Toronto is now being supplied with water thru the old pipes under the bay. It is being freely chlorinated, and will taste of chlor-ine. Do not complain about the taste. Complaints will go into the waste basket or will be listened to with a negative politeness.

For the past couple of years the big tunnel under the bay has had an accumulation of sand, and the sand has been playing havoc with machinery. The waterworks system is now in a condition to supply the city thru the old pipes for a couple of weeks, and the department has commenced cleaning the tunnel of sand, so that there will be no more injury to machinery thruout the city.

Mad haste to get the water turned into the tunnel a couple of years ago is declared to be the cause of the sand deposit in the tunnel. Responsibility for the haste is placed upon an order rushed thru the Commissioner Harris has assured the board of control that the supply of water will be adequate for the next couple of weeks if the citizens will not waste the water.

SANTA ISABEL. Chipuha, Mexico, April 12.—(Special.)—For thirteen hours the ranchers living in the Town of Cle-negnita, near here, fought a body of federal troops today in order that the honor and integrity of a nation they had formed last night might live, but the new republic was finally buried in bul-lets. Even the police chief was arrested and sent to Chihuahua. The people of the Clenegnita ranch disapproved of the manner in which the government was operated, and late last night a new election was decided on. Pancho Villa was elected provisional president of the Republic of Chihuahua. News of the revolution reached this place, and troops were sent. The citizens met the troops with vol-epople that further bloodshed be averted, and surrendered. All were executed.

The prayers at the grave side were recited by Rev. Father J. B. Dollard of St. Monica's Church. Many old friends attended the funeral, some be-ing Chief Justice Falconbridge, Magistrate Kingsford, J. Induction of Oxygen a Preventive for Smallpox at this juncture when Smallpox is prevalent in some of the provincial districts. This dread disease spreads yery rapidly and to check it effective. It is universally admitted that bacteria consists largely of carbon. Oxygen when brought into contact with the germs, combines with this canbon, thereby "oxidizing" the carbon (which means burning it), thus purifying the system, and destroying bacteria. That is why plenty of most wholly of oxygen.

No matter the nature of the disease—whether it be smallpox, rheuma-tism, diabetis, humbago, paralysis, consumption, sciatica or any other all-ment the Farador machine will give positive results. The induction of oxygen spells drath to disease germs without the use of drugs. The blood-becomes purified, fever is reduced, and the patient is restored to health and happiness. Doctors have prescribed and failed, but Nature's treat-ment never fails. When you buy a Farador, you undoubtedly buy the best oxygenating machine on the market. It is better to place class-rooms in one side of the corridors only, giving direct outside lighting. This is the direct outside lighting. This is the prevailing practice in Germany, while in both Canada and the United States the general practice is to flank both sides of the corridors with class-rooms and depend on transoms and end win-dows for light. The latter custom gives a more compact and economical uilding. Hahed at the but it is accomp sacrifice of proper lighting and at-tractiveness, and is one of the weakest points about our ordinary school-plan. As many of our school buildings are still ventilated by the gravity system, it is good practice to allow 15 square feet of floor space and 250 cubic feet of air per pupil.

N o other town in Western Canada offers an investment yielding quicker or surer profits than does the new Grand Trunk Pacific Townsite of Delacour, Delacour is on the Tofield-to-Calgary branch of the G.T.P., and is only 20 miles from the latter city.

We guarantee that this is the original townsite, as the railway station, sidings, and road allowances have been confirmed and approved by the Dominion Railway Commission, and are in the centre of the townsite. Delacour is right in the heart of Alberta's most prosperous farm and cattle lands, and is the choicest townsite the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway has ever put on the market.

Townsite Lots Making Fortunes for Investors

The lots of this townsite are being bought up rapidly by far-sighted investors, who can foresee a big advance in price as soon as these townsite lots are closed out, for then every resale made, every home, store, or warehouse erected will add tremendously to the value of every lot of the townsite.

