NEW HIGH LEVELS REACHED IN WALL STREET

This in Market of Enormous Proportions — Marked Feeling of Confidence

(J. M. Robinson & Sons, private wire telegram.) New York, Sept. 15.—In a market of enormous proportions, yesterday's local transactions amounting to more than 1,000,000 shares—prices moved to new high levels; and, notwithstanding that, there were realizing sales up to a tremendous scale the market continued to give evidence of unabated strength.

Incidentally the market was not confined to any special issue. The steel, motors, shipbuilding equipment shares and the railway issues along with coppers were all active and the trading in them general. The money market is being watched with very great intensity, but it is not so hard to see that conditions have been perceptibly changed. The banks scrutinize collateral a little bit more closely and the rates on broader, including industrial, show some stiffening, but the call money rate was from 2 3/4 to 3 per cent and the time money ranged at about the figures of the last two or three days.

One of the features in connection with this situation is the general attitude of the press in so far as its market comment is concerned. As a rule, when a market has reached the proportions which this market has reached, the financial commentators generally begin to point to the inevitable conclusion which follows a market of these proportions, the decline and the easing up, but up to the present time so general is the confidence that has been developed upon the remarkable commercial prosperity in this country that even the financial experts admit the warrants for the bullish enthusiasm which is so prevalent and which is predicated upon anything that suggests that surpasses anything in the history of the United States.

News regarding the earnings of various industrial and steel companies and the very marked increases in railway earnings furnish fresh records every day that make clear the foundation upon which this movement rests. Undoubtedly the market cannot continue this advance without reaching that point where a reactionary period will mark the liquidation of some of the enormous purchases which have been accumulated in the last few weeks, but there is nothing that can be seen in the general situation to indicate any general change in the nature of a market which will long be remembered and which, built upon foundations of unusual strength, will, in my opinion, continue to broaden and in the long run work toward higher levels.

"THE CLIMBERS" TO BE PLAYED BY ST. JOHN AMATEURS IN NOVEMBER

The first amateur play of the season to be staged in St. John for patriotic purposes will be put on in the Opera House early in November under the auspices of the Royal Standard Chapter, O. D. E. Last evening a committee from the chapter waited upon Mrs. A. C. Wilson, who will direct the production, and "The Climbers," a four act comedy, by Clyde Fitch, was the choice. Mrs. Wilson, who has successfully staged "The House Next Door," will be the directress and an efficient cast will be picked. Rehearsing will be commenced immediately.

ST. JOHN MAY SEE THE YELLOW MENACE

Movie patrons in St. John will be pleased to know that one of the local managers has been strongly impressed with the highest and appeal of "The Yellow Menace," and that very likely the tremendously powerful serial will be brought here. It is sure to create a sensation, as it is described as the peer of all serials. It is in sixteen chapters. Definite word is expected very soon.

News of Maritime Men In The War

Letters from England state that Private Robert King, of Fredericton, is now in hospital suffering from the third wound which he has received in the war. The last wound shattered one shoulder and several ribs. Private King left Fredericton with the 1st Regiment Band which joined the 12th Battalion in England he volunteered for a draft for a battalion of the 1st Division, and with it saw much hard service.

With 2nd Battalion. Privates George White and Walter Hanlon of Fredericton, are now with the 2nd Battalion. Both left Fredericton with the 1st Regiment Band. Recently they went in the ranks, and were drafted to the 2nd Battalion. Private George White is a son of Bandmaster James White, formerly with the 12th Battalion. Wounded by Shrapnel.

The latest letter from Private F. Allison Edgcombe, son of Mrs. R. B. Phillips, of Fredericton, states that he is in No. 1 Convalescent Hospital, Boulogne, France, and is recovering. The letter is dated August 27. Another, written four days before, states that the writer had had a piece of shrapnel removed from over his left eye and another from his right leg. He says he was lucky enough not to lose his eyesight. Private Edgcombe writes that another wounded he was on his way down the trench to help dress the wounds of another soldier. The shell when it exploded almost buried him.

One of Four Brothers. Private David Lifford, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Lifford, Fredericton, who has been on the firing line with the 8th King's Liverpool Regiment, is reported missing since an engagement on August 8.

