TROUBLE BREWING WHICH MIGHT LEAD TO BLOODSHED, SAY OFFICIALS OF RAILWAY UNION

"The Red Flag" Sung for An Hour by Members of National Railway Union—Government Denounced by Speakers at Rally—Claim Government is Attempting to Bias Minds of Public—Complete Stoppage of Transportation—Government Has Rapidly Completed Arrangements to Meet the Strike—Action of Union Called Anarchistic by Premier Lloyd George.

London, Sept. 27.—The first day of the greatest strike in England's history passed without disorder, but with complete stoppage of railway transport throughout the country. Thus far it has been from a union standpoint the most successful. Tonight, a great mass meeting of railwaymen was held in Albert Hall, at which James Henry Thomas, Secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, after the audience for an hour had sung "The Red Flag," delivered a heated speech of censure against the government, and declared that trouble was brewing which might lead to bloodshed.

Both Thomas and C. T. Cramp, president of the union, who had preceded him, asserted that the men were firm behind the leaders in this great crisis. President Cramp denounced the government statement, regarding the purpose of the strike as a "deliberate lie." It was not the public with whom the strikers were at war, he declared, it was the people who were for the moment, in the position of directing the affairs of the country.

All "the powers of Hell, the press, the platform and perhaps the pulpit" would be invoked against the strikers, said President Cramp, "but if they remained they would be convicted." Both speakers denounced what they characterized as the government's attempt to bias the minds of the public by saying that the strike was not in defense of union rights, but against the life of the community. Answering the premier's strong statement, earlier in the day, that the strike was an anarchistic conspiracy against the government, Mr. Thomas declared that if that were true "God help the country." He had warned the government that their proposals would be fatal to peace. He knew that trouble was brewing that might lead to bloodshed.

"My answer to the Prime Minister's challenge," said Mr. Thomas, "is that if he will now say to us officially himself, not influenced or intimidated by anyone else, if he will say, as head of the state, that he is prepared to concede the same peace to all railway servants, then the strike can cease at once."

Political Atmosphere.
Official pronouncement from government sources and bitter rejoinders from the railway executives, coupled with the attitude of the press, which is largely with the government, has surrounded the strike with a decidedly political atmosphere. The general feeling, expressed by the newspapers is that the present struggle is a test between the relative power of the government and of the organized working classes.

Pickets Act.
A lengthy report, issued officially tonight concerning Friday's conference between the government and railwaymen, then shows that Secretary Thomas asked for a minimum of sixty shillings a week for all workers. Mr. Lloyd George admitted that the railwaymen before the war had been "disgracefully underpaid."

A few trains, manned by non-unionists, pulled out of the London stations during the day. Several trains which left for the north tonight were stopped by pickets and the engines taken out. The passengers were left to camp in the cars. Trains of fish were left standing on sidings, and the contents spoiled.

Liverpool's meat supply was held up at Birkenhead. At Hartlepool the steel works closed, and the iron works are dumping down. Clerks worked the trains on a small stretch of the Great Eastern. One aged union freeman refused to strike because he had completed within one day of fifty years of service.

Asks for the Old Spirit.
London, Sept. 27.—The Shipping Controller, Sir J. Mackay, has issued the following appeal:

"One in three of the population of this country lives directly by the sea. The whole population is dependent on our mercantile marine. At the outbreak of the war all combined to save the country from disaster. In the present crisis it is essential to continue that spirit and keep shipping running as confidentially call on all owners, officers and men alike, to re-create the spirit in which they faced the crisis in 1914."

Industries Without Coal.
London, Sept. 27.—The government arrangements to meet the strike have been completed with the greatest rapidity. Already supplies of petrol have been rationed and distributed to prevent the stoppage of motor transport upon which the nation may have to depend largely for food and other necessities.

One of the most serious features of the strike is that some of the most important manufacturing centres have only a few days supply of coal and may be forced to shut down their works.

Calls Strike Anarchistic.
London, Sept. 27.—(By The Associated Press).—Premier Lloyd George telegraphed his regrets that he would be unable to attend the celebration at Carnarvon, says: "In a long varied experience I can recall no strike entered into so lightly, with so little justification and such disregard for public interest. The strike is not one in which it can be contended that the workers are seeking to win fair wages from harsh employers, whose profits are believed to be excessive. In this case the railwaymen are dealing direct with the community."

"The state is now running the railways at a loss, due, in the main, to the enormous increase made in the wages of the railway workers since the beginning of the war, and also to the great reduction in the hours of labor. This loss is being borne by the general taxpayer, and will soon have to be passed on to the general public in the form of increased fares and charges. On its merits the strike is inexplicable."

Describing the government's terms as stated by Sir Robert Stevenson Horn, Minister of Labor, yesterday as generous, the Premier says: "The dispute, such as it is, is about something which cannot possibly come into operation until next year, yet the action is thrown into the dislocation of a hurried strike without even a week's warning."

Pointing out that the men declined even to discuss the government's offer to consider any particular injustice the Premier declares:

"Every employer, every worker is entitled to at least one week's notice to terminate contracts of service."

The Premier continues: "I am convinced that the vast majority of the trade unionists of the land are opposed to this anarchist conspiracy. They can see the ruin and misery it has brought in other lands, and their common sense has hitherto guarded their organizations against the control of these intriguers. These men have made many efforts to get hold of the levers of trade unionism, so far as their endeavors have ended in failure."

"There is no more patriotic body of men in this country than the railwaymen, and their conduct during the war demonstrated that fact. When they realize that they are not fighting for fair conditions for labor of their class, but are being used by extremists for sinister purposes, their common sense will resume its sway and save the country yet and their families from disaster."

NO DEVELOPMENTS IN HARLAHA TRAIN ROBBERY CASE

Quebec, Que., Sept. 28.—There were no sensational developments in the Harlaha train robbery case over the week-end. Acting Chief Dominion Commissioner of Police Cameron was in the city today and met Chief City Detective Walsh from whom he received the history of the case.

The police expect that with the overwhelming accumulation of evidence which they have secured against Topping and Proteau, the two alleged bandits, that both will enter pleas of guilty when the preliminary inquiry is resumed tomorrow and crave the clemency of the court.

