Arrangements Being Completed to Hold Annual Boughner Picnic.

(From Our Own Correspondent) Simcoe, June 24.—The Boughner picnic executive met at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and decided provisionally to hold the 1916 picnic here on August 19th. The provision is dependent on certain co-operation on the part of the town, for the picnic has long since become a free-for-all, so far as attendance goes, and has for some years been recognized as a general county picnic.

A west-end resident encouraged children to pick and sell daisies from a little dingle on a vacant lot, and the little people have added $15 to the Red Cross funds from the enterprise.

Frederick Dorey, who has had charge of the fire hall for two years past, left Monday morning to join the Brantford detail of the 216th Bantam Battalion. Fred has a son in the trenches who went over with the second contingent, another in the 133rd, and a 14-year-old boy in Hamilton counting the months till he is old enough to go.

COLLIDED WITH BRITISH WARSHIP

United States Training Ship Ran Into Merchant Auxiliary Cruiser.

By Special Wire to the Courier. New York, June 26.—The Massachusetts nautical training ship Ranger was in collision in a dense fog early today with a British warship, believed to be one of the merchant auxiliary cruisers on patrol duty, off Montauk Point, at the eastern tip of Long Island. A wireless message received later at the Brooklyn navy yard indicated that neither vessel was seriously damaged. The ships exchanged proffers of assistance and the Ranger continued on her course to the government navy yard at Boston. Wireless messages did not state that any person on either vessel was injured.

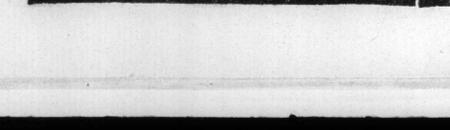

Miss Aida Collins of Collingwood is the guest of Miss Gertrude Brohman, Fleet St. Complete returns in the wet and dry vote in Duluth, Minn., show about 400 majority for the dries, out of a total vote of approximately 15,000.

And we were "up in the air" about it because the wife knew nothing about cooking. She tried her best and meant well, I guess, but her first attempt at a meal convinced me. So we had just about decided to eat in restaurants when suddenly my wife struck a bright idea. "Why don't you call 139 and insert a help wanted ad for a cook in The Courier?" she said. And I did—

Registration Necessary For Rest of Country, Thinks Mr. Godfrey.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Montreal, June 26.—After looking over the situation here and following interviews with leading English and French-Canadians of the province, John M. Godfrey, of Toronto, president of the Canadian National Service League and President of the Second Division Recruiting League, stated yesterday that he thought no good purpose would be served in including the Province of Quebec in any project of registration that the government might adopt. Jack Barrymore Starred in "The Lost Bridegroom," by Famous Players Jack Barrymore, who has played Balkan Princes, South American dictators and assorted American characters, has resumed his role of "The Lost Bridegroom," his latest Famous Players-Paramount Picture, which is the feature at Brant, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The role of a crook. It is one of the most laughable and, at the same time, most thrilling stories in which the celebrated star has ever appeared.

Bertie Joyce, the role assumed by Barrymore, is a young society chap who is struck on the head by thugs while returning home from his bachelor dinner on the eve of his marriage to Dorothy Hardin. His memory completely obliterated by the blow, Joyce wanders down to the river front, falls asleep on a wharf and tumbles into the river. Of course Joyce was in evening clothes at the time of the hold-up and the thieves have divested him of his coat and overcoat.

When Joyce scrambles out of the water, he removes his dress shirt, wrings it out, finds his hat, and ambles into the first saloon with the shirt over his arm. There is a mild sensation in the place when the stranger enters and the inhabitants—it is the headquarters of a band of thieves—are all for throwing him out. But the proprietor's daughter comes to the rescue and the stranger is fed and clothed. Then it is decided that he would make an excellent gentleman burglar, adding "class" to the game, so he is trained in the art of burglary.

Pusie won a tie from Geo. Tuull, for fourth place.

AT THE BRANT

The Heart of Paula. Old Mexico—the home of a people revered for their old world statesmanship, their hospitality, their culture, and their strong sentiment and traditions—this is the atmosphere which pervades almost every scene in "The Heart of Paula," the latest Palms Picture offering.

And charming Lenore Ulrich, with her wonderful beauty and strong emotional ability, makes of Paula Figueroa, a Spanish character of many phases.

The story is told and filmed in the actual environment of Old Mexico. It concerns the experiences of Bruce McLean, a young mining engineer, who assumes the place and name of his sister's husband, Stephen Pachmann, on a trip to value their mining properties in the heart of a revolutionary hot-bed.

Paula meets and loves Bruce, Emiliano Pacheco, a guerilla leader, incites Paula to jealous frenzy by telling her that Bruce, known as Stephen Pachmann, is married. Paula almost completes her deadly plan for revenge before she learns the truth. Her reparation, the way in which it is made, the dangers and hazards, and the final outcome, unite to make a thrilling drama of the Latin country.

At the Brant, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week will be the six diving nymphs. Chas. T. Earl presents at the Brant all next week the aquatic novelty of wondrous beauty and magnitude, the Six Diving Nymphs, a startling sextette of dazzling, daring, and dimpled, diving darlings dispersing in 30,000 gallons of water.

This great act is put on under the direction of Chas. T. Earl, who for years was the director of water sports at the Steeple Chase Park Pool, Coney Island, N.Y. The massive tank in use is 15 feet in diameter, 10 feet deep and takes ten hours for nine men to erect.

The moving pictures of the great military tattoo, the 215th battalion, the firemen in action, Mohawk Institute, and other historic Brantford scenes will be at the Brant within a few days. They will be shown likely for a whole week.

EARL SELBOURNE HAS RESIGNED

Did Not Agree With Colleagues on Irish Settlement Scheme.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, June 26 (New York Sun cable)—The Morning Post says that the resignation of Earl Selbourne as President of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, officially announced last night, was because of his disagreement with the Irish settlement scheme.

