ROYAL BABE TO BE CHRISTENED IN YORKSHIRE

London, March 13.—Viscount Lascelles has finally been allowed to have a boy in regard to his son and heir. It was his wish that the baby should be born in Yorkshire, his ancestral home, but Princess Mary preferred London, and here the younger marquis's entry into the world. At once people began to speculate upon the place that would be chosen for the christening. Nearly everyone deemed the Chapel Royal, in St. James' Palace the most likely. But the proud father insisted on York, and he has his way. Little Harry will be baptized in St. Mary's church, Goldsmiths. The King and Queen will attend.

TO READ BAD BOOKS AND TELL OF THEM

New York, March 13.—"The Clean Books League" has been formed by representatives of many civic and welfare organizations called together by Justice Ford at his chambers.

One of the features of the league announced after the meeting was the establishment of a committee of prominent men to read dubious and suspected books and report their impressions to the public.

Justice Ford, who was made president of the league, was charged with the duty of selecting this jury.

The reason for this publication committee," he said, "is that there seems to be no other way to make the average citizen understand the horrible character of these works which are now filling our bookshops.

"The idea is therefore to form a committee of men who are well known, and whose opinions will have weight, not only in the church and synagogue, but in the homes of the people.

"When I was a boy on a farm," said Justice Ford, "I once heard one of our neighbors say, according to the legend plot as 'horse high, pig tight and bull gonny'.

QUOTATION OF COMMANDMENT

Was More Effective Than That About David and Uriah

Counsel on Both Sides in a Notorious New York Murder Case Appealed to the Scriptures.

New York, March 13.—There was much quoting of Scripture by counsel in presenting to the jury on Wednesday the case for and against Mrs. Paulette Salades, who was on Thursday found guilty of murder in the second degree for shooting Oscar Martelliere, an insurance broker, in his office at 100 William street, on Oct. 16 last.

While her attorney read from the scripture the story of David and Bathsheba, she faced the jury without outward sign of emotion.

James A. Turley, counsel for the defense, drew a parallel in his summing up between the betrayal of Bathsheba and the treatment of Mrs. Salades by Oscar Martelliere, her victim.

Mr. Salades, the widow of the slain, said she was shocked and appalled by the verdict of the jury.

TEACHERS DENY IT. Fredericton, N. B., March 13.—A story that teachers' strike here was being advocated as a means of endeavoring to force reconsideration of the action of the board of school trustees in a district principal Dr. B. C. Foster of the Fredericton high school is given denial by teachers.

GYRO LUNCHEON. The Gyro Club held its weekly luncheon today at the Up-Town Tea Shop. Harry Babin, general secretary for Canada of the Y. M. C. A. National Council, was the speaker. The chair was occupied by Charles Burpee in the absence of the president, W. Grant Smith.

MARRIED. Moncton Times.—Mrs. Ralph Leaman of Nixon, Albert county, announce the marriage of their daughter, Josie Ina, R. N., to Mr. Roderick McLean of Millinocket, Maine.

PROMINENT CITIZEN COMMENDS THE Y.M.C.A. Only the Editor of The Times: Sir—It is with great pleasure I subscribe to the Y. M. C. A. of this city, being firmly convinced, from keen observations at various times, that it is doing a real work for our boys. One of the greatest assets we have are the boys we have coming on to become our future men, and it is in my opinion, that any money placed in the hands of the directors of the Y. M. C. A. will be wisely spent, and the results be satisfactory. One only has to see the boys in action to realize what it means to them. Faithfully yours, E. A. SCHOFIELD. St. John, N. B., March 12th, 1923.

Most people like a cereal that makes them chew—that's the reason why Shredded Wheat is eaten in millions of homes. Its crisp, tasty shreds of baked whole wheat encourage thorough mastication—and that means perfect digestion.
For those who like porridge, however, there is nothing so nourishing and satisfying as Shredded Wheat porridge, and nothing so easy to make. Put the Shredded Wheat Biscuits in a small saucepan; add salt and enough water to cover the bottom of the pan; stir and boil until it thickens, then serve with milk or cream. Better than ordinary porridges for youngsters or grown-ups.
Shredded Wheat contains all the bran you need to stimulate bowel movement.

THE POWER CO. APPLIES FOR AN INJUNCTION

Endeavors to Restrain City from Competing or Interfering With Distribution System.
The efforts which have been made by the New Brunswick Power Company to block the efforts of the citizens to secure hydro current at cost took a new turn yesterday, when a writ was served on Mayor Fisher notifying him that the city would be called upon to answer to certain complaints and allegations made on behalf of the company in support of its application for several injunctions in connection with hydro matters.
As such action had been hinted at on previous occasions, the news that the writ had been secured did not come as a surprise when the news spread about the city last evening. During the campaign which have been fought, hydro advocates had warned the citizens that this nature might be expected as part of a plan to delay and obstruct the city, and the only surprise expressed last evening was that similar tactics had not been attempted before.
Until the matter could be laid before the Common Council, which probably will be done this afternoon, Mayor Fisher said last evening that he did not feel at liberty either to reveal the nature of the complaints made by the Power Company nor to comment on them; neither was he prepared to discuss the city's attitude in the matter. It is understood that the company seeks the following:
1. A declaration that the contract between the city of St. John and the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission is void—on the grounds that it does not comply with the legislation on the subject.
2. A declaration that the New Brunswick Power Company has an exclusive franchise to sell electricity in the city of St. John.
3. An injunction to restrain the city from competing with the company.
4. An injunction to restrain the city from building a distribution system in such a manner as to make the operation and maintenance of the company's system dangerous.
5. A declaration as to the right of the city, if any, to ownership in the city's hydro distribution system, or any portion of it.
6. An injunction to restrain the city from interfering with the company's distribution system.
7. Claim for damages.
8. Any further relief for the company which the court may grant.

