ALLIED PREMIERS MEET TO PAVE WAY FOR PRESENTATION OF TREATY

Special Interest Attaches to To-day's Conference as it is Expected Agreement Will Be Reached Regarding the League of Nations as an Integral Part of the Treaty—Want Lloyd George to Stay

Paris, March 18.—(By the Associated Press)—An important conference with Premier Lloyd George, Orlando and Clemenceau will be held at President Wilson's residence today. This gathering of premiers, representing the supreme directing force of the peace conference, takes the place of the session of the supreme council, which has been postponed until tomorrow to permit the meeting.

The question to be discussed is the large one of securing accord between the great powers on all phases of the peace treaty and its early presentation to the Germans. It is expected an agreement will be reached as to the inclusion of the league of nations as an integral part of the treaty in accordance with the resolution which has been already accepted by the peace conference.

Special interest attaches to today's conference, in view of recent reports of divergences between the powers as to the inclusion of the league plan in the treaty. The meeting is looked upon as an earnest, decisive effort of peace in a comprehensive form, including military, naval, economic and financial terms, as well as the league of nations.

Want Lloyd George to Stay

Paris, March 18.—A letter signed by Premier Clemenceau and Orlando and President Wilson was handed to Premier Lloyd George yesterday afternoon, strongly urging him to postpone for a fortnight his return to England, in view of the urgency of the problems before the peace conference. Mr. Lloyd George will submit the letter to the British cabinet and it is understood will act in accordance with its views.

No Agreement

Paris, March 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Points which were introduced at today's session of the supreme council, but on which no agreement was reached, proposed leveling the fortifications of the Kiel Canal and the disposition of the German warships.

On Aeronautics

Paris, March 17.—The supreme council today appointed a commission on aeronautics.

The council named Belgium, Greece, Portugal, Brazil, Cuba and Roumania to represent the small nations.

Must Be Dismissed

Paris, March 18.—The fortifications on the island of Heligoland, Germany's formidable base in the North sea, must be dismantled. This decision was reached today by the supreme Allied war council.

It was decided also that the Kiel Canal should be internationalized and made available to the ships of all nations on even terms.

NATIONALIZATION OF BUENOS AIRES PORT OF BUENOS AIRES

Buenos Aires, March 17.—Transatlantic shipping agencies have accepted the government's demand for nationalizing the port and announce that transatlantic steamers will be brought in from the Roads tomorrow for loading and unloading. The workmen have agreed to resume work under the government's decree, and it is hoped that about normal conditions will obtain in a few days.

No Aliens Employed On The Valley Railway

Premier Assured that Returned Soldiers Are Given the Preference at All Times — Debate on Reply to Speech From Throne Likely Over This Afternoon

(Special to the Times-Star) — Fredericton, N. B., March 18.—It is expected that the debate on the reply to the speech from the throne will end this afternoon. Dr. J. Roy Campbell, K. C., of St. John, will speak and as the government is quite willing to forego the prerogative of having the last word, it is anticipated that the debate will end there and thus enable the house to get down to the business which the government has awaiting attention.

In accordance with the resolutions adopted recently by the G. W. V. A. requesting the premier to use his influence to see that alien labor is not employed on the construction of the Valley Railway, Hon. Mr. Foster wrote to the Nova Scotia Construction Company drawing their attention to the matter. He has received a reply from the company in which they assure the premier that they are giving every preference to returned soldiers. The letter concludes: "We have not an alien among the laborers in our employ and it is not our intention to employ any laborers unless assured that they are allies."

In response to a telegram from Premier Foster to the dominion minister of labor, he has been advised by the department in Ottawa that they are arranging

LLOYD GEORGE: "This is a nice thing to find left on our doorstep. Shall we adopt it or not."

MONCTON MAN BURNED TO DEATH AT C. N. R. SHOPS

(Special to the Times.)
Moncton, N. B., March 18.—David Robichaud, an employe of the C. N. R. shops, was burned to death in an explosion at the shops this morning, just before going into an oil tank which was being repaired. He was helping to straighten out an iron bracket on the side of the tank. Soon after he entered the tank an explosion occurred and the man was seen crawling out from the dome of the tank with his clothes a mass of flames. He was screaming with agony, and his hands had to be rescued by fellow employes. A fire which he was holding on to before he could be brought down. It is believed he is a match maker in the tank.

L. Balfour, M. D., corner, is holding an inquest this afternoon. Robichaud was about fifty years of age and is survived by his wife and ten children. He had been employed in the shops about three years.

ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY

Matters of Importance Considered Today—Officers Elected at This Morning's Session

The quarterly meeting of the Presbytery of St. John was held this morning, there being a large attendance. The moderator, Rev. W. Townsend, of Fairville, presided, and Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock acted as clerk. Many matters of a formal character were considered. The most important was the election of officers for the ensuing year who will take over their respective duties in July. The officers are: Rev. M. J. McPherson of Stanley, moderator; Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock, clerk; and Peter Campbell, treasurer.

The work of the forward movement was presented to the Presbytery and it was decided to form into groups so that the rights of each congregation shall be respected and the work done in this respect carried out satisfactorily.

A statistical report was read this morning showing that there are fifteen self-supporting congregations in the Presbytery; twenty congregations have received support from the home mission fund and eighteen received summer support.

The report further showed considerable increases in various features of the church work. The question of co-operation with the Methodists so as to prevent overlapping was introduced and considerable advance was made in respect to this matter.

This afternoon the Presbytery met again and matters of importance came before the session.

Permission was granted to sell the West St. John manse.

NEW COURT ROOMS IN MASONIC BUILDING

Everything Ready Now for Use—Finishing Touches Added and Rooms Should Prove Satisfactory

The new court rooms which are being temporarily arranged for in the Masonic building has been in the hands of the architect, Mr. J. H. Thomson. The former premises used by the military people for their headquarters will now fill another important need in the life of the city's affairs. For several weeks the lower floor of the Masonic building has been in the hands of carpenters and now the painters are busy adding the finishing touches.

The temporary quarters should be suited for the holding of the sessions of the court. The long room on the left will be used as the court room. Directly off this at the extreme end is the anti-

HOPE CURRIE WILL RETURN TO WEST AS GOVERNOR OF B. C.

Victoria Senator Indicates That People of Western Province Would Give General Royal Welcome

SIR ARTHUR CURRIE

Toronto, March 18.—That General Sir Arthur Currie, commander of the Canadian army in France, may return to his home province of British Columbia as its next lieutenant-governor, is the general hope of the province, in the opinion of Senator Hon. G. H. Burton, four times mayor of Victoria and for seven years member of parliament, who arrived in this city yesterday from New York on his way to Ottawa.

FORMER KILTIES GREETED ON THEIR RETURN TO ST. JOHN

Party Arrives Here Today After Crossing Ocean on the Carmania—Served With Breakfast at Depot

A party of St. John men arrived in the city this morning about 6.30 o'clock. There were about thirty men in the party and about fifteen others for other points. These men are of the original 29th New Brunswick Kilties formed in this province by Lieut.-Colonel P. A. Guthrie, but when getting to England some of the battalion were transferred to the 42nd Highlanders and went to France in that unit. They were not met at the station by a reception committee or a band, but Mrs. G. A. Kurling, in command of the V. A. D.'s, served their breakfast in the C. N. R. restaurant at the station and cigarettes and oranges were distributed. They seemed very much pleased with the treatment they received and every one of them liked the idea of getting their breakfast at the station without having to march down to the armory after having the long trip on the train. They also seemed very much pleased at being waited on by the V. A. D.'s and being so well attended to by Mrs. Kurling and Mrs. Tilley. They expressed themselves as being completely satisfied with the arrangements. They expect to leave for their homes tomorrow afternoon or evening. The spirits of the men were to be remarked on, every one of them seemed very pleased to get back.

THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING BUREAU

Important Development in Connection With Strike There—Mr. Burrell Says it May Be Closed Soon

Ottawa, March 18.—There is an important development in connection with the strike at the government printing bureau, as a result of a conference held yesterday afternoon between a committee of the striking printers and Hon. Martin Burrell and Hon. J. A. Calder. After going into conditions at the bureau, as represented by the report of the expert committee, Mr. Burrell told the committee that he was prepared to pay the pressmen the twenty-six dollars per week which they are asking, but on dating from April 1. He stated he was not prepared to put the increase in effect at once, as asked by the men, as he claimed that with their present scale of wages, and the bonus, which would count in as wages until April 1, the men were now receiving twenty-six dollars per week. He intimated that unless the offer was accepted by the men, they could take it for granted the bureau would be closed down completely "very shortly."

The members of the committee voiced objection to the inclusion of the bonus paid to the men as wages, pointing out that the scale of twenty-six dollars per week paid to pressmen in Toronto and Montreal should have been paid to the bureau employes long ago. They, however, agreed to place the proposal before a meeting of the pressmen.

Ottawa, March 17.—The board of conciliation and investigation to inquire into the dispute between the Canadian Express Company and its employes, being messengers, helpers, drivers, clerks, porters and other depot employes, filed its report with the minister of labor today.

There are about 1,300 employes involved and all the points on the system between Halifax and Prince Rupert are included in the award. By the award the employes obtain an eight-hour day. The great majority are now working a ten-hour day. Time and a half is to be paid for overtime, overtime including legal holidays.

CONGRATULATED BY CONNAUGHT

Pleasing Message to the Royal Canadian Regiment From Its Honorary Colonel-in-Chief

Halifax, March 18.—Just before its departure from England, the Royal Canadian Regiment sent a message of farewell to the honorary colonel-in-chief, H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught. The following reply has just been received by Lieut.-Colonel Hill, D. S. O., the present commandant of the regiment: " Buckingham Palace. "To the O. C. Royal Canadian Regiment, Halifax: "I have received your very kind telegram with much gratification. I am well aware of the excellent services rendered by the regiment both in Bermuda and during its three years' service in France. I warmly congratulate the regiment on the fine record of its service in France, which I am sure will be appreciated by all Canadians. Nothing but the doctor's orders would have prevented my coming down to inspect you and bid you farewell. My best wishes accompany you all on your return to the dominion. Rest assured that my interest in the Royal Canadian Regiment will continue in the future as it has done since I have had the honor of being its colonel. (Signed) "ARTHUR, "Colonel Royal Canadian Regt."

Y., March 17.—A warrant for the arrest of Dr. Walter Wilkins of this place, charging the physician with the murder of his wife at their home here Feb. 27, was issued tonight by Justice of the Peace Coleman at the instance of District Attorney Weeks of Nassau county. ## UNIONISTS AND THE TARIFF

Ottawa, March 17.—The statement that promises are likely to be made to the Unionist caucus in the matter of the tariff are, it is asserted, without foundation. The purpose of the caucus, it is explained, is to afford the government the opportunity of hearing the views of its followers upon the subject. The responsibility for tariff policy rests, and must continue to rest, with the government, and will be disclosed only when the budget has been brought down and not before.

BRITISH TRADE EXTENSION PLAN

London, March 17.—The Federation of British Industry, representing 15,000 manufacturers and £5,000,000,000 capital, is organizing a great system of trade ambassadors as pioneers for the extension of British trade overseas. By July the federation expects to have an ambassador in every important centre. It is already represented in Spain, Denmark, South America and the Near East.

Ministry of Transportation

Sir Eric Geddes Says Conditions Are Bad—With Exception of Street Railways Few Transportation Systems Are Paying Their Way

London, March 17.—Sir Eric Geddes, minister without portfolio, in introducing in the House of Commons today a bill to establish a ministry of transportation, said that, with the exception of the street railways, the transportation system of the country financially was in a semi-paralyzed state. Only the municipal street railways were prosperous. Before the war railway capital returned 4.2 per cent; to-day there was a loss of from two to three per cent. Before the war, canals were earning 1 1/2 per cent, while today they were worked at a loss and were barely subsidized. Roads which cost the country £20,000,000 a year were earning practically no income; while harbors and docks were earning three per cent.

Three Years Service On Battlefield

Halifax, March 18.—After three years' service overseas the 9th Field Ambulance of Montreal, under the command of Lieut.-Colonel Charles W. Vipond, D. S. O., returned to Canada on board the Carmania yesterday and left by special train shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Montreal.

Organized in Montreal the unit proceeded overseas in February, 1916, under the command of Colonel C. A. Peters, D. S. O. On reaching France it was attached to the third division and was with it when the armistice was signed. During its service at the front thousands of cases have passed the station conducted by the 9th Field Ambulance. Included were 24,000 Canadians, 12,000 Imperials and about 10,000 including French, Australians and Americans.

THE ABATTOIR AND GOLD STORAGE PROBLEM

The resolution adopted by the Farmers and Dairyman's Association relative to abattoir and cold storage, at their recent annual convention at Fredericton, have been forwarded to the local board of trade. There is a committee already appointed by the board here with reference to this and it is understood that it will follow up the matter and attempt at least to bring it to a head. It was pointed out this morning that cold storage and abattoir facilities, so far as the province is concerned, call for serious consideration. The immediate advantage would be a meat inspection which would tend materially to raise the standard and prove a wonderful asset in the export trade of meat from New Brunswick. While export trade is not extensive at present still with meat inspection enforced it would tend to create more trade and stand for the general benefit of the live stock outlook throughout New Brunswick.

Sinn Feiners Threatens More Serious Trouble. London, March 18.—The more aggressive section of the Sinn Fein party in Ireland contemplates a campaign similar to that adopted by the militant suffragettes. At the moment it is hoped to have the peace conference intervening in behalf of Ireland. This will be for the purpose of focusing public attention on the demands of the party, according to despatches received by the press association.

The authorities, however, are prepared to afford adequate protection to life and property, and the belief is expressed that with tact and discrimination it will be able to tide over the threatened trouble. It is understood the government does not intend to further postpone consideration of the home rule bill, which was suspended by an act which automatically expires six months after the treaty of peace is signed.

Apparently on its arrival in England, there was no opportunity for spending the money, and Lieutenant Cudlip called on the mayor this morning to pay his respects and also to return the $100.

A new petit jury was summoned for the retrial. The case was tried in January when the jury disagreed, dividing six for conviction and six for acquittal. Mr. Penney, after mature consideration, decided for a retrial.

Want Pensions For Families Of The Reservists. Ottawa, March 18.—An important congressional dealing with the question of the families of reservists of the British and Allied armies who are living in Canada were received by the parliamentary pensions committee today.

Many reservists, particularly of the French army, had settled in Canada before the war. Some of them are now being recognized the obligation, cared for their dependents. Many have been killed, many have been disabled and as the patriotic fund will soon go out of existence these cases will have to be dealt with soon. The pensions allowed by the Allied countries for dependents are not adequate for the needs of those living in Canada and will have to be supplemented.

