for ninety-two years, and his long and honorable career was devoted solely to secure for Hungary National Independence. For it he suffered imprisonment and exile. For it he worked as few men have ever worked. His fiery soul was expressed in his writing, and his impassioned oratory thundered across the two continents. All the world read and listened to this high-souled Hungarian Patriot. When exiled our government sent the U.S.S. Steamer Mississippi to Turkey and brought him to our shores as the guest of the Nation. 15-day we have millions of Hungarian citizens, each one a lover of Personal Liberty. To secure it they sought our shores, and to a man they will fight to the death to keep forever alive the spirit and letter of our immortal Declaration of Independence. They make good citizens, and like Kossuth detest prohibitory enactments which make the many suffer for the faults of the very few. For centuries Hungarians have as a nation been moderate users of barley brews and light wines. Their votes are always registered against any legislation which proposes to regulate human diet by law. "Thou shalt NOT eat—thou shalt NOT drink that"—to those of brave Hungarian blood is insufferable tyranny. For 57 years Anheuser-Busch have been proud to serve their Hungarian patrons. They have helped to make the sales of their great brand Budweiser exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to keep pace with the public demand for Budweiser.

LONDON, Sept. 16—The British official press bureau quotes Russian official sources as authority for the statement that the rout of the Austrian army in Galicia is completed. The Austrians are estimated to have lost 20,000 men in killed and wounded, and 100,000 men and 400 guns captured. This communication the failure of the German effort to save the Austrian army is a net, and the Germans are said to have lost many pieces of siege and other artillery. DEFEAT AT VERDUN TOLD BY WIRELESS

Intercepted Message to War Office at Berlin Admonished Officials Not to Let People Know of It—Daring Endurance of Franco-British Army to be Long Recorded in Memory.

By A. J. Rorke, Correspondent of The Central News and The Toronto World. Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

HAVRE, FRANCE, Sept. 16.—The French wireless station here on Monday picked up the following message from the German general in command at Verdun, intended for the war office in Berlin:

"We have suffered a big defeat and are retreating. Under no circumstances let the German people know about it."

It is probable that the details of the wonderful and daring endurance of the troops of the allied forces in the present campaign will never be properly written, but they will remain in the hearts of the French and will be handed down from father to son in the villages and towns around which our men are battling for the freedom of Europe.

Most of the regiments will be able to embroider into their colors the names of many historic fights, but hardly any will be enabled to hand down such stories as the 2nd Dragoon Guards and the Queen's Bays will transmit to their future recruits.

Story of Soldier. Here is the story that was told to me by Private Bryant as he lay wounded in the hospital ship. "I don't just remember the date. We have not had time to keep dates lately. But it was just over a week ago. We were somewhere in the neighborhood of St. Quentin. We had been fighting all day. We had picked and watered our horses and late that night thought we had seen the last of the Germans for a time."

"The morning after, however, the color guard orders to saddle. We jumped on our horses and at the same moment shells began to burst overhead. Our horses stamped. The enemy's sharpshooters were already in position and while we were recapturing our horse sharpshooters, shot and bullets were making the air sing around us."

"The German artillery fire increased in intensity. It began to wait patiently for our own Royal Field Artillery to get into position. It was delayed by the fact that the battery horses were being watered."

Get Up Maxims. "Something had to be done, so we got the maxims up despite the withering fire. Our boys soon got busy. It would have delighted you to see how calmly and quietly they went about their work."

"Our men realized the meaning of their job. It was to hold on until the artillery came up. In other words, it was to save the regiment from annihilation. Within a few minutes they were sending thousands of shells in as many seconds as the Germans."

"Then the artillery arrived. We had four guns against 11 for the Germans, but some of these were soon silenced. It was not long before the boys were itching to charge. Almost before they expected it, the bugle sounded and they were off 'hell-for-leather' at the enemy's guns."