Private Lifford is one of four sons of Mr. Lifford, himself an Imperial Army Veteran, who enlisted for overseas service in the present war. He went to England on a steamer sailing from New York and carrying a cargo of horses for the Allies. After getting to England he enlisted with the 20th Battalion and has been on the firing line for some months. One other son, Harry Lifford, Pte. John Lifford, was killed in action with an infantry unit some months ago, while Pte. Joseph Lifford, who went overseas with the 12th Battalion and was wounded when at the front a week ago, is now at home, having been invalided several months ago. One other brother, Pte. Harry Lifford, is with the 104th Battalion in England.

FAIRWEATHER NOW MAJOR Sussex Boy Wins His Spurs on Battle Fields of France and Flanders.

(Sussex Record.) Lieutenant Charles E. Fairweather of Sussex, son of Colonel and Mrs. C. H. Fairweather, who went overseas from St. John with the 20th Battalion, had been promoted and gazetted from the rank of captain, which he held for some time, to that of major.

A few days after the 20th first entered the youngest and most capable officers of the fighting line, who are ready to make the supreme sacrifice if so willed to preserve the integrity of the Empire and protect its women and children from falling into the hands of the savage and brutal Huns.

He left St. John a junior lieutenant, and today has the proud distinction of wearing a major's uniform, all of his promotions being well merited and won on the bloody battle fields of France and Flanders. First a lieutenant, he won his captaincy, and now word comes to the effect that he has won his majority through his proficiency on the field.

A few days after the 20th first entered the trenches it will be remembered that "Charlie" displayed great gallantry in what is known as the "Crater fight," and his name at the time figured quite extensively in the dispatches. This was no surprise to his friends, and just what they expected.

In a letter received this week by his father, Major Fairweather states that His Majesty King George and the 25th and 26th Battalions in France, the only two Canadian regiments he inspected that trip, and the King spoke highly of the efficiency of both corps.

THE MOVING FINGER WRITERS

As was generally predicted the Conservative government of British Columbia has been swept from power. The defeat was even more crushing than was expected.

British Columbia. Quebec. Nova Scotia. Manitoba. Westmorland. South West Toronto. North Perth. Peel. Vancouver. Victoria.

What does the record in all these provinces and provinces mean? Simply that the people are tired of graft. They want more honest government.

STILL ANOTHER SENATION

Mr. Robert J. Armill, railway contractor, swears that the firm of which he was a member had to pay $2,500 to get a settlement with the Clarke government.

When will the story of graft come to an end? Evidently not while the present government is in power.

What have the premier and the chief law officer of the crown to say in reply to Mr. Armill? It is up to them.

It is clearly a case in which the premier must speak and the attorney general must act.

But, meanwhile, what has the government to say to Mr. Armill? Either he or someone else ought to be in jail.

A STRIKING ELECTION CARD The card which Mr. A. D. McCain and Mr. Geo. W. Upham, the opposition candidates, have issued to the electors of Carleton county very properly points out that the party consists of both Liberals and Conservatives, united to secure better government for the province.

Chill has the steepest railroad grades in the world, but not a single fatal accident has occurred since operation was begun in 1910.

"Faulty Nutrition and Elimination"—these are the cause of the most of the ailments that afflict human beings. Too much indigestible food and lack of power to throw off the poisons that come from indigestion—these lead to a long line of distressing disorders.

Lighter Vein The midnight stillness of the parlor was punctuated by a crash just overhead. "We do not intend to dwell at any length upon the special and personal faults of the individual members of the government.

Wasted Talent One-third of the fools in the country think they can beat a sawyer expounding the laws. One-half think they can beat the doctor healing the sick.

He Did. "I really don't believe," said Gladys, coyly, "that you particularly wanted to hear me sing."

Nineteen boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott at Corning, Ark., in ten years, including three sets of triplets, four sets of twins—and each has been given a name beginning with A.

Girls Need Strong School Boots For the growing girl, neatness, strength and comfort are the great necessities in footwear.

THE OUTLOOK IN HALIFAX

(Halifax Mail) So far as Halifax and vicinity are concerned, the outlook for a prosperous winter is excellent.

During the last week or two considerable interest has been centered on the other side of the harbor.

The announcement that a gigantic steel ship-building plant is to be erected at Eastern Passage has been followed by the bonding of some two miles of water front and about two thousand acres of other lands.

Building operations in the city are fairly brisk. They would be carried on on a far greater scale but for the scarcity of labor.

