

ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS ADJUDGED NOT GUILTY.

Williams and Howard Have Left for the Home of the Free--Jury Only Out a Short Time.

(Special to the Sun.) FREDERICTON, Oct. 6.—The trial of the alleged pickpockets Williams and Howard was continued yesterday afternoon. D. R. Jack was the first witness called, and he repeated the story of the robbery as it occurred on June 24. Dr. Ami told of an unsuccessful attempt to rob him as he was entering the car. Baron de Hallowyn, who lost his pocketbook and $50, was unable to identify any of the prisoners. Major Baxter of Portland, who claimed he lost $30, declined to attend as witness against the accused and his statement to Mr. Jack of his loss was not accepted as evidence. The trial was continued this morning. Col. Marsh gave testimony as to the depositions taken before him as police magistrate. Jas. T. Gardiner, constable, told of the arrest of the prisoners at McAdam and of the money found on the prisoners, $38 on Grant, $58 on Williams and $1 on Howard. Baron de Hallowyn was recalled and was further cross-examined by Mr. McKeown. Samuel Mersereau told of finding money scattered about near Fredericton Junction. Jeremiah Shea told of finding a pocketbook on the 24th of June. Sheriff Sterling gave evidence as to Grant's escape. This closed the case for the crown. Mr. McKeown said that the defence would call no witnesses. Mr. McKeown finished his address to the jury about 2.30, and was immediately followed by Mr. Barry, who spoke for about half an hour for the crown. Mr. Barry's address was an excellent one. He presented to the jury in a concise and at the same time logical manner the evidence presented during the trial. Judge Wilson briefly addressed the jury. The address was most impartial in every sense of the word. The jury retired about 3.15 and returned at 8.10. In answer to the question if they found the prisoners Howard and Williams guilty or not guilty, the foreman replied, "Not guilty." At the time of the return of the jury, the court room was well filled, and when the verdict was announced it did not come as a surprise. Howard and Williams naturally were the centre of all eyes. Mr. Williams did not show any sign of the effect of the announcement. Howard, on the other hand, who has been wearing quite an anxious look for days past, presented a much brighter appearance when he entered the box to hear the jury's finding, and when the foreman announced "not guilty" he smiled pleasantly and had every appearance of a man from whom a burden had been lifted. Mrs. Williams meanwhile surveyed the proceedings from an ante-room, and when amidst the stillness the words sounded clear and distinctly, "not guilty," she broke down and wept. The strain had ended and relief was shown in tears. Judge Wilson immediately discharged the men. Mr. Williams immediately left to see his wife, while Mr. Howard came forward and took a seat at the table alongside of his counsel, Mr. McLeod. Williams soon followed, and the two men took chairs at the table and conversed with Mr. McKeown and Mr. McLeod. Mr. Barry asked his honor that Williams and Howard be detained as witnesses against Grant, the man who had escaped from the county jail a few days ago. Judge Wilson said that he would certainly not grant such a request. He entirely agreed with the finding of the jury and it would be the greatest injustice to his mind to keep Howard and Williams any longer here. They had been imprisoned for over three months and the jury had after a short duration decided that they were innocent of the charge made. He could not make any order granting their detention further. In conclusion, Judge Wilson said when these men, Howard and Williams, were arrested they had taken from them moneys found in their possession. He now ordered that these moneys be returned to the gentlemen. This was accordingly done and the crown paid over the money and Mr. Williams and Mr. Howard gave a receipt for the same. The money found on Williams when arrested was $68, and on Howard $1. The money found on Grant the court ordered to be retained. Williams and Howard did not waste any time after being released from custody today. Accompanied by Williams' wife, they immediately proceeded to the C. P. R. depot and took the 5.30 train for the west.

H. A. POWELL IS THE MAN WHO OPPOSES EMMERSON.

The Brilliant Westmorland County Lawyer the Unanimous Choice of the Party--The Nomination Made Amid Great Enthusiasm.

(Special to the Sun.) SACKVILLE, N. B., Oct. 6.—The convention for the purpose of nominating the candidate to contest Westmorland county in the interests of the liberal conservatives was held in Odd-fellows' hall this afternoon. The building was crowded to the doors and standing room at a premium. Nearly three hundred delegates were present, representing all the parishes of the county. In the absence of the president, J. L. Black, through illness, the secretary, R. W. Hewson of Moncton, called the meeting to order. Senator Wood was called to the chair. On motion of F. W. Sumner, seconded by F. B. Black, it was decided to appoint the nominating committee, composed of delegates from each parish. The following were selected: F. W. Sumner, Moncton city; Marcellin Melanson, Shediac; Patrick Lester, Dorchester; W. T. Carter, Westmorland; P. G. Mahoney, Botsford; W. F. Humphrey, Moncton parish; James Smith, Sackville; Judson E. Foster, Salisbury. Before the nominating committee retired, H. A. Powell asked leave to address the convention. He said he had been asked to be the standard bearer since 1890, and thought he had been pretty well over the course. If the committee could decide upon another man he would be well pleased and would give him his hearty support. In fact would work harder for another man than for himself. The committee retired and after an absence of five minutes returned and reported that the name of Mr. Powell was the only one submitted. On motion of F. W. Sumner, seconded by M. Melanson, the report of the committee was accepted amidst unbounded enthusiasm. Senator Wood, informally tendering the nomination to Mr. Powell, paid a high compliment to the latter's ability on the platform and in parliament. He warned the party to beware of ballot stuffing and illegal practices at the election. The machine had been pretty well exposed in Ontario, and it might be moved down here. The conservatives should watch the government very carefully. He congratulated the convention upon the excellent choice made. Mr. Powell on coming forward was received with prolonged cheers. He felt deeply the honor the convention had conferred upon him. Personally he would prefer to be excused, but felt that if ever a sacrifice was called for in the interests of the country now was the time. He had no hesitation in saying that no government had ever degraded the country as the present government had done.

