CANALEJAS TRIUMPHS OVER CLERICAL ENEMIES

Spanish Premier "Comes Back" With Reconstructed Ministry From Which Opponents of His Religious Policy Have Been Removed—Move to Conciliate the Army.

LEASE OF POWER NOT LONG, SAYS VATICAN

MADRID, April 2.—The ministerial crisis, which appeared fraught with the greatest possibilities, seems to have ended as abruptly as it began.

King Alfonso on his arrival from Seville this afternoon, immediately received Senor Canalejas and requested him to continue in power.

The premier hopes the work of reconstruction may be completed to-morrow and that the ministry will appear in the cortes without delay.

The socialist feeling seems to be passing, and the army, which has been so bitter in the Ferrer case, now seems to have changed its attitude.

It is understood that one of the first steps of the premier will be to relieve the captain-general of Madrid of his command.

The continuation of Senor Canalejas in power is universally regarded as the only possible solution of a crisis of exceptional gravity.

The Vatican talks of difficulties. ROME, April 2.—The report that Senor Canalejas has been summoned to form a new cabinet is not welcomed.

The opinion is held that his new lease of power will not be for long.

The Vatican officials base their belief on the fact that there are three questions of grave import which will confront the new cabinet.

These are: First, the Moroccan situation; second, the budget with a large loan that it might be difficult to float; and third, the associations bill, which, it is said here, is opposed even by those outside the religious congregations.

ARMED NEGROES FIRE VOLLEY INTO CROWD

Whites Retaliated and Police Were Unable to Control Mob—Youth's Clever Capture

LAUREL, Del., April 2.—About 10 o'clock Saturday night a mob of armed negroes swooped down upon a crowd of spectators in the main thoroughfare of the town and fired a volley of bullets and buckshot into the crowd.

George Hudson, 50 years old, a white man of Scotch descent, was in the line of spectators and was struck in the leg by a bullet which shattered the bone.

Officers were unable to cope with the mob, and there was a fierce struggle between the two races until 3 o'clock this morning. Windows were shattered and the exterior of buildings were greatly damaged.

To-day when it was learned that young Stockley had died a number of white men armed themselves, and with Chief of Police Ellis and others entered the colored district and raided the house, which was said to be the headquarters of the negro rioters.

Seven horses were burned in a fire which started in the rear of 74 and 76 Avenue-street, at 12:35 yesterday morning. One of the stables was owned by Moses Sanderovich, who lost one horse, and whose loss is estimated at $200.

TRIED TO END HIS LIFE IN ICY WATERS OF BAY

But Frigidity Made Christian Walters Alter Mind—Sanity Doubted

The police think he's crazy. At any rate, Christian Walters, since his arrival in this city last Thursday has been acting rather strangely.

When he was taken into No. 1 police station, there was a piece of ice in his hair and he was chattering like a monkey.

Sergeant Allison poured a stimulant into him and, as he warmed up, he began to say something about someone trying to steal his daughter.

But it appears that the same gentleman sauntered into the central detective office at the city hall last Thursday night and asked to be arrested.

He said he had just arrived from New York, where his daughter had been abducted. He also said that the kidnapper had defied him to leave the metropolis, and he had ventured to Canada, just to show that he was not going to be bluffed.

It was authoritatively announced that the western miners are well supplied with funds, since they have at their back the United Mine Workers of America, whose coffers are declared to be heavy with coin.

Asked as to the likelihood of the strike spreading, a high labor authority declared that unless the demands of the men were granted, there was every chance of a long and bitter struggle, which would involve not only every miner in the west, but also bring in every railway man and every worker in the mechanical and industrial lines.

Officers of the Western Canada Mine Workers are arrested for having violated the Lomieux Trades and Deputies Act, a general strike may be declared all over the Dominion.

Eight foreigners who braved the deadly "third rail" were deported.

WINDS' R. April 2.—Within the past 24 hours Canadian immigration officers have taken into custody at this point eight foreigners who attempted by various routes to cross the boundary line. These men will be deported to Detroit to-morrow, and if caught a second time they will have to serve a jail sentence.

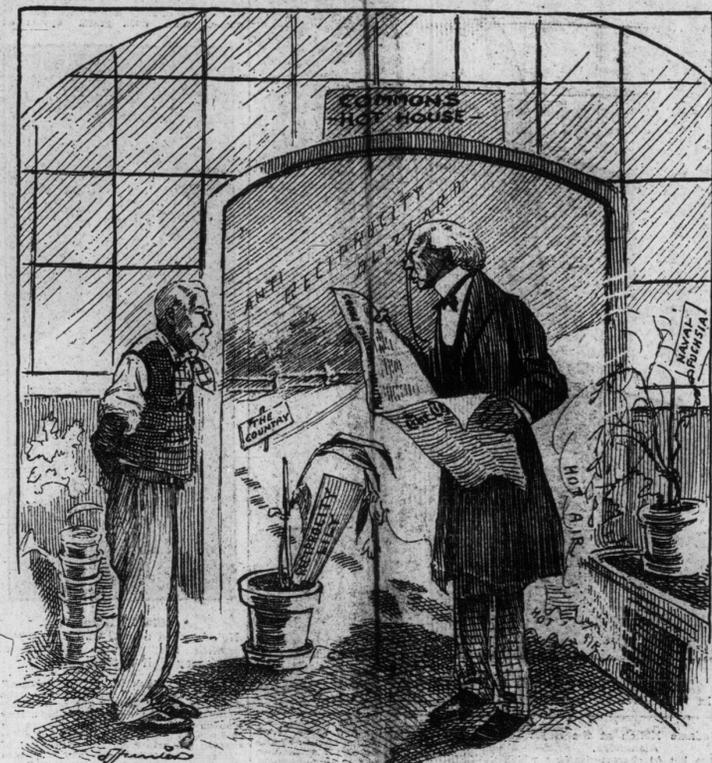

The deadly "third rail" at the tunnel apparently has no terrors for this class of undesirables, who have on several occasions managed to evade the watchman at the tunnel mouth on the American side, and got into Canada by a real underground route.

