The Junior Branch Auxiliary held their first meeting on October 9th, 1902, and worked until Christmas making presents to send to Apsley for the Rev. Christopher Lord's school children. They were asked for 44 presents and sent about 60, including a number of toys kindly given by Mrs. Macnab, Honorary President. The bale also contained 50 bags of sweets, and gifts of different members, and some articles of clothing. The members are now busy making children's garments to send to the Rev. W. G. White of White Fish Lake, for his school children. The membership is 49, and the average attendance has been 24. The annual meeting was held on 4th of March, when reports were presented by Miss Ethel Grosse, Secretary, and Miss Gertrude Jordan, Treasurer. The latter showed cash receipts, $4.32, and expenditure, $3.08. Officers for the ensuing year were elected.