H. A. POWELL.

The constituency of Westmorland was large, and there was a heavy campaign ahead. He asked that the electors remember that the contest was not for him, but the country, for the police of conservatives and triumph of good principles. He did not make loud professions of purity, but he would not be bought, and he would sooner or later destroy the form of government. The speaker referred to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech at Sorel and showed the absurdity of the boast that the policy of the present government had been due to perfect unanimity in cabinet. The cases of Tarte and Mr. Blair were given as examples. Prosperity of the country was not due to any policy of the government, but after a period of world-wide depression, which had effected Canada less than other countries. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had come in on a wave of prosperity. The secret of what success Canada has had under liberal rule was due to the fact that liberals when they got into power had not the courage of these tariff convictions if they ever had any, but continued in a large measure the policy of their predecessors. Mr. Powell quoted statistics with reference to trade with the United States, showing that we were $34,000,000 worse off now than before 1896. If the money which was yearly sent to the United States were expended in Canada, an enormous population could be thereby sustained. He was in favor of adequate protection, the policy of giving to Canadian labor every dollar possible, the policy of keeping money at home rather than sending it away to enrich manufacturers of the United States. The Grand Trunk Pacific railway deal was referred to at some length, showing the hollowness of the liberal contention that it would result in carrying grain from the west to Atlantic ports of Canada. Cole's Point wharf was discussed. Emmerson had made a disgraceful expenditure of thirty thousand dollars at that place and twenty thousand at a point opposite, for the purpose of capturing two or three votes, and the result was accommodation of a fourteen foot boat. It was very desirable that the maritime provinces should have their share of public expenditure, but he deprecated the squandering of the people's money for useless works. He was proud of Canada, with its people diversified in race but united in heart and hand. We had to thank conservative leaders, such as Sir John Macdonald, Sir Leonard Tilley and Sir Charles Tupper, for the foresight and energy in working out the magnificent plan of confederation, binding together the provinces into a glorious whole. He asked conservatives throughout the county to go into the fight to win. So far as he was concerned the election would be fought out on pure principles, and he asked the electors to realize their responsibility, to assert their manhood and the independence of the ballot box, and the priceless value of the franchise. Mr. Powell was frequently applauded and great enthusiasm was manifested. Before the convention separated a committee on resolutions reported. Resolutions were passed expressing confidence in R. L. Borden, the policy of the conservatives, the policy of extending the Intercolonial railway, protection of home industries, and preference made within the empire. Among those present at the convention were: F. W. Sumner, Wm. F. Humphrey, J. W. Y. Smith, R. W. Hewson, P. S. Archibald, E. W. Gwan, Geo. Willett, Dr. Price, Geo. L. Harcourt, F. J. Sutton, Moncton; W. A. Russell, M. Melanson, Shediac; P. G. Mahoney, Coun. Peacock, H. Zaman, Milledge Trenholm, Tuttle Allen, Wm. B. Welch, Avard Dobson, Botsford; Dr. H. Carter, A. C. Carter, W. T. Carter, Fred Deware, Westmorland; J. P. Sherry, M. G. Teed, Dr. J. F. Teed, Allan W. Chapman, T. B. Calhoun, Dorchester; Coun. Campbell, Wm. Ogden, Westmorland; Sackville. The feeling of the meeting was enthusiastic, and a vigorous campaign will be commenced immediately.

MR. DAVID RUSSELL A ROYAL HOST

At the Big Banquet Thursday, Mr. Pugsley Said He Was Content to Remain Attorney General of N. B.

CALEDONIA SPRINGS, Ont., Oct. 6.—The banquet tendered this evening by David Russell to Hon. Wm. Pugsley, which took place at the Grand Hotel, was attended by representative men from all the provinces, those from New Brunswick predominating, and all who are familiar with the host's generous instincts can readily understand the success which attended this unique function. The special which brought the attorney general and other guests from St. John was composed of eight sleepers, and the invited Montrealers joining the party at Atlantic Junction, they all reached here at 7 o'clock. The hotel grounds were beautifully decorated and all ablaze with the light presented a magnificent appearance. The menu was the finest that money and culinary art could produce. Hon. A. G. Blair occupied the chair, and on his right was the guest of the evening. The following gentlemen also occupied seats at the table of honor: David Russell, Hon. Senator Owens, Hon. Senator A. A. Thibodeau, Mr. Justice Burbridge, Mr. Justice Ritchie, Col. Tucker, Hon. M. P. Thompson, Hon. F. J. Sweeney, Donald MacMaster, K. C., Hon. P. McLatchey, Jas. Robinson, Silas Alward, J. N. Greenhalgh, K. C., S. H. Ewing, D. McLaren and C. N. Skinner. The gathering was of a non-political nature. "His Majesty" and the "Governor General" were proposed and given royal honors, after which the chairman proposed the health of the Attorney General of New Brunswick. Hon. Mr. Pugsley on rising evoked very loud cheers. He first referred in eulogistic terms to Hon. Mr. Blair. Mr. Justice Burbridge and the other gentlemen who had done so much for

Charlotte County Liberals

Send to Montreal for a Man to Contest the Constituency.

(Special to the Sun.) ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Oct. 6.—Hon. H. R. Emmerson wasted a day in an attempt to bolster up a lost cause in Charlotte county. Never popular with the liberal leaders here, he has increased his personal unpopularity by coming into the county and forcing on the party an undesired candidate from far away Montreal. The county convention this afternoon was attended by one hundred and five delegates, and passed resolutions of confidence in R. L. Borden, the policy of the conservatives, the policy of extending the Intercolonial railway, protection of home industries, and preference made within the empire. Among those present at the convention were: F. W. Sumner, Wm. F. Humphrey, J. W. Y. Smith, R. W. Hewson, P. S. Archibald, E. W. Gwan, Geo. Willett, Dr. Price, Geo. L. Harcourt, F. J. Sutton, Moncton; W. A. Russell, M. Melanson, Shediac; P. G. Mahoney, Coun. Peacock, H. Zaman, Milledge Trenholm, Tuttle Allen, Wm. B. Welch, Avard Dobson, Botsford; Dr. H. Carter, A. C. Carter, W. T. Carter, Fred Deware, Westmorland; J. P. Sherry, M. G. Teed, Dr. J. F. Teed, Allan W. Chapman, T. B. Calhoun, Dorchester; Coun. Campbell, Wm. Ogden, Westmorland; Sackville. The feeling of the meeting was enthusiastic, and a vigorous campaign will be commenced immediately. He said that he had assured the leaders in attendance that the government chest would only be opened for Mr. Gillmor of Montreal. R. E. Armstrong, Geo. Byron and N. Marks Mills spoke briefly and then the delegates returned to ballot. Daniel Gillmor received a large majority, and on motion of Mr. Armstrong, the only other candidate named, the vote was made unanimous. Mr. Gillmor expressed his surprise at his nomination, a surprise which is shared very largely by liberal leaders here, who resent Mr. Emmerson's dictation, and who feel that it was not necessary for the party to import a candidate from Montreal, and one whose family has received a generous measure of consideration. He poured cold comfort on the head of Mr. Armstrong, and made an appeal for votes largely on the ground that he is the son of his father. The delegates are to be entertained at a supper in the Windsor tonight. The conservatives are pushing an convention in all parts of the county, and are everywhere assured of increased support. Their personal conviction that the government should never yet had to go beyond her borders for a representative, and Mr. Emmerson is doomed to hear a dull thud from this county on the night of Nov. 3rd. The minister's palace car was a centre of attraction through the day, but only a chosen few were permitted to tread its carpeted apartments. It carried the minister away, attached to the out-going evening train on the C. P. R.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster Accepts.

Made a Rousing Speech at the North Toronto Convention Thursday, When His Name Was the Only One Presented.

TORONTO, Oct. 6.—North Toronto conservatives in convention tonight nominated Hon. Geo. E. Foster. No other names were presented. Hon. Mr. Foster accepted the nomination and made a rousing campaign speech, dealing chiefly with corruption in political politics and the danger of the present two governments. The liberal candidate will probably be Mayor Uruhart. The liberal convention meets tomorrow night.

FOR THE WINTER CAMPAIGN.

