U. S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE WAR ALLIANCE

FRENCH AND AMERICANS BATTLE AT BREST

PROCLAMATION IS REQUIRED BEFORE CELEBRATION HERE

War Not Ended Until Ratification and Official Announcement, Borden Explains.

Ottawa, June 30.—Peace will be celebrated in Canada on formal proclamation that the war is at an end. Mr. Bureau asked in the House this morning if it was intended to celebrate the signing of the peace treaty. Sir Robert Borden replied that the signing of the treaty did not bring about peace. That could be only accomplished by ratification and by proclamation. Under the terms of the treaty the proclamation could not be made until three of the allied powers had concurred in the ratification. It was thought by the Dominion Government that the most appropriate time for a peace celebration would be when peace was proclaimed.

GENERAL SMUTS WANTS REVISION OF PEACE PACT

Says Treaty Does Not Contain Essentials in Real Peace.

FEARS FOR ALL WORLD

Asks British and Americans To Help Races That Have Been Wrecked.

London, June 30.—The Daily Express has received the following peace message from Sir Rubert Borden:

"The treaty at Versailles marks the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the world. With that new era, now dawning, the destiny of the world will in no small measure depend on the courage, steadfastness and foresight of the English-speaking peoples, but, above all, on their unity of purpose and of action. In this let them not fail in remembering the trust they hold for future generations."

London, June 30.—Gen. Smuts of South Africa has issued a statement saying he signed the peace treaty, not because it was a satisfactory document, but because it was imperatively necessary to close the war.

Gen. Smuts says he regards the treaty as the close of the chapters of war and armistice. He feels that in the treaty we have not achieved the real peace to which our peoples have been looking. He believes the real work of making peace will only begin after the treaty is signed. The treaty is simply a liquidation of the war situation. The promise of the new life and victory of great human ideals and the fulfillment of their aspirations towards the new international order, and a fairer and better world are not written in the treaty, and will not be written in treaties. A new spirit of generosity and humanity born in the hearts of the peoples can alone solve the problems of the conference which the statesmen of the conference found too hard.

Waits a Revision.

Gen. Smuts urges that the territorial settlements and guarantees, and foreshadowed punishments and stipulated indemnities need revision, modification or expungement. Real peace people ought to amend the peace of statesmen.

Gen. Smuts asserts that two achievements of far-reaching importance are definitely recorded in the treaty, namely, the destruction of Prussian militarism and the institution of the League of Nations. He is confident the latter will yet prove the means of escape for Europe from the ruin created by war. The South African minister regrets that the abolition of militarism is confined to the enemy. The enemy peoples should join in the league at the earliest possible time and collaborate with the Allies in practicing the great lesson of the war, that the true path to national progress lies in common service for the great human causes.

Besides resulting in the enemy's utter defeat, the war caused the collapse of the whole political and economic fabric of Central and Eastern Europe.

Appeals to English.

Unless the victors can effectively help the defeated and broken peoples, a large part of Europe is threatened with exhaustion and decay. Russia has already walked into the night, and the risk that the rest may follow is very grave. Indeed, the effects of this disaster would not be confined to Central Europe. "for civilization is one body, and we are all members of one another," he asserts.

Gen. Smuts especially appeals to the peoples of the United States and the British Empire, who have been exceptionally blessed with the good things of life, to exert themselves to the uttermost to save the wreckage of life and industry on the continent.

WAR TIGHTENS TIES, IS WORD OF MR. WILSON

President Replies To Cable of British Monarch.

On Board U. S. S. George Washington, June 29.—The reply of President Wilson to the message of King George was as follows:

"It gives me deep pleasure to express to you my conviction of the truth of your generous message concerning the great ends which have been attained by the present peace and the new ties which have been created between your own great people and ours. We are on the eve of realizing, more than we could realize them at the time, the real objects of the great war.

"The free peoples of the world, united to defeat the enemies of liberty and justice, have through their representatives wrought out a plan by which they may remain united in a free partnership of intimate council to promote the cause of justice and of freedom through the beneficient processes of peace and the accords of a liberal policy. It is within the choice of thoughtful men of every nation to enrich the peace by their counsel. I am happy to echo your greetings at this momentous time of renewed vision and confidence: hope."

NO SIGN OF ENDING OF TORONTO STRIKE

Barron's Board Will Not Make an Interim Report.

Toronto, June 30.—Toronto's walkers and victims of jitney profiteers, who were led to expect some relief in the direction of a settlement with street carmen strikers through an interim report of the board of conciliation, were disappointed today when Judge Barron, the chairman of this board, announced today that the board would not make such a report.

Judge Baron said he doubted if his board could make any report at all, on the evidence adduced, now that the Ontario Railway Board had superseded the regular management of the Toronto Railway Company, in the control of the system.

Joseph Gibbons, business agent of the employees' union, issued a statement today, putting the responsibility for the failure to have the cars running on the city and the Ontario Railway Board. Even though the men reached an agreement with the Ontario Railway Board, said Mr. Gibbons, there was no guarantees that the Toronto Railway Company would continue the agreement when the system is handed back to that corporation.

Tramples On French Flag At Brest While Intoxicated.

MARINES QUIET CLASH

Bloody Affray Between Allied Fighters in Streets of French Port.

Brest, France, June 30.—Several French civilians are dead as the result of a riot here between French civilians, soldiers and sailors and American soldiers and sailors. Three of the Americans are expected to die.

The casualties occurred as the result of an exchange of shots between American military and naval police and French sailors. The trouble began when, according to available accounts, an American naval officer, who is said to have been drinking heavily, tore down a French flag and tramped on it. A crowd of Frenchmen attacked the officer, and it is said, kicked and beat him until he was unconscious. American cans who passed by and who were not aware of the cause of the fight, went to the aid of the naval officer. The fight then became more general.

Americans Hit Back.

A mob of French civilians and soldiers and sailors attempted to rush the Hotel Moderne where American officers were quartered. They burned a sentry box and threw stones at Americans in United States uniform wherever they found them. The Americans it is said, retaliated.

A company of United States marines with fixed bayonets was hurried to the scene and soon restored order. Admiral Henry Salaun, the French naval commander in Brest, ordered the marines to return to their barracks. As the marines marched back to their quarters it is declared they were pursued by a mob, throwing stones and bricks. The city is quiet today.

GERMAN DELEGATES ARE HUSTLED OUT OF PARIS TO AVOID THE CROWDS

Paris, June 30.—The departure of Dr. Hermann Mueller and Dr. Bell and about 50 other members of the German delegation from Versailles last night was virtually unnoticed. To avoid the crowds celebrating the signing of the treaty in the streets of Versailles the Germans were sent in fifteen automobiles in groups at routes to Noisy-Le-Roi, where they boarded their train at 9 o'clock. In the party was Herr Scheurmann, who represented the Deutsche Tazes Zeitung at Versailles, and who was temporarily arrested by the French last week. The Germans were accompanied as far as Cologne by French and Italian officers. The Germans took their leave of the French officials at Versailles with punctilious politeness.

War Minister Trotzky has ordered that the fortress of Kronstadt be blown up before its surrender and that the bridges and railway stations in Petrograd be destroyed before the last troops withdraw.

NEW YORK PREPARES FOR GRAND FAREWELL TO JOHN BARLEYCORN

Madison Square Garden Will Be Vast Saloon.

BAR 750 FEET LONG

Draped in Funeral Garb and Funeral March At Midnight.

New York, June 30.—Six thousand saloonkeepers, members of the United Liquor Dealers' Association, will meet here this afternoon to determine their final course in meeting wartime prohibition. Meanwhile they plan to "take a chance" and keep open after midnight tonight for the sale of all kinds of drinks, including whiskey.

Efforts will be made, it is said, to induce the attorney-general of New York to proceed with an injunction restraining the federal government from enforcing the law. Hotels and restaurants, with few exceptions, are prepared for a big "wet" celebration tonight, but many of them will limit their sales to beer and light wines after 12 o'clock.

New York, June 30.—Madison Square Garden tonight is to be converted into a vast saloon, in which the biggest liquor-drinking festival on earth is to be held to celebrate the advent of prohibition. The promoters promise that more wine, beer and liquor is to be consumed per capita than on any previous occasion in history, not excluding the celebrated parties held by Emperor Nero.

Fifteen thousand persons are to participate. The interior of the garden is to be draped in black crepe, and just at midnight, when the war-time prohibition measure goes into effect, the band will play Chopin's Funeral March.

The equipment for the evening, according to the promoters, will consist of:

World's Largest Bar.

A bar 750 feet long, which is 360 feet longer than the Silver Bow bar at Butte, Mont., hitherto holder of the long distance record.

200 bartenders.
500 kegs of beer.
24,000 bottles of beer.
2,000 bottles of wine, mostly champagne.
5,000 quarts of whiskey.
30,000 glasses.

DEFENCE PACT FOR BIG THREE; BRITISH, FRENCH, AMERICANS WILL FIGHT AS ONE POWER

NO EXECUTION OR ST. HELENA FOR EX-KAISER OF GERMANY

Amsterdam, June 30.—The allied and associated powers will not ask for the extradition of the former emperor, the Paris correspondent of the Telegraaf says he learns, but will ask the Dutch Government in the name of the league of nations to see that Herr Hohenzollern does not escape the moral consequences.

It is expected that as a member of the league, he adds, Holland will inform the former emperor that he must appear before an international court or leave the country. A highly-placed French authority on international law told the correspondent that the proceedings against the former emperor would be on moral grounds, and the sentence would be of a moral character entirely. There is no question of a death sentence or imprisonment, the correspondent was told.

Three Leading Nations To Pool War Strength in Case of One Being Attacked—Clemenceau Will Explain the Alliance To Deputies.

Paris, June 30.—The first public announcement of the text of the defensive pact between France, Great Britain and United States will be made in the Chamber of Deputies, the Echo de Paris says. The document, according to the paper, contains clauses intended to justify it before British and American public opinion.

AN IMPORTANT STATEMENT.

Paris, June 30.—Premier Clemenceau will present the peace treaty to the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon, the Figaro says. The French leader will take the opportunity, the paper adds, to make a brief but very important statement concerning home and foreign policies.

CHINA CAN SIGN YET.

Paris, June 30.—In spite of their refusal to sign the peace treaty Saturday, the Chinese delegates are not regarded as having withdrawn from the peace conference, and will continue to take part in the proceedings. The delegation at present is awaiting instructions from Peking.

If the Chinese Government is disposed to sign, it is said in conference circles, it is still possible for its delegates to do so.

NOW FOR BIG TASK.

Paris, June 30.—The task of the Allied and associated powers is not ended with the signing of the treaty with Germany, and the nations must continue to be united in order to see that the clauses of the treaty are carried out, President Poincare declared in an interview in the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail.

France Needs Ships.

It will take some years for France to regain her normal mode of life, and what France needs most at present is ships, the president said, because only an increase in importations can bring about a decrease in the present high prices of raw material and the necessaries of life. In principle, he added, the Allies are agreed on this point, and the people of France hope that the other nations will aid them in restoring their country, which suffered most from the war.

SOCIALISTS SILENT.

Paris, June 30.—In presenting the text of the peace treaty to the Chamber of Deputies today, President Clemenceau made a brief speech, in which he recalled the French National Assembly which met at Bordeaux in 1871, and added:

"We make peace as we made war, without weakness. Internal peace is a necessity for external peace."

The centre and right cheered the premier, while the extreme Socialist left remained silent.

IRISH DOMINION IDEA RIDICULED BY THE POST

London, June 30.—The Morning Post ridicules the idea of a Dominion system doing anything for Ireland or satisfying the Sinn Feiners. MONTENEGRO "KICKS."

GERMANS GLOOMY; WANT A DESPOT

Berlin, June 30.—Some of the Berlin papers, announcing the signing of the treaty, appear in black borders, with captions on their Versailles articles, such as: "Germany's Fate Sealed," and "Peace and Annihilation."

The whole German press writes in the strain of melancholy pessimism. The Taegliche Rundschau says: "What we need is a despot to compel the nation to work. If we are unable to install him, our enemies will send him."

Dr. Dernburg in the Tageblatt says: "The cup is drained to the dregs. There is no sense in continuing the controversy. It is better to endeavor quickly to find our feet."

TREMENDOUS OVATION FOR LLOYD GEORGE ON RETURNING HOME

"Let Us Thank God For Victory," He Says.

KING EXPRESSES JOY

Thousands of People Assemble Before Buckingham Palace.

London, June 29.—By the Associated Press.—David Lloyd George, the British premier, on his return from Paris this evening, drove with the King to Buckingham Palace, being acclaimed with triumphant cheers by tremendous crowds along the whole route.

After paying his respects to the Queen, the prime minister drove in the royal carriage to Downing street. Similar ovations greeted him along the way, and in response to the continued cheering Mr. Lloyd George came to the window of his residence and briefly addressed the crowd. He spoke of the peace which had come to the world, and, in concluding, said:

"I sincerely trust that the unity of spirit and concord which won this great peace will continue until we have established on a firm foundation the new world won by the sacrifices of millions of brave men. Let us thank God for the great victory, not in a spirit of boastfulness, which was the downfall of Germany, but in a spirit of reverence worthy of the noble sacrifices that have been made."

King George's Message.

After the news of the signing of peace had been received, the following was issued over King George's signature:

"The signing of the treaty of peace will be received with deep thankfulness throughout the British Empire. This formal act brings to its culminating stage the terrible war which has devastated Europe and distracted the world. It manifests the victory of ideals, of freedom, and of liberty, for which we have made untold sacrifices. I share my people's joy and thanksgiving, and earnestly pray that coming years of peace may bring to them ever-increasing happiness and prosperity.

"(Signed), GEORGE R. I."

Many thousands of persons assembled before Buckingham Palace. King George, Queen Mary and other members of the royal family appeared on the balcony. The Guards band played national airs and the crowd sang. The vast mass of people was constantly changing, newcomers replacing those who left. Members of the royal family, after leaving the balcony, reappeared frequently.

COMMONS MAY CLOSE BY END OF THE WEEK

Ottawa, June 30.—With the holding of three sittings on Dominion Day and steady pressure of the business before the House and still to be brought down, it is confidently expected at Ottawa that prorogation will be reached by Saturday afternoon. The certainty of an autumn session makes it possible to leave over considerable legislation now on the order paper, if necessary, but as much as possible will be disposed of this week.

VOTE TO STRIKE; CARMEN DECIDE TO TAKE ACTION

Wednesday Is Day Set For Walkout Unless Company Settles.

250 MEN ARE AFFECTED

Authority From International Union to Conduct Strike Received.

By a unanimous vote, the members of the local street railway employees' union decided early yesterday morning to go out on strike next Wednesday. Unless, therefore, the company's officials between now and then indicate a willingness to meet the men's demand for more pay, no cars will run, either in the city or on the Springbank line, after Tuesday night.

Almost every man on the company's pay roll was present when the vote was taken. The meeting was called for midnight (1 a.m. daylight saving time), but a mass of routine business left over from Thursday, when the regular monthly meeting was postponed until Saturday, took up a good deal of time, and the most momentous issue of the evening had not been decided until nearly 4 o'clock on Sunday morning.

Discussion Prior to Vote.

The resolution to strike gave rise to a good deal of discussion before the vote was finally taken. Some of the men wanted to walk out before Wednesday, but on this point the view of the majority was that the service should be maintained over the holiday.

Another section of the men wanted power to call the strike delegated to the executive of the union, but the great majority was emphatically against procrastination and would not hear of delay beyond Wednesday morning.

T. and L. Assure Support.

R. H. Hessell and other members of the trades and labor union executive were present at the meeting, and assured the street railway men that the body they represented would stand solidly behind them in their determination to force the issue with the company by means of a strike. They also assured them that organized labor generally was wholly in sympathy with them and would support them to the utmost.

Earlier in the day members of the union executive had been in conference with Manager C. B. King, and had asked him, in the event of the company being willing to grant the men's demand or to make any concessions at all, to communicate to this effect with the executive before the meeting at midnight. No word was received from the company, however, and from the commencement of the meeting the decision to strike was never in doubt.

250 Men Affected.

The strike will, of course, affect linemen, trackmen and all other employees, in addition to motormen and conductors. In all, between 240 and 250 men will take part in the walk-out. They have received the authority of the international union to conduct the strike, and assurance of the international's support. They will draw strike pay from the international fund, into which they have been paying as members of the union a per capita tax of 75 cents a month. The strike pay, however, amounts only to $5 a week.

