ST. JOHN, N. B. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1906.

ALCOHOL EXECUTED

Sentence Speedily Followed His Conviction

MURDER AND ROBBERY

Impressive Trial of King Alcohol in York Theatre Last Night Brought Tennyson Smith's Campaign in St. John to a Close.

Before fully 1,200 people in the York Theatre last night, King Alcohol, in the shape of a bottle of liquor, was tried and found guilty of murder and robbery, and without more ado was executed by being laid above a water pail, knotted in the neck and pushed into the pail, his interior being consigned to the pall.

It was an amusing and at the same time an impressive proceeding, and although the trial was not carried on according to the mode of procedure recognized by law, yet evidence adduced was most convincing, and alcohol's guilt was undoubtedly firmly established in the minds of the large audience, even if some of the jurymen had their doubts.

R. R. Chapman arrayed in a gorgeous robe and with a wig which Lord Alverton might have envied, made a most imposing judge, while Charles Lockford, duly bespectacled and bow-tied, brought a great deal of dignity to the office of clerk of the court.

Fred Lyons, whose mother and brother are among the victims, wired from Watford, and that there was no question but that the Jones was lost.

Owen Sound's loss in numbers is much greater than the terrible calamity which has fallen upon Watford, where almost the entire crew had their homes.

It is concluded that in attempting to reach Lion's Head the sea broke in the shuttles on the forward main deck and keeled the vessel over, and that she never righted, and another sea swept her under the water.

Wesley Sadler, second engineer, "Scotty," a man of some unknown name, R. Summons, fireman, James Tilley, fireman; William Smith, deck hand; Frank Jackson, cook, assistant cook, name unknown; George Molwyn, wheelman; Wm. Ross, wheelman.

Donaldson, Owen Sound; Alex. Lyons, Yukon; Mrs. Lyons, Owen Sound; Louis Allen, Owen Sound; James Fox, Southampton; J. E. Hopper, T. M. Wain, Manitoulin Island; three unknown men for Graham's Camp at Silver Water, Manitoulin.

The prisoner was charged with robbery and murder and counsel for the defense here moved to have the indictment quashed on the grounds that under the Canadian criminal code a prisoner charged with murder could be tried only on that charge.

Counsel for the prosecution said that it was a very exceptional prisoner and the judge should make an exception in this case.

ONE HAVE ESCAPED

One of the Saddest Tragedies in History of Great Lakes

TWO BODIES FOUND

Little Steamer J. H. Jones Went Down With Over Score of Persons on Board --Wiarion and Owen Sound in Mourning Today.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The staunch little coasting steamer, J. H. Jones, which for years has covered the route from Watford and the peninsula on the south side of Manitoulin, has gone to the bottom, carrying with her over a score of human lives.

There has been more or less apprehension since last Friday. The Jones left on Thursday, and was not reported at any of the various points of call up the lake. It was thought at first she might have sought shelter at some inaccessible point, but the worst fears were realized yesterday, when Mr. McAulay, manager of the Dominion Fish Co.'s plant at this point, announced that Indians sent out to evidence that one of the saddest tragedies in the history of the Great Lakes had been enacted.

Two life boats, a section of the cabin and some freight were found by the Indians on Christian Islands, and left unquestionable evidence that the worst had happened.

Fred Lyons, whose mother and brother are among the victims, wired from Watford, and that there was no question but that the Jones was lost.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty.

Tennyson Smith then addressed the jury. He said that before the court was the case of a man who was ever before a court of justice. Most criminals had some good trait in their character but this prisoner had no one redeeming feature. He had been driven out of other places but was allowed to live in St. John. He was ordered by the court to be bed after 7 o'clock at night until the next morning, but he gets out at all hours. He robs men of their lives, robs men of their brains, too, if he can get his hands on them. He looks a long while and does not find any.

DEATH IN GRIM GUISE

Four Persons Burned to Death in a Hotel.

