Italy Likely Now To Send Troops To Balkans To Aid The Gallant Serbians

Bulgarian Threat to Invade Albania in Order to Reach Adriatic Believed to be Incentive—Serbian Situation Reported Satisfactory to Allies

Rome, Nov. 9.—What appears to be a forecast that Italy will send troops to Albania to aid the Serbs is contained in a semi-official note which says that while Italy did not participate in the recent expedition of the allies to assist Serbia, she has found a better way to oppose the Austro-German-Bulgarian attack on Serbia.

This way, the note says, was opened by the Bulgarians themselves when they threatened to invade Albania to reach the Adriatic, a design so dangerous to Italy's interest that the cause must oblige Italy to take appropriate measures to frustrate it immediately.

ENEMY GETS MUNITIONS AND TROOPS THROUGH London, Nov. 9.—Germany and Austria already have begun to use the Danube River to pass supplies into Bulgaria, says the Times Bucharest correspondent.

"On last Saturday three arrived at Ruzhica three tons of barges escorted by Austrian monitors. Troops and a large quantity of munitions and motor cars were landed for the army of Field Marshal Baron Von Der Goltz, commander of the first Turkish army.

Satisfactory for Allies Paris, Nov. 9.—Reports from the Serbian front represent the situation as satisfactory for the allies, says a Havas despatch from Athens. The French have reached Gradiska on the railroad from Kraljevo to Velez.

A Bulgarian attack against Kraljevo with heavy forces of infantry and artillery is reported to have been repulsed, after which the French occupied the village of Kometel.

On the Anglo-French front northwest of Guevguet, the advance of the allies continues and the Bulgarians now occupy only the village of Ormanli, in Serbia territory. There is no confirmation of a German report that the Bulgarians, heavily reinforced, have renewed their attacks in the regions of Guevguet and Kometel.

Cettinje, Nov. 9.—The Austrian offensive continues on the Herzegovina and fronts, but up to the present all enemy attacks have been repulsed, says an official statement issued at the Montenegro War Office today.

BOY OF TWELVE WISHED TO BE BUGLER IN 64TH Moncton, N. B., Nov. 9.—Before the 64th Battalion left Sussex, Lieut. Henry received a letter from Carey Bray, twelve year old son of Fred Bray, of the A. L. Goodwin staff, Moncton, pleading with the lieutenant to get him "a job as bugler" in the 64th.

The officer found that the lad was acting without knowledge of his parents and was obliged to inform him that, while the battalion would be proud to have a boy of his spirit in the ranks, the regulations necessitated refusal of his application.

ON MISSION TO POPE Rome, Nov. 9.—A mysterious envoy bearing an autographed document to the Pope from the ruler of one of the belligerent nations, has been seen in Rome, according to the Giornale d'Italia. His mission has not yet been accomplished, the paper says, and it is not known whether he is awaiting a reply from the Vatican or orders from his chief.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY A. PETERS Mrs. Mary A. Peters, widow of Harry D. Peters, died last evening at her home, 100 Orange street, St. John, in her fifty-seventh year. She was a native of Cornwall, Eng., and came to this country with her parents, while a young girl. Her husband died several years ago, and she is survived by three sons, Harry, Harold and Lester, and one daughter, Miss Marion; one sister, Mrs. Harry Crump of St. John, and one brother, John White of Campbellton, N. B. The funeral will take place from her late residence on Thursday afternoon, service commencing at 2:30 o'clock.

THE EXHIBITION. The annual meeting of the St. John Exhibition Association is being held this afternoon, the retiring president, R. O'Brien, in the chair. As there was no exhibition this year, the proceedings will be chiefly formal, and the election of directors will be the principal business. There has been no discussion as far regarding plans for 1916, and it is probable that this will be left for the incoming executive to decide.

"And We Are Sure of Winning"—Premier Asquith Paris, Nov. 9.—Telegrams congratulating each other upon the "confaternity of arms" in the different theatres of war and the intention of both countries to act in greater union have been exchanged between Premier Asquith of Great Britain and Briand of France. In closing his message, Mr. Asquith said: "Whatever changes time and circumstances may bring, I know that in France, as in England, the will to defend our common cause until a decisive victory is won, remains unshakable and we are sure of winning."

RUSSIANS SEE MUCH TO DO YET BEFORE VICTORY

Believe Balkans Most Important Theatre at Present BELIEF AS TO CHIEF NEED

Say it is More Perfect Co-ordination of Strategy by Allied Armies—Germans Take More Troops From East to West

London, Nov. 9.—The Times Petrograd correspondent who is visiting Russian headquarters and has had talks with General Alexieff, the chief of staff, and other Russian military personages, writes from there that there is no tendency on the part of the Russians to underestimate the still encumbered road to victory.

"They realize," says the correspondent, "that the Germans have the advantage in the central position and unity of command, but that the allies eventually have the advantage in numbers. Nevertheless, they consider the struggle will be necessarily prolonged if numbers alone are relied on, for the Germans mean to continue to win the initiative and the allies have to remain expectantly on the watch to detect and, if possible, defeat their moves."

"They estimate that there are 110 German infantry divisions in the west, fifty German and forty Austrian infantry divisions with twenty-three Austro-German cavalry divisions on the Russian front, and twenty Austro-German divisions invading Serbia.

"The Germans continue sending troops from the Russian front to the Balkans, whether they are also transferring some of their heavy artillery, which seems to indicate that for the present they have renounced the hope of obtaining a decision on the Russian front.

