

The Herald.

VOL. III.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1867.

NO. 15.

THE HERALD
IS PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING
BY
EDWARD REILLY,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR,
at his Office, corner of Kent and Prince Streets.
TERMS FOR THE "HERALD."
For 1 year, paid in advance, 20 0 0
For 6 months, 12 0 0
For 3 months, 6 0 0
Advertisements inserted at the usual rates.

JOB PRINTING,
of every description, performed with neatness and dispatch
and at moderate terms, at the Herald Office.

ALMANACK FOR JANUARY.
MOON'S PHASES.
New Moon, 5th day, 8h. 17m. evening, N.W.
First Quarter, 13th day, 0h. 21m., evening, E.
Full Moon, 20th day, 3h. 23m., morning, W.S.W.
Last Quarter, 27th day, 10h. 35m., morning, W.S.W.

DAY	DAY WEEK	SUN	High Moon	Low Moon
MONTH		rise sets	rise sets	rise sets
1	Tuesday	7 49 19	7 26 3	22 8 30
2	Wednesday	49 19 8	15 4 12	30
3	Thursday	49 20 9	1 5 10	31
4	Friday	49 21 9	50 6 2	32
5	Saturday	49 22 10	36 sets	33
6	Sunday	48 23 11	30 5 42	35
7	Monday	48 23 11	6 41 37
8	Tuesday	48 26 0	10 7 39	38
9	Wednesday	48 27 0	49 8 43	39
10	Thursday	47 28 1	30 9 43	41
11	Friday	47 29 2	12 10 48	42
12	Saturday	47 30 3	2 11 54	43
13	Sunday	46 31 3	40 12 59	45
14	Monday	45 33 4	40 0 59	47
15	Tuesday	45 34 5	28 2 7	49
16	Wednesday	45 36 6	30 3 16	50
17	Thursday	44 37 7	30 4 21	53
18	Friday	44 39 8	48 5 28	56
19	Saturday	42 40 9	49 6 38	58
20	Sunday	41 41 10	48 5 52	59
21	Monday	40 42 11	40 6 57 0	2
22	Tuesday	40 44	even, 8 6	4
23	Wednesday	39 45	1 14 9	9
24	Thursday	38 46	2 1 14	8
25	Friday	37 48	2 45 11 14	6
26	Saturday	36 50	3 28 10 14	14
27	Sunday	35 51	4 13 0 15	16
28	Monday	34 51	5 1 13	18
29	Tuesday	33 53	5 56 2 9	20
30	Wednesday	32 55	6 50 3 3	21
31	Thursday	31 57	7 46 3 56	23

PRICES CURRENT.
CHARLOTTETOWN, Jan. 11, 1867.

Provisions.
Beef, (small) per lb.	3d to 7d
Do by the quarter.	3d to 5d
Pork, (canned)	5d to 7d
Do (small)	3d to 6d
Mutton, per lb.	3d to 6d
Yard, (small)	3d to 6d
Ham, per lb.	6d
Butter, (fresh)	1s 2d to 1s 4d
Do by the tub.	1s to 1s 1d
Cheese, per lb.	4d to 6d
Tallow, per lb.	8d to 10d
Lard, per lb.	9d to 11d
Onions, per 100 lbs.	1s to 1s 6d
Eggs, per dozen.	1s 2d to 1s 4d
Grain.
Barley, per bushel.	3s 3d to 3s 4d
Oats, per do.	2s 2d to 2s 4d
Vegetables.
Peas, per quart.	1s 8d to 2s
Peas, per bushel.	1s 8d to 2s
Poultry.
Geese, Turkey, each.	2s 3d to 3s 6d
Ducks, each.	1s to 1s 8d
Fowls, each.	1s 3d to 1s 6d
Fish.
Codfish, per qtl.	20s to 30s
Herrings, per barrel.	20s to 40s
Mackerel, per dozen.	2s 6d to 4s
Lumber.
Boards (Hemlock)	5s 6d to 4s
Do (Pine)	4s to 6s
Shingles, per M.	13s to 18s
Sundries.
Hay, per ton.	80s to 85s
Straw, per cwt.	1s 9d to 2s
Timothy Seed,	none
Clover Seed, per lb.	none
Hominy, per yard.	4s to 6s
Calif. pine, per lb.	6d to 8d
Hides, per lb.	4d
Wool,	1s to 1s 3d
Sheepskins,	2s 9d to 3s 6d
Apples, per doz.	3d to 4d
Partridges,	10d to 1s 3d

GEORGE LEWIS, Market Clerk.