Hobo College Keeps To Its Courses in Spite of Adversity
Many Unemployed Men Who Visit Place in Chicago Remain to Learn Reading, Writing and Arithmetic.
The Hobo College has changed decidedly in curriculum and its personnel since it was re-opened for the season, September last, sponsored by the International Brotherhood Welfare Association, or "hobos' union," says an Associated Press dispatch from Chicago. Nevertheless, the unemployed men and the migratory and casual laborers now enrolled are, like the predecessors, making active voluntary efforts to obtain instruction.
After the formal opening in September a group of leaders, including "the millionaire hobo," Dr. James Eads How, munched doughnuts, darkened coffee from cups without handles and planned for the future of the "college." A "hobo" who had thrilled the gathering at the ceremonies by his spirited rendition of "The Shooting of MISS SUSSEX CHOSEN Miss Mildred Radcliffe was selected as Queen of Sussex last evening at a Carnival here. The selection was made by ballot. Miss Canada was present accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. R. Blair and Mrs. W. H. Golding. Miss Canada was given a rousing reception on her arrival in Sussex, a large crowd being at the station to greet her. Hand-some bouquets were presented to Miss Canada and Miss Sussex on behalf of the Sussex fire department by Dr. J. J. Daley. Later the visitors went to a reception and dance. In the afternoon the party was given a drive about town and later attended a reception at the home of Mrs. Daley.

Whisky Exports Become Imports At 3-Mile Line

That Liquor to Europe and Back Again! Route Too Slow For Rum Runners, It's Transshipped Now.

New York, March 13.—The rum running magnates of New York City are now doing a flourishing export business in rum whisky, which they supply from the bonded warehouses of the metropolitan district. The customers for whom the bootlegging fraternity are causing the rum tide to reverse its normal inward flow, it seems, are the owners of the fleet of smuggling vessels that fringe the coast, of course, the purpose of the uncom-monly manoeuvre of sending liquor out of town, where it is intended to sell it, is that the law permits the withdrawal of the contents of bonded warehouses in wholesale quantities for export purposes, while it prohibits its issuance for domestic consumption. The method being followed by several large-scale operators in the bootlegging industry, it appears, is to go through all the legal motions for obtaining the whisky for transportation to foreign countries, where it may be legitimately sold. Once safely loaded aboard sailing ships, whose clearance papers read France, or Spain, however, the valuable cargo drops quietly down the bay until the skipper, who has been well paid, comes in sight of one of the numerous smugglers' armadas that hover at anchor off the coast. There a rapid transfer is effected, out of sight of prohibition officers, and the sailing ship proceeds to its destination with the rest of its cargo. The contraband liquor, on the other hand, is a quietly imported into New York a few hours later.

Rye whisky, it is pointed out, is the only kind of liquor with which this is done, both because domestic sources supply the only ones from which rye can be obtained, and because ample supplies of Scotch are coming in from abroad. One of the most active bootleggers in New York, who was a liquor salesman before prohibition, but who is now a millionaire, is engineering this "export" business, it is said. He reported to maintain his own smuggling fleet, consisting of three steamers and two sailing vessels, the flagship of which is a steamer at anchor some fifteen miles southeast of Ambrose Lightship, at some distance from the habitual rendezvous of the Bahamas rum runners. He is said to be quoting a price of $40 a case for his rye to bootleggers, who take it from his ships themselves, but he will deliver it at any point in New York, under a guarantee, for an additional $10 a case. This operator's boast, incidentally, is that he is able to guarantee delivery because he places a Federal agent on every truckload that he sends into the city, 30,000 Cases Withdrawn. The magnitude of this man's activities can be gauged from the fact that he says he has already withdrawn 30,000 cases legitimately from bonded warehouses through his agents, and that he has disposed of 20,000 cases of this amount. His liquor he ships in from his fleet in barrels—two and a half cases to a barrel—billed as oil or gasoline, and consigned to friends in uptown brokerage houses, who dispose of it at retail for him. That this bootlegger uses forged permits to effect the withdrawal of his whisky is suggested by the fact that E. C. Yellowley, Federal prohibition enforcement director here, declares that no permits to export whisky have been issued since he has been in office. Mr

An Unfailing Way To Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes) Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real delatone.

Yellowley acknowledges, however, that whisky from other states has been exported from this port, and it is believed that some of this may have eventually found its way to the local market through the operations of rum runners who are working the "export and import" game.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith repeated her lecture on "France and Flanders Revisited" last evening in the school room of the Queen Square Methodist church before a good-sized audience. The lecture was given under the auspices of the W. M. S. of the church and Mrs. C. W. Dickinson was in the chair. Frederick Gowen operated the lantern for the slides and Miss Mary Gunn acted as pianist.

The Good Cheer Circle of the Kings Daughters met yesterday at the Guild, Prince William street. Miss Alice Rising presided and the members engaged in sewing. Plans were completed for the share taken by the Circle in the Memorial Tag Day.

THE RIDDLE OF THE SPINNING WHEEL

Being An Exploit in the Career of Hamilton Cleek, Detective.
By MARY E. AND THOMAS W. HANSEW

"I don't, I don't! We none of us know! None of us!" she ejaculated, shutting her hands together and lifting a tear-stained, haggard face to his. "Oh, Mr. Deland, that is the terrible, the mysterious part of it all. It happened in a flash. Suddenly the lights went out; we heard the wheel humming, just as the Peasant Girl said it would hum, and then . . . then . . . the lights came up again, and there he lay, shot through the temple and stabbed to the heart, quite, quite dead!"

"When? Rather a marvelous happening, I must say," gave out Cleek, laying a hand upon her shaking shoulder and edging her tenderly toward the open door of that little ante-room into which he had been shown only that morning, when the old laird himself had entered upon their conversation, with his lady in attendance. And now he was dead! Murdered! It seemed indeed hardly credible. "Sit down awhile, and then tell me at your leisure all the happenings which took place. Got any brandy in the house? Or have you had some? No? Well, I've always a flask handy. Now, take a pull at this, and then lean back in that chair and close your eyes. You'll be a different person, I assure you. Here's my flask. Make it a good peg, boy." Dumbly she did as she was bidden, acting as a sick child does, without question, and thankful only for a directing hand. Meanwhile, Cleek stood over her, watching how the colour ebbed slowly back into her pallid cheeks and the red crept again into her blue lips, and congratulating himself that he had been just in time, and no more, before she would have fainted.

