Cured of Epilepsy.

THE STORY OF A ST. CATHERINES LADY WHO IS RESTORED TO HEALTH.

She Suffered Severely, Sometimes Having as Many as Four Spasms in a Week—Several Doctors Consulted Without Benefit.

From the Star, St. Catherines.

Mrs. S. B. Wright, of St. Catherines, has for a number of years been a severe sufferer from epilepsy, from which dread disease she is now happily free.

To a reporter who recently called upon her to ascertain the manner of her cure, she said:—"It is to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I owe my release. It is some years since I had my first attack. At the time I did not know what the trouble was, but the doctor who was called in to attend me at once said it was epilepsy, and that the disease was incurable. After this I had the spasms as often as two, three or four times a week. I had no premonitory symptoms, but would fall no matter where I was. I always slept heavily after an attack. Finding that the local treatment was not helping me, my husband took me to a doctor in Hamilton. He also said that he could not cure me, but that he could give me medicine that would prolong the period between the spasms. This he accomplished, but I longed for a cure rather than a relief, and I finally consulted a specialist, who told me that he could cure me, but that I must have patience. I asked him how long he thought it would require to effect a cure, and he replied at least six months. He gave me medicine and I took it faithfully, but instead of getting better I was surely growing worse. After following this treatment for several months without avail, I felt that I could not hope for a cure and was about resigning myself to my fate. My sister, however, urged me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People a trial and reluctantly I decided to take her advice. For a time after beginning to use the pills I continued to have the spasms, but I felt that gradually they were less severe and my strength to bear them greater, and I persisted in the treatment until the time came when the spasms ceased and I was as well and strong as ever I had been. It is in all thanks to four boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and although several years have elapsed since I discontinued their use, I have not in that time had any return of the malady, I owe this happy release to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and will always have a good word to say for them.

The experience of years has proved that there is absolutely no disease due to a vitiated condition of the blood or shattered nerves that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not promptly cure, and those who are suffering from such troubles would avoid much misery and save money by promptly resorting to this treatment. Get the genuine Pink Pills every time and do not be persuaded to take an imitation or some other remedy from a dealer, who for the sake of the extra profit to himself, may say "just as good." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail.

The Elopers Arrested.

MONROE, July 20.—John McDonald, who eloped from Irishtown with Mr. A. White's daughter, was arrested at New Glasgow, Tuesday, and brought to Moncton Wednesday, along with his girl. He was brought before the court this morning and remanded until this afternoon. The girl, so McDonald asserts, claims that she is eighteen years old, but her parents state she is not sixteen. McDonald says he eloped with the intention of marrying the girl, but could not find anyone to marry them. Mr. White is resolved to press the case. D. I. Welch is prosecuting, and D. Grant defending.

Young Woman Hanged.

LONDON, July 19.—Despite strenuous efforts to secure a reprieve, including an appeal to the Queen, Mary Ann Ansell, who was convicted of murdering her sister, an inmate of an insane asylum, by sending her poisoned cake, was hanged to-day at St. Albans.

The crime for which the girl was executed was committed for the purpose of securing the payment of life insurance money, the murderess having obtained a policy upon the life of her sister, giving a false description.

Prohibition in Manitoba.

WINNIPEG, July 10.—In the Legislature on Tuesday Premier Greenway said it was not the intention of the government to introduce this session any measure prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors. He said the measure would be introduced at the first session of the Legislature.

Bob Ingersoll Dead.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Bob J. Ingersoll died of apoplexy at his home, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., this afternoon.

Big Blaze at Halifax.

The Standard Oil Company's steamer, Maverick, that put into Halifax Saturday, from New York, with five hundred thousand gallons of oil in her ten tanks, and with two thousand casks of oil, was burned last night. The fire broke out at 4.30 o'clock, and was caused by a burst in her pumping pipe. In five minutes the ship was in flames, an hour later one of the tanks exploded with terrific force. The ship was cut away from her wharf to save the tanks and warehouse on land. She drifted with the tide two hundred yards from the shore, a solid mass of flame. Then the Maverick touched bottom and went over on her beam ends. The oil poured out on the surface of the harbor which became a sea of fire.

Minor explosions followed, the masts fell and the flames rose skywards from 500,000 gallons of kerosene on fire. The configuration had been caused by the bursting of the pumping pipe between decks. The oil from this deluged the room, coming in contact with the steamer's funnels. Michael Michelson, who was in the fire at the time, was badly burned and was removed to the hospital. The Maverick was valued at $200,000, and was insured. Her cargo was worth $30,000. One-third of the cargo had been pumped out when the burst occurred.

Appalling Catastrophe

VICTORIA, B. C., July 18.—Particulars of an appalling catastrophe, which occurred at Toyokuni coal mine at Kyushu, Japan, on the morning of June 18th have just reached here. Two hundred men and women were at work in the coal mine when the explosion of coal gas took place. People living in the region rushed to the mine and a party of them essayed to go into the pit from a side entrance, but were driven back by the suffocating gas which filled it. Prompt steps were taken to ventilate the gas laden pit, but it was some time before it was effected.

No Right to Uginess.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or liver trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a sallow complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at any Drug Store.

Severe Fight in Philippines.

MANILA, July 21.—News has been received here from General Smith, at Iloilo, Island of Panay, of a severe fight on Wednesday at Bobong between Capt. Byrne, of the 16th infantry, with seventy men, and a force of 450 Babayones, who surprised the American troops. One hundred and thirteen of the enemy were killed, as is shown by actual count, many were wounded, and one was taken prisoner. The fighting was mostly at close quarters with bayonets and clubbed guns. A considerable stock of supplies and arms have been captured by Capt. Byrne, who is in command of the battalion operating at Lacerota, in the district of Negros.

