PANDORA RANGE

HOLDS FIRE ALL NIGHT

The good housewife always feels like bestowing upon the Pandora a cheerful "good morning."

Why? Because the Pandora always has a nice bed of hot coals as a reward for checking off the dampers closely before retiring to rest.

In five minutes after turning on the drafts she will have a good, strong fire.

Should she sleep two or three hours longer than usual there will still be a fire ready for her.

The fire-box, flues and dampers are so scientifically arranged that the Pandora can be regulated to hold a fire from 24 to 36 hours.

Pandora owners never have their sleep disturbed with dreams of making a new fire in the morning.

If your local dealer does not handle this most perfect of all ranges, write direct to us for Free Booklet.

SAYS THIS IS BEST

A leading health journal in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood?" prints in a recent issue the following:

Finix Extract Dandelion one ounce;

Compound Sillitoe, one ounce;

Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, four ounces.

Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known physician states that these are harmless vegetable ingredients, which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy.

This mixture will clean the blood of all impurities. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Sillitoe and Extract Dandelion, works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid, and other impurities that cause disease. It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

What the Chimney Sings

Over the chimney the night wind sang, and chanted a melody no one knew; And the woman stopped, and her babe she took, and said as her mother had said before, "I hate the wind in the chimney."

Over the chimney the night wind sang, and chanted a melody no one knew; And the man, as he sat on his hearth below, said to himself, "It will surely cease, and I'll stop the leak in the chimney."

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 11, 1907.

Sanctum Suggestions.

Readers will please excuse the appearance of THE ACADIAN this week as the paper was gotten out under unusual difficulties. We trust to be able to do better next week.

There was a new moon on Monday and Wolfville people are watching its progress with interest. After stumbling around in the dark for two weeks its cheerful rays will be a great comfort to pedestrians who are compelled to be out after nightfall.

The gale on Tuesday was a great apple picker. Its help, however, won scanty thanks from orchardists, many of whom lost heavily in spoiled fruit and broken trees. It has been a long time since this valley has experienced a storm which caused such havoc in our orchards.

Of late we have noticed a revival of the custom of "saluting" newly married people in Wolfville. For some years after the incorporation of the town such violations of law and order met with very pronounced disapproval from the authorities. That such is not the case now would indicate a laxity which should not exist. There is no justification for such an exhibition, which belongs to the dark ages, and it is to be hoped that the "powers that be" will see that the "celebrations" were conducted by intimate friends of the "contracting parties" there might be some excuse, but this is seldom the case.

China Missions.

On Wednesday evening in St. Andrew's church, before an audience which nearly filled the auditorium, Mrs. Stott of the China Inland Mission, delivered a most instructive and interesting lecture. Mrs. Stott has been engaged in missionary work in China for nearly forty years. It is interesting to know that she was the first woman to offer her services to Mr. Hudson Taylor for mission work in China. She went out in 1869 and was married to Mr. Stott shortly after landing, and shortly after the young couple proceeded to their field of labor. The success attending their labors has been phenomenal. Their church at the present moment has a membership of over 900 communicants, while in the province in which they labored there are several thousands of Christian people; whereas when they went out first there was not one.

The China Inland Mission has had a remarkable history. There are over 800 missionaries laboring in the inland mission and not one of them is guaranteed any salary. They have no other means of support than their own labors. The difficulties they have had to encounter have been great but success has always been assured. Mrs. Stott told a thrilling story. At the close Mrs. Tweedell read a translation of a banner that was presented to Mrs. Stott when she left for home last February. The banner is a beautiful piece of work. All enjoyed the lecture. Mr. Wright introduced Mrs. Stott and also said a few words in closing. Mrs. Stott addressed the people in the Baptist church last evening.

The Canadian Magazine.

The Canadian Magazine for October contains a number of unusually interesting articles, particularly the ones entitled "The Dufferin Family" and "A Personality in Journalism." The latter is written by Prof. Adam Shortt, and is an appreciation of Mr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe. Prof. Shortt gives Mr. Macdonald credit for striking the keynote of independence in journalism in Canada by adopting an independent attitude within party lines. The number contains other noteworthy contributions, including five short stories.