FIFTY DROWNED

Terrible Scene at Burning of Salvation Army Hotel---Town Destroyed by a Flood---1 Killed and 23 Injured in Railroad Wreck.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 28.—Four men were burned to death and probably 24 were injured in a fire early today that practically destroyed the Light House Hotel, conducted by the Salvation Army at the northeast corner of 9th and Market streets.

More than 200 men were asleep in the building when the fire was discovered, the greater number being on the second and third floors. All became panic-stricken, and before the firemen arrived and could stretch nets many had jumped from the upper windows and were picked up crushed and unconscious on the street below. The four dead have not been identified as their bodies were too much burned.

Fifty Drowned SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—James Donnell, a coffee planter, who arrived here yesterday, from Queensland, tells of the destruction of the little town of Tatupo, during a hurricane, which recently ravaged the neighboring coast.

Tatupo lies in an out of the way part of Taharopepe, and its population numbers about 5,000. When the hurricane was at its height, the town was inundated by a rise in the river on which it is situated. All of the buildings were swept away. The inhabitants sought refuge in trees, but many of them were washed away by the flood.

The news so far received from the scene of the disaster is not very definite in its character regarding loss of life, but it is known that fully 50 persons were drowned.

Killed in Collision WINDOLA, Wis., Nov. 28.—One negro was killed and about 20 persons injured seriously, when a coast-bound passenger train on the Southern Railway ran into an open switch near here late last evening, and collided head-on with a freight train on a siding.

The list of injured includes J. P. Sinter, editor of the Columbus Commercial, and W. J. Miller, of Jackson, Miss., electric tinsmith.

OVER 10,000 CIRCULATION.

An Astonishing Newspaper Fact!

As an example of circulation building, the record of The Times stands alone in Eastern Canadian Newspaper annals.

It is a little more than two years since The Times came into the field in opposition to four newspapers, a figure never before attained by any Eastern Canadian newspaper, and in excess of the combined circulation of both of the other evening papers.

The Times has demonstrated that the reading public appreciate a good, clean, newsy paper, and the business men of this city have generously patronized its columns.

The Times last week had a paid circulation of over 10,000, a figure never before attained by any Eastern Canadian newspaper, and in excess of the combined circulation of both of the other evening papers.

Our contemporaries will childishly point to the fact that a portion of this circulation is stimulated by the $200 Gold Contest. The Times is spending much money to secure more circulation and patronage, and is getting both.

Our competitors are cordially invited to awaken and do likewise.

Meanwhile The Times will continue to grow and will merchants will continue to prosper their business by the use of its advertising columns.

MILLION BUSHELS

Of Grain Will Pass Through the I. C. R. Elevator.

I. C. R. IMPROVEMENTS

Will Erect a New Telegraph Tower---New Shunting Engines---Grain Will Come Over I. C. R.---Galveston Due this Afternoon.

Owing to the rapidly increasing business of the I. C. R. during the winter season, in handling freight, both export and import, it has been found necessary to make some changes which will place the government road in a better position to handle the business with as great despatch as possible.

It is intended to erect in the outer yard, beyond Gilbert's lane, a telegraph tower, similar to the ones in use on the big railway systems. A day and a night operator will be placed on duty there to handle the night's traffic both inward and outward, and have the cars of freight shunted on the sidings in the new yard, and thus relieve the congestion that has resulted from the increased business during the winter months.

The freight trains will get instructions from the operators at the new tower and in this way the work of the operators in the inner yard and the station house will be lessened, and the work handled more quickly. It has been found that the present operators have more work than they can handle during the winter season. The extra operators will only be needed when the small season is on, and the tower will likely be closed during the summer months.

A room in the outer yard for about 800 or 600 cars. Galois is coming in rapidly now to the I. C. R. elevator, and it is expected that the business will be handled through the big building this season, as all the Allan, Manchester and Head line boats will be loaded from the I. C. R. elevator.

The I. C. R. is preparing for the season's work by securing sufficient quantities of the fuel and coal for the operation of the elevator and another is expected in a few days. Many contracts have been made for the season, and the work will be handled through the heavy freight train.