$250,000 Fire in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, July 19.—A fire destroyed more than a quarter of a million dollars worth of property on the Brooklyn waterfront to-night. It started in the eight story grain elevator facing exelador store on Atlantic basin, and which also extended through to Buttermilk channel. The elevator was soon destroyed. The fire extended to buildings Nos 275 and 276 of the stores, which are constructed of brick and are six stories in height. These two buildings were gutted, and their contents, consisting of about 300,000 bushels of grain and valuable machinery, were destroyed. The jetons and elevator were the property of the Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Company, and the grain belonged to various consignees. The loss is estimated at from $250,000 to $300,000.

Fatal Explosion.

LONDON, July 21.—By an explosion on board the torpedo boat destroyer Bullfinch, in the Solent, during her trial day, nine men were killed and four injured. It was the worst naval accident of this nature that has occurred in the British navy in twenty years. The victims were terribly injured, steam and boiling water filling the engine room. The Bullfinch is one of the latest designed thirty-knot torpedo-boat destroyers.

Whole Family Drowned.

TECAMAR, Neb., July 19.—Word was received here to-day of the drowning, owing to a cloud burst, in North Western Iowa, near the Minnesota line, Monday night, of A. W. Blades, his wife and eight children, while en route to Minnesota in an emigrant wagon.

SHE WAS SAVED!

Paine's Celery Compound

Restores an Ontario Lady to Perfect Health After Years of Failures with Other Medicines.

No Other Remedy Can so Effectually Meet the Needs of Debilitated, Weak and Nervous Women.

One of the grandest and noblest of medical triumphs ever given to suffering women is Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine that has saved thousands of daughters, wives and mothers of our Dominion.

In cases of debility, weakness, nervousness, irregularities, lack of nerve force, impoverished or impure blood, constipation and stomach troubles, Paine's Celery Compound is the only reliable, true and certain agent for the banishment of disease and the establishment of permanent health.

Mrs. Hopper, of Thornhill, Ont., one of the many thousands of women who sing the praises of Paine's Celery Compound as a blessing to women, says:

"With very great pleasure and satisfaction I wish to add my testimony to what has already been said in favor of Paine's Celery Compound. For a very long time I suffered from general debility, nervousness and run down system. Having heard of Paine's Celery Compound I determined to give it a trial, and I am happy to say it has done for me more good than I can express. For ten years I doctored with other medicines without any good results; but after using Paine's Celery Compound I am perfectly restored to health, can eat well, digestion is good, and my sleep is sweet and sound. Altogether, I am a new woman. I always recommend Paine's Celery Compound to my friends."

All Eyes on the Cape.

PETROIA, July 17.—Mr. Chamberlain, the British Colonial Secretary, recently asked for a copy of the new Bear Franchise bill, and an explanation of certain of the clauses. He also suggested that the debate on the measures in the Volksraad be postponed until he had studied the bill. President Kruger has called to him that the debate is already proceeding and could not be stopped, but friendly suggestions would be received. This is regarded as disappointing. Mr. Chamberlain's alleged belittling attitude, but it is impossible for him to make suggestions pending the receipt of a mailed copy of the bill, as he has admitted in the House of Commons that he did not comprehend its provisions.

LONDON, June 17.—The House of Commons is becoming daily more divided over the feeling ran-high during the question time, when the usual demand for information about troops and special officers going out to the Cape was made by Labouchere and Dillon. At last Arnold Foster asked whether the Under-Secretary of War intended answering all these questions regarding the movements of the troops, which were evidently put in the interest of the Queen's enemies. The Government cheerfully made a tremendous uproar among the Irish members, and cries of "Who are these enemies?" It was some time before order was restored, and then the question remained unanswered.

Although the attitude of Labouchere and Dillon is hardly patriotic, the Government policy is obviously to make the movement of troops as public as possible, since the only hope of averting war depends on convincing the Boer's of the Government's serious intentions.

Mr. Chamberlain stated that the estimate of the Uitlanders in the Transvaal today is 200,000. Of these, judging from the proportion in 1894, 150,000 are British subjects. In the gold fields English is theoretically allowed as a medium in instructing the children of Uitlanders, but more Dutch is being used daily, until practical Dutch is becoming the only medium. The Uitlanders were forced to subscribe $100,000 to get an English education in the schools for children. Small changes have been made in the Customs tariff, but the high taxes on food and other necessities are virtually unaltered. The full despatches from the Bloemfontain conference will be published immediately.

ST. JOHN LETTER.

A good deal of feeling has been created in St. John of late on the subject of Sabbath desecration. The tobacconists, most of whom are Jews, keep their places open for business on Sunday and a strong but ineffectual effort has been made to restrain them from doing so, while some of the druggists decline to sell anything but drugs on that day. It is difficult to understand why the tobacco stores should be kept open seven days in the week while the grocery stores and butcher shops are open only six; it certainly can be no greater hardship for a man to be compelled to lay in his Sunday supply of tobacco and cigars on Saturday than the potato and beef that are required for his Sunday dinner. Judge Churchill of Boston recently made a very equitable decision in a case of this kind. He said that when a person could not do business on Saturday on account of his religion, he could carry on his business on Sunday provided he did not disturb his neighbors by doing so. Our Jews, however, do not appear to have any religious scruples whatever for they do business on both Saturday and Sunday, and therefore Judge Churchill would close their places of business on the latter day.

