CZAR'S TROOPS WIN ANOTHER IMPORTANT STEP IN EASTERN GALICIA; WILSON ASKS FOR DUMBA'S RECALL

GERMANS MAKE SMALL GAIN IN THE WEST BUT RESULT NOT CHANGED

Crown Prince Tries Again to Break Through in Argonne, But He is Apparently as Far from His Objective as Ever—Signs That the Russian Armies are Getting Fresh Supplies of Ammunition.

London, Sept. 9, 10 p. m.—The German Crown Prince is making another determined attempt to break through the French lines in the Argonne, and, according to the Berlin official statement, has succeeded in taking trenches over a front of two kilometers (one and one-quarter miles) and to a depth of from 300 to 500 metres, capturing 2,000 prisoners, 48 machine guns and 64 mine-throwers. The French, both in their midnight report and again this afternoon, admit that the Germans had gained a partial success, but declare that in most instances they were thrown back with heavy losses.

This is the second effort of the German Emperor's heir to win a victory in this region within the last three months, and, although on each occasion he gained a small amount of ground, he is apparently as far from his objective this time as on the previous occasion. Fighting was in progress all yesterday and throughout the night, and was still going on when the last report was issued. This doubtless is the German reply to the artillery bombardment which the Allies kept up for fifteen days, but which now seems to be dying down without any infantry attacks following it, as had been anticipated. Instead, except for heavy gun action south of Arras, bomb-throwing seems to have taken its place.

Russians Standing Well.

Along the eastern front things are moving more slowly again, after the Russian offensive in the southeast, in which they claimed a substantial victory, had helped to liven matters up. From the Gulf of Riga to Olita, south of Kovno, the Germans state, the situation is unchanged, while their counter-attack from that point to and beyond the Pripiet marshes continues to advance. On the whole, the Russians appear, with fresh supplies of ammunition, to be making a better stand. They are aided, doubtless, by the rains which are sweeping the region, especially in the region of the Pripiet and its affluents, into quagmires.

THE GERMAN REPORT OF VICTORY.

Berlin, Sept. 9, via London—An important victory in the Argonne was announced today by the war office. French positions over a front of two kilometers (1.24 miles) and 800 to 1,000 yards deep were captured. The war office also announced that in the Zeppelin raids over England on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, bombs were dropped on docks and other port establishments in London and vicinity. The German airships returned safely.

HEAVY ARTILLERY DUEL NEAR ARRAS.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight: "The artillery struggle continues around Arras, in the region of Roye, and on the Champagne front. "In the Argonne the enemy attacks were not renewed. The day was marked by a violent artillery duel. "The cannonading has likewise been quite spirited in the Woivre, in the forest of Apremont, and at Bois de Montmaré."

SIR JOHN FRENCH REPORTS NO CHANGE.

London, Sept. 9, 8.01 p. m.—Field Marshal Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British army in the field, has sent the following report on recent operations: "There has been no change in the situation since my last communication. There has been mining activity on both sides, without important results. Our own artillery, and that of the enemy has been active east of Ypres. Elsewhere on our front conditions are normal. "A German aeroplane was brought down by rifle and machine gun fire on September 1, falling close behind the German lines southeast of Hooge. A second German aeroplane, on September 2, was brought down by one of our fighting machines. It fell behind the enemy's lines opposite the southern portion of our front."

A Vienna report. London, Sept. 9, 10.20 p. m.—A despatch to the Central News from Vienna says it is officially announced that the Austrian Landwehr-cavalry entered the

GREAT RUSSIAN VICTORY IN EASTERN GALICIA IS ANNOUNCED IN PETROGRAD

Petrograd, via London, Sept. 10, 2.47 a. m.—An official communication, made public here, announces another big success for the Russians in Eastern Galicia. Following their reported victory at Tarnopol, it is stated that southwest of Trembowla, during the 7th and 8th, the Russians took as prisoners 150 officers and 7,000 men, and that the Teutons retreated hastily toward the River Strypa. The communication adds that the Russian captures since Sept. 3 on the Sereth front total 383 officers and over 17,000 men, and a great quantity of guns.

UNITED STATES ASKS AUSTRIA TO RECALL AMBASSADOR DUMBA

His Action in Scheming to Interrupt Manufacture of Munitions in America Not Tolerated at Washington—His Presence "No Longer Acceptable"—Trouble May Follow.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Ambassador Penfield at Vienna was instructed by cable tonight to inform the Austro-Hungarian government that Dr. Constantin Dumba no longer is acceptable as an envoy to the United States, and to ask for his recall. Secretary Lansing formally announced the action. It was the answer of the American government to Dr. Dumba's explanation of his intercepted letter to Vienna outlining plans for handicapping plants in this country making war supplies for the Allies.

The Note.

Ambassador Penfield was instructed by cable yesterday to deliver the following note to the foreign office: "His Excellency Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Washington, has admitted that he proposed to his government to institute strikes in this country in order to interrupt the manufacture of munitions for the Allies. The information reached the government through a copy of a letter of the ambassador to his government. He bears an American citizen named Archibald, who was traveling under an American passport. The ambassador has admitted that he employed Archibald to bear official despatches from him to his government. "By reason of the admitted purpose and intent of Mr. Dumba to conspire to cripple legitimate industries of the United States, and to interrupt their legitimate trade, and by reason of the flagrant violation of diplomatic propriety in employing an American citizen, protected by an American passport, as a secret bearer of official despatches through the lines of the enemy of Austria-Hungary, the president directs me to inform your excellency that Mr. Dumba is no longer acceptable to the government of the United States as the ambassador of his imperial majesty at Washington."

RUSSIA'S RESOLVE CALLED HOPEFUL IN BRITISH PRESS

Transfer of the Grand Duke Nicholas Not Regarded as Retirement of Brilliant Officer

Czar's Presence on Field Front Will Inspire Army—Chances of Changes of Strategy—Retreat May Continue in Orderly Manner—Weakness in Austrian Lines Noted.

London, Sept. 9.—Great concern is expressed by the morning papers over changes in the Russian higher commands. It is considered natural, however, that at a time of such national gravity the Czar should assume supreme command, as he is both the spiritual and secular head of the empire in a way not easily understood in western Europe. Reveals Gravity of Hour. As the Times editorial says, if the emperor takes the field in person, it is to overcome at the same time foes of Russia at home and embattled foes who are striking at his sovereignty. "The Czar in the action reveals the gravity of the hour," says the Times. "He typifies Russia more fully than any other European country is personified in its sovereign. He is the head of the army and of the church, possessor of supreme political power, the living emblem of the national resolve. "His decision is worthy of a great sovereign with trusted military advisers at his side and upon them will devolve the practical execution of his commands. "Such a monarch may well instill new confidence into his sorely tried troops, and steel their hearts afresh for victorious conflict with a redoubtable enemy."

HUNS KILL TWENTY IN AIR RAID ON LONDON; MANY MORE INJURED

Berlin, via London, Sept. 9, 3.35 p. m.—The chief of the admiralty staff has issued the following report: "Our naval airships attacked, during the night of September 8-9, with good results, the western part of the city of London, the great factories near Norwich and the harbor works and iron works at Middleburg. There were heavy explosions and numerous fires were observed. "Our airships were heavily fired at by hostile batteries, but all returned safely. Many Casualties. London, Sept. 9.—The official statement gives the following list of casualties in the air raid on London: Killed, 12 men, two women, and six children; injured, seriously, eight men, four women and four children; injured, slightly, 82 men, 28 women and 11 children. One soldier was killed, and three were injured. All the other victims were civilians. The attack of last night brings up the casualties from Zeppelin raids to 129 killed

RECRUITS COMING IN A STEADY STREAM OF FIRST-CLASS MANHOOD

Nineteen Registered as Total for Day's Effort in the City Alone

Committee to Keep Doggedly On—Most of Previous Men Enlisted Gave Up Jobs to Go—Do German Spies Report on Delay in the Province?—Pertinent Statement by Lieut. Brooks—Workshop Meetings to Commence Today—Another Haligonian to the List of Speakers—Cheerful Cablegram from the 26th Battalion to Mayor.

Fifteen men were enrolled in the ranks of the 64th from St. John yesterday, while four more went through all the regulations but attestation. This was considered satisfactory as this represents the net effect from which the later deductions may be discounted. They are a good type of men, but the best feature is that the appeal of the citizens' committee is working outwards with steady certainty. The seed is evidently falling on ready ground each day, for the class of audience that gathered at St. Andrew's rink last night to hear the speakers was far and away a more thoughtful, if less demonstrative one than has yet been seen at any of the recruiting meetings. The general level of intelligence of those present would compare well with that of, say, a political gathering. Much good will as certainly be done in the same way of spreading outwards among the classes and the masses by the women's mass meeting at the Opera House in the afternoon—by the way one of the most intensely earnest of anything seen in the city for years. With this progress made and these prospects ahead, the committee, it is felt, should stick doggedly to work. The favorable comparisons in recruiting for the maritime provinces are being wiped out

The recruits yesterday were: HUGH A. MASON, MILLSTREAM (N. B.) CHARLES UPHAM, ST. JOHN (N. B.) COREY GRAY, PENOBSCOT (N. B.) RUFERT ROCKWELL, HILLSDALE (N. B.) WERTWORTH H. TABOR, RIVER HERBERT (N. S.) CECIL W. FERRITT, BRISTOL (ENG.) With the following, whose birthplaces are not obtainable registered during the day: THOMAS C. WILCOX, PATRICK McCOURT, DANIEL SWEENEY, ANGUS McDONALD, ABRAHAM A. ELSTON, THOMAS ANDREWS, R. G. RICE, EDMUND GALLANT, JOSEPH MARTIN.

