CARD.

To Friends & Strangers.

AFTER an experience of over four years in selling the New York Union Piano Company's Pianos, (made under the direction of J. P. Hale at the corner of 4th Avenue and 15th Street, New York) with the instruments of some of the other leading manufacturers, we have decided to drop all others and confine our sales to the Union Pianos!

Being fully satisfied, after having sold over 800 of these splendid instruments in New York, Cincinnati and St. Louis, that they are the most toned and most durable Pianos now made. They have given us and our agents less trouble than any Pianos we have ever dealt in, and we would invite both dealers and customers to try them in preference to any other now made. THEY ARE SUPERIOR IN EVERY PARTICULAR.

is the leather war now going on between their opponents on the south side of Wyndham-st.

We do not believe in both banks, but we deal with fact and leave the verdict in the hands of the intelligent people of Wellington. We are prepared to prove, and we positively affirm, notwithstanding all the puffing and blowing which has become the order of the day, that PREST & HEPBURN, Wyndham Street, Guelph, manufacture more

And employ double the number of workmen of any other establishment in Wellington. We invite the public to call and look through our factory, and they will be convinced that we are telling the truth, and nothing but the truth. A great deal has been said for and against machine made Boots and Shoes. Now we believe, and we are confident that every well-balanced mind in Wellington will agree with us, that the best machinery used in manufacturing Boots and Shoes is the better. All our staple Boots and Shoes are made by hand, which will be admitted to be superior to any machine made Goods. We have now on hand the largest and best assortment of Boots and Shoes ever offered to the people of Wellington, which we will sell as cheap as the cheapest. Local and Miscellaneous

There is not enough wheat coming in to the Salem market to keep the mill running.

The annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Society will take place this evening in the Town Hall.

On Monday last a lad named Linton, of New Aberdeen, had his leg broken by a kick from a frolicsome colt.

Mrs. Mary Small, of Maine, has one hundred and nineteen great grandchildren living. Multum in parvo.

A man named George Scott, of St. Catharines, dropped dead on Monday, while under an attack of delirium tremens.

Michigan has a city of 3,900 inhabitants settled almost exclusively by Dutch. It supports three papers published in the Dutch language, which is the only tongue used in business and in ordinary conversation.

A track man on the Grand Trunk Railway, while removing a hand-car from the track between Brockville and Lynn, on Saturday last, was caught by the train and killed instantly. He leaves a wife and seven children.

In the recent elections the Republicans lost thirty-five members of Congress, and but for Grant's personal popularity, would have been put in a minority in the House of Representatives. Fraudulent Democratic votes are alleged as the cause thereof.

A new Lutheran Church in Hespeler was opened for divine service on Sunday, the 1st inst. Sermons in German were preached in the forenoon and evening, and services, in English, were conducted by Rev. Mr. McKenzie in the afternoon. The congregation have purchased an organ at about $250.

A breach of promise case was lately tried at St. Thomas, and the jury adjudged that Miss Sarah McLachlin had her feelings hurt, and her prospects damaged by Mr. Alex. Campbell, to the amount of $400. Perhaps that will make Alex. toe the mark the next time he promises to marry anybody.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—We understand that the "brethren of the mystic tie" of Speed Lodge here, intend celebrating the approaching anniversary of St. John the Evangelist on a magnificent scale. The affair last year was a good one, but it is intended to eclipse it this year. The committee to carry out the arrangements have been appointed and are busily engaged in their labours. As usual only a limited number of tickets will be issued.

A CHRISTIAN CONVENTION.—The Convention is emphatically the age of conventions, and we perceive that one of the most important of these gatherings is to be held in New York on the 17th inst. The subjects to be discussed in Convention are of vital importance, and the speakers are to include H. W. Beecher, Dr. Tyn, Brother Moody, and many other men of celebrity in the religious world. The Convention is intended to draw out the strongest men of all evangelical denominations, and its result will undoubtedly be highly important.

COMPLIMENTARY SUPPER.—Mr. E. N. King, station master at Fort Erie, and son of Mr. W. King, of Guelph, being about to remove to a more important position, his friends entertained him at an oyster supper on Friday night last. The party consisted of some of the employees of the Grand Trunk and Great Western Railway Companies, a number of the leading men of Fort Erie, and a few who had come over from Buffalo to do honour to the guest of the evening. Mr. King made a neat speech in reply to the toast of the evening, and in concluding bade his friends a kind farewell. A large number of people assembled at the station on Monday to witness his departure.

