No Christmas Parcels From Canada This Year For Our Men In German Prison Camps

Toronto, Oct. 18.—Official word has been received here from Sir Robert Borden that a cable from Sir George Perley, in London, states that the war office is unable to grant the permission asked for by the relatives of Canadian prisoners of war in Germany to send them parcels at Christmas.

This will come as a great disappointment, as last Christmas parcels were sent from home. It had been hoped that it would again be permitted.

ARCHBISHOP OF NOVA SCOTIA WEDS

Miss Abbott His Bride in All Saints Ceremony

MANY ATTEND IN CATHEDRAL

Bishop of Qu'Appelle and Dean Llywd Officiate—Mr. and Mrs. Desbrisay of St. John Among Family Party at Wedding

(Special to Times.)

Halifax, Oct. 18.—At high noon today, the festival of St. Luke, there took place in All Saints Cathedral, a wedding in which churchmen throughout Nova Scotia felt deep interest.

There was a very large attendance. Visiting delegates to the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, now in session here, all attended. There was general happiness that the day was calm and bright, sunbeams streaming into the chancel and nave.

The Right Rev. Dr. Harding, Bishop of Qu'Appelle and Dean Llywd officiated, Mr. Sangar, organist, and the full choir were in attendance.

Miss Abbott entered the church with her cousin, Lieut.-Colonel Humphrey, by whom she was given in marriage.

The wedding trip will be to Upper Canada and Cleveland, Ohio, where they will be for a few days the guests of Mrs. Almon Abbott.

WAGON SMASHES AUTO

A heavy wagon, owned by the St. John Ice Company, smashed into a light delivery car, owned by J. A. Pugsley & Co., this morning and damaged it considerably.

The car was standing at the curb in front of Pugsley & Company's office in Princess when the heavy wagon came down the street and crashed into it.

The left mud guard of the car was smashed and the rear door broken off, but the car was able to leave under its own power to proceed to the garage for repairs.

It is said the horse's shoes were partially worn and the animal slipped and soon the weight of the cart and its contents forced it down the steep incline at a considerable rate of speed.

BIRTHDAY GIFT

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Tressa Rodday, 570 Main street, when friends called and presented to her a beautiful Morris chair in honor of her birthday.

Dancing and music were enjoyed, and refreshments served. The gathering dispersed in the early hours of the morning.

LONDON PAPER ASKS WHAT OF ALLIED FLEETS IN VIEW OF BALTIC HAPPENINGS

London, Oct. 18.—(Montreal Gazette cable)—Some of the newspapers comment on the inactivity of the overwhelming forces of the allied navies in respect to the Baltic. The Pall Mall Gazette says:—

"It becomes rather strikingly paradoxical that when the Germans undertake an important naval offensive our superior fleet, whether above or below water, should have nothing to say." The paper suggests that the public might be probably told the reason, even if it is because of the disorganization of the Russian depots and their infection with German spies.

Navies In Grip In Riga Gulf; One Russian Ship Lost

Petrograd, Oct. 18.—A naval battle has occurred in the Gulf of Riga, between Russian and German battleships. The war office so announces. The Russian battleship Slava was sunk.

The Slava sank as the result of being hit several times beneath the water line. Nearly all the members of the crew were saved by Russian torpedo boats.

The Slava, built in 1903, was of 13,516 tons, 397 feet in length, 76 feet beam, and 26 feet draft. Her armament consisted of four 12-inch and twelve 6-inch guns, with twenty-four secondary battery guns and four torpedo tubes. Her speed was 18 knots. She had a complement of 825 men.

The Slava was stationed in the Gulf of Riga, so long ago as April 1916, in which month the German admiralty reported having dropped bombs upon her. Her men were involved in the disaffection in the Baltic fleet which followed the revolution, but later were restored to order.

Copenhagen, Oct. 18.—Naval and military operations against the Aland Islands, possibly may be the next step in German strategy. Various German newspapers point out the desirability of seizing up the Gulf of Finland by acquiring the bases to the north as well as to the south of the entrance.

The Aland Islands, of which there are eighty, are in the Gulf of Bothnia, north of the entrance to the Gulf of Finland.

German Warship Lost?

FIRE IN PHOENIX FOUNDRY

A little before 10 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the Phoenix foundry in Pond street, and did considerable damage. One of the employees was using hot steel and a piece of it fell into a can of oil and ignited it. He carried the can towards the stairs in an attempt to get it from the building, but he fell and the burning liquid spread over the stairs and woodwork. In a short time a large section of the machine shop was in flames, and an alarm was rung in box 151. Considerable belting was ruined and some of the machines damaged. The extent is not known, but it is felt that this section of the plant would be down for two or three days.

FINE DAY FOR THE LOCH LOMOND FAIR

The annual fair of the Loch Lomond Agricultural Society was opened today at Loch Lomond. As the fair was postponed from last week and as the season was backward, the entries are not so large as in previous years. They are, however, of exceptionally good quality. The weather today is ideal and many from the city were present at the fair this morning and more were expected this afternoon.

The horse exhibit is a very fine one. The vegetable show is exceptionally good. The cattle show is also very good. The domestic end of the fair is very fine and the needle work was not surpassed in years. There is an exhibit of hand made quilts and fancy work of all kinds. The judging started at 1.30 o'clock.

This evening a dance will be held in the agricultural hall, the proceeds devoted to the Soldiers' Comfort Association. The pledge cards are being distributed at the fair under the direction of Mrs. R. T. Worden.

WANT MURRAY TO KEEP TO PROVINCIAL POLITICS

This Decision of Liberal Caucus In Halifax—Will Fielding Be The Man?—Some of Party Want No Representative In Union Government

Montreal, Oct. 18.—A Halifax despatch to the Gazette says: The decision arrived at by the caucus of Nova Scotia Liberals is that Hon. G. H. Murray must retain the premiership of Nova Scotia and not accept the invitation to enter the union government.

Some Nova Scotia Liberals who were present at the caucus, notably D. D. McKennie and G. W. Kyles, stood out strongly against the union government whatever, and the faction which they represent openly asserted that A. K. MacLean, should be the union government's nominee, would not get a Liberal nomination in Halifax.

Hon. W. S. Fielding is still in the city, and it is said to be unwilling to be the representative of Nova Scotia Liberalism in the Borden cabinet. He was in lengthy conference with Premier Murray last evening, but no statement would be made for publication.