Seven horses were burned in a fire which started in the rear of 74 and 76 Avenue-street, at 12:35 yesterday morning. One of the stables was owned by Moses Sanderovich, who lost one horse, and whose loss is estimated at $200.

The other, in which six horses died, was owned by Adolph Meyers, who estimates his loss in harness, etc., at $1500. The cause of fire is unknown.

MONTREAL SOLID AGAINST THE PACT

House to House Canvass by the Anti-Reciprocity League Shows Little Reciprocity Sentiment

MONTREAL, April 2.—The Anti-Reciprocity League issued a report to-day to the effect that there seems no subsiding of the feelings against the proposed Taft-Fielding reciprocity pact in Montreal.

Members of the Anti-Reciprocity League state strong opposition continues with unabated vigor, and that as the great masses of the people are being met in their homes and in the outlying portions of the city, an even greater degree of anti-reciprocity feeling is being met.

Two canvassers in Hochelaga, after visiting 12 factories in Hochelaga, on Notre Dame-street alone, brought back signatures giving, for 78, against 61; in a large shoe manufacturing plant, in the north end, for 3, against 138; another steel concern, for 2, against 149; paint manufacturing concern, for 2, against 64; an east end factory, for 7, against 284; Montreal Light, Heat and Power building, for 6, against 91.

CHINAMAN HIT BY AUTO Taken to Home Internally Injured—Machine Not Going Fast

As she alighted from a westbound Dundas car at the corner of Dundas-street and Ritchie-avenue, at 4:45 yesterday afternoon, Joseph Chew, a Chinaman of 110 Arthur-street, was knocked down and run over by an automobile driven by James Ross, Jr., son of Dr. Ross, 481 Sherbourne-street.

TARIFF REVISION IN NEW CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, April 1.—At the Democratic caucus held to-night, a legislative program was adopted, which is expected to confine the activities of the coming extra session to a popular election of senators, Canadian reciprocity, TARIFF REVISION, investigation of governmental departments, congressional reappointments, extension of Arizona and New Mexico, general deficiency appropriations, District of Columbia legislation and publicity of campaign contributions.

The membership of the various committees and the appointment of officials will also be decided upon.

LITERARY GOATS SAVED WHILE SHEEP PERISHED

Seventeen Volumes Adjudged Pure Burned—"Arabian Nights" Goes Back to Bookseller

It was an impressive ceremony on Saturday, when the police consigned certain banned works of fiction to the city hall furnace. But, unfortunately, there is an aftermath, and an unpleasant one, in that it means that the city as well as Albert Britnell, the Yonge-street bookseller, have to contribute towards the cost of the literary funeral.

To-day or to-morrow the police will receive a prosaic bill from Mr. Britnell. It is for about 17 books that, given a good character by the magistrate, were committed to the flames.

LURED INTO BASEMENT George Smithson Accuses Two Men of Holding Him Up For $500

Norman Knights, 45 Grove-avenue, and George Kramer, 3 Somerset-place, were arrested at 8:30 Saturday night by Detective Miller, charged with assault and robbery.

It is alleged they enticed George Smithson into the basement of a billiard room at the corner of Parliament and King-streets, and there overpowered him and relieved him of $50 and a bottle of whiskey. He presented himself at the surgery of Dr. Hill, 535 East King-street, and had two stitches put in his head. He laid the information and furnished the description, which resulted in the arrests.

Knights is 24 years old, and Kramer is about 49.

SUFFRAGETTE CENSUS DEMONSTRATION FAILS

Many Women Spent Night at Risk, But Were Counted by the Enumerators

LONDON, April 2.—Except as an advertisement for their cause the opposition of the suffragettes to the taking of the census of London to-night was apparently a rather futile demonstration.

The midnight meeting, which it was proposed to hold at Trafalgar Square and Westminster, with the object of marching in procession to a skating rink, where the women were to spend the night, proved a fiasco.

Only about a score of suffragettes appeared at either rendezvous. At the skating rink there were exciting scenes, thru the enormous crowds which had gathered to watch the proceedings. They blocked the entrances and prevented the ingress of the suffragettes, some of whom fainted in the crush.

Ultimately, a large force of police was called out to clear the neighborhood. Many women spent the night at the rink, but it is understood that they were counted by the census officials as they entered. A number of well-known women placed their residences in the west end at the disposal of the suffragettes, who are sleeping on sofas, tables and chairs, their hostesses taking the risk of being fined for refusing to account for their guests.

In Edinburgh, Birmingham and other cities, the suffragettes adopted similar tactics.

CANADA A RICH FIELD FOR BRITISH TRADE

Morning Post Eerates British Liberals For Their Short-Sighted Policy

(Canadian Associated Press Cable). LONDON, April 2.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Morning Post discussing the report of Richard Brigg, trade commissioner, on the trade of Canada, says: Plain facts and figures supplied are more convincing than any eloquence of the wonderful resources of Canada, its amazing aptitude of development and great future. No other part of the world presents such a rich field of expansion for British trade.

It is probable that the church board will meet next week to decide on a locality, and will send their decision to the conference as a recommendation.

ENGLISH PEACE ZEAL UNDAMPED

Nine Hundred Meetings Held Yesterday in All Cities of the Kingdom

LONDON, April 2.—The attitude of the Imperial German chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Holweg, has not dampened British zeal for arbitration. The projected demonstration to be held in Albert Hall has been abandoned in favor of a wider national movement.

