

MINE LEADERS ORDER MEN TO PROTECT PITTS

Conference Coming Today at Which Trouble May Be Brought to End.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTER FOR A SETTLEMENT

Riots Reported from Many Parts of Wales and England During Week-End.

London, April 10.—An agreement was reached last night by the striking coal miners and the mine owners for a conference for the purpose of endeavoring to settle the strike. The executive of the miners has instructed the miners to refrain from any action endangering the mines. Frank Hodges, secretary of the miners' union said the conference with the mine owners had been arranged without any conditions being stipulated.

Minister Take Rest.

Today was a day of relaxation from the tension created by the coal strike and the possibility of a general industrial tie-up and gave the cabinet members and labor leaders an opportunity to get into the country for a rest. Opinion on the present aspect of the crisis continues favorably, but meantime all precautionary measures and recruiting of volunteers are proceeding and will not be relaxed until the miners are back at work. These preparations formed a great attraction for Londoners today who apparently no longer haunted by the fear of strikes by the railwaymen and transport workers crowded the parks and rivers, enjoying the brilliant sunshine. It was a striking contrast to Saturday when fears of untoward developments kept the nervous suburban population in its homes.

Opinions are Divided.

Various views were apparent today. The first was a confident belief among the labor leaders now an unfettered confidence is assured a greater number of men will be returned to their duties, although under the terms of the agreement they only are required to abstain from molesting volunteer workers. The second was that the government while firmly opposed to a strike is willing for a limited period, to afford some temporary assistance to tide industry over the difficult stage. It is also believed that the whole wage basis recently proposed by the mine owners which originated the dispute will be discarded and a new basis formulated for the miners' consideration.

Montreal, April 10.—Montreal supposed to be fountain of the liquor traffic, extended to "Pussyfoot" William E. Johnson, a kindly welcome when he spoke here Saturday night in St. James Methodist church, which was packed to the doors to hear him. A couple in the audience had to be ejected, and there was a certain amount of interruption, but not sufficient to make any disturbance. Interruption commenced at the outset by a man getting up in the gallery of the church and exclaiming that "Montreal was not glad to have 'Pussyfoot' amid cries of 'put him out,' he was ejected without much trouble.

Toronto, April 10.—William "Pussyfoot" Johnson addressed two large gatherings in this city this afternoon under the auspices of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, in Massey Hall and the Metropolitan Methodist church, and was given a better hearing than had been anticipated.

HARRIS ADMITS HIS CONFESSION WAS PURE FAKE

Told Tale of Killing Millionaire to Test Loyalty of His Wife.

Entire Story Was Made Up Ready to Go to Electric Chair if Wife Was Untrue in Emergency.

Duffalo, April 10.—Roy Harris, held here by the police on his confession that he was concerned in the murder of Joe. B. Elwell in New York last June, today confessed that his story is not true. The prisoner who had been questioned for two hours by district attorney Moore at the end of which time he made a statement admitting that his original declaration was false.

Mr. Moore sent word to Charles S. Whitman and Capt. Carey of the New York police who were on their way to Duffalo. The development may cause them to change their plans and return to New York from Albany.

To Test His Wife. Harris alleges as his reason for the hoax that he had met her again only last week and desired to know whether she would be staunch to him were he in serious trouble. He said that if she had not proved "loyal and true blue," he would have gone to the electric chair without regret.

Harris' confession to Oswald, Oswald of the New York police department on Saturday night but the police officer did not make public the fact because he wished, he said, to talk with Mr. Whitman and Capt. Carey first. He placed a charge of first degree murder against the prisoner and ordered him held incommunicado.

Woman Spills Story. After a few hours the charge was withdrawn. Oswald says that it was through the wife that the prisoner's tale was disproved. He took the woman to the outlying police station where the man was locked up and let them talk for an hour or so.

Harris had insisted that his wife was in St. Catharines, Ont., during the planning of the Elwell murder, while she declared that she was with him in New York that week. Mrs. Harris said she gave him a birthday gift of socks at that time.

Caught by Tales. "Did you get a birthday present last year" asked Oswald. "Why yes, two pairs of socks," said Harris. "Who gave them to you?" "My wife," said Harris, without hesitation. "But you said your wife was in St. Catharines at that time," said Oswald. "Oh, well, you've caught me. The whole thing is a fake," said Harris with a hopeless gesture.

At noon today Harris was taken to the district attorney's office and confronted with his wife. After he had admitted the hoax he was returned to his cell and ordered held without bail in solitary confinement.

SUFFRAGISTS URGE BOYCOTT OF THE CHURCH

British Women Asked to Use This Weapon to Gain Admission to Ministry.

ONE PASTOR HAS DEFIED HIS BISHOP

Permits Maude Royden to Preach in London Pulpit Despite Protest.

(Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.) London, April 10.—Boycott of the Church until women are admitted to the ministry of the Church of England is being advocated by many English suffragists.

The fight to obtain pulpits for women has been a long one and so far unsuccessful. There is one church in London which opens its doors to women preachers. Otherwise, women who aspire to preach in the national church have to do so outdoors or in some town hall.

Miss Maude Royden, who is the most gifted of the women preachers, was given permission to preach at a church service on Good Friday. The Bishop of London protested, but the rector of the church stood by his "convictions" and defied the Bishop. Miss Royden preached at Geneva during the meeting of the international Suffragist Congress.

Women Preachers Draw Crowd. Church services which are in charge of women preachers are always well attended and men often participate in the congregation.

In the "free" churches, as the Protestant churches outside the Church of England are called, women are usually accorded the right to preach. The position of women came up at the conference of Bishops, but the Bishop of London, who promised to support the women's demands, turned at the last minute and permission was given the women only to serve as deaconesses.

The mayor was displeased. The order went out from the police ceasar's office that hereafter the chorus and cabaret girls must wear tights.

If Satisfactory Arrangements Cannot be Made Men Will Strike.

New York, April 10.—Union representatives of the workers in the United States and Canada at a conference here yesterday unanimously rejected a proposal submitted by the mill owners calling for a 30 per cent. wage reduction and increasing the working day from eight to nine hours.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 10.—Reduction in wages averaging from 15 to 20 per cent was proposed to representatives of the clerical and station forces of the Pennsylvania Railroad by the road's management committee in conference here yesterday. Approximately 46,000 employees in these departments of the system would be affected by the plan.

The proposal contemplates the reduction of the monthly $1 a day or 12 1/2 cents an hour, depending upon the basis of pay, for storekeepers and their assistants and foremen and sub-foremen.

Ancient Records Being Searched

Counsel for Newfoundland and Quebec Seeking Data on Labrador.

London, April 10.—The early records bearing on Canadian history are being searched at the British Record Office by counsel for Newfoundland and Quebec in connection with the Labrador boundary dispute, which is to be heard by the Privy Council. Documents dating back to the seventeenth century are being consulted to determine the historical rights to that rockbound land.

An interesting discovery, which goes another hundred years further back in history, is that Labrador is really not Labrador at all, but Greenland. Research made in London, Paris and Spain by Harry Biggar, Dominion Archivist in Europe, has disclosed the fact that until the middle of the sixteenth century the name Labrador meant Greenland, and commemorated the wide awareness of John Fernandez Labrador, or Landovero, who was a member of John Cabot's crew, was the first to sight this land. The country now the subject of the dispute was in those days known as "Corrie deak Land," but lost its name through the carelessness of map makers.

There is said to be a possibility that the Monckton collection of General Wolfe's letters, which were recently purchased by Sir Leicester Harcourt, may be presented to Canada.

FOUND MISSING NAVAL OFFICER BUT CASH GONE

Assistant Paymaster, Whose Funds of $25,000 Are Missing, Found in Montreal.

CLAIMS THIEVES STOLE THE ROLL

Then He Fled to Canada from Boston Because He Feared the Result.

Boston, April 10.—Lieut. Joseph J. Lynam, assistant paymaster of the U. S. S. Chester, whose disappearance from the Boston yard several weeks ago was followed by the discovery of a shortage of $25,000 in his accounts, has been found in Montreal by a reporter of a Boston paper according to a story printed yesterday. He had been in Montreal since March 18, living in a rooming house on Crescent Street and had managed to slip out, though he had only $11 in his pockets when he arrived there.

Back in Boston. Lynam returned here from Montreal yesterday arraigned before a federal commissioner and held in $25,000 bonds for the grand jury. He claimed to be penniless and to have wandered about Montreal hungry and without sleep after leaving there from Nashua, N. H., March 18. Lynam said he went to Washington on March 15, had his accounts checked as correct and took away $13,954 as a surplus of funds of the U. S. S. Pueblo to transfer to the accounts of the scout cruiser, Chester. En route to this city he said his pocket was rifled of his funds.

Afraid of Trial. Arriving in Boston on March 17, he called the commanding officer of the Chester on the telephone and told him he had lost some important papers, then getting afraid over the fact that whether it were theft or loss, he would have to stand trial for the shortage, said he hired an automobile and went to Nashua, N. H., taking the train there for Canada. He said he arrived in Montreal he had only $11. Riots Reported from Many Parts of Wales and England During Week-End.

It is stated there were many cases of looting. In one instance a coal train was held up and a large quantity of the fuel taken. Raiders are also killing sheep pasturing in the hilly regions.

The executive committee of the Triple Alliance, after a conference with the prime minister, issued the following statement last night:

The plan was issued by Mr. Hodges, and J. H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, and Mr. Thomas, in an interview said it was the result of negotiations between the railwaymen, transport workers and the government, and had been accepted by the miners.

en, Missing, Returns To Home

Philadelphia, April 10.—Ten-year-old Nicholas Kuhn, 1533 Germantown avenue, who disappeared two weeks ago while on his way to the Willis Eye Hospital for treatment, returned to his home yesterday.

According to the lad's story, he was on his way to the hospital when he met a man who told him that he also was going there to be treated. The stranger said his name was Harry Henderson, and told the boy that he lived at Twelfth and Arch streets.

After conversing with him, Henderson suggested that they go to Wilmington, and he showed the youth $25. Nicholas says that at first he demurred but finally went with Henderson to take the boat. Upon arriving at the Chestnut street wharf they found the boat had left, so Henderson took him to Broad Street Station, where they took a train.