After twelve weeks of vote getting, the final returns came in on Saturday last which marked the close of The Standard's $10,000.00 Prize Contest. This contest is the biggest in the way of subscriptions and in value of prizes given away of any contest ever conducted in the eastern part of Canada.

The contest was announced for the first time on July 6th and, within a few days thereafter, a number of energetic men and women had entered their names as candidates for the valuable prizes The Standard offered to the best vote getters. From day to day new names were added and the list of candidates grew to nearly a hundred. Many of these, however, for one reason or another, got out of the contest, and the closing day found about enough active candidates left to take care of the prizes offered, but every one of these candidates were good fighters and ready to fight to the very end, and they did, as the total votes will show.

The closing hours of the contest were exciting ones for the candidates and their friends who had gathered to hand in their final subscriptions, and to hear the announcement of the winners as soon as the judges had finished their count.

In selecting the judges to count the ballots, The Standard obtained the services of men who are not only conversant with figures, records and methods, but men whose standing in the community is such as would assure the candidates and the public of fairness and accuracy in making the count. It was nearly one o'clock Sunday morning before the judges had finished their task of counting the thousands of ballots which came in during the last hours of the contest. The lateness of the hour, however, was not due to slowness on the part of the judges, but rather owing to the fact that some of the candidates arrived just before the closing hour with hundreds of subscriptions which had to be listed and arranged in shape to turn the ballots over to the judges for their counting.

The judges' report, as published above, shows the winners and their total vote, and those second in each district will be awarded a $500.00 Heintzman Piano; those third in each district will be given a $100.00 Brunswick Phonograph, and the others, who were active until the close, will receive ten per cent of the money they turned in. These prizes will be awarded at once.

At this time the winners of the automobiles are known, but the cars each will get is not known other than Mr. Fetherston, who has first choice and has selected the Chalmers car. Mr. Nickerson, who has second choice, had not, at the time this was written, decided which would be his choice, hence the other candidates must await the selection of Mr. Nickerson before the other two cars can be selected. As soon as the complete selections are made the fact will be published. The Standard takes this opportunity to publicly thank the judges for their new duties. He expects to present his credentials to President Wilson next week.

VISCOUNT GREY AT WASHINGTON

Expects to Present His Credentials to President Wilson This Week.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—Viscount Grey, the new British ambassador to the United States, arrived today from New York and after a rest over the week-end will take up his new duties. He expects to present his credentials to President Wilson next week.

Cabinet Considers Matters Relating To Gov't Policy

Following Tuesday's Caucus of Unionists it is Expected a Declaration of Policy Will be Issued.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 28.—Sir Robert Borden's attendance at Cabinet Council on Saturday, and the intimation that the Cabinet considered matters relating to government policy has heightened the interest in the Unionist caucus to be held this week previous to the departure of the Prime Minister from the capital for the rest re-negotiated by his illness. There was no official announcement subsequent to the Cabinet meeting on Saturday, and it is not regarded as likely that there will be before the caucus at which it is expected a comprehensive speech will be made by the Prime Minister. Subsequent to the caucus there will, in all probability, be issued a statement that will constitute a declaration of policy or platform for the Unionist Party.

FOREIGN MINISTER TITTONI TELLS DEPUTIES ITALY MUST REMAIN IN ACCORD WITH ALLIES

Pays Particular Attention to Status of Wilson in Peace Activities, Pointing Out Italy Had to Adopt an Attitude of Compromise—Recommends the Avoidance of a Course That Would Put His Country in Open Opposition to the Peace Conference — Offers to Resign in Favor of Anyone Who Can Handle Situation Better.

Rome, Saturday.—(By the Associated Press.)—Italy must remain in unity with her allies, declared Thomaso Tittoni, the Foreign Minister, in the course of his speech today in the Chamber, dealing with the situation growing out of the Fiume incident, in which he offered to resign in favor of any member who believed he could handle the problem better.

The Foreign Minister had gone over the course of the peace negotiations at Paris, paying particular attention to the status of President Wilson in the peace activities and pointing out that the Italian delegates had had to adopt such an attitude of compromise, because while France and Great Britain had assured Italy of their support, they had avoided going beyond the point in which they would have come into conflict with President Wilson.

The Foreign Minister went on: "I, her allies. The alliance formed for the war must necessarily continue during the peace."

Speaking of Italy's former enemies, the Foreign Minister said: "We wish a democratic revolution to occur in Germany to obliterate any remains of Prussian militarism; we wish Hungary and Bulgaria to become elements of the peace and equilibrium of Eastern Europe, while, as for Austria, now that we have reached the tops of the Alps, our natural frontier, we are ready to consider the Austrians as belligerents."

Referring to Asia Minor, he said: "This problem will return to the Peace Conference at the end of October, when President Wilson will declare whether America will accept a mandate in Turkey or Armenia."

THE KIMBERLEY MINES STILL IDLE

Companies Claim Strikers Are Members of O. B. U. and Refuse to Negotiate With Them.

Nelson, B. C., Sept. 27.—Two hundred and fifty miners in the Kimberley Camp, who went on strike September 15 for an increase in wages of $1.00 per day, are still idle. The companies claim that the strikers are members of the One Big Union, and state that they will refuse to negotiate so long as the men adhere to that organization. The strike was called by the Goodwin local, said to be organized by the O. B. U., and to be named for alleged drat evader shot on Vancouver island two years ago.

Capital And Labor Plan For Second Week of Strike

With Both Sides Determined to Break Deadlock in Steel Strike Attention is Directed to Strategic Points Along Industrial Battlefield.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 28.—With both sides determined to break the apparent deadlock in the steel strike which developed at the close of the first week, attention today is focused on strategic points along the industrial battlefield, particularly in the Pennsylvania sector, where a walkout of approximately 35,000 employees of the Bethlehem Steel Company has been ordered for Monday morning.

Both capital and labor utilized the Sabbath in laying plans for the second week, which is expected by many leaders to produce a greater test of strength than the first. Employers of labor are marshalling their forces for a determined effort to re-open many mills and to increase the output of those which weathered the initial walkout. Directors of the strike, on the other hand, are making every effort to rally more workers to their colors and to effect a virtual paralysis of the industry. Yesterday passed quietly in the steel centres. In Allegheny County, mass meetings, called by union organizers, were held without disorder under supervision of the sheriff.