"The Russian headquarters regards the Balkans as the most important theatre for the moment and the chief need more perfect co-ordination of strategy by the allied armies is the chief need of the future."

26TH CANNOT HAVE ST. GEORGE GUN

Not of Same Type as Those They Have and There Would be Confusion

It will be remembered that the St. George's society, some weeks ago, cabled nearly 8000 to the War Office, London, to provide a machine gun for use of the army, and intimated a preference that the weapon should be used by the 26th N. B. Battalion, the gift and correspondence was through the Royal Society of St. George, London, who very kindly undertook all the details, and now E. H. Hamilton, the president of St. George's, has received the following letter and enclosure, and while it is regretted that the gun cannot be used by the 26th, it will not doubt be as effective in the hands of some other regiment.

Dear Sir:—The enclosed letter from the War Office is self explanatory. I have sent you the desired inscription as per your favor of 28th ult; and in due course will let you know the name of the battalion to which your welcome gift of the Lewis gun has been presented.

You have no occasion to thank me for the very slight service I have been enabled to render in so good a cause. I trust the gun will destroy many Germans. Yours truly, (Sgd) HOWARD RUFF, E. H. HAMILTON, ESQ., Hon. Secretary, St. George's Society, St. John, N. B.

War Office, London, S. W. 18th October, 1915. Sir:—With reference to your letter, dated 6th October, 1915, regarding the gift of a Lewis gun, I am directed to inform you that the particulars to be put on the plate are awaited.

I am to say that the 26th Canadian Battalion is already equipped with Colt machine guns, and that as this gun is materially different in design from the Lewis gun, it would only tend to confusion to associate the guns in one unit. In these circumstances it is regretted that the wishes of the donors cannot be carried out. I am to say, however, that the distribution will be placed in the hands of the Field Marshal's Commanding-in-Chief, Expeditionary Force, and you will be notified in due course of the name of the unit to which the gun is issued.

I am, Sir, Your obedient servant, (Sgd) H. GUTHRIE SMITH, Director of Artillery, HOWARD RUFF, ESQ., Hon. Secretary, The Royal Society of St. George, Bloomsbury, W. C.

Not All Settled Yet In Greece

New Premier Says Chamber Will Be Dissolved—War Minister Must Apologise or Venizelos Will Act

Athens, Nov. 9.—A prediction that the chamber of deputies will be dissolved is credited to Premier Skoufoulis by the Patria, which asserts that he replied when asked whether the ministry would appear before the chamber: "The question is not formally settled yet, but will be voted upon at a meeting of the cabinet this afternoon. I can say, while waiting to win the initiative, that the chamber will be dissolved."

The section of the press which supports the cabinet is unanimous in its opinion, stating that the presence of General Yanakitsas in the new ministry, makes it quite impossible for the parliamentary majority to give even a vote of tolerance to the government.

London, Nov. 9.—A Reuter dispatch from Athens, filed yesterday says: "A cabinet meeting was held today, but nothing transpired as to whether the government will accept the proposals of M. Venizelos with a view to avoiding discussion of past and present misdeeds."

"These proposals are either that of Minister of War Yanakitsas expressing regret for the incidents which resulted in the overthrow of the Zaimis ministry, or all the followers of M. Venizelos will absent themselves from the sessions of the chamber, giving a free hand to the other deputies who will constitute a quorum."

FIRE ON THE ROCHAMBEAU IS EXTINGUISHED

Gallant Soldiers in Furious Attack Take Austrian Positions by Assault

Rome, Nov. 9.—The following official statement was issued last night by the Italian general staff: "In the Daone Valley, one of our regiments consisting of three battalions and two light machine gun detachments concealed in the vicinity of Murandino bridge, between Val Daone and the river."

"In the Upper Cordevole our offensive against the formidable rampart of Goldi Iana was crowned with success. Exceptional difficulties of terrain, to which must be added, numerous defensive works, the determined resistance of the enemy, and the severity of the early winter, have not succeeded in arresting the forward march of our brave troops. After an effective artillery preparation, our infantry, by a fast and furious assault, took enemy positions by assault yesterday afternoon, hoisting our colors on the steep summit which rises among the snows to a height of 8000 feet. We have made up to the present 100 prisoners, four of whom are officers. In the morning the enemy's own light infantry (Kaiser-Jaeger) were also taken a machine gun, with a great quantity of munitions."

ONE OF EASINGTON'S BOATS PICKED UP

More Evidence of Loss of Coal Steamer on Voyage to St. John Digby, N. S., Nov. 8.—Schr. Rolfe, Capt. Rowe, is discharging soft coal at Digby from Farraboo. The captain reports that on Friday while four miles east northeast of Point Prim light he observed a small boat, which was picked up by the steamer on the 7th inst. The boat was found to be the 26th N. B. Battalion's boat, which was found to be the 26th N. B. Battalion's boat, which was found to be the 26th N. B. Battalion's boat.

GREECE TO ASK ALLIES FOR FINANCIAL HELP?

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Greek government is reported to have appealed to the allies for further financial assistance. A despatch from Athens to the Havas News Agency says the government desires to obtain an additional advance of 5,000,000, and that this request is being considered sympathetically.

Early Winter Finds Germans Unprepared

Rotterdam, Nov. 9.—The Telegraf says that great anxiety exists in Germany because of the unusually early winter, which began on October 28, with frost and a heavy snowfall in Berlin. An examination of weather records shows that such weather has not been known at so early a date in two centuries.