Japs Rushing Enormous Quantities of Supplies and Ammunition to the Front. The significance of a Mukden despatch noting an unusual activity in that place is the subject of much speculation at St. Petersburg. The theory that it indicates the purposes of Gen. Kuropatkin to evacuate the town is generally adopted, military officers there surmising that the commotion noted is in connection with a movement to check a Japanese flanking operation. In Russian official circles some credence is given to the rumor that Admiral Wiren has left Port Arthur with his ships, the confusion resulting from a severe storm on Tuesday being regarded as having made a dash possible. Time expired members of the Guards regiments in St. Petersburg and vicinity have been ordered to remain at the colors. There are indications that the Russian warships in the Baltic will soon be despatched to the far east. FIELD HEADQUARTERS OF THE SECOND JAPANESE ARMY, Oct. 5, 2 p. m., via Fusan, Oct. 6.—The Japanese are bringing up enormous quantities of supplies and ammunition for the winter campaign, using the reconstructed railway, carts and junks on the Liao and Taitse rivers. The railway traffic is uninterrupted, and additional soldiers continue to arrive. Outpost skirmishes are confined to the First and Fourth armies. The troops are standing the heavy work well.

RAIN AT SACKVILLE.

(Special to the Sun.) SACKVILLE, Oct. 6.—Rain seriously affected the success of the second day of the Sackville exhibition. The races were postponed until Saturday. The receipts of the day were $114, a total for two days of $248, being less than last year by $154.

Laurier's Latest.

Making Election Promises to the Territories. Hon. Mr. Prefontaine Unable to Straighten Out a Grit Tangle in Quebec—Making Capital Out of Tenders for Museum. (Special to the Sun.) OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—One of the grit battle cries now is anything to catch votes. For years, the conservatives have been advocating and liberals opposing provincial autonomy for the territories, and only last year, Laurier called on his followers to vote down conservative proposals in that direction. Realizing now that the west is going solidly against him, Laurier has written to Haultain that if the liberals are sustained in the general election, his government will immediately thereafter enter into negotiations with the territorial government looking to the admission of the Northwest in the confederation as a province. J. Lorne McDougall, auditor general, has for the present withdrawn his request to the government to be superannuated. Mr. Prefontaine went up to Campbell's Bay yesterday to straighten out the grit tangle in the county of Pontiac, but it was not successful. Ever since Mr. Hodgins got the nomination last December, Dr. Gaboury of Bryson has declared the proceedings irregular. Yesterday Dr. Gaboury again contended that the convention had not been legally called and declined to be bound by it. When the ballot was taken, Hodgins secured a majority of sixteen over Gaboury. The latter declares that he will not accept the result and will be a candidate as an independent liberal. Prospects for the election of Brabazon, the conservative standard bearer, are very bright. Grits propose to make capital out of the fact of a call for tenders for Victoria Memorial Museum. Usually the plans for public buildings are shown to contractors at the department of public works. As the elections are coming on, however, the plans are now being displayed in a vacant store on O'Connor street. For years plans were promised and only now are forthcoming.

CANDIDATE CHOSEN.

(Special to the Sun.) HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 6.—John S. Wells, a prominent merchant of Whitehead, was unanimously nominated today as the liberal conservative candidate for Guysboro. Mr. Wells is a strong man. Kings and Lunenburg will nominate on Saturday, leaving Yarmouth as the only Nova Scotia constituency which has not yet placed a conservative candidate in the field. A convention will be called there in a day or two. HUNTINGTON, Que., Oct. 6.—At the liberal convention today, W. S. MacLaren was unanimously chosen liberal candidate at the coming federal election. MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—Dr. Seguin was chosen conservative candidate in Soulanges today. MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—The liberals of St. Mary's division of Montreal tonight nominated J. Camille Piche. Friends of Ald. Marchand are much dissatisfied and say the convention was packed against them. GOES WITH C. P. R. MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—S. King, master car builder of the Intercolonial, has been appointed assistant master car builder of the C. P. R.

After Hon. J. R. Stratton,

Defeated Liberal Candidate in North Renfrew Taking Action--Case Promises to Be Interesting.

(Special to the Sun.) TORONTO, Oct. 6.—J. Lorne Hale, defeated liberal candidate in North Renfrew, has taken out a court action against Hon. J. R. Stratton, a member of the Ross government, and James Vance, the liberal organizer. He claims that they promised to pay the balance of his election expenses, which amounted to about $40,000, and that he has paid another ten thousand himself of his expenses. Stratton, in an interview, says he made no promises other than that he had no doubt the party would assist with his expenses, meaning legitimate expenses. He says that he does not know what assistance he received from the party, or what the cost of the campaign was. He thinks Hale's claim of costs of campaign absurd. James Vance also denies the story, and says he never discussed financial matters with Hale. Hale had told him since the campaign that his expenses had been guaranteed, but Vance told him he knew nothing about that. "Possibly," added Vance, "in his attempt to get out of paying for his heavy bills, he is trying to shoulder the responsibility upon some one else, but it is manifestly absurd he should try to put it on me."

In the afternoon papers on Bird Study were read by Stanley Wilson of Waweg and Miss E. De Wolfe of St. George. Both papers showed thoughtful study and careful preparation. Miss Mary A. Carter and P. G. McFarlane discussed the subject of the papers from the utilitarian standpoint, and suggested a special day for bird study. Papers on English Composition by Miss Mary A. Hawkins and Goldwin S. Lord brought out an interesting discussion by Messrs. Trueman and Carter and Miss Wilson of Ontario, California, who was attending the Institute as a visitor.

The public meeting on Thursday was well attended, and the excellent addresses were listened to with marked attention. Judge M. N. Cockburn occupied the chair, and the speakers of the evening were Mayor St. Andrews; Mr. Kidner, Inspector of Schools; Inspector Carter, Geo. J. Trueman, principal of the St. Andrews Grammar School, and Jas. Vroom, secretary of the Institute. Before the close of the afternoon session Mr. Kidner was introduced, and gave a very interesting address on Manual Training Work, placing emphasis on suitable work for the lower grades and a suitable course in domestic science for girls. Mr. Kidner's address was very highly appreciated by the members of the Institute.

On the reassembling of the Institute on Friday morning, Miss Scullin of St. George read a very carefully prepared paper on The Outdoor Study of Geography. G. J. Trueman spoke at considerable length on the importance of the subject.

At this point the Institute, at the invitation of Sir William Van Horne, visited the Minister's Island, the residence of Sir William Van Horne, where the members of the Institute had a most enjoyable drive, and enjoyed the hospitality of Sir Wm. Van Horne at his beautiful summer residence.

In the afternoon Wm. M. Burns of Milltown gave a lesson on Eclipses of the Sun and Moon, illustrated by blackboard diagrams. Miss Ella Veazy of St. Stephen read a very practical paper on Primary Spelling, followed by a carefully prepared paper entitled "The Importance of Spelling." The paper was read by Miss Mary A. Carter and was well received. The Institute adjourned on Saturday morning, the 1st inst., at 10 a. m.

TRUE BILL AGAINST PICKPOCKETS.

This Was the Finding of the Grand Jury

At the York County Court Yesterday—Grant Still at Large—Other Court Business.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 4.—York county court opened here this morning, Judge Wilson presiding. There was a large attendance of spectators, the chief attraction being the trial of the alleged pickpocket, Howard Williams and Grant. Among the legal profession present were J. T. Barry and Fred Taylor, who represented the crown; J. H. A. McKeown and H. F. McLeod, counsel for the prisoners, and A. W. Baird, J. D. Phinney, H. B. Rainford, R. W. McLellan, R. B. Hanson, W. F. Taylor and G. J. Purvis. In the afternoon the following grand jurors answered to their names: C. H. Thomas, J. H. Fleming, R. G. Lee, G. W. Hodge, A. E. Eardley, A. E. Everett, K. H. Parsons, F. E. Cooper, Alonzo Staples, Eben Miller, W. G. Clarke, F. I. Morrison, W. J. Edgecombe, P. D. McKenzie, C. W. Hall, S. Hagerman, D. Lenthain, A. H. Yanwart, T. A. Wilson, Cole Kitchen, H. V. Yanwart, Jos. Moore, F. W. Purvis. W. F. Taylor was the only absentee. The grand jury selected Chas. H. Thomas as their foreman.

