BANQUET PROVED DELIGHTFUL ONE

Speeches, in Which High Order of Patriotic Spirit Was Revealed, Was the Order of Things Last Night-- Splendid Success Was Achieved.

The banquet of the Board of Trade held last evening in the Kerby House was a most brilliant and pronounced success.

Mr. C. A. Waterson (President) in the chair, handled the toast list with common sense celerity. It was proposed to have the event through by midnight and it was only a few minutes after that hour when proceedings closed--a great and commendable improvement upon the two or three o'clock in the morning endings.

Mr. C. A. Waterson (President) in the chair, handled the toast list with common sense celerity. It was proposed to have the event through by midnight and it was only a few minutes after that hour when proceedings closed--a great and commendable improvement upon the two or three o'clock in the morning endings.

On the right of chairman Hon. Graham, W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., Rev. Mr. Woodside, Lloyd Harris, Mr. Bissette, Canadian Trade Commissioner, R. Scarfe, E. L. Gould; to the left, Hon. Mr. Hearst, W. S. Brewster, M.P., Mayor Spence, F. D. Reville, J. Muir D. B. Wood.

Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., proposed the toast to the Dominion of Canada. Mr. Cockshutt in his opening remarks expressed his pleasure at being present and stated that he was very proud of the Brantford Board of Trade.

Victoria, B. C., Conservative For First Time in 30 Years

THE FIRST COURT PROVED VERY BRILLIANT

Their Majesties Received Assembly at Buckingham Palace Last Night.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—A London cable to the Herald says: The first court of the season was held by the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace last night.

Among the society brides presented were Princess Arthur of Connaught, Viscountess Ipswich, Lady Petrie, Lady Crichton, the Duchess of Sutherland, the Hon. Mrs. Percy Wyndham, and the Hon. Mrs. Ronald Kitson.

Many Irregularities in Welland Voting

Temperance Forces' Lawyers Predict Election Will be Declared Invalid.

WELLAND, Feb. 14.—J. F. Gross and W. E. Raney, K.C., who will represent the temperance forces at the election scrutiny which opens next Tuesday, say the whole election will be declared invalid not only on the grounds of irregularities at the polls, but also because an improper ballot was used.

Bride Pawns Presents To Secure Fare Home

Four-weeks Wife of U. S. Lieutenant Flew From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Military circles at the Presidio are wrought up over the disappearance of Mrs. Lieutenant Oliver Stelling McLearly, a bride of four weeks, who has gone back to her home in Chicago, pawnning the silver service given to the couple by officers of the Sixteenth Infantry for fare.

Secure Grounds For Troops Near City Of Belfast

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—A cable to the New York Times from London says: A Belfast despatch to the London Times says it is reported from Dunganon that the War Office authorities have taken over Roughan Park, Tyrone, for the use of troops in case of any emergency arising on the passing of the Home Rule bill.

Judge Scores The War Office

Experience, He Says, Not Necessary in Order to Secure Position.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—A cable from London to The Herald says: At the resumed hearing of the Army libel action yesterday, Justice Darling expressed the opinion that apparently it was unnecessary for a man to have had experience in the army to fit him for the War Office.

Major Adam continuing his evidence in support of his action for libel against Sir Edward Ward said the latter had told a deliberate lie about him.

Bank of Hamilton To Increase Capital

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—The Bank of Hamilton is giving notice of an application to the Treasury Board for approval of the by-law increasing the capital stock of the bank from three to five million dollars.

CITY PLAYED A WAITING GAME

Consequently Brantford Beat Mr. Kellett's Offer for the Street Railway Yesterday--Looks as if Matters Will be Brought to Successful Issue.

Street Railway Situation Given in a Nutshell

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes items like 'Cash offer to bondholders by city' for $90,100 and 'Mortgage, Colborne St. power-house' for 1,500.

In return for this the city gets the Street Railway and Grand Valley, lock, stock and barrel, and the 38-year franchise is wiped-out. The Grand Valley will be wiped out, and it is estimated $50,000 secured from its disposition.

When it comes to a David Harum street railway deal this city is not far behind. On the arrival of the Mayor and city officials in Toronto yesterday morning they immediately repaired to the room which in the olden days, was always given to Sir John Macdonald at the Queen's Hotel.

It was then and there that the data was collected from the different officials and the offer arrived at, no one having had any previous idea what it would amount to.

Mr. W. P. Kellett in forming an estimate of the value of the road out on the deal yesterday. This was on which to base his offer had figured the opinion expressed by civic authorities some time past by Mr. Fisher.

Mayor Spence and City Solicitor Henderson, and City Treasurer Bunnell were well pleased this morning with the result of yesterday's work.

GOVIN SPEAKS

Declares That the Graft Probe Has Been Made to Serve Party Politics.

QUEBEC, Feb. 14.—A plea that no action be taken against J. O. Mousseau, the resigned member for Soulanges, as a result of the charges made against him by The Daily Mail and proven, was contained in a motion presented to the Lower House yesterday afternoon by Hon. L. A. Taschereau, chairman of the Lower House probe committee.

On this motion and an amendment providing practically that the committee be reconvened, and that an investigation be started which would mean an examination of every member of the House, the members of the Legislative Assembly debated all afternoon and until one o'clock this morning without any vote being taken or any result being achieved.

The Opposition, represented by Messrs Tellier, Prevost, Cosineau, Bernabé and Bernier, attacked the work of the committee throughout, the rulings of the chairman, Hon. Mr. Taschereau, and claimed that public opinion had not been satisfied.

The House then adjourned till Monday at 4 o'clock. In the Upper House in the afternoon, Hon. Thos. Chapias, chairman of the committee which investigate the Early Mail's charges, against L. P. Berard and Archibald Bergevin stated that the proper course to have been followed was to have had a royal commission appointed as was at first intended.

BOARD OF TRADE BANQUET.

A gathering, such as that in connection with the Board of Trade annual banquet, is nothing less than an inspiration. The committee were exceedingly fortunate in securing the attendance of two outside speakers such as Hon. George P. Graham and Hon. W. H. Hearst. Both are very busy men, Mr. Graham in the House at Ottawa where he is the right hand man of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and Mr. Hearst, in Toronto, as head of one of the most important departments of the Ontario Government. To both, a visit to this city must have been attended with inconvenience, in the one case, because of a House in session and in the other case because of preparations for a session, yet they came and they conquered. It is not going too far to say it is rarely the privilege of anyone to listen to two such striking speeches in the one evening. Both were at the top of their form and delighted everyone.

Hon. Mr. Graham traced the history of Canada and showed in succinct terms how the whole structure of Confederation had been based on a spirit of compromise. For a like spirit he earnestly pleaded as between East and West of today and he made an excellent suggestion that it would be a good idea for factory goods producers of the East to meet personally more often with the soil producers of the West. A hand clasp and a face to face talk over mutual matters would accomplish more than any legislation which might be placed on the Statute books.

Hon. Mr. Hearst had a marvellous story to tell with regard to Ontario, the Northern portion of which in recent years there has been such a marvellous development and greatly added territory. It was a big theme handled by Mr. Hearst in a big way.

THE INDIAN RESERVE OUT-RAGE.

Reference has been made to the fact that the Borden Government has decided to endeavor to have the courts cancel the sale of the St. Peter's Indian Reserve in Manitoba. This transaction is one of the blackest stains upon the Laurier Administration, and when the full facts of the case are known will astound the people.

Hon. Dr. Roche, Minister of the Interior, has, during his short term of office, given a great deal of attention to the matter, and after investigating the whole transaction thoroughly has decided that the case be brought before the courts, with the object of having the deal cancelled and the land returned to the Indians from whom it was taken.

The St. Peter's Indian reserve transaction of 1907, by which the Liberal Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier virtually took 48,000 acres of the best land of Manitoba from the poor Indians they were supposed to protect, is a matter that affects the honor of the whole country. It was an outrage against everything that was fair, against everything that was decent as between the government and their poor wards, who, the country believed, were watched over and protected by the government. The manner in which the Liberals discharged their sacred trust towards the wards of the people generally is well exemplified by the way in which it secured and manipulated the surrender of the St. Peter's Reserve at Selkirk.

The land is situated within 25 miles of the City of Winnipeg. The Red River passes through the centre of the Reserve, and the banks on each side of the river are high, making it ideal farming land. The Liberal government that made the boast that its policy was the land for the settler and not for the speculator, with this boast still warm upon its lips and still ringing in the ears of the people, lent itself to this nefarious transaction, by which nearly 35,000 acres of the 48,000 acres passed into the hands of a few of its political friends for less than one-third of its actual value. The poor settler, about whom the Liberal government was so much exercised, for whom the late Government proclaimed to the country it was keeping the lands, were forced to go to these landed gentry, the friends of the government, who obtained the land for a mere pittance, and pay, not twice as much, nor three times as much, but actually eight and ten times as much as Hon. Frank Oliver allowed these speculators and party heesters to secure it for.

STREET RAILWAY.
There is daylight at last in connection with the Street Railway question. It has been a lengthy process to get matters to the point of unravelling the tangle as between two sets of bondholders, and the recognition of the just rights of citizens for a proper and an up-to-date service, but this thing has now been accomplished. From court to court, and step by step the way has been cleared until now the Corporation is in the position of having made the best offer of purchase. This means that a loosely drawn franchise yet to run for over a quarter of a century, can be ended and that municipal operation is, possible if so desired.

The citizens, of course, will first have to pass upon such things, but at this time there does not seem to be any reason why the city cannot most seriously consider the running of the system. In this regard it should be remembered that we now have another municipal plant in the matter of Hydro-Electric, and that power could be taken from that system. The more of said power used the less the cost to private consumers. On the face of it an interchange as between these two utilities would be of very great all-round advantage.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

His name is Hearst, but he is altogether too live a man to be heard.

Uncle Sam is more and more having "a clean and a sane" July 4th. Now Brantford proposes to have a clean and a sane Old Home week.

Mayor Spence and others associated with the Street Railway outcome are to be congratulated. As for the work of Mr. W. T. Henderson, as City Solicitor; well he has once more demonstrated that he knows how.

Reference has already been made to the splendid annual report of the Brantford Royal Loan and Savings Company. Complete details of last year's operations will be found elsewhere in this issue. Brantfordites are naturally proud of this efficient local institution and of the thoroughly efficient manner in which its affairs are administered.

Paris News

PARIS, Feb. 14.—"Alice in Wonderland," the beautiful extravaganza, which has been played here for the last two nights drew large crowds to both performances and pleased everyone.

Little Winnifred Felker, made a charming Alice and played her part exceedingly well. Among the animal characters, Clive Bourne as the cat, was the best, and his antics were extremely funny. Mr. McBean as 'Tommy Atkins, the sailor boy' sang splendidly and the double sextette composed of Miss Mylne, Miss Adams, Mrs. Kinney, Miss Pelton, Miss Lavery, Mr. Brown, Mr. Inkster, Mr. McBean, Mr. Bromrose, Mr. Kinney and Mr. Armstrong, was well received. Kingsley Purton as a Coster man proved himself a natural comedian. All through the characters were very well chosen.

A special matinee performance takes place this afternoon. Mr. John S. Dickson of Campbellford, a frequent visitor to Paris, was killed on the railway near Belleville a week ago when on his way to Paris. It is supposed he stepped off the train by mistake.

The Paris Citizens Band will hold their annual carnival at Paris Rink next Friday night.

The public school children got a holiday one day this week, owing to a break in the heating apparatus.