The government dredge Galveston is expected to arrive this afternoon and will probably be out at work tomorrow. The dredge is expected to be in operation on the western side of the I. C. R. pier, where it will operate until the season is over. It is now docked on the eastern side, in the great dock which is used by the I. C. R. for the eastern side berth.

KILTIES ARE MOVED UP A NOTCH IN VOTING CONTEST

COURT LA TOUR LEADS

More Letters Received Show Keen Interest Being Taken All Over the Province in Times Voting Contest---The Standing Today.

The great contest for the purse of two hundred dollars in gold, now being waged by the several organizations, still remains a feature of interest, and a topic of discussion for the people of St. John.

Court La Tour has strengthened his grip upon the leadership by the addition of 1,000 votes, although the Kilties and St. Mary's Band are chasing their guns upon the coveted position.

In today's fight, Orl. Becham's boys managed to secure second place from the bandmen and have qualified their intention of making it uncomfortable for the Kilties before many days pass.

The following letter was received this morning: Posttown, Nov. 28, 1906.

St. John. The arrival of the Evening Times in our house every day brings to our minds that we should rally around our friends of Court La Tour, O. P. S. St. John and push them to the front and keep them there. We never had such a chance to help a brother as the Times is now giving us. Court La Tour deserves credit for the great fight it is putting up. I send the enclosed votes with the promise of more to follow in a few days.

Yours truly, J. M. HANNAN.

Court Docket No. 1, O. F. The above letter shows the interest people are taking in the fight outside the city of St. John. There is another from a friend of St. Rose's, which appears to be to the point.

Enclosed please find 30 votes for St. Rose's A. D. Society. What is the matter with the friends of this organization? They will soon have to get a more hundred dollars in gold.

Yours truly, J. M. ROY.

Kingsway, Nov. 28. If the history of some of the organizations in the contest were written it would make interesting reading. Perhaps no man in St. John knows more about this movement which resulted in the formation of St. Stephen's Scotch Boys' Brigade and kindred organizations than the commandant officer, Col. Buchanan.

This gentleman spent many years of his life and no small amount of money in an effort to bring the brigade to its present high state of perfection.

The gallant colonel believes thoroughly in the maxim that the boy is the father to the man and that there are higher nobler things in life than the mere pursuit of wealth. That he has been successful, in a large measure, in raising the ideal of the brigade to a high standard and giving them a broader view of life, no one who is acquainted with his work in the brigade can for a moment doubt.

Much might be written, if time and space would permit, about the work of the other organizations, whose power for good in the community has helped many to higher things.

The contest editor hopes that all the votes now being held by the interested parties will be sent as soon as possible. December 21 will be the closing day of the contest, when the name of the winner will be announced and the purse of gold presented.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

HIS AMBITION HALTED. The Times new reporter has ambitions. He sees no reason why a clever young man who has had the advantage of being reared in the country should not rise to eminence in the city. It was a tradition where he was "reared" that all the leading men of St. John were born in the country, and he had himself met aldermen.

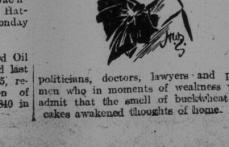

During the past few days the new reporter has observed that nearly everybody has an axe out for members of the city council, and he became quite excited about it. If new aldermen were needed it might mean that his time had come, and taking charge of a civic poll, he went to Mr. Peter Binks, in whose council he aspired to be a member.

Mr. Binks, in whose council he aspired to be a member, frankly told the new reporter that he had no objection to his being on the civic poll, but that he had no time to spare for him. He would not do this for him, but he would permit his name to be presented in a tentative way.

Mr. Binks smiled indulgently on his young friend, and made the following observations:

"Young man, when you are older you will be wiser. Don't you think for a minute that anybody wants a new set of aldermen. Public indignation is an intermittent disease, that may be expected to break out at any time except election time."

The new reporter has worn an expression of deep dejection ever since he held this conference with Mr. Binks.

