Near East Events Approaching Climax

Reuter Reports Abdication of Sultan of Turkey.

British Cabinet Regards Situation Increasingly Critical—Angora Assembly Will Not Agree to Cessation Hostilities—Irish Republican Leaders Hold Diverse Views.

SULTAN ABDICATED. LONDON, Sept. 28. The Sultan of Turkey has abdicated, according to a Reuter despatch from Constantinople by way of Paris.

TURKS OCCUPY WHOLE NEUTRAL ZONE. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 28. The Turkish Nationalists have occupied the whole of the neutral zone on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles with the exception of the Chanak area, where the British are entrenched.

APPROACHING A CLIMAX. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 28. Events are surely approaching a climax. The Turks have occupied the whole neutral zone on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles with the exception of the Chanak area around which they have established infantry units in a semi-circle, virtually investing the British lines. British reinforcements are reaching here and the threatened area. The upper-dreadnaughts Revenge and Resolution, the most powerful fighting machines afloat, have arrived at the Dardanelles with a battalion of the North Staffordshires and one thousand men of the British Air Forces landed to-day and marched through Constantinople with bands playing. The Turkish instructions to the men in the Chanak sector are to advance the farthest possible without meeting resistance. They are now practically against the British entrenchments and obviously the situation cannot be indefinitely prolonged.

SITUATION INCREASINGLY CRITICAL. LONDON, Sept. 28. At the close of this afternoon's meeting of the cabinet it was stated that the situation was regarded as increasingly critical. A third meeting will be held this evening.

ANGORA'S DECISION. LONDON, Sept. 28. An Exchange Telegraph despatch from Paris gives a report that the Angora Assembly in secret session, decided to notify Kemal Pasha that it was unable to agree to any cessation of hostilities or participation in the peace conference until the restoration to Turkey of all its territories in accordance with the National pact.

FRENCH SHIPPING HELD UP. PARIS, Sept. 28. One-third of the shipping of Marseilles is held up through the refusal of seamen to embark unless the eight hour day is assured. Eight thousand passengers are stranded without lodgings.

THE RED LOCAL STILL DISSATISFIED. SYDNEY, N.S., Sept. 28. Phalen local, U.M.W., at New Aberdeen, is attempting to have a resolution adopted in District 26 rejecting the new wage contract recently negotiated on the grounds that the contract was forced upon the men under the lash of hunger, military despotism and threats of the Provincial Government that the pumps would be manned under armed guards with authority to intimidate the miners. It is evident that the majority are against the resolution and that the contract will be signed.

SUMMER WEATHER ON PRAIRIES. WINNIPEG, Sept. 28. The Prairie Provinces are experiencing an extraordinary return of summer weather, with temperatures ninety-six at Saskatoon and ninety-four at Moose Jaw. The lowest maximum temperature of seventy-two was recorded at Calgary.

NEW KING OF THE HELLENES. ATHENS, Sept. 28. Crown Prince George was sworn in King of the Hellenes on Wednesday afternoon.

THE FRENCH POLICY. PARIS, Sept. 28. France's policy in the Near East as laid down in the note sent Kemal jointly with the other Allies has not been modified by the revolt in Greece. It was announced officially to-day after a cabinet meeting. The French representative to the Nationalists will see Kemal at Smyrna to-day or tomorrow and use every effort to persuade the Nationalist leader from taking any action in Thrace until the intentions of the Greek Government are clearly established. Fear is expressed that if Greece begins plans for the defence of Thrace the Angora Assembly will refuse to accept the Allied terms.

DISASTROUS EXPLOSION IN ITALIAN PORT. SPERZA, Sept. 28. The number of dead is feared to reach one hundred and forty-four in the explosion to-day at Falconara Fort on the Gulf of Genoa, near here, according to available lists. Seven hundred have been seriously injured.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS HAVE SERIOUS DIFFERENCES. DUBLIN, Sept. 28. Eamonn de Valera, leader of the Republican forces, and Liam Lynch, chief of the staff of the Republican army, have parted, according to extracts from correspondence seized by the Free State forces and read by General Mulcahy, Commander of the National Army, in the session of Dail Eireann yesterday. These extracts disclosed there were serious differences of opinion between the irregular leaders.

FORD AS PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. BAY CITY, Mich., Sept. 28. A proposal to endorse Henry Ford for the Presidency of the United States, was prepared for presentation to the resolutions committee of the Democratic State convention here to-day.

THE PACKAGE.

I know not when my leg may break, entailing anguish sharp; I know not when my back may ache, so I can't play my harp. To-day I walk with buoyant tread, I dance around the floor; I cannot see an hour ahead, I know not what's in store. The world is full of gins and snares, our health and joy to mar; I may fall down a flight of stairs, or fall to dodge a car. A sandbag from an airship high may land upon my dome, while weeping peelers hear me cry, "Proud world, I'm going home." Tomorrow, if I'm still alive, I may be reeked by pain, while skillful barbers strive to give relief in vain. I know not what a day may bring to this poor life of mine; so fondly to this thought I cling—I have a wad in brine. If I must cease to pay my lyre and whang out helpful tunes, I will not face a famine dire, I still can buy my prunes. And if perchance the sexton plants my form beneath a tree, you will not see my waiting saints beseeching charity. And so it is with proper pride I tell myself, at times, "Whatever trouble may betide, I have some pickled dimes. No evil I anticipate, but if the luck should turn, I have about a hundredweight of pennies in the churn."

Daylight Saving.

STANDARD TIME ON SUNDAY.

On Sunday next the Anderson Daylight Saving Scheme, will cease for 1922 and from thence until old Sol returns and the long days of 1923 begin, standard time will be the rule. At eleven o'clock Sunday night, time pieces will be put back one hour. Those not prone to early rising will appreciate the benefit of the Daylight Bill all the more when they realize on Monday morning that they have an hour for an extra snooze.

Ears to Reappear.

WOMEN'S PARTED HAIR NOW THE FASHION.

Fashion has decreed that women are to show their ears again. For several seasons past the fashionable woman although she may have shown her ankles, has hidden her ears with fluffy "side-whiskers." "Ears will be small this winter," said a noted English dress designer. "Hair must be parted in the centre and taken back as closely as possible, and without waving to the back of the head where it is worn in a distinct bun. The line of the face will be lengthened by long drop earrings." In other words, the fashionable coiffure will be that worn by Miss Gladys Cooper in "The Second Mrs. Tanderay."

Miss Messie Abandon in "East of Suez" wears her hair in a modified form of the new style, and Miss Marie Lohr conforms to it by having "a small head" and showing her ears, though she softens the outline by allowing a loose wave at the side. Poets may rejoice that they can again sing the praises of what has ever been regarded as one of woman's chief charms—her shell-like ear.

STEAMER GEMMA SEIZED OFF NEW YORK WHILE ON VOYAGE FROM HALIFAX FOR HAVANA IS RELEASED BY U.S. COURTS.

The small British steamer Gemma, liquor-laden, which was seized by United States Prohibition customs off Montauk Point, N.Y., on August 21, has been released by the U. S. Courts and is resuming her voyage to Havana, according to advices received by W. C. Acker, Collector of Customs, Saturday morning. Her cargo of about three thousand cases of liquor was consigned to Havana and the Nova Scotia Export and Import Co., who shipped it, deposited a bond with the Canadian Customs to the amount of $100,000 that the cargo would be landed at Havana. When the vessel was seized it appeared that this bond would be forfeited, but with her release the bond continues to be binding until word comes of her landing her cargo at Havana.

The Gemma sailed from Halifax on August 22 with the three thousand cases of liquor and with Havana as her destination. Nothing further was heard of her until September 1st when word came of her seizure off Montauk Point at the same time that an excursion boat with a floating bar was captured by the U.S. dry forces. The trawler was taken into New York and the case came up in the U.S. Courts with the result that the Gemma was released to resume her voyage.

