HYDRO FINANCE IS DISCUSSED AT CITY HALL

Loan to Meet Deficit Is Sanctioned in Committee

CHARTER QUESTION IN BY-LAW MATTER

Taxi Regulations Have to Come Before Council Again

The committee of the whole of the Common Council decided this morning to recommend that an advance of $28,418 to the Civic Power Commission be made to enable the commission to settle its adjustment account with the New Brunswick Electric Commission for current supplied in the year ended April 30, 1926.

The Mayor said he thought it would be well for the secretary, R. A. Willet, to be heard, as this looked like a deficit of nearly $30,000 on the operation of the commission.

SECRETARY'S STATEMENT. Mr. Willet was called on and said the deficit for the year on actual operation would be less than $10,000 but as the commission had to pay for 10,000,000 k.w.h. no matter what quantity they used they were forced to ask the council to loan them this amount.

FOR BIG GAS TANK. W. T. White was heard in connection with his application for permission to install a gasolene tank and pump on the Murray and Gregory lot, Douglas avenue.

CHARTER QUESTION. Commissioner Harding reported it would be necessary to re-negotiate the by-law passed by the council on April 13, as it had not been published in the newspapers for 30 days, and the legislation enabling such a by-law to come into effect on the approval of the lieutenant-governor in council had not been passed until May 1.

Studying Home Arrangement

Mr. H. L. Marcus' latest European tour continues his pursuit of Furniture Lore and Interior Decoration.

Over a year ago Mr. H. L. Marcus made a prolonged visit to selected points in the British Isles, France, Germany, etc., in following up the Furniture "expeditions" carried out every year by both principals in this firm.

Now he has gone to Spain, whose Furniture crafts hold a grandeur all their own, to Italy and its Florentine Furniture artists, to view again the arts of Greece, the Byzantine Furniture architecture, the Rugs of Turkey and Arabia and the parent Furniture pieces of old Egypt. Mr. Marcus will then proceed up into Europe proper via Switzerland.

At least twice a year the Marcus studies of Furniture are broadened by travels to the foremost Furniture studios near and far. Doubtless no other firm in Canada makes such efforts to bring home to its people the ideas of the masters in Furniture craft and arrangement. The result is showing itself strongly in the progressive homes of our city.

BEATY BACK FROM BRITAIN LAUDS CANADA

Sees Opportunity for Development of Closer Relations With Motherland

QUEBEC, July 4.—"When I go abroad I always return with the feeling that this country is one of the best in the world to live in, and that its resources must become more and more recognized as making it potentially one of the wealthiest parts of the British Empire," said E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, on his arrival here Saturday from a five week's visit to England.

Mr. Beatty arrived on board the Empress of France and was interviewed here as the steamer docked. "My trip," he said, "was a hurried one and my time entirely taken up with the business which necessitated it, consequently my observations on the continent or in Great Britain would only be the views of others with whom I discussed the general situation and, in a large measure, confirmatory of the press despatches which have already reached Canada."

CAN MAGNIFY CANADA.

"While I do not say it in any critical spirit, I left England with the conviction that we could do a great deal more there than has been done to bring to the attention of the Motherland the really great opportunities and imperial importance of our own country, both from the standpoint of inducing more British capital, support to Canadian enterprise and development and of the preliminary training of agriculturists in Great Britain. This plan is fundamentally sound and capable of immediate development. Two farms have been established where six months' training in the rudiments of agriculture is given to young men between the ages of 18 and 25. The principle is right, because the experienced training permits the elimination of those who are physically or otherwise unfit, gives a knowledge of the rudiments of agricultural work and prepares the prospective settler mentally for the conditions he will have to meet.

In conclusion Mr. Beatty expressed his pleasure at returning to Canada. "I am a Canadian," he said, "and therefore not unnaturally prejudiced in favor of my own country. It would be very difficult to over-estimate the value of its development in imperial solidarity and unity."

Mr. Beatty was accompanied by W. MacInnes, vice-president in charge of traffic, and F. E. Meredith, K.C., director of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Limited.

DOUBTS SEPT. 21 AS DATE OF ELECTION

Saint John M. P., Says Progressives Precipitated Dissolution of Parliament

Stating that the dissolution of parliament was precipitated by the Progressives and that it had come as a bolt from the blue, Thomas Bell, M. P. for Saint John-Albert, arrived in the city from Ottawa yesterday afternoon. Mr. Bell said that none of the members had any idea that dissolution was so imminent.

"Rev. T. W. Bird, of Nelson, the Progressive member who rose in his seat and announced that he had voted against the government inadvertently, having been paired and desired to have his vote stricken out, is the most devoted man in the country today," charged Mr. Bell. "He has been a member of parliament for almost five years and his action could not be said to be that of one unacquainted with the rules of the House," Mr. Bell declared.

"I have grave doubts as to Sept. 21 being the date of election," replied Mr. Bell when asked whether there was any official word in this being the date set for an appeal to the country. "Naturally, the election would be held as soon and at as convenient a time as possible. I do not think that would be a convenient date. The western farmers would not have finished reaping by that time. When the ministers are chosen and the cabinet formed, the latter will decide upon a propitious date."

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

As might be expected, the recent parliamentary deadlock has brought about a state of affairs which may be likened to trench warfare. It is difficult to decide whether the present modified activities are the end of the last battle or the beginning of the next.

The preliminary strategy, however, of the three groups can be forecast with tolerable certainty. Whether this will continue along the same lines or whether other main attacks will develop therefrom cannot at present be said.