She shut her eyes as he had told her, and when a few minutes had elapsed, Cleek leaned forward and touched her gently upon the wrist.

"Now let's hear all about it—if you're able. Where is your stepmother?"

"Upstairs in her room—prostrate." She spat the words out with positive venom. "Ross is with his father, bowed down with grief, poor old boy; while his fiancée, Cynthia Debenham, who came back with him, and her cousin, Catherine Dowd, are in the house somewhere, seeing to the necessary household arrangements."

"And you've telephoned the police?"

"Yes. And then signalled to you. They'll be along presently, I suppose." "Possibly—yes. I'd have brought my own man if I had only known. Mr. Newkum will be here in the morning to take charge of affairs. I sent for him today. And the rest of the household?"

"Cyril is with his mother. Wakened up out of his sleep, poor boy, by all the commotion, and of course hardly aware yet of what a terrible tragedy has happened here in his own home. The servants are huddled together like frightened rabbits, and the women refuse to put in any appearance at all. Miss McCall has been trying to get them in hand—she's so quiet and yet so resourceful, you know, Mr. Deland—and she has helped us such a bit in that way."

"And that accounts for every one then? No one left the house since the thing took place?"

"Not a soul. There was no reason to, you see. And no one has been here, either. Callers to Aygon Castle are few and far between, Mr. Deland, as you can imagine. We're so very far from civilization."

"I see. And no one's been to the place at all, you say? Beyond the immediate family, and this Miss—Miss Dowd and your brother's fiancée? They returned with him, I suppose, after having persuaded him not to take such a foolhardy view of the case which I heard this morning? Well, I'm glad he came back, if only for this. Poor chap! It will ease his conscience, at any rate. And those are the only people who have entered this place tonight, Miss Duggan? You are positive of that?"

She lifted wide eyes to his face. There was conviction in every line of her own.

"Absolutely positive, Mr. Deland."

"Well, that's all right, then," Cleek nodded slowly at her but his lips were grim. Either she or Macdonald had lied. For he had heard him say, in that broken, staccato voice of his, "I've just—come from there, you see, and was on my way home again." And a dollar to a duck that she was not at fault. Well, the man Macdonald would want watching. And if he had "done a bunk," as the boys say, he would know his mind instantly and scout all Britain over for him—though at present his motive for connection with the crime was certainly unknown.

He sent his keen eyes over her wan face, and came to his own conclusions. Here was no liar, if he knew the signs. Then he leaned toward her.

"Now," said he, "just tell me—what happened. All about it. Don't leave anything out—not the veriest little thing. How did you all happen to be in the library in the first place?"

"As I told you, Father had summoned us all there for the purpose of disambiguating Ross by crossing his name from his will, and in the presence of witnesses substituting another instead."

"And whose name, may I ask?"

She bent her head suddenly, and put one hand against her cheek.

"Mine, Mr. Deland."

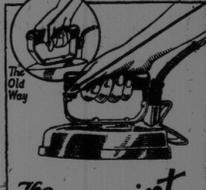

"You're a . . . Oh! And not young Cyril's then?"

"No. Upon that Father was adamant. He said justice must be done to the elder family—that is Ross and me, as you know—and he would see justice done. If Ross could not have the rightful inheritance because of his untimely death (poor Ross!) then it was to come to me, unless I saw fit to marry Captain Macdonald. In that event it all went to charity. Naturally, I protested with him."

"Why?"

"Because, don't you see? I hoped he would perhaps relent and leave Ross's name where it was. The ignominy to the poor boy would have been so terrible—if he had struck his name out, Ross would never have got over it—" laughed at him, of course, and the thing never turned out to be anything but Ross's idea was to shoot them as soon after swallowing the hook as was possible, and the soundless pistol wouldn't frighten the other fish. It was a ridiculous idea—but Ross imagined it would be more humane, though not nearly so much sport from the fisherman's point of view, as you know, Mr. Deland—and he tried it only once. He was teased out of it after that."

"And the pistol?"

"I really don't know . . . what became of it. I never saw it again, in fact, forgot all about it. But of course, Mr. Deland, Ross couldn't—couldn't!—oh, I beg of you, don't think of such a terrible thing for one instant! Ross adored his father always, in spite of the bad blood between them of later years."

"Quite so. Only, naturally, in the pursuit of duty one must ask all manner of irrelevant questions. You understand that, Miss Duggan, I hope? Of course your brother Ross would not think of such a thing. But if he is the only possessor of an air-pistol, well, naturally, circumstantial evidence will be rather unpleasing to him—unless something else turns up. ## SIXTY YEARS OLD, FIGHTS BANDITS

Robbers Attack Old Man, Holds Them Off Until His Cries Attract the Police.

New York, March 12.—Sam Diamond is sixty years old, a bit shaky on his legs when it comes to a fight with two huskies in their twenties. He was no match in strength for two bandits who entered his humble lodgings at 227 East 119th Street after his workers had gone home, but he had courage and struggled so hard and so nobly that in the end he got back his gold watch and his money and saw one of his assailants sent off to headquarters in a police patrol, charged with assault and robbery. For this he had James MacVoy of 160 East 118th Street, a taxi driver, and Patrolman Mike Carroll, of the East 126th Street Station, to thank.

Diamond was alone in the left adding up the day's accounts when the two bandits entered—one short and stocky, the other slim and six feet one.

Hit on Head with Brick.