The cargo in the Gemma's holds was bottled in Halifax by the Nova Scotia Export and Import Company, it being liquor that had been brought to Halifax in bond from the United States for that purpose. The Gemma changed her registry while in Halifax. She arrived here on August 15 in ballast from Boston and was then known as the Mantoue. While here her name was changed to Gemma and she was registered in Montreal.

Captain George D. Joyce, of New York, late of Liverpool, England, brought the steamer to Halifax and was in command when she left here for Havana. The same crew who brought the steamer here left with her.

At the time the Gemma left Halifax there were various reports in circulation along the waterfront as to the ownership of the cargo, one being to the effect that the cargo had changed hands during the time the steamer was held here awaiting her permit to sail to arrive from Ottawa. —Morning Chronicle, Sept. 25.

U. S. Elimination Race.

PROSPECTIVE STARTERS.

Preparations for the Fishermen's Race off Gloucester on October 12 and 13 next, to select a challenger for the trophy won by the Lunenburg "Bluenose" last year, are now in progress, and within the week some of the fastest schooners of the New England North Atlantic fishing fleet will be overhauled and put in readiness for the trial races, which will be the challenge Gloucester has schooner Henry Ford, commanded by Captain Clayton Morrissey who is well known in Newfoundland. Boston still stands behind the Mayflower, whose skipper will be J. Henry Larkin of Somerville. Gloucester will also enter the big knockabout schooner Elizabeth Howard. Capt. Marty Welsh has consented to handle the Howard in the trials. Schooner 211, which is another entrant, not so much for a winner but just for the sport of the thing, Boston has a second aspirant for cup honors in the schooner Yankee, Capt. M. J. Brophy. The L. A. Dunton, new last year, will be at the starting line with Capt. F. J. Hogan at the wheel. Other schooners that may participate are the America of Gloucester; Progress of Provincetown, and Flora L. Oliver of Gloucester. The Canadian Government has appropriated $5000 to defray expenses of preparing a defender for the international race. The U.S. Government has not made any appropriation for the American challenger, therefore a fund has to be raised through public subscription.

Nine Airmen Killed.

WHEN AMERICAN BOMBING PLANE CRASHES TO THE EARTH.

Minneapolis, N.Y., Sept. 24.—First Lieut. Raymond E. Davis, United States Army Air Service, and eight enlisted men were killed when a huge Martin bombing plane crashed to the earth at Mitchell Field last night.

"Soon after leaving the field," a report said, "the plane passed out of the rays of the huge searchlights which had been arranged and used in the night air manoeuvres. The plane approached a steep angle, and then suddenly went into a nose dive.

"There were no lights on the plane as it fell. The crash occurred some distance from the field."

The Price of Fish.

Why rave, brother Advocate, over this matter. Is not the price of fish what Coaker makes it? For years this declaration has been dinned into the ears of fishermen in an attempt to boost the political and other fortunes of the Wordy President. When, during the years of war, the price of fish was at its maximum we were not daily told that Coaker made it so. Then if the high prices were due to any action on his part, it must follow analogically that he is responsible for the present prevailing low price. The manner in which the Advocate slops over on the current price of fish would make a gargyle put on a broader grin than is usually depicted on its countenance: The price of fish is what Coaker makes it, and therefore to that gentleman must be attributed the cause of the decline. Let the fishermen ponder this. Let them think over the boast of Mr. Coaker during the days of prosperity that the price of fish was what he made it. To make this boast good and to prove his influence in foreign markets, let him come to the rescue now and make a price for fish, which all other dealers will be compelled to meet if they are not to fall down on their contracts. If Mr. Coaker made the price of fish in the years from 1915 to 1919, why cannot he do the same to-day? It is only for him to make that statement in his newspaper now, as formerly, and who will be so credulous as to doubt it. But times change and Mr. Coaker and the Advocate change with them, according as it suits their book.

The Advocate contends that since the removal of the notorious—only our contemporary does not use that adjective—Fish Regulations the price of fish has continued to drop. Erroneous argument. How did it happen that in the fall of 1920 when those same Regulations were in the fullness of blossom, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars had to be extracted from the Treasury to satisfy the demands of Northern fishermen. Was the price of fish then what Coaker made it, when he saddled the people of the South and West with a burden of debt incurred by him in his vain efforts to placate his Northern cohorts? How did it happen that the Regulations failed to make provision for the slump which occurred at that period. Again it might be asked why were the Regulations rescinded if they were of such potential if not actual value? The Government was all powerful and the puissant Minister was not likely to permit himself to be dragged into strangling his pet legislative child. Yet the Government lifted this abominable law, whether with the consent of the parent or not, and ever since the Advocate has been expending itself in lachrymose sympathy for the departed. The effort made by the Regulations to set the price at which our fish should be sold to the consumer has caused untold suffering in Newfoundland, suffering to which the end is not yet. But still the Advocate, with a persistence worthy a better cause shrieks to high heaven that we cut ourselves adrift from financial salvation when the moorings of the Fish Regulations were severed. When the Government attempted to impose fixed prices in foreign markets, what happened? Other competitive countries cut their prices and Newfoundland lost both orders and customers. Dictating to the consumer is dangerous. Brazil has tried it with coffee, but eventual results are being doubted because artificial prices for Brazilian coffee have benefited other countries. And so the tale could be carried on. But the argument laid down in the good times was the price of fish is what Coaker makes it. Let him come to the rescue now and fix a price that will be proof of his ability to control the laws of supply and demand, otherwise let the Advocate cease its ravings and become rational. We might get far away from fish and ask our brother of Duckworth Street: what about Sugar? In conclusion we suggest that the Advocate fishgraphists read the first verse of the second Psalm—Authorized version.

Tennis Over.

WAS SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

The tennis season is now over as the weather has become too cold for play. The Courts of the Newfoundland Tennis Club and the Methodist Club were in use until the coming of the cold weather. The latter's courts are now closed to all, outside the pupils of the College, among whom are some hardened spirits who play despite the cold. Next year there will probably be an inter-town tennis series, and which would greatly increase the very keen interest now taken in the ancient game.

Gunning Accident.

MAN LOSES FINGER.

While out on the hunting grounds during the week, a sportsman allowed his gun to slip through his hand, with the result that as the muzzle was covered by his index finger, the gun discharged and the finger was completely blown off. Some of the other fingers of the hand were hurt, but otherwise the man was uninjured. He was attended by a doctor who bound up the injured member.

FIRST AID LECTURE.

The first of Capt. Burden's lectures on First Aid was given in the schoolroom at the C.L.B. Armoury last night to the right half of A. Company. The course will consist of about five lectures and one will be given on Thursday nights. Efforts are now being made to fix up the shooting range and practice will probably commence next week.

Meigle Storm Bound.

S.S. Meigle is still storm bound on the Labrador Coast. The following mail conference was received from her last night by the Ried Newfoundland Co: "Still anchored Southeast; conditions unchanged. Attempted to make Grady to-day, but had to retreat. It is impossible to do anything until storm breaks."

The High Commissioner.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SLATED FOR POSITION.

It was currently reported to-day that the office of High Commissioner for Newfoundland in London, a position which has attractions for many of our past and present politicians, will be given to Hon. W. R. Warren, K.C., who is now in London in connection with that "Lawyers' Eldorado", the Labrador Boundary Question. The rumour is given colour by the fact that Mr. Warren will not venture to contest the district of Fortune again.

Mayo's Stand.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP.

The business conducted by Mr. Mayo on the "Beach" changed hands yesterday, the owner disposing of his interests to Mr. T. Nurse. The former owner, who has successfully conducted this stand for quite a number of years, is retiring from business.

The Meeting of Collectors in connection with Belvidere Oratory called for next Sunday, is indefinitely postponed. The Mother Superior and Sisters are deeply grateful for assurances of support so freely given, but it is felt that further consideration of the matter in hand will be more advisable at a later date.—sept28,21

"The Blot."