Plans For Taking The Soldiers' Vote

Provision For Allocation of Ballot To Electoral District—The Returned Men

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—Major Furney, overseas clerk for the crown in chancery, is making final arrangements in Ottawa before leaving for England to take in hand the work of provision for taking the votes of all Canadian soldiers overseas in the coming elections. Difficulties in the allocation of the naval and military vote, both in Canada and overseas, have necessitated special provisions. The general rules on which the military vote will be taken are:

(1)—If the elector can indicate the name of the electoral district in which he last continuously resided for at least four months of the twelve months preceding his enlistment or appointment, his vote goes to that electoral district.

(2)—If he cannot, but can name a place within an electoral district, and the names of "recognized" candidates must be published in the Canada Gazette.

(3)—If he cannot specify either, but can specify an electoral district in which he has resided at any other time, his vote will go to the constituency specified.

(4)—If, by reason of non-residence in Canada, the elector is unable to indicate any particular constituency or place, then he may stipulate to which electoral district he wishes to have his vote applied.

Returned soldiers or other military or naval electors must produce their discharge certificates. Each candidate, to secure military votes, must be "recognized" by the leaders of his party. "Recognition" must be made within five days after nomination day, and the names of "recognized" candidates must be published in the Canada Gazette.

Here Scheidemann said provisional regulation of the affairs of the provinces had been effected in accordance with the resolution of the Reichstag main committee, which declared against annexations. Although Riga had German characteristics, he added, the Germans formed only a small portion of the population.

Kaiser Takes Men From Battleships and Sends Them to Western Front

London, Oct. 18.—(Montreal Gazette cable)—A high naval authority says that there is considerable evidence of the weakening of the crews of German battleships by the removal of trained sailors to the western front. Recently a battleship crew was lined up and the first hundred men were drafted as soldiers.

This is the result of the shortage of men rather than a punitive measure following the naval disaffection. The places vacant have been filled by conscripts and the crews have been considerably demoralized.

Volunteers for the submarines can now be obtained only by giving the U-boat crews food much superior in quality to the rations of the rest of the fleet.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Referring to the meeting of the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, a Sydney despatch says: "As a result of an able address on vocational training by Professor Sexton, it is not unlikely that the maritime branch will go on record as favoring dominion-wide vocational training, the necessary financial assistance to be given by the federal government."

The report of the Dominion commission on technical education, of which Dr. James W. Robertson was chairman, and which was submitted to parliament several years ago, very strongly urged a large expenditure by the federal government but nothing at all has been done in the United States of the report of the Canadian commission is valued very highly and is being used in a practical way to advance the interests of technical education; but in Canada it is still a dead letter.

The federal government should act, and act at once. The promotion of technical training is absolutely necessary to cope with after-war conditions. The Military Hospitals Commission all over the country is giving a great object lesson, but it deals only with adults. We must provide for the proper training of the young.

The federal government might very well give a large grant to each province. Such a grant would enable New Brunswick, for example, to have a fully equipped technical college to supplement the medium of evening schools in various centres. This would at least advance the province to the point already reached by Nova Scotia without federal aid.

Not only the Manufacturers' Association but boards of trade and municipal bodies should press for action along this line. We have hesitated and argued and delayed far too long. The time is more than ripe for definite and vigorous action.

NEXT YEAR'S PRODUCTION

We are told that one of the problems of the New Brunswick farmer next spring will be that of getting a supply of fertilizer. The same condition obtains in other provinces and in the United States. The United States National Museum has just issued a review of the situation by Dr. Joseph E. Pogue, who is an expert, and who declares the government should lend practical assistance to ensure a supply of fertilizer. A summary of his review says:

He shows definitely what attitude should be adopted by the government towards the new fertilizer industry growing out of conditions caused by the war. Dr. Pogue explains in a general way the theories of soil formation and of plant growth, and shows that under prolonged cultivation without the addition of fertilizer, the soil is exhausted in respect to three of its most important plant foods—phosphorus, nitrogen and potassium. He then considers each of these elements in turn, describing the sources, available amounts, and ways of increasing the output of each, and concludes by pointing out that the best progress in the fertilizer field will come through enlightened co-operation between the fertilizer industries, the government and the consumers. The fertilizer industry is at present chiefly concerned with securing an adequate supply of the raw material of these three substances, and the development of a wider and more intelligent use of fertilizer, especially at this time when the world war endangers certain of the supplies and at the same time necessitates an increased yield of food."

Of the source of phosphorus supply Dr. Pogue says: "The basis of commercial fertilizer is an inorganic compound of phosphorus occurring in nature in large masses and known as phosphate rock, of which the United States is the world's greatest producer. Among the other sources of phosphorus, fish scrap, cottonseed meal, bones, slaughterhouse refuse, and guano are the most important, but the demand for these substances for other purposes is fast reducing their availability for fertilizer. The chief producer of phosphate rock in this country is Florida, which contributes 75 per cent. of our annual output of 3,000,000 tons. Here the rock occurs in deposits which can be economically worked and their position near the coast affords cheap transportation to manufacturing centres. There are smaller deposits in Tennessee, South Carolina, Kentucky and Arkansas, and in 1906 a large belt of country from Salt Lake City to Helena, Montana, was found to contain a large amount of phosphate rock. This field has not yet been much developed owing to the small local demand for fertilizer and the long freight haul to the east. Phosphate rock to be made suitable for fertilizer has to be treated with about an equal amount of sulphuric acid, which was until the war, obtained from pyrite imported from Spain. Since this source has been endangered by submarine warfare, the numerous small deposits of pyrite in the eastern United States have had a limited development."

Of nitrogen Dr. Pogue says: "The chief source of nitrogen has long been sodium nitrate, obtained chiefly from the deserts of northern Chile, but owing to the demand for this substance for use in explosives and to the high price caused by the royalty imposed by the Chilean government, the nitrogen question has been a prominent one in this country for some time. The two other chief sources of nitrogen are the atmosphere and coal. The recovery of nitrogen as a by-product from coal is a growing industry, going hand in hand with a well-balanced growth of the entire coal products industry, and to reach its full development must expand through a gradual extension of the uses of coke to fuel and power purposes, for the recovery of nitrogen is made chiefly from the by-product coke ovens. The ultimate source of nitrogen, however, on which the world must eventually depend, is the atmosphere. The three practical processes for fixing this atmospheric nitrogen have been found to be the arc process, the cyanamid process, and the Haber process. It is a significant fact that as soon as the Haber and cyanamid processes for getting nitrogen for explosives as well as fertilizer from the air had been successfully developed in Germany, war was declared. In the United States the need has for some time been urgent to draw upon atmospheric nitrogen. Last year, congress appropriated $20,000,000 for such a plant, but it has not yet materialized, presumably because such an industry, if established abruptly on such a large scale, would endanger the whole coal by-product industry with its far-reaching ramifications, by setting up in competition a non-profit-seeking industry."