Football Applications

Applications for entrance to the Brantford and Paris football league much reach the league secretary at 30 Ontario St., not later than Tuesday, 17, as this is the closing date for entrance to the league. The league requires referees for the season of 1914, and all gentlemen who wish to act in this capacity should write to the league secretary.

The Porcelain Tower

"Here we are, and here we remain until fate chooses to release us," said Smith gloomily as he faced Dick within the locked room.

"Have a light, can't you?" was Dick's first question.

Presently a lantern diffused soft light around the dusty room, which was lined with niches, in each one of which was a rather battered idol. Except for a straw pallet on the floor, a jug of water and a bowl of rice, the room was empty.

"What are you doing here?" asked Dick.
"Had a tip from a Chinese friend that our houses were to be looted and burned today. I sent you word, and I've taken refuge here after making an observation from the pinnacle and seeing the brigands coming from one direction and the soldiers from another. Between the two forces our bones would be picked quite clean."
"After they pass we can get away?" asked Dick thoughtfully.
"Maybe," smiled Smith, "provided they don't take it into their heads to level the tower to the ground."

"Wish you could give them a stiff rod of iron. You know they are rather suspicious of this place."
"I know it. Give me time to think."
For a long time Smith sat on the floor with his head in his hands. At last he arose and uttered a triumphant whoop.

He darted to a carved chest thrust in one corner and from it dragged a stiff rod of yellow brocade, soiled and dusty and almost falling to pieces with great age.

"If they linger along till dusk I think I can scare them stiff with this priestly garb," he chuckled. "You know one of the traditions connected with this place concerns an old priest of Buddha who starved himself to death the better in order to attain celestial rewards. The superstitions say that sometimes the spirit of this old priest comes back to the tower, hungry and forlorn, and cries for food and drink. I shall be that old priest for awhile. Watch me!"

When Smith's tall, gaunt frame was wrapped in the yellow robe and his black snuff was stuck on his dark hair Dick confessed himself amazed at the resemblance to a Buddhist priest painted on one of the porcelain panels of the stairway. The disguise was perfect.

The two men sat and talked beside a tiny window that gave a view of the road to the city.

"If they only wait until dusk we can scare 'em off, and then we can get away," Smith repeated over and over again.

The day wore on, and although they caught occasional glimpses of approaching soldiers, they did not make much progress, for there were much halting and disputing. It was almost twilight when a company of ragged soldiers stirred the thick white dust of the road near the porcelain tower.

"They're going to halt there, just as I thought. They're taking pot shots at the tower. See the ancient cannon they are dragging along."

Dick looked out and saw all the things Smith described. He saw more, for he noticed that they were preparing to load the cannon and gunners were pointing it toward the porcelain tower.

"Deuce take it, we're in for it now!" muttered Smith.

"Get into your robes. Scare 'em off, man. You can do it. I know the Chinese like a book. They'll stare it if they see that old yellow back on the balcony of the tower." Thus Dick encouraged his friend while he helped Smith into the yellow robe.

While the gunners were loading the cannon there came the sound of fierce cries from the south, and a band of tattered brigands came racing through the dust of the road.

At the instant Smith stepped through a door that led to a small balcony that encircled the tower and, lifting his arms in their flowing sleeves, shrilled down at them a mixture of American slang and bad Chinese that hushed the riotous crowd below.

How long he stood there he never knew, but his arms grew stiff and useless and his neck cramped with its rigid attitude.

The long silence of the crowd below was broken at last by a shrill screech of terror from a brigand. That was the signal for panic. In ten minutes the long dusty road was empty and a full moon smiled wanly over the place where superstition still held sway.

"Ten years from now this could not happen," said Smith as he entered the city that night with Dick beside him. "The last remnants of superstition and ignorance are flying northward this very moment chased by their own fears. China has awakened, roused and nudged off again for another forty years. After that—well, we'll all have to keep pretty wide awake to keep up with her."

Dick Evans, who saw a very profitable business going to the dogs, nodded ruefully. "There's just one consolation in the whole affair," he murmured, "and that is that it forms an excellent excuse for getting back into God's country again, and I'm going."

FUTURIST DRESS RAGE IN LONDON

Bond Street Sees Three-story Gowns and Pudding Hats

BISHOP'S MITRE WORN Man's Top Hat Worn Upside Down With Startling Colors.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The season with its accustomed blooming of new fashions is not yet with us, but a walk down Bond Street even now gives the mere male much food for thought. There was seen a day or two ago a radiant creature in a Bakit three-decked dress and a tall velvet hat like a bishop's mitre. Her triple-tinted skirt of purple silk was draped and fastened in an intricate way. Her shoes had purple heels. Never before have such fantastic conceptions in women's dress been seen in public. The influence of the Russian ballet and the futurist imagination have produced a frenzy of color and design. Spring will reveal the true extent of the "new art" fever that began as a mild disease at Covent Garden, crossed the footlights before the danger was fully realized and is now epidemic in what some people call "the world of fashion."

The public is gradually becoming resigned to the futurist taint. A young woman tripped down Piccadilly wearing what can only be described as a man's top hat upside down, built in dark blue velvet, with a band of red, white and blue silk twisted round the lower half of the structure. Save for a taxicab chauffeur who looked at her mournfully, then ostentatiously covered his eyes, she went her way unnoticed.

A little pale sunshine wandered into Bond Street early this week-end. The mistaken impression that Spring had arrived, it was hopelessly worsted in the competition with Bakit-Furist disciples, who marched under prismatic-hued headgear and so retired early from the fray.

A fifteen minute stroll through Bond Street yielded the following list of weird costumes.

Fur Anklets in Full View
A middle aged woman wearing a brown tailor made costume in three sections, the two upper ones exactly like two morning coats for men, the shortest reaching hardly to her waist. A tall young woman with a cone-shaped hat of black velvet at least foot high tilted rakishly on the back of her head.

A woman who wore a purple velvet hat shaped like a Christmas pudding, with a black aigrette, a white aigrette and a red aigrette impaled at different angles.

An elderly woman in a black velvet dress embroidered in silver, carrying a Pekinese dog that snuggled from an enormous tartan bowler. A woman with fur anklets, who did not mind showing them.

There are pagoda dresses, many layers that the wearers have like so many jigsaw puzzles, they have been solved successfully.

Outside the futurist radius, what might have been seen as happy as what noddily person, whose trousers and flapping fragments of boots were tied with strings, had a couple of waistcoats and the remains of a lounge coat under a frock coat of mature age; his hat and coat was jammed over his shoulders. He, too, was in the fashion.

The Royal Loan and Savings Company THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Thirty-Eighth Annual General Meeting of the shareholders was held at the Company's office on Wednesday, February 11th, 1914, at 3 o'clock. W. G. HELLIKER, Manager.
We hereby certify that we have examined the Books, Accounts and Securities of the Royal Loan and Savings Company, and have found them correct. The Statement of the Assets and Liabilities, Profit and Loss and Cash Account, as shown above, is a correct exhibit of the Company's affairs at 31st December, 1913.
FRED W. FRANK
CHAS. J. PARKER, C.A. Auditors.

Brantford, Jan. 7th, 1914.

In moving the adoption of the report the President made the following remarks:

"The year 1913 was one of unsettled financial conditions, involving upon the management of all monetary institutions more responsibility than usual. Early in the year, anticipating the situation, a more conservative policy than usual in the conduct of our affairs was adopted, and with very good results, as the report in your hands indicates. I may say that our attitude to the public is to a large extent three-sided. We have to offer rates sufficiently remunerative to attract deposits, maintain our assets in such form as begets confidence, and satisfy, as far as possible and prudent, the applicants for loans. I am glad to assure you that we have succeeded in meeting these conditions. We have adjusted our rates on deposits and debentures so that we now offer 3 to 5 per cent. per annum, according to term, our assets are in a very satisfactory state, especially have we maintained a very high percentage of cash and quickly available securities amounting at the close of the year to $227,562.00, being 61 per cent. of deposits, and we have met the demands of borrowers to the extent of $357,216.00 of new loans. The world-wide demand for money was unprecedented, resulting in the raising of rates on loans, in which we have shared. I would call your attention to one item under receipts in cash statement, viz.: $438,647.86 from interest and instalments on loans and principal repaid. This large sum came over the counter in the ordinary course of business, and it gives you some idea of the liquid character of our assets. The interest and principal payments falling due during the year have been well met. Of the interest due on Western mortgages, 79 per cent. had been paid by the end of the year, and in Ontario 96 per cent., a very good record, indeed. If we take these same conditions towards the end of January (because quite a percentage of this overdue interest matured late in November and December), the figures would be 85.70 per cent. for the West and 98.77 per cent. for Ontario, or of all interest falling due for the year, 89.60 per cent. has been paid. The Auditors' Report and the balance sheet is in your hands, and is, I believe, a correct exhibit of the affairs of your Company to date, and I do not think calls for any further explanations.

"There is another matter which has engaged the attention of your Board, viz.: the Dividend. Your Directors are disposed to deal generously with the shareholders in the division of profits, but we must remember that we are large borrowers of capital by way of deposits and debentures, and it is most important to keep on strengthening our position by increasing our Reserve Fund from time to time, and we ought to not only maintain but increase this Fund, the policy which has brought your Company to its present splendid condition. While it is true that loaning rates have been higher in 1913 than previously, there are not wanting indications of a more plentiful supply of money, which will tend to lower rates and lessen profits. However, if the financial horizon continues to clear up and we can see an average year coming (of which we have no reason to doubt) your Board has decided to raise the dividend to eight per cent. per annum, to take effect the third quarter of the year, viz.: from and after the 1st of July.

"The Brantford Trust Company continues to make steady progress, and I may take this opportunity of reminding you that this is your Company, and any business you can influence, not only your own, but other, will be appreciated.

"Your Directors desire to place on record their confidence in Mr. Hellicker, the Manager, whose devotion to the Company's interests could not be surpassed. The office staff continues to discharge their duties satisfactorily."

The Report was seconded by C. B. Heyd, Vice-President.

Messrs. F. W. Frank and C. J. Parker were appointed Auditors for the year 1914.
At a meeting of the Board of Directors held after the close of the Annual Meeting, Christopher Cook was elected President, and C. B. Heyd, Vice-President, for the present year.

est empire under the sun. (Applause.) If you look through the acts of parliament you will find that everything has been done for the betterment of this great land.

Ontario House.
Mr. W. S. Brewster proposed this toast in a brief manner, as he felt that Hon. Mr. Hearst should be afforded all the time possible. He and Mr. Hearst had entered the House at the same time, namely, 1908, and his inclusion in the Cabinet had been an excellent choice. He wished to heartily thank Hon. Mr. Graham, on behalf of that gathering, for his inspiring and patriotic address. The speaker said he did not think that the people of Ontario fully realized the great magnitude of their own Province or that within a short period it had been so greatly enlarged. He knew that they had a great treat in store when Hon. Mr. Hearst, Minister of Lands and Mines, would tell them in detail of their grand heritage.

Hon. Mr. Hearst.
In reply, expressed the great pleasure which he experienced in being present at so magnificent a gathering. Like all the rest, he had enjoyed every word of the address of Hon. Mr. Graham, and with him he would express his sorrow, and he knew theirs, over the sickness of two old-time opponents and political gladiators, Sir Geo. Ross and Sir James Whitney. He had once been a neighbor of the latter, and he could tell them that underneath what some termed a bluff exterior no man possessed a warmer heart. Both Sir James and Sir George, although differing politically, were most ardent imperialists. Sir Geo. Ross and Sir James Whitney, with great eloquence told the story of Ontario in general and of the northern portion in particular. He gave a great many figures, but presented them in a most striking and effective manner. This province was the keystone of the Dominion arch. Recently its territory had been greatly enlarged, and it now had a total of 407,262 square miles, or 146,400 square miles more than formerly. In the new district of Patricia alone there were 26,000,000 acres. There was much talk of the great Northwest, and properly so, too, but Ontario in every direction, agricultural as well as otherwise, was the banner province.

