IMPORTANT CANADIAN BOOKS.

Mostly New and Current.

THE RAILWAY SYSTEMS OF CANADA.

"Railways and Other Ways," being the valuable and extremely interesting reminiscences of sixty-five years of Railway Life by Mr. Myles Pennington, the oldest railway officer living, still in active service; and first general freight agent of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada. A handsome small quarto volume, illustrated with views and portraits of the Presidents and General Managers, including Mr. C. M. Hays (lately of the Wabash) and other chief officers. Cloth, emblematically stamped, $2.50.

This is something more than a railway book. It is really a history of industrial progress in Canada, and a companion book to Smiles' "Self-Help." Every library should place this within reach of their readers.

Bird-Nesting in North-West Canada. Being the records of a short sojourn in Manitoba and Assiniboia. By WALTER RAINE. 8vo. Cloth. With 38 original illustrations and six plates of birds' eggs, beautifully coloured from life; fifty varieties. 200 pages. $3.50.

This is a book of unique interest. The limited edition was mostly subscribed for by English libraries before issue, and only a few copies now remain.

Toronto of Old. Collections and recollections illustrative of the early settlement and social life of the capital of Ontario. By HENRY SCADDING, D.D. XII x 594 pages. Demy 8vo. Cloth. $2.50.

Our Own Country. Canada, Scenic and Descriptive. By W. H. WITHROW, D.D. A large 8vo. volume of 600 pages and over 350 engravings. Extra cloth. $3.00.

"A VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION TO ETHNOLOGICAL LORE."

The Hittites. Their Inscriptions and History. By PROF. JOHN CAMPBELL, M.A., LL.D., Montreal. Two vols. Demy 8vo. Cloth extra, fully illustrated. $5.00.

"Prof. Campbell has a well-earned reputation, especially among archaeologists and students of ancient and modern history, as a scholar of no mean attainments. One leading critic in England says: 'He possesses a wonderful, if not unique, knowledge of very early ethnology, especially Egyptology.' The larger part of the book contains a history of the Hittites from a period of time some three generations prior to the patriarch Abraham. The materials for this history are furnished by the Egyptian and Assyrian monuments, by the Greek historians and by almost universal tradition, arising from the fact that the Hittites were, in many respects, the greatest of ancient peoples, and constituted the substratum of all early civilization. The course of his argument leads the author to study and discussion of the records of the Hittites in Egypt, on the Tigris and Euphrates, in Palestine and neighbouring countries, in their contrast with the Assyrian Empire, in the struggle with the Aryan race, which ended in the supremacy of the latter, and in their dispersal westward, and the interesting story of the peopling of the American continent."—Toronto Globe

A Veteran of 1812. The Life of Lieut.-Col. James Fitz-Gibbon. By MARY AGNES FITZ-GIBBON. Cloth; with portrait and illustrations. $1.00.

The French Regime in Canada. 1535-1763. By H. H. MILES, LL.D., D.C.L. (Secretary of Quebec Council of Public Instruction). 521 pages. 8vo. Cloth, with map. $2.00.

Casterologia. The Canadian Beaver. An exhaustive monograph, popularly written and abundantly illustrated. By H. T. MORGAN. 8vo. Cloth. $2.50.

The Birds of Ontario. By THOS. McILWRAITH (member American Ornithologist Union). Second and greatly improved edition. Illustrated by Ernest E. Thompson and others. Crown 8vo. 429 pages. Cloth. $2.00.

"There is no better authority than Mr. McIlwraith, who brings to his subject rare knowledge and a true love for the beautiful creatures he writes about. He gives also much useful instruction on bird and egg collections, preparing and preserving skins, and tells all about the nests and eggs."

History of the North-West. By ALEXANDER BEGG, author of "The Creation of Manitoba," etc. 3 vols. 8vo. Half-morocco. $10.00.

"Mr. Alexander Begg is the leading authority on all matters, historical and political, concerning our North-West country. He has written much on the subject, and his name, as a reliable historian, is known far and wide."—Quebec Morning Chronicle.

Centennial of St. Andrew's, Niagara. By JANET CARNOCHAN. Cloth, with illustrations. $1.00.

CANADIAN GENEALOGY AND HERALDRY.

Ontarian Families. The Genealogy of United Empire Loyalists and other Pioneer Families of Upper Canada, with Heraldic Illustrations. By EDWARD MARION CHADWICK, Barrister. The illustrations (some in colours) are all in the author's well-known, admirable style. Printed on fine plate paper. 4to. Half-bound. $12.00.

