COMMODITY VALUE TO FORM BASE OF RATE STRUCTURE?

Fruit and Vegetable Trade has Long Contended that Rates on Some Products are Away out of Line Compared with Their Market Value—The Smith-Hoch Resolution Adopted by United States Senate.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—An important point was won by agricultural shipping interests including the fruit and vegetable industry when on Tuesday the senate adopted the conference report on the Smith-Hoch resolution which directs the Interstate Commerce Commission to make an exhaustive study into the railroad rate structure.

For years shippers of bulky, low value commodities such as cabbage, potatoes, hay, etc., have insisted that rates are too high in proportion to the value of the goods. In many instances as has been pointed out time and again in the columns of The Packer, the big item in the cost of distribution was the freight rates. Shippers have long wanted a re-adjustment of rates, not with the idea of wrecking the railroads, by forcing them to haul freight at a loss, but instead wanted a more scientific application of rates, based more on the value of the goods transported. The commission is directed to take into account the relative value of various commodities in determining the fairness of the existing rates by the resolution, which was adopted by the House some time ago and is as follows:

"It hereby is declared to be the true policy in rate-making to be pursued by the Interstate Commerce Commission in adjusting freight rates that the conditions which at any given time prevail in our several industries, should be considered in so far as it legally is possible to do so, to the end that commodities may move freely.

"That the Interstate Commerce Commission is authorized and directed to make a thorough investigation of the rate structure of common carriers, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, in order to determine to what extent and in what manner existing rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, thereby imposing undue burdens, or giving undue advantage as among the various localities and parts of the country, the various classes and kinds of commodities, and to make, in accordance with law, such changes and adjustments, and redistribution of rates and charges as may be found necessary to correct any defects so found in existence.

"In any such change, adjustment or redistribution, the commission shall give due regard, among other factors, to the general and comparative levels in market value of the various classes and kinds of commodities as indicated over a reasonable period of years, to a natural and proper development of the country as a whole and to the maintenance of an adequate system of transportation.

"In the progress of such investigations, the commission from time to time and as expeditiously as possible, shall make such changes and orders as it shall find to be necessary or appropriate upon the record then made in order to place the rates upon designated classes of trade upon a just and reasonable basis with relation to other rates. Such enquiry shall be conducted with due regard to other investigations or proceedings affecting rate readjustments which may be pending before the commission.

"In view of the existing depression

SPECIAL MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL

At a special meeting of the Town Council held on Tuesday evening, a committee was appointed to attend the meeting at Woodstock on Wednesday afternoon held in the interests of the Ottawa delegation from the Maritimes to obtain better freight rates for the Maritimes and to secure for our Maritime ports the export and import business that rightfully belongs to them. The local committee will report to a citizens' meeting called by the Mayor to be held in the Town Hall on Thursday evening at 7:30. The meeting will consider the advisability of sending one or more representatives to join the Maritime delegation to Ottawa on the 26th inst.

In agriculture, the commission hereby is directed to effect with the least practicable delay such lawful changes in the rate structure of the country as will promote the freedom of movement by common carriers of the products of agriculture affected by that depression, including livestock at the lowest possible lawful rates compatible with the maintenance of adequate transportation service."

The important part of the chocolate played in making last Christmas a merry one is shown by a sheet of letters of which the following from "Smallwood & Sons," outstanding druggist in Moncton, is typical: "We wish to report that our Christmas trade cleaned us out of every plain and fancy package in the store, besides as a second order which we were obliged to place on December 23."

And the Consolidated Litho & Mfg. Co., Ltd., Montreal, speaking about the chocolates they gave their staff at Christmas, write: "So many delightful expressions of satisfaction have been received as a result of this distribution, that we wish to congratulate you on the excellence of your product."

LIMITED TRAIN

Takes 1,000 Men to Attend to All its Details

Railroading a Complicated Business
A Tremendous Task

When any of the limited trains from New York starts on its journey down the highway of steel, 1,000 men in 100 different places are called to their posts.

Railroading is a complicated business—just how complicated is described in a pamphlet entitled "A Thousand and One Details." Starting a limited train to Chicago is a tremendous task. It begins long before the passengers who are to take the train have left their homes, even before many of them have bought their tickets.