Lastly Dr. Pogue deals with potassium, and says: "The chief source of potassium before the war was the Great Salt Lake deposit in Prussian Saxony and the abrupt cutting off of this supply led to an awkward situation in this country and the supply is inadequate though we are now producing potash from a variety of sources. Chief among these are the alkali lakes of the west, which have been found to be relatively rich in potassium compounds, and another important source is the kelp, a giant weed which grows in considerable abundance along the Pacific coast from Lower California to Alaska. Among other minor sources is the successful application of a method of recovering potash out of the dust from the flues of Portland cement plants and iron blast furnaces. The most important question concerning this new industry is, what will become of it after the war, when the importation of cheap potash from Europe is resumed? The proper solution of this problem would seem to be a governmental subsidy, rather than a high tariff on the foreign potash which would result in higher prices to the farmer and an increase in the price of food."

Obviously the thing to do in relation to all the elements entering into the manufacture of fertilizer is to stimulate the development of domestic resources; and this is a question that should be taken up at once by the Canadian government in conjunction with the agricultural departments of the various provinces. There was a scarcity of fertilizer last spring, and if there is to be as there should be, a great increase in production next year, the question should receive the most careful consideration without delay.

The war interest still centres in the German operations in and around the Gulf of Riga. Evidently the Kaiser is determined to have some more Allied territory to bargain with when the settlement day arrives. Unfortunately Russia does not appear to be able to defend herself successfully, although she is sending reinforcements and expresses confidence in her army.

The British Red Cross appeal and the distribution of food-control pledge cards in St. John today are reminders to the people that there is very serious business to be done before peace comes, and that there is need of greater sacrifice than has yet been made to ensure a lasting peace.

The last week's submarine toll was not above the recent average. It is still a very serious matter, and emphasizes the need of a more vigorous ship-building campaign. In this Canada should take a prominent part.

Of the 25,000 men who have passed in Class "A," under the military service act, a considerable proportion will of course be exempted. The applications for exemption are quite numerous.

Equal There. "Every one at the club thought my hat was lovely, dear," said Mrs. Holt with a beaming smile. "Of course it is, but it is quite lovely as Mrs. Ringley's, which cost her nearly $75."

"But the Kingley's are able to own a punished for it and that was the duty of the jury to decide whether, or not at the time Glenn shot Wiley, he understood the nature of his deed and knew that he was doing wrong. The jury decided the murderer was irresponsible."

At the morning session three witnesses for the prosecution, Guy Welch, William Love and Alexander Quinn, gave evidence as to seeing the body of Wiley, and the crown then closed its case.

The witnesses in the case were H. V. Moore, deputy sheriff; Elmer Glenn, a brother of the accused. He testified to the effect that his brother always wanted to be alone and while he was working in the woods he always carried his rifle. J. V. Anglin, superintendent of the provincial hospital, said that he had talked to Glenn in August and had come to the conclusion that the man was insane. He said that it was possible for a man to be insane and yet be sane at times.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER. Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids. Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

The Military Hospitals Commission have ordered 50,000 pounds of tea to check the thirst of returned men. There's nothing drier in prohibition propaganda than the convalescent. Camellium. He wants tea, good stiff black tea three times a day, and the cooks in the convalescent hospitals under the direction of the commission are going to be ready for him.

Cured His RUPTURE. I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of a medicine which quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no pain, no loss of time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how to get a complete cure without operation if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpen 5413 Garretts Avenue, Minneapolis, N.J. Be cut out this notice and show it to any other who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least a misery of rupture and the worry and pain of an operation.

USE THE WANT AD. WAY. Sufferers from indigestion or dyspepsia should remember that the presence of gas or wind in the stomach invariably indicates that the stomach is troubled with excessive acidity. This acid causes the food to ferment and the fermenting food in turn gives rise to noxious gases which distend the stomach, hamper the normal function of vital internal organs, cause acute heart-aches, interfere with the action of heart, and change the blood stream into deadly poisons, which in time must rattle the health. Physicians say that to quickly dispel a dangerous accumulation of wind in the stomach and to stop the fermentation which creates the gas, acid in the stomach must be neutralized and that for this purpose there is nothing quite so good as a teaspoonful of a bisulphated magnesia taken in a little water immediately after meals. This instant neutralizes the acid, thus stopping fermentation and the formation of gas, enables the inflamed, distended stomach to proceed with its work under natural conditions. Bisulphated magnesia is obtainable in powder or tablet form for any druggist; but as there are many different forms of magnesia it is important that the bisulphated which the physician prescribes should be distinctly asked for.

TROUBLES FACE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT BUT THE WAR WILL BE FOUGHT ON

Turin, Oct. 18.—The Italian parliament has re-opened its sessions in Rome under peculiar circumstances, two facts being so prominent as even to make a ministerial crisis possible. Owing to their nature they will probably be discussed only in separate session. One has to do with serious riots in Turin, in the later part of August, due in part to the delay in providing the town with sufficient bread, and in part, to political discontent.

The other question concerns the general food crisis throughout Italy, which led to the resignation of the food controller, Giuseppe Canep, whose place has been taken by General Alfieri.

Whatever the result, whether with the present ministry in power or under a new cabinet, the nation is determined to carry on the war to a victorious end and defeat the efforts of the intransigent Socialists, who are trying to spread dissatisfaction among the troops and induce them to cease fighting after October 31.

LABRADOR TRAVERSED FROM SOUTH TO NORTH FIRST TIME

Pittsburg, Oct. 18.—The Peninsula of Labrador has been crossed from the south to the north for the first time by a scientific exploring party, according to an announcement last night by Dr. W. J. Holland, director of the Carnegie Museum, following the receipt of a telegram from St. John's, Nfld., announcing the arrival of an expedition which in last April undertook to cross the peninsula from the Bay of Seven Islands on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, to Ungava on Davis Strait.

Tomato Rarbit
2 tablespoons butter; ¼ cup milk; ¼ teaspoon soda, 1 cup finely rolled bread crumbs; ½ teaspoon salt; 2 tablespoons flour; ¾ cup stewed and strained tomatoes; 1 cup grated cheese; ½ teaspoon mustard; Cayenne to taste. Heat the tomatoes in a saucepan, and add the soda. Make a sauce of butter, flour, milk, and add the tomatoes. To the cheese add the salt, mustard and cayenne and bread crumbs. Just before serving combine these with the sauce and, when thoroughly heated, serve. Do not allow to boil or the cheese will become leathery.

Save bread and flour by mixing graham flour with white occasionally.