"We realize," said a member of the local union's executive yesterday, "that by going out we shall suffer as severely as anyone. However, the time had come when we could no longer submit to existing conditions. Our pay was inadequate to provide a proper living for us and our families, and the company had made it quite clear that we could not expect any advance. What weighed with us perhaps even more heavily than the question of pay was the refusal of the company to restore the six cars which were recently withdrawn from the service. Their withdrawal meant that some of the men with five or six years' service had been put back onto the spare list, and as a matter of principle we were determined not to be assenting parties to any such procedure."

Try to Buy a Share.

Another member of the union, who did not wish his name to be used, gave expression to the following opinion: "The company has maintained all along that it could not afford to pay us more money while fares remained at their present level. It may be, in fact is, true that the company is not making so much money now as formerly, but what indications are there that it is financially embarrassed at all? Try to buy a share of the company's stock at par, and you will find out just how anxious the stockholders are to let go of this alleged losing proposition. Their disinclination to sell does not tally with their poverty plea."

As to prospects of sympathetic strikes among the members of other local unions, nothing definite could be learned during the week-end. Labor leaders and members of the trades and labor council declined to give opinions on the matter, and declared that they had not been in touch with the labor organizations since the strike vote was recorded.

Iron For Strength

You need iron in the blood! Every healthy man or woman should have about as much iron in his or her body as there is in an ordinary railroad spike. To gain this iron, the best way is to take Tonal-Iron Capsules, a combination of iron in its most soluble form, recently discovered, and now having a marvelous sale. Tonal-Iron Capsules are a form of iron readily taken up by the blood. The blood cells get round, rich red in color, the cheeks are pink, the appetite improves, and one feels full of "snap"—"pep"—"vigor"—instead of tired before the day is half done. The eyes take on a lustre and the body feels that tingle which one gets from a cold bath.

PEACE!

Let This Dominion Day Be a Real Peace Celebration

ALL THE WORLD rejoices, for the national freedom of the world has been saved. Though our arms are bound in mourning, our hearts and tongues acclaim that democracy is born again—born in a liberated Europe, to bless a better world. Though we miss those who have made the extreme sacrifice, we glory in their triumph over the Teuton Thor. They are not dead, these soldiers of civilization, for they follow in His steps as saviors of their brothers. The sons of the allied nations have saved the world, our democracy, our Christianity, under His guidance.

"Glory be to God in the highest,
peace on earth, good will toward men."

WITH THE SHADOWS lifted we now face a new world with forward-looking vision. There is work to be done—work as stern as was the battle, a harmonizing task demanding the clearest thinking. The old order is gone, and out of the crisis emerges the soldier of business, who finds both happiness and profit in service. The sacrifice will have been in vain if we do not welcome the task of readjustment as a consecrated work, a glorious thankoffering to those who saved us.

Then let us rejoice that the termination of the war and the signing of peace brings such a vast problem, offering such generous reward in service. Let us dedicate ourselves to our gladsome duty, with happy hearts and stirred souls, in making this a truly glorious Canada.

"TREATY OF PEACE" SEALED IN BLOOD ON FLANDERS FIELDS

Rev. Dr. Peever Preaches a Powerful Sermon at First Methodist Church.

"I say that this time in which we are living is the most wonderful time in history, save the Advent of Christ," declared Rev. Dr. Peever, speaking yesterday morning in the First Methodist Church on "The New Covenant of Nations and the Treaty of Peace."

He continued: "Some people maintain that the treaty of peace is the greatest document since the Sermon on the Mount. It is a treaty of peace, yet it was sealed in the blood of millions on the fields of Flanders and France. Unless, with it, is born a new spirit for righteousness among the nations, it will avail nothing. This new world gospel is intended to issue in a new dispensation of national integrity, to spread a new horizon for the people of the earth, in which national egotisms must give way before a world-wide ideal. And just as the nations shall recognize that ideal, so shall the treaty prosper.

"If civilization today does not learn to govern itself it must perish. For in future civilizations in the advance of science, nations unchecked, will be able to destroy themselves from the face of the earth."

The New Covenant.

Dr. Peever took as his text Jeremiah xxxi., 31.

"Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah. . . After those days I will put my law in their inward parts and write it in their hearts, and I will be their God and they shall be my people." And he referred to the new covenant of the nations and treaty of peace in the light of this prophecy.

"The new covenant of peace and league of nations can only prevail if a new spirit of peace enters into it. The success of the future can only be in proportion as this prophecy is perceived and obeyed by the nations of the earth, when one shall stand for all, and all shall stand for one.

"This covenant shall be the cornerstone of a new era. Just as certainly as the great Magna Charta is a great bond of the British Empire, and as the great Treaty of Emancipation liberated an American democracy, this covenant of peace is going to be the Gibraltar to which all the nations will come for protection. For it stands out beyond Magna Charta and beyond the Treaty of Emancipation. It aims to wipe out war from the earth, strikes at injustice and selfishness, and wickedness in high places of the earth.

Labor Was There.

"Yes, labor, was represented in the councils which drew up this covenant. Among them was perhaps one of the greatest minds of the age, that great labor representative from the United States. And this treaty recognizes that no nation shall go to war until every other possible means has failed.

"Men do not like war. Phillip Gibbs, the greatest of war correspondents, has said: "After following in the wake of the army during the war, I have learned that deeper than the hatred of the French soldier for the Hun, deeper than the hatred of the British soldier for the Hun, was the hatred in these men's hearts against hellish war.' The writer knew these men and had heard them say they'd rather strangle their little children in the cradle than see them grow up to witness war as they had seen it.

"God grant that their prayer may be answered, and that there never shall be war again."

ADELAIDE-DUNDAS CORNER PURCHASED BY BANK OF TORONTO

Institution Soon Will Have Five Branches Here.

In the near future the Bank of Toronto will have five branches in this city, including the main office at the corner of King and Richmond streets.

A new branch will be opened shortly on the southwest corner of Dundas and Wellington streets, as soon as possession can be obtained of the property and necessary changes made in the store to fit it for a bank building.

The bank of Toronto has further increased its local holdings by the purchase of the property occupied by the East End branch on the corner of Adelaide and Dundas streets and the adjoining stores on Dundas street, occupied by butcher and hardware stores. The purchase of this property which has a frontage of some 80 feet on Dundas street, and a similar length on Adelaide street, has been made from Verschoyle Cronyn.

Though the whole block has been purchased, no change will be made in arrangements just now, or so far as the present tenants are concerned.

CHELSEA GREEN CHURCH HAS SPECIAL SERVICE TO HONOR VETERANS

In memory of the fallen and in honor of the returned soldiers of Chelsea Green, a special service was held in Chelsea Green Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. Of the 52 men who enlisted from the Green, 29 saw service in France, and of these 7 were killed in action and 1 died at home from wounds received in France.

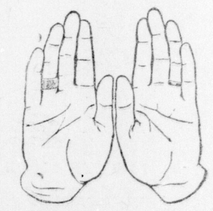

Rev. John Crawford, B.A., the minister, in addressing the congregation on the arrival of peace, declared that it was everyone's duty to see that the returned men and the widows and orphans of the men who gave up their lives in battle received the reward that was due them.

Lieut.-Col. C. M. R. Graham, with whose regiment, the 142nd, a large number of the Chelsea Green boys had enlisted, described life in the trenches and urged the returned men to "carry on" in the church and home with the same heroism as they had done on the field of battle.

The church was more than filled.

COUNCIL MAKES NO ATTEMPT TO INTERFERE WITH RAILWAY STRIKE

Ald. Little's Suggestion For Temporary Advance Is Not Accepted.

SAYS MAYOR FAVORS IT

But Aldermen Refuse To Recede From the Attitude Adopted Previously.

The city council almost certainly will not take any action in an attempt to head off the street railway strike. Acting Mayor E. S. Little today endeavored to secure the views of the other aldermen as to the advisability of calling a special meeting for the purpose of passing a bylaw authorizing the street railway company to increase its fares pending the taking of a vote, but of those members of the council with whom he was able to get into touch a majority had not receded from their previous attitude—that the city could do nothing in the matter legally before a vote was taken.

Mayor C. R. Somerville, who has been in Toronto since Saturday, was in telephonic communication this morning with both the acting mayor and City Clerk S. Baker. To the latter he stated that he would be back in the city this afternoon, but to Mr. Little he merely stated that he would return tomorrow if it were decided that a special meeting should be held. He promised to call Mr. Little again this evening to learn whether his presence would be required tomorrow. Which message was received first is not known, and therefore the time of the mayor's return is still in doubt.

No Meeting in Time.

Mr. Little stated that a special meeting before Wednesday would now be impossible unless it were informal, since the regulations require that 24 hours' notice shall be given to the members, and tomorrow is a holiday and does not count in computing the term of notice given. As to the probability of an informal meeting, Mr. Little said he saw no good that could be served by it, since the statement of the city solicitor to the effect that the passing of a bylaw to grant increased fares without the consent of the people would be illegal still prevents the support for a bylaw of those aldermen who were previously deterred from supporting such a move on that ground.

Ald. F. E. Harley, Ald. S. Manness and Ald. W. A. Wilson were at the city hall conferring with Mr. Little, but while Mr. Wilson still maintained that something should be done, legal or illegal, to prevent a strike, the other two aldermen disagreed with this view.

Mayor's Attitude.

Mr. Little stated that the mayor had intimated to him that he, the mayor, was now in favor of granting, until the vote is taken, an increase in fares provided that all of the additional revenue be given to the men in wages.

No offer had been received from the company up to noon today, and the men declare that unless an offer is made before Tuesday midnight, not a car will leave the barns on Wednesday. In view, therefore, of the information obtained at the city hall, the present prospect is that nothing is likely to develop to prevent the walkout.

ORGANIZER HERE TO PLAN PROHIBITION CAMPAIGN FOR THE COMING REFERENDUM

Dr. Grant Looked on as Ideal Leader for Forces.

Dr. A. S. Grant, chief organizer for Ontario of the temperance forces to prepare for the referendum in the fall, was in the city the end of the week in connection with organization in this city and for the county of Middlesex.

The province is to be divided into eighteen districts, and each municipality is to be strongly organized for work.

At the present time, a managing committee of fifty is being selected for London, and it is expected that at least 500 workers will be enrolled here.

All temperance organizations in the province are being merged for the big campaign in what will be known for the next four months as the "referendum committee."

Quite Enthusiastic.

Much enthusiasm was manifested by the temperance workers who met Dr. Grant here, the conviction being expressed that in him had been found a Gen. Foch to lead the temperance workers to a big victory for the cause of prohibition.

Dr. Grant, it was stated by prominent local referendum organizers today, is regarded as the greatest force of any one personality in the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and has been chosen for his present office in view of the fact that he is known far and wide as one of the most able organizers in any church or welfare movement in the dominion. He has been mentioned on more than one occasion as moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, has been head of the home missions and social service department and prominently identified with the forward movement.

Interesting Personality.

Apart from his ability, interest attaches to him as an exceptionally picturesque figure in Canadian welfare work.

He first came into prominence in connection with the Yukon gold rush of the late nineties as a pioneer missionary of the old Yukon trail. The energy and enthusiasm which brought him triumphantly through all hardships at that time and the quality which made him a power among men have characterized him in all subsequent work to which he has given his attention.

The names of the local committee will be announced in a few days.

MAJOR J. MILLARD IS RESIGNING FROM ARMY ON JULY 8

Had a Distinguished Career With 1st Battalion.

IN CHARGE OF DISPERSAL

Where He and His Staff Have Done Rapid and Efficient Work.

Major John R. Millard, M. C., officer commanding dispersal station "K," at Tecumseh Barracks, has been permitted to resign his appointment, and will return to civilian life on July 8. This popular young officer enlisted as a lieutenant in the 91st Elgin Battalion, and when that unit was broken up he proceeded to the 1st Canadian Battalion in France as a reinforcement, earning rapid promotion to his present rank.

Major Millard during his overseas service was awarded the military cross for distinguished service during the Mount Sorel engagement. He was also wounded, and upon his return to Canada was appointed second in command of No. 1 District Depot here. When the armistice was signed and Canadian troops were being sent home in large numbers for demobilization, dispersal station "K" at Carling Heights was inaugurated with Major Millard as commanding officer. The duties of this military organization consisted of dispersing all Canadian troops for this district as they returned from overseas.

Units such as the 1st, 18th and 47th Battalions, No. 10 Stationary Hospital and the 16th Battery, were demobilized in record time by Major Millard and his staff, the work at all times being very efficiently done. Letters complimenting Major Millard and his staff on their rapid work in demobilizing the troops during the past few months have been received from headquarters at Ottawa, and the record made at the dispersal station is an excellent one.

A rumor is current in military circles at headquarters here to the effect that the dispersal station at Carling Heights will cease to exist in the near future, and the work will be taken over by No. 1 District Depot, under Lieut.-Col. G. W. Nelson. However, there is no official confirmation of this rumor, according to Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, A. A. G., of this military district.

Major Millard will return to the Dominion Bank staff, following demobilization, he being slated to act as manager of a branch of that institution in Western Ontario. Lieut. D. Fletcher, officer commanding the discharge section of No. 1 District Depot, has also been permitted to resign his appointment in the Canadian army, according to information received at Carling Heights today.

NO MARKET TUESDAY.—There will be no local market tomorrow (Dominion Day). Raspberries are expected to be plentiful toward the latter part of the week, and a few strawberries were offered today. District farmers reports that the raspberries are plentiful this season, but a good rain in certain portions of the county would greatly improve the crop of berries.

WHITE STRAWBERRIES. — White strawberries, ripe and luscious, are being gathered in quantities on the farm of James Challoner, Lobo Township, and a sample of them has been brought to The Advertiser by W. H. Gibbons. The berries are produced by plants which Mr. Challoner found growing wild, and transplanted to his farm. They are mellower in taste than the wild ones, larger and very pleasant in flavor.

FINE RECITAL.—A piano recital of exceptional merit was given in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium the end of last week by a number of pupils of Miss Sadie Nugent, 209 Queen's avenue. The rendition of the selections revealed careful training, technique and rhythm in each case being excellent. Those taking part were Lily Tambling, Ethel Wilson, Della Wilson, Doris Leslie, Sadie Rosenblum, Marion Fox, Linda Butler, Margaret Rosenblum, Mary Smith, Wanda Hunt and Thelma Ferguson. Several beautiful bouquets were presented to the efficient teacher, Miss Nugent.

LEGAL QUERIES

READER.—Two weeks ago I consented to apply to the Travelers' Life Assurance Company of Canada for a policy of $1,000, on the fifteen years endowment plan, five years distribution the annual premium being $66.90. As the premium is payable in advance I gave my note for the amount, to fall due on July 1st. I passed the medical examination and have received the policy. Owing to an unexpected demand upon my finances, and to the fact that I intend to change my position for one that will have considerably less salary attached for several years, I feel that I cannot afford to keep up the payments. Can I withdraw from the agreement, and on what terms? Must I pay the first premium? If not how can I gain possession of the note and have the policy cancelled?

Ans.—You will have to pay the first note but surrender the policy and notify them you want the policy cancelled shortly before the time the next premium is due.

TWO SENT TO JAIL, WHILE TWO OTHERS PAY UP $200 FINES

Liquor Causes Four Convictions in Court.

TWO COME UP TUESDAY

Doctor Charged With Issuing Prescription and Gootson With Having For Sale.

The Ontario temperance act gave convictions a boost in police court this morning when two men charged with having bottles in their possession on the street were given terms of three months each in jail, and a woman was fined $200 and costs.

The evidence of two police constables, who swore that they found a baby's bottle full of whiskey in the pocket of a raincoat owned by Mrs. Sadie Arnott, 312 Simcoe street, on June 19, while she was visiting her next door neighbor, Mrs. Lena Smuck, and Mrs. Arnott's own evidence that she had handled a bottle of whiskey while she was in her neighbor's house, convicted her under the temperance act of having whiskey in her possession while she was out of her own place of residence. She paid a fine of $200 with costs.

Gets Three Months.

Charles Woods, a returned soldier, arrested on June 5 at the traction bridge with David Armstrong, J. C. Heaman and Walter Daniels, according to the testimony of two policemen, threw a half-full bottle of whiskey into a stream when the patrol arrived at the call of P. C. Tomlin. Woods said he was waiting with the other three until it got dark enough for them to go in swimming without bathing suits, and that he had no whiskey, had never taken a drink all day, and did not know where the bottle came from which the constables swore they saw him throw away. Armstrong and Heaman corroborated his evidence. Five policemen including Sergt.-Major Maguire, who was on duty in the police station the night the four were brought there, all testified that Heaman was drunk. Woods was sent down for three months and Heaman fined $10 and costs.