"As soon as a train starts on a trip," declares the pamphlet, "it sets up a railroad pulsation akin to that of sound waves. This extends to the other end of the immediate division and in many instances to other divisions. In fact, with the through expresses this pulsation is felt several hundred miles ahead of the trains, affecting not only the railroad offices stations, signal towers, round houses and other trains, but also the very homes of the employees who handle them."

It would be inconvenient, of course for the limited to pull into a division point and find the engineer, the fireman, the conductor and the other members of the crew who were to have taken her on the balance of her journey had failed to appear. For crews are changed on through trains at specified points on the journey.

Consequently, to avoid embarrassment of having no crew on hand, the locomotive engineer, the conductor and the rest of the necessary employees are warned either by telephone or messenger several hours before they report.

About the time the Limited is pulling into Manhattan Transfer to change its electric locomotive for one of steam, the wives of a crew 200 miles away are warning them that they had better come in from the garden and get ready for dinner. Their luncheon pails for a second meal en route are being prepared.

But the work of operating a train starts long before the train itself leaves the terminal. In the first place, of course, the train schedules are prepared. Then the proper equipment must be assembled.

In the roundhouse the locomotive is being selected, and oiled. If the train is a through one the heavy class "K" engine must be assigned to the task. If the train is a lighter one with no Pullman cars, a lighter engine with less tractive power will be powerful enough.

The road foreman of engines reports to the roadhouse foreman regarding the type of engine. The engineer and the fireman are notified regarding the hour at which they are to report. The engineer carefully examines his big machine to see that it is in shape. Then it takes its place in line with other panting steel monsters to await the signal to proceed to the station for the run. The

PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

Ended by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fudlier, Sask.—"For two or three days every so often I would have such pains in my back and sides that I could not do anything—could not even lie quietly in bed, and my head ached, too. I was this way about three years, but was worse after I was married. I was on a farm with not a house nearer than five miles and there was not a person to advise me, as my folks live in Manitoba. My sister-in-law told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me to try it. I took her advice and have been thankful for it ever since. After taking the medicine for three months I can say it has helped me a lot and I am doing fine. I am glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to others and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. HELEN BALANOFF, Fudlier, Saskatchewan.

Often some slight trouble will cause a general upset of the system. Such symptoms as nervousness, painful times, irregularity, backache and headache indicate some form of female weakness. Women so bothered should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. This dependable medicine has helped thousands of women and it is reasonable to expect that it will help you. Try it today. Your druggist sells this medicine.

With the train assembled in the station, a small army of inspectors begin to test the various parts of the mechanism, with particular emphasis on air brakes. The conductor in the meantime, is "signing on" the official register in the trainmaster's office. The brakeman has assembled his necessary lanterns, flags, fuses and torpedoes. The baggageman has checked up on the property placed in his charge for the run.

Meanwhile, even more "behind the scenes" another group is arranging for the departure. In general command is the division operator, who receives word when the train is ready to depart. Then the train dispatcher, who has a mental picture of his entire division, orders the proper tracks be cleared. At the station in New York all this is preceded by the task of bringing the assembled train through the tunnels under the East River to the terminal.

With the train in motion telephones and telegraph instruments are used to advise those ahead that it is coming. The roadbed is constantly being repaired, as are the automatic block signals which govern to a great extent the movement of trains.

Trackmen are constantly on the alert to discover defects in the roadbed. They also watch all passing trains, and have prevented many accidents by seeing irregularities and reporting them to the next point at which the train can be halted.

The first actual signal to start the train is given at the station by the gateman. This is one of the reasons why gatemen cannot reopen the doors for passengers arriving just as they are being closed. The conductor already has been advised that all passengers have passed through. He sends word along to the signal towers and the switches just west of the station are set so that the train can proceed without interruption.

All these are only a few of the details. Dining cars have to be provisioned and meals started hours before trains are ready to start. Ice water is provided, windows are washed, berths are made up, and far more than "one thousand and one details" taken care of. Back of it all, also, is the "white collar men" of the various record departments. Without their assistance the limited would be as powerless to move as though the engineer had failed to report.—New York World.

