The new Act relating to County Courts.—The act to extend the act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England, and to amend the same, contains 25 sections, and became operative on receiving the royal assent on Wednesday. The jurisdiction of the county courts is now extended to £50 for the recovery of debt or demand, and to all proceedings to that amount. The legal profession has been benefited by the sixth section of the new act. An Attorney is now entitled to £1 10s for his fee and costs, where the debt, damage, or demand shall not exceed £25, or £2 in any other case within the jurisdiction given by this act, and in no case shall any fee exceeding £3 6d, be allowed for employing a barrister as counsel in the cause, and the expense of employing an attorney or solicitor shall not be allowed on taxation of costs, unless by order of the judge. Power is now given to suffer judgment by default, and to agree to terms of payment without going before the court. By the eleventh section it is declared that, in actions commenced after the passing of this act, in the superior courts, sums not exceeding £20 in actions of contract recovered, or £5 in actions of tort, the plaintiff shall have no costs; and it shall not be necessary to enter any suggestion on the record to deprive such plaintiffs of costs, nor shall any such plaintiff be entitled to costs by reason of any privilege as attorney or officer of such court, or otherwise. This is a great improvement, and will effectually put an end to actions for small sums in the superior courts. An appeal is given in the 11th section, the appeal to be in the form of a case to the superior courts, to be agreed upon by the parties; and, if they cannot agree, then by the judge of the county court.

The African Slave Trade.—The select committee of the House of Lords have reported on the best means of suppressing the slave trade, and the following is a summary of their conclusions.—1. The past efficiency of the cruising squadron has been greatly undervalued. 2. That its cost has been much exaggerated. 3. That, with proper precautions, it is not an unhealthy service. 4. That, to withdraw the cruisers in part, and to administer a regulated slave trade, (as has been suggested,) would be impossible of execution, no material saving of the cost of the present system and utterly at variance with every just profession of Great Britain on this subject since she abolished the British slave trade. 5. That against the present cost of the squadron should be set the advantage of nourishing and maintaining a valuable and increasing lawful trade which must be utterly extinguished if the cruisers were withdrawn, and which might be developed to an unlimited extent if the slave trade were suppressed. 6. That to abandon the suppression of the trade, to which, in the face of the whole civilized world, Great Britain is solemnly and repeatedly pledged, would be a fatal blow to her national honour. 7. That there is every reason to believe that the present system is susceptible of a large and immediate increase of efficiency, by the adoption of such improvements as we have recommended; and that, if these improvements be adopted, aided by other measures recommended, there is reason to believe that this great object may be speedily and certainly obtained.

STATE OF ROMÉ.—The following extract from the report of the Hovving Chronicle presents a ghastly picture of the consequences of violent and unconditional restoration of the papal tyranny in Italy:—"The population of Rome, which was 180,000, is reduced to 130,000, no less than 50,000 either have been sent away or voluntarily quit it; the population re-established is the Roman Catholic religion shaken to its very foundation; the Pope and clergy held in contempt and hatred; thousands killed by the sword or murdered during the siege; widows, orphans bankrupts, and distress in every shape; spies and shirk prowling about the streets in search of their prey; (the liberal) diffidence introduced into families; all social ties rent asunder; an empty treasury; papal currency at a discount of fifteen per cent; all the medical men and lawyers of any talent driven into exile; commerce annihilated, and young men of respectable families without employment, and many without food."

A SERPENT BITES THE POPE.—The correspondent of the Times gives a curious account of the reception which the Pope recently met with, during an airing which he took with his court. The reader will be amused, despite its aspect, at the almost Flemish aggravation of detail with which the accomplished colourist finishes his gorgeous picture of the pope in a "flowing white robe, with a wide crimson hat," in the midst of his scarlet cardinals, just descended from their embellished and gilded carriages, and sunning themselves in the last rays of the declining god of day, on a sudden encounter by a train of carriages filled with foreigners (enemies of the Church!) who, at the word of command, themselves, ladies and gentlemen—at hap-hazard—forty in number—jump from their vehicles, and on their knees await the blessing of the corpulent representative of the Redeemer. His Holiness spreads out his short fat hands and utters a piece of fustian—the effect of which would be incredible were it not vouched for by a correspondent of the Times.—"They all arose," says that unimpeachable authority, "the ladies winking, and the men imploring blessings on his sainted head—the whole were converted on the spot, and all declared they were ready to shed their blood in the service of the supreme power." He admits, however, that they had no sooner reached the city and experienced the vexations of his

"sainted" government than they were, one and all, recovered to their old faith and wished his holiness and his staff anywhere but there."