NO SIGN OF SETTLEMENT

The Strike of I. C. R. Express Agents Continues -- Want Simpson Reinstated.

MONTREAL, N. B., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, I. C. R., are holding a meeting here today looking into some grievances along the road. The committee will have a conference with General Manager Pottinger this afternoon.

There are no present prospects of a settlement of the Canadian Express Co. agents' strike on the I. C. R. The committee of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers concluded its session this morning, but all efforts to come to an amicable understanding with the express company have been of no avail. One point on which the parties cannot agree is the agency at Pettitville.

The company will not depose the present agent and re-appoint Station Agent Simpson, and the Order of Telegraphers refuse to call off the strike until Simpson is taken back with the rest. In other words Simpson, having obeyed the strike order of the O. R. T., must now stand by him.

THE COUNTERSTROKE By AMBROSE PRATT Author of "Vigoris Daunt, Billionaire."

Continued. "Exactly—ah, bah! —'tis an expressive phrase. By the way, there is a little warning I should give you before we start. Until noon tomorrow, as I have already told you, all that I possess is yours, including your liberty. But see that you are to be found at noon tomorrow! This island is small, scarce three miles square, 'tis inhabited only by my people, but it is mountainous and you perchance might find some tempting hole to hide in. Well in that case, my Lord, you will be sought out quite leisurely, and perhaps before you are found my scholars will have arrived. You understand? He is a devil that man, and loves inflicting pain. If he has nothing else to do he tortures animals or in some way or another he punishes those who save you from his mercy (I am aware you think it is because I wish to spite him); in reality it is because you happen to be an Englishman, and I love the English. Good-night, my Lord."

Love, Francine. She sighed profoundly, and shook her head. "I loved you once, I think, perhaps I love you still, but I am miserable. Oh, my poor old father! Ah, to think he is so ill, he that loved me so, and I away from him!" With a sudden gasping cry she threw herself forward on the couch and great heart-breaking sobs shook her slender body violently. Orestingham watched her in silence, tears trickling down his own cheeks. His heart ached to soothe her, to help her in her great grief, but he dared not touch her, he felt himself somewhat too unworthy and the girl, too sacred. But soon she grew more composed and controlling herself looked sadly up at him. "What, do men weep?" she asked, a mournful smile parting her quivering lips. He nodded, and answered huskily, "When they see the one they love in pain, men sometimes weep."

Daily Fashion Hint for Times Readers

RECEPTION COSTUME OF VELVET.

Black velvet was used for the gown illustrated, but the model would also be effective in almost any color. The skirt was made in fitted style, the plait stitched down to below the hips, and had a sweep all around. The high coat was trimmed with two-inch wide real Irish crocheted lace, which was stitched under straps of velvet. These straps were cut out in square tabs on each side of the front and finished by black velvet buttons, embroidered with gold thread. The coat had a rounded plastron, attached invariably at the waist line, and there was a narrow vest of white cloth, applied with narrow black and gold passementerie.

A MOTOR CAR HAT IN BEAVER.

In the search for novelty that is the secret and the foundation of fashion—changing—the furrier has turned once more with a favorable glance to beaver, and to the somewhat rare and scarcer color. The thick and dense fur of the beaver tones in delightfully with both the fashion for smooth surfaces and with the color card, since the beaver shade is one that is highly modish in cloth and velvet—to say nothing of velveteens and corduroys—that are worn by the fashionables this season. The large crown of the hat Tam-o-Shanter order that one sees on so many of the imported millinery models is used for this piece of motor headgear, the brim taking the approved visor form that distinguishes such apparel from that intended merely for street purposes. A little touch of trimming is attempted to relieve the flatness of the fur, this taking the form of rosettes of pale blue velvet, shading on the turquoise tints, tucked in between the crown and the brim on the left side, and running up on the crown towards the back. A curled coque plume in brown serves to harmonize the contrasting shade of fur and velvet nicely, and adds a feminine touch to the somewhat masculine shape of the model.