MORTALITY IS GREATER AMONG BOY BABIES

Chicago, Feb. 14—Boy babies have not the same chance of living as girl babies, they are the weaker sex, according to Prof. S. J. Holmes, zoologist of the University of California speaking here before the American Statistical Association.

"In the first year of life many more boys die than girls, the proportion of boy deaths being greater in the first month and gradually decreasing through the rest of the year. As we go back in embryonic life this ratio steadily increases. The male, apparently, is the weaker animal, at least at the start of life."

Centreville, N. B., Feb. 16—A galaxy of picture stars including Miriam Cooper in the title role, Kenneth Harlan, Zazu Pitts, Fred Batetessa and others, made a wonderful picture of "The Girl Who Came Back." This might well have been a companion picture to "Within the Law," as the narrative ran along similar lines. Scenes were laid from New York to Cape town. On Saturday evening, Harry Carey was presented in an excellent film, "The Lightning Rider," supported by Virginia Faire and others. An air of mystery pervaded the film as to who was the bandit who masqueraded as the "Black Mask." This was not clear until the final reel. Poodles Hannaford, the trick riding clown of circus fame, was shown in a good reel comedy "The Bonehead." Read page 7 for information regarding immediate attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Lee entertained their friends of the Bridge Club at their home on Mill Street on Friday evening. Eight tables were present, players including Mr. and Mrs. L. R. T. Lee, R. Jack Lee, A. R. Lee, C. H. Sullivan, Roy Wileman, J. C. Stevens, L. A. London, H. W. Peppers, and E. Bridgewater. Mrs. B. R. Field, Miss Dora Lee, Miss Ritchie and Messrs. Gibson, Andrews, Douglas, Page, Brown, Bruce, Nase and McClintock. A delightful evening was spent.

Rev. H. R. Boyer of St. John spent part of the week in Centreville. He spoke in the U. B. Church on Tuesday evening in the interests of the society he represents.

A quilting party was held at the home of Miss Bertie West last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burt of Boundary were in town on Sunday.

E. H. Burt of Woodstock was visiting relatives here on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Nicholson spent the latter part of last week in St. John attending a life insurance underwriters' convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bassett are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a young daughter at their home, Marion Evelyn.

GET INSULIN FROM BAY OF FUNDY FISH

That cod and pollock will be a profitable source of insulin in the Maritime Provinces is the conclusion of two members of the department of physiology of Toronto University, who have investigated the preparation of insulin on a large scale from the so-called "principal islets of bon fishes." Their conclusions are referred to in the annual report of the department of physiology, under the direction of Prof. J. J. McLeod, which is contained in the annual report of President Falconer for 1924.

"Their work," says the report, "was done largely at the fishing grounds and at the biological station at St. Andrews, N. B., and they have worked out in detail methods by which satisfactory yields can be obtained from such fishes as the cod and pollock."

The report of the director of Connaught Laboratories states: "The success which has attended the production of insulin has been most encouraging. The operation of the new plant has made possible a series of price reductions so that at present the cost of insulin is about one-fifth of what it was in 1923."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

OBSERVING THE SABBATH

Editor Observer,
Dear Sir:

Will you allow me space in your pages to say a few words on two very important subjects that seem to impress me deeply.

The first is on Sabbath desecration by the railway company allowing their trains to run on Sunday with the excuse that perishable freight must be moved on that day and other like excuses when we all know that if they had the law of God at heart, they could easily arrange the whole programme and cut out this terrible sin in the sight of almighty God. And in connection with this the flagrant desecration of the Sabbath by the auto garages of this town for past years and as the time to commence another season's operations is near at hand, no doubt will attempt the same sinful course in the future. In the past I have tried to persuade them to voluntarily take the matter in their own hands and cut out the entire work on Sunday but with no avail.

Then the churches were approached to take the initiative but nothing resulted; then the W. C. T. U. thought they would approach the town council by petition but this did not go through.

What I proposed was, and still is, that all garages be closed Saturday night at midnight and remain so until Monday morning; and all sales of gasoline during the Sabbath day by all persons in town be strictly prohibited under lawful penalty.