"Whiskey is not so plentiful that it can be picked up along the river bank," the magistrate remarked when Woods declared that he had no idea how the bottle, which he was charged with throwing away, got into the stream from which the policemen rescued it.

Will Serve Time.

Edward J. McGee, 298 Grey street, said he met a man Sunday on the street who wanted to sell him a bottle. The bootlegger asked too much for it at first, but eventually lowered his price, and McGee bought the booze. Then he was arrested. He pleaded guilty to being in possession of the bottle and will serve three months in jail.

Adjourned.

Dr. A. R. Pingel, 316 Queen's avenue, charged under Section 51, of the Ontario temperance act, with issuing a prescription unlawfully, will be tried in police court on Thursday, to which date his case was adjourned this morning. The information was laid by J. E. Keenleyside, license inspector.

Maurice Gootson, 41 Maitland street, charged with having liquor for sale at his store, will also come up for hearing on Thursday on a charge laid by the license inspector.

MOTORMAN'S QUICK ACT SAVES LITTLE BOY FROM INJURY BY STREET CAR

Child Stood in Middle of Tracks, But Brakes Held.

Prompt action on the part of a motorman on a northbound Richmond car, near the L. and P. S. R. station at 10:45 o'clock on Sunday morning saved the life of a small child who had just alighted from an Oxford car going south. The child was with his father and mother and two smaller brothers. One of the children was being carried by the mother, and the other by the father, while the near-victim was lagging behind. All were en route for Port Stanley.

When the rest of the family had crossed the northbound tracks, the boy stood in the middle of them. The approaching car he did not see, but the motorman saw him and plugged the brakes. The crowd that witnessed the incident gasped. Surely the car could not be stopped before it struck the boy! It was though, but if it had gone forward another foot the child would have been thrown to the pavement.

It is claimed that the motorman in the car is the same one who, by his presence of mind, prevented a dog from being struck and killed a short time ago.

IMPERIAL MEDAL FOR 1914 SERVICE RECEIVED BY BROTHER OF SOLDIER

Warrior Himself, Pte. W. S. Williamson, Was Killed in 1916.

J. A. Williamson, 4 Wilson avenue, has received the 1914 imperial service medal, which was granted to his brother, Pte. W. S. Williamson, 2nd Northampton Regiment, who made the supreme sacrifice in 1916. The medal is made of bronze, with crown surmounting a wreath of oak leaves, crossed swords and the dates, August and November, and at the bottom the King's initials G. V.

Pte. Williamson was among the first of the "old contemptibles" to reach France, and fought for nearly two years before meeting his death in action. There are two more issues of medals due him, those for 1915 and 1916.

ROYAL SALUTE TOMORROW.—A royal salute of 21 guns will be fired at 12 noon Dominion Day at Carling Heights by artillery details under command of Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, A.A.G., M. N. No. 1, who has had considerable overseas service with the Canadian artillery. Four 4.5-inch guns will be used, but contrary to custom, there will be no brass band in attendance during the firing of the salute.

RIBBON UNAUTHORIZED.—It has been announced at military headquarters here that a cable has been received from Canadian headquarters, London, England, to the effect that no army order authorizing the British General Service Medal has been published. The wearing of the ribbon is, therefore, unauthorized, and officers and soldiers returning from oevrseas are to be warned accordingly at dispersal stations throughout the Dominion.

Thirty-Five Dollars

The Problems of a Canadian Soldier in London On Shedding His Uniform and Getting Into Civic Harness.

Mr. St. Austell is a newspaperman who has had a long experience with the Canadian forces, recently returning from Siberia where he was a sergeant-major in charge of the Military Mounted Police. He is residing in London at 398 Oxford street, and has written a series of serio-comic articles on the problems and thoughts of the soldier, who is now adjusting himself to the civil order. The second article will appear in a short time.

If there is one thing in this world that I detest and that gets me madder than any other, it is arithmetic. I like money very much—in fact, I should not care to live without it, but calculations of money drive me frantic. My wife has just assisted at a vertiable orgy of calculation.

The thing happened this way. I have just come home after braving Bolsheviki, seasickness, Russian cooking, and all kinds of horrors. I don't seem to have done the coming home act according to rule. In the first place, my small daughter is greatly upset because I have arrived with the proper complement of arms and legs. Her little friend next door has an uncle who lost a leg, and "walks like this"—business of crutch. I have not lost any limbs. I lost twenty dollars (the other fellow held four jacks), and the only decent tooth I had was yanked out by an unfeeling dentist. Those losses do not impress the infantile mind. The reproachful way that child looks at me is positively embarrassing. It makes me dive for the nearest table to hide my shame—I mean my legs.

However, that has nothing to do with arithmetic. As I said before, it happened this way. According to my wife's version I have to clothe myself decently and completely from head to foot without spending more than thirty-five dollars. That is the sum specified by government experts on clothing to be paid to the soldier who once more becomes just a man.

Now out comes pencil and pad. I am perfectly convinced that pencil, pad and feminine calculation have ruined more happy homes than have been blasted by Bolshevism. When that pad is produced I feel that I ought to warn all the neighbors to stuff their ears with cotton wool.

The pencil is now sharpened. Just half a minute while I light a cigarette. I am now about to be clothed completely for thirty-five dollars. It can be done. Oh, yes, it has been done by hundreds of men. I wonder if they were hypnotized by pencil and pad? Now, to begin at the top. What do I wear on top? A hat. "Wouldn't a cap do?" No, it must be a hat.

"How much for a hat?" I suggest six dollars. "That seems a lot for a hat, doesn't it? Suppose we say five dollars. You ought to be able to get a really good hat for five dollars."

The pencil records five dollars. What comes next after the hat? "No, don't be stupid, you don't go out. You know what I mean." Coming down from the hat, you next reach the place where the collar should be. Now, how many collars do I want? "Now, one on and one in the wash will NOT be enough. Put down a dozen—that will be about two dollars." Next comes the tie. I am evidently allowed only one tie. Passed by one vote, not mine. One tie, to cost fifty cents. Naturally I am speechless.

I thought I was strong-minded enough to refuse any interference—help, I mean—in the selection of shirts. That pencil and pad have sapped my powers of resistance. I meekly suggest six shirts as a start, a basis for discussion.

"No, indeed. Six shirts? The idea! If you hadn't been foolish enough to go to Siberia you would have been better off, and your clothes would not have been given——"

I always had an idea that I left SOME clothes behind when I went away. However——"

"Three shirts are enough, and at two dollars each—not more remember." Shirts duly recorded. At this stage I venture to remark that I usually wear something under my shirt. Overruled, firmly and definitely:

"Army underwear has been good enough for you in the army—keep on wearing it." The pencil records nothing to be worn under the shirt. Socks are mentioned next. I am informed that I have loads of socks. I have, and they are "loads." There are a lot of people in this world who hug to themselves the conviction that they have done their bit by sending socks to soldiers. I once received a pair with a note inside. I sat down with the intention of expressing my opinions in a letter. Then I read the note again. The socks had been knitted by a lady 74 years of age. I wrote her a long letter and thanked her. I meant those thanks, too; but I had to take in several reefs in the socks.

My wife is not 74, so she cannot presume to tell me that—— She does, though. No entry against socks. Shall I have to wear Kitcheners or shoe-jacks? Boots? Yes, one pair of boots at nine dollars. I was so afraid that the pencil might indicate two-fifty that I hurried on to the next item. What is the next item? What have we put down so far?

It's my turn to calculate now. So far I have army underwear (one on, one in the wash), army socks, a bought shirt, collar, tie, hat and boots. I have spent $22.50 out of my $35. That leaves me $12.50 for the rest of my equipment. The question now is, What shall I buy with the $12.50? There are handkerchiefs, gloves, suspenders, a suit and an overcoat to buy.

It's no good. It can't be done. I can't go out in my underwear with only an overcoat. I need the coat to protect the suit if it rains; and I can't buy either of them for $12.50, so there you are.

The list is torn up. Pencil and pad disappear, leaving me still wondering how I am to clothe myself for thirty-five dollars. Thank goodness, I have war gratuity to fall back upon in an emergency such as this.

VETERANS WHO HAD MISSED FIRST TRAIN GOT HERE AT NOON

Some From Saturnia and the Orduna Come G. T. R.

A party of eleven soldiers who crossed the Atlantic on the SS. Saturnia arrived in this city via Grand Trunk at noon today, and all were immediately conveyed to the dispersal station at Carling Heights, where they received their discharge from the service and transportation to their respective homes in Western Ontario. Three members of the party were Londoners.

These men missed train connections at an eastern point, and did not arrive with other soldiers off the SS. Saturnia early this morning, as expected. In addition to the above, 33 soldiers who were discharged at Montreal arrived on the same train at noon today. Three former members of the imperial army, whose homes are in this military district, also arrived in this city today, having crossed the Atlantic on the SS. Orduna.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE AT ST. ANDREW'S S. SCHOOL

An especially interesting and enjoyable patriotic service was held in connection with the Sunday school session of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon, when the form of service outlined by a special committee in Toronto was followed. Dr. Louis A. Wood of Western University delivering an inspiring address on the suggested subject, "Comrades All." Several numbers were contributed by the Wellington Street Methodist orchestra, conducted by James Creswell, a feature which was much appreciated. A solo was sung by Mrs. M. Fair, and among others taking part were Allen Foote, Wallace Hay, Rudolph Eberhart, Walker Ollerhead and Mrs. Acheson.

Superintendent George W. Hofferd presided.

CLOTHING UNIONS TO STRIKE IF RETURNED MEN NOT KEPT OUT

Montreal Factory Workers Object To Training Soldiers.

Montreal, June 30.—"If the returned soldiers are not taken out of our factories the unions will call a strike," said Mr. Joseph Hoerner, of J. W. Peck & Co., speaking at the final session of the convention of the International Association of Clothing Designers on Saturday, at the Windsor Hotel. "These men," Mr. Hoerner proceeded, "are placed in our factories by the Government, which does not ask us to pay them anything, merely to teach them."

Mr. Joseph Mendel of the Friedman Company said: "Union men do not come out openly and say they do not want the returned soldier, but they make it as unpleasant as possible for him, and so far as union workers are concerned the men may remain around forever and not learn anything. The Government should see that the men are permitted to earn a living. I have a training room in my establishment and have even been obliged to go into it myself and give these men instructions."

CITY WAS NEAR LOSING WHOLE WATER RESERVE

Reservoir Overflowed in Early Morning, Bank Being Eaten Away.

DISCOVERED IN TIME

If Pumping Had Continued Much Longer, Wall Would Have Collapsed.

London had a narrow escape from being without a water supply Sunday. Early Sunday morning the water in the reservoir began to overflow, and before the fact became known at the pumphouse and the pumps which force the water into the reservoir had been stopped, erosion had taken place to such an extent that the outside slope of the big tank had been undermined for a length of about thirty feet, leaving the wall thin and perpendicular instead of well propped up by the banked earth.

The damage occurred on the south side of the reservoir, and a considerable quantity had been distributed over the adjoining land in that direction before the cause of the mishap had been stopped. Men were on the spot this morning building up again the bank which had been eaten away, and citizens who saw the reservoir before repairs were commenced, declare that the discovery of the trouble was barely in time to prevent a general collapse of the retaining wall and the consequent loss of all the reserve water supply.

Is Education of City Policemen Neglected In Judging Perfume?

Accused Says So, But Must Pay $10 Fine.

"The cop doesn't know the difference between Florida water and good perfume," asserted Walter J. Kelly, in police court this morning, arrested Saturday night charged with being drunk on the street.

P. C. P. Last had testified that on Saturday night he met Kelly on King street, and he smelled strongly of Florida water and walked a zigzag course.

"I was no more drunk than I am now," Kelly declared.

"Are you drunk now?" the magistrate asked him.

After Kelly had voiced a decided "no" he went on to say that the police constable had talked to him for fully 20 minutes, considering what to do with him. "So I couldn't have been very drunk," the prisoner argued.

"The policeman did not use undue haste in making your arrest, which is to his credit. Besides, you are not charged with being very drunk, just plain drunk," the magistrate explained. Kelly said he expected his boss would come across with the fine of $10 and costs.

NEW YORK PREPARES

Soft drinks ad lib.

Black crepe, liberally festooned throughout the interior, is expected to give a funereal atmosphere consistent with the occasion, which is to celebrate "the death of John Barleycorn." Only a proclamation by President Wilson, setting aside wartime prohibition as non-essential, will upset the plans, according to the promoters.

Program at Garden.

The program for the evening is:

7 p.m.—All beverages to be in place, with the 200 white-aproned bartenders lined up, arms folded, ready for business.

7:30 to 11 p.m.—Individual and team drinking contests.

11:30 p.m.—Warning sounded that the country will go dry in thirty minutes and all drinkers admonished to "stock up."

11:45—Grand funeral procession, with the band playing Chopin's march.

Midnight—The dry season declared to have begun and all consumers informed that they will have to rely on their private stocks.

Biggest Night on Record.

The managers of the garden, who leased the building for "a ball and entertainment," did not learn until yesterday that drinking was to be the chief feature. Two former lieutenants in the aviation corps of the army obtained the lease and began to let out "concessions" to certain liquor interests.

Managers of many of the big hotels declared that they were preparing for a general celebration tonight. At the Pennsylvania it was said that the entire dining-room space had already been booked. The Astor, the Waldorf-Astoria and the Knickerbocker reported demands on their facilities were already being taxed.

"Never in the history of the hotel business have there been so many reservations for the same period," said Copeland Townsend, manager of the Majestic.

PEACE SALUTE OF 101 GUNS IS FIRED AT CARLING HEIGHTS

Four Guns Used, Taking 34 Minutes.

NO ACCIDENT OCCURRED

Gen. Shannon Compliments Officers and Men On Their Efficiency.

A peace salute of 101 guns was fired at Carling Heights this morning at 9 o'clock by four-gun crews selected from artillery details in camp here, with Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, A.A.G., M.D., No. 1, who served in France with the Canadian artillery, in command, assisted by Capt. J. N. Cartmar. The guns were fired at 20-second intervals, the entire salute being fired in 34 minutes. There were no accidents during the firing, and at the conclusion of the salute Brig.-Gen. L. W. Shannon, C.M.G., officer commanding this military district, complimented the officers and men present for the very efficient manner in which the salute was fired.

Police on Duty.

The guns used were 4.5-inch howitzers, situated on the hill overlooking the old rifle ranges, and facing the C. P. R. tracks. Members of the military police were on duty to prevent the crowd present from entering the danger zone, mapped out in front of the guns. Corp. Chambers of the Canadian Ordnance Corps, an expert in gunnery, was present, and Sergt.-Major McSherry acted as right section commander, while Lieut. Tobias acted as left section commander. Both these soldiers served overseas with the Canadian artillery.

Largest Salute.

The Canadian Garrison Regiment Band was present, and played patriotic airs. At the same hour (8 a.m. standard time) a similar salute was fired in all military centres throughout the Dominion. This is believed to be the largest salute ever fired by the military at London, a royal salute consisting of 21 guns only, or about one-fifth the number fired at Carling Heights this morning.

London Masses Turn Out For Peace Thanksgiving Service in Victoria Park

Addresses by Civic, Military and Religious Dignitaries —Profiteering Scored by Rev. W. J. Knox.

"On this magnificent Canadian summer day of bright sunlight and clear skies, surrounded by blooming flowers, and the trees in full leaf, when we are gathered together to give thanks for victory and the signing of the peace terms, it is impossible not to think of the contrast with March 21, a year ago, when our hearts were heavy with the reports that Germany had broken through the Allied lines, and was shelling Paris, and that Foch had drawn into the Allied lines all his reserves.

"It caused even the heart of faith to sink.

"Today, our hearts rise in gratitude to God to whom we ascribe all the glory for the fact that we are assembled here to celebrate the signing of the peace treaty, which brings to a close the most awful war the world has known."

The foregoing words were spoken yesterday afternoon by Rev. W. J. Knox, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, in the course of the address which he delivered as representative of the Protestant denominations of the city at the civic military religious peace celebration service held at 4:15 o'clock in Victoria Park.

Service Well Attended.

Hundreds of people had gathered around the bandstand by shortly after 4 o'clock, and the number was continually augmented for nearly an hour, as throngs wended their way from other services.