"He may not be the only person to resign for the same reason," the Morning Post says, "and quotes John Dillon as saying that it was quite possible that the proposals will be adopted because of a cabinet break-up on the question."

GOVERNMENT FURTHERING AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION. The Policy of the Federal Authorities is Bearing Good Fruit.

That the policy of the federal government in providing a subsidy of ten million dollars, spread over a period of ten years, toward furthering agricultural education in the different provinces, is bearing good fruit is abundantly proven by the second annual report of the commissioner of agriculture. It shows that while much remains to be done before the work is perfected in rural schools, a great deal has been achieved. Teachers have had to be trained for this purpose, and short courses for the purpose have been held in connection with all the agricultural colleges. Funds for this purpose came out of grants made by the Dominion under the act.

MISTRESS OF LAKES AS WELL AS OF THE SEA

British Force of 27 Men Seized Control of Lake Tanganyika.

While the eyes of the world have been fixed on the absorbing events at Verdun, says the Kansas City Star there has been enacted unnoticed and in a far theatre of the war scarcely laid down in maps, a drama almost unrivaled in the romance of Jules Verne. A British expedition, consisting of only 27 officers and men, after a journey of a year, penetrated to the heart of Africa and brought to a successful conclusion operations that transferred from German to British control a region immeasurably greater than the entire territory for which vast armies are now battling on the Western European front.

The goal of the expedition was Lake Tanganyika, on the flank of the German East African colony. To reach it the expedition, which in numbers and in the almost fantastic nature of its design, resembles the band of adventurers, which Clive led into India, undertook a railway journey from Cape Town to Fungurume, which lies north of Rhodesia, from which point it had to literally hew its way through the bush for 166 miles to the Luabala River, which flows into Lake Tanganyika, 350 miles further on.

When the river was reached one set of troubles was merely exchanged for another. The boats were launched, but mud bars, treacherous currents and numerous obstructions made the journey by water almost impossible as that through the bush. Even when the lake was reached it was found necessary to construct harbor works to protect the craft from the sudden and violent storms of the region.

At length the Mimi and the Tou-Tou were got in fighting trim and the hunt for the German flotilla began. The day after Christmas the German gunboat Kingua was sighted on Boxing Bay, and after a spirited fight was captured. A six weeks cruise of the lake followed before this victory was clinched by the sinking of the Von Weismann, the German flagship in the East African waters. It was the Trafalgar of Africa, leaving the British in the complete possession of the region.

THE SITUATION.

It looks very much as if the end was close at hand with regard to Verdun. The Hun has gained a foothold in the village of Fleury, some three and a half miles away, and once they become established there, they have possession of a dominating ridge with regard to the French lines. If the place falls, at what an awful sacrifice it will have been gained! Two reasons have been given for the maintenance of this costly offensive. One that the inordinate vanity of the Crown Prince, in charge of the operations, had to be served. The other that the Kaiser's plan to secure a still firmer hold on the French mining territory. Whatever the cause, military critics are of the opinion that the price paid has been entirely too high.

The British artillery has been very active along the whole front in Northern France and Flanders. This is believed to presage a general forward movement and it is to be devoutly hoped that such is the case. Whatever is done, it should be remembered, will be on the initiative of General Joffre, who is in supreme command. It maybe there is some giving way at Verdun in this connection.

Russian successes continue. They have been handling German forces to the King's taste, in addition to other performances, and now hold the rich Austrian Crown Land of Bukovina.

SOMETHING MORE.

The 125th is a Brant County Battalion, and there has justly been nothing but unstinted praise in connection with the personnel, the bearing, and the splendid state of efficiency of officers and men alike.

To get such a force together in so short a period, has been an accomplishment in which all citizens take a just pride, and the feeling is quite general that the city should do something more for the Battalion than the $500 thus far granted.

The County Council of Brant has come forward with just four times that amount—$2,000—and in the neighboring county of Norfolk, $11,000 in all constitutes the sum given to their home-raised regiment.

There is of necessity a large amount of expense arising in connection with a Battalion over, and above the Government grant, and it is well known that officers of the 125th have had to go into their own pockets. This should not be. Many people regard a municipal grant as the only fair way in such matters, as the method ensures the participation of all and affords many a chance to share who would not otherwise have the opportunity.

The subject is one which might very well engage the further attention of the city council.

GLOBE'S ATTACK ON BORDEN.

The small inned venom with which the Toronto Globe pursues a political opponent has always been one of the leading characteristics of that organ. For many years the late Sir John A. Macdonald was held up to continual opprobrium in its columns, a man who did more for this Dominion than any other statesman before, or since. Not only was Sir John depicted as a fiend incarnate, but in addition, it was a favorite diversion upon the part of the organ in those days, to have its cartoonist, J. W. Bengough, depict the late Sir Charles Tupper, and Right Hon. George Foster, as a couple of burlesque cranking the public safe. As a matter of fact no two men have ever given up more for public life and received less in return in a personal sense, than Sir Charles and Sir George. Tupper having withdrawn to England, as High Commissioner, Foster was still pursued and one of the most determined efforts ever made to drive any man out of public life was inaugurated by the Globe. He is still on public duty, honored by Canada and the Empire alike.

The man the Globe is now seeking to get at with its stiletto, is Sir Robert Borden. In a recent issue it headed the leading editorial, "Needed; a real leader for Canada" and went on to attack the Prime Minister through Sir Sam Hughes—another man whom the organ would dearly love to see humiliated and humbled along with all other Conservatives of prominence. The Toronto sheet closed its references to Sir Robert as follows:—

"What Canada needs, and needs woefully just now, is a strong, positive mastery leader."

Such a mastery leadership no doubt as the Toronto Globe gave when it helped to incite the Reciprocity pact, to the smashing of the Liberal party.

Meanwhile, all men of calm judgment and not warped by jaundiced party vision, will concur in the unreserved tribute that Sir Robert Borden has in this time of great responsibility risen to the occasion with forceful vigor and statesmanlike ability. Dr. Clark, the Liberal member for Red Deer, paid a notable tribute to him in the House when he said that he had from the first of the war, been impressed with his "clear eyed" purpose, and such he has most undoubtedly exhibited.