You want to try and reduce the number of accidents annually occurring in the woods during the big game hunting season, don't you? Every sportsman does.

With this in view we have had small red cards printed with the following warning: "I do not want to get shot in these woods, neither do you."

These cards tied to branches of trees along favorite paths and camp sites will not fail to attract attention, and hunters will appreciate the warning.

Are Germans Planning To Move Out of France?

Frank L. Simonds, of New York Tribune, Sees Signs of a Retreat; Counter-Attacks on Some no Longer Show "Punch" of German Forces

(By Frank L. Simonds.) There have been in the last few days signs which, without being completely convincing, supply very marked indication that the first step of Hindenburg may be to shorten his western lines by retreating from France.

Meaning, way to the south and about Chalines they are beginning to make material progress, and Chalines, itself one of the strong points in the German line, which has been held since the days of the battle of the Aisne in September, 1914, is in serious peril.

This may mean merely that the Germans have adopted the French tactic at Verdun, that they are holding their lines with very small contingents and selling back to the French, at a price, trenches and villages which have no vital strategic value.

But the Germans, as they withdrew from village to village, and they have now surrendered some thirty, are not shortening but lengthening their lines. It requires more men to hold the present front than it did to hold the front attacked two months ago.

Again, while the Germans have plenty of time to construct new lines behind the old, they cannot construct lines comparable with those that they have lost, in the limited time that their disposal and under the searching fire of the enemy.

Just because the Germans have plenty of time to construct new lines behind the old, they cannot construct lines comparable with those that they have lost, in the limited time that their disposal and under the searching fire of the enemy.

LOCAL NEWS

Yesterday equalled the hottest day of the whole year. The summer produced no warmer day than the people of St. John had yesterday, when the temperature was at eighty degrees.

A very delightful social was enjoyed last evening in the school room of Centenary church, under the auspices of the Soldiers' Comfort Association of St. John. A feature of the evening was the presentation of several scenes from the play 'Fog of My Heart' by Mrs. David Spaulding, formerly Miss Nina Brooks. Mr. Spaulding assisted with vocal solos.

An immense crowd attended the curling rink in West St. John last night and it was the most successful night since the opening of the rink. Winners of the prizes last night were: Mr. Theall, the door prize; Mrs. J. T. McCormack, North End, the ladies' bean board prize, and Roy Campbell the gentlemen's prize; air gun, ladies, Miss H. Lister, and Walter Ring, and the ring toss prize was won by Miss B. Bissett of Boston.

The executive of the New Brunswick Sunday School Association met yesterday afternoon in the board room of the Bible house, with Mayor Hayes in the chair. Reports of the various department superintendents showing that everything was in a flourishing condition. Reports of the Treasurer, the general secretary, Rev. W. A. Ross, and the provincial convention committees were read at the meeting. The executive committee of the association at yesterday's meeting appointed Rev. W. H. Barnsclough and L. W. Simms as representatives on the provincial advisory committee on boys' work.

OUR FARMERS.

Their homes are their castles - their heartstones a shrine. They rule without sceptre the kingdom they own. The stalks and the vines and the fruit-bearing tree. Are subjects that bend not to tyrant the knee; But bend with the weight of the harvest and field. Ever loyal and faithful, a harvest to yield. No planning and plotting among them. It is known that the sovereign might strike from his throne. He stands 'midst his acres of grass, wheat and maize. Like Cruise, "the monarch of all he surveys." His banks are the earth banks, and stand on his farm. The banks that are safe when the panics array. The stock is the cattle - not fancy in breed; The shares are the ploughshares that score for the seed. Not quoted on 'Change in the broker's array. But shares on which Nature will dividend pay. Their banks are not those which the widow condemn; No officers pilfer deposits from them; If small the potatoes that in them are found. Yet none are so small as we find out of ground. There's many a hearth where the embers are glowing; There's many a heart with its joys overflowing; The hearths and the hearts from the world's rude alarms, Are safe in the homes that are reared on our farms.

ELEVEN BATTALIONS SOON TO CROSS OCEAN

Nine From Toronto District and Two From London Will be Sent This Fall. Camp Borden, Sept. 15 - Nine of the battalions from Military District No. 2, the choice of which will depend solely upon the efficiency of their training and discipline, without regard for seniority of number or strength, will go overseas, if the necessary arrangements can be made before a move is made into winter quarters. So said Major-General W. A. Logie, who has just returned from Ottawa. Two of the London district battalions will also go. "As the battalions will be selected from those most advanced in training, and preserving the best discipline," General Logie explained, "the slightest breach of discipline on the part of officers, N. C. Os or men will mean a black mark against them. Therefore the battalions will all be on tip-toe to take the maximum advantage of the training and to see that no individual member spoils their chances by a breach of discipline."

