Mother and Doctor Too

Until the doctor comes, and for minor ailments and accidents, the mother must doctor her family. Tens of thousands of mothers have relied upon JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT, and have found it always reliable. It is used both externally and internally and it is the remedy for inflammation from any cause. Used continually for 50 years as a household remedy, its sustained popularity and increasing use every year are the best possible testimonials to its curative powers.

Johnson's ANODYNE LINIMENT

Its greatest value is in treating colic, cramps, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, biliousness, hiccups, indigestion, colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, influenza, neuralgia, rheumatism, muscle soreness and pain and inflammation in any part of the body. Sold in two sizes, 25c. and 50c. The larger size is more economical. If your dealer hasn't it send to us. Ask for I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Mass.

The Temple of Fame.
"How far away is the Temple of Fame?"
Said a youth at the dawn of day;
And he toiled and dreamed of a deathless name,
But the hours went by and the evening came,
That left him feeble, and old, and lame,
To plod on his cheerless way.

Marcia's Leaf.
(Zion's Herald.)
"Molasses candy!"
"What work's Mrs. Pries coming for?"
"Candy! A candy-pull! Such a childlike thing!"
"I'll eat it, it's no matter what it is," retorted her Cousin Frank.

"You think you'll have everything your own way, do you? You are mistaken! If you are mistaken because mother is away, I am a matter because father is away; and, as matter, I intend to have a candy-pull tomorrow evening."
"Not a drop of molasses shall be boiled in this house!"
"I'll send the jug down to be filled this very day."
"Thank! Much obliged. I'll make sure of them now!"
Marcia laughed contemptuously as her cousin swiftly left the room. "Do you think you can outstep me?" she called.

"Yes."
"Try!"
Frank, clattering down the stairs, made no reply. Marcia walked to the window which swept the street, and seated herself. Already her active brain was at work, and, as Frank, hearing a large jug in each hand, was halfway down the block, her plan of action was matured.

"What's the matter with the gas?" he said.
"Flitters, I see," answered Marcia.
"Flitters? Flitters? I'm going out."
"Try another burner," suggested Marcia, pleadingly stirring her coals.
"Try another," scornfully. "If one doesn't burn, another won't."
Nevertheless he lit every burner in the chandelier.
"So much light is unnecessary," commented Marcia.

"Where are you going?"
"Where I choose."
"You needn't sit up for me," said Frank, opening the door.
"I'll sit up for you. I know my duty. I shan't!"
"I'll daylight doth appear," trolled Frank as he ran down the steps. "I'll daylight doth appear."

Are You Going South
From the New England States?
The Best Route to Travel is from Boston to Norfolk, Virginia,
BY THE
Merchants' and Miners' Steamers.

The most elegantly fitted boats, finest state rooms and best meals. The rate including meals and state room is less than you can travel by rail, and you get rid of the dust and chattering of the train.
If you want to go South beyond Norfolk to Southern Pine and Elizabeth, the Water Health Resorts, or to Virginia, N. C., the Pennsylvania Colony headquarters, Funching, N. C., the New England, or to the States, Ga., the Ohio Colony and headquarters of the United States Southern Steamship Co., or to points in FLORIDA, you can connect with the Seaboard Air Line. For any particulars as to rates of travel address W. P. TURNER, General Passenger Agent, Baltimore, Md.

A Filipino Tragedy.
INSURGENT SHOT BY AMERICAN OFFICER PROVED TO BE HIS SON.
How strange is truth than fiction! For this is a true story, that has made a gallant officer of the United States army a deserter and exile because of remorse, says the Columbus correspondent of The New York Journal.

Making Ourselves.
One great fault with farmers is that they don't think enough for themselves. They depend too much upon others to shape their policies, their religion and politics as well. How many farmers are there in the land who go to town at stated intervals to get palates from their favorite merchants along political lines, thinking of course that as said merchant takes the daily paper and "keeps posted," he knows best what the farmer ought to do and think. It is indeed surprising how many people there are who get their ideas in this secondhand way instead of reading and keeping themselves posted and thinking for themselves. Too many do even worse than consult with their merchant, they hang around the courthouse and listen to the blabbing of politician from whom they get their inspiration. The greater wonder is that matters are not worse out of joint than they are. With the great majority of farmers doing the bidding of trickster politicians and men who earn their livelihood by their wits, they should not grumble if things do not go their way as much as they ought.

Cold Storage Wisdom.
Cold storage will not make a soundproof safe.
Cold storage will not make a rough, ill-shaped, rusty apple smooth.
Cold storage will not color red, pale, pink immature apple.
Cold storage will not remedy the havoc wrought by worms. I want to say in passing that intelligent, persistent spraying and cultivating will prevent it.
Cold storage will not remedy the damage done by rough, careless handling.
Fruit will not come out of cold storage any better than it was when it went in.
Cold will retard but not entirely prevent the spread of disease. Death is certain.
Cold storage will not make a two-inch pipe measure 2 1/2 inches. On the contrary, call to Frank and read "The Great War Spill out" for the thing to do, with unflagging interest. It was his birthday, but Marcia had not noticed it. He had felt somewhat better than he had for some time. He had been so busy with his work that he had not had time to think of his birthday. He had been so busy with his work that he had not had time to think of his birthday.

Paul Kruger is now travelling in a country where he is appreciated, and where he may enjoy a greater degree of comfort than was possible when he was president of a country whose seat of government was being continually shifted.