I hope the new mayor and council will get busy and see that this open violation of Sunday law be strictly prohibited and we escape the penalty as citizens who are partners in this horrible sin.

My second is with regard to the enforcement of the prohibition law of New Brunswick. No doubt the law makers of the province will attempt soon to pass a law similar to that in Quebec or British Columbia and destroy the work of long years of the temperance workers and put the good cause back for twenty-five years. We need to be prepared when the next election comes off to stand by solid temperance men without regard to party and save our province for our posterity for all time to come and escape the subterfuges of designing politicians.

Yours very truly,
G. G. GRAY.

LETTER FROM A FORMER RESIDENT

To The Observer:

I thought perhaps my friends in Hartland and vicinity would like to know how I am getting along, as I have been laid up with a fever, I am getting around the house, and although very weak, hope to get out soon. I often think of when I was in Hartland laid up with two broken legs of how the friends used to come in to see me. How I miss them. I just wish some of them could come in now. I sometimes get very lonesome and think of my old friends in good old New Brunswick (God bless them).

WEEKLY ITEMS OF INTEREST

THEY'RE HERE! THEY'RE HERE!

They've arrived! That's the saying that one hears on the lips of a great many people nowadays. For have not the big, entrancing, beautiful, bargainful catalogues arrived. Those books which ruin the home town merchant, those books that are the idol of so many people. The books that captivate the attention of the kiddies and make a direct impression on the brain.

And just what are the majority of our merchants doing to combat this merciless menace to their business? Disregardless of the fact that many of the stores in this county can sell goods just as cheap as the various mail order houses, the people send their money away. And why is it that this money, this good hard cash can not be kept at home.

Here's the reason: the catalogues are enticing and they are attractive. They display the various articles, describe them and end up by saying only $1.99 cash. They do not give the purchaser 30 or 60 days. They call for cash. That's the secret. Advertising has made their business. Advertising can break it. Consistent, practical advertising; advertising that shows the people that they can get the same things at home for the same money; advertising that appeals to the eye; advertising that makes the people pride their community enough to give the merchants the extra 10 cents and keep the money circulating within the county and not be carried away to the large cities.

In conversation with a local merchant we were surprised to hear the following story:

A woman came into his store and priced underwear for her family. The clerk was very courteous and yet the lady said she thought she would not buy that day. Some days later the same lady told the clerk that she had saved a couple of dollars by buying $40 worth of underwear at Moncton. The clerk said, "but if you had said you wanted $40 worth and were willing to pay cash, I would have given you a substantial reduction." The lady did not know this and consequently sent the money out of town. Now why doesn't that merchant advertise the fact that he is able to compete with mail order house on certain lines. That's the idea: Tell the people what you are willing to do.

In doing this you treat your customers all alike, you are helping to stamp out one of the evils against which you are laboring all the time. Mr. Merchant. You are helping keep the dollars in circulation within our little community and what's more you are bound to help yourself by gaining the confidence of your customers.

MARITIME RIGHTS

The Telegraph-Journal's representative, A. M. Belding, is meeting with great success. His tour of Western Canada has so far been interspersed with meetings of business men whose enthusiasm has been remarkable. Everywhere he has gone, the various cities he has visited, the different shipping interests consulted, the members of the press, and in fact, everyone, has listened with interest to the story he is telling. The Telegraph-Journal may well be proud of its achievement. The results of this trip are noticeable already. The Ford Motor Company has already diverted its shipments for the Antipodes from New London to Halifax, and other similar changes are bound to come. If we only had someone to tour the Maritimes preaching "buy at home" and "buy Maritime made goods," perhaps we would add another link to our achievements during 1925.

The movement that is now on foot to have a delegation go to Ottawa to put before Parliament the needs of the Maritimes is a good one. The aim

THE CARLETON COUNTY Vocational School

Short Course in Poultry Husbandry

Four Days in Duration

February 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th

For Farmers, Farmers' Wives and all Poultry Enthusiasts

Every phase of Poultry Production will be dealt with by prominent poultry experts and breeders, including breeding, hatching and brooding, culling of flocks, feeding for winter egg production, crate fattening of surplus stock, killing, dressing and marketing, co-operative marketing of eggs, housing and sanitation, diseases and their control, practice in judging for vigor and production.

