COLLEGE FOOTBALL

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 26.—"I am glad that developments of the past season have saved college football," said President Francis in an address to Brown students today. "But I fear developments are still to come. Personally I should like to see all training tables abolished, as I labor systems which separate athletes at all from the rest of the student body. "I would like to see in the future all games played on college grounds. The dignity and standard of the college would be raised if they were guests of the college at athletic contests."

REALISM AT WORST ON BERLIN STAGE

Play a Succession of Horrors
Which Rouse Indignation of the Audience

Scenes Deplored as Disgusting, Scandalous and Profane by Excited Crowd.

BERLIN, Nov. 24.—Remarkable scenes took place at the production of a drama entitled "Chevalier Bluebeard," by Herr Herbert Eulenberg, at the Lessing Theatre here last night. The play surpasses anything that has hitherto been presented to the theatre-going public in the way of downright and horrible realism. In the first act the horrified audience saw on the stage a crypt in which lay the heads of five wives already murdered by Bluebeard. The second act represented a wedding banquet on the stage, which is suddenly disturbed by the only son of Bluebeard, who drinks until he falls into delirium tremens, and then runs amuck, demolishing everything within his reach. Suddenly, after a most disgusting exhibition of drunken delirium, he falls on his knees and says the Lord's Prayer.

The third act reveals Bluebeard murdering his sixth wife. During the fourth act the burial of the sixth wife takes place on the stage. There is a coffin, with weeping relatives, and after the funeral service the coffin is lowered into the grave by ropes, the planks are removed and earth is thrown on the coffin. The son, still in delirium tremens, hangs himself on a tree on the stage in full view of the audience, and soon afterward the dead wife's sister drowns herself in despair. The fifth act shows Bluebeard attempting to murder his seventh and last wife. She escapes from him, springs into the flames of his burning castle and perishes, likewise in full view of the audience. Her father and brother thereupon appear and kill Bluebeard without more ado. This play is not intended to be melodramatic, but an extremely modern realistic drama, the Lessing Theatre having long enjoyed the reputation of being the home of one of the highest forms of dramatic art. The audience began to hoot, shout and hiss in the third act, and general indignation rose by degrees until a perfect storm broke out in the last act. The spectators shouted: "This is disgusting!" "This is a scandal!" "This is profane!" "Stop it!" Loud hoots and hisses at times made the actors almost inaudible, and many persons rose in their places and shook their fists at the actors and actresses, gesticulating wildly with righteous indignation. Most critics condemn the play, but a few praise it as revealing wonderful talent.

DISCOVERY OF LAKE CHAMPLAIN

The Event Will Be Celebrated by State of Vermont—Canada Will Be Asked to Participate.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 26.—No little interest is manifested throughout the state by the joint resolution passed by the Vermont legislature, providing for a celebration on July 4, 1906, of the centenary of the discovery by Samuel de Champlain of the lake which bears his name.

By the resolution a commission of six members, including the governor and appointed by him, is created. This commission is empowered to take such steps toward a fitting celebration as they deem fit on the part of the state of Vermont, and to confer with Canada and New York to ascertain what action either of them may take with Vermont to make of the event a success and a credit to all. This commission is to report to the general assembly of the state in 1908. It is expected that the government of France will wish to participate, as it was a French man who discovered the lake.

It has been suggested that a water ragaunt be arranged with decorated floats, and perhaps a model of Champlain's ship, historical tableaux and suitable addresses. Such a celebration, it is believed, would continue three days. One day would be given to Plattsburg, Isle La Motte, and other places in the northern part of the lake. Another day would be given to Crown Point, Ticonderoga and the southern portion, the principal celebration, of course, taking place in this city on the Fourth of July.

Carleton Royal Arch Chapter of Masons will celebrate their 101st anniversary in Masonic hall. A committee of which Hon. J. V. Ellis is chairman and J. W. McEllen, secretary, have charge of the celebration. W. B. Wallace, G. H. P., will give the history of the order from its founding. Officers from the Union Chapter, of Carleton, St. Stephen, Woodstock, Sussex, Botford, Mount Lebanon and Fredericton have been invited. Dancing and cards will follow the musical entertainment and refreshments will be served.