Newfoundland people evidently do not appreciate Mr. Reid's efforts to develop their country. He has been looked upon as the provincial over and governor of the ancient colony, but the result of the recent election was a direct blow at his monopoly of the great transportation service of the island.

The powers at Pekin are divided and unable to agree on the measure of punishment to be meted out to the leader of the recent insurrection. The United States, Russia, France and Japan favor a milder punishment than that proposed by Great Britain and the others.

Whatever may be the finding of the inquiry into the loss of the steamer Monticello, the disaster should lead to the exclusion of side-wheel passenger boats from the waters of the Bay of Fundy and the Atlantic coast. The Monticello had a good record, and weathered many a storm in the performance of the Bay and Atlantic coast trade.

The case of Russia is counted as a ruler on his death bed, and the great nations of the world are anxiously watching for some sign by which they may determine the future occupant of the throne.

Washington, Nov. 23.—President McKinley expresses that even if McKinley will be the ruler over a part of China before he retires from office on March 4, 1901, it will be strenuously denied that McKinley imperialism is to be extended into China.

A difficulty has arisen between Germany and Turkey. The Ottoman government proposes to send a German mission to the Red Sea, as a cooling station, and wishes to establish there a depot accessible to all the powers.

Germany, however, insists that she will not abandon the island.

Philippines Campaign.

Manilla, Nov. 24.—General MacArthur was asked whether the result of the presidential election in the United States was in any way responsible for the orders to push operations against the Filipinos.

He replied that the result of the election was merely coincidental with other features of the situation.

He added that the return of the soldiers and marines from China, with the accompanying loss of their pay, would increase the number of troops to 70,000.

The enlargement of the frontier, the calling of new troops, better roads, improved transportation, and the desire to make efficient use of the volunteers before their term of service expired in June, are all contributing to the most active campaign.

Concerning the reporting of 75,000 volunteers, General MacArthur said he favors the establishment of a standing army of 75,000 men, and the authorization of the President to increase it to 100,000 men.

The general also said he was charging the force in Gen. Young's district to nearly 7,000 men, that is, twelve times the force being sent.

General Hughes, in the Island of Panay, that more troops had been ordered to Southern Luzon, and that various column movements had been planned.

Delagoa Bay Award.

London, Nov. 21.—The award of $800,000, 5000 acres interest at five per cent from June 25, 1880, made by the arbitrator in the matter of the seizure of the Delagoa Bay Railway by Portugal was paid to the claimant this morning.

In addition to the principal of the award and the interest thereon, which makes a total of about five million dollars, Portugal paid $140,000 on account of the interest in 1880.

The Portuguese government has deposited securities valued at five million dollars in a London bank in the name of Ambassador Choate.

A large proportion of the award goes to the widow of the late Sir John A. MacArthur, who with a number of English capitalists, built the road and operated it until the Portuguese Government arbitrarily violated the concession it had granted and seized the line.

United States Army.

New York, Nov. 24.—It is learned from authoritative sources in the War Department, says a Washington special to the " Tribune," that a bill being prepared which will be presented to Congress providing for a permanent strength of fifty thousand men in the regular army and at the same time transferring authority to the President to do this number in case of need by adding called-up men in the existing organized companies without at all increasing the authorized complement.

This bill is in harmony with modern methods of organization, which tend to large companies and regiments.

DEAR SIR.—Mr. Marshall's letter in your last issue seems to call for a reply. In his letter he says that seven or eight Conservative times had the choice given them to get timber.

Will Mr. Marshall be kind enough to give the names of seven of those to whom he has the choice given them to get timber. Will Mr. Marshall be kind enough to give the names of seven of those to whom he has the choice given them to get timber.

He says that five or six embraced the chance. Will he be kind enough to give the names of five of them, as they do not seem to be certain whether there were five or six.

Not wishing to put him to extra trouble, I will only say the names of five, whom he asked to get timber when he knew they would vote Conservative. He says evidently I do not know my own friends in No. 18.

I am not quite so ignorant as Mr. Marshall imagines. I will give him the names of seven or eight.

He says that five or six embraced the chance. Will he be kind enough to give the names of five of them, as they do not seem to be certain whether there were five or six.

Not wishing to put him to extra trouble, I will only say the names of five, whom he asked to get timber when he knew they would vote Conservative.

He says evidently I do not know my own friends in No. 18. I am not quite so ignorant as Mr. Marshall imagines. I will give him the names of seven or eight.

Tone of Gifts Lying Idle.

Protestors, Nov. 11.—In a large store in Pretoria a hundred tons of gifts for the soldiers are lying undelivered. A portion addressed to individual soldiers by their friends, and there are many large ones sent out by public bodies and commanding officers on the requisition for the use of the men.

The deliveries were stopped on the 21st inst. by the Government, and the majority of the gifts never reached their destination.

These gifts were brought out free, on the order of the government; those which were sent through the post office have mostly been delivered.

The Job Law Record.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The hearing of the negro doctor at the state by the citizens of Lincoln, Colorado, will be brought to the attention of President McKinley by the Methodist ministers of Chicago, who have decided to request the President to call attention to his next message to the United States.

They will also request him to urge him to take to death by mob in the past ten years, and urge him to recommend to Congress suitable legislation which shall secure to every person accused of crime a fair trial, and hold them for trial for a period of one year.

He further says that he has received many letters from all parts of the country, and that he has been unable to do so at once, as he has had to attend to his duties.