WINNIPEG DOCTOR MADE $75,000 SELLING LIQUOR PRESCRIPTIONS. Winnipeg, March 18.—That one doctor has made more than $75,000 by selling prescriptions for liquor since Manitoba went dry, is a story told by officers of the Provincial Temperance Act Administration.

This doctor, who was fined recently for giving prescriptions indiscriminately, had a sliding scale of prices, the fee of each order depending upon the amount of liquor a "patient" needed. He would also make out prescriptions and sell them at so much a dozen, to be credited by agents.

Liquor men assert that since Christmas he has made $10,000 a month out of liquor prescriptions alone, neglecting his practice in order to give his time to the more profitable business.

"It is to put a check to such doctors as these that I am getting our prescription blanks with serial numbers," said J. N. Maclean, administrator.

ONE THOUSAND LUMBERJACKS UNRULY MINORITY AT KINWEL CAMP SAYS ARCHDEACON

Seeing the White Lights in Bangor and Boston, Awaiting the Drives.

(Bangor Commercial). These are the happy days of the keepers of boarding houses in Bangor which make a specialty of catering to the transient trade of labor, for there are fully 1,000 laborers in the city at present who have no home here, most of them being hunkies from the lumber woods where operations are closing up for the season, and they are coming in at the rate of fifty a day, declares a man who knows whereof he speaks.

Walking along Exchange and Washington streets where the visiting unemployed usually sun themselves, one would never suspect that so many outsiders were in town, but the Commercial's informant who is posted on the habits of the returning woodsmen, says that the visitors are housed and will stay housed until they part from their "rolls," earned by the sweat of their brows, for they have been out in the open for several months and prefer the cosy comfort of heated rooms with perhaps a little booze and other creature comforts denied them away up amongst the tall timbers.

But when their rolls have been spent or they have been surreptitiously relieved of them they will come forth like the birds in springtime and the streets will be lined with them until their services are again in demand for driving or other operations, when they will fit to other parts, only to return again at the proper season and go over their city experiences again, be they pleasant or otherwise. For the woodman is a genial and trustful fellow and he is easily persuaded that an apparently unfriendly act committed against him was the result of a mistake rather than of intended malice.

Many woodmen coming into Bangor from northern points stop here only long enough to get a rig of city clothes, when they strike for Boston to view the white lights as long as their money lasts, saving only a sufficient amount to insure their transportation back to old Bangor, which is their starting point towards temporary employment and prosperity.

One labor agent declared Friday morning that he could easily gather a crew of 500 laborers at short notice, but that just now there is no demand for them. He expects, however, to get a call for 250 men for wood cutting next week, and he is of the opinion that the tide of idle men has reached the high water mark just now and that the demand for their services will start within a week or two.

Large Audience

One of the Best Played for Some Time—Cast Gave Clever Performances—Was in Aid of Orphans

The hall crowded to capacity, frequent and prolonged applause, hearty laughter and pleasing musical numbers all went towards making the three-act comedy drama, "Stop Thee," which was presented in St. Peter's hall, Elm street, last evening under the auspices of St.
Peter's Y. M. C. A. Dramatic Club, one of the greatest successes ever scored in the history of St. Peter's night productions. The play was brim full of comedy, the lines suggesting many complicated and amusing situations, and the manner in which it was interpreted by the cast reflects credit on themselves and adds new laurels to those already won by this clever dramatic organization. The play was staged under the personal direction of Rev. J. Cloran, C.
S. R., and the success achieved is in no small part due to his untiring efforts.

The plot hinges on the action of a clever thief, who works with a partner, a maid. Together they get into society and by ingenious methods pilfer the household of innumerable wedding gifts and valuables of all descriptions. The amusing incident in the drama is that two of the members of the household here are the culprits and are self-conscious kleptomaniacs. A detective is hired to ferret out the thief but he falls into bad company and is made quite harmless, while the valuable things he owns is cleverly picked from his vest pocket. The climax of the play finds all in a turmoil, the thief arrested, the goods returned and then the sensational escape, after which comes forgiveness and blissful matrimony.

The leading role was most capably handled by John U. Hagerly, whose clever performance stood out promi-nently and he added new laurels to those already won on the amateur stage. He is a clever and versatile actor and his portrayal was largely responsible for the success achieved.

Maunsel O'Neill in the role of James Cloran gave a clever portrayal and the manner in which he acted his part was for him well merited applause. It was his first appearance with the club and he worked like a champion.

Andrew Moore, in a character role, had the audience convulsed with laughter. He had a rather difficult part and the manner in which he essayed it reflected credit on himself and added to the popularity of the drama.

Frank T. Doherty gave his usual clever performance. In the role of Dr. Willoughby he gave a portrayal which met with general approval and he acted in the many plays which he re-echoed throughout the large auditorium.

Joseph Dever had a part, which was important and on which considerable action hinged, and the manner in which he interpreted it brought forth considerable applause.

Gerard McGovern made quite a hit in the role of Rev. Mr. Spelven. His man-nerism, voice and action fitted the part to perfection and he made much out of his few lines.

Frank O'Donnell was exceptionally good as Detective Joe Thompson. His action, method of deduction, his walk and his manner all contributed in building up his part and winning for him well merited applause.

Arthur L. Howard as the police sergeant did well and his good work was appreciated, as was that of H. McNulty and F. C. Howard.

Miss Jean Walsh, as the accompanist, had the leading feminine role and gave a clever portrayal. Her work was largely instrumental in accomplishing the many confusing scenes and she won new laurels.

Miss Isabelle Gormley as Mrs. Carr gave a clever character act and added
her laurels.

Miss Emma G. Conlogue as Madge
gave a clever character act and added
her laurels.

Car acted her part well. She did not have much of an opportunity, but made considerable of a small part and received a fair share of applause.
Miss Irene O'Connor was as usual good in the part of Caroline Carr. She did not have many opportunities, but built up a small part and was a general favorite.
Miss Edna Creary in her initial appearance made a hit. She had a pleasing part and acted it well.
The dresses of the ladies were the subject of much favorable comment. The girls looked charming in their costumes and their general stage appearance did much in making the production attractive and pleasing.

WOULD KEEP IT DARK.

The official report of the speech of Mr. Sutton of Carleton in the legislature yesterday says of his remarks regarding the Valley Railway: "All wanted the Dominion government to take over the road and therefore should not be talked of. If they did not believe that it would justify the Dominion government in not taking action. He thought too much was made of scandals in New Brunswick, Manitoba and British Columbia, had political scandals but the papers should not always refer to them. All should work together for the advancement of the province."

Mr. Sutton comes from the county which was represented by Mr. J. K. Flemming and is represented by Hon. B. Frank Smith. We can understand, therefore, his desire to use the soft pedal. But is Mr. Sutton's attitude the correct one? Should we cover up or expose and put an end to graft and scandals? By all means let all work together for the advancement of the province, and begin by retiring from public life every man who has betrayed the people's trust. If Mr. Sutton is ready to do his part, and persuade his opposition friends that it is their duty to help, there will be an end of graft and scandals of the sort that disgraced the province for a number of years prior to the change of government. Let Mr. Sutton be honest with himself and the people he represents. The facts are before him, in the reports of royal commissions.

WE SHOULD SMILE.