The markets generally continue steady with few fluctuations in prices. Pork has advanced 50 to 75 cents and cornmeal 10 cents per barrel. Stocks of molasses in the market are light and arrivals in the near future are not anticipated; therefore prices are likely to advance. Baking soda, hitherto imported from England, is now arriving from the United States and is sold at $2 per keg.

Dewey's Welcome.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Dewey reception committee today agreed upon an outline of the programme. The arrangements provided for a water parade on the first day, a land parade on the second day in which 15,000 or 18,000 state troops will take part. President Little of the board of education sent a letter to the committee advising that the celebration be extended for three days, so as to permit the school children to parade. He said that children from all parts of the city would take part in the parade, and there would be others from different parts of the state. The request was not definitely acted upon, but was laid over for further consideration.

COOK'S SURE COUGH CURE.

SAD ACCIDENT. Drowning Accident on the Creek Sunday Afternoon.

The visit to Gagetown of the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club was brought to a sad termination on Sunday afternoon by the drowning of Robert Ferguson, of St. John, in the Gagetown Creek.

Mr. Ferguson came up here on the yacht Victoria and was out visiting the yacht Windward which he was part owner and while returning with the fatal accident. The following is the account of the accident as published in the St. John Sun of Monday:

Mr. Ferguson who was one of the most popular young men of the city, and head bookkeeper in the establishment of Emerson & Fisher, left yesterday morning on the Victoria for Gagetown, where he intended to join the yacht Windward of which he was part owner, and with his friends aboard her to finish the annual cruise. Arriving at Gagetown about one o'clock he with others boarded the Windward.

The remainder of the afternoon until the hour for service in connection with the annual sermon preached before the Yacht Club, was spent in practicing the hymns which were to be sung on that occasion.

About three o'clock the ladies of the yacht were taken ashore. They were followed by two boats, the first having on board Leslie White, W. W. White, the Windward's steward, and George Hamn. The second contained Robert Ferguson, who was rowing. Thos. Hay, Frank Watson, John McFarlane and George Boyd.

The boat was one of the light cedar skiffs which are used by the yachts as tenders. Rowing to the shore, the boat containing these five ran close to the yacht Kathleen, which was lying in the stream. As the row boat passed the bow of the yacht, the occupants of the former reached out and pushed themselves off. The boat thus shoved from the larger craft ran forcibly against her anchor ropes and was upset, and its five occupants were thrown into the water. Of the five Mr. Ferguson was the only swimmer.

The boat in which were seated Leslie White and the others turned and rowed to the spot. Four of the men were seen. Of these Messrs. Hay and Watson clung to the anchor line of the Kathleen and were taken aboard, while Mr. McFarlane was pulled into Mr. White's boat and Mr. Boyd was supported until a boat from the Vulcan reached the spot, and he was taken aboard. Mr. McFarlane was badly exhausted, but the others had received only a slight shock and a ducking, which in the case of Messrs. Hay and Watson was very bad, their heads having never gone under water.

But during this time constant watch was kept for Mr. Ferguson's reappearance, which, his powers of swimming being known, was confidently expected. W. W. White, William Harton and another gentleman from the city dove and began a search under water for the missing man. The stream at this place is about thirty feet deep and has an exceedingly muddy bottom, a fact which placed the divers at a great disadvantage, but they pluckily continued their efforts until exhausted.

The news of the accident quickly spread and reached the crowd gathered to hear the sermon just as they were singing the second hymn, Rock of Ages. Nearly everyone hurried to the shore, and Mr. Parker quickly closed the service.

Messengers were sent in different directions for grappling instruments. A set was sent from the Sunol, two sets were quickly manufactured aboard the Victoria and two at a neighboring blacksmith shop. Armed with these the searchers dragged the bottom of the river in the vicinity of the accident. For nearly half an hour their work was without result, but at four o'clock, just as the warning whistle of the Victoria was heard, Henry McIntyre caught the body with his grappling iron and brought it partly to the surface. But the hooks lost their hold, and the body sank back to the bottom. It was only for an instant. The location was now obtained, and Howard Holder caught the body with his irons and brought it safely up.

Permission was obtained to keep the Victoria waiting for a few minutes, and search was made for a coroner. No one was to be found, but a prominent resident of the place shouldered the responsibility of allowing the body to be taken to St. John.

It was a sad party on board the excursion steamer, and it was a sad ending of a happy yachting cruise. As the Victoria steamed down the river the flags on all the yachts were floated at half-mast and the sound of music and singing, which had before the accident been borne across the unruffled surface of the river, was now hushed and still. On board the steamer the one attempt of a party to lighten the gloom by music was a dismal failure.

At the Indiantown wharf the people began to gather shortly before seven o'clock to hear the sad details. For about an hour they waited, and many were the surmises and stories told. At about 8 o'clock the Victoria reached her berth, and after her passengers had been discharged, Coroner Berryman, who was in attendance, went on board and viewed the remains.

There were no bruises found on the body which would of themselves account for the fatal consequences of the accident. The left eye was badly out and the lid nearly torn off by one of the hooks of the grappling iron. It was evident that the body had first been caught there but had broken away and slipped to the water.

Coroner Berryman, after viewing the body, gave permission to have it taken to the undertakers, where it will be prepared for burial.

There are of course many surmises as to the reason why Mr. Ferguson never rose from the water until his body was brought to the surface by the grapplers. The fact that he was a magnificent swimmer makes the fact appear more strange. It is generally held that he came up, but in doing so struck his head either against the upturned rowboat or against the keel of the Kathleen with sufficient force to render him helpless and an easy victim to the water.