Judge Wilson briefly addressed the grand jury. He said that there was one criminal case to engage their attention. It was a charge of theft made against three men, Williams, Howard Williams and Grant. The grand jury had to decide whether the evidence given before the magistrate and the depositions there made by Mr. Jack Major Baxter of Portland, the secretary of the French consul general at Quebec, Count DeFoy, Mrs. Sadler and Constable Gardiner, who arrested the prisoners at McAdam, and Jeremiah Shea. His honor dwelt on the severity of the crime. It was necessary in the best interest of the C. P. R. and of justice that if the men charged were guilty they should be dealt with severely. Since the preliminary examination of the prisoners, Grant, Howard Williams and Grant had not since been captured, so at the present time only Williams and Howard were put on trial.

The grand jury returned shortly after four o'clock and presented a true bill against the prisoners Grant, Howard Williams and Grant. The court was immediately adjourned, and the trial of these men is set down for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The grand jury was made up as follows: E. W. Fox, Wm. Graham, Alex. Haining, Geo. A. Murray, W. B. Gilman, Warren Manser, James B. Campbell, W. S. Young, A. W. Ross, M. Yarra, C. F. Baile, C. W. Estey, Henry Burt, Beverley Lawrence, Geo. L. Pugh, Rainford Foster, Leman T. Stone, Ludlow Albright, Walter F. Williams.

The following docket was made up: Non-Jury Cases. Graham v. Fawcett—Phinney & Crockett, files record. Long v. Nodden—A. J. Gregory files record. Howlen v. Purvis—J. H. Barry files record. Jury Cases. McPherson v. Smith et al—J. H. Barry. Van Buskirk v. Hinchey—J. V. Margo. Scott v. Hatch—Phinney & Crockett.

LADIES' COLLEGE JUBILEE CELEBRATION.

Nearly Four Hundred Former Students in Attendance at Mount Allison—A Most Pleasant Affair.

SACKVILLE, Oct. 4.—The jubilee celebration of Mount Allison Ladies' College opened very auspiciously this afternoon with an informal reception in the museum of fine arts. Nearly four hundred former students were present, and the occasion was a memorable one. Students of each of the fifty years of Mt. Allison's history were present, and reminiscence of the past formed the interesting subject of conversation. A five o'clock tea brought the afternoon to a close.

Tonight Beethoven Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, the occasion being the first formal meeting in the jubilee celebration. Mrs. Fred Ryan, president of the Alumnae Society, occupied the chair. The exercises began with selections by the orchestra under the direction of Dr. Archibald, the splendid music being greatly appreciated.

Beethoven Hall was prettily decorated with flags, bunting and the college colors. Dr. Inch presided with the eye of a prophet dipped into the future, and saw the glory that would be, how magnificent buildings would arise and how the already powerful influence of the institutions would be widely extended.

Dr. Inch paid a high tribute to Dr. Borden, to whose tireless energy much of the present success is due.

In conclusion, Dr. Inch with the eye of a prophet dipped into the future, and saw the glory that would be, how magnificent buildings would arise and how the already powerful influence of the institutions would be widely extended.

Dr. Borden followed with a brief but felicitous speech. He referred in terms of highest praise to the work of the Alumnae Society, to whose efforts the success of the present celebration was due. He was very glad that during the nineteen years of his work as principal he had been the means of helping on the great work.

The speaker referred to the magnificent work done by Mrs. Mary Archibald, deceased, and referred to the presence of her brilliant son, Dr. Raymond Archibald, director of the violin department. In closing, he referred to the debt of $29,000 which still rested on the new addition.

Mrs. J. Colter, Fredericton, a student of forty years ago, gave an excellent address, filled in stirring thoughts.

Mrs. Crockett, Fredericton, sang O Dry Your Tears Away, which called forth an unmistakable encore.

Mrs. Harriet C. Hart, New York, a former student of 1884, spoke most interestingly of early days, when basketball and hockey were unheard of.

Dr. Borden read greetings from a number of former students who were unable to be present, and the Singing of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem brought a splendid meeting to a close.

GIANT NUGGET FOR THE KING.

A Piece of Wealth Luckily Found.

Dawson Talking of Sending to the Ruler of the Empire the Big Nugget Recently Found.

DAWSON CITY, Oct. 3.—A scheme to advertise Dawson throughout the civilized world where newspapers are read and exchanges go the rounds and by other press means has been suggested and discussed at Grand Forks and in Dawson. The news of the great nugget of pure gold, mammoth nugget taken from No. 6, French Gulch. The scheme is to buy the nugget here and on the creeks by popular subscription and send it to King Edward, monarch of the greatest kingdom the world has known, to be used in making a new crown for His Majesty.

Those who have suggested the movement say that not only would the King feel highly honored by such recognition from his people and his admirers and empire builders in what is the Empire's farthest north, but every nation would be proud to have its monarch, monarch of the greatest kingdom the world has known, to be used in making a new crown for His Majesty.

The nugget weighs more than seven pounds Troy, and tips the gold scales at exactly $543 ounces. At $15 an ounce this nugget has an intrinsic value of $8,145. However, the owners consider it worth much more than that sum, simply for its exceptional size and purity.

One great feature about this nugget is that it is pure gold throughout. Most nuggets anywhere near its size contain a share of quartz.

The nugget is flat in shape. It looks like a huge flat rock from a creek bed, and for the reason that it has been thrown into the sluice boxes. McCollom was forking the heavy rocks out of the sluice box when the big nugget was discovered. It was a bright spot on the nugget or something caused the man to hesitate and take a second view of the big piece. He was surprised, on scratching away the dirt, to find the golden treasure. It was a happy moment for the horny-handed and hardy miner. Never in his life had he made such a pick-up at one motion of the hands, and his heart leaped to his mouth as he picked up the prize and raced to tell his partner.

The claim on which the nugget was found was allowed to lapse a year ago and was restaked by McCollom.

INTERESTING CASE.

The question of the liability of vessels for debts incurred will probably be threshed out when the case of the seizure of the bark Guseppino comes up. The vessel sailed from St. John to London in 1900, under the name of the L. She did not reach her destination, however, having met with rough weather. She was condemned and sold at the Azores, and was taken to Italy, where her name was changed to Guseppino. When the vessel was here, William Thomson & Co. had paid all the charges against her, and a draft was drawn up, signed by the captain, for $201, payable to them when the vessel reached her destination. As she did not reach her port, and the draft was not paid, she was seized for the amount of indebtedness.

LENOX, Mass., Oct. 3.—J. S. #### VICTORY FOR JAP CAVALRY.

Report of Attempt to Kill Czar Denied—Chinese Danger is Quieting Down.