Try Graham Muffins

Promotion of Revolution in India and Siam—Scheme to Blow up Munition Plants in Canada

Chicago, Oct. 18.—William Wilms, a dealer in timber and lumber here for twenty years, testified yesterday that he had been financial agent for Baron Kurt von Reisswitz, alleged promoter of a revolution of Hindus when he was German consul in Chicago. Wilms was a witness in the trial of Gustave H. Jacobsen and others on charges of conspiring in this country to foment a revolution in India. According to Wilms' testimony, he wrote three checks for von Reisswitz in order that the latter's name would not be connected with the financing of the uprising in India. Wilms swore that he had given his personal checks to the amount of $40,000 to the then German consul, which he since learned had been used to further the work of the revolutionists.

Joseph Reider testified to having quit his job with a switchboard company in April, 1915, at the request of Jacobsen to serve his native country, Germany. He said he was drilling soldiers for a revolution to be started in Siam. Reider told of attending meetings at the American embassy and of hearing plans discussed for revolutions to be conducted by German agents in India. He said he had received money at different times while the various plots were being worked out. Bogus citizenship papers were furnished him by Jacobsen, he said, to facilitate his traveling about the world.

Max Jarrasch, a sergeant in the 122nd Field Artillery at Houston, Texas, testified that he had been offered a trip to Germany by Jacobsen as an inducement for him to join the forces of the revolution. He said it was planned for him to go to Detroit and from there into Canada to blow up munition plants. He was stopped, he said, by a telegram from Jacobsen.

Rigid Physical Exam For Returned Men

Veterans Examined as Carefully as Recruits on Return to Canada to Resume Civil Life

To get into the army is one thing, and to get out is another, but the process is the same—a physical examination that takes count of every hair on a man's head, and leaves absolutely nothing to conjecture.

While the physicians are examining hundreds of young men liable to draft for the new army, others in the discharge depots of the Military Hospitals

Commission are going over the unfit and misfits returned to Canada after service, with the same appraising eye.

For the protection of the man as well as the country, every precaution is taken that a man shall be restored to the best possible shape before he is discharged from service to civil life. No chances are taken with incipient ailments which might be overlooked by a cursory examination. The man who returns is stripped and thoroughly examined, every wound recorded, and the exact state of his health noted on records which are filed in the department headquarters.

Unknown Weaknesses
A man whose disability is due primarily to the amputation of an arm or leg, may have contracted other weaknesses from service which could be remedied by treatment before his discharge. He may be ignorant of the condition himself, but it becomes immediately evident to the physician.

On the other hand in future years the man may suffer from some disease which he will attribute to his service, but which will be due to other causes. The exact record of his health at the time of discharge will determine what basis there is for such a claim, if there is any.

The M.O.'s at the discharge depots examine about 100 men a day in this way, and upon their report and recommendation the interviewers whose business it is to take a man's vocational history and make recommendations for his vocational retraining if such a course is necessary, base their advice.

DOES NOT REPORT WHAT KAISER HAD

Preaches Frugality After Luncheon on Train—Says if France Wants Alsace-Lorraine She Must Take It

London, Oct. 18.—The correspondent of the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, who was permitted to travel on a train which took Emperor William to the Balkans and to lunch in the restaurant car with the Kaiser, says a despatch to the Daily

Chronicle from Amsterdam, sends the following to his newspaper:
"His majesty sat down to the table with the observation that he had just read Professor Painleve's first speech as French premier.
"So M. Painleve wants Alsace-Lorraine does he?" exclaimed the emperor.
"Good; but he must come and take it."
"The emperor then treated the company to a eulogy of the late King Carl and Queen Elizabeth of Roumania, whose good work, he said, 'had been undone in a few months by the hunger for gold and power of certain agitators.'
"At the conclusion of the lunch, the Kaiser said: 'It is unworthy for any German to live well when even the best people go without things. What we have of foodstuffs is common property, which, by just division, is sufficient to keep us alive for an unlimited time and which permits us to await final victory with calm. He who takes more than his share sins against those who serve the fatherland."

Famine-Bread From Trees
According to a German report (says a writer in the London Daily Chronicle) permission has been given the inhabitants of Finland to cut down 7,000 trees in order to make bread. This is no new departure for Finland, as during times of stress and famine bread has frequently to be made from both pine bark and moss. The Chinese make a curious form of bread from the pith of the fatia tree. This is not baked, but is laundered out in long, narrow strips with a hot iron, somewhat after the fashion in which a collar is finished at a laundry.

Who are the Koylies? A passage in accounts of the fighting beyond Langemarck must, I fancy, have puzzled some readers of the papers, says a writer in the Westminster Gazette. It told of the holding of a position by "a mixed lot of Somerset, 'Koylies' and Rifle Brigade men." Who and what are the "Koylies?" was a question that I heard; one of the replies was that they were members of one of our native races. As a fact, the "Koylies" are the "King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry," with a record going back to Minster, and including everything big in the way of fighting up to the Boer war. The 1st Battalion of the "Koylies" was raised in 1755, and was "Koylies" from its birth, being intimately connected with the West Riding. Sir John Moore, although a Scotsman and a "Glesse keelie," served as an ensign and a field officer with the "Koylies," who did glorious service with the regiment in the retreat to Corunna.

WEAKNESS AT WALL STREET OPENING

New York, Oct. 18—Wall street—Re- current weakness among active speculatives provoked further irregularity of the market today. The stock market. Utah Copper registered an initial loss of 2 1/2 points, Mexican Petroleum fell two points, General Motors one and a half and Bethlehem Steel one. Several important rails yielded large fractions to a point. There were a few offsetting gains, notably in U. S. Steel, Central Leather and the tobacco group. Firm tendencies set in before the end of the first half hour.

LONDON STOCK MARKET

London, Oct. 18—The stock market had a good undertone today with a few prominent features. Oil shares and East Rand gold mines were strong and active, and Argentine rails were higher on bet- ter strike news. Russian issues were flat following the rise in exchange to 85, while gilt-edged securities were quite firm. American shares were undecided. Money was in short supply, and dis- count rates were steady.

LIKELY SETTLE STRIKE IN SUGAR MILLS IN HAVANA

Havana, Oct. 18—A strike of sugar mills mechanics, which has continued for a fortnight and which threatened seri- ously to curtail sugar production, ap- pears to be near a settlement, as a re- sult of concessions made by both sides to the controversy.

THE CORN MARKET.

Chicago, Oct. 18—Much colder weather predicted for tonight tended today to ease down the corn market. The lower temperatures in prospect were looked upon as a means of helping to put the crop in good condition for quick ship- ping than the prevailing warmth and moisture would have allowed. Selling, however, was not of an aggressive char- acter. Opening quotations, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 3 1/2 cents lower with December at $1.14 1/2, and May at $1.10 with a moderate down-turn all round, and then some- thing of a rally.