It took the form of 900 meetings yesterday and to-day in all the cities of the kingdom. Councils representing 10,000 evangelical free churches adopted a resolution in support of the proposed treaty and welcoming the idea of American churches observing April 2 as Arbitration Sunday.

News that the negotiations had actually been begun was received at these meetings with great enthusiasm. Arbitration was the theme of most of the churches, and a great peace demonstration was held at the Whitefields Tabernacle, where Lord Coleridge presided.

There is a tide in the affairs of men," he said: "To-day there is a great tide and peace waves rolling across the Atlantic. It ought to be taken at the flood."

Referring at length to Dr. von Bethmann-Holweg's speech, he said that, in his opinion, it was below the grandeur of the theme, yet it contained passages of hope.

LONDON, April 1.—(New York Tribune Cable.)—There is much activity outside of religious bodies in the direction of Anglo-American arbitration. London and the great municipal bodies of England and Scotland are co-operating heartily in the organization of the national movement, and a parliamentary committee recruited from both sides of the house of commons has been formed for promoting an agreement between the two countries in favor of absolute arbitration.

High Church Tories like Lord Hugh Cecil, who committed to it as strongly as the Scotch Presbyterians or the Welsh Nonconformists, and a series of non-partisan public meetings already has been held in many English towns.

The advocates of this movement for arbitration with the United States are discouraged by the German Chancellor's lack of faith in universal arbitration and the limitation of armaments. They perceive that the German emperor wants to break up the Anglo-American concord.

They perceive that the German emperor wants to break up the Anglo-American concord. They admit that England and Germany must continue their wasteful competition in battleships and guns without any check or check by the logic of the situation.

The chancellor's willingness to come to an agreement with England respecting an exchange of naval information is only a meagre gain which will not alter materially the existing condition of rivalry. The arbitration advocates reject the idea that Berlin can veto the concord between London and Washington.

No Universal Brotherhood Yet. If war among the English speaking nations has really become unthinkable the earnest advocates of peace concede that the generalization about universal brotherhood and the limitations of

JUMPED OVERBOARD Third-class Passenger Without a Ticket Ended His Life

HALIFAX, April 2.—The White Star Dominion steamer Southwark arrived yesterday from Liverpool with 571 passengers, the great bulk of whom went by special trains. They are from the British Isles. About 30 are coal miners, who leave for Cape Breton to-morrow morning. The Southwark proceeded to Portland, where she will discharge a large cargo.

On the second day out from Liverpool, a man on the Southwark, who was in the third-class, but who was said to have had no ticket, jumped overboard, and the steamer dove to, for five hours, he was never seen again. A card was found on which he had written these words: "I am no good either to God, man or my wife." His identity was revealed by a valise. He has a family in England.

CONGREGATION TO CONTINUE Sentiment Among Members of Carlton St. Church Against Losing Identity

It would seem that it is the wish of the great majority of the congregation of Carlton-street Methodist Church to continue the congregation. Rev. R. J. Trelovan, the pastor, yesterday morning, in referring to the sale of the church, announced that it rested with the congregation as to whether they should continue as such, and the officers are of the opinion that the great majority of the congregation do desire to retain their identity.

DEGREE SHIELDS WIFE DESERTERS

Rev. Byron H. Stauffer Warmly Condemns "No Temere"—Challenge to Father Minehan.

The announcement that Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, pastor of Bond-street Congregational Church, would reply to the remarks of Father Minehan on mixed marriages, was sufficient to attract to the church last night hundreds who were unable to gain admittance.

Rev. Mr. Stauffer's address, forcefully delivered, was full of pungent comment and manifestly made a powerful impression.

"The question before Canada is this: Shall Roman Catholic wife deserters be allowed to hide behind the 'No Temere' decree, and be helped in so doing by Canadian courts of law? That is the only question before us and the issue should not be beclouded," said Mr. Stauffer.

After citing the now famous case in Quebec whereby Judge Laurendeau of Quebec declared invalid the marriage of Miss Emma Marie Cloward and Eugene Herbert, both Roman Catholics, because performed by a Protestant clergyman, on July 14, 1908, the speaker declared this practically made out the wife to be a harlot, and the child illegitimate, while "Mr. Herbert, forsooth, can go and marry a Roman Catholic girl and bear the charming nuptial benediction which Father Minehan has so eloquently described to us."

"Here is where the 'No Temere' decree comes into collision with Canadian law, and that is the issue before us to-day."

Glossed Over Issue. Rev. Mr. Stauffer charged that Father Minehan had glossed over the issue last Sunday without touching the Laurendeau decision, and that the latter deserted his usual savvy by using such phrases as "religious," "religious," "venomous and lecherous slanders," "pulpit propaganda of hatred and falsehood," "theaters," "hounds," "infernal falsehoods."

The speaker agreed with Father Minehan on three points: The first was that abuse is not argument. The speaker, for saying a good word about Father Minehan recently, had to endure the same kind of abuse in the back. They also agreed in hatred of wholesale divorces and that mixed marriages were usually unfortunate.

Catholic Church a Monopoly. But if marriages among the different Protestant denominations were not particularly unfortunate, the difference between Roman Catholics and Protestants?

"Because the Roman Catholic priest insists that his church is a monopoly in all spiritual matters. I said last July that the Roman Catholic Church is the biggest trust in the world; that by tries to keep a religious monopoly in Spain; that it claims absolute control of the way to heaven; and that the pope—even the wickedest of them—have claimed to hold the key to heaven," said the speaker.