Every mineral that can be used is to be found in New Ontario. Ontario possesses over 41 per cent of the minerals of Canada. The dividends for last year of Ontario amounted to considerably over $50,000,000. We are just on the threshold of the development of minerals in Ontario. Not only have we minerals in Ontario but also we have great timber forests, and splendid agricultural facilities. The timber industry is a great facility in the dividends in the coffers of the Provincial Treasury. One of the things Ontario is doing is establishing great forest preserves, in which no settler is allowed to live, in order to preserve the timber for years that are to come. There is only one way to establish industries in the newer part of Ontario, and that is to give away large tracts of forest for paper mills to locate there. Prospects for industries to go to these parts of the province are very good, and Mr. Hearst spoke very enthusiastically of them. The waterpower of the north country is very great. Streams in that country are capable of giving over 2,000,000 horse power, and will no doubt in the near future be one of the great centres of commerce in this great country. It was his opinion that in the near future, Canada will be one of the greatest countries of the world, full of great possibilities, which are unlimited. We are trying to improve facilities for education and trade in Northern Ontario, as much as we can. One other thing that ought to interest this city as a manufacturing city, is the immense sum that is spent in Northern Ontario for purchasing facilities.

As Canadians, we ought to be proud of our progress in the last few years, and looking into the future we cannot help but see the great possibilities that this country possesses. To my mind, it is one of the greatest heritages we have, to say that we are part of the greatest and the most glorious empire the world has ever seen.

Our Guests.
This toast was proposed by Mr. E. D. Revile, after which came "For they are jolly good fellows" and a response by Mr. D. B. Wood, chairman of the Hamilton Board of Trade. Mr. W. B. Wood recalled the old days when he was a member of this Board of Trade, and he was very glad to get back to the city. In his opinion the skilled laborers of both Brantford and Hamilton were doing a great work in the turning out of national products in manufactured form. He joined Mr. Cocksutt in his invitation to the local Board of Trade to send delegates to the great convention of the Boards of Trade of the world, which is to be held in Toronto next year.

Mr. Burnley gave a very humorous recitation entitled "Sir Wilfrid de Jollette" which was greatly appreciated.

City Council and Board of Trade.
Mr. Westbrook, M.P.P., proposed the toast to the City Council and the Board of Trade. He said although he was not a member of the local Board he was very glad to be present. Mr. Westbrook made a witty speech. Mayor Spence in replying to the toast to the City Council, stated that we cannot help but feel proud of the fact that we are natives of Canada after listening to the two addresses from the visiting members of Parliament. He was proud to be Mayor of Brantford, and fully appreciated the flattering remarks of the visitors. He welcomed the visitors on behalf of the City Council, to the city.

Mr. C. A. Waterous replied very briefly. He gave up his time to Mr. Bissette, the Trade Commissioner to South America. Mr. Bissette has been absent from English speaking nations for over 19 years and it was a pleasure for him to be present. He said he was of the opinion that the future of the country was one of grand possibilities. He said that he found business men of Canada were anxious for larger markets. The changes in Canada during the last two and a half years were marvellous. Export traders of to-day want a square deal and no doubt they will get it. Of course there are difficulties, but they are bound to be overcome. He said he found three of Brantford's industries represented in South America.

In the Republic of Argentine alone there is an import trade of $500,000,000 a year. In that country the natives have an expression they use when they are telling the truth and it is "The word of an Englishman." Proceedings closed with the National Anthem. The Brant Dragoon Orchestra discoursed sweet music and fine songs were rendered by Dr. Hart, and Mr. Ernest Roberts. Mr. George Hatley, Secretary, was most indefatigable and all the committees worked well.

Letters of Regret.
Among the letters of regret were the following: "From Lt. Col. W. N. Ponton, President Associated Boards of Trade: Belleville, Ont., February 7, 1914. Dear Sir,—I appreciate very much the kind invitation of the president and members of the Brantford Board of Trade to be present at your annual banquet on Friday, Feb. 13th, and regret exceedingly that having to be in the north part of the county on that day it will not be possible for me to attend. I hope that this annual banquet may be but another mile stone of progress to your enterprising city, which certainly sets the pace in municipal and commercial development. I trust that we may have the pleasure of welcoming many of your delegates, officially and personally, at the annual meeting of the associated Board of Trade of Ontario to be held in Toronto on February 24th and 25th, when in addition to an array of interesting resolutions, some special addresses will be delivered on subjects in which we are all vitally interested. Yours very truly, W. N. PONTON."

Forwarded Account.
T. J. Minnes & Co. have forwarded an account to the city for some repair work.

Chief of Tariff Lines.
A Grand Trunk bulletin says: Mr. J. B. Macpherson is appointed chief of tariff bureau (lines east of Detroit and St. Clair Rivers).

Went to Toronto.
Rev. J. W. Gordon of St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, today, where he will preach for Rev. J. J. Maxwell. Mr. Maxwell will occupy his former pulpit in St. Andrew's church on Sunday.

Are Not Charged.
"Consignees who secure goods through the examining warehouse of the customs department are not required to pay any cartage fees whatever, as was reported in a local paper this week." This was the statement on Friday of one of the officials. The local teamster is hired on a flat rate and not on the fee system. He brings the packages to the warehouse and later effects delivery.

Bible Study Class.
The Blodgett Study Bible class held their first meeting yesterday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A. when Mrs. G. W. Barber gave the first of a series of Portraits of Jesus. She took Him as the Son of Man, and her inspiring address greatly assisted those who had the privilege of hearing her in their spiritual endeavor. The classes, which are to be held every Friday afternoon, are not confined to Y. W. C. A. members; all women are invited to hear the speakers.

Bengough Coming.
Mr. J. W. Bengough, who on several previous occasions, has delighted Brantford audiences to give another of his unique entertainments on Tuesday evening, the 17th inst. at 8 o'clock in the new Y. M. C. A. hall. Mr. Bengough is too well known and his ability as an entertainer, so highly appreciated that but little need be said as to the variety and attractiveness of his programme. He draws, sings, acts, recites and does all equally well. If he excels in any one thing it is in the expression of his pictures which are up to the minute, real works of art and fun provoking.

The Power Contract.
It developed at the meeting in Toronto yesterday that the street railway was tied up with the Cataract Company for eight years to come for the supply of power, and Mr. W. T. Henderson announced very plainly that the city in taking over the road, would not adhere to this contract. Apparently the City Solicitor has good grounds for taking this stand. The city is really taking over a bankrupt concern, and when such is the case, all contracts are dead, and new ones have to be made. It is reasonable to anticipate that the courts will look at it this way. The matter is an important one, as the railway will prove, if the deal is consummated, a great customer of Hydro Electric, and the people will derive indirectly a great advantage from this feature.

The First Mortgage.
No trouble is anticipated in settling with the first mortgagees, the Canadian General Electric Company, who hold a first mortgage of $125,000 against the street railway. It was announced yesterday by Mr. Patterson, that the Canadian General would be entirely satisfied with the deal, because they would be sure of getting their money from the city.

Might Have Raised It.
The determination of the city to put in a bid, and the good faith shown by the civic representatives, was a surprise to the interests represented by Mr. Kellett. It was believed that the offer of purchase of these interests would have been much larger, had it not been for the good business shown by the civic representatives and the clever manner in which plans were made. There was a net difference of $13,400 between Mr. Kellett's offer and that of the city.

The City's Offer.
The city's offer was made up as follows: Payment of cash, $90,100, payment of first mortgage, $125,000, payment of interest on first mortgage three months, $3,125. Mortgage on Brantford car barns $4,000; mortgage on Colborne street power house, held by Water Commissioners, $1,500. Back taxes, $25,000 approximately.
People to Ratify It
Brantford taxpayers will be called upon to ratify the purchase at an early date. It is anticipated that there will be little opposition to the purchase measure, although an active campaign will be launched in this regard to make things sure of the by-law's success.

Mr. Kellett Congratulates.
Mr. W. P. Kellett, when seen this morning, said: "Mr. Henderson, City Solicitor, should be congratulated by every one in the manner in which he has conducted the city's legal actions against the Grand Valley and Brantford Street Railways and for the manner in which he has conducted negotiations which have resulted in the city securing an option on these properties for a sufficient period of time to enable the ratepayers to carefully consider, before concluding their purchase, the value of these railways to the city as a municipal undertaking. "In securing an option on these properties, in the face of a cash offer, Mr. Henderson has accomplished all that he set out to do, as he has now placed the matter in the hands of the ratepayers for their final disposition."

Laid at Rest
The late Mrs. Gee
The remains of the late Mrs. David Gee were conveyed to their last rest, yesterday when the funeral took place to Mt. Pleasant from the late residence, Maitland street. Inspiring and impressive services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Loney. There were many sorrowing relatives present, including a large number of members of the Immanuel Baptist congregation of which church the deceased was an honored and respected member. Floral tributes were numerous and were sent from the following bereaved friends:
Pillow, husband and family; Wreaths, Mr. P. E. Scott, Mr. D. McPherson; sprays, Mr. Weaver and Doris, Mrs. A. Finlayson, Mrs. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. L. Winegardner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gee and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Symonds, Grades 10 and 14 Central School, Mr. and Mrs. M. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Watt, Miss Florence McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jennings, Pastor's Bible Class, Ladies' Aid Society and Mr. and Mrs. Beemer.

BICYCLES GALORE, POLICE ENQUIRY WAS LAUNCHED

Two Residents of Dun das St Charged in Police Court This Morning.

A room at the Police Station this morning resembled a second-hand bicycle dealers store, much more than it did a respectable quarter of the house of law.

Therefore Detective Chapman aided by P. C. Tyrrell visited the house of the pair and confiscated the doubted goods.

Merry Conflict Between Houses Is Under Way

[By Special Wire to The Courier] MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—A London cable to the Daily Mail says: The conflict between the two Houses of Parliament, already emphasized by the House of Lords' amendment to the address, will be further illustrated next week in another direction.

Football Competition

All that is necessary is to cross out in ink the names of the teams which the competitor thinks will not win. In case the intention is to designate a draw, both teams should be crossed out.

Prophecies on Completion of G. T. P. Railway

Third Avenue: The Business Section of Prince Rupert, B.C.

Linking Up The New Transcontinental

In Prince Rupert they are already talking about the golden spike which is to be driven into the Grand Trunk Pacific within three months, at the latest, to link up that system so as to make it operative from ocean to ocean.

Quake Put Well Out of Business

A curious coincidence was noted at the Court House in connection with the recent earthquake which was felt in the city. The gas well at the Court House, simultaneously with the tremor of the earth, gave out, and the officials are at a loss to explain the reason of the circumstance.

PARIS PRESBYTERIANS HAD SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Doubled Givings to Missions, Made Improvements and Have Balance.

PARIS, Ont., Feb. 14.—The Presbyterian church, Paris, has just held its annual business meeting, and 1913 is shown to have been an exceedingly successful year. The amount of the donations were double the amount of the previous year; there was a comfortable balance over after meeting all current expenses, and after making the annual payment on church debt there was a balance on hand of $217.

