GODERICH, AUG. 31, 1871.

The Great Boat Race.

No event has elicited more general interest throughout the Dominion than the race between the picked rowers of Old England and Canada, as represented by the crack crews of the Tyne and St. John boats, of world-wide fame since the race of 1870, when the former crew was victorious. Wednesday last was the day of trial and the Kennobscas valley was filled with eager spectators. The water was clear, bright and smooth, and everything gave promise of a glorious sweep and a close contest. The men were in splendid condition and handled their boats skilfully previous to the start. The St. John team was first in the field and waited 15 minutes for the men of the Tyne. At 7 25 a. m., the boats took up position, the Tyne getting the choice and taking the inside course. At the word "Are you ready! Go!" from the referee, both shot off like lightning, St. John leading. At this time, the pulling of the Paris crew was 42 strokes to the minute, and of the other 39 strokes. By a tremendous spurt, the Tyne drew ahead and kept the lead for about three minutes. But the steady stroke of the Paris men was irresistible, and once more they were in advance. At this point Renforth, the leader of the Tyne boat, dropped his oar and fell over. The St. John team quietly pulled over the course in 40 minutes and 11 seconds. The victory to the Colonists over the choice men of the old Country is clouded by the sad fate of Renforth, who burst a blood-vessel and has since died. Boat-racing is about the purest expression of "muscular Christianity," but is not exempt from risks attendant on the "regulation" training to which the trained athletes is subjected. In the effort to increase the muscle and endurance of the subject, the inner springs of life are almost invariably so weakened that some time or other the snap comes and, in a moment, the young giant is cut down. It will be well when civilization is converted from its adoration of mere animal strength and skill and sets up as ideal the "sound mind in a sound body" to be attained by a judicious admixture of moral, intellectual and physical education.

THE RIVAL RAILWAYS.

The chief objection urged against the W. G. & B. R., is done away with by the receipt, on the 23rd inst., telegram from the English Board of the Great Western Company, approving of the extension of the line via Ainsleyville, Wingham and Lockton to Kincardine. This is an approval, which will make the bonds of this line eminently saleable at good rates in the English market, by having the endorsement of the Great Western Railway, so that the work of construction when begun, will not be delayed for want of funds. We have just as much faith in the Hamilton men as in the London or any others. Railway projectors will only build a line, if they get bonuses, and they will turn and twist the route until they find the direction in which they can get the largest bonuses. This the Hamilton directors have accomplished. We have no doubt North Huron and South Bruce will now get railway accommodation by properly supporting the W. G. & B. R. The present route is the best yet selected; being the most direct one to the central markets and also the one which will be of the most service to the largest number of the Northern Townships in the County. The Township Council of Morris has very wisely given up its intentions to submit a sectional bonus to the London line, and we hope East Wawanosh, under the changed circumstances, will come to a similar resolution. The bonuses arranged to be voted upon at present are as follows:—Township of Wallace, $10,000; Village of Listowel, $5,000; Elms, $30,000; Grey, $35,000; Morris, $30,000; Turnbull, $23,000; West Wawanosh, $18,000; East Wawanosh, $18,000; Kinlos, $15,000; Ashfield, $10,000. This is at the rate of say $5,000 per mile, but the promoters guarantee that when they secure the government grant of $2,000 per mile the amounts voted will be reduced. Much has been said about the refusal of the Government to grant aid to this extension. We do not believe that any such refusal has been given. The giving of bonuses by the inhabitants of a section to a railway will be to the Ontario Government the strongest argument for granting aid to that line and would not be denied, if the railway, as the Hamilton scheme does, comes within the intension of the Act of appropriation. The argument that the Wellington Grey and Bruce Railway has not a charter is, to call by the mildest term, a misstatement. The clause in the act authorizing such extension is as follows:—"And whereas the increase in wealth and population in the said County of Bruce renders it desirable to continue the said line, not only to Southampton, but to other points on Lake Huron, and it is expedient to extend the powers granted by the said (previous) act, be it enacted that it shall be lawful for the said Company to extend its line from some point on the main line to Kincardine." The Wellington Grey and Bruce line best serves the largest section of North Huron, and the extension is now so guaranteed that it cannot fail being carried. We are therefore, satisfied that the ratepayers of the north, if they properly value railway accommodation, will make up their minds to vote for the bonusscheme to the Hamilton scheme. The fact of the case will bear looking into, and we would recommend all to study the question thoroughly, before refusing to vote for the Wellington, Grey and Bruce.