Nicholas says they registered at a Wilmington hotel under the name of Frank Homer and son, where they stayed until Easter Sunday, when they returned to Philadelphia. They left there, he states, the same afternoon and went to Pottsville, and then drove to Chester, Pa., and later to Chester. There Henderson pawned the lad's watch for $2, and talking him to keep quiet, sent him to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charlotte Isabel Segoe The death of Mrs. Charlotte Isabel Segoe occurred at her home, 315 Rockwood Road, on Saturday, April 3.

Befuddled Chauffeur Goes Faster Instead of Stopping—East Side Excited.

New York, April 10.—Detective James Stanley was standing yesterday in a doorway in Delancey street, near Eldridge street, waiting for some crime to come along, when a man who said later he was Charles Stanley of Detroit, moved up and began to talk.

"There is a man up stairs here who says 'Stanley,'" said the detective. "Come along and I'll introduce you."

Stanley looked at the detective for a moment and then became suspicious for he turned and ran as fast as he could down Delancey street, with Stanley at his heels. The detective didn't yell or invite assistance, but a few small boys joined him to see what it was all about, and then men, women and children poured from the shops and the tenements and started running.

Stanley yelled to the chauffeur to stop but the chauffeur became confused and stepped on the accelerator, sending the car flying ahead at full speed. Stanley then started to climb on the hood after Stanley, but as the detective advanced by inches Stanley retreated by inches, while all the time the chauffeur honked his horn and the automobile went swiftly toward the Williamsburg Bridge.

NAPOLEON'S MEMORY TO BE HONORED

Nation-Wide Ceremony May 5, on Centenary of Passing Away of Great Emperor.

(Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.) Paris, April 10.—The 100th anniversary of the death of Napoleon I at St. Helena will be celebrated on May 5 with elaborate nation-wide ceremony.

Notable in the extensive programme by which France will honor the memory of her greatest leader will be the firing of double salutes 101 guns commencing at 5.46 in the evening, one probably from the Invalides at Paris and the other, with permission of the British Government, to sound from a battery on the barren rock of the Emperor's exile.

Big Celebration Planned. This unique military tribute will be preceded by several weeks of Napoleonic commemorations at various places associated with the Emperor's life. Special exhibitions have already been opened at Fontainebleau, at Compiègne, at Malmaison and at Sevres, which will continue until September 30.

On May 4, in the Cathedral of Notre Dame, Archbishop Dubois will be present at a special religious ceremony. Here in the same gothic transept where occurred the magnificent military ceremony of Napoleon and Josephine, at which Napoleon officiated, the famous war chaplain, Abbe Henneque, holder of eleven citations, will deliver an appreciation of the Emperor.

There will also be a civil ceremony in the Sorbonne, under the patronage of the President of the republic. The military ceremony of the following day will take place at the Arc de Triomphe, where the "grogards" of Napoleon and the "grogards" of Poincaré will render homage to the great Corsican and at which the generalissimo Poincaré will pronounce the eulogy of France.

Young Desperadoes Taken In Custody

Charged With Stealing Horse and Carriage; Also Breaking Into Store at Musquash.

Six young desperadoes were arrested at Musquash, P. E. I., on Saturday morning by Sergeant Detective Power at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

They are the young men who, after breaking into the stable of James McCarthy on the corner of Germain and Queen streets Friday night and stealing his horse and carriage, drove to Musquash and bargained Melanson's store.

All the prisoners are young boys of the city, the youngest being 15 the oldest 19. Their names are Cameron, Miller, Lovine, Collins and Crawford.

Sergeant Detective Power, accompanied by detectives Biddiscombe and Donahue and Provincial Constable Garret, left the city at 11 o'clock Saturday morning and soon picked up the trail at Musquash, where the boys had been seen by several residents.

They tracked them through to Dipper Harbor, and Little Lepreau where the McCarthy horse was found in Oscar Hanson's barn.

One-Third of $2,000,000 Estate to Widow—Ashes to be Thrown in River.

Poughkeepsate, April 10.—The will of Jas. H. Sands, disposing of an estate estimated at $2,000,000, was filed here today, soon after Mr. Sands' body had been sent by train to Troy to be cremated.

Mr. Sands, who was 55 years old and a bachelor, left one-third of the estate to Mrs. Winifred E. Sheldon, a widow of Salt Point, at whose home he had been boarding for about seven months. His death occurred at Vassar Brothers' Hospital here. He had lived for many years at Stamfordville. The will was drawn March 13. One-third of the estate is left to a sister, Mrs. Henrietta Sands Bishop, and the remainder to three children of another sister, Stanley Sands Cole, Tenah Cole and Mrs. Jeanne Cole Jones, all of Dutchess county.

A number of shirts, boots and sweaters which were stolen from the Melanson store were found in their possession when arrested.

Seen in The City. Just what influenced the young men in their foolish act is not known. They certainly are not adapted to the roles they assumed. The horse they picked out was one that was bound to attract attention and they paraded the streets of the city before driving to Musquash.

They were seen by Officer Garnet on Prince William street shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday evening and later in the evening by Officer Lindsey on Main street. Their break at Musquash gave the direction of their flight.

School Observed Temperance Sunday

Large Attendance at Queen Square Church Enjoyed Address.

Quarterly "Temperance Sunday" was observed yesterday afternoon at Queen Square Methodist Church. There was a large attendance of pupils and officers and a programme was given which was in charge of the temperance committee, Miss G. A. Ford, secretary, Mrs. F. Blissett and Joseph Taylor.

Rev. Nell McLaughlin, pastor of the church, led in prayer, and the nineteenth Psalm was read by the school. Fifteen inmates were then given to the lesson for the day.

Rev. H. A. Goodwin delivered a very interesting address, speaking chiefly upon the injurious effect of alcohol upon the human system. The speaker had obtained from the office of the liquor inspector a number of sample bottles, and using these as illustrations, he gave several tests proving that alcohol bars the body, and with the white of an egg demonstrated that this liquor coats a food before it has been assimilated by the system.

Special to The Standard. Moncton, N. B., April 10.—Citizens of Moncton were shocked this morning by the sudden death of Dr. Fred J. White, one of the best known medical men in this part of the province. Death was due to apoplexy. He was stricken while in bed and was found by his wife just before ten o'clock, his death occurring less than two hours later. PLENTY OF COAL ALREADY MINED TO AID BRITAIN

Miners at Sydney Will Not Have to Solve Problem of Help.

SEALS APPEARING OFF GLACE BAY

Threaten to Dismiss Any Men Who Mine Dirty Coal.

Sydney, N. S., April 10.—That a refusal by the United Mine Workers of America to dig coal for export to Great Britain during the present strike is a very unlikely thing, was the opinion voiced by Robert Baxter, president of the United Mine Workers District 26, when interviewed on the subject today. Mr. Baxter said: "For one thing, there are hundreds of thousands of tons of coal banked in the United States, and the same thing is true to a lesser extent here in Canada. It will therefore be seen that the demand for export coal for some time to come can be met by the operators without reference to the men. Settlement Hope On. Hope for an early settlement of the coal strikes in Cumberland County is all off, according to Robert Baxter, president of the United Mine Workers, District 26, who has just returned from the mainland. Twelve Horses And Large Barn Burned

Edward Sinclair Co. Barn at Newcaste Totally Destroyed—Loss About $10,000.

Special to The Standard. Newcastle, N. B., April 10.—The most disastrous fire for some time here took place about 4 o'clock Sat-urday morning, when the large barn of Edward Sinclair Lumber Co. was totally destroyed. The origin of the blaze is thought to have been a defective wire and as the property is situated outside the fire district, the fire department was not called. In the barn were 12 horses and a large quantity of hay and feed, and all of the latter was destroyed. Neighbors succeeded in getting out twenty of the horses, the other twelve being burned to death. The loss is estimated at about $10,000, partly covered by insurance.

Safe Blowers At Work In North End

New System Laundry Scene of Daring Robbery—Safe and Office Wrecked.

While the police are working on the case, no new developments have oc-curred in the New System Laundry break on Elm street, but arrests may soon follow, as the authorities believe they have a good idea of the parties responsible for the daring burglary. It was first discovered by H. C. Holt, manager of the laundry, on open-ing his office Saturday morning, who found his safe partially wrecked, win-dows in the buildings shattered and the partition of his office dislodged. Entrance was gained some time dur-ing the night or early hours of the morning by forcing a window in the rear of the laundry, which is situated in a somewhat secluded spot in Elm street. The yeggs then broke open a tool chest in the machine shop and with a large hammer and cold chisel started to open the safe. The com-bination lock showed evidence of the chisel's work and the outer casing showed signs of heavy blows from the hammer. Baffling to secure entry by this means, they then proceeded to blow the door off. There was no sign of any attempt to use dynamite, and judging from the wrecked condition of the massive door with its large steel plates bent and shattered it was nitro glycerine that was used. The bungling attempt with the ham-mer and chisel and the overcharge of explosive would not indicate the work to be that of professionals. The bur-glars, however, knew sufficient to leaden the sound with mattresses, al-though several who live in the vicini-ty state they heard a noise during the night, but did not investigate the cause. The exact amount of the haul can-not be determined, as Mr. Holt did not know exactly how much was in the safe, but estimated it at in excess of $750. Two Victory bonds were overlooked by the robbers. The young men who were arrested yesterday morning at Lepreau are not believed to be involved in the Elm street break.

FINE HOME OF JOHN A. YOUNG IS DESTROYED

Residence of York County M. L. A. Burns While Family is Away.

ONLY FEW PERSONAL GOODS ARE SAVED

Loss is Heavy But Insurance Will Cover Part of Loss.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, April 10.—The residence at Yarmouth of John A. Young, M.L.A. for York, was completely destroyed by fire about noon today. Mr. and Mrs. Young were in the city at the time and the fire broke out suddenly from some unknown cause. Most of the contents of the home were destroyed, the members of the family who were at home being able to save only a portion of their personal be-longings. The loss will be heavy, but is partly covered by insurance. Police and prohibition inspectors on Saturday evening visited a number of local beer shops and took away some beer that is supposed to be over the legal strength.

Cape Breton Coal Miners' Holiday

Ten Thousand Men off Duty Saturday and Today from All Pits.