With St. Mary's Band and four sturdy pipers to give music, there were fully 600 men at the rink when E. A. Schofield, the chairman, supported by Colonel Sturdee and other members of the committee, took the platform. Not only was the wounded Highlander, Sergeant Knight, again present, but there was on the platform another who has nobly done his duty, a son of the province who was en route to his home, Private Arthur Harrington, of Woodstock. He has been honorably discharged as unable to carry on soldiering any more. He did not speak. A Direct Appeal. The first speaker was Lieutenant A. J. Brooks, of the 58th battalion. His addresses are always direct. Knowing the province as a book, he has quickly grasped what as a public speaker is needed in such an appeal to his own provincial hearers and he always gets a respectful and attentive hearing. That accounts for the 400 men that he has to date persuaded to enroll in the 58th battalion. He said, as a matter of fact with fine frankness, that he had had to give up a $1,000 a year in enlisting as he did. Besides he told the young men present that he had been obliged to work hard to get the post he had abandoned for the time to go to war and he felt that having worked so hard to obtain it he had as good a right as any of them to value it. He could easily have argued that there were others in the province who could more easily have been spared. "But men must make a sacrifice in times like this, and until a man has done so much for his country he has no right to enjoy the privileges of a British citizen."

It was unhappily true that if a man was not for the Empire in this war he was against it. Were all of them for it? So they would show it. "I believe," he went on in a telling passage, "that before the war German spies were all over this province and this dominion, and they have undoubtedly reported home the state of mind of the people of Canada. Many reported that the Canadians were not willing to help England and that if the German emperor went to war he would find many people all over the empire who were not in sympathy with England. These spies I believe are watching you today, and I believe that the German government is well informed that the sons of the province of New Brunswick are holding back. Because of these things the German people fight with more determination, as they know from their reports that the Canadian people are not coming forward and enlisting in adequate numbers. It gives them more courage to go on and, indirectly, I say some of you men are aiding the Germans by giving them a sort of moral support through not coming forward." As to excuses for not going forward he doubted if any man who has gone could not give better than many of those who stayed at home. Yet he had not lost faith in his native province, for he had often played with the sons of St. John and found them good sports. They should in this war show themselves sports and take a part in the only game that any man should at this time be playing. (Applause.) Judge Stewart. Judge W. S. Stewart, of Charlottetown, gave an address that sketched the anti-democratic tendency of German policy since 1894 and showed how her system crushed out democracy. The line between was the rights of the people were to stand or the rights of tyrants. "The British Empire must do this war with her present Allies. The great republic to the south of us, which has boasted for a hundred years of being the home and even the cradle of liberty, shows a desire to stand aside and mind her own. I am not sure that she is not right in this and to husband her strength so as to be of most use to the others to bind up their wounds at the close. But we have to do the work of keeping up democracy ourselves." Judge Stewart then mentioned that Prince Edward Island had given 300 men out of her small population already and was preparing more. In closing he said that if Canada was to be the predominant partner in the dominion they would also become the custodians of the priceless heritage of liberty and freedom that had been won for all by the British race. Rev. M. E. Fletcher. Rev. M. E. Fletcher, who has two boys in uniform, one at the front and the other in the detention company of the 82nd, spoke intimately of what those boys had done. One was 18 and the other 16. He gave some facts out of the boys' letters that showed a spirit which could be emulated by others with advantage. Comparing the war with his own work as a missionary in India of shooting any mad dogs that might come round the native village, Rev. Mr. Fletcher said that up to the present the Belgians, French, Russians, Serbians, British and a few fine Canadians had kept the "mad dog" of Germany from the wives and daughters of Canada and yet many a Canadian was holding back. He could not understand it. Looking From the Trenches for Help. Sergeant Knight then made an appeal for recruits in the style that is now well aiding the Germans by giving them a

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 11, 1915

THE REASON.

"Why does the British army wait?" "If Kitchener has got so many men why do the Allies in the west hold back while Russia is being pounded to pieces?" These are some of the questions readers of The Telegraph and of other newspapers in Canada often ask.

Probably one would not be far astray in placing the blame for the lack of aggressiveness on the shortage of shells. It would be useless for the Allies to begin a forward movement without shells enough and guns enough to see them through; that would mean needless sacrifice of precious lives.

"What has become clear," says Sir Thomas, "is that if we are to drive the Germans back without appalling loss of life to our men we must have thousands of guns and mountains of ammunition to blow their entrenchments and splinter them to pieces."

No doubt all this, Sir Thomas says is correct—our armies are waiting for guns and ammunition. And they also need men. The official reports of the last few days have indicated that shells are being dropped freely upon the German positions, and it may be that the supply is now nearly great enough to warrant a sustained forward movement.

THE BATTLE OF THE MARNE.

There was rejoicing in France and England and throughout the civilized world a year ago when the Germans were halted in their triumphant march toward Paris and severely beaten at the Marne. It was really a year ago Friday that Von Kluck's wonderful dash to the French capital, the gates of which he had practically reached, was ended and the enemy forced back by the Allies.

Some of the stiffest fighting of the war took place at the Marne. That battle changed the whole complexion of things on the western front. The Germans have never been able to recover what they lost then, and it is not believed they will ever again get nearer to Paris than they are today.

Prince would succeed in crushing General Joffre's forces before he could whip them in shape for effective work and before the British Expeditionary Force could be transported across the channel and sent to the front in numbers strong enough to offer effective resistance to the invaders.

Germany's hopes, so far as the western front is concerned, were dashed with the defeat of her armies at the Marne. She has fought desperately since then, but in vain. No where has she broken through. Paris, Calais, Dunkirk—all are still in the hands of the Allies, and likely to remain there.

The battle of the Marne will live forever in historical annals as one of the greatest conflicts of all time, not only in view of the terrific fighting of that week, but also as a result of its lasting effects on the whole German campaign.

A TESTING TIME.

There are hundreds of young men in St. John today who are not altogether at peace with themselves. They have been in that state of mind to a greater or less extent for a year past.

Not only have they seen young and unnumbered men like themselves go to the front, but they have seen married men leave their wives and children to answer the same call.

"BACK FROM THE FRONT."

What does the average man who goes into action for the first time feel like? That question was presented the other day to a young officer who recently returned to this country to recover from wounds received last summer in Flanders.

We must not, however, impugn the motives of those who have not yet joined the colors. Undoubtedly there are many who find it a harder task to stay at home than to go to the front, and indiscriminate censure of all who do not go would in many cases do a grave injustice.

The fact remains, however, that recruits are wanted, and that more men must enlist. If there are any who think that the war will soon be over, and their efforts will not be needed, we commend the following sentences from an article in the Toronto Mail and Empire on "The Young Man's Problem":

"Nevertheless, the safe thing and the patriotic thing is for these young men to volunteer. If they are not needed at the front they will not be sent. If they are needed it would be an everlasting reproach for them not to have offered themselves, and at the last, perhaps, to be hunted down and dragged out like the victims of a press gang."

A NOTABLE CHANGE.

The extent to which Canada has become a borrower in the United States is set forth in an interesting despatch from New York, which points out that in addition to the $48,000,000 borrowed by the Dominion government in July the provinces have raised $80,875,000 in the United States since the first of January.

Table with columns: Province, Amount, Term. Rows include Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Ontario, Quebec, Saskatchewan, and Total.

The same article points out that London was formerly the big market for Dominion and provincial securities, but that there has been a very marked change, as is shown by the following figures:

Table with columns: Issue, Sold in Gt. Britain, Sold in United States. Rows include 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920.

This list includes both Dominion and provincial issues but does not include war loans. However critical we may be disposed to be of our neighbors we appear to find them useful at times.

THE SUBMARINE WARFARE.

The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour very shrewdly analyzes the change in the German attitude with regard to submarine warfare. That change is illustrated by the fact that the sinking of the Lusitania was greeted with an outburst of enthusiasm in Germany while the sinking of the Arabic was accepted in melancholy silence.

"Is it because, in the intervening months, the United States has become stronger or Germany weaker? Is it because the attitude of the President has varied? Is it because the arguments of the Secretary of State have become more persuasive? Is it because German opinion has at last revolted against lawless cruelty?"

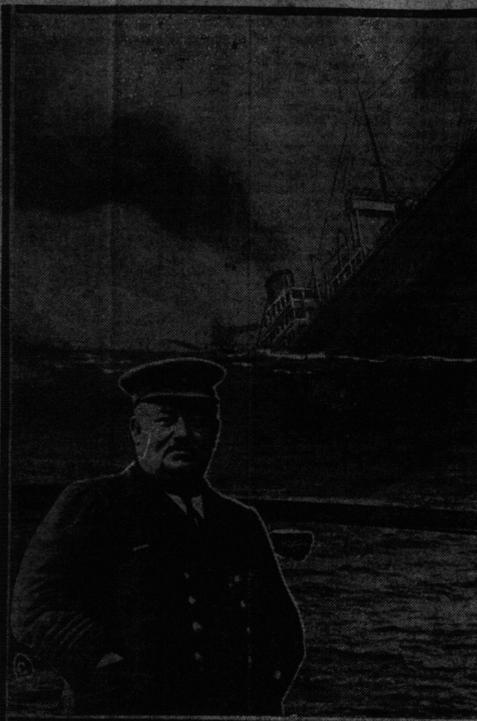

And he answers: "The reason is found elsewhere. It is found in the fact that the authors of the submarine policy have had time to measure its effects—that the deeds which were merely crimes in May, in September are seen to be blunders."

Their Victoria Colonist, Conservative, says that no Canadian can regard without a feeling of humiliation the spectacle presented in Winnipeg, "where ex-ministers of the Crown have been put under arrest for charges of fraudulent misappropriation of public money amounting to an enormous sum."

That the war will be much longer than the average man even now supposes; that it is a war that will call for some form of service from most of the active white men of the Empire; that a considerable period of training is necessary to turn the civilian into a useful soldier; and that every Canadian fit for active service, or fit to occupy a place in our depleted militia regiments, should ask himself why he is not already in uniform.