It may be expected that the Conservatives will allege breach of faith against the Progressives and remind the country that the Liberals were censured over the customs report. In addition to this there are rumors current that the story of the cruise of the "Margaret" is to be published in full.

That is the expected opening phase of the coming battle. How it will develop remains to be seen. Meanwhile, we in the Maritimes must not forget our own policies. The good of a section must never be elevated above that of the country, but when the health of the whole is threatened by the ill of a member, it is allowable for a section to give prior consideration to its own policies.

Presumably from this it may be deduced that what age the adult will be inserted a latch-key in the key-hole with silence and precision at two a.m. Very useful indeed!

A more extensive test is performed with a Boston pencil sharpener. This test covers the various movements in the sharpening of a pencil beginning with the grasping of the handle, which can usually be accomplished within the first month and including the time when the child can hold a pencil in the sharpener and turn the handle at the same time. This is usually not achieved until the fourth or fifth year.

Exactly what is the object of acquiring this knowledge is uncertain. It may be that proficiency is to be taken as a warning not to leave the meat slicer in working order on the kitchen table lest juvenile fingers or the cat's tail suffer. We hope correspondents will refrain from deluging us with authentic examples of office boys and stenographers who are twenty and thirty years behind the standard.

And this is more mysterious still: A mental test used with very young babies is to hold a string before the child causing him to grasp it. Then the string is removed to a distance outside his reach. In this way it is possible to determine how old a child is before he realizes that the string is beyond his grasp and will refuse even to attempt to catch it in his hand.

The test may do all it claims, but we should like to go a step further and register the child's thoughts after he realizes that some stupid grown-up is talking advantage of his helplessness—might it throw illumination on the vexed question of original sin. And what if he does not want to catch it in his hand? Presumably that fixes the age at which a baby can be rightly called blasé.

A SCHOOL GIRL'S DISCOVERY. A girl in her first year at Wellesley College has written a book on the famous Marshal Ney in which she indicates that the distinguished soldier did not die before a firing squad in France, as authoritative histories record, but died and was buried some years later in a village of North Carolina. Ney won the title of "the bravest

AFTER morning service the family dined, and churches and their procedure came in for criticism. Father criticized the sermon. Mother disliked the hymns of the organist. The eldest daughter thought the choir's singing was atrocious. But the subject had to be dropped when the small boy of the family volunteered the remark: "Dad, I think it was a mighty good show for a nickel."

"In the police court the tourist told his story angrily to the magistrate. Then he said: "And now, I suppose, I can go."

"No, senator," said the Filipino magistrate, "we have to hold you. Alguasini, lock him up!"

"Hold me!" for heaven's sake, why?" "Because," said the magistrate, "we don't know yet if you're the thief. We have to hold you till we can identify you as man or robber."

Who's Who OLIVER HENRY WALLOP A FEW months spent in leave-taking and settling up business affairs and then Oliver Henry Wallop, for years a rancher at Sheridan, Wyo., will leave for England to be known henceforth as the Eighth Earl of Portsmouth.

He recently returned with Mrs. Wallop from a seven month visit to England. He went there last November when he inherited the title and estates on the death of his elder brother, Mr. Wallop at first spurned the title, then accepted it on account of his two sons. It will be necessary to reside in England for five years before he can take his seat in the House of Lords, and by that time he will be 70 years old.

Mr. Wallop is a tall, thin man, with gray hair and short clipped mustache and a kindly manner. His second son, Oliver, is a student at Yale. The eldest son, Viscount Lynington, was married last fall to Miss Mary Post, daughter of W. Kensington Post of Bayport, N. J.

Mrs. Wallop, the new Countess of Portsmouth, was formerly Miss Marguerite Walker of Louisville. Mr. Wallop has always taken an interest in States affairs during his long residence in Wyoming. He served two terms in the Legislature there. He also is an Elk. Now he is the Hereditary Bailiff of Burley in the New Forest, a position which goes with the title.

POEMS HOME BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"I Have a Rendezvous With Death," by Alan Seeger. And close my eyes and quench my breath— It may be I shall pass him still. I have a rendezvous with Death. On some scarred slope of battered hill. When Spring comes round again this year. And the first meadow-flowers appear. God knows 'twere better to be deep Piled in silk and scented down, Where Love throbs out in blissful sleep. Pulse nigh to pulse, and breath to breath, Where hushed awakenings are dear. But I've a rendezvous with Death. At midnight in some flaming town, When Spring trips north again this year, And I to my pledged word am true, I shall not fail that rendezvous. (Copyright by Charles Scribner's Sons. Queer Quirks of Nature MEADOW BLOSSOMS FROM THE OLD WORLD

THOUGH there are four-leaved clovers, the common shaded three-leafed clover is the one we often see. Clover is so common that it is difficult to think of it as a foreigner, yet with one possible exception all the species known in America are introduced from the old world, from southern Europe, Greece, Egypt, or Syria.

The common red clover is a valuable forage crop, and is also extremely beneficial as a cover crop, that is, one to be plowed under in a green state. Its fertilizing value is due largely to its ability to fix the nitrogen of the air by means of its roots.

Crimson or scarlet clover is also especially valuable in this respect. Sown in midsummer, it commonly opens its showy blossoms in the following spring. From its great beauty it deserves more attention as an ornamental plant.

Our common white clover, now widely grown and thoroughly naturalized is thought by some students to be a native of North America. It is a favorite for lawns, but does not persist more than two years without reseeding. Somewhat resembling the white clover, and confused by some with it, is Alsike or Swedish clover, the subject of the accompanying sketch. It is somewhat loose, globular heads are usually rose-tinted.

