INCOME TAXATION.

The question of imposing an income tax will probably engage the serious attention of our neighbors to the south. President Taft recommends a 2 per cent tax; the Senate has agreed to 1 per cent; and it is expected that the House will concur. But that does not carry the measure. The supreme court, we believe, some time ago decreed that Congress could not enact an income tax law; so, in order to pass such a law, the constitution of the United States will have to be amended. To effect this, three-fourths of the state legislatures will have to assent. And here is where the difficulty will come. It may be assumed that the New England and Eastern States will not assent. If twelve vote against it, that means defeat. Nevada, it is thought, might go against it; and, if so, the three-fourths vote required would seem to be doubtful. The reason given for opposition in the wealthier Eastern States is that they would pay a much larger sum in proportion to population than the more rural states of the south and west; and it is claimed to be a fundamental provision of the constitution, from the beginning, that taxation of this kind should be proportionate to the population of the states.

To an outsider, it looks as though an income tax would certainly be proportionate so far as the taxpayer was concerned. More taxes would be collected in the little State of Massachusetts than in the big State of Texas; but that would be simply because there are more wealthy men in the former than in the latter. And we fail to see why the comparatively poor man in Massachusetts would have any grievance because his rich neighbor was taxed. However, the vote on the question will have to be taken in the state legislatures, and doubtless wealth would have its influence in these bodies.

It must be confessed that to the average man a graded tax on all incomes above those necessary for an ordinary person to live on is not a very unfair proceeding. At all events, it is simply carrying out the idea—socialistic, if you like to call it so—that wealth has duties to perform commensurate with its power, and that it should bear the heaviest part of the burdens of state, not only actually, but comparatively. Wealthy men generally accept this doctrine in theory, but claim that the extra burdens should be borne voluntarily and not under compulsion, and so many of them contribute largely to benevolent, religious and educational purposes. But it may be questioned whether, if the principle be right, it is well to trust to the uncertainty of voluntary contributions, which will distribute the burden very unequally. If the principle be right, why should it not be legally imposed, and made obligatory on all in proper proportion? That is the only way the burden can be equalized.

We notice that Mr. Rockefeller announces his opposition to the tax, holding that wealth acquired honestly is private property, and should not be touched by the state. But that does not seem to affect the principle. The community lays its hand on all real estate and taxes it; the moral right to tax incomes would seem to be just as clear. Of course, another point is involved in Mr. Rockefeller's claim as to wealth acquired "honestly." A good many people have grave doubts as to how far millionaires can accumulate vast wealth honestly; and many seem absolutely sure that Mr. Rockefeller, at all events, was not honestly acquired.

Another point that might be raised in the discussion is this: Where a man accumulates wealth, has he not been aided by conditions altogether apart from his own personal efforts? Has not the community done its share in helping him to gather in his millions. And, if so, has not the state a just claim to some of his surplus?

However, so far as the case in question is concerned, it is a matter for the people of the United States to settle. But it will be interesting to see how far a country which is supposed to be governed by the people will legislate in the interests of the people or of the capitalist.

RAILWAY COMMISSION'S WORK.

No order issued by the Dominion railway commission since its organization has been received with greater satisfaction by the farmers of Western Canada than that calling upon railway companies to comply, by Jan. 1, 1911, with the provisions of the statute regarding the fencing of railway tracks and the erection of cattle guards. In the past, settlers in the prairie provinces have annually suffered heavy losses through the neglect of such necessary work. It is true farmers have had the right of appealing to the commission for a remedy for such grievances, but decisions given have applied only to isolated districts. The board, therefore, has acted wisely in issuing an order which will apply not only to particular cases in the west, or to Western Canada, but to the railway trackage throughout the whole Dominion.

Doubtless, too, the extent to which the work of the commission has increased had something to do with inducing it to issue the order in question, as it will leave the board more time to deal with other matters of equal importance to all parts of the Dominion. The report of the statistical and record branch of the board for the year ended March 31 shows there were 3,479 applications received, or 354 more than in the preceding year; number of rulings received, 51,913—an increase of 6,488; orders issued, 2,249; or 242 more than in 1908, while the cases heard at public sittings numbered 737—an increase of 446.

The authority exercised by the commission in railway matters is practically unlimited, appeal from its decisions being allowed only on points of law to the supreme court, and, in certain exceptional cases, to the Governor-General-in-Council. It is rare, however, that the right of appeal is resorted to.

The value of the work accomplished by the railway commission can hardly be overestimated, and is a tribute to the wisdom of the Government, which created the commission.

THE POLICE OFFICERS

Election of Office-Bearers in the Convention at a Falls.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 29.—The election officers, drafting and passing of a resolution protesting against the use of the so-called sweat-box and third-degree methods, and the holding of some very able papers, occupied today's session of the police constables' convention. The following officers were elected: President, Captain E. J. Prud'homme, chief of police, Quebec; secretary, William Stark, deputy chief of police, Toronto; treasurer, Inspector McClelland, of Toronto; committee, Col. A. P. Sherwood, Dominion police, of Ottawa; Chief Detective Silas M. Carpenter, of Montreal; Chief R. G. Chamberlain, of London, and Chief John Kimmins, of this city.

Whitwell-Gibson.

Wednesday a very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. John T. Gibson, Manor Farm, 15th concession, London Township, when his eldest daughter, Miss Mary E., and Mr. George Whitwell, banker, of Brantford, were united in marriage.

precisely at 12 o'clock by Rev. W. H. Snelgrove, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Windsor, assisted by Rev. J. C. McCracken. The ceremony was performed under a floral bell of ex-quite beauty, the bride being given away by her father, while her sister, Miss Reta, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride looked beautiful in a white silk gown of mull, trimmed with Valenciennes lace. Her travelling suit was of Rajah silk with hat to match. After the nuptial knot was tied and congratulations had been showered upon the happy couple, all repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty luncheon was served. The toast, "The Bride," was proposed by Rev. Mr. McCracken, and responded to by the bridegroom, while Mr. Snelgrove proposed the health of the bride's mother. Both being done in happy and felicitous terms, Mr. Gibson responded to the latter toast. The presents were beautiful and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Whitwell left London on the 5:40 p.m. train for Toronto, thence going to Montreal and Quebec by boat. Upon their return, they will reside in Brantford. They go to their new home with the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

ONE YEAR EACH FOR OTTAWA GEM THEIVES

Given Light Sentences, as Both Suffer From Incurable Disease.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Ottawa, July 30.—The two New York crooks, Conrad and Woods, who pleaded guilty in the police court yesterday to the theft of one hundred diamond rings from McMillan's jewelry store last week, were sentenced this morning to one year each in the Central Prison. The sentences imposed were comparatively light in view of the fact that the prisoners made full restitution of the stolen jewelry and both are suffering from tuberculosis.