Surprised to Find Son Member of The 52nd

Wm. McIntyre Makes Fourth of Have-lock Street Family in Uniform—Another Family With Three—Today's Local News of War

Included among the ranks of the 52nd battalion is a former St. John man, William McIntyre, and he is being warmly welcomed by friends here. His arrival was a surprise to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntyre of Have-lock street, West St. John, as they did not know of his having enlisted, so that his welcome was all the more hearty.

He has been in Port Arthur with the battalion for about six months. Before joining he was a member of the surveying staff of the Canada Northern Railway.

Three others of the family are in uniform, brothers of his—one at the front Harold with the 26th Battalion, and two in the ranks of the 104th—Herbert and George, one of this city. The parents feel that they have made quite a sacrifice, but are proud of the stand their sons have taken. Letters received from Pte. Harold of the 26th recently told of his being in good health and that he had been in action with the machine gun detachment of that unit.

Recruiting for the Overseas Construction Corps has gone on steadily, and many men have been signed by H. A. Brennan, C.P.R. claims agent, in the King street office. Several of those accepted went to Montreal last night, including Harry Lilley and Fraser Steeves of West St. John; J. E. Moore, W. J. Foster, E. F. Dick, Wallace Brindle, Avid Buote, J. B. Walters, George Clarke, and Ernest Pearson, all of this city, and Stephen Whithead of Fredericton. Others are waiting final approval.

The members of the 52nd battalion have not yet commenced a programme of daily drill, but are aiding in the equipment of their barracks for the winter. The intention is to have the army as a recreation and administration building with the exhibition building as sleeping quarters. The men say that their quarters are comfortable and satisfactory and they appreciate the efforts of the local people to make them welcome.

Another From Imperial Oil The employees of the plant of the Imperial Oil Co. met yesterday in the office and through J. F. Bullock presented to one of their members, Hugh R. McLean, a pocket Bible and sum of money on his departure to join the 104th. There was deep feeling about the presentation and all believe that Mr. McLean will make one of the best and best of soldiers. He is the sixth to enlist this fall.

ITALIAN FLAG FLOATS ON PEAK 8000 FEET HIGH

Rome, Nov. 9.—The following official statement was issued last night by the Italian general staff: "In the Daone Valley, one of our regiments consisting of three battalions and two light machine gun detachments concealed in the vicinity of Murandino bridge, between Val Daone and the river."

What has Sir Robert Borden to say in reply to Col. Armande Lavergne? The latter said on Sunday last that both he and Bourassa were offered portfolios in the first Borden cabinet. NEW AMERICAN ATTITUDE

There are, of course, elements of danger in the situation created by the latest American note to Britain. The United States declines to regard the British blockade as effective and wants safe passage for all non-contraband goods to Germany and neutral countries.

ILL-GOTTEN GAINS

That excellent trade journal, Canadian Finance, of Winnipeg, is severe upon those who attempt, by government contracts at high prices, to get "profits out of the nation's agony."

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—The statement made in the report sent out by the Canadian Press last night that the St. Stanislaus (Que.) meeting, addressed by Armand Lavergne and other Nationalists, was held under Liberal auspices is indignantly denied at Liberal headquarters here. The meeting was purely a Nationalist one and not a single Liberal was invited to attend or speak.

The campaign of the Nationalists against Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal party is as vicious and determined now as it was in 1911 when the Conservative-Nationalist alliance was in full and unqualified effect.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who has been especially active in stimulating recruiting in the province of Quebec and who has addressed scores of patriotic meetings, has been subjected to the most bitter abuse of late from the Nationalist press and speakers, because of his unpopularity.

MARGUERITE CLARK

IN TALE OF OLD MADRID

Pretty Spanish Story With Very Popular Movies Actress in Leading Role—Good Vaudeville

Marguerite Clark has long since endeared herself to the picture lovers of St. John as she has throughout the world. She is a prime favorite in every country and St. John people enjoy her winsome personality and artistic acting to the very fullest.

In a story of old Madrid entitled "The Pretty Sister of Jose," Miss Clark added new laurels to her long list. It seems as though Spanish stories lend themselves most happily to the romantic and the love affairs of Don Quixote and Sebastian, the handsome bull-fighter, made splendid entertainment on the screen.

In "The Goddess" a real great deal happens in the present chapter of the most melodramatic character. Tommy Barclay and the strike-leaders are captured by the coal barons' men and Celestia introduces herself to the inner offices of the syndicate. Freddie Coe Perret in search of Celestia finally locates her in the excitement of a bomb explosion and is instrumental in liberating Barclay and his party.

In the meantime there are terrific battles between thousands of strikers and "scab" workmen in which guns, cannon and dynamite are used as plentifully as in real warfare.

The Imperials returned to vaudeville this week and presented Watson & Little, a stunning looking pair, in a bright little singing sketch entitled "A Matrimonial Bargain." They introduced a baby in a go-cart some exquisite podling, several soprano numbers and in the finale, voices prettily harmonized.

The skit is bright, cheery and clean and the lady wears some of the most striking gowns seen on the Imperial stage.

On Wednesday and Thursday Edith Storey and a superb cast of Vitagraph players will be seen in the third of the Imperials, "The Isle of Regeneration," a unique romance from the pen of that noted writer, the Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brundy. "The Moth and the Flame" is on the cards for the week-end.