COMMENT OF THE BROKERS

Wall Street is Beginning to Ask What the President Will Say

"As the opening of congress draws near and monetary conditions show signs of certain improvement, Wall Street is beginning to concern itself as to what the president of the United States will say in his annual message. It comes from people in close touch with the administration that his instructions to congress will be expressed, in more forcible language, if such is possible, than has ever yet used. It is understood he will lay particular stress on the continuance of corporate investigations, suggesting that they should be pushed in every direction with the utmost vigor, touches lightly on the labor question, but goes into at length the advisability of curbing growth of great fortunes and suggests the adoption of a measure of relief to overcome the monetary embarrassments occasioned by the present defective currency systems."—Watson & Co.

WILL BENEFIT CANADA

In the London Financier of Nov. 14th, Mr. R. J. Barrett, the editor, who recently visited Canada, prints another of his fine series of articles on "Canada Today—The Gem of the Empire."

This article deals to the extent of some three columns with western Canada, telling of its boundless opportunities, fertile soil, fine prospects for settlers, the universal optimism of the people, the eagerness of Americans to invest, the rich country opened up by the Canadian Northern railway, and the rapidly with which lands are being taken up.

That boundless optimism reigns in the west. That this is justified by what has been done in the past and is being done in the present.

That next year will witness the greatest rush in the history of the American continent.

That every English farmer who is not doing well in this country should make for the west.

That there is room for all—now, but there will not be in a year or two.

That the Canadian Northern Railway, in opening up this wonderful wheat-growing country, has done great work not only for Canada but the Empire.

That some of the towns in the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan are destined to be great cities in the future.

Mr. Barrett is doing a great service alike to Canada and to the people of the mother country. Such articles, in so authoritative a journal, by its own editor, written after visiting Canada, should carry weight and produce in the minds of other Englishmen a most favorable impression of Canada as a field for investment.

MR. SMITH'S CAMPAIGN

In order to present certain facts which are commonly admitted, but which are as commonly disregarded, in so dramatic a fashion that an impression would be made on the minds of the people, Mr. E. Tenynson Smith has adopted the expedient of a model trial by jury as the closing feature of his temperance campaign. It is not essential that strict rules of legal procedure should be observed.

The play's the thing wherewith to catch the conscience of the king—the king in this case being the people themselves. The York Theatre was crowded last evening, and the audience remained until a few minutes after eleven o'clock. It may be confessed that some of the evidence was sensational.

But the trial is ended and Mr. Smith has gone on to Moncton. What will be the general effect of the campaign upon the professed friends of temperance in this city—and what will it do for the man who is down?

THE FARM PROBLEM

In the November crop bulletin of the Ontario department of agriculture, the following significant paragraph appears: "Only in a few localities was the supply of farm labor equal to the demand. The continued exodus from this province to the Northwest and New Ontario is given as the chief cause of the scarcity of able men to help on the farm. While some correspondents belittle the English immigrants as farm laborers, others aver that there has been a great improvement in quality during the last year or two. The general opinion is that wages will remain about the present rate, as farmers cannot afford to pay more. The situation is being somewhat relieved by the use of improved farm machinery, and by turning more land into pasture. It is almost impossible to secure domestic servants on the farm, as girls seem to prefer town life."

How to make farming and country life more attractive is a problem that calls for close study in Canada, for in its solution lies the remedy for the overcrowding of cities. The movement west is not the only cause of a scarcity of skilled farm help. There is the continuous movement of the young people toward the city. It is well to get help from the old country, but it would be better still to retain a larger proportion of the native farm population on the land. The really happy and independent man should be the intelligent and successful farmer.

There appears to be something wrong with the proposed civic bill relative to street paving. Why ask the city to pay any of the cost? Surely the wealthy residents of Brunswick and St. Patrick street, for example, could pay it all, especially if the Water street expenditure be taken as an illustration. The estimate was $400, and the cost about $600. If the householders are to pay they will probably want to see how the money is spent.