CANADA YEAR BOOK ISSUED.

Mr. Archibald Blue Changed the Character of the Work.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—The Canada Year Book for 1905, second series, has just been published. Mr. George Johnson, for many years Dominion Statistician, has resigned, and Mr. Archibald Blue, chief officer of the census branch, has taken over the work of getting out the year book. He has entirely changed its character. The new volume consists of a sketch of the events of the year, filling about forty pages, compiled from the census and from departmental reports, and of a record of cabinet ministers, governor-generals and lieutenant-governors. In all it comprises 350 pages, as against the 309 pages of its predecessor. The "Events of the Year" is a valuable record containing a great deal of information in very convenient form.

The tables seem very complete. They include 31 dealing with the census, 12 dealing with trade and commerce, 10 setting out the public accounts, 12 relating to the revenue, 12 dealing with banks and banking, and 3 with saving banks; 5 describing the work of the post office, 32 giving particulars as to insurance, 5 touching on loan and other companies, 15 dealing with railways and canals, and others devoted to telegraphs, marine, fisheries, militia, Dominion lands, immigration, patents, copyrights, mines and penitentiaries.

eral lathkeys were found in his possession. An uncle, who came up from Brighton in response to a police telegram, stated in court on Thursday that the boy's head had been turned by reading "penny dreadfuls." A large quantity of this class of literature, some craps for masks and some crackers to make "bombs" were found in his luggage, and he had told his companions that he was going away to become a highwayman.

RAN AWAY FROM HOME TO TURN HIGHWAYMAN

Penitential Literature Affects Mind of 14 Year Old English Boy

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A boy who ran away from home to become a highwayman, in imitation of the exploits of the heroes of the "penny dreadfuls" which he had been reading, has had his career cut short at the beginning of his life. Walter Hartman, who was said to be 14 years old, was charged on Thursday at the Westminster police court with highway robbery. It was stated that he ran away from his home at Hove, Brighton, a week ago, and although his parents made every effort to trace him, they heard nothing of him until his arrest on Friday.

On that evening he stopped a woman in Westbourne road, Plumico, saying: "Excuse me, you have dropped a coin." As he spoke he dropped a penny, and when the woman turned to pick it up he snatched her bag, broke the chain and ran away. The incident was witnessed by a policeman, who chased and captured him.

When the boy was searched at the police station a black cloth mask and several lathkeys were found in his possession. An uncle, who came up from Brighton in response to a police telegram, stated in court on Thursday that the boy's head had been turned by reading "penny dreadfuls." A large quantity of this class of literature, some craps for masks and some crackers to make "bombs" were found in his luggage, and he had told his companions that he was going away to become a highwayman.

The school attendance officer said Thompson contaminated all the lads about and had been turned away from school because of his bad influence. He was the most cute little fellow witness had seen for many years.

The chief constable asked that Thompson be sent out of the city; and he had been accordingly ordered to an industrial school for four years. The other boys were bound over to come up for judgment later.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—Gen. Wm. Booth's meeting at the Circus Busch was attended by ten counts and 35 barons. One of the latter wanted to come to the speaker's bench, but eventually was satisfied with shaking hands with the general.
Gen. Booth told the Mall and Empire correspondent that he was going to the United States and Canada in January. He said:
"In Japan, where the Government is giving the Salvation Army every facility, the army in the recent famine rescued 3,000 peasants."
He said the Salvation Army had gained a footing in Korea, and he hoped that later it would also in Manchuria and Siberia. He was not satisfied with the progress it was making in the United States. The general said the people there were too rich and prosperous to be religious. He hoped to be able to conduct a campaign in America next autumn.