Although an atmosphere of expectancy was noticeable in districts affected by the strike, yesterday brought no material developments. Leaders on both sides apparently contenting themselves with marking time in preparation for today's offensive and counter-offensive. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who left New York last night for Washington, predicted victory for the strikers and added that the struggle probably would be discussed at the industrial conference to be opened in the national capital October sixth.

FIRE WIPES OUT FARM PROPERTY AT MONCTON

All Interested in Music Will Assemble in Imperial Theatre Tomorrow Afternoon—Organization Promises to be Powerful.

A meeting of the Musical Club is called for five o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at the Imperial Theatre. There has been in the past a large amount of criticism of the lack of musical enterprises in St. John and the formation of this club will give everyone who really cares for music an opportunity to help overcome this drawback to the artistic life of the city.

The more people who show their interest in the club by becoming members, the more strong and powerful an organization it will be, and the better talent it will be able to bring to St. John.

As well as singing musicians and singers, a really good musical society can do wonders for local talent, and it may be that some discoveries of fine voices may be made through the efforts of its members, as well as giving opportunities of hearing the excellent singers already here.

The choral work which can be accomplished by a local club would be of the utmost benefit to music lovers and it is to be hoped that the meeting tomorrow will be largely attended and that every encouragement will be given to the plans of those responsible for the idea.

Unique Contest For Rally Day

Successful Services Held in Connection With St. Mary's Church Sunday School Yesterday Afternoon—Thanks Giving Service at St. Bartholomew's.

There was a large attendance at both morning and evening services at St. Mary's church and the Sunday school yesterday.

For some weeks there has been considerable activity about the Sunday school as a result of a good natured contest being waged there. As far back as August 27, the teachers and officers of the school decided to put forth a great effort to get pupils back to their regular classes.

A special programme was drawn up as follows: Hymn—"Sound the Battle Cry." Recitation—"Telling You Why You Are Here," by eight boys.

Prayer—Rev. R. Taylor McKim. Responsive Reading—Psalm 19. Recitation—"Welcome," Arthur Campbell.

Recitation—"Welcome," by seven girls. Chorus—"We Have a Story to Tell," by a special choir of girls.

Reading of Scripture. Hymn—"A Call for Loyal Soldiers." Creed and Special Prayers by the Rector.

Chorus—"We Rally for Him." Recitation—"Rally in His Service," by Seven Boys.

Solo—"Just Love of Jesus," by Miss Nutter.

Song—"I'll be a Sunbeam for Jesus," by Infant Girls.

Address—Arthur M. Greig, Secretary of the Maritime and C. A. Chorus—"Gathering of the New Recruits," by six girls.

Recitation—"Reapers" by six girls. Recitation—"First Fruits" by six girls.

Hymn—"Pass the Word Along the Line," National Anthem. Benediction.

Miss L. Bromfield was the accompanist and the leader of the choir.

Mr. Greig in his remarks summed up every thought in a rally round the banner of Jesus Christ and attended all sessions of the Sunday school.

St. Mary's Orchestra assisted at the services.

The offering envelopes illustrated an up-to-date coal truck delivering coal at a building, and the collection taken at the church amounted to over $70.

The invitations were of a special and unique nature. There was a blue envelope with "Summons to Appear" in large letters and the whole sheet of paper on which was printed a summons following closely those used by the department of police.

The service was conducted by the superintendent and rector, Rev. R. T. McKim, who was heartily congratulated on the success of the service, and for having such an energetic Sunday school.

At St. Bartholomew's. Thanksgiving service was held at St. Bartholomew's, Glen Falls, last evening. The church was decorated by the ladies with the harvest of the field. There was a dedication of a Bible, lectern and a hymn card, the latter being presented by Rev. J. H. Pogson, who has been helping Rev. R. T. McKim during the summer and who leaves this evening to resume his studies at Wycliffe College. J. N. Rodgers conducted the dedication.

A collection was taken and amounted to $52.72, which was the largest in the history of the church, the last year being over $40. Mr. Pogson preached an eloquent sermon and St. Mary's Orchestra led in the singing. The service closed with the singing of National Anthem.

enjoying a few minutes' recreation on the outside of the house, a peculiar noise was heard issuing from the chamber above the kitchen, on the rear floor. Being the first to hear the noise Father O'Brien rushed into the house and warned the housekeeper to get on the roof. Both the priest and housekeeper arrived at a safe spot just in time as the large gasoline tank which was set in the chamber, exploded a few seconds after.

Stirring Sermon At St. Andrews

Rev. F. S. Dowling Last Evening Preached Interesting Sermon, Taking for His Subject, "Why Join the Church?"

Taking as his subject "Why Join the Church?" the Rev. F. S. Dowling preached a stirring sermon to his congregation in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church last night.

Men and women who knew Jesus, said the preacher, were so touched by Him that they believed Him to be the very will and purpose of God.

These people shaped their lives according to this conviction and considered it their joy and ambition to give expression to the new found will and purpose of God in their own lives.

They became members of the Kingdom of God, having a common master, Christ, and having communicated to them by their master a world wide message of propaganda.

This organized body of members of the Kingdom of God is the Christian church. Christ did not choose for them a definite form of organization and these Christians organized themselves after the forms with which they were familiar, the Jews and the Greeks, and the Romans taking the forms of worship most suitable for them. The spirit of the church everywhere is human life bowing in submission to the will of God as found in the person of Jesus. The form of organization is as free as a river, being determined by the environment of the people.

Father Vaughan, a few years ago in Montreal, publicly gloried in the fact that he was a Roman Catholic. A week later the good Bishop of London, visiting the same city, addressed a brotherhood meeting there and thanked God that he was an English Catholic. Professor Jordan, of King's College, Kingston, speaking before a small gathering in Toronto a week later said that he was glad that he was a Catholic without any geographical limitations whatever.

After reviewing the manifold blessings of membership in the Christian church, the speaker took up the various objections that are raised by those who should be members.