"Grab the ceiling, oldtimer," said the short one, "and hand over what you've got." With that he pulled out his revolver and covered Diamond, while his companion walked around the astonished victim, grabbed up a brick and hit him over the head. The old man sagged dizzily for a second, came suddenly to himself and grabbed his assailant, shouting for help as he did so. The tall bandit hesitated a second, then brought the brick down three times more on his gray head. Diamond began to lose consciousness, but he struggled blindly. His assailant found it impossible for to strike more than a glancing blow until the short one stepped in from behind. Then the two thieves ruffed his wallet of $10, snatched his watch and chain and fled. MacVoy, the taxi driver, who had taken the thieves to the loft, without knowing their purpose, began shouting for a policeman as soon as he realized the meaning of the old man's cries. Patrolman Carroll came running from his post a block away, too late to get a glimpse of the stocky hold-up man, but in time to see the tall one racing west toward Lexington Avenue, scattering the home-bound crowds as he ran.

Policeman Collars Robber.

Carroll started after him, gained on him as he turned into Lexington Avenue and finally collared him in a hallway in Sylvan Place, into which the fugitive had ducked without knowing that his pursuer had made the block up Lexington Avenue and the half block east to the alley in time to see him take cover.

Diamond was treated by an ambulance surgeon, and reached the police station a few minutes after Carroll and his prisoner, who had given his name as Harold Morrison, only just arrived from Chicago. The old man identified him and claimed $10 and a watch and chain found in his possession.

Peccori was shot from behind by a man who stepped from a touring car that had been seen in the neighborhood on several preceding days. A few hours later Captain John A. ## A Delight

That millions have discovered
Whiter, cleaner, safer teeth

Other effects

Pepsodent also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Those are vital tooth protectors. Soapy tooth pastes weaken them. That's one reason why they failed. Pepsodent multiplies their power.

Watch the change

The way to know is to make this test. Judge by what you see and feel. It will be a revelation.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

Then you will realize how important this is to the people in your home. Cut out coupon now.

Look about you—note the prettier teeth you see. Note how people smile to show them.

Think what added beauty those pearly teeth have brought.

Millions now clean teeth in a new way. You will use it when you know. This is to offer a ten-day test so you may find it out.

That dingy film

Teeth are coated with a dingy film—that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays.

Food stains, etc., discolor it, then it forms cloudy coats. Tartar is based on film. That's why teeth lose luster.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid.

Film coats left

Old brushing methods left much film intact. No ordinary tooth paste effectively combats it.

So dental science sought for film combats, and eventually found two. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new type tooth paste was created, based

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 1923

MISSING NEW YORK "EVIDENCE" IN RAID IN WASHINGTON

Washington, March 13.—Evidence that liquor seized in other cities is finding its way back into the bootleg trade of Washington was said by the police to have been discovered in a raid at the Chateau Thierry apartment house in the fashionable northwest section of the Capitol.

In two adjoining apartments occupied by William E. Swainson the raiders uncovered one of the biggest liquor stocks ever confiscated in Washington. Cases of champagne, gin and whiskey were piled ceiling-high, and some estimates of their value ran up to $16,000. In the collection, police said, were several cases which had been taken some months ago in a raid in New York and had disappeared later from a warehouse where they were being held in evidence.

In addition the police seized a list of customers which was said to contain the names of many of those in the select circles of capital society. Swainson was released on $2,000 bond. Police officials said the liquor previously seized in New York was a consignment of rum, and that each bottle had this label pasted around the neck: "Evidence in case of Timothy Shine, arrested April 19, 1922, at 428 Seventh avenue, for violating State Liquor law, by E. McGillicuddy, 4884 H. D."

At the Prohibition Bureau, officials appeared incredulous of the police reports, but said that if the matter were called officially to the bureau's attention an investigation would be made. The assertion of the police that they had uncovered the cache from which some of the most discriminating drinkers of Washington had been supplied appeared to be borne out by the inventory of the seized stock made later at police headquarters. Besides the ten cases of rum bearing the New York warehouse labels, there was champagne of a brand which was said to retail at $20 a bottle; Scotch of the rarest males; mostly old bottles of Benedictine covered with cobwebs; creme de menthe in characteristic long-necked containers; Holland schnapps in square-topped, small-bottomed bottles, and many other brands that long since disappeared from all ordinary bootleg channels.

There was not a drop of "corn liquor."

Timothy Shine last night advanced an explanation of how the liquor seized in last April's raid on his restaurant figured in the Washington raid. He said that after the police had raided his living apartments over the restaurant and seized $20,000 worth of choice pre-Volstead liquors, he won the case in the courts and the liquors were ordered returned to him. Mr. Shine said that he sent an automobile truck to the warehouse in Sheriff street, where the police stored the liquors, to bring back his private stock.

"I went on back to my restaurant in my automobile," he said, "and when the truck loaded with the liquor arrived half an hour later the driver told me he had been held up on the way by armed bandits who had loaded fifteen cases from the trucks on to their own automobile and escaped. Since the loss was not great, and I considered myself fortunate to get back as much of the liquor as I did, I did not report the robbery to the police.

"I stored the rest of the liquor in my apartment, and was much surprised when I heard that the missing part of it had been found in Washington."

The police advanced the theory that after the liquor had been stolen from the automobile truck in New York it was shipped to Washington to be disposed of by bootleggers, who neglected to take the police labels from the cases.

Many Delighted with "Full o' Pep," Produced at Imperial by Members of Old Dumbells Company.

Fourteen members of the Old Dumbells, the professional entertainers who saw their beginning as the Third Canadian Division concert troupe in France returned to St. John yesterday and delighted many old friends and a lot of new ones with their latest revue, "Full o' Pep," at the Imperial Theatre. The show measures up with previous performances by the soldier players and was enjoyed to the utmost by a fairly large audience.

Arthur Holland who has assumed the post of "leading lady" is better than ever and in the solo numbers as well as the concerted features and dancing made a good impression. He was particularly successful in the opening number of the second part, "A Wedding in the Moon," which was exquisitely done. Alan Murray and Fred Fenwick, other "female" members of the cast, did some clever impersonation work that was rewarded with abundant applause.