CLOVER BLOSSOMS Most clovers are perennials but do not last many years without reseeding. Those which are annuals have a tendency to become weeds. Most or all of the species are dependent on insects for their fertilization, and are not self-fertile.

The Very Idea!

LAYIN OFF. THEY say it does a fella good to lay off work a day, but I'm right here to tell ya that it really doesn't pay. Ya make yer plans fer needed rest, and think ya'll stay in bed, but all yer plans go blawh when the honest truth is said.

Other Views AND GETTING WORSE (Providence Journal).

In getting about with ease and speed we lead the world, especially in the use of automobiles. Yet the common use of automobiles in crowded areas has created problems more serious than those they theoretically solve. So many cars are now used for getting about that people are more bothered in getting about than they were twenty years ago.

TAX CUTS (Financial Post). To judge from early returns, the Dominion government will collect about $65,000,000 from the income tax this year. This will be a decline of only about $7,000,000 from last year. Certainly there is room for the further tax reductions that are forecast for next year. May they be more "sweeping" than the "tax reductions all along the line" that came this year.

AMENDMENTS TO TRADE UNION LAW ABOUT READY

British Cabinet Committee Believed Dealing With Three Main Points

PROPOSALS FOR AUTUMN SESSION

Sir John Simon Mentioned as Possible Leader of Liberals

Correspondence of Times-Star LONDON, June 17—I hear that the work of the cabinet committee charged with pondering amendments of trade union law in the light of the general strike will soon be completed.

It is something more than an intelligent guess that its proposals will deal with three main points in the existing law. The committee will recommend that no strike shall be legal unless authorized by a majority of trade union members in a secret ballot.

A LIBERAL HOPE. The only consolation the Liberal rank and file derive from the present deplorable party quarrel is that in the long run perhaps open warfare is healthier than a secret feud.

DEEPLY INTERESTED. In the congested chambers of the House of Commons are following the Liberal troubles with concern. This concern is profoundly non-political, of not entirely disinterested.

TANKS AND THE MAN. The soldiers with staff ambitions declare that if there is to be another big war, a contingency on which they are prepared to lay impressive odds, it is essential that the man who leads them should be a tank man.

THE BIG FIVE. One by one the soldiers who commanded our armies in the Great War are trooping out of the active list.

whose representatives did his memory homage today in "streaming London's central roar." SHIPS THAT PASS. The Moscow Soviet's navy is on tour at the moment, visiting different European ports and "showing the flag" in quite the good old-fashioned way.

LONDON'S CLEARER AIR. Even the lamentable coal strike has its compensations, which ought, we think, to be really sensible people we are, to convey their urgent moral of universal smokeless fuel.

HOME OFFICE AND HOBBS. According to some London Journals the Home Secretary is considering the release of William Cooper Hobbs from Wandsworth Prison, where he is serving a term of two years hard labor.

A Lesson for Disgruntled Wives in This Woman's Philosophy—Should the Old-Fashioned Girl Who Doesn't Attract Men Imitate the Flapper or Be Herself?—Should His Peculiar Name Prevent Marriage?

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a wife and the mother of four small children. We have almost nothing in the way of money, but we are rich in love and happiness. I know what it is to go for months without a single new garment, but I do not know what it is to go a single day without some expression of my husband's tenderness and consideration for me. I have lived upon the simplest food, but I have fasted on appreciation and understanding and good comradeship.

Love has made all of my hardships so bearable that sometimes I amuse myself by contrasting my lot with that of some of my friends and acquaintances. The other day the young wife of a prosperous business man, who gives her all the luxuries I cannot have, stopped by my baby's carriage, and looking up at me with tears in her eyes, said: "I want a baby more than anything else on earth." And as she moved away, I said to myself, "I wouldn't change places with you."

I have a friend, a fine and lovely woman, with a household of children. Each month her husband sends her a big check, and she has plenty of money to live on, but he sends it by mail, for he has deserted her for another woman. I wouldn't change places with her.

A middle-aged woman living very near me is well-to-do and has a fine home, but her husband is dead, and all of her children have married and gone to other States, and she rarely sees them. She lives alone in her empty house, with only the memory of little arms around her neck and the noise and bustle and confusion of a happy home. I wouldn't change places with her.

A couple near me live together, but they fight all the time, even when they go out together. The wife nags and scolds, the husband grouches and curses. There is no love or comradeship between them. Marriage to them is a martyrdom that they are not even trying to bear bravely. I wouldn't change places with that woman.

An extremely wealthy woman I know has everything. Fine house. Big machine. Servants. Trips to Europe. Beautiful clothes. Jewels. But her husband is never at home on an evening. The story of his infidelities is on every lip, and he insults her by flaunting his philandering in her very face. I wouldn't change places with her.

Perhaps if other women would follow my example, and contrast their burdens with those that other women have to bear, they would find that they were not so badly off after all. HAPPY WIFE.

ANSWER: I commend your philosophy to the consideration of all disgruntled and dissatisfied women everywhere. For we all make the mistake of looking up and not down, and of envying those who are more fortunate than we are, instead of congratulating ourselves that we are luckier than those who are worse off than we are.

We pity ourselves because we are not rich and healthy and beautiful and beloved, and we forget that no one is so supremely blessed as to have all the good things of life. Always there is something lacking. Always there is the pebble in the shoe, the secret sorrow, the bitter disappointment.

Each heart knoweth its own bitterness, and if there really were a Trade Exchange where we could go and swap off our personal grievances for another's, the chances are that we would not make the trade. We would keep our own crosses, which we have grown accustomed to bearing, and which we have somehow fitted to our own backs.