A HUMAN-HEART STORY BIGGER THAN "HUMORESQUE."

"The Blot," Lois Weber's greatest cinema triumph, which opens Monday at the Majestic Theatre, is a picture with a human-heart story that is bigger than "Humoresque" and other productions of that type.

Professor Griggs is endeavoring to keep his wife and daughter with food and shelter on the scant salary provided for his services at one of the foremost schools of the country, where sons of the idle rich spend their days in the classroom and nights in the cabarets, buying illicit liquor that costs more per bottle than the old professor makes in a week.

His daughter, Amelia, ill and undemourished, accepts a position in the Public Library. It is there that she meets Phil West, one of the professor's most troublesome pupils, on a rainy afternoon. With the bottom of her shoes worn out, she accepts West's invitation to ride home in his touring car. Upon arrival at the Griggs home, West awakens and realizes the injustice wrought upon the old professor. He appeals to his father, a trustee of the college, for a raise in Griggs' salary. West is desperately in love with Amelia. He organizes a night class for the professor and is successful in obtaining the pledge of his classmates that they will start in to study.

"The Blot" is released by the F. B. Warren Corporation.

Sir Eric Geddes.

It is reported in railway circles that Sir Eric Geddes has been offered the chairmanship of the Canadian National Railways. Sir Eric's appointment would be welcomed, as there is considerable feeling against importing another American, though it is understood that the appointment was first offered to an American who refused.

In May Sir Eric joined the board of directors of Dunlops.

The Fall Session of the Supreme Court opens on Monday next and summons for the attendance of a new Grand Jury have been issued. The original term of the Court begins on the 16th inst., and continues until the 21st.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

FEDERALS AND REBELS CLASH.
EL PASO, Sept. 29.
Sixteen were killed and several wounded near Providencia, Chihuahua, yesterday, between Rebels headed by General Hernandez and Federal troops.

ROYAL BETROTHAL.
TOKIO, Sept. 29.
Crown Prince Hirohito, who is engaged to the Mikado, Ruler of Japan, has been betrothed formally to Princess Naka.

VENIZELOS CONSIDERING.
PARIS, Sept. 29.
Venizelos returned from Deauville to-day, and went into a conference with friends and political associates at his hotel, where it is understood he will consider what reply to make to a Revolutionary Committee, inviting him to represent Greece at a Peace Conference of Allied countries.

ARMY AND NAVY IN CHARGE.
ATHENS, Sept. 29.
Crown Prince George has taken the oath as King George, and pending the formation of a new ministry, Greece is governed by two officers, representing the army and navy. Athens continues quiet, perfect order being maintained everywhere.

ON THREE SIDES.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.
With their backs to the Straits British forces at Chanak now look out on three sides upon the forces of Mustafa Kemal, who by recent incursions, have completed occupation of the Neutral Zone, in defiance of Britain's ultimatum. British are confident they can hold lines against any Kemalist attacks, as their flanks are protected by the powerful long range guns of a fleet of warships.

EUROPE FEARS WAR.
LONDON, Sept. 29.
Grave fears of general warfare in Europe as a result of the Near East crisis are occupying the minds of British official circles. It was stated this morning in authoritative quarters. These fears are based upon the relations known to exist between the Angora Government and Soviet-Russia. "The issue of war or peace hung by a slender thread this morning, and there is no relief from the tension existing yesterday."

ONE DAY WILL TELL.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.
General Harrington, commander of the British in the Dardanelles, plans to leave this afternoon for a conference with Kemal Pasha, probably at Mudania on the Sea of Marmora. British are confident that if the next 24 hours pass without a clash between troops at Chanak, all immediate danger of hostilities will have been avoided.

DREAD OF WAR.
LONDON, Sept. 29.
Consensus of editorial opinion this morning, is that the Near East situation is as bad as it can be short of actual warfare. Reports of Turkish cavalry activity, and the encompassing of British at Chanak breed a dread that open warfare will ensue before negotiations are completed.

Egyptians Want Constitution

TO PROTECT MINORITIES.

CAIRO, Egypt.—There are two important questions uppermost in Egyptian politics at the present time, the representation of minorities in Parliament and the future of the Sudan. The new constitution makes no provision for the former, and vigorous protests are being heard from the Copts, the largest Egyptian religious minority; the Syrians and the Jews, who all demand full guarantees and the right to be represented in the government. The country is divided into two camps. One side argues that the representation of minorities within the boundaries of Egypt, and gave Fued the title of the King of Egypt and of the Sudan. To offset this, Lord Allenby, the British High Commissioner, went to Khartoum, capital of the Sudan. Here he met a group of 30 Sheikhs of Sudanese tribes who, according to the reports given out of the conference, took advantage of the occasion to express their loyalty to the British government, and at the same time asked for assurances that they would never be placed under British rule. Some Egyptian newspapers accuse England of insincerity in this move. They allege that the Sheikhs were coerced into false expressions of loyalty, and otherwise attack England's methods and motives.

The British attitude in the Sudan matter has not yet been made clear, the question being reserved for future discussion with the Egyptian government. British silence has led to Egyptian deductions, which are that England ultimately contemplates the Sudan a Sultanate separated from Egypt; appointing one of the sons of the Mahdi to rule it, and placing it under British protection. Egypt has put forward also the fear that England, in control of the Sudan, would cut off Egypt's supply of water for irrigation, but England is ready to guarantee sufficient water from the Upper and Middle Nile for all such purposes.

WHAT EGYPTIANS FEAR.
No less acute is the question of the Sudan. This came first to the fore when the commission framing the constitution included the Sudan within the boundaries of Egypt, and gave Fued the title of the King of Egypt and of the Sudan. To offset this, Lord Allenby, the British High Commissioner, went to Khartoum, capital of the Sudan. Here he met a group of 30 Sheikhs of Sudanese tribes who, according to the reports given out of the conference, took advantage of the occasion to express their loyalty to the British government, and at the same time asked for assurances that they would never be placed under British rule. Some Egyptian newspapers accuse England of insincerity in this move. They allege that the Sheikhs were coerced into false expressions of loyalty, and otherwise attack England's methods and motives.

Across U.S. With Only One Stop.

2,775 MILES FLIGHT.

Lt. James Doolittle, U.S. Army Air Service, has completed a flight across the Continent with only one stop.

He flew from Jacksonville, Florida, to San Diego, California, 2,775 miles, at an average speed of 100 miles an hour. This may well be a record. The longest non-stop flight, of course, was Alcock's across the Atlantic for the Daily Mail prize of £10,000, but previous long non-stop flights are: On April 26, 1919, Lt. Commander Grew and three other Americans remained in an airplane for 29 hours and 10 minutes, covering 1,250 miles. On June 24, 1920, M. Bonssoutrot and M. Jean Bernard traveled 1,190 miles in France and a Farman Goliath, without alighting. At Roosevelt Field, Long Island, on December 29-30, 1921, an American named Larsen remained up 26 hr. 19 min.—Daily Mail.

Should a Baby Know?

The humorous remark by Mr. Rooth the Westminster Police Court magistrate, that directly a baby is born into the world it is supposed to know every law that is passed, was qualified recently by a lawyer who said that according to Lord Halsbury's codification of the laws of England the position is: Under Seven Years.—No criminal liability at all can be imputed to a child. Between Seven and Fourteen Years.—There is a presumption of law that the child had not sufficient capacity to know that what he did was wrong; but this presumption may be rebutted by evidence and the child may then be criminally liable. A child over-fourteen has, generally speaking, the same criminal responsibility as a person of full age, 21 years.

3000-Gallon Cow.

BRITISH FRIESIAN ON WAY TO RECORD.

There are 56 cows in Great Britain which have given 2,000 gallons of milk in a year. Two are Dairy Shorthorns, one an Ayrshire, one a Red Poll, and the rest British Friesians. Now a phenomenal British Friesian gives every promise of being the first 3,000-gallons cow on record.