ADVANCE ON TWO FRONTS

On the Somme front the French have captured the Priez farm and enlarged their positions close to Combes according to the official statement issued by the war office tonight. British troops in Macedonia have captured a salient in the Bulgarian lines north of Mucicova. The British gains were maintained against desperate counter-attacks. The Entente Powers are not satisfied with the programme outlined by M. Dimitroff, the new premier and the latter has therefore abandoned all efforts to form a cabinet.

Another Glaring Case of N. B. Graft Is Uncovered; A Bombshell In Carleton

Railway Contractor Makes Affidavit That His Firm Found it Necessary to Pay Over $2,500 in Order to Obtain a Settlement of Its Claim Against the Government for What Was Due on Account of its Work--Robert J. Arnill Swears He Paid His Share to Crockett and That His partner Told Him Premier Clarke Said He Was to Do Likewise--and That He Did--A Document Which the Premier, or the Country, Must Deal with at Once

Facsimile of the check given to The Gleaner, Limited, James H. Crockett, manager, by Robert J. Arnill, railway contractor.

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 14.—The bombshell of the campaign was sprung this afternoon at the opposition meeting in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre, when P. J. Venot read an affidavit that had been secured by E. S. Carter from R. J. Arnill, who was a silent partner of Smith & Merrithew, contractors upon the Valley railways.

ARNILL SWears THAT HIS FIRM HAD TO PAY OVER $2,500 TO OBTAIN A SETTLEMENT OF THEIR CLAIM AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT FOR WHAT WAS DUE THEM ON ACCOUNT OF THEIR WORK.

He also swears that of this amount he paid one-third--$833--which was his share, and he produced a check and a draft for $667.50 and $225.00 paid to and drawn by the Gleaner, Limited, of Fredericton, James H. Crockett, manager, and the latter's endorsement upon the check and his signature to the note or draft, partially obliterated after payment.

Arnill makes the serious and solemn declaration that members of the government knew of this, and he relates what both his partners told him with reference to conversations with Premier Clarke. With much detail Arnill tells the story that will again send a shock through New Brunswick.

A STARTLING STORY OF GRAFT.

Following is the Arnill affidavit:

Province of New Brunswick, County of York:

I, Robert J. Arnill, of the city of Fredericton, in the county of York, railway contractor, do solemnly declare:

1. That I was a member of the contracting firm of Smith & Merrithew, the other members of the firm being Luther B. Smith and E. Lorne Merrithew, and the said firm had a contract for the construction of nine and one-half miles of the line of the St. John & Quebec Railway, namely from mile seven to mile sixteen and one-half, in the parish of Kingsclear.

2. That during the construction of the work under the said contract the Quebec & St. John Construction Company held back on the payment of our estimates, a sum equal to ten per cent of same, and this hold-back amounted at the completion of said contract to a sum over $25,000.

3. That during several months following the completion of said work our firm endeavored to obtain payment of said hold-back from the company and from the government of the province of New Brunswick, which had undertaken the settlement of accounts, but we were unable to obtain payment. On many occasions we discussed the situation with the government party leaders, and with members of the government, and finally we stated that we were willing to make a contribution of $2,500 to the party funds if we were paid the money which was due us.

4. During the negotiations and discussions James H. Crockett, managing director of the Gleaner Limited, and a member of the committee which dispenses the government patronage in the county of York, informed us that he could help us to get our money. From time to time during our negotiations the said Mr. Crockett reported to us what steps he was taking to get our money for us from the government. He also asked us how much we were prepared to pay if we got our money. We told him that Mr. Smith would give $1,000, Mr. Merrithew would give $1,000, and that I would give $500, as that was as much as I could afford to give.