JUST A RUMOR ABOUT THE WELLS

Nothing in Story That Something Had Gone Wrong With Air Lift.

TWO ENGINEERS SPEAK

Wells Are Being Pumped as Usual and Are "Delivering the Goods"—By-law Next Month.

There was a rumor current this morning that the air lift of the Beck wells had gone wrong, and that the city was entirely dependent upon the Springbank supply.

Inquiries failed to substantiate the statements, and Engineer Moore stated that he had heard nothing of a break down.

"So far as I know the wells are being pumped as usual," he informed The Advertiser. "Up until noon they were running as formerly, and since that time I have heard nothing to the contrary."

Mr. R. Lyons also stated that the wells were running as usual.

Just a Fake Yarn.

"The flow is as steady as it has been," said Mr. Lyons. "I know of no change. There are a little over four inches of water going over the weir, and the wells are doing finely."

The water commissioners have not had a meeting since the bylaw passed but they will probably meet on Monday next. Commissioner Darch has been out of the city all week, and could not be seen. Mayor Stevely is out of the city also. Chairman Jones is in London, and is apparently satisfied with the results of the situation.

Up to the People.

"Whatever the people want they should have," is the slogan of the situation.

Engineer Moore is also quite satisfied and declares that he has no complaints to make.

The people have spoken. Why should I say anything, he stated. "I hope that everything turns out for the best interests of the city."

The Bylaw.

On Monday night, the bylaw will come before the council for its third reading.

Two readings were necessary before it was submitted to the people, and the council will give it the third reading, and it will become law.

Hon. Adam Beck is at present out of the city, and is consulting with his engineers still regarding the plant.

The Tenders.

An announcement of the tenders will be made shortly, it is expected, and no time will be lost in rushing the work to completion.

The question of a building for the pumping plant, and distribution plant for Niagara power will have to be settled before the work is commenced on the construction.

Engineer Sifton and Ald. Stewart will meet Hon. Adam Beck over the proposed plans at an early date.

As soon as this has been agreed upon, the work of erecting the plant will be begun. There will be no delay.

REAL ESTATERS ARE THIRSTING FOR BLOOD

Resolution To Be Adopted Calling Upon the Water Commissioners to Resign.

There will likely be big doings at tonight's meeting of the Real Estate Owners' Association, and it is understood that several resolutions asking the water commissioners to resign will be presented.

It is likely that the various resolutions will be combined, and according to the remarks made today by association members there are likely to be some pretty plain things said.

The Broad Question.

The Real Estate men intend shortly to take up the broad question again and ask the Government to compel bakers to make two and a half pound loaves.

They claim that the "buns"—as they style the product now offered by many bakers—are an outrage.

One baker in the city, they claim, is making $112 a day clear profit from the sale of bread.

East London

A BIG CATCH

Ald. Rose Has the Reputation of Being a Regular Isak Walton.

Ald. Rose is achieving fame as a fisherman. According to a story going the rounds in East London, the city daddy pulled in one of the biggest catches of the season from the piers at Port Stanley Wednesday afternoon. The alderman fished for over an hour, and had a string of minnows a city block long, when a yank on the pole nearly threw him into the lake. He recovered his balance, however, and had the pier cleared to the shore, about 25 anglers pulling in their lines to enable him to tow in the big one. He played the monster cautiously, and with marvellous skill, and a number of villagers and picnickers gathered to see the haul. As he moved around onto the beach the alderman moved into shallow water and pulled. A mud puppy a couple of feet long was on the end of the line, and one-twelfth of London's hand-picked dozen was "kidded" to a standstill.

THE LATE EDWARD GREENE.

The funeral of Edward Greene, who died at the Victoria Home on Dundas street east was held this afternoon from Harrison's undertaking parlors to Woodland Cemetery, where the body was interred in the Masonic plot.

Mr. Green was a member of the Masonic Order in Brantford for many years. Rev. William Lowe, of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, conducted the services. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. W. Metherall, D. D. G. M., James Childs, James Ferguson, Andrew Ellis, Q. Morrow and E. Stratford.

JAPS WILL BE THERE.

Tokio, July 29.—Japan will be represented by royalty at the tricentennial of the discovery of the Hudson River, according to the belief current here. The Japanese court probably will be represented by Prince and Princess Kuni, who are now touring Europe. The couple will leave London for New York on Aug. 6.

Acting Mayor.

Ald. Garratt was acting mayor today. The conveniences for the Port Stanley Beach were completed last evening, and they will be set up today. Ald. Garratt and Ald. Saunders will superintend the work this afternoon.

LONDON'S AWASH WITH BIG RAINS

English Capital Has Had a 15-Hour Downpour of Cleansing Water.

London, July 30.—London's streets are blanched and spotless after 15 hours of ceaseless downpour, followed by intermittent bursts of sunshine. There have been 17 wet days this month and most of them unpleasantly cool—a record for this time of the year. American travellers are thoroughly out of humor. Those who brought motor cars with them say that when they come next summer they will bring motor launches. Their language is not always fit for nice society.

As for the cockneys, who are a well-footed race, anyhow, they endure the climatic outrage sullenly. The registrar-general of health even rejoices, declaring that the deaths in London for seven days past were less than in any previous period in 50 years. The total number was 925, which is 209 below the general average for the last five years. All this immunity is attributed to the wet weather. The doctors assert that floods invariably sweep away their profits, for even the big motor omnibuses cannot stir up any germs laden dust and pneumonia and all sorts of affections of the throat and chest are lacking.

CHAPTER X.

Lady Sybil says "Yes."

The carriage plunged into the shadow of the pine-woods, and commenced the long uphill ascent to Saultburg. Lady Caroom put down her parasol and turned towards Sybil, whose eyes were steadfastly fixed upon the narrow white belt of road ahead.

"Now, Sybil," she said, "for our talk."

"Your talk," Sybil corrected her, with a smile. "I'm to be listened to."

"Oh, it may not be so one-sided after all," Lady Caroom declared. "And we had better make haste, or that impetuous young man of yours will come pounding after us on his motor before we know where we are. What are you going to do about him, Sybil?"

"I don't know."

"Well, you'll have to make up your mind. He's getting on my nerves. You must decide one way or another."

Sybil sighed.

"He's quite the nicest young man I know—of his class," she remarked.