The profane visitor who described St. John as "a hell of a place" was perhaps moved to that remark by the fact that the pavements of the city are largely composed of good intentions. The situation is not, however, without its humorous aspect, which is evidently enjoyed by the city council. When the commissioners are all, or unhappy, somebody starts a discussion on paving. There is nothing new to be said on the subject, but the old arguments are revived with evident relish, and the question: To pave or not to pave? has a never failing fascination. It is varied by their other absorbing query: Who pays? And to our good commissioners a thousand years as a day and a day as a thousand years. We would not deprive them of their academic pleasures. What boots it that we tramp in the mud? Patience is a virtue, and let all be virtuous. Some day he may regret in this latitude, and as a fruit of surface wear as the grass, or as the city hall debates on paving. There is a possibility that a paving programme may be decided upon by the time the frost comes next fall, but nobody is laying bets on it. Meanwhile we should all be very happy, and "smile, smile, smile."

A SPREADING PLAGUE.

Wars are followed by a wave of a terrible social disease. Dr. Abramson, provincial pathologist and bacteriologist, made a profound impression upon the members of the Rotary Club yesterday by a very plain talk on this subject, which is thrusting itself upon the attention of medical men. There is a social disease which makes its effects felt in the third generation, and is a fruitful cause of suffering, feeble-mindedness and other ills. A disease that may be cured in the earliest stage, yet one which at a later stage requires two years treatment; and it is not even then certain that a permanent cure has been effected. This disease is spreading. It exists today in localities in this province where physicians were never before called on to give treatment. It affects not this but the next generation—and the next. It produces blindness, deafness, nervous diseases, epilepsy and mental degeneracy. It is a horrible plague spread by the virus of men and women, and passes on to the children yet unborn. Dr. Abramson spoke in plain words, and his words are being said by physicians everywhere. The federal government will this year pass legislation designed to limit and perhaps lessen the ravages of the disease. The provincial legislature will doubtless take similar action. But this will not absolve parents from their responsibility and duty of speaking plainly to their sons and daughters. Up to the present time this subject has been avoided, but the vitality of the race is threatened and people must speak out. Every man's and woman's organization in St. John should hear Dr. Abramson's message. We fought the Hun, but there is another terrible and insidious foe to be reckoned with as an aftermath of the war, and no false modesty must be permitted to stand in the way.

It may be hoped that preparations are in the making for extensive public works as soon as the spring opens. The problem of increasing unemployment can best be met in that way.

Touching the question of tariff reduction, it is said the removal of the duty on cement would make house-building a much cheaper proposition.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS.

The Times pointed out the other day that St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, has secured legislative authority to borrow $150,000 to erect a vocational training school, and the city will also grant $10,000 a year for its maintenance, the province giving another $10,000. St. Hyacinthe had in 1910 a population of 9,177. Of course it is somewhat larger now, but if a town of 10,000 or so can afford this expenditure for the training of its boys and girls, what about St. John? Consider the case of London, Ontario, a city nearer to St. John in population. In 1912 it established a vocational school in an old building. In 1917-18 a new building was erected. In 1918 the city of London spent on this school $11,441.61; in 1915, $12,556.02; in 1916, $22,969.83; in 1917, $21,040.40; in 1918, $16,909.23. The salaries paid in 1912 amounted to only $2,500. In 1918 they amounted to $10,548. Nearly $22,000 has been spent in equipment since 1912. In 1918 the province made a special grant of $15,000 toward equipment. The city now has a splendid new vocational school, fully equipped. It was built in war time, despite the high cost of material, labor and equipment. Why is not the vocational board appointed in St. John? The Dominion parliament will make a grant this year for the encouragement of vocational training. Doubtless St. John could secure at least a small amount to aid the work here. There should be no hesitation or delay in this matter.

ALL, ALL IS GLOOM.

Let us hope the ice will soon run out of the Miramichi and the yachting season come with its consolation for the Commodore. The columns of the Chatham World reveal the fact that this weary Titan of journalism is in a most despondent mood. The world (not the Chatham World) is all awry. Members of parliament are talking too much. Hon. Mr. Veniot is like a flea under a blanket. The legislative reporters use too many words. The editor of the Times is not precise in his use of words. The Telegraph is like a cow that kicks over the bucket. All this is very sad. Let us hope the hoak of the wild-geese will soon be heard in the northland, and the brant seek the shores of Tracadie and Neguac, and the ghost of the Orphan die and fly on Bay du Vin. Then will the Commodore forgive all who disturb his philosophic calm, and with the breath of a smoky southwest in his nostrils imagine himself once more sailing in an airplane over No Man's Land, looking down serenely on the other journalists who would not dare the great adventure. Meanwhile let the politicians and journalists beware. They are being subjected to severe scrutiny. They are being tried in the balance and found wanting. Their utterances are as the crackling of thorns under a pot.

A correspondent writes to The Times suggesting that the board of trade interest itself in getting if possible an amicable settlement of the differences between the owners of the pulp mill and the employees, pointing out that when the winter port season ends a payroll of $15,000 per month would be an important consideration, since it would practically all be spent in St. John.

The skillful manner in which Mr. LeBlanc thrust Henri Bourassa under the nose of Mr. Potts, and his gentle castigation of the ex-attorney-general show that the member for Restigouche is one of the clever debaters of the house and a gentleman who keeps himself particularly well-informed.

Mr. LeBlanc told the legislature yesterday what is possible under the present jury system. He made out a clear case for complete reform. The selection of grossly partisan juries was one of the pastimes of provincial Tories when in power. They did not want justice, but a verdict.

Another bit of sound sense where boys of the east end played ball is lost to them, as buildings are to be erected there. Is the street the best we can do for them? Why does not the east end organize as the south end did?

If the slips that bring soldiers home could go back laden with Bolshevik agitators it would be good business for the ships—and for the country. But we must take care that we do not encourage the unrest on which anarchy feeds.

KARL LIEBKNECHT

(Bangor Commercial) Had Karl Liebknecht died in prison before the armistice was signed he would have been considered in the future as a martyr slain by Prussian militarism. Before the war and after its commencement Dr. Liebknecht spoke and wrote against Prussian militarism and he openly belittled the leaders of Germany in his opposition to the former Kaiser and his ministers and made of himself a good deal of a gad-fly. A few weeks before Germany submitted, Liebknecht was set free from prison and a fine opportunity was his, had he been a true friend of freedom. He had so long carried on his campaign against militarism that he had become a household name and his name was a source of inspiration and changed sentiments in Germany, he might easily have become the popular leader. But Liebknecht did not possess the wisdom to divorce himself from the radicalism that later brought his undoing. With the signing of the armistice, Ebert came into power. Liebknecht might have stood with Ebert for the choice of a national assembly to govern Germany and direct the peace negotiations from the side of the Huns. But Liebknecht did not take such a position. He was intolerant of Ebert and determined that the radicals should rule Germany as they rule Russia. He overestimated his own strength and his followers are now killed or dispersed with the Ebert administration. Until recently there has been more or less sympathy for Liebknecht in the allied countries as he was fighting for the defeat of the Bolshevik efforts of Liebknecht and his associates must be received with satisfaction. The elections that have already been held in Bavaria and Wurttemberg have resulted in the Ebert administration. The party of Ebert and of Allied groups and there is little more to be said in the elections to be held in Germany Sunday. The radical socialists have shown they are not affiliated with the Ebert party appear content to allow that administration to make the attempt of strengthening German affairs. This is satisfactory to the Allies for the Ebert administration is opposed to Prussian militarism and the Junker class and is anxious to establish order in Germany.