This is Brookside Colantha, belonging to the Hachie herd, Worthing Sussex. In 284 days Colantha has produced 2,615 gallons, and she is still giving eight gallons a day. The cow has a remarkable record. She is 8 years old and has had five calves. In her whole milking career she has yielded 9,045 gallons, or about 90,450 lbs.—Something like 50 times her own weight.

In 1919 there was only one 2,000-gallons cow, a British Friesian in the country. Of the 56 which now exist four have exceeded 2,500 gallons in the year.

A TAIL AND A GUN.—A well known sportsman of a mercantile establishment of the East End, who has just returned from Flat Rock, where he spent several days shooting, reports game plentiful. One of his party had a narrow escape from losing a valuable dog, for while lifting his gun to shoot the birds he accidentally blew the canine's tail off.

Early Morning Fire.

A DIFFICULT BLAZE TO QUENCH.

Early this morning a fire was discovered in a suite of rooms over McNamara's Jewellery Store, Water St. by the residents of an adjoining premises occupied by Mr. Thomas Warfield. A large volume of smoke poured out of the building and when the firemen arrived they had much difficulty in locating the blaze. It was eventually found between the ceiling of McNamara's store and Basha's suite of rooms. Chemicals were applied and in about an hour the blaze was subdued. Mr. McNamara's Jewellery store suffered considerable damage whilst the adjoining premises of Winsor & Warfield and Anthony Footen suffered from smoke. Fortunately for Mr. Basha he had not a large stock on the premises as during the past week he has been removing. As far as can be learned he is at present out of town. How the fire originated is not known, but apparently it was smouldering for some time before being discovered.

SECOND OUTBREAK.

At 5.10 the policemen left on duty after the departure of the firemen discovered the building again on fire and sent in an alarm. The firemen quickly arrived and with the aid of two streams from the Chemical engine the blaze was extinguished.

A THIRD OUTBREAK.

Apparently there must have been some smouldering embers left as at 7 a.m. Sergeant Nugent who was on early morning duty found the building again on fire. He did not, however, summon the firemen, but with the aid of several police constables quenched the blaze with buckets of water. Mr. McNamara carrier insurance with the Queen, Royal, Yorkshire and Fidelity Companies. Mr. Basha, we understand, carried insurance to the amount of $11,500 on his stock and furniture.

STORMY WEATHER DELAYED SHIP.

S.S. Portia which left Brig Bay this morning coming to Humbermouth, has made an unusually long trip. The ship left the terminus at Humbermouth on the 21st inst., and has been nine days making the round trip, which is usually done in five or six, when the weather is fine. Prior to the receipt of to-day's report, the last advice of the ship's whereabouts were from Flower's Cove. The several storms reported from Labrador have delayed the steamer and lengthened the voyage.

Mr. W. R. Goobie returned yesterday from a business visit to the States.

Mr. Arthur Mews, C.M.G., Deputy Colonial Secretary, left by yesterday's express to attend the annual session of the General Board of Missions which will be held at Toronto in October.

Sergeant Thomas Benson, of the Central Fire Station, who was taken ill immediately after the fire near Majestic Theatre on Tuesday night, last, is now improving, and Dr. Anderson says he will be able to resume his duties in three or four days.

Aerial Survey Co.

STEAMER DUE TO LOAD TIMBER.

The Aerial Survey Company's operations are temporarily reduced almost to a minimum, but preparations for the winter logging at Hawke Bay are being made. S.S. Penare is due shortly and will load 1,500 cords of pit props at Lomond, and the balance of about 900 cords, completing her cargo, at Hawke Bay. This will probably be the last shipment made by the Company for the season. Two new gasoline tanks have arrived and one has been forwarded to Hawke Bay while the other will go to Botwood. Major Cotton and Major Hemming are now on the South Coast in the motor yacht Hawke, which they boarded at Placentia. They will later proceed to Botwood where the yacht will be docked for the winter.

A message received this morning from Bar Haven states that Major Cotton and party arrived there at 7.30 last evening and were received by Rev. Fr. Caocola and the people of the settlement.

Carpentier Conquered.

BATTLING SIKI KNOCKS OUT THE FRENCH CHAMPION IN SIXTH ROUND—$10,000 PURSE OFFERED FOR WINNER TO BOX WILLS.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Georges Carpentier, the heavyweight champion boxer of Europe, was knocked out to-day by Battling Siki, the Senegalese fighter, in the sixth of what was to have been a twenty-round bout.

Carpentier never had a chance after the third round. He was barely able to respond to the bell at the beginning of the sixth.

Georges' weight was announced at 173½, that of Siki 174.

In the first round Siki shoved out of his corner and met Carpentier before the Frenchman was fairly off his chair. Carpentier, however, caught the Black man with two straight rights. Siki covered up and went down on one knee from a light left. The referee ordered him up. Carpentier then swung two hard rights to the jaw. Siki took them merely shaking his head, and bored in. Carpentier's face wore a puzzled expression, although plainly he was holding back. Siki did not land a clean blow.

In the second round, Carpentier, with a look of disdain on his face, repeatedly jabbed Siki with his left without return. Then, as Siki was rushing in, he caught the Negro flush on the jaw with a terrific right swing. Carpentier drew back, expecting Siki to drop under the blow. Siki, however, rushed in and shot two short hooks to the body. This surprised Carpentier. Just before the bell Carpentier again caught Siki flush on the chin, but the negro merely grinned at him and said, "You don't hit very hard, Mr. Georges." Carpentier was puffing hard as he wandered to his corner. Also he had lost his confident smile.

In the third round Siki rushed from his corner toward Carpentier. Carpentier backed away and sparred cautiously. Then he feinted with his left and obtaining an opening, drove a hard right to Siki's jaw. The negro dropped to one knee and took a count of seven. Then he jumped up and caught Carpentier with right and left swings to the stomach. Carpentier went down and took a count of four. When the Frenchman arose he plainly was groggy. Siki, seeing his advantage, showered rights and lefts upon him, always playing for the stomach. He had Carpentier gasping for breath and staggering at the end of the round.

In the fourth round Siki pummeled Carpentier all over the ring. The Frenchman was barely able to withstand the punishment. He was bleeding, his nose was flattened and his mouth was wide open. Carpentier resorted to all the known tricks of his long experience. He endeavored to hold the arms of the negro under his own armpits. Siki, over-anxious to finish his man, missed many blows that would have ended the bout had they landed. Meanwhile, Georges occasionally shot wicked rights against his opponent, which, however, failed to slow him up. Up to this time the negro showed no marks of punishment.

In the fifth round Siki sprang to the offensive from his corner, intending to quickly put the Frenchman down. Carpentier met the attack with a blow, and was warned by Referee Bernsten.

The low blow seemed to enrage Siki, who went furiously at Carpentier, missing numerous swings. Finally, however, he caught Carpentier with a short hook to the jaw, and the Frenchman went down. Carpentier, who was near the ropes, gripped them in rising, and butted Siki in the stomach. The Frenchman was helpless. Again he was warned by the Referee for butting. Meanwhile the crowd was yelling to the Referee to stop the encounter. When the bell rang Carpentier staggered groggily to his corner.

When the gong rang for the sixth round Carpentier came out, hardly able to stand. A majority of the spectators expected his second, Des-camps, to throw up the sponge, as the Frenchman was unable to put up his hands. A short uppercut from Siki sent Carpentier reeling backwards, and then the negro drove hard rights and lefts to the body. Carpentier crumpled to the floor, half way through the ropes, completely out, after one minute and ten seconds of fighting.

The Boxing Federation to-night declared Battling Siki the light-heavyweight champion of the world and heavyweight of France.