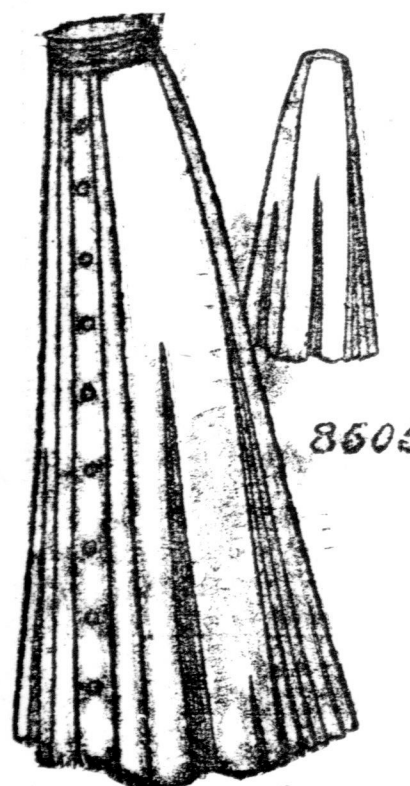

"Exactly," Lady Caroom assented. "And though I think you will admit that I am one of the least conventional of mothers, I must really say I don't think that it is exactly a comfortable thing to do to marry a man who is altogether outside one's own circle."

"Mr. Brooks," Sybil said, "is quite as well bred as Atherstone."

"He is his equal in breeding and in birth," Lady Caroom declared. "You know all about him. I admit," she continued, "that it sounds like a page out of a novel. But it isn't. The only pity is—from one point of view—that it makes so little difference."

"You think," Sybil asked, "that he

SOME VEINS PINCH OUT

Toronto, July 29.—The geological examination of the Gowanda and Miller Lakes silver area, as made by Mr. A. G. Burrows, for the Bureau of Mines, has been issued as a red book by the Ontario Government. Mr. Burrows, who is head of the provincial assay office in Belleville, but is now in Gowanda, began his explorations last July.

His conclusions are expressed with care, and he makes no predictions for the future. He says: "Considering the number of claims, on which high grade silver ore is to be seen, one must admit that this new area has possibilities. Up to the present time, however, there has not been sufficient development work for one to make any definite statements as to the future. The deepest shafts are not down over 50 feet, and no drifting on the veins has been done. Any statements must be confined to the appearance of the shafts, surface indications, and the amount of ore already taken out."

"At several of the properties, high grade ore was seen in the shafts or pits. The veins are usually narrow, but widen in places to several inches, and in several instances were seen to pinch out in a few feet in depth or in horizontal extension. There is also a tendency for the high grade ore to be segregated in bunches over a few feet. This will necessitate considerable dead work in following tight cracks and lean portions of veins to other rich bunches or shoots."

"Costs per ton of ore will be much higher than in Cobalt camp, and it will take some months' work to prove what profit can be made in working the veins so far discovered."

ABLAZE IN DIAMOND GOWN

Anna Held Will Say Farewell to Stage—Costume a Startler.

Paris, July 29.—Anna Held has gathered together all her jewelry, with the exception of her pearls and a few rings, and has given them to a skillful designer. They will be made into a "diamond" gown for her farewell appearance. The gown itself is of the softest Oriental fabric, of rose pink color. Over this is draped a filmy silver tissue, embroidered around the lower edge with great crimson princesses. The bodice and sleeves on this same side are entirely composed of an arabesque design of pure white stones, hundreds of diamonds being used to carry out this inspiration.

Where the costume opens from hip to knee, clasps of diamond solitaires hold it in place. The cloak worn at the same time is of a soft grey material lined with varying shades of pink and the same color scheme of red princesses is carried out in delicate hand-painting. A deep fringe of the latest novelty, known as pearl pipes, finishes the lower edge of this superb garment.

Another costume of burnt orange crepe, shading into creamy white, carries the rest of the jewels owned by the artist, and the sapphires, emeralds, corals and turquoises studding its gold embroideries make it altogether barbaric in its splendor.

CALDERON OPTIMISTIC.
Montreal, July 29.—Although he has not received any official advice from Spain, concerning the present disturbances within that nation, Senor Calderon, the Spanish vice-consul, of this city, from his country and people is very strongly of the opinion that it will not last more than a week or two, and that the outbreak is due to the instigation of anarchists and socialists. He believes they have taken advantage of present brushes between the Spanish troops in Morocco and the warlike tribesmen to press forward their propaganda. Barcelona and Tarragona, the chief centres of the outbreak, are well known as the

What Sunshine Furnace does

Sunshine Furnace is designed and constructed to heat a house, church, school or store, and does this more satisfactorily than any other known furnace or other style of heating apparatus. It does this more rapidly than the hot water boiler because, as soon as fire is started in Sunshine Furnace, heated air can be obtained for the rooms.

It does this better than other furnaces because, being made from exclusive patterns, it has more commendable features. It does this more economically than the boiler because even air circulation keeps fuel bill low.

It does this more conveniently than the hot water boiler, because it has no radiators to take up room, congregate dust and mar the paper and woodwork.

It does this more hygienically than the boiler because pure air is admitted to the furnace through a cold air pipe.

FARMERS IN PROTEST AGAINST POWER POLICY

Want Ottawa to Veto Whitney Legislation, Owing to Land Disputes.

Ottawa, July 30.—A special to the Toronto Star says: A number of influences are at work in the effort to defeat the power policy of the Whitney Government. Personal representations have been made to ministers of the Federal Government, and numerous petitions and protests against the legislation passed last session have been forwarded to the Minister of Justice. In his absence they have been handed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and they will lie in the provincial office until the return of Hon. A. B. Aylesworth from Europe, which will probably be about the end of October.

Although it is probable that the Whitney power legislation will not be interfered with, the fight which has begun against it will be none the less bitter. The attack is in the main from corporate interests, but there are protests by farmers of a less curious nature. Farmers resident in the township of Toronto, county of Peel, have petitioned against it, and the petition has been signed by Joseph Pickett and others. Farmers of Thorold Township, represented by Messrs. Fraser and Guenther, object to the legislation. They claim that the hydro-electric commission has been forcing the farmers to give leases of their lands, which they declare is an infringement of the rights of a free people, and they also protest against the danger to human and animal life caused by the high voltage which is passed over their lands.

There are three separate protests from Galt. The first is signed by Hon. James Young and others; the second by A. D. Stephens, and the third by Mayor Patterson and others.

However, the chief opponents are financial men, who are representatives of financial corporations. Some English capitalists have protested, notably Sir H. Seymour King, and H. Evans Gordon & Co., of London. These represent bond holders in rival corporations.

A strongly worded protest has come from Bondell & Co., of Providence, R. I. The capitalists are especially interested, having in their care bonds of the Electrical Development Company of Ontario. They claim to have sold several hundred thousand dollars worth of these bonds in New England, and were successful in overcoming the prejudice against Canadian securities which existed in the country. They aver that their customers are again becoming prejudiced against Canadian securities on account of the position Ontario has assumed.