"Red" Newman, of course, was there. Red has a few new ones which he put over in his usual snappy way. He introduced a novel song which was intended to voice an appeal for justice for the returned man, which was sung with great pathos and received at least a half dozen encores. It was called "Stoney Broke" and the stage setting for it was a very true-to-life representation of the Thames Embankment with the Parliament buildings and Big Ben in the background.

And then there were Ted Charter and Jimmy Goode. Ted repeated his Burlington Bertie character piece with some up-to-date patter, and with Jerry Brayford introduced a timely and very funny dual piece called "Radio Bugs." Jimmy gave another couple of his blackface solo and patter presentations which kept the audience convulsed until they regretfully saw him leave the stage.

The company's quartette, Messrs Brayford, Tennent, Young and Langley delighted the audience with two fine selections and both sections of the programme closed with side-splitting skits. The first part finished with a new piece, "Billeted in a Barn," while the

Are energy and personal success worth the cost of sound sleep?

You can't dodge Nature's sleep tax. She simply confiscates four months in every year. Whether you get full value for all your time in bed depends on your sleep equipment. If a worn-out, lumpy mattress or a noisy, sagging spring keeps you from going to sleep easily or breaks your rest, you lose. You miss the rebuilding of strength and energy which only deep, refreshing slumber can give.

The Ostermoor Mattress

Set aside enough time today to call on your furniture dealer and examine the Ostermoor Mattress at $30—for thirty years the greatest mattress value to be had in Canada. Compare its sleep-inviting luxury with the mattress you are now using, and decide for yourself whether health, energy and personal success are not worth the investment in Ostermoor sleep comfort. Study the whole range of Simmons Mattresses, springs and beds, now offered at prices to suit any pocketbook. Simmons Red Label, Green Label, White Label mattresses cost less; each is built of sanitary new materials, and is highest possible quality at its price.

Look for the Simmons Label. Beware of imitations

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY
AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

CROWN WINS IN
SALES TAX CASE

An Important Judgment in Montreal—Original Tax
$1,180.00; Final Sum
$3,890.18.

The Weekly Tariff Intelligence of Montreal—Official Organ of the Custom House Brokers Association of Canada—of Thursday, February 22,
contained the following article on Sales Tax which is of interest to the business public—

"The King vs. Maffoux Freres Limited"

A case of great interest to all business men in Canada was decided in the courts at Montreal during the last week, dealing with the collection of the sales tax. The action was taken by the Government of Canada against Maffoux Freres for the amount of sales tax plus the penalties provided for non-payment of same. The defendant firm in reply to the action stated that they did not owe this debt to the Crown because they had become insolvent and their property was in the hands of a trustee, and under the circumstances
the Crown could not sue. The Crown, however, pointed out that the amount of the tax was a privileged claim, and that it should be paid before the claims of the other creditors. This claim of the Crown was upheld by the court and judgment given against the defendant.
The tax was $1,180.00, and in addition,
the penalties for non-payment amounted to $2,710.18, making a total of $3,890.18, which amount was paid by the defendant.

By this case the Government has established its right to collect the full tax due the penalties provided by the War Revenue Act, and also proved its right to be classed as a privileged claim in respect to the sales tax. This is a very important judgment from these two points, and it is of considerable importance to the community, as it settles a question that it is not profitable to try to avoid the payment of these taxes."

IRON, STEEL, METAL AND MACHINERY

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets, Canadian News, Toronto, makes the following comment in its March 8 issue:

Reports from every source seem to indicate that the peak of prices in the steel market has not yet been reached.
Last week's advances have become more or less shadowed by the further upward movement that is recorded in this week's quotations. Nearly every metal line, basic, semi-finished and finished, has been involved in the general shake-up that has featured the market during the last few weeks. It is the opinion of many associated with the industry that the congested state of American railroads is one of the chief reasons for present conditions. Delayed delivery of materials is an every-day feature, and one that seems to add to the unrest that pervades every phase of industrial activity.

If advanced quotations are any indication of better times, then we are on the verge of a return to normal days.
The steady and continued demand for old materials has been reflected in a further rise of price quotations. Recent advances are not confined to any one class of material, but are general throughout the entire list. Dealers are inclined to think that the market will continue to strengthen and that further price changes may be looked for.

The ingot metal situation has also been influenced by the strength in other quarters, and by the fact that the amount of lead the quotations on all metals are higher.

One of the reasons behind the strength in steel is the fact that the demand in this direction is exceptionally heavy, and this, with implement and other metal, has created the belief in some quarters that a shortage in steel may develop in the near future. On the other hand, it is stated by steel men in the States that mills are in a position to meet any demand that is likely to develop in the near future. They admit that present requirements exceed class of the last year or so, but that it is not anticipated that the demand will exceed the mill capacity.

Encouraging reports continue to come in from machine tool manufacturers and dealers. The upward swing of material prices, however, has confronted makers with the problem of higher cost of production, and should the strength of basic markets continue,
they will only be one solution,
namely, advance in price on many lines of machine tools. The movement of tools, both heavy and light, has been quite satisfactory of late.

FIRM TONE AT OPENING TODAY

New High Record in Cuban Raw Sugar—Dull on the Montreal Exchange.

New York, March 13.—Execution of buying orders, delayed by yesterday's suspension of wire service, imparted a firm tone to opening prices in today's stock market. Sugars continued in good demand in response to the creation of a new high record for the Montreal market for Cuban raws. Stromberg advanced 1-4 points and Associated Drygoods duplicated yesterday's high record. Some of the minor oils were heavy.