VON BUELOW IN BERLIN AGAIN

Believed He Will Succeed To Chancellorship

Michaelis Robbed Once More

Clerical Party Again Says He Lacks Political Judgment—Franchise Reform Bill Delayed—More About the Bolo Affair

Amsterdam, Oct. 18—Prince Von Buelow, former imperial chancellor, has returned to Berlin, according to the Lokal Anzeiger. It is generally be- lieved, the newspaper adds, that he will be offered his old post in succession to Dr. Michaelis.

Copenhagen, Oct. 18—A report that Dr. Michaelis has offered Frederick Van Payer the post of vice-chancellor held by Dr. Karl Helfferich, is confirmed by the clerical newspaper Germania, and the Radical newspaper Tageblatt. The offer would imply the chancellor's readiness to throw overboard Helfferich as well as Admiral Von Capelle, the minister of marine, in order to save the situation.

News of overtures to the radical party has not helped Michaelis in his parlia- mentary troubles. Germania, speaking for the powerful clerical party, says that the naval affair has convinced parli- amentary circles that Michaelis lacks the required political judgment and must be replaced by an adroit politician and diplomat.

Copenhagen, Oct. 18—The Prussian Diet re-assembled yesterday to be met by the news that the franchise reform bill, which the emperor ordered submit- ted in time so that new elections could be held under the new system, probably would not be ready before December. At best only the formal first reading is expected before Christmas, and there is little chance that the debates can be con- cluded before the terms of the present members of the Diet expire.

Th. Germania says the delay is due to the complicated studies connected with the reform of the upper house and the re-shaping of election districts. The actual change in franchise rights has presented few difficulties.

The majority parties in the Diet which are opposed to the idea of "Sui- cidal" reform, are delighted at the de- lay.

Copenhagen, Oct. 18—The Deutsche Bank admits in the Vossische Zeitung, which prints four columns on the Bolo Pasha affair, that it transferred a sum of money to Ambassador Von Bernstorff through Hugo Schmidt, who formerly represented the Deutsche Bank in New York. The bank acted upon instructions from a source "gen- erally responsible for the payment of salaries, and other payments to our am- bassadors, and did not concern himself with the purposes to which the money was applied.

The Deutsch Tages Zeitung makes the Bolo affair the text for an attack on the ability of Bernstorff, whose candi- dacy for the imperial chancellorship evi- dently is still feared by the pan-Ger- mans.

articles, by an arrangement made be- tween the Military Hospitals Com- mission and the board of pensions commis- sioners.

"We have so arranged," explained Secretary E. H. Scammell following the announcement, "that a man may pur- chase such appliances and forward the bill to the commission. His needs have been appraised and the fair cost of such articles estimated, this sum will be de- ducted from the amount granted him for the year, and if at the end of the term there is a balance it will be given to him.

In case of an artificial limb of course the government is manufacturing them itself, and all necessary changes will be taken care of without expense to the man, but with minor appliances this new arrangement is thought to be the more satisfactory both to the man and the government.

Government Seizes 500 Ocean Steamers

Commandeering Programme Takes Effect Without a Hitch—Owners Still Operate Vessels

Washington, Oct. 18.—The programme of the United States Shipping Board to requisition all American-owned ocean-going steamers of more than 2,500 tons dead weight was put into effect without a hitch.

Sailing vessels and steamers under 2,500 tons do not come under the requisitioning provision, but sailing vessels of American registry have been refused clearance for foreign ports, on the theory that they will prove more effective in coastwise trade.

There are about 2,000,000 tons of shipping—approximately 300 vessels—involved in the commandeering programme.

Mr. Colby said the requisitioning would not make any material difference in the present movement of ships.

"We are turning the ships back to the owners to operate them on government account, under the same system as in England," he said.

Reports that the French were suffering severely because of a shipping shortage and that a critical situation was faced were discounted in official circles.

TRAINMEN APPROVE UNION GOVERNMENT

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—American and Canadian trainmen and conductors gathered in Ottawa in annual convention, joined together today in a message of loyalty to Sir Robert Borden, prime minister of Canada.

The message, which was signed by the chairman of the Eastern Association of General Committees, of the Order of Railroad Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, W. J. Burke, who is a state senator from Pennsylvania, stated that the delegates had learned "with a thrill of satisfaction" of the formation of a union within the war government and the hope was expressed that labor would be given representation in the new cabinet.

A New Face Without Surgical Skin Peeling

The surgical operation of face peeling is too radical, too severe. There's a better way removing offensive complexion and one that is entirely safe and rational. Ordinary mercurochrome wax ointment, applied to the face, gradually and gently, unlike the surgical process, does not forcibly take off the skin, but merely softens it.

N. B. Now Separate Military District

Ottawa, Ont. Oct. 27—An order-in-council has been passed constituting the province of New Brunswick military district No. 7. The order states that New Brunswick has, in the past, formed a part of military district No. 6, and that troops stationed there were commanded by a general officer who took orders from Halifax.

This system of administration has proven unsatisfactory, and, having regard to the requirements of the military service act and also in view of the situation, which will arise when troops return from overseas, it has been thought advisable to create a new district from New Brunswick.

It will constitute a separate and independent command.

BRITISH FLEET OF SUBMARINES

Maintain Continual Patrol Over Lanes German Navy Must Travel—Kaiser's Warships Blocked

London, Oct. 18—Recent revelations of decay in the German navy brought to British naval officers no surprise, as the discontent of the enemy seamen has been known to them for several months. They now look forward to further evidence of revolutions resulting from enforced activity.

The correspondence under a very unusual privilege granted by the Admiralty went out into the North Sea and saw at first hand an evidence of the force which has made that body of water a place of terror for the German navy. British naval forces of every description have worked with such good results that they have made enemy traffic impossible on the surface while the U-boats are finding increasing difficulties in getting through the various defences built up during the past year. There has been no previous time since the war started when the British felt a more complete sense of mastery over the Germans than during these autumn days, when daily reports show the tremendous decline in enemy activities. German mines, that formerly made England's coast one long death trap for small vessels, grow fewer all the time, are laid in worse fashion and do not conform to their erstwhile system.

Enemy Destroyers Wary. The new rates were fixed at the conclusion of a 15 days' truce agreed upon by producers and dealers at a meeting with the food administrator last month. At the time the retail dealers said that if they were obliged to meet the demands of the producers it would be raiges along the Belgian coast have been made untenable under the continual bombardment from sea and air.