Hon. Thomas Bain, president of the Landed Bankers and Loan Company, of Hamilton, registered a protest, also the North American Life Association. The Canadian Permanent Mortgage Association, R. H. Smith, of London, Ont., members of the stock exchanges of Montreal and Toronto, and one of the late arrivals was the protest of the farmers of Dorchester.

THE CHINESE LOAN

Rumored That the German Banks Will Be Eliminated.

Pekin, July 29.—The actions of the German bankers in the matter of the Hankow-Sze-Chuen loan of $27,500,000, in which the United States claimed the right to participate equally with the other powers, has broken the concert of the bankers. The British and French bankers here accept the charges of double dealing made against the Germans, but it is expected that they will overlook the British charges of intrigue, which, however, the British legation approves.

A discussion of the position and the responsibility of the German bankers in the loan situation is going on here today, which, it is believed, will result in the elimination of the German banks from the loan, and open the way for an early agreement with America on such a plan as already has been devised.

The British and French bankers admit that there was too much persuasion imposed on Chang Chi Tung, the grand councillor, and they recognize that German dealings at Shanghai and Peking do not agree. They also recognize that the Germans must make their actions here tally with their representations made at Washington last June.

DARE YOU EAT HEARTILY?

OR IS EVERY MEAL FOLLOWED BY DISCOMFORT.

So certain are we that "Little Digesters" will cure indigestion every time—for every person—for YOU—that we will give you your money back without a word if they fail.

You can enjoy a good, hearty meal of wholesome food three times a day, if you take a tablet after each meal. Read how "Little Digesters" cured Mr. Thody.

"For two years I suffered with indigestion, and obtained no relief from anything I took, including several prescriptions from prominent physicians. Every meal was followed by acute pain until I feared to eat, consequently became run down for lack of nourishment. "Little Digesters" were recommended to me by a friend and I tried them with remarkable results, two boxes completely curing me. It is three months since I took any, and I have not suffered a pain, no matter how hearty I eat. I would certainly recommend them to anybody suffering with indigestion."

"Little Digesters" can be had from your druggist, or by mail from Coleman Medicine Company, for 25 cents a box.

HATS 18 INCHES TALL

For Short Ladies or a Foot Tall for Longer Ladies Now Imminent.

New York, July 29.—A consignment of 200 of the monumental hats for women which it is predicted will displace the wide spreading peach baskets got here yesterday from Paris on the steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm. The hats are made of fur and suggest the bearskins of the Old Guard. They are called Russian toques.

The toque does away with rats and the spreading collar that makes a lady's head a good enough umbrella in a rainstorm. On the other hand it is a skyscraper. The loftiest may be slightly over a foot and a half—more than three times the height of a man's silk hat—from the foundation at the forehead to the apex, which is crowned with an algrette. The lady who wears the hat must comb her hair upward and secure it in a ball—a high ball—on the very top of her head. Little ladies may wear the very tallest hats, but tall ones can soften the forehead effect by wearing one foot high creations and reducing the spray of feathers. Viewed from a rear elevation the toque fits the head snugly. When the lady takes it off, as she is expected to do at the theatre, she will reveal a bunch of hair tightly coiled that will not be wide enough to obstruct the view of the stage of any two-eyed man.

You can pack your fur and pay $1,000 for a hat, but it is not doubted that girls with no thousand dollar hats will be wearing one foot high creations and reducing the spray of feathers. Viewed from a rear elevation the toque fits the head snugly. When the lady takes it off, as she is expected to do at the theatre, she will reveal a bunch of hair tightly coiled that will not be wide enough to obstruct the view of the stage of any two-eyed man.

CHINK IN GIRL CASE

The Detroit Police Are Trying To Find Jeun Shuen.

Detroit, July 29.—Chinese resorts of Detroit have for the last three days been under the close surveillance of the police department, in search of a Chinaman, Jeun Shuen, who left Bay City last Sunday and is known to be in Detroit.

Shuen is wanted on a warrant issued by request of a one-year-old white girl who was an employee of the restaurant in Bay City, where Shuen had worked as cook for over a year. The girl in the case is an orphan.

Informing that a warrant for his arrest was about to be issued, Shuen left Bay City at a house's notice, giving no warning to his employers and leaving his personal effects in his room. Other Chinese in Bay City told the police there he must have gone to Detroit, as he lived here before he went to Bay City, and has many friends here.

In the search of Shuen's belongings the Bay City police found a package of letters from a white girl in Detroit. The communications were passionately affectionate, whole rows of "kisses" being sent from the Detroit girl to her Chinese lover.

Those of recent date would indicate that Shuen had abandoned his Detroit sweetheart, as their trend seems to show a neglect on his part. One of these starts with "My own darling Shuen, and ends with a request, 'For God's sake, send me a little money, I am so badly in need of it.'" The writing indicates that Shuen had told the girl that he had not been paid in Bay City, although in his capacity of expert cook he drew a salary of $25 a week. None of the letters was signed.

Friends of the man in Bay City say that Shuen intended to marry his fellow employee, but that the girl in Detroit refused him too hard. Two letters from her have arrived from Detroit since he left, but the police refuse to divulge their contents.

The local Chinese societies have proffered their aid to the Detroit police, in locating the fugitive, and although the department refuses to give any information in regard to the case it is thought that an arrest will be made shortly.

Chatham, July 28.—This city will have a new theatre this fall. Plans are now being drawn for the erection of a new building on the property on King street, owned by Mayor Westman. Fred Brisco will be the manager. The present opera house building will be gutted and turned into living apartments and business offices. The new theatre will be ready for occupancy in October next.

KILLED BY CRUCIFIX.

Montreal, Que., July 29.—Amadeo Lammarie, a bricklayer, fell 25 feet from a scaffold in the east end and was killed. He landed squarely on his feet, and probably would have got off with but slight injuries, but for the fact that he was wearing a long crucifix next to his body. By the force of the fall the point of the crucifix, catching in his belt, was forced into his heart, killing him instantly.

DETROIT WAS SWEEPED BY TERRIFIC STORM

One Bolt Wrecks Boiler Room of the Delray Salt Plant.

Detroit, July 29.—One bolt of lightning completely wrecked the boiler room of the Delray Salt Company's plant, causing damage that is estimated conservatively at $15,000. This provided the most disastrous single feature of the terrific rain and thunderstorm that swept Detroit and vicinity from 10 o'clock Thursday night until 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

Four men, who were in the boiler room, when the bolt struck a corner of the building at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, narrowly escaped death. The engineer sustained a severe gash on the face, when a flying timber struck him a glancing blow. The other three were uninjured.