Sydney, N. S., April 10.—Four hundred returned soldiers mustered for the annual memorial parade of the Great War Veterans here today. Cap-tain Gerald McElhinney was in com-mand and the sermon at Falmouth street church was preached by Cap-tain the Rev. Ernest Bates, an over-seas chaplain. Continued depression in the coal trade has resulted in another week-end holiday for approximately 10,000 Cape Breton mine and coal railway workers. All the collieries of the Dominion Coal Company closed Fri-day evening and will not resume op-erations until Tuesday.

KILLED AT WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, April 10.—Charles Kes-chum, unmarried, died at the home of Newman Griffith, River Road yester-day morning, aged 85 years. Mrs. W. D. N. Smith of this town, is a niece. Frank Porter, Sr., of Lower Wood-stock, met a tragic death on Thurs-day afternoon, aged 68 years. Dr. Sullivan went to his home to doctor a horse. Mr. Porter went to the barn to open the large barn doors, which had been nailed up for the winter. He went up on a scaffold to pry them open. The nails giving way quicker than he anticipated, he plunged head-on on the ice in the yard, which killed him instantly. He leaves his wife, six sons, one daughter three brothers and one sister.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. MISCONCEPTIONS ON IRISH QUESTION ARE POINTED OUT

Religion Factor in North But Not in South—Hierarchy is Divided.

London, April 10.—In attempting to reach the realities of the Irish situation, the important thing to keep in mind is that there are two sides. When British statesmen of all parties have tried and failed at regular intervals during the past hundred years to solve the problem, it is a bold thing that will satisfy itself that it can comprehend the solution with one simple formula.

The following articles, written after a three weeks' investigation of the situation as it exists today, attempt to point the public to the facts before them, and to leave them to arrive at their own conclusions than for the writer to formulate conclusions of his own. Though there are many other factors in the question, the issue in Southern Ireland today is for the movement directly between Sinn Fein and the British Government. In this correspondence it has accordingly been left to the protagonists of both sides to make their own cases. The positions of Ulster, of Constitutional Nationalism and of Irish Unionism have, on the other hand, been treated analytically from your correspondent's own viewpoint.

Before dealing with the special aspects of the problem, it is possible without entering the field of controversy to clear up a number of general misconceptions. There are the following patent facts whose statement is essential to the understanding of events as they happen from day to day in Ireland:

- (1) Sinn Fein is not a sectarian party and religion scarcely enters into the present issue in Southern Ireland.
- (2) In Northern Ireland, i. e. the area comprehended by the proposed Northern Parliament, religion is a very vital issue, indeed, to all denominations.
- (3) The Irish Republican Army, regarded in England as a murder gang, is not so considered in Southern Ireland. It is looked on as the violent expression of a national movement.
- (4) True blue Unionism and Constitutional Nationalism are both practically moribund today. There has been a general shifting of all parties to the left since the passing of the Government of Ireland Act.
- (5) Neither Sinn Fein, when it announces that it will be contented with nothing short of a republic, nor the British Government, when it declares that it will give no concessions nor embodied in the Government of Ireland Act, means exactly what it says. Both sides would be willing to accept certain compromises.

Historical Background.

For the historical background of the Irish problem it may be recorded that Ireland was a Gaelic country until the English conquest in 1171. The Gaels, though they spoke one language, were organized on the tribal system, with an Ardri or head-king over all. On account of this tribal rather than centralized organization, the present Irish claim to separate nationality is challenged.

Henry II. and other English monarchs who followed him, established British colonies in Dublin, in Ulster, in Galway and in other places. In some cases these colonies by intermarriage lost their nationality. It is one of the anomalies of the present conflict, for instance, that the sternest enemies of the military and police are Tipperary men, descendants of Cromwellian soldiers, who appear to have bequeathed some of their toughness and tenacity to their posterity as the only distinguishing characteristic of their origin. The majority of the original British plantations, however, have persisted to this day. That is why in the four Northeast counties of Londonderry, Antrim, Armagh and Down, you have a majority which is Protestant in religion (chiefly Presbyterian and Episcopalian) and mainly Scottish in origin. In the neighboring counties of Tyrone and Fermanagh the majority is slightly Roman Catholic, but these counties have been included in the Northern Parliament to round out its territories. In the other counties of Ireland, the people are overwhelmingly Roman Catholic in religion, though racially an admixture, to a certain extent, of the original Gaelic and Danish, Norman and Saxon strains.

South Against North.

Without entering further into vexed Irish history it may be stated that for purposes of political survey the country may now be divided roughly into two parts, North and South. The South, Nationalist in 1914 and therefore ready to remain within the British Empire, in 1918 declared itself at the polls overwhelmingly Sinn Fein and therefore in favor of complete Irish independence. Whether it is generally approved the extreme measures since adopted towards that end is not so clear.

Not so with the North, however. Though they are prepared to work a Northern Parliament, the attitude of their leaders still implies that they regard it rather as a necessary evil than as an improvement on the policy of complete union with Great Britain. They accept it only because it guarantees their unalterable determination not to come under the dominance of a "Neighboring Parliament." In the North it may be gathered that differences of religion play a large part in politics. One finds a prejudice on both

Every Officer of Town A Woman

Two Grandmothers, Three Wives and a Telephone Operator Elected at Polls.

Winnipeg, April 10.—Two widowed grandmothers, three housewives and a woman telephone operator will administer the affairs of this town of 400 population for the next year. An entire woman's ticket, comprising without a platform, was swept into power in yesterday's election by a majority of four to one.

Members of the new administration include: Mayor, Mrs. A. C. Forrester, widow, three children and eight grandchildren. Police Judge, Mrs. Mattie Brewster, widow, four children and four grandchildren. All of the new town council are women. Every member of the new administration is also a church worker.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE.

Winnipeg, April 10.—The Manitoba government's telephone lines have suffered damage to the extent of two hundred thousand dollars from the ice storm of Wednesday, according to the latest estimate.

Britain's Overseas Trade Declining

London, April 1.—The statement of overseas trade for March shows a further big decline as compared with March, 1920. Imports are down nearly 85,000,000 pounds sterling and exports have declined by 26,000,000 pounds sterling. Raw cotton accounted for 34,000,000 pounds of the imports' drop and the cotton manufacturers are responsible for a fall of 12 1/2 millions pounds sterling in exports.

Hawaii Sugar Hurt By Lack of Trees

Island Agricultural Board Asks Legislature for $12,000,000 for Reforestation.

Honolulu, T. H., April 10.—Reforestation of the mountains of the Hawaiian Islands would result in an annual saving of nearly $12,000,000 to sugar cane plantations, estimates submitted to the Legislature by the territorial board of agriculture and forestry, above.

Retarded cane growth, due to the lack of sufficient water for irrigation during the dry seasons could be almost done away with by an extensive planting of trees on the higher altitudes, the forestry experts assert. Waianae plantation on the island of Oahu is a splendid example of what extensive reforestation would do. In the last fifteen years a dense jungle of trees, vines and ferns has been developed on what was formerly almost barren land. Millions of gallons of water now flow out of this region, which formerly supplied no water at all.

How rapidly the territory of Hawaii is coming into the big business class is evidenced by official figures showing island products worth $192,233,124 were sold to the mainland in 1920, an increase of almost $100,000,000 over the sales of 1919.

A GREAT REPORT

Those who have read the historic report of the American Commission on Conditions in Ireland no doubt realized that it contained just what it was expected to contain when the Commission was formed to bring in anything but a hostile report, so that its findings would be discounted to a minimum, and it will not have the slightest influence upon any one who knows anything about Ireland. Why the Commission should have felt it worth while to invite the British Embassy and the British Legation in St. John, N. B., to witness it, is hard to say; it surely must have been well aware that the clumsy attempt to create a spurious appearance of wanting to be fair, would be seen through at once, and the invitation disregarded. The presence and testimony of British Government witnesses, had any tendered themselves, would not have had the slightest effect on the nature of the report it was intended to bring in, because that report was never intended to enlighten the ignorant as to the true conditions in Ireland, but only to provide further Sinn Fein propaganda. Good care was taken that no witnesses should be called who were not strongly in favor of an Irish Republic and intensely hostile to England.

NOT FOR CANADA

Opponents of protection keep insisting that the principal use for a tariff is to raise revenue, and that in so far as duties are protective they do not conduce to the revenue. If economists of the Crerar and King school also took the ground that customs duties should be practically the sole source of revenue, they would, as the Mail and Empire says, at least be consistent. But they do not take that ground. Mr. Crerar has said that he would increase the revenue from income taxes and would have a tax on the land, while Mr. King has also shown himself to be in favor of income taxation. How would it be possible to raise the present large revenue from income taxation if Canadian industries were all left without protection? The Crerar tariff or the tariff prescribed by the National Liberal Convention at which Mr. King was elected leader of his party, would put hundreds of Canadian factories out of business and hosts of Canadian wage-earners out of work. Where would the taxable incomes come from if there were no protection? A purely revenue tariff would have a withering effect upon home industry and would bring the American value of our dollar down to depths never dreamed of. Our protective interests would indeed be taxed to death, for besides the loss of protection they would have to bear their part of the burden of righting the exchange between this country and the favored United States. The present Canadian tariff is mildly protective. The removal of the margin of protection would, as we have said, have the effect of a crushing tax upon industry. The people who pretend that reasonable protection means burdensome taxation are really the only advocates of taxation that destroys. The country could not stand the Crerar or the King way of taxation.

 But things have altered since I was

WHAT ABOUT THE GUARANTEES?

The Western Provinces are still pressing for a settlement of the natural resources problem on the basis of an increased subsidy in lieu of lands already alienated. As the Maritime Provinces will not agree to such an arrangement unless they are also granted an annual increased subsidy, the hopes for a settlement are not rosy. One cannot help thinking, says the London Free Press, that the Western governments, all represented by Liberal administrations, are as much interested in embarrassing the Michigan Cabinet as in securing their resources on the basis of an equitable agreement. There would have been no problem if the Laurier Government in 1906 had handed over the resources then as proposed, and it is passing strange that no grievance was discovered until Sir Robert Borden came into power in 1911.

In balancing assets and liabilities with the provinces the Federal Government should take into account the fact that it has assumed all the guarantees of the innumerable branch roads built by the Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk in the West. The Western Provinces recklessly guaranteed the bonds of thousands of miles of railways, running into millions of dollars. When the Dominion Government took over these systems it assumed the guarantees and is feeling the interest on the bonds, which would otherwise have to be paid for by the provinces. If the provinces had not unloaded these obligations on the Dominion they would be faced with financial responsibilities which would have bankrupted them.