NOON REPORT

New York, March 13.—Several points of strength developed in the early trading but speculative operations for the rise were restrained somewhat by the 1-4 per cent renewal rate for call money and continued interruption of wire service to western points. Railroad shares awoke from their recent lethargy, New York Central, B. & O.
and Atchafalca, advancing 1 to 1-2 points. The Market Street Railway issues extended their early gains as did
American Beet Sugar, Cuba Cane Sugar
Pfd., Gulf States Steel, Kelly Springfield, General Asphalt, American Locomotive, National Enamelling and Bechtel, which sold 2 to 3 points above yesterday's closing figures.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE

Montreal, March 13.—(10:30)—The opening of trading in listed securities on the local stock market today was another dull affair with business being transacted over a small range of issues. Brazilian led the other issues with a loss of 1-8 to 2-8. Toronto Railway was also active with a net gain of 3 points to 2-8. Other changes included Abitibi off 1-4 to 7 1/2, Atlantic Sugar Pfd. up one point to 43 and Twin City up 1-4 to 1-1/2. The following issues were unchanged: Atlantic Sugar 24 1-2; Smelting 20 1-2; National Breweries 33 and Quebec Railway 23 1/2.

THE BANK SAFES
NEARLY EMPTY

Little of Value Found in the Tisbo Quarters When Searchers Investigate.

New York, March 13.—Records and books of account of Vincenzo Tisbo & Brothers, steamship agents and private bankers, who disappeared, leaving behind thousands of depositors with claims estimated at $600,000 to $2,000,000,
have been seized by Miss Bertha Reinbaugh, appointed receiver by Federal Judge Hand yesterday.
A thousand depositors made a dash for the building when the doors were opened, and were beaten back by policemen with night sticks. A great wall went up from the crowd when it was announced that the safes had been opened and little of value found.
Approximately one million Russian rubles, a quantity of German marks, and jewelry worth about $1,000 were found in the larger of the safes. A few bonds on inconsequential value were found in another.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

(McDougall & Cowans)
New York, March 13.—It would seem now that the reactionary trend
is over and that prices now should
work forward again to higher levels.
By the end of this week we expect prices generally to be higher and we think good stocks are a purchase now.
There is a great amount of optimistic
news coming out on the rails and in some quarters it is being pointed out
that when the next Congress meets it
will have an entirely different real problem to deal with. Instead of the system rapidly deteriorating in equipment and earning power, Congress will find a transportation system whose
main problem will have been solved
and which will be on a profitable basis.
While the rails have been exceedingly
disappointing, they will lead an advance before this market is over. And as the rails prosper, a large amount of
their earnings must be used to the equipment companies. This is already being partly reflected in the high prices for the equipment companies, but in our opinion not entirely as yet. American Locomotive
ex-dividend today will probably look
cheap again, and should also quickly
make up its dividend. It looks as though Baldwin and Lima might also
go higher, but we prefer American Locomotive at these levels. Railway
Steel Springs is also going to see higher prices. American Metals has been reflecting excellent buying. Owens
Bottle is again active and should see
much higher prices.

OPINIONS ON
THE MARKET

(McDougall & Cowans)
New York, March 13.—Hutton &
Co.—Advances in some specialties
overdone and it is possible we may get liquidity in some of them which will
temporarily affect the rest of the list.
We regard the general situation as
sound, however.
Clark Childs—"A spotty market is indicated. Certain liquidation of certain specialties, for the list still presents
positions that might well be cleaned
up before general improvement is resumed, and it should soon be resumed
under lead of rails, steels and copper with some of the oil active."
Thomson McKinnon—"Taking a long range view, would say that the upward trend will continue until our property has been expressed in the dividend policy of the various corporations."
Houseman & Co.—"We think that there has been more profit-taking than suggested and also feel that there is
a substantial buying power just under
the market."
Bache & Co.—"Reaction of three
to six points in the higher-priced
issues and from two to four in the
lower groups will not hurt the general
structure of the market."

TO APPEAL IN
BROTHERHOOD CASE

Winnipeg, March 13.—Appeal will be taken to the Manitoba Court of Appeals by the International Brotherhood
of Locomotive Engineers against the judgment handed down on Saturday by Mr. Justice Gauk, declaring that organization to be illegal and "in restraint of trade."

(McDougall & Cowans)
New York, March 13.—It would
seem now that the reactionary trend
is over and that prices now should
work forward again to higher levels.
By the end of this week we expect
prices generally to be higher and we
think good stocks are a purchase now.
There is a great amount of optimistic
news coming out on the rails and in
some quarters it is being pointed out
that when the next Congress meets it
will have an entirely different real
problem to deal with. Instead of the system rapidly deteriorating in equipment and earning power, Congress will
find a transportation system whose
main problem will have been solved
and which will be on a profitable basis.
While the rails have been exceedingly
disappointing, they will lead an advance before this market is over. And as the rails prosper, a large amount of
their earnings must be used to the equipment companies. This is already
being partly reflected in the high
prices for the equipment companies, but in our opinion not
entirely as yet. American Locomotive
ex-dividend today will probably look
cheap again, and should also quickly
make up its dividend. It looks as though Baldwin and Lima might also
go higher, but we prefer American
Locomotive at these levels. Railway
Steel Springs is also going to see higher prices. American Metals has been reflecting excellent buying. Owens
Bottle is again active and should see
much higher prices.

OPINIONS ON
THE MARKET

(McDougall & Cowans)
New York, March 13.—Hutton &
Co.—Advances in some specialties
overdone and it is possible we may get
liquidity in some of them which will
temporarily affect the rest of the list.
We regard the general situation as
sound, however.
Clark Childs—"A spotty market is indicated. Certain liquidation of certain
specialties, for the list still presents
positions that might well be cleaned
up before general improvement is resumed, and it should soon be resumed
under lead of rails, steels and cop-
per with some of the oil active."
Thomson McKinnon—"Taking a
long range view, would say that the
upward trend will continue until our
property has been expressed in the
dividend policy of the various corporations."
Houseman & Co.—"We think that there has been more profit-taking than
a substantial buying power just under
the market."
Bache & Co.—"Reaction of three
to six points in the higher-priced
issues and from two to four in the
lower groups will not hurt the general
structure of the market."