The lecture-entertainment given in Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable affair. The lecture was given under the auspices of St. George's Lodge, and the members are to be congratulated on the success of their undertaking. Mr. E. P. Jolly, who was the entertainer, is a public speaker and elocutionist of superior merit. His descriptions of the San Francisco calamity and of the Yellowstone Park, were, perhaps, the most enjoyable part of the evening. In his rendition of James Whitcomb Riley's "Nuthin'" at all to say," he demonstrated his power to produce tears as well as laughter. The whole evening's entertainment was most enjoyable.

Kings College opened on Monday, with the largest number of students for very many years. The number in residence—42—taxes the accommodation of the building to the utmost. There are also some eighteen students boarding outside. Six of them are young ladies.

On a section of the Grand Trunk Pacific there is not a curve for seven miles. Head on collisions will not be accomplished there without careful study and the most earnest and systematic neglect.

Trees vs. Wire and Poles.

The time seems to have come when it must be decided whether ORNA-MENTAL trees or telephone wires and poles must have the right-of-way in the streets of Wolfville. It is easily seen that the trees, wires and poles can each and all jog along in peace if the trees agree to a certain condition—that is, that they cease to be ornamental.

It might be some compensation if the poles being set at present were somewhat ornamental themselves, but some of these have such gruesome curves in their sinuous make-up that a brown-tail moth might break her back in attempting to climb one. It seems that there is a law that prohibits the erecting of crooked poles, and the question is, Why is the law not enforced? It is plainly not, for we saw the telephone people erect one of these koodoo horns in the presence of two members of the town Council whose duty and authority made it imperative and possible to prevent the same. The telephone man plead as an excuse that were he not allowed to proceed his help would be idle—can excuse nearly as good as the wolf's. He even told these gentlemen that the poles would not look crooked when erected as the crooked part would all be under ground, which there was a sweep in its entire length equal to that of an Indian's slackened bow.

But this is not all; we are going to wake up some fine morning and find all our fine shade trees mutilated in such a horrible manner that we would rather have had them removed. Putting up unsightly poles is one thing, but running wires through trees is quite another.

But there are more breakers ahead. The time seems to be not far distant when the electric light system of the town will have to be considerably improved, which will mean more tree cutting and more poles being erected, and a sorry looking lot of ornamental trees we shall then have.

It seems to be imperative at this time for the Council to make regulations for the running of electric wires through the streets that will not necessitate the cutting of ornamental trees at all. This is quite practical and cheaper than the present mode of doing.

Baby and Mother.

A few doses of Baby's Own Tablets relieves and cures constipation, indigestion, colic, diarrhoea and simple fevers. The Tablets break up colds, expel worms and bring the little teeth through painlessly. They bring health to the little one and comfort to the mother. And you have the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine does not contain one particle of opiate or poisonous soothing stuff. Mrs. C. F. Kerr, Elgin, Ont., says: "Baby's Own Tablets is the best medicine I have ever used for my little one. It is a great relief to me. I got it by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Rev. G. B. Cutler Called.

Rev. George B. Cutler, who during the past three and a half years has been pastor of the First Baptist Church at Corning, N. Y., recently resigned to accept a call to a large church at Columbus, Ohio. This is the largest of eight Baptist churches in that city.

At a meeting of the First Baptist Church of Corning, held September 19th, 1907, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Called to a larger field of service, Rev. George B. Cutler resigns his pastorate of the First Baptist Church, believing it right for him to go, and our duty to release him, we now officially accept his resignation. In doing this we appreciate the great loss that results both to us as a church and to the entire community.

Dwelling and laboring among us during a pastorate of three and one-half years, he leaves the imprint of a most remarkable personality upon the entire city. By all classes, regardless of creed or denomination, his unusual ability has secured recognition, and he is commonly known as a man who goes about doing good.

Dr. Cutler is broad minded and highly educated—a man of real culture. Of sensitive nature and strong sympathies, his influence over the young has been most marked; and at all times and in all places he exemplifies the life of a high minded Christian gentleman. His wise and unflinching zeal and thoughtful devotion to the church has advanced its spiritual and material prosperity, and we feel that his life has been an inspiration to all.

As a people we love him and shall greatly miss his unselfish service and companionship. Assuming him that this church will always gratefully recall his most helpful ministry, we bid him God-speed to his new field of labor.