Ald. F. E. Harley did the civic honors in the absence of His Worship Mayor C. R. Somerville, Lieut.-Col. Emsley, senior chaplain of M. D. No. 1, was delegated by Brig.-Gen. L. W. Shannon, C.M.G., G.O.C., to represent himself, the headquarters' staff and officers and men of the military district. The program, asarranged by a joint committee representing civic, military and religious interests, provided for addresses by representatives of both Roman Catholic and Protestant clergy. Much regret was expressed by the chairman, Mr. Harley, over the fact that it had been impossible at the late hour to have provision made for a representative of the Roman Catholic church to take part.

Order of Service.

The scripture lesson was read by Rev. Dr. R. G. Peever, after which Rev. H. B. Ashby, Anglican chaplain for the military hospitals and returned men, read the prayers from the form of thanksgiving to Almighty God for victory and deliverance from enemies in the great war and restoration of peace, issued for use in the Diocese of Huron after the signing of the treaty.

Rev. J. N. Norton, the Baptist chaplain, pronounced the benediction. Singing was accompanied by the 7th Regiment Band, conducted by Bandmaster A. W. Slatter, the band playing several numbers, while the audience was assembling and during the service.

The following in full was the official address delivered by Ald. F. E. Harley, representing the chief executive of the city, Mayor C. R. Somerville:

Civic Address.

"The signing of the peace treaty, formally ending the war, which we have met to celebrate and give thanks for today, is a subject which might perhaps be adequately dealt with by a great orator. I regret that it is beyond my powers to do justice to the occasion.

"Most of us have read the cabled reports of the imposing ceremony at Versailles yesterday, which formally ended the world's greatest war, and when our minds go back over the years of anxiety, of devastation and of death through which we have passed, mere words cannot express our thankfulness or measure our rejoicing today.

Remote From Conflict.

"Here in our peaceful home surroundings we have been remote from the actual conflict, but nevertheless the war has seemed very near and real to the people of London. We have followed the varying fortunes of our own troops and those of our allies with mingled hope and dread, and have mourned with those fellow-citizens who have suffered bereavement. We have gloried in the gallant deeds of our London boys and now feel that through them we can share in the general rejoicing. The bloodshed, the barbarity, the sacrifices, the tears, the heroism, the hopes and fears of the time now passed, the reaction in our minds and the gratitude in our hearts now that it is all over, stir emotions that no words of mine can adequately express.

Citizens Congratulated.

"Speaking on behalf of the chief executive of the city, I believe I may venture to congratulate the citizens of London on the prolonged and magnificent effort they have made toward winning the war. I believe that no Canadian community of equal numbers has a better record in this respect. Our men responded nobly to their country's call and have served in the field of battle in a manner which upholds the highest traditions of our race. The devotion to duty of our nursing sisters and the unceasing activity of our Red Cross workers have not been surpassed elsewhere. Here in London we have laid aside our differences and have striven, I believe, successfully, to meet every demand made upon us to succor and encourage those who fought our battles.

"Within our civic boundaries there are many who mourn the loss of those who have made the supreme sacrifice, sons, brothers, husbands and fathers who will not return, but these brave Londoners live in our hearts and memories and their example, it is devoutly to be hoped, will inspire us to a better realization of our duty to our fellow citizens, to Canada and the empire.

"As citizens of London, we have in common with the rest of Canada, many problems to deal with, and these will require the best that is in us, if they are to be successfully disposed of. There is one that I believe comes first. That is, seeing to the proper treatment of our returned soldiers, not parades and flag-waving, but jobs, and anything else necessary to show them in a practical way how we regard them and their sacrifices. If they need help, it must be provided as well as safeguards necessary to their welfare.

Thoughts of Construction.

"Now our best thought and action must be in the direction of construction, instead of destruction. We can, if we will, and we must, plan for a bigger, broader and better realization of life than ever. This is a task which each of us should impose on ourselves. We should be prepared to meet any situation which may arise in this community. We must keep ourselves informed on changed and changing conditions. During the war we have worked together for unselfish ends as we never did before, and if we have cause for rejoicing today we must remember those who have made this great occasion possible and follow their example of sacrifice and endeavor to meet our obligations in the noble way that they have done.

"Someone has said that our form of government does not produce self-government, or government for and by the people, but only provides opportunity for it, and that actual self-government can come only when men and women realize their share in it, are informed as to methods of government, the needs of the community and become individually active in the affairs of the people. Ideal government will only be attained when all of us become conscious that our personal affairs include not only our particular business or employment, but those things which concern the welfare and progress of the city and the Dominion. By striving to become better citizens, better Canadians, we can best repay the great sacrifices that have been made for us, and commemorate not only today, but every day, the inestimable boon conferred on us by the termination of war and the signing of the treaty of peace."

Lieut.-Col. Emsley.

The address of Lieut.-Col. Emsley, senior chaplain of No. 1 Military District, chaplain of the Army and Navy Veterans, father of three sons who have not yet returned from overseas, where they have done their part to bring about victory and peace, and himself a veteran of the great war, with more than three years of service to his credit, delivered an address which was a combination of seriousness, pathos, humor and the unexpected, an address which gripped and held the attention of the outdoor audience.

Give Heroes Square Deal.

His chief message was one of appeal to give the men who come back a square deal and a fair chance for the sake of the gallant lads who laid down their lives to make a peace celebration possible, as well as for their own sake.

"Look after the chaps who come back," he said. "Give them a show. They are asking no favors. They are not free-lunchers. They don't want your patronage. All they want is a fair and honest show.

"Are they going to have it? Men and women, are you going to give them a chance?

"They aren't coming back crying that the world owes them a living.

"What they want from the world is an opportunity.

"Let the authorities in high places know that industries have rights.

"I know now that I'm going to skate on thin ice in what I am now going to say, even if it is a cool day.

"IF YOU ARE GOING TO GIVE THE BOYS A CHANCE YOU MUST TAKE KINDLY TO THE WOMEN THEY ARE BRINGING HOME WITH THEM. (Laughter.)

War Brides.

"You ask, 'Why don't they marry Canadian women?' It isn't because they have taken a scunner against Canadian girls. There are no better women on earth than the Canadian. But how could the boys marry when many of them hadn't reached marrying age when they went away? They had pluck enough to go and fight, but up to that time they hadn't got up enough pluck to ask a girl to marry them. And so, later when they met cheery, honest English girls, and had the courage to say, 'Come back to our land,' the English girls replied, 'Gladly.' Some of you say that some of the girls coming over as soldiers' wives aren't so clever as they might be. Well, what about the fellows who are marrying them. Are they all as clever as they might be?" (Laughter.)

Commenting that thanksgiving for peace was not so demonstrative as it might have been shortly after the armistice was signed, Col. Emsley referred to the feeling that there had been some dissatisfaction over the long delay and unrest. Coupled with this was the "last nasty, dirty business to cap the German record of horrors and crimes, the incident of the sinking of the interned German fleet at Scapa Flow, pointing to the need of continued caution, and the possibility of the lapse of years before the final consummation of peace and until matters are finally adjusted."

Associated with the note of thanksgiving and triumph in the address of Rev. W. J. Knox was that of warning in regard to the danger of victory.

Quoting Kipling's "Recessional," the speaker recalled how the pride of victory in the case of France under Napoleon, and later of Prussia, following the 30 years' war, had meant the beginning of the end of downfall and disaster.

"There are things in victory which we should guard against," he said. "We should bow our hearts in true humility and reverence, and ascribe to God the victory."

Profiteers Scored.

In view of recent revelations relative to war and after-war profiteering in Canada, Mr. Knox saw for Canada the danger of falling victim to the menace which has been the undoing of Germany, and made it an outcast among the nations. Germany tried to become great through setting up ideals of crass materialism, through endeavoring to become a great nation by increasing population, developing industries and 'piling up red gold to the skies.' No nation in the same time ever paralleled the tremendous industrial and commercial advances of Germany in the years following the 30 years' war. These years of growing commercial ascendancy were the years when the foundations of the national life were disintegrating and the seeds of national decline were being sown which resulted in defeat.

"And in Canada," remiaded the speaker, "under conditions of peace secured by sacrifice and death, men calling themselves Canadian, at the expense of others, have been making dividends of 52, 70 and 300 per cent. This kind of thing shows poor respect to the men who have fought and died

"This kind of life of selfishness, greed, self-indulgence is the thing that will spell disaster to Canada and bring dishonor upon the men who have fought, who have sacrificed, who have died, who sleep in Flanders fields that we may celebrate victory and the signing of the peace treaty today.

"A military autocracy has been put down. Let us beware lest there arise in our midst another autocracy. The great war for justice between man and man still goes on, the great struggle for rightousness, peace and justice."

In conclusion Mr. Knox dwelt upon the question, "How shall I live through the years that the death and sacrifice of the fighting men have bought for me?"

His answer was "If we do not set up for ourselves and for the nation higher ideals than those which animated Prussia in 1871, then will we be all unworthy of the sacrifices made.

"We can only prove ourselves worthy by setting up ideals of absolute justice between man and man in national and private life, ideals embodying the principles of greatness revealed in Jesus Christ."

WILL HOLD CARNIVAL AT PORT STANLEY ON NIGHT OF JULY 1ST

Preparations Being Made For Grand Peace Demonstration at the Lakeside.

A board-walk carnival with ticklers, tickling and confetti flying, a band concert by the full band of the London branch of the Great War Veterans' Association, followed by a musical parade through the celebrating throng, and winding up with a brilliant fireworks display on the beach, has been arranged for a celebration of peace to be held in Port Stanley on Dominion Day.

Arrangements for this grand demonstration, in which the people of London, St. Thomas, and in fact, the whole of Western Ontario are expected to join, were completed following receipt of official word of the signing of the peace treaty. The proximity of Dominion Day, a general public holiday, is to be taken advantage of, and a time such as the people of the district have not known since the memorable night of the armistice is promised.

The band of the Great War Veterans' Association, though previously booked for two other engagements, has announced that it will be on hand at full strength, and with all of the pep and harmony of their splendid organization, these boys, who have all seen service at the front, will throw themselves into the demonstration.

The London and Port Stanley Railway is arranging for numerous special trains to carry the crowds from London, St. Thomas and points along the line, and though expectations are that there will be a greater crowd at the beach than Port Stanley has hitherto experienced, all will be well provided for on their trips either way.

One of the most brilliant and unusual features will be a mammoth fireworks display provided by the Hand Fireworks Company of Hamilton, who have for years furnished the pyrotechnic attractions for Toronto and London exhibitions and other great celebrations.

The people of London especially will join in the carnival, but the crowds will be augmented by throngs from all parts of Western Ontario.

SOLDIERS' COMMISSION COMMENCES SEARCH FOR MISSING WOMAN

The Soldiers' Aid Commission has commenced a search or Mrs. Dorothea Cline, formerly Miss Dorothea Lawrence of Ingersoll, whose husband, Sapper W. H. Cline, returned recently from overseas, after having carried the photograph of his wife through the war with him, to find that Mrs. Cline had disappeared and has left no trace as to her whereabouts.

The missing woman is 21 years old, pretty, and an accomplished musician. She is a soprano soloist, and a talented pianist, and her husband believed that she is probably playing or singing in some church in Western Ontario.

Mrs. Cline was traced as far as this city in 1916, after she had left her mother in Ingersoll, with whom she lived when her husband went overseas in the Second Canadian Pioneers, and visited Miss Hazel Parker, employed in the office of the Equitable Life Insurance Company, in the Dominion Savings Building. Then she disappeared, and her husband, who was then in France, had received no word from her. Before her marriage the missing woman was employed as a milliner.

Sapper Cline, who returned to Canada on June 16, was employed before he enlisted as a telegraph operator in Ingersoll.

Retail merchants are buying more National Cash Registers than ever before

THOUSANDS of Canadian retail merchants realize to-day that a modern National Cash Register System is necessary to successful storekeeping.

During the war, labor of all kinds was scarce and costly. Retail merchants found it difficult to secure help.

Storekeepers from coast to coast solved this problem by installing a National Cash Register System.

In this way they were able to take care of their growing business efficiently and with fewer clerks. At the same time they secured complete store records—without the old-time drudgery and worry.

As these facts have become more widely known, the demand for National Cash Registers has increased.

In the last few months the demand for National Cash Register Systems has been bigger than ever before in the history of the National Cash Register Company of Canada, Limited.

This demand is being met by increased facilities at our Canadian plant in Toronto. The factory is ready to supply National Cash Registers for every line of business. It is in a position to make prompt deliveries and to give quick service.

A post card or phone call will bring you full information about the way a modern N.C.R. System will speed up your store service and keep your store records by machinery.

TORONTO CARPENTERS DEFER PRESSING FOR 75 CENTS AN HOUR

TORONTO, June 29.—Because the mass meeting called by the Brotherhood of Carpenters here today was poorly attended the carpenters decided to postpone until August 1 their demand for 75 cents an hour. By a recent temporary agreement with the Builders' Exchange the men received 70 cents an hour, pending a final ratification of the agreement at 75 cents an hour, to be put into effect at the end of June. The men insist that they must have 75 cents an hour.

Spring Fever —What Is It?

THREE o'clock in the afternoon — and absolutely no "pep." You call it spring fever, but is it?

When you are constipated waste matter remains in the intestines, decays, forms poisons which are absorbed into your blood and carried by it to every cell in your body. When your cells are thus poisoned, of course you have no "pep."

Pills, salts, mineral waters, castor oil, etc., merely force the bowels to act, and make constipation and self-poisoning a habit.

Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels.

Nujol prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today and watch your "pep" come back.

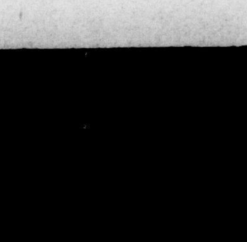

Warning: Nujol is sold in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. All druggists. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

ARMED CRACKSMEN BLOW SAFE AFTER GAGGING EMPLOYEES

PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

WINIFRED BLACK

Writes About "Equal Wages."

Copyright, 1919, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Winifred Black

A man told me the other day that he wished he could have nobody but women working in his office, and in his factory, and in his shop.

"Women are quicker than men," said the man who told me this. "They are more conscientious, and they are more faithful to detail.

"They're better natured, and better looking, and I like to have them around."

"But the trouble is they're always getting married.

"When a man gets married, he works all the harder. When a woman gets married she gives up the job down town, and we have to break in a stranger and teach her not to speak to the office manager Monday mornings, anyway, before eleven, and never to giggle when the chief clerk has been out late the night before, and who's important and who's insignificant, and all the rest of the things that don't seem to have anything to do with the business and that really have everything to do with it, and it's discouraging.

"That's the only reason I don't believe in equal wages for equal work. You break a woman in and teach her the business, and just when she's getting to be worth her salt, some young fellow who's making about what she is takes her to dinner, and they fox-trot a while—and in a month or so I've got to get a new girl.

"I wonder if the time isn't going to come when we're going to divide women into classes, as they did in the old civilization?

"The mother women, the pleasure-seeking women and the workers.

"It would simplify life a lot if we did."

And, come to think of it, it really would, wouldn't it?

It would be a fine arrangement for everybody—but the women.

Equal pay for equal work? Yes, I believe in that—who that is fair-minded doesn't?

If a woman does the same work as a man she ought to get the same money for it, oughtn't she?

She can't rent a room any cheaper than a man, she can't buy food any cheaper, and her clothes cost a whole lot more.

She Just Goes Without.

Oh, yes, I know men are always telling you how clever women are.

"A woman can get along on half that a man can, and save money at that." That's what they say, and when we women hear them say it we smile and look pleased—at first.

But when we've lived a while among women who work for a living we realize that the woman who lives on less than a man lives on worse things than a man and fewer of them, that's all.

She doesn't manage—she just goes without. And going without isn't always the most charming thing in the world, is it?

There's John at one desk and Mary at the other—side by side they sit, and day by day they do exactly the same work.

But John gets $25 a month more than Mary. Why? Because he's a man, that's all.

Why should that make a difference? John wants to marry some day, and he has to make enough to take care of a wife? Well, that's so. But how about Mary's mother? Mary takes care of her as a matter of course, and never thinks of acting like a martyr over it.

There's Sarah and William, both of them doing the same work, and William getting more than Sarah.

William is already engaged—so is Sarah.

But Sarah wants to send her little sister through high school, and she's saving a little for Brother Jimmy's clothes when he starts in to college.

What Is the Difference?

Sarah makes her own clothes and washes her own shirtwaists and trims her own hats.

She doesn't do these things because she likes them. She does them because she has to, and it takes a good deal of her strength and ambition.