TOKIO, Oct. 4. p. m.—The following official report has been issued: "The Manchurian headquarters reports by our advance detachment on Oct. 2 consisting of a company of infantry, a troop of cavalry, attacked and routed a detachment of the enemy's cavalry strong, occupying Fao Sing Tan, thirteen miles north of Liao Yang and nine miles west of the Mukden road. While further reconnoitring in the vicinity a force of Russian cavalry 230 strong, attacked the Japanese scouts. After fighting for some time the Japanese returned. The enemy's loss was about 30. We sustained no casualties. The state of affairs at the front of our army remains unchanged."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Two hundred and twenty-two miles of the Seoul-Fusan railway has been laid, leaving 50 miles for completion, says a Times despatch from Tokio. The Seoul-Wi Ju railway is progressing rapidly as also is the Decollville from Ku Lin Cheng to Fen Wang Cheng, whence it will be prolonged next spring to Liao Yang.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 4.—The authorities of the police department make absolute denial of the story published in Vienna on the authority of Polish newspapers that an attempt was made to blow up the train on which Emperor Nicholas was travelling during his recent visit to Southern Russia.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 4. afternoon.—Further information regarding the unrest in the northwestern part of Shan Tung province is of a reassuring nature. The British legation is of the opinion that there is no cause for anxiety.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 4.—The complete lull in the operations was broken Oct. 3 by a slight skirmish a few miles east of the bridge over the Sakho River. A company of Japanese came up, exchanged a few shots with the Russian outposts and then retired, carrying off their killed and wounded. The day is fine and warm, but the nights are bitterly cold. Snow has fallen at Hing-shan. The Chinese corn, which has been a splendid harvest, is being rapidly harvested.

CHE FOO, Oct. 3. p. m.—A private letter received here today from Port Arthur, dated September 23, gives further details of the fighting from Sept. 19 to Sept. 22. The attack began with a heavy bombardment directed against the Russian outposts and many of the redoubts protecting the water supply of Port Arthur. Two machine guns. Nightfall Sept. 19 found the water works redoubts reduced to mere heaps of debris. The garrison of the redoubts thereupon retreated safely to the main fortifications under the cover of the darkness.

At 4 o'clock the same afternoon (Sept. 19) the Japanese assault on High Hill began. The Japanese plan of attack never varied. First a bombardment, and then an assault, and when repulsed, they remained in their killed and wounded. The desperate determination of the Japanese to capture this position amounted to fanaticism, their efforts never ceasing during four days. On the night of Japanese having retreated into a valley were exposed to the Russian sniping fire and were almost annihilated. Eventually the Japanese succeeded in placing one field gun on High Hill. The water works redoubts behind hastily made barriers. Their tenure of the position, owing to the fire from the inner forts, was very insecure, and when Lieutenant Pogorsky a bomb of the volunteers charged the tide turned against them. One battalion, composed of the remnants of two companies, was annihilated in the trenches, which they refused to retake. Another detachment was driven into the Russian entanglements, where Captain Schaff's force was waiting and completed its rout. Two other attempts made by the Japanese to retake the position failed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 4. 6.25 a. m.—The Novost, speaking in a less hostile tone of the proposal to reconvene The Hague conference, sees no immediate prospect that anything will be accomplished should the conference be again assembled, but says: "The present war is a terrible object lesson to the people of the world, and, though nothing can prevent it being fought to a finish, the people of all nations are sick of bloodshed and slaughter, and doubtless hereafter any country will think long before drawing the sword. Any suggestion of peace, therefore, ought to be welcomed, and perhaps the nation at no distant future will be able to realize, through the instrumentality of The Hague, that universal disarmament which was the Emperor's motive in assembling the tribunal."

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Seven hundred Japanese from Russia arrived in Berlin today. They did not leave the trains which brought them, nor was the Japanese minister nor other members of the legation allowed to approach the train. The travellers greeted their fellow countrymen with prolonged cries of "Banzai." The refugees sail from Bremen for home on October 20.

TRUE BILL AGAINST PICKPOCKETS.

This Was the Finding of the Grand Jury At the York County Court Yesterday—Grant Still at Large—Other Court Business.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 4.—York county court opened here this morning, Judge Wilson presiding. There was a large attendance of spectators, the chief attraction being the trial of the alleged pickpocket, Howard Williams and Grant. Among the legal profession present were J. T. Barry and Fred Taylor, who represented the crown; J. H. A. McKeown and H. F. McLeod, counsel for the prisoners, and A. W. Baird, J. D. Phinney, H. B. Rainford, R. W. McLellan, R. B. Hanson, W. F. Taylor and G. J. Purvis. In the afternoon the following grand jurors answered to their names: C. H. Thomas, J. H. Fleming, R. G. Lee, G. W. Hodge, A. E. Eardley, A. E. Everett, K. H. Parsons, F. E. Cooper, Alonzo Staples, Eben Miller, W. G. Clarke, F. I. Morrison, W. J. Edgecombe, P. D. McKenzie, C. W. Hall, S. Hagerman, D. Lenthain, A. H. Yanwart, T. A. Wilson, Cole Kitchen, H. V. Yanwart, Jos. Moore, F. W. Purvis. W. F. Taylor was the only absentee. The grand jury selected Chas. H. Thomas as their foreman.

Judge Wilson briefly addressed the grand jury. He said that there was one criminal case to engage their attention. It was a charge of theft made against three men, Williams, Howard Williams and Grant. The grand jury had to decide whether the evidence given before the magistrate and the depositions there made by Mr. Jack Major Baxter of Portland, the secretary of the French consul general at Quebec, Count DeFoy, Mrs. Sadler and Constable Gardiner, who arrested the prisoners at McAdam, and Jeremiah Shea. His honor dwelt on the severity of the crime. It was necessary in the best interest of the C. P. R. and of justice that if the men charged were guilty they should be dealt with severely. Since the preliminary examination of the prisoners, Grant, Howard Williams and Grant had not since been captured, so at the present time only Williams and Howard were put on trial.

The grand jury returned shortly after four o'clock and presented a true bill against the prisoners Grant, Howard Williams and Grant. The court was immediately adjourned, and the trial of these men is set down for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The grand jury was made up as follows: E. W. Fox, Wm. Graham, Alex. Haining, Geo. A. Murray, W. B. Gilman, Warren Manser, James B. Campbell, W. S. Young, A. W. Ross, M. Yarra, C. F. Baile, C. W. Estey, Henry Burt, Beverley Lawrence, Geo. L. Pugh, Rainford Foster, Leman T. Stone, Ludlow Albright, Walter F. Williams.

The following docket was made up: Non-Jury Cases. Graham v. Fawcett—Phinney & Crockett, files record. Long v. Nodden—A. J. Gregory files record. Howlen v. Purvis—J. H. Barry files record. Jury Cases. McPherson v. Smith et al—J. H. Barry. Van Buskirk v. Hinchey—J. V. Margo. Scott v. Hatch—Phinney & Crockett.

JAP CONTRACTORS MURDERED. NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A Seoul dispatch to the Herald, dated Oct. 3, says: Eight Japanese contractors, engaged in recruiting Korean laborers at Ekok San, 150 miles south of here, close to the line of the Seoul and Fusan railroad, were involved in a riot, and all but one of them were killed by a Korean mob. Koreans are also rioting and attacking the Japanese at Kyong Chu and Chung Chong.

Sixty Japanese soldiers were dispatched last night to suppress the disorders. The Russians have seized and destroyed all the rifles and ammunition in the possession of the Korean garrison at Sung Chin.