5. During the period when these negotiations were being carried on, Mr. Crockett made a draft in the name of the Gleaner Limited on me for about $300. It was anticipated that this draft was to be retired out of the said contribution, and I accepted the said draft. When the said draft fell due we had not yet received our money, and I did not pay the same; but Mr. Crockett paid something on account, and I accepted a renewal draft for the difference. The draft was renewed on several occasions in this way, until it was reduced to the sum of $225. On October 29, 1915, a renewal draft for the said sum of $225 payable at fifteen days was made upon me by the said Mr. Crockett, and I accepted the same. It was made at fifteen days from October 29, as the financial year of the province closed on October 31, and we felt we would get our money shortly after that date, and before the draft would fall due.

6. On the fourth day of November, 1915, the amount of our hold-back on the said contract was paid to us by the government of New Brunswick. Mr. Crockett reported to us that he had succeeded in having the money arranged for, and claimed that he had done better than our solicitors had done. We then arranged to pay over the said sum of $2,500, as previously promised, but the contribution of each member of the firm was to be one-third of the amount to be paid, and not as originally arranged.

7. It was then also discussed between the three members of our firm as to whom the money should be paid. I stated that I should pay mine to Mr. Crockett, and accordingly on the fifth day of November I paid the said draft before it was due and I gave Mr. Crockett my cheque for the difference, making $833.33 as my share; and the said draft is now in his possession. Mr. Merrithew and I were pretty hard up; and this was done. Mr. Smith stated that he would take his share to St. John and pay it over in that country as he was a resident there.

8. He subsequently told me that he had spoken to the premier about the money, and he told him to pay it over to Mr. Crockett, as he was pretty hard up; and this was done. Mr. Smith stated that he would take his share to St. John and pay it over in that country as he was a resident there.

9. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true, and knowing it to be of the same force and effect as if made under oath by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act. (Sgd.) R. J. ARNILL.

Declared at the city of Fredericton this first day of September A. D. 1916, before me, (Sgd.) PETER J. HUGHES, A Commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the supreme court.

BRITISH LIFT VEIL OF SECRECY

Intimate Stories of Soldiers' Valor Pass Censor

Concessions Popular; Six Correspondents at the Headquarters at Their Own Expense

London, Sept. 14.—By lifting the veil of secrecy to an extent hitherto unheard of in the present war and allowing the British public to get a clearer view of what is going on at the front, the War Office has made a tremendously popular move. This revolution in departmental methods started with the Anglo-French offensive. Its effect on the people has been magical.

The British public is now being fed generously on what it was deprived of for nearly two years, namely, personal doings of the soldiers. And they like it. Incidentally, added importance is attached to the new order of things simply because the British government is not easily convinced of the wisdom of departing from old customs. Its about the most revolutionary occurrence since the war began.

To begin with, the public realize that there is still much that must be hidden from them, but they are very grateful for the concessions made. The people realize further that this war must be largely an anonymous war, and that it is inadvisable to describe, except after a long interval, the deeds of particular regiments or divisions. But in other respects the veil has been lifted and the British public has been permitted to read many moving stories which present the war to those who stay at home in a truer light than ever before.

Generally speaking, these are the sources of information which are now available to the public. First and foremost, there are the despatches from the British commander-in-chief, General Sir Douglas Haig, who, as a rule, sends from the general headquarters in France, two bulletins each day summarizing in military language the gains or losses which the armies under his command have experienced during the day and night. These are occasionally supplemented by messages which, coming from the accredited war correspondents at headquarters may be regarded as semi-official.

Reverting to the improved arrangements for keeping the public informed of what is going on, the Daily Chronicle compliments the War Office, and says of the newspaper correspondents: "There are now five representatives of British newspapers attached to the general headquarters, and Frederick Palmer of the American Associated Press is privileged to join this select band. They are housed in a chalet which even now are of the firing line—at their own expense, let it be said—and from this newspaper centre they are free to come and go almost as they like."

The expansion with regard to the pictorial side of the war is not less remarkable than the development of the literary side. One supplement to the other. Some remarkable photographs have come from France since the recent offensive began. Many of them have perhaps done as much as the written description of events to stir the imagination. Then there is the motion picture operator, who has his place, not only behind the lines, but often at the fighting front. Many films which even now are of absorbing interest, and which in days to come will be of historical value, have been taken. Like everything else, they have to pass the censor before they can be given to the world, but, unlike the written word buried under the official blue pencil, these temporarily suppressed sections may be revived hereafter when the war is a sad memory.

TOO MUCH NIGHT LIFE.