Stating that Father Minehan had not answered the queries which he had admitted salvation outside the Roman Catholic Church and favored placing all religious bodies in the same line as the "infernal falsehoods" on a like footing, he continued: "I now ask Father Minehan: (1) Do you regard the Laurendeau decision fair to Mrs. Herbert? (2) Would you officiate now at his marriage to a Roman Catholic woman, his former bride and child still living, if you were a priest in Quebec Province?"

"Now, I repeat: Without the claim of monopoly the Roman Catholic Church could not live a day. For this claim it must have a monopoly in contact with Protestants. It must have a closed Bible lest its people think for themselves. It must forbid the attendance of the faithful at Protestant services of any kind."

Termed Heretics. The priest, I am sorry to have to say, must teach his people categorically or inferentially to look down on Protestants. Now Father Minehan denies this. He may call us separated brethren, but his church calls us heretics; he may call by a clergyman, but his church calls me a pretender, a false shepherd."

Referring to a Roman Catholic text book, "Mollie's Mistake," in which a young Roman Catholic girl questions her priest on the mixed marriage question, the speaker said: "He argues that because Abraham would not let Isaac marry a heathen girl, the venerable patriarch should bring the blush of shame to many a Christian father who reasons thus, 'It is a heathen girl.'"

MRS. THORNLEY MUST GIVE PROOF OR RETRACT

Charges of Immorality in London Public Schools Raises Storm of Protest.

LONDON, Ont., April 1.—Official recognition was today taken of W. C. T. U. President Mrs. Thornley's charges against the morality of children in the public schools. Mayor Beattie issued a statement in which he declares Mrs. Thornley must either prove or retract her statements.

Mrs. Thornley is standing by her guns, and in public letter reiterates her statements, made before the ministerial alliance, except that she was not referring to London schools in particular, but to all Ontario, and intimates that the matter must be pushed to a conclusion. She claims to have received fresh evidence of the existence of the conditions of which she spoke, but the evidence has come to her through persons two or three removed from the original narrators.

Chairman Weekes of the board of education also issued a statement today in which he declares he will present a resolution denying the charges.

Official action was taken following the publication in the morning paper of the statements of Mrs. Thornley which were accepted as facts.

Mrs. Thornley's letter today is of two columns in length. In it she tells of a child 12 years of age who told his mother of alleged conditions in his school. Mrs. Thornley writes it in this way:

"Since this controversy appeared in the press a mother paid me a social call, in the course of which she told me the following: One of her boys, a lad of 12, is in the highest room of the public school in the section of the city where they live. A few weeks before this call the mother was having her 'bed time talk' with her little boy, when he asked the meaning of a word that for two or three generations has signified amongst school children a violation of the seventh commandment. Much startled, the mother asked the child had heard it. Then out came this story. Last fall some of the boys and girls of that school had gone to the woods together on different occasions. Recently the teachers, having heard serious rumors with regard to these expeditions, had been trying to ferret out the boys and girls had been taken out of their classes in school hours; amongst this particular group of children consternation reigned, and the school was fairly humming with speculation. This 12-year-old lad—a very inquisitive boy—had finally enquired of a young friend what the delinquent was doing, and this low word had told the story."

Mrs. Thornley further on tells of a woman who, having read her utterances to the minister, called on her. Mrs. Thornley tells her caller's story as follows:

"A certain pre-arranged conversation for which she was responsible, took her one evening to the church. She found the doors locked, and she and others with her had to go away. Later, the janitor—a very fine young married man—explained that ever since

NEW DUTCH TARIFF ONE OF MODERATE PROTECTION

Government Reserves Right to Retaliate on Other Nations If Necessary.

THE HAGUE, April 2.—The new tariff law which was introduced by the government in the first chamber yesterday is a moderately protective one in character. Its sponsors claim that while nations whenever it is thought 10,000,000 guildens of revenue annually, the new duties will not be so onerous as to keep out foreign imports. A guilden is the equivalent of 40 cents in American money.

It is also asserted that the tariff will not be high enough to induce the formation of Dutch trusts to put up the price of raw materials. The general idea is that half manufactured goods shall be subject to an import duty of from three to six per cent, ad valorem, and articles nearly finished, to 10 per cent. Wholly finished goods will be assessed 12 per cent. Wheat, coal, minerals, yarn, petroleum and meat for cattle would remain on the free list. Fine flour would pay a duty of 10 cents per Dutch hundred kilograms, cigars, 125 guildens per hundred kilos and 20 per cent ad valorem; cigarettes, 25 guildens per 100 kilos and 40 per cent ad valorem.

The government reserves the power to use retaliatory measures against other nations whenever it is thought necessary. It is estimated that 9,000,000 guildens derived from the new revenue will be used as a fund for the payment of old age pensions to workingmen.

LABOR PARTY, SO-CALLED FAVORS RECIPROCITY

James Stevenson Elected President at Meeting Held on Sunday.

The Independent Labor Party held a reunion in the Labor Temple yesterday afternoon, to elect officers for the ensuing year. It was decided to hold open air meetings during the summer, and to put up several candidates in the next municipal elections.

After a lengthy discussion, those present endorsed a resolution in favor of the proposed reciprocity agreement.

A resolution endorsing the action of Allan Studholme, in so strenuously and devotedly espousing the cause and principles of organized labor in the legislature, was unanimously passed.

The new officers are: President, Jas. Stevenson; vice-president, N.J. Martin; corresponding secretary, H. B. Woodson; financial secretary, Ed. Stephenson; treasurer, F. Evans; organizer, Magnus Sinclair; executive committee, J. Watt, A. Millar, Vineberg, McCann, Sangster.