The Standard advances the somewhat novel theory that Premier Clarke and his administration are criticized because they are representative Conservative standard bearers. That is to say, the Standard's contention is that these men are selected for criticism because they belong to a certain political party.

WHEN THE ARABIC WENT DOWN

This wonderful photograph of the sinking Arabic was taken by Professor Still of Purdue University, while the lifeboat was drawing away and at a moment when the boats were in danger of being sucked down. Professor Still in his excitement made three exposures of the sinking ship with his camera, forgetting to change his film, and the result was that he had three pictures on one plate, and considerable retouching by the artist was necessary in order to bring out one effective picture. The inset picture of Capt. Finch is from a photo taken after his arrival in Liverpool.

to the firing line, passed some of the "crack" British regiments which were on their way to the reserve trenches after several days of furious fighting. Several of these regiments were made up of men above the ordinary stature. One of them had lost about half of its officers and nearly half of its men, and those who had escaped death or wounds came marching along in stashed or tattered uniforms, with their heads held high, with elastic step—beating time upon tin cans or anything else that might serve for the moment to assist in making marching music.

The Standard remonstrates with the editor of the St. Andrews Beacon, who is a Conservative, because he has criticized Hon. Mr. Clarke, and yet the Standard remarks that the Beacon editor is in a position to approach the consideration of weighty matters free and untrammelled by any considerations of the box office.

The public of New Brunswick will reject in short order the Conservative organ's contention that the provincial administration is attacked merely because its members are Conservatives. As a matter of fact some of the severest critics of the local administration are life-long Conservatives, who are saying today that the administration is doing vast injury not only to the province but to the Conservative party itself.

The criticism of Premier Robin and his associates, and the attack upon them which led to their downfall, did not arise merely from the fact that they were Conservatives, but from a gradually increasing public conviction that they were unfit for office and that no party badge or party platform should be sufficient to shield them from the punishment they had earned.

MORE "POLITICS."

The Standard advances the somewhat novel theory that Premier Clarke and his administration are criticized because they are representative Conservative standard bearers. That is to say, the Standard's contention is that these men are selected for criticism because they belong to a certain political party.

public duty or obligation, has not only admitted but attempted to defend on the witness stand certain acts and transactions participation in which should lead to his resignation or expulsion from the Legislature and from public life.

Is Mr. Stewart to be punished? To punish him might not be safe, for if they begin with Mr. Stewart the names and records of other culprits will cry loudly for similar treatment.

On the other hand, what is to be done with him? Judging by the procedure of the local government ring in other cases the most likely thing is that, in due season, Mr. Stewart will be made a Federal candidate and given a fresh certificate of character from the Legislature of New Brunswick! Let us see what Mr. Premier Clarke will do about it.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The success of Mr. P. J. Veniot in the Kent and Gloucester cases doubtless explains the government's refusal to give Mr. E. S. Carter an opportunity to prove his liquor charges. The government and its agents know he "has the goods."

Twenty motor cars, filled with children whose fathers have answered their country's call and enlisted, were a feature of the Labor Day parade in Toronto. We can easily believe that it was greeted with great enthusiasm.

The Pall Mall Gazette puts the case in a nutshell when it says of the sinking of the Hesperian: "We have poor marksmanship, not the improved morals of a German commander to thank that the women and children have not been drowned."

Military critics believe France has completely solved the problem of Germany's poison gas. The French soldiers have been using face masks of a somewhat complicated nature, which protect them entirely. France is adapting herself to war conditions in splendid fashion.

"Conservative Journals," says the Ottawa Citizen, (Ind. Con.), "which accuse the so-called Liberals of disloyally stirring up party strife at this time will doubtless make a note of the fact that four ex-cabinet ministers have been arrested on charges of diverting hundreds of thousands from the public funds of Manitoba during the same war period."

The New York Sun recently noted that within two weeks six explosions or fires had occurred, in plants in the United States engaged in supplying ammunition for the Allies, "in which there was suspicion of intentional act on the part of some hostile person."

The new French-Canadian battalion, the 69th of Montreal, has been presented with a regimental fund of $3,000. The money was raised by a tag day with five hundred volunteer workers. This is the battalion commanded by Lieutenant Colonel J. A. Dansereau, and whose ranks were rapidly filled up after a recent recruiting speech by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

At the time of the great Durbar the loyalty of the Gackwar of Baroda appeared to be a matter of some doubt. Since this war began he offered all his troops and resources to Britain, and purchased a hospital ship, and has now contributed $160,000 to purchase aeroplanes. What a pity Mr. Price Collier did not live to see this new revelation of the character of his friend the Gackwar!

The Canadian Public Health Association in convention last week voted unanimously in favor of the transfer of control of medical inspection in the schools from the school board to the medical health officer. Professor Gunn of Boston made the interesting suggestion that public charities should be under the control of the local department of health, because in a large number of cases the recipients of public charity were those living under conditions most inimical to health.

Admiral Von Tirpitz leaves his position a beaten man. His submarine policy is an acknowledged failure. It has brought Germany no military advantage whatever. More British merchant ships have been constructed in the last year than the Germans have destroyed—a most discouraging aspect of the case from Berlin's point of view.

The destruction of the steamer Hesperian by a German torpedo is but further proof that Germany is not to be trusted. Following closely the German message to President Wilson on the Arabic case in which it was declared that no more passenger ships would be attacked without warning, this latest crime is likely to cause a renewal of the feeling of distrust in America of Germany's real intentions.

the fighting nations ask him to do so, he has shown good judgment. No man knows better than President Wilson just what is behind this war of the Allies upon German savagery, and no man knows better than he what a calamity a premature peace would be.

Despatches from Ottawa suggest that some new features will soon be announced in regard to the war programme of Canada, now that Sir Robert Borden and Sir Sam Hughes have returned from Europe. It is natural to expect that the prolonged visit of the premier and war minister will have some such result, now that they have returned home.

To the Dead.

(Translated from the French of Maurice Magre by Mrs. Garrett P. Serviss.) Without shroud, without bouquet, and without inscription, Without cross, without iron railing, without funeral stone, They sleep beneath a hillock among the furrows.

Where, then, is the loved one, the precious form, That was pressed so tenderly in our arms? Where shall we speak low to one's love? Where shall the knees of unhappy mothers kneel? In showing them the silent immensity They will say: "There!" How vast the tomb!

Yes, there is the land and the kingdom of the dead. Afar, the town contorts its abandoned body. One sees its blackened sills and its ridged domes. It lifts its arms of towers and phantom bellies Lean over the broken and dismantled lodgings.

The fields are henceforth empty and sold, It is iron or lead instead of grass that grows On the shallow borders of the great skeleton forests, And one fears to see rising from the ground Hands with holes, mute faces, To attest to heaven all this misery.

But nothing can consume you, O dead, Neither time nor the work of the rain or the sand. You are made of an imperishable substance. You will be reborn for us like a living treasure, As the cultivated furrows will spring again into life. The wood of the poplars or the flesh of the golden wheat.

Of what use a tomb with its upright crosses? The flower quickly fades and the marble is too heavy. You will live under the unmarked earth forever. O ye dead, you will be warm in the frosty nights! We have made of the web of thought Beds of memory and cradles of love. —The New York Times.

A Country Life.

(By Grif Alexander, in Pittsburg Dispatch.) A country life for me, my boy! A country life for me! I'll turn a leaf of city life for leaf upon I'll watch the cowslip on the field and pick the poor thing up. Find butter for the bread of life in every buttercup.

And at the dogwood's bark I'll laugh. I know, it will not bite, I'll be as happy as a king from morn till late at night. A country life for me, my boy! A country life for me! The feathered warblers of the air now join me in my cry, Where the turkey gobble grouches and the swallow swallows strike. And the mocking bird sings mockingly, "O, what a lark is life!"

Where a peck of lilies blithely on without a thought of print. And every bank has in reserve resources of the mint. Pray join me in a Julep! Fine! Right here, I'll be as happy as a king. A country life for me, my boy! A country life for me!

The Minstrel Boy.

(By Thomas Moore.) The Minstrel-boy to the war is gone, In the ranks of death you'll find him! His father's sword he has girded on, "Land o' my lord, the warrior-bard, "Though all the world betrays thee, One sword at least thy rights shall guard. One faithful harp shall praise thee!"

The Minstrel fell—but the foe's chain The harp he brings his proud soul under; Could he bring loved her spoke again, For he tore its chords asunder; And said, "No chains shall sully thee, Thou soul of love and bravery! Thy songs were made for the brave and free. They shall never sound in slavery!"

True Liberty.

The only liberty I mean, is a liberty connected with order; that not only exists along with order and virtue, but which cannot exist at all without them. —Burke.

THE General Summary Will Be Very Surplus Enough

The following is from the annual report of the Continental and Commercial Bank of Chicago:

ESTIMATED

Table with columns: Crop, Quantity. Rows include Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, Hay, Cotton.

The Crops of 1915.

The production of grain crops of the last year's by over 60 per cent in the aggregate of the country's history, average yield per acre amount, the increase the unusual record in summer harvests, but attended with great sections, on account rains, and for this usual care has been the crops, and the high prices that result have caused extra exertion by the farmer to the harvest of wheat, the final stages of the have been passed in the of the country. Only subject to about a gain and the estimates of are based on the harvest under way, together probable results of based on the present.

A Billion Bushel Worth.

For the first time history the wheat crop bushels. The high crop that developed with the war, with the would be needed in export, caused the adown wheat to be last country over. Also, land was seeded in states this spring for harvests, and yet the count of the lateness that region and the us for field work during ing period, was less than anticipated. Our net increase of 69,400,000 of nearly 6,000,000. The yield is given in bushels comparing v current figures for 1,000,000 bushels on the average yield per acre as last year, the increase. Winter wheat of 668,000,000 bushels, 24,000,000 bushels, 24 bushels on the average wheat and a gain acre in the spring with Surplus Enough to Feed.