Sarah really would be worth $25 a month more as a clerk if she had a big enough salary so she didn't have to sit up till 11 o'clock every night sewing and mending, and turning and pressing, to keep herself looking trim and tidy at the office.

The labor unions are out for equal wages for equal work.

They don't want women taking the places of men because they work cheaper.

For my part, I wish women didn't have to work for a living at all, but my wishes don't seem to have very much to do with the matter. And as long as Mary must work, pay Mary exactly what you'd pay John—that's the way I feel about it.

How about you?

Like Being Hit By Rattle Snake

Says that every time you cut or pick at a corn you invite lockjaw

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out with the fingers, without one particle of pain.

This freezone is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and just loosens the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. He says a quarter of an ounce will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but this is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callous.

You are positively warned that cutting or picking at a corn is a suicidal habit.

MACFARLANE—REYNOLDS.

A very pretty Guelph wedding took place last Thursday, when Miss Marguerite Vera Reynolds became the bride of Mr. Philip G. Macfarlane of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. F. Scovil at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. R. Reynolds of Guelph.

In the presence of about thirty guests the bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Charles Reynolds, the wedding march being played by Miss Marion Reynolds, sister of the bride. White voile, with Cluny lace and satin, formed the wedding costume of the bride, who carried roses. Guests were present from New York, Toronto and Listowel.

Many beautiful wedding presents were showered upon the happy couple, who left for a honeymoon at Niagara Falls. The groom returned from overseas but recently, having served for three years in the army.

HOWELL—FRAIN.

Wood ferns and foxgloves formed an attractive background for the pretty wedding which was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Frain of Norwich, when their daughter, Clara M., became the bride of Percy Le Roy Howell, the Rev. Thomas Doolittle officiating. Mrs. Gordon Howell played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in a beaded gown of white silk georgette, with veil of tulle and pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and wore the groom's gift, a necklace of platinum and diamonds. Her only attendant was Miss Ethel Snell of Norwich, who wore a gown of pale blue crepe de chine, with tunic of shell-pink georgette, and carried Sunset roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Erland Echlin of Hamilton. During the signing of the register Nursing Sister Betty Dann of Toronto sang "Because" very sweetly.

A dainty luncheon was served in the rose-decorated dining-room by Miss Emma Vigar of Norwich, Miss Annie Hill of Burgessville, Miss Fern Goldsworthy of Akron, N. Y., Miss Alma Cody of Sweaborg, Miss Betty Dann of Toronto, and Miss Florence Kirkpatrick of Burgessville, friends of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell motored to Grimsby en route to Montreal and Quebec City, the bride traveling in a suit of navy blue tricotine. On their return they will reside in Norwich.

HENDERSON—LEVY.

One of the prettiest of June weddings took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Levy, Bram Brae Farm, Blanshard, on June 25, at 4:30 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Mae, was united in marriage to John S. Henderson of Thorndale, the Rev. Peter Nichol of London officiating.

The house was a bower of summer flowers, consisting of roses, Canterbury bells, ferns and orange blossoms. The bride looked winsome in her nuptial robe of ivory charmeuse, with drapings of georgette and pearl trimmings, and veil of silk-embroidered net, caught up with a sunburst of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Bridal roses.

On the arm of her father, the bride took her place beneath a canopy of orange blossoms, cedar and ferns, intermingled with tinsel stars and white bells, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Jessie Levy, sister of the bride. Miss Levy was gowned in pale pink crepe de chine, with bead trimming.

After the ceremony the guests, numbering 70, sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast served by eight small girls and boys, Florence Levy, Lovena Henderson, Erma and Jennie Wood, James Levy, Will Henderson and Louis Levy. The tables were beautifully decorated in pink and green. Guests were present from Detroit, London, Woodstock, Stratford and St. Marys.

Later in the evening the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and best wishes for London, Hamilton, Toronto and Bernard Beach, Sundridge, where they will spend a week with the groom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Welch. The bride traveled in a French navy tailored suit, with hat to match. On their return they will reside on Daisy Hill Farm, fourth concession of Nissouri.

The Embro and West Zorra Women's Institute meeting will be held on Monday, June 30, at the home of Mrs. H. B. A good program will also be furnished and light refreshments will be served.

FLORENCE W. I.

The annual summer meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Presbyterian Church, when Mrs. Morris, the summer delegate and government representative, gave an address on the "General Work of Institutes and the Reconstruction of the Work for the Coming Year." Mrs. C. N. Sarney, president, was in the chair. Music was rendered by Miss Forshee and Miss Osborne. Despite the hot afternoon a good many members were present.

The officers, with the directors of the Woman's Institute, met at the home of Mrs. Albert Peters and presented Messrs. Guy Peters and Wm. Hope with a purse of $25 each as a token of appreciation for their services overseas. Miss Drew read the address and also made the presentation. After the boys had expressed their thanks, refreshments were served and a social time spent for more than an hour.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Oiling the Floor.

Dear Miss Grey.—This is my first visit to your Mail-Box. I would like your advice on this question: My kitchen floor is a hard maple; it never had any paint on it, and I thought of oiling it, as I like to see a good oiled floor. Does it make any difference how you oil it, and what kind of oil should be used? A FRIEND.

Ans.—Use boiled linseed oil on your floor. Heat it boiling hot, have the floor scrubbed clean and dry, and apply the oil, using an old paint brush. Keep the oil hot all the time if you can while applying.

More Blessings Than Troubles.

Dear Miss Grey.—I enjoy reading the letters on your page so much, although I have never had courage to write before. Now just a word re the English brides, and the farmers making their fortune. Dear! dear! such a hubbub. Let's change the subject and talk about women's votes for a while, as I don't think we farmers have much to grumble about if we would just stop and count our blessings. I think they would overbalance our troubles.

We have a beautiful shady farmhouse—great trees right to the door—and such a grove, so cool. In fact, we have several groves of trees. I often think it would be an ideal place for some of the city people to spend their holidays, if they want a quiet place; just the place for tired nerves to rest, and lots of goodies to eat, such as roast fowl, fresh eggs, milk and lots of fresh fruit.

I would just love to have you come, Miss Grey, and spend a week with us. I will give you lots of strawberries and cream, and a dish of ice cream once in a while. Will close, leaving my address with Miss Grey.

A CONTENTED COUNTRY WOMAN

Ans.—What a very, very kind invitation you extend to me, although I'm an entire stranger. I am sure a week at your home would be most delightful, and those strawberries sound so tempting. It is not, however, holiday time for me just yet, so I shall have to decline. But I can assure you your kindly thought is sincerely appreciated.

Mail-Box Recipes.

Michigan Cookies—One cup granulated sugar, ¾-cup butter, ¾-cup lard or dripping, ¾-cup sweet milk or sour milk, 1 egg, 3 level cupfuls sifted flour, (¼ teaspoon soda if milk is sour), 2 teaspoonfuls baking powder.

Cream butter, lard and sugar; add egg and beat well; then add milk if sweet (if sour, add the soda to milk); then to mixture. Sift dry ingredients and add to batter; if not stiff enough add more flour, but roll as soft as possible. Have baking board well dusted with flour; roll to three-eighths inch thick; sprinkle with sugar, and cook in hot oven. This makes four dozen.

MOLLY-O.

Tomato Chowder—Two cups tomatoes, 6 medium-sized potatoes, 3 medium sized onions, 4 cups milk, 1 good slice pork, salt and pepper. Cut potatoes and onions into small pieces; cut pork into small cubes and fry until light brown; add onions, potatoes, etc., and salt and pepper. Cover with boiling water and cook for half an hour; then add milk and boil again.

FORGET-ME-NOT.

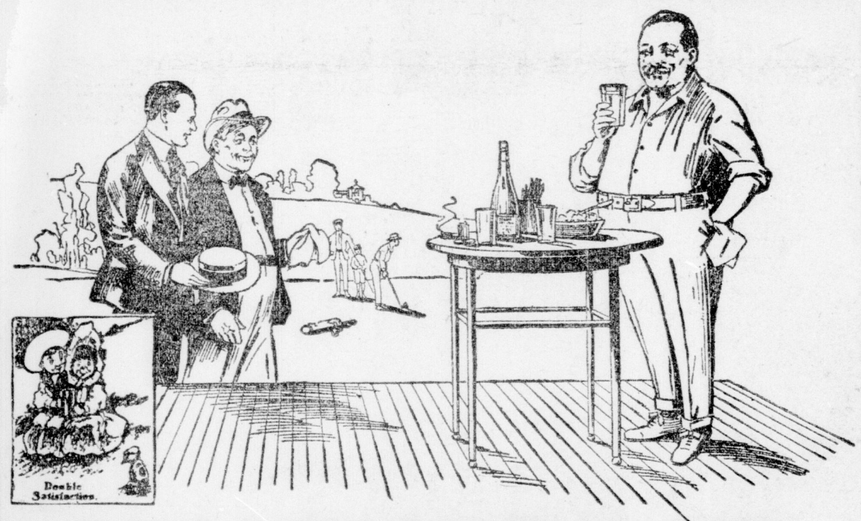

Thirty Reasons For Drinking.

Edith sends this copy, stating that it may be useful to some who seek a temperance recitation:

Some drink because they're hungry and some because they're dry;
Some drink to keep them in good health, and some that they may die;
Some drink because they are too hot, and some because they're cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young, and some when they are old;
Some drink to keep them wide awake, and some to make them sleep;
Some drink because they merry are, and some because they weep;
Some drink when they do money gain, and some drink because of loss;
Some drink when they are pleased, and others when they're cross;
Some drink when they are hard at work, and some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night, while others drink by day;
Some drink for sake of company, while others drink more sly;
And many drink, but never think about the reason why;
Some drink when they a bargain make, some when they money pay;
Both when they buy and when they sell they drink good luck today;
Some say they drink for pleasure, and some they drink for pain;
Some say it's good, some very bad, but never one refrain;
But all must own the proper right when iron's hot to strike it.
I've just found out the reason why—all drink because they like it!

Letter from Lois.

Dear Friends,—Where is Silus? Did you ever see the like, Miss Grey? Every man that enters the mail box gets the worst of it. Well, those $80 suits got my goat. I never heard tell of any in the country. Silus, did you ever realize how much work a farmer has to do before he makes anything? These morning hubby is in the fields with his team at 6 a.m. That says up at 5 o'clock or before, and then he works until dark (8 o'clock), then has chores by the wholesale to do after that. A farmer can never go away for a visit; he has to be home to feed his stock three time a day, while the

WILD THROWS GIVE BEAVERS THE RUNS THAT BEAT LONDON

(BY BERT B. PERRY.)

Wild and woolly pegging figured prominently in London's defeat Saturday afternoon at Tecumseh Park when Beattie's Beavers from Kitchener took the odd game of the series by the score of 3 to 0. The three runs collected by the visitors were the direct outcome of some weird throwing on the part of Stewart's help. The game was a beautiful pitcher's battle between Ben Gilbert and London's latest addition, Hendrion. Both hurlers allowed four hits, but with this difference: most of the blows off Hendrion were made in the first three innings, while Gilbert was unhittable until the eighth, when Pittenger got a healthy two-cushion pelt for the first London safety. Hendrion was wilder than the former London heaver, though, and two or three passes figured in the run-getting.

A Great Chance Wasted.

Despite their weakness with the stick in the early frames, the Tecumsehs had a fine chance to win the old ball game in the eighth inning. But here, too, some wayward work gummed up the proceedings. Pittenger doubled after Command had grounded out to start this inning. It was the first safe hit off Gilbert, and it was a beautiful drive nearly to the fence in left centre. Only Kyle's fast fielding held Pittenger on second. Milligan was hit by a pitched ball, and Gilbert gave signs of breaking up. With first and second occupied the fans got their first real chance to make a noise and some racket was being indulged in when Pittenger was nabbed at second by Argus. The London third sacker had made a move to go to third when Argus dropped one of Gilbert's shoots. Then Pittenger started back for the middle sack, but Argus' fine peg beat him by several feet. This play practically saved the game for the Beavers. Hendrion, who was at bat, followed with a single to left which Pittenger could have scored on easily. As it was, Milligan was held on second. Mitchell followed with a slow grounder to Beattie and beat the visiting manger in a race to the bag. This filled the bases, but Hagel after getting three balls and two strikes on him, flied out to Nicholson.

Hagel's First Boot a Costly One.

Hagel's bad peg was responsible for two runs in the third inning. It was his first error this season, too. With one down, Nicholson drew four wide ones, and Beattie singled to centre. Hendrion couldn't get one over for Wade and he walked, filling the bases. Harrison hit a fast one at Hagel, who picked it off and threw to the plate. The throw struck the ground several feet in front and got away from Milligan, Nicholson and Beattie counting. Hefter struck out and Scanlon grounded out.

Good Fielding Plays.

The game was one of the fastest played at Tecumseh Park this season. Both teams did some good fielding. Mitchell, Pittenger, Bullock and Hagel made feature plays.

The fans did a lot of unecessary yelling at Umpire Burke. Burke umpired a good game, and his work was impartial. There was no reason at all for the severe ragging that came from the stands.

SEVENTY-THREE WILL START IN DUNLOP BICYCLE ROAD RACE

Harold Bounsall Starts at Scratch—Twelve Minutes Biggest Handicap.

There was an unusually large attendance at the Dunlop handicapping meeting Saturday night, when the names were set up for the big grind on July 1. The list of entries was seventy-three, the majority from Toronto.

A survey of the line-up brings to mind that, after an absence of four years at the front, the former star of the cinder path—Gordon McMillan—has been put in the three-minute mark. Lowrey—last year's time winner—is also 3 minutes, with Elson MacKay, G. L.'s 15-year-old boy. Joe Golden, fresh from the battlefields, is back in the game, and Doc. Morton, one of the prettiest riders Canada ever produced, refuses to be counted out.

London is well represented, and Stratford again comes into the fray.

The course will be right in the heart of London City, five miles of the sixteen being over asphalt.

GALT DEFEATS GUELPH IN SPECTACULAR GAME

GALT, June 29.—In a game full of spectacular plays, Galt Inter-County League nine Saturday defeated the fast Partridge team of Guelph 6 to 4. Galt won the game in the eighth, when their second catcher, W. Graham, doubled to right with two men on. West started for Galt, and went well until the sixth, when he weakened, and the visitors scored two runs and in another, the eighth, with two on and the next another.

In the eighth, with two on and only one out, Smith was sent in. Here the visitors pulled off the nicest play of the game, Jones and Craven making two double steals, while Smith wound up, Jones stealing home on second play with the winning run.

In the next inning Smith retired the side on six pitched balls. Galt got to Murphy, Guelph's star, for three runs in the opening and hit him freely and he made way for Mennish. Hit- Kinsman with three hits, one four times up, and fielding for Galt, featured

Handling Fight Crowd Is Toledo's Problem

Every Available Means of Locomotion Will Be Put Into Service To Get Fans To and From Arena on July 4th.

TOLEDO, O., June 29.—To carry 60,000 impatient fight fans from the heart of Toledo to Tex Rickard's $150,000 arena four miles away in five hours is the problem which will face traction officials and taxicab companies when Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey meet in their championship contest here July 4. To solve it, everything on wheels will be pressed into service.

The chief medium of transportation to Bay View Park, the site of the arena, will be street cars. Fortunately the city has a double track from the heart of the city to the park, and by running cars out on one track and returning on the other, can move approximately 15,000 persons an hour. To accomplish this, it will be necessary to tap other city lines for additional equipment. Officials of the Toledo Rail and Light Company, the traction operating system, plan to operate 120 cars an hour—one every half minute—to the arena, which is at the end of Summit street, one of the main thoroughfares of the city.

A Great Chance for Autos.

Automobiles of various sorts will give street cars a close race in moving the crowds. In addition to the regular taxicab service, every automobile truck will go into service for the day, and hundreds of solid citizens wil hang a "For Rent" sign on the family car.

Prices for the trips to and from the arena have not been established, but it is assured there will be no seats in automobiles bringing less than one dollar for the one-way ride.

Those coming to the contest in special trains will be within walking distance of their seats. Railroad officials have arranged to park hundreds of sleeping cars in the switch yards along the Maumee River, only a few minutes' walk from Bay View Park. This will relieve the transportation problem by several thousands.

Gates Open at 9 o'Clock.

The gates of the huge arena will be thrown open at 9 o'clock on the morning of the contest, but Willard and Dempsey will not climb into the ring until 3 o'clock that afternoon. It is safe to say that approximately half the crowd will be seated early, as the first preliminaries will be started at 10 o'clock, and the more eager of the fans will demand to be in the monster wooden structure to see the first gloves fly.