The plant of the Delray Salt Company is situated on the east bank of the River Rouge just below West Jefferson avenue. The boiler-room is 125 feet long and 75 feet in width. There are five boilers in the building, which goes through the pipes for the purpose of evaporating salt. Above these boilers the large evaporating pans are placed. These pans are costly fixtures, and all of them are a complete wreck, together with the rest of the machinery.

A terrific bolt of lightning struck one corner of the plant at the height of the early morning storm. This was followed by a crash of thunder and for a minute the air was blue with electricity. The lightning jumped directly into the engine-room, and it was only a matter of a minute before the whole place was a mass of gnarled and twisted iron.

How the four men escaped death is a mystery. The wreckage was discovered by the watchman at Bromley's lumber yard, across the river. As soon as possible he hurried over to see if he could be of any assistance.

One of the officers of the firm stated last night that the loss would be $15,000. This is almost covered by insurance. The accident to the plant will not interfere with business. Repairs will be made immediately and a corps of men started at work yesterday to clear away the wreckage preparatory to rebuilding the engine-room.

Report of American Delegates at German Conference.

Barmen-Eiberfeld, Germany, July 30.—The world's conference of Young Men's Christian Associations today was devoted to reports from all nations. That of the United States evoked the greatest enthusiasm. This report showed that there are 1,329 organizations, 446,000 members and $50,000,000 of Y. M. C. A. property in that country. The figures for the entire world are 7,823 organizations, 821,000 members and $60,000,000 in property.

A Chinaman delivered the most notable address of the day. He said: "China is awakening and sending its best men to seek the best ideas in every country."

The Emperor of Germany sent the following telegram: "The blessings of God on the conference. Work for the welfare of the rising generation."

Save 25 Bars of Soap

Ordinarily you use at least one bar of laundry soap every week—more than fifty bars in a year. That's twice as many as you need, for Taylor's Borax Soap goes twice as far as any other soap.

Please prove this for yourself—we invite the test. Try one bar of this soap with one bar of any other. See which soap lasts the longest—learn which is the cheapest. We know what the result will be, for we have made this same test many times over—our soap lasts twice as long.

Taylor's Soap

Don't think that all soaps are alike—there is a wonderful difference in Taylor's Borax Soap. Let us show you some of the ways in which this soap differs from others. First we use only the purest coconut oil from the Isle of Ceylon. Then we boil it doubly long and mix in the borax. While boiling we run thousands of gallons of clean water through the soap which carries away all impurities. We require twenty days to make a single cake. The labor of more than 200 people is needed. We crush every bar under a weight of 30 tons to press out the moisture. We put every bar through an ageing process equal to standing six months in your pantry. So you don't have to age this soap. When finished the bar is hard and firm, so it wears much longer. The borax softens the water which also reduces the amount of soap by almost half that ordinarily required.

This pure soap is utterly harmless to the skin—it leaves the hands whiter and softer than ever before. If it is so harmless to the skin, then think how harmless it must be to the clothes.

A DAY IN THE SPORTING WORLD

SIDE LIGHTS ON MANY SPORTSTROPHY CONTESTS ARE NARROWING

Three Rinks Remain for Tecumseh Games and Few More for McNea.

SCOTCH DOUBLES
ARE PROGRESSING

Players Are Being Weeded Out, and Finals Will Be Played This Evening.

The contests are narrowing down, three rinks being left in the Tecumseh, and but few more in the McNea contest. Skip J. Armitage, of Paris, remains in the association, and he will play the winners of the Vining-Hughes game for that silverware.

"Barney" Vining and his men have been rolling brightly, and the semi-final game this morning between Vining and Skip Hughes, of Strathroy, will be one of the events of the day. The Scotch doubles are getting well along, and the finals should be played this afternoon some time. The contest should end by evening early enough. There were many fine games played, the bowling being of the highest order all day.

New York, July 29.—Jubilant over their success in the series concluded at Cleveland Wednesday, the champion Tigers from Detroit, dropped into town today, intent on cleaning up on the Yankees, just as they had the Naps. The reception accorded Jennings and his crew was hardly what the league leaders anticipated, for the Highlanders not only defeated the title holders, but they trounced them without compassion, injury to the losers being represented by the score, which was 11 to 2.

in the second game of the post season of the Commercial League last night by a score of 7 to 2. Lee, on mound for the Bankers, was responsible for Hymans' defeat. He allowed but one lone hit and struck out men. He also stopped two fast ones. Not a man for Hymans reached first after the first inning. A third game will be necessary in this series to decide the champions, each team having won and lost. It will be played next week.

BURIED AT ST. CATHARINES

Remains of the Late Edward Green Interred Yesterday.

The funeral of Edward Green, formerly of this city, who was killed at Saskatoon last week by being struck by a train, and thrown from a high bridge, was held in St. Catharines yesterday. Deceased was buried beside his father, the late William Green, in the family burying plot in St. Catharines Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Rural Dean Kerr, pastor of St. George's Church, St. Catharines. No further details as to the cause of the accident have been learned, but it is supposed that Mr. Green, in taking a shortcut across the high bridge to his boarding-house, did not notice the approaching train.

THREATENED WIFE

Alonso Campbell, of Westminster, Is Now in County Jail.

Alonso Campbell, a Westminster farmer, was arrested at his home last night by Constable Shaver on a charge of having threatened the life of his wife, Mrs. Nellie Campbell, on Sunday, July 18. As far as can be learned there was a domestic row, and in the course of it Campbell is alleged to have secured a big knife and threatened to kill his wife. Campbell is at present in the county jail and on appearing before Squire Chittick this morning was remanded for a week for sentence.

TYPHOID SERUM.

Omaha, Neb., July 30. — The last of the series of typhoid tests have been applied to Sgt. Fuller and Pte.

Schmidt and Goodman, of Fort Omaha, and they have been pronounced immune.

In June they were vaccinated with typhoid serum, and developed the disease in a mild form. Later they were vaccinated, but the serum did not take. Ten days ago they underwent the supreme test, that of drinking freely of a gallon of stagnant water, into which one million fever germs had been placed. The men were placed in the hospital and closely watched. They have developed symptoms within five to seven days, but as none has appeared they are now declared immune.

If Navy Lost, Albion Is Lost

London, July 28.—Mr. Asquith today announced the result of an inquiry instituted at the urgent request of Field Marshal Lord Roberts by the committee of national defense regarding the possibility of an invasion of England. He said that the conclusions arrived at by the committee were that as long as the naval supremacy of Great Britain was adequately assured, an invasion on a large scale, such as by 120,000 or 150,000 men, was utterly impossible.

If, however, the command of the sea should be lost, Great Britain's defeat by an enemy would be inevitable, whatever the strength of its military organization might be. The imperial defense conference is arousing a great amount of interest here, although nothing is given out, the proceedings being private.