This is a successful gathering together of the records of the famous families of U. E. Loyalists and others who cast in their lot with the Crown. The author (whose reputation in this department of knowledge is more than provincial) has traced many of the families to their ancestral homes in early England and France; and, as branches of many of them are scattered now over the United States, this book should have a wide interest. The heraldic illustrations, after Mr. Chadwick's own drawing, are much admired for their beauty, and the colour printing is quite up to the best continental work. A list of families represented will be sent on application to us.

The History of British Columbia, from its Earliest Discovery to the Present Time. By ALEXANDER BEGG, C.C. In one large octavo volume of about 550 pages, with map and over 118 portraits and illustrations. $3.00.

"It is very evident Mr. Begg, in preparing for his work, has prosecuted exhaustive researches into the affairs of the Coast. He tells the story in a thorough and complete manner, and adds all the particulars of the Oregon dispute and the seal difficulty. This work is useful as a record, and interesting as a relation of facts which all should know." The Mail.

Ten Years of Upper Canada in Peace and War. 1805-15.

By MRS. J. D. EDGAR. Cloth, with map and illustrations. $2.00.

A really valuable addition to Canadian History. The appendix, telling of Mr. Ridout's capture, life with, and escape from the Indians in Ohio and Pennsylvania, is as graphic as Fenimore Cooper's romances.

Laura Secord. The Heroine of 1812. A Drama, and other Poems.

By MRS. S. A. CURZON. Cloth. $1.50.

Imperial Federation. The Problem of National Unity. By ALEXANDER MORRIS, P.C., D.C.L., formerly Lieutenant-Governor of the North-West Territories. Cloth. 187 pages. $1.00.

History of the Dominion of Canada, from the Discovery of America to the Present Times, including a carefully compiled Account of the late Rebellion in the North-West Territories.

By W. H. WITHEROW, D.D. A handsome 8vo. volume, fully illustrated. Cloth. $3.00.

In the Days of the Canada Company. By ROBINA and KATHLEEN MACFARLANE LIZARS. With Introduction by REV. PRINCIPAL GRANT, D.D., LL.D. In one volume. Large octavo. 500 pages. Freely illustrated and handsomely bound. $2.00.

This is one of the most notable contributions to the historical literature of Canada made in many years. Nowhere will be found more graphic pictures of the social life in Ontario in the early part of this century than these pages present. The work is monumental as a record of the times, and is a worthy tribute to the men and the women who helped to make Ontario what it is to-day.

Sir John A. Macdonald. An Anecdotal Life of the late Premier of Canada. By E. A. BIGGAR. Royal 8vo. 332 pages. Cloth. $2.50.

"Mr. Biggar's idea was 'a happy thought,' and it is well carried out. The author has taken great pains to bring together the jokes and examples of airy persiflage that could be found as Sir John's. It is history, biography, and story book all in one, and presents the great Canadian statesman and many of his contemporaries in a new and interesting light."—J. W. Bengough in Grip

Canada's Intellectual Strength and Weakness. A short Historical and Critical review of Literature, Art and Education in Canada. By J. G. BOURINOT, C.M.G., LL.D., and author of "Cape Breton, etc. 4to. Boards. 99 pages. $1.25.

"There is no man in Canada, possibly anywhere, who has made a more careful, painstaking life-work in the study of the aboriginal races and all the writings extant relative to them, their traditions and history, than Dr. John Maclean. While gleanings information from all the recognized authentic sources, Dr. Maclean, by his personal experience and individual knowledge, has added not only a vast amount of hitherto unpublished material, but has revived and reset the old in the most attractive and readable form."—The Week.

Documents Illustrative of the Canadian Constitution. Edited, with Notes and Appendices. By WILLIAM HOUSTON, M.A. 338 pages. Demy 8vo. Cloth. $2.50.

Ontario's Parliament Buildings. 1792-1892. A Century of Legislation. By FRANK YEIGH. A handsome 8vo. volume. About 200 pages. Illustrated with beautiful photogravures, wood cuts and portraits. $2.50.

"Mr. Yeigh's study is far more than an architectural sketch. It throws light upon many sides of the development of the Province of Ontario, and might well serve as an outline history of her political life, though in no sense an elaborate work. Ontario has reason to be proud of the new structure in which her present parliamentary sessions are held; and Mr. Yeigh has furnished many illustrations of the building and of its humbler predecessors, together with portraits of some of the leading men who have figured in the provincial public life."—Review of Reviews.