WELL ABUSED.—Mr. Howe, as he, no doubt expected, is receiving any amount of abuse from the more violent of the repeal journals, because of his recent letter. They cannot find words strong enough to express their indignation. He is a "traitor," a "Judas," and everything else that is bad, and the ants are called on to arouse in their night, and disown him forever. Mr. Howe is too old a politician to be frightened by these things. He has taken his stand, and there he will remain,—or we are very much mistaken in the man—firm and true to the end. After the first burst this violence will die out; and the chances are that many of Mr. Howe's old friends, personal and political, will, before another summer comes, support the policy he now advocates.

SOCIAL IN PARSLEY BLOCK.—The Parsley Block Sabbath School social, held in school No. 5, on the 6th inst., was attended with the greatest success. A number of excellent recitations and readings were delivered during the evening by Messrs. Forest, Hamilton, Scott, Laidlaw, McCorkindale and Hood. A choir composed of the young people of the locality gave an enlivening influence to the evening's enjoyment. But perhaps the greatest enjoyment of the evening was the refreshments and good cheer provided by the ladies in the form of dainty cookies and those "cups which cheer but not inebriate." In looking over the well filled room one could see a beautiful illustration of the proverb "a man is a social being," depicted in the countenance of every one present, old and young. In a word, the whole proceedings were of the most pleasant and profitable character.

The Belle River Tragedy.

Our readers have not forgotten the dreadful crime which was perpetrated in Belle River, Ontario, on Saturday night, August 29. Two flouring and saw-mills in a quiet village were burned, and in the remains of one were found the charred and mutilated remains of an old man, Abraham Van Orden, his wife and their grandson, in such a position as to indicate foul play. Shooting was heard in their mill by the neighbours shortly before the flames were discovered, and both buildings were fired on their windward side. Mr. Van Orden was known to keep money in the house, and his wife also had stowed away several hundred dollars in currency, besides two watches and other jewellery. Upon the discovery of the crime, public suspicion was directed against Moses Robarsh and C. S. Chisholm, who were reputed not to have been on good terms with Van Orden. So intense was the popular excitement, and threats of lynching were freely made from this impassioned populace were impelled a coroner's jury, which gave to the examination all the deliberation possible under the circumstances, and finally brought in a verdict stating, in the opinion of the jury, that the Van Orden family came to their death at the hands of Moses Robarsh and S. C. Chisholm. From the facts then known there might be construed circumstances to warrant the above verdict, but the authorities do not seem to have been satisfied, and accordingly put detectives to work. These latter investigations have resulted so as to greatly increase the chances for the conviction of Robarsh and Chisholm, when their trial takes place at the Assizes, which begin in Sandwich. Some suspicion at first rested upon an American named Burlingame, but on examination his story was so straight that he was discharged. He said in substance that he spent the night in question at the house of a cousin named Smith, on the Turk farm, so-called, a short distance southwest of Windsor. Smith, however, at the time, disclaimed all relationship with Burlingame, and when parties interested pressed him with questions, he left his farm and his country. It is not charged that Smith is in the United States, but he was seen until yesterday afternoon, when he was decoyed across the river and examined before stipendiary magistrate McMicken. Some new and important facts have been elicited, but cannot be made public until the testimony shall be given in open Court.—Detroit Post.

The Ballot and the Boot Jack.

Once more into the breachers dear friends, today with united another effort, heroic although ineffectual, on the part of the female of America to get her vote recorded. Lucy Stone Blackwell went to the poll in Newark and offered her ballot to Grant. Nay, more; with force and arms she took her mother-in-law, whom in the few years of her married life she had debauched and debilitated, to the voting place, through a Radical hall into her aged and nerveless hand, and bore down upon the unhappy inspector of election two abreast. What happened could have been foretold. Man, proud man, dressed in a little brief authority refused to receive this contribution to his box, and Lucy went away with her mother-in-law, few and faint but fearless still. Nor was this instance isolated. In another part of New Jersey, the village of Vineland, one hundred and eighty-three women marched to the poll, one hundred with votes for Grant the residuary eighty-three with votes for Seymour and offered these sacrificial ballots likewise upon the shrine of the future. With that charming indiscretion which characterizes the sex, they had confided their intention each woman to some favored man, and the males took a truly hideous advantage of their confidence. For they provided separate receptacles for the votes of the fair, and into these those votes were put, the deluded depositors fondly dreaming that they had borne effectual part in the election. The wretchedly striped tickets, with them in a double box and kept the word of promise to the eye but broke to the hope, ruthlessly rent the beggarly account of empty boxes full fraught with the feature of femininity, and scattered their consecrated contents to the winds. These budding aspirations so cruelly crushed must give us pause.—N. Y. World.