The Independent Labor Party was organized in 1908, and entered candidates in the provincial contest, but they got decidedly meagre support from the workmen they claimed to represent, and the party modestly eracot itself.

The present movement is understood to be inspired by a few individuals who wish to give the impression that a majority of Toronto's workmen are in favor of reciprocity.

BOARD OF TRADE SIGHTS FOUR HUNDRED MARK

But to Add One Thousand Members Means Plenty of Hustling This Week.

The mail received at the Board of Trade on Saturday was the heaviest since the membership campaign commenced. Four days of the allotted period of ten have elapsed and the tally has not yet reached the four hundred mark, showing that the present week must yield more than a hundred applications a day if the required thousand is to be reached. The score of captains and their committees have their work cut out to accomplish this. Several captains reported on Saturday, one handing twenty names and another eighteen. At Buffalo a similar campaign, has been carried on during the past week and up to Thursday 58 names had been enrolled, one captain bringing in 152 and another 90.

A correspondent noting this says: "Toronto cannot afford to let Buffalo beat her, but in order not to do so your workers will have to get a big hustle on." Another correspondent says large firms should induce their heads of departments to become members. Yet another would like to see commercial travelers in. Lawyers are sending their names in freely, but doctors so far are not over anxious, altho there are many questions before the city in which the medical fraternity are interested. A prominent wholesale merchant writing says he considers it a duty that every citizen owes the city to become a member, and thus help forward the good work the board has in view. A large retail merchant says the board is doing well in encouraging retail merchants to join. "What I would Spring Work in the Garden.

The natural history section of the Canadian Institute will meet at the institute this evening at 8 o'clock, when Mr. R. Cameron, park superintendent, will lecture on "Spring Work in the Garden."

Another bill of the city's old scrip is now in the possession of City Treasurer Cody, but it is only a temporary visitor at the city treasury. It is nine years older than the one which the city treasurer redeemed on Thursday last, and is for $2 or 30 shillings currency. It is made out in favor of Alex Hamilton, a noted painter and decorator of the city, who had a place of business at the corner of King and George-sts. in the early days. It bears the signatures of John Powell, mayor; A. T. McCord, chamberlain; and J. G. Chewett, chairman of the finance committee.

The bill is the property of Mrs. C. B. Glass, formerly Miss Patriarcho, and came into her possession with an old desk of her father's. Mrs. Glass, who is connected with Kilgour Bros., brought it down to the city treasurer on Saturday.

Provost Macklem's Lecture. At the evening service at St. Alban's Cathedral, Rev. Provost Macklem of Trinity College, expressed the general regret at Bishop Du Moulin's decease, eulogizing in high terms the faithful service and life of the departed worker.

Rev. C. J. James, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, in his morning sermon expressed his personal loss at the death of the great Irish bishop, one of whom he had known personally. Mr. James also was rector of St. Thomas Church, Hamilton, under Bishop Du Moulin, and was brought even more closely to him by the fact that the bishop had been incumbent at St. Thomas early in his career.

Dr. Dutton Tells the Reason Why

Patients are coming to us from other osteopaths because we get results in weeks, where it takes other osteopaths months. Our equipment is the finest and we have the largest osteopathic institution in Canada. Don't waste your time, but come and consult us if you have any friends or are yourself in need of treatment.

A good suggestion is made by one of the captains, namely that each received should be urged to get another, and that the two should get two more. The thousand, he thinks, would soon be reached in this way.

COUNCIL MEETS TO-DAY

Session Shorter Than the Average Expected—Some Food for Debate.

Unless something unforeseen comes up the prospects are good for a meeting of the city council to-day that will end without the suspension of the 6 o'clock rule.

Ald. McCarthy's motion for the re-organization of the waterworks department, making it separate from the works department, is up, but he will request that it stand until after the investigation of the works department is over.

The one subject which promises prolonged discussion is the report of the special committee on tubes, which passed the board of control, which recommends that the city architect be empowered to make the contractors either put an additional force on or in the event of their failing to do so, to take the work out of their hands and enforce the penalty clause of the contract.

Yonge-Street Corner Sold. Meers, Sellers & Gough have purchased the property at the southeast corner of Yonge and Dundonald-sts. It has a frontage of about 30 feet on Yonge-st. and of nearly 150 feet on Dundonald-st. The price is said to have been about $75,000.

SHELDON ARRAIGNED

Case Will Go Before Grand Jury This Morning.

WEST ENDS LOSE TWO TO CENTRAL AND ALL SAINTS

Senior Game Develops Considerable Rough Work—Juniors Engage in Fast Play.

West End Y.M.C.A. dropped two basketball games Saturday night, the seniors going down to defeat at the hands of the fast Central five, 33-17, and the juniors being held away by the speedy All Saints team by 28-25.

The senior game was a hummer from start to finish, with the roughness and accompaniment usual when these two teams meet. Time after time the referee attempted to put off offending players, but the spirit of rivalry proved too strong for fear of punishment, and furious fights were reversed by open blows so often that the spectators became disgusted.

Although usually rough work does not conduce to scientific playing, the boys were putting up the game of their lives. Nervousness in the earlier stages was quite noticeable, but this soon wore off, and a hard, close-checking game resulted. Steady play and let him put up his usual fast game, figuring largely in Central's score.

Swanson was, as usual, right there when needed, and in fact the hard checking of the defence men was largely responsible for their victory. Hamm was the star, taking the foul shots with great success. Had West End got half the foul shots in the first half the game would probably have ended differently.

The steady playing of Bickle and Hamm was very noticeable.

The junior game was even faster than the senior. The teams were very evenly matched, and the first half was as pretty an exhibition of scientific basketball as could be desired. The second half developed a deal of roughness.