Captured Eleven Guns. "The net result of that little scrap was the capture of 11 Krupp guns and many prisoners. Bryant was left wounded on the field and was made a prisoner by the Germans. He lived for five days on bread and water, all that the Germans would supply him. On the fifth day a detachment of French cavalry discovered the prisoners and captured the German troops who were guarding them.

"The Britons went to Peronne, where they were cared for by the French." Bryant told me that in the action at St. Quentin, of an entire British battery engaged but 17 men were left alive.

French Cuirassiers Daring. Gaston Bossier, a private in the Sixth Cuirassiers, who is known in civil life as Darine, a lyric artist at the Comedie Francaise, and a favorite of the Parisiennes, tells the following story, which seems almost an eclipse of the blowing up of the Delhi gates.

Bossier, lying wounded in Normandy with a portion of his leg carried away by shrapnel, tells the story in true Gaelic manner. He tries to rise and illustrates with gestures, but falls back groaning:

"Then we Frenchmen, the cuirassiers of France and the English Royal Engineers, as we retreated across the Aisne at Soissons. The Germans advanced rapidly, trying to rush masses of soldiers across."

Sharpshooters Annoying. "Bridges after bridge had to be blown up. The German sharpshooters were firing at us from a clump of trees and the mitrailleurs were making havoc among the allies."

"Suddenly a party of English engineers rushed towards the bridge. They lost heavily, but succeeded in laying powder sufficient to destroy it. Before they could light it all of them were killed. We waited while another party of your brave engineers crept near the bridge. They took to cover, but the Germans got the range and continued a deadly fire."

"Then we Frenchmen watched what we must remember to our dying day. One engineer suddenly dashed alone toward the fuse. He was killed before he reached half way there. A second followed and fell almost upon the body of his comrade. A third, fourth and fifth ran the gauntlet of merciless German fire and met the same death in the same way each followed his comrades until eleven had been killed."

Twelfth Man Succeeds. "The German fire seemed to slacken for an instant. In that instant the bridge was blown up, for the twelfth man, dashing across the space lined with the bodies of his friends, reached the fuse and lighted it. The bridge exploded with a roar as the engineer fell before the German rifle shots."

Bossier was a prisoner of the Germans for some time, but he was rescued by the English. He told me shocking details of German cruelties which he personally witnessed. He himself, altho wounded in the leg, was dragged on his knees with his hands tied behind him, while a lancer thrust his lance against his back. Drivers of transport wagons often cut at him with their whips as he passed. He was thrown into a cellar at Neufchateau and was almost starved when he heard fighting on the streets and voices speaking English. He was just strong enough to call 'au secours' and was rescued."

RUSSIANS PURSUE AUSTRIANS HOTLY

Enemy's Losses Are "Becoming Colossal" in Men and Supplies.

GERMAN AID FAILED

Thousands of Teuton Prisoners and Many Artillery Pieces Taken.

Canadian Press Despatch. PETROGRAD, Sept. 16.—The following summary of the recent fighting in Galicia, from the Russian point of view, has been made public in Petrograd thru semi-official channels:

"Russian troops are pursuing the Austrians with energy, and the defeat of the enemy continues. Part of an Austrian army corps have been virtually annihilated. Russian forces have passed the River San."

"The eastern Russian advance guard is approaching Przemysl. The rapidity with which military operations are being conducted has made it impossible to determine accurately the losses of the enemy, but it may be said that they are becoming colossal. According to such information as has come to hand the Austrians have lost in the neighborhood of 20,000 men killed and wounded, this in addition to 100,000 prisoners; 400 pieces of ordnance and a number of standards. In all directions the roads are crowded with artillery, transport wagons and arms and ammunition, which have been abandoned in mass during the precipitate retreat of the enemy."

"On the River Vistula Russian troops have taken possession of an accumulation of material for bridge building, and they destroyed several steamers, one of which was armoured."