CHARLOTTETOWN MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
WILLIAM BROWN, Esq., President.
John Eng, Esq., H. J. Calbeck, Esq.,
Hon. George Ross, Esq., Thos. W. Dodd, Esq.,
Mr. Thomas Boney, Mr. Armas Lord,
Hon. George Oles, Mr. William Dodd,
Mr. Owen Connelly, Thomas Dalrymple, Esq.,
Richard Heats, Esq., Mack Butcher, Esq.

Risks taken Daily.
Office hours from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.
H. PALMER, Secretary.
Mutual Fire Insurance Office, Kent St.,
Charlottetown, Feb. 15, 1866.

NORTH AMERICAN HOTEL,
KENT STREET, - - - CHARLOTTETOWN

THIS HOTEL, formerly known as the "GLOBE HOTEL," is the largest in the City, and centrally situated; it is now opened for the reception of permanent and transient Boarders. The subscriber trusts, by strict attention to the wants and comfort of his friends and the public generally, to merit a share of public patronage.
OF THE BEST OF LEGGONS always on hand. Good stabling for any number of horses, with a careful attendant in attendance.
JOHN MURPHY, Proprietor.
Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Feb. 25, 1866.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

LARGE SUPPLY OF—
Sullivan's Spelling Books,
Lennie's Grammar,
Carpenter's Spelling Books,
Worcester's Dictionary,
—AND—
all school Books in general use throughout the Island, on hand, and for sale at very low prices, at
HARVEY'S BOOKSTORE,
Queen Street.
August 8, 1866.

A. McNEILL,
Auctioneer & Commission Merchant
MASON'S THREE-STORY BUILDING
DORCHESTER STREET,
Charlottetown, P. E. Island, July 30, 1866

TURKEY FIGS!
TURKEY FIGS, MUSKATEL RAISINS,
ZANTE CURRANTS,
Jordan Almonds,
Filberts,
Walnuts, Ground Spice,
ESSENCES,
Gelatine,
Baking Powder,
Pickles and Sauces.

For sale by—
City Drug Store, Dec. 20, 1865. W. R. WATSON.

JOHN BELL,
MANUFACTURER OF CLOTHING
IN all its branches, thankful to his Friends and the Patrons for past favors, begs leave to inform them and the public generally, that he is still to be found at OLD STAND,
Queen Street,
and is prepared to make up all kinds of garments or entrusted to him in the latest style and improvement of fashion.

Terms Cash.
Entrance at side Door,
Queen Street, July 11, 1866.

McKinnon's Store,
SOURIS EAST.

FALL & WINTER STOCK.
THE SUBSCRIBER, thankful for the liberal share of patronage extended to him since his commencement in business, begs to announce that he has just COMPLETED HIS FALL & WINTER STOCK OF

GOODS,
consisting in part of:

GROCERIES,
BOOTS, SHOES AND RUBBERS,
DRESS GOODS,
SHAWLS AND MANTLES,
HATS, Ladies' & Gent's

Ready-Made Clothing,
FUR CAPS,
HARDWARE,
LEATHER, etc., etc.

Which he offers for sale at unusually LOW PRICES for present pay, and he respectfully requests a continuance of public favor.

MICHAEL McCORMACK,
Souris East, Nov. 6, '66. 1m

Discounting Again!
DEPOSIT YOUR MONEY
WITH
DELANEY & BYRNE!

WE WANT MONEY to pay our Bills, and in order to obtain it we will, from this date, offer our entire STOCK of

DRY GOODS,
HARDWARE!
HAT AND CAP.

BOOTS AND SHOES,
Skeleton Skirts,
Etc., etc., etc.

At a Discount of Twenty per cent.
FOR CASH ONLY!

We will give 10% worth of Goods for We will give 20% worth of Goods for EP Larger Sums in Proportion.

This is a good opportunity for those who have money to invest to do so.

Queen Street, next to Hon. D. Brennan's, Ch. town, Aug. 1, 1866. 1 p p p

DONALD M'RAE,
Merchant Tailor,
And Dealer in
Gents' Furnishing Goods,
Queen Street,
Charlottetown, P. E. Island, Aug. 1, 1866.