AN OFFER TO THE WINNER.
New York, Sept. 24.—An offer of $150,000 for a 15-round decision contest with Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, was cabled to-night to Battling Siki, Senegalese boxer, who defeated Georges Carpentier in Paris to-day, by the match-maker for the Ebbets-Mc-Keever Exhibition Company, operators of Ebbets' Field, Brooklyn.

The offer suggested October 12 as a date for the bout, with the idea that Siki is now in good physical condition and could reach this country in a week's time. Should this be unacceptable, however, Siki was advised that the offer holds good for a contest next year on May 30, Memorial Day.

Some Monuments to Animals.

The great Duke of Wellington erected at his country seat at Stratfieldsaye a stately tomb, costing some twenty thousand, for Copenhagen, the charger which he had ridden at the battle of Waterloo, when he remained no less than seventeen hours in the saddle without dismounting.

Copenhagen was buried with full military, though not ecclesiastical honors, a firing party of soldiers being present, while the ceremony was brought to a close by the sounding of "taps," the familiar and most pathetic feature of every soldier's funeral. Copenhagen is commemorated in bronze on Alfred's magnificent tomb of the Iron Duke, in St. Paul's Cathedral. It is only in the last few years that the memorial has been completed by the addition of the horse, the delay having been due to the late Dean Milman, who for a long time would not permit the statue of a horse within the precincts of the cathedral. Many thought that it was calculated to give ecclesiastical encouragement to betting and to the other attendant evils of horse racing. —Our Dumb Animals.

Women's Boots at THREE FIFTY

Occasionally our buyer strikes a snap. He struck one about two weeks ago. A certain manufacturer in Lynn, who has a reputation for making the best of women's boots, told us he was overloaded with stock—some of his largest orders had been cancelled on account of late deliveries, others he refused to ship, etc. To make a long story short—we made him an offer for all his surplus stock—a very low offer, we assure you. He hesitated, but finally accepted our proposition, and we have the Boots.

Auxiliary Schooner Race at Meadows.

Monday evening, Sept. 26, was the scene of a race between the auxiliary schooners Water Witch and Zelma T. Young, which craft are engaged in the herring business of this fall. The starting point was from the pier of the firm of A. E. Brake and Sons, Meadows, and the course of the race was across the Harbour to Child's Point and return.

The Zelma was commanded by Capt. G. Payne, with F. G. Brake, her owner, as engineer. She also had on board Mrs. F. G. Brake, Clayton Brake and Leslie Brake as passengers.

The Water Witch was in command of S. H. Brake, with R. A. Brake as engineer. She had on board E. Fowles, W. H. Brake, F. Brake, Mrs. G. C. Payne and Miss O. Brake as passengers.

Shortly after the race started it was plainly seen that the Water Witch was the better boat. She won the buoy first, with a good margin. When the Zelma was rounding the buoy, her engine developed trouble. Capt. S. H. Brake being a sport, rang up the engineer to stop his ship until the Zelma's engine was repaired, and both ships broadside again. When the race resumed and on the homeward run the Water Witch crossed the 35 minutes ahead of the Zelma T. Young. When the ships berthed at their respective piers they were greeted with hearty cheers and gun firing from the throngs of spectators who had gathered to witness the race.

Prizes were put out on the race by the Fowles-Brake Club, and were won as follows: 1st prize, Frank Brake; 2nd prize, Mrs. A. E. Brake; 3rd prize, Mrs. G. C. Payne.—Western Star.

Obituary.

MRS. BERTHA DEGRISH.
 "Not all regret; thy face will shine Upon me while I muse alone, The dear, dear voice that I have known Will speak to me, of me, and mine."
 Intense grief is unable to check human love unable to retard the inevitable approach of death. In spite of all loving attention and care, the body of Bertha, beloved wife of Geo. DeGrish, Trinity, was left tenantless on Sunday, August 17th, when Aarsel delivered her soul from its earthly prison, guiding it into the intermediate unknown. The deceased was 69 years of age and had been a sufferer for the past few years. Although her sufferings must have been intense yet through it all she bore up with Christian fortitude. On Tuesday following, her body was interred in the beautiful and well-kept cemetery at Trinity. The casket was covered with wreaths sent by sympathetic friends, while the bottom of the grave was also strewn with flowers. Left to mourn are her husband and six daughters, Mrs. Capt. Davidson, resident in Japan; Mrs. A. C. Moore, St. John's; Mrs. Etta Randell, proprietress of the well-known Randell Hotel, Catalina; Mrs. H. Simms and Mrs. W. Toop, Trinity, and Mrs. S. J. Hefferton, Salvage. The last four named were with their mother at the hour of passing. In such a time of loss—and there is no earthly comparison to the loss of a mother—mere words are but a poor medium of expressing sympathy and insufficient to effect much consolation, but the numerous kindnesses of the friends at Trinity during sickness and death will not be forgotten. To those bereft of a loving comforter and parent the Telegram offers sincere sympathy, while the words of Tennyson's In Memoriam quoted above ring out assuringly and comfortingly to all.—S.J.H.

Screen Version of Famous Story.

AT THE NICKEL THEATRE TONIGHT.
 Everybody knows that Zane Grey is a wonderfully popular writer, in fact, by far the most popular not only of the present day but of recent literary history. But how many know just how amazingly popular he is? Even the man who is making Zane Grey's wonderful novels into equally wonderful photoplays—Benjamin R. Hampton—says that he can scarcely keep up with the leaping, bounding sales record of Mr. Grey's recent novels.

The reaction of the novels and photoplays upon each other, coupled with the phenomenal popularity of Zane Grey's style and its literally universal appeal to all classes of mankind, has built up the most astounding demand for this author's books on record. His publishers, Harper Brothers, and the reprint publishers, Grosset and Dunlap, have been unable to fill orders. But most amazing of all is the fact that each succeeding work from Mr. Grey's pen far outdoes previous ones, until it seems that there is no limit. "The Man of the Forest," one of the latest, has outdistanced his previous works just as far as the former work had outdistanced the one before.

A Correction.

Editor Evening Telegram
 Dear Sir—Will you kindly make the following correction to a paragraph in a letter of mine which appeared in your issue of the twenty-third inst. This should read as follows to bring out my point:—"It is needless perhaps, to mention that all birds are fed, housed, and cared for in the same way, under Government inspection, and with such a wide variation in production by town's of the same breed, handled in the same manner, don't you think the breeder has just a little to do with it? MONTREAL JUDGE GOING TO ATTEMPT TO STAMP OUT ILLICIT TRAFFIC.
 MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—"This illicit traffic in cocaine, morphine and other drug poisons, this scourge which is flaying our province, must stop. I am going to render a terrible sentence—not only for you, but as an example to others, both men and women, who may be tempted to imitate you. And in future I think I may give life sentences to those found guilty of a similar kind of offence before me."
 With these words, thundered in a voice which resounded in every corner of the court of King's Bench, Mr. Justice Monet this morning condemning Willie Fournier, 41 years old, drug trafficker, to twenty years in the penitentiary for manslaughter, through having caused the death of Albert Laporte on June 28 in a City Hall Avenue dive, where he sold the fatal dose of morphine to the lad from L'Assomption, Quebec.
 Five minutes later the same jurist condemned Yvonne Desbiens alias Proulx, 20 years old, to five years in the penitentiary, also for manslaughter, through having caused the death of 19 year old Alfred Fontaine, on June 28 last, by injecting heroin into his arm at a St. Denis Street drug party. She, it is alleged, was a drug addict and the victim of ghouls of the type of Fournier.

 "I am absolutely innocent," declared Fournier to the court, when asked if he had anything to say. "I do not ask for clemency since you have found me guilty. I shall be judged by a higher judge." After sentence which he heard unopposed, he shrugged his shoulders, and as he left the dock exclaimed:

"Don't talk of justice here." Yvonne Desbiens, strolled through her ordeal, broke down just before sentence and her sobs sounded through the court room as the judge was sentencing Fournier. She was seated just behind the dock, and said nothing as the clerk asked her if she had anything to say. On the words "five years in the penitentiary" she burst forth into tears, and had to be assisted from the dock.
 As the two prisoners went down to the cells and the steel door clanged behind them the crowd which had packed the court melted away.