Acting on the supposition that he might have been entangled in the rowboat the first act of one of the divers, was to untangle it. It was evident to all that such could not have been the case. Mr. Ferguson was the son of the late John Ferguson, carpenter, of Wright street, who died last year, and he leaves a mother and one sister, Mrs. Chas. Drury. He was about thirty-one years of age, and had been for some time in the employ of Emerson & Fisher, by whom he was held in the highest esteem. He was a member of the B. and A. club, the Rod and Gun club, and of Union Lodge, No. 2, Knights of Pythias. He was well known throughout the city and liked by all.

When we offer goods lower than others, the goods never suffer in quality, but it is because we are willing to sacrifice a little cash for the sake of your company, on that we can afford to make the reduction on account of some special purchase on our part.

COOK'S SURE COUGH CURE.

The Reason He Changed Situations

"Did you hear the reason why I left my old employers," said a drummer the other day to a few friends. To this enquiry they all gathered around, fully expecting to hear a good story as "Tom," (famously called by his friends), tilted back in his chair.

"I answered an advertisement about a new book 'Light of Life,' as the title struck me very forcibly, and I found it contained the story of the New Testament, together with explanations of all the more difficult portions, thus being a complete Commentary. It also contains the complete lives of the Apostles; that this book was really two volumes in one, embellished with some of the best illustrations I ever saw. The stories of the Apostles were by the renowned sculptor, Thorwaldsen, these having been reproduced and published in connection with the Sixteen Masterpieces of the world-famous Blockbuster, Hofmann and Hahn engravings.

Knowing that not a family in a thousand had the lives of the Apostles or a Commentary, and that this book would have an enormous sale, and as my old employers could not hold out sufficient inducement to equal the offer of the Bradley-Garrington Co. Limited, I concluded to give up 'drumming,' and took hold of 'Light of Life.' I assure you friends this change was the wisest I ever made, and I shall never regret it. If you want to make money easy and fast, write their Bradford House for a position like mine.

Agents:—If you want to make $2.50 and expenses, daily, handle 'The Light of Life.' BRADLEY-GARRINGTON CO., Limited, BRANTFORD, ONT. Unfortunate Gold Seekers.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 22.—From a steamer just arrived here from Alaska it is learned that a passenger is on his way from Kotzebue bound to Washington in behalf of one thousand miners said to be stranded in the Kotzebue district. He will ask the government to send revenue cutters to Kotzebue Sound and is provided with proof that unless the government help is given many lives will be lost. Twelve hundred people went into the Kotzebue country well outfitted for the search of gold. Two hundred succeeded in getting over the snow last winter. Many died en route. There are now 1,000 people on the shore of the Sound, waiting for a chance to come home. No merchant vessels will run to that district this year, and the whalers which call in there for fresh water will not take passengers. If the miners had the means of getting home it is doubtful if they could buy their passage. Many of them have been sick with scurvy and are going to float down the several streams running into the Sound with the intention of waiting for government help.

FREE FIGHT.—For some time there has been bad blood between Timmons and Monahan boys of Patterson Settlement, Sunbury county, and on Saturday matters culminated in a vendetta. The Monahans came up to the Timmons place and invited the enemy out. The Timmons boys relied on their fists, but the Monahans were armed with clubs and knives. The result was that Geo. Timmons received a scalp wound by a blow from a club and John Timmons got a cruel stab in the arm with a knife in the hands of Billy Monahan. Dr. Murray dressed the wounded arm. Monahan is still at large.

Clarke, of the Waterloo street Free Baptist church. The deceased lady was visiting at the home of Mr. Gabriel Worden, Kars. Her husband died about two years ago. Mrs. Vanwart was a very estimable lady and during her residence in St. John made a great many friends, who will regret to hear of her sudden death.—Globe.

TRAGEDY AT OAK POINT.—A telephone message from Oak Point on Wednesday evening stated that there had been a drowning accident on the river, it mentioned no names. It was at first feared that there had been a disaster among the cruising yachts, but intelligence brought to this city this morning allayed this fear. The victim of the tragedy was Gordon Flewelling, the eight-year-old son of Mr. Robson E. Flewelling, of Oak Point. About three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon Mr. F. A. Peters, of St. John, went for a sail on the river in a yacht he had recently purchased, taking with him Gordon Flewelling. The little fellow was standing on deck and as the boat came in stays the main boom struck him, knocking him overboard. Mr. Peters tried to reach him, but in vain and the poor boy sunk after a brief struggle. Grappling irons were procured from town and search for the body is being prosecuted. No trace of it has as yet been found. Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling are overcome with grief at the loss of their boy, who was a general favorite with all who knew him.—Thursday's Globe.

Perry, Free Baptist minister of that circuit. They immediately left for Greenwich Hill, their future home.

FIRE.—The beautiful residence of Mrs. John R. Gillis, at Red Head, was burned to the ground early Friday morning, the fire resulting from a defective gas probably. The house was the old Gillis homestead, built by the late Mr. John R. Gillis. It had just been overhauled and painted. It was insured in the Royal office for $1,200. The furniture was saved, but some things destroyed.—Telegraph.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.—The buildings owned by Thomas Hetherington, ex-M. P., at Cady's station, were burned about eleven o'clock Friday night. It is supposed that they were struck by lightning, for the storm was raging when the fire was first seen. Before anyone could get to the building the fire had complete control and everything was lost. The lower part of the main building was used as a general country store. The upper part was used as an orange hall, and had been fitted up with furniture for that purpose by the Orangemen. Your correspondent interviewed one of the Orangemen this morning, and he said that that body lost all their paraphernalia and books, and besides that lost the only available place to meet. Mr. Hetherington told your correspondent that the building and stock were partially covered by insurance. He stated that he did not think he would rebuild there.—Sun.