Let the Globe contrast Borden's course with that of its own leader—Sir Wilfrid Laurier—who, in this war time, gave his countenance to the sinister effort to bring the bilingual issue into the Dominion House. If it does that, the organ will discover that the cry, (needed a new leader), is emanating from many Liberals and has been given voice by the Winnipeg Free Press, the leading Grit organ of the West.

It is a safe affirmation that public men of prominence subjected to attack by the Globe, enjoy long and honorable careers and it is equally certain that Sir Robert Borden will prove no exception to this rule.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Over in Germany they have made Count Zeppelin president of a new society for the protection of "infants and small children." The next thing in order will be to make the Kaiser president of a society for the prevention of slaughter in war.

It is somewhat significant, in connection with the recent Nova Scotia election that two of the seats lost by Liberals are situated in the district from which Kye hails. There will be small cause for wonder if he has quered that whole region as far as the success of Grit candidates is concerned.

There has been quite a bit of comment over the fact that in marrying again Mrs. John Jacob Astor forfeited $5,000.00 under her first husband's will. However, as she is still worth a million and hubbie No. 2 another million, the chances are that they will still be able to get credit at the corner grocery.

Says the New York Herald: "The final reason why Mr. Hughes was nominated for President was that the Germans demanded his nomination and the Republican party gave the Germans what they wanted. That is why the Chicago Convention adopted a platform that meets the unqualified approval of the German leaders."

If that idea should become prevalent in the States it ought to give Wilson more of a chance than he would seem to have at present.

Somebody spread the cruel rumor in Toronto on Sunday that the Canadians in a big action had lost from 17,000 to 30,000 men, and the alleged catastrophe was even announced in some of the churches. It was a yarn made up out of whole cloth just the same as so many others to be heard in this and other communities. German sympathizers are probably at the back of such lies, and people who swallow them write themselves down as gullibles of the first water.

Interstate Commerce Commission Held They Violated Haulage Rules.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Washington, June 26.—The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day held that the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. violated the long and short haul provision of the railroad rate act in charging a higher rate on grain from the Province of Saskatchewan, to intermediate points in Minnesota than they charged to Duluth. The decision upheld Warren, Minn., millers in their complaint against rates to that point, based on the rate to Duluth plus the rate back to Warren.

NAMES OF HEROES PERPETUATED IN CHURCH TABLETS

Honor Roll Unveiled in Paris of Men Who Have Donned Khaki.

VERY HEAVY RAIN ON SATURDAY

Paris, June 26.—Yesterday morning the members of the 215th Battalion paraded to the Methodist church, when a sermon was preached to the men for the last time. He delivered a very powerful sermon on brotherly love and kindness. During the service an honor roll was unveiled, when the names of 41 young men were shown to have enlisted from the Methodist church. The names are bordered by a broad Gold band with the flags of England and Canada on the top of the roll: Capt. W. J. Gould, M.D., Lieut. Lorne Redder, Sergt. James Harriott, Sergt. Roy Nelson, Sergt. Chas. E. Lounsbury, Ernest Mann, Joseph Shannon, Fred J. Wentworth, William Glass, Henry O. Stevens, Eugene Walters, Alfred Bell, James Fisher, Edward Sucker, Walter H. Altchison, Virgil Eddy, Ralph Shields, James S. Badgley, James Appleby, Harold Easton, William H. Hough, Sergt. F. J. Thomas, Thomas Beaumont, Thomas Billings, The names of Corp. Roy Pierce and Capt. Louis LaPierre were inadvertently omitted and will be added to the roll. The roll was unveiled by Captain Andrews of Brantford in the unavoidable absence of Lieut.-Col. Cookshank.

At the evening service Rev. Mr. Brandon, who has occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church for the past three years, preached his farewell sermon. The gentleman will leave with his wife and family on Wednesday for St. George.

The many friends of Mr. George Inkster will regret to learn of his continued serious illness. At the time of writing his condition is very critical.

Heavy Rain.

A perfect deluge of rain fell in Paris on Saturday during the afternoon and evening. During the former a heavy electric storm passed over the town in which a large chimney at the Pitts' elevator, Paris Junction, was struck and demolished. With the downpour at night a large number of cellars on West River Street, were filled with water.

On Tuesday evening, Lieutenant L. Hunt and Cadet Lieut. Vale held their farewell services in the Salvation Army barracks. Both young men have made many warm friends in Paris during their short stay here, and all join in wishing them every success in their new sphere of labor.

A Minstrel Show.

On Thursday evening a number of young people of the Sacred Heart church put on the "Rustic Minstrel Show" in the Separate School hall. The place was crowded and the evening was one of mirth from start to finish. The young people are deserving of great praise for the way they took their parts; Miss Nelson, who arranged the program for the evening, was given a hearty vote of thanks, and then little Miss Patricia Dunn presented her with a beautiful bouquet of choice flowers. Light refreshments were served by the ladies at the close to all those who took part in the play. "The Rustic Minstrels" will be repeated again to-night, when the proceeds will be devoted to patriotic purposes.

Rev. Mr. James of Vancouver, gave a very interesting address to the scholars of the Presbyterian Sunday School yesterday afternoon. Special Patriotic music was rendered, in keeping with the occasion.

The engagement is announced of Miss Olive Shawcroft to Pte. Thos. H. Mills. The wedding will take place in St. James Church the 1st of the month.

The many friends of Mrs. W. E. Belyea will sympathize with her in the death of her sister, Miss Helen Burley, which sad event occurred in the Galt Hospital, following an operation.

Picnic at Mohawk

On Saturday afternoon the scholars of the Methodist Sunday School held their annual picnic at Mohawk Park. Four special cars went down from here, and a right jolly time was spent by all in games and races during the afternoon. The picnicers returned about 8.30.