Municipal Council.

WEEKLY MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Council was held yesterday afternoon. The Mayor and Councillors Outerbridge, Vincombe, Collier, Ryan and Dowden were present.

After the minutes of the last meeting were confirmed, the following matters received consideration:—
A communication was received from the Deputy Colonial Secretary re the rate of interest on Temporary Loans recently liquidated by the Government, which are now part of the Consolidated City Debt. As there seems to be some misunderstanding over this matter, the City Clerk is to interview the Colonial Secretary.

Staff Captain Tilley of the Salvation Army wrote in reference to the sewerage connections to the Maternity Hospital, corner of Cornwall Ave. and Pleasant Street. This was left with the City Engineer.

Mr. G. R. Williams complained of the present condition of drains and road leading to the Carpasian Road, from Circular Road to Dwyer's Bridge. The Engineer was instructed to investigate.

The residents of Convent Lane forwarded a petition for a light on this street. The Lighting Committee will give the matter their consideration.

Applications were read from Wm. Quilly and G. McGrath, for positions in connection with the Sanitary staff. Same were ordered placed on file.

Mr. W. Cummings stated he would like to have sewerage connection to his house recently erected on Le-Marchant Road, west. In the event of his failing to secure sewerage, he would like to have connections to water main which is at present in this street. The Engineer will look into the matter.

Mr. G. H. Tucker, Gear Street, thanked the Council for the prompt manner in which his request for repair to this street was carried out.

The following plans were passed subject to the approval of the City Engineer:—Horwood Lumber Company erection of Normal School on the Parade Grounds; W. Gillis, store, Merrymeeting Road; Charles Carow, dwelling, Circular Road.

The Sergeant's Committee, G.W.V. A., forwarded plans for concrete base and other improvements to Monument, Garrison Hill. As the season is now well advanced, it was decided it would be better to postpone the work until next May. In this connection the Council decided some time ago to contribute a certain proportion of the cost of these improvements.

During the past week, the Reservoir, Cookstown Road, was opened and examined. Any defects in the walls and covering of same were ordered to be remedied.

The employees of the Water Works Department are now giving attention to some of the large valves, and when opportunity arrives a considerable number will be opened for the purpose of connecting high and low level service.

Of late, the Council has been put to unforeseen expenditure in the repairing and replacing of old sewers which collapsed during the past few months. The sewers in question were laid many years ago, and owing to the importance of their position the expenditure incurred was unavoidable.

The Plumbing Inspector submitted list of names of parties recently notified to place sanitary appliances in their dwellings, who have not, so far, complied with the regulations. Some of the owners in question can well afford to install these most necessary appliances and their not doing so is a reflection upon themselves. However, the Council has instructed the Inspector to carry out the Act and take proceedings against all such parties.

It was ordered that the Swimming Pools at Quidi Vidi and Long Ponds be closed down for the year, and the caretakers instructed to remove all apparatus. In this connection, the Council wish to place on record their appreciation of the services rendered by Messrs. Hickey and King, the former, as is well known, was instrumental in saving a number of lives. The Council trust, next season, to be in a position to provide more up-to-date accessories for these popular and much-frequented bathing resorts.

During the past six months, many improvements were made in connection with the Road, Sewerage and Water Works service. As the season is now fairly well advanced, and as the allocations for these works are not sufficient to justify any outlay on a large scale, further work other than absolutely necessary, will be discontinued.

Medical Officer Brehm recommended that the application of D. J. Pearse, for permission to erect stable, Golf Avenue, be acceded to, provided he complies with the usual sanitary requirements.

The application of Mr. S. K. Lumsden to supply bulbs to City Parks was referred to the Park Committee.

The report on Health of the City for week showed several cases of Typhoid and Scarlet Fever.

The regular business of the meeting being disposed of, the Mayor, on behalf of the Board, referred in sympathetic terms to the sad loss sustained by Councillor Vincombe in the death of his daughter. Mr. Vincombe thanked the Mayor and fellow-

The New Novel

By James Oliver Curwood. Never has Mr. Curwood written a more virile, gripping or swiftly moving story than "The Country Beyond," in which he tells of the love of Jolly Roger, the outlaw, for Nada the "foster-girl" of Jed Hawkins and of their enforced separation through the tracking down of Jolly Roger by Cassidy of the Royal North West Mounted Police. "The Country Beyond" which is packed with thrills is one of the most spacious and fascinating stories that has yet come from the pen of this brilliant writer. Price $1.50.

BISHOP, SONS & CO., Limited

Origin of the Inniskilling Dragoons.

Perhaps no Irish Corps is as distinguished for dauntless courage and daring deeds as the Inniskilling Dragoons and Inniskilling Fusiliers. Raised at Enniskillen at the latter end of September, 1689, the Fusiliers fought in Flanders in North America, and in the West Indies, in Holland and in the Peninsular War. In Spain the Inniskillers were confronted by a regiment of the French Grenadiers. A French officer came in front of the Inniskillers and challenged any of the Inniskillers to single combat. Instantly a captain of the Irish Regiment accepted the challenge, and after a little brilliant sword play laid the Frenchman low. With a cheer for their brave champion the Inniskillers rushed forward and made one of those terrible charges which no enemy could withstand. It turned out that the French officer's weapon was a sword of honour which had been presented to him by Napoleon himself. This trophy the champion of the Inniskillers bore with him proudly off the field. At Waterloo the Inniskilling Regiment had to withstand a fearful cannonade, and at the time were attacked by French cavalry from La Haye Sainte. All that day they stood in compact, though ever lessening square, and at nightfall every officer and two-thirds of the rank and file were dead or wounded. No British regiment suffered so severely.

In the Boer War they fought at Colenso where they made a desperate effort to cross the river under the muzzles of the enemy's guns. Nor did they come back until Sir Redvers Buller gave the order, and then they retired extremely disappointed. At Rellway Hill they had to climb a steep ascent among boulders and rocks, and then rush across a bare piece of ground before they could reach the enemy. They climbed up the slope in the face of thousands of Boers, each one a practised marksman. It was impossible to scale the bare ground; the Colonel and half the battalion fell killed or wounded in the attempt, but the brave Inniskillers stuck to the rocks and held on until an important movement had been made and victory was won a day or two later.

Negative Argument.

Mr. Coaker's argument—that only for the meddling which put his fish regulations into the discard, the price of fish would be double what it is, would be as amusing if it were so guileless as that of the Irishman who found fault with the jury that pronounced him guilty of theft—on the testimony of two witnesses.

The story runs thus: A man was condemned to death for the murder of his wife. "And is it upon the oaths of these two witnesses your honor is going to condemn me for this?" asked Pat.

"Certainly," said the judge, "their testimony was ample to convince the jury of your guilt. Two witnesses saw you take the things."

"Oh, murdher!" exclaimed Pat, "to condemn me on the oaths of two spalpeens who swear they saw me take the things, when I can bring forth a hundred who will swear they didn't see me do it?"

At one time, in the beginning of his career as champion of the "fish-drivers," Mr. Coaker used to say the fish buyers were making wealth by not giving the fisherman a fair market price for his fish.

To correct this and to force a higher price, Mr. Coaker began to offer higher prices than the merchants were willing to give.

The merchants then bought fish at the price set by Mr. Coaker and many of them lost on the transaction.

Since Mr. Coaker finds himself the head of a large fish-buying concern he sees clearer and we have nothing of the blood-sucking proclivities of the merchants.

They are not making big gains at the expense of the fishermen, they are robbing themselves as well as the fishermen, through their foolish system of marketing.