ELACOUR GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC TOWNSITE

Nowhere else in the world have towns grown so rapidly as in Western Canada. Places that were little frontier towns a few short years ago are great Western cities now. Townsites that were put on the market six months ago are hustling, busy towns today, and will be cities tomorrow. What were Cal-would not hesitate to predict a bril-liant future for the house of McCarty. At that, he may become champion some day, in spite of the fact that McCarney is of little help to him in that direction Business Men's League for the past sea-To figure in the prizes 75 per cent. of that direction. Luther Is Making a Mistake. I have nothing against Luther. I yould like to see him with the heavyweight championship. That's the worst luck I wish the young man. At the same time, I believe he is making a mistake in tying himself up for fights with a bunch of second-raters, and avoiding the boxers who have qualified to meet him. He aphave qualified to meet him. He ap-peared publicly in New York recently, and possibly the frigid recep-tion he met with may help to con-vince him that his methods do not eet with the approval of the fans. Nobody who follows boxing is more anxious to see a white fighter at the head of pugilism than I. I would do anything in my power to help the cause along, and without hope of per-sonal gain. For instance, I would gladly take McCarty down to my place in the country this summer and give him the benefit of the knowledge of boxing and the experience gained in years of service in the ring. Without boasting, I believe I could teach Luther, or any other heavyweight of today, a few import-ant things about the game he is ignorant of. My fighting days are assed, but I still retain the knowledge of the science of boxing, and could impart valuable pointers to an G. Robinson, J. Curry Tomlin, The News ambitious and intelligent boxer of Mc arty's stamp. The average manager is of little or help to a young and ambitious boxer. It may be the proper thing to employ a man to look after the finances

a fighter has annexed a chamionship, but, until that time, what needed more than anything else is someone who can teach him something about the game. To win a championship a fighter must keep improving all the time, and it takes years to develop a man good enough to win the heavyweight itle. It means hard work and plenty of it. The system of reaching out after all the easy coin in sight is all right, as far as it goes; but if the manager with a likely prospect in tow could look a bit into the future, would discover that the money to made during the campaign for the itle is insignificant, compared with he possibilities once the goal has been eached. McCarty is an excellent prospect. That lets him out. He may be good enough to lick Willard and the "Gunpoat." and again he may not. The public would like to know what public he can do with these men before put-ting its stamp of approval on his championship pretensions. Fighting Jim Flynn and Carl Morris again, both whom he has decisively beaten, will not tend to increase his popularity. "Gunboat" is the Man for McCarty. I hope the report is true that Mc-Carty is to meet "Gunboat" Smith t Madison Square Garden next month Since the latter beat Wells and one or two preliminary scrappers, loca scribes are touting him as a wonder. Farm Labor and Food Prices.

To the current number of The University Magazine Mr. Walter James Brown contributes a valuable article on the farm labor problem. Than this, he opens, there is no other problem before the Canadian farmer of such magnitude. "It has a direct bearing on land values, affects crop production, makes farming operations difficult, hampers rural improvement, drives the young people from the land, destroys the reputation of the farming community, limits the resources of the national wealth and increases the cost of food supplies. The scarcity of farm help has produced an economic crisis in the history of Canadian agriculture. With each recurring season conditions seem to be getting worse." This statement is fully sustained by quota-tions from the 1912 report of the Commission of Conservation showing that the yield of the crops per acre in Canada on the whole is not satisfactory. In Nova Scotia only 8 per cent. of the farmers followed any systematic rotation in crops; in Prince Edward Island 4 per cent. on a small part of the farm; in New Brunswick 13 per cent.; in Quebec only 4 per cent. and in Ontario 53 per cent. The strong assertion is made that "carelessness, neglect and general shiftlessness were evident on many farms." "The annual losses from weeds, insects and plant diseases are, according to the judgment of the farmers themselves, between $75 and $100 per farm." "In some districts there are farms now abandoned; the people were pushed off the land by the prevalence of weeds." "What," Mr. Brown asks, "do these (and other) extracts from the reports quoted mean?" Answering his question he says "They illustrate a fact which is patent to every observer that crop production in Canada is generally away below what it should be, that clean methods of cultivation and systematic rotation of crops are followed by few of the farmers of this country, that carelessness and shiftlessness in even the best counties are too apparent to indicate a thrifty people and a prosperous community and that there is a serious and a threatening menace from the multiplication of weed pests. May not all these conditions be attributable to a shortage of farm labor?"