Finally, doubly to ensure complete control of the waters accessible to Germany, Great Britain has established a fleet of submarines whose power is unsuspected even by the Englishmen themselves. These undersea craft are manned by the best type of picked British sailors, who undoubtedly have done more than their share to make the North Sea a graveyard for German shipping. They have wiped out many old scores during the last six months, and for every wrecked British or neutral vessel whose rotting hulk is on the ocean bed, Germany will pay double.

Britain's submarines have been built so swiftly and in such numbers that they have been able to maintain a continual patrol over the lanes which the German navy might use. They also have laid mine fields to ensure the further bottling up of enemy craft of all classes. British sea forces have worked consistently and co-operated untiringly to attain such indescribable heights of power. It is not surprising that the enemy seamen revolt at the prospect of meeting such opponents.

MILK GOES UP ONE CENT A QUART IN MASSACHUSETTS

Producers were granted one cent more a quart for milk and the retail price in Boston was increased from 18 to 14 cents a quart under a decision reached by Henry B. Endicott, state food administrator, after a conference with Greater Boston milk dealers and representatives of the New England Producers' Association on Monday night. The new rates will be effective until December 1 and are justified, Mr. Endicott says, by the increased price of labor and grain.

The new rates were fixed at the conclusion of a 15 days' truce agreed upon by producers and dealers at a meeting with the food administrator last month. At the time the retail dealers said that if they were obliged to meet the demands of the producers it would be necessary to raise the price of milk to consumers to 15 cents a quart.

The statement issued at the conclusion of Monday night's conference said: "After an investigation of the price of milk and hearing the producers, the food administration has come to the conclusion that the increased price of labor and grain justifies the increase in the price of milk from the 13th of October delivered on the cars in Boston, and in consequence of this increase he has authorized an increase of one cent a quart in the price of milk in the city until the first of December.

"He is studying the possibilities of a more economical form of delivery, which it is believed will enable people to participate good milk at a lower price in the future, but with the price of 14 cents it has been clearly demonstrated that milk is the cheapest form of animal food for the money that a householder can buy."

First To Raise Conscience Plea

The first conscientious objector to file exemption papers in New Brunswick, if not in New Brunswick, did so yesterday. The lad's father is a member of the Plymouth Brethren.

At the rate of registration under the Military Service Act in St. John, it will be some time yet before one battalion will be recruited. Out of the sixty applications filed yesterday at the local post office, but one man offered himself for service.

Casualties

The casualty list of yesterday contained the names of two New Brunswickers, L. Chapman, of St. John, as killed in action, and Sergeant C. E. Huggins, of Moncton, as wounded. Relatives in St. John yesterday also received word that Private Fred. D. Hayes, who is reported officially as being wounded and missing Aug. 15, was reported killed in action by letters from his comrades who state that Private Hayes has been killed.

Private Hayes enlisted with the 118th Battalion and was sent with a draft to France last April. His wife received a letter from one of his comrades dated Sept. 6, saying her husband was killed Aug. 15. He also sent her his Bible and the pictures of his family which he found on the body. As the telegram, mentioned above, is the last official tidings received by his family, it leaves his relatives in doubt as to the certainty of his death. His wife and his three children are living in Springfield, Kings county, and his mother and sister in Boston.

Many will recall that Private Hayes was a son of the late Frank H. Hayes, who served so acceptably as the superintendent of schools, not only of the old city of Portland but also of the entire city when the union was made in 1888. Educationally he was well known throughout the province, and the entire sympathy of his many friends will now go out to his son's relatives who are left without definite knowledge of his end. Private Hayes is a cousin of Hedley Hayes, director of manual training in this city.

New Railway Unit

Lieutenant Pinch was in the city yesterday in connection with a new depot that will soon be mobilized in the Maritime Provinces under the name of "Skilled Railway Employees." The headquarters of the new section will be Moncton, but recruiting will be carried in various parts of New Brunswick and in the northern part of Nova Scotia.

WEST INDIA STEAMER ON FIRE Halifax, Oct. 17.—Fire of unknown origin broke out at an early hour last evening in No. 4 hold of a Royal Mail Steam Packet liner at Pier 3. The intense smoke and great heat rendered fighting the fire both difficult and dangerous. It is thought by experts that the lower hold where the fire is still resisting all efforts will have to be flooded. The damage, though not yet definitely set, will probably amount to many thousand dollars.

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the fingertips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

KING'S APPEAL TO CANADA FOR RED CROSS

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—His excellency the governor-general desires to communicate the following message from his majesty the king, Buckingham Palace: "During the last twelve months I have had constant opportunity of witnessing afresh both at home and in Flanders, the great work of mercy carried on by the united efforts of the British Red Cross Society and the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England. In every theatre of the war, regardless of distance, discomfort or danger, the task of alleviating pain and suffering and of ministering to those in need is performed with unparalleled devotion by the men and women who have taken service under the Red Cross. The prompt and unstinting provision of medical and general stores and comforts is an all-important work and one of the main responsibilities undertaken by the joint commission. In hospitals and convalescent homes, hospital trains, motor ambulances and launches our sick and wounded as well as those of our allies, are, I know, indeed grateful for the aid and co-operation which the joint societies bring to the medical services of the armies; nor have the needs of our prisoners of war been forgotten in the allocation of your funds. I trust therefore that there will be no falling off of generous financial support on the part of every one at home and in the dominions overseas, without which this work could not be maintained. During the war I have had great satisfaction in sending the joint commission on October 28th, a donation of 5,000 pounds. This year, for the "Our Day" collection on the 18th October, it is a pleasure to me to contribute 10,000 pounds to mark my appreciation of what has been achieved by the British Red Cross Society and the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England in the past and my deep sense of the importance of continuing these achievements in the future." The Simple Truth About Corns

A corn today is just as needless as a spot of dirt. It can be ended almost as easily, as simply and completely as a spot of dirt. The way is scientific. It was invented by a famous chemist. It is prepared by makers of surgical dressings, whom physicians respect. It is called Blue-jay. You apply it in a jiffy, and usually but once. There is no muss. The pain stops instantly and forever. The action is gentle. It affects the corn alone. The corn is wrapped and protected, so you forget it. In two days, usually, the corn is gone. Only very tough corns need a second application. The results are sure. The method is gentle, but no corn can resist it. Millions of corns are ended every month in this way. Don't use harsh methods—relics of the old days. See what Blue-jay does. Prove it on one corn tonight. Stop Pain Instantly End Corns Completely 25c Packages at Druggists. BAUER & BLACK, Limited, Makers of Surgical Dressings, etc. Toronto, Canada.

McGRAW VICTIM OF FISH PLAY IN ALL WORLD SERIES

New York, Oct. 16.—Somehow it just seems to be written in the stars that John J. McGraw shall not win another world's championship, and by the same sign it can be read that Chicago shall be a nemesis that shall follow McGraw through his baseball life.