All Saints spent the last three minutes of the game on the addition for mixing game, figuring largely in Central's score. The day was perfect and the course all most flat. The Oxford's championship of England, completely outclassed his opponent.

The hall was crowded to the limit, many persons of fashionable society being among the spectators, and when the referee declared the contest a draw there was a noisy demonstration of disapproval.

For nine rounds Langford landed on McVey as he pleased, and the latter showed signs of distress, but he came up somewhat fresher in the tenth and from then on managed to draw thru the contest. There was a great deal of infighting, and the referee was constantly forced to intervene. The faces of both men showed signs of severe punishment at the end.

The fight was for a purse of $1000.

EVANS, JR., EASY WINNER GOLF FINAL AT PINEHURST.

PINEHURST, N.C., April 1.—Charles H. Evans, Jr., of Edgewater, was an easy winner of today's 36-hole final round of the championship trophy in the eleventh annual Pinehurst amateur golf championship, defeating Robert Hunter of Woburn.

It is not, however, his golf victory over which Evans is enthusing to-night, but a flight in the Curtiss biplane as the guest of Lincoln Beachey, which followed it. This latter experience apparently was the biggest event in the life of this 20-year-old university golfer, who is the marvel of the American links to-day.

OXFORD IN RECORD TIME WINS FROM CAMBRIDGE

Winners Time 18 Min. 29 Seconds For the Four and One-Quarter Miles—Weather Ideal

PUTNEY, England, April 1.—Weight, strength and experience conquered form and dash when Oxford University beat Cambridge in the sixty-eighth inter-university boat race over the historic Putney-to-Mortlake course of four and a quarter miles, in the record time of 18 minutes and 29 seconds, to-day.

Oxford had been the favorite throughout the training, and fulfilled the expectations of her followers. Cambridge was unable to get abreast of her rival at any stage of the contest, although the Light Blues got away quicker and spurred gallantly several times.

After the first half-mile the Oxford crew's lead varied from two to three and a half lengths. At Mortlake Oxford led by three-quarters of a length, and this advantage was maintained to the end. Both crews were now pulling steadily, Oxford gradually forging ahead, until at Barnes Bridge she was some 100 yards in front of her rivals.

The Cambridge crew, however, seemed to tire, but the crew fought on, holding the winners to a lead of three lengths at the finish. The smoothness of the water contributed greatly to the fast time, and the Oxford crew's strokes were a strong factor in their victory.

The day was perfect and the course all most flat. The Oxford's championship of England, completely outclassed his opponent.

The hall was crowded to the limit, many persons of fashionable society being among the spectators, and when the referee declared the contest a draw there was a noisy demonstration of disapproval.

Sam Langford Outclasses McVey Decision a Draw

PARIS, April 1.—After several postponements the 20-round fight between Sam McVey and Sam Langford, the American colored heavyweight pugilist, was pulled off to-night in the Citee, Paris.

The fight ended in a draw, as both were unable to get a knockout. Langford, who holds the heavyweight championship of England, completely outclassed his opponent.

The hall was crowded to the limit, many persons of fashionable society being among the spectators, and when the referee declared the contest a draw there was a noisy demonstration of disapproval.

For nine rounds Langford landed on McVey as he pleased, and the latter showed signs of distress, but he came up somewhat fresher in the tenth and from then on managed to draw thru the contest.

The fight was for a purse of $1000.

EVANS, JR., EASY WINNER GOLF FINAL AT PINEHURST.

PINEHURST, N.C., April 1.—Charles H. Evans, Jr., of Edgewater, was an easy winner of today's 36-hole final round of the championship trophy in the eleventh annual Pinehurst amateur golf championship, defeating Robert Hunter of Woburn.

It is not, however, his golf victory over which Evans is enthusing to-night, but a flight in the Curtiss biplane as the guest of Lincoln Beachey, which followed it. This latter experience apparently was the biggest event in the life of this 20-year-old university golfer, who is the marvel of the American links to-day.

Evans struck his golf at the start in the afternoon and the match ended on the 31st green, six up and five to play.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 3, 1911.

NO EAR. It is scarcely fair of the Globe and The Star and The News to refer to the Telegram's objection to "O Canada" as they do. Musical appreciation is a gift and not all are able to enjoy the splendor of great compositions. Such a fine mind as the late Dean Stanley's was precluded from this pleasure. He said he only knew two tunes. One was "The National Anthem" and the other was "Old Hundred," but he was not always able to say which was which. When he heard the great music of Westminster Abbey it was only a confused noise that reached his ears.

Our contemporary should not be faulted with such deficiencies. It is enough to know that The Telegram recognizes and enjoys "The Maple Leaf," and that the magnificent strains of "O Canada" only seem to be a "confused noise" in comparison. Like Dean Stanley The Telegram will by and by learn to hear in silence what gives such unbounded pleasure to others.

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION. We do not believe that the city should itself up with the Street Railway Company in a new agreement by which the company would gain control of the new city lines and operate them. The desire of the people to escape from the thralldom of the street railway is not going to be gratified by any such arrangement. The city council and the board of control especially, should have no false ideas on this point.

We believe the city could buy the railway on fair terms if there were any businesslike basis for negotiation. If a new company came into the field it could buy the company out. There is no reason why the city should not do so except the multitude of advisers and meddlers, such as deprived the old man in the fable of his beast of burden. A strong man in the mayor's chair, accustomed to handling such problems as a corporation with a revenue of $8,000,000 is confronted with, would have no difficulty of finding a solution for the crisis.