Mrs. (Dr.) Lovett has returned home from Toronto after attending the Emergency Corps meeting which was held there. Mrs. Lovett is president of the Women's Emergency Corps and represented the Paris branch.

A wedding of interest to many Paris people is that of Miss Frank E., youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Williamson, of Chesley, to Dr. James R. Gibson of Toronto. The bride is well known to many in town, her father at one time being the pastor of the Methodist Church. The wedding ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by her brother-in-law, Rev. H. H. Bingham, B.A. of London, and formerly of Paris.

STORY HOUR. "The Steadfast Princess," by Cornelia Meigs, will be the subject of the story hour in the public library tomorrow afternoon.

INSPECTED ROADS. The township council, taking advantage of the first fine weather of the summer, made a tour of inspection over several of the township roads this afternoon.

SOLDIERS RETURNING. Two Brantford soldiers are returning home among a number landed at Quebec yesterday. They are Pte. E. Storer, C.P.A., and Pte. W. Dawson.

MASCOT FOR BANTAMS. The latest acquisition to the local Bantam detachment is a Bantam bull pup, the property of Lt. McKissock, which is to be the platoon mascot.

BANTAMS GOT ONE. A visit was made to Oakland on Saturday, when one prospective recruit was obtained for the Bantams. The squad this morning engaged in the usual platoon drill on the market, afterward proceeding to the Y. M. C. A. for a bath.

ELM AVENUE. Mr. J. W. Harris of Brant Avenue Methodist church conducted the service at Elm Avenue last evening, taking his text from Romans viii: 28: "All things work together for good to them that love the Lord."

B. F. P. T. A class of non-commissioned officers of the 125th battalion, 41 in number, have been detailed to attend a week's regimental course in bayonet fighting and physical training under Lt. Woodruff at the armories.

CITY COUNCIL. At the semi-monthly session of the City Council to-night, a by-law will probably be submitted to approve the agreement arrived at with the Lake Erie and Northern Railroad. The assessment on the Hempel Box Factory will also be fixed, in all probability.

NICE CONCERT. By the courtesy of Mr. H. Judson Smith, the Bantams obtained the loan of a Graphonola on Saturday evening, when a concert was held at their office from the hours 7 to 9. The usual interest was excited by the entertainment, quite a crowd assembling.

ALL EQUIPPED. The local squad of the Bantam Battalion attended service with the 125th at the O. S. B. grounds yesterday morning. Another shipment of uniforms was received in the city on Saturday, so that the squad is now fully equipped and outfitted, and present a remarkably fine appearance when on parade.

BOMB INSTRUCTORS. Lt. K. Wood, Sergt. Monkman and Sergt. Mellor of the 215th, were approved in camp orders as instructors in bombing, and attached to the battalion in that capacity.

OPEN AIR SERVICES. Open air services were held by both local battalions yesterday morning, the 125th with the local Bantam detachment, proceeding to the School for the Blind, where service was conducted by Rev. Capt. Lavell, while the 215th marched to Tutela Park, the battalion chaplain, Rev. Capt. McKeegay, officiating, and delivering a most inspiring address.

NOW 510 STRONG. The strength of the 215th this morning stood at 510, with prospects of mounting higher before the day is over. Lt. Col. Cockshutt journeyed to Paris this afternoon to visit B company, quartered there in charge of Capt. Pearce. A week's leave of absence has been granted Capt. Duff Slemm of the 215th from July 4th to July 10th.

WATER OFF. Queries concerning the city water supply have been very frequent since noon to-day. The pressure, which was low during the morning, ceased entirely about 1 o'clock, and since then very little water has been available. The cause of the shortage has not been definitely stated; it is a case similar to that of the man who died "because his heart stopped beating." The water is not to be had for a few hours at least.

WORKING OTHER CENTRES. It having been realized that Brantford is a well worked field, at least as far as small men are concerned, the local Bantam office has decided upon a wider canvassing campaign, to cover Simcoe, Port Dover, Port Byron, Port Rowan, Caledonia, Cayuga and Tillsonburg. Names of eligibles in these regions have already been obtained, and prospects of many recruits are in view. Lt. McKissock, Lt. Walsh and Lt. Pearce visited Galt and the vicinity on Saturday obtaining no direct results, but discovering the possibilities presented by a large list of names of supposedly eligible men. The officers met with fine treatment and a cordial reception from all in Galt.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI. With fitting solemnity and the customary services, the feast of Corpus Christi was observed yesterday at St. Basil's church, when at High Mass a special sermon for the occasion was preached by Very Rev. Dean Brady, and followed by a procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the church. The school children marched in the fore of the procession, a number of the smallest girls strewing flowers before the priests. After the procession the Blessed Sacrament was exposed upon the altar for the remainder of the day. The feast of Corpus Christi is observed in the Catholic church throughout the world, and in Catholic countries processions take place on that day through the principal streets, attended by all.

HEROES' DAY. Heroes' Day was observed yesterday at Colborne Street Methodist Sunday School by special services, and the unveiling of an honor roll of members of the Battalion. The unveiling was on active service. The opening prayer by Mr. John Mann was followed by a delightful solo "For King and Country" by Mr. S. Sanderson, and a recitation by Miss Margaret Reid, "Sons of England, Sons of France," composed by her brother, "O Canada" was admirably rendered by a class of girls. Following which came the unveiling of the honor roll, by the teacher of the Pathfinder class, Mr. Herb. Hutson, and the president, Ross Deagle. The pastor, Rev. Lessons relating to great heroes were read by Mr. Fred Harp, Harold Eastcott and Jessie Arnold. Stories of great British heroes were related by Mrs. E. Alderson and Mr. Pryce, and an address delivered by Rev. Lewellyn Brown, all of which were very interesting and inspiring. Patriotic songs were sung led by 10 boys playing kazoos. During the singing of "Canada" over fifty members of the Primary department marched around the school carrying flags. This proved to be a very inspiring feature. Misses Ariel Savage and Marjorie Hammond rendered a very pleasing duet. Altogether the session was a most instructive and profitable one. The annual picnic will be held at Mohawk Park on July 8.