German Aid Failed. "The desperate efforts of German troops to save the Austrian army from utter rout should be recorded. The active participation of German army corps in the fighting has been revealed at several different places along the Austrian front, as for instance at Turobina. The Russians captured 26 pieces of long-range German artillery, in addition to some 5000 German prisoners, at this point. At other places on the front several dozen large German guns, many of which had been prevented by lack of time from taking part in the fighting, fell into their hands."

"In conclusion this announcement of Russian successes declares that the success sent by German did not save the Austrians, and that the heavy defeat inflicted on them by the Germans has contributed to the brilliancy of the Russian victories."

LANDHOLDERS TO GET PROTECTION

Moratorium on Limited Scale to Go Into Effect in Manitoba.

Canadian Press Despatch. WINNIPEG, Sept. 16.—Hon. J. H. Howden, attorney-general, introduced in the legislature a bill dealing with land contracts, which provided that no proceedings may be taken for the sale of any land in default of payment in respect of mortgage or agreement of purchase, if such default took place before Aug. 1, 1914, until after the lapse of six months from that date, or if default occurred after Aug. 1, no proceedings can be taken for six months after the date of default. Any sale made in contravention of this section shall be absolutely null and void.

In all actions for foreclosure the sale period to be allowed for redemption shall be one year and in all pending actions for such foreclosure, in which the time fixed for redemption is after July 31, 1914, the same is extended for one year from the date so fixed for redemption. Action may be brought, however, for payment of interest on unpaid principal or for taxes and unpaid insurance premium, but if judgment is secured, no certificate of judgment shall be issued until after six months has lapsed.

The lieutenant-governor-in-council may repeal this act at any time by proclamation in The Manitoba Gazette. A measure dealing with a loan for the continuance of certain public works was introduced by Hon. Hugh Armstrong, provincial treasurer. This provides for raising a loan, not exceeding two million dollars, for the erection and completion of the new parliament buildings.

Wholesale Grocers Refuse To Sell Us Foodstuffs

Our Co-operative Method Enables Us to Sell the Public Groceries Below Retail Prices.

The Householders' Co-operative Stores, LIMITED, was formed for the purpose of providing protection to the housewives and wage-earners in our city, and thus relieve the strain on the purse—making every dollar earn its full value.

After the Householders' Co-operative Stores, Limited, received its charter from the Ontario Government, authorizing the establishment of a chain of grocery stores throughout the City of Toronto, representatives of our company visited several of the largest wholesale concerns, requesting

A Price List of Foodstuffs on Spot Cash Terms.

To the firm of James Lumbers Company, Limited, 67 Front street east, orders for groceries were given, paid for and goods delivered to some of our stores at:

- Demonstration Store
448 Yonge Street, Cor. College
- STORE NO. 2
239 Royce Ave. Near Corner of Perth Ave.
- STORE NO. 3
391 Brock Ave. Corner Mulr Ave.
- STORE NO. 4
223 Brunswlok Ave. Corner Sussex Ave.
- STORE NO. 5
588 Gerrard Street E. Near Cor. Broadview Ave.

When our buyer visited others of the wholesale grocers, not only did they refuse to sell to any co-operative stores, but when we attempted to give another order to the James Lumbers Co., Limited, a member of that firm declared it would be impossible to fill any further orders from the Householders' Co-operative Stores, Limited.

Read the reasons given by authorized representatives of the following firms in refusing to supply our stores with foodstuffs upon a spot cash basis:

- ARMSTRONG & PAFFARD, LIMITED, 36 Yonge St., formerly Davidson & Hay, Limited: "Providing the Householders' Co-operative Stores, Limited, buys as much from us as our combined retail trade in this city, we will then consider the matter of selling your company."
- WARREN BROS. & COMPANY, LIMITED, 579-583 Queen Street West: "Strong pressure has been brought to bear on us by the Retail Grocers' Association, and we have not yet decided whether we will sell goods to your company."
- MR. BLAIN OF EBY, BLAIN, LIMITED, 21 Front Street East, said: "We consider any co-operative stores as belonging to the actual consumer, and for that reason we cannot sell your company. The retail merchants are our customers, and we will protect them."
- MR. FRANK SLOAN OF JOHN SLOAN & COMPANY, 280 Church Street, said: "We simply won't sell your company any of our goods. We have sufficient customers now."
- THOS. KINNEAR & CO., 49 Front Street East: "We are not in a position to quote you prices on groceries, as the prices are varying greatly, and, we think, would be too high for you at present."
- PERKINS, INCE & COMPANY, 41-43 Front St. East: "We will not sell any of our goods to the Householders' Co-operative Stores."
- PARSONS, BROWN & COMPANY, 78 Colborne Street: "No, we cannot sell any of our goods to the Householders' Co-operative Stores, Limited."
- H. P. ECKARDT & COMPANY, 3 Church Street: After promising to submit their price list, later declared: "The Retail Merchants' Association is sore on any co-operative company, and while we regret it, we cannot sell you folks."
- JAMES LUMBERS COMPANY, Limited, 67 Front Street East: "We cannot sell you any more goods."

In refusing to sell the Householders' Co-operative Stores, Limited, foodstuffs, which lie in quantity in their warehouses, we believe such action

Warrants a Searching Investigation By The Government.

The Householders' Co-operative Stores, Limited, is here to stay, but as a result of the above facts is

U. S. Must Remain Neutral Reply Given to Belgians

President Wilson Intimates That Righting of Wrongs Must Rest With Nations in Assembly After Peace Has Been Concluded.

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The Belgian commission which comes to protest against alleged German atrocities in Belgium, was received in the east room of the White House today by President Wilson, who said:

"Permit me to say with what sincere pleasure I receive you as representatives of the King of the Belgians, a people for whom the people of the United States feel so strong a friendship and admiration, a king for whom they entertain so sincere a respect, and express my hope that we may have many opportunities of earning and deserving their gratitude."

Hereditary Rights. The statement presented by the Belgian commission was, in part: "Ever since her independence was first established, Belgium has been declared neutral in perpetuity. This neutrality, guaranteed by the powers, has recently been violated by one of them. Had we consented to abandon our neutrality for the benefit of one of the belligerents, we would have betrayed our obligations towards the others, and it was the sense of our international obligations as well as that of our dignity and honor that has given us to resistance."

After citing outrages as previously published, the report continued: "In this frightful holocaust, which is sweeping all over Europe, the United States has adopted a neutral attitude. And it is for this reason that your country, standing apart from either one of the belligerents, is in the best position to judge without bias impartially the conditions under which the war is being waged."

President's Reply. Mr. Wilson thanked the commission for the judicial report, and said: "It is the law my most attentive perusal, and my most thoughtful consideration. You will, I am sure, not expect me to say more. Presently—I pray God very soon—this war will be over. The day of accounting will then come, when, I take it for granted, the nations of Europe will assemble to determine a settlement. Where wrongs have been committed, their consequences and the relative responsibilities involved will be assessed. The nations of the world have fortunately, by agreement, made a plan for such reckoning and settlement. What such a plan cannot compass, the opinion of mankind, the final arbiter in such matters, will supply."

No Hasty Judgment. "It would be unwise, it would be premature, for a single government, however fortunately separated from the present struggle, it would be inconsistent with the neutral position of any nation which, like this, has no part in the contest, to form or express a final judgment."

"I need not assure you that this conclusion, in which instinctively feel that you will yourselves concur, is spoken frankly because, in warm friendship, and as the best means of perfect understanding between us, an understanding based upon mutual respect, admiration and cordiality."

INDIAN TROOPS ON WAY NUMBER 70 THOUSAND

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 16.—Premier Asquith announced today that the Indian troops of the British army are on their way to the seat of war. It is believed that they number about 70,000. Altho the premier did not say so, it is probable that these troops have already reached the front and are taking part in the battle now raging in France. It has been the custom of the war office and the government press bureau not to forecast any event, but to wait until it had happened before making any announcement.