STRIKING STORY IN "LITTLE LOST SISTER" AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Partello Players Win New Laurels in Production of New Drama

A striking story of the ailments of a big city, its paths of right and wrong and the many experiments to tempt the stray young woman in its depths was that told last evening at the Opera House by the Partello Players in their capable presentation of Virginia Brooks' four act drama "The Little Lost Sister."

When published a few years ago this story caused a sensation. It was the means of overthrowing a corrupt government in Chicago and of the coming into power of a reform party determined to check the evils of the underworld.

The story was dramatized by Edward E. Rose and in its dramatized form was presented at the Opera House last night to a very large gathering. The audience seemed to appreciate the play very highly, and generous applause was given.

Entertaining vaudeville numbers were contributed by Jack Russell, Australian vocalist and monologist, while pictures of British and Canadian troops in review, taken by him—for Mr. Russell is in the vanguard in the cinematograph world in Canada—attracted popular and patriotic interest. The stage effects were excellent, the setting in the third act showing a "bright light" cafe in Chicago being especially commendable from a scenic viewpoint.

The company was cast to advantage with Miss Kennedy further installing herself in favor with local play-followers. She has already become one of the most popular stock actresses who have come to St. John in recent years, and her role of Elsie Welcome, the girl who wandered into devious by-ways in Chicago on her arrival in Innocence, won her new laurels last evening. DETECTIVE DRAMA

UNIQUE'S FEATURE

Universal's Film the Vaudeury Jewels and Weekly News Picture Serial

Judging from the manner in which the special Universal two-part drama called "The Vaudeury Jewels" was received at the Unique Theatre yesterday, the little comment here, in this special feature booked for the opening of the week, and thus surely a worthy one, is that the story is of the gripping kind that holds one from start, and the interest does not deteriorate until the final scene is thrown upon the screen.

The theme has to do with the manner in which a clever band of smugglers carry jewels from London to New York, evading the necessary duty imposed. Most of the scenes are pictured on a huge ocean liner, and in the elaborate stateroom of the head of the smugglers, who as it happens is a very beautiful woman. The detective is put on her trail and instead of arresting her he thought out, cleverly acted story, and cannot help but leave a lasting impression.

Miss Cleo Madison appears as the fair smuggler, and Miss Blanche Le Grau seems in the role of the latter mysterious maid. If the two acts of the story were drawn into five, some would have voiced a complaint, so intense was the interest attached to it.

In the Universal Weekly, which is always a feature in itself, the first two days of the week at the Unique, much was given to scenes having to do with the war. These included the impressive daily ceremony at the King's home when his guard is changed, the "Sermon" in German on the arrival of the British, the British South African heavy ar-

But you can keep your skin so firm, so active that it will defy wrinkles and will retain its clear, smooth youthfulness. To do this, make the following Woodbury treatment a daily habit.

Wash your face and neck with plenty of Woodbury's Facial Soap and hot water. If your skin has been badly neglected, rub a generous lather thoroughly into the pores using an upward and outward motion, until the skin feels somewhat sensitive. After this, rinse well in warm, then in cold water—the colder the better. Finish by rubbing your skin for a few minutes with a piece of ice and dry carefully.

Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of a skin specialist. This treatment with it cleanses the pores, then closes them and brings the blood to the surface. Use it regularly and it will keep your skin so firm, so healthy and active that it will resist wrinkles and retain that fresh, clear youthful look you want it to have.

A 25c cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap is sufficient for a month or six weeks of this treatment. Get a cake today. It is made in Canada and is for sale by Canadian druggists from coast to coast.

A LIFETIME OF SICKNESS

Worn Out, Thin and Miserable Until She Took "Fruit-a-tives"

Palmetto, Ont., June 20th, 1914.

"Stomach Trouble and Distressing Headaches nearly drove me wild. Some time ago, I got a box of "Fruit-a-tives," your famous fruit medicine, and they completely relieved me. Today I am feeling fine and a physician, meeting me on the street, asked the reason for my improved appearance. I said, "I am taking Fruit-a-tives." He said, "If Fruit-a-tives make you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can."

played to advantage as Mary Randall, female detective, and her work was commended upon most favorably. She made the role stand out prominently by her strength of character. Mr. Chambers was likewise as Harry Boland, an heroic young man who saved the heroine in many trying situations. Mr. Dugan was his usual self as "Michael Crogan," his characterizations have been one of the most attractive features of the engagement of the Partello Players here. Mr. Johnson as John Boland, Miss Maher as Patience Welcome, E. G. Kast as Anson, the naive and polished "villain," were all important factors in the success of the piece.

The cast follows:

John Boland R. E. Johnson
Harry Boland Ralph W. Chambers
Michael Crogan John Dugan
Martin Druce, partner in "Cafe Siniester" Earl C. Mayo
Harvey Spencer F. M. Sibley
Carter Anson, proprietor of "Cafe Siniester" E. G. Kast
Jack, a waiter A. Dublin
Tom Welcome Frank Twitchell
Mary Boland Jean Lyons
Patience Welcome Violet Maher
Elsie Welcome Alice Kennedy

FAMOUS COMEDIAN ON LYRIC SCREEN

The Noted Lew Fields a Great Success in Old Dutch

The magnet that the name of Lew Fields always proves to be in the larger American centres when he appears in the legitimate drama was also found to be the case at the Lyric yesterday, when the announcement was made to the effect that the management had been successful in securing an excellent production of the wonderful comedy success "Old Dutch," with the famous comedian in the title role.

While Mr. Fields has been many years on the stage he might also have been many years on the screen so far as we may judge by his work before the camera in this picture. He is surrounded by a fine cast.