Australia and New Zealand are now exporting dairy products and meat to British Columbia, the great western province apparently being unable to supply its home demand. In the United States there exists a diminished and diminishing supply of food products. In 1900 the United States had more than 69,-000,000 cattle on farms and ranges with 1,600,000 not on farms and ranges. In 1910 the total had dropped to 61,000,000. In 1900 it had close on 62,000,000 sheep and lambs—in 1910 only 51,800,000. In 1900 there were 66,500,000 swine, in 1910 only 58,000,000. This too in face of a constant and large increase in population. The same story is told of the crop. Corn by bushels to numbers of inhabitants, decreased between these years 20.9 per cent; wheat 14.3 per cent.; oats 11.8 per cent.; rye 4.6 per cent., and cotton bales to inhabitants 7.7 per cent. Canada presents a similar reduction in live stock. In 1908 there were 2,917, 746 milch cows; in 1911, 2,876,600; other cattle dropped in that period from 4,629,836 to 4,210,000; sheep from 2,831,404 to 2,-389,300 and swine from 3,369,858 to 2,792,200 notwithstanding the larger population. The trouble is evidently that along with an increased demand there is a diminished supply of some of rincipal food products. The land is not being properly cultivated nor carrying the live stock that it is fitted to sustain. "Without an adequate supply of labor," says Mr. Brown, "agriculture is a hopeless industry. What is the use of spending money on farmers' institutes, short courses in agriculture, field and orchard demonstrations, when the farmer cannot get the help to do the necessary work?" "Make it possible first for the farmer to receive adequate help, and then show him how to make his farm more remunerative to himself and more profitable to the community" Enquiring into the causes of this labor scarcity, Mr. Brown finds the first to be "too much striving for industrial development, the second, our unpractical systems of education and third, the lure of the west. But the farmer himself is in a measure to blame for the scarcity of farm help." "In perhaps the vast majority of cases the methods of farm practice permit a farmer to employ hired labor for only four or five months in the year. Where such practice prevails there is no hope for a solution of the labor problem." Farmers should increase the quantity and quality of their live stock and provide employment for their hired men thruout the twelve months of the year. Management should be systematized, hired men should have a free time which they can spend as they please, rural sports and pastimes should be encouraged. Among the more general remedies suggested are: "First, the restoration of the balance between agricultural and industrial development; secondly, the promotion of vocational training and education in rural schools and in county high schools set apart for the purpose, the development of demonstration farms in municipalities and increased emphasis on the teaching of agricultural economics co-ordinating with the teaching of science in agricultural colleges; and, thirdly, the vigorous championship of its own farming opportunities and agricultural resources by each province." Mr. Brown has made a real contribution to the discussion of this important subject in his very instructive and readable article.

The Closure.

While a great many Canadians will regret the necessity of the closure resolution at this time and would like to see Canada's offer of battleships to the imperial navy made unanimous, the need of an alteration in the rules of debate at Ottawa can hardly be questioned.

A great deal of time of parliament is taken up with useless discussion on academic subjects. The real business of the country, as a rule, is postponed until the last few weeks of the session and then rushed thru without proper consideration being given to the issues in-

Opposition have been talking against time at Ottawa in the hope that the government will be forced to make an appeal to the country. In the two weeks' continuous sessions of the house, which ended in the temporary with drawal of the naval bill, several of the more loquacious members talked many times, repeating the arguments of former speeches and adding nothing to the information which the country is entitled to receive. If the govern ment believe that they are carrying out the wish of the people in this connection they are wise in making such arrangements as will put an end to the useless talk on the navy bill, or for that matter, any other question that may in future be urged upon the commons.

A mild system of closure will have the effect of expediting business. There have been altogether too many words wasted by parliamentarians to the detriment of the country's business. Parliament has been in session since November and very little progress has been made. At the present rate of going it will be five months before prorogation is possible. There are several great issues that should receive attention from parliament, but the business of the house has been systematically blocked by opponents of the naval bill and public works are being delayed by the endless verbosity of half a dozen members.

With effective rules shuting off time-killing talk the whole business of parliament should be transacted in four or five months.

The report of the Toronto Hydro-Electric Commissioners for the first complete year since the inauguration of the system must be gratifying to everyone who desires the city's welfare.

In that time Dunlop representatives have called on nearly every mother's son of them, at least once, and in the regular course of business have got a line on the "auto-men's" experience with users of all makes of tires. There is no need of Dunlop travelers asking the men who sell tires if Dun-lops were the largest tires in Canada. That, every dealer knows to be a fact, and, also that any motorist can easily get the proof for himself. But to get a correct synopsis of the customer's finding on rim-cutting was a different proposition. Dunlop men employed no cut-and-dried way of questioning him. The best facts often come unsolicited, and it is only natural for a customer to be canny in the use of words if he becomes c onscious the discussion will be farther reaching than the precincts of his own store. Study the Dealer as Intently as You Do the Car

Do not purchase an automobile of a dealer in whom you cannot have complete confidence. Personality is a large factor in business dealings. The dealer whose personality engenders your confidence in him, whose business principles are sound, who is prosperous and for whom owners of cars he has sold say good words is the logical man from whose firm you can safely purchase an automobile.