Today the Stars and Chicago are smiling on a "bush league" upstart who came into the big city on Lake Michigan to lead the great team Charles Comiskey had assembled with dollars and ingenuity. Clarence Rowland was just a mere Three F club manager and a half way scout for the White Sox when Comiskey made the baseball world gasp by appointing him manager to succeed Jimmy Callahan.

Way back in 1908 the nemesis that pursues McGraw began to felt. Down in the last grapples of a fierce season, Cubs and Giants met. The battle was hard. The clash was nerve racking. Then came the famous play in which Fred Merkle forgot to touch second base, and John Evers saw it. The game was ordered played over and Chicago won it, clinching the 1908 National League pennant. A dense crowd battled to get into the Polo Grounds that day, and they badgered and heckled the Cubs until it seemed the famous old team just could not win against such odds. It was heart that time that overcame New York, and today it is due to the same gritty determination that Comiskey Park is still waiting for its second world's series banner.

Heinie Zimmerman is nominated as the chief goat of all time for world's series encounters. Heine used to be one of the old Cubs. May be that's why the southside fans hopped him and did some plain and fancy riding every time Heine appeared in Chicago. Zimmerman takes class today with all the famous bones who have appeared in crucial combats. Nearly always it has been some fish play that dropped McGraw in his world's series starts. In 1912 McGraw had a chance to win and should have turned it down. But Fred Snodgrass, Fred Merkle and Chief Meyers contrived to let the golden apple be split with the biggest half for Boston.

It is felt that McGraw made a mistake by holding the White Sox too cheaply. He saw them collapse and crumble twice in New York, and thought it meant nothing. When they came from behind Saturday and won a ball game he recognized a fighting heart, and laid it to the home crowd. The Sox, as a matter of fact, are one of the finest scrapping teams in baseball history. Their record during the season proved their best came out when they had to fight back. McGraw also was tempting fate by shooting left handers after left handers at the westerners. They have consistently bombarded American League southpaws all through the summer.

JUMPED INTO FIRE AND SHOT HIMSELF

Rumford, Me., Octogenarian Ends Life in Tragic Manner in Woods Two Miles From His Home

Standing in the middle of a roaring bonfire, Napoleon Jackson, eighty, a farmer living near Rumford Centre, Me., blew off his head with a shotgun on last Sunday. Smoke from the fire attracted the attention of wood choppers who reached the scene in time to save the bones, from which nearly all of the flesh had been burned. His identity was established by his hat, which together with the top of his head had been blown several feet from the fire.

Mr. Jackson has spent the greater part of his life in Rumford, and was well known. For the last few years it has been reported he was eccentric in many ways, but nothing had ever occurred to alarm his relatives and friends. He was considered a good neighbor, and was well liked. His hat and the top of his head were found some distance from the fire, and were the only means of identification that remained.

Besides his wife, three sons and two daughters survive. While Mr. Jackson had been a farmer nearly all his life, for a few years when he was a young man he was engaged in prospecting in mining districts in the west. Will Outgrow It. "I know something I won't tell," said a little girl as little girls do. "Never mind, child," said the Savage Bachelor, "you'll get over that habit when you are a little older."

Ye that have gentle hearts and faint To succour men in need, There is no voice could ask in vain With such a cause to plead— The cause of those that in your care Who know the debt to honour due, Confide the wounds they proudly bear, The wounds they took for you. And yonder where the battle waves Broke yesterday o'erhead, Where now the swift and shallow graves Cover the Empire's dead: Think how your sisters play their part To serve as in a holy shrine, Tender of hand and brave of heart, Under the Red Cross sign. Ah, by that symbol, worshipped still, Of life blood sacrificed, That lonely Cross on Calvary's Hill, Red with the blood of Christ; By that free gift to none denied Let pity serve you like a sword, And Love go out to open wide The gate of life restored. Sir Owen Seaman in "Punch"

The British Red Cross once more makes an earnest but confident appeal for our help.

That is why today, October 18th, has been set aside as "Our Day" for giving.

Canada's trust is, that out of their abundance every man and woman will give generously to aid the work of the British Red Cross.

ENGLAND CONSIDERING MATTER OF COINAGE AND SYSTEM OF WEIGHTS

London, Oct. 18, via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. King asked whether the problem of the decimal system, either of weights and measures or coinage, were being considered with a view to the introduction of changes likely to facilitate national trade and simplify accounts and manufacturing processes after the war. Hon. Dr. Addison replied:—"I understand this question is being considered by the committee on commercial and industrial policy after the war."

Trouble in Oil Fields Ended. Baku, Trans-Caucasus, Oct. 18.—The strike of the workers in the petroleum fields, which began in the early part of the month, has ended. The proprietors of the oil properties satisfied most of the demands of the strikers.

BASKETBALL

Two Close Games.
Two very closely contested and extremely interesting games of basketball were played in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. last evening when the Y. M. C. A. team defeated the Siege Battery city team by a score of 14-13, and the Y. M. C. A. team vanquished the Siege Battery provincial team by a score of 7-6. It is perhaps the first time since the building was built that two so closely contested games were played in one evening in the gymnasium of the building.

The line-ups were as follows:
Y. M. C. A. team—Thorne and Willet, forwards; Treat, centre; Ryan and Duncan, defence.
Siege Battery—Clark and Ketchum, forwards; McAndrew, centre; Somerville and Will, defence.

In the game between the Y. M. C. A. team and the Siege Battery provincial team, the line-ups were:
Y. M. C. A.—Flood and Sterling, forwards; Marr, centre; Howard and Dever, defence.
Siege Battery—Andrews and Brydon-Jack, forwards; Brown, centre; McKenzie and Turner, defence.

the regular American and National League season and, no doubt, Eddie Collins, Joe Jackson, Benny Kauff, Herzog, Zimmerman and a few others were getting salaries around the $8,000 mark.

Add to this the money they grab out of the baseball classic and no one will wonder that the majority of the rising generation sigh to be ball players.

The White Sox and Giants will split $152,894.48 this year. The Giants have twenty-four men eligible and each will get $2,348.14. Each of the twenty-six White Sox players, including Manager Rowland and Coach Gleason, will cop $3,528.13. The Giants if they had won would each have pulled down $3,822.13. The players' receipts this year were $14,000 less than last year.

FOR LANCASTER SOLDIERS
The United Soldiers' Helpers of Fairville met in Temperance Hall last evening and decided to go ahead with plans for a fair to provide Christmas boxes for the Lancaster soldier boys. It was announced that several contributions had already been received toward a prize list for sports. It is planned to hold the fair on three evenings. Booths will be erected and the interior of the hall decorated. The United Soldiers' Helpers have been given charge of the Housewives' League cards to be distributed today in Fairville. The village had last night light into sections and each member allotted certain territory.