TWO SMALL CHILDREN WILL LOSE THEIR FEET

BRACEBRIDGE, Feb. 14.—Most pathetic was the tale which drifted in from the country to-day of the affliction caused to the small family of a struggling farmer named Henry Bark, whose wife and three small children were driven into perishing weather last evening by the burning of his home.

Tots Wandered Off

In the excitement which followed while the neighbors came hurrying to the scene from all directions, the two barefooted children wandered away unnoticed towards Baysville, two and a half miles distant. When found both children had their feet so badly frozen that all four will have to be amputated, it is said. The fire occurred about ten miles from Bracebridge.

LYRIC THEATRE CHANGES HANDS

And Hamilton's Theatrical War will Now Be Averted.

HAMILTON, Ont. Feb. 14.—The passing of the control of the Lyric Theatre this week into the hands of the Canadian Theatres Company, Limited, with headquarters in London, Ontario, averts what promises to be a very disastrous vaudeville war here.

Call for Tenders

Tenders are being called for today for the erection of the Elm Ave. Methodist Sunday school.

Finance Committee of Old Home Week Meets

The finance committee of the Old Home Week held an enthusiastic meeting yesterday afternoon, Ald. S. P. Pitcher presiding. There were over 25 members in attendance and the greatest enthusiasm was displayed.

Pay Old Rate Or Sign New Contract

Not a Club But Simply Business, Says Manager Duncan.

"If we supply current to people in this city we will surely expect payment for it," said Mr. Duncan, of the Western Counties Electric Company, when interviewed by a Courier reporter this morning.

The Hydro Electric Co. will not supply current to anyone unless they sign a contract, and neither will the Western Counties Co.

is estimated that a revenue of $2000 can be derived and the matter was left in the hands of a sub-committee composed of Messrs. Pitcher, Hendry, Billo, T. J. Nelson, W. A. Hollinrake and W. A. Robinson.

customer signs a new contract, for a year, as has always been the case. Immediately on the expiration of their old contract the customer and the Hydro Electric Co. are to be presented with a new one to sign.

"We have no hard feelings against the Hydro Electric Co.," said Mr. Duncan. "Of course we tried hard to keep them out, but now that they're here, we accept the situation as merely a competitive one. We want all of our old customers and as many new ones as we can get, and we'll assure them of a square deal in our business with us."

'Ever since Grandmother's time discriminating Canadian women have preferred Redpath Sugar for making marmalade. They have found by experience that they can depend on clear, delicious marmalade, of just the right consistency, when they use Redpath Extra Granulated, and they do not care to risk their fruit and their work with any other sugar.'

NEW MANAGER IS AN A

And Press and P... ain Criticize the System

[By Special Wire to LONDON, Feb. 14] The public are much the more disappointed at the appointment of H. J. Long as general manager of the Long Island Railroad Company. Never before has a man gone abroad to study, and the amount Claude Hamilton, of Great Eastern, of his capable Englishman has caused a deal of railway world. This, un-American, but a system which, it is encourage home tales.

NEW MANAGER IS AN AMERICAN

And Press and Public of Britain Criticize the English System.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Feb. 14.—The press and the public are much exercised over the appointment of Henry W. Thornton, general superintendent of the Long Island Railroad as general manager of the Great Eastern Railway Company.

Never before has a British Railway gone abroad to find a general manager, and the announcement of Lord Claude Hamilton, chairman of the Great Eastern of his inability to find a capable Englishman for the position, has caused a deal of criticism in the railway world. This, however is not un-American, but against the English system which, it is charged fails to encourage home talent and initiative.

The Daily Mail in an editorial declares that the speech of Lord Hamilton in announcing the appointment of Mr. Thornton is a serious indictment against the Great Eastern system. The moral is, The Daily Mail asserts, not that Englishmen are incapable, but that some British railway boards need to mend their ways.

The Daily Express attributes the deficiency of talented railwaymen to British snobbery, which it says holds business and trade in contempt, while struggling and starving in learned professions.

Application to Parliament

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislature of Ontario, at its next Session by the Corporation of the City of Brantford, for an Act—

1. To enable the City of Brantford to raise by way of debentures payable within twenty years, the sum of $2,500 for the construction of a bridge for foot passengers to connect Mary street and Greenwich street in the said City of Brantford, and to pass the necessary By-law therefor without submitting the same for the assent of the electors.

2. To enable the Corporation of the City of Brantford to enter into arrangements with Companies owning poles and wires upon the streets and highways thereof, for removing such poles and wires and placing the same underground and to issue debentures for such sums of money as shall be required to effect such purpose, subject to the assent of the electors of the City of Brantford.

3. To enable the Council of the Corporation of the City of Brantford with the assent of the electors qualified to vote on By-laws for the creation of debts to acquire tracts of land for industrial purposes and to guarantee bonds of any person, firm or company incorporated for the purpose of erecting model houses and buildings for industrial purposes within and without the Municipality, and without the assent of such electors to pass a By-law or By-laws for the issue of debentures to raise moneys to pay any indebtedness arising from any such guarantee.

4. To validate and confirm the following By-laws, namely:—

By-law Number 1261, to provide for the issue of debentures for the sum of $50,000 for Public School purposes.

By-law Number 1270, to provide for borrowing $32,882 upon debentures to pay for the construction of sanitary sewers.

By-law Number 1271, to provide for the borrowing of $44,512 upon debentures to pay for the construction of storm sewers.

By-law Number 1272, to provide for the issue of debentures for the sum of $19,537, secured by local special rates for the construction of concrete sidewalks in the City of Brantford during the year 1913.

By-law Number 1281, to provide for borrowing $37,500 upon debentures to pay for the construction and erection of electric light standards, underground conduits and wires on certain streets.

5. To enable the Board of Park Management for the City of Brantford in lieu of the City Council thereof to undertake as a local improvement the following works, namely:—

Sodding any part of and planting, maintaining and caring for trees, shrubs and plants, upon and in a street.

To enable the Board of Park Management to undertake such a work as a local improvement upon petition, or without petition on the initiative of the Board in the same manner as provided in case such a work is undertaken by a Municipal Council in accordance with the provisions of the Local Improvement Act. Provided always, that the cost of any such work shall be assessed by an equal rate per foot frontage of the property benefited thereby, and shall be placed upon the assessment roll for the municipality and collected and paid in the same manner as taxes for the then current year or next succeeding year, and that debentures shall not be issued for the cost of any such work.

7. To provide that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Brantford shall pay to the Board of Park Management upon the requisition of the Board an amount not exceeding one-fifth of one mill upon the total assessable property of the City of Brantford to provide for the annual care and maintenance of works constructed in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

The existing debenture debt of the said City of Brantford, not including the Local Improvement debt, except the City's share thereof, is as follows:—

General Debenture Debt, including Water Works Debentures, $1,588,847
 City's share of Local Improvement works ..... 22,250

BERLIN JACKS PUT WOODSTOCK OUT

Industrial City Team Wins the Last Game by 3-2 Score.

The Round Berlin 4 2 6 Woodstock 0 3 3 WOODSTOCK, Feb. 14.—Holding the Woodstock juniors to a 3 to 2 score at the Arena last night, the Berlin Union jacks won the right to enter the next series in the junior 2, 11 race. Last night's game, which was witnessed by a crowd of 3500 people, was the fastest junior struggle ever seen in this city. The locals put up a game fight to overcome the four-goal lead secured on Berlin ice, and at one stage had the score 3 to 0. Berlin finished strong, however, and in the last five minutes notched two goals, making the round safe. Half-time score, 2 to 0. Children in goal put up a great exhibition. Schnarr, White and Clayton were the pick of the visitors.

OSHAWA 5, KINGSTON 2 OSHAWA, Feb. 13.—Oshawa defeated Kingston last night by a score of 5 to 2.

TO-NIGHT'S SCHEDULE N. H. A. Ontarios at Torontos. Ottawa at Canadians. Wanderers at Quebec. Northern League. London R. and A. at Sarnia. O. H. A. Senior. Osgoode Hall vs. Toronto Varsity. FEDERALISTS ACTIVE INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 14.—Plans for the new Federal League Park grandstand were approved by the building inspector here today, and a permit for the work, which will cost about $50,000, was issued. The veteran Nig Perrine has been signed by Seattle to play second base. For the past two years he has been playing in the Union Association.

CAMERON AT LAST AMONG DEFEATED

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—Concluding the second day's play of the twenty-sixth annual bonspiel of the Manitoba Association, with one point win over McNamee of Killarney in the Dingwell competition, Cameron of St. Thomas sailed right in yesterday morning and walloped a local rink for his fifth straight victory without a defeat. The visiting quartet had to curl at their best throughout this game, however. It was a seasaw contest in the Parly Flour event, and when the rocks were hoisted Cameron was the winner by the score of 10-9. The stress of the curling appeared to affect the Ontario men in the next draw. Not only did they go down to defeat, but by a decisive count, McGowan of Granites beating them 16 to 7. This game was in the McLaren event. If the Cameron curlers are not accustomed to the rigorous bonspiel play and weaken under the strain of continuous games, they have a poor outlook for the balance of play. They are scheduled for both night draws, but as both games will be played at the same rink they will have an opportunity for a breathing spell at least. One of these games with Pepper of Delaware will attract a lot of attention. Pepper is one of the undefeated skips and has been trimming the star combinations. Cameron will meet him first and then try conclusions with Robertson of Elmwood. Ponsford, also of St. Thomas, is happy because he appears in one of today's draws.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY

Baseball Cleanings Gathered From Winter Quarters of the Great and Near Great. Jess Tannehill is slated to manage the Mayville team in the Ohio State League. Otto Williams, according to report from Kansas City, is to draw his release after eight years' service in the American Association. Manager Larry Quinlan of Terre Haute announces the purchase of Pitcher Louis Loudenrick from Fort Wayne and Pitcher Marion from Milwaukee. Johnny Scigle, who managed the Akron team in the Interstate league last season, until the league blew, will handle the Huntington team in the Ohio State this year. Pete Childs who has given Ports-mouth two pennant winners and two third place outfits has signed up for his fifth year as manager of this team in the Ohio State League. The Montgomery Club of the Southern League, has signed Pitcher Albert (Red) Nelson, formerly with the St. Louis Browns. An attack of rheumatism put Nelson out of the majors. The Western Canada League will open its season May 4 and close on September 7. All teams are supposed to carry 14 men each, and the pooling of the mileage will be on this basis. The Boise franchise of the Union Association has been taken over by M. R. Evans of Salt Lake, who will take active charge and finance it with the assistance of the Boise Chamber of Commerce. Frank Mohler, son of the veteran Kid Mohler, second baseman, will play with the Murray team of the Union Association this season. Mohler is manager of an indoor base ball team at Malden, Wash. Manager Del Howard of the San Francisco team, who tried to reform Tub Spencer, has now signed Benny Henderson and is quite sure that Benny will keep a promise made to stay on the water wagon. Marty Hogan, it is reported, will return as a manager in the Tri-State League, he being the most favored man to lead the Trenton team this season Hogan is now in business at his home town of Youngstown. Philadelphia was the abiding place last season of the two men who lead the major leagues in steady hitting. Frank Baker of the Athletics, having led the Americans in this respect just as Gavy Cravath did the Nationals. I. C. Ehrholt, who managed the Lincoln team in the Illinois-Missouri League last year, has been sold to Troy of the New York State League for $300. He is a first baseman and he landed two pennants for Lincoln. Dan Mahoney who had a trial with Cincinnati in 1913, has been named coach of the Washington and Lee University base ball team, succeeding Al North, now National League umpire. Mahoney is a former Holy Cross Star. Four men who made their home in San Antonio will head Texas league clubs in the 1914 race. They are Clyde Goodwin of the Bronchos, Pat Newman of the Buffaloes, George Leidy of the Oilers and Wallace Frantz of the Senators. First Baseman Monte Pyl, disposed of by the New York Giants to Chattanooga, does not want to play in the South and has written President Berry of the Los Angeles club asking him if he can't make a deal putting him back on the coast. The new Liverpool club in the New England League seeks to secure Freddy Parent from the Baltimore Internationals as manager. Parent's home is in Sanford, Me., and he is said to be anxious to try his hand at managing close to his home town. Tony Walsh, first baseman, is to go back to the New York State League the St. Paul club having sold him to Utica. He was sent out to Vancouver of the Northwestern League last year for more seasoning, and returned at the close of the season. According to the story Hap Myers tells he has a peculiar contract with the Federals. It is to the effect that if he does not feel satisfied with the club he shall be released. And he got $500 for signing that sort of a contract. The new park of the Chicago Federal League club is to be modelled after Ebbets Field. Perhaps this will substantiate Tinker's claim that the Brooklyn owner is the father of the outlaws, letting out Charlie Murphy, Chance's nominee, and Barney Dreyfuss, McCulough's selection. Harry Smith, manager of the New-Hark Indians, has joined the Hot Springs Colony to get a running start in condition on the rest of the team. One of his worries this spring will be developing a new first baseman to succeed Harry Swacina, who finally decided to go to the Baltimore Federals. President McCredie of the Portland Pacific Coast League Club is reported as refusing an offer of $5,000