The resolution was prepared and presented by the following Committee, in behalf of the Society: Dr. W. C. Wilbur, C. H. Almy, C. M. Hyde, W. J. Marsh, F. H. Hansner, A. M. Bred and H. C. D-Graff.

October Weddings.

SHERWOOD—TOWNSHEND

An occasion of more than usual social interest was the marriage of Miss Gertrude, daughter of Mr Justice Townshend, and Mr J. Dwight Sherwood, which was solemnized at St. John's church, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Rural Dean Dixon, rector of the parish, who was assisted by Rev. Mr Wiggins, Sackville, N.B., and Rev. V. E. Harris, Sackville, N.S. The church was decorated for the occasion with palms and pale pink daisies. The service was partly choral, and Mr Emery rendered "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden" and Mendelssohn's wedding march in his most acceptable manner.

The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of white satin, trimmed with old Limerick lace. The dress was semi-empire in style and was made with a long train. The bride wore the conventional veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss May Townshend, sister of the bride, who acted as bridesmaid, was attired in an exquisite costume of rose napon and cream lace. Her hat of crepe felt was trimmed with ostrich plumes and pink roses. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Little Miss Mildred Harvey, niece of the groom, looked very dainty in her frock of white habiteau silk. Her hat was of white tuscan straw, with pom-poms of white liberty satin.

Master Wray Townshend, youngest brother of the bride, dressed in a white English sailor suit, completed the procession.

Mrs Townshend wore a handsome dress of blue silk voile and a black hat trimmed with ostrich feathers. The groom wore a gown of black velvet with beautiful duchess lace trimmings, while her daughter, Mrs Harvey, wore a hand embroidered costume of pongee, and crepe felt hat with pink roses and ostrich plumes.

Mr Walter Black, of Halifax, and Mr Stuart Townshend, brother of the bride, acted as ushers. The groom was supported by Mr Cyril Collard.

After the ceremony the bride and groom received their friends at "Raynham," Judge Townshend's country residence.

The going-away gown of the bride was a tailor-made suit of hunter's green chiffon broad-cloth, and hat to match.

The popularity of the young people was fully attested to by the numerous and costly gifts received from friends in various parts of Canada.

the United States and England. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl hoop.

Mr and Mrs Sherwood left by afternoon train on their wedding tour, which will include New York and other cities, and later will return to Wolfville, where they will reside. THE ACADIAN tenders best wishes.

ROCKWELL—SHEFFIELD
The home of Mr Delany Sheffield, of Upper Canada, was the scene of a very pretty event on Wednesday morning. It was on the occasion of the marriage of his daughter, Miss Bell, to Dr Stanton J. Rockwell, popular dentist of Kentville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr Dawson, of Londonderry, in the presence of friends of both parties. The bride and groom were unattended.

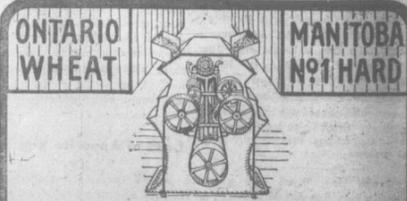

The bride was given away by her father. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served after which the happy couple drove to Kentville where they boarded the Bluebonnet for Boston. The honeymoon will be spent in Boston, Philadelphia and other American cities. THE ACADIAN joins a host of friends in congratulations.

A movement towards the confederation of the South African colonies has begun.

Lower Horton Items.

Master Keith Patterson, of Hortonville, sustained a severe accident about a week ago, necessitating his consulting Dr. Pearson, the eye and ear specialist of Halifax. Keith was feeding the calves and accidentally struck himself in the eye inflicting a serious wound which if it failed will result in the removal of the eye. The accident has elicited the universal sympathy of the community.

Mr. G. H. Mackinley and family anticipate returning to Halifax about the end of the month. Mr. and Mrs. Mackinley and daughter Grace have been exceedingly popular during their residence in Hortonville, contributing in many ways to the moral and social advancement of the place. On two occasions Mr. Mackinley has occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church with great acceptance, while being a most faithful and efficient teacher in the Sunday-school.

Next Sabbath will be Children's Day in the Methodist church. The pastor will preach in the morning a sermon especially appropriate to the young, and in the evening the annual Sabbath-school concert will be held. The exercises in the evening will be under the direction of the school, which, with the superintendency of Mr. W. C. Tremblin, has earned the reputation of giving a splendid annual service.

Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this sample trial. Sold by A. V. Rand.

Seminary Notes.

The teachers of Acadia Seminary residence will be at home the first Tuesday in each month from 4.15 to 6 o'clock. They will be pleased to receive their friends at that time.

The registration of resident pupils in the Seminary is this year in excess of any other, except one, the year 1904-1905, and will push that year very closely. The prospects for a large addition to the resident pupils for the second term are bright.

The class formed last year in the gymnasium of the girls from the town was a most interesting one. Since many inquiries as to the formation of a similar class have reached the principal, he has to announce that such a class will be formed if at least ten pupils desiring to do that work can be enrolled. The fee for the remainder of the year will be $5.00. Please hand your names to the principal, if no such class can be formed pupils may be received from the town into the regular classes.

The meeting of the Acadia Choral Club on Monday evening last was a most encouraging one. More than one hundred members were received and the plans for the coming year discussed. The officers were appointed.

There is a demand for tenor voices. Will you not come and help us to make this a record year in the history of the Club.

Further notice as to other features of the plan for the season will be discussed later.

The Supreme Court met at Kentville on Tuesday. The actions for bribery against Dr. Covert and Mr. W. W. Pines were tried. The verdicts were for the defendants. The case against Mr. F. H. Rachford was withdrawn.

It is stated that the N. B. government will establish an immigration department, in connection with the Salvation Army, to put English settlers on the crown lands.

The Standard Oil Company's balance sheet, produced in court in New York, showed that the dividends for 1906 amounted to $40,000,000, while the surplus for the year was $45,000,000.

The Dominion government has appointed an agent to inaugurate an active emigration from France to western Canada.

To Maintain Good Health

Mr. John L. Hickey, now caretaker of the public and high schools, Trenton, Ont., states:—"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and have found them the greatest medicine I ever tried. I used them when in the lumber camps and believe by keeping the kidneys and bowels regular and the general health good that they protect a person from catching contagious diseases, which are so common in the camp. I have seen hundreds of men using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the lumber camps. They buy them by the dozen when going in, and to show how much faith they have in them they buy them when they could get their medicine for nothing by going to the hospital camp. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills keep my liver, kidneys and bowels regular and my health good. I could not think of being without them." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills positively cure biliousness, constipation and diseases of the kidneys. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers on Edmonson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

CHARACTER IN MEDICINE.

In medicine, as in every sphere of human action, it is character that tells. Every prescription that Dr. A. W. CHASE gave to his fellow-men is full of character, full of the honest, straightforward character which made the great old doctor respected, admired and loved by all who knew him. The integrity of Dr. Chase is shown in every one of his famous family medicines.

Give the average man an opportunity to talk about himself and he will deliver the goods.

Words sometimes fail a man, but nothing like that happens to a woman until she is ready to attend her own funeral.

'How would you define a pessimist?' 'He is a man who is afraid to look happy for fear some other fellow will try to borrow money of him.'

SUPERSTITIONS ON SKIN DISEASES.

Of all superstitions probably the most foolish is the idea that when a rash or sore is healed and cured by means of external applications will "stick in" and do further harm. No reputable physician will give any credence to such a notion. Skin diseases of every form and especially eczema, scabies, scald head, etc., are promptly relieved and entirely cured by Dr. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

A Hindoo baker's assistant in Bombay, setting up in business for himself, and desiring to cater for the English community, had the following notification printed over his doorway: "Kam Box solicits respectful patronage. He is a first class British loaf."

'This poet,' said Jess, 'speaks of Spondrifit on the bosom of the waists. I suppose 'spondrifit' is a nautical term.'

'I fancy,' said Jess, 'that 'spondrifit' means when you are out in a boat alone with 'him' and just drifting.'

Mrs. Jones—I think it the most ridiculous thing to call that man in the bank a teller.

Mrs. Johnson—Why? Mrs. Jones—Because he simply won't tell at all. I asked him one day how much my husband had on deposit there, and he just laughed.

His Ambition—What business is papa in, mamma? Why he's a tea sampler; he samples the different kinds of tea.

Mamma? Yes, my boy. Do you know what I want to be when I grow up? No, what, my boy? A pie sampler!