ADVERTISEMENTS

WHAT DYSPYPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

"Indigestion practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore, stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food which is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or food which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisulphated magnesia doubles the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach, but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of doing so in the case of the stomach. Get a little bisulphated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisulphated magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right."

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—Timely batting and brilliant fielding enabled Boston to win from St. Louis today 6 to 2. It was "Evers' Day," the local captain being presented with a silver service by his club associates, a timely gift, as Evers' home in Troy was ransacked by burglars last night.

Ho, For Dorvall

Canadian Press Despatch.
 MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—Monday next will be set aside as a civic half-holiday in order to give every Montreal resident an opportunity to go to the track of the Dorval Jockey Club, and so help along the cause of the Canadian Patriotic Fund. This was decided upon today, following a conference between Mayor Martin and a delegation from the racing club. The plan is that the club shall issue to the Patriotic Fund committee 25,000 tickets to the Dorval races, and that these shall be sold by girls throughout the city at the rate of $1.50 each, all the proceeds to go to the fund.

FEDERAL LEAGUE WANTS THE COIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—A chance for the Federal League to participate in the world's series was asked today in a letter from James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal League, to members of the National Baseball Commission. In a plea for a truce in the interests of the supporters of the game, Mr. Gilmore declared that the national agreement did not prohibit the clubs in organized baseball playing an outside club, outlined the claims of the Federalists to be regarded as a major league, and contended that no club could rightfully claim the world's championship until it had met the pennant winner of the Federal League.

"We suggest," writes President Gilmore, "in the interest of the game, that at least for the time being we forget our differences and our acts of war, and peacefully, in keeping with the spirit of the national agreement, arrange a schedule for a world's championship between the three leagues."

The author of the letter was sent to August Herrmann (chairman of the commission), Ban Johnson and John K. Tener.

GRAND OPERA WINS THE FREE-FOR-ALL

Record Crowd in Attendance on Closing Day of Oshawa Fair.

OSHAWA, Sept. 16.—This town seems favored with weather conditions for the fair. The opening day saw the largest attendance for the first day in the history of the exhibition, at least since its inception here. It being the final day the town is full of strangers, and this is the largest day in the history of the South Ontario fair. The two unfinished races were the first on the program. With very little delay the first given the word, Joe S., in the 250 pace and trot, after rounding the first turn, stumbled, going down and throwing Driver John Mead, who fortunately was not seriously hurt. He was able to drive in the next race. The sixth and final heat in the 215 pace was won by Clara C., owned by J. Easley of Stirling. The heat was very close between the winner and Toney Brino. The 250 pace was finished by Fred L., the Newmarket horse winning the last two heats. The exhibition in front of the grand stand was the best ever seen at this fair. The free-for-all, with such fast horses, was the big drawing card. Every inch of the grand stand was filled, and they were one of the largest grandstands of any county fair in Canada.

MEDAL OF HONOR SUITS

Toronto Fair Exhibit to be sold at The Semi-Ready Store.

"Billy" Hay, of the Toronto Semi-Ready Store, announces that the fine exhibit of Semi-ready garments and R. J. Tooke haberdashery, which occupied the booth in the industrial hall at the Toronto Fair, will be sold at his store during the next three days.

This exhibit was specially made and prepared for the exhibition, and it is needless to say that every article was designed to meet and to welcome critical and close inspection.

In order to make the sale attractive to those who can admire the high art in men's wear, but who feel that present times call for patriotic economy, Mr. Hay says he will place on sale some good fall and winter suits at $8 and $12.50. The Exhibition garments, each one worthy of a medal of honor, will be sold at the label price, concludes "Billy" Hay.

Billy Hay says:

"I am going to make this sale of Exhibition Models an event worth your while.