BROTHERHOOD CASE

Winnipeg, March 13.—Appeal will
be taken to the Manitoba Court of Appeals by the International Brotherhood
of Locomotive Engineers against the
judgment handed down on Saturday by Mr. Justice Gauk, declaring that organization to be illegal and "in restraint of trade."

SEVENTH WEEK
AT QUEEN SQUARE

The Mae Edwards Company Playing "The Other Man's Wife."

Miss Edwards started her seventh week at the Queen Square Theatre last evening offering for the first time by any stock company, Victor E. Lamber's greatest success, "The Other Man's Wife," to the usual capacity business. Miss Edwards gave her best performance and as "The Wife" was sweet and lovable. It is not a white slave play, but a drama of every day life full of interest and charm. It is based upon "Should a man live two lives, when a woman must stand or fall by one."

The woman's story:—Christened "Innocence" by the mother of "Love," I grew to maidenhood. Then I met my choice "Ambition." We were boon companions until I met "Flattery." Then "Experience" came along and quickly I lost my respect for "Flattery," who seemed innocuous. "Experience" was more outspoken, and gave me many shocks, then "Sin," with unseemly glances, claimed my interest.

The vaudeville was just a little better than usual, if that is possible; the stage setting all new and beautiful.

Chicago Police Watch Vice Dens

Chief Fitzmorris Orders Two Patrolmen Assigned to Each Place.

Chicago, March 10.—Stamping out commercialized vice under what is said to be the most drastic police order ever issued in Chicago may claim the entire attention of 3,000 of the city's available 4,875 patrolmen.

Charles C. Fitzmorris, Chief of Police, has directed patrolmen to place uniformed men at the fronts and back doors of every known disorderly house in Chicago. Reform leaders have asserted that more than 500 such places are operating here. Two men to a house on each eight-hour tour of duty would account for approximately three-fifths of the uniformed police personnel.

Chief Fitzmorris refused to comment on the order, other than to say that it "speaks for itself." It informed the police captains that "no excuses will be accepted for failure to comply with this order," and that if stationing in the men reduced the effectiveness at any precinct station to an unworkable minimum patrolmen would be transferred from other precincts not so hard hit.

The Chief's order came within four hours after Chief of Justice McKinley of the Criminal Courts had indicated that the March Grand Jury would be required to renew the investigation into conditions, the January and Federal Grand Juries failed to return indictments. Chief Fitzmorris testified before the February Grand Jury. He was understood to have said that Chicago conditions were fairly good and that there was no open vice. He used a card index, it was said, to prove numerous raids had been made on disorderly houses, and that the resultant cases had been dealt with leniently in various city courts.

At Chief Fitzmorris' office it was said that the order was decided on after several conferences. It was asserted by some of the Chief's confidential men that many chiefs have been broken on the rocks of disorderly houses and gambling, and that Fitzmorris decided to give "the reformers" what they wanted on having "His stand has been that Chicago was 65 per cent orderly and that it can be without turning the whole police force loose on vice and letting the criminals run wild."

Chief Justice McKinley said that "if the Chief sees fit to assign all 4,800 patrolmen to guard one lot, that is his responsibility. If crime becomes rampant as the result of his order, the public still will hold him responsible for the whole lot." If it is the Chief's intention to co-operate in a sane and sensible manner with the courts and the better element of the city, what they say is that the Chief should receive the commendation of the public.

Barroom Ballad's Author Honored

Hugh Antoine d'Arcy, Who Wrote "Face on the Floor," Is 80.

(New York Tribune.)

There was a birthday party at the Green Room Club this week at which the merriment was suddenly hushed. And then a little old man stood up and recited those verses that are known all round the world as "The Face on the Barroom Floor." The man was Hugh Antoine d'Arcy, author of that famous ballad, newly arrived at the age of eighty.

His birthday fell on March 5, but the actors who gathered in the club at 139 West Forty-seventh Street were forced by their occupation to wait until midnight to do him honor. Not only did they come in person to greet him, but seventy-five prominent actors signed and gave him a testimonial of their friendship and lasting regard. Frank Gillmore, president of the club, was there, and Hal Briggs acted as toastmaster. Charles Young represented the Elks' Club, of which Mr. d'Arcy is also a member.

Who has not heard or himself recited "The Face on the Floor," for that is the poem's correct title. But there are few persons who know anything of the writer or how or why he happened to write those famous lines beginning:

"'Twas a balmy summer evening and a goodly crowd was there, Which well-nigh filled Joe's barroom on the corner of the square"

Then through the open door came the

CHICAGO POLICE WATCH VICE DENS

Chief Fitzmorris Orders Two Patrolmen Assigned to Each Place.

Chicago, March 10.—Stamping out commercialized vice under what is said to be the most drastic police order ever issued in Chicago may claim the entire attention of 3,000 of the city's available 4,875 patrolmen.

Charles C. Fitzmorris, Chief of Police, has directed patrolmen to place uniformed men at the fronts and back doors of every known disorderly house in Chicago. Reform leaders have asserted that more than 500 such places are operating here. Two men to a house on each eight-hour tour of duty would account for approximately three-fifths of the uniformed police personnel.

Chief Fitzmorris refused to comment on the order, other than to say that it "speaks for itself." It informed the police captains that "no excuses will be accepted for failure to comply with this order," and that if stationing in the men reduced the effectiveness at any precinct station to an unworkable minimum patrolmen would be transferred from other precincts not so hard hit.

The Chief's order came within four hours after Chief of Justice McKinley of the Criminal Courts had indicated that the March Grand Jury would be required to renew the investigation into conditions, the January and Federal Grand Juries failed to return indictments. Chief Fitzmorris testified before the February Grand Jury. He was understood to have said that Chicago conditions were fairly good and that there was no open vice. He used a card index, it was said, to prove numerous raids had been made on disorderly houses, and that the resultant cases had been dealt with leniently in various city courts.

Mayor Proceeds With Repairs; Injunction Proceedings Started

W. H. Harrison Instructed to Take Action on Behalf of Building Inspector in Connection With Charlotte Street Building Matter.