THE REPLY OF CARRANZA MEANS WAR OR PEACE

Declaration of Mexico's Policy Expected Any Moment at Washington.

AMERICAN VERSION OF THE MIGHT

It is Said That U. S. Troops Were Partly to Blame For Clash.

Washington, June 26.—Whether a state of war shall exist between the United States and the de facto government of Mexico depends upon the formal declaration of policy by General Carranza, expected hourly today in response to the note telegraphed to Mexico City yesterday by Secretary of State Lansing.

Men Must be Released. The American Government will insist upon the immediate release of the cavalrymen captured at Carrizal as demanded in the note, but high officials of the administration explain the course to the United States will be determined by Carranza's final statement of his intentions toward the American expedition in Mexico to protect the border rather than on the specific circumstances of the Carrizal incident.

Nothing Offensive Yet. The war department had not received at an early hour the letter from Captain Lewis S. Morey, of the Tenth Cavalry, giving the first official American version of the fighting at Carrizal. It had been advised, however, that Morey was safe at one of General Pershing's camps, and a complete report on the affair was expected promptly.

American Aggressors? The published text of Capt. Morey's letter was construed as indicating that the American forces was to some extent responsible for the clash. Officials noted this fact, but said that an official account from the American side would be the basis of judgment rather than the hurried note written by a man who was expecting death, and was suffering from wounds and thirst.

Caused Consternation. It was pointed out, however, that Secretary Lansing's note did not found its demands upon a statement that the Mexicans precipitated the fight. Apparently the question has no direct connection with the course President Wilson is pursuing. The Mexican note saying Carranza personally directed that General Trevino resist any American troop movement in Mexico, except in retirement, caused consternation.

The Washington Government construes this action as a formal avowal of deliberately hostile action. It demands that if this is Carranza's purpose he so state through regular diplomatic channels.

HONOR ROLL OF COLBORNE STREET CHURCH UNVEILED LAST EVENING

Lt.-Col. Colquhoun Paid Tribute to Brave Men at the Front.

AN APPEAL BY MR. COCKSHUTT

Outlined the Result of Failure and Asserted Sacrifice Was Necessary.

In the highest degree inspiring and impressive was the service conducted last evening in Colborne St. Methodist church when an honor roll containing the names of some sixty members and adherents of that church on active service was unveiled. In the presence of a large congregation stirring addresses were delivered by Hon. Lt.-Col. W. F. Cockshutt, Lt.-Col. M. A. Colquhoun and Rev. W. E. Baker.

Efficiency of Prayer. The usual devotions opened the service, the congregation being led in prayer by Rev. Capt. Lavell, representing Lt.-Col. Cutcliffe of the 125th at the service. Following the reading of the Scripture lesson, Rev. W. E. Baker spoke briefly urging the diligent application of all who remained at home to prayer, as one of, if not the most influential factor in obtaining victory for our cause. "As the hands of Moses were held up in prayer by his followers, if we hold up our hands, the battle will go with us."

The Rev. Mr. Baker also read the list of names which now appear upon the honor roll, and stating that letters had been sent to all of these heroes informing them of the action being taken by the Colborne street church to show its appreciation of their sacrifices.

Lt.-Col. Colquhoun's Tribute. "Colborne St. Church," said Lt.-Col. Colquhoun, commander of the 4th Battalion, "has every reason to be proud of the long list of men she has sent to the front. Many of them I know personally and have been in their battalion; and a finer, braver set of men never set foot in France." Col. Colquhoun went on to express his thanks to the Brotherhood of the Luffen Rifles and to the members of the church for their remembrance upon his birthday recently, and to make an appeal to all to write as often as possible to the men in the trenches. "You have every reason to feel proud of these men," continued the speaker. "They are the men who are at the front from this church, fighting for King and Country."

With his last words, Lieutenant Colonel Colquhoun unveiled the two tablets of honor, the choir then rendering "O Canada" as assisted by a chorus of twelve girls from the Sunday school.

A Time for Sacrifice. Hon. Lt.-Col. W. F. Cockshutt, in opening, paid high tribute to Lt.-Col. Colquhoun, who left Brantford less than two years ago, a captain and had now returned lieutenant-colonel, and, more, bearing the D.S.O., the most coveted of British distinctions. The speaker went on to point out the enormity of the present struggle, and the need for all available men. "A man's life is not measured in years," explained Col. Cockshutt. "The true measure of life is what has been accomplished. It is what to the front do not die, but if they must do so, in what better cause could they lay down their lives. The present crisis is a time for sacrifice as never before. The result of the war will not all be evil; thousands upon thousands of us will derive from it faith stronger than before, we shall learn to know sacrifice and service as we had not done in the past."

The Results of Failure. Should the cause of the Allies fail, continued the speaker, it would mean setting back the wheels of progress 300 years. All must unite to keep burning the lights kindled by our forefathers, the lights which had blazed and given light all down the shores of time. The speaker made a plea for soldiers missing and prisoners of war, that they should be remembered in prayers in no less measure than the fighting, the wounded and the fallen.

Special Music. Special music was rendered during the evening by the choir, including several patriotic selections as well as the anthems "The Nation's Prayer" and "The Hymn of Peace." Solos were admirably given by Mr. H. E. Aycliffe and Miss Butler. Those occupying seats upon the platform were Lt. Col. Cockshutt, M.P., Lt. Col. M. A. Colquhoun, Rev. Mr. Baker, Rev. Capt. Lavell and Lt. Col. Harry Radical Wing is Stronger. Berlin, via London, June 26.—The radical wing of the Socialist party, representing the minority group in the Reichstag, which succeeded from the party organization, has gained a pronounced victory over the old organization of the Berlin executive committee. This local committee was organized, the old organization being ousted by more than a four-fifths majority. The new committee includes Rosa Luxemburg, a radical Socialist and active member of the minority, who was sent to prison for several months soon after the war began after being tried on the charges of counselling German officers and non-commissioned officers of abusing their men.