MESSRS. CASGRAIN AND CLARKE. We should think that there was nothing extraordinary in the fact that Mr. Casgrain and Mr. Clarke were called to their own provinces when the election was brought on, and that they did not see their way clear to fill the engagements for another week's meetings.

ONE-SIDED TRADING. It is well known that Canadians buy a great deal more from the United States than the people of the United States buy from them. But there are few who realize how large the difference is, and how rapidly it is increasing.

THE CONTEST IN YORK. For some years the liberal conservative party in York has kept up a brave and determined struggle under adverse conditions. The government has lately enjoyed the support of a strong local influence which was formerly with the conservatives, and this has in recent elections been sufficient to hold the county for the two governments.

THE DINNER PARTY. It remains to be seen whether the dinner given by Mr. David Russell to the attorney general of New Brunswick at Caledonia Springs will have a political effect.

FOR GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP. Some members of the late government who supported the Grand Trunk Pacific deal in the house are beginning to repent now that they are in contact with public opinion in their constituencies.

MR. FOSTER FOR TORONTO. It has been generally felt throughout Canada that the conservative party and the country generally should not allow Hon. George E. Foster to remain any longer out of public life.

MR. POWELL FOR WESTMORLAND. Sometimes a political nominating convention gives the public a surprise, but the Westmorland county choice will astonish no person who knows the prominent and effective part taken by Mr. Powell as a member of the provincial legislature and the federal parliament.

GOOD FOR THE GRAND TRUNK. Mr. Tarte writing for La Patrie considers it possible and even probable that the Laurier government is a party to the purchase of the Canada Atlantic by the Grand Trunk. In Mr. Tarte's opinion the purchase of this railway by the company "is proof conclusive" of the fact that the Canadian Pacific is a "strong member of the government side." Mr. Powell was one of the leading members of his party at Ottawa in several important acquiesces and investigations he worked as a comrade with Mr. Borden, who had not then been called to the leadership but was exhibiting the qualities which marked him out for that position.

CHARLOTTE COUNTY. The minister of railways was so successful in choosing a candidate in St. John last winter that he has repeated the performance in Charlotte. In this case he did not wait for election time. The name of Mr. D. Gillmor has for months been published in the governing organs of Montreal as the Charlotte county candidate.

YOU GET THE BEST WHEN YOU BUY OAK HALL CLOTHES, YET YOU PAY LEAST.

Our clothes have proved satisfactory to critical men for years, and they are better today than they ever were. They're clothes for looks and clothes for wear and we sell them to you 25 per cent. less than equally good clothes are sold anywhere else.

Take as an example these Single and Double Breasted Sack Suits at $10, $12, $13.50, $15.

The fabrics include Worsteds, Tweeds, Cheviots and Serges in a wide variety of the new effects, or these Fall Overcoats at $10, $12, $15.

The Best Clothing for Boys.

We sell more fine clothing for boys than does any other store in town—Clothing of aristocratic style; out-of-the-common sort; exclusive, that's an absolutely knowable fact.

We are also sure of this fact—we sell more dollars' worth of boys' clothing than any other store in Saint John.

Every season's turn brings back careful mothers who have learned how much we can help them—and brings many new faces, too.

Reasons: Correct and commanding juvenile styles; Vast assortments; Always a complete line of sizes; Intelligent attention; Reasonable prices.

No use for pretense. The facts are blunt, plain and persistent. The mother of boys as a rule has to plan her expenditures; has to think out her whole problem; has to (if she is careful) think not only of present expenditures, but of how long the clothes will last. Here is common sense behind this clothing proposition and its growth. New styles showing.

BATH, Sept. 29.—Jarvis R. Tracy and wife arrived home today from the St. John exhibition. He pointed out the aid that could be obtained from the province and promised his hearty co-operation in the undertaking.

Speeches were made by a number of persons present, all favoring the proposal and a committee, consisting of L. Dundas, W. D. Smith, and Mr. Lewin, was appointed to canvass the district for stock and a guarantee of the requisite number of cows. Before the meeting closed a vote of thanks to Mr. Hinckley for his attendance at the meeting was carried on motion of Dr. Dundas, seconded by W. D. Smith, J. P. Regret was expressed that Messrs. SPREADING ENGINE. A BURGLAR TRAP. Alleged Robbers Board Locomotive and Telegrapher Clears the Track and Sends Word Ahead.

WILKESBARRIE, Pa., Oct. 1.—After robbing and threatening to kill two railroad telegraph operators, it is alleged two men were captured this morning on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad by the presence of mind of William Bickert, engine driver, and James Johnson, telegraph operator.

The robbery occurred at Lofly at midnight, the Lehigh Valley and the Philadelphia and Reading operators being attacked and robbed. As the men broke in upon him, Johnson gave the Philadelphia and Reading was in communication with the Tamaqua operator and gave the alarm.

After leaving Johnson, the men climbed into Bickert's engine and ordered him to speed down the road. Johnson in the meantime sent word of what was done to Tamaqua, and orders were flashed back for Bickert to run full speed to Catawissa. Johnson gave these orders to him as the engine passed the station and Bickert put on a full head of steam.

The men are John Singer and George Snyder, of Centralia. They were taken in a special train to the jail at Bloomsburg, Pa., today. The railroad officials believe the men are guilty of several other robberies in this part of the state lately.

EPISCOPALIAN CONCLAVE.

One of the Most Important Gatherings

Of the Church Ever Held—Representatives From Four Continents Will Be In Attendance.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—What is considered by the leading bishops and lay deputies as the most important convocation of Episcopalians ever held in this country will be formally opened in this city tomorrow afternoon, when the triennial general convention will assemble in Emmanuel church.

About two-thirds of the bishops and deputies had reached the city tonight, and many more are expected on the early morning trains. The Archbishop of Canterbury, the first occupant of the chair of St. Augustine to attend a convention of the Episcopal church in this country, arrived from New York on a special train which reached the city from New York at 2:50 this afternoon.

The special train stopped at the Back Bay station, where the archbishop was greeted by Bishop William Lawrence of the Massachusetts Diocese, and Richard H. Dana of Cambridge, chairman of the executive committee having in charge the general arrangements for the convention.

At the business headquarters of the convention in Coppley Hall today hundreds of visitors registered their names and were assigned quarters at hotels or private houses.

The bishops of Albany and Massachusetts presented the Archbishop of Canterbury to the other bishops. The English primate briefly addressed the assembly, announcing that he would give his message to the church when he addressed the house of deputies tomorrow.

The following message was received by the house of bishops from the English church congress: "The Liverpool church congress sends brotherly greetings to the Episcopal Church in America."

Right Rev. I. L. Nicholson, bishop of Milwaukee, has returned to that city for the purpose of officiating at the funeral of Postmaster General Payne at All Saints Cathedral on Sunday.

SERIOUS CHARGE MADE AGAINST PREFONTAINE.

Tried by Political Pull to Influence the Decision of a Wreck Commissioner in an Important Case.