To the first objection, "I cannot accept Christ as my saviour, teacher, guide and lord," the speaker said that under that understanding the person could not be a church member. "You cannot shelter unrest behind a half-baked opinion," said the preacher.

The second objection, "I don't feel like a church member; I have had no thrilling experience of my salvation." Church membership to be real must be based upon real, definite experience but that experience may be varied. A blinded soldier, who was returning to Canada on the S. S. Hesperian, which was torpedoed had his sight restored by contact with the icy waters. Some religious experiences are just as vivid in their contrast of coming from darkness to light, from sin to grace, from death to life.

An awakening to the spirit to some is like a "turning inside out," to others it is as the gentle break of dawn. "I think I could not live right," is the third objection and to this should come the counter question, "Could you live right outside the church?" By failing to join the church one does not get released from the moral obligation of living right.

THE FIREMEN CALLED OUT

Slight Fire Saturday Evening in Cranston Avenue House—Alarms from Two Places Were False.

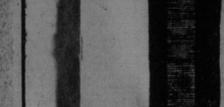

The fire department was called to Cranston Avenue Saturday evening about 6 o'clock for a blaze in a new house being erected for W. L. McIntosh. The fire was in the work of the lower flat and was supposed to have started from the fire used for drying out the plaster. The fire department was on the spot in quick time and a stream from the hydrant with the chemical engine's assistance soon quenched the fire. The damage was slight.

Just before this alarm box came in, but when the firemen arrived at the corner of Bentley street and Douglas avenue they could find no fire.

Another false alarm was rung from box 142 at the corner of Camden and Portland streets yesterday afternoon for working.

The Fourth Annual Day Service Held

Large Attendance at Twenty-Fourth Service Held in St. David's Yesterday—Greeting from Pastor, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan.

St. David's Presbyterian church Sunday school held its twenty-fourth annual rally day service in the school room yesterday, with a large attendance of teachers, scholars and congregation.

An order of service, entitled "Home," and consisting of responsive readings, hymns, etc., was capably carried out under the direction of the superintendent, Robert Reid. The platform was banked with autumn flowers, which were sent to the church at the close of the evening service.
Very interesting was the address by the Rev. (Capt.) George Parquhar, who spoke on "The Home and the Sunday School," making apt suggestions how the two institutions can help each other and also assist the church. His address was aimed particularly to the children, who were kept interested throughout.

Miss Phyllis MacGowan delighted the audience with her sweet rendition of the hymn "O, Happy Home." The superintendent presented to Miss Jean MacPhee a certificate and two diplomas for successfully repeating from memory various Scriptural passages during the year. The associate superintendent, D. W. H. Magee, assisted Mr. Reid, while Miss Gladys Fowler presided at the piano and F. G. Punter led the singing.
Mr. Reid announced during the service that the "Buddy Builders" had handed in $110 in Thrift Stamps, the girls donating $50 and the boys $60. This organization is working to establish a fund for a new school building at the rear of the new church on Sydney street. Greetings from the pastor the Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, were read as follows:
Dear Mr. Reid:
Please convey to the Sunday School teachers, officers and scholars at the Rally Service my heartfelt greetings. I very much regret not yet being able to be with you and share in the service, but hope soon to be in your glad company. I trust that the work of this new season will be undertaken with renewed zeal and carried on with renewed faithfulness. May the service today emphasize the old truth forever new, that there is no place like home.
Yours very cordially,
J. A. MacKEIGAN.

Track Record Was Broken Twice At Charlottetown

Bob Mac Won Free For All on Saturday—Lady Kip Also Won a Race.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Sept. 27.—A new trotting record was established for the Charlottetown track at today's races, the second time the track record was broken during this week's meet which closed today. Yesterday Brage reduced it from 2:15 1/4 to 2:15 1/4. Today, Colorado L. in the first heat of the 2:23 trot, brought it down to 2:13. In the next two heats Colorado finished fifty. This did not satisfy the grand stand and it clamored for Kelly's removal. He was replaced by Bousiller in the fourth heat, but the crowd, remembering their disapproval of the Halifax driver last year, protested against him also.
The free-for-all was won by Bob Mac, whose best time was 2:13 1/4.

Exmouth Street Sunday School

Sixtieth Milestone in Its History Celebrated Yesterday—Afternoon Service Addressed by Six Former Superintendents.

Exmouth Street Sunday School has reached the sixtieth milestone in its history and is celebrating this event by several interesting and important services. The first of these took place yesterday afternoon when a rally service was held in the Sunday school at Miss Ward's large attendance of teachers and scholars, including a number of former superintendents and teachers.
The service opened with the singing of "All People that on Earth Do Dwell," after which prayer was offered by the Rev. George Dawson, pastor of the church. A very concise historical account of the establishment of the Sunday school prepared by W. J. Magee, was read by the present superintendent, E. E. Thomas. This report showed that in 1859, about two years after the dedication of the Exmouth street church, a few members banded themselves together in a small room in a building near the Marsh Bridge to do Sunday school work in that locality. On Sept. 18th, 1859, the first session was held. It was opened by the Rev. John Lathern, the pastor of Exmouth street church. William Warwick was acting superintendent, and Robert C. Frost, assistant superintendent, with the following teachers: Miss Ward, Charlotte Noble, Anna Belle Frost, Margaret Whitaker, Elizabeth Duncan, Rebecca Jenkinson, Elizabeth Tennant, Isabella Phair, William Edwards, Nathan Partlow, William Calhoun, James Smith, James Lemon. The average attendance for the year was 84 with a total enrollment of 172.
R. C. Frost had a singing class which began Nov. 8th, 1859. In 1867 Mr. Malnes had a singing class. In 1871 A. G. Halseke took charge. D. W. Jones came in charge of singing in 1872 followed by W. A. Kein, J. M. Lawrence, George Kain, and E. E. Thomas at present.
In 1882 the trustees granted the use of the gallery of the church for a Sunday school. A new building was completed in Nov., 1882. Under the pastorate of Rev. T. J. Dehnstadt it was decided to raise the church and provide the school room beneath. In the connection the school held a fair in the Victoria skating rink, lasting one week and raising $1,000. Benches were provided by the proceeds of a bazaar and tea which realized $415. The first session in the present room was held in Sept., 1872.