EVELYN THAW MAY SUE FOR A DIVORCE

To Base Action in Revelations Brought Out on Present Trial.

White Plains, N. Y., July 30.—Neither Harry K. Thaw, nor his counsel, Charles Morschauser, showed much interest today in a report that Evelyn Thaw intended to begin a divorce suit as soon as the present proceedings closed.

"It is the first intimation we have had of such action," said Mr. Morschauser, "and we have received no notice from Mrs. Thaw or her attorneys."

"Does Mr. Thaw intend to sue for separation or divorce on his own account?" the attorney was asked.

"Not so far as I know," he replied. "Will he contest his wife's suit?"

"Most certainly, if she brings it," said Mr. Morschauser, with emphasis on the last few words.

"Mrs. Thaw has no ground for a divorce," he continued. "She has always been well treated. At present she is receiving from the Thaw family $5,000 a year."

It is said Mrs. Thaw will base her suit on the revelations of the present trial regarding Thaw's alleged conduct at the house of Susan Merrill.

Mr. Morschauser called attention to the fact that Thaw had denied these stories. "As for the Mrs. Reed, said Thaw, he had been introduced there by Mr. Thaw as his wife," added Mr. Morschauser, "that part of the story has not been substantiated."

Jerome Again.

Although District Attorney Jerome announced at the close of yesterday's session of the sanity hearing that he was through with Harry K. Thaw, he recalled him to the stand this morning. The three more questions which Jerome remarked yesterday he might still have for the relator, proved to be long and involved. The district attorney started his examination along the lines that thus far have yielded to his side the best results. He probed into Thaw's own ideas of his mental condition, and contrasted his answers with those of the fourteen alienists who at various times pronounced him sane. He asked his opponent to repeat phrase, that he was not "medically" insane, although he might have been "legally" so when he killed White.

Thaw said that the various opinions of the experts, but Thaw seemed to have them just as accurately fixed in his mind, and once or twice he protested that he was sane. He admitted that some of the physicians might have been right; others, said he, were mistaken, and he declared, willfully, presented a distorted verdict.

The courtroom was even warmer than yesterday, and Thaw worked with his counsel until 10:30 last night, examining a bundle of Jerome's documentary evidence, which he expected to have to explain today.

Nevertheless, he presented the air of a man whose success is certain. He replied in calm confidence that he was satisfied with his previous showing and sure that he was a match for the district attorney. He exhibited no nervousness and less anxiety to display his mental acumen than on former occasions.

Thaw asked for the reports of several experts, and pointed out several alleged inconsistencies in their testimony.

"Well," began Jerome. "There were all these trained specialists who thought you were sane."

"Not all of them," interrupted Thaw. "I don't think that Dr. Hamilton and Dr. White did."

Thaw said that the alienists thought he suffered from "defective reason," and Jerome jumped at his chance.

"What, did they mean by 'defective reason'?"

"I think the term explains itself," "Explain it," insisted Jerome. "What do you think it means?"

Thaw looked down and was unable to find words to frame his reply. He seemed relieved when Jerome branched to the decision of Judge Morschauser before whom Thaw made his first exertion for liberty from Matteawan.

"Didn't Judge Morschauser declare that you were hopelessly insane?" demanded the cross-examiner.

"No," said Thaw. "He held that I had not proved myself sane."

Mr. Morschauser asked a word with his client and then proceeded to ask:

"This kind of thing has gone on from the first. This man goes up in the aid and his counsel interrupts to give him a word."

"Whatever Judge Morschauser may have said in his decision," asserted Thaw. "I know that he thinks now I am perfectly sane, for I talked with him two weeks ago, and he said so."

"Explain what you mean when you say you are 'legally sane,'" repeated Jerome.

"I am of the same opinion as all the medical men who have examined me in the last three years, and as I know Judge Morschauser is—the man now sane, and there is no danger of the recurrence of my trouble."

"Do you think you were legally sane when you killed White?"

"That is my best opinion, but I don't know."

"What do you mean by being 'insane'?"

"Defective reason," replied Thaw, and found too late that he had brought the discussion right back to its troublesome question.

"What is defective reason?" flashed Jerome.

Thaw pondered and finally answered, "Not being responsible for my acts."

BIG CEMENT MERGER OF CANADIAN PLANTS

Arrangements Being Made for a $25,000,000 Amalgamation.

Montreal, July 30.—Arrangements were consummated yesterday for one of the biggest and most important mergers that has ever been effected in Canada. The merger will include all the principal cement manufacturing companies in Canada, and the consolidated company, which will be known as the Canadian Consolidated Cement Company, will have a capitalization of $25,000,000. Application has been made to Ottawa for a charter for the company, and the underwriting arrangements are pretty near completion, some of the strongest men in the country being among the underwriters. The organization and underwriting arrangements are in charge of Mr. Rodolphe Forget, M. P.

It has not yet been decided whether a public issue will be made or whether it will be retained by the underwriters and their friends, but these are details which will be decided upon later.

The consolidated company will take over the principal cement plants in the Dominion, representing about two-thirds of the total output of the existing mills. In all, some seven or eight mills will be included in the merger, including the plant of the International Portland Cement Company, the founder and managing director of which, Mr. J. S. Irvin, has been the main spirit in bringing about the merger.

LABORING MEN LODGE COMPLAINT

Barber Co. Strikers Ask That Outside Labor Be Not Allowed on Civic Jobs.

A WARM DISCUSSION

In Which Italian Citizens Show They Are Able to Take Care of Themselves.

About a dozen Italian citizens of London waited on the board of works last night and lodged a complaint against the Barber Asphalt Company being permitted to employ outside men on civic jobs.

The Italians proved well able to take care of themselves, and put their case before the board in a few words, occasionally interrupting a pointed remark which rather surprised the aldermen and reporters.

The Men's Case.

Mr. Joe Barratto first addressed the aldermen, and informed them of the men's side of the strike on Rectory street, when the Barber gang quit work yesterday. The men had been receiving 18 cents an hour, but a new boss drove them "like horses," and they demanded 20 cents an hour. They asked that the city stand by them, and see that no outside men were brought in at starvation wages to take their places.

All Citizens, They Said.

The question was raised that they are all foreigners, but this statement they resented.

"We are citizens of London," said one man. "We own houses or pay rent, just the same as any other citizen."

"The foreman is no good," said another man. "He told me to go to him. He goes there, himself, maybe."

"He is it that two years ago I was paid 22 cents an hour," asked Mr. Barratto, "and now I am only paid 18 cents, whereas the price of contracts has gone up."

The Other Side.

Mr. Hunter, of the Barber Company, told the aldermen that the Barbers are paying 18 cents an hour, against 17 paid by the city, and 15 by the London street railway.