FREDERICTON BUSINESS COLLEGE.—The Fredericton Business College is shortly to remove from its present quarters to the Pitts Block on York Street and when in his new apartments Principal Osborne may without egotism claim the most commodious, best appointed and finest appearing suite of Business College offices in the lower provinces. The offices occupy all of the third floor of the Pitts building and are reached by broad and easy stairways. The stairway lands in a large and splendidly lighted reception hall, which is steam heated and from which the several offices are entered. The cloak rooms and toilet apartments of the students, fitted up with marble wash basins and all modern and improved toilet conveniences, also open from the main hall. At the head of the stairs is the office of the Principal. At the left one enters the lecture room which is airy and light and splendidly fitted up. On the other side of the hall is the main study room extending the full length of the building and brilliantly lighted and well ventilated. The desks of the students occupy the length of the centre of the room and the Principal's desk is at the right side. At one end is located the bank, the fixtures of which are equal to those of any banking institution in the city. Separate and commodious apartments are provided and superbly furnished for short hand dictation and for type-writing practice. All the halls and offices are wainscotted in native spruce, finished in natural colors. Hardwood floors are laid upon the whole suite of offices and in the halls and stairways. The apartments are steam heated throughout and superbly lighted at night by acetylene gas. The Fredericton Business College has steadily prospered and grown since it was established several years ago, and it has been especially progressive and successful under the principality of Mr. W. J. Osborne. Students are attending the college from not only all sections of New Brunswick but as well from the other provinces and the United States. The College has done and is doing good work and it has outgrown its present quarters. Those which it is shortly to occupy will meet every requirement of convenience, facility and appointment.—Gleaner.

DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN.—Mr. Humphrey Gallagher, of Maquapit Lake, Queens Co., passed away quite suddenly yesterday afternoon, his death being caused by catarrh of the stomach. He was a son of Mr. John Gallagher, and was about twenty-two years of age.

IMPROVEMENT.—Mrs. Rubins is having a new roof put on her building on Main street. The old roof was a flat one and gave a great deal of trouble owing to its leaking. The new roof is a pitch roof and will be a great improvement not only in keeping out the rain but to the appearance of the building.

HOME FROM THEIR OUTING.—The party of city youths who had been tenting near Gagetown for the past ten days returned home on Saturday night. The weather was decidedly disagreeable during most of the time of the outing, yet the boys say that they had a fine time. The members of the party were Douglas Black, Otto Dever, James Dever, Don Winslow, Edw. Winslow and Val. Rabbit—Gleaner.

SUNDAY EXCURSION.—The following paragraph appeared in Tuesday's Sun's report of the yacht's cruise. Yesterday it was mentioned that the Sunday excursion was regretted by the chaplain and officers of the club; today "regretted" does not seem to express their feeling, indeed, would be difficult to find any words strong enough against it. The chaplain and club will not permit such a thing to happen again, and should no other means suffice the determination and arrangements for Sunday will be settled by the commodore and chaplain at the very last moment.

JENNIE DALTRY.

Rolf Carbridge had been out all the morning with his dogs and gun, and with his weary limbs stretched on the broad seat of the study window, was enjoying a rest and a cigarette, when his two sisters broke in upon him. "She's come, Rolf. Isn't it delightful? She's come!" "Who's she?" he demanded, sleepily. "The new cook?" "If that isn't just like a man," cried Myra, scornfully. "Their thoughts always fly to their creature comforts."

"After all, our own country is exceedingly picturesque," he observed. "We must take you to all the different points of view in this locality." Most young ladies would have been gushingly grateful for this promise, but Miss Daltry's thanks were frigid in the extreme. "You are very good, but it's too late in the year, isn't it, to see your woods and fields to perfection? I believe I shall prefer rambling about this nice, old-fashioned garden. Have you any roses still in bloom, Myra?" "A few; come and see them if you are not too tired," and away went the three girls, leaving Rolf without one of those wistful, inviting backward glances, which he was accustomed to have bestowed on him.

him more and more closely. His sisters came running to meet him; but Jennie was absorbed in a sketch she was making of a ruined chapel. He asked permission to inspect the sketch, which Myra declared, in a whisper, to be beautiful; but already the book was closed and slipped into its owner's pocket. "Excuse me, Mr. Carbridge, my father's are the only criticisms to which my efforts are ever subjected." "Then I must submit to be disappointed. Request me for the heroism with which I wrestle with my curiosity, by letting me show you the view from the top of the castle keep."

Correspondence. Spicy News Items Gathered by Gazette Correspondents Mouth of James. The weather during the past week has been very changeable, raining the greater part of the time. The hay season is at hand and many will commence this week. Many report the crop better in some places, others report it not so good as last year, but the hay crop in general throughout this county will be equally as good as last year.

The Dreyfus Muddle.

PARIS, July 10.—It is rumored that, as a result of the revelation of the inhuman cruelty practiced upon Dreyfus while on Devil's Island, M. Lebon, the minister who was responsible for the orders sent to the military authorities to confine Dreyfus in the penitentiary, will be proceeded against, the government not confining its action to yesterday's dismissal of Deniel. M. Bertillon, the handwriting expert who testified before the Court of Cassation that Dreyfus was the author of the Bordereau, still remains at the head of the Anthropometric department of the prefecture of police, but has been deprived of his official duties.

Breeding Fine Horses.