In 1862 committees were appointed to visit the homes and look up children who did not attend any school. In 1869 a Vigilance Band was organized which brought thirty new scholars to the school. In 1884 the Relief and Aid Society was formed which up to 1909 had expended $891.71.
The cabinet organ was introduced in 1868, with Miss Hale as organist. It was paid for by the scholars collecting by cards. This organ is now in the infant class room.
In 1878 a Sunday school was organized at Drury's Cove chiefly through the efforts of Judson Worden. In 1887 a branch school was started at the Marsh Bridge with Edward Chipman superintendent; W. H. Patterson, secretary, and Jeremiah Thompson, treasurer.
The receipts for the past thirty years have been $10,251.04. The largest enrollment was in 1903 when it was 788 with an average attendance of 342. In 1897 a Home Department was formed; in 1902 a Cradle Roll session was held. It was opened by the Rev. John Lathern, the pastor of Exmouth street church. William Warwick was acting superintendent, and Robert C. Frost, assistant superintendent, with the following teachers: Miss Ward, Charlotte Noble, Anna Belle Frost, Margaret Whitaker, Elizabeth Duncan, Rebecca Jenkinson, Elizabeth Tennant, Isabella Phair, William Edwards, Nathan Partlow, William Calhoun, James Smith, James Lemon. The average attendance for the year was 84 with a total enrollment of 172.

Addresses Followed by Former Superintendents

Addresses followed by former superintendents relating incidents of their period of office and telling of those who had labored in the school. Those giving these helpful and instructive talks were Judge McKewen, William Baxter, J. King Kelly, W. A. Adams, George N. Breen and James Mylne.
E. E. Thomas, the present superintendent, was the chairman and welcomed those present, speaking especially of the number of former teachers who had come to show their continued interest in the school. Rev. George Dawson pronounced the benediction which closed the service. It was announced that on Tuesday a banquet for officers and teachers past and present would be held. On Wednesday there will be a special prayer meeting. On Friday a party for those of the younger classes and a social for older members, including the Home Department, next Sunday will be the annual Rally Day.

THE WORLD'S SERIES.

This week will witness the climax of the season's play in the great American game of ball. In Cincinnati on Wednesday the Cincinnati Reds, winners by ten clear games in the National League Series, will meet the Chicago White Sox, winners by five games in the American League. During the past four or five years, because of the diversion of interest and the absence of many capable players, baseball in the United States, where it flourishes most, has not been up to the standard. This year with the return of the soldiers, with the inevitable reaction from war strain and with an abundance of money, this pastime has been more popular than ever. The play itself has been equal to the best in the past generation. The attendance has beaten all previous records, so much so that in the middle of last June certain of the clubs had taken in sufficient money to pay the entire season's expenses and then after play for profit only. In each of the two big leagues are eight teams and each team plays one hundred and forty games. There are thus played in each of these leagues five hundred and sixty games during the season ending September thirtieth, the winners being as already named. The Chicago White Sox, owned absolutely by Charles A. Comiskey and managed by Kid Gleason, and the Cincinnati Reds, owned by an incorporated company and managed by Patsy Moran, both managers having been in their time able players, stand to win or lose many thousands of dollars as a result of the series of world's championship games to be commenced this week. These games will be played, weather conditions permitting, in Cincinnati on Wednesday and Thursday, the clubs then move to Chicago, where they will play on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Five games are necessary to win, and should it happen that neither of the teams secures the five victories by Sunday, games will be played on alternate days thereafter, between Cincinnati and Chicago. In these eastern provinces there are thousands who have followed with interest the progress of the National and American Leagues, but the pre-eminence of the western teams had detracted to some extent from local interest with the result that less enthusiasm is displayed in New Brunswick than would have been the case had eastern teams been leaders in their respective leagues. Yet the outcome of the world's series will be watched with even closer attention than has been apparent of late years because of the fact that our people are now no longer devoting themselves so whole-heartedly to matters in connection with war.

BONUSING UNEMPLOYMENT

A writer in the New York Times awards his fellow countrymen against the evils arising from bonus payments to men who have been in military service. He appreciates that in their enthusiasm to do for the boys who have served so well the people of his country may be ready to accede to the payment of large sums of government money in the form of gratuities and he himself the father of a returned man, while in no way underrating the services rendered and believing that the gratitude of the nation should find expression, is impressed with the undesirable results brought about in England through this system. In a country now suffering from disturbed labor conditions, from under-production and with need of increased industrial and agricultural activity, no policy should be adopted which will tend to further reduction of effort. In Britain, where increased production is everywhere regarded as the remedy for conditions created by the war, a great number of men discharged from the army remain unemployed, drawing unemployment pensions or living on deferred pay and gratuities provided through the bounty of the government. Indeed, this writer points out, so serious has the situation become that among the better thinking men of Britain today there is a determination to bring about as speedily as possible the cancellation of all unemployment pensions and the stoppage of further allowances to ex-soldiers and bonuses to others, indicating a realization of the handicap which that country faces in competition with other nations by means of the inactivity of a large portion of its people and the national expense involved in meeting this weekly and monthly allowance.

PROHIBITORY LEGISLATION.

The W. C. T. U. in conference in St. John has adopted resolutions requesting amendments supplementary to the prohibitory legislation now in force. It was the feeling of this convention that further restrictions should be provided covering the sale of extracts and tonics. This of course is the purpose for which the W. C. T. U. exists. The promotion of temperance by every legitimate means is the sole object of the women who are associated in this body. But while sentiment

In favor of temperance legislation is very general, all the people are not such rigid prohibitionists as are the members of the W. C. T. U. and among those who have at all times been prepared to endorse temperance legislation fairly applied, there will be found a number who are not sufficiently enthusiastic to combine their support to extremes. It is better that prohibitory legislation should make way slowly and with the approbation of the majority of our people than that by the introduction of too drastic regulations it be condemned even by a few. And it cannot be denied that even in the ranks of impartial supporters of prohibition there is a certain dissimilarity of opinion with respect to the present legislation as applied. Whether or not a real cause for dissatisfaction exists or does not exist, it is to the interest of the temperance movement that nothing shall be done which will tend to further develop such dissatisfaction. The legitimate use of even the most deadly drugs must be admitted and despite all our prohibitionists may say they will never overcome the generally accepted belief that alcoholic preparations have a place of their own in the life of the community. It will not do to interfere too drastically with the necessary handling and sale of tonics, of extracts, of raw and prepared alcohol for such purposes and in such manner as meets the legitimate demands of home and business life.