If nothing else can be done, and we believe much could be done, the new city bus lines could be operated without cost to the passengers. Practically every one of them would transfer to the street railway cars, and it would be practically all new business. That would mean that the city would get 20 per cent. of the fare paid. And 20 per cent. of the new fares would cover the cost of operation to a very large degree. A very short time would indicate the amount of deficit, if any, and tickets for the cost could be issued. Ten tickets for five cents would probably be sufficient in addition to the 20 per cent. increase, to cover the expense. The plan would only be temporary, for a junction would soon be effected with the city bus service on Yonge-street, which must now be purchased along. Mr. W. D. Lightfoot of Montreal stated last week that there was no other solution for fast transit and down town congestion.

The city must beware of further entanglements with the street railway company.

DEVELOPING NEW ONTARIO.

A most important step is being taken by the board of trade towards a campaign for the development of the northern portion of the province known as New Ontario, which may well become the precursor of much needed activity on the part of the government in the same direction. It is intended to have a luncheon for the members of the board on Thursday, at which Mr. J. L. Englehart, chairman of the T. and N. O. Railway Commission, will speak. No man knows the resources and possibilities of the north country better, and his enthusiasm on the subject is based upon and controlled by the fullest and most accurate information. Mr. Englehart has given practical testimony of the reality of his enthusiasm by the unflinching co-operation he has put into the discharge of his official responsibilities. No doubt the representations he will make on Thursday will enlist the sympathy of many who can assist in opening up the new country.

Mr. R. Home Smith, who has suggested the participation of the board of trade in this necessary exploitation of our valuable territorial resources, has a reputation as a far-seeing and shrewd young business man, and his project of sending an expert thru the whole region to get a report on the possibilities of the north for trade is just what any sensible man would do who had acquired possession of a large estate with which he was unfamiliar.

We know in a general way of the vast mineral and lumber resources, the agricultural possibilities, the railway needs, the water power development necessary, but a synthetic consideration of all these is necessary, to the end that they be estimated from a commercial point of view. They form the assets which the province must promote and develop as a corporation might if it owned them. Toronto is most interested in such a development with any other one place, and should rightly take the lead in it.

LIMITATION OF ARMAMENTS.

Adverse as was the attitude adopted by the German Chancellor towards the movement for a general limitation it had the result of eliciting strong protests from the Liberal press of that country. It is evident, however, that the official view as he expounded it will prevent any immediate hope of lessening naval and military expenditures, and will compel continuation of present conditions. The German government is not prepared to concede that British Imperial necessities justify the policy of maintaining that amount of sea supremacy which Germany insists on maintaining on land in Continental Europe. All that is left for the British Government to do is to pursue the traditional course of ensuring that reasonable measure of naval predominance required by the insular situation of the United Kingdom, and for the protection of the over-sea states and dependencies.

This need not, and will not, interfere with the negotiations for the conclusion of a treaty of universal arbitration now pending between the United Kingdom and the United States. There are and there are some in both countries, who oppose the proposal do not find it difficult to presume occasions of difference, which could not, or would not, be submitted to an international court. But hypothetical causes of contention are not sufficient of themselves to justify the abandonment of an arrangement, which it is equally allowable to assume will tend greatly to diminish the risk of war and of provocations that might involve war. Assurance is given that no hitch has yet occurred in the adjustment of treaty terms and the suggestion that there will be entirely general and will be followed by special treaties consequent upon any difference that may hereafter happen may obviate objections on the part of the United States Senate, grounded on any real or imagined interference with its constitutional powers.

ONTARIO SOCIETY OF ARTISTS.

During the current month no more interesting and profitable way of spending a few hours' leisure can be found than by visiting the thirty-fifth annual exhibition of the Ontario Society of Artists now open in the galleries of the public reference library. Very few indeed of the works accepted by the hanging committee can in fairness be deemed unworthy of the honor, many would redeem any exhibition and several would attract close attention even in a metropolitan environment. Complaint is not uncommon that Canadian artists are not national or that there is no national school of painting or that their pictures are not pretentious enough. Criticism of this kind rests largely on misunderstanding or imperfect appreciation of the restraining influences that affect the practice of art in provincial centres.

No impartial observer but will agree that there has been for some years a constant improvement in the standard of Ontario exhibitions. Crude attempts to reproduce the mere objective are now conspicuous by their absence. In their place has come not reproduction but interpretation. It has been well said by Mr. Elliott Dainfield, an accomplished critic, writing a month or two ago in Scribner's Magazine, that the picture, the work of art, comes from the co-ordination of knowledge, the passing of all the study thru the alembic of the painter's own gifts and its expression then, and then only, simply—even reverently. A painting, whether it be of nature or of man, if it is to be that truly, must reveal a character or an aspect seen with truth and keener insight than is the lot of the ordinary observer. That revealing quality was never more distinguishable than in this year's exhibition.

CONGRESS AND RECIPROcity.

To-morrow the extra session of congress called by President Taft, will convene. He is expected to ask that only Canadian reciprocity be considered, but admittedly the scope of the session cannot be limited. What the Democratic majority in the house of representatives intend to do has not been made known, but it is probable that a movement will be made in the direction of tariff reduction, particularly in the case of the wool schedules. Mr. Champ Clark, who will likely be the new Speaker of the house, has declared for reciprocity, not only with Canada, but with all other countries, but has not indicated whether he thinks the requisite treaties should be passed together or in succession. That strenuous opposition will be offered by at least a section of the Republican senators appears to be certain.

JURORS IN LEMIEUX CASE CONDEMNED BY LE PAYS

French-Canadian Journal Protests Against Prostitution of Justice in Name of Religion.