The breeding of fine horses, which has been largely neglected for a number of years, is receiving a wonderful impetus this season. Farmers have commenced to realize that the world of commerce cannot be moved without good horses, and the increasing domestic consumption and foreign demand must advance the price of horses suitable for the market. Many communities are commencing to take active interest in the subject, and in many local organizations performed for the purpose of purchasing prime breeding animals. This is a movement in the right direction, as the day for a scrub stock is past.

Give the Boy a Chance.

The farmer should certainly have better judgment than the inexperienced boy of the budding mustache. Which should then order affairs on the farm? This is not so easily answered as might appear on the surface. Considering simply as a money making enterprise, an experienced brain at the helm is certainly a proper thing. What should we think of the squire who turns over the helm to an inexperienced boy? Or to a lawyer who gives our case no personal attention and lets his inexperienced boy plan for our defence. We hire an expert to fix up our machinery, and he sends someone who is not posted in the matter. We kick. So when there is a difference of opinion between the farmer and his boy, the farmer naturally insists upon his own plans, for he has tested them, has longer experience and must suffer if things turn wrong, for there are bills to be met and taking ill-advised risks is wrong and adopting plans which his judgement disapproves looks foolish to him.

For all that we hold that the boy should have his own way part of the time. Raising boys is one part of it. Producing beef and bread and butter is farm work, but the reason of producing beef and bread and butter is to produce brain and brawn from it. The boy is of more consequence than all the other stock. As a colt needs training, so does the boy. Tying a colt behind a wagon is a poor way to train him. Tying the boy behind the wheels in his father's head is a poor way to train the boy. Both boy and colt need to understand that there are proper things to observe and improper things to get clear of, but neither can be educated without giving him the use of his own head. The boy's judgment needs exercising in order to develop it. Let him do some things as he thinks best, even if you feel positive you know a better way. The boy will learn in this way, and better than you can teach him by holding him in your well worn rut. And then again the boy may beat you and improve upon your own methods. Such things are not infrequent. Divide responsibility and honors with the boy. This is fair and it is part of wisdom.—E. B. Bennett in Hoard's Dairyman.

The Turnip Fly.

The Mark Lane Express speaks as follows from an English standpoint upon this question:

Some advise the use of forcing manures, such as nitrate of soda and soot, but it is doubtful whether these have any effect at the time when wanted, unless applied along with the seed. The chief objection to applying nitrate in that way is the great danger that it may be washed out of the soil before the turnips come up, but much regard need not be had to this consideration, for the application should be very limited quantity, and if much rain falls and continues long, the turnips will come up, even though the nitrate vanishes. Soot is an admirable manure, and it is said that it helps to deter the fly, even if sown with the seed. If any top-dressing is applied to force growth, soot is, perhaps, the best that can be used, but it should be applied in the early morning before the dew is off. A very good dressing is that known as "Hobb's Mixture," consisting of one bushel fresh gas-lime, one bushel fresh ordinary lime, six pounds sulphur, and ten pounds soot, well mixed together and reduced to powder. This should be applied in the early morning while the dew is on the young plants, and it may be broadcasted or sprinkled down the drills. The quantity named will do two acres. A dressing of soot, as already stated, is also very useful, but probably it will ultimately be found that the best remedy is a light spraying with paraffine by pneumatic action, by means of the Strawsonier or some similar machine. At the present time use might be made of the machinery employed in the charcoal spraying experiments, and probably with at least equally good results.

Farnips for Cows

There is no better root for cows than farnip. It has the advantage that part of the crop may, if seed be, be wintered in the ground where it has grown. The farnip, unlike the beet, makes a rich milk. It is equal to the carrot in this respect and undoubtedly, like that root, helps to color winter made butter. Farnips are a favorite winter feed of Jersey and Guernsey farmers, who by its use have been able to breed cows whose high butter color has become hereditary in these breeds. No doubt the farnip feeding is in part responsible for the color of Jersey butter.

COOK'S ANODYNE LINIMENT.

Butter Making.

The keynote of success in dairy butter making is cleanliness. Cleanliness not only in the utensils which come in contact with the milk, cream and butter, but cleanliness in the water that the cow drinks, the food that she eats and the stable in which she is kept, cleanliness all along the line from the start to the time the butter leaves the dairy, including the place where the butter salt is kept and the place where the butter is held awaiting marketing. Cows, milk, cream, butter, water and butter salt are all susceptible to bad odors, and if any one of them comes in contact with offensive odors the result will be seen in the finished butter.

Dairy Notes.

Increased attention must now be given to the aeration and cooling of the milk intended for the cheese factory and creamery. Dog days will soon be here and with them must come special care in the dairy department. Keep everything scrupulously clean and don't be afraid to spend a few minutes in airing and cooling the milk.

Now that the prods in the pasture are filled with rain water you will have to be careful in a few days that it does not get stagnant and unfit for the cows. The only thing to do is to either fence off those pools or give the cows all the good water you can get them to drink before you turn them out. These stagnant pools will positively ruin milk for cheese making.

A private letter from Boston says: This has been an exceptionally rainless season in New England, hardly has there been a shower of beneficial duration since the advent of April, and lawns and grass plots are turning brown; flowers, robbed of their wonted fragrances, drooping and withered on the stalk by the parching drought. Farmers all over the country are complaining of the baneful effect on the crops, and the prayers and faith of the olden time prophesied are now needed. With the temperature hovering about the nineties, it is no wonder that hundreds are daily turning their backs on the stifling, stagnant air of Boston and betaking themselves to seaside cottages and shady woods. The exodus to Europe continues unabated and the steady ship service to the provinces, is taxed beyond the ordinary.—Montreal Exporter.