WESLEYAN REFORM CONFERENCE.—On Monday, a general conference of delegates commissioned from all parts of England to meet in opposition to the daily recognised conference of proslavery non-assembly in London, was held at Albion Chapel, Moorfields. The proceedings were held with open doors, and a large attendance was thus secured, more especially as from the ordinary conference meetings the undelegated members of the Wesleyan body had been rigidly excluded. The first question that presented itself for discussion was whether or not the assembled delegates should present themselves to the conference and demand the restitution of the rights of which they were deprived. It was ultimately resolved that the most dignified course for the delegates to pursue, after an insulting message which had been received from the conference, would be to remain perfectly silent upon the matter. On the motion of Mr. Baldwin, seconded by Mr. Warne, and supported by Mr. Stanley, Mr. Bolton, and Mr. Hibbits, the following resolution was agreed to:—"That this meeting is convinced that the conduct and spirit of the present conference, from its rejection of conciliatory overtures, and especially from its total disregard of the memorials signed by thousands of office bearers, and tens of thousands of members, that the most decided measures are necessary on the part of the Wesleyan reformers to carry out the objects indicated in the memorials." On the motion of Mr. Martin, of Manchester, seconded by Mr. Benson, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the following resolution was agreed to:—"That this meeting, although deeply interested in the progress of Wesleyan Methodism, and having a strong attachment personally to many of its ministers, is painfully convinced that the assumption and acts of the conference are palpably opposed to the authority of the great head of the Church, at variance with the design and constitution of the early Christian churches, and particularly opposed to the spirit and spirit of the scriptures, and consequently it is no longer desirable to contribute to the system as it now is, or to the support of the preachers without being partakers of their shame and guilt of their deeds; and this meeting therefore recommends the immediate withdrawing of all funds as the only remaining practical means of memorializing the conference."

ROME.—A letter from Rome, of the 20th inst., in the Constitutionnel, states that several persons have been arrested there for a supposed conspiracy to assassinate the Pope, on Assumption-day, by throwing crystal balls filled with explosive substances into his carriage when on his way to church to pronounce the benediction. The discovery of the plot prevented all danger. There was some agitation on the following Sunday, as it was supposed that there had been a plot against the Austrian ambassador, on the anniversary of the birth of the Emperor. A strong armed force was placed near his palace to protect it, and in the evening some arrests were made.

CHOLERA IN SWEDEN.—A letter from Copenhagen, of the 18th inst., states that the cholera has made its appearance in Sweden, at Malmo, in the province of Scania, and was raging there violently. As this town is only three leagues distant from Copenhagen, great apprehensions were entertained at this latter place, and the government had ordered that all matters brought from Malmo and its vicinity should be subjected to a quarantine of ten days. This is the first time that the disease has appeared in Sweden, and it has never been known in Denmark.

INDUCTION OF THE REV. G. C. GORHAM.—The Plymouth Journal gives the following gossip relative to the induction of Mr. Gorham:—"At two on the afternoon of the same day, Mr. Gorham came to the vicarage-house of Brampton Spoke, attended by the Rev. W. H. Howard, vicar of St. Thomas the Apostle, Exeter; the Rev. J. W. Burrough, vicar of Totnes; and Montague B. Bere, Esq., of Barley-house, Exeter, together with some of the members of their respective families. The curate, the Rev. Bircham Honcken, had left the vicarage for an afternoon drive, and had instructed the servant to say that the keys of the church were locked up. Neither Mr. Gorham nor his friends were invited into the vicarage; and they were obliged to amuse themselves outside the house for nearly two hours and a half, till a shower of rain came, and Mr. Furdson, one of the principal inhabitants, requested them to take refuge in his beautiful villa. At length, about half past four, Mr. Honcken returned, and gave the new vicar a cold reception, admitting that he had been hourly expecting him, though he had not received a notice of the induction. He said it was his 'usual habit' to lock up the keys. Mr. Gorham assured him that he had taken pains to apprise the minister of his intention to be inducted that day, but that, not knowing of Mr. Honcken's appointment in July, 1849, he had addressed his letter to the curate whom he found placed there by the bishop when he was presented to the living in 1847. This explanation elicited no courtesy from the ill-advised curate, who, however, delivered the keys, but abstained from attending at the church. This delay had given time to the villagers to collect to witness the ceremony; after which the church was filled, to show respect to the new vicar, while the mandate was being endorsed, and its execution certified. On his quitting the church a merry peal was rung."