Toledo itself doubtless will send from 10,000 to 20,000 citizens to the arena, and if the day is not too hot, these will cover the distance on foot, provided they have no automobiles. In the light of past experience, it is probable that the crowds will start to assemble outside the four grand entrances to the arena in the cool of the morning, but the rush and crush is expected to occur near noon.

Another method of gettng at Bay View Park, which is more novel than practical, is a fleet of small motor boats which will ply between the downtown section and the park. The stadium is within a few hundred feet of the Maumee River and Maumee Bay, and these boats could be made a factor in the transportation provided enough of them operate. The throngs, however, will choose street cars and automobiles with the inevitable crush, rush and jam incident to such an occasion.

Bay City Plays Two Games Here Today With London

Bill Cristall's Team Opposes Locals in First Double Bill Here This Year.

The Tecumsehs play their first doubleheader of the season today when they meet Bay City, with Bill Cristall in charge. The first game will start at 4 o'clock and the second will start about the usual time of the twilight games. The Bay City team will be here until Wednesday, playing two games today and two on the holiday.

The Tecumsehs looked good on Saturday, except when they started throwing the ball around, and now that the team is strengthened up in the pitching department, it is hoped that the old losing habit will disappear. Hendrion should have had a win on Saturday, and it was no fault of his own.

Brantford Opposes Proposed Split in Mint League Season

Secretary Brown Says It Is a Sign of Weakness to Divide Schedule.

BRANTFORD, June 29.—A meeting of the M. and O. League has been called for this city on Monday, presumably to arrange a double series for the league, whereby the winners of the first half of the season play off with the winners of the latter half.

The Brantford club is very much opposed to the plan, President Brown declaring that the suggestion indicated league weakness, whereas the league was in fine shape and not in need of last-minute legislative support.

WISNER'S GOOD PITCHING TOO MUCH FOR BAY CITY

Cristal's Jap Player Is Ejected From Park For Objecting To Decision.

SAGINAW, Mich., June 29.—Wisner maintained his gilt-edge hurling against Bay City, and the Aces won 3 to 1, wonderful support by the losing club keeping the runs down. Until the eighth inning Wisner seemed to have a no-run, no-hit game coming. Weinberg's first basing was one of the bright features of the game. Also the clubbing of Pike, Allen and Lippe, who between them collected ten bingles in eleven appearances at the bat.

Yim was ejected from the field by Umpire Meyers for talking too strenuously over a decision at first. He was the first man chased this year.

ELOISE WINS IN 2:20 TROT AFTER A HARD BATTLE

Louis Grattan Did Not Figure in Money in 2:12 Pace.

BAY CITY, Mich., June 29.—Saturday was get-away day for the short shippers, and the card was cut to two races, the 2:12 pace and the 2:20 trot with fair fields in each, extra heats being necessary to decide the winner in each race.

Louis Grattan, Vic Fleming's horse, was favorite in the pace, but was not in the running, finishing fifth in the first heat and being distanced in the next. Double G., a rank outsider, took the first heat in fast time, but Willow Hal then stepped out and took the next three.

Eloise Worthy was favorite in the 2:20 trot, and had a hard time winning from Aileen Frisco, that fought for the lead in each heat. Elizabeth D., an added starter, took the first heat in a close finish with the Frisco mare, but broke badly in the next heat and was distanced, Eloise winning out over Aileen Frisco. Frisco won the next heat with a stretch drive, but after that she could not quite catch the Frisco mare.

The races were witnessed by a small crowd, the cold weather serving to keep down the attendance. Summaries:

JACK BARRY HAS NOT YET REPORTED TO MACK

Meriden, Conn., June 30.—Jack Barry who was traded to the Philadelphia athletics by the Boston Red Sox last Thursday is at his parent's home here and has not yet reported. He would not give his reason for not being with the Mack men, but said that he was to meet Connie Mack in Boston on July 4, and the result of the meeting would decide whether or not he would play in Philadelphia this year. Barry with Amos Strunk was traded to the Philadelphia club for Maurice Shannon and Bobby Roth. Both Strunk and Roth have already played on their new teams. A matter of salary is believed to be the reason for Barry's delay in going to the Mack men.

STEWART RELEASES PITCHER FOSTER

Pitcher Foster was released on Saturday by Manager Stewart of the London club. Foster has been nursing a sore arm for some time and has not been of much use to the London club, although he had all the earmarks of a good hurler. He may sign up with one of the other clubs in the league or return to Jack Dunn of the Baltimore Internationals, who stil has a string on him. Foster is a youngster and this is his first season out. With his arm in proper shape he should develop into a good twirler, as he has lots of speed and plenty of curves, and showed more knowledge of pitching at Tecumseh Park than several other heavers seen there this season.

DEMPSEY EASES UP IN PUNCHING ON EVE OF BATTLE

Challenger Fighting Under Wraps in Training For Fear of Injury.

Toledo, Ohio, June 30.—For fear of an injury to his hands on the eve of his heavyweight championship contest with Jess Willard, Jacck Dempsey today was instructed to eliminate all heavy hitting from his training bouts. The instructions were issued at the request of Tex Rickard, who also intends to make the request of Willard.

Sunday saw the last hard workout for Dempsey, and from now on he will ease off rapidly in his training. This is a necessity rather than a choice, so far as the challenger is concerned, for he is so fine physicaly that there is more than a remote danger of his going stale. In fact, many close observers lean to the opinion that Dempsey reported the peak of condition some days ago, and only the most skillful handling will permit him to retain the form that has made him the marvel of all those who have had an opportunity to examine him, nothing but light work will be attempted. In addition to the boxing he will change his morning road run to a fast walk, and by Wednesday he will have reached the point where he will be through all his training for this particular battle. Willard, on the other hand, plans to continue his recent burst of training speed for at least two days more, unless a spell of hot weather causes him to change his mind. The cool breezes of the week-end put a feeling of snap into the champion, and led him to decide to work steadily until Wednesday at least. The titleholder long since dropped all forms of road work with the explanation that he did not think it benefited a man of his tremendous bulk.

LABOR COMMISSION WANTS COLLECTIVE BARGAINING SYSTEM

Majority Report From Industrial Probing Board.

OTTAWA, June 29.—The industrial relations commission is still endeavoring to get together on a unanimous report to Parliament, but there are indications that there will be majority and minority report. The majority report, it is rumored, will call for a conference with the provincial authorities with a view toward bringing about the following reforms:

1. Eight-hour day throughout the Dominion.
2. A minimum wage for both male and female workers.
3. Recognition of collective bargaining as prescribed by the railway brotherhoods.

The commission, it is stated, will further recommend that Dominion Government take steps as soon as feasible for the formation of industrial councils on the plan of the Whitley commission of Great Britain. It will further recommend a system of old age pensions and unemployment insurance, together with insurance against sickness and disability.

Rickard Wants Carpentier To Meet Jack Dempsey

Paris, June 30.—Georges Carpentier has received by cable from Tex Rickard, the boxing promoter, an offer of $45,000 for a match with Jack Dempsey in the United States in January next. Manager Deschamps, for Carpentier, has inquired of Rickard regarding the conditions and the number of rounds in the proposed match before replying definitely to the offer.

BRANTFORD, June 29.—The draw for the Dominion Day bowling tourney in this city has been announced, and 22 rinks will be accommodated to the four league bowling greens. The largest number of entries since the inception of the tourney ten years ago have been received, and there will be the keenest competition for the Lloyd Harris and Telephone City trophies.

DIVORCED WIFE OF SOLDIER ENTITLED TO PART PENSION

FAIR PRICE BILL TABLED

Board of Commerce Act Introduced as Result of the H. C. of L. Probe.

OTTAWA, June 29.—Several government measures, including the pensions bill and the resolution to amend the judges act, were considered at the Saturday sitting of the Commons. The discussion on the pensions bill was confined to a few more or less technical clauses and was discontinued shortly before the one o'clock adjournment, because Hon. N. W. Rowell had to leave the city.

Exception was taken by members from Quebec Province and Prince Edward Island to the provisions of the resolution to amend the judges act which increase the salaries on the score that these provinces were not receiving fair treatment.

Hon. Arthur Meighen, replying to criticisms by Ernest Lapointe, asserted there are more high-salaried judges in Quebec than in any other province of the Dominion.

Strong exception to the increases in the salaries of superior court judges was voiced by Mr. Proulx of Prescott, who also objected to judges retiring on large pensions at a comparatively early age.

The resolution was still under discussion when the House adjourned at 6 o'clock.

Cost of Living Report.

At the opening of the House Mr. Nicholson, seconded by Mr. Davis, moved concurrence in the report of the cost of living committee which recommended the establishment of a special court to deal with trade combines and prices. The question, however, was held over until Tuesday.

By unanimous consent Mr. Meighen introduced the board of commerce act, 1919 and the combines and fair prices act, 1919. The bills were read a first time, but not explained.

HOLLWEG OFFERING HIMSELF IN PLACE OF FORMER KAISER

Asks Allies To Place Him On Trial Instead of the Ex-Kaiser.

Berlin, June 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Dr. Theobold von Bethmann-Hollweg, former German chancellor, has formally asked the Allied and Associated powers to place him on trial instead of the former emperor.

The former chancellor says that he assumes responsibility for the acts of Germany during his period of office and places himself at the disposal of the Allies.

The High Cost of a Cheap Tu...

A TUBE is costly when it ruins a good tire by not holding air pressure. Unless the tube, by holding air properly, gives the casing sufficient support, the tire will soon be ruined. You can't afford to risk a high-priced casing for a few dollars "saved" on a cheap tube.

Suppose you have a 33x4 casing which cost you $43.25. A Goodyear Tube will cost you $6.50. Probably you can buy a cheap tube for $4.00. But when that cheap tube has reduced your casing mileage by 15% or 20% it has become a mighty expensive tube—about $12.00 expensive.

Goodyear Tubes are built to make tires go farther. The meeting had not ... very widely advertised, owing to ... fact that the members had decided ... choose the delegates at a session of ... executive. Despite the fact that ...tle or no advertising had been done, ... there was a representative gathering of ... good, staunch supporters on hand at ... the hour set for the meeting, and it ... took but a few moments to get the ... entire business of the meeting settled.

The delegates chosen to go to Ottawa include the following, and each announces that in all probability alternates as well as delegates will make the journey, which promises to be a momentous one for the Liberals of the Dominion:

Delegates Chosen.

W. G. Charlton, Aylmer; Dr. F. H. Miller, Aylmer; Lew Johnson, Bayham; J. C. Dance, Kingsmill. The alternates include, Reeve M. McVicar of Dorchester, Blake Miller of Aylmer, Lloyd Grant of Staffordville, and N. S. Cornell of Port Stanley. Wilson H. Mills of Sparta, the recently-nominated candidate for the Legislature, was chosen at Toronto as one of the 28 delegates to represent the provincial association. Mr. Mills' supporters in East Elgin were quite pleasantly surprised when they learned last night that he had been chosen out of the entire delegation at Toronto.

There were no addresses at last night's meeting, but Percy Dennis, the newly-chosen president, called on W. G. Charlton, who arrived before the close of the meeting, to tell them of his trip to Toronto. This the well-known Liberal responded to by going over the proceedings at Toronto and explaining the platform of the newly-formed Liberal party. Mr. Charlton quite agrees with Hon. D. D. McKenzie, who stated that the Liberals who left the party to become Unionists have refused the opportunity to return to the fold, and consequently are apparently determined to be left out.

Democratic Convention.

"A more democratic convention I never attended," declared Mr. Charlton. "It was purely democratical from start to finish, and it shows quite plainly the spirit of the Liberals of today." Mr. Charlton declared that he had not the slightest doubt but that a provincial election will make its appearance this fall. "I do not think that prohibition should be made an election issues," said the speaker. "I think that should be enacted by the Government according to the will of the people, and kept out of politics."

Mr. Charlton expressed the belief that Mr. Dewart would make an excellent leader, and he also thought that Mr. McKenzie would be a very successful leader of the Dominion Opposition. He was very much impressed by the Hon. Mr. McKenzie's remarks concerning Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who, he said, had been as David in Biblical days, the one who had prepared the material. It was left to a Solomon to build the temple, and likewise the completion of Sir Wilfrid's work would be left to the coming generation. He had provided the material to be constructed by us of today.

Following the meeting inquiries were made by a representative of The Advertiser regarding the alleged "split" in the East Elgin party. "The work of some Unionist and Conservative agitator," declared one prominent Liberal. The general opinion was that someone had learned of the change in candidates, and made use of it as material to create a breach in the party. Even S. S. McDermand laughs at the idea of his name being coupled with another party, said one very intimate friend of the former candidate.

The club is indebted to Dr. F. H. Miller, who has kindly loaned a good-sized room at the rear of his place of business for a clubroom. It is an excellent place in which to hold executive meetings, and could be converted into a very accommodating clubroom.

CHECKS FOR VETERANS.

DORCHESTER, June 29.—The town hall was packed to its utmost capacity on Friday evening to witness the soldiers' welcome. A splendid program was given, which consisted of piano duetts, quartets, solos, readings and speeches. Albert George made an excellent chairman. Reeve Smith called the names of fourteen veterans, of whom eight were present, namely, Charlie Mossop, Charlie Wilson, Charles Skinner, Pte. Dodds, Pte. Binding, Pte. Rumball, Pte. Miller, Pte. Lucas. They were presented with $25 checks and three rousing cheers.

Mrs. Peter Pulford, Mrs. Hugh McCloy and Mrs. Jacob Eichenberger acted as judges on the babies.

DENFIELD LAWN SOCIAL.

A lawn social under the auspices of the Young People's Guild is to be held on the grounds of Geo. L. Shipley, Carlisle, on the evening of July 2. Mrs. Watcher, soloist, J. H. Cameron, entertainer, and the Tony Vita Harpere will furnish the program.

VANCOUVER CARS RUN TODAY.

VANCOUVER, June 29. — The street railway employees voted during the week-end in favor of returning to work. A majority of 45 votes were cast for a walk-in, and street cars will be running again Monday morning, it is understood.

SOUTH PERTH FAIR GROUNDS ENLARGED

ST. MARYS, June 29.—At a recent meeting of the South Perth Agricultural Society, held in St. Marys, it was announced that two lots were purchased by the society adjoining the fair grounds from Mrs. Emily Richardson, which will allow a much nearer entrance to the fair grounds at Queen and Ann streets and will also enable the society to park all autos on a strip of land reserved for the purpose. The society intend to double their prize lists for horses at the fall fair.

It is announced that the G. T. R. company will now widen the roadbed of the new overhead bridge on Queen street to 22 feet. This is considered by residents who use the road as too narrow on account of the upgrade of east and west approaches.

INGERSOLL HAS SERVICE.

INGERSOLL, June 29.—A public thanksgiving service in connection with the signing of the peace treaty was held at 3 o'clock this afternoon on the Central school grounds. The attendance was large, and an inspiring program was carried out. Mayor J. V. Buchanan delivered a stirring patriotic address, emphasizing the great part that Canada had taken in the war. He was followed by the Rev. R. J. M. Perkins, who had charge of the thanksgiving service. Others who assisted were: Capt. (Rev.) Munroe, recently returned from overseas, who conducted the service in St. Paul's Church today in the absence of Rev. Ronald MacLeod; Rev. F. W. Waters and Ensign Woolcott of the Salvation Army. Music was furnished by the Salvation Army and Citizens' band.

WHISTLES AT ST. MARYS.

ST. MARYS, June 29. — The siren whistle, a C. P. A. locomotive whistle and the town bell sounded the news to the public, that the peace terms were signed by the Germans.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why You Should Have Your Family Doctor Remove Warts

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG,
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University).

DR. HIRSHBERG

Warts are not only ugly things, but they are at the same time annoying and sometimes dangerous. If you suffer from the presence of warts on your fingers, for example, they are irritating beyond measure and sometimes they even make your "blood run cold" on account of the queerness of feeling they create.

Warts are dangerous things to have, because you are almost always inclined to tear them off. Sometimes you even go so far as to bite them out of their places root by root. Thus you are liable to get blood-poisoning or you may develop a scar or bring about a condition much more to be dreaded than the original wart.

Warts sometimes disappear of their own accord, but more often they do not. If the wart happens to be on a part of the human fabric other than the hands or the toes, it is wise not to tamper with it yourself, for the outcome may be one that you may eternally regret. You can afford no scars or blood-poisoning on any portion of the face, neck and chest. If, therefore, your wart happens to be in any of these regions it is well to seek the aid of the professional for quick and permanent removal.