Paper Blinds!
FOR SALE at
KENT STREET BOOK STORE,
280 WINDOW PAPER BLINDS, of various colours and patterns. Cheap for Cash.
E. REILLY,
August 29, 1866.

Miscellaneous and General News.

THE SPEECH OF THE POPE TO GENERAL MONTEBELLO.

We give the following correct translation of the speech of His Holiness to the officers of the French army on the occasion of their departure from the Eternal City. It will be seen that the speech of His Holiness, as given by the Roman correspondent of "L'Union Catholique," differs in many essential points from the version which has been "supplied" to the London journals—

"Rome, Dec. 10, 1866—I have been able to obtain from the best authorities the correct version of the speech of His Holiness to the officers of the French army on the occasion of their departure from the Eternal City. It will be seen that the speech of His Holiness, as given by the Roman correspondent of "L'Union Catholique," differs in many essential points from the version which has been "supplied" to the London journals—

"The Holy Father replied thus—On the eve of your departure, I salute you, my children. Your faith, which eighteen years ago left France to defend the Holy See, was accompanied by the good wishes of all the Powers of the Catholic world. It now returns to France, and could desire that it might be received with the same acclamations, but I doubt that. It has been written to me, that the hearts of Catholics are troubled, thinking of the difficult position in which the Head of the Church and of their religion is now placed. As I already said to your companions in arms, 'There must be no illusions.' The Revolution is ever in the air, and I have seen it. A great passage has, said, 'Italy is made, but not completed.' I will say, that if it is not completely united (divisa) to its empire, such as it is—it is because a strip of territory still remains where I am, and where justice, order and peace continue to reign. When this shall be no more, I see the standard of the revolution flying over the Capitol, but I also see that the Turpin Rock is not very distant. Five or six years ago I was speaking with a representative of the Emperor, who had just returned from Rome, and who would say to the Emperor, 'I repeat to you, that St. Augustine, Bishop of Hippo, seeing the city besieged by an army of barbarians, and foreseeing the calamities that would follow the entry of this army, said to God—'Let me die before I witness these ruins.' Say that from me to the Emperor. The French ambassador said, 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the barbarians will enter here.' He was not a prophet, but he was an honest man. Another representative of France, now in high position, said to me—'Rome cannot be the capital of a kingdom (republic); it has no fitness for that, but it has every fitness to remain the capital of Catholicity.' These words were a great consolation to me. But I repeat it, the circumstances may change. I am weak in language, but I confide in Power which will give me the strength I need. That my children, God, with my blessing, and with my love. If you see the Emperor tell him that I pray every day for him. I am told that he is in bad health, and I pray that his health may be re-established. I am also told that he is troubled, and I pray that God may restore his tranquility. But if I pray for him he ought to do something for me, because he has sworn to 'Oh, Holy Father, rest assured the Select Literature.

GRACE WELDON.

FREDERICA. THE BONNET-GIRL. CHAPTER XXIV.—Continued.

THE RETROSPECT.

The instruments he employed to aid him in his conspiracy, were Jack Briggs, and a shrewd, depraved lad, who was the illegitimate child of the burglar, who had been recently discharged from the House of Correction, and whose wiles had undertaken to train in his own career of wickedness.

It was this lad, who went by the soubriquet of 'Little Jack,' who offered the drafts to Mr. Morley. The negro was the burglar himself, disguised by lamp-black and oil so completely, that with his naturally blunt features, he could not have been detected.

The result of this diabolical conspiracy the reader has already witnessed. He has seen it, skillfully, artfully, deeply, secretly, planned as it was, in malice, hatred, envy, and jealousy—he has seen it defeated by the simple resistance of the spotless integrity of its destined victims! This shows the value of character. It proves the incalculable advantage of a good name! It shows the potency of a pure life.

Had James Daily been the least irregular in his habits; had it been known to Mr. Weldon that he had departed in the slightest instance from the straight-forward path of integrity and uprightness; had his mind been able to recall from the past the least delicacy of conduct or of character; had a shadow, however faint, passed across the bright vista of his life, as he mentally looked back upon it when he was arraigned, as we have seen him, arraigned, in judgment before him, then our young man had fallen! then the hero of our story would have been without a shield to turn aside the suspicions that might be turned against him.