"And I can tell you that every customer who buys this week will feel that he has decorated himself with clothes worthy a medal of honor.

"Our exhibit at the Fair attracted a great deal of attention, and when the Semi-ready Company said I might have their chief designer's original models for my Toronto store, I was naturally delighted.

"The R. J. Tooke Company assented also, and I have the 'reasons why' for a loud shout.

"There are no enhanced prices, and though every garment and every article was made with meticulous care, I am going to sell them at the label prices to prove that Semi-ready, though high-class and of expensive parentage, spells real economy.

"To make the Exhibition Sale doubly attractive, I will have this big store bristling with Bargains during the show.

"Today I offer:

- "1 Box of R. J. Tooke Collars, 12 in a box, any size, any style, for $1.40
- "2 R. J. Tooke Shirts, any size, any style, for $1.90
- "2 Suits of $4 Scotch Wool Underwear, for $5.00
- "100 Suits 'Semi-ready,' worth $15 to $25, for, each $12.50
- "500 Silk Cravats, each 50c
- "500 English Socks, 3 pairs $1.00

"And I am showing all the new Fall models in Suits, Overcoats, Dress Suits and Tuxedo Jackets.

R. M. C. IS NOT OFFICIALLY OUT

Intercollegiate Union Has Not Been Notified as Yet—Rugby Gossip.

A Kingston despatch says: Jack Harlett of Queens says the college should have one of its own teams in its history this year. Students of the school of mines have been holding daily practice.

The schedule will be played as drawn up last fall. Up until the present time the cadets of the Royal Military College have not notified the officers of the union that they intend to drop out. If they do retire the series will be concluded with victory by McGill and Queens.

John Dawson, secretary of Queen's Athletic Association, stated that he was not in favor of the revising of the senior intercollegiate Rugby schedule, as suggested by McGill. The dropping out of the R.M.C. team means that Queens will have the first bye. If the schedule is changed, it means that if R.M.C. wants to go into the series again next fall, the change will have to be made. Queens will likely play its first game on Oct. 17.

The initial meeting of the City Rugby League will be held on Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock in the Eastonia Club parlors, Yonge and McGill streets. All clubs intending to enter teams in the league will be asked to send their representatives sharp on time, as considerable business is to be transacted, and therefore an early start is necessary. The season of 1914 gives promise of being one of the best in the history of the league.

The Balmly Beach Club wish all their Rugby men out to the regular practice Friday night at Scarborough, as arrangements will be completed for sending a team to Rosedale grounds on Saturday afternoon. This season they will have a practice game with Argos. The club would like to meet all players who wish to wear B.C. colors this season, so that the players will get the benefit of all working together in the different teams as much as possible before the union and league games commence.

SEEK LEGISLATION TO DEFER PAYMENTS

Government Asked to Allow Courts to Relieve Distressed Mortgagees.

JUDGES TO DECIDE

Cabinet Lends Sympathetic Ear to Appeal of Representative Deputation.

The agitation for some action on the part of the government to relieve persons who could not advance payments on houses or property, came to a head yesterday when the Provincial Industrial Association approached the cabinet and asked for special legislation.

Not a Moratorium. The legislation sought could not be termed a "moratorium" in the strict sense of the word. It applies only to deferred payments on the principal of a sum and does not include interest claims.

It was pointed out to the government that the way is now clear for some action which will afford relief without calling for a special session of the house.

VERSE MELTED HEART OF COURT OFFICIAL

Chairman Drayton Bought Copy of Prof. Menge's Newly Translated Poetry.

Quite a warm scene threatened when Fred Dolson, assessment revisor for the public schools, and J. G. Hall for the separate schools, challenged each other's information at the court of revision yesterday.

The monotony of the court was varied by the appeal of Prof. George John Menge, B.A., formerly a lecturer at McMaster, on his house assessment.

It was pointed out to the government that the way is now clear for some action which will afford relief without calling for a special session of the house.