It is practically true that the presence of many warts indicates a diseased condition of the scarlet fluid. When this is true a physician should be sought to prescribe internal remedies. It is best to consult a doctor as soon as these growths appear, for if the trouble becomes firmly rooted it is more difficult to do away with.

Colorless iodine will sometimes remove warts. To use it the spot must be touched morning and night. This application may, after several days, make the roughness peel. It will not have any effect if the trouble is deep-seated. In this event caustic becomes one of the best agents; it is rubbed evenly over the spot to be removed. It is disfiguring at the time, as it turns the surface black.

Before you apply caustic the protuberance should be trimmed close to the soft skin with a sharp knife that has been antiseptically cleaned, either by dipping in alcohol or boiling water. The wart should not be cut so it will bleed.

Caustic is bought in small sticks in wood tubes at any drug shop. The point is that caustic burns, and that it eats away skin with which it comes in contact.

If it is rubbed over proudflesh the result is a sore spot. Every other day, or as soon as the blackness shows the least signs of wearing off, more caustic should be put on. This method is tiresome, but if faithfully followed very often cures.

A mistake made by inexperienced persons is to stop its use as soon as the wart is reduced to the level of the skin surface. In that instance the roots are left and the protrusion soon flourishes again. The pencil must finally be put in below the outer skin level, and the roots worked over until they, too, are completely gone. Nitrate of silver is used in the same way.

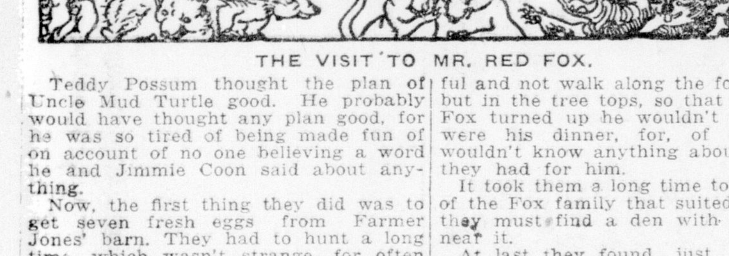

Answers to Health Questions

A WELL-WISHER. Q.—What can I do for perspiring hands?

A.—A little nutgall ointment or formaldehyde water in the hands may check the moisture. Frequent washing with castile soap assists.

THE VISIT TO MR. RED FOX.

Teddy Possum thought the plan of Uncle Mud Turtle good. He probably would have thought any plan good, for he was so tired of being made fun of on account of no one believing a word he and Jimmie Coon said about anything.

Now, the first thing they did was to get seven fresh eggs from Farmer Jones' barn. They had to hunt a long time, which wasn't strange, for often the hens had a hard time to find their own nests.

Then, another hard thing was to keep the eggs after they had found them, for the eggs were so fresh they had to eat a lot themselves.

It took them two whole days to eat enough eggs themselves, and to pack the seven eggs for Mr. Red Fox.

If you ask me how they carried the eggs and never broke one I don't know, for they seemed to be the hardest thing to do, and afterwards when everyone wanted to know how they could do such a hard thing they couldn't tell one word. They said that was their secret.

Then they had to make a long journey 'way off to one of the dens of the Red Foxes. They had to be very careful and not walk along the forest paths, but in the tree tops, so that if Mr. Red Fox turned up he wouldn't think they were his dinner, for, of course, he wouldn't know anything about the eggs they had for him.

It took them a long time to find a den of the Fox family that suited them, for they must find a den with a big tree near it.

At last they found just the right tree, and they had to sit and wait for Mr. Red Fox. He had been away for several days hunting, and he was making up his sleep.

But it was a pretty sight to see his little Foxes playing out before the big front door of the house. They were so cunning an pretty. Almost as handsome as their handsome father.

Jimmie Coon and Teddy Possum never tired of watching them. Jimmie called to them softly and said, "Hey, there, little ones! Go and tell your father some people are here with nice fresh eggs to sell cheap!"

So in ran the little Foxes.

Tomorrow—Jimmie Coon as an Egg Merchant.

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND

ADELE GARRISON'S NEW PHASE OF

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

What Mr. Stockbridge Told Miss Holcombe Over the Telephone.

The long spring afternoon seemed interminable after Milly Stockbridge's departure. The day had begun with a cool temperature, but the mercury rapidly climbed until by mid-afternoon it registered one of the unseasonable degrees of heat which often spoil the late spring days. The pupils were too listless even for mischief, and as for paying any real attention to their tasks—that was a hopeless question.

"What are you going to do with yours the rest of the afternoon?" Bess Dean whispered to me at the recess hour. "I'm going to give mine a lot of copying to do. It's too hot to try to teach anything, and they wouldn't get anything out of it anyway."

"Why not let them read?" I suggested, with a flash of pity for the youngsters under Miss Dean's martinet rule.

"What, those brats?" she exclaimed. "Spoil 'em for weeks. Nay, nay, they're used to the iron mitt, and if it is ever lifted I'll have the old Harry's own time getting 'em back again. They'll get a lot of copying done, and little Bessie'll get her schedule all filled out up to date—save me an hour or two after school tonight. You'd better follow my example, but I suppose you're too tender-hearted."

The words were accompanied by one of Miss Dean's merry, flashing smiles, but I was sure there was a covert sneer behind the apparent friendliness. I do not actively dislike Bess Dean, but I cannot approve of her, and I am sure that she cares for me no more than I do for her.

A caustic retort trembled on my lips, but I choked it back, returned her smile with one which I flattered myself revealed nothing of my real feeling, turned back to my classroom, to which a few moments later Alice Holcombe rushed in, pale and breathless.

"Sit down," I commanded, "and don't speak for a minute."

I filled a glass from the ice water carafe, handed it to her and waited until she had slipped a portion of its contents.

"Thank you," she said, looking up gratefully. "But what do you think? Mr. Stockbridge may not be back here for two or three days. And whatever will Milly take into her head to do in the meantime?"

"Did You Tell—"

Her voice trailed off despairingly. I gripped her shoulder impatiently.

"What has happened?" I demanded. "What is taking Mr. Stockbridge away?"

"Why, one of his dearest friends is the principal of a school about fifty miles from here. The man has had a serious accident, and his affairs and school—from what I can gather over the telephone are in a serious muddle. He has been taken to a hospital about five miles from his home, and I guess Mr. Stockbridge is spending all his time traveling between hospital, home and school. He knows everything will go along smoothly here, so he told me over the telephone that he wouldn't be back for a couple of days. He said you and I were to decide everything—sort of a council of two I take it—just as if we possessed his authority."

"Did you tell him about his wife's breaking open his private desk?" I asked with discreetly lowered voice.

Why Not?"

"No—I didn't," she replied with troubled eyes and voice. "I know I should have done so, but he seemed to have so much on his mind that I hated to burden him with anything more."

"I think you did exactly right," I responded promptly, and was rewarded by seeing her face brighten.

"I'm glad you think so," she said. "It was difficult to know what to do. He said he had already notified his wife that he would be gone, asked me if I wouldn't run around and see her while he was gone."

"Oh, you mustn't do that!" I ejaculated with a vivid memory of the "snake in the grass" speech from Milly Stockbridge's lips.

"Why not?" she questioned, startled, then evidently decided I had meant nothing special, reassured me as to her course of action.

"I'm not going to go there," she said. "From what Mr. Stockbridge said over the telephone Milly must have given him no inkling of her visit here or of her discovery. This means that she's brooding over the whole thing, thinking, planning what particularly devilish thing she can best do. I'm not going to get in her way I can assure you. At any rate, Mr. Stockbridge is out of the way for two or three days, and will telephone me when he expects to come back. I'll keep my eyes open, and drop a hint to Milly's people if I find she's kicking over the traces. Oh, dear, there's that telephone again. It seems to me I've answered it a million times today."

"I'll go," I said, and sped down the stairs. It was a long-distance call, and when the connection was finally secured it was Lillian's voice that came to my ears.

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

TUESDAY, JULY 1.

This promises to be a day of most conflicting probabilities, as the planets are operating in a contrary manner. While the malefics are in positions of potential evil, certain aspects moving beneficially "take the curse off" these operations, and support the propitious auguries. However, it would be inadvisable to attempt any important change, removal or journey, and by way of injunction the health should be made a matter of important consideration, and possibilities of accident should be avoided. On the whole, things should prosper—especially heart affairs, for it is prophesied that "the young shall court and marry."

Those whose birthday it is are promised a prosperous year, though they should look after their health and avoid change. A child born on this day will be kind and affectionate, energetic and courageous, but may meet with much calling for fortitude and resistance.

American and British People, Brothers in Arms, Forever To Be Brothers in Peace

LONDON, June 28.—King George has sent the following message to President Wilson:

"In this glorious hour when the long struggle of nations for right, justice and freedom is at last crowned by a triumphant peace, I greet you, Mr. President, and the great American people, in the name of the British nation. At a time when fortune seemed to frown, and the issues of the war trembled in the balance, the American people stretched out the hand of fellowship to those who on this side of the ocean were battling for a righteous cause. Light and hope at once shone brighter in our hearts, and a new day dawned.

"Together we have fought to a happy end; together we lay down our arms in proud consciousness of valiant deeds nobly done.

"Mr. President, it is this day one of our happiest thoughts that the American and British people, brothers in arms, will continue forever to be brothers in peace. United before by language, traditions, kinship and ideals, there has now been set upon our fellowship the sacred seal of common sacrifice."

2,000 DELEGATES, AT LEAST, EXPECTED TO LIBERAL CONVENTION

Ottawa Hotel Accommodation Is Expected To Be Taxed Beyond Capacity, and Arrangements Are Being Made For Housing in Exhibition Building.

OTTAWA, June 29.—It has been decided that the national Liberal convention, which is to meet at the capital during the first week in August, will hold its deliberations in Howick Hall, at the exhibition grounds. At least 2,000 accredited delegates are expected, and as many of them will bring their wives, it is expected that the hotel accommodation at the capital will be insufficient.

To meet this situation arrangements are being made for the lodging and feeding of several hundred people in the buildings of the Exhibition Association.

Arrangements have been made with the railways for special fares from all parts of Canada for those who attend the convention.

Ald. Wilson's Resolution To Give Increased Fares

Text of Motion Presented to Council and Defeated.

As there has been some curiosity in the city concerning the exact wording of the resolution submitted to the council last week by Ald. Wilson and Drake, suggesting the permitting of increased rates for street car service, the motion is here given in full, together with the names of those who voted for and against it:

Whereas, the trades and labor council have presented a petition to the council of the corporation of the city of London praying that the London street railway be granted an increase of fares, in order that the street railway employees may be granted an increase of wages, and the cars recently withdrawn from the city lines may be restored;

And, whereas, the London Street Railway Company have expressed their willingness to negotiate with the city of London an agreement accepting the proposals of the trades and labor council, with certain modifications;

And, whereas, it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition of the trades and labor council;

Be it resolved, that an agreement be entered into with the London Street Railway Company providing for a readjustment of street railway fares, as follows:

1. That the present workingmen's tickets, which are nine for 25 cents, be made eight for 25 cents.
2. That the regular or day tickets, which are seven for 25 cents, be made six for 25 cents.
3. That the regular six for 25 cents hereinbefore provided be good as car fare on Sunday within the city.
4. That the Springbank fares be the same on Sundays as on week-days.

That the agreement be only for eight months, provided:

1. That the London Street Railway Company shall obey the order and direction of the engineer.
2. That the company agree to give their employees such portion of the increased receipts as will be satisfactory to the men.
3. That nothing in the agreement shall prejudicially affect the provisions of bylaw No. 916.
4. That the company agreee to indemnify the corporation from all loss, should any court of competent jurisdiction declare that the council had no power to enter into this agreement, and that the city solicitor and special street railway committee be instructed to prepare a bylaw and agreement accordingly, and a special meeting of the council called at as early a date as possible for consideration of the said proposed bylaw and agreement.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

NO FLAGS TO BURN.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I read in your issue of this morning the Sinn Feiners have been burning the British Flag in Dublin. The proper way to punish these people would be to deport them from Ireland and intern them in Victoria Park, London, Ontario, where they could not carry out such rebellious practices, as there are no flags there to burn. At least there were none there on Sunday afternoon when I attended at the park with other loyal citizens to participate in the peace thanksgiving service. What was the matter with the committee of arrangements for that historic celebration when they did not provide even one small flag in honor of the event?

E. W. M. FLOCK.

June 30, 1919.

IN PARABLE FORM.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

In relating the story of his life Frank McCullough says, "I was but one month over fifteen years old, nevertheless I was sentenced by Judge Latshaw to ten years in the penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo.

Recently also there was almost an exact duplicate of McCullough's case at North Bay, where a boy of fifteen, who was sentenced to several years' imprisonment by a magistrate, afterwards narrowly escaped commiting murder in an attempt to escape, for which he got seven additional years tacked onto his sentence.

In view of these facts your readers may be interested in the following translation of a fragment of an Egyptian Papyrus recently discovered: "And on the last day the Lord Osiris sat on the great whie throne to judge both the quick and the dead.

"2. And there stood before him a young man, who many years before had been condemned to death and executed.

"3. And the Lord Osiris said unto the judge and the jury, and to all those who had willed the lad's death, 'Behold, what hath this man done?'

"4. And all those who had willed his death answered and said, 'Verily he did kill a man.'

"5. And the Lord Osiris answered and said, 'this lad is indeed guilty, but there are others who are more guilty. Were there not, O ye people, his parents who brought him up like unto a young animal, who fed not his mind with good literature, but who suffered him to form his ideals from dime novels?'

(Note. Egyptian word Netos signifying a small coin).

"6. Were there not also those who went to church and heard my words ...

'Thou didst not visit me when I was in prison,' and yet forgot that this boy ever existed?

"7. Lastly, was there not the judge who condemned a lad of fifteen years to ten years in the University of Hell?"

"8. Why, then, O ye who willed or approved the death of this lad, did ye not punish the most guilty, why did ye not hang this unrighteous judge.'

"9. And the adversary, who stood near, said unto the Lord Osiris, 'what then shall be done to those who willed this lad's death?'

"10. And the lord answered and said, 'The gate of heaven shall be closed against them, until this lad, purified by successive rebirths, has passed through.'"

HONOR RETURNED MEN AS WELL AS FALLEN, AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Special Service of Thanksgiving Held on Sunday Evening.

Thanksgiving for the signing of the peace treaty was incorporated in the special patriotic service in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening, arranged for some time owing to the fact that Dominion Day falls tomorrow.

Referring in the course of his sermon to the fact that two memorial services had already been held in the church for the men of the congregation who had made the supreme sacrifice, Rev. W. J. Knox declared that no less worthy of honoring in a public way were the men who came back; the men who equally had offered their lives, if they had not been called upon to lay them down in the service of King and country and a righteous cause.

Special music suitable to the occasion was rendered by the choir and soloists under the direction of George C. Lethbridge, organist and choirmaster. Following the service a reception was held in the school room for the returned men of the congregation, many of whom were present. Refreshments were served by the Service Band of the church, a club of young girls.

FORMER MAYOR OF BIRMINGHAM, ALA., INDORSES TANLAC

"You Will Hardly Know Me When We Meet Again, For I Am Getting Well," He Writes Friend.

One of the latest additions to the list of leaders of thought and action who have come forward with their unqualified indorsement of Tanlac is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former mayor of Birmingham, Ala., ex-state examiner of public accounts of Alabama, and at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers, the Birmingham-Age Herald.

Writing to a personal friend in Atlanta Mr. Evans says:

"Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 2.

". . . By the way, you will hardly know me when we meet again, because I am getting so well and strong again. As I told you while in Atlanta last month, I have been suffering a long time with gastritis, as the doctors call it—really a disordered stomach, with consequent constipation pains in the shoulders, headache, belching, heartburn, loss of appetite, loss of sleep, and fainting spells. For weeks I could not sleep on my back.

"One week ago, upon recommendation of friends who had tried the medicine, I purchased one bottle of Tanlac and began taking it. Since my second dose I have suffered none of these troubles to which I refer, and really believe I am going to get perfectly well and strong again. Won't that be wonderful at my age? Well, certain it is that Tanlac is a wonderful medicine, and you know I am not given to 'puffing' mere experiments, and am rather orthodox as to materia medica.

"I shall continue the treatment with perfect confidence in the final results.

"(Signed) FRANK V. EVANS."