The theme is of an old man known as Old Dutch who sells to a financier his interest in his telephonic, an instrument which when attached to a telephone will enable one to see the person at the other end of the wire. After he has received his initial payment on the invention Old Dutch and his daughter repair to Palm Beach for a holiday, and register under an assumed name on account of the notoriety he has received. His place is taken by another who represents the inventor and consequently gains all the honors.

Old Dutch is forced to work for his living and the many adventures and escapades with which he meets are certainly representative of all that is amusing, and real pure fun is the main characteristic of the excellent production in the course of events the old gentleman acts as a lackey, stable-man, porter, boot-black, etc. When he blacks the trousers of the man who has taken his place, instead of his shoes, unmercifully meals his face with razor, soap and hot towels, and bathes him with a ten course dinner, the production reached the highest point of comedy and merited reigned supreme.

Old Dutch is a feature worthy of the name in every respect, and lovers of good clean comedy should make a special point to see it. The acting of Mr. Fields of course adds materially to the success of the production. It will be repeated tonight and tomorrow. McKenna and LeBlanche proved very popular in a delightful melange of comedy talking and singing.

SUCCESSFUL AND WELL-LOVED LEADER

Lieut. G. E. Reid, Commander of the Australian and New Zealand troops at the Dardanelles. He is very popular with his men.

You have a bad cold!

That little cold attacks the lungs and the breathing passages. To cure it you need to get at these organs direct. Ordinary cough mixtures and syrups do not touch the lungs, but go direct to your stomach, which is not illing. Pepsin, on the contrary, goes to the very seat of the trouble.

Pepsin is a natural constituent of the human stomach, and is the most powerful of all digestive juices. It is the only one that is not destroyed by heat, and it is the only one that is not destroyed by acids.

There will be nothing in Sussex for the amusement of the troops and the St. John men will find it very dull for them in practically no place at all in the evening. The 64th has gone to Halifax and it is very dull here without the 104th.

THE LIGHT-HOUSE KEEPERS STORY

FROM the lighthouse at Lobster Cove Head, Bonne Bay, Newfoundland, Mrs. W. Young sends the experience of Zam-Buk.

"I suffered with constipation for seven years and to my great sorrow Zam-Buk has cured me. The disease started on my breast, and spread until it extended over my back. The itching and burning, especially when the affected parts were warm—was terrible; and when the eruption was scratched, it turned to bad sores and caused great pain. I went to a doctor and tried various prescriptions, but seemed to get no benefit, so tried another doctor. Again I got no relief, so tried a third doctor, and then a fourth.

GERMANS HATE UNITED STATES

Next to Britain in Their "Strafe" List

DISAPPOINTED IN AMERICANS

Degenerate Nation, Presided Over by a Schoolmaster, Jealous of German "Kultur" is Myer's Description.

Germany's sentiment toward the United States continues to be one of hatred, and it is not exaggerating to say that Germany hates the American Republic even more than it hates France. Myer's hatred is in Britain, first, the United States second, and the rest nowhere. The reasons for this feeling are set forth in "North America and Germany," a book recently published in Berlin, which it is said to be extremely popular.

England Forgives

"It was just here that we expected sympathy and friendship," says Herr Meyer. "All efforts of the Kaiser and the German diplomats have been directed to a friendly alliance with the United States. To such an end we have effected an exchange of professors, have sent artists and others on friendly visits and have done everything to make American students at home in Germany."

Disappointed in Colleges

"Of the real reason for which Germany was forced into this conflict they have no comprehension and do not care to have any. That we were compelled to invade Belgium and to battle against ministers and franc-tireurs for our own existence they do not give the slightest thought. Germany at least expected the sympathy of the American universities, many of whose professors have studied with us. A few of them Burgess and Gleason of New York, and Professor Wheeler of the University of California, took up the cudgels in our behalf, but the majority have remained silent. There is a pro-German sentiment in the University of Wisconsin and also among some of the professors in Columbia University in New York. The sentiment of the people in that of the government. The shipment of arms to the Allies is permitted, the American cable is at the disposal of England, while even the use of the wireless to Germany is limited. There is no complaint because the British Consulate in New York openly recruits. England can do what she wishes, seize ships, hold cargoes, and take off passengers suspected of being Germans. Goods and food can be shipped to England, France and Russia, but American goods can go to Germany without England's stamp of approval, and America priding herself upon her humanity makes no protest to England's attempt to starve Germany."

Prof. Meyer is hopeful, however. He says that in the United States are two classes which have come to the rescue of Germany. One is the "Irish-American" and the other is the German-American. Irish and German-Americans made their influence felt in the congressional elections of last year, according to the author, and he believes that their influence will be strong enough to keep the United States strictly neutral. Very ungratefully he proceeds to denounce the yellow press of the United States as chiefly responsible for the unpopularity of Germany. Since the chief of the yellow journals are those owned by William Randolph Hearst, who has always been an enemy of Great Britain, and as friendly to Germany as he dares, it would appear that Prof. Meyer is not fully seized of the situation. He should direct his abuse against the best newspapers in the United States, for almost without exception they have been staunchly anti-German from the beginning of this conflict.