THE STANDARD CONTEST.

To the winners of the Subscription Contest which closed Saturday evening, The Standard extends congratulations. During the final few weeks of that contest many competitors, whose previous efforts were not sufficient to justify them in the expectation of winning one of the most important prizes, dropped out, so that there remained at the close only a comparatively few, scarcely a larger number than the number of prizes offered. These, however, had been for the most part very active from the beginning, and the showing which they made was, without exception, very creditable indeed. Naturally the efforts of most were directed to the winning of the four motor cars which this paper offered, but of course all could not win and to those who failed of that goal the other prizes will be a measure of consolation. Any newspaper in launching an enterprise of this nature assumes a very considerable liability, especially in view of the circumstances that it has not assurance whatever of any definite return for its outlay. It is gratifying in the present instance to be able to say that The Standard's contest has been quite successful, up to the expectations of those who promoted it, and conducted in a manner which has maintained the very kindliest feeling throughout among all competitors. Absolute fairness to everyone has prevailed and those who have won prizes have the satisfaction of knowing that they have done so through their own efforts, while the more successful friends enjoyed no particular advantage excepting in ability and energy.

A HIGH-CLASS INVESTMENT.

In less than a month the victory tour campaign will be launched. It is anticipated that the selling period will extend from about October twenty-seventh to November fifteenth, approximately the same time as was devoted to the last campaign. In view of the approach of this important issue it will be well for all to be prepared to welcome the canvasser and to invest in this best-of-all security every dollar that can possibly be afforded. Canada is not now at war, but because of the war there are endless bills to pay. We have piled up indebtedness for all manner of supplies, for military equipment, for the return of our troops and in addition to all these outlays money is needed with which to finance our foreign trade. Three hundred million dollars will be asked, but as a matter of fact the government needs nearly double that amount and will accept subscriptions up to at least five hundred millions. No better investment can be found and in view of the prospective reduction in interest rates during the next few years, those who have any money put by will be well advised to invest in these victory bonds.

Little Benny's Note Book

My new Sunday suit came last Saturday, and Sunday morning I put it on, looking all rite, and after dinner I went around to Mary Watkins's house, thinking she might be anxious to take a walk with me on account of my new suit, and she was sitting on her front steps all alone on a chablon, saying, O what a lovely new green suit, isn't it perfectly beautiful.

O, its all rite, I said modest. And I was just going to ask her if she wanted to take a walk, when who came up but Leroy Shooter in a new check suit, Mary Watkins saying, O, what a beautiful new check-suit, isn't it perfectly lovely.

It airt to be, it cost 12 dollars, and Leroy Shooter concealed. Benny has a beautiful new suit too, his is green, said Mary Watkins. And Leroy Shooter looked at my green suit and I looked at his check suit, me saying, I don't like check suits much, too many gamblers wear them.

They're a darn site better than green suits, people going around in green suits put me in mind of parrots, said Leroy.

Are you trying to insult my suit, said Leroy Shooter, and I said, Are you trying to insult mine? and I said, If there wasn't any ladies around, you wouldn't dare insult my suit, all rite. Meaning Mary Watkins, and she said, Now, boys, please don't fit just because I like both your suits just the same, no boys, behave yourselves.

Let him come around in the alley if he thinks he can insult my suit, that's all I got to say, said Leroy Shooter, and I said, All rite, I ain't afraid of you or your suit either, come on around in the alley, I dare you. Me not thinking he would, which he did, saying, Come on, I'll take your dare, come on. And we went around, and hit each other about 3 times, and then he told me he didn't mean to insult my suit if I didn't mean to insult his, and I told him I didn't mean to insult his if he didn't mean to insult mine, and he started to go back again, and on the way who passed us but Mary Watkins taking a walk with Pops Simkins with a new brown suit on.

friend sent up his card he sighed, but decided not to see him. He called in the office boy.

"Look here," he said, "you must tell this man I'm out. I can't see him, and I wouldn't offend him for the world, so be sure to convince him that I really am out. You see?"

"Yes, sir," said the boy. Then, after a pause, "I think I should be sure to convince him you were out if I went to him smoking one of your best cigars."

A soiled cuff attracts the eye

YOUR cuff is the most exposed portion of your shirt. It soils the quickest. And everyone knows how PROMINENT a soiled cuff is. It seems a magnet that draws all eyes.

A soiled cuff irritates a particular man. He keeps pushing or pulling up his shirt sleeve to hide it. It causes him to change his shirt when the body of it is still fresh and clean.

The Double Wear Cuff is a boon to the particular dresser. When the cuff gets soiled just turn it. It folds easily and lies perfectly flat whether turned in or turned out. And just think of the comfortable feeling it gives you to know that you can turn your cuff, if you should happen to get it soiled unexpectedly when down town, and it's inconvenient to go home and change your shirt.

Sons of England Attended Church

Members of Three Lodges, Headed by St. Mary's Band, Paraded to St. Luke's Church.

Yesterday morning the Marlborough, Portland and New Brunswick lodges of the Sons of England Society, headed by the St. Mary's Band, paraded from the lodge rooms to St. Luke's Church, where a sermon most appropriate to the occasion was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. R. P. McKim.

Very impressive and touching was the special committal service for those members of the order who had fallen overseas. That beautiful poem of Allan's, "They lie in fields where poppies bloom," was recited by the pastor, and the close of the committal service was marked by the sounding of the Last Post by the band trumpeters.

The sermon, specially arranged for the occasion, dealt with the present situation of the world unrest and the stability and character of English institutions.

"These are stirring times in which "I have noticed how many heads in Europe have lost their crowns during the last five years," asked the speaker.