This course is made possible through the co-operation of the Provincial and Federal Departments of Agriculture.

Motion pictures to illustrate the different topics under discussion will constitute one of the features of the course. An added feature will be the holding of a poultry show in the school under the auspices of the Carleton County Poultry Association.

This course is free and one well worth attending by those who recognize the profitableness of the poultry flock under good management.

Applications for enrollment will be received and further information given by the Director, Carleton County Vocational School, Woodstock, N. B.

of the Board of Trade is to have 1,000 people from the Maritimes visit Ottawa on Feb. 26th to press the claims of the Maritimes and hear what the various leaders have to say.

POOR HAULING WEATHER.

The sudden thaw and the consequent breaking up of the road surface has caused trouble in more ways than one. Last week several of the Rural Routes went without mail for a day at least. The lumbermen are worrying because as yet they have not begun hauling off and the woods roads are pretty well gone to pieces. Several weeks ago every one in this locality was calling for water. Now the vast majority would welcome another freeze-up. Life is just one thing after another.

FREIGHT RATES.

The dispatch from Washington that appears in another column deals with the basis of freight rates. The fruit and vegetable shippers are anxious to have a re-adjustment of rates and to have these rates depend to a certain extent on the value of the goods transported. We have a very striking example right at home here in Carleton County. Last week a car of potatoes, valued at about $250 was shipped from this point and over $700 freight had to be prepaid on it to get it to its destination. The cost of the freight was three times that of the potatoes. Everywhere there is the same thing found, bulky vegetables, hay, etc., all rated far in excess of their value and if something can't be done by the railways, perhaps it would be cheaper to ship via the "air line."

SPRING WEATHER

February thaws are not uncommon but very seldom do we have a thaw that lasts so long. The brooks are running full and the farmers are for the most part happy. The scarcity of water at Aroostook Falls hydro plant must be a thing of the past for we have power 24 hours a day, which is very welcome.

U. S. A. HAS TROUBLES.

Report of President Coolidge's agricultural commission charges that the administration of some departments of the government "is seriously handicapped by inter-departmental or inter-bureau jealousies." It also declares the country lacks a unified credit system, a condition harmful to agriculture, and that the Interstate Commerce Commission has "failed or been unable to recognize its responsibility as advocate of shipper and had developed into court."

F. E. Sayre is now sawing laths at three mills, Hartland, County Line and Indian Brook. The two latter mills especially, are creating a record as regards output of work. The mill at Indian Brook last week sawed 323,000, cutting as high as 62,000 in a single day. The County Line mill turned out as high as 51,000 in a single day. This is believed to be a record cut for the county and we would like to hear from any other Carleton Co. mill exceeding this or doing as well. Commencing March 1 and continuing for some three weeks or longer, two shifts will be run at the Indian Brook mill, in order to clean up remaining stock.

A meeting of the representatives of the United Baptist Churches of District Number 2, was held in the Baptist Church at Hartland Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The following churches were represented: Bristol, Florenceville, Victoria Corner, Woodstock-first and Hartland. In the absence of the chairman of the district, Rev. K. M. Vallis, the secretary R. B. Hagerman, called the meeting to order and Rev. G. F. Bolster was appointed chairman of the meeting. The chief matter that occupied the attention of the meeting was the arranging of a programme for the next regular meeting of the district which will convene with the South Side Church Woodstock on March 9th, and 10th. The matter of the programme will be announced at a later date.

THE CHURCH STARVING IN-SIGHT OF PLENTY

Such was the startling headline of an article that occurred a short time ago in a national magazine. Is that statement true? If so, and many believe it, then there is something seriously wrong with the Church. What it is wrong with the Church? During the Great War, and since its close, we have had it dinned into our ears that the church is all wrong. And that it is failing in its mission. Is this a true and accurate criticism. Is there anything wrong with the churches in Hartland? Are they fulfilling the purpose of their existence in the life of the community. What is wrong with the Church? This is the subject Sunday night at the Hartland United Baptist Church. Sunday morning the pastor will preach on "The New Covenant."

