SHARDPER AND CARDIFAL WISEMAN.—We join in the hope, and look forward to the issue of the struggle with confidence, because we know that the vast majority of the people of England are as firmly opposed to the iscursions of Rome as were their marryred foreightes. The Protestant feeling of the country will soon be roused, and we had a striking proof in our town on Tuesdey night, that it is by no means dormant at present. Mrs. Panny Kemble was reading the fine historical play of King John, when she came to the reply of the Monarch to the Romiah Cardinal:

Thou can'st not, Cardinal, devise a name

The last lines drew forth a lorg and spontaneous cheer, which amply proved two things—that the language of Shakspere is fitted for all ages, and, that resistance to the tyranny of Rome exists, as an innate principle, in the minds of Englishmen. Cheltenham Journal.

Movement in the Church.—We wish to prepare the public for some very extraordinary and exciting work in the Church of England before many weeks have elapsed. If our information be correct—and we have every reason to believe it is—certain Bishops have received hints, which admit of no mistake, and from a quarter which they dare not disregard, to the effect that they must forthwith adopt the necessary steps to sid their respective Dioceses of certain Clerical gentlemen whose Romish tendencies are so noto-tions and the second properties of the Right Reverend Prelatesto Whom we allude consists in this—that they have hither to been the bosom friends and apicial patrons at these Puseyite Clergymen. It must necessarily de giolence to their feolings, either to eject these man from their livings, or enforce perfect conformity in doctrine and ceremonies to the requirements of the Church. How, for example, can the Bishop of London proceed to expet the Rev. Mr. Bennett, the chief Romaniser among the Metropolitan Clergy, after having, so late'as June last, eulogised him as his particular friend, and as the very mode of an Anglical Clergyman? That will be a point for the special consideration of Dr. Blomfield himself; and when it comes, as come it must, that he execute to the section of Mr. Rennett, the MOVEMENT IN THE CHURCH.-We wish of the special comes, as come it must, that he self; and when it comes, as come it must, that me must proceed to the ejection of Mr. Bennett, the Right Rev. Prelate will have this conclusion—that he is only adding one more to a long catalogue of previous inconsistencies. But, whatever may be his feelings, or those of other Puseyite Prelates similarly circumstanced, there must be a clearance of these Rev. Romanists. Indeed, we may add that should there be any hesitation on the part of the Bishops, in acting in accordance with the intensal made to them, they will probably soon discover that means will be devised to get rid of themselves.—Marning Advertiser.

A Minacle IW Parried—A Living Bear destroyed by a Dead Scient.—The Priesthood of France are determined not to be behind the rest of the world in minacles; but the manner in which they seek to increase the number of the faithful is more interesting and romantic than the winking Virgins of more clumby confrivers. They are assiduously promulgating a story of the destruction of a monatrously big Bruin by the ghost of St. Bruno. A huge and ferpoious bear has long apread terror amone the peasantry of the Chartrense Dessert, and devastation among their cattle—When the snows appeared dast month, the Brute became particularly impudent. One might the child of a woodman belonging to the Monastery of St. Bruno was taken ill. The father set out in the dead of the night to the Monastery, and obtained from one of the fathers a bottle of Medicine, with which, after a hasty prayer to the Virgin for the usfety of hie darling, he returned towards his but in the midst of a raging tempest. He cared little for the storm, however, but he terribly feared the ferceious bear. He had to cross a ravine over the trunk of a tree, and just as he had reached the middle of the narrow bridge, on which it was impossible to turn, he saw the big bear writh gnashing teeth awaiting his arrival. The torrent reared helow, and the poor man expected nothing but death. In his extremity he srayed to St. Bruno; a light appeared, that saint stood heside the bear, handed the poor man safely amons, at the same time dashing the bear into the ravine, where its body was found next moming. The child recovered, and the woodman reliable. The minacle to the fathers, and returned thanks for his preservation. The skin of the bear is exhibited in Paris, and sermons have been preached on the woodrous event.—Datly Messe.

-I regret that it is not in my power to repor

Such reference would be accompanied by a copy of the Chairer sought to be obtained, and no doubt the editor of the Globe is in a position to obtain, if not the perusal, a knowledge of the contents of the document. Then we have the public statement of the Bishop himself, made at the opening of the Upper Canada School of Medicine, that he had so far anticipated future arrangements as to have made provision for securing the services of two eminent Professors, now in Europe. Add to this, that there has been no position denial of the Globe's description of the draft.

Mn. MERRITT'S ORGAN.—It is well known that the St. Catherine's Journal is the organ and mouth piece, of the Hon. William Hamilton Merritt. In its number last but one, it contains an Ed tional article, upon the subject of a Federal Union of the Colonies, which scheme it cordemns. The doctrines which Mr. Merritt has teen preat hing turough the country for some years, are distinctly set forth, and warmly applauded; particularly he total repeal of all Customs Du ies; the une ntrolled management of our own affairs; the abolition of the expanses of Criminel Justice; and the maint nance of British Connexion, so long as it may be the interest of Canada to preserve it. But one, present object is not so much with Mr. Merritt's theories, as set forth in his organ, as with the following admissions, which are contained in the name article, and which look rather against at the present moment.—

No doubt Shemstone did the amiable to the Minister in a very conspicuous manner—in requital of some favor more substantial, I believe, than a that of having Esquire added to his name. In the Second Riding of York, Franklin Jakes, Warden of the County, who proposed Mr. Price at the last election so a fit and proper person to represent the Riding, has avowed his determination to take the stump against his quondam friend—whether in the shape of a candidate, or as an electiousering agent, is unusured, best is not aministry. Algoriteki, Jana 24, 1850,

Among the objects of attraction at the late Industrial Fair, the celebrated Plautaguet Water held a conspicuous position, and its galitimus was uttended, we learn, with the most favorable results. The demand all the begin for this health-unspicing teaught, was so urgest that it was with great difficulty strangers and visitors to the city could be supplied. The celebrity of these Mineral Springs has been so thoroughly hill satisfactorily estimitable distant testimony of the most valuable character seems daily accomplished. The delibrity respectable constitutions in our paper of days will, of possible, increase their reputation, and and to their value broughout the Province. The testimony of the most valuable character is certainly highly favorable to the character and qualify of these Springs—Ors. One had nearly lost all power in the right arm, the result of accurrenting grounder draw favorable to the digestive and afinite interforgator. The administration of the Water is attended with the happiest result in constitution, arising from securion crevitations, and in signification, arising from securion of the kidners and however, it should be taken in mining the mean of the providence of which we captured in the right of the which we develop there is over action of the kidners and however, it should be taken in mining from an extensive aspectance of any well latisfied with the operation of the Water, to weak persons it is quite palutable, and I deem it preferable to any other in the Mineral Waters as a great boun conferred by Providen PLANTAGENET WATER.

Many months experience in the use of the Planta-genet Waters in my practice have fully convinced use of their waters in my practice have fully convinced use of their waters are medial agent, and I have not had sea-son or my single occasion to refer their we. I mist har they selform disnurce with the stomach, and always not as a gentle sperient said slegatings, and, from their cont-nosition, they possess, in addition, decidedly touic pro-perties.

1 Certainty, too much his not been said in their favor, for they are, probably, the most valuable Waters on this Continuant.