A Broken Friendship. Prof. Meyer thinks the United States is a degenerate nation, presided over by a schoolmaster. The American people have been sapped of their virility by their educational system, which is in the hands of women. Far indeed have they fallen from the standards established by the founders of the republic. They hate Germany because they are jealous of her, knowing that she possesses a "Kultur" which they can never acquire. Moreover, they are thoroughly under the influence of Great Britain, and even go to the length of speaking in the English language. It is time that Germany ceased her efforts to placate the people of the United States. In future dealings with them the iron hand rather than the velvet glove should be displayed. Prof. Meyer believes that if

Household Economy

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. Two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and cures it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, croupitis and winter cough. It's truly astonishing how quickly it cures the dry, hoarse or tight cough and hush and soothes the inflamed membrane in the case of a painful cough. It cures the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with quinine, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. ST. JOHN MATTERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE WAR

Corp. Joseph Dryden, returned soldier, spoke yesterday in the school room of the Main Street Baptist church before the Red Cross Society, dwelling upon experiences at the front and the great work being done by societies in conjunction with the Red Cross. He was tendered a vote of thanks by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, The Honor Roll.

Twenty-eight men were accepted for service with the 104th Battalion yesterday without the aid of any special recruiting meeting. All were a good class of men who joined. The list follows: Richard Brown, St. John. Charles Scott, Queens County. Albert Allen, St. John. Fred Dickson, St. John. James Holmes, St. John. John Nixon, St. John. Willard Kirk, Bayreuther. John Titus, Grand Harbor. Warner Sabien, Annapolis. Watson Sabien, Annapolis. Hugh Henton, St. John. Walter Wasson, Hampstead. Edward Pitt, Hampstead. Charles T. Turner, Moncton. Robert Powell, Halifax (native of Cape Town).

S. L. Rising presided at the recruiting meeting at the Mill street offices last night when a comparatively large number of men turned in. It was intended to be a free and easy evening and no set programme was followed, but all seemed to be pleased with the music and the short speeches.

The chief talk, was given informally by Rev. F. S. Porter, who said that not only had he a year ago volunteered as a chaplain but he was getting an appointment he had offered to go as a private, but weak eyes had been the cause of his failure to do this. He said emphatically that every young man who had his country's future at heart should be in this fight for righteousness.

There were other talks and songs, including solos by W. Brindle and P. Johnson. This evening there will be another of these free and easy.

The Women's Canadian Club at a meeting yesterday decided to give two tons of coal and a load of wood to the Soldiers' Club, and to bear the smaller expenses. Of George F. Miles of Fairville, wounded with the 29th, will be glad to know that the casualty list reports him out of danger. The same is true regarding Edgar Wood, Chignecto, N. S., 23rd Battalion. Allan McKinnon of Sydney, N. S., is reported killed in action.

W. E. Taylor Jr., of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, has joined the sloop battery. He has a brother, Dr. G. A. Taylor, with No. 8 Hospital in France. They are sons of W. F. Taylor, general storekeeper government railways, Moncton.

Pete Chambers, who was here a few days ago, invalided home from France, is one of the speakers listed for a Canadian Club banquet in Boston on Nov. 18. Hon. J. D. Hazen and Rustom Ristomjee are also to speak.

In Canada 151 cities and towns have munition plants and for several months from $12,000,000 to $18,000,000 has been paid out monthly, but new and increased orders just given will bring the monthly total to about $30,000,000. Canada has already received orders totalling $10,000,000.

Miss Gertrude Melick, formerly of this city, and now in Newton Hospital, was obliged to ask for temporary release from service with the Harvard unit, which is preparing service at the front, owing to the serious illness of her brother.

Arrangements have been made between Chief of Police Simpson and Lieut. Col. Hay, of the 22nd Battalion, so that the military authorities will handle any of their own men in case of necessity and assistance and co-operation will be given by the police.

Sergeant William G. V. Stokes, bandmaster of the 26th Battalion, Fire and Drum band, has sent an interesting letter to one of his former music pupils in the city.

L. D. Allen has received two interesting letters from his son, Corporal W. R. Allen, who is with the 29th Battalion. Directors of the Cedar Hill Cemetery met last night and presented a handsome wrist watch to Harry Lilley who has enlisted in the Construction Corps, and will leave for Montreal today. He had been employed as caretaker for the cemetery.

Bomb Arthur T. Eatey, of the Division Ammunition Column, is expected to return home from the front at the last of this week. While acting as despatch rider he received injuries which necessitated his return from active service.

SIR JAMES WATSON'S OPINION CONSIDERED MOST VALUABLE

He says that the commonest of all disorders, and one from which few escape is Catarrh. Sir James firmly believes in local treatment, which is best supplied by "Catarhosone." No case of Catarrh can exist where Catarhosone is used; it is a miracle-worker, relieves almost instantly and cures after other remedies fail. Other treatments can't reach the diseased parts like Catarhosone, because it goes to the source of the trouble along with the air you breathe. Catarhosone is free from cocaine, it leaves no bad after-effects, it is simply nature's own cure. Beware of dangerous substitutes offered under misleading names and meant to deceive you for genuine Catarhosone which is sold everywhere, large size containing two months' treatment costs $1.00, small size, 50c, trial size, 25c.

RUPTURE BETWEEN WILSON AND BRYAN NOW COMPLETE

New York, Nov. 8.—The statement issued by W. J. Bryan was handed to President Wilson just before the President left the Hotel St. Regis with Mrs. Galt. He read it with apparent care, and then declined smilingly to make any comment. One of his friends said, however, that the president had anticipated such attacks and was not going to be worried or dissuaded by them. It was admitted by persons close to Mr. Wilson that the rupture between him and Mr. Bryan is now complete, and that their differences of opinion on national and international politics will have to be fought to a finish in the national convention of 1916.