JOHN EVERS SIGNS $60,000 CONTRACT

$10,000 a Year for Four Years and $20,000 Bonus From Boston. NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Johnny Evers signed a contract yesterday to play for four years with the Boston National League Club at a salary of $10,000 a year and a $20,000 bonus. The contract provides that he should not be traded or sold without his consent, and contained a clause that he should receive additional money if the Boston club finished the season in first, second or third place.

Pension Record Of Viscount Ross

Only Three British Cabinet Ministers Now Receive Aid. LONDON, Feb. 14.—A record in state pensions is established in the case of Viscount Ross, former cabinet minister, whose death occurred recently. He drew a pension of $10,000 yearly for twenty-one years, his total of $210,000 in pension money having been approached only by C. P. Villiers who established the former record of $150,000 at his death in 1898. There are now only three former ministers drawing pensions, Lord George Hamilton, who receives $10,000 a year, Henry Chaplin, whose pension is $6,000 yearly, and Lord Balfour of Burleigh who also receives $6,000. These pensions are drawn under an act of parliament which provides that a former member of cabinet who has no means to maintain his dignity as an ex-minister, may apply for state aid.

TALK OF AN APPEAL IN MURDER OF EDWIN DROOD

Dickens' Students Still Treat the Subject Very Seriously. LONDON, Jan. 14.—There is talk of appeal from the verdict of manslaughter found by the literary jury which recently tried John Jasper for the murder of Edwin Drood. The more serious-minded members of the Dickens Society who expected a careful weighing of evidence with the hope of ending the controversy over Dickens' unfinished novel in which Jasper and Drood were the chief characters are disgruntled because the trial developed into such a farce, "and such a dull farce at that." There were many who did not appreciate the humor which G. K. Chesterton, as judge, and George Bernard Shaw, as foreman of the jury, tried to inject, and the convicted defendant, whose part was taken seriously by F. T. Harry, asserts that there are ample grounds for an appeal if for no other reason than that the verdict was solely the decision of Foreman Shaw "arrived at during the luncheon interval" nearly three hours before the end of the trial as the foreman himself admitted. Most of the jurors had left before the trial ended. Walter Crech, one of the counsel for the defense, is even more severe with Shaw. He declares that the verdict was "typically Shavian and therefore typically farcical and unsatisfactory. It also had the more flagrant defect of being absolutely untrue, for the jurors were not consulted as to its terms." Frank Gardner, who, while manager of the York team of the Nebraska State League last summer, beat up a fan with a ball bat, has forfeited the bond of $800 which he gave to appear in court for trial and it is now announced that York business men who went his security will have to pay. After his release from York Gardner went to Indianapolis, where he got into further trouble by severely injuring a man with whom he had a fight.

IN HONOR OF WEYMOUTHMEN

American Ambassador Will Unveil a Statue. LONDON, Feb. 14.—Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, has tentatively arranged to unveil at Weymouth in June the memorial erected in that town to Richard Clark and John Endicott, two Weymouthmen who took part in the early colonization of America. Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain is a descendant of John Endicott and she assisted considerably in the movement inaugurated by the town council for the memorial. The town of Weymouth, Massachusetts, U.S.A., and the city of Boston, and towns in Newfoundland have been asked to send representatives to the unveiling. The Chamberlain family will also be represented. REV JOHN McNEILL of Cook's Presbyterian Church will speak in Zion Church Wednesday evening, February 18th. ### WERE TRIED AND STOOD THE TEST

Dodd's Kidney Pills Making a Reputation in the West.

Saskatchewan Man Tells How They Cured Him, After Four Months Suffering from Backache and Other Forms of Kidney Disease.

ST. PHILLIPS, Sask., Feb. 13.—(Special)—In a new country where changes of climate and impure water are among the difficulties to be surmounted, kidney trouble is prevalent. It is the kidneys, the organs that strain the impurities out of the blood that first feel any undue strain on their body. Consequently Dodd's Kidney Pills have been well tried and tested in this neighborhood.

They have stood the test. Many settlers tell of backache, rheumatism and urinary troubles cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Otto Olshekski is one of them. In speaking of his cure he says: "I suffered from kidney disease for four months. My back ached, I had heart flutterings, and was always tired and nervous. My skin had a harsh dry feeling; my limbs were heavy and I had a dragging sensation across the loins. "I consulted a doctor, but as I did not appear to improve, I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used six boxes and now I am all right." Dodd's Kidney Pills always stand the test. Ask your neighbors.

A WONDERFUL COLD CURE. Just think of it, a cold cured in ten minutes—that's what happens when you use "Catarrhose." You inhale its soothing balsams and out goes the cold—sniffles are cured—headache is cured—symptoms of catarrh and grippe disappear at once. ### CHAPTER XIV. The Noiseless Death.

RED suddenly made a slight hissing noise that arrested the attention of the others and held them in moveless silence. "I hear something," he whispered. He went to the keyhole of the door leading into the passage. Then he whispered again, "and it's coming this way." "I hear something," he whispered. He went to the keyhole of the door leading into the passage. Then he whispered again, "and it's coming this way." "I hear something," he whispered. He went to the keyhole of the door leading into the passage. Then he whispered again, "and it's coming this way."

At the words Garson snapped his fingers. The room was plunged in darkness. There was absolute silence in the library after the turning of the switch that brought darkness. Long seconds passed, then a little noise—the knob

"I hear something," whispered Chicago Red. of the passage door turning. As the door swung open there came a gasping breath from Mary, for she saw framed in the faint light that came from the single burner in the corridor the slender form of her husband, Dick Gilder.

The next instant he had stepped within the room and Chicago Red had pounced on his victim, the huge hand clapped tight over the young man's mouth. There came a sound of scuffling feet, and that was all. Finally the big man's voice came triumphantly: "I've got him!"

"It's Dick!" The cry came as a wall of despair from the girl. At the same moment Garson flashed his torch, and the light fell swiftly on young Gilder, bowed to a kneeling posture before the couch, half throttled by Chicago Red. Close beside him, Mary looked down in wordless despair over this final disaster of the night.

Garson retired a step farther before he spoke his command, so that, though he held the torch still, he, like the others, was in shadow.

"Get away, Red." "The fellow let go his grip." Freed of that, strangling embrace, Dick stumbled blindly to his feet. Then, mechanically, his hand went to the lamp on the table back of the couch. When the mellow light streamed forth he uttered an ejaculation of stark amazement, for his gaze was riveted on the face of the woman he loved.

"Good God!" It was a cry of torture wrung from his soul of souls. Mary swayed toward him a little, pallid with fear—fear for herself, for all of them, most of all for him. "Hush, hush!" she put out warningly. "Oh, Dick, you don't understand."

"I understand this," he said brokenly at last. "Whether you ever did it before or not, this time you have broken the law." A sudden inspiration on his own behalf came to him. For his love's sake he must seize on this opportunity given of fate to him for mastery.

"You're in my hands now. So are these men as well. Unless you do as I say, Mary, I'll jail every one of them."

"Who's this, anyhow?" Chicago Red demanded.

"I'm her husband," Dick answered. "Who are you?" "Don't speak any of you," Mary directed. "You mustn't let him hear your voices."

Dick was exasperated by this persistent identification of herself with these criminals in his father's house. "You men back there!" he cried. "If I give you my word to let every one of you go free and pledge myself never to recognize one of you again, will you make Mary here listen to me? That's all I ask. I want a few minutes to state my case. Give me that. Whether I win or lose, you men go free, and I'll forget everything that has happened here tonight." There came a muffled guffaw of laughter from the big chest of Chicago Red.

"Your safety depends on me," the young man warned. "Suppose I should call for help?" "You would only call once," Garson said grimly. His hand went to the noiseless weapon in his coat pocket. "Once would be quite enough."

"You win," Garson said, with a half laugh. He turned to the other men and spoke a command. "You get over by the hall door, Red, and keep your ears open every second. Give us the office if you hear anything. If we're rushed and have to make a quick getaway see that Mary has the first chance. Get that, all of you?" Garson turned to Dick. "Make it quick, remember."

Dick spoke at once, with a hesitancy that betrayed the depth of his emotion. "Don't you care for me at all?" he asked wistfully.

The girl's answer was uttered with nervous eagerness, which revealed her own stress of fear. "No, no, no!" she exclaimed. "I know you do, Mary," he asserted confidently; "a little anyway. Why, Mary, can't you see that you're throwing away everything that makes life worth while? Don't you see that?"

There was no word from the girl. Her breast was moving convulsively. "Mary, Mary!" he cried. "You've got to change. Don't be so hard. Give the woman in you a chance."

The girl's face became rigid as she fought for self control. "I am what I am," she said sharply. "I can't change. Keep your promise, now, and let's get out of this."

"You can change," Dick went on impetuously. "Mary, haven't you ever wanted the things that other women have—shelter and care and the big things of life, the things worth while? They're all ready for you now, Mary. And what about me? After all, you've married me. Now, it's up to you to give me my chance to make good. I've never amounted to much. I've never tried much. I shall, now, if you will have it so, Mary—if you'll help me. I will come out all right, I know that; so do you, Mary. Only you must help me. I need you, and you need me. Come away with me."

OUR BRITISH LETTER

LONDON, Feb. 14.—That the Government at Washington is making preparations for increased immigration from Europe to the Pacific coast of the United States, on the opening of the Panama Canal, is indicated by a request to American consuls in Europe to furnish the Department of Labor with reports on the plans being made by transportation agencies to handle the increased traffic. The consuls have also been called upon to supplement the work of special immigration commissioners who have visited Europe lately with reports of the quantity and quality of the expected immigration.

European representatives of American railroads welcome this action on the part of the American government as indicating the beginning of a movement by Washington to encourage the high type of emigration which England and Germany are making every effort to divert to their own colonies. These governments offer every inducement to steamships and railroads to handle this traffic while the agents of American transportation concerns complain that the American Government adopts a negative policy, which discourages the solid type of emigrant for whom there is still much room in the United States.