"But the men employed by the city or the street railway do not work as your men work," Ald. Saunders said. "I have seen them going."

"There is a union rate of wages, and if the Barbers pay that the city can do nothing," Ald. Cooper said.

"Can they bring in men from the outside?" asked one of the Italians.

"Yes," Ald. Cooper replied.

"We'll see about that," said Ald. Rose. "That's a city job."

After the Foreman.

"We don't have to bow down to that crowd," said the Barber foreman, who was present with Mr. Hunter.

"Sit down and keep quiet," Ald. Saunders told him. "None of your talk here. That may go on the street with the laborers, but we're running this show."

Ald. Rose also took a jab at the foreman.

Mr. Hunter intimated that the Barbers intend to run the Rectory street show.

"You have had trouble on Dundas street and every job you have bossed in London," Ald. Saunders said to the foreman. "We know all about you."

Mr. Hunter said he was willing to pay $4 a day to a man who could do $4 worth of work.

Ald. Cooper's Opinion.

Ald. Cooper said he had seen the men at work every morning, and some of them were not worth 25 cents a day. He wouldn't pay that much to them.

"You haven't been on the street once a week," Ald. Saunders said. "I'll bet you $5 you haven't."

"He hasn't been there once a month," Ald. Rose declared.

Ald. Cooper wouldn't bet, but he persisted that he had seen the men at work.

It developed at this juncture that Ald. Cooper thought the strike had taken place on Adelaide street, where it was the Rectory street gang which quit work.

Ald. Cooper didn't think the men were all worth high wages.

Ald. Gerry said that if he paid a man $2 a day and he only did $1.50 worth of work he would dispense with his services.

Just Try It.

"If Ald. Cooper doesn't think these men earn their money, let him get the Barber people," said Ald. Saunders. "Just let him get a shovel and barrow and work a day with them. He will change his opinion if he tries."

Ald. Rose did not mention any names, but he said he had been told by nearly every citizen on the street that the men were about shamefully, and that some very offensive, in fact, filthy language, was being used against them. This should be stopped at once.

The aldermen decided to look into the matter, and see what can be done, and then the deputation withdrew.

WINDING-UP CANADIAN SMALLWARES CO., LTD.

Application Made by a London Lawyer in Reference to a St. Marys Concern.

At Osgoode Hall, Toronto, Mr. Justice Britton was asked for an order yesterday morning, on motion of Mr. J. M. McEvoy, L.L.B., of this city, for the winding up of the Canadian Smallwares, Limited, of St. Marys. The petitioner is Wm. G. Eggleston, factory superintendent of the company. The company was incorporated on the 1st of June, 1908, for the manufacture of useful metal articles, such as safety pins, buttons, buckles, etc. The capital of $75,000, of which $53,818 is said to have been subscribed and paid up. W. G. McErimmon is president of the company. An order was made on the 1st of May, 1909, by Judge John A. Barron, of the county of Perth, for the sale of the factory premises under the mechanics' lien proceedings, and the amount of the judgment has not been paid.

The petitioner is a creditor for $229.65, for having advanced $125 alleged to be overdue, and $44.65 travelling expenses, and $60 wages of Stephen Ellis assigned to him. He states in his affidavit that the company admits its liability, and is unable to pay it, and that it has abandoned its factory and premises. He says that Leslie & McNeil have taken possession of the plant, and are using the same against the company for expenses of $2,500, that it owes the A. R. Williams Machinery Company upwards of $2,000, that one Lindsay holds a note for about $1,400, that a writ was issued by James Chalmers for unpaid wages of $1,400 for heating and plumbing plant, and that the company claims $2,100 for money loaned. In all, he says the company is indebted in a sum in excess of $10,000. The only assets, according to the petition, are the factory, about $1,500 worth; machinery, about $1,000, and unpaid stock, about $1,000, or $5,500 in all.

London is Granted.

The petition was granted, with reference to the county judge of the county of Perth, and appointing Mr. E. J. Dawson, of London, interim liquidator.

Mr. C. A. Masten, K.C., opposed the motion, presenting an affidavit by the president, W. G. McErimmon, denying statements of Eggleston which he said is secretary of the company, and stating that he expects to be able by the end of August to pay all claims in full, as $20,000 is to come to the company from the town of St. Marys by the middle of August.

Mr. McEvoy stated that the town had no intention of paying the claims. There was no denial of the existence of the lien on the building. He contended that McErimmon's affidavit offered no proof that the company was not insolvent. The company had not fulfilled the conditions of the loan.

The motion was dismissed with costs.

His lordship thought that, while the petitioner had not kept exactly within the provisions of the winding-up act, he had, however, made out a prima facie case for the order, but some of his contentions had been met by the president's affidavit. But as the winding-up was asked under the Dominion act, which requires proof of insolvency, and does not, like the Ontario act, provide for other just and equitable reasons for winding up, he

HILL STREET PEOPLE WILL GET WALK

After a Hard Fight the Board of Works Agrees to Their Proposal.

The board of works last night decided to have the London street railway properly repair Ridout street, where a cave-in occurred near the rails, and charge the account to the city. The work will cost $75.

The residents of Hill street, between Wellington and Clarence, waited on this board in regard to the walk which has been petitioned for there. It appears as though all the people are agreed on the matter and the walk will be laid in accordance with the request. The work will not be done for a month or so, however, as the sidewalk gang is now in the east end.

The board will put down a sidewalk for Mr. Bonding, of Oxford street, West London. Mr. Bonding will pay his share in cash now, about $22.

A cement sidewalk will be laid on the west side of Midland street, south of Philip street. The matter has been hanging fire for some time, but it will now be rushed.

CLUB HELD BANQUET

A Very Enjoyable Affair at the Grounds in West London Last Night.

The third annual garden party of St. George's Athletic Club was held on the club grounds at the corner of Oxford street and Wharncliffe road last night, and proved a most enjoyable affair. The early part of the evening was devoted to a game of baseball between St. George's and St. John's A. C. The game was keenly contested throughout, and was a pitchers' battle. After the game of first-class ball the crowd stood 1 to 1 in favor of St. George's, and the game was called. The lineup was as follows:

St. George's—C. Lawton, c.; Kearney, 1. b.; W. Murray, 2b.; "Hub" Nichols, 3b.; Thomas, c.; Dwyer, c.; McPherson, s.s.; E. Murray, p., and L. Murray, r. f.

St. John's—Parkinson, s.s.; Phalen, 1b.; Walden, 2b.; Stinson, c.; Callahan, c.; McIntyre, 1. b.; Richardson, p.; Woodward, r. f.; Baker, 2b.