Mr. Weldon had lighted upon one dishonorable even James Daily would not have stood the ordeal. He would have suspected his integrity, and given him into the hands of the law; for the evidence against him was sufficient to authorize this course, without giving him the opportunity of speaking in his defence. The guilt of his clerk and contemplated partner seemed conclusive! It was, as it were, irresistible. All that stood between the young man and the fate of the criminal, was the bright shield of his own spotless character.

Mr. Weldon cast his eyes upon the evidence, convincing as it was, and he treated him as if innocent, gave him the privilege of asserting his innocence, and cast to the winds the charges that were intended to crush him! Such is the divine potency of character. It turns aside the shafts of suspicion, and its possession is clad in mail of proof.

Neither Mr. Weldon nor James had yet, however, discovered the guilty party. Their suspicions were, it has been seen, fastened upon the right one. But so strong was Mr. Weldon's conviction of James' innocence, that should he never be able to fasten the forgery upon another, he would never have suspected James. Innocency of life is a earnest stone. The character built upon it, neither storms nor floods can overthrow.

The chief motives which led Carlton Ellery to seek the destruction of our hero being rivalry, sufficient was achieved for his purposes when an irreconcilable breach should have been made between him and the father of Grace Weldon. This now seemed to him to have been accomplished; and he did not care to trouble himself or involve himself any further in prosecuting his further ruin, which he supposed would follow rapidly enough.

Other parts of the plan were, therefore, abandoned. These were to serve as serge de reserve in case he should acquit himself of the forgery; but these latter having (as he supposed) been effectual, as far as necessary in destroying him, Ellery, when he was necessary in destroying him, abandoned by him, as he has already been heard to signify to Philip Clow.

These parts of the plan we will here mention: they were that if the forgery and check checked failed by Daily's being able to advance his personal character, (for Carlton placed great weight upon this species of defence,) against the evidence, they were to beguile him by forged letters, appealing to his benevolence, to visit by night a sordid house of ill-repute; and while therein draw Mr. Weldon to the place by a previous private letter, notifying where he could establish at once, by personal observation, the proficiency of Daily's habits.

It was enough for their object, if Mr. Weldon could only see Daily on discovering the character of the place, coming out of the door. Should this fail, they resolved to beguile him by some artificial device, to go into a celebrated gaming-hall, the character being, of course, unknown to him. The note written by Isabel, at Clow's dictation, and which he had shown to Ellery, as if penned by himself, was sent to Daily to bring him to see his sister, as the opportunity, and when he should see the note, the mulatto's eye, in haste to secure him in the house by locking him in, hasten to the police, complain of missing diamond, and accusing him of having taken it, have him arrested and taken to prison.

Daily to most other persons than Clow, Briggs, and himself. All this time, Ellery, he said, had no suspicion that the mulatto had a sister! He could not, therefore, be aware of the secret object she had in view in seeing Daily, or of Clow's combined motives in having the note sent to him. Isabel was acting for herself! Philip Clow was acting for himself! Ellery equally independent of both; yet all three acting towards the same end, and each deceiving the other!

The reader, we trust, will now understand that Carlton Ellery, when he took leave of the fair opera-singer, had no suspicion whatever that the note Daily had shown him, addressed to Daily, inviting him to a certain house to see a lady, was really written by her, or that Daily was to see her in compliance with it, not many minutes after he took his leave. That Daily or she knew of one another's existence, he had not the most distant suspicion! That they were about to meet, and through the agency of a note he had himself read and commented should go to Daily, he as little dreamed of! The note he had believed penned by Philip, assuming, for the purpose, a delicate womanly style of penmanship, on which, it will be remembered, he complimented him. But that the note was to accomplish more than to bring Daily into a trap in which Mr. Weldon might discover him, had no place in his anticipations. He knew the note invited Daily to call at eight o'clock at No. — Dorner Place; but he supposed this, as Clow told him it was, a house in which to be seen would compromise his character.