A small boy was reciting in a geography class. The teacher was trying to teach him the points of the compass. She explained: "On your right is the south, you left the north, and in front of you is the east. Now what is behind you?" The boy studied for a moment, then puckered up his mouth and bawled: "I knew it. I told you you'd see that patch in my pants."

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 11, 1900. Miss Mary's Letter to Mr. LESTERMAN. "I came across a bottle of your MRS. LESTERMAN'S in the hands of one of the students of the University of Maryland, and being so kind as to let me see it for a very bad reason, which I obtained in training for foot races, and to say that I helped me would be putting it very mildly, and I therefore ask if you would let me know of one of your agents that is closest to Baltimore so that I may obtain some of it. Thanking you in advance I remain, Yours truly, W. E. MCGURAN."

A teacher had a very dull pupil whom he found extremely difficult to instruct in the letters of the alphabet. "This is letter A," explained the teacher for the tenth time as he wrote it down on the blackboard. "And this letter B," he went on, putting down the second letter of the alphabet.

"Now, my boy," he began kindly and encouragingly, as he turned to the stupid boy, "let me see if you can remember them. What is this?" pointing to the initial letter of the alphabet.

"Letter A," came the slow response from the dumb scholar.

"And this?" questioned the teacher, indicating letter B.

"B is my name," returned the pupil instantly, his stupid face lighting up with pleasure at his own quick reply.

THE THIRD HOUSE.

Legislative Annex of the Special Interests in Congress.

The third house, as the lobby is sometimes called, is the legislative annex of the special interests. It is the house of special representatives and its membership is a curious study in the widely different.

Its meeting place is the lobby and committee rooms of the nation's capitol, the hotel outside, the lawyer's office, the street, the banquet room, the little back room, the bar, the road house, the home, the brother-in-law's place, the place where the lobbyist is personally approached. That is the object of a lobby—personal contact with the people's representatives and the influence upon legislation worked thereby.

If legislators were perfect, there would be no lobby. If they were perfectly wise, there would be no occasion for the lobbyist who desires "to inform" them; if perfectly honest, there would be no occasion for the lobbyist who desires to "make it worth while" if perfectly patriotic, there would be no occasion for the lobbyist who desires for himself "a little personal favor"—at the people's expense.

The existence of a lobby is premised on human frailty. It is present to protect human weakness, to warp the action of the legislative body by appeal to vanity, ignorance, cupidity or fear.—GILSON GARDNER in Success Magazine.

It would all be under ground, were it not for the HARDY FERNS.

About Forty Species Are Suited to Outdoor Culture.

Among the hardy ferns are varieties greatly differing in size and form, from a hairlike creeping stem bearing a few simple mosslike leaves to the vigorous growing plants with large leaves.

Some of the most beautiful ferns are those which are suited to outdoor culture in ordinary soils and situations. These species can be planted in beds, borders or rockeries or in the foreground of shrubbery. As most of them require a somewhat shady place, they are especially useful for filling in places where grass and other light loving plants cannot grow.

Correct drainage is required. The soil should have loam mold in it, or decayed peat or well decayed sod will answer.

Hardy ferns are best planted in the spring, but they can be planted in the summer if the fronts or leaves are cut back, making it easier for the plants to establish themselves before the winter sets in. From his florist the amateur gardener can obtain cuttings of varieties most suitable for the soil and climate in his vicinity. In the winter the ferns should be given protection with a covering of leaves, hay or straw.

An Old Time Playful Prisoner.

Over a century ago there occurred in London what the Annual Register called "a most unparalleled atrocity." It was only the theft of a pocket handkerchief from a pocket, but the circumstances of the deed explained the vehemence of the denunciation. Four men were on their trial for assaulting a man in his house at Ponder's End, putting him in fear and stealing from him, and one of them relieved the medium of the trial, which lasted eight hours, by picking the pocket of one of the turkeys as he stood in the dock. An official had the presence of mind to order the restoration of the handkerchief, and the prisoner had enough presence of mind to obey "with the most careless indifference," but the court, we read, "were horror struck." Justice, however, pulled itself together sufficiently to sentence all four men to death.

Swords and Scimitars.