ROBBED IN MEXICO CITY

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 27.—Baroness Eggeletta, a visitor from Austria, is said to have been robbed of diamonds and jewelry valued at $8,000 at the Hotel Sion here. It is asserted the baroness put the jewelry in a sealed package, which she left in charge of the clerk. On her return from a short trip she found the jewelry had been removed from the package, and in its place were some old coins. Moorehead, the clerk, resigned his position while she was away and has not been seen since.

THE COUNTRY MARKET.

Eggs are at present a luxury which everyone cannot enjoy. The price has taken another jump, and they cannot now be had for less than 28 cents per dozen. For some months eggs have been very costly. Up to a few days ago they were selling for 24c and 26c per dozen.
Some dealers have large stocks of eggs, and higher will be charged for eggs of the poorest quality. On Saturday fresh eggs were as high as fifty cents, with very few offering.
Butter is also expensive. Good creamery butter is bringing 23c a pound, and roll butter 26c a pound.
The prices of vegetables are unchanged. Turkey is selling for 20c per lb., chickens from 7c to 8 1/2 a pair and geese from $1.50 to $1.75.
At present the indications point to a scarcity of eggs. Last year around Christmas time they were very scarce and brought high prices.

GRAND OPERA SEASON OPENS IN NEW YORK

Miss Geraldine Farrar Given a Great Reception in Gounod's Romeo and Juliette.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—

With Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet" as the premier and introducing singers new to the lyric stage of America, the grand opera season opened tonight at the Metropolitan. Decidedly the feature of the operatic night was the first appearance of Miss Geraldine Farrar, the young American soprano and prima donna of the royal opera house in Berlin. Miss Farrar was the Juliette, a role in which she has won her laurels in Berlin and elsewhere in Europe. Before the first act was over, Miss Farrar had won her house, which brought her back again and again at the fall of the curtain. It was not until the end of the balcony scene, however, that the triumph of the American girl, returned to her own people, was fully felt. Then, with every seat in the house filled, the audience, composed of the best in art, commerce and finance, waited without a handclap, deeply intent upon solo and duet, until the curtain dropped. Then indeed the young artist had cause to feel that it was fit to warm American hearts that she had so quickly sung her way. She was recalled fully a dozen times and at each recall pages carried upon the stage great floral pieces and clusters of American beauty roses. They came until the prima donna and Mr. Rousselet, her Romeo, stood before a high bank of roses and of greenery and still the audience called. It was a graceful welcome and most gratefully received.

THE CIRCULAR STUDY.

WHY THE IRON SLIDE REMAINED STATIONARY

By Anna Katherine Green.

"May God protect us!" fell from my lips, as, with a gasp, I saw my eyes travel from his determined face, first to the window behind my head and then to the opening of the door, which, though but a few steps from where I stood, was as far as possible from the room into which my darling had been introduced to enter.

"No, no!" I shouted in a frenzy, caused rather by my knowledge of the nature of this man than any special threat apparent in his voice or gesture. "Let me think! Let me know more fully what your requirements are—what she must suffer if I consent—and what I."

"I knew you would not be foolish," he said. "Life has its charm even for hermits like me; and for a beau garçon such as you are."

price which the darling of my heart might be called upon to pay for this surprise. His father's name was Felix, my heart, my interest were with Felix, in whom the nearness of death had called up all that was strongest and most commanding in his strong and commanding spirit.

"I took the paper. It was lying on the table, where it had evidently been described simultaneously with or just before our entrance into the house, and slowly read the few lines I saw written upon it. You know them, but they will acquire a new significance from your presence and intending of their purpose and intent."

"You wish me to sign these words, to put them into my own handwriting, and so make them mine? Mine?" I repeated.

"I was filled with horror. Love, life, human hopes, the world's friendships—all the possibilities of existence, swept in one concentrated flood of thought, and feeling through my outraged conscience, and I knew I could never put my name to such a blasphemy."