Last Year's Crop.

Last year's crop of gave an exportable 1,000,000,000 bushels of which wheat had been season of 1897-8. This ply of the old crop of less, the present crop basis would provide a plus of 490,000,000 bushels of the total amount importing countries in ended with August 1, therefore in a positive Europe, if it should. However, the condition country is not so big, adds to raise its export 1,000,000 bushels, and forecast in Australia, of the southern hemisphere the present season, the rope are more than expected. No season's crop is realized upon the crop season.

Large Oats Crop Desires.

THE UNITED STATES CROPS

General Summary Prepared by Chicago Bank Shows Yield Will Be Very Large This Year—Cotton Area Reduced—Surplus Enough to Feed Europe.

The following is from a general summary of the annual crop reports of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago:

Table with 2 columns: Crop, Estimated Yield 1915. Rows include Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, and Cotton.

The production of the five leading grain crops of the country surpasses last year's by over 600,000,000 bushels, and in the aggregate is the largest in the country's history, possibly not in average yield per acre, but in gross amount, the increase in acreage giving the annual record in production.

The crops of 1915. The production of the five leading grain crops of the country surpasses last year's by over 600,000,000 bushels, and in the aggregate is the largest in the country's history, possibly not in average yield per acre, but in gross amount, the increase in acreage giving the annual record in production.

A Billion Bushel Wheat Crop.

For the first time in the country's history the wheat crop tops a billion bushels. The high price of last year's crop that developed with the early weeks of the war, with the certain that wheat would be needed in large quantities for export, caused the acreage of the fall-sown wheat to be largely increased the country over. Also, further additional land was seeded in the northwestern states this spring for the late wheat harvests, and yet this acreage, on account of the lateness of the spring in that region and the unfavorable weather for field work during most of the seeding period, was less than had been contemplated.

Surplus Enough to Feed Europe.

Last year's crop of 891,000,000 bushels gave an exportable surplus of 330,000,000 bushels and at the highest price at which wheat had been sold since the season of 1897-8. This year, with a surplus of the old crop of 24,000,000 bushels less, the present crop, on last year's basis would provide an exportable surplus of 420,000,000 bushels, or four-fifths of the total amount taken by the importing countries in the season which ended with August 1. The country is therefore in a position to feed all of Europe, if it should become necessary. However, the conditions which gave this country its big crop, operated in Canada, and in the United States, 1,000,000,000 bushels, and with a large crop forecast in Australia, and the first country of the southern hemisphere to harvest the present season, the supplies for Europe are more than ample, and there is every reason to expect a large return realized upon the crop of the previous season.

Large Oats Crop Despite Rain Damage.

The oats crop is the second largest of record, the yield per acre falling below 1912, and that through the bad weather at harvest time in the principal states in the central region. Elsewhere the yield is up to the previous phenomenal measure. The average per acre is 94 bushels, and our correspondents give a total acreage harvested or ready for harvest of 89,640,000, which is 844,000 acres under the amount reported seeded by the Agricultural Department in Washington. The crop is estimated at 1,392,000,000 bushels or 210,000,000 bushels over that of last year. Like wheat the oat crop suffered from rainy weather at harvest time, and quality has been impaired, more so than the quantity. In sections harvesting was attended with great difficulty, and threshing has been delayed up to this time in many sections. The acreage was increased over last year by 1,200,000, of which the South contributed a fair portion. The strong demand for oats by Europe last season has caused a general exhaustion of the old crop, and as the oat harvest abroad are again poor, the exports are likely to be small, and the probability of replenishing depleted stocks in all positions the 200,000,000 bushels will not be a very serious drag upon the marketing of the crop.

Corn Crop Depends on Brighter Weather.

Corn—the great crop of the country—is still in the making; the cold weather which developed in the spring when the planting of the crop set in, not only delayed operations, but dwarfed early growth. The continuous rains of May and June, added to the difficulties attending the care of the growing crop, and the mid-summer temperature, went out any warm weather except in the extreme south, has seriously interfered with the proper development of the plant. The condition is excellent in the central states, though there are sections where there are overflows of streams caused much injury. Cultivation is not as perfect as usual, and this may, later on, affect the yield. In the northern portion of the belt the prospects are not very bright, and it will take a long and warm autumn to mature the crop. Our correspondents have taken these things into consideration in making their local estimates, and they report the prospect of a crop of 2,989,000 bushels on an area of 110,821,000 acres, which is a million acres in excess of that reported by the government correspondents at the outset of the summer. On this acreage the estimate is for a crop of 810,000,000 bushels more than last year, which would give the second largest crop of record. The uncertainty of the final

STEWART ADMITS VENIOT'S CHARGES

Tory M.P.P. for Gloucester Acknowledges Juggling Accounts on Roads and Bridge Work, Paid No Stumpage on Crown Land Cut, and Also Got $300 Out of Sale of Property to Farm Settlement Board—Calls Them "Irregularities"—Martin Robichaud, M.P.P., Denies Damaging Evidence of His Friends Implicating Him in Shady Work.

Bathurst, Sept. 7.—With his time book lost in a lobster pot and his memory vacant of any facts concerning the expenditure of over $4,000 on less than a mile of highway road on Shipigan Island, Foreman Doctie Chaisson made a very unsatisfactory witness before Mr. Chandler today with regard to the money spent on this public work, which was undertaken and carried on by orders of Martin F. Robichaud, M.P.P., without the consent of the public works department.

The investigation by the Royal Commissioner W. B. Chandler was held for the first time in Gloucester county. All day long the far ends of evidence were sought from witnesses unwilling to go to Fredericton. Messrs. Veniot and Carter, opposition organizers, were present and the former, with his local knowledge and careful inquiries made into facts in connection with his charges, was of great assistance in bringing the truth out.

Mr. Stewart's Land Deal.
Bank Manager Eaton gave evidence in connection with the farm settlement board purchase of the Knowles farm for $1,500, and his sworn statements are the connecting links in the story told previously, which proved that the province paid the Royal Bank $1,500 for a farm that had only cost $1,200 for, and that the $300 difference went to the credit of the bank account of A. J. H. Stewart, member of the legislature.

There was a moment of waiting for A. J. H. Stewart's explanation that was made out in favor of the Royal Bank, was not sent to the Royal Bank, but was sent to A. J. H. Stewart, who took it to the bank and requested him, as manager, to place it to his (Stewart's) credit. He said that he did so, and that some days after, when the bank gave Stewart the credit to the Knowles farm, November 18, 1913, Stewart gave the bank a check for $1,200, which was paid out of the $1,500 farm settlement board check which had been placed to his credit.

Mr. Chandler called attention to the circumstances that the words "Royal Bank" had evidently not been written in the body of the check as the party to whom it should be payable when Mr. Gilchrist, secretary of the board, had made the check out. The check was dated in October and was passed to A. J. H. Stewart's credit in Bathurst before he had possession of the farm and nearly a month before he made out a deed to the farm settlement board on November 20, on which date the same farm was divided into four lots of 50 acres each and sold to the four sons of Knowles, the original owner of the farm, who failed to register and whose property was held by the bank as security.

Some One Deceived.
The synopsis report of the legislature for 1914 was produced and shown to the committee and the amount made inquiry that the farm had been purchased from the Royal Bank and consisted of 800 acres. This reply would indicate that either the minister for agriculture or the settlement board had been deceived by some one, both as to the acreage of the farm and to the vendor because the sworn evidence shows that the farm was only 200 and not 800 acres and that A. J. H. Stewart sold the farm to the board and not the Royal Bank.

Memory Failed Him.
Mr. Chandler tried to get some additional evidence from Doctie F. Chaisson respecting the lumber supplied by Pierre F. Boudreau to the Caribou Creek bridge, but the witness could not remember much save that everything went into the crib of the bridge, spruce, cedar and all else. His evidence at the former session was read to him and his contradictory evidence today, but the witness did not mind that a bit. He and his sons, Tiboune, Henri and Mathias, had bills amounting to $483 for work on the Lameque road, payment of which was held up by Hon. Mr. Monro, in December last and formal charges made in connection with the same by Mr. Veniot the following April.

Cleophas Chaisson, the servant man of Foreman Doctie Chaisson whom the latter saw worked on Caribou Creek bridge and whose work was placed on the pay roll in the name of his son, Edward Chaisson, went on the stand and swore that he worked some time on the farm and some time on the road, that Edward, the twelve-year-old son of Doctie Chaisson never worked on the bridge, and when Mr. Chandler recalled Doctie and asked him about this, the foreman was doubtful if his boy had worked. He swore that he had never verified his work upon the Lameque road but thought it over a mile, and Veniot, however, who went and measured the work said it was eleven-twelfths of a mile, and with John J. Robichaud's work one and one-fifth miles was the measurement of the road repairing for which there were unpaid bills of over $7,000. Martin Robichaud, M.P.P., authorized this work, and the foreman swore Martin Robichaud also fixed the rate of pay, made out the accounts and swore them to their correctness. Their ability was proven in many cases, notably where the cook and cooper hired by John J. Robichaud, were placed upon the government pay rolls, also where the men had been placed upon the pay rolls who had not been there at all, also where boys had taken the place of men. A most intelligent witness, John George Robichaud, who also acted as interpreter, told of a conversation he had with Pierre F. Boudreau, whom he had done business with for some time and who was an honorable man. He said while driving with Boudreau he asked him if he had got his check for $42 for the Caribou Creek bridge. "No," said Boudreau. "Well, your name is there at getting $42," said witness. "From Fredericton?" "Yes." "Oh, I know how that comes now. Martin Robichaud came to me and bought some lumber and agreed to pay so much. I bought the lumber out of my own money and waited and waited for my pay. When my check came it was $42 short. I told Martin Robichaud that this was not the price we had agreed upon. Martin said Engineer Stead would not allow me any more than others, so I told Martin I wanted my money. Martin said he would fix it up. Last winter I got the check for $42. I never looked at the check when it came but endorsed it and cashed it with Maxime, my brother."