A farmer and his wife moved to the city for a few weeks of "metropolitan life." They got what they went after. They stopped with their son, whose next door neighbor was a bohemian sort of fellow, and who frequently gathered to his home, after the theatre, some of the troupe and their friends, who talked, ate, sang, laughed and kept up a lively and cheery time till early morning.

The farming pair endured it for a while, and then packed up their things and returned to their rural home, where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest, and "where there ain't no night life," which quoted clause contains the whole purport of this incident. "No night life."

There is a blessing in the very idea. Night is all right for study, but there is too much of it for fun, and when you find a people addicted to this night life they are not sound and solid enough to found a civilization upon.—Ohio State Journal.

Every Woman Ought to Know why "Infants-Delight" is so different from ordinary soaps. In the first place, "Infants-Delight" is a "milled" toilet soap, concentrated and compressed under tremendous pressure to remove the moisture. That makes it more economical to use. Then, too, "Infants-Delight" is the only borated toilet soap. That's why it is so soothing and delightful. Common soaps just gloss over the surface of the skin. "Infants-Delight" penetrates the pores, releasing and removing all impurities. Its fragrance is lasting and delightful.

WAR LOAN DOMINION OF CANADA

As with the previous Loan, we predict a great success for this issue. During this period of stress our Government needs our help and counts upon our patriotism. But a chance is given investors of placing their money in securities of the highest grade, upon terms the liberality of which will, perhaps, not be fully realized until the return of normal times.

If this Loan were issued to yield 4%, instead of about 5%, the price would be 105.41, instead of 97.50. A 4% yield (the basis on which Dominion Government bonds sold so recently as 1914) would mean a price of 111 for the present issue.

Employ 11,000 Women Clerks

British Government Fills Gaps in Office Ranks; 5,000 Vienna Women Run Street Cars

London, Aug. 25.—(Correspondence)—There are 11,000 women clerks and stenographers now employed in the British government offices in Whitehall, a fact which gives some idea of the way the women have filled the gaps left by the men who have joined the army. And still the cry is heard for more women, which leads to the belief that the demand has outstripped the supply. Even the government departments are finding difficulty in securing the clerical assistants they require. At one time Whitehall officials could pick and choose their clerks, and the majority of those engaged were of an adaptable age—from twenty to thirty—but an intelligent girl of seventeen, without experience, can now find a place, and middle-aged women need no longer feel that they are not wanted.

To meet extensions of the activities of such busy places as the War Office and the Ministry of Munitions, it is estimated that some 200 women clerks can be absorbed every week into the official machinery.

The pay is not high, though it is more than what was regarded as a satisfactory starting salary for young girls before the war.

For ordinary routine work of type-writing the pay is one pound ($4.86) a week, with six pence (twelve cents) an hour for overtime. For ordinary clerical work the pay is twenty-five shillings ($6) a week, with an overtime rate of seven pence. Competent stenographers start at twenty-six shillings a week, which may be raised to thirty after a period of satisfactory service, and the overtime rate is nine pence an hour. The normal hours of work vary from forty-two to forty-eight a week in different departments.

The Civil Service Commissioners are chiefly engaged in the task of supplying the staff required for temporary employment in public departments. The Ministry of Munitions and the post office departments have to a great extent made their own appointments, but in the last six months the commissioners have found nearly 6,000 women for other government departments.

Women Build Aeroplanes.
 London, Aug. 27.—(Correspondence)—Somewhere in England there is a government factory where aeroplanes, often called the eyes of the army, are built almost exclusively by women.

In one large shed alone women are engaged in making tents to house the machines, the wings of which other women are engaged in assembling and painting. In another machine shop women are engaged in welding parts of the machines—an extremely difficult and delicate work, which requires much patience, concentration and skill. In other shops women are engaged upon press tool work, rough filing, repetition milling, capstan lathe work, string sewing and small woodwork. The women are also employed upon the inspection of stores and remanufacturing of woodwork.

Run Vienna Street Cars.
 Vienna, Aug. 31.—(Correspondence)—More than 5,000 women are now employed in the municipal street car service of Vienna. Of the 12,000 male employees before the war, 10,500 have gone into the field. The war has completely changed the street car service, which is now in operation nearly twenty-four hours a day, carrying not only ordinary passengers, but at night hauling coal and merchandise. There are no more motor-cabs or motor trucks, or lorries, and horses are very scarce. Consequently the street railways have become practically the only means of transportation. Most of the women employees are acting as conductors, but great efforts are being made to get permission from the Ministry of Railways for them to act as motor-drivers. The grades in Vienna are in places quite steep, and require great strength for using the brakes, so that the authorities hitherto have hesitated to sanction the employment of

LIUT-COL. SHANLY IS DEAD

Overwork in the War Caused Illness Which Brought Death.