The scimitar of the Saracens was the most effective sword for cutting purposes ever devised. It will be remembered how, according to the story of Sir Walter Scott's "Talisman," with such a weapon the pagan Saladin chopped a soft cushion in two at one blow to the amusement of Richard Coeur de Lion. With a straight sword, one can make a back or thrust, but to slice an adversary one must use a scimitar. The scimitar, being curved and wide and heavy toward the end, slices by the mere fact of striking.

His Schema Failed.

"I wonder why it is," remarked one of the two men who had just lunched, turning to speak to the other, "that they always have pretty cashiers at these restaurants?"

But the pretty cashier, though she blushed and smiled, did not fail to deduct the Canadian quarter he threw down in payment of his check.

His Brilliant Idea.

"Why is it," she asked shortly after the wedding, "that you don't care to skate any more? You were so fond of it before we were married?"

"I wasn't fond of it, my dear. To tell you the truth, I made a martyr of myself for your sake. I knew you enjoyed it so that I felt as if I had to."

"Thought I enjoyed it? Heavens, I didn't go and be tortured you'd take some other girl, and—"

"Say, Fanny, I believe it would be a fine thing if every girl and boy could be locked up the minute they became engaged and kept behind bars till the day of their marriage."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Friend minister, who removed from New Nantucket to Hudson, N. Y., was once attending a meeting where the people had been urged without avail to come forward and fill up the front seats. At last he arose and said: "Friends, fire forward. There is too much weight ait to sell well, and the people came."

FEARFUL PAINS

SUGGESTIONS HOW WOMEN MAY FIND RELIEF.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. This is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. When pain endures something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

Thousands of women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that relief was the result of her Compound.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Mattie Richardson of 177 Wellington Street, Kingston, Ont., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham—"

"Some four years ago my usually good health began to fail. I had severe pains in my back, my head ached, I would have to get up and during my monthly periods I would suffer intense pain. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I was so glad that I did, for it brought new life and health to me. My monthly periods were natural and painless, and my general health improved. I have not had an ache or a pain since, and I feel it a duty as well as a pleasure to tell you what your medicine has done for me."

Miss Louise McKenzie, of Mount Carmel, Montreal, Canada, writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham—"

"I had so much pain about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound here. Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands Woman's Ills."

I started to take it for painful periods and when I cured me I was not surprised. I had suffered with bilious headaches and pain until I secured that I must secure these pains lasted from five to ten days every month, and you can understand how glad I was to get relief, or any relief of health, and am pleased to give you this testimonial for what your medicine has done for me.

Such testimony should be accepted as a warning to women to be careful of their health. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound rests upon the well-earned gratitude of Canadian women.

When women are troubled with irregularities, dysmenstru, or abnormal conditions of the organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating, (flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or any other such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and once removed such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand, or if you wish to write with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address: Lynn, Mass.

Bilious Paleness, Now Easily Cured.

If you are frequently bilious or have lings of nausea, there is a reason. When the liver action is normal the bile is secreted in the proportions necessary to ensure the digestion of fats.

When liver action is irregular it is an evidence of impairment of nerve force.

When these derangements occur, an undue amount of work is thrown upon the liver and kidneys, they rebel—the whole system suffers, and ill-health follows.

Another dangerous result of derangement of the biliary function is constipation. Deadly disease results from this condition.

This is a hateful condition because it ensures two results—heavy dark rings under the eyes and a sallowness that is absolutely abhorrent.

These derangements it allowed to continue excite the formation of gallstones, cause jaundice, catarrhal inflammation of the bowels, and indigestion.

If you wish to get better, the very root of the trouble must be reached. This can be accomplished only by Ferrozone—a remedy that strengthens the system, the blood, the liver and kidneys.

Ferrozone is a food for the nervous system. It fortifies and strengthens it. The nervous system controls all the functions of the body.

Improve its tone, you improve the tone of the whole body, and this is what Ferrozone accomplishes.

Its first action is to fortify digestion—this means nourishment and more building material.

Ferrozone makes rich, red blood—lots of it, and this means the proper action of all the large and vital organs of the body.

Quickly there comes strength, vigor, endurance—that glow of feeling which we call health.

You are sure of robust health, sure of strong nerves, good appetite, sure to look and feel your best if you use Ferrozone; try this great tonic. Sold everywhere in 50c. boxes.

What Have We Done To-day?