Secularian Grants.

The Cornwall Freeholder says: Petitions, very simple, but cunningly framed, are being passed round here, and doubtless elsewhere throughout the Province, for presentation to the Legislature, praying for a continuance of the existing system of Secularian Grants. So cunningly were these petitions worded, that, we venture to say, half the names which will be subscribed to them will be given without the least suspicion in the minds of the subscribers that they are supporting Secularian Grants in their present form. We warn people to be on their guard. When they are asked to sign a petition for the usual public aid to our Superior Educational Institutions, let them not touch it. Our Superior Educational Institutions are not in danger; it is only sectarianism that is trying, now that its character has fallen into ill-repute, to obtain subsistence from the public chest under false pretences. One incident in this connection is worth relating. A venerable and distinguished clergyman, in this part of the Province, being called upon by the managing committee, of his church, the business being finished, he begged to detain his church trustees a moment, expressed his pleasure at the opportunity, and submitted to them a copy of the above mentioned petition. One said he did not sympathize with the prayer of the petition, as it could not sign it. The answer of another was to the same purport; while the third expressed the pleasure he would have in signing a contrary petition. We need scarcely say that the rev. gentleman was slightly nonplussed. Although a considerable number of names will be obtained to these petitions, yet the good sense of the people is decidedly against them.

Rockwood Bible Society.

At a meeting of French Bishops and Cardinals held recently in Rome, several reformatory measures were introduced, which, to the great surprise of a few conservative members of the Church, were favorably received by the majority. The first measure alluded to is to reverse the decision of the Council of Trent concerning the celibacy of the Catholic clergy. The second measure, in consequence of the first, is to declare that every Catholic priest could, with the permission of his superior, enter into the bonds of matrimony. The third measure is to abolish the Latin liturgy, and to substitute for it, as the Czar has done for the Greek church, the language of the nation in which the service would be performed. These measures are to be made the object of a report which will be submitted to the Council as soon as it will be in a position to take them into consideration.

American Despatches

New York, 12th.—The Times Washington special says: The best information attainable here on the subject of the Alabama claims is to the effect that since the State department rejected proposition to submit questions involved to arbitration, all the instructions to Minister Johnson have been withheld, and he has been proceeding on his own responsibility. His propositions have yet to be considered at the State Department, with which rests the question of approval or disapproval.

New York, 12th.—Washington special says: Gen. Grant says he will favor constitutional amendment, and making the suffrage question to be regulated throughout all the States by Congressional enactments, and making it universal in the North as well as in the South. He believes it practical to carry such an amendment, and will accordingly be set in motion as soon as Congress meets.

There are a number of rumours about the Americo-Cuban expedition in circulation this morning, but they are undoubtedly mere sensational canards.

Attorney Gen. Macdonald moved the second reading of the Bill to define the privileges, immunities and powers of the Legislative Assembly, and to give a summary protection to the persons employed in the publication of Sectional Papers.

The Bill was read a second time.

Several other bills were advanced a stage.

Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan

MEETING OF THE DIOCESAN SYNOD.

According to call, the special meeting of the Diocesan Synod assembled at Montreal on Tuesday for the election of a Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan.—Divine services were held in the Cathedral in the forenoon. The Bishop of Quebec, Toronto, Huron and Ontario were present, as well as a large number of clergy and laity. At three p. m., the synod met for business in the Cathedral school-room. Seventy out of seventy-seven clerical, and 120 out of 163 lay delegates were present. In the evening the House of Bishops sent a message to the Synod, stating that they had come to the determination that the Bishop of Montreal should be selected from amongst the Bishops or Episcopal body of the Dominion, and submitted the following names:—Bishops of Quebec, Ontario, Toronto, Huron, Fredericton and Nova Scotia. Next day a ballot was taken which stood as follows: Clerical votes cast, 73; necessary to a choice, 37. Bishop of Fredericton received 2 votes; Bishop of Nova Scotia, none; Bishop of Huron, none; Bishop of Ontario, none; Bishop of Ontario, 4; Bishop of Quebec, 33; Nays, 33.