The London, Huron and Bruce has an important vocation before it in opening up the Townships of the South Riding and we should like to see the Directors setting themselves to this task. They will get bonuses to build the line and traffic to occupy it, if they will only give up the notion of crossing the track of, and becoming a feeder to, the Grand Trunk. Whether they terminate at Clinton, Bayfield, or Goderich, or go up the Lake to Kincardine, they can do a good work in building up London and opening up the intermediate country. The talk of forming a junction with the T. G. & B. is the wildest, in regard to their own interests, we have yet heard of, and would have placed them in the very peculiar position of becoming for a few miles of their track avenues to transport produce to two lines leading to central markets; thus, reducing their through traffic to London, and making their company infinitely less successful than they will be, by avoiding all contact with present or projected lines.

"Independent and Final Judgment"

On Monday, 21st inst., the Imperial Parliament was prorogued by the usual speech from the Throne. In that speech the "Washington Surrender" is thus referred to:—"With special satisfaction I refer to the present occasion to me in the application of that principle of amicable reference which is proclaimed by the Treaty of Paris which I rejoice to have the opportunity of recommending by example, and we have also agreed in the adoption of certain rules for guiding the maritime conduct of neutrals which, may, I trust, ere long obtain general recognition, and form a valuable addition to the code of international law. I place full reliance upon the disposition of Americans to carry forward, with cordiality and zeal, the subsidiary arrangements which have been determined on for the execution of the Treaty. I shall apprise the Parliament of Canada that the provisions which require its assent are, in my view, highly conducive to the interests of the Dominion. On these provisions, however, that Parliament will pass independent and final judgment."

These are the views of the Gladstone Ministry, of which Her Majesty is nothing more than the constitutional mouth-piece. The international result of the Treaty (Canadian affairs excepted) we also could view with special satisfaction, for the fact that the British Commissioners failed to take manly and independent ground throughout the negotiation, but, falsely impressed with the belief that war would be the near or ultimate consequence of a failure to negotiate a treaty, weakly and chubbishly yielded all the demands of the American Commissioners, who naturally became more grasping the moment they found concessions so readily made them. We wish the Imperial Government could only feel as we do how little danger there is of America going to war with any more powerful nation than the Corsicans, while rebellious still smoulders in Dixie's land. Since the mother country is content to pay such a price for peace, we suppose we may also be content, now that Mr Gladstone has officially announced that his government "has charged itself with the Fenian raid claims." That the Gladstone Government is sincere enough in thinking the Treaty "conducive to the interests of the Dominion" we can readily believe, when we think how ill-informed British politicians have shown themselves in regard to our circumstances and interests. The majority of the Canadian people, from Prince Edward Island to Ontario, think otherwise and demand, whatever may be the consequence, that the members of our Dominion Parliament exercise unflinchingly the right of "Independent and Final Judgment," secured to them by the terms of the Treaty and now authoritatively announced from the Throne. That "Independent and Final Judgment" can only lead to one result—the rejection of terms that would ruin Canada commercially for ever, by placing her irremediably in the hands of a people that, whatever may be their other good qualities, would have no objection to ride to their own advancement over the skeletons of other nations. It would have been becoming Sir John A. Macdonald and his government had chosen to indicate to Canada, whose servants they are what course they intended to pursue. Their course leads to the belief they will betray Canada, if they can. The constituencies will watch their representatives closely, and we be to those who fail to do their duty!

Reform Organization.

We hope the Reformers of the South Riding are holding their Township meetings and organizing, preparatory to the Convention at Seaforth on 12th October, next.

