THE CAR DRIVER TAKES INFERIOR—His Complete Identification of the Assassins—Some Startling Evidence.

DUBLIN, Feb. 10.—Michael Kavanagh, the carman, has turned informer against the prisoners charged with conspiring to murder the officials. The court was crowded when Joseph Brady, Timothy Kelly, James Carey (town councillor), Catharine Fitzharris, James Hanlon, Joseph Mullett, James Mallet, Edward O'Brien, Wm. Maloney, Daniel Curley, Thos. Doyle, Daniel Delaney and Fagan were placed in the dock today. There was great excitement when Kavanagh himself was apparently much excited.

Kavanagh deposed that he drove Brady, Kelly, and two others who he did not know, to Phoenix park the evening of the assassination of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke. James Carey and Daniel Delaney were on the seats at the side of the road in the park. Delaney said they were watching the chief secretary. On the 6th of May last he (Kavanagh) was at the Royal Oak public house in Park Gate street, and was engaged by Brady and Kelly and a stranger. [Brady here uttered a guttural noise.] Kavanagh identified Delaney as another of the men present. He drove four men into the park by the Island bridge gate to the Phoenix monument, along the main road to the Gough monument, and there got down. They said there was no sign of "Skin the goat," meaning Fitzharris, a carman. Fitzharris shouted "Skin the goat" nicknames." Kavanagh then saw Fitzharris with a cab coming from the opposite direction. Four men alighted from the cab. The cab stayed a long way up the road, with the horse's head towards Dublin. Soon afterwards he saw two gentlemen approaching and heard them say, "He saw the other fall, but the four men whom he drove to the park jumped on his car and he drove away raised a shout. Upon this he called the driver of the cab. He deposed that he saw Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke approaching. Somebody among those he drove saw the tall man to be assassinated. Kavanagh said that subsequently he drove by the chapel of Lord round town to Phoenix park. He saw the tall man, and he saw the man who was the driver of the cab. He saw the man who was the driver of the cab. He saw the man who was the driver of the cab.

THE LOTTERY SCANDAL.

There are two roads open to the Canadian people—to suppress and keep in check the gambling mania, or to give the country over to it completely. There is no half-way course.

Now the World takes the stand that this whole lottery business is illegal, pernicious, demoralizing, and it is convinced that the common sense of the people, and the evidence of experience supports our position.

What the public wish to see is a young lawyer in his prime, of force, of mental vigor, and a sound judgment, and the senior judgeship, and the junior judgeship similarly filled as soon as proper provision is made for its present occupant.

Who are the officials who have so far neglected their duty? The county crown attorneys and the police of the cities in which the tickets were sold.

THE TARIFF FIGHT IN WASHINGTON. The fourth of March is drawing very near now, and there seems little present probability that congress will be able to agree upon a tariff bill before that date.

Mr. GEORGE JACOB HOLYOAKE hits the nail exactly on the head when he says, in a letter to the London Times, that few are aware that Canada is larger than the United States, and has resources of health, fertility, and riches inconceivable to those who know it only through articles who paint its shores and not its harvests and wondrous scenery.

Our contemporary the Montreal Herald is at fault in saying there is a want of harmony in the workmen's ranks in this country regarding their candidates. We believe and hope the workmen are thoroughly united.

country's legislators have no intention of the present republican majority had the courage to cut down the excise taxes.

A COMING ORDER. About fifteen years ago the farmers of the eastern states were grain growers. They are not so now, and why? Railways opened up the wheat-producing regions west of the Mississippi.

It has been pointed out that from 1871 to 1881 the expenses in Ontario increased at the rate of only six cents per capita while in the Dominion they increased $1.41 a head.

AN ARKANSAS editor who was elected county judge some time ago, did not approve of his own administration, and in an able editorial written by himself, said: "It is with sorrow that we announce that the county judge of this county, and the editor of this paper as a d-d fool."

It appears that the Canadian increase in visiting England have something more in view than giving mere exhibitions. They propose to do their best to give the country a lift—to create, in fact, a general boom in Canadian affairs abroad.

THE COUNTY JUDGESHIP. The metropolitan county of York for a long time has been somewhat notorious in regard to its county court. It was not in harmony with its surroundings; it was erratic; it was above all things lacking in vigor.

THE WORKINGMEN. The workmen have an opportunity to show their mettle. They have brought out candidates in two Toronto and in Hamilton, and if they do not elect them themselves no one else will.

THE MAIL AND ITS FRIENDS assert that if the boundary award is taken to the privy council Ontario will get more territory than the award gives her. On Saturday the Mail giving the history of Joseph Burr Plumb and his ancestors back to the common ancestor of all, said, speaking of a quarrel over the boundary line between the province of New York and the colony of Connecticut in the time of William III, A. D. 1710:

WHAT CANADA requires is more patriotism and less partyism. Where the welfare of the country is at stake partyism has no concern. The Ontario Rykers of the dominion should bear in mind that "we can keep secret, putting one way." They are not justified in expressing opinions derogatory to the country in private and then wondering that those opinions should become public.

Our contemporary the Montreal Herald is at fault in saying there is a want of harmony in the workmen's ranks in this country regarding their candidates. We believe and hope the workmen are thoroughly united.

THE GROUND LICENSE QUESTION. Sir, in accordance with the wish of several prominent citizens, some of whom are not temperance society men, I have made an examination of the petition presented to the council last Monday by Ald. Turner, praying that no change be made in the present law regarding licenses.

A thorough criticism of its composition and character, and the incoherence therein would take up too much space here, but it is quite clear that to call it a petition of over four thousand ratepayers, as asserted on its presentation, is evidently estimating the intelligence of the city council at an exceedingly low standard, or else it is estimating their disposition and readiness to condescend to an attempted deception at a very high standard.