SOLDIER SHOT DEAD AT HIS OWN COMMAND
Loaded Men's Rifles With Ball Cartridge and Then Ordered Them to Fire
BERLIN, Nov. 24.—Sergeant Major Litzmann, of the Twentieth Infantry, stationed at Bremen, committed suicide yesterday by ordering fifteen of his men to take aim at his heart and fire. Litzmann called out the men for practice in execution drill and had, unknown to them, loaded their rifles with ball cartridge. He impersonated a dummy and stood at fifteen paces from the firing party. He ordered them to aim at his heart, and carefully tested the levels of their weapons. He ordered one man whose rifle was pointed too low, then raising his cap he gave the order to fire, crying at the same time, "Hoch der Kaiser." He fell dead, shot through the body in fifteen places.
The sergeant-major was some time ago court-martialed for accidentally shooting a civilian in the course of a military record, but was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.
In a letter found at his quarters he wrote that after having been a loyal and zealous soldier he would never consent to the degradation of undesired imprisonment.

HE WANTED A DRINK

New Yorker Who Evidently Had Not Heard Tennyson Quoth His Thirst.

A young man who has only been in the city a couple of days from New York gave some of the natives a shock last night which was followed by a long laugh. The stranger's actions caused considerable comment.

It was about 11:15 o'clock when the New Yorker was seen coming along Charlotte street near the management was well dressed, muffled up and wore an anxious look. In his right hand he carried a large water pitcher. There were quite a few citizens on the street, including policemen, and as the man with the pitcher headed towards the King square fountain it was decided by some that there was trouble once more in the water main and that he was in search of water. But they were surprised to see the man turn away from the fountain and make his way into a prominent hotel. The hotel office was full of guests, and all arguments, business and social talk was suspended.

"It's Rebecca," said one fellow.

"No," said a New York drummer, "the youth thinks he is on the Bowers, so lively is this street," but despite the snickers and remarks the young man walked up to the hotel and placed the big pitcher on the counter enquired if the hotel had anything on the premises like a bar. He was told it had, but like all bars closed at ten o'clock, and if he had been in before closing hours the management would not have sold him a drink.

The New Yorker was surprised and said it was the first place he had visited that he could not rush the growler and get a supply of froth for the night.

TESTING OF WATER MAINS TO BE RESUMED

Residents on the Higher Levels are Advised to Prepare for Trouble.

The water department advise that testing on No. 3 main will be resumed tomorrow morning. It is suggested that all persons living on the higher levels should lay in a supply of water in order that no inconvenience may result if breaks in the pipes occur.

Engineer Hunter states that the repair work on the new line from Lake Lattimer has been completed and that everything is now ready for further testing. The pressure on No. 3 main, it will be remembered, was turned on about a month ago and eleven breaks in all occurred, most of them being in the vicinity of Silver Falls. Something over one hundred pounds pressure had been put on.

At present the city distribution system is checked down to eight pounds by the regulating valves at the Marsh Bridge, but between that point and the Little River reservoir the full pressure of 140 pounds will be put on during the coming tests.

LEADING CITIZEN

UPHOLDS DR. CHRISTIE

Says Best Interests Demand Better Men.

Strikingly forcible letter from a man who knows what St. John needs, because he has to know.

The Star is in receipt of a letter from a man whose word is weighty in matters of civic advancement; a captain of industry, a brainy, active, unselfish citizen.

The worst mismanagement of local affairs is fast approaching the last straw stage in the estimation of the business community.

It is high time that some deliberate and organized effort be made to oust the present unbusinesslike aldermen who are doing more to hamper the city and reduce its facilities than so-called "hard times" or a smallpox epidemic.

Here we are in a city teeming with vigorous manhood, a city situated most advantageously for great possibilities and one which, through all its maladministration, is gradually succeeding.

It seems truly a crime that its intelligent citizens will stand back and grumble, and yet not lift a voice or hand towards placing its affairs in the grasp of men of action and ideas; men of common every day business ability.

Last night's squabble emphasizes the situation. Dr. Christie is proving a worthy successor to his late and lamented old uncle, whose sense, sound judgment and bull-dog tenacity hundreds of times saved our city from the bungles of the inexperienced group.