Sunday School will be held at 2.30 p. m. and a special invitation is extended to men and women to attend the adult classes. Next Monday night there will be a stereoscopic lecture on missions in India. Sixty pictures will be shown with this lecture. The public is cordially invited.

The weakening agony of piles robs life of its pleasure, turns days of brightness into days of misery, and brings periods of acute suffering. Overwhelming evidence proves Zam-Buk incomparable for banishing the pain, bleeding, swelling and inflammation.

Mr. Alf Brown, of Merriton writes: "I hope that my testimony will reach thousands suffering from that dreadful ailment, piles. For six years I was never free from pain. No one ever spent more money in search of a remedy. A sympathetic friend gave me a part of a box of Zam-Buk to try. Its soothing power was marvellous, and I soon had a further supply of this grand herbal healer. I used Zam-Buk until the old painful trouble was gone completely."

Equally successful for eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, pimples, boils, bad legs, ulcers, scalp disease, poisoned wounds, cuts, burns, scalds, etc. Dealers everywhere sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box 3 for $1.25

Here and There

That Hollanders who have located in Alberta are making good and are satisfied is the statement of Baron W. Van Heeckeren, of Rotterdam, after a recent tour of investigation.

The forming of a mining bureau as a branch of its activities is announced by the Winnipeg Board of Trade. The bureau is to collect data on the mining situation in the province and will do everything possible to foster greater mineral production in Manitoba.

Tourist traffic in Canada this year is likely to constitute a new record, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Parks. No estimate has been compiled as yet but the figures for 1923, which were carefully estimated at $36,000,000, indicate the value of this traffic to the Dominion.

Up to the end of October, 1924, more than 1,000 circulating libraries were in operation in Saskatchewan, as compared with about 800 at the same time in 1923. The average number of families reading each book is 17. More than half a million volumes were circulated by these libraries during the year.

A huge wooden, tar-paper lined shell erected over the space provided for the structure and heated by thousands of feet of steam coils connected with 380-horse power boilers, which provide a summer-like atmosphere for the carrying on of construction, is an interesting and novel feature of the arrangements made to combat the difficulty of building the new wing of the Chateau Lake Louise, the Canadian Pacific Railway's famous Rocky Mountain hotel, under winter conditions. Thanks to this innovation, the wing, despite frequent drops in temperature to far below zero, is progressing excellently and the company expects it to be ready for next summer's tourist season.

Sweeping changes in the Canadian Pacific Railway's service of great benefit to the communities concerned are scheduled for January 11. They include revision of the timetable of the Vancouver express (Toronto-Vancouver), to reach Fort William and Port Arthur between 10 and 11 p.m., instead of 2 and 3 a.m., and Winnipeg at 10 a.m., instead of 2:30 p.m., as heretofore. The new times are more convenient to the Twin Cities than the old and a half-day is gained for business in Winnipeg. Regina is to be reached by the same train at 11 p.m. instead of 1:20 a.m., and Moose Jaw at midnight instead of 2:45 a.m., Regina-Saskatoon connections being thus radically improved, while arrival at Calgary at 4 p.m. enables Edmonton to be reached that evening. Vancouver is reached at 7 p.m. instead of 9:30 p.m. as previously. The Toronto Express (Vancouver-Toronto) reaches Winnipeg more conveniently, while arrival at Toronto at 8:40 a.m. will make possible connections with early morning trains for Ontario points and with day trains for American cities, thus saving more time. Gains on other trains between Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Chicago and Winnipeg are also scheduled. These arrangements follow the cancellation of the recently inaugurated train between Winnipeg, Montreal and Toronto, which is to come off January 10.

NEW DOLLAR BILL

New $1 bills of the Dominion of Canada were put in circulation recently for the first time, but will not come into general circulation until all of the old issue have been disposed of. The new is called the King George issue. The bill has on the face an excellent likeness of His Majesty. On the reverse side instead of the cut of the parliament buildings is a picture of the library at Ottawa.

noted in the lighter moods where the daughter and her father attempt to cajole the boy, and then the terror of the lad's frantic appeals to his father.