It is announced that the overseas mail by the Empress of Ireland via St. John reached Vancouver 48 hours ahead of that via Halifax, which went by the ordinary channel. Evidence in favor of St. John as the direct mail port will accumulate as the season progresses.

Senator Tillman has the courage of his convictions, but he is doing more to make the race question a bloody issue in the south than the stupid and brutal man who commits gross outrages upon individual citizens.

The ferry committee rejoice in an enlarged patronage of the ferry steamers. The increase is largely due to the eagerness of taxpayers to see how their money is vanishing on the west side.

The board of works is wise—if somewhat late—in taking action relative to the dumping of ashes from steamships into the harbor.

Speaking of the circulation of newspapers—keep your eye on the Evening Times.

The division attended in a body. Special music was provided for the occasion.

BACHELORS "Bachelors can be found roaming at large in all parts of the world. They inhabit apartments, clubs, open fields, bodies of water and music halls. They are also seen behind the scenes. They hover at times near front gates, and have been found in back parlors with the aid of searchlights. Bachelors are nomadic by nature and variable in their tastes, never going with one girl long enough to be dangerous. "Bachelors make love easily, but rarely keep it. Rich bachelors are hunted openly and shamelessly, and are always in great danger. Those who finally escape are, as a rule, never ever afterwards."—Tom Masson, in the December Delinquent.

BEFORE WATERLOO

His face is stained with lines of care, Despair and agitation. His hat, faded, drenched in wet With beads of perspiration, What dreadful curse hangs o'er his head, Like sword to fall and smite him? Or has his conscience report fates To roosty sting and bite him? Oh, no; with friends he cracked some jokes When they were feeling well. And they captured him that he was A bright and sparkling fellow. They captured him with money, weak, This rash, vainglorious sinner, And he conversed with speech To grace a public dinner. Where is his inspiration gone? His mind now gropes and wanders, And now and then he mutters low And bites his lip and ponders. He turns his stock of stores o'er And finds with money's murk He's stuffed full of new suits as A roset Thanksgiving turkey. So he'll break down—he knows he will— He shudders as he thinks he sees The cowards' faces. So, as the fatal hour draws nigh, He's comforted with speech Appears that dreadful dinner. —Chicago News.

"Not in the financial game," answered Mr. Dustin Sax. "My motto is 'Be sure you're ahead; then you're all right.'" Washington Star.

SURE THING. "That man insists on trying to be big, even when he's small."

"Well," answered Senator Sorghum. "If he keeps on trying he will probably succeed in at least being bigger than what is left of it."—Weber on Star.

DRAWING OF THE ART UNION

A special drawing of the Art Union of London was held on the 14th inst. for the Canadian subscribers, who have been prevented from participating for the past five years on account of the anti-slavery law of Canada, but which has now been altered to permit of such drawings, the event took place in London, the Earl of Plymouth, the president, being in the chair. Col. E. T. Sturdee, the hon. agent for St. John, has received the prize list, as follows:—J. B. M. Baxter, specimen vase; H. D. Troop, portfolio of Brandard's etchings; G. A. Beattie, Frederickson, portrait of Brandard's etchings; Chas. H. Peters, water color painting; Arthur M. Irvine, portfolio of Brandard's etchings; H. Calder, Frederickson, vase; G. A. Beattie, Frederickson, portrait of Brandard's etchings; Chas. H. Peters, water color painting; Union Club, water color painting; E. T. Sturdee, portfolio of etchings.

comes out more than lucky, as he has drawn four prizes, all valuable ones, he has been a subscriber for some years and has generally taken two or more chances each year. Mr. Troop draws two prizes, while Dr. Maher was a prize winner a few years ago; there are several other prizes going to other parts of Canada, but St. John seems to have drawn the full share.

ALDERMEN CRITICISED

To the Editor of the Times: Sir—Obed to need of cash in "Safety Board" 20th inst. but fear it's only a bluff to stave off civic reform and house cleaning, such as this city needs, which is overladen with large pay officials who do "little work." How many aldermen run their own business as they run the city? Not one. If they were to be paid a compromise every year at 5c. or 8c. on the dollar if they could get any credit. Sir, please publish list of city employees in every department, also show duties and what the citizens should expect for their salaries. Thanking you for valuable space, I am, dear sir, OVER-TAXED CITIZEN.