The overworked, nerve-frazzled mother of many children may envy the idleness and quiet of the childless woman, but when it came to the pinch, she would not exchange places with her. The poor, shabby woman who has a good husband who loves her, and who has the fine clothes of the rich woman whose husband neglects her, but she would not change places with her. And, perhaps, the woman who is accustomed to a quiet and orderly household would not have her peace disturbed by a lot of children, nor would the rich woman surrender her pearls even for a jewel of a husband.

A middle-aged woman living very near me is well-to-do and has a fine home, but her husband is dead, and all of her children have married and gone to other States, and she rarely sees them. She lives alone in her empty house, with only the memory of little arms around her neck and the noise and bustle and confusion of a happy home. I wouldn't change places with her.

Most happiness is self-made, and there is no better recipe for concocting it than just to make the best of what we have, and to satisfy ourselves with our lot. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a plain, simple, old-fashioned girl, interested in the worth-while things of life, but that kind of girl doesn't seem to appeal to men. I have a friend, a fine and lovely woman, with a household of children. Each month her husband sends her a big check, and she has plenty of money to live on, but he sends it by mail, for he has deserted her for another woman. I wouldn't change places with her.

Must I, in order to attract men, rouge my cheeks, pluck my eyebrows, paint my lips, bob my hair, roll my stockings, dance the Charleston, join the petting parties? X. Y. Z.

ANSWER: To be a flapper you must be born a flapper. You can't make a successful imitation flapper of yourself by doling yourself up in flapper clothes and plastering your face with cosmetics.

For the very essence of flapperism is spiritual. It is lightness. It is something mercurial, intangible, and it is unattainable to a girl with real brains, with a real heart, with a real sense of life being something more than a jazz party.

So don't try it. You would always be trying to pull your skirts over your bare knees. You would always be conscious of your paint. You would never get the right wiggle into the Charleston, and you would never be able to throw enough abandon into your petting to make it interesting.

Many girls make the mistake of trying to do things that they cannot do, because they see some other girl who is popular pulling that line. They try to be vivacious when they are sober-sided, or to be cute when they are big and dignified by nature, with the result that they make themselves ridiculous. They giggle incessantly trying to be gay. They romp about like performing elephants, and lose all the dignity and charm they might have had if they kept to their own role.

So be yourself, and if no man admires you, as a sweet, modest, old-fashioned girl, it is his loss. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am engaged to a very wonderful man, but my parents object to my marrying him because he has a very curious name, which they ridicule. His queer name doesn't bother me. Do you think it should keep me from marrying him? J. L.

ANSWER: Certainly not. A rose by any other name, you know, would smell as sweet. But if the name is really grotesque, why not get him to have it changed by the Legislature. I would hate to go on passing an ugly name to my children, and it must be a comfort to have a romantic mother-to-be to engrave on your cards. DOROTHY DIX

Is this your BIRTHDAY?

JULY 5—You are persevering, plodding and faithful, and do not allow reverses to depress you. While your foresight is not very great, you profit by experience, and do not have to learn a lesson twice. You like to have attention shown you, and when you love, you love with your whole heart. Cultivate generosity, and live out of doors as much as you can. Your birth-stone is the ruby, which means contentment. Your flower is the waterlily. Your lucky color is green.

SAME APPLIES TO FUDGE. When making ice cream at home add a very small amount of salt to bring out the flavor.

GOOD COMBINATION. With lamb or mutton chops serve tomato sauce and green peas.

STYLES MAY BE FLIGHTY BUT THEY ARE CONSISTENT. THE COPIOUS COLLARS, SWATHING SKIRTS, AND ARMORED ARMS OF YESTER-YEAR—AS COMPARED TO OUR NECKLESS, SLEEVELESS AND ALMOST SKIRTLESS FROCK OF TO-DAY. THE SAME DESCRIPTION HOLDS TRUE OF THEIR TENTACLE NIGHTCLOTHES. JUST AS OUR NIGHTGOWNS ARE CONSISTENT WITH OUR DAY CLOTHES. AND LASTLY—EVEN IN OUR EACH COSTUMES—AS COMPARED TO THE COVERED WAGON ON THE LEFT—WE ARE COLLARLESS, SLEEVELESS AND SKIRTLESS!

Flapper Fanny Says

By Marie Belmont

Since the vogue of tailored clothes for street wear, designers have been at a loss to know how to make the riding habit more tailored for charming contrast. Cross-barred tweed serves for the coat and its background is matched for the breeches which are done in a light sand color. The boots are brown patent leather, polished like big brother's hair.

One of the smart features of this riding habit is the tailored silk blouse with its bright green necktie. The hat is light sand color like the breeches and the ribbon band is bright green like the necktie.

SUCH are the incongruities of Manhattan that blacksmith shops are thrust into the most unexpected neighborhoods, many of them having a history dating back to early New York when the horses were actually shod under a "sprawling chestnut tree," or whatever tree was native to the neighborhood. The small boys, and some not so small, wait about the shop to get cast away horse shoes for the good old game of horse shoe pitching, which is played in many a back yard.

AND to think that all my boyhood days in small towns I had to track down the pungent smell that follows the application of a hot iron to a horse's hoof. And now in the "greatest city" it wafts into my window of mornings. And I would just as soon it were a performer's shop instead.