CHANCELLOR M'CRIMMON AT PARK BAPTIST

Head of McMaster University Preached Excellent Sermon Yesterday.

Rev. W. H. Wrighton preached in the morning an excellent sermon on Christian fellowship and responsibility. The text was from the words contained in the First Epistle of John, last chapter, verses 1-3.

A rare treat was enjoyed in listening to the splendid address given by Chancellor McCrinmon of McMaster University, of Toronto. It was Educational Sunday with all Baptist churches in the province yesterday, and Park church was honored in having Chancellor McCrinmon to present the claims of McMaster University and Woodstock College at Toronto, and the College of Woodstock. The denomination is asked for $20,000 this year to meet the demands upon these institutions, created by stringency caused by the present war.

The Chancellor declaimed in forceful language that there were no better qualified or equipped educational institutions than those whose cause he was pleading at this time. If he were not engaged in teaching in McMaster, he would be preaching the Gospel, but he believed that he and his colleagues were doing a greater work than they would be by serving individual churches, in preparing hundreds of young men for the preaching of the Gospel in home and foreign fields. Every part of the Dominion and the world at large was reaping great and lasting benefit from the educational institutions of this country—especially such institutions as McMaster University, Moulton and Woodstock Colleges. The moral and Christian influence

Recital at the Conservatory

Dowling, who opened the entertainment with a few brief and suitable remarks, following which a program of vocal, piano and violin selections was most capably rendered, the following boys and girls taking part:—Gordon Hendry, James Irving, Carl Lewis, Andrew, Norman, Virtue, Alfred Penn, Doris Castle, Mona Lavelle, Louise Cutcliffe, Douglas McDonald, Muriel Hendry, Isaac Corsonsky, Janet Patterson, Joe Mooney, Winona Gavitz, Lila and Lillian Wilde, Leonard Sovereign, Frances McCauley, Marian McCubbin, Margaret Fraser, Ian Dowling, Bernice Webster, Mary Wallace, Norah Moskel, Leon Wallace, Frederica Potts, Marian Pinbay, Miss Lambie, Ella Disher, Alice Harley, Mary Knill, Louise Legger, Alice Hinchmough, Sophie LeSager, Rita Muir, Aileen Huff, Ada Messer, Grace Crawford, Kathleen Austin, Margaret Reid, Lillian Day, Jean Walton, Pearl Lamb, Florence Minard, Marian Lyle, Jean Malliger.

THE WESTERN FAIR. London, Ont., Sept. 8th to 10th. The amusement program at the Western Fair, London, Ontario, this year promises to be an especially attractive one. Here are a few of the acts under contract. Lawrence and Sturtillo, a comedy duo act, which is simply wonderful. Dio's Dog and Pony Circus; this is the act the older people like to take the children to see. Talsler Bros., two Japs doing some wonderful feats. Rice, Sully and Scott, a comedy rubber act, something new and novel. The Dayton Family, twelve people, who give a remarkable exhibition. The four Aerial Bells, the greatest aerial artists, and others. The new steel grand stand, with every seat a good one, will be filled no twice daily. A grand display of fireworks by the International Fireworks Co. of London every night. The Meyerhoff Carnival Co. will fill the Midway with a fine lot of good clean shows. Two special events on the track daily. Everything will be in full swing at this year's exhibition September 8th to 10th. All information from the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.

Yale men eager for call to arms, and make preparedness chief topic of speeches. A class of more than 300 young women was graduated from Wellesley College. Edward E. McCall has been appointed receiver of Madison Square Garden, New York.

NEWS NOTES. The members of the volunteer fire brigade who fought the great Vancouver fire thirty years ago, held a re-union dinner in North Vancouver. Corp. T. D. Curtis, of New Westminster, B.C., of the 29th Battalion, who was wounded at St. Eloi, is back at the front. West Virginia celebrated its fifty-third birthday. The whole State took a holiday, proclaimed by Gov. Hatfield and the Mayors of the cities and towns.

Tribute to Late Mr. J. J. Hawkins

Goderich and Kincardine Papers Recall His Excellent Attributes

The late John J. Hawkins has been very kindly spoken of by many papers throughout the province. The Goderich Signal says:—"A man who for many years had a prominent place in political life, Mr. J. J. Hawkins, of Brantford, died recently at the age of 76 years. Mr. Hawkins took a very active part in the National Policy campaign of the late 70's, and afterwards was known for many years as one of the Conservative 'war-horses' of Ontario. Mr. Robert Henry, ex-M.P., of Windsor (at present of Goderich), was intimately associated with Mr. Hawkins for a number of years, and he attended the funeral of his old friend."

The Kincardine Reporter also spoke of him as follows:—"There passed away in Brantford recently, in the person of John J. Hawkins, ex-M.P., a man of splendid ability. Thirty years ago he was called the silver-tongued orator of the Grits, and no political gathering of note in the interest of the Conservative party was complete without his presence. He was an Irish Roman Catholic allied with the tradition of greatness of the Emerald Isle. He possessed a splendid command of language and a warm sympathetic nature gave him power to sway his hearers with a voice of musical sweetness. He was a personal friend of Sir John A. Macdonald, and it was believed at one time Mr. Hawkins would have been the Catholic representative of Ontario in the Dominion cabinet."

"Mr. Robert Henry, ex-M.P., now of Goderich, was a companion in arms with Mr. Hawkins in many of their platform battles. Henry delivered the sledge hammer blows, calling a spade a spade, and Hawkins followed with his eloquence soothing the ruffled feelings of the Grits. Politics to-day are pink tea affairs alongside the game of twenty-five years ago. Men were in earnest then. Nowadays, it seems as if the first consideration that arises is, what will it cost me to make an offensive speech? Result—The art of speaking is becoming a thing of the past."

Rain Stopped Contest; Stars 215th by

The Daily Shower, in This City League Baseball Game Played Showed Descriptions.