In this phase of the question some late consideration the provinces should bear in mind that when all the balances were squared out they were in debt to the Dominion. The Federal Government has assumed obligations enough

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Apprehensive.
 Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, said his opinion is that of hundreds of financiers, economists and statesmen that have spoken on the subject of Canada's economic situation. Unless their advice and warning are heeded, there are dark days ahead for this country.—Hamilton Herald.

orchardists cultivating their vines grows into vineyards. The dried product of the vine can be utilized in so many ways for assuaging the parched palate of the inhabitants of an arid country that its culture is both pleasant and profitable.—Vancouver Province.

The Promoters C. & S.
 Over 20,000 U. S. Federal employees are to lose useless jobs their chief executives being required in drawing their salaries. The clean-up is being supplemented by state governments. New York alone dispensing with 2,500. It is a mountainous task for more "attorneys at the public crib." Ottawa could likely let out a number for similar reasons, but the crib in Ontario cannot be fairly deemed rampant.—Hamilton Spectator.

Canadian Justice.
 Ontario justice seems to be a matter of Jersey justice. Both are swift of foot. If any young American feels impelled to commit a violent crime, our advice is to keep out of the province except to take while he commits it.

On January 20, at Woodstock, Ont., two brothers murdered a constabulary. On March 10 they were convicted, one of first degree murder and the other of manslaughter. On June 2 the one will be hanged. The other, having been a soldier in France, was served a life sentence and will serve twenty years.

There is justice swift and sure. No fumbling by the police or sentimentality on the part of the jury. No long delay over counsel, no fussing over bail, no recommendation for mercy. A murder was committed in cold blood, as the evidence showed, and the application of the capital penalty comes as a matter of course.

Promptness and certainty of punishment are better crime deterrents than coddling. The machinery of justice in the average American community needs lubricating with some of the Ontario brand of common sense.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Apparatus To Detect Icebergs
 Invention of French Engineer
 Protection for Vessels During Fog.

Paris, April 10.—An invention which, it is declared, can detect through a fog the presence of an iceberg six or seven miles distant was described by the inventor, a young French engineer, at a meeting of the French Society of Inventionists.

The key to the invention is the transmission even through a fog of ultra-red rays from ice. The first experiments in this direction were made in 1912 by a British firm after the wreck of the Titanic, and were pursued by the French marine services. Last May they commissioned St. Leger to test apparatus which he had designed, and the tests were carried out off the Newfoundland coast from the ship Ville Ives.

The first step to solution, as the inventor stated, was the design of a periscope-like apparatus which he had designed, and the tests were carried out off the Newfoundland coast from the ship Ville Ives.

Miss L. M. Boutiller, 89 Victoria Road, Halifax, N. S., writes: "I have suffered for years from eczema. I could not rest day or night. I suffered great agony, and was nearly crazy with the itching and burning. I used all kinds of ointments, but nothing seemed to help me. I saw Burdock Blood Bitters advertised, and was advised to try a bottle. I found great relief, and I really cannot recommend it highly enough for what it has done for me."

Liquor Blows Up In Police Pocket
 New York, April 10.—New York's night court, busy as a result of the police department's first drive at enforcing the state prohibition law, adjourned temporarily in disorder early today when a quart bottle of confiscated liquor exploded in the pocket of a detective.

The detective stood before the magistrate supporting a man, who with bowed head was confessing that he had partaken too freely of the brew that intoxicates.

"Where's the evidence?" asked the court.

The detective's hand moved toward his pocket. Following a loud report, someone shouted "bomb" and a rush for the exits began. The detective was hurled to the floor as was his prisoner. The magistrate and others in the court gathered outside, and returned only when apprised of the cause of the explosion.

The next defendant on the docket, a father of 10, still trembling as a result of the explosion scare, took a pledge to abstain "forever and ever."

More than 20 men were arrested on charges of violating the liquor laws during the first night's activities of the police department.

Two men were accused of taking 25 gallons of alcohol to a station for shipment to New London. Several restaurant owners and a number of waiters were charged with having liquor in their possession.

A plot has been discovered, says a Dutch correspondent, for the re-

NEARLY CRAZY WITH ECZEMA.

No rest day or night for those who are afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable burning, itching and torturing relief is gladly well come!

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no remedy that has done, or can do more for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible tortures.

Apply it externally and it takes out the stinging, itching and burning, and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood—eczema is a blood disease—and drives it out of the system.

 Military Made Move Consulting the Heads of Govern

London, April 10.—De Valera, the Irish Republican, is at his own home, while Arthur Griffith, his chief assistant, is in jail. Other prominent Sinn Fein leaders have been arrested today. Griffiths' arrest was a surprise to many. It was believed that Griffiths would be charged with treason, but the British would rather have him in jail sooner or later he might take part in negotiations. Their policy is to do as many doors for a possible one of the Sinn Fein leaders with whom De Valera has been in contact. De Valera may have been in such straits as "Sunday," when Sinn Fein were shot down in Dublin.

He is not believed to have any evidence to show his guilt with the assassination plot, which he could not be the more serious crimes. GRIFFITHS' ARREST FELT TO BE MISTAKE

Military Made Move Without Consulting the Political Heads of Government.

London, April 10.—De Valera, pro-claiming himself "President of the Irish Republic," is at liberty in his own home, while Arthur Griffiths his chief assistant is in jail and many other prominent Sinn Feiners are in the cell. Singing today in authoritative quarters for an explanation of this contradiction your correspondent was informed that the British government was driving the distinction between De Valera and the other Sinn Fein leaders partly because there is a real difference between him and the "vicious extremists and party as a matter of policy. No one has accused De Valera of ever having had a hand in such atrocities as "Bloody Sunday," when unarmed British officers were shot down in their bedrooms. He is not believed to have anything to do with the gunmen and there is no evidence to show his complicity with the assassination plots, consequently he could not be arrested for the more serious crimes which the Sinn Feiners have committed. He might be charged with political offenses, but the British government would rather have him free in hopes that sooner or later he may be willing to take part in negotiations with them. Their policy is to leave open as many doors for a parley as possible and one of their chief troubles has been the difficulty of finding anyone with real authority over the Sinn Feiners with whom to talk. De Valera may have lost some of his reputation for ability in the last few months but he does still wield more authority over Sinn Fein than any one who would be likely to succeed him. Were he lodged in jail, Sinn Fein would put some one else in his place, and however questionable is De Valera's power to direct

Teachers Are Turned Down By Government

Fredrickson, M. B., April 10.—The New Brunswick Teachers' Association's plan for more adequate retirement pensions under a scheme whereby each teacher way to pay a percentage of their salary into the fund has not been accepted by the Government. In a letter which Premier Foster has sent out, the Government's position has been outlined and it is to the effect that some further explanations and information are required, which has caused a determination to make the matter stand over until the next session of the Legislature.

"If the facts are as set forth by the teachers of the province, I have not the slightest doubt that your bill for teachers' pensions will then be readily agreed to," concluded a letter which the Premier has sent to W. J. B. Miles, principal of the St. John High School, who headed the delegation which appeared before the Government. Copies of the letter have been sent to all members of the Legislature.

and restrain the revolutionary movement, there can be no doubt that it is greater than that of the man who might come after him would be. If De Valera would accept the southern parliament there is no reason why he should not be its first premier and follow in the footsteps of several other Irishmen who began their political life in fierce antagonism with British institutions only to become later trustees' servants of the Crown.

As for the imprisonment of Arthur Griffiths it is now frankly admitted here to have been one of those mischances which have occurred in Irish history with such malignant frequency just at the moment when the British government had opened negotiations with Sinn Fein and it was hoped a real progress had been made. Griffiths was arrested by the military without consultation with the political side of the government. It was during the investigation of "Bloody Sunday," as, although there was never any idea that Griffiths had any part in the horrible murders, it was thought that the gunmen might have made use of his house, unknown to him, as a means of communication between themselves. So his house was searched and he was arrested. All hope from the negotiations was nipped in the bud and Downing Street is said to have expressed itself with considerable force concerning the clumsy action of the military which had thus spoiled the most promising chance of reaching a settlement that had occurred up to that time.

FORTIFY WALLS OF LOUVRE AS A PROTECTION

Thefts of Art Treasures and Jewels Cause Precautions.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED IN FAMOUS GALLERY

Additional Watchmen Have Been Employed to Guard Priceless Paintings.

Paris, April 10.—Numerous jewelry thefts which have occurred in apparently "burglar-proof" shops recently together with the arrest of a man in the Louvre who had his pockets filled with burglars' tools has convinced the curators of the famous art gallery that nothing short of fortifying the Louvre would insure the safety of its treasures. Consequently work is going on now about the old walls and cours of the palace destined to protect it even more thoroughly than when it was a royal stronghold on whose security rested the safety of the nation. There is already a sort of half moat about the sides of the Louvre toward the Seine. In addition to this protection use will be made of reinforced gridded windows near the portions accessible to the streets and use of a spiked fence will also be one of the protective features. Additional watchmen already have been detailed to the many corridors, and fuller protection has been demanded for the exterior of the buildings that compose the museum.

Watch Everybody. Since the credibility of guards resulted in the disappearance of the "Mona Lisa," any one found acting in the least suspicious manner about the museum will be taken into custody and given an opportunity to explain to the police. The one man found recently told a guard he had tried to hide in the museum because "the thief would be undisturbed for about thirty days." The vast treasure now inclosed in the Louvre is doubly protected by ingenious devices that would sound the alarm if any fixed piece should be re-

Mongrel Guards Body of Dead "Buddy" Dog

After "Friend" is Killed by Trolley, He Refuses to Leave Scene.

Philadelphia, April 10.—Devotion of one dog for another was shown yesterday at Twenty-second and Chestnut streets when a white-and-green mongrel stood guard for hours over the body of a companion animal, killed by a trolley car. Policeman Braddock, on duty at the busy corner, described the incident as the most touching he ever experienced in a long career.