BUT there are many who try to keep a touch of the country life they left behind them. In one apartment, the rent of which, I happen to know, is $150 a month, a little wire cage is built and therein lives a rabbit, now quite tame. And each evening a young lady takes it out on leash and lets it nibble grass from a tiny plot along the sidewalk. And on Sundays she takes it to Central Park where the grass is a bit more plentiful. ON THE MOON BOAT Nancy blinked and Nick blinked and the Dream-Maker Man blinked and everything. Because it was all dark and their airplane had smashed to pieces when they fell. But neither of the Twins felt hurt a bit. Nothing seemed to hurt on the moon. But there! They were not even sure they had fallen on the moon, for the moon had disappeared mysteriously after they started up on their airplane ride, and it was still very dark.

"I wonder where we are," said the Dream-Maker Man. "It can't be the moon."

"And it can't be Mars, or Jupiter, or Venus, for they shine," said Snore.

"And it can't be the Milky Way or the Dipper, or the North Star," said Nancy. "For they shine, too."

"We must be somewhere," said Nick. "You're a wise little boy," said the Dream-Maker Man. "Yes, we must be somewhere."

Suddenly a small light appeared in the distance. It looked, at first, like a lightning bug, then it looked like a candle and then it looked like a lantern. And that's what it was. It kept getting nearer and nearer, and they could see that it was a lantern and that somebody was carrying it.

"Did I hear something?" asked the voice of the person who was carrying the lantern.

"You certainly did," said Snore. "My airplane fell out of the sky. We were traveling from the east side of the moon to the west side of the moon to call on the Man-in-the-Moon, when suddenly the moon got lost. Then I ran out of gasoline and my airplane fell and here we are."

"Well, I declare!" said the person with the lantern again. "You could not have hit it better if you had tried."

And with that he raised his lantern so they could see his face, and who should it be but the Man-in-the-Moon himself!

"I suppose you are wondering how it comes that the moon is so dark and everything. You are on the moon now, yes, sir! You're standing right on it. In fact you are standing right in my opinion patch, but that doesn't matter. I put the last of my onions in my cold pea porridge last night. But to go back to the moon, I'll tell you why it is dark. Just after you left, there was an eclipse."

"An eclipse?" cried the Dream-Maker Man and Snore and the Twins. "You don't say so?"

"Yes, I do say so," said the Man-in-the-Moon. "A total eclipse, and the moon got as dark as All Baba's cave. I forgot about it myself and I was sorry, when—poof! out she went like that. And me all lathered up!"

"Well, well, well!" laughed the Dream-Maker-Man. "I certainly had forgotten that time. I forgot all about eclipses."

"Say," said the Man-in-the-Moon, "if you wait a few minutes the moon will turn into a boat. We can all go for a ride in it, if you like."

For a Perfect Cup of Coffee

CARNATION'S ideal milk for an ideal cup of coffee. With its creamy-delicate taste it brings out the rich perfection of the aroma. And it adds that golden-brown color which coffee-lovers want. No wonder Carnation is so good. It's pure, fresh milk made doubly-rich by evaporation. Then sealed up and sterilized for safe-keeping. It is creamy-rich—yet by adding a trifle more than an equal volume of water, takes the place of ordinary milk. Carnation quality is the one reason why more Carnation Milk is used than any other kind. Order from your grocer today several cans or a case of 48 cans.

CARNATION DOUGHNUTS—Two-thirds cup sugar, 1 1/2 tbsp. butter, 2 eggs, 3 tbsp. Carnation Milk diluted with 6 tbsp. water, 5 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. cinnamon, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg, 4 cups bread flour, lard or compound for frying. Cream the butter and sugar, then add the beaten eggs and cream until light and fluffy. Sift the baking powder, salt and spices with the measured flour and add them, with the diluted milk, to the creamed mixture. Combine quickly, stirring with a fork as one would stir biscuit. Toss one-third of the mixture on a slightly-floured board and knead just enough to obtain a smooth doughnut. Pat or roll out to one-third inch thickness. Cut with a doughnut cutter. Handle as little as possible to keep the dough soft. Fry in deep, hot fat having a temperature of 350° to 370° F., or hot enough to brown a one-inch cube of bread in six seconds. The time required for cooking is from one and one-half to two minutes, depending upon the size of the doughnut. Drain on soft paper and, if preferred, roll in confectioner's sugar.

St. Mary's and Others at One; Portland United at Other
The united picnic of St. Mary's Sunday school, St. Bartholomew's Sunday school, of Coldbrook, and All Saints Sunday school, East Saint John, was held on Saturday at Crystal Beach and was a marked success. St. Mary's band furnished excellent music on the boat, both coming and going, and also played selections on the grounds. There were races and sports of all kinds, and in the band's baseball game, which is an annual event, the married men suffered their first defeat in years. Rev. R. Taylor McKim helped greatly in making the picnic so enjoyable, and Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner, his assistant, directed the races.
PORTLAND PICNIC
Portland Sunday school picnic was held on Saturday at Grand Bay and about 200 attended. The picnickers went out to the grounds on the morning and noon trains and returned together in the evening. S. A. Kirk, superintendent and Allan W. Lingley were in charge and races and sports were carried through with zest. Excellent meals and refreshments were provided by efficient committees.
A new plan for the summer time Sunday school sessions was inaugurated in the Portland United church yesterday. The church services closed at 11:55 and the Sunday school session followed immediately.