This evidence as well as that of Engineer Stead bears out Mr. Veniot's charges in its entirety. "Does that finish the evidence?" asked Commissioner Chandler. "Yes, as far as I am concerned," replied Mr. Veniot.

There was a moment of waiting for A. J. H. Stewart's explanation that was made out in favor of the Royal Bank, was not sent to the Royal Bank, but was sent to A. J. H. Stewart, who took it to the bank and requested him, as manager, to place it to his (Stewart's) credit. He said that he did so, and that some days after, when the bank gave Stewart the credit to the Knowles farm, November 18, 1913, Stewart gave the bank a check for $1,200, which was paid out of the $1,500 farm settlement board check which had been placed to his credit.

At this point witness attention was called to the letters of the foreman Doctie Chaisson who wrote Stead that Boudreau had delivered so many pieces of lumber, and that he had surveyed them. He made no mention in these letters of any more lumber being supplied by one Stead to the foreman, who, according to the evidence, Pierre Boudreau, Martin Robichaud had promised him $250 each for his large, long pieces, and Robichaud today swore this was not so; he only promised $25.

A False Measurement.
He admitted that Doctie Chaisson had gone to him with his time book and returns for the Caribou Creek bridge and that he told him he had taken fourteen pieces of lumber from the site of the federal work which he had agreed to give Boudreau $42 for. They made the measurement 8,000 feet instead of the actual scale, 1,554 feet, in order that he could get the $42 promised him. Robichaud swore, however, he never made any promise to Boudreau that he would give him a check for $42 from the local government to make up his shortage in the federal payment.

In answer to the evidence of several witnesses that he had fixed the price for materials, he said it was not true. He denied this particularly with regard to Doctie Chaisson's statement. He also denied this foreman's evidence that he knew of Entroppe E. Hachey's check being raised from $26 to $29 to cover other small accounts, but he said he knew this man had taken the place of one of Doctie's sons; but as to the foreman's statement that he had asked him (Martin Robichaud) to put him on the list, he said that was not true, but nevertheless he did swear Doctie to the correctness of the list. Foreman Doctie also swore that Stead, who had been placed there by him but must have been added by Martin Robichaud. His evidence was "I don't remember that he worked and never put him on the time sheet. If it is there Martin Robichaud must have put there 'without' my knowledge." To which Martin Robichaud replied, when asked by Mr. Chandler what he had to say: "I never put any names on the pay sheets without instructions."

In connection with the Lameque road charges Martin Robichaud swore that he gave orders for the work without the authority of the minister, that he hired the foreman, that he arranged and made prices for gravel pits, that he agreed to pay one foreman, Doctie Chaisson, $250 per day and to pay Foreman John J. Robichaud ten per cent of his expenditure, that while the latter worked 28 days and spent over $2,000, his bill was over $200, and that Doctie who worked sixty-six days and spent over $4,000 was to get but $122.

The witness admitted adding the names of Clement Lantime to the pay list because he had done work in years before and had not been paid for it. And when asked if he thought it was right to swear the foreman to the correctness of such an account, the witness said he thought so.

He also swore that Doctie brought in the name of his son, Edward D. Chaisson, the boy ten years old, and he did not ask any questions but swore him in to the account.

Stewart Admits Charges.
A. J. H. Stewart, M.P.P., in the afternoon not only admitted the truth of every one of the charges made by P. J. Veniot, which implicated him, but he told much more and attempted to justify all of his acts. At the outset he swore that he had no knowledge of the fact that Robichaud had never furnished any stone for the bridge.

He admitted endorsing the Robichaud check with "Frank Robinson's mark" and witnessing it, though he knew Robinson could write.

Then he told, in the frankest fashion, of his order to Structural Superintendent Val Robichaud, to purchase thousands of pieces of cedar. Robichaud bought per thousand at the price of $16, but he was billed to the local government at $25,166 feet without their being any survey.

The way they did was to find out what a man's bill was by piece purchase, and then divide the amount by the price per thousand at $16, and thus get such measurements as would provide the seller his money.

"There was no real survey?" asked the commissioner.
"Yes," he said.
He then told of selling lumber to the government himself and billing it in the name of Edward Jennings and Oliver Theriault. He had Jennings's consent to this, he said.

"You admit when you swore Val Robichaud that account of the Pokenook bridge that Edward Jennings has not supplied any lumber and yet his name was on the pay roll for $211.54?"
Witness—"Yes."
"You know Oliver Theriault supplied lumber for Edward Ellis bridge, $420; E. Pellis bridge, $76.50; Robbins bridge, $12.60; Caraque bridge, $55.50; Paulin bridge, $60.00; Blackhall bridge, $14.80; McIntosh bridge, $8; Power bridge, $50; Duke bridge, $18.50; Therman bridge, $80, that he did not supply one foot of it."
Witness—"I supplied all that lumber and put in the bills in Theriault's name, and I was paid for the same."

When questioned as to the check made payable to Frank Robinson and endorsed by Stewart with Robinson's mark, the witness acknowledged endorsing the check, but did not remember, and could give no explanation of the matter.

Encouraging Reports Read—Members Doing Good Work for the Soldiers.

Newcastle, N. B., Sept. 8.—The annual meeting of the N. B. and P. E. Island W. C. T. U. convention was declared opened in St. James Hall Tuesday morning by President Mrs. James MacWha. Devotional service was led by Mrs. Seymour, St. John. The following financial officers were present and answered to roll call: Mrs. J. S. Perry, vice-president; Mrs. L. Methcriston, corresponding secretary; Mrs. O. E. Lindow, recording secretary; Mrs. A. C. M. Lawson, treasurer; Mrs. W. C. T. U. secretary; Mrs. J. S. Perry, secretary; Mrs. J. S. Perry, secretary; Mrs. J. S. Perry, secretary.

The reports of the following departments were read: Mrs. M. C. A. Lawson, evangelistic; Mrs. O. D. Hanson, salaried; Mrs. J. S. Perry, parlor meetings; Mrs. Olive E. Lindow, Mrs. Lindow moved, Mrs. Leard, secretary, letters of sympathy and regret on account of absence by Mrs. M. C. A. Lawson, St. John; Mrs. J. S. Perry, Fredericton; Mrs. Woodman, St. John. Report of Little White Ribbons, Miss Margaret Kilburn, superintendent, absent, was read by Mrs. J. S. Perry.

Mrs. J. S. Perry, superintendent of the millie department, also work among foreigners, was read by Mrs. Lawson on account of Mrs. Colter's absence. Mrs. Hyslop, Dominion organizer, was then introduced and given privileges of the meeting. After singing, He Ledeth, Mrs. Hyslop spoke of God's great care for us and his promise to bear us as on eagle's wings. How eagles always built in high places. When we see by eye of faith Christ hung between heaven and earth home eagle suggestive working out of redemption from our sins and his promise to say, "Straight as an eagle," and when we see straight and immediate ways in the words of the Master. How gently He touched eyes blind and straightening eyesight was restored. Obedience and God in our lives, mountains assume such.

"You, who help make the laws, do you consider that right?"
"I had no business hunting up the scale."
"Did not Hayden come to you, have a talk with you one night about a letter he had received from Joseph Couture notifying him that you were operating on crown land?"
"Yes," answered the witness.
The witness could not say how many sleepers were cut, but she said she thought "The government had a right to look to me for the stumpage."
Mr. Veniot asked Stewart who his partner was when cutting off the crown lands and selling to the I. C. R.
Stewart refused to answer.
"Was J. B. Hachey a partner of yours?"
Again Stewart refused to answer.

Re the farm settlement board charge, he said Knowles came into his office one day and talked over the farm settlement board, and when he went home wrote him (Stewart) July 2, 1912, stating that if the board would buy the Knowles company property for $2,000 his four sons would each take a quarter of it. The board agreed to sell me for $200 and I called up Knowles and told him he could get the property for $1,500. I made $300 out of the transaction, and I don't think it is anybody's business. I never told Knowles I could not get any more than $1,500 from the board. When the bank manager agreed to take $1,200 I sent to the settlement board and got a check for $1,500, out of which I paid the bank. I may have asked the check out to the bank. The farm settlement board thought they were buying from the bank. They thought the deed would be from the bank."

"How do you account for the answer given by the manager of agriculture that they bought the farm from the Royal Bank, and that it contained 800 acres?"
"I can't account for that. They make mistakes some times."
"That practically finished the important evidence, and all the witnesses heard. Freeman Goodwin, have been hearing O. Turgeon, M. P., and some of the local members, with E. S. Carter, opposition organizer, were present during the inquiry."
Mr. Chandler gave Mr. Veniot an opportunity to ask different questions this afternoon, and the evidence came thick and fast.

huge proportions. It is not always easy to obey. We bruise plants to get the greatest fragrance. God deals with us in the same way. Gives trouble to bring out the best in us. Nothing brings out more fragrance than lives crushed by the Master.

The afternoon session opened with an interesting and instructive address by Mrs. Hyslop, taking as her subject "Ye Are Not Your Own, Ye Are Bought With a Price."

Following this was the corresponding secretary's report. In some departments there was a falling off in the work, but the patriotic, Red Cross and other work for the soldiers had received special attention. Twenty-two unions reported. The amount collected for all purposes was $1,928.40.

The treasurer reported as follows:
Balance in treasury $361.09

The president's address was especially interesting and instructive. She spoke of the great advance of the temperance cause all over the world.

A paper on Anti-Narcotics was read by Mrs. T. A. Clarke, which was followed by an interesting discussion by Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Hyslop and the president, Mrs. McWha.