Alexander Jackson, who has represented a large American railroad system for many years in Europe, has suggested to the local American consulate that the United States prepare booklets setting forth the agricultural and business possibilities of the various states, for free distribution in Europe. He believes that such booklets, backed by the government imprimatur, would lead to a great increase in the numbers of immigrants who are looking for farms or business openings rather than for ordinary jobs.

Club Life in London
Club life for the working man is to be developed on a large scale in London. A central labor palace is to be erected at a cost of over $250,000, which in addition to providing meeting halls for the trades unions is to include a moving picture theatre for the display of labor scenes. A large organ and orchestra will play music written around the pictures. Arrangements have been made with unions in France, Belgium and Germany for the exchange of films, a pool of $350,000 having been formed for this purpose. There are also to be dining rooms, where orchestras will play during meals, a smoking lounge and other comforts of a first rate club. One of the chief features will be stores where provisions of all kinds will be sold to members, and at times of strikes given away instead of strike pay.

The promoters believe that the undertaking will pay its own way. This scheme has the official support of the London Trades Council, which represents 120 unions, with a membership of 200,000. It is expected that many other unions, especially the smaller ones, now outside the jurisdiction of the council, will join.

Loss of Organized Labor
According to a report issued by the Board of Trade, supplemented by data supplied by trades unions, organized workers have lost nearly $90,000,000 in wages from stoppages due to trade disputes during the last ten years. To this has to be added a very large amount distributed in strike pay. Against this the net gain in wages resulting from disputes is reported as $13,000,000. In the same period the working class as a whole have secured advances in wages estimated at $75,000,000. Of every hundred strikes or other disputes recorded in the years under review, 50 per cent. were won by the employers, 25 per cent by the workers and the other 25 per cent were compromised.

Co-operation Wins
Lecturing before the War and Peace Society of the Manchester University, Vice-Chancellor Weiss declared that the necessities of business and trade would bring about a world-wide federation quicker than any ethical movement in favor of peace. He asserted that co-operation was the order of the age, and that since present industrialism was responsible for oppression and tyranny, the growth of co-operative movements would lead to mutual protection. Co-operation, he said, was advancing over competition and all reasonable people ought to assist the movement. He believed that international agreements would soon be necessary to control hours of labor, labor of women and children and work injurious to health.

We heard a man say the other morning that the abbreviation of February (Feb.) means Freeze Every Body, and the man looked frozen in his ulster. It was apparent that he needed the kind of warmth that stays the warmth that reaches from head to foot, all over the body. We could have told him from personal knowledge that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives permanent warmth, it invigorates the blood and speeds it along through artery and vein, and really fits men and women, boys and girls, to enjoy cold weather and resist the attacks of disease. It gives the right kind of warmth, stimulates and strengthens at the same time, and all its benefits are lasting, here may be a suggestion in this for you.

KEPHALDOL COMES TO CANADA

Originated by Dr. Stohr, a famous physician of Vienna, Austria, Kephaldol is known and used throughout Europe and Great Britain.

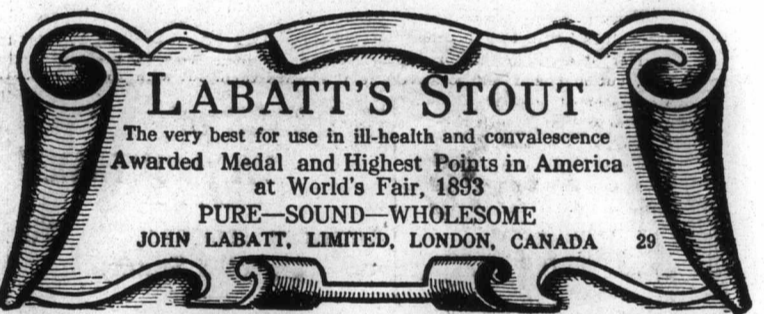

Now, backed by the endorsements of hundreds of physicians and hospitals, it comes to Canada to relieve pain and cure Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuralgia, Neuritis, Headache, La Grippe, Fevers and similar troubles.

Kephaldol has received the highest commendation from the medical profession because of its direct strengthening action on the nerves without injury to the heart, and its lasting regulative and curative effect upon the whole system.

Unlike other pain-killing remedies Kephaldol is absolutely harmless. It causes no intestinal irritation, and has no depressing effects.

Kephaldol now bring to pain-wracked Canadians the untold blessings which it has already conferred in the Old Country—joy of perfect life again to those who perhaps for many years, have dragged through a tormented existence.

FASHION
My waist-line comes above my waist
About a mile,
And I must be so firmly laced
If I'm in style.
My hat is trimmed with barley plumes
In single file,
One faintly smells galest perfumes
If I'm in style.
My skirt is slashed and shows my hose
Of silken lise;
And hour by hour I needs must pose
To be in style.
I'd rather wear my last year's clothes
(I'd save a pile),
Than wear the gowns my spirit loathes
And be in style.

Major Mackenzie, Kingston, was a visitor in town this week.

Miss Audrey Lighthouse, Oakville, is the guest of Miss Marion Watt.

Mrs. William Watt, Brant Avenue, left on Wednesday to visit relatives in Sarnia.

Miss Edna Preston left on Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Wood in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker leave on Monday for a visit of a week or two in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Paterson have returned after spending part of the week in Hamilton.

Mrs. W. L. Creighton is entertaining at bridge this afternoon at her home, Dufferin avenue.

Mr. Fred Large of Windsor, is a visitor in town for a few days at the parental home, William Street.

Mr. Arthur Hardy of Brockville, who was the guest of Mr. Reginald Scarfe returned home on Wednesday.

Mr. John Hewitt and Mr. Harry Hewitt have returned from Baltimore, the former, much improved in health.

Mrs. W. T. Henderson, Brant Avenue, will receive next Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon the 17th and 18th.

Mrs. W. Paterson is in Hamilton this week and assisted at an "at home" given by Mrs. George Rutherford, Fernside.

During his stay in town, Hon. Mr. Hearst, Minister of Lands and Mines, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brewster, Chestnut avenue.

Miss Sinclair, who was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. B. Cutcliffe, left on Tuesday to visit in New York and Boston ere she returns to her home in Paisley.

The annual reunion of the Woman's Hospital Aid always a popular and well attended affair, will be held in the Conservatory of Music next Wednesday afternoon, February 18th. All members of the cause are cordially invited to attend.

Many friends will be sorry to hear Miss Rowe, from the South, who is Mrs. Lloyd Harris' guest, met with a painful accident while tobogganing on Tuesday evening. She fell off the sleigh and is laid up with several stitches in her face.

Mrs. Alderson, Sr., St. George St., entertained very delightfully last evening the Sydenham St. Methodist choir and their friends to the number of about fifty. The affair was a very pleasant one, and three highly amusing contests and an impromptu programme, followed by refreshments were entered into with zest. It was indeed a very pleasant evening.

AS BRIDE SHE BECOMES MISTRESS OF MANSION AND MOTOR CARS

MRS. JAMES FRANCIS O'BOYLE. PHOTO BY BUCKLEY.

The fairy godmother of the pretty Miss Catherine Dillon, of Binghamton, N. Y., who became Mrs. James Francis O'Boyle, has left nothing undone in preparation for her arrival at West Pittston, Pa., where she is to make her home.

Mr. O'Boyle, who owns some of the best coal mining properties in the State of Pennsylvania, met his bride a year ago at Binghamton. He was at the city water works office arranging for the shipment of coal, for which he has the yearly city contract, when the girl passed through the building. Her father is a workman, and she made it a practice to bring his lunch to him daily. Mr. O'Boyle obtained an introduction, and after an ardent courtship won her hand.

Mr. George Jones was an entertained guest in town this week.

Mr. Roy Carling, Toronto, was a week end visitor at the parental home, West street.

Miss Fisher of St. Thomas, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Alderson, St. George street.

Mr. S. T. Verner of the Publishing Co., Hamilton, was a week-end visitor in town.

Mr. Scharwenka was the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Van Westrum, Langley Park.

Mrs. Forsayth of 146 Nelson St., has returned from attending the funeral of her mother in Hamilton.

Miss Nora Frank was the hostess at a very pleasant informal little tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Potts, who leaves to-day for Clinton, and will reside at the rectory with her brother, Rev. Mr. Potts.

Miss Pearl Brown from Havergal College, Toronto, arrived at the parental home last night, with a school mate, Miss Marie Wing. They are enroute to Aylmer, to attend a Valentine dance given by a school friend, Miss Kathleen Hill, who leaves soon to pursue her studies abroad.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Whitlock was again the hostess at the tea hour when she was wearing a becoming gown of cream silk with black shadow lace trimming. Mrs. J. C. Montgomery presided at the tea table, wearing maze satin with touches of mauve. The flowers (daffodils) were prettily arranged. Mrs. Lochead showed guests to tea. The assistants were Miss Edna Spence, Miss Helen Kippax, Miss Ellison Newman.

Queen Victoria's Merriment
Memory runs back to the delight which Queen Victoria showed when "Diplomacy" was given in her presence at Balmoral in 1893. Sir Squire Bancroft tells actors were at the astonished that actors were at the laughing. Not one of Her Majesty's subjects ever laughed or enjoyed the buoyant nonsense of it more. "How you have made me laugh," said Queen Victoria afterwards to Lady Bancroft, "and it is so nice to be merry."

Tragedy and comedy both originated in Greece some 500 years B. C. The early Roman dramatic writers belong to a little later period. Unlike most actresses of the legitimate school who decay the present day fashions and sigh for "the good old times," Florence Rockwell, the popular player appearing in the all-star cast of "Fine Feathers," coming to the Princess theatre next week, believes that at no time since Mother Eve fashioned her first garment out of fig leaves have women dressed more becomingly than they do right now.

Society at the Capital
T. R. H. Skating Party.—Ottawa, February 13.—Despite the heavy blizzard which prevailed on Saturday afternoon, over three hundred guests enjoyed the hospitality of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught at the skating party at Government House on Saturday afternoon. H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught received the guests for a short time, and afterwards mingled with the skaters on the ice. Her Royal Highness the Princess Patricia also skated, and quite a number of the guests tobogganed on the Russian slide. Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught was not present, owing to the severity of the weather.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Marie Doro found the distance from Kansas City to Windsor Castle to be six inches or thereabouts. The Missouri girl, playing "Diplomacy," is the first American actress to appear before Queen Mary "by royal command." Before she went, in order to meet the Queen's views on dress, she had the "rows" that the folks back home go wild over, reconstructed six inches more of sleeve and six inches of stiches in the slit of the skirts fixed things.

St. Valentine.
St. Valentine—he always keeps up with the times—came in his aerial car to be sure, with his attractive and white winged chauffeur, Dan Cupid, looking so graceful with his bow and arrow ready for the old but ever new game that he always scores high in. 'Tis said, St. Valentine began to practice his profession in the third century. No wonder then he knows how to write such skillful missives and can stand such expert long distance wireless messages, so to speak, to those he admires and he entertains on his day, Feb. 14th, so gaily, with his rooms bedecked with crimson hearts and darts and the Queen of hearts to make the tarts. Cupid's ratty with his bow. Look out for the latter and receive him kindly for (whisper it secretly) he just adores you. Later on the merry month of roses, with orange blossoms, and Mendelssohn's March, may tell the pretty story of Old St. Valentine and his visit to Brantford in mid-February.