TRIAL BY JURY IS DENIED IN MEXICO
New Religious Clauses of Constitution Are Provided With Special Penalties
Canadian Press
MEXICO CITY, July 5.—While the government has already been enforcing the religious clauses of the constitution for some months, deploring foreign priests and closing churches and schools, a new decree has been issued providing penalties for infringement. The new regulations prescribe various fines of a minimum of 50 pesos on imprisonment for 15 days or more, but the constitution sets forth that violators of the religious clauses "will never be subject to trial by jury." Hence, from this on, as heretofore, the punishment can be practically whatever the authorities desire.
COMMENT FORBIDDEN
Regarding restrictions placed on newspapers and periodicals, religious press is only forbidden from commenting on national political affairs. Article 18 reads: "Religious periodical publications or those publications with mixed inclinations in favor of any religious creed, either by program or title, are forbidden from commenting on national political affairs or news regarding the acts of the authorities or individuals directly connected with the working of public institutions."
Several Roman Catholic organs throughout the country will be automatically forced to renounce their policy and adopt lay principles, withdrawing their support from the church, beginning July 31, when this regulation becomes effective.

Shout-the-chutes, swings, climbing frames, and all other approved equipment of a modern playground were soon in operation. They had been nicely renovated and everything was spick and span. The weather was ideal and solid, if ever, has the children's playground season been opened with more attractive conditions.

AMUNDSEN TO HEAD NO MORE VOYAGES
After Pole Trip, No More Places to Fly to, He Tells New York
NEW YORK, July 5.—Raoul Amundsen, intrepid veteran of the North and South Poles, said before sailing for Norway on Saturday that he will head no more expeditions because there are no more places to fly to.
"Amundsen, who flew over the top of the world in the alarship Norge, said he would take a long rest in his mountain home in Norway.
Amundsen's coming from the west had not been heralded and he spent less than three hours in New York. An official reception committee greeted him in the name of Mayor Walker. Then he was whisked away to Brooklyn, whence the steamer Bergensfjord sailed.
"When I was 15 years old," he said, "there was no doubt in my mind what I wanted to do. I have done it. I'm through."
SAW NO LAND
He said that this was probably his farewell to America, but if he should return it would not be to lecture.
"I saw no land at the North Pole," he answered a question. "I don't believe there is extensive land if any in the Arctic."
Before sailing he took an affectionate farewell of Lincoln Ellsworth, his companion on the Norge flight, and of Lt. Commander Richard E. Byrd, who flew to the Pole in an aeroplane before Amundsen made the flight in a dirigible. "I expect the alarship is superior to the aeroplane for Polar flight," he said, "but Byrd got through all right in the Josephine Ford."
TWO FINED $50 EACH
Walter Astell and J. Medlar Before Court in Horse Case
It cost Walter Astell and J. Medlar $50 each in the Police Court this morning, one for driving and the other for owning a horse unfit for work. Astell pleaded not guilty but Police-man Harry Bettle testified to seeing him driving the horse in Prince Edward street on Saturday evening and said that it was absolutely unfit for work and could hardly move. Last Sunday Policeman Young had been called to Medlar's barn on complaints that there was no feed for the horse there. T. X. Gibbons also testified to seeing the horse and said that it could not walk. Frank D. Thorne, secretary of the S. P. C., testified to writing letters to Medlar in regard to his horse and said that there had been many complaints. As the owner refused to have the horse destroyed he and the driver were each fined $50 or two months in jail.

AMUNDSEN TO HEAD NO MORE VOYAGES
NEW YORK, July 5.—Raoul Amundsen, intrepid veteran of the North and South Poles, said before sailing for Norway on Saturday that he will head no more expeditions because there are no more places to fly to.
"Amundsen, who flew over the top of the world in the alarship Norge, said he would take a long rest in his mountain home in Norway.
Amundsen's coming from the west had not been heralded and he spent less than three hours in New York. An official reception committee greeted him in the name of Mayor Walker. Then he was whisked away to Brooklyn, whence the steamer Bergensfjord sailed.
"When I was 15 years old," he said, "there was no doubt in my mind what I wanted to do. I have done it. I'm through."
SAW NO LAND
He said that this was probably his farewell to America, but if he should return it would not be to lecture.
"I saw no land at the North Pole," he answered a question. "I don't believe there is extensive land if any in the Arctic."
Before sailing he took an affectionate farewell of Lincoln Ellsworth, his companion on the Norge flight, and of Lt. Commander Richard E. Byrd, who flew to the Pole in an aeroplane before Amundsen made the flight in a dirigible. "I expect the alarship is superior to the aeroplane for Polar flight," he said, "but Byrd got through all right in the Josephine Ford."
TWO FINED $50 EACH
Walter Astell and J. Medlar Before Court in Horse Case
It cost Walter Astell and J. Medlar $50 each in the Police Court this morning, one for driving and the other for owning a horse unfit for work. Astell pleaded not guilty but Police-man Harry Bettle testified to seeing him driving the horse in Prince Edward street on Saturday evening and said that it was absolutely unfit for work and could hardly move. Last Sunday Policeman Young had been called to Medlar's barn on complaints that there was no feed for the horse there. T. X. Gibbons also testified to seeing the horse and said that it could not walk. Frank D. Thorne, secretary of the S. P. C., testified to writing letters to Medlar in regard to his horse and said that there had been many complaints. As the owner refused to have the horse destroyed he and the driver were each fined $50 or two months in jail.

AMATEURS HAVE 1,500 UNDER REGISTER IN NEW BRUNSWICK

GIRLS' MEET TO BE IN TORONTO IN AUGUST

Formation of School Association Should Be Great Help

THE progress of amateur athletics in New Brunswick has been rather strikingly shown during the last few days when an inter-scholastic association to control sport in the province was formed, coupled with the announcement by W. E. Stirling, N. B. amateur chief, that fully 1,500 athletes have received cards. Probably never before has the province been so well organized in this respect and the report that Mr. Stirling will make to the annual meetings of the M. P. B. and the Canadian union should be an encouraging one. Saint John, of course, furnishes the major quota of this total but the organization work outside has spread rapidly.