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—A big sensation was caused here today by the judgment rendered by Capt. Salmon, wreck commissioner, in the case of the Canada and Cape Breton collision. Excitement was caused by the charge made by Capt. Salmon in rendering judgment, that attempt had been made to employ political influence by one of the parties in the case to secure a favorable verdict. In delivering judgment Capt. Salmon said: "Before rendering my report upon this case, I feel it incumbent upon me to make the following statement, which I wish to be made of record. This court was approached by the deputy minister of marine and fisheries upon a certain date in this city, with specific inquiry as to the probable decision to be rendered in the case. In response to an inevitable and negative reply of such inquiry, the court was offered suggestion that it might be advisable to consult the counsel of Richelleu and Ontario Navigation Co. before rendering decision, and that such action would be exceedingly acceptable to the minister of marine and fisheries. Continuing, Capt. Salmon said that he had fixed Sept. 26 as the date of the delivery of judgment. In that date he received an intimation from the minister of marine that the counsel of Richelleu and Ontario Navigation Co. had made application to him to open the case, alleging that he had new and important evidence to produce. Accordingly I notified the counsel for the Richelleu Company that we would hear this evidence on October 3, and in reply received a communication from Archer, head of the law firm of which Prefontaine was formerly senior partner, saying that the evidence he desired to produce was some that had been tendered before the vice admiralty court at Quebec, and asking Salmon to accept translation of Quebec records as evidence. To this letter the court replied on the same day (Sept. 25), saying that he could not accept evidence in this form, but that he would be prepared to hear witnesses not later than the middle of the following week. On the 27th of Sept. the letter written by Archer to Prefontaine, saying that the Richelleu and Ontario Company had a large number of suits pending against it because of this decision and there was also a suit in the vice admiralty court at Quebec. He asked Prefontaine to see that Salmon's report was suspended until this decision had been given. On the same day on which Salmon refused to accept evidence in the form asked by Archer, the latter telegraphed to Prefontaine that he asked Salmon to meet the minister of marine and settle definitely the postponement of the report. The answer to this message was one directed to Salmon and signed by the deputy minister of marine, instructing Salmon that it was the wish of the minister of marine that nothing further be done in the Canada matter until he had received further orders.

On October first Salmon said that he had had an interview with the minister of marine and told him that he could not allow him to interfere with his duties, and that being convinced that political influence was being brought to bear in favor of one side, to prejudice the interests of the other, he offered his resignation. Prefontaine disclaimed any intention or desire to determine the tenor of Salmon's report, but intimated his intention to notify Archer that his advice to the court had not been followed, so that he could delay judgment by securing a writ of prohibition against Salmon.

In conclusion Capt. Salmon asked the shipping interest of Canada to take such steps and make such representations to the government that would leave his judicial untrammelled in the duties of the office.

"Judgment of commissioner exonerated the Cape Breton. In case of the Canada he fined Boullie, who was acting as pilot without a certificate, fifty dollars. Certificate of Capt. St. Louis was cancelled and that of the mate, Kane, suspended for twelve months. He found that the captain and mate were practically only employed so that the ship could obtain license to carry passengers, as neither discharged duties of his person; censured the manner in which the company operates its boats very strongly, also ordered that the political influence of the Cape Breton, appear for examination regarding rules of road at sea before his certificate be returned to him.

Has Convinced Japs That They Cannot Carry the Stronghold—Squadron of Russian Battleships Reported.

In the absence of developments at the front, interest at St. Petersburg centres in the disposition to be made of certain important civil and military officers. Rumor has it that Alexeyev has been reinstated in royal favor and will, upon his return from the far east, become the actual director of Russia's foreign policy. The late General Kuropatkin is confident that he will be given at least temporary command of the two Manchurian armies. No news later than Sept. 30 has been received from Port Arthur, but the date given the garrison had been inspired by the reprisals of the Japanese.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A news agency here late tonight sent out a despatch, dated Tokio, Oct. 5, saying:

"It is reported that the Russian squadron made a sortie from Port Arthur today and that a great naval battle occurred."

No details are given.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Daily Telegraph's chief correspondent says that on Sept. 24-25 the Japanese made repeated and recklessly brave attempts to capture High Hill at Port Arthur. Owing to the destruction of earthworks their advance was completely unopposed, and under the rays of the searchlight the Russian machine guns swept them down in masses.

"More troops, however, came on with fanatical bravery," the correspondent adds, "leaping over the bodies of their dead comrades. Then the Russians, emboldened by their success, sortied. The Japanese replied with machine guns. It was the first time the Japanese had been able to entice the Russians from their shelters and they worked terrible havoc among them.

"The scene next morning was appalling. The hillside was strewn with mangled Russian and Japanese bodies, some of them gripped with ghastly realism. Boulders were trickling with blood.

"A brief message was received today. It is on torn paper, in Chinese, and signed by General Stessel. It states that all had been quiet since September 25 and that the Japanese again had added for an hour a refused a truce to bury their dead."

YORK CONSERVATIVES RALLY

Good Meeting Held in Fredericton Last Night—Dr. McLeod Heartily Received.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 5.—The liberal conservative meeting at City Hall this evening was largely attended, and drew forth an enthusiasm, especially when the name of Dundonald was mentioned. Geo. J. Colter, president of the York County Conservative Association, presided, and with him on the platform, among others, were the following: Dr. Richards, G. Colter, Dr. McLeod, Major Copley, John Oldham, W. Vanwart, J. A. Patterson, D. Jones, H. P. McLeod, Dr. Morehouse, Geo. Robinson, J. M. Wiley, M. Tennant, C. H. Thomas, Dougald McCatherine, Councilor Alex. Haines, John McKean, Mr. McFarlane, A. D. Thomas, C. Estabrooks, A. R. Shipley, C. J. Pinder, Dr. Mullin, H. G. Fenety and others.

Dr. Colter in a very brief remarks introduced Dr. McLeod, who was in the best of form and spoke generally on the political questions of the day. When he referred to Lord Dufferin and the treatment of the officer had received, the audience became most enthusiastic, and when the doctor extolled the name of Dundonald as the best soldier Britain ever sent to Canada and had received the shabbiest treatment, the audience broke into cheers. Canadians and the sons of Loyallists all show on the 31st of November that they have their hands on the Union Jack.

Dr. McLeod spoke of purity of elections, and told of the history of the crime that had been revealed lately in the Ontario election courts. The conservative party was a grand party. It had made Canada today the country it was, and through others tried to claim the result of prosperity, the corner stone was laid by the party led by Sir John A. Macdonald.

O. S. Crockett gave an interesting address, in which he dwelt chiefly upon the Grand Trunk Railway. Mr. Crockett showed a thorough knowledge of the Grand Trunk deal, and he was loudly applauded as he made point after point against Laurier making Portland the winter port of Canada. His references to Mr. Blair and the latter's remarks against the railway were highly amusing. Mr. Blair was the hero among York liberals. He had condemned the liberal party. Now let Mr. Blair's friends follow him if they were consistent.

G. V. McInerney, who arrived by the late train from St. John, was the last and chief speaker of the evening. Mr. McInerney spoke for over an hour, kept his audience highly enthusiastic. Mr. McInerney besides being eloquent and logical in his address was also humorous. The history of the liberal party from 1878 down to 1898 kept the audience in the best spirits, and at the conclusion of his speech, when he told the story that Mr. Clarke had given in St. John of how he had cackled over a corner stone as if it had laid the stone just the same as liberals cackled today over Canada's prosperity, brought down the house.

Heroism, Faith and Duty; by the Rev. Warren H. Wilson.