Gin Pills How They Help

Four years ago I had such pains in my back that I could not work. The pains excruciated my arms, sides and shoulders. I used many kinds of medicine for over a year, none of which did me any good. I then bought Gin Pills and used them for a sample and found the pains were leaving me and that I was feeling better. So I bought a box and before I used them all, the pains were almost gone and I could keep at work. After I had taken six other boxes of Gin Pills, I felt as well and strong as I did at the age of 30. I am a farmer, now 61 years old. FRANK LEALAND. All druggists sell Gin Pills at 25c a box in six boxes for $1.25. How Brown Defeated Yale

A neat field goal from the twenty-two yard line by Capt. Andrews in the third quarter, gave Brown his second victory over Yale in twenty-two years at New Haven on Saturday, the score being 6 to 0. It was the third successive defeat and the fourth this season for Yale.

Brown assumed the offensive for the greater part of the contest, but Yale presented a stiff defense at critical junctures. Andrews was brought into position to make his field goal by steadily rushing a fifteen yards penalty against Yale for holding and a short forward pass from Purdy to Andrews. This brought the ball to the sixteen-yard line, where Brown could not gain, making the kick necessary. Two other field goals were attempted by Brown but both failed.

Yale started off with a rush, making sixty yards by line plunges on a variation of the "Minnesota shift." When near the goal line, however, the attack faltered and Yale surrendered the ball on downs on the six-yard line. That was the only time Brown's goal was threatened. Yale's defense showed considerable improvement over previous games, especially in diagnosing the forward pass.

Pollard, the colored half-back for Brown, was the star of the game, making several fine dodging runs. Andrews also made some good runs and was strong in the defense.

Porter Jumps to Fed.

Lynn, Mass., Nov. 8.—Irving Porter, a Lynn, New England club outfielder, and the fastest man in the league, has jumped to the Federals and will report to the Newark club in the spring. He signed a contract ten days ago, but his action did not become known until today.

Porter was considered a major league ballplayer, but his lack of aggressiveness robbed him of the only opportunity he has had to break into the big leagues. He was sold to Cincinnati in 1913 and was given a tryout by Manager Herzog in 1914. He impressed Herzog considerably, but as he had an overabundance of outfielders he returned Porter to Lynn. Porter can cover much ground in the field and is a very fast batter.

Cobb Is a Keen Observer

Ed. Grillo has the following in the Washington Star:—"Ty Cobb is a great ball player because he is a keen observer. It was the good luck of the writer to sit within speaking distance of the Georgia Peach during every game of the recent world's series, and his comments made in private and not for publication, plainly showed there is nothing ever going on on the ball field which he overlooks. "Nothing escaped Cobb during the practice of the two teams and when the game started his interest increased, and he frequently was able to detect the hit and run sign and call the turn on attempted steals.

Players Holding Out

Morley Jennings and Joe Gedeon, recalled by Washington from Minneapolis and Salt Lake respectively are said to be holding out for more money and as a result Manager Clark Griffith may cancel the recalls and permit them to stay with the minor league teams that had them this year. There is an unwritten law against fancy salaries in new contracts now and holdouts will get short shrift all along the line.

GILBERT'S GROCERY

CHEERY LETTER
FROM SERGEANT
W. DEVENNIE

St. John Soldier Who is One of Four Brothers in King's Uniform

The following interesting letter came to Mrs. A. DeVennie, 27 Barker street, from her son, Sergeant Walter DeVennie, No. 5 Co. C. A. C. He is one of four sons in khaki. He writes:
 Somewhere in France,
 October 29th, 1915.

Dear Mother:
 It has been some time since I have written to you but some how or other I have been kept on the move most of the time and even when I had time it has been hard to do. I had a letter about a week or so ago from Will and was glad to hear that all hands are, or were at the time of writing, well.

So Leyland has enlisted—Well, in one way I am sorry as you have been enough to worry you with the rest of us getting out, but on the other hand I am glad he has the nerve to do it and I know you are made of the right sort of stuff to let him go. You are having a bit more than your share, but cheer up and don't worry. We will all be back again some day and then look out for your pantry shelves as we will have some appetites.

Everything goes on over here fairly smoothly. We plug along in the same old way trying every day to do our little bit in the game.
 You would be amused to see the houses we boys are living in. A number have tents, but most of us are camped in so-called dug-outs. We dig a hole in the ground the size we want then stack up around the edge sacks filled with earth, across the poles are placed and over these a tarpaulin or sackings; this is covered with earth. A fire-place is dug in the side and there you find us as snug as a bug in a rug. There are three of us in our dug-out. Bill, Nedwell, Sgt. Hanson and myself and we are very comfortable.

I have seen some of the boys of the 26th Batt. and they seem to be quite content.

The 26th have made a splendid name for themselves and have done some great work.

I understand they are having some great recruiting meetings at home and that quite a number are answering the call. We need them here, or any rate we want them ready in case they are needed.

Write to me whenever you get a chance as mail means a lot to us these days, a great deal more than when in England. Many are the boxes of good things that come to the boys and they are always shared with their chums. We are having excellent weather and we had no rain for about two weeks, it being about as warm as it is at home the first part of September. We don't care how much of this sort they send along.