Mr. Coaker attempted to correct this and his scheme failed and brought ruin in its wake as well.

Merchants saw the mistake soon and forced the repeal of the stupid regulations, but not until the mischief was done, and our markets destroyed.

If the system of marketing in vogue so long were so utterly wrong, how comes it that fishermen have not only put away millions of golden dollars but have sustained a galling burden of taxation at the same time?

If we find it hard to live to-day it is because we are taxed to death, and not because we are getting little for our fish.

Let us correct our faults in this matter, reduce taxation at home, have common-sense and give up trying to impose our self-assumed burdens on the people who buy the products of our labor, and we shall soon see the sun of contentment above our heads.

If the people of Europe refuse to be dragged into making slaves of themselves in order to keep us living beyond our natural means small blame can be attached to them.

The trouble lies not in our system of marketing, but in our folly in trying to make a cat bear the trappings of an elephant, as a dead and gone Finance Minister might have said.

When we have to hand over seventy cents to the Government out of every dollar we earn somebody must suffer, Bucaneering.

The notorious "fish export regulations" of which Mr. Coaker is the author, brought ruin to many a man engaged in the merchandising of our staple article of commerce, and to no one greater damage than to business men along the South Coast.

Business men from Ploacentia to Channel were driven to almost total extinction, some of them were entirely ruined during the hold-up of trade and commerce following those worse than stupid regulations.

Business men were crippled so badly that some of them had to assign, while others of them had to cut down operations almost to the disappearing point.

The coast suffered terribly, supplies were drastically curtailed and want stalked and dread invaded a region hitherto prosperous and happy.

Now, Mr. Coaker plays his shameless part with an effrontery that only he could assume.

He comes to the rescue of the West Coast by establishing an F.P.U. Depot at Burin, where he may trade on the necessities created by the forced carrying-out of obnoxious laws.

Ruined business men are unable to look after the trade of the coast, as Mr. Coaker thinks it ought to be looked after, so he comes to the rescue and invades a district whose former prosperity was the fruit of the intelligent and unfettered industry of its own people.

I dare say the business men along that stretch of coast will know how to appraise the value of the F.P.U. invasion at such an hour as this.—Public Opinion.

IS YOUR ROOF IN GOOD CONDITION?

We Have

"BARRETT'S" ROOFING FELTS, 1, 2 and 3 Ply

Also COAL TAR in Tierces, Barrels & Cans

If your roof is in good condition give it a coat of Special Roof Coating Tar and keep it good. You know it is easier to keep a good roof free from leaks than to make a leaky roof watertight. Prevention is always better than cure. Special Roof Coating will prevent your roof from leaking and will keep it watertight for the next few years. A 5-gallon can costs $3.50. PUT IT ON THE FIRST WARM DAY.

If your roof leaks, fill up the cracks with Lasty-gum; put it on like putty, it won't crack like cement and won't run like tar. Lasty-gum will stop even the worst kind of leaks. Use it for flashing around chimneys and skylights. Use it around window boxes to exclude wind, dust and rain. A 5-pound pail of Lasty-gum costs $1.50. After stopping the leaks with Lasty-gum, coat the entire roof with Special Roof Coating.

If you require a new roof covering we recommend VULCANITE, which is made and guaranteed by The Beaver Board Company. Vulcanite can be had in full size rolls to cover 100 square feet of roof surface at $5.00 per roll, complete with nails and cement; also in half size rolls (18 inches wide) at $2.70 per roll complete with nails and cement. A half size roll will cover a porch or bay window roof.

We guarantee the good qualities of Special Roof Coating, Lasty-gum and VULCANITE ROOFING. Each is the best of its kind, warranted to give you satisfaction.

LET IT FALL.

A doctor who treats nervous diseases told me of a trying case which he managed to cure in a simple way. The patient had that strange but not uncommon mania which expresses itself in an unwillingness to go outside of one's home. Although a young woman and in fairly good physical health she simply could not be persuaded to go out like other people.

The doctor began his treatment by probing to the root of the case and persuaded her to tell him why she did not want to go out. The reason was this. She was dominated by an unreasonable and overwhelming fear that if she went out on the street something was going to fall on her, some tall building, a telegraph pole or a wall.

If you had been the doctor, how would you have treated her?

Perhaps you would have tried to convince her that nothing was going to fall. If you had it would have done no good. That had been done before. And the doctor knew enough about people in such states of mind to know the uselessness of trying to get at them that way. So he tried another tack.

He surprised his patient who had been argued with and laughed at by saying this:

"Well, suppose it does. Let it fall." "She was losing all her life, he went on to point out, by this attempt to save it. Granted that there was that danger, what of it? She might as well die that way as live forever cooped up. Suppose instead of trying to escape those old walls she made up her mind not to worry any more about them and that to take for her motto 'Let it fall.'"

Of course the cure was not effected immediately, but by the aid of that motto she did come, in the course of time, out of the shadow of her absurd phobia.

As you have already perceived, clever Reader, I have not told about this cure for the benefit merely of people who will not go out doors because they are afraid something is going to fall on them.

I suppose there is one such to every million who could find some help in that motto "Let it fall."

What better way is there of facing any uncontrollable misfortune than that. You can't stop it, you can't get away from it. All right then, let it fall. You have done what you can, you have no further responsibility. Then let it fall if it is going to, and half the time, or more, it won't.

And if it does, there are few things in life that when they come hurt as much as the constant fear of them.

Do what you can, of course, to avert any evil but having done that sit back and say "Let it fall" and see if it does not make the dark days more endurable.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

THE LAUGHING FOOL. The world admires the kindly man who grins and does the best he can. But there's a time a laughing face is absolutely out of place—A time for when a little while it doesn't pay to wear a smile.

Bill Green had heard "The man who grins is usually the man who wins." And so unto himself he said: "I'll laugh until the day I'm dead. When trials come and things go wrong, I'll laugh and chuckle right along."

While working in a china store, one day Bill dropped upon the floor a costly vase of rare design. Which crashed just like a bursting mine.

It made his boss exceedingly hot to see the ruin Bill had wrought. "You blundering fool!" the boss exclaimed. The while in rage his visage flamed: "Your careless hands have now let fall the most expensive vase of all. A model of the potter's craft!" And Bill looked up at him and laughed.

A second later through the door of that once peaceful china store a dying human form was seen; We recognized as William Green, belabored by an angry chief intent on bringing him to grief.

Later, when calm had settled down, The chief explained to all the town that he had kicked Bill from his place for laughing boldly in his face. Which goes to prove that the man who wins is not always the man who grins.

CAPITALIZED AT $500,000

The pit-prop interests of M. E. Martin have been taken over by the British North American Trading Company, which was recently incorporated with a capital of $500,000. The signatories to the articles of incorporation are H. F. Thomas, O.B.E., of Wales, J. Jas. Davies, B.Sc., and J. O. Williams.

The managing directors in Newfoundland will be Arthur Williams and M. E. Martin. The Company has solved the difficulty of bringing ships over in ballast, by loading them with coal for Canadian and American ports and these cargoes are delivered before the steamers come here to load pit-props. Three large boats are now loading 6,000 cords of pit-props for Welsh and English collieries. One of the principal shareholders in the new Company is perhaps, the greatest coal magnate in the British Isles, but for the present, his name cannot be divulged.

What Would The War be For?

If a call went forth across the world for an army of volunteers to march against the Turks, overthrow their military power, confine them within definite boundaries, render them incapable for the future of practicing against Christian people those atrocities for which they are infamous—a huge crusading army which nothing could withstand would quickly be enrolled.

No such proposal is up for consideration at present. It is not proposed to fight the Turks for their villainies and crush them for their crimes. It is not proposed to go in upon them in Asia Minor and punish them for the slaying they have done, and liberate the Christian minorities which are at their mercy. They are not to be hunted down, taken by the throat and deprived forever of the sword of oppression which they have so long and viciously used.