Rain which fell on Saturday afternoon took a hand in the city league games by cutting the Stars-215 encounter short in the first of seven innings, and preventing a Cubs from clashing with the Ales going out at five o'clock. The 215 inning of the first game—in which baseball of every variety and descent was dished up—being 8 to 7. The Stars, that club has mounted the step above the solitaires in the lead standing.

First Home Run. The game commenced with Bu Frank pitching for the 215th. The game on the mound for the Stars distinguished himself by hitting the first home run of the season in the 3rd inning, while in the fifth he slammed out a double. The seventh inning, he obtained single, for which he receives credit in the records, as the game finally terminated at the end of sixth inning.

215th Took Lead. The Stars accomplished nothing their first half of the first, three going out at five o'clock. The 215th jumped into the lead in their first when Wood walked, Armitage safe on a fielder's choice, which made B. Brown sacrificed, and the 215th scored more. A mix-up occurred in the Stars' fourth, when Sayles batted out of his turn; but Cleator batted for Johnson, and the Stars netted two runs on a single. Powell, Cooper's sacrifice. Say single, Cleator's infield out, and Sears' two-run homer.

Worked Double Steal. In their half of the fourth, 215th gained one run, when Cleator who took the mound, hit Gut with the ball. Beckett singled, and Gut scored. An action was taken. The Stars netted two runs on a single. Powell, Cooper's sacrifice. Say single, Cleator's infield out, and Sears' two-run homer.

Again in the Lead. With the 215th at bat, Franks was hammered by Armitage and O'Riley for singles, and Brown for a double, which resulted in two runs for the soldiers. The score once more. A mix-up occurred in the Stars' fourth, when Sayles batted out of his turn; but Cleator batted for Johnson, and the Stars netted two runs on a single. Powell, Cooper's sacrifice. Say single, Cleator's infield out, and Sears' two-run homer.

London, June 26.—The anxiety arisen here over the success of the Germans Saturday in gaining a footing in the village of Fleury, lies the ridge that overlooks French lines as far as the last tier before Verdun. CRAWLED INTO HOLE MADE PULLING TREE STUMP AND WAS COVERED WITH EARTH

Afterwards Worked Out of the Hole and Ran Away, But Was Caught at the Border, Was French Soldier's Fate—Crawled Under Barb Wire Charged With 10,000 Volts, and Got Into Holland.

Paris, June 26.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Sergeant Lator of the 224th French infantry, taken prisoner at the battle of Guise during the retreat of the French army from Charleroi, has just given the details of his final escape from Germany after two unsuccessful attempts, in one of which he had himself buried alive, and in the other recaptured by ruse after he had gotten into Dutch territory.

How the Idea Came

After describing how he and his comrades were taken to a prison in Germany, Lator says he saw his first chance when sent with a detachment of French prisoners to clear a piece of woods. Most of the work was simply digging up stumps, and this suggested the idea "I will throw myself into the excavation of one of the stumps," said to my comrades, "and when the sentinel's back is turned you will cover me with earth."

Jumped Into the Hole

"The morning of April 9, I caught the sentinel off his guard blowing at the fire, trying to make it burn, while I was working at a stump that had just been uprooted. I slipped into the hole face downward with a sack under my chin and a clump of ferns in front of my face to protect my mouth and serve as a sort of a breathing pad; a few seconds later I felt cold earth falling upon my feet and legs. After the lower part of my body had been covered, my comrades threw roots and branches over my head and shoulders to prevent me suffocating.

Sentinel Walked On Him

"I remained there until half-past eleven, the earth settling all the time and weighing heavier and heavier upon me. At a quarter past eleven one of the German sentinels walked over me. That was the last I knew until I felt an atrocious burning sensation in one hand. I had lost consciousness after the sentinel had walked over me, with my left hand just sticking out of the hole, but it was impossible to support the sunlight and had to burrow again for a few moments.

Aid of Pocket Compass

"When I looked out again, my comrades were marching off to their barracks; my opportunity had come. I had to be quick for 300 yards away was the chief of the detachment of guards counting the prisoners; in a few minutes my disappearance would be known and the alarm given. I ran to a marsh on the other side of the road that passed along the wood; then, in order to put my pursuers off the scent, I ran toward a mine in the direction opposite to that which I was obliged to finally take. I showed myself to peasants travelling near that mine, then turning into a wood where I was concealed from view. I took the opposite direction and made for Holland, the aid of a little pocket compass.

Speed and Silence

"Passing along beside a farm, I saw some of my comrades who were employed there, and observed that there was general agitation, from which I knew that the alarm had been given. I then went toward the river Lippe, crossed the bridge and went straight through the town of Altern, concealing my visage from many persons I met by continually blowing my nose with my handkerchief. Speed was my principal preoccupation, silence the second. I took off my shoes and made thirty miles through the woods bare-footed, over briars and branches that brought the blood after the first mile or two. I approached Borken, near the Dutch frontier the next morning at 5 o'clock, and as I neared the village I put my shoes on again and resolutely took the high road.

Had No Panics

"The first man I met in crossing the village of Borken was a German who simply gazed at me. A few hundred yards from the frontier I met a bicyclist, who inspired me with more caution than any person I had met. I ran into a little wood and concealed myself for half an hour. When I came out another bicyclist came up behind me,

BRITISH COMMENCE BIG BOMBARDMENT

Open General Artillery Engagement From La Bassée to Somme.

London, June 26.—The British artillery has developed great activity along the whole front in Flanders, Sir Douglas Haig reported in his official communique last night. In some quarters this news is taken as foreshadowing a general offensive. Artillery actions between the British and Germans have been fought at several points. The heaviest shelling has been proceeding about Neuville St. Vaast, south of Wailly, and north of the Ypres-Menin road. About the Thiépval-Sonagez, the Germans did a considerable amount of shelling with trench mortars and artillery.

The Germans in their report Sunday said that the British have developed pronounced artillery activity along their front between La Bassée Canal and the Somme. The fire was started Saturday and was continued without interruption last night. Lens was heavily bombarded, and gas was discharged over the German lines.