GOOD SERVICE with a poor car is a better buy than poor service with a good car.

If you would know the value of dealers' service in the operation of an automobile, you have but to consult men who have owned several different makes of cars and, if you will talk with any HUDSON owner, you will appreciate the value of the type of service we furnish to the owner a an automobile.

All business is done solely on confidence. Confidence of one man in another. If you cannot have confidence in a dealer who sells the car you have selected, then yours is an unsafe purchase.

The Service You Buy When Your Choice is a HUDSON

There is scarcely any limit to which we will not go to insure HUDSON owners the fullest satisfaction from their cars. We are more interested in you and your motoring interests after we have sold you the car than before you have bought. Yet, we realize that this is contrary to the attitude of the average automobile concern

This service that we give you is but keeping faith with the Hudson Motor Car Company. There is a clause in our contract, with the factory, which insures every purchaser of the highest standard of motor car service to be had, and this we cheerfully and rigidly adhere to in our deals with owners.

The New HUDSON "Six" rose to a higher point as a sales success than any 6-cylinder car has ever seen in the same length of time it has been on the market. Its exceptional performance has been unusual among 6-cylinder cars.

F Its smooth, sweet-running enchanism gives a same tion of flying that is lacking in a 4-cylinder car. You can throttle it down to 3 miles an hour on high speed and pick up to 60 miles an hour with smoothness and case that will be a revelation to you, if you have swnod 4-cylinder cars.

You can go through city traffic at 3 miles an hour on high, with every cylinder hitting as smoothly as if you were going ten times as fast.

Avoid Disappointment in Getting Delivery

Ninety per cent of HUDSON orders are for apring delivery-hence, within a few days, it will be imposs to secure a delivery date for a car.

Hence, we cannot impress too strongly upon prospec-tive purchasers the necessity of securing a fixed delivery date for their cars.

It would be well to come see the New HUDSON "Six" at your earliest convenience, or write or phone for new catalog.

Have they the confidence that the Prophets of Baal had in their god? Will they try? If not, what excuse will they give? Has man fallen from his high estate, so that we cannot rightfully expect as much of him now as nineteen centuries ago? Or does the Bible come to us from a source that is higher than man-which?

But our case is even stronger. The opponents of the Bible cannot take refuge in the piea that man is re-trograding. They loudly proclaim that man has grown and that he is growing still. They boast of a world-wide advance and their claim is founded upon fact. In all matters except in the science that teaches us how to live man has made wonderful progress. The mastery of the mind over the forces of nature seems almost complete, so far do we surpass the ancients in harnessing the water, the wind and the lightning. Influence of the Book.

Inventive genius has multiplied the power of a human arm and supplied the masses with comforts of which the rich did not dare to dream a few centuries ago. Science is ferreting out the hidden causes of discase and teaching us how to prolong life. In every line, except in the line of character-building, the world seems to have been made over, but marvelous changes by which things have become new only emphasize the fact that man, too, must be born again, while they show how im-potent are material things to touch the soul of man and transform him

It was a good show but not quite as minstrel-like as one might wish, not quite up to the traditional ideal. There was a comparative lack of jokes and was a comparative lack of jokes and antics, preponderance being given to the music. And the dancing was somewhat short both in quantity and quality. George Primrose is not as spry as he used to be and has reduced his exertions to the minimum, leaving lesser talent to fill up the gap. Lew Dockstader was there however with Dockstader was there, however, with his "Dockstaderisms" and seemed fully as unctuous and droll as ever. LONDON, April 12 .- One of the sensations of the season is to be a dance which the Duchess of Rutland is trying to arrange and which is to be in the nature of a society ballet.

There is a great craze here for ballet dancing. This is partly due to the popularity of Pavlova, the Russian dancer, who seems to be received everywhere. Lady Diana Manners, the duchess' daughter, has studied with Pavlova and now far excels many a professional ballerinoa. Her sister, Lady Angelsey, was also an ardent student of the ballet before her mar-Lady Evelyn Guinness is another enthusiastic toe dancer and frequently dances with her children after the Isadora Duncan style. Another ardent follower of the dance is Lady Ethel Cochran's daughter, Margaret, who believes in ballet dancing as good fun and good exercise of many of the necessities of life. Enmity of the Masses. Every thinking man, when he re-views the situation, is distressed at the growing enmity of the masse against what are called the classes Never a day goes by now without news of some strike. Last year the workers lost $40,000,000 in wages owing to strikes, and in increased pay they got back $35,000,000. I do not now go into the merits of the various disputes. It is enough that we know of the in-

The ambition of the Duchess of Rutland is to stage a function at which all these ladies can put on a complete ballet.