GOOD FAIR HELD AT NAUWIGEAUK
The Nauwigewauk Agricultural Society held a very successful fair at Nauwigewauk on Wednesday, October 17. It was the first exhibition this society had held. A keen interest was shown by all the farmers and their wives, and the other people of the village, as well as business men from the adjoining districts. In the exhibition hall were shown field roots, apples, pumpkins, squash, etc., which were of the finest quality, also dairy products, canned fruits, preserves, home cooking and fancy work, and a number of bed spreads. The judge of the horticultural and agricultural products was O. W. Waters, of Clifton, who proved a very excellent official.

The judges of the fancy work and home cooking were: Harriet A. Ward, of Hampton, domestic science graduate; and Mrs. W. H. Hill, of Nauwigewauk. Particular credit was given to these two ladies for their excellent work in grouping and placing the awards on the various collection of articles.

On the grounds the live stock made fine showing. A large number of horses of a very fine quality were shown. In the draft class the award was given to Chas. DeMille, of Hampton, on a matched team of Clydes. The others were mostly shown in agriculture and driving class. The judge, Hugh McMonagie, of Sussex, gave good satisfaction. He gave the people much credit for the fine quality of horses shown.

In cattle, the Ayrshire class was well filled with young and aged stocks. Most of the awards went to H. V. Dickson, M.L.A., and Harry Henderson. In the Jersey class were only a few entries. Awards were given to J. A. Duffy. The Holsteins, shown by W. S. Harding and R. R. Wanamaker, were great credit to their owners. A Shorthorn bull, shown by W. A. Porter, won first place.

In the grade class were some very fine cattle. The judge called particular attention to some grade Holsteins belonging to H. J. Wamaker, of Fredericton, and Walter McMonagie, of Fredericton, and he gave particularly good satisfaction in placing the awards on this stock. He pointed out to the people the reasons for awarding the prizes.

In the hall the ladies of the Red Cross of Hammond River sold refreshments, which proved very successful, realizing about $48.

HAGERMAN-OSBORNE
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Osborne, 214 Watson street, West St. John, was the scene of an interesting event at eight o'clock last evening when their daughter, Mary Evelyn, was united in marriage to Guy Hagerman, son of Thomas O. Hagerman of Woodstock, N.B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Marshall. The bride was gown in white silk with white net overdress and veil with pearl trimmings and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss M. Gore Osborne, who was dressed in rose satin with bouquet of sweet peas. Ronald H. Bond was the groomsmen and Miss Stella B. Kirkpatrick presided at the organ. Many valuable presents were received, including a cut glass water set from W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., of whose staff the bridegroom is a member, and an electric reading lamp from his fellow employees. The groom's presents to the bride and bridesmaid were silver jewel cases, to the groomsmen a silver cigarette case and to the organist a gold brooch. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hagerman left this morning for a trip to Fredericton, Woodstock and other up-river places and on their return they will reside at 10 Pitt street. On Tuesday evening the bride's Sunday school class gave a shower for Miss Osborne and on the same occasion members of the choir of the Fairville Methodist church, of which she has been a valued member for three years, presented a silver casserole to Miss Osborne.

HARD FOR CLASS A MAN TO GET OVER BORDER

New Regulations Put Check On Effectively

BOND FOR $1,000 IN UPPER CANADA

All Eligibles, Until Exempted, Regarded as Soldiers—The System in St. John and Probability of Its Becoming More Pressing

As a result of new border regulations which already have gone into effect in Upper Canada, it is becoming more and more difficult for a man who comes in class A, under the Military Service Act, to secure permission to leave Canada. Under the new regulations all unmarried men or widowers without children, between the ages of twenty and thirty-four, are deemed liable to military service and forbidden to leave the country, unless specially exempted from military service. As the boards of exemption are not yet sitting there is no way to secure exemption and the permits will be issued only by the military authorities.

In Toronto the military authorities have decided that any man who wishes to cross the border must not only satisfy them of his intentions, but must also put up a bond for $1,000 as a guarantee that he will return. The orders relating to these new regulations have not yet been received in St. John by either the immigration or the military authorities and it is not known whether the provisions regarding the $1,000 bond is of general application or whether it is purely a measure adopted at the discretion of the local authorities in Toronto, but the general regulations will apply all over Canada.

Similar regulations, issued from the immigration offices at Ottawa, will simultaneously go into effect all over Canada, and while they are the most drastic that the country has known since the outbreak of war, the officials will check every attempt to evade military service made through the regular channels to the United States.

Border Officials Notified
These instructions have gone out to all the border inspectors, to the immigration agents and their officials all along the line, and they draw attention to the fact that all single men and widowers without children between the ages of twenty and thirty-four are deemed to be soldiers signed on until the end of the war. Further instructions are that the men in the class now called out may be granted a permit to cross the border only upon the production of a certificate of exemption from the local tribunals, or, if not in possession of such, the production of documentary evidence that the applicant has leave from the proper authorities to go outside the dominion. Applicants for permits to leave Canada, coming within the class covered by the proclamation, who do not produce the documents mentioned, are to be refused permits, whether the same are requested for a short or a long period. Whenever an applicant comes under one of the latter classes not yet called to the colors, a permit may be issued as in the past for a period not exceeding three months.

Under these regulations the military authorities come in. As there are no exemption tribunals now sitting, it is quite impossible for any Class A man to produce a certificate of exemption, the only alternative being to get a permit from the military authorities. And it is the military authorities who decide to exact the bond of $1,000 for each man. As it is only men of some business standing who can get such a bond, any leakage across the border seems checked. Even the $1,000 bond is good only when a substantial reason can be given, the reasons being limited strictly to business emergency or cases of life and death. The permits will be granted for two weeks only, and when the man returns to Canada he must report to the military authorities to take up his bond. It is anticipated that these regulations will ease up so soon as the tribunals start their sittings and grant their exemptions.

NEW YORK FEARS COAL SHORTAGE

New York, Oct. 18.—Local coal dealers here are refusing to accept orders for immediate delivery, and express concern over the apparent prospect that delay in receipt of supplies will result in one of the most serious coal shortages in the city's history.

Some of the dealers are reported to be demanding as high as $9.25 a ton or fifty cents more than the price established by Fuel Administrator Garfield. Washington, Oct. 18.—In line with the fuel administration's recent action in withdrawing its embargo on coal exports to Canada through lake ports, the war trade board formally has cancelled its requirement of individual licenses for such shipments.