A Great Queen.

Mrs. Mary Wright Sewall, the American lady president of the International Woman's Association, who was with the Queen at Windsor Castle last week, said: "The Queen looked 10 years younger than when I saw her 10 years ago. Every line in her face displayed serenity, sweetness and pleasure. She looked as each full in the eyes with a quick, keen glance. Her voice is melodious, and there is a total absence of certain lines of the mouth shown in most photographs of her, indicating disdain. The whole bearing of her majesty was a symbol that she, who has governed the mightiest of empires for 63 years, has finally recognized intuitively that she crowns her work in recognizing the claims of her sex to equal rights with man. With what womanly pride we joined in the anthem 'God Save the Queen.' The impression we all carried away of the greatest woman of the century was of strong intellect governing fine and womanly sentiment."

Pineapple Juice—Grate ripe pineapples and press out the juice, measure and to each pint allow half a pound of sugar. Heat the juice; add sugar, boil a moment, bottle, seal and keep in a dark place.

Almond Iceing.—Cover a fruit cake with almond paste, then cover over with royal iceing, made by stirring into the uncooked whites of eggs confectioner's sugar, using about half a pound to each white. Beat very hard.

Silver Drip Syrup.—The best and cheapest syrup for cakes is made at home. To make a gallon of syrup take five pounds of sugar, add one quart of hot water. Set on the back of the stove and boil slowly. When thoroughly melted, pull the kettle forward where it will boil. After the syrup has boiled ten minutes rapidly remove it from the fire, and when cool put in a demijohn for use. A proportion of maple syrup may be added if desired.

COOK'S SURE COUGH CURE.

Great Copper Discovery.

TORONTO, July 10.—The World this morning announces that copper of almost incredible richness has been found within two miles of Parry Sound and within a mile of the Ottawa and Parry Sound Railway. The deposit has been known for years, but its extent and richness were only recently discovered by the American Mining Expert Forbes. He formed a company of St. Paul capitalists and from six cartloads of ore they have cleared $7,000. Another company of Americans and Canadians has been formed which has purchased all the claims not held by the first. It is predicted the operations of these two companies will prove as rich as the great Anaconda itself.

Some time during last spring the gentlemen who were expecting, what is usually a gratuity in the shape of Road Money, were a little surprised when the Road List was sent to other men.

In the North Forks division Mr. Mullin served the Road tax papers, while some time after Elias Knox sold the repairing of the roads. Now after part of the roads have been repaired it transpires that some person or persons unknown have drawn the grant in Mr. Knox's name.

The result is seen in the somewhat lengthened faces of a few too sanguine men.

Cambridge.

July 22.—The grass in this section of the country has not been as good for years as it is this year and the outlook for the hay crop is very encouraging.

Owing to the wet weather the early potatoes are rotting.

Mrs. Matilda Wilson and her son Walter, of St. John, are stopping at Mr. James Robinson's.

Mrs. Straight, Miss Ida M. Straight and Harry B. Straight, of Boston, are stopping at their summer residence at Central Cambridge.

Mrs. Fred S. Belyea, accompanied by her son and daughter, Master Fred and Miss Florence are the guests of Mrs. Rachel Belyea and family.

Mrs. Slips and daughter, of West End, spent a week with Mrs. Slipp's daughter Mrs. George L. Colwell.

Miss Clara Colwell is spending a few days with Miss Stella Colwell of Lowell Cambridge.

Queens Co. District Lodge convened in Quarterly session with Queens Own Lodge in the Temperance Hall at Cambridge on the 11th inst.

On account of the small number of representatives being present from the different Lodges there was no session held in the forenoon. At 2:30 o'clock P. M. the session opened with Geo. A. Wilson D. T. in the chair, with a fair representation from the different Lodges. After the opening ceremonies had been gone through, the first in order was the election of a District Sec. to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Bro. Hazen Starkey. Miss Susie J. Gilchrist was unanimously elected to fill the office of District Sec. for the remainder of the year.

On motion it was resolved that Miss Susie J. Gilchrist and Bro. A. B. McDonald be appointed a committee to write a letter of condolence and forward it to the mother of our late Bro. Hazen Starkey, D. S.

After a lengthy session the lodge closed, at 7:30 P. M., to meet again on the 23rd of Sept.

Owing to the late hour of the afternoon session closing, the public meeting in the evening, in connection with the District Lodge, did not open until a late hour.

The chair at the public meeting was occupied by Geo. A. Wilson. Geo. White presided at the organ. After singing "Throw out the Life Line" Rev. A. B. McDonald read the scriptures and offered prayer, which were followed by singing and speeches by Rev. A. B. McDonald and others, and a reading by Ralph Coe.

The meeting closed with the Benediction by Rev. A. B. McDonald.

Summer Hill.

July 22.—Most of the farmers in this vicinity have begun haying but very little has been housed yet owing to the wet weather. The crop will be above the average.

The blueberry season is here again and the shippers are engaging their pickers. Among the gentlemen thus engaged may be mentioned Messrs. Woods and Lingler, C. J. Cooper and J. H. Dale. The latter has leased a valuable lot of berry land from Mr. John Armstrong, jr.

Mr. James Lawton who was doing the carpenter work on Mr. John Doolan's house returned to St. John on Tuesday last. Mr. Doolan's house now presents a neat and attractive appearance.

Mr. A. M. Corbett is erecting a large barn this summer. It will be 30 x 100 feet and when completed will be one of the best in the parish.