Most of the tween capital and labor are bad for the workers, for the employers, and the general public who stand between. All the indications are that these backgone as a jenymin. The relationship between capital and labor, if continued, must of their class. On the platforms in their constituencies, they are as virile and determined as ever. LONDON, April 12 .- The new bankruptcy bill, which has just been read a second time in the house of commons, is the result of the agitation which has for many years been go-ing on in commercial circles for the reform and amendment of the existing law in regard to bankrupts. Bankrupts fall into two distinct and very different classes. On the one hand we find the honest traders, who, after years of struggle against mis-fortune and adversity, awake one day to the realization that they are in-solvent. Bankruptcy to such people is a very real disaster, and in their interests the law were laft numeral is a very real disaster, and in their interests the law was left purposely, lax in some respects. This laxity un-fortunately encouraged a different class of traders and others, who are a danger to the general commercial com munity. Such persons are quite reck-less of the liabilities they incur, and their ultimate failure may generally be traced to extravagance, gambling, or blind folly. It is mainly to deal with this latter class that the bankruptcy bill was in-troduced by Mr. Buxton, the president of the board of trade. The provi-sions in the bill are framed to com-ply with the recommendations made

Referring to the government's promise in the King's speech, to bring forward this session a further land purchase bill, Mr. Redmond went en: Land Purchase Bill. "It would be a fatal thing if the "It would be a fatal thing in the land purchase scheme were not com-pleted and at as early a date as pos-sible. It is indeed a necessary part of the home rule settlement. Speak-ing for my own part and for Irish Na-tionalists generally, I should be glad to see the most generous terms pos-sible offered to the landlords as part of that settlement. But I should not support such a course, without support such a course, without conditions But the terms we shall be willing to support and to see given them will depend on their atti-tude towards the passage into laws of the home rule bill. If they will help to work the act and take their part in the new constitution, then I am sure they will have nothing to complain of. But if they think they can get very generous terms and re-main hostile to the demands of the Irish nation and to home rule, I as-sure them they are mistaken. "As a matter of fact, however, noth-ing is more certain than that the bulk of Unionists in Ireland of the land-owning class will come in and take their full share of the working of home rule. Already many of them have declared that the attitude of Ulster on this question does not represent them. They actually pressed for proportional representation for the senate in committee because they thought that the bill as it stood did not give them all the representation to which they were entitled. They are not going to stand aloof from home rule. Ulster Will Help. Asked what, in his opinion, was the present position of the Ulster ques-tion, Mr. Redmond said he was very hopeful. "No doubt there is," he added, "a small section which cannot be reconciled and will always stick out permanently from any settlement, just as there is, perhaps, abroad a small body of home rulers who would be content with nothing else than a separate state. But outside this sec-tion I am convinced that the vast majority of Protestants, even the vast may may be strenuous in their opposition up to the very day the bill passes, will come cheerfully in and help to work it when it does."

Seven Reasons for Reading The Toronto World The Principal Reason

Because it is the best and brightest morning newspaper published in Toronto.

Because it contains features not found in any other Toronto morning paper, including Mutt and Jeff, Bringing up Father, The Garden, Efficient Housekeeping, The Nursery, a Daily Pattern Service, Stories for Children and an instalment of one of the best Serial Stories of the day.

Because The World, since it first was published, has been essentially the Paper for the People. It has consistently supported Public Ownership of Public Utilities, and has fought for and supported the People against monopolies and private greed.

Because the telegraph and cable service purchased by The World for its readers at great expense, thru The New York World, the Canadian Press and other channels, is the best that can be secured by any Toronto newspaper. -

Because it is the busy man's paper. The news is condensed, well written and is displayed in such a way that it is not necessary to "dig" thru the paper to find the principal events of the day.

Because the local news in The Toronto World is gathered and written by a staff of the livest, most competent news-gatherers in Toronto, who know what readers of The World want and how they want it.

Because The World carries, year in and year out, more exclusive news, not printed in any other Toronto morning newspaper, than any other morning or evening newspaper in Ca-nada. "The World never sleeps," and whenever anything big breaks The World always gets it first.