Lieut.-Col. Coole Nesbitt Shanly, D. S. O., of the Canadian Army Pay Corps, died last Thursday at his residence in Toronto. It is thought that overwork while he was in France brought on the illness that caused his death. In the First Canadian Division, Colonel (then major) Shanly was appointed chief paid paymaster for overseas service, and served in that capacity at Valenciennes, Salisbury and in France, with headquarters at Rouen.

It was at Rouen that his health broke down in April last; after some weeks in the Red Cross Hospital there he was transferred to England, where his health improved somewhat, and it was thought that a visit to Canada might assist in his convalescence. He did not return from the voyage, however, and after reaching home his condition did not improve, and at the end he sank rapidly.

In March, 1915, Col. Shanly was recalled from Rouen to London to take charge of the Canadian Pay and Record Office there during its reorganization, but returned to France in the following month, and was associated with General Bray, chief of the Imperial pay department, in organizing the amalgamation of the Imperial and Canadian pay departments. Lieut.-Col. Shanly's services in this connection received recognition on the King's birthday, when he had the Distinguished Service Order conferred upon him.

Lieut.-Col. Shanly was born in Toronto, and was the last surviving son of the late Francis Shanly, C.E., the well-known railway engineer, and who was also engineer of the city of Toronto. He was educated at Upper Canada College. He was for twelve years connected with the 10th Royal Grenadiers, of which regiment he was for three years the adjutant. On the reorganization of the militia pay department he was appointed paymaster of Military District No. 2 at Toronto. Later he was transferred to Ottawa, where he was living when war broke out.

Lieut.-Col. Shanly was also for three years the official secretary of His Honor Sir John Gibson, former lieutenant-governor of Ontario.

Col. Shanly leaves four sisters surviving him. He was not married.

Surprises Were Numerous in Major Leagues

Leading Teams Lose

Cleveland Noses Washington Out of Sixth Place; Red Sox Badly Beaten by St. Louis; Giants Win Another and Make it Nine Straight; Braves Lose Great Game to Cubs

Surprises were numerous in both major leagues. Yesterday, the Phillies and Braves were triumphant in the National League and Detroit and Boston in the American. As a result both races became more uncertain and what the final result will be time alone can tell. In the National League Brooklyn gained several points on their nearest competitors, the Phillies and Braves, as a result of a victory over the Pirates, while in the American League, Boston and Detroit both dropped and the Chicago White Sox gained. Only five points separate the Red and White Sox and two points the leaders and the Tigers. Never before in the history of baseball were races at this stage of the game so close and uncertain.

As a result of an easy victory over the Philadelphia team, Cleveland nosed Washington out of sixth place. The Red Sox did not look much like champions in their game against St. Louis yesterday. Four hits and four errors will never win a game or a pennant.

The Giants are certainly finishing strong, but it looks as if their spirit came too late. "Perez and Peritt" are pitching well and aided by hitting the team has won their ninth straight.

One often recalls about the advantage the Phillies have on their home grounds owing to the chance to drive home runs into the right field bleachers, but no reference is ever made to the fact that the visiting teams have that same privilege if they are able to do so. Yesterday Bescher of the St. Louis team connected with a fast one when three men were on base and the short field cost the home team the game.

The Braves put up a great game against the Cubs, but the breaks went against them in the eleventh and they lost.

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health—

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. Why Suffer From Migraine or Sick Headache?

Dr. J. Caldwell says that this exceedingly distressing disease does not, as you think, but does not appear to be curable. Sufferers from this affliction are condemned to weeks until they are forty years of age, after which the attacks are less frequent, and finally disappear entirely. Palliative measures during the attack lose all effect until possible to suggest, while care in the diet is the best preventive measure. An attack may often be prevented by taking two anti-kamnia tablets when the first symptoms appear, and one anti-kamnia tablet every two hours during the attack. It eases the pain and brings rest and quiet. Anti-kamnia tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They quickly relieve all pains.