The present purpose is geographic. It is militaristic and strategic. The

MOST HUMAN ILLS ORIGINATE IN THE STOMACH

SCIENTISTS agree that the stomach is responsible for at least 80 p.c. of all human ills.

Indigestion is a direct result of a disordered stomach.

A torpid liver, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, dizzy spells, back-ache, nervousness, headache, constipation, rheumatism and that tired-out, run-down, worn-out feeling are also in most cases caused by stomach troubles.

Tanlac, the world's greatest medicine, is designed to tone up the stomach so you will eat better, sleep better, feel better and work better.

That Tanlac does this is proven beyond question by the statement of hundreds of thousands who have taken it. Go to your nearest druggist.

proposal is to warn the Kemalists away from the Dardanelles, and drive them away if they will not heed the warning. It is a military and naval position of the highest importance, and it would be unsafe to again trust it in the hands of the Turks. It is a cold proposition. There is nothing in it that calls for the fervor that would be stirring if a holy war were proclaimed against the Moslem oppressor.

Just what British policy is, at present, as regards the Turks, is not clear. No instructive light is thrown upon it by studying British policy towards the Turks in the past. It was Britain that put Turkey on her feet in Europe and time and again has kept her there, when Russia and the Balkans were about to throw her out of Europe. It is difficult to believe that, with India to be taken into account, Britain will consent to see Constantinople awarded to the enemies of Islam. During the past fortnight despatches from London have repeatedly stated that "for the past two years it has been fully understood that the Turks are to retain Constantinople." But so upsetting and contradictory are events that one day may fairly say that nothing has been beyond comprehension.

When the Greeks advanced on Constantinople a couple of months ago the Allies barred the path and waded them back. Now the Kemalists advance and are warned back. Yet "it is fairly understood" the Turks are to have that city again. Which Turks? It is a question between the Sultan and Mustapha Pasha, and is Britain to make war in that sort of dispute?

Several leading British journals are protesting hotly against any such war as has been allowed to become imminent, and against the despatches of last Saturday. The reasons which would make such a war necessary will have to be good, they will have to be unanswerable. So far they have not been intelligibly stated.—Toronto Star.

By ONLOOKER.

19TH LEAGUE MATCH.

St. Andrew's vs. C.L.R. Result, Saints 7 goals; C.L.R., Nil—Played on Llewellyn Grounds, Aug. 6th, 1922.

In beautiful weather, and before an average gathering of spectators these clubs played off their League fixture last evening. The players were:—

SAINTS—Scapelin, Gamm, Ayre, Jeddine, Forbes and E. Rodgers; Walker, Stewart, Mars, Munn and Macphlane.

C.L.R.—Williams, Garland, Moffatt, A. Long, Warren, Richards, Barrett, Chislett, Long, Wiseman, Goodridge.

The Saints defended the Halfway end for the first half and right from the start pressed hard, the Leeds goalkeeper having to handle a ball that carried the ball to the other end, and secured a corner which proved fruitless. The Saints came again, but the Brigade backs sent them to the other end, where several attempts were made to lower Scapelin's colors. The Saints were playing recklessly, so far, and although several attempts to get away were made, they did not get on with that precision for which they are famous, and the strong defence of the Brigade kept the play pretty even. During this period, when on a run for the goal, Mars received a nasty knock from Moffatt, which prostrated him for a few minutes, play being suspended.

After the interval, the play picked up, and shortly after, from some nice passing among the forwards, he got possession, and easily beat Williams—1 for the Saints, which was the score at half time. Remaining play, the Brigade were on the hill, got aggressive, and Williams had a hard time of it. After five minutes play, a low twist from Mars took effect—2 for the Saints. Shortly after, from a throw-in, the ball was nicely centred and headed into the goalkeeper's hands by Munn. The referee gave a goal here, judging the ball to be "over the goal line" when the keeper threw it. The Saints now had matters all their own way. Williams was constantly beset, and in the last few minutes of time, and soon a fourth was added, Stewart doing the needful. It was now simply a procession to the Brigade goal, and Walker quickly shot No. 5, then Mars hopped in the 6th. Scapelin, at this point, being a quiet observer at the other end. The Brigade now bestirred themselves and made one or two sallies to the West End, only falling at the finish, when in front of goal. Bruce again pressed and added the 7th goal, Munn being the scorer. The C.L.R. now made a determined effort, and in the last few minutes of time were just getting to play together, securing a corner which was nearly converted, and during a hustle in the front of the goal, another chance of beating Scapelin was spoiled by a Brigade "hand." The whistle sounded time when the Blue forwards were sent on for the other end. Score at the finish—Saints 7; C.L.R., Nil. Referee—F. Mansard; Linesmen—F. Donnelly (C.G.C.), A. McKay (B.I.S.).

NOTES ON THE GAME.

We were glad to see the Brigade muster a full team, and although they were easily defeated, they can undoubtedly, with practice, make a much better show than last night. Joe Long makes a capital centre, but was not supported by the wings. Barrett being defective on one, and Goodridge, who played well, lacking support from Wiseman. The halfbacks were fairly good and the backs very reliable. The defective part of the entire team was simply want of practice together.

The winners had an easy task, and their play calls for no comment. Monday night Herb Rodgers, were absent last night their places being filled by Stewart and Ayre. Our congratulations to Stewart on his first League appearance. He made a good impression, and augmented his Clubs goal record—Well done Jim. C. G. C. vs. St. Andrew's on Monday night.

Wedding Bells.

DAY-TUES.

On Tuesday morning at 9.30, St. Michael's Church, Casey Street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Malvina, youngest daughter of Capt. N. and Mrs. Day, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mr. Jack James Tur, Mining Engineer of Sudbury, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. Nicholls, assisted by Mr. Stephen Bradbury in the absence of the bride's father, gave the bride away. The bride looked charming in a dress of ivory satin trimmed with pearls and bridal veil, with wreath of orange blossoms and was attended by her sister, Lillian, who wore a dress of flowered georgette over yellow silk with hat to match, while Mr. George Jatta acted as best man. After the ceremony the happy party motored to Bowring Park, then returned to the home of the bride's parents where a bounteous repast was partaken of and the usual toast list gone through. A selection of appropriate songs was then sung, and at 12.30 the party motored to the station where the bride and groom entrained for Catalina where they will spend a few days and then proceed to Little Bay, where the groom has business connections. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents.

MEET ON COMMON GROUND.

PARIS.—Lord Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, arrived in Paris the other day at the Quai d'Orsay station, and found the passenger elevator out of order. He complained to the station-master who, with much diffidence, proposed that the noble lord could, possibly, be conveyed by means of the freight elevator. Lord Curzon accepted without enthusiasm, and just as the elevator was slamming the gates shut there came rushing towards the thick-set elderly man, breathing heavily. "He made as if to enter the elevator, but the attendants waved him off. "I am just as heavy and as old as your lordship," said the man, cleared, "why should you refuse to take me up?" "Because this is Lord Curzon," responded the railroad man impressively. "Oh, well, that's all right," replied the stranger, making for the stairs, "I'm only forty." He was given a lift.

THE COSY GLOW!
(With apologies to Homer K. Am.)
Oh! It's fine to get up in morning,
When the sun begins to shine,
At four, or five, or six o'clock.
In the good old Summer
time,
But when the snow is snow-
ing,
And outside the north winds blow,
Oh! It's grand to get up in the warming

Have You Seen the JEWETT CAR? THE JEWETT IS PAIGE BUILT.

The new Jewett is of Paige conception, designed and built by Paige engineers and mechanics in the Paige shops. From its Paige origin the Jewett inherits those unmistakable marks of Quality, characterizing the work of a group of men, who for ten years past, have been building the fine six-cylinder cars, bearing the Paige monogram.

Let us demonstrate to you its remarkable power and quality—5 passenger touring—$2200; Sedan