In response to a summons from Braddock, Daniel Campbell, caretaker of the Women's Society to Protect Cruelty to Animals, 38 South Eighteenth street, managed to coax the mourning dog from the body of the dead companion and took him to the society's headquarters. But the loyal dog refused to be comforted and made every effort to rush back to the scene of the accident. Mrs. Vandegrift, manager, said she hoped to find a home for the dog.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. Edward Walsh was held Saturday morning from her late residence, 182 Rockland Road, to Holy Trinity church where high mass of requiem was celebrated by Very Rev. J. J. Walsh, V. G., D. P. in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends. A large number of floral and spiritual offerings evidenced the respect and esteem in which Mrs. Walsh was held. Relatives were pall-bearers. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Gilbert I. Crawford was held Saturday afternoon from his mother's residence in St. Paul street to Cedar Hill. Rev. J. C. B. Appel, conducted service.

The funeral of James D. McEae was held Saturday afternoon from his late residence, 58 Kennedy street, to Cedar Hill. Rev. J. C. B. Appel, conducted service.

The funeral of Samuel Kee was held Saturday afternoon from his late residence, 278 Brunel street, to Fernhill. Service was conducted by Rev. R. Taylor McKim. Representatives were present from the Knights of Pythias of which Mr. Kee was a member. The body of Mrs. George R. Quigley, who died in Edmonton, Alta., was buried at Edmonton Saturday.

OBITUARY.

Florence McCumber. Friends will regret to learn of the death of Florence McCumber, aged six years, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey McCumber, which took place at eight o'clock Saturday morning at her parents' residence, 117 Rodney street, West St. John, after a brief illness. Besides her parents, she leaves one sister. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of her parents.

Mrs. Augustine Chapman, widow of James M. Chapman, formerly of Edinburgh, Scotland, died at her home in St. Joseph's N. B., on April 8. Girl Confesses To Faking Robbery

Stenographer Rehearsed Hold-up Scene With Partner in Jewellery Firm.

Newark, April 10.—Miss Gussie Lester, 18-year-old stenographer, admitted tonight, police said, that the "hold-up" at the Heyman Brothers' jewellery manufacturing establishment last night was staged by Harry Heyman, with her assistance, after it had been thoroughly rehearsed by them for the past two weeks. Heyman reported to the police last night that three masked robbers entered his place and escaped with diamonds and jewellery valued at $21,000. The "loss" was covered by insurance.

After telling her story the girl was placed under arrest and detectives were sent out to locate Heyman, who was "in bed," according to information given by members of his family.

The young woman charged that Heyman induced her to aid him in his alleged hold-up schemes by promising that he faced bankruptcy and ruin unless he was able to raise $20,000 quickly. He confided to her, she said to have admitted, that he had burglary insurance to that amount and it was then that they laid their plans.

POLICEMAN ARRESTED.

Boston, April 10.—Patrolman Chas. Nicholas was arrested early Saturday charged with breaking and entering and with larceny, after another officer reported that he had found him in civilian clothing with a bundle in his arms and a gun in hand in the south end department store of Isaac Levy. Search of Nichols' room subsequently was said to have shown several trunks filled with shirts, socks and ties, and a collection of 104 keys.

PORTLAND, April 10th, P. M. Steamship Belgian, with Liverpool dates to 8th, arrived.

The London Times of the 20th says there is too much reason to fear that the peace of Europe is about to be broken by one of the least just and least necessary wars of modern times. The Times heartily trusts England may hold herself aloof. Half a dozen war vessels were preparing for sea at Plymouth, and it is reported that they were to go to the St. Lawrence. The 20th was Good Friday and a holiday. There is no late Commercial news.

The language of the Prussian Press by evident distaste of the Government, is also taking measures in anticipation of the coming struggle.—Austria is said to have determined to put an end to the provisional state of affairs in the duchies, and it is necessary will propose that the question be referred to a European Congress.

The independence of Belgium of the 20th, has news that the King of Prussia has given his consent to certain military arrangements which, though only preliminary, indicate that a war is almost inevitable.

Mrs. Snowden is Labor Candidate

Likely to be Made Party Leader by Victorians at Coming By-Election.

By MARY HENKE.
(Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.)
London, April 6.—The British labor party may have its foreign policy represented by a woman if Mrs. Philip Snowden, the well-known feminist and writer, wins the by-election for which she is to stand shortly as the labor candidate.

Mrs. Snowden has been taking a keen interest in foreign affairs and has travelled all over Europe to find out conditions for herself. If the English labor party gets her in Parliament she will be an enlightening addition for the labor members, though well versed on domestic questions that affect the working man are weak on matters that require a wide knowledge of foreign affairs, and they have besides such a timidity in opposition as to continually to grope the secret and contempt of the opponents of the government.

With a woman in the opposition who has learned to hold her own through the perilous days of the English suffrage movement, developments should be interesting. The labor M. P.'s recently elected to Parliament are good trade unionists, but their scope is narrow. Mrs. Snowden, being a woman, puts human interest in her study of foreign affairs and believes in a broad and generous handling of the Empire's governmental difficulties.

Makes Own Investigations.
She is a member of the national executive of the labor party and supports the party's policies, which demand resumption of trade with Russia and opposes impossible indemnity demands on Germany. Before she accepts anybody's views, however, she investigates for herself. British labor has been given to coquetting with Russia in the past, and when the labor delegation went to Russia to investigate conditions most of the members "fell for" the Bolsheviks. If there was criticism it was the tone of that of the member who complained because the Bolsheviks insisted on signing the "Internationale" between every course at the banquet.

Mrs. Snowden, however, quickly approved and quickly condemned, and when she returned issued a book denouncing the Bolshevik system, that has had a large international sale. Her view was that a belief in personal liberty, she could not support a policy that so abrogated it in Russia she saw the people groined and the workers of the world in peril and Bolshavist dogmatism.

Her experience in Russia had a great deal of effect on her political views and she has since opposed anything that looked like communism in the labor party. Her attitude has so antagonized the communists in England that they are bringing out a candidate to oppose her at the by-election.

Married Writer.
Although she has been active for a number of years in feminist and labor movements, Mrs. Snowden almost became a member of the "only their wives" coterie, by marrying Mr. Snowden, also a well-known economist and writer, and an intellectual of the labor movement. She has succeeded in making an international reputation "on her own" in spite of her husband's prominence.

Mrs. Snowden is well known in America, where she frequently lectures. Like all feminists who have been through the difficulties of the struggle for equality abroad, she appreciates the favored position of the women of the United States.

"The Woman of America," she says, "would have long since been completely ruined by her good fortune had it not been for her native good sense, her kindly heart, her ready intellect and her passion for doing something."

Many feminists are encouraging this interest in foreign affairs among women's parliamentary possibilities. They feel that there is a tendency among parties to put up women candidates in order to pacify the women voters, and then to put them off on matters relating to women and children as if it were their special province. All women, they say, are interested in matters relating to their sex, but there is a significant move on now in England to clear away all existing inequalities between the

IF I WERE A FAIRY

If I were a fine, little fairy, with wonderful gifts at my call,
I'd gather the wee tots about me, and loosen the tongues of them all;
And tell them to tell all, with stories and make their desires known to me.

I'd give them the riches of learning, the comforts of plenty and peace;
I'd tempt them to covet the fine things, and serve so that love might increase.

I'd tell them that all were their equals, and none were below or above,
That earth was the place of God's garden, and the sweetest of flowers there was love.

I'd charge them to adorn seafish pleasures, and keep only those that were fine;
To give, not to take, the best prizes; to share, not to grab and confine.

To strive for the pleasure of making a world that was worthy and free—
Sweet bringers of mirth in the present, brave heirs of the days that will be.

—J. O., in Dundee Advertiser.

BLACK AND WHITE SKIRTS

In the panorama of the windows the smartest suit in a certain famous haberdashery that includes things for sports wear, is a black and white checked skirt, quite a large shop-hour's plain, striped, with a short black coat of some soft suede-looking weave, that is very unusual, but very smart. Near it is a yellow tan cloth suit, straight skirt and short coat, other, and this might be of chambray skin, it is so smooth and kid-finished, it is really one of those new wool weaves that the Hockeysellers are wearing this year. These and other coats of Spring are worn with the Spring fur—narrow neckpieces of the short fur.

GOOD RAISIN COOKIES.

Place in a saucepan and bring to a boil two tablespoonful of cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful of ginger and one-half teaspoonful of nutmeg, one teaspoonful of molasses, and one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of chopped raisins and enough salt to form a dough. Mold into balls the size of a walnut and flatten into cakes. Bake in a quick oven for about seven minutes.

sexes, so that women may devote themselves to larger policies of the government, which of late have not always been satisfactory.

Women Labor Leaders Strong.
In England the labor party probably has the strongest material to choose from for its womanly candidates. The labor women usually have national reputations, and are active feminists, which gives them a strong woman's support. Many of the most progressive and liberal-minded English women, like Lady Rhonda, have been slow to identify themselves with which she speaks. She is especially interested in domestic labor questions.

Difficult to Find M. P.'s.
Party managers here declare that it is difficult to find strong women candidates with a feminist backing. Lady Banham Carter, Asquith's daughter, has been offered ten constituencies by the Liberal party, but has declined because of her health and family obligations. She is influential in the party, and is a popular and straightforward speaker.

"Hated," she told young liberals recently, in a speech on international relationships, "is not for youth. It is a hobby of old age."
One reason for the evident dearth of women candidates is the fact that Englishwomen have been accustomed to giving their time and energies to the political advancement of some man relative. When they give equal time and energy to their own political future, women believe, there will be more than enough good material from which to choose the women M. P.'s.

LET'S TALK IT OVER

In the many changes which have taken place in recent years a very striking one is the relation between parents and children. Now, when an opinion is expressed about the upbringing of boys and girls, someone always digs up that ancient jibe about old maids and bachelors thinking they know how to advise parents. Might not the maiden aunt quite justly quote her own generally accepted saying, namely that "Lookers-on see most of the game." Parents are too close to their children to see their faults or the peculiar attitude they themselves adopt in these modern times.

In bygone days, children stood in awe of their parents and were brought up to mind the rule of being seen but not heard. Today one of the best signs of progress is the central place given to the child in every national movement. They are being taught to make themselves fit, mentally and physically, to be work citizens of a great nation. Their health is safeguarded. Those in authority are urged to bring before children the unselfish work of caring for those less fortunate than themselves.

What do you think about it?