From the theme, "To Accomplish the Impossible, When It is Necessary, is Heroism, is Faith, and is Our Duty," the Rev. Warren H. Wilson, pastor of the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian Church. The text was from I Samuel xviii:24-28: "And David said to Saul: Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and what there came a lion, or a bear and took a lamb out of the flock, I went out after him and smote him and delivered it out of his mouth; and when he rose against me, I caught him by his hair, and smote him, and slew him. Thy servant smote both the lion and the bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God." Mr. Wilson said:

Strange that it should ever be thought necessary to accomplish the impossible. It is a fact that the necessity has inspired to all the acts of heroism, some of desperation and to the many triumphs of faith which have made the world a place fit for man to live in; a path for God to walk in. David the boy, felt that he must attack the lion and defeat him. The child in charge of the sheep moved against the bear, impelled by necessity not only to attack, but to deliver the captive lamb. David, the youth, went in the same spirit against the Philistine, questioning nothing, but aware of the necessity, before which other men lay down. Every man who comes to the aid and redeem Israel from oppression. David, the king, fronted enemies with the imperative upon him that they must be conquered; not merely attacked, but without mercy, but he was not subdued. In this spirit he laid the foundations for a great nation.

For, to accomplish the impossible is sometimes necessary. Moses, the educator of a nation, was called to a mother, felt it necessary that his servant brethren should go out of Egypt free. Booker Washington believed that he should have an education, and he went to the school of a young man, a student, but he was not a student in any other sense. Today he believes that, through labor, the Southern blacks must redeem themselves, and he will accomplish his heroic vision. These impossible things are necessary. In that word impossible is much meaning; all that makes most hearts of men despair. It means that the thing which is necessary cannot be done by any man. There are no powers for the doing of it at hand. Resources and facilities fail, and it will not do itself. It is God and three hundred facing the Valley of Esdraelon, filled with the warriors of His army, courageous and merciful, and he is a younger son in an obscure family of a broken-spirited people. It was as necessary that he conquer by few as he conquers by many. He must redeem the people's minds from cowardice as well as their lands from invaders. With no more than three hundred will God send against him three hundred thousand.

There is no plan ever done; what there is no plan offered for doing; what men have tried and failed to do—that we regard as the impossible. And that necessary is full of meaning, too. The necessary is the purpose which must be satisfied, whether possible or not, the human heart declares. Before these projects the human mind flies to its wings, and it is in the midst of this sublime assurance and filled with awe. It is here men resolve to give their lives. William Lloyd Garrison, seeing in Baltimore the slave-pens on the principal streets, wrote the hearer a sense of parting between human beings, at the sale-block; hearing the fall of the lash and feeling the degradation of the white man's part in slavery, published a treatise on the abolition of the institution of slavery. From all parts of the country came protests against such opinions; from Baltimore came a universal cry of rage. The young men of Baltimore went to prison at twenty-four years of age.

On his release he returned to Boston and began the publication of the Liberator, a journal devoted to the abolition of slavery. It was a time when the North men were mobbed for voicing abolition opinions, and in the South a price was put upon their heads. But in the first number he declared in an uncompromising justice. I am in earnest. I will not equivocate. I will not excuse. I will not retreat a single inch, and I will be heard. This man felt the necessity of accomplishing the impossible. It is an imperative pressure upon one, forfeited by right and love and truth and idealism, and from that time he is in the scope. If there be a God, then it is necessary; if truth is to prevail, then it is necessary; if souls of men are to be saved, then it is necessary. This, then, is the message that he brought to us: that it was moved David, the boy, to fight the lion!

The necessity of accomplishing the impossible appears to all that is spiritual in a man, arouse his kinship with the Creator and makes him long for the communion with God his Father. That a man should be burdened with the impossible and be under bondage to do it is itself a token of his divine and unshareable nature. He does not do it with the conviction that it cannot be; but believes also that it must be. He believes it and weeps for it. He prepares to die, but he must do what cannot be done.

For this conviction a man is prepared by all the dreams of youth and all the aspirations of the poetic and ideal. Thoughts ride in themselves and separate from life have made him passionately to accomplish what cannot be. All that has read of heroic action and all that has been written or sung of the triumphs of valor and self-devotion, the very story of the death upon a cross of One who would save the world, all rush up into the mind of him who faces an impossibility that must be achieved. He hears that necessity from heaven and from earth, from Bible and from church, from singer and from prophet, and every avenue in which flows his joy and his passions. All the course of past life and the stream of eternal life begun in him impel him onward to do that which cannot be done.

Many a parent has faced this past month the necessity of educating a child, while knowing well the impossibility. How do you suppose the parents of a certain talented minister were animated in regard to the education of their eight children? The father was for a quarter of a century a minister on a small salary in the country. But all the children of that family were through school, college and into their chosen profession or occupation. How do you suppose the parents faced the disproportion between their slender hundreds of income which thousands required for such schooling? Yet all the streams of their character, of their love and hopes for their children and of the ambitions born in that home demanded that they accomplish the impossible. And they did accomplish it.

A great educator has recently said that among the highest spiritual qualities are in the mind and called into action.

Comes also self-reliance, and the consideration of one's self for a great anxiety, but he has been a great man, him who fronts the impossible with a conviction of its necessity, the sense of dependence upon others, of social oneness with the community, which has been the sign of the great men; but which under the terrible possibility of doing what is beyond their strength they feel profoundly.

And above all the necessity of the impossible is the sense of the God, and so assures men of the relation of their lives to the Creator, who at the beginning fronted chaos and made it of the world. That there must be what is impossible, that the proposition in which the souls of men have been schooled into belief in God and trust in Him. That what must be done has been the school of submissiveness, the school of a patient man, all fatalists, and every other who subdues his soul before his Maker, while God, through their heroic self-sacrifice for that of which they have died, has been the victor.

What has been impossible with men has been impossible with God. A recent observer was told the story of the coming to a noted school for negroes in the South of a boy so black that he was forbidden, and so dull at books that arithmetic and grammar were beyond his capacity. Only after much hesitation, and because they were in the department of planting and gardening he found his favorite studies. His leisure hours were passed for a time away from the other students, and he was in a place where he had, on a piece of land near the town, erected a small green house, and there was practicing what he had learned in his classes. Every particle of the material of this structure had been rescued from the rubbish heap, formed of waste in the erection of the college buildings. Bricks, mortar, boards, nails, glass, and broken and castaway pieces. The furnace man has never done; what there is no plan offered for doing; what men have tried and failed to do—that we regard as the impossible. And that necessary is full of meaning, too. The necessary is the purpose which must be satisfied, whether possible or not, the human heart declares. ple, and that at once. All roads lead to this conclusion, and it constitutes for us a necessity, and it constitutes same time an impossibility. There is for us in this crossing of these stern elements of life, the must-be and the cannot-be, the sign of God's greatness. To make this great effort for God with which we are brought face to face will mean for us the greatest experience of communion with God that we have ever known.

Acts of heroism and duty and faith are faced not so much with clearness of information as with courage and promptness of attack. "No great deed is done by lotteries who wait for certainty." On the other hand, the way opens for him who will go on and attack the hedge which bars the road. Let us, like David, from the lion, the bear and the giant; and God will make out of our necessity the accomplishment of that which seems impossible.