Mrs. Hyslop said Ontario W. C. T. U. was supporting two M. C. A. workers at the front. An ambulance was contributed by Toronto W. C. T. U. We believe we can do the work of W. C. T. U. as well under Red Cross as any other organization.

GERMAN VERSION OF ARABIC; COMMANDER SAYS LINER CHARGED HIM

Submarine's Long Delayed Return to Port—Caught Red-handed and Feared Reprisals—A String of Lame Excuses—American Official's Explanation is That Commander Was Justified—No Report Yet on Hesperian.

Berlin, Sept. 8, via London, 8.05 p.m.—The commander of a German submarine which has returned to its base, has reported to the admiralty that he torpedoed the liner Arabic, in the belief that the Arabic's action indicated she was about to attack the submarine, and that he fired in self-defense.

According to the submarine commanders report the submarine was engaged in destroying a freighter when the Arabic was sighted. The submarine was then on the surface.

The Arabic, the commander declares, swung around and headed towards the freighter, as if to attack the submarine. The commander of the underwater craft remained in doubt as to the intentions of the Arabic, when the latter changed her course a few points; but still kept headed in a direction that was bringing her nearer to the scene.

The captain of the submarine reports that he continued to observe the actions of the liner until he saw the Arabic again change her course and head directly for the spot where the submarine lay, as if the Arabic had sighted the underwater boat. Then the commander of the submarine, believing his craft was in danger, he declared, submerged her and fired a torpedo.

This news was communicated immediately to James W. Gerard, ambassador to America for transmission to Washington.

Prior to the receipt of the report of the submarine's commander, admiralty officials were of the belief that the submarine had been lost. No reason for her delay in returning to port has been given.

An official of the foreign office, in discussing the case with the Associated Press, said the commander of the submarine evidently had adequate reasons for believing the submarine was about to be attacked, and was justified in taking steps necessary to save his boat and crew. The torpedoing of the Arabic, according to this official, could not be considered an unprovoked attack without warning, but a measure of self-defense which the commander of the underwater craft was compelled to adopt by the alleged actions of the Arabic.

The news of the return of the submarine and the commander's report has not yet been published in Germany.

There is still no report available here with regard to the sinking of the Allan liner Hesperian.

THE COMMITTEE OF LADIES and gentlemen in charge of the City Cornet Band's patriotic collection of Sunday night reported that $294.45 was taken up by the collectors in less than two hours. The band has been highly complimented on the excellent programme of music which was rendered at the sacred concert and the great gathering of citizens which listened to the sacred music showed marked appreciation of the band's playing.

A picnic was held on Aug. 7 on the beautiful grounds of Thomas Hughes, Summersville, in aid of the Red Cross fund. Games and amusements were carried on. Supper was served from 5 to 7. The sum of $26.86 was realized and was handed in to the Red Cross society.

THE work of dismantling the Suspension bridge is progressing satisfactorily, and more than half of the woodwork of the structure has been removed. It is expected that before the week-end only the cables, anchors and towers will remain of the historic span. The southern anchorage at the western approach has been uncovered and the tearing away of the masonry has cleared an obstruction
which prevented extension of the street car line to the new bridge.

THE news that two of her brother's children have been killed by a German air raid has been received by Mrs.
Crampton of Brussels street. Her brother, Frederick Harrison, has been employed on a naval collier since the war began. His home is in Gooles, Yorkshire, and the house was struck by a bomb which exploded in the garden,
killing his wife and two other children. His wife and two other children slept in an adjoining room and he has not received word whether they were injured.

Gunner H. P. Warren, who arrived in the city ten days ago after being scriously wounded at Ypres, has been appointed as messenger at city hall, temporarily, until something better turns up for him. Since his return there has been some delay about his pension and he applied at city hall yesterday morning for relief. Mayor Prink found an opening for him on the grounds that this city would not let a returned soldier suffer unnecessary hardships.

THE German submarines have been transported in sections by Zeppelins
from Austrian territory to Constantinople,
"thereby evading the violation of Bulgarian neutrality," a statement which is contained in a letter and in papers received by a Greek in this city a few days ago. According to the informant on the other side vast quantities of material, supplies, ammunition, etc. have been sent to Turkey in this manner and help has been hastened to the Dardanelles
by means of the immense aircraft. It is said that it is general knowledge that the Germans have carried through the city to Constantinople the parts of the submarines and are assembling them at Constantinople. It is furthermore stated that some of the underwater craft sent from Germany are now engaged at the Dardanelles.

Major Guthrie
Once More Brave
In Face of Death

Newcastle, Sept. 7—Yesterday afternoon at Boom Road, on the Northwest Miramichi river, James J. Matchett and his son, Guy, 12 years of age, were drowned in a deep hole near the ford.
The boy was driving a horse and express wagon on the rear of which was the father leading a colt he was going to pasture on the meadows. The boy inadvertently drove into the hole. The colt, loosed, swam ashore, and the rest went down. No one saw the tragedy.
"John Mullan and his son saw the horse struggling in the water and went out in a boat and rescued it and the wagon. Then noticing two hats floating, they found the bodies first. Mr. Matchett's then the boy's. The boy's clothes were torn as though he had struggled to free himself from the water.

It is presumed the father died trying to rescue his son. The hole in which the tragedy happened was known to be near the ford, and was always avoided by those who drove across. But the freshest of this summer has greatly deepened the hole, and sixteen feet deep and twenty feet across.

DECEASED WAS 55 years old and leaves
a widow, Elizabeth, daughter of Thos.
Johnston, of Redbank, and the following children: Fred, Boom Road; Mrs.
James Parks, Upper Derby; Mrs. Henry
Mullin, Boom Road; Ira, Robert,
Eliza and Roberta at home.

THE funerals will take place this afternoon, at Redbank, Rev. J. F. McCurdy will conduct the services in interest in St. Stephen's Presbyterian cemetery.

MAJOR P. A. GUTHRIE
London, Sept. 8—Major P. A. Guthrie, of Fredericton, lately in command of the 10th Battalion, and formerly attached to the 12th, had a remarkably narrow escape from drowning when the Hesperian was torpedoed, owing to the fact that he was using crutches. In spite of his own handicap, however, after reaching the ship, he turned back to get life preservers from a cabin for a woman and child. Fortunately, Captain Geggie, of Quebec, a medical officer attached to the 10th, sought Major Guthrie, and assisted him to the deck.

MAJOR Guthrie had passed through the thick of the heavy fighting in which his battalion took part, but was hit severely and was in the reserve trenches by a sniper. He has been an inmate of No. 3 Stationary Hospital at Etououquet for some weeks, with his foot in such bad condition that amputation was narrowly averted.

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 8—Dr. Volekman, urday afternoon.

erley Barron, of Derby, and Colin Loggie, of Chatham, left this morning to join the 53th Valcartier.

between 170 and 180 ratepayers, eight-teen have volunteered for foreign service: 12th battery, first contingent—

Esson, G. Harry Thurber, Frank Clarke, and Fred Siddall; 55th—Howard Bryn-ton, Keeley, and Frank Knight, Malcolm Amos, J. Beverley Barron; 64th—

cau; besides these two or three others.
In addition to the above, seven Derby boys volunteered in the west: Earl Wilson, Oliver Crocker, Newton Brynaton,

and John Newman.

MAJOR Prink has received $66 from Amon Hatfield, the proceeds of a picnic at Long Point, Belle Isle Bay, for

MONKTON FIRE DOES
$50,000 DAMAGE

Monkton, Sept. 7—During the early hours of this morning Monkton was visited by a serious conflagration which started in the Monkton Livery Stables on Mechanic street, and spread with such incredible rapidity that within a short time a large block of wooden buildings with eight horses and other valuable contents had been destroyed with an estimated property loss of over $50,000.

THE buildings burned included the Monkton Livery Stables, curling rink,
Marks carriage factory, No. 1 fire station, M. T. E. & C. Co. warehouse.

FOR A time it was feared that portion of the city east of the fire would be destroyed, as a high wind prevailed
at the time. Good work by the firemen, however, prevented the fire spreading
east of Mark's carriage factory.

THE conflagration had its origin in Monkton Livery Stables, formerly owned by L. B. Reade and eight horses were burned. The estimated losses follow:
Livery stable building, owned by Mrs.
R. J. Duffy, $1,500, insurance $700.
Curling rink, $6,000, insurance $4,000.
Mark's carriage factory building and stock, $10,000, insurance $5,400.

NO. 1 fire station, and contents,
man, $12,000, insurance $7,750.
Tramway company warehouse, loss
$5,000, no insurance.

MUCH of the insurance affected by the Monkton fire is carried through Monkton offices, but agents in St. John have a share of the business, chiefly on the city
schedule which covers all city properties, including the curling rink and J. A. Marvin, Ltd.

THE companies interested in the Monkton city schedule include the Commercial Union, Sun, German-American,

J. A. Marvin, Ltd., New York

ford, $5,000.
Curling Rink, Aetna, Providence,

John, insurance adjusters, are in Mon-
kton adjusting fire losses.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 8.
The many friends of William J. Givan,
a former member of the City Cornet

den death at Everett (Mass.) last Saturday. The young man was struck and seriously injured by an automobile while returning home from work, and died shortly afterwards.

HE was in his 32nd year and is survived by a widowed mother. He was born in this city, the son of James J.

leaving Boston on Monday. She is prostrated by the loss of her son.

THIN AND NERVOUS
BABIES
Suffering Little Ones Cured by Dr. Cassell's Tablets

Five Months-old Infant Who Weighed

So Thin His Mother Shuddered to

Never Believed He Could Live

But Now Bright and Well. Cured

DR. CASSELL'S TABLETS

Here is matter to interest every mother throughout this great Dominion; the frank, grateful testimony of other mothers who have proved Dr. Cassell's Tablets a real help in winning back health
for their suffering little ones. And the cases are not in any way exceptional;
they show just such splendid results as
any mother may expect from systematic
use of this valuable medicine. Dr. Cassell's Tablets have proved their worth
in Great Britain, where their sale is the largest of its class, and in the Britains
beyond the seas their reputation is advancing rapidly.