Big Meeting But Only One Recruit
Result of Eloquent Appeal For 140th Battalion Brings One Returned Soldier and Two Rejected Men
The Imperial Theatre was well filled last evening for the recruiting meeting for the 140th battalion; eloquent appeals were made for men to fill this unit which soon will go overseas; there were many men of military age in the audience but the total response to the appeal was the offer of one man who already has seen service overseas and of two others who had been rejected previously as medically unfit.

Belated word comes from Australia of the death of Albert Bird, an extraordinary distance runner from Sheffield, Eng., who went to the Antipodes with Frank Hewitt, the holder of the world's professional half-mile record of 1 minute 53 1/2 seconds. PAY HONOR TO THE RYDER BROTHERS

Reception to Major G. S. and Lieut. Frank—Local News of Soldiers

A large reception is to be held in St. Andrews this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Maxwell, for Major G. S. Ryder and Lieutenants Frank Ryder, brothers, both of whom are returned officers from the front and are at present attached to the 266th Kiltie Battalion. Major Ryder is commanding No. 1 Company of the 266th, while his brother, Lieut. Frank, is to command a platoon. Lt.-Colonel Guthrie and other prominent military men will attend the reception as will the heads of the patriotic societies in the province.

Lt.-Colonel Guthrie, Major Morgan and Major Laurin will be accompanied today for Fredericton.

Private E. B. McKinnon of Fairville, who some time ago returned from the front, has been taken on the strength of the 266th special service platoon.

Lieutenant W. L. Caldwell of St. John left last evening for Halifax where he will take a lieutenant's course in siege battery work.

Private E. G. Tapley of this city, who is at present at the front, will return to Canada and will be attached to the 266th Kilties.

According to information received from Ottawa, supernumerary officers may be taken on the strength of the local field ambulance depot and used for medical services generally, pending their being sent overseas. It is understood that the number is practically unlimited.

The official appointment of Lieutenant J. Douglas Black of the 1st regiment as quartermaster of the 266th Kiltie Battalion, went through today. He is to hold the honorary rank of captain.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY STARTS IN ST. JOHN

Another industry is to be added to those which are helping to make St. John prosperous. The new works are to produce hydrated lime, which is now being used extensively in building operations and which is not produced in Canada anywhere east of Toronto at present. Local production of hydrated lime in the United States. As the demand is steadily increasing the new industry may be expected to grow to considerable proportions.

To meet this situation the local firm of Gentry Allison have taken over extensive lime works at Brookville which have been lying idle for some years and are being taken to develop them. The quarrying and lime burning will be carried on the hill to the east of the railway tracks and their shipping facilities will be located on a siding at Lawlor's Lake, just beyond Brookville. The proximity of the lime works to the railway will be a great advantage and later on a gravity system may be introduced to facilitate handling the output. Gangs of men are now at work on the preliminary arrangements and when this is completed, the plant will be assembled and put in operation. It is expected that the manufacture of lime will be undertaken by the first of the year. In the meantime a start has been made in shipping the crushed stone.

While the ordinary grade of lime will be produced to meet the demand for this article, the company is preparing to specialize on the production of hydrated lime. By this process the lime is reduced to powder, which as talcum powder makes it easier to handle when mixing with concrete, producing a stronger mortar and has other advantages, among which is the fact that it can be kept for a much longer period without deterioration.

Hydrated lime is used extensively in stucco work and as this method of construction increases in popularity in this part of the country, the demand for the material will increase.

DOG DAY IN POLICE COURT

The first shot in the campaign against those who have not yet taken out their dog licenses, was fired in the police court this morning. It was dog day, but the owners of the canine tribe were, to say the least, conspicuous by their absence. There are in all about 187 names of owners of dogs who appear on the black list. Among those whose names appeared were read in court this morning were: Thomas Brady, David Higgins, Walter Cook, James Hunt, James Davis, of Sewell street, who was notified and did not appear. John Bedwell, George McKel, John Mitchell, Walter Whipple, Charles George, Charles Boyd, R. M. Tobias, Edward Sullivan, Albert McInerney, Dennis McCarthy and Frank Jordan. Many others were also reported, but did not appear. Some of the annual excuses were put forth. Some said they were "keeping the dog for another party," or that they had sent him to their "friend Jones in the country," or that the dog had died, or that it had been "killed" or that it had "never come back." Some others had taken out the necessary license. Next Friday will be another dog day.