A large booth, where various good things were offered for sale, was in charge of Miss Hodgson, Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Calvin, Miss Walker, Mr. N. Pope and Mr. Hobbs. The Twenty-sixth Band was in attendance, and rendered a fine programme of music. When the storm came up, an adjournment was made to the Sunday school, and an excellent programme of music was rendered by the Kenwick Male Quartet.

CHANGE POSITION OF SIGNAL TOWER

Board of Works Decide to Grant Request of Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

ALD. COOPER OBJECTS
But Board Deemed It in the Interests of the People To Do So—Other Matters.

The removal of the C. P. R. signal tower on Richmond street three feet further west, was the cause of a somewhat lengthy discussion at the board of works meeting last evening, and on motion of Ald. Saunders, it was recommended that the request of the company be granted.

Assistant Engineer Wright reported that on the instructions of the committee he had investigated the matter, and his opinion was that it would be to the advantage of the city to allow the company to remove the tower.

A Dangerous Crossing.
"With its present situation it is impossible for the watchman to see up the street," said Mr. Wright. "He cannot tell the location of cars or pedestrians, and consequently there is more danger than there should be. If he drops the signal whenever he sees a train a street car might be just approaching the danger, and the ditched. If he can see the cars he can set with much better judgment, and I think it would be wise to grant the request."

Ald. Cooper objected strenuously to allowing the company to remove the tower.

Ald. Cooper's Argument.
"All the watchman has to do is operate the signals when he sees a train approaching," said Ald. Cooper. "The tower is on city property now, and if we give them more, we are doing what we have no right to do. I do not think the tower should be moved. Now that the company wants something let us hold that against them for something else. We might want to open Wellington street shortly."

"A lot we would get from the company for the removal of that tower," said Ald. Saunders. "When we have anything worth while let us act, but they would laugh at us if we suggested opening Wellington street, if we allowed them to remove a tower three feet. I think in view of what the engineer says that we would be better protecting the citizens and looking after their safety in granting the request."

What the Company Wants.
"The company wants some city property," continued Ald. Cooper. "I know of several buildings along that street that are on city property. We want to put a stop to it."

"I think the request of the company is a reasonable one, and we should grant it," said Ald. Rose. "If we do not some time a train will hit a street car, and then we will be in a fine position."

Ald. Saunders moved that the request of the company be granted, and this recommendation will go to the council.

The petition of the citizens for a boulevard on Cheapside street was filed on the advice of the city solicitor.

The Draymen.
The petition for the removal of the draymen off York street, was laid over until a further meeting.

The petition for a curb and gutter on east and west Clarence street, from Horton to Hill street, was sufficiently signed, and the work will be proceeded with.

"There is no use holding this work back because of some difficulty over Horton street," said Ald. Saunders. "A petition for a cement walk on the north side of Queen's avenue, from Colborne to Maitland streets, was sufficiently signed, and will take the usual course."

On the recommendation of Ald. Gerry, a curb and gutter was initiated for both sides of Langarth street, from the Wortley road to Cathcart street.

Fire Chief Complaints.
Bruce street was blocked up by a fire. Chief complaints were made by the fire department had not been notified. The grievance will be remedied.

F. Hessel was awarded the contract for painting the Oxford, Wellington and Blackfriars bridges for $2,000.

Those present were Ald. Gerry, chairman; Ald. Saunders, Ald. Rose, Ald. Cooper, Ald. McGhie, Ald. Kelly, Ald. Chatham; vice-president, J. J. Hegg, Guelph; secretary, W. A. Crockett, Hamilton; treasurer, Mr. Wickens, Toronto; conductor, W. Norris; doorkeeper, W. Bradt, Windsor.

THE ENGINEERS ELECT TO BERLIN NEXT YEAR
The Convention Concludes With Exhibition Run of Fire Brigade.

The twentieth annual convention of the Canadian Association of Stationary Engineers came to a close yesterday afternoon in the city hall, when Berlin was selected as the next meeting place in 1910, and officers were elected as follows: Past president, W. C. McGhie, Toronto; president, C. Kelly, Chatham; vice-president, J. J. Hegg, Guelph; secretary, W. A. Crockett, Hamilton; treasurer, Mr. Wickens, Toronto; conductor, W. Norris; doorkeeper, W. Bradt, Windsor.

W. C. McGhie, chairman of the license examination board, was elected president, but owing to an appointment he holds from the Government, could not accept, and it was decided to re-elect Mr. C. Kelly, of Chatham, as president, and give the past president's jewel to Mr. McGhie.

The delegates were most pleased and warmly congratulated the chief of the efficiency of the department. During the remainder of the afternoon many of the engineers spent the time in looking through the plants of the various firms. The delegates were unanimous in stating that the convention was one of the most successful ever held, and were loud in their praise of the weather was temporarily disconcerting.

COOLING BREEZES ROUT THE HUMIDITY
Yesterday and Last Night Were Sweltering, But Today Brings Relief.

Not a few citizens sat up until 1 and even 2 o'clock this morning in an effort to find relief from the oppressive heat, that made conditions indoors almost intolerable all through yesterday and last evening. When the rain came it afforded slight relief, but at no time during the night did the mercury go below 63.5, and in many homes it was nearer 80. With lights burning the temperature soared still higher, and everyone who had a veranda or a doorway to sit in, removed all superfluous clothing, and surrounded by fans and cooling drinks, tried to keep from sweating. The maximum temperature reached yesterday was 88, but the condition of the atmosphere made the heat more than usually oppressive. More than once a thunderstorm threatened, but it was not until late in the evening that rain finally fell, and even then the shower was of short duration, and only lessened the heat slightly. Collars collapsed in a heap as perspiration rolled from their wearers.

All day, and as long as they were open at night, the ice cream stands did a rushing business. The weather man has promised cooling breezes from the north today, and although the thermometer registered 71 to start with at 8 o'clock this morning, and was slowly climbing, the promise was that the oppressive weather has temporarily disappeared.

CORRESPONDENCE
Smoke and Smut.
To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I was somewhat sorry to hear City Engineer Graydon and I have read an accident in getting his "new suit" spoiled with the East End smut. But I am wondering if it will hurt things up in regard to the smoke and smut nuisance. We all feel it keenly, but don't know where to go, nor to whom to speak, for protection.

The mayor has been consulted, City Engineer Graydon and I have read several appeals in our daily paper, and it seems to be only talked about, and nothing done. In fact, it has been the worst this past week that I ever saw fit. Not only our clothes, but our homes outside and inside, and our floors are smeared with smut daily. I, for one, wish we could be protected, even if it does cost someone a few dollars. Sincerely yours,
ANNA THOMPSON.

SOUR STOMACH
"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief, and for a short time, I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to eat."