TOWNSHIP PRINTING

carefully and expeditiously executed at the Signal Office.

Worth Considering.

Might we direct the attention of the Grand Trunk Railway to the example of the Northern Railway, which has finished the Construction of extensive elevators at Collingwood for the unloading and temporary storage of grain? By next year our harbor will be so far advanced that it will give entrance and accommodation to the largest vessels that float on the lakes. It will then rest with the Grand Trunk Railway Co. to afford the conveniences for speed discharge of grain which are to be found at all termini where Railway Companies desire to foster trade. We need not do more than allude to the well-known advantages of Goderich as an entrepot between Fort William, Chicago, Duluth, or Saginaw and Toronto, Buffalo or Montreal. Will the Grand Trunk Railway, when our harbors made the best on the lakes, for want of dispatch in discharge, storage accommodation and liberal tariffs, allow business to go to the Georgian bay that could be better transacted here? We hope for better things.

Fearful Railway Accident.

Seven miles from Boston, on the Eastern Railroad, a fearful Railway accident took place. An accommodation was run into by the Lighting express, literally shutting up four cars like a telescope, killing 25 persons and injuring 40 others. The engine was upset throwing scalding water on the wounded and dying, and setting fire to the debris. It was a fearful scene and no doubt the result of carelessness.

Mr Hayward has written us from Winnipeg requesting publication in the Signal of the following communication also sent by him to the Beacon. We gladly comply, as it will be of service to those interested in the North West. We shall be glad to hear from Mr. Hayward again. Ed. Signal.

WINNIPEG, MANITOBA, AUG. 1, 71.

After leaving Pembina, I saw the first sign of anything like good crops; and these continued all along the road to Fort Garry. I reached here on the evening of the 13th July, just one month from the time of our leaving London. I was agreeably surprised at the appearance of the town here. Large buildings are going up in all directions, both for stores and dwelling houses. Two brick yards have also commenced operations, and are fully employed in supplying the demand for building material. The town demands very much of Seaforth, though if anything it is building up faster, and the streets, particularly the main street, are very wide. The emigration so far amounts to about 800 souls. Very few have gone back, and those that have we see better with. I believe from what I hear and from personal observation, there is every inducement for a man of energy and industry in this country. The climate so far I have found very beneficial, the air being particularly bracing and pure. I have not been in a bed for six weeks, sleeping under canvas in all weathers, and have not had the first symptoms of cold or cough. I would not advise any more mechanics to come here this fall, as there will be a long, dull winter; but building will be carried on very extensively next spring. Carpenters are earning here from $2.50 to $4.00 per day and are paying from $5.00 to $7.00 per week for board and lodging. Most of the however, will be required to carry them through the winter. As soon as spring opens I will write you, and state the different trades requiring hands, and also the wages likely to be paid, which will prove a guide to any who may think of coming out. Pork is 25c. per lb.; hams, 30c. per lb.; bread for common whiskeys, sugar, 20c. and 25c. per lb.; tea about 10c. and the same prices as in Canada. There is very little fresh meat to be had, and this runs from 20c. to 25c. per lb. Potatoes are very high now, but will, I think, be cheap next winter, as the crop has every appearance of a large yield. Salmon business is the most flourishing here at present—12c. per glass for common whiskeys or beer, and 12c. for German cigars or cheroots. It is estimated that $600 per day is spent in dissipation here, most people seeming to have plenty of money for the purpose. Before closing, I must devote a few lines to the curse of this country—Hill, Griggs & Co. From St. Paul to Fort Garry you hear of nothing but complaints against this monopoly, which I am happy to say has been at last broken through. The unfortunate emigrants who happen to have had their stuff bonded through to Fort Garry, care of "Hill, Griggs & Co." myself among the number, have not got their goods in many instances delivered here yet, though some of them were left in their hands as much as two months ago. I have left St. Paul five weeks since with the assurance that my stuff would reach Fort Garry as soon as myself. I have now been here two weeks awaiting it. There is also a large party of surveyors here doing nothing but waiting on their celebrated and incompetent firm for their provisions. They have now been here three weeks. Some of their goods they shipped from St. Paul through Mr. Kitson, the Hudson's Bay Co. agent there, but who is the owner of the steam or International, and is engaged in conveying goods through the same route. Goods which were delivered into Mr. Kitson's hands four days later than those into the hands of Hill, Griggs & Co., I have no sign whatever, as yet, of the other goods. The fact is, Messrs. Hill, Griggs & Co. either have not the means to make their transport efficient or else they are careless as to whether they accommodate the public or not. They were the original instigators of this unnecessary and infamous bonded line, and now that the United States Government have reversed their instructions relative to the passage of emigrants through the States, and other competing lines are coming into operation, the cream has been taken off, and Messrs. Hill, Griggs & Co. can afford to resign this trade on the strength of the fortune they have already made out of it as a monopoly. In future I would recommend our wholesale men to ship their goods through Mr. N. W. Kitson, St. Paul, Minn., and I think they will find it more satisfactory to themselves and also to the merchants here. I am at present engaged on a trip through the Province with Mr. Dewe, Inspector of Post Offices for the Dominion who is establishing offices at the necessary points.