Now read what a happy mother has to say of Dr. Cassell's Tablets. She is Mrs.
Pearl of 28 Doshborough-road, Eastleigh,
Hants, England, and her story is as given
to an interviewer. She said:
"When I think of all that Dr. Cassell's Tablets have done for my little baby I bless the day I heard of them. I am convinced they saved my child's life."

"My little Harold was a fine baby
when born, but soon he began to all, and
when a few weeks old I had to have advice. For four months baby was under treatment, but no good came of it; the child got worse. It was pitiful to see him, he was so appallingly thin. His little bones stood out all over his body.
We could easily count the joints in his
backbone, his shoulders were hollowed in
like pits, and his cheek-bones stood up
like ridges. It made me shudder to undress him, he was such a frail little skeleton of a baby. He could not keep any-

power to move has been lost. Particularly is this so in the case of children;
and numberless cures have been effected,
and are constantly being effected, both
here in Canada as well as other parts of the Empire. Mrs. Parsley of Chapel
Hill, Braintree, Essex, England, said:
"Baby was only about a year old when
she began to lose the use of her limbs,
and soon became quite helpless. Of course, we were very much alarmed, and when we were told the child would not be able to walk for years, we almost lost
hope. We had the best treatment we could find for her, but nothing seemed to help the child at all. I had heard of getting better she just wasted away till
she was a mere frame. She hardly ate
anything, and was so weak and ill that it could not seem possible she could recover."

"Then we gave her Dr. Cassell's Tablets. The first effect of the Tablets was that the baby got sound, natural sleep.
Then she improved in general health, and gradually power returned to her, until
baby got stronger and stronger, more
plump, till now she is quite cured."

BRITAIN'S GREATEST REMEDY
Popularity now World-wide
It is cures like the above, the genuin-ess of which has been thoroughly investigated, that have made Dr. Cassell's Tablets one of the most talked of remedies of modern times. Their entire safety and purity, their suitability for young and old alike, and their peculiar efficacy have ensured a high reputation throughout the world. Test their results in Canada, if you suffer from Nervous Breakdown, Nerve Failure, Infantile Weakness, Neurasthenia, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Kidney Trouble, Dyspepsia, Stomach Disorder, Wasting,

storekeepers throughout the Dominion sell Dr. Cassell's Tablets at 50 cents.
People in outlying districts should keep

blets a real help in winning back health
for their suffering little ones. And the
cases are not in any way exceptional;
they show just such splendid results as
any mother may expect from systematic
use of this valuable medicine. Dr. Cassell's Tablets have proved their worth
in Great Britain, where their sale is the
largest of its class, and in the Britains
beyond the seas their reputation is advancing rapidly.

Now read what a happy mother has to
say of Dr. Cassell's Tablets. She is Mrs.
Pearl of 28 Doshborough-road, Eastleigh,
Hants, England, and her story is as given
to an interviewer. She said:
"When I think of all that Dr. Cassell's Tablets have done for my little baby I
bless the day I heard of them. I am
convinced they saved my child's life."

"My little Harold was a fine baby
when born, but soon he began to all, and
when a few weeks old I had to have advice. For four months baby was under treatment, but no good came of it; the child got worse. It was pitiful to see him, he was so appallingly thin. His
little bones stood out all over his body.
We could easily count the joints in his
backbone, his shoulders were hollowed in
like pits, and his cheek-bones stood up
like ridges. It made me shudder to un-
dress him, he was such a frail little skeleton of a baby. He could not keep any-

power to move has been lost. Particularly is this so in the case of children;
and numberless cures have been effected,
and are constantly being effected, both
here in Canada as well as other parts
of the Empire. Mrs. Parsley of Chapel
Hill, Braintree, Essex, England, said:
"Baby was only about a year old when
she began to lose the use of her limbs,
and soon became quite helpless. Of course, we were very much alarmed, and
when we were told the child would not
be able to walk for years, we almost lost
hope. We had the best treatment we could find for her, but nothing seemed to help the child at all. I had heard of
getting better she just wasted away till
she was a mere frame. She hardly ate
anything, and was so weak and ill that it
could not seem possible she could recover."

"Then we gave her Dr. Cassell's Tablets. The first effect of the Tablets was
that the baby got sound, natural sleep.
Then she improved in general health, and
gradually power returned to her, until
baby got stronger and stronger, more
plump, till now she is quite cured."

Letter of Thanks.
The undersigned members of the 55th Battalion now at Valcartier wish through the medium of The Telegraph to thank the residents of their respective districts in the parish of Manners-Sutton, York county, for the beautiful watches they have presented.

"We value these watches," they said,
"not for their intrinsic value or con-appreciate. We wish also to express our pride in having the honor of belonging to the first parish in the good

RECRUITS LIVING UP IN PROMISING FASHION AS CAMPAIGN GOES ON

Thursday, Sept. 9. From good to better is the record of the recruiting meetings in St. John. Last night at a meeting for men only at St. Andrew's Rink thirty applicants rolled up. They ranged from a lad in knicker-bockers to a man who seemed to have got on the brink of the fateful forty-five. It was the best meeting yet in all senses. It was one in which the speaking was to possible recruits from first to last. In that it differed from the open air meetings in King Square, where the proportion of women and children is necessarily great. The men ultimately accepted were:

- ALBERT FINNEMORE, ST. JOHN. LEONARD J. PORTER, ST. JOHN. WALTER MORINE, BEAR RIVER. CHAS. R. DOW, HONOLULU. HAROLD McCABE, ST. JOHN. GEORGE BURTON, YARMOUTH. J. E. ADAMS, SUMMERSIDE. WM. J. PIPEY, NEWFOUNDLAND. W. L. INGRAM, SCOTLAND. W. J. STONE, ENGLAND. ALBERT J. BANVILLE, MILFORD, ST. JOHN. RAYMOND HARGROVE, MUSQUASH.

Albert Finnemore is a valued member of The Telegraph's mechanical staff. He fought in the South African war with distinction under Colonel (now Sir) Sam Hughes. He is of fine physique. He has a wife and family. One other man who was accepted did not want his name published yet. Sergt. Norman Knight, of the Gordon Highlanders, who has had a long experience, he told his hearers, as a preacher, was the chief factor. He reminds one of the method and the untimely success of Billy Sunday. He gets a grip of the human in the recruit. Cold print gives a poor idea of his fiery eloquence. But he rouses the right resolution in the wavering and spreads over the meeting an atmosphere that gets results for a big cause. For the first time there was apparent at last night's meeting a pro-German expression. Two men in the audience, at intervals, said something that was drowned in the hub-bub that followed, and in prompt response to the cry of "Turn him out" they each had to go followed by hisses. There was no mistaking the rising feeling of the gathering, and it is perhaps typical of what is growing at last in Canada where the people do not recognize the hyphenated anything.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah Desmond. Newcastle, Sept. 6.—The death of Mrs. Sarah Desmond occurred on Saturday afternoon at the age of 86. She was a most estimable lady and her decease is much regretted. She is survived by one son, Francis J. Desmond, M.D., coroner, and one daughter, Mrs. Baynon, with whom she lived, and by whom she was nursed through her long illness. The funeral took place at 9 o'clock this morning to St. Mary's R. C. church, where requiem mass was conducted by Rev. Father Dixon. The body was taken to Chatham for interment beside her husband who died thirty-five years ago.

Mrs. John A. Lipsett. The death took place in this city at an early hour on Sunday morning, of Henrietta J., wife of John A. Lipsett, after a very short illness. She was of fine disposition and much respected by a large circle of friends and relations. Her death, coming so unexpectedly, will prove a severe shock to them, and much sympathy will be felt for her husband and his two boys in their sad bereavement. Mrs. Lipsett was a daughter of James Stephenson, of the Marsh road, and leaves three sisters, Mrs. E. B. Tapley, of Montreal, Mrs. Percy Stephenson, of Edmonton (Alta.), and Mrs. Rufus Henderson, of this city; also four brothers—John T., of the city market; James A., city traveler for Jones & Schofield; George A., in the business with his father here, and Marshall, of Gerry (N. H.).

Rev. W. O. Raymond will conduct the funeral service. The body will be taken to St. Mary's church, of which Mrs. Lipsett was a valued member. Interment will be in the Church of England burial ground, Thorne avenue.

Mrs. J. H. Campbell. Tuesday, Sept. 7. The death of Ellen T., wife of James H. Campbell, occurred yesterday at her residence, 68 Kennedy street, after a severe illness. She leaves behind her husband, two sons, John and William, (Mass.); one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Harvey, Roxbury (Mass.); and two sisters, Mrs. Coyle, of West St. John, and Mrs. W. Kaskall, of Weeksmill (Me.).

Mrs. Catherine Doherty. Many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Catherine Doherty, widow of William Doherty, which occurred on Sunday at her residence, 61 Mill street. She had been suffering for years with rheumatism. She leaves to mourn three sons—William J. and Thomas, of this city, and John, of Fredericton; four daughters, Mrs. Thomas Flemming, St. John, and Mrs. Kathleen, of St. John; and one brother, Timothy O'Connell, of the government steamer Lansdowne. The funeral is to take place this afternoon from her late residence.