Our boys of old No. 8 as a whole are enjoying good health and everyone seems to be content and enjoying the life very much. We are up bright and early in the morning and lights out at 8:40 at night so you see we have plenty of sleep anyway. No one is allowed out after 8:40 so you see we don't get much chance to get away from camp. But still after the day's work is over we are quite content to turn in when night comes. We have some jolly times which the sound of guns don't interrupt one bit. Please remember me to anyone who might be interested and say to them that I would be glad to hear from them at any time. There are many things I would like to tell you about but I am not allowed to, so will save it until I get home again. Don't worry about me as I am and will be all O. K. in fact I never felt better in my life, lots to eat and enough exercise to digest it. Write when you can to your boy,
 WALTER.

F. S.—Mother, there is something would like very much to have and that is a pair of those high-cut lace tan waterproof boots size 7 1/2. Any of the boys will know what I mean. I wonder if you could get a pair and send them over to me, as it will be very muddy and wet here this winter and they would be a great thing for me. The ones I mean come pretty nearly up to the knees, W.

'LAST POST' SOUNDS
FOR PTE. BROWN

Funeral This Morning of Member of 52nd Battalion

BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS

Comrades and Citizens Pay Tribute of Sympathy to Soldier Who Died on Sunday—Impressive Service in St. David's Church

The bugles sounding the plaintive air of the "Last Post" marked the conclusion of the final tribute to one who had died while on his way to fight for king and country, when Private James Brown of the 52nd Battalion was laid to rest today in Fernhill cemetery, with all the honor due to a soldier who meets death on active service.

The funeral service took place at nine o'clock this morning in St. David's Presbyterian church and was conducted by the minister, Rev. J. A. MacKellan, who had been with the soldier in his last moments and who had been entrusted with the final messages of the dying man to his aged parents in Scotland. It was the chaplain of the battalion, Hon. Captain Elliston, assisted with the service and a quartette from St. David's choir aided in the musical portions of the service.

The church was filled with the officers of the battalion and the comrades of the late soldier and a large number of citizens. In the gathering were many who have members of their families at the front and who were anxious to show on this occasion the sympathy which they hoped would be shown in return for the sacrifice of the fallen soldier.

The casket was draped with the Union Jack and covered with a floral blanket, the gift of a St. John lady. It bore also a handsome floral tribute from Major Allan and the men of Private Brown's company, a wreath from the local recruiting committee and flowers from the Women's Canadian Club and the Brotherhood of St. David's church. Surmounting it were the soldier's cap and belt.

The service was an impressive one, but its key note was not one of mourning, but rather that of a tribute to a soldier who had died while fulfilling his duty. In a brief address the chaplain said "A few months ago Private Brown answered the call of his king and country. Now he has answered the call of the King of Kings. Not for him was the honor and glory of fighting for those principles in the defence of which our Empire is at stake, but for the sake of his country. He has given his life in the service and he has died for his country. We truly say we fall on the field of battle. Our message today is not for the dead, but for the living, and may be summed up in the words of the Scout motto 'Be Prepared' that we may be ready, as he was ready, to answer the call of the King of Kings." At the close of the service, the strains of the Dead March in Saul, the casket was reverently borne out by the comrades of the soldier and placed in the hearse, while the guard of honor stood with rifles at the "Present Arms."

The funeral cortege formed, headed by the firing squad, followed by the band of the 52nd Battalion, with snuffed drums, and by the bugle band. Following the hearse was the company of which Private Brown had been a member, and then a large number of representative citizens.

At the cemetery the grave had been prepared in a lot devoted to soldiers, where lie the remains of Q. M. Sergeant Wetmore, 4th Battalion, K. O. Rifle Corps, who died in 1898, and Gunners Cross and McDonald, whose deaths occurred in 1866. The grave had been decked with greenery, roses and other flowers, a thoughtful tribute by Superintendent Clayton, himself an ex-soldier with four sons now in uniform.

The grand service was conducted by the chaplain, assisted by Rev. Mr. MacKellan, in the presence of a large gathering, and when the grave had been filled, the firing squad fired their last salute of three volleys over the graves—not only of Private Brown, but also of the other soldiers who lie buried there. Then the "last post" was sounded by the buglers.

HAS NOT HEARD FROM SON IN FOUR MONTHS
Mrs. Medley Priddle of City Road Anxious For News of Hayward
 The mysterious disappearance of her son, from whom she has had no word for four months, is causing deep anxiety to Mrs. Medley Priddle of 73 City Road.
 Her son, Hayward Priddle, aged eighteen years, left the city in the spring with a companion, Arthur Totten, and was in Montreal for a time. Then the boys made a trip on a horse boat to England and returned to Montreal. From Montreal, young Priddle wrote to his mother on July 5, saying that he was coming home. His companion, Totten, arrived in the city without Priddle and told the latter's mother that he had left her son in Bathurst and that he was following on the next train.
 The boy did not arrive, but it was some time later before the mother began to worry about him, and by that time his young companion had gone off with the 52nd Battalion, and she was unable to secure more information from him. Previous to his disappearance, the boy had written frequently to his mother, and she cannot understand his allowing four months to pass without sending her any word, if he was able to do so.
 Inquiries are now being made through the police at Montreal, Bathurst and Moncton in the hope of finding some trace of the young man. He was eighteen years of age, about five feet, four inches in height, with light hair and blue eyes.

FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.
 Friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stevens called upon them at their home, 68 Lansdowne avenue, last evening and honored them upon their fifteenth wedding anniversary. They were two recipients of many handsome remembrances and best wishes were expressed for their continuing to enjoy many more years of wedded happiness. A pleasant time was enjoyed by the gathering, which numbered about thirty.