Senator Lamar—The I. W. W. is perhaps the most active engaged in spreading Bolshevik propaganda, and has at its command a large field force known as recruiting agents."

When a woman's face grows haggard and pale, when she is tired all day and ready to cry when night comes, she ought to know something is wrong. Putting off only makes matters worse. The best advice we can give any sickly woman is to test out the following treatment:

At the close of every meal, with a sip or two of water, take two chocolate-coated Ferronose Tablets. This seems to be the best thing going for folks that are tired out, run-down and in need of a strengthening, building-up medicine. Ferronose's action aids the three principal functions of the body—digestion, assimilation, elimination. Elimination is assured because Ferronose quickens the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels—this guarantees the maintenance of vigorous health.

Not a man, woman or child need blood, vigor, endurance—not a person who is weak, nervous or sickly, not a person in ill-health who won't receive immediate help from Ferronose. As a tonic and restorative, as a health-bringer and body-builder, Ferronose is unrivaled. It cures because it feeds and nourishes, because it contains the elements that build up and strengthen. Try it yourself—sold everywhere in 50 cent boxes, 6 boxes for $2.50, or by mail from The Caxarose Co., Kingston, Ont.

Local Talent in Eizra Comes to Stay Surprisingly Good—Those Who Took Part

"One of the best yet." Such is the comment on the sprightly English comedy, "Eizra Comes to Stay," which was presented in the Imperial Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening to packed houses by the Young Men's Inmate Association Society of the Cathedral parish. The play, which was well received and ranks well with the best ones that have been seen here of late, whether amateur or professional. Under the capable direction of Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson and the clever cast that she was successful in securing, "Eizra Comes to Stay" lives long in the minds of those who saw it as a truly finished performance. The snap with which the play ran from start to finish was remarkable. The directness and the participants are to be highly congratulated on their part. The programme. Following is the programme: The Honorable Sandy Verrall... Frederick D. McGuire... Alexander Stoop Verrall... T. Chipman Olive... Montague Jordan... Vincent D. McCrossin... Herbert, a valet... D. Douglas Hill... Lady Pennebroke... Miss Kathleen O'Malley... Miss Vera Lawrence... Miss Elizabeth Gorman... Mrs. Alloway... Miss Eleanor Tapley... Dorothy... Miss Frances McInerney... Spittles. Between Acts I and II—Duet, Miss Gertrude O'Neil and Mr. L. Gerald... Between Acts II and III—Character solo, Mrs. Harold Coleman... Directress—Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson. The furniture was loaned by Mr. R. McInerney... The Imperial orchestra played several Irish selections between acts, which found much favor.

Fred. D. McGuire was cast in the lead and as the Hon. Sandy Verrall he brought to the character called for. It was easy for him to act the part and to make the character his own. Each of the ladies appearing in the play and in the specialties received applause.

Testator Named His First and Second Wife as Executrices

Toronto, March 18—An extraordinary contest over a Port Arthur estate came before Mr. Justice Clute at Osgoode Hall, on a motion for the appointment of a receiver. The estate is that of the late D. F. Burke, who was prominent in the development of the Port Arthur district twenty years ago. The estate consisted of a large jewelry business and extensive real estate holdings. One of the unique features of the case is the fact that in the will, for which probate has been asked, the executrices named were the first and second wives of the testator. Another feature is that to establish her claim under the will she brings forward, the second wife must prove her marriage to have been invalid.

The plaintiff in the case is Evangeline Melora Anderson, the second wife, and the defendant is Guy F. Clarke, husband of a daughter by the first marriage. The plaintiff asks the court for an order naming a receiver to take charge of the estate and for an injunction restraining the defendants from dealing with her share of the estate. According to the story before the court, Mrs. Anderson secured a divorce in the States, and Burke also went to Chicago and secured a divorce. The two were married in Florida in April, 1917. The will was

Took Severe Cold on HIS LUNGS

COUGHED PHEGM and BLOOD

On the first appearance of a cough or cold, do not neglect it, but get rid of it at once before it has a chance to grow worse, and gets settled on the lungs, causing bronchitis, pneumonia and other serious lung troubles. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will cure the cough or cold on its first inception and perhaps save you years of suffering. Mr. G. F. Strachan, Carleton Place, Ont., writes: "Last winter I took a most severe cold on my lungs and was coughing up phlegm and blood most of the time. I had the cough for over two months and took a great deal of different medicines, but found no relief from them. At last a friend advised me to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I did, and it gave me relief in a very short time, and today I am enjoying my health again."

The marvelous results that Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has achieved in the cure of coughs, and colds has caused many so-called "cure" preparations to be put on the market, which do not contain a single whiff of Norway Pine. Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pines trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

made three months previous to this. Mrs. Anderson claims not only under the will, but under a deed of trust, whereby the alleged Burke put aside half his estate for her. This deed of trust, she says, was made in February, 1918, two years before they were before the court. One of the defendants is a Vancouver, one in Germany, and one is a prisoner of war in Florida. The matter was enlarged to permit service.

Some high officials believe that because of the new feeling of co-operation now evident on both sides of the Rio Grande, the objectionable features of the oil bill will be eliminated by the Mexican Congress. The present proposed law establishing a sole bank issue is intended to take away the rights of foreigners to state and private banks to issue notes. The labor legislation to come before the extra session of congress also is considered of great importance here because it affects many mining, agricultural and other companies in Mexico financed by Americans and other foreigners. Under authority of the new constitution many of the Mexican states have adopted the eight hour day with a seven hour limit for night work, compulsory profit sharing among the employees and other labor laws, and a means is now sought to enforce them.

Washington, March 18—The Mexican Congress has been called by President Carranza to meet in extra session on May 1. State Department advises said business to be considered would include oil land legislation, a law to enforce provisions of the new legislation relating to labor and social welfare and legislation for a central bank.

Officially said that the proposed law failed to recognize vested rights which Great Britain, the United States and France specifically insisted upon in notes sent to the Mexican government nearly a year ago. The rights to property purchased in Mexico under the old constitution were recognized until 1917, when the new constitution declaring all minerals belonged to the government and denying the right of foreigners to own land in Mexico became effective.

Where Honor is Due

Since the dawn of history, man has delighted to honor the illustrious dead. Witness the Pyramids of Egypt with their inscriptions containing records, graven in stone, of ancient heroes.

Surely there has never been in all the world's history records more fitting to preserve than of those who fought and fell in the Great War.

For this purpose, perhaps, bronze and brass memorial tablets are the most suitable for churches, schools, or business institutions.

Not All He Knows, But Quite a Lot Worth Millions to Huns

If They Could Have Secured it Three or Four Years Ago—Inside History of Navy in War Time

(Toronto Mail and Empire)

Admiral Jellicoe's book about the operations of the Grand Fleet from the time he took command in 1914 until he relinquished it to Sir David Beatty in 1916 does not tell us what we would like to know, but it does contain some important new matter and throws light upon places hitherto unexplored.

It would be unfair to a gallant and brilliant officer to suppose that the Grand Fleet was handled under Jellicoe with any timidity. It was looking for the German fleet, ready to carry the fight to it from the day war broke out.

Political Hoped Navy. The responsibility for this situation for the small margin, for a score of defects in ships and docks and equipment, must rest with the politicians.

The Battle of Jutland. The German High Sea Fleet was sent out to capture some British light cruisers reported near the Skagerrack. Here it encountered Beatty with his cruiser squadron.