DOMINION MEET

In connection with the amateurs, a circular has been received here from Dr. A. S. Lamb, national secretary, announcing that the Dominion track and field events will be held at the latter part of this month—July 31 and Aug. 2 at Fort William, Ont. The Maritime meet will be held on Labor Day at Moncton. There is talk locally that "Red" Malcolm will attend this meet in the shot put event.

WOMEN'S MEET

The amateur secretary further announces that the first Dominion track and field events for women will be held at Toronto on August 7 next. Whether any Maritime girls will compete has not been settled yet.

Foley was crushed in the wreckage.

ARMSTRONG'S PITCHING FEATURES WATERMEN'S VICTORY ON SATURDAY

Dalton's Double Win in South End Sends Baptists Into First Place—Alerts and St. Peter's Split Even Saturday

YOUNG JOHN ARMSTRONG turned in an excellent pitching performance on the East End grounds Saturday afternoon before a large crowd when he led the Saint Johns down with three scattered bingles and struck out 8 men for the first win of the Water Department in the second section of the reorganized City League. Two of the three hits made of Armstrong came off Kearney's bat, while the third was a single on the first pitched ball of the game by Hazelwood. Outside of that, the heavy hitters on the Saint Johns were helpless.

CHICAGO SECURES GRIP ON SECOND

Brooklyn and Cubs Stage Great Battle For Fourth Place in National

NEW YORK, July 5.—The National League flag race has developed a nip and tuck affair today with the Pittsburgh Pirates leading the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs in their attempt to hang onto fourth place. The triumph brought the Boston Red Sox to a tie for seventh place with the Phillies. Shered, Johnson and Reinhart were banged for 17 hits as the Cincinnati Reds made off with a 7 to 2 victory over the Cardinals. May covered the distance for the Hendrick team which now leads the circuit with a lead of four and one half games.

DETROIT, July 5.—Seventeen horses were created in a fire which burned yesterday, destroying $300,000 worth of lumber. Damage was estimated at $400,000. The fire was brought under control late in the day, but smoldered for several hours.

Games Tonight

IN THE City League tonight, on the North End grounds, the St. Roses will meet the Trojans in the first section for these two teams in the reorganized league. St. Roses won the County League and are entitled to figure in the play-off, as are the Watermen. Unless Saint Johns' Trojans win the second section, the play-off will narrow down to St. Roses, the Watermen and the winners in the South End League. "Bunker" Murphy and Daley are the likely opposing twirlers in tonight's game.

HOLY NAME MEET AT ST. PETER'S PARK

All City Branches to March to North End For Rally in September

The diocesan union of the Holy Name Society yesterday planned for a rally of the members to be held on St. Peter's Park on the second Sunday in September, when the large body of men will march in procession through the city streets and on arrival at the rally will be addressed by a special speaker who will be a Redemptorist Father from outside the city.

The meeting of the diocesan union was held in the basement of the church yesterday afternoon and was presided over by Judge John A. Barry with Lawrence Orsam as secretary and Rev. William Duke as chaplain. Father Duke was appointed diocesan spiritual director.

The chaplains and representatives of each of the branches of the society in Saint John district were present. Short addresses were given by Rev. James Cloran, C.S.S.B., Rev. J. J. Ryan, Rev. Francis Cronin and Rev. Charles Boyd and by the representatives from St. John the Baptist, St. Peter's, Holy Trinity and the Cathedral branches of the Holy Name Society.

It was decided to appoint the executive of the diocesan union later and the members will probably be named in the course of a few days.

At the rally on Sept. 19 it was decided to have Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament following the address, and to have all of the members of the Holy Name Society assemble at one place and march to the St. Peter's grounds. The Cathedral was favored as the place of assembling.

Chats with your GAS man

Non-regulated gas ovens should be pre-heated only for pies, quick breads and meats.

2.—Cakes, unless baked in a regulated oven, should be put in a COLD oven. For a loaf or sheet cake, requiring approximately a one-hour baking period, the rack should be placed in the CENTRE of the oven. Turn ONE burner on slightly less than half-way for the first quarter of the baking period. Then turn gas down until burner is on about one-quarter way. Leave at that height for the remaining three-quarters of the baking period.

Layer cakes, requiring approximately a thirty-minute baking period, should be placed in a cold oven and the burner turned on half-way for the first half of the baking period, at which time it should be lowered to one-quarter way.

This gives the gases in the leavening property (the eggs, soda or baking power) an opportunity to work gradually as the heat increases gradually. The heat reaches the maximum desired at the end of the first quarter of the baking period and the gases have, for the most part, expended themselves before the batter actually starts to cook.

The oven door SHOULD NOT BE OPENED during the SECOND and THIRD QUARTERS of the baking period, for the cells at that time are not firm and a slight jar may cause them to settle. The warm expanded air which makes the cake light has already been evolved, and there is nothing present to lighten it again.

3.—Angel-food cakes may be put into a cold oven and the heat allowed to come on very gradually, or should be put into a very slow oven that has not been pre-heated more than three or four minutes.

4.—Quick breads should go to the top-most part of the oven, and a hot oven should be ready for them. Muffins, which require from twenty to thirty minutes for baking, should be placed in the top of the oven. Biscuits should not be in the oven more than twelve to fifteen minutes at the most, and should be baked with a very hot oven, at the top-most part.

5.—Broiled meats must be handled very carefully. The oven should be pre-heated at least ten minutes before the meat is put in, but the broiling pan should be removed from the oven before the heat is turned on.

A hot porcelain broiling pan draws the juices from the under side of the meat, and prevents it from browning nicely when turned.