The Lay votes cast were 59; necessary to a choice, 30. Bishop of Fredericton received 1 vote; Bishop of Nova Scotia, none; Bishop of Huron, none; Bishop of Toronto, 2; Bishop of Ontario, 1; Bishop of Quebec, 9; lost, 3; nays, 43.

There being no election, a message to that effect was sent to the House of Bishops, when they sent back the following: "The House of Bishops have resolved that the names of the Bishop of Newfoundland, the Bishop of Grahamstown, and the Bishop of British Columbia be submitted to the Diocesan Synod of Montreal, out of whom to make a selection of Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan." The message was accompanied by a note to the Dean from the Bishop of Huron, stating he did not concur in the above nomination.

A second ballot was then taken, which resulted as follows:—Clerical—whole number of votes, 68; necessary for a choice, 35. Bishop of British Columbia received 23 votes; Bishop of Newfoundland, 2; Bishop of Grahamstown; nays, 44. Lay—votes 58; necessary to a choice, 29; Bishop of British Columbia received 14; Bishop of Newfoundland, 1; Bishop of Grahamstown, none; nays, 41.

The vote thus resulted in the rejection of all the nominees. This was transmitted to the House of Bishops, and in a few minutes an answer that they were not prepared to present to submit any other names as candidates for the vacant See, than those which they had already sent down, and closing with a desire to adjourn the Synod until next May. A conference was, however, held with their Lordships which resulted in their concurring to adjourn till Thursday morning, and send down another set of names. It is thought they will submit the names already set down with that of the Bishop of Rupert's Land.

THE GUELPH POLICE COURT.

Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., Police Magistrate.

THURSDAY, 12th.—"Thos. Brown" was up again this morning, and his case as far as the jurisdiction of the Police Magistrate goes was disposed of. The evidence was complete, although the prisoner, with his usual impudence, ventured to question the fact. The Chief Constable had traced his peregrinations on Monday, through Eramoss to Eden Mills where he had disposed of two grey coats, two black coats, a pair of drawers, a shirt, and a lady's skin cloak to a store keeper in that place for $5. He at first asked $40, but the store keeper who thought he was a gipsey was not inclined to buy. Nevertheless the prisoner hung on, and finally, to get rid of him, as he thought, the store keeper offered him $5 for the lot. Brown instantly closed, and the goods and money were traced. All these articles together with a striped coat, a black overcoat, a pair of drawers, a striped cravat, and a checked shirt, which were found on the person of the prisoner, were produced in court, and identified by Mr. Rutherford. Nothing remained but to commit Brown for trial; and it is very desirable that he should be awarded a punishment proportionate to his villainy.

Volunteer Inspection.

There was a fair muster of the Guelph Artillery and Rifle Companies for inspection by Major Barretto, on Wednesday night. The Battalion Band was also subject to the Major's criticism. The Companies having been put through a number of evolutions, their arms and accoutrements were examined, and everything proving satisfactory to the Major he addressed the men briefly, in terms highly complimentary.

NEW BRUNSWICK BANK STOPPED PAYMENT.

The reported stoppage of the Commercial Bank in New Brunswick is confirmed. It is stated that the bank solicitors have advised the taking advantage of the clause in the Royal Charter, which authorizes the closing for sixty days, without forfeiting their charter. The cause of the stoppage is attributed to heavy losses, attending some exchange operations connected with the recent failures. The note-holders are supposed to be fully secured. The stockholders are liable to three times the amount of their shares.

Seduction Case.

At the Hamilton Assizes a suit was brought by Mr. James Harmer, a farmer in Blenheim, for the seduction of his daughter, against William Matherall. The girl is 20 years of age, and the defendant is about 26. The latter formerly carried on business as a shoemaker in the village of Plattsville, in the township of Blenheim, but has lately changed his quarters, leaving property behind him. The evidence showed that he induced the girl to go to Toronto with him, and seduced her under promise of marriage. He kept her concealed for some time in Toronto, where he at last left her. She then "hired out" but was found by a detective who had been sent to hunt her up. There was no defence made, and the jury assessed damages at $775.