Yes, yes! It is easy for this gay blood, now he has succeeded in his object, to recommend quietude. He fears we may god the young man to turn upon his foes! He trembles for the consequences of his forgeries. He does not, I had the penning of those dangerous papers, I don't fear on that score! He will have to bear the consequences if it is discovered that James Daily is now my victim! I have not done with him! Nor would he do with him if he suspected who had penned the note which has been sent to him. Thanks, Carlton, to thy ignorance! I shall now leave the victim all in my own hands! He knows not the deep services of revenge I hold against him! I told him of my love for Frederick the bond-girl, and that I was actuated by rivalry; but I did not tell him I hated him for coming between me and my ambitious purposes with regard to himself! I could not tell him that without revealing to him that the beautiful opera-singer who has fascinated him, and Philip Clow, the mulatto, are brother and sister. It is not time to make that revelation yet. Wait awhile, till the knowledge of it will make him foam at the mouth with madness! Then will I have my revenge on him, for this man I hate next to Daily! I shall never forget nor forgive the degrading epithets applied to me, for my love of blood, and I have in his need refused to lend him money without suitable security! His pride shall be lowered, high as it carries itself!

It was in this mood he sought his sister, the interview between which personages has already been given in the preceding chapter. We shall therefore not repeat here what has been said for him by love and revenge combined, and eventually establishes his own innocence; or the overthrow of the guilty. But we defer this denouement of our subject to the next chapter, with which our story will be brought to its termination.

CHAPTER XXV. CONCLUSION. WITH this chapter closes the story with which we have so long been trespassing upon our kind reader's patience. We have much to do in a little space to take care of an enormous mass of matter, but we trust they will all have due justice done to them.

We have said that our hero resolved to accept the invitation contained in the anonymous note which he had received, believing it might come from the female who had addressed the bank in reference to the drafts; which female had, as we know, a fictitious existence. James had suspected indeed that the note to the bank might have been penned by Carlton, but when he received this he believed that then it might really have been written by a woman. Hoping to obtain some clue to the abettors of the plot against him, he determined to go to No. — Dorner Place. A few minutes before eight he rang the bell and was admitted by the young fair-haired slave of the mulatto. From the appearance of leary in the hall he believed it was the abode of a respectable private family. Giving his name, the young girl at once, as if previously instructed, led him to the upper drawing-room and left him to enter. At first he saw no one, for the apartment was obscure and objects indistinct. He crossed, as Ellery had done, to the door whence the light issued, and was met by Isabel with an enchanting smile upon her features, and eyes brilliant with passionate love.

'I feared you would not come,' he said, with tones that thrilled his bosom, while he gazed upon her with bewildered surprise; for he recognized the dark-eyed sewing-girl in all the voluptuous elegance of her present costume. As she spoke she took his hand and led him as if she would seat him by her upon the ottoman from which she had just risen to meet him. 'It was by you then the note came,' she said gravely, and shrinking back; for he felt an instinctive alarm at the position in which he found himself. 'Are you not the same person who—' 'Yes, the sewing-girl whose name you returned to her. The sewing-girl who gave you in return for her heart, I have sent for you to declare my sentiment and to assure you that if you will return it will lay up-life at your feet. Without you I can never exist. With you I seek no happiness beyond this life.' 'You know not what you say,' he said, with astonishment and pain. 'To you I can be nothing. Why did you write to me? How can I serve you, or what interest have you in my honor? Why do I find you here surrounded by luxury?' 'This is my home. I was at the mantua-maker's but a few days to please one who has control over me.' (To be continued.)

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully begs to inform his Customers and the Public generally that his Warehouses are now filled with all kinds of goods in his line, suitable for the season, which have been manufactured with great care, and of best material, with a due regard to style, and which will be offered to wholesale buyers on the most favorable terms and at such prices as cannot fail to insure quick sales.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just opened a FACTORY AT SUMMERSIDE, is prepared to supply Wholesale Customers with the Island Manufactured TOBACCO, warranted a good article, at the very lowest prices, and on the most reasonable terms; and hopes his Factory, being the first of the kind established in George County, will meet with liberal patronage from Retailers and Merchants of Summerside, and Prince County generally.

THE SUBSCRIBER has now completed his Importations for the Season, per ships "Lotus" and "Ariadne" from BRITAIN, consisting of Black Broad Cloth and Fancy Costings and Scotch Tweed Trowsers, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats and Caps, Gloves, Scarfs, Ties, Braces, Grey and White Cottons, shirtings, checked shirtings, printed Cottons, gingham, jeans, emburghs, bagging, tickings, Cotton Warp, white, red and blue, warranted superior quality; white and scarlet flannels, shawls, parsons, Hosiery, handkerchiefs, ribbons, Tails, white and colored Hose, hoop skirts, and a general assortment of Miscellaneous Goods.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

A FINE CHANCE FOR SPECULATORS AND ENTERPRISING MEN!