The British artillery was more active than usual along the whole front on Saturday. The Germans retaliated by bombarding the British positions about Authuille wood, Ransart and Ypres.

Sir Douglas Haig reports that the northward of the Hohenzollern road the Germans exploded a mine a short distance in front of the British trenches, but that no damage was done.

A raid on the British trenches started after a bombardment was driven off northwest of Loos. The Germans left three dead on the British parapets. A party of the enemy that tried to cut the British wire north of the Douve River was driven off, leaving two dead.

Five hostile kite balloons were destroyed by the British Sunday afternoon. German aircraft were active on Friday, and a reconnaissance of six machines which attempted to cross the British lines was driven back. A British machine descended to a height of 900 feet, attacked some horse transports and caused a stampede.

Later information about the use of gas near Messines shows that the enemy bombarded the British lines with asphyxiating gas shells.

CANADIANS HONORED FOR THEIR PROWESS

Gallantry on the Field Rewarded by Military Cross and Medals.

London, June 26.—A number of additional Canadians have been singled out for honors. Lieut. Henry Hobbs has been given the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry on many occasions, notably on the morning of the 22nd of the 22nd battalion; Lieut. John Arnold Hackson, of the 29th battalion; Robert Powell, of the 4th engineers, and Lieut. George Speer, of the 21st battalion.

The Distinguished Service Order has been awarded to the following: Lieut.-Col. Griesbach, 49th battalion, for conspicuous gallantry and skill in handling his battalion during a heavy bombardment and subsequent attack by the enemy; on another occasion he was prominently responsible for the rescue of several men buried by shell fire.

Capt. Evelyn William Uniake, of the 5th Cavalry, was awarded the Military Cross for gallantry when a party of the enemy penetrated an unoccupied portion of our trench the captain organized bombing parties, one of which he led himself, though twice severely wounded, he continued fighting until the enemy was driven out.

H. A. Craig, of the Patriciae, picked up an enemy bomb which had fallen in the middle of a group of four bombers and threw it over the parapet, where it immediately exploded. He thereby saved many casualties.

Company Sergeant-Major Miles, 49th battalion, during a heavy bombardment by the enemy, he moved from place to place over the open under heavy fire, directing and encouraging the men and rescuing buried men. He has frequently been thought to notice for his bravery.

score of boys gave us chase, but we let them in the rear and all nightfall had rid ourselves of all pursuers and had the entire night to put distance between them and ourselves. It was 3 o'clock in the morning of December 24th that we arrived at a barrier of innumerable lines of barbed wire that proved to us that we were on the Dutch frontier. We let the most of our trousers among those wires, but we were finally safe. A farmer near the frontier took us in, freshened up the fire in our honor, opened 24th the roads and gave us good cheer, and on Christmas Eve we had the joy of listening to the Marseillaise played by a musician of the little town. After we had distanced the sentinels, a

Whole Village of Ville Marie Near Haileybury Terrified by Bandits. USED DYNAMITE ON BANK SAFE

Little Boy Was Shot Twice and Village Set on Fire by Explosion.

Haileybury, Ont., June 26.—A desperate attempt to hold up and terrify a village, wreck and rob a bank branch of the Quebec bank, shattered at midnight Saturday in Ville Marie, a small village on the Quebec side of Lake Timiskaming, twenty-five miles south of Haileybury. The attempt was made by seven men, who between twelve and one o'clock broke into the Ville Marie branch of the Quebec bank, shattered the door of the vault and attempted to dynamite and blow open the safe. Two young clerks named Damon and Chener were sleeping over the bank and made their escape in their night clothes. Rushing into the village hotel the Bayview, they gave the alarm. The proprietor, accompanied by two guests, all unarmed on going out in the street found that five men armed with rifles and revolvers were on guard outside, while two others on the inside were making desperate efforts to crack open the safe. Henry de Marche, the manager, lived next door to the bank and on making his appearance with his wife and child was threatened with instant death. A woman putting her head out of a window in an adjoining house was ordered to put out the light having first been shot at.

With the second explosion in the attempt to blow it open, the safe was blown out of the bank building and the robbers left, some on a horseback and others by foot. A little boy twelve years old named Marlow, got too close, however, to the robbers, who shot him down in the ankle and his leg is so badly shattered that amputation may be necessary.

With the building burning and a general conflagration feared the terrified inhabitants of the village spent a fearful night; telegraph wires were cut and in the rear. Following this explosion flames burst out, and fearing that the light of the burning building would disclose their identity, the robbers left, some on a horseback and others by foot. A little boy twelve years old named Marlow, got too close, however, to the robbers, who shot him down in the ankle and his leg is so badly shattered that amputation may be necessary.

At dawn men were sent out in boats to the Ontario side and the police of New Liskeard, Haileybury and other northern towns were notified, meaning the example of total abstinence set by King George.

The petition signed as a result of the campaign bore the names of 40,000 women in the Edinburgh district appealing to the government to enforce prohibition during the war.

PREMIER BORDEN MAY TAKE TRIP WEST

Need For His Presence in London Removed by Visit of Sir Geo. Foster.

Ottawa, June 26.—Sir Robert Borden may pay a visit to the West this Summer or early in the Fall, instead of going to England. Sir George Foster's presence in London has to a considerable extent, removed the need for the trip, which the Prime Minister contemplated making, and his present intention is to remain in Canada, unless some new occasion for his presence in London should arise. He has made no plans for a Western trip, but those in close association with him state that a visit to the West is more likely now than a visit to England.

Sir Robert and Hon. Frank Cochrane have gone to New York in connection with the selection of a railway investigating commission.

Sir George Foster will remain in London until the latter part of July, and together with Sir George Perley will represent Canada at such conferences as are held in connection with trade questions.

Sir George Perley may return to Canada for a short visit in the Fall in connection with his business interests in this country. It was thought that he might cough during the Summer, but this is now said to be improbable.