The Audacious and Kitchener. Viscount Jellicoe's book explains why such mystery was placed around the sinking of the Audacious. He had such a small margin of superiority that he dared not let Germany know that this great

REVOLUTION WITH UPHEAVAL UNLESS DONE PEACEABLY

Tom Moore Says Labor Demands Fuller Share in Industry—A Tariff Suggestion.

Toronto, March 17.—"I tell you if you are content to wait until revolution has taken place, you will have the upheaval in Canada as well as they had it in Russia and everywhere else." So declared Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, in an address to the Canadian Club here today, speaking on the subject of industrial unrest of the present day.

President Moore said: "I know the temper of labor, and I know that it is one that insists that it shall reap a fuller reward for its share in industry. I am not afraid of unrest, I rather welcome it. But we must see to it that it is a practical nature, such as is diverted into channels of construction and not into channels of destruction. We must construct in such a way that it will bring the greatest amount of happiness. But unfortunately today not all unrest is being diverted into channels of construction. However, I am optimistic about the situation and believe that a better civilization is in prospect, but before this can be arrived at the minds of many of our citizens must be changed and the old antagonisms destroyed."

BRITISH BROUGHT DOWN 8,000 ENEMY AIRPLANES AND LOST 2,800 OF OWN

London, March 18.—During the war 8,000 enemy airplanes were shot down by the British air forces, while 2,800 British machines were missing, Brigadier General J. E. B. Seely announced in the House of Commons today, in introducing the army's air estimate of £26,000,000.

General Seely said that if the war had continued the estimate would have been £200,000,000. When the armistice was signed, he added, England was turning out 4,000 airplanes a month and had 200 squadrons in commission, compared with six at the beginning of the war. It was intended to keep 102 squadrons for defense, but the country would not rely so much on the number of machines as in remaining in the forefront of aerial development. Air forces, he added, would be maintained in Egypt, Mesopotamia, Archangel, and the Near and Middle East. He pointed out that the political officer at Bagdad would be able by airplane to carry out in two days the same number of inspections with the inhabitants as would previously have taken two months. A large part of the estimate would be available for the encouragement of civilian aviation.

The first duty of the new civilian branch of the air ministry would be to secure an international agreement in Paris with regard to the future of flying, which must always in many respects be an international business, because there are no natural boundaries. Dilating on the enormous scientific development in aviation, including the discovery of the wireless telephone, by which aviators are able both to send and receive from the same operator, General Seely mentioned an entirely novel type of aircraft which is under consideration, and which he said mathematicians claimed could attain hitherto unheard-of speed.

A White Paper on the air estimate states that the maximum personnel of the British air force on any day covered by the estimates is 150,000. This number, however, is in process of reduction to 79,870, which is the total number of all ranks in the air service to be retained during the period of occupation. This number, which will soon be reached by demobilization, includes the Rhine army and the troops in France and Belgium, with a total of 17,400; the armies of the Middle East, 3,180, and the home and colonial establishments, including Russia and men with the grand fleet, 58,970.

The vote on account requires £26,000,000 for the air service for the first five months of the fiscal year 1919-20.

United States Merchant Marine Has Come Back

New Fleet Built Under War Conditions Proving Its Usefulness in Carrying Food to Meet European Needs

Washington, March 18.—While most of the information about the American merchant marine is issuing from the United States Shipping Board in the form of statistics, there is plenty of romance about it, since it evokes memories of the old days when American shipping was known in every port of the world and when, through it, the trade and wealth of New England waxed great.

More than 100 vessels of the new American merchant marine are now devoted to the work of exporting American products, four-fifths of these vessels having come from the American shipyards during the past year. A large part of this fleet is being utilized for Belgium for the exportation of flour, pork products, milk and various foodstuffs to meet the requirements of the European food relief service. It had been expected that a number of foreign ships would be available for this service, but many of them returned to their ante-bellum trade routes as soon as the armistice was signed that the bulk of the task fell to the new American merchant marine.

European Food Relief. There were 109 vessels of 888,957 deadweight tons in the European relief service on Feb. 17. Of the American vessels, which numbered 88, of 783,948 deadweight tons, 79 had come into existence during the past year. In February there were 23 newly-built vessels en route from Pacific northwest ports to Europe laden with flour from Montana, Oregon and Idaho. Only two of this fleet antedate 1918. Freighters of 8,800 tonnage were loaded with wheat at the Seattle docks, whence they steamed for Trieste and Saloniki. On the Atlantic coast the new fabricated steel ships from the Hog Island yards carried grain and other food products on their maiden trips.

In addition to the new vessels in the fleet, there have been 69 vessels under charter to the shipping board which on Feb. 17 comprised 70 per cent of all the tonnage in that service.

The American merchant marine comprises 45 per cent of all shipping plying between ports of the United States and foreign ports and one-fifth of the seagoing tonnage of the world. Although a large number of ships are being sorted by army and navy needs—383 according to late reports—there are 732 vessels, aggregating 1,961,239 gross tons, in overseas service, 281 being freighters, 84 freight and passenger vessels, three freight and refrigerator vessels, six colliers, seventy-one steam tankers and 230 sailing vessels.

In January the Shipping Board assigned some of its largest steamers to carry commerce between American ports and those of Great Britain, including the Invincible, the Defiance, and the East Wind, each of 11,800 tons. These ships ply between New York, London and Liverpool.

Ships in Italian Trade.

The notable ships that have been placed in the Italian trade is the 8,800-ton Blouk, which was built in Seattle in eighty-eight days and which has proved a first-class ship, taking regular trips to and from Italian ports and carrying a first-class regular trip between New York and Greek ports. From Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, ships have every week for Danzig, Poland; Saloniki, Greece, and Turkey, carrying the supplies so greatly needed in the depleted countries.

The Shipping Board has also opened a service with American steamers between New York and Antwerp, making regular trips between these ports being the Westpool and the Ossawatimic, each of 8,800 tons.

Of course trading with South America is of the utmost importance to the United States, and large vessels are making regular trips to both the east and west coasts. Some of these vessels are the new 8,800-ton West Zulu, the 7,800-ton Belvidere, the 6,200-ton Polar Star, the 7,200-ton Dallas, and the Sacandaga and Sagauca, each of 7,500 tons.

Trade routes which have not known the Stars and Stripes for many a year are being reopened to American commerce. Into the Dutch East Indies, from which American captives and treasures were brought home, momentous still to be found in and near New England seaports, are now going bulky freighters. The Western Breaker of 8,800 tons, the 7,500-ton Osaki, carry out and bring back general cargoes between New York and these eastern ports. A new route has been opened to China with the sailing of the 7,500-ton steamer Monmouth. The Westland of 8,800 tons makes regular trips now between New York, Australia and New Zealand, and the Abrom, 7,500 tons, plies between New York and India.

Thirteen sailing vessels and two steamers make regular voyages to the west coast of Africa, bringing back in exchange for general merchandise large consignments of mahogany.

Although a short time ago it was thought that the building of steamships might be overdone, there is now a shortage of freighters in the world and everything that can carry a cargo is in demand.

DEMAND INQUIRY INTO CAMPAIGN IN EAST AFRICA

London, Feb. 26.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—According to information received here from Cape Town a demand has sprung up there for a searching investigation into the manner in which the British campaign was conducted in East and Central Africa after General Smuts had relinquished command to come to England. When he left it was believed that the campaign had been virtually concluded.