Duke of Rothesay Chapter I. O. D. E.

Beautiful Decorations at Tea and Sale Held Saturday—Over $160 Realized.

A tea and sale at which decorations were of a unique and very beautiful nature, was held at Rothesay on Saturday afternoon by the Duke of Rothesay Chapter, I. O. D. E., of which Miss Annie Piddington is regent.

The affair was held at the School House of St. Paul's church, the room was draped with large Union Jacks. The special feature of the sale was Dutch Gardens, in which rows of tulips bloomed in a most lifelike fashion. They were arranged on a fast table, planted in a conventional way by the approved Dutch fashion. When picked by the purchaser, they were found to be attached to a dainty gift. Mrs. William S. Allison, Thomas Bell, Miss Frances Allison and Mrs. John H. McIntyre and Miss Stoddard were in charge of this most attractive table. Mrs. P. Blanchet was in charge of a fancy work table, assisted by Mrs. J. Peders and Mrs. Geo. Drew. At the Home-Cooking table Mrs. H. Cannon was convener, assisted by Mrs. James Henderson and Miss Piddington. All tables were filled with dainty and useful articles.

Presiding at the tea table, which was centred with daisies and pussy willows, were Mrs. A. Daniel and Mrs. Thomas Bell. The membership list was convener of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Miss Leslie Thomson, Mrs. Joseph Henderson and Mrs. William Mathers. On the tea tables were the Senior Girl Guides of Rothesay, dressed as flowers of all hues and looking very prettily as they filled above in serving the many guests.

Over $160 was realized, which will be used for the work of the Duke of Rothesay Chapter, which is a flourishing chapter, and has its membership made up of enthusiastic workers for all patriotic efforts.

WHEN PAINT SMELLS.

To many people the smell of paint is very objectionable, yet it is not always possible to be away from home when decoration is being carried out. The paint that is being done in a house special attention should be paid to ventilation. Fresh air from the outside will more quickly disperse the odor than anything else. Falls of water placed in rooms which have been newly painted will clear the air quickly of the offensive smell. To get the best effect fresh water should be put into the pails each half-hour. If they can be obtained this is a splendid thing for removing the paint odor.

Wouldn't Have Wed Without Wife's "Dot"

Husband Claims Father-in-Law Threatened Him With a Knife.

Atlantic City, April 10.—Wife was awarded against husband in an unusual suit which started yesterday morning before Vice Chancellor Leaming in Chancery court.

Henry Bessie Singer seeks to recover $3,000 from her husband, Henry Singer, paper bag manufacturer, of this city. Singer testified on the stand that $2,000 of the sum had been in the name of a dowry from his wife's father, according to a custom of Jews. Singer was asked if he would have married his wife without her $2,000. "Without her dot," was his startling answer. The defendant stated that the balance of the money given him by his wife was saved out of the money he had given her.

Mrs. Singer produced a paper signed by Singer, in which he acknowledged the debt of $3,000. The husband said that he was forced to sign the paper by his wife and father-in-law, who had caught hold of him, shook him and threatened him. He said he was afraid not to sign. He said that his father-in-law had threatened him with a butcher knife. The father, who was in court, is nearly 70 years old.

Dorothy Dalton's Beauty Chat

Miss Dorothy Dalton, the actress famous the world over for her beautiful complexion, says: "Any girl or woman who has a beautiful, rosy-white complexion, and smooth, wrinkled skin like mine if they will follow my advice and use Derwillo a simple toilet preparation. I use it because it imparts instant beauty, is easy to apply, absolutely harmless and has a marvelous effect upon the skin. One application proves it. Be sure to read Miss Dalton's interesting story of how to quickly acquire a beautiful complexion, soon to appear in this paper. In the meantime get Derwillo at any toilet counter and try it today; you will be delightfully surprised."

CHOIR MEMBERS WERE ENTERTAINED

In honor of several members of the choir who reside in Montreal in the summer, the ladies of Trinity church choir entertained the gentlemen members on Thursday evening last at dinner in the school house. The table was beautifully decorated with red geraniums, daisy hand painted place cards were furnished and flowers provided for the guests. Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. J. S. Ford presided at the table. Mrs. W. S. Clark was in charge of refreshments.

During the evening solos were given by Messrs. Bradley and Stenhouse. The social hour which followed the delicious dinner was greatly enjoyed.

Three Kinds of People Who Call

Characteristics Described by Wife of London Clergyman.

A London clergyman's wife has written the following classification of her callers.

I have three types of callers, she says, the curious, the witty and the really friendly; and I am expected to entertain and be polite to each, without showing partiality.

The curious come because everybody else comes. They want to see your house, and whether you keep any maids, and how you manage it.

They are the type of people who reform themselves have "at home" days, but invariably want to have you back some time. . . . and it is very rarely indeed that you will find they develop into anything more than acquaintances.

The dutiful callers come because they ought to do so, and always tell you to do. They apologize for having you do this and that, and explain with wearisome detail how busy and full their life is.

They are very polite, dutiful, and never forget to leave cards or fix a day for you to go to see them; only they always impress on you the fact that if you should chance to go at any other time you could never hope to have a chance of seeing them. They are far too important, and sure to be engaged.

A WONDERFUL WAY TO GUARD AGAINST FAILURE AND WANT!

How—How Do They Do It. It's Easy Enough To Talk About But The Thing Is—To Do It

How much are you making? Yes, YOU! Is it three dollars and fifty cents a day? Or is it five dollars, six dollars, seven dollars, ten dollars or fifteen dollars? Are you satisfied with it? Or do you continually grumble—without doing anything to make it more? But maybe this isn't your fault. Maybe you don't know how to GO ABOUT making it more. Lots of people are this way. Millions of them. Yes, millions! And they're not to blame either. They'd do more, they'd earn more, if they only KNEW HOW—right down in their hearts they're willing enough. They're just as anxious and ambitious, and thrifty, and hopeful, and earnest as they can be. Only they just don't seem to understand the knack of making more wages.

The reason you know it can be done—your proof that YOU can do it—is simply the fact that OTHERS are doing it. Did you ever stop to think of that? What right have you to believe that you can't do what OTHERS can do? What right have you to be so consistently hostile to your own ability in your own mind? Maybe you've been doing this for years, unconsciously or otherwise. Maybe you've been the culprit who's robbed "you" out of bigger wages you could have earned these many years. It's just like a fellow pilfering from himself, day after day.

Now, the whole thing depends upon a fellow's ENERGY. His energy is mind and body. Yes, your energy is the secret of it all. Your energy is the factor that decides whether you will always earn ordinary wages per day or two or three or ten times that amount per day. What is "Energy," you say? What is the thing—really? You know what the word means, you have often heard it mentioned, even heard it explained by high-sounding talk, perhaps. But even now maybe you haven't figured out what "Energy" really consists of—and why. It's the whole foundation upon which rests every man's individual destiny. That thing called your energy is

Hilda's funeral was held at her home in Royalton, N. B., on Monday, April 12, at 10 o'clock. She was a member of the Sunday school and Mission Band of the Baptist church of Royalton, and will be missed and greatly by the community. The

I DON'T KNOW.

(From the Los Angeles Times.) What color are her eyes? I don't know! What is their shape and size? I don't know! All I know is that when I look into those orbs I sigh—Don't you ask the reason why— I don't know!

Are her features well defined? I don't know! Are her eyebrows neatly lined? I don't know! All I know is that her smile tends to make my life worth while— You may say it's but a whim— I don't know!

Does the lady wear bobbed hair? I don't know! Is her back a trifle bare? I don't know! All I know is that to me she is all that she could be— She may join my family— I don't know!

VALEDICTORIAN CHOSEN

Frederick April 10.—R. K. Willis of St. John has been selected as the valedictorian for this year's graduation class of the U. N. B. He is a returned soldier, having enlisted in 1917 with the 9th Siege Battery and was wounded while serving with the 12th battery in France. He returned to his studies at the University two years ago.

In Saturday morning's session of the Montreal stock exchange Price Bee, common stock, consisting of an issue of $42,653,000 of a par value of $100 per share was called. The bid price for the stock was forty, and the asked price forty-two. This represents the equivalent of 200 bid and 310 asked for the old stock, or approximately the price at which trading last took place in that issue, broken lots having sold at around 203. The old stock will continue to be traded in on the exchange until the completion of the exchange.

The dividend on the old stock was at the rate of eight per cent per annum, while the only declaration thus far made on the old stock was at the rate of 3-4 of 1 per cent. Assuming this to be the quarterly rate it would mean an annual dividend of 3 per cent, on each of the five shares owned in exchange for one old, so that the new dividend is the equivalent of 15 per cent on the old stock.

Listless Winnipeg Wheat Market Due To U. S. Influences

Trading Very Limited and Price Movements Very Small and Unimportant.

Winnipeg, April 10.—Owing to the lack of news from American markets today, trading on the local wheat market was very limited and price movements were small and unimportant. May wheat opened stronger at 1.65 to 1.64 1/2 and fluctuated fractionally, the undertone being strong. July opened firm at 1.67 and made small gains, while coarse grains were stronger in sympathy with wheat. The cash market was the feature today owing to the rapid rise. Wheat was quoted at sixteen cents over for the top grade. Futures closed 2 to 1 1/2 cents higher for wheat, 5-8 cent up for oats.

GOSSIP AROUND THE MARKETS

The quantity of domestic flake and amorphous graphite sold by producers in the United States in 1920 amounted to 9510 short tons, an increase of 28 per cent over the quantity sold in 1919. The value of graphite sold in 1920 was about $625,301 as compared with $778,367 in 1919. These figures are based on reports made by producers to the United States Geological Survey.

PRICE CHANGES IN WALL STREET NOT IMPORTANT

Bond Market Dull Too With Irregular Course Prevailing Again.

OILS AND MOTORS FIRMEST STOCKS

Rails of the Better Type Once More Under Heavy Pressure.

New York, April 9.—The two hour session of the stock market today calls for no extended comment, dealings falling to nominal proportions. Such changes as occurred were without importance and resulted mainly from week-end covering of short contracts.

Rails of the more acceptable type and several of the prominent industrial and food issues were again under moderate pressure, notably Pennsylvania which registered a new low record for many years at 32 1/2.