BISHOP SPEAKS OF MISSIONS NEAR THE CITY

Refers to Making Hampton Separate Parish—Collection for Silver Falls

In the Cathedral yesterday, in announcing a picnic to be held on next Saturday and inviting the congregation to co-operate in making it successful, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc said the proceeds were to help liquidate the debt on the residence bought for the priest. Payment of this was awaited before Hampton, now a mission of the Cathedral, would be made a separate parish with its own priest. His Lordship spoke of the several missions that were included in the territory surrounding the city and said the assistance of the city people was desirable in carrying on that work.

COLLECTION $754. The collection taken up in the Cathedral on the last Sunday of June, for the Boys' Industrial School at Silver Falls, amounted to $728.88, with an additional check for $25 sent to the Bishop by a member of the congregation who was out of the city at the time. His Lordship spoke of the generosity of the people whenever a call was made upon them, especially for the support of the city and said the assistance of the city people was desirable in carrying on that work.

MOTHER FINED FOR CONDUCT TO CHILD

Ill-treatment in Rockwood Park is Testified to by Witnesses

In the Police Court this morning Mrs. James Robichaud, 108 Gilbert Lane, was found guilty of ill treating her three-year-old son in Rockwood Park yesterday. She was fined $10. She denied the charge, and said that she had merely given the child an "ordinary beating." Frank Allen testified to seeing the child playing in the water when the mother caught the child by the arm and slammed around and beat it, hit it with a stick and then slammed it down on a bench. He said she then "started playing ball with it," and threw it four to five feet to the ground. The witness called to her to stop and then made complaint to Joseph Tebo, park caretaker. H. W. Allen, brother of the previous witness, corroborated this testimony. The father tried to condone the actions of the mother. Magistrate Henderson said that the woman's conduct was most unusual, and was enough to make spectators' blood boil. He could not possibly condone such conduct and the only reason he would not impose a heavier penalty was the fact that the child appeared to be unharmed. He then struck a fine of $10.

BECKWITH GOES UP FOR TRIAL AGAIN

John Beckwith, aged 21, was this morning sent up for trial by Magistrate Henderson on a charge of breaking from the jail. He had been committed to jail to await transportation to Dorchester to serve a two years sentence. The prisoner had been allowed to walk in the upper corridor of the jail and on May 25 at 4:10 p. m. he was let out in the corridor. His absence was discovered by Detective Biddiscombe. The latter testified as to the method of escape, the lock on the gate of the jail yard having been forced with a pick axe. Beckwith was arrested on Saturday evening at his home by Sergeant Detective Power, Detectives Biddiscombe, Kilpatrick and Gantier. He had been waiting to serve sentence for breaking into the Yogue store here when he escaped. He had since visited various parts of the Maritime Province.

Dunn, at one time Surveyor-General in the Provincial Government and for some years Collector of Customs at this port.

PRETTY HOT IN BOSTON. Automobile tourists arriving yesterday said the heat in Boston and New England generally in the last week has been increasingly great. Many people stayed indoors to avoid the sun glare and the congestion of streets, transportation lines and the stores. As on Eastport and the Fundy shore are reached, the cooler airs set in, and it is a great relief to visitors.

STILL ALARM. Smoke in the premises of Roger Hunter Ltd. was the cause of a still alarm calling No. 1 chemical to Canterbury street noon today. It was found the smoke was caused by the burning of waste paper in C. M. Lingley's printing establishment next door. There being no need for its services the chemical was returned to its quarter.

EIGHT ON LIST. Three men, arrested over the weekend on a charge of drunkenness, appeared before Magistrate Henderson in the Police Court this morning and were each fined three months in jail. Five others failed to appear and forfeited deposits of $8 each. William McGeech, arrested for being drunk and having liquor unlawfully in his possession, forfeited a deposit of $8.

MAY KEEP MOOSE. Harrison Driscoll of Bladon has received generally in the Hon. C. D. Richards, Minister of Lands and Mines, that he may retain the baby female moose which he shot in the woods, recently. He must, however, when it attains maturity or on order from the provincial game warden. Yesterday his menagerie was visited by hundreds of people and was a delight to many children gathered around.

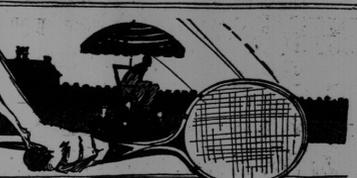

FOR THE ORPHANS. Seven children have been sent to H. Usher Miller, secretary of the N. B. Protestant Orphans' Home board, the sum of $8, which they realized by holding a little fund of information the booklet, 1926, and a full copy of the same showing the importance of the port and its advantages as a shipping centre and as a point of interest to tourists. The booklet is worth filing away for reference.

GRANTED NATURALIZATION. The following have been granted certificates of naturalization: Morris Avastoff, Saint John, traveler, native of Russia; Max Joseph Bryn, Saint John, tailor, native of Poland; Morris Kastelsky, Saint John, second-hand dealer, native of Russia; Esther (Dovith) Kashetsky, wife of Morris, native of Russia; Kallil Matta, merchant, Campbellton, native of Turkey; Sadie Matta, wife of Kallil, native of Turkey.

AUTO DRIVER COLLAPSED. An American automobile had to be stalled at the roadside near Hampton yesterday to revive the driver, who had become exhausted. The man had been driving day and night from Boston to reach a point east at a certain time. The concentrated effort and maze of traffic as he approached the larger centres overcame the man. He was laid on the grass and restoratives applied. Later in the evening he was able to proceed slowly on his journey. He had his family with him.