A relative who is sojourning at present in Switzerland, writes: "The hotel where we are staying is lively with cosmopolitan languages, dazzling the eye of the native with the latest 'winter costume' from London, Paris and Vienna. The mountain air is glorious, there is music and dancing every night at the various mountain hostelries. The rinks teem with hundreds and look like some parade of a fancy-dress performance. Fifteen years ago there were practically no private rinks at all. No such thing as a ski went rustling and flying down these mighty slopes. Besides the rinks, there are the ice-runs for toboggans, an enterprise calling for great skill in the making. Here at Saanenmosser, of the mountain line, at a height of some four thousand feet ski-ing conditions are perfect, for February is the chosen month of experts. The tango music can be heard in all the Swiss winter sports hotels. It is danced from after dinner to dawn, in most cases by English and Americans. But in most of the Swiss cantons it is prohibited. The Swiss do not wish to interfere with "foreign" and "hotel" customs as they call them.

Fears No Crown.
"Romance is not dead" cried Carlyle. "It never dies!" And though it might seem, at a superficial glance, that the mark of furnace would choke Romance and drive her from foundries to furnaces, there is nevertheless an enthralling romance in the story of the wonderful Krupp family who through four generations, have hammered their way to patriotism, power, money and magnificence; and the crown of that romance is the fact that after a hundred years of painful toil, the vast wealth strenuously acquired by strong men should be-day in the hands of one young beauti-

WHITE SWAN BAKING POWDER

THE SECRET OF SUCCESSFUL BAKING!
"It all depends, madam, on the kind of baking powder you use."
"White Swan Baking Powder makes every baking an assured success, because it is chemically pure and its materials are accurately combined by experts to give proper strength."
"You can always rely on 'White Swan' to produce light, sweet, digestible and wholesome biscuits, cakes and pastry."

Scientific Reasons
Baking Powder is primarily a preparer of food, when mixed under proper conditions, a chemical reaction takes place, giving off a leavening gas. The residue left in the food you eat is not the original baking powder, but an entirely new substance.
In case of tartar baking powder, the residue in the food is 70% of its weight Rochelle Salts, which are medicinal and harmful to the system when taken this way.
White Swan Baking Powder is a phosphate, leaving only a 30% residue, which is a fibrous bone building substance—recommended by authoritative physicians as the best baking powder for kitchen use. Order it from your grocer—in 10c. or 25c. tins.

is childlike in its softness and purity. In Rome, where she went with her late mother, she was much feted and admired and always said "no" to the numerous admirers, until Gustav Von Halback, Councillor to the Royal Prussian Legation, appeared on the scene. ON THE VERGE OF A BREAK-DOWN

Wrecked Strength And Shattered Nerves Completely Restored By "Fruit-a-tives", The Famous Medicine Made From Fruit.

Mrs. W. N. KELLY.

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th. 1913. "I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' as they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found ONLY pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking 'Fruit-a-tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case!"

A blood purifier, a general tonic, a builder of health and strength, "Fruit-a-tives" is one of the great discoveries of the century in curative medicine. One of the valuable properties of "Fruit-a-tives" is its marvelous cleansing power. When these tablets are taken, they act on the three great eliminating organs of the body—the bowels, kidneys and skin. "Fruit-a-tives" keeps the system free of waste matter, prevents the formation of an excess of uric acid, and insures the blood being pure and clean. "Fruit-a-tives" sweetens the stomach, increases the flow of the digestive juices, makes digestion complete and enables the system to absorb and assimilate an abundance of nourishment from the food eaten.

"Fruit-a-tives" builds up, invigorates, strengthens the whole system. As a general tonic, there is nothing else quite so good. And these tablets are so mild in action, so pleasant to take, that they are particularly suited to women. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

PASTOR RUSSELL'S PHOTO-DRAMA

Formally Opened in the Boston Theatre on Sunday.

BIG SUCCESSES EVERYWHERE

In Sermon Pastor Russell's Subject Was, "Satan's Great Lie—What Harm It Did"—The First Lie—Where It Was Told—Why It Was Told—To Whom It Was Told—Its Result—Its Repetition—The Disastrous Results to Humanity—All Manner of Crimes Are Its Fruitage—The Only Remedy—Why?—When?—How?

PASTOR RUSSELL

Boston, Mass., February 8th. Pastor Russell is here, and in the Boston Theatre to-day conducted the opening of his Photo-Drama of Creation, which will be exhibited at this theatre every Sunday at 10 A. M. and 3 and 8 P. M.

In his sermon in the forenoon Pastor Russell discussed that feature of the Photo-Drama which relates to "Satan's Great Lie, and What Harm It Did." His text and discourse follow:

"When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it."—John 8:44.

Nonsensical tradition handed to us from the Dark Ages have greatly confused the people of God on every Bible subject; for instance, Satan has been pictured grotesquely, and described as presiding in a far-off torture chamber. He has been represented as superintending the tortures of the non-believers, and the Bible account has been wholly ignored. Instead of the Bible's representing Satan as a repulsive being with hoofs, horns, and forked tail, it tells us that he was an angel of a very high order—beautiful in person and highly endowed—instead of residing afar off, he is the "prince of the power of the air." Instead of stoking fires, he "worketh in the hearts of the children of disobedience"—seeking to blind them and to bind them with ignorance, superstition, falsehood.

According to the Bible, Satan's primary sin was an ambitious pride. He imagined he could direct the affairs of the universe, and he might set up a separate dominion, and try out his schemes. When Divine Power created Adam and Eve, and made them multiply and fill the earth, Satan saw his opportunity to put his ambitious schemes into operation. The holy angels would not think of rebelling against God, and the Bible account is offered to all. When Satan saw his opportunity to put his ambitious schemes into operation. The holy angels would not think of rebelling against God, and the Bible account is offered to all.

Adapting himself to the new conditions, Satan and his fallen host attacked mankind in a new way—confidence in the Word of the Lord and not in human imaginations. This great lesson, ere long, will be taught to all, and we may assume with safety that the Lord's course in permitting Satan's lie to flourish so thoroughly and for so long. We know not certainly what further terrible experiences may come to man as a result of believing the lie of Satan instead of the Word of God, but certain Scriptures seem clearly to imply that this Age is to end with some great catastrophe which will demonstrate the wisdom of those who hold fast the Truth and the folly of those who neglect it.

The Dean's Offence. "Who is this Dean Swift who is talking about?" a parvenu once said to Lady Bulwer. "I should like to invite him to my reception."

Her Jail Experience. "You admit that you have been in prison?" said the cross-examining lawyer sternly. "Yes, sir," answered the shrinking young creature. "Now, will you please tell the court whether you were there as a criminal, a surrogate or an investigator for a reform association?"

his course. But no, an evil course of pride, once entered upon, leads further and further astray. Instead of surrendering to the God of all grace, Satan became more defiant. Instead of repenting of the lie by which he had injured a race, he added to it, still seeking to lower God in the eyes of humanity. Apparently Satan sought so to alienate and demoralize mankind that a perpetual barrier would be raised in their hearts against the Almighty. And that thus humanity might be hindered from ever again coming into fellowship with God, no matter what provision God's mercy or grace might make for their return. For six thousand years Satan has been carrying on his wicked work of slander and misrepresentation of the Divine character and purpose. According to the Scriptures, Satan was disappointed that his subjects were dying, and was resolved to remedy this matter. Hence his next step was to inoculate the race with a fresh strain of life—vitality—vigor from the angels, who had never shown any symptoms of death. Satan, possessed of the power to materialize—to assume human bodies—was encouraged by Satan to violate the law of their being and to impart to himself and to his subjects their materializing powers. Satan's word to our first parents, "Ye shall not surely die," must be upheld. By hook or by crook, Satan arranged to fulfill his word, and to make the Almighty the falsifier.

The allurement was successful. Many of the angels heeded God's adversary and indulged themselves in the pleasures of sin. Of this matter we read in Genesis 6:2. Those angelic sons of God, saw the daughters of men, that they were fair, beautiful, and took of them for wives such as they chose, and started human families—all contrary to the Divine arrangement of their being. Satan's plan and arrangement, designed for the good of all God's creatures. The children of this combination of angelic vitality grafted upon the law of their nature—to materialize—physically and intellectually superior to the condemned and dying race of Adam. Being begotten and born under the influence of the fallen angels to the extent of obsession, and some of them to the extent of being possessed by evil spirits, which did their thinking and talking for them, they were using their human organs as their servants. This would seem to have been the alternative to materialization. If the fallen angels could no longer materialize, they would do the thing next to their preference—they would get control of the mind of some individual and thus have control of his body.

In all such cases, it would appear that the victim, becoming a tool of the evil spirits, is frequently caused to say and to do things which are degrading depravity greater than he or she had before the obsession began. The tendency of all such things seems to be toward licentiousness. The days of Jesus and His Apostles, according to the Scriptural accounts, they cast out demons from many people, some of whom had been possessed of evil spirits. When several of these gain control of one man, they make his life unbearable by the conflicts which they engage in operating along the auditory nerves.

Throughout this Gospel Age Satan and his demon legions, operating through dramatic mental impressions, etc., have so thoroughly deluded the masses of mankind, that nearly all believe Satan's lie, and only an extremely small minority believe the Word of the Lord. The process of supporting the lie continues. Writing mediums, trance mediums, typing mediums, black art, theosophy and occultism in general—all support the theory that a dead man is more alive than a living one. In the symbolical language of the Book of Revelation, all nations have been made drunk with the wine of false doctrine.

Those who discern the falsehood have learned a great lesson—put confidence in the Word of the Lord and not in human imaginations. This great lesson, ere long, will be taught to all, and we may assume with safety that the Lord's course in permitting Satan's lie to flourish so thoroughly and for so long. We know not certainly what further terrible experiences may come to man as a result of believing the lie of Satan instead of the Word of God, but certain Scriptures seem clearly to imply that this Age is to end with some great catastrophe which will demonstrate the wisdom of those who hold fast the Truth and the folly of those who neglect it.

"Go To Church" Bids on Bread

Plan for Distribution of Stickers to be Submitted at Meeting.

That "He who eats may read," the "Go-to-Church" movement may include placing a sticker on every loaf of bread delivered in the city, inviting the recipient to church. This, with other unique ideas, is to be suggested to the meeting of the Detroit Pastors' Union, at the regular meeting to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building, including a plan to call up every telephone subscriber in the city requesting him or her to go to church.

The sticker idea is original with the Detroit campaign. It will not only cover deliveries of bread, but many other classes of merchandise, sent out from the big downtown stores. Automobile owners and drivers will be asked to display streamers and banners bearing the "Go-to-church" invitation, and a number of other ideas are to be submitted.