Owen Letcher, formerly an officer in the East African expeditionary force, reviews the campaign in a series of articles in the Cape Times and strongly advocates a commission of inquiry. "The belief prevails in Capetown, it is said, that

Good Rubbers Mean Foot Comfort, Shoe Economy and Health Protection

Why are they comfortable? Because in the Dominion Rubber System brands, you can get just the size and shape of rubbers to perfectly fit every pair of shoes.

That is one advantage of having a great organization like the Dominion Rubber System to study your needs. With factories and service branches all over Canada; and with experts in constant touch with the leading shoe manufacturers, the Dominion Rubber System is able to make and supply your dealer with every style of rubbers required.

How do Rubbers economize on shoes? They protect shoes against slush and rain—make shoes wear longer and hold their shape better—and enable you to wear old shoes in bad weather.

Is it necessary to speak of health protection? With the epidemic of "Flu" so vividly in mind, and the warning of physicians to keep the feet dry, surely no one will run the risk of going without rubbers on wet days!

When you choose rubbers, ask for one of these brands:

"Jacques Cartier" "Merchants" "Maple Leaf"
"Granby" "Dominion" "Daisy"

These trademarks guarantee quality; and behind these trademarks is the Dominion Rubber System, a power of protection to every pair of these guaranteed rubbers.

Fulton Trucks come to town

This town needs trucks—good trucks.

That is why I have contracted with Grace Motors Limited, of Toronto and Winnipeg for the Fulton selling franchise in this territory.

Fulton 1½-ton Trucks mean much to this community. They mean increased transportation facilities under efficient economical conditions. And every man in this whole district must wake up to the fact that transportation is the big problem of the day.

The Fulton Motor Truck is the best answer I know of—I won't sell you a truck if you don't actually need it. But I want everybody to know how good Fulton Trucks are. Come around and see them, or let me bring it to you.

Fulton Motor Trucks are built by the largest exclusive builders of 1½-ton trucks. The "go-everywhere, do-everything" truck of America. It is scientifically designed to haul a 3000 pound load of feathers or pig-iron. You can't "feaze" the Fulton with a ton and a half of anything.

A pretty useful truck for your business, this Fulton. You only need to use it to recognize its quality. And Fulton owners are getting 14 to 17 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

Let's talk Transportation—Truck Transportation—at your office or mine.

Are You a Bolshevik?

Bolshevism is based upon violence, relies upon force, is dead to right or reason.

To force the bowels to move by taking castor oil, pills, salts, mineral waters, etc., is to outrage Nature and "bolshevik" the body. Because drugs act by producing irritation.

Castor oil, for instance, is so obnoxious that the bowels make frantic effort to get rid of it. Other medicines, from senna to salts, provoke action by causing the bowels to try desperately to expel them first.

With such remedies therefore the removal of bowel waste is secondary and wholly incidental. Hence, the result is not to cure constipation, but on the contrary, to make it worse, more obstinate, harder to overcome.

On the other hand, Nujol is not a drug, does not act like any drug, acts mechanically, not medicinally; persuades Nature instead of forcing her.

Nujol supplies necessary moisture to soften intestinal contents and facilitate easy, thorough evacuation at regular intervals. Nujol makes easier and more effective the action of intestinal muscles. Nujol absorbs poisonous material.

Nujol is free from any deleterious after effects, forms no bad habits, can be used at any age, under any conditions, and overcomes constipation because it works hand in hand with Nature—with her laws, not against them.

Self-poisoning due to constipation causes over 90% of human illness. Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today, and send coupon for free booklet—"Thirty Feet of Danger."

Warning: Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

Mr. LeBlanc Gets After Messrs. Potts and Baxter

Hotly Resents St. John Member's Attack Upon the French and Pays His Respects to Former Attorney-General - Potts' Speech Places Opposition in Uncomfortable Position

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 17.—The attack made by Mr. Potts, of St. John, upon the French residents of the province brought forth a fiery response this evening from A. T. LeBlanc, of Resplendence, in the course of the debate on the reply to the speech from the throne. Mr. LeBlanc defended the loyalty of the French-speaking citizens of Canada, and the members of the Liberal party and charged that any lack of enthusiasm towards recruiting among the French was due to the insidious campaign carried on in 1911 on behalf of the Conservative party in order to secure their return to power.

In delivering his speech, Mr. Potts explained that he was speaking as an independent, but his brand of independence seems to have fallen like a bomb-shell amongst his colleagues. Opposition speakers this year have been holding out the olive branch to the French-speaking voters and Mr. Potts' declaration of war bids fair to undo the hopes of the diplomats of the party. A result of this was noticed this evening when among the spectators in the house were observed F. J. Robidoux, former M. P. for Kent, and Hon. Senator Bourque, and it is intimated that Mr. Potts' speech accounts for the report that the opposition caucus, held to-night after the house adjourned, was called for the purpose of conferring with these visitors. There seems to be something like a panic over the matter in the opposition ranks.

Mr. LeBlanc this evening also paid his respects to the former attorney-general and that portion of his speech will be read with interest in Mr. Baxter's constituency. The debate was resumed by W. S. Sutton, of Carleton county, in one of the most moderate and reasonable speeches heard from the opposition benches this session.

and had been murdering the English. When he (LeBlanc) had heard the honorable member for St. John express the wish that the French language would be driven out of New Brunswick he had recalled an incident which had occurred in a car in France the memorable 11th of November last. He had thought it most abominable that any man belonging to an allied country would want to banish from their country the language that on Nov. 11 gave to the world the glorious message of freedom. If the honorable members intended to embark upon such a campaign he hoped they would come forward at once and show themselves in their true colors. If they think they can gain ground in New Brunswick by such tactics, they do not know the people of the province. He (LeBlanc) would not be afraid to meet the honorable member for St. John in the counties of Queens, York or Sunbury for a discussion of the question.

The Junior Women's Auxiliary of Stone church held a largely attended and most interesting meeting in the school room last night when three missionaries delivered stirring addresses and two beautiful Bible plays were given by members of the auxiliary and greatly enjoyed. The meeting was presided over by the Rev. G. A. Kilbring, and candy was sold and a collection taken for the benefit of the auxiliary funds. All the three speakers had strange curios to exhibit which were examined with great interest.

The first item on the programme was the pleasing little play entitled "The Post Bag," which was admirably acted by the Misses Greta Fowler, Myra Fowler, Helen Merritt and Louis Patterson. ### Nuxated Iron Helps to Spread Health and Strength to 3,000,000 People Annually Get Your Share!

When you think of the successful men and women you know—who are doing things worth while—you will find that they possess force, vim and energy—the kind that simply brim over when the blood is filled with iron. Iron is red blood food—it helps put strength and energy into the veins of men and raises into the cheeks of women.

A prominent New York Surgeon and former Adjunct Professor of the New York Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital, Dr. Kenneth K. MacAlpine, says: "If people would only realize that iron is just as indispensable to the blood as is the air to the lungs and as he just as particular in my opinion, be far less disease resulting from anemic, weakened conditions. In my opinion, Nuxated Iron is the most valuable tonic, strength and blood builder any physician can prescribe."

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron, which has been prescribed and recommended by physicians and which is used by over three million people annually is not a secret remedy, but one which is well-known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated and does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser who will refund your money.

HERE'S THE STORY:

GENEVA FRENCH thought that she would be able to do as she pleased when she married Lawrence Tabor, the youngest member of her stern father's circle of friends. To her the marriage ring meant a declaration of independence.