Oils and a few affiliated issues, also motors and equipments were relatively firm but the movement was exceedingly contracted. Many popular issues remaining unquoted. Sales aggregated 185,000 shares.

Bonds Dull Also

The bond market reflected the sluggish course of stocks, an irregular tone prevailing among Liberty issues and most other domestic bonds. International issues were featureless. Total sales, par value, aggregated $4,325,000.

Noteworthy features of the weekly clearing house report included an actual decrease of slightly more than $20,000,000 in holdings of members at the Federal Reserve Bank and a contraction of almost $10,000,000 in net demand deposits. Cash holdings decreased about $18,000,000 leaving a deficit of $4,331,320 below legal requirements.

RAW SUGAR MARKET.

New York, April 9.—Raw sugar was unsettled today. The Cuban committee quoted 6.08 for centrifugal, but the market seemed to be governed by uncontrolled sugar, which were offered in fair volume, at equal to 4 3/4 cents for Cuban cost and freight or 5.77 for centrifugal 5,000 bags of Porto Rico Rico's being sold at this level.

Refined was steady to 7.75 to 8.00 for fine granulated. Futures were easier under selling by Wall Street and commission houses on the easier feeling in the spot market and reports of financial difficulties in Cuba. Final prices 8 to 12 points lower. May closed at 4.70, July 4.80 and September 4.82.

MEN AND BUSINESS

(By Richard Spillane)

Is coal going to be cheaper this year? Every year the American people have to face the coal problem.

To buy or not to buy, that is the question in the spring. To pay, that is the trouble in the fall or winter. The coal men, particularly those who handle anthracite, the kind city folk use in stove or furnace, are warning the people if they do not buy now they are likely to have to pay dearly later in the year. The people have heard this warning often. Usually they give scant heed to it.

Judge for yourself from what follows, for here is the anthracite situation. Ordinarily production amounts to about 70,000,000 tons a year. One city New York, takes nearly one-quarter of this total. These who ought to know say present stocks are not large. Generally speaking, retail prices are about $1 per ton below last year. Here in Philadelphia egg is down ninety-five cents; stove and nut, $1.25, and pea, $1. The Philadelphia ton is 2,240 pounds. Elsewhere it is 2,000.

Part of the reduction is due to a cut of fifty cents a ton by the mine owners. The rest comes from lower costs in retailing. For example: Feed is cheaper. That makes the maintenance charge less for homes used in delivering coal. Gasoline and oils are cheaper. That makes for economy in operation of motor-trucks. Various other items are below last year's high figures. There are possibilities of further cuts in costs. One is contingent on reduction of railroad freight rates and another on reduction of miners' wages.

There are possibilities of coal prices going higher. If the proposed coal tax becomes a reality or if, as usual, the public keeps out of the market until forced to buy and then drives prices up.

Among them was a Adriatic Kororofsky, of the Pearl of the Crimea family, who has twin brothers, one of whom is a Russian as are willing to fight a Legion, but it is less than 1,000 altogether here. The French steamer Kororofsky landed a contingent of volunteers in Algeria before headquarters at Sidon.

During the Wrangel riots Kororofsky organized a Russian legion, and his brother's squadron of coast before Wrangel evacuated. Young Kororofsky was slain and his brother was captured. He was held in a prison in Constantinople, but he was released and returned to his home in the Crimea.

There are a number of other interesting stories of the Russian Legion, but they are too long to tell here. If you are interested in the story of the Russian Legion, you should read the book "The Russian Legion" by George S. Messersmith.

WANTS FRANCE TO CONVEY ARMY TO VLADIVOSTOK

Remnants of Wrangel's Force Hungry and Desperate on Island of Lemnos.

ARE VERY BITTER AGAINST ENTENTE

Lack of Arms and Transport, Alone Restrain Wild Attack on Constantinople

Paris, April 10.—General Wrangel, has asked the French to convey his army to Vladivostok, reported by the Constantinople papers as being the anti-Bolshevik leader, who is in La Victoire today. The message declares that the French authorities offered to remove the main body of Wrangel's force from the island of Lemnos, where they are bitterly complaining of insufficient food and shelter, to the mainland, but that offer was accepted by only 5,000. The ultimatum, suggesting to transport them to Brest met with less success. Whereupon General Wrangel, supported by all his followers, demanded that they be taken to Vladivostok.

Situation Critical

Bourgeois hints that the situation already is critical, without going so far as to state the worst which according to reliable information is that of 25,000 men are packed in narrow spaces, and as a consequence of the French refusal to feed them any longer, are faced with imminent starvation. Informant states that the only thing that restrains these hungry and desperate men from a wild attack on Constantinople is lack of arms and transport, and that they are desperately bitter against the French and English, and because of their considerable numbers in an area where forces both of troops and police are extremely weak, they represent a very serious problem.

The French have attempted to solve the problem by retaining in the Straits as many as possible of the Foreign Legion, but it is said that less than 1,000 altogether have enlisted. The French steamer Kryn has just landed a contingent of 270 of these volunteers in Algeria bound for legion headquarters at Sid-el-Abba.

Among them was a young girl, Antonia Komar, but on the Galapagos that she was known as Sabastopol of the Pearl of the Crimea. All her family save her twin brother Michael, were murdered by the Bolsheviks at Kiev. Michael, at the age of 20 obtained the commission of cornet in the Donkian army. When Wrangel succeeded Denikin he had risen to the rank of captain and won the St. George's Cross.

Organized Red Cross

During the Wrangel campaign Adrien Korofovy organized a Red Cross unit which was attached to his brother's squadron of cavalry shortly before Wrangel evacuated the Crimea. Young Korofovy contracted typhus and was still very weak and barely convalescent when the order for departure came. His sister, who had nursed him, managed to get him aboard a ship and found him quartered in a dismal hut on the Gallipoli Peninsula, where several thousand Russian refugees were concentrated in a ruined Turkish village.

Back To Nature Move in Europe

People Take to Cave Dwelling, Eat Herbs and Wear Minimum of Clothing.

Berne, April 8.—The extreme scarcity of housing accommodation in Europe is causing the people to become cave dwellers again. In the Italian lakes district along Lakes Maggiore and Como, many numbers of people have dug themselves out dwellings in this romantic country and live with the utmost simplicity in them. Among them are people of very different social conditions and not artisans only. Some of them call themselves children of nature, and go about wearing sandals and sometimes with few clothes as the local people will permit. Some live on herbs, vegetables and fruits, which are abundant and cheap in this district. They pay no taxes and of course, no rent. For amusement they have a joint reading room.

Court in Disorder When Quart Explodes

Philadelphia, April 10.—Wedged between a trolley car and a motor truck which collided at Forty-first street, Carl McConnell, 20, of Somerton, Pa., calmly gave directions for his rescue to policemen and a repair crew. Realizing that his position was a dangerous one, the imperiled man implored his rescuers to proceed cautiously, as one false move would have thrown the entire weight of the heavy truck against his body and crushed him to death. He remained conscious throughout the ordeal, which lasted more than an hour.

INDIANS ARE GOD-FEARING RACE OF MEN

Especially Members of Five Civilized Tribes, Says W. Tate Brady.

Always Believed in Supreme Being Thought First White Men Were Messengers from God and Worshipped Them.

Tulsa, Okla., April 10.—The most God-fearing race in the Western Hemisphere is the American Indians, especially members of the Five Civilized Tribes, said W. Tate Brady, chairman of the Cherokee executive committee.

To bear out his assertion Mr. Brady refers to the various works of the Smithsonian institute, telling of the religious ceremonies of the Five Civilized Tribes, as well as other customs of aborigines, whose history, customs and other characteristics have been studied by ethnologists.

"The early history of the United States contains many instances of the Indians that the colonists found here took the newcomers to be messengers of the Great Spirit," said Mr. Brady, "and this view was borne out by the fact that they came from the east, a sign that many other races believe to be symbolical of the Messiah."

A more recent instance is pointed out by Mr. Brady as bearing out the claim that the Indians are God-fearing and loving. At the gathering of all clans of the Cherokee nation, held recently at Tokequah there were so many conferences and committee meetings that it was late when the Rev. Price Cochran, the veteran Presbyterian minister and president of the Keetoowah society, opened the official convention without asking one of the many Indian ministers present to utter a prayer.

"The action of this convention in not opening the proceeding with a prayer in accordance with the customs of the full-blooded Cherokees," said Hicks, "would lead many of the non-members present to believe that we were pagans. And I want to challenge this belief. The Indians are not pagans. We always have believed in a Supreme Being, and when I say we, I mean the large portion of those tribes that live in this nation."

"When the white man came to this country from the East the Indians believed that they were the messengers from God and fell down and worshipped at their feet."

"While the Indians soon realized that the early settlers were not the messengers of God, they never lost their faith in the Supreme Being."

Mr. Hicks said that he had belonged to the Keetoowah's for the last sixty years and that the Keetoowahs always began their meetings with prayer, and as the reunited Cherokees neglected to do so that he would withdraw from the meetings.

Find Hidden Gold Worth $20,000 Toronto Detectives Discover Loot Under Veranda of Home in Outskirts of City. Toronto, April 8.—Twenty thousand dollars' worth of pure melted gold and a number of unfinished gold and pearl rings were found last night hidden in a large box beneath the back verandah of the home of Samuel Longbottom, 22 Bain avenue. Longbottom who has been out on bail $10,000 was re-arrested by Detective Waterhouse and Taylor and charged with theft of the gold. Longbottom was taken to Dundas street east station, where he spent last night. The police stated they would not renew bail for the prisoner. The police have now recovered $25,000 worth of gold. The alleged theft is said to have amounted to eight in the thousands. Mr. Raymond Roy, president of the wholesale firm from which the gold was stolen, is reported to have told the police his firm did $600,000 in trade last year, and that when the books were audited the company was in the neighborhood of $2,000 loss on the year's business. This box was filled with pure gold bars. A tin box containing pearl rings and a number of unfinished gold rings was also found. The box had been placed against the wall under the back verandah.

Good Fishing On Southern Shore

Lewis Connors Reports Good Catches—People Waiting for Branch Railway.

Lewis Connors, of Connors Brothers, Ltd., has arrived in the city from Black's Harbor and reports good fishing along the shores of southern New Brunswick, as well as large schools of sardine making their appearance. The fishermen are continuing to make ready to build some of their boats, but at present are quite skeptical regarding building them on account of the market for their catches, as the packers in a great many cases have not yet got clear of their old stock. Some of the American factories report that they will not open until July or August, but the factories that Mr. Connors is interested in might open much sooner, one on May 1 and the other later.