Commenting on this splendid indorsement of Tanlac, G. F. Willis, international distributor of Tanlac, said:

"Although the list of indorsers is a long one, I recall a few leading names that lend both dignity and credit to the entire array. Some of them are:

"Hon. C. W. Mangum of Atlanta, Ga., for three terms sheriff of Fulton County; Hon. Moser R. Glenn, superintendent of printing for the state of Kentucky; Mr. C. O. Cooper, president of the Georgia Cotton Oil Company; Mr. J. F. Hill, bank president of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Mr. J. F. Corroll, cotton mill superintendent of Chattahoochee, Ga.; Hon. A. E. Anderson of Houston, Texas, for seven terms sheriff of Harris County; Hon. S. S. Shepard, ex-city councilman of Atlanta, and many others whose names have heretofore been given to the public."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug Company, and by an established agency in every town.

Hogs—Fed and watered, cwt, $22 25; f. o. b., $21 25.

Montreal, June 30.—The receipts at the west end cattle market for the week were 700 cattle, 600 sheep and lambs, 3,200 hogs and 2,400 calves. The offerings this morning amounted to 400 cattle, 400 sheep and lambs, 2,100 hogs and 1,600 calves. There was practically no trading at all at the market this morning, owing to the strike of the employees of the Montreal abattoir. Hogs were nominally quoted at $22 50.

The offerings at the C. P. R. stockyards this morning were 550 cattle, 400 sheep and lambs, 1,000 hogs and 900 calves. During the week the offerings of live stock at this market numbered 375 cattle, 320 sheep and lambs, 1,200 hogs and 850 calves. Similar conditions prevailed here as at the west end market, and little was done on local account, although there were some shipments dispatched. Prices quoted were more or less nominal, with a tendency downward.

GRAIN.

Chicago, June 30.—Open: Corn—$1 78¼; September, $1 75¼.

Oats—July, 68¼c; September, 68½c.

Chicago, June 30.—Decided upturns in the price of corn resulted today from scarcity of offerings. Attention centred largely on the fact that stocks in store are meagre, and that the movement of new wheat threatened to retard the handling of other grain. Besides, the outlook for the new crop was reported as only fair. Opening prices, which ranged from ¾c off to 1c advance, with September at $1 75@1 75½, and December at $1 53½@1 53¾, were followed by a sharp general ascent to well above Saturday's finish.

Oats were stronger with corn. After opening ½c lower to ⅛c gain, including September at 68¼@68¾c, the market scored a moderate advance all around.

DRESSMAKER SAVED FROM OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time.

Ithaca, N.Y.—"Three years ago I suffered from pains in my right side, so severe that I could not raise my feet from the floor. Pains would shoot down my limbs and through my back, and the doctor said I had an abscess. I was in bed two weeks with an icebag on my side and expected any day that I might have to go to a hospital for an operation. A friend came to see me and told me of your wonderful medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it, and after taking six bottles I feel well and strong, do my own work and do dressmaking for others. I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and recommend it to others who suffer with female trouble. It is a Godsend to ailing women, and you may use my name at any time."—Mrs. PERMILLA HULSIZER, 218 E. Fall St., Ithaca, N.Y.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

INFLAMED GUMS—THE CAUSE OF TOOTH-BASE DECAY

Just as the strength of a building is dependent upon its foundations, so are healthy teeth dependent upon healthy gums.

Permit the gums to become inflamed or tender and you weaken the foundation of the teeth. This condition is called Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease). Loosening of teeth is a direct result. And spongy, receding gums invite painful tooth-base decay. They act, too, as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infecting the joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) attacks four out of five people who are over forty. And many under that age, also. Its first symptom is tender gums. So you should look to your gums! Use Forhan's, which positively prevents Pyorrhea if used in time and used consistently. It also scientifically cleans the teeth—keeps them white and clean. Brush your teeth with it.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

35c and 60c tubes. All Druggists.

NOTICE!

TO ALL EMPLOYEES OF THE TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.

For the purpose of advising all workers that a settlement has been made between the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Postmaster-General, and informing them of its provisions, we publish order No. 3209 issued by the Postmaster-General.

The Order is as follows:

"POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Washington.

Order No. 3209. June 14, 1919.

Employees of telephone companies shall have the right to bargain as individuals or collectively through committees or their representatives chosen by them to act for them. Where prior to Government control a company dealt with representatives chosen by the employees to act for them who were not in the employ of the company, they shall hereafter do so. The telephone companies shall designate one or more of its officials who shall be authorized to deal with such individuals or representatives in matters of better conditions of labor, hours of employment, compensation or grievances and such matters must be taken up for consideration within five days after presentation.

Such employees shall have the right to organize or to affiliate with organizations that seem to them best calculated to serve their interest, and no employees shall be discharged, demoted or otherwise discriminated against because of membership in any such organization, as prescribed in Bulletin No. 9, issued by me, dated October 2, 1918. In case of dismissal, demotion or undesirable transfer, of employee where no real cause is shown by company for said dismissal, demotion or undesirable transfer, it shall be considered that discrimination was practiced and upon such finding the employee shall be re-instated to former position with full pay for time lost or shall be reimbursed for any loss sustained by reason of demotion or transfer.

Inability or refusal to perform the regular work of position occupied by them, excessive use of intoxicants, dishonesty, incivility to subscribers or the public shall be considered sufficient cause for dismissal.

Where requests or demands are now pending, the telephone companies shall immediately proceed to negotiate a settlement.

All telephone companies are hereby directed to comply strictly with the requirements of this order, and failure to do so on the part of any official will result in disciplinary action.

(Signed) A. S. BURLESON,
Postmaster-General."

It will be noted this settlement recognizes the rights of the employees of the telephone companies to bargain with the employers individually or collectively as they may desire. It recognizes the right of such employees to organize or affiliate with such organizations as they desire. The order prohibits discrimination against any employee for joining an organization, and further provides that in the case of discrimination which results in dismissal, demotion or undesirable transfer, as a result of employees joining a Union or Organization, that they shall be reinstated with full pay for the time lost and shall be reimbursed for any loss sustained.

The order also provides the telephone companies shall designate one or more of its officials to deal with such individuals or representatives in the matter of conditions of labor, hours of employment and compensation or other grievances, and that all demands or grievances now pending, the telephone and telegraph companies shall immediately proceed to negotiate with the proper representatives of the employees, for settlement.

Many employees are working in localities remote from their respective headquarters, and it is considered that the most practical way of providing them information concerning the settlement, and relative to their rights and privileges, is through the public press.

All employees of the telephone companies, in either the mechanical or operating department who may have grievances, or desire to take up the question of wages, working conditions, hours of employment, are requested to proceed in the manner provided by order No. 3209, and where such employees desire the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers to represent them, they should file their request with Mr. W. Costello, 497 Quebec street, city of London, Ont., or take the matter up direct with the International headquarers of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Fourth Floor Reisch Building, Springfield, Ill. Respectfully yours, INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS.

JAMES P. NOONAN, Acting Int. President.
CHARLES P. FORD, International Secretary.

DAZZLING ARRAY OF FASHIONS IN FILM AT THE MAJESTIC

Ethel Clayton and Charlie Chaplin in Double Bill Now Showing.

In "Men, Women and Money," Ethel Clayton's latest film success, showing at the Majestic today in conjunction with Charlie Chaplin in "Doughnuts and Dynamite," a dazzling array of the latest fashions is shown.

The story written by Cosmo Hamilton is entertaining and full of dramatic scenes. The following is a synopsis of the story:

Marcel Middleton, a girl from a small town in the Middle West, suddenly finds herself face to face with the necessity of working after the death of her parents by an automobile accident. Marcel is a product of a fashionable school and unable to really cope with life. She visits school friends in New York, and there drifts with a fast set which occupies itself principally with playing bridge. Marcel is able to make quite a little money at cards, but overestimates her luck and finds herself in debt. She is compelled to accept a check from a society idler who is interested in her, but the man makes advances to her in return which can be interpreted only one way. The girl is disgusted with herself and at her mode of living and becomes a model in the establishment where she was in the habit of buying her clothes. In the meanwhile the society idler is awakened also to his worthless existence, and he interests himself in settlement work. Eventually the man and girl are brought together again, and each confesses a love for the other.

Charlie Chaplin, in "Doughnuts and Dynamite," at the Majestic today, Tuesday and Wednesday. Also Ethel Clayton in "Men, Women and Money."

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IN HIS LATEST COMEDY SHOWING AT GRAND

Also Norma Talmadge in Her Newest Feature Film, "The Probation Wife."

A double feature bill will be the offering at the Grand all this week. Commencing at today's matinee, three performances will be given daily at the usual summer prices. Charlie Chaplin's third million-dollar comedy, "Sunnyside," will share headline screen honors with Norma Talmadge's great success, "The Probation Wife," a select act of

Charlie Chaplin in "Sunnyside"

At the Grand all this week. His third million-dollar and the first to be issued in seven months. Also Norma Talmadge in "The Probation Wife," and vaudeville.

Keith vaudeville and overtures by the Grand orchestra will be included in the bill.

"Sunnyside" is the name of a funny little country town, where Charlie has a job as general utility man for the owner of an establishment which is store, postoffice, hotel, farm and various other things combined. He is kept busy at the toe of the boot of the boss, who yanks him out of bed at daybreak. See Charlie get breakfast, coaxing a hen to lay an egg in the pan, and bringing a cow into the kitchen to get milk for the coffee. See him clean up by cutting the grass off the brick floor with a lawn mower. Funny, it's too funny to try to tell about. Charlie falls in love with the village belle. But—bitter fate!—along comes a smart city chap who knocks Charlie's eyes out with the girl. Despite his artless "greenness," Charlie is "there" as usual, triumphing over his tormentors and winning the beauty.

Norma Talmadge in "The Probation Wife."

Norma Talmadge, the beautiful Select star, will appear in "The Probation Wife," which is the story of a girl, who is the most popular attraction at a notorious cafe. Later the place is raided, and she is sentenced to three years in the reformatory. She escapes at the end of the second year. On the train she meets the man who had tried to aid her to escape from the cafe, and she offers herself to him for food and shelter. Much to her surprise he marries her. She calls herself his probation wife. Love makes a different woman of her, and they become true husband and wife.

Boyce Coombs and Company.

Boyce Coombs and Company will be the vaudeville feature. Coombs is one of those finished entertainers with gobs of talent, appearance and an immediate likable personality. He is billed as "The Different Singer," and as such is sure to make a decided hit. Burton Brown accompanies him on the piano.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S NEW PICTURES CAN BE SEEN ONLY AT THE GRAND

The management of the Grand wish to state that this theatre has the exclusive rights of presenting Charlie Chaplin's new million-dollar comedies. This series of pictures released through the First National Exhibitors' Circuit can be seen in London only at the Grand. Any statement on the part of other amusement places in this city to the effect that Charlie Chaplin's new pictures can be seen elsewhere than at the Grand are entirely false, and are nothing more or less than a misrepresentation of facts. Reissues of old Chaplin comedies masquerading under the title of new films are not and cannot be compared with the latest productions of this world-famous comedian. All Chaplin's new pictures bear his signature, and as already stated can be seen in this city only at the Grand.

Evelyn Nesbit, in "A Fallen Idol," showing at the Patricia today, Tuesday and Wednesday. Also a Sunshine comedy, "Virtuous Husbands," and the Robbins family in vaudeville.

THE GIFT OF AN ARTISTIC PICTURE REFLECTS YOUR ADMIRATION OF THE GOOD TASTE OF THE RECIPIENT.

The pleasure it gives is lasting, thus its value increases.

DUNDAS CENTRE CLASS HAS DAY AT SPRINGBANK

Young Ladies Enjoy Picnic With Novel Events.

The young ladies of Class 27 of Dundas Centre Methodist Church Sunday school held their annual picnic recently at Springbank, when upwards of 60 members and their friends attended. members and their friends attended. That the ladies of this class have the art of making everyone feel at home was amply demonstrated in the different events that were run off, all of which were well contested.

Quite a little amusement was created in the events of the evening. To see men and women running up to a clothesline and pulling out clothespins with their teeth, while their hands were tied behind their backs, provoked much merriment. That men can hang out clothes in record time at a picnic (something which they never attemptn to do at home) was a novel feature of the games. One man pinned two or three articles together, but was barred out. Some men and women found it easier to walk backwards than forwards. That they were not all Irish by name who won the potato race was easily seen. The elopement race was many Gretna Green would-bes, and it surprised many what poor judgment they had when it came to throwing a ball at a bell suspended in a hoop.

A well-laden table of good things was enjoyed by all, at which a pie-eating contest provoked much fun.

The following is the list of successful prize-winners, who each received articles that were on a par with their efforts, and these were presented by Ben Noble.

French tag—Everybody won.

Potato race—Mr. Collamore, Miss Hannah, Mrs. D. C. McNaughton.

Clock race—Miss Trace, Dr. Downham and Leonard Tait.

THE GREAT LAKES.

One of the most delightful trips offered for summer vacationists is the one via the Northern Navigation Company's steamers plying between Sarnia, Sault Ste. Marie, Port Arthur and Duluth. The boats of this company, operating in connection with the Grand Trunk Railway System, are the largest passenger steamers on the Great Lakes. They are magnificently equipped and the service afforded is unsurpassed. The route is also a delightful way to reach Western Canada. Ask any agent of the Grand Trunk for illustrated folder, giving full particulars, or call, or write, to C. E. Horning, D. P. A., Toronto, Ont.

HARD WORKING WOMAN

Knows From Experience That Nothing Equals Vinol to Create Strength.

Holndel, N. J.—"I live on a farm, and am a hard-working woman, and for weak, run-down, overworked conditions have found nothing that will create an appetite, build me up, and make me strong, equal to Vinol."—Mrs. Thomas Ellis.

The reason we recommend Vinol for such conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy, and all of its ingredients are printed on each package, which will prove that it is a safe and valuable remedy to create strength for weak, run-down, overworked men, women and childre

WOULD IRISH AUTONOMY NECESSITATE CHANGE IN UNION JACK OF BRITAIN?

Discussion on This Point Rife Among Irishmen in City.

Home rule for Ireland is the subject of prolific discussion now among local Irishmen. In one instance a rather interesting point was under consideration. It was as to whether the granting of autonomy to Ireland would affect the form of the British flag.

One man contended that the red St. Patrick's cross would have to be deleted from the Union Jack, which would then consist only of the perpendicular red cross of St. George the diagonal white cross of St. Andrew, and the blue ground.

His argument was that, as an autonomous dominion, Ireland would no more be entitled to emblematic representation in the flag than is Canada or Australia. As the only authoritative source of information is the British College of Heralds, The Advertiser is not able to verify or disprove the contention. However, it's an interesting point to discuss during the dog days

MEN! MEN! TRY IT TONIGHT— FEEL FINE TOMORROW

Simple Way To Get "Pep," To Be Put Right On Your Feet.

When a man has lost ambition to "dig in" and stay at things—when he complains of headache, fullness in the right side, pains in the shoulder blade—it's purely a case of "Liver."

These symptoms invariably indicate a clogged, inactive liver. The body can't get rid of its wastes, and the whole system is half-paralyzed.

Dr. Hamliton's Pills stimulate the liver into activity in one night. Being a mild vegetable laxative they produce results in a few hours. The bilious headache and constipation are cured, spirits rise, complexion clears, animation returns. Nothing in the calendar so efficient for that tired, lazy feeling as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Very mild, don't interfere with work, invariably do lots of good. Try a 25c box, all dealers.

LABOR UNION MEN AT CHURCH SERVICE IN CHELSEA GREEN

Speaking to the labor unions of the city on Sunday evening in Chelsea Green Presbyterian Church on "The Church and Its Relation to Industrial Conditions in the World," Rev. John Crawford, B.A., said: "The church must become a mediator between the opposing elements in democracy, capital and labor of the world.

"The last five years has seen a greater advance in democracy than the previous 500 had given. The day of the common man has come. Sanity on the part of the employees and employers is asked for, and a fair wage for the workingman, sufficient to support his home."

It was proposed that the men at the end of the year share in the profits of the firm for which they worked. Across the border, it was said, this system had been adopted by many concerns.

"Along this line," said Mr. Crawford, "is settlement of the industrial disputes in Canada and the United States."

VICTORIA PARK SUNDAY CONCERT

The largest crowd which has attended the Sunday evening band concerts this season filled Victoria Park last night to hear the Canadian Garrison Regiment band, under the direction of Bandmaster W. J. Basher.

The program included Fuhrer's selection, "The Battle for Democracy," depicting the entire course of the war from the outbreak and entrance of the Allied nations to the end. The concert was held under the auspices of the I. O. D. E.