May he keep his promise true that he "is not done yet." May he keep probing and exposing the inefficiency of our various departmental heads until the question reaches a stage when it will be forced home to every voter to mark his ballot indubitably for a clean sweep of all the cobwebs.

Ald. Bullock, too, will be supported in some of his ideas if he carries them out to the letter. Half measures are no measures; what St. John needs is a thorough purging.

Let the associates of the Council Board be lost sight of; put an end to ring rule and cliques, and heaven grant that deaf ears may be turned to the petty tale of this official against that official. Then aldermen who stand out clear of the maelstrom of the petty grope—who more than vote yes or nay, will be supported to the last trench by the army of taxpayers.

Let the energetic aldermen address themselves to the following questions: The street railway go-as-you-please. The telephone upheaval for our best streets.

The impending water works litigation. The "Ladlow" gold brick.

The dredging delay. The West Side wharves. The Pedersen fire mistake.

The increase of crime in children. The bedlam in the police building. The street paving question.

These are only a few of the principal matters, each one has numerous offshoots, and there are still questions of real importance, which I, as well as most citizens, are fully cognizant of. People generally are prone to complain against established things, but I venture to assure every man of thought in town can point out at least one item of bungle, neglect or ignorance in his particular locality, of which our brilliant legislators take absolutely no heed.

We have heard the word "graft" whispered time and again of late in a very important department of our civic affairs. Some things almost suggest this condition. But that's for our few intelligent aldermen to locate and expose. Business men are certainly growing exasperated. The time is slowly approaching when a landslide will take place in City Hall, not in Carleton, and its muck and wreckage will be found the political corpse of those aldermen, directors, chiefs, etc., who now block the very highway of our beloved city's advancement.

Thanking you for this space, Mr. Editor, I am yours truly,

ANOTHER CITIZEN.

POLICE COURT.

There were no less than nine arrests by the police last night, and all but one drunk, who got out on a deposit of ten dollars, were on the bench this morning. Seven of the arrests were drunks, one of the number a woman.

Patrick Kelley and Edward Holt were a pair who proved the most important on the list. They were arrested about 1:30 o'clock this morning on Union street, Carleton, by Policemen Gosline and Leo for not giving a satisfactory account of themselves. In answer to Magistrate Ritchie the pair had a hard time thinking up a story which might clear them.

Kelley said he was in Carleton trying to obtain work on a winter port steamer and missed the last trip of the ferry. He was a native of Halifax, but came into the city from Norton.

Holt said he came in from Mispec two or three days ago and has since been looking for a boarding house.

Policeman Gosline gave a different story when he told that Daniel Dowd with a couple of other West End outcasts had for the past few years been living in the cabin of an old wrecked schooner in Wiggins' slip off Union street, Carleton. After midnight Dowd went to the police and informed them that there were three bums invading the cabin of the wreck and asked that they be ejected. Kelley and Holt were ejected, the third man having escaped.

The two said they had no place to go and were locked up.

The two prisoners were remanded to jail for the present.

BUYS BIG TIMBER LIMITS

IN NEWFOUNDLAND

Albert Reid, a Wealthy Englishman, Will Erect Pulp and Paper Mills There.

Albert Reid of London, England, a wealthy lumber contractor and operator, was in the city this morning. Mr. Reid has been in Newfoundland, where he has invested in extensive timber limits in the Exploits river district. It is his intention to establish there large pulp and paper mills, which will rival those planned by the Harmsworths.

Mr. Reid's plans, if carried to present intentions, will be of much importance to the ancient colony. With him in the undertaking is associated Sir Arthur Pearson of Pearson's Magazine. Mr. Reid, who has seen the eastern corner of Canada from Halifax to Montreal, is most favorably impressed with the country. He is broad minded and energetic, a fluent and interesting conversationalist, and seems determined to carry his projects to a successful conclusion. In his opinion Canada is only beginning to realize her position as a possible factor of importance in the world's commerce.