Tapering off.

The Seaforth Express's stream of wrath has dwindled down to a mere thread. All it now does is to hold over us a childish threat of "unpleasant personalities" to deter us from doing our duty as political journalists. We invite the Expressor to carry out its threat at once. We too have a few "trumps" left, yet. Having earned our leisure, by silencing our opponent, we shall now take our turn as spectator of the coming passage at arms, between the New Era and the Expressor. A thrust or two has already been exchanged and blood drawn.

A Diabolical Crime Revealed through Somnambulism.

The particulars of the murder of Miss Pardowner at Attica, Ind., have come out by the somnambulist confession of one of the guilty parties. A Lafayette newspaper says: "The principal actors in the affair are a young man named Greer Hart, well known in this city as 'Bully Hart,' said to be a son of Isaac W. Hart, of Attica; a young man named Manfred Browning, the proprietor of a long-testing machine, whose name of our informant was unable to learn. It appears that on Thursday night late, the night after the murder, Hart went to bed very much under the influence of liquor, and in his drunken stupor talked in his sleep in the presence of his wife and mother-in-law in such a manner as led them to believe that he was one of the guilty parties. The next morning his wife accused him of the crime, and he confessed it, but charged her not to say anything about it, and threatened her life if she did. The dread secret was, however, too much for her to keep, and in the afternoon she divulged it, and Hart was arrested, upon which he confessed everything. He says that on the night of the murder he was watching the girl while she was engaged in milking the cow. He threw a clod of dirt into her pail, upon seeing which she emptied it and went into the house and washed it out. During her absence he drove the cow through the alley, to the rear of Roger's soap factory, the girl following. Arriving there Hart approached and struck her on the head with a pair of brass knuckles, which fell her to the earth. Browning and the other man then came up one of whom stuffed a handkerchief into her mouth and choked her. The two latter then proceeded to violate her person. At the conclusion of their heinous work they discovered that their victim was dead. They took up the body and hid it in a chicken coop near by, where it remained until two o'clock in the morning, when they removed it and deposited it in the canal, where it was found. Hart was locked up on Friday night and the facts had become known the town of Attica was fearfully excited, and there was strong talk of taking the prisoners out of the calabos and hanging them."

When our informant left, the calabos was surrounded by three or four hundred persons, who seemed intent on a riot and sure punishment, but it is to be hoped that better counsel prevailed, and that the law will be allowed to take its course. Young Hart is represented as a bad boy and has been for several years past. At least he has that reputation here, where he is well known among a certain class. It is also said that he is married to a woman whose reputation was at that time none the best. The other two parties are not so well known.

Few people unacquainted with physiological chemistry are aware of the quantity of iron in the blood, but all should know the importance of keeping up the supply, for debility, disease and death are sure to follow when the quantity becomes too much reduced. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) supplies this vital element and has cured many chronic diseases.