COLLEGE GRANTS.

The question of government aid to denominational colleges in this Province has not yet been settled apparently, although if the friends of those institutions would take "No" for an answer, they certainly received it during the last session of the Ontario Legislature. Long before the estimates were brought down the question of continuing the usual grants to these colleges was debated, and though they found a few advocates, some writers contending for them out of filial love for alma mater, it was evident that the majority of the press and people were against them, and that the most prevalent feeling was, that for all the purposes of a higher education the University in Toronto was quite sufficient. The Government were inclined to think so too, for when the supplementary estimates, making the usual allowances to some half dozen sectarian educational institutions, were laid before the House, a very plain intimation was given that this was the last favour of the kind that was to be expected. It was a wise determination, and it is to be hoped that it will be carried out to the utmost; and that those who would seek the deep shades of the groves of Parnassus, and all the other pleasures derivable from a thorough acquaintance with classic lore, and other physical and natural science, will be accorded full liberty to pay all the tolls on the particular roads their whims lead them to travel in order to gain their destination, if they voluntarily forsake that which has been legally laid out, and which the voice of the country approves. But the adversaries of the Provincial University are not so easily put down, nor will they lightly yield an assent to the withdrawal of their accustomed donation. Fallacious arguments are being revived, and writers are reiterating assertions, which they themselves cannot possibly believe, that the institutions in whose favour they are begging are in no manner sectarian—all the advantages they possess being available by parties of every creed. Local feeling has also much to do in stirring up the present efforts to obtain a continuation of the grants to which we have referred. The inhabitants of every place which has a little college consider themselves in duty bound to protect it as sacredly as certain of the ancients guarded the palladium, and regard any interference with its prerogatives, or even a word of disparagement as a crime little short of sacrilege. Why should Toronto have everything its own way; why should the University there be endowed by a grant of public lands and colleges in other places receive nothing? For the very simple reason that the University is capable of affording the highest education to all Provincialists who may seek it, and that the best secular education the Province affords is to be had there. It will require the exercise of a considerable amount of firmness on the part of the Government to enable them to carry out their resolution of stopping the donations. Petitions, cunningly worded, praying for a continuance of the grants, are being laid in dozens before the Legislature. They want liberal and permanent—nothing short of permanent, mind ye—provision in aid of that distributive system of superior education, the claims of which have for a long time been recognized by successive Parliaments. But old things have passed away; the Ontario Legislature is in a position to deal with sectarian questions in a more untrammelled spirit than could the old House of Assembly; they do not require to reciprocate favours on these points; and they may cut off the "provision" without meeting opposition that would count more than a drop in the bucket.

MARRIAGES.

Social Party and Presentation at Knatchbull.

Some years ago there was erected in this neighbourhood, a building to serve for the purposes of holding a Sabbath-School, and as a meeting house when the services of a minister could be obtained. Rev. Mr. Wilkinson has presided in it during the past year, and has also taken a lively interest in the school. As the latter is about to close for the winter the friends held a social party on the 26th ultimo to mark the event. There was the usual amount of good things which were eaten in the usual way, and a collection, which proved to be a generous one, was afterwards taken up, in order that the Library might be replenished. Mr. A. D. Campbell, school teacher, ably presided, and after some recitations had been given, and speeches made, an address was presented to the Rev. Mr. Wilkinson, by the Superintendent, Teachers, and parents of the children, in which they stated, that they would feel they had been remiss in their duty did they not make some public acknowledgment of their gratitude for his valuable services in endeavouring to advance the interests of the school. When they took into consideration the fact that so much of his time was occupied with his pulpit ministrations, they felt doubly indebted for the extra tax upon his energies for their moral and spiritual good. As it was not in their power to render him that reward which they felt he deserved, they hoped he would be pleased to accept the address as a token of the deep gratitude which they felt for his Christian efforts on their behalf, and for his services as pastor. They also tendered their thanks to his partner in life for the sweet intercourse they had with her, and for the benefit of her Christian example. The address concluded with an invocation of the Divine blessing on the Rev. gentleman and all his family.

A reply in suitable terms having been made, the company continued to enjoy themselves for some time, and then retired to their homes reflecting on an evening well spent.