THE undersigned has been instructed by the Owners to offer for SALE, or to RENT, several valuable FREEHOLD and LEASEHOLD PROPERTIES, and FARMS, in Dorset and other parts of the Island, in good cultivation, well wooded, and possessing other advantages; and for which good and immediate possession can be given.

Also, four LOTS, being the residue of thirteen Building Lots, (the other nine having been sold the present season) in the most advantageous mercantile situation known as "SUMMER HILL," adjoining MONTAGUE BRIDGE, ten miles from Georgetown, where class to 150,000 bushels of Produce are annually shipped, and nearly all paid for in Cash.

Plans, particulars or any other information can be obtained by calling at the office of Messrs. BALL & SON, Land Surveyors, Charlottetown. Reference can also be had from W. SANBORN, P. P. MONTAGUE, TOWN, ASSOCIATE, Georgetown; JAS. HENDERSON, Campbellton, Lot 4; F. W. HUGHES, Esq., Charlottetown; and to the subscriber at Orwell, who is also Agent for the sale of Messrs. W. & M. COOKING, Mill View, the Hon. Jas. McLACHLAN, New Ferry, FRANK W. McDONALD, Finette; where CLOTH is received and returned with despatch.

Orwell Store, Aug. 10, 1864. THE LONDON AND LANCASHIRE FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, HAVING A LARGE PAID UP CAPITAL, ACCEPT ALL CLASSES OF RISKS, At Reasonable Rates of Premium.

REMOVAL. DR. W. G. SUTHERLAND has removed from his residence on Queen Street to the Corner of Great George & Kent Streets and would respectfully inform his friends and customers that he has greatly added to his LARGE STOCK OF DRUGS, CHEMICALS, PERFUMERY and TOILET ARTICLES in variety.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received, and offers for sale, a large quantity of the following goods:—Black Broadcloths and Doebucks, Tweeds and Silk Mixtures, &c. &c. The above Goods will be found suitable for Fall and Winter wear, and can be recommended to the Public as being respectively selected a continuation of the most favorable terms and conditions, and would be glad to give more satisfaction to laboring men and mechanics than anything else they can purchase.

VOL. III.

THE EDITOR'S OFFICE, at his Office, corner of Queen and Prince Streets, for 1 year, paid in advance.

ALMANAC. New Moon, 6th day; First Quarter, 13th; Full Moon, 20th day; Last Quarter, 27th day.

THE CHEAPEST AND SAFEST DOCTOR. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. This great household medicine ranks among the leading necessities of life.

Disorders of the Liver and Stomach. Most persons will at some period of their lives, suffer from indigestion, flatulency, or other ailments of the stomach and bowels.

Weakness and Debility. Such as suffer from weakness, or debility, and those who feel a want of energy, should at once have recourse to these Pills, as they immediately purify the blood, and acting upon the main-spring of life, give strength and vigor to the system.

Disorders of Children. If these Pills be used according to the printed directions, and the Ointment rubbed over the region of the kidneys, at least once a day as laid down, it will penetrate the kidneys, and correct any derangement of their organs.

Disorders of the Stomach. Are the sources of the deadliest maladies. Their effect is to vitiate all the fluids of the body, and to send a poisoned stream through all the channels of circulation.

Complaints of Females. The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Holloway's Pills.

Bilious Affections. All young children should have administered to them, from time to time, a few doses of these Pills, which will purify their blood, and enable them to pass safely through the different disorders incident to childhood, such as measles, hooping-cough, croup, and other infantile diseases.

Drusey. Hundreds are cured yearly by the use of these Pills, conjointly with the Ointment, which should be rubbed very frequently into the parts affected.

Derangement of the Kidneys. The quantity and quality of the bile are of vital importance to health. Upon the liver, the gland which secretes the fluid so necessary for digestion, the Pills operate specifically, judiciously reducing its irregularities, and effectually curing its morbid, bilious remittents, and all the varieties of disease generated by an unnatural condition of that organ.

Fresh Jersey Peaches, WANTED to be a superior article. For sale by W. B. WATSON, City Drug Store, No. 22, Dec. 18, 1863.

Butler's Rosemary Hair Cleaner. A elegant preparation for the Toilet and Nursery, possessing in the highest degree the property of removing dandruff and dandruff from the Head, and by its invigorating qualities increasing the growth of the Hair.