"Have you observed how many rulers have stepped down from their thrones? Have you seen the many social and economic changes that have taken place in many lands, with Bolshevism in Russia, socialism in Germany, Spartanism and Reds controlling the central empires, and the old and new worlds in a ferment of unrest?"

"Though the opinion of some is that the old order necessarily follow," said the preacher, "that everything that is new is right and that everything that is old must go because it is old. Some orders of things, some conditions, some institutions, may fade and go, but never let it be forgotten that the old flag we love has flown the battle breezes for a thousand years and it never could have done that had it not stood for what is right. That flag could never occupy the proud place in the world if it now holds it if it were ever stained with dishonor. Here today, in this House of God and before God Himself, the flag that has been our father's flag shall be ours also. We want no emblems upon it; the colors are right, the shape is right, neither do we wish one fold of its proud spread cut off. It stands today for the integrity of the British Empire, its many and varied elements fused by living fire into one strong, cohesive mass.

"That which is wrong must be put right; that which has failed in the task must be changed, but standing manfully and loyally under the old flag we shall carry on and do our part in these changing days; days of change and reconstruction, doing our best to make things better.

"The third essential is loyalty to God. Man's loyalty to God will be tested and only that which is genuine will stand the test. "If you want to go where Jesus is, you must go with Him. If you claim to belong to Him you must confess Him."

There was a large attendance, practically every seat being occupied. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion, the platform and pulpit being tastefully trimmed with the British ensign and the flags of the allied nations.

War Hero Now Gains 24 Pounds

After the Strain of Service at Front, Came Home Almost a Nervous Wreck—Praises Tanlac.

Here is another instance of the remarkable reconstructive powers of Tanlac. William J. McCullum, of 114 Broad St., St. John, New Brunswick, who spent three and a half years at the front in France and Belgium, wounded five times, gassed and shell shocked and finally invalided home, states that Tanlac has put him in shape to where he is not only beginning to feel like himself again, but that he has also gained twenty-four pounds in weight besides.

Mr. McCullum is a veteran of two wars. He holds medals for services in the great European war and also a four bar medal for gallantry in the Boar war.

"I can hardly realize just what Tanlac has been worth to be," said Mr. McCullum, in an interview, recently. "In restoring my health and putting me on my feet. When I got home from the war I was simply a nervous wreck and neither time or medicines seemed to do me any good. I was so nervous and shaky I could hardly hold a cup of tea to my mouth, and if my wife happened to drop a fork or knife at the table I would nearly jump out of my chair. In this excited condition, my food could not digest, but would sour and form gas on my stomach adding more misery to my already desperate condition. I would toss and roll most of the night, getting only about two hours' restless sleep, and would sometimes have to get out of bed and walk the floor. My condition was distressing to the extreme and seemed to be getting worse all the time.

"Finally someone suggested that I try Tanlac, and I got a bottle, having little idea it would do me any good, but it has not only helped me, it has made me feel like a new man. I now have an appetite like a bear and I just anything set before me without the least effect from it. I have been built up and strengthened until my nervousness is practically gone. I can sleep all night long and my wife has a job waking me up in the mornings. I am now able to do a full day's work and Tanlac gets all the credit for me being on my feet. My nerves have steadied down until I can stand all sorts of noise and sudden jars. When I first began taking Tanlac I could not hold my hand steady enough to take a drink of water, but now I can shave myself. I am praising Tanlac to all the boys, especially those suffering like I was, take a 'tip' from me—get Tanlac, for I fully believe I would still be a nervous wreck if I had not taken it myself.

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. Advt.

HARVESTING WORK MOVES ON MOST SATISFACTORILY

Weather Conditions Have Been Better Durnig Past Ten Days and Farmers Have Take Advantage of Their Opportunities.

Rapid advancement has been made in harvesting operations during the past ten days. Weather conditions have been much better. Quite a quantity of grain still remains uncut in some parts of the province. The buckwheat crop is good this year. On the marshes there is quite a quantity of hay to be cut yet. One man reports that never in the last thirty-five years has there been so much hay to harvest at this time of year.

Potatoes are being dug quite generally. The tops have been killed by frost in all parts of the province and they are ready to dig. Generally speaking, reports are of a good average crop, with prices running from $2.50 to $3.00 per barrel at shipping point. Some late blight is reported, followed by rot, but this is by no means general throughout the province.

Under livestock reports indicate that lambs are being marketed quite freely just at present. Six carloads have been shipped co-operatively by the farmers of Restigouche and Gloucester counties. These have gone to Montreal; the price varying from $11 to $14 per cwt. with the market gradually falling. Other districts report lambs selling, alive, at from $5.00 to $8.00 each.

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF THE C.P.R.

The presidency of so vast a system as that of the Canadian Pacific Railway is no easy position to fill—so varied are the interests and covering so large and manifold a territory. The railway itself has eighty thousand employees and more mileage even than any of the great systems of the United States—no less than 18,600 miles of track being operated or controlled from Montreal. The C. P. R. telegraphic complex over 100,000 miles of wire with no less than 15,000 offices where messages may be received. The C. P. R. hotels, involving an investment of over $2,000,000 and representing eighteen caravanserais from the small station hotel to the huge edifices at Quebec, Winnipeg, Calgary, Banff, Lake Louise, Vancouver, and Victoria—the Vancouver Hotel, for instance, having establishment of 600 rooms—involve great responsibility. Then there are the lands in Western Canada with the $17,000,000 irrigation scheme west of Calgary and the extensive colonization programme of ready-made farms and the like. The mining and smelting interests of the C. P. R. in British Columbia are also considerable, involving not only a large investment of capital but also relations with a labor element which has been somewhat difficult to manage. Then again there are the great Angus Shops at Montreal, with other large shops also at Winnipeg and Calgary, where so much of the rolling stock and equipment is built and repaired.

STEEL GROUP ADDS CONFIDENCE TO STRIKE SETTLEMENT

Led the List on Saturday's Trade, Each Group Making Very Substantial Gains—Motors Next in Speculative Favor.