In the unrestrained pursuit of happiness and freedom her name became linked in society gossip, and she was a jest to be bandied about by young men. Yet through a most ingenious trick of psychology her husband was able to bring her to her senses and to make of her a good wife, and what is more, a good mother.

How this was accomplished forms the theme of "Talk of the Town," a photodrama starring beautiful Dorothy Phillips. To know you must see "Talk of the Town" yourself.

HORSEMEN'S CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN FREDERICTON

(Fredericton Gleaner)

Horsemen, track managers and everybody interested in harness horse racing in New Brunswick have been invited to attend a conference at the Barker House, Fredericton, March 30.

The invitation for the gathering has been sent out by the Fredericton Park Association, who have addressed a circular letter to forty or more track managers and owners in the various parts of this province as well as a number in Nova Scotia.

The object of the meeting is to make some definite arrangements for the coming racing season, to get the sport on a solid footing in this province for the critical period of reconstruction following the war and to organize the horsemen so that they can get concessions in shipping facilities and other matters to which they have for so long felt entitled.

Previous efforts to organize the horsemen in the Maritime Provinces have not met with very much success and therein lies the cause of many of the difficulties that the sport has run into. However, it has been decided to invite the horsemen to come here, and those who cannot come have been asked to send along their ideas in writing as to what they think should be done.

Organization is the only method by which the horsemen of New Brunswick and the other Maritime Provinces can ever hope to put harness racing on a substantial basis, it offers the only solution for maintaining the sport in the future and it is the only route to success. If a permanent racing circuit could be organized it would mean the prosperity of the sport and it would help to put harness racing on a basis in this country from which it could not be budged.

It is also felt that the only way horsemen can ever expect to receive the concessions they have been demanding from the railways is through completing an organization which will have authority to deal with the transportation people and demand better shipping facilities and more favorable terms. The horsemen got recognition in the United States last year through such methods and the same thing can be done in the Maritime Provinces.

The first difficulty—and it has so far proved an insurmountable problem—is to get the horsemen to "see the light." They are going to have another chance and it is most sincerely hoped that they will embrace it—J. D. R.

CHINA WANTS MACHINERY

Industrial development in the interior of China has led to an enormous demand for machinery of various descriptions. In an address at a recent banquet in New York, the Chinese Consul-General said: "For government requirements alone, we need machinery for arsenals, mines, railways, dockyards and so forth. Many of the smaller cities which used to be lighted with candles now use electric light. Such cities number about 10,000. Especially machinery for mining and smelting is wanted in increasing quantities every year. Boilers, factories for flax and cotton cloth, oil mills, flour mills and rice mills are springing up all over China like mushrooms." Dr. Chien Tsur emphasized the very rich opportunities for American capital in China. "The returns awaiting adequate investment," he said, "would be regarded by Occidental capital, accustomed, prior to war dividends, to fair percentages of return, as something far beyond their normal expectations in domestic finance."

MAJOR HERON TO WASHINGTON

General Staff Officer Here Gets Important Appointment—An Efficient Soldier—Served in France

Major V. Heron, G.S.O., who has been the General Staff Officer of M. D. No. 7 for the past fifteen months, received a fine promotion yesterday. He will go to Washington in a few days, where he will be employed with the military attaché of the British Embassy at that place. This is a new appointment and Major Heron is the first Canadian officer to be selected for the duty, which proves that he is most efficient at anything which he undertakes.

He has been connected with the Royal Canadian Rifles for the past seven years, and went to France at the beginning of the war with that unit. He is also secretary for the committee of Public Safety and was responsible for the detailed arrangements in connection with the safety of the port of St. John during the present war. He was recently appointed A. D. C. to Lieut-Governor Pughley of this province, and he regrets very much that he will have to resign that appointment.

The duties of the military attaché at an embassy are the reporting to their respective governments all matters which relate to training and other military affairs.

Major Heron is very well known in this city and throughout the province and has a large circle of friends. He has been receiving congratulations on his promotion from his friends on all sides this morning. They regret very much to see him leave, but they wish him success in his new appointment.

TO CLOSE WINTER SEASON WITH RUSH

Many Steamers Bound Here and Nearly 3,000,000 Bushels of Grain is to be Shipped

Citizens of St. John will read with interest the announcement that business at this port is likely to be brisk from now until the close of the winter port season. For some time past there has been a big falling off in business and in consequence the city has suffered, but from the present outlook the winter will be a record one. Within the next two weeks, or up to the end of the month, there will be ten passenger steamers and five grain boats due here for the C. P. R. S. in addition to nine steamers now en route here from all parts of Europe to Wm. Thomson & Co.

The C. P. R. S. liners will bring thousands of passengers here from England in addition to general cargo and will return with passengers and general cargo. Their grain boats will load for Europe. At the present time there are two C. P. R. S. passenger boats in port, the Minnedosa and the Grampan, in addition to four steamers loading grain. From the present indications no less than 2,840,000 bushels of grain will be taken from this port before the end of the month. This will be a record shipment in that space of time, providing nothing happens to change the plans.

During the slack part of the season members of the C. P. R. S. office staff were laid off, but they are all back now or have been sent after. This great boost to the port trade will mean work for hundreds of men.

REGIMENT HAS A FINE RECORD

Mixed Draft of East York Here En Route to England—Battalion Formed in 1695—Has Been in Bermuda

A mixed draft of the East Yorks regiment arrived on the S. S. Chaleur from Bermuda where they have been doing garrison duty for the past two and a half years; they are going home to England on the S. S. Grampan. Lieutenant J. Baugh is in charge of the draft.

There is an interesting story connected with the East Yorks regiment, as related in part by Major E. J. Collingwood of Hull, England, second in command of the entire battalion. The battalion was originally formed in 1695 and was known as the 15th Regiment of Foot and has fought in all the wars in which the mother country has taken part. During the recent war it went to France in April, 1915, and saw much service with the 50th division. It was then known as the first fourth battalion. The second fourth battalion was sent to Bermuda about two years ago to do garrison duty there and while there it supplied drafts to replace casualties. This is the third visit of the regiment to Bermuda, the first being in 1819, the second in 1898 and the third during the present year. The battalion is now proceeding homeward for demobilization, as the garrison in Bermuda has been reduced considerably to meet peace time conditions.

Major Collingwood is in the city at the Royal with his wife and four children. He expects to sail for England in a few days.

The new snappy panel effect. The two button form-fitting. The three button conservative types. Or what not—all are here.

These goods which are arriving are so pleasingly new that they'll stir your "dress-up" nature as the sun stirs the sap in the trees.

So—

Value and Service

The one dominant thought and purpose which has directed every activity and impulse of this store since it first threw its doors open to the public, has been to give to patrons the best values that thoughtful, intelligent merchandising could make possible, and to render sincere, helpful, competent service that would be a real constructive factor in raising a standard of Canadian homes.

Such success as we have achieved has come through constant adherence to this policy, and without resort at any time to alluring inducements or other artificial influences.

No matter whether your home is a modest bungalow or a palatial edifice, you can supply your every home-beautifying need here, from the simplest piece of furniture to the complete furnishing of the home, and the probability is that you will actually spend less money than you would have to spend for less satisfactory service and results any place else.

We invite value comparisons every day in the year, and we solicit your patronage only on the basis of our ability to serve you most economically and most satisfactorily.