Should Arrange Price

Regarding the price of fish, Mr. Connors thinks it would be wise of the West Fishermen's Union to call a meeting for the purpose of arranging a price for the season, or at least part of a season. He thinks it would be better to make one price through the season, because if one price is named for May, June and July, and after these dates a lower price was asked, it would make it very bad for the people who purchased fish for the first part of the season and would make buyers skeptical about packing during the first three months. If one price was made right through the season buyers would obtain and pack just as soon as they could get the fish, making it better for both the fishermen and the packers.

Railway Branch

Mr. Connors further states that what the people are waiting for along the southern shores is the development of the railway branch from Pennfield on the C. P. R. main line to Black's Harbor, with spurs to other points, and says he is getting enquiries from parties who are to do the surveying who wish to know if the snow is all off the ground, as they wish to get to work just as soon as possible.

Mr. Connors says that if this railway is put through, great development may be expected in Southern New Brunswick, because there is unlimited deposits there besides the fishery business. There is plenty of silica, granite, brick clay and kelp beds, the latter varying about twenty per cent potash, and there is also a good forest of pulpwood, while the railway can touch at four of the best harbors in Southern New Brunswick that are open the year round and vary only a few miles from the Atlantic ocean.

Manufacturers Ready

Mr. Connors understands there are quite a number of manufacturers of these different products mentioned who are ready to start business just as soon as the railway is built, and it appears to him, the quicker the road is built the better. The road will prove a great feeder for all the islands of the Fundanagoody Bay, including Grand Manan, and will make matters easy for the American travel coming to the City of St. John via the large ferry that will be put on the route between Black's Harbor and Eastport, Me. The ferry will carry ten cars at a time, and as the distance is only ten miles, and with a fine road from Black's to St. John, a great deal of time will be saved. The road in question is partly completed and could be soon finished, making it first-class for automobiles. This source of travel, Mr. Connors thinks, would prove a boom for all kinds of trade in St. John. Mr. Connors really believes that the railway branch will become a certainty in a very short time.

Claimed Passed Worthless Cheque

Evidence in Case Where George White is Charged With Obtaining Money.

The preliminary hearing of George L. White, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses and of passing a worthless cheque, was held before Magistrate Ritchie Saturday. Herbert Dickson testified that he had employed the accused as a salesman with a salary on commission basis. That he loaned White $50 on one occasion, a dollar on another, and gave him a check for $10 on another. This was after the accused led him to believe that he had an account with the Bank of Montreal in Montreal and was going to have it transferred to the St. John branch. Later the accused gave him a check for $11 in payment for the $16 witness had loaned him, and was given back a balance of $5. In the meantime the $11 check was returned by the Union Bank marked "no account" and the Bank of Montreal reported the defendant had no account with them. Witness then turned the matter over to the police. The accused was remanded.

Three drunks were charged and remanded. S. Lovina, charged with having liquor unlawfully in his possession, was adjudged guilty, and fined $100.

W. E. Guinier was reported for exceeding auto speed limited and not sounding his claxon at I. C. R. crossing, and also for failing to stop when signalled to do so by policeman. He was fined $20.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Henderson of Lancaster Corner, West St. John, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie Laura, to Arthur Frederick Adams, formerly of St. John, west, and now residing at Long Island, New York. The wedding to take place at an early date.

Mrs. Lloyd Pottier, of Weymouth, N. B., is in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Henderson, Lancaster Avenue, West St. John.

Children's Aid Society Work

Conditions Make It Imperative to Take Other Children Than Those Sent by Courts

That the need of systematic work in behalf of the little ones in St. John is very great, is easily proved by the experience of any of our social workers. The Children's Aid Society is incorporated solely for the purpose of taking care of little ones committed to it by the courts and finding them foster homes. Present day conditions in the city, however, make it imperative for them to open their doors to other children for whom, in the majority of cases, no other shelter is available. There are at the present time 19 children in the Home. Not all of these have been committed to the society and there is an insistent demand upon them to take in more. During the past week applications were made for the admission of twelve children. The mothers of some of the little ones were widows. In others the father had deserted his family and the mother found herself increasingly unable to bear the burden. In one the father had to go to the hospital in East St. John leaving his wife entirely without resources so that the mother had to turn bread winner. There have been as high as thirty-five children sheltered in the Children's Aid Home at one time. These, however, taxed the available space in such a manner as was undesirable from the point of view of the health of the little ones and members of the staff.

Rosebud Day Was Successful

Workers Carried on Despite Rain Saturday—Gratifying Response for Children's Aid

Much admiration was expressed on Saturday for the energy and faithfulness to duty which prompted those responsible for Rosebud Day to carry on in spite of the rain. It is reported that the tag day will be a successful one, and a large sum was collected for Children's Aid Society. No account can be given of its results until Wednesday evening, as it is hoped that the banks may be counted on that day. Rothesay, Fairville and East St. John will hand in their banks on Tuesday.

At the Children's Home on Saturday Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, vice-president of the Local Council of Women; Miss Alice E. Estey, Mrs. T. L. Coughlan and Mrs. H. H. Pickett were in charge of all banks and checked them by an excellent system. Mrs. E. L. Rising presided over the refreshment table, Mrs. W. B. Tennant was in charge of the refreshment committee, assisted by ladies of the Children's Aid Society. Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson did splendid work as general convenor of the wards, ably assisted by her corps of ward conveners. All taggers deserve much credit for their efforts. Mrs. J. H. Doody had charge of the automobiles and those who responded and sent their cars were Mrs. F. Gregory, Mrs. I. Ready, Miss Maher, John Pugsley, Frank Peters, Rothesay; Mrs. Corbett, E. Morrell, Mrs. Tennant, Mrs. Cor. Miss Culliver, Mrs. Wilford Campbell and Mrs. Doody herself.

Miss Alice E. Estey, treasurer, will be at the Bank of Nova Scotia, Prince William street this afternoon any time after two o'clock to receive banks not handed in Saturday.

Nothing Definite From Conference

Kensit Report on Comparative Power Costs to be Considered at Later Conference

Premier Foster, Chief Engineer C. A. Foss of the Hydro-Commission, the City Commissioners and representatives of the N. B. Power Co. met in conference Saturday afternoon to consider the Kensit report on comparative power costs. The report was given an informal discussion but nothing definite was settled upon. The government will consider the report at a private session, as will the directors of the N. B. Power Company. After the government and Power Company directors have gone over the report they will again meet the city authorities for a further conference.

Stranded Men Arrived Saturday

Ten more stranded men arrived on Saturday at the Seaman's Institute, landing in St. John from the steamer Manchester Shipper. Four of these men saw active service in Canadian Battalions, so they are ex-soldiers as well as seamen. Four of them were stranded on the continent, one in Antwerp and three in Holland, others in British ports. They were sent back to Canada by the Board of Trade and J. C. Chesley is doing what he can to secure transportation.

This is the seventh party of this kind to be cared for at the Seaman's Institute this season—ninety-six men in all.

FOUND STOLEN CAR.

A five-passenger Ford, bearing dealer's plate No. 225, which was stolen from Hamond O. Evans, Leinster street, on Friday night, was found Saturday morning at Renfrew. The person who stole it evidently forgot about the supply of "gas," and the result was that when the existing supply gave out, he was stranded.

Labor Organization In Mass Meeting

Hear Paramount Questions of Day Discussed by Two of Their Leaders.

The Opera House was crowded to capacity yesterday afternoon by men and a few women, to hear a discussion of questions, now uppermost in the minds of labor unions, by two prominent labor leaders. Advertisement about the streets Saturday night announced Bill Varley was to be the stellar performer. At yesterday's meeting, J. E. Tighe shared honors with Bill Varley and set forth the aims and ambitions of organized labor in the way of securing legislation to better the workman's condition. Both speakers took occasion to rap the Standard because its editorial columns had the courage to express views contrary to those held by labor leaders. However, they regarded the standard as giving them good advertisement and hoped this paper would continue to keep it up.

J. E. Tighe.

Mr. Tighe, the first speaker told of the twenty years fight organized labor had put up to secure the Workmen's Compensation Act. After years of struggle he said the present Act was adopted. It has proven a blessing to the laboring man and now in case of injury while in the performance of his duty, the laborer is cared for and does not have to worry. The employer, he said, are satisfied over this piece of legislation which labor organizations have given the country. Labor was now fighting for the Government to provide for Mothers' Pensions. When the bread winner is taken away, a tremendous burden, he said, was placed upon the mother to keep her little flock together. Presently the home was broken up and children placed in homes. By the aid of Mothers' Pensions she would be able to keep her family together until they were able to care for themselves. He has had assurance that the Government will grant this bit of legislation.

Employers Cause White Slavery.

He said that labor was now trying to secure legislation providing a minimum wage for women, and also to secure representation in the Cabinet, and he claimed that women were very much underpaid, especially those employed in factories, and labor intended to right the condition. He charged that many employers were responsible for the white slavery existing, because they have failed to pay their female help enough to live on. In regard to representation in the Cabinet, he said not much encouragement had been given. He claimed labor's vote figured 85 per cent of the total vote of New Brunswick and they demanded representation and were going to have it. He declared they would get it in a battle of ballots if no other way.

The International Organizer.

Bill Varley, the much advertised attraction, was the next speaker. He started in by paying his respects to the Editor of The Standard. He gave a history of his own performances in the war, of the popularity he enjoyed in his own home town and thought he and done his part for Canada. He said as was the "walking delegate from outside" to whom The Standard referred, and he was proud of his calling. He charged there was a combined effort being made on the part of employers to lengthen the working hours and reduce wages. He thought the employers would rob the workman of his leisure, cut him off from a little extra time with his family and subject him to servitude. They were compelled, he said, to buck labor in everything it wanted and deprive it of the exalted position it had gained the past few years and make them slave-like referred to the strike of the garment workers in this city and the discrimination employed. He charged that those who were on strike in one factory could not get employment in another factory. The machinists, he said had been on strike fourteen months, not for higher wages, but for the right of their organization. They will stick to the last, he said, despite their employers' efforts to break them up.