DR. SYMONDS' LECTURE

Rev. Dr. Symonds of Montreal delivered an interesting lecture on the religious teaching in Tenynson and Browning, in Trinity school house last night. Dr. Symonds showed an intimate knowledge of his subject, which he treated in a broad and sympathetic manner. He claims that they are waiting for the parliament to meet at Fredericton, then they will pass another appropriation bill that will take Mr. Chittick's house from him. If the city would use more judgment in other matters, and not sow the money broadcast, it would be better for the taxpayer. "The Ladies, for instance."

DR. STOCKTON DECLARES EXPENDITURE FOR I. C. R. ELEVATOR WAS USELESS

Member for St. John City and County Delivered Spirited Address in Parliament—Says Elevator is Only Used in Election Times.
 OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—Before the debate on the address was proceeded with today, Mr. Lemieux said he had received word that a settlement of the strike at Lethbridge was in progress. Archie Campbell (Centre York), Mr. Broder (Dundas) and Col. Tisdale (Norfolk) discussed the election scandals.
 Dr. Stockton in dealing with the question of expenditure said: "It was thrown out to me that I should not object to the expenditure in my own constituency, that no member of this house should object to expenditures in his constituency. I wish to say, sir, that I want no expenditure in my constituency unless it is needed and is for a work of utility and if it is not actually needed in the public interest and is not a work of utility but is merely an expenditure to catch votes, then it is not to be tolerated by me or any other government."
 "I was asked what I thought about the construction of a great elevator at the mouth of the harbor of St. John. I suppose the honorable gentleman who asked me that question imagined that he had put to me a question and that I was unable to answer such a magnificent question as that, that it might possibly lose me votes in the constituency. If I should happen to answer it as the honorable gentleman thought I might answer it. Well, sir, let me say that the expenditure of $300,000 or $500,000 at the mouth of the river St. John on the north side of the harbor of St. John six or seven years ago has been absolutely a dead expenditure so far as this country is concerned. We have the grain elevator there and the appliances to ship grain from the north side and the east side of the harbor of St. John, but thus far, sir, although it has been there for six or seven years, no grain, except a few bushels at the time of a dominion election, has passed through that elevator."
 "I do not know whether that will become a work of utility or not in the future. The prophetic insight of my honorable friend, who propounded this question to me, is of the opinion that it will be a work of great utility. Unless it is taken hold of by the C. P. R. I fear that for the next six or seven years it will remain as it has remained for the last six or seven years."
 "The C. P. R., I am happy to say, has acquired the railway bridge spanning the falls at the mouth of the river St. John, and when their construction is completed on the west side of the harbor they are in a position now to use that elevator and I believe my honorable friend, the minister of railways, although he is not in a position to use it himself on behalf of the government of Canada, to permit the C. P. R. to use that public work to avoid congestion on the western side of the harbor."
 "But, sir, let me say that the mildest manner possible that if the transportation policy of the honorable gentleman who suggested that question to me is carried out."

SENATOR TILLMAN IS STIRRING UP NEGROES

Another Reckless and Violent Speech in Which a Profane Expression is Necessary to Give Vent to His Feelings.
 CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—The effort of the colored citizens of Chicago to prevent United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman from delivering an address here tonight in Orchestra Hall was unsuccessful.
 Senator Tillman gave his address protected by forty detectives, in anticipation of trouble. A number of policemen were kept at nearby stations in reserve but they were not called for. Six negro policemen mingled with the crowd which blocked the street in front of the hall. In the audience were many negroes, but they listened to Senator Tillman's remarks with a mixture of indifference and contempt.
 In leading up to his address, "Shall the United States annex Cuba?" Mr. Tillman's occasion to refer to the negro in a meeting in refusing to preside at the meeting.