The potato crop in the neighborhood of Salem, we are informed, is not more than one half what it usually is; indeed, some farmers are not digging their potatoes at all, as they would not recompense the labour. Turnips are, in general, pretty good.

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

'We are safe yet,' he said, presently looking up, 'he has been wanting to get into the turret chamber. Have ye found what ye sought?'

'Confound it, what will we do then, for I must take the key back to his room, so that he may never know that it had been awa.'

'You can do so,' returned she sadly, 'for the search is in vain.'

'Never say that until we are hanged, for ye never ken what we may learn to-morrow. But what's that ye ha'e got in your hand?'

The attention of Mistress Spens was thus called to the rusted key which she unconsciously retained in her hand.

'What has happened?' queried the lady, wonderingly.

'Victory, victory,' cried Hornie, with another caper, and forgetting necessary caution in his mysterious delight.

'He still, be still, good friend, and tell me what this means,' exclaimed Mistress Spens, excitedly.

Hornie checked his fantastic movements and spoke composedly, but with glistening eyes.

'Hide ye there till I come back and then ye shall ken the meaning of it.'

Before she could attempt to stay him he darted down the staircase.

School Opening in Puslinch.

From our own Correspondent. According to announcement the new school lately erected in section No. 5, Puslinch, was opened on Tuesday night the 3rd inst. by a grand soiree. There were about two hundred present. The proceeds amounted to about $31.50, which we understand will be devoted to some school purpose. Mr. Kenneth McKenzie occupied the chair, and after calling upon the choir to sing some favourite pieces, he expatiated on the advantages derived from a good education, and congratulated the Trustees and the Section on the improved accommodation they had provided for their children. He then called on the Rev. Kenneth McDonald to address the meeting, who took for his subject education in its widest sense. He gave an able speech, dwelling strongly on the importance of religious education which fits a man for the life after this life, and concluded by singing a temperance song. Mr. Stirton, M.P., was next called on, who spoke of the advantages of education as illustrated in the cases of men who from humble spheres had by their thirst for knowledge, and by energy and perseverance risen to positions of great eminence and influence. The Rev. Mr. McKenzie, of Hespeler, also made an excellent speech on the same subject. In the course of the evening he also related a few anecdotes of a minister's wooing, which created a good deal of merriment among the ladies. At the close of the soiree the Rev. Mr. McKenzie, of Hespeler, also made an excellent speech on the same subject. In the course of the evening he also related a few anecdotes of a minister's wooing, which created a good deal of merriment among the ladies. At the close of the soiree the Rev. SABBATH SCHOOL SOCIAL IN EVER-TON.—There was a social held in the W. M. Church a few nights ago under the auspices of the W. M. Sabbath School. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was a large attendance of the friends of the Sabbath School present on the occasion. Mr. Japheth Tovel being moved to the chair, he called the meeting to order, and made a few preliminary remarks on the duties and responsibilities devolving upon the Superintendent and teachers of Sabbath Schools. Then followed several recitations, singing &c., by the children, and an excellent address by the Rev. J. Hough pastor of the church, all of which contributed to render the meeting very profitable and pleasant. The proceeds of the social to go toward getting a Sabbath School Library.—Con.

A CARD to THE PUBLIC.

THE GOLDEN LION

It is certainly marvellous that any community should be so excited over the great success that has attended the efforts of MR. HOGG to obtain in the first Manufacturing Districts of the World the very excellent, novel and substantial fabrics in all of the various classes of

Fancy and Staple Dry Goods & Millinery,

Shawls, Bonnets and Mantles,

READY-MADE CLOTHING, Buffalo Skins, Grain Bags, &c.

Indeed everything in the Mercantile line usually kept in a first-class establishment. That MR. HOGG'S efforts have been crowned with unprecedented success is beyond a doubt. The great bargain that he is daily giving causes his immense establishment to be crowded from early morning until night. His stock to select from is so large and varied that parties get suited without loss of time, let their taste be ever so difficult; and in addition, by being able to import all of his goods direct from the Manufacturers, to offer a saving of 12 1/2 per cent (12 1/2 cents on every dollar), over any establishment in Town.

All classes and descriptions of Clothing made to order by a first-class cutter, and sent free of charge to any part of Canada. JOHN HOGG, Guelph, October 31st, 1868. dw Golden Lion, Guelph.