The beautiful music picture comes to a finale with the wonderful Tour-de-force, showing the combination of storm and frantic onrush of the father and son on horseback through the night, and leads up to the tragic end, when the father at last reaches home and finds that his boy is dead in his arms. Here are a few of the closing lines—

"The Son and Father talking—
"Dear father, my father, didn't thou not hear
The Erl King whisper so low in mine ear?"

"Be tranquil, oh, be tranquil, my child. 'Mong whither leaves the wind bloweth wild."

Then the Erl King speaks to the boy and the boy calls out in fright—
"I love thee, boy, with me thou shalt ride on my course,
And if thou'rt not willing, I'll seize thee by force."

"Oh father, dear father, thy boy close-crawl!"
Culminating with the tragic comment of the Narrator—
The father shuddered, his pace grew more wild,
He held to his bosom, his poor swooning child;
He reached his home with toil and dread,
For in his arm, lo, the child lay—dead!

MAKE A FRIEND OF YOUR CAR

Get acquainted with the inside of your motor car. Study its characteristics. Get into the habit of looking after it personally as much as possible. By so doing you will get the most out of your automobile and you will find a new satisfaction in owning a car.

Kraft Potato Soup

Here's a tasty nourishing dish you may not have tried. Every member of the family will relish it. One of nearly a hundred tested recipes in the Kraft Cheese Booklet. It's free; mail coupon.

There are thousands of owners who pay absolutely no attention to the inside of their car, no matter how great a strain the machine is operated under. It is that class of owners who complain about the maintenance cost of their car.

They not only fail to get comfortable riding and they not only lose time while the car is being repaired at some garage, but they lose the keen enjoyment which one should get out of owning a perfect piece of mechanism.

If every owner studied his machine and learned the details of its inside mechanism, he would soon become attached to it as is the average sea captain to his ship or the railroad engineer to his engine.

CONNELL

Connell, N. B., Feb. 15.—Your correspondent begs to acknowledge past negligence and hopes to do better in the future. It is a matter of regret that contributions from this place cannot reach you in time for the same week publication as under the new contract for carrying His Majesty's Mail, which went into effect on Jan. 1, 1925, Connell mail has to be in the Florenceville Post Office a day before it can proceed to its destination.

Despite the fact that an extensively signed petition was forwarded to the Postmaster General praying that it be carried from the Connell end of the route as formerly, the contract was awarded to the Florenceville end, thereby causing a delay which is very unsatisfactory to the patrons of the route.

Any important matter has to be carried by the children in a school van. Oh, ye who rule today, beware, beware, when the great war is raging, Connell did her "bit" for the cause of justice, and she is just as ready to do it again, when opportunity offers.

The Secret of Maxwell Popularity Is Excess Values

Ask good Maxwell owners the reason for their enthusiasm. Ask them the secret of the car's popularity.

One will place the emphasis, perhaps, on the car's agile qualities, another on its ease of riding and handling, while still another will express wonder at its economy.

When you sum it all up it means just this: Never before has the public been able to buy so much fine motoring for so little money.

No matter what your own experience as a motorist may be, if you don't know the new good Maxwell you have a genuine surprise awaiting you. For thorough-going quality you have never seen anything in the four-cylinder field like this Maxwell-Chrysler achievement.

The backbone of Maxwell quality is sound engineering. But investors in the good Maxwell enjoy further advantages in the fact that the car is built almost in its entirety within its own plants, even to the smallest and most insignificant parts. This is assurance of still higher quality, still greater values.

If you want to compare the good Maxwell with others be prepared to go outside the Maxwell field.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time payments. Ask about Maxwell's attractive plan.

"Liver Trouble so Severe I Had to Quit Work"

Mr. Thomas Honey, Brantford, Ont., writes: "I was a great sufferer from enlargement of the liver for ten months, and finally I had to quit work. I would wake up in the mornings with a bitter taste in my mouth, had frequent headaches, yellow complexion, and pain in my right side, and between the shoulder blades. It was almost unbearable, and terribly weakening. I could not sleep at night and my heart also bothered me. But the whole trouble has now left me, thanks to that wonderful medicine, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."