MONTREAL, April 2.—(Special)—Speaking of the verdict in the A. J. Lemieux case, Le Pays says, "It was a verdict of the hour. One may be surprised that such a verdict cannot be blamed. This is the new code of morals and heretofore people can be stopped in dark corners, at the corner of a wood, money or papers taken from them at the point of a revolver, provided that all this is done in the name of a deity, in a word, is taken from our criminal code and the ruffian is the hero of the hour. He is not a thief and a devotee, for this is the new moral code which triumphs in the streets. What, in effect, a deplorable mental is cultivated among our compatriots, for the twelve men may one day be the victim of their own verdict, which will be the same. Who will be able to prevent some robber, some highway ruffian, from knocking them down if such a false deity may save his skin? If, as a matter of fact, one can put up a highway robbery under the pretext of defending religion, there is probably a light-minded creature who will commit murder in order to assure himself of a false deity to save his skin. What would we say supposing Archbishop Langevin were attacked and robbed in Winnipeg, where Roman Catholics are in the majority, and that jury should find a verdict of not guilty against the accused? The newspapers like L'Action Sociale and La Vie can say to this? To accept such a doctrine is the absolute denial of that liberty of conscience which exists in our laws. The papers extend that these papers approved of the robbery and that parish priests from the defending religion, there is no doubt, declaring that the end justifies the means. It must not be forgotten that the twelve jurors, supposing that all this is done in the name of a deity, took means to defend it."

TRIBUTE AT CATHEDRAL TO BISHOP DU MOULIN

Canon Plumtre Likens Character of Deceased Bishop to That of the Great Gladstone.

The service at St. James' Cathedral yesterday morning was of a memorial character to the late Bishop DuMoulin, who for 13 years had been rector of the Cathedral. The hymns, "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er" and "Rock of Ages," and the anthem, "Crossing the Bar," were sung, while, after the sermon, Dr. Ham, at the organ, played "The Star of David" and the congregation standing with bowed heads.

The rector, Canon Plumtre, prefaced his sermon on "Gladstone, the Christian Statesman," by referring to the death of Bishop DuMoulin and the regret which the congregation felt, and said that he had felt it personally, and that he had endeavored to preach a funeral sermon and speak in terms of respectful appreciation about one who knew the congregation so well.

"I felt that I could hardly bring myself to make the effort," said Canon Plumtre. "Instead, I tried to secure a preacher for this morning, one who knew him personally and intimately, but unfortunately I was unable to secure such a one to be the preacher for this morning. I had hoped the rector of St. James' Cathedral, who has been with us and spoken to you. He was unable to come, but he asked me to say a few words for him. I was that he was unable to be present."

You will not think I am showing any lack of respect for any lack of respect for the memory of one who knew and loved so well or any lack of sympathy to you, who, I know, are mourning so deeply this morning.

Canon Plumtre then said that, at the funeral of the late bishop, he had added his own tribute to the late bishop. Taking for his text the verse from the Psalms, "Thou lovest righteousness and hatest iniquity," he said that the Christian character of the deceased statesman, whose political life was, in his own part, a part of his religious life, was a part of his religious life, and that the words of the psalm were applicable to him. He said that the words of the psalm were applicable to him, and that the words of the psalm were applicable to him.

These Gladstone characteristics, which have been noted and have been seen in the late Bishop DuMoulin, perhaps there might seem to be some incongruity in comparing the two. But what was best in each of them found its counterpart in the other. The bishop was a man of faith and piety, of Bishop DuMoulin. His was a strong unquestioning faith, and his was a strong unquestioning faith. The strength of his faith was in the tone and authority of the message he delivered. When he spoke of the faith of his people, he spoke of the faith of his people, he spoke of the faith of his people.

"He feared man so little because he feared God so much, and men always thought of him as a man who had the courage of his convictions. He, too, bore a heavy load of sorrow with great fortitude."

"Brethren, he is gone. Your reverend recollection of you so unwillingly, and returned to you so unwillingly, like a bird to its nest, is gone. He was the last of a trio of truly remarkable men, who came from Ireland in 1839. Two of them—Bishops Sullivan and DuMoulin—have been the rectors of this cathedral. The story of the coming of the three men to this cathedral, and how they all three were bishops in the land of their birth, is a story which has been told over and over again. This patriotic tale has now been consummated in communion and fellowship above."

Special Trip of R. M. S. P. Co. Avon to England. The Royal Mail Steam Packet Co. Avon sails from New York April 13, at noon, for England via Bermuda, where she remains eight or ten hours, after which she sails direct for Southampton over southern routes. PRESIDENT DIAZ BOWS TO DEMAND FOR REFORM. No Re-election of Chief Executive Officers and Reform of Electoral Law Included.

MEXICO CITY, April 2.—Committing himself to the advocacy of many of the reforms demanded by the revolutionists, although professing bowing only to the influence of public opinion, Gen. Diaz answered his critics thru his semi-annual message at the opening yesterday of the congress. The principles of no re-election of the chief executive and incumbents of other elective offices and the reform of the electoral laws so that the privilege of the ballot may be enjoyed by those citizens "who are considered capable of voting" were advocated. The message refers specifically to the application of the no-election principle to the naming of governors, one of the chief contentions of the discontented element thruout the republic. The president stated if a bill providing for "the periodical renovation" of the officials in question should come before congress it would have his earnest approval. Abuse of power by Jetera Politico, another of the evils complained of by residents in the rural districts, is to be abated, according to the plan outlined by the president. The president proposes to improve the efficiency of the judiciary thru a more careful selection of its personnel and lengthening of the tenure of office. Efficacious punishment of judicial functionaries for malfeasance is to be brought about thru the enactment of more stringent measures. On the subject of the division of the great private estates, first broached by the Minister Limantour in his Paris interview, the executive declared his determination to find efficient means for bringing about the innovation.