A HAMILTON MIRACLE

Whole Country Amazed at Wonderful Cure of Mr. John Herman

573 JAMES ST. NORTH, HAMILTON, ONT.

Gentlemen, Four years ago I was taken down with inflammation of the bladder. During the attacks, which occurred more and more frequently, the agony was unbearable, and I became so weak I could not walk across the street. Some of my friends began to come at longer intervals. I continued taking the pills for six weeks, and then, to my surprise and delight, the stone I sent you some time ago came from me and my pain stopped. It is now three years since GIN PILLS cured me. I have had no return of the trouble, and I have not lost a day's work on account of it since. There is not the slightest doubt that GIN PILLS saved my life. Yours gratefully, JOHN HERMAN. GIN PILLS are wonderful in their action on the Kidneys and Bladder. They neutralize Uric Acid, soothe the irritated bladder, and completely cure suppression and incontinence of the urine. They are also mildly laxative and help to regulate the bowels. If your dealer does not handle GIN PILLS, do not take substitutes, but order direct from us, enclosing the regular retail price—50c for one box or $2.50 for six boxes. Money cheerfully refunded if GIN PILLS do not do all that we claim for them. Sample free if you mention this paper. National Drug and Chemical Co., of Canada Limited, Toronto. A Budget of News For Those Interested in Labor

Population —vs— Production

That we are passing through what will be termed by historians a marvelous age is undisputed. The generating power which has kept the economic, political, and social forces stimulated and creative has thus far in this decade shown a remarkable sustaining potency. Rapidity of change in almost every direction has come until the field of human activity approximates the restless and ceaseless ocean. Each individual force is tensioned to its highest capacity, and the sum total of the united forces is producing an effect with which the most constructive and erudite minds of the coming generations must grapple in order that the increased material wealth may be utilized to bring the greatest benefit to all the people. No one possessed with the spirit to seek changes beneficial to our people in the relationships of citizens will object to this motley array of effects, but to insure fructification some directing force must develop to establish an equilibrium, retaining the possible and practicable, while concurrently eliminating the trivial and useless. The Iron Age, in an article dealing with population, production, and railway traffic, discloses an interesting field of statistics. There is a problem, or many problems, to be solved. How shall we accomplish it? The article follows:

"In the two decades between 1890 and 1910 the population of the United States increased from 63,000,000 to 93,000,000.

"During the same period the ton-milage of the railways increased from 65,000,000 to 225,000,000.

"Therefore, while the population was increasing 50 per cent the railways road tonnage mileage was increasing 400 per cent.

"To satisfy the demands of traffic in 1890 the railroads of the United States moved the equivalent of one ton of freight a distance of 1,032 miles for each individual; to satisfy the same demands in 1910, it was necessary to move the equivalent of one ton 2,742 miles.

"Now, let us take a further illustration to show that traffic and production are increasing much more rapidly than population.

"Between 1890 and 1912 the production of pig iron grew from 8,500,000 tons annually to nearly 30,000,000 tons, an increase of 350 per cent.

"In the same period the coal production grew from 140,000,000 to 530,000,000 tons, an increase of 400 per cent.

"Between 1889 and 1912 the freight tonnage of the Sault Canal grew from 7,400,000 to 71,000,000 tons, an increase of 960 per cent in only twenty three years.

"If we plot the curve of population for several decades we shall obtain a fairly straight line showing an annual increase of 1.5 per cent.

"The curves of production and traffic for the same period will be found to lie above the curve of population, with a strong tendency to escape at the top of the diagram.

"The universal application of machinery to the arts and industries has multiplied products, and has placed within reach of the humblest and poorest comforts and conveniences undreamed of a century ago.

"The luxuries of yesterday are the necessities of to-day.

"Ranking requires more than food, shelter, and clothing, and we may therefore, expect that consumption, production and traffic will continue to increase.

"The world is confronting a situation which is sufficient to make one pause; for it would seem that if population, production, and traffic maintain the same rate that they have for three decades past, the curve of production will shoot into infinity.

"At any rate the figures show that the future is fraught with problems of the greatest weight to the human race."

Wasting the Earth's Substances

The soil, which ages of the grinding action of the elements took to make, is not only being exhausted of the plant food but is being washed by the rivers into the sea. The waste of the soil in the United States alone is 610,000,000 cubic yards a year. A cubic yard is a wagon load, and if the soil that is irretrievably lost in that country every year were hauled to a wharf and dumped into the sea the train of teams would reach seventy-six times around the earth.

This is so much the concern of the entire nation, even of the entire race, that the time will come when the muddy water running off a farmer's field after a storm will be evidence upon which to take him into court and impose a penalty.

In this matter of soil, which is stored-up force, there is an equally frightful waste under existing methods. In the United States alone there is used every year ten times as much coal as the entire output of all the mines in the world from the earliest times up to 1843. Three-fourths of this represents waste. In converting coal into electric light, 90 per cent of the energy is wasted.

The depletion of the soil, the wasting of the stored-up force in coal, the destruction of timber, are bringing about a situation which will make it impossible for the earth to sustain the vast population which will come to it. The problems are complicated with race and color, which, in themselves and under present conditions, constitute great menaces to the human race.—Herbert Quick, in the book "The Good Ship Earth."

Labor Will Fight Change

The scope of the present industrial disputes act of Canada is to be extended by the Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor, who feels that great good can be accomplished by extending the act so as to include all labor, which at present only includes those engaged in work on public utilities. Private enterprise will thus come under this act. In case of a dispute there can be no strike or lockout until an arbitration board has considered the case and reported on it. The added feature of this piece of legislation, and which the labor people are certainly going to fight to a finish, is a clause as follows:

"No employer will be allowed to dismiss a man, or refuse a workman on the ground that he is a member of a labor union, nor will union men be able to refuse to work alongside a man on the ground that he is not a union man. Men and employers who do so, will be subject to severe penalties."

Our Parcel Post Not What it Should Be

In the United States, when the parcel post system was first inaugurated, the charge for carrying a ten-pound parcel 50 miles was placed at 32c; here, for anything over 20 miles the rate is 46c. For a five pound package in the United States the rate was put at 17c for 50 miles; here, for more than 20 miles, the rate is 26c. Since then, 100, American rates have been further reduced.

In Germany eleven pounds can be sent by parcel post by any part within in the Empire for 12c, for ten miles or less the rate is 6c.

"CASCARETS" CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

Feel bulky. No headache, sour stomach, bad breath, constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now. Are you keeping your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage way every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

No odds how sick, headachy, bilious and constipated you feel, a Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing, too.

A Song of Life

To go among the multitude,
And help along whate'er is good;
To raise the sick on wings of hope,
And those who through life's troubles
...grieve,
It's well worth while.
We can not all do what we will,
Some have the strength, and others skill,
But we can help in our own way
And watch them smile.

'Tis little things that help along;
A kind word, or perhaps a song,
Will reach some waiting, aching heart
In church, or school, or busy mart.
And when at last our work is done,
And death comes swiftly stealing on,
We go to our eternal rest—
Let it be said: He did his best;
His life's complete.

A Labor Leader Who Has Led Well

(Indianapolis Star.)

Whatever else James M. Lynch does—and a man of his force must keep on doing things—he has faced for himself a place in the evolution of America's social economy by the qualities of leadership and direction he has displayed as president of the International Typographical Union.

In his retirement from that office, and in his departure from Indianapolis to become labor commissioner of the State of New York, there is regret, not only among the members of his occupation who respect him as a leader, but among outsiders who, familiar with the scope and pioneering positivism of his course, regard him as a constructive influence in the labor movement.

He is properly to be ranked with Mitchell, Arthur, Stone and Sargent. His career, and not conflict, conciliation, and not combat, have formed his creed, and the strength of the union he leaves and the impress that remains of a pleasant, discerning, resourceful intelligence and personality attest the quality of the man.

Both Economical And Humane

That the shorter work day is more economical as well as humane is the declaration of S. Thurston Ballard, flour manufacturer, of Louisville, Ky., a member of the federal industrial commission, who has had the eight-hour shift system in operation since July 1, 1907, while other flour manufacturers work their employees two shifts of twelve hours each. Of the shorter workday, Mr. Ballard says:

"While on two shifts we had 24 men on each watch, making forty-four men to pack our output in 24 hours, but when we changed to the eight-hour basis we required only fifteen men to a crew, or forty-five men in all, so that practically the same number of men were able to do the work. A man doing active or laborious work can do as much in eight hours as he can in twelve. We pay our men the same wage for eight hours of work that we formerly paid for twelve. In quality of output, in steadiness of running, in loyal work contented and pleased with their condition, it has been a profitable investment.

No Printers in Prison

Everybody knows that printers are the aristocrats and intellectuals among working people. But they have a better record than that. Warren Allen of the Joliet Penitentiary decided to issue a prison monthly, edited and written by convicts. His desire to print it inside the institution, but among the 1,500 convicts he couldn't find one printer. So the Prison Post will be published outside the walls. Peter Van Vlissingen, of Chicago, in prison for forgery, will be the editor.

Industrial Canada

When the United Mine Workers of America met in convention in Indianapolis, Indiana, on January 30th there were over fourteen hundred delegates in attendance.

Struck cars killed 4,544 people in Chicago during 1913 while 4,398 were slaughtered by automobiles. Altogether, 14,623 persons were killed by accidents in the Windy City.

The total foreign trade of Great Britain for the year 1913 totals about the inconceivable sum of seven billion dollars, which is three hundred million dollars more than the previous year.

An attempt to end the strike of 2,000 girl employees of the Taubel Hosiery Mills, Philadelphia, ended in failure when a representative of the works offered a raise in wages lower than was asked for.

Owing to the wholesale shutting down of many large industries in Pittsburgh, all public and private agencies of a charitable nature report the greatest demand on their resources they have ever known. The Salvation Army alone rented a great storehouse, put in 2,000 cots and all were taken before the evening of the day upon which the news was made public.

Chicago has a five-cent hotel. It is run for the benefit of the out-of-work by Rufus F. Dawes, a millionaire. Every man who enters for a night's lodging is entitled to the use of a safety razor to shave himself, and has the free use of a shoe brush and polish. The idea is that the roomers may go out with smooth faces and present a better appearance in their search for jobs.

Unemployment is on the increase in Great Britain, not only is trade slackening down, but thousands are idle at the present time. In the cotton weaving industry, twenty thousand looms are running on short time, with a corresponding loss of many thousands of dollars weekly in wages. It begins to look as if the unions of the United Kingdom will have to put up a strenuous front against all attempts to force down the rate of wages.

The much-lauded generosity of the Pullman Car Company in inaugurating a pension system for the aid of their aged employees is looked upon in labor circles as nothing short of a gigantic fake. It is shown that workers are to be retired at the age of seventy years, but it is pointed out that not one worker in five hundred will be in the employ of the company when they are retired at that age. It is pointed out that even at sixty years few men would receive the proposed benefits. The Pullmans, like

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur Darke's Hair so Naturally that Noody Can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days. Agent, Geo. Bowles.

other big profit corporations, do not believe in the retaining of old men in their employ, preferring to displace them with their services in favor of younger workers. The new move of the management is a cheap advertise-ment and nothing more, and few indeed will ever be called upon to partake of the bounty of the company. When a man reaches seventy he should have already been independent of any such scheme, and the Pullman works are not noted as a refuge for old and played-out employes.

An increase in wages of $5 per month was granted telegraphers on the Wheeling and Lake Erie, Washab Pittsburg, Columbus and West Side Belt Line Railroads on January 13th by the Board of Arbitrators which had been sitting on the case in Cleveland, Ohio, for some ten days previously. Better working conditions were also granted and annual system passes are to be granted to the employees. A minimum wage of $65 per month was also fixed by the arbitrators.

The profit-sharing plan recently inaugurated by the Ford Automobile Company of Detroit, Mich., is a radical departure, but nevertheless it is wholly compatible with sound business policy and prosperity. Mr. Ford is a firm believer in the theory that justice, like charity, ought not to begin at home. In his announcement he explains that, in the company's opinion, labor is not getting the return it is entitled to under the ordinary wage system; he believes that it

Times were never harder in August than at the present time. The department stores are laying off many of their staffs and the smaller stores are following suit. A thousand workers are out on strike from the King Cotton Mills, and others are going out. About a thousand mill hands are idle owing to the business depression, and the Irish-American Bank has failed, and so far depositors have not received a cent. The South is apparently as hard hit as other sections of the country.
