ble Addresses Given by the Rev. Dickie, M.A. Service in the Even-

Years ago a vacation was looked upon as a luxury, only for the wealthy to enjoy. Not so to-day. Modernism has made such an upheaval in the activities pertaining to our different callings that mechanic, clerk and others by the organist, Mr. F. J. King. have found that absenting oneself for a time from his labors, renews and strengthens him for duty, and Rossley's British makes life worth while. In the arduous duties of our Lord we hear of His nietly stealing away with His lisciples to rest and meditate, spending hours in prayer to God for help to carry on His great work to overcome evil. The House of God is and should be a place for everyone to spend a quiet hour and on leaving carry away make-up. These lose to a large measure lots of good help, help which fore. strengthens, given in quietness o the hour. The manoeuvres of ar undersea boat, some little time ago is a good example to all of us. Kipling speaks of the extraordinary silence which surounds the army officer. When we ook at the quiet and silent ways of Lords Roberts and Kitchener, men who when others were busying them selves as to the business resources were quietly making preparations fo the safeguarding of their country, and no doubt exists that if some of their views had been accepted quite a lot of good would have come out of it. The church to-day has lost its effectiveness on the individual as in the north where she went with past. But no doubt exists, that in the to the MacMillan exploration future the place which she has lost for the present will come back again and men will be strengthened by good

The sudden advance of the French some weeks ago might perhaps have claimed the element of surprise as the cause of its success: it is hard to see how the Germans can urge the same excuse this time. Forewarned, they have kept troops enough for its defence, as the number of prisoners taken on a comparatively short front attests. The victory is therefore a striking proof of the enemy's increasing weakness, or relative weakness, on the most important front. But it proves more than that. There must be another explanation of friends during her short stay here, who are glad to welcome her to St. John's. One and all wish the gallant Captain and his bride every happiness.

Military Wedding

On Saturday afternoon at St. Thomas's Church, Miss Shelly Lewis, of Montreal, and Captain Charles Ayre, of the Nfid. Regiment, were nietly married. Ayre acted as father-giver, and Miss Marjorie Ayre as bridesmaid. The service was performed by Rev. Dr. Jones. Yesterday Captain and Mrs. Ayre left for Montreal, where they will spend a month. The Captain is one of the most popular officers in the Regiment, in which he sustains the high reputation of the Ayre family. His brother, Lieut. Gerald, and three cousins, Captains Eric and Bernard and Lieut. Wilfred Ayre, fell in action on July 1st. Mrs. Ayre, who adds to many other accomplishments a very high musical talent, has made a host of friends during her short stay here, who are glad to welcome her to St.

The Dutch Make Stirring Appeal to Americans

Call Upon President Wilson to Take Some Action to put an end to the Ghastly Suffering Inflicted by Germany Upon the Belgians, Who are Being Treated Like Cattle.

an "Appeal to the American people' by the Holland section of the League of Neutral States. The appeal is signed by President Niemeyar and Secretaries Delafaille and Walch. The appeal, in part, says:

"Your President has said that soon when the war would make the position of neutral nations unbearable. For us Hollanders that moment has arrived; not through our own sufferngs, but because we cannot passively contemplate the ghastly suffering inflicted by Germany upon Belgium, our neighbor. To us the cruelty on the Belgians by Germany is more vivid every day. Every day numbers of fugitives, in spite of the deadly electric wire which the Germans have erected along the frontier, succeed in escaping to the Netherlands. From them we learn the painful details of the unatterable despair of the women and children who are left behind, and of the agonizing scenes brothers and sons, dragged from their iomes and women folk, and packed ransported, slaves, to an unknown destination and to an unknown fate. Call to Neutral Nations.

"To put an end to this-to arrest this hellfsh scourge, which at this noment lacerates the whole of Northern France and Western Russiathere is but one way open, and that is

"And for you, citizens of the mightiest of the neutral States, it is, in our opinion, the right and duty to take the leadership upon you. This tyranny is not to be borne in patience, and the neutral nations can no longer stand idly by while in Western Euope the most primitive laws of humanity, observed even by uncivilized races, are trampled under foot.

"We appeal to you to urge your dovernment to energetic and decisive action, and to call upon the other We do not hesitate to take it upon ourselves to speak with firm conviction in the name of humanity, and our hope is firmly fixed on that sense of justice which has always formed one of the most cherished traditions of citizens of the United States. trenches but were repulsed. The Teutonic armies under Field Marshal Von Mackensen in Eastern Wallachia, have crossed the Buzeu and lower Calmatuiul River. In addition to taking 1150 prisoners captured great quantities of rolling stock, with innumerable vehicles of other kinds. The pursuit of the Russian and Roumanian troops in Dobrudja continues. The Teutonic forces are now close to the forest district in the north where it is expected the Russo-Roumanian armies will offer strong resistance. Petrograd admits the capture by the Germans and Bulgarian forces of the village of Testmole in Dobrudja. Desperate encounters marked the fighting in Volhynia, where the forces of Prince Leopold are declared by the Berlin War Office to have stormed the Russian position on a front of six hundred yards north of the railroad between Voval and Lutsk, capturing five officers, three hundred men, and several machine guns and mine-

ROUMANIAN FOREIGN OFFICE AT PETROGRAD.

BERLIN, To-day. The correspondent at Stockholm of the Lokal Anzeiger, telegraphs that during the meeting of the last Rou manian Crown Council it was resolved that the Roumanian Foreign Office should be transported to Petrograd, other ministries for the present being established at Kiew. The Roumanian Parliament, it is reported, will meet at Petrograd. King Ferdinand is said to have declared that he would stay one week in Russia, then go to England. The correspondent quotes a Russian news despatch from Jassy on the Russe Roumanian femiliar of the present being the fine fensive on the Meuse sector of the Verdun front, and have made further gains. The British also made progress and succeeded in Saturday night's engagements in raiding the enemy's trenches near Ransart, south of Wytschaete, gaining a foohold in both cases. The German War Office admits the loss to the French of the village of Bezonvaux Wood west of that place, but asserts that the French thrust further northward broke down a Russian news despatch from Jassy on the Russo-Roumanian frontier as saying that the Roumanian towns of Braila and Galatz on the Danube in southeastern Moldavia have been evacuated by the Roumanians.

LABO: OPINION ON THE WAR.

LONDON, To-day.

Lloyds Weekly News has published specially written statements on the position in prospect, With such a position in prospect, Germany could well afford to retire from France and Belgium and even pay an indemnity to the latter.