Rev. N. C. Hansen preached his farewell sermon here on Sunday morning last. Mr. Hansen has made a host of friends during his nine years stay in the parish, and leaves with the respect of the entire community and good will of all denominations.

Some of the heaviest thunder showers of the season passed over here yesterday evening.

The estate of the late William McGaw of the Parish of Hamstead was sold at public auction on Tuesday 18th inst. Mr. George Corbett of St. John was the purchaser.

There are quite a number of summer visitors here now. Mrs. Wm. Corbett of Woodstock is visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Hawshaw.

Rev. Arthur Paul and Mrs. Paul, of Augusta, Me., are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kerr.

Mrs. Geo. T. Corbett and children, of St. John, are visiting Mrs. Corbett's parents Mr. and Mrs. James Hastings.

Mrs. Edward Broomer of St. John, is visiting Mrs. T. Dale.

Mrs. Samuel Wilson of Carleton, is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corbett and daughters, Miss May, Miss Arvie, Mrs.

Highfield.

The crops here are looking well. The hay in some places is much better than last year; a few of the farmers are beginning to cut it, but the weather is so changeable that they dare not cut too large an area at one time.

The annual picnic in connection with the Episcopal church of this place was held on the beautiful grounds of William M. Pearson, on Tuesday 18th inst., and was in every respect the most successful one held for a number of years. The sports were pronounced by all as an improvement on those of last year.

The hurdle races and tug-of-war attracted a great deal of attention. The latter prize was won by the team led by George R. Pearson. The merry-go-round managed by D. M. Pearson seemed to be the centre of attraction, and did a rushing business till 10:30 that night. The proceeds of the picnic amounted to $102.00.

Miss Emily Pearson who has been spending the summer in Providence, R. I., is spending her vacation with her parents in Highfield.

Mrs. Thos. Pearson is visiting her son in Bangor, Me.

Rev. C. A. S. Warnford has returned from the Synod meeting in Chatham.

Union Settlement.
July 20th, 1899.

To EDITOR QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE.
Allow me space in your welcome paper to answer, or reply to, the public and more so to the active, energetic correspondent of Bellenden. I notice in your 19th issue, Bellenden, dated July 10th, "seven Union Settlement which has been behind is represented." Now I wish to say we are ahead of Bellenden in every respect. We can furnish 4 agents, 2 sea captains, 5 carpenters, 1 engineer, 1 mason, 2 boss lumbermen, 2 young ladies now ready for the Normal School and one celebrated Hunter and others too numerous to mention, so even Union Settlement has a back-bone when they come to test them. We have the most picturesque located settlement in the Dominion. If Mr. Blair holds his position he has promised a railroad and a cheese factory, which no doubt we will have in a short time, even Union Settlement.

Lynching in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, July 21.—A despatch from Tallulah, La., says six Italians were lynched there last night. Yesterday Mr. Hodges, a prominent physician, quarrelled with an Italian. The latter secured a revolver and mortally wounded Dr. Hodges. The shooting created great excitement. A mob immediately captured the would-be assassin and five of his friends and strung them all up to trees and riddled them with bullets.

LATER: A special to the Item from Tallulah confirms the story of the lynching but places the number at five. It says: Dr. Hodges, a leading physician was murdered last night. Five Italians, Charles, James and Frank Defatto, S. Fuceto, and John Gerano, were lynched this morning on suspicion. Many people condemn the lynching. The grand jury has been convened in special session to investigate the affair.

Stricken with Paralysis.

OTTAWA, July 21.—Hon. Peter Mitchell had a stroke of paralysis this morning as he was approaching the House of Commons. He staggered and fell just as he reached the long flight of steps leading up from the square to the level of the parliament buildings. It was about eleven o'clock. Dr. McLennan, M. P., was the first to reach him. He ordered a cab and had Mr. Mitchell sent to his home where a medical consultation was held. Later this afternoon the condition of the patient was serious. At eleven to-night Mr. Mitchell was reported to be a little better but the case is still serious.

Lost His Life.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Raymond Corcoran, 14 years old, risked his life before a crowd to save Oscar Anderson, 18 years old, from drowning and lost. The boys perished together before a throng of pleasure seekers standing on the beach at Lincoln Park. Anderson, who was just learning to swim, had ventured too far, when he sunk. As he rose to the surface he cried for help. Corcoran, who is a good swimmer, was far in shore and shouting encouragement to the struggling boy in the water, hurried to his assistance. Corcoran caught him around the neck. He made but a few strokes, when he threw up his hands with a cry and both sank from sight. Park Policemen Steiger, who had heard the cries of the people on shore, hurried to the scene in a row boat. He was too late. The two swimmers came up for the third time looked in each other's arms, but sank again for the last time.

Hardwood Ridge.

A number of young men from Salmon Creek and elsewhere generally make a habit of coming to this place to test the speed of their would-be-trotters. Owing to the level nature of the country the roads are very favorable for such competitions.

Sunday night while one of those trials were in progress, Mr. Wm. Watson's horse, running at a great rate of speed, dashed into a group of pedestrians. The result was Mrs. John Kadey was struck and knocked violently to the ground, and James Brown, an instant later, was struck in the face with one of the shafts of the wagon, knocked down, his watch broken and face and throat cut and mangled by the wheels and the horse. Mr. Brown was unconscious for a long time but is now improving.

The accident probably would not have happened had not two carriages been racing side by side.

One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. 50 cents and $1.00, at any Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Kars.

Perhaps some of your readers would like to hear from this section of the country, this is a charming place at this season of the year, no pleasanter drive can be made by the pleasure seeker than through the parish of Kars.