There are many other reasons, but the principal reason, as stated. is because

It is most important to remember that practically all of this display is open to the public without charge. In nearly every store there is an interesting exhibition to which everybody is welcome without payment. Visitors from London are often astonished at this liberality, for in that city the dealers have always collected a fee at their special exhibitions.

On Fifth avenue, between Thirty-fourth street and Central Park, there are about twenty high-class art stores, and several of them really attain the dignity of palaces. agement of Mr. Frederic Shipman. He will return to New York in September, where it is proposed to bring out "The Jolly Peasant" in October. People's Choral Union Mr. H. M. Fletcher's Choral Union gave a very creditable concert in Association Hall last Monday night, which was listened to by a large audience who really enjoyed the splendid work of the junior choir. The program was well chosen, and included "Hark, Hark the Lark," Cooke; "Maiden With the Lips So Rosy," Ian; "The Four Seasons," Nevin; "A Lover and His Lass," Hawley; and the "Bridal Chorus," from "Rose Maiden," in all of which skilful training was much in evidence. They sang with energy, the voices were blendful and mellow, and they always succeeded, even when fine quality, so noticeable in fact, that one will be pardoned for making spe-cial reference to any one section where all were so good. When one considers that many of these singers began rehearsing only a few months ago, and that they joined Mr. Fletcher's rudimental class without having had any previous training, their production must be looked upon as quite an achievement. Solos were given by Harold Skitch, Mr. Norman Hooke, Mr. Ernest Wilson, Miss Mariam Fletcher, who also accompanied the chorus; and Miss Jessie Alexander in the "Humoreske," "Egyptian Dance" and "Torch Dance" she displayed unpresent.

The directors of the Hambourg Conservatory of Music have just comintends to devote himself for a time at least to light opera. He has ac-cepted a splendid offer to star in "The Jolly Peasant." The work has had a great success in Europe. The music of the opera is by Leo Fall; the book by Victor Leon. Making a Lawn.

The history of the fall-bearing berry as a practical proposition dates back not more than 12 or 13 years. In 1859 Samuel Cooper of western New York, found a plant of the fold Bismark va-riety, which, will its 11 runners, was bearing a full crop of fruit in the fall. He transferred it to the family gar-den early proceeding the state of the family for the state of the family for the state of The lawn is probably the most imden, and by careful cultivation de-veloped a variety that retained the the surface is prepared and the grass characteristic named above. That was the last year of the Mintos' stay in Rideau Hall, Today, the decorations of the Princess Louise still remain in the senate chamber at Ottawa, with the added beauty of Mrs. Adamson's coloring.

Who will dare to say that sentiment perished with the crinoline skirt? From senate chambers to hotel bars seems somewhat of a jump,-that is, as regards dignity of situation. Yet, Mrs. Adamson has several miniature designs of friezes which have been new documents were read before the used above hotel bars. One might never associate such, with a common, everyday bar. But they are there, just the same.

Which only goes to prove that noth-ing need be commonplace, no matter ing need be commonplace, no matter how ordinary may be the use to which it is put. The world's biggest athletic au dience—This picture shows the largest concourse of people ever known to have gathered together to watch an athletic event of any description. This remarkable scene depicts the 1910 International Soccer Football match between Scotland and England, played at Hampden Park, Glasgow, before a crowd of 132,000 people. On that occasion Scotland won 2-0. Hampden Park is probably the most complete and high-class enclosure of its kind in the world. On Saturday the 5th April these two countries again met and on this occasion England proved the victor by 1-0. This game was played on the ground of the Chelsea Football Club in London and 85.-000 witnessed the encounter.

BIRMINGHAM ALL-YEAR-ROUND SWIMMING CLUB. TAKEN AT EDGBASTON RESERVOIR, BIR-MINGHAM. THESE HARDY FELLOWS BATH EVERY DAY, SUMMER AND WINTER, WHEN THE ICE IS BROKEN FOR THEM. "Alabastine" has antiseptic properties-

Germs cannot live on or in it. Once the walls of a room are coated with "Alabastine" there is no necessity for re-decoration after sickness.

"Alabastine" has stood the test of time and is to-day more popular than ever-

It is more economical than either wall paper or kalso-mine and far more sanitary. Anybody can apply "Alabas-tine"____

Then ordinary kalsomine is bound to chip, blister, crack, peel or rub off— Just mix with cold water and use a flat bristle brush.

It's base is lonly whiting and animal glue—a combination with no solidifying or sani-tary qualities.