These are days of injunctions for Mayor Fisher. Yesterday a writ was served on him notifying that the New Brunswick Power Company proposed applying for an injunction to prevent the city from entering into competition with the company in the matter of the distribution of hydro. This afternoon or tomorrow morning he will receive another writ, served upon him as an individual, notifying him that James Carleton, building inspector, intended asking for an injunction against his proceeding with repairs to a wooden building in No. 1 fire district. Commissioner Thornton, of the public safety department, informed the Times reporter this afternoon that the Mayor had started to carry out his intention, expressed at yesterday's council meeting, to proceed with repairs to his building in Charlotte street, damaged by fire recently, without a permit from the building inspector, and that carpenters were at work at the building this morning. On behalf of the building inspector, W. H. Harrison, acting city solicitor in the absence of Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., was instructed to take the necessary action to procure an injunction, notice of which will be served on the Mayor as soon as the necessary affidavit from the building inspector is completed. Outside of the statement that he was going on with the repairs to the building and that he understood that injunction proceedings were being started, Mayor Fisher would make no comment on the matter today.

MARBURN IN PORT WITH 404

Salvation Army Party and Scotch Settlers on Board—Montclare on Saturday.

After a long and uneventful voyage the Canadian Pacific steamship Marburn arrived in port last night from Glasgow and docked at No. 1 berth, Sand Point, about 11 o'clock this morning. She has seventy-two cabin and 382 third class passengers, in addition to over 1,200 tons of general cargo, forty packages of mail and parcel post and approximately 500 pieces of baggage. The passengers will be sent forward to their destinations in a special train, which was scheduled to leave West St. John this afternoon about 3.15 o'clock. Among the passengers was a party of thirty-two members of the Salvation Army who are enroute to Toronto and points in Western Canada, in charge of Adjutant Edith Lindsey. There were also a number of young Scotchmen who are coming to Canada to try their luck at farming, and a few engineers and mechanics, who claimed to be enroute to the west "spec." They were all a likely looking lot and from all indications should make the remainder of their journey, if their efforts meet with success.

Montclare on Saturday.
The Canadian Pacific steamship Montclare is expected to arrive here next Saturday from Liverpool with more than 900 passengers, 267 cabin and the remainder third class. The ship sailed from Liverpool on March 9 and is bringing the second largest number of passengers to arrive at a Canadian port this winter.

Gross receipts from athletic grounds, cemetery, etc., last year were $25,984, and after a certain amount was deducted to be applied to appropriations, the net return was $28,869. The cost of operation of the other public features of this department was $70,681.50, leaving a net amount of about $47,000 to be assessed for. The department spent about $4,000 on nurseries and a similar amount on green-houses.

The treasurer reported total receipts of $1,081 which was considered very gratifying. The recording secretary, Mrs. Wade McBride, reported 147 paid-up members. The report of the corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Scammell also was received. The diocesan president, Mrs. George F. Smith, gave an inspiring address in "Higher Service" and urged all to accept office when asked to do so and to do whatever lay in their power to further the interests of the work. ### SENT UP FOR TRIAL IN POLICE COURT

West Side Accusation of Theft—A Liquor Case and Other Matters.

Edward Harrison was sent up for trial this morning on a charge of the theft of about $70 from Mrs. Nellie M. White, King street, West End. He pleaded not guilty. Mrs. White told of moving to West St. John on December 18 last and said that the accused was engaged in assisting to move her furniture. She had got out of an automobile and gone upstairs and between the automobile and the second floor of the house she had dropped her pocketbook. The accused had been near her at the time. William Gornley, an expressman, said that the accused had told him soon after Christmas that he had found a pocketbook on the stairs of Mrs. White's house. Harrison was committed for trial. Rudman Allan was charged this morning with offering intoxicating liquor for sale on March 11 contrary to the provisions of Section 5 of the Intoxicating Liquors Act. He pleaded not guilty. E. J. Henneberry appeared for the defense and W. M. Ryan for the prosecution. William J. Carr, a C. P. R. constable, said in the course of his duties he had gone on Sunday night to the drug store of the accused and was told that it could be had at $8 a bottle. He had no prescription and did not purchase. After cross-examination by Mr. Henneberry the case was postponed until Friday afternoon. A deposit of $200 was put up for the appearance of the accused and E. J. Henneberry guaranteed his appearance. It was said today that an inspector went yesterday to check up the stock of Mr. Allan and found more liquor by thirty-three bottles than was warranted by the inventory provided. The result was today's charge. The report was made by Inspector Killen. William Williamson was before the Magistrate this morning on complaint of Edith Hawker who averred that the accused, in Charlotte street yesterday afternoon had referred to her as a "cow" with several qualifications. He pleaded not guilty. The evidence was very conflicting consisting of charge and counter-charge. The history of the case dated back about a year and considerable had transpired in that time. The Magistrate was closeted with the interested ones for a few minutes at the conclusion of which the accused left the courtroom. When asked what the outcome of the case His Honor said: "I don't know anything about it; ask the clerk." It was presumed that Williamson was allowed to go. Ernest Bell and Fred Martin were again before the court this morning and more evidence in the case in which they are accused of theft was taken. Angus McDonald identified a tub of lard and a bottle of jam as similar to articles taken from his store. He said he was a broker in Dock street, with a warehouse in City Road. Postponement was made until Wednesday afternoon. Three protectionists sought shelter last night at the central police station.

It was decided to invite Mount Allison University to send speakers to fill the St. John pulpit on April 18 or 22, to speak on the value of education. It was announced that a meeting of pastors and Sunday school superintendents, schedule for last week, had not held on account of the storm, would be held on Friday night at the Cafeteria, with Rev. H. S. B. Strothard of Sackville as speaker. The president and secretary were appointed to write a letter of sympathy to Rev. The secretary read a letter from the president of the conference regarding the programme, and it was decided to make this the first order of business at the next meeting.