Frank Townsend. Wednesday, Sept. 8. Word was received yesterday by relatives in Fairville of the death of Frank Townsend in Cambridge (Mass.) after quite a long illness. Mr. Townsend lived for years in Milford, and later moved to Fairville, which place he left for the States. Besides his immediate family residing in Cambridge, he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, and Mrs. Ches. Armstrong, of Berne, Montana, and Mrs. Walter Cooper, Fairville; also two brothers, Sumner Townsend, Milford, and Chester, of Maine. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family, which is so well known in Lancaster, and Mrs. Kennedy, died only a couple of months ago, which makes the circumstance all the more sad. Miss Arthur Long, niece of Mr. Townsend, left last evening to be present at the funeral.

John W. Milburn. Hopewell Hill, Sept. 6.—John Willard Milburn, a well known resident of Mountville, Albert county, died quite suddenly at his home there last night. Mr. Milburn had been in poor health for some time, but was about the house yesterday, and remarked that he was feeling better than usual. He ate his

Novo Scotia Has Reason to Be Proud of the Recruits She Has Sent—Hoped to Get as Good from New Brunswick—The Commanding Officer and His Assistants All Hard at Work. The correspondent declares he fails to understand why a mass of Austrian troops was kept quiet in Galicia during two critical months instead of being transferred to the Vlna front for the profit of the decisive operation there. He considers that in this the Germans show a policy of strategy and throw away an opportunity which may never recur. The Petrograd correspondent of the Times thinks the appointment of General Polivanoff, minister of war, as premier will be announced soon. The Post's Petrograd correspondent declares it is no secret that the Russian government have been made through Teutonic indignation to remove the Grand Duke from his command by violence, and explains that masterly as the Russian retirement has been, a retreat does not appeal to the public mind. Hence, he says, it may be supposed that the Russian action will be to unite the entire nation in carrying on the war. Means Greater Exertions. The Chronicle says: "Whatever the changes may involve, they are clearly not the outcome of any flaccid reaction on the part of the government. On the contrary they are the pledge of greater exertions and larger sacrifices. What is puzzling about them is the position of the Grand Duke Nicholas. Despite the fact that it is remarkable that he is for the time being in captivity. By the world it will be regarded as proof that he fell out as generalissimo. Such a belief will be grievously unjust to a very gifted and unselfish man. The Grand Duke has not failed. There was no failure in Russian generalship, any more than there was in the bravery on the part of the Russian troops." Nailed Colors to Mast. The Daily News says: "The emperor, in effect, has nailed his colors to the mast before the world. The most sanguine hopes of Germany no longer give semblance of reality to any lingering doubt of the unity and resolution of Russia." The Daily Mail says: "We may take the change to mean that in the solemn hour through which Russia is now passing the sentiment of religious enthusiasm and loyalty, which only the Czar's personal presence can inspire, is to be invoked, when all else that man can do has been done. It will not be forgotten that during the French advance to Moscow in 1812 Czar Alexander I. was present with his armies, commanding them personally until the eve of Borodino."

Recruits coming in a steady stream of first-class manhood. (Continued from page 1.) known. He spoke with all his usual earnestness and made point after point why more men should go from St. John. He mentioned that the conditions now were far more comfortable than they had been, due largely to the Army Service Corps work. He repeated again and again that every able-bodied man was wanted if only to reinforce the Canadians and who had already gone into the trenches and who are now asking themselves, 'I have no doubt, as we all asked ourselves in November and December while up to our waists in water, why more men did not come to us.' He mentioned that out of the fourteen recruits taken on Wednesday thirteen were in employment. "Your battles are being fought for you by the Serbian and the others. One of the Serbians told me that they were in the trenches without relief for four and a half months, and that women were often found as soldiers in the Serbian lines. There are women in St. John who would go into the trenches if they were allowed to."

The appeal of Sergt. Knight was effective, but as the men were not called to the platform it was less apparent than it would otherwise have been. Mayor Prink then said that in response to his telegram to Lieut.-Col. J. L. McAvity he had received a cablegram: "26th New Brunswick Battalion thank you and all for your good wishes. We shall do our duty." (Cheers.) Tonight's Meeting. This evening another meeting for men was arranged at the rink when the chief speakers will be Lieut. J. L. Radford, St. John, and Sergt. Knight. Today addresses will be given at several of the workshop doors.

HON. MR. WHITE GONE TO NEW YORK FOR FINANCIAL CONFERENCE. Ottawa, Sept. 9.—(Special)—Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, left today for New York, where he has been asked to confer with the British and French commissioners sent across the Atlantic to bring about a return of more normal rates of exchange. Mr. White will be in New York for several days. The British representatives on the commission include the lord chief justice, formerly Sir Rufus Isaacs, and Sir Edward Holden.

HON. MR. HAZEN TO SPEND SOME DAYS AT HIS HOME HERE. Ottawa, Sept. 9.—(Special)—Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries, has left for his home in St. John this afternoon, and will not return to the capital for ten days or so.

HUNS KILL TWENTY IN AIR RAID ON LONDON. (Continued from page 1.) a large number of bombs. The extent of the damage is not yet known." No Americans Hurt. London, Sept. 9.—There were no Americans among the Zeppelin air raid last night. The American embassy and the American consulate reported this afternoon. London Comment on Raid. London, Sept. 10, 2.15 a.m.—The Daily Telegraph, in an editorial expressing disappointment at the escape of the Zeppelin raiders and horror at the raids, protests that the Germans gained no military advantage whatever, and failed even to spread terror among the civilians. "Indeed," says the Telegraph, "in many places in the London district the spectacle of a Zeppelin high up in the heavens, with searchlights flashing upon it, and shells bursting all around, was regarded, and justly so, as a unique and thrilling experience." Other feelings were naturally aroused in the neighborhoods where incendiary and explosive bombs fell, but even these caused no panic. The sense of outrage was strong, but of intimidation not a sign. The Telegraph thinks now that Londoners have been provided with an object lesson on a limited scale, of what explosive bombs are capable of in the way of destruction, that they will be better able to appreciate the feelings of Frenchmen and Belgians whose cities were ruined by these methods.

Novo Scotia Has Reason to Be Proud of the Recruits She Has Sent—Hoped to Get as Good from New Brunswick—The Commanding Officer and His Assistants All Hard at Work. Even a casual examination of the 650 men enrolled in the 64th Battalion at Camp Sussex reveals a marvellous physical type. Most if not all these men are Nova Scotians and if New Brunswick is to equal her sister province in the class of men sent into the 64th she will have to send her best, her healthiest, her most robust and smart, her most bright and most intelligent young manhood. The 64th Battalion has for so large a number of men a wonderful height and uniformity. They are tall and athletic as a battalion of guards. Therefore it may be repeated that only the best that the province can send will bear comparison. There is another thing. The recruiting campaign in Nova Scotia, seems to have spread with the fervour of a religious revival. It has brought forth one of the finest contributions to a volunteer army that any land in any circumstances could have produced. A large proportion, however, point out that this is not the time for comparisons. In New Brunswick it is more the time for copying an excellent example. In that spirit it may be said that the bright intelligence of the men now in Sussex stands out for the broad light of day. A large proportion of the recruits are married men. Nevertheless they are young married men. Indeed the 64th strikes one as being essentially a young man's battalion. The officers are the most youthful looking who have yet come into the province. They stand out as an impression of callowness, no fear that the vigorous close knit frames and the firm lips will not make good in the command of the platoons. That is above all question. And it is one of the best features of the battalion. The men of the 64th to date are the sons of the land. All Out for Business. The surprising part of the battalion is the steadfast earnestness of the recruits. It proves the belief that the longer the call for men in the empire, cause the better the class will be to respond. These young men are not out for adventure to judge by their looks. There are many of them who have made the real sacrifice. They seem to have come into the khaki with something of the spirit of Cromwell's many men who have thought it well over before they took the decisive step; some seem to remind one of the pictures of the Puritans and of the younger men among the Mayflower; the broad hips and the Scottish accent of some proclaim the covenanting sons of the Covenanters. It may be that the first belief that the 64th was to be a killed Highland regiment brought in so many a Scot, for all the sons of the clans are there. Yet this has not accounted for the uniform intelligence in the bright eye and the resolute lip. If the men of the 64th are a true expression of Canada's attitude in this war Canada is now conscious that this is a struggle for the survival of the fittest principles of a good life. These are the men who have heard the call of the women of Belgium; the men who have heard the call of the Canadians at Ypres and Langemark; who have had the vision of the "beheading hand" of the men in the trenches in Kitchener's words, "pathetically and imperiously stretched out" to them.

Even on Saturday there were about 800 men in a battalion that only requires 1,150 to fill. Another battalion will soon be wanted to take the New Brunswickers who are now recruiting but whether this will be done by a special battalion for the province or whether they were in the ranks of Nova Scotia by taking them in drafts to fill a Nova Scotia battalion is not yet known. At first it was intended that the Nova Scotian contribution to the 64th should be about 400 men. They have already sent in nearly 200 and a half times that number. It is a qualified name; there are many bank clerks in the ranks and some are in the paymaster's office and in the administrative staff; two private, full privates, are said to be worth $50,000 each in cash any day! And so it runs. With these examples before one, the intelligent features, the bright eye, and the stamp of thoroughness in every face and last, but not least, when it will come to a bayonet charge the brave that is there under the rolled up sleeve. The writer can only say again that New Brunswick will have to send her best to what remains to be filled if the standard is to be upheld that the 850 men from Nova Scotia have set in the 64th Battalion.

COL. MEIGHEN MADE A BRIGADIER GENERAL

Ottawa, Sept. 9.—(Special)—Announcement was made by Sir Sam Hughes today that Colonel Frank S. Meighen, of Montreal, has been promoted to the rank of brigadier-general. General Meighen was in command of the 18th battalion at St. Julien, and proved himself to be a brave and thoroughly efficient officer. He returned to Canada with Colonel John A. Currie, M. P., last June, and since then has been assisting in recruiting work in eastern Canada. He is now raising a new battalion in connection with the Canadian Grenadier Guards, of Montreal. General Meighen will probably be appointed to the command of a brigade at Shorncliffe.