New York, Sept. 27.—Wall Street expressed today its strengthening belief in an early settlement of the steel strike by heavy purchases of leading stocks, most of which rose to highest prices of the week. As a group, steels led the list, United States Steel making a gain of two points and Bethlehem, which rivaled it in point of activity, rose seven points. Crucible Steel was the central feature, however, its extreme advance to the new high record of 217 being accomplished at the further expense of the shorts. Crucible made a net gain of eleven and a half points or a total of 26 1/4 since Thursday's final quotation.

An Ulsterman The Preacher At Knox

Rev. Captain Thomas Harrison Occupied Pulpit in Knox Church Yesterday—Also Addressed Sunday School at Rally Service.

The people of Knox Church heard with pleasure again this eloquent Ulsterman.

Capt. Harrison spoke in the morning on "Christian Growth," and in a way peculiar to himself traced the growth of a human soul to Christian perfection.

In the afternoon he addressed the Sunday School rally, founding his remarks on the rally text, "What our home means to us." In a helpful and inspiring address he said the home means safety, rest, companionship, development and education.

In the evening, his theme was "Memorial Bonaes," from Joshua 4th chapter. "And when your children's children shall ask you what meaneth these stones? ye shall answer, Your fathers crossed over this Jordan." The first act after crossing, said the Captain, was a religious act; the first bit of Canaan they took possession of was hallowed as a memorial site; asking is there anything analogous to this which we ought to do? and would there be any advantage in doing it? Let us see what this action would suggest as our proper course. In a forceful sermon, full of oratorical skill he said: First, we should all take special measures to remember our mercies; 2nd, it is a duty to report to others as well as to remember for ourselves the mercies of God; 3rd, make your memorial as enduring as possible. They were to set up twelve stones, something that would endure, that could give testimony to many generations; as a matter of fact they did remain till probably some centuries after the destruction of Jerusalem; 4th, that the lessons of the memorial should especially reach our children. No one should despair of the future of a land in which parents can engage the ear of children with the story of their sacred experience. Is there not too much reticence between parents and children on the greatest of themes? If our hearts were more devout would it be impossible for us without undue detail to charge our children with a sense of what we owe to our Redeemer.

City Cornet Band's Forty-Fifth Year

Will Open Its Seventh Around the World Fair in St. Andrew's Rink This Evening—A Big Event Well Planned.

In the City Cornet Band the city has a musical organization which works but five years to complete its golden jubilee. That is a record of which there is much to be said. During the formative years of its existence the band has ever been a real live institution and has, at all times, been willing to assist in any matter of public interest. To the enterprise of the band it owes the erection of the splendid stand in King Square, and, during the late war, the organization was over to the fore in all matters leading to the success of our war efforts.

The City Cornet Band is, therefore, an institution in which the City of St. John has every reason to pride itself. Tonight in St. Andrew's rink the band will open its seventh "Around the World" Fair. In connection with the big event citizens also have the opportunity of winning trip tickets around the world or shorter distances for cash prizes to a total value of $1,200. These tickets may be secured at the rink or from any of the bandmen as they usually go very swiftly, intending purchasers should make their investment without delay. Opportunity is also given to win a $150.00 creamophone on a ten cent ticket. There are all the tickets that will be sold apart from the entrance fee of ten cents.

Patrons of the fair will see much which will interest them. The replica of Niagara Falls is in itself worthy of patronage, yet it is but one of the many novel ideas worked out. There are a great variety of means whereby a couple of hours' solid enjoyment can be had. In addition to this musical concert will be given this evening. The band has never yet made an effort to the public which fell short of anticipation. The fair which will run for one week will be but another chapter in the book of splendid achievements to the record of the City Cornet Band.

Special Rally Day Services Were Held

"The Home and God's Work" Was Central Theme Considered in First Presbyterian Church Services in West St. John Yesterday.

"The Home and God's Work" was the central theme considered at the rally day service held at the First Presbyterian church, West Side, yesterday afternoon. The order of service used was one which was prepared by a joint committee of Sunday School boards of the Congregational, Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. The reproduction of a famous painting by G. A. Reid, B. C. A. called "Family Worship," was on the cover of the pamphlet. Hymns, responsive readings, and addresses by the associate superintendent of the Sunday school, Leonard Wilson, and Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison made up the program.

Leonard Wilson spoke on the occasion and explained the procedure to be followed in the home and how the number of teachers and scholars present. On the platform were also the superintendent of the Sunday school, A. W. Fraser, and the honorary superintendent, J. H. Cameron. The address by the pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison, dealt with the value of the home and how the church, Sunday school and home may help one another.

Dr. Morrison said that the word "home" is Anglo-Saxon, coming from the root "ham," and that the use of the expression "my home" usually marks the person of British birth. The French have no word for home. He showed the scholars how it has been planned by the Almighty that a child shall grow up slowly in contrast to the animals whose growth is a matter of a few years and thus the child has the benefit of parental training and education.

After the benediction the teachers held a meeting in the vestry for the purpose of organizing for the coming year. The meeting was presided over by Leonard Wilson and various committees were appointed. All the departments of the Sunday school will be in working order next Sunday at two-thirty.

Zion Methodist Church Rally Day

Yesterday Rev. M. E. Conron Preached at Both Services and Also Addressed the Sunday School—All Services Most Impressive.

The Rally Day services in Zion Methodist Church were largely attended yesterday. At the evening service Rev. M. E. Conron preached upon the dignity of Sunday School work and the strategic position of the Sunday School in the life of the church. The school offers a great opportunity to reach the young life when it was most plastic. There was also a great chance for the grown-ups, too, in those times when so many people do not understand the will and the workings of God. The great unrest of the present time was caused by the people not being near enough to God, and the remedy for this unrest was a closer relationship with God.

An open session of the Sunday School was held during the afternoon when there was a large attendance. Rev. M. E. Conron spoke on the two ideas of Rally Day. First, the world was so built and the people were so dependent on one another for evil or good. An apple would not rot alone in a barrel but caused others to go bad, so the bad girl or boy had a bad influence on the whole community. Also a log would not burn well alone but several logs together made a great fire, so for real work all must go together and work as a unit. Within the last few weeks the choir of Zion Church has been greatly enlarged and improved.
