Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Library of the Public
Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La bibliothèque des Archives
publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

P E T I T I O N .

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of Canada, in Parliament assembled ;

The Petition of the undersigned, Clergymen of the United Church of England and Ireland, in the Diocese of Toronto,—

HUMBLY SHU WETH :

That in the early settlement of Upper Canada, the religious wants of the members of the United Church of England and Ireland were supplied by Missionaries appointed under the authority of "The Venerable the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts," which Society derived its funds, in part, from an annual grant of sixteen thousand pounds sterling from the Imperial Government.

That prior to the year 1830, the Society usually granted two hundred pounds sterling per annum to its Missionaries, and that relying in good faith on the continuance of the Imperial grants, the Society by its Secretary in England, or its Agent in Canada, the Bishop of Quebec, entered into positive engagements with the undersigned, that they should receive an annual salary of £200 sterling, together with any advantages which might accrue from the possession of glebes, or the contributions of the people.

That, in 1832, the Parliamentary grant began to be reduced, and finally ceased to be paid in 1834; that in consequence thereof, the Society was unable to redeem the pledges made to their Missionaries on the faith of the Government grant.

That the Society and the Colonial authorities, earnestly represented to the Imperial Government the extreme hardship of subjecting to a loss of income Missionaries in the Colonies, many of whom had left their homes in Great Britain, in the service of the Society, and under engagements, which the Society had contracted solely on the faith of the continuance of the Parliamentary grant, that the Imperial Government admitted the force of these representations, and recognized the justice of protecting persons in actual employment from loss of income, and therefore, amongst other arrangements for the rest of British North America, they engaged to relieve the Society entirely from the charge of the Missionaries' stipends in Upper Canada, and of the future payment of £50 sterling, as the pensions of their widows.

That they confined these engagements in Canada to the Upper Province; because as they stated, they had Colonial resources there, of which the Clergy Reserves formed a part, from whence they could meet these engagements; but that upon investigating these resources, they found them inadequate to meet the full amount of the salaries of the Missionaries, and therefore, while they fully admitted the justice and equity of the claims, they felt themselves reluctantly compelled to reduce the salaries which the undersigned had previously enjoyed, from £200 sterling to £170 sterling, which latter sum they pledged themselves to pay to those Missionaries who were in actual employment, July 1st, 1833 and who had previously been in the receipt of £200 sterling, as had been the case with all of the undersigned.

That by engaging to pay 85 per cent. of their original salaries, and pleading in justification of the reduction of 15 per cent., solely their inability to make it good from the resources at their command in the Colony, the Government fully admitted the equity of the claim for the full amount of 100 per cent., and moreover justified the expectation (which had been also held out to them by their venerable Bishop, the good Doctor Stewart) that whenever the resources from whence the 85 per cent. was paid would bear the additional charge, the faith of the Crown would be fully sustained, and the full amount of their original salaries be made good.

That even the renewed pledge made by the Imperial Government in 1834, to pay them 85 per cent. of their former incomes from the first of July, 1833, was not for many years fully redeemed, for whereas £170 sterling at the par of exchange yields £203 16s. 8d. currency, yet for many years they were only paid £188 17s. 8d. currency, making in this one particular an annual loss of £17 19s. currency, and, together with the reduction of £30 sterling, subjecting them to an annual loss altogether of £54 9s. currency.

That the Imperial Act of 1853 giving permission to the Colonial authorities to legislate upon the subject of the Clergy Reserves, expressly reserved all the rights of present incumbents to which the faith of the Crown is in any way pledged, and that your Petitioners urge that these claims as part of their just rights, originally covenanted to them on the faith of the Imperial Government, do clearly come within the spirit of that reservation of and therefore your Petitioners humbly pray that they may be allowed from the proceeds of the Clergy Res the arrears of income to which they are equitably entitled, and may also be permitted to commute for t sterling, for the remainder of their lives.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.