We shall do much in the years to come. But what have we done to-day? We shall give our gold in a princely sum. But what did we give to-day? We shall lift the heart and dry the tear. We shall plant a hope in the place of fear. We shall speak the words of love and cheer. But what did we speak to-day? We shall be so kind in the after while. But what have we been to-day? We shall bring to each a lovely smile. But what have we brought to-day? We shall give to truth a grander birth. And to steadfast faith a deeper worth. We shall feed the hungry souls of earth; But whom have we fed to-day? We shall reap such joys in the by and bye. But what have we sown to-day? We shall build up mansions in the sky. But what have we built to-day? 'Tis sweet in idle dreams to bask, But here and now, do we our task? Yes, this is the thing our souls must ask. What have we done to-day?

A Memory.

The fire upon the hearth is low; And there is stillness everywhere; Like troubled spirits here and there The freight shadows fluttering; And as the shadows round me creep, A childish treble breaks the gloom, And softly from a farther room Comes, "Now I lay me down to sleep."

And somehow with that little prayer, And that sweet treble in my ears, My thoughts goes back to distant years. Again I hear the child's Amen; My mother's face comes back to me; Crouched at her side I seem to be; And mother holds my hand again. Oh, for an hour in that dear place! Oh, for the peace of that dear time! Oh, for that childish trust sublime! Oh, for a glimpse of mother's face! Yet as the shadows round me creep, I do not seem to be alone— Sweet music of that treble tone— And "Now I lay me down to sleep."

A Brave Boy.

A little boy in Leicester was induced to sign the Band of Hope pledge. His father was a collector, and one day a publican called upon him to pay some rates. In the course of conversation it came out that the little boy was a teetotaler. "The idea! Why he is too little to sign the pledge." The little fellow came up to him and took hold of him quietly by the arm, and repeated his words—"You say, sir, that I am too young to be an abstainer. Well, now I am to come to your public-house for a pint of beer, would you send me about my business because I was so young? 'No, I don't think I should,' replied the publican, 'but that is quite a different thing.' 'Very well, then,' said the lad, 'if I am not too young to receive the beer, I am not too young to give up my beer.' The publican was defeated, for the boy had the best of the argument.—Selected.

Artificial Insanity.

In his work on 'The Pathology of the Mind,' Dr. Maudsley thus describes the action of alcohol:—'Alcohol yields the simplest instance in illustration of this disturbing action on mind of a foreign matter introduced into the blood from without here, where each phase of an artificially produced insanity is passed through successfully in a brief space of time, and a general activity of mind—a condition not unlike that which sometimes precedes an attack of mania; and there follows, as in insanity, sensory and motor troubles, and the automatic excitation of ideas which start up and follow one another without order, so that more or less incoherence of thought and speech is exhibited, while at the same time passion is easily excited, which takes different forms according to the individual temperaments; after this stage has lasted for a time—in some other shorter—it passes into depression and mania; mania, as convolution passes into paralysis; the last stage of all being one of dementia and stupor. The different phases of mental disorder are compressed into a short period of time because the action of the poison is quick and transitory; but we have only to spread the poisonous action over years, as the regular drunkard does, and we get a chronic and endur-

Throat, Hands and Legs Paralyzed

Three of the best doctors in St. Thomas found themselves unable to cope with this case, which only emphasizes the extraordinary merit of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a cure for paralysis of the nerves.

Mrs. Frank Snyder, St. Thomas, Ont., writes:—"I write to tell you of the great benefit I found in the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I had diphtheria so bad that after I got over it I was left with paralysis in the throat, hands and legs. I was completely disabled and could do no work whatever. I had some of the best doctors in St. Thomas, but they were not able to cure or even relieve me. "The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has cured me completely, the paralysis has entirely left, my nerves are strengthened and my system generally built up so that I feel as well as ever I did, and I can now do all the work I desire to do on any one suffering from weakness of the nerves and paralysis."

ing insanity in which the foregoing scenes are more slowly acted. Or, if death, cutting short the career of the individual, puts a stop to the full development of the tragedy in his life, we may still have it played out in the lives of his descendants, since the insanity of the off-spring, which, thereupon, if not interfered with, goes through the downward course of degeneracy described."

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure

Mr W. C. Burt, a Star City, Ind., was merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale at Rand's Drug Store.
