Lisbon, July 24.—The 40th anniversary of the liberation of Portugal was celebrated here to-day.

On Wednesday writs were issued for Niagara, West Peterboro' and Algoma. Sixty dollars per dozen seems a round price for peaches.

One thousand women are employed in the potteries at Leeds, England, working nine hours a day at the rate of sixty cents a week.

It is said that the editorship of Good Words, made vacant by the death of Dr. Norman Macleod, will be offered to Canon Kingsley.

Win. Seymour, an engine fitter at Point Edward, was instantly killed on Monday, having been run over by an engine.

A Wisconsin man has at last discovered some use for the peacock. The ornamental ornithological idiot will actually eat potato bugs.

Owing to low water in the St. Lawrence the Montreal Fishermen, who run between Trenton and Montreal, after passing over the Long Sault Rapids, now enters the rapids and evades the other rapids.

A consider able rise has lately taken place in the price of paper in England. Some of the London newspapers are now paying as much as $2,000 a week for paper more than they were paying in February.

The work on the main tower on the House of Parliament has fairly commenced. The spire portion will be completed before winter sets in, and add very much to the general effect.

Fred. Douglas is opposed to Greeley, because the latter has united his fortune with a party founded on personal grievances, not on broad grounds of national interest.

The Lord Mayor's banquet was given on Wednesday night at the Mansion House, in honour of her Majesty's Ministers. Mr. Gladstone made a speech and dealt with a good deal of pleasure the happy termination of the difficulties in connection with the Treaty of Washington.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Brydges has written to the heads of the workshops of the Grand Trunk at Bradford, that there must be no interference on the part of any of the officials with the men under their charge in voting either for the one side or the other in the coming elections.

BE ECONOMICAL.—Look to your spending. No matter what comes in, if more goes out you will always be poor. The art is not in making money, but in keeping it; little expenses, like mice in a barn, when they are many, make a great waste.

Despatches from Dr. Livingstone. It is reported that the Foreign Office at London has received despatches from Dr. Livingstone of date November last.

Arthur Correspondence. "It is the very error of the moon: She comes more near the earth than she was wont."

There certainly seems something remarkable in the exciting events which have happened here within the last week. There has been three distinct cases of shooting, besides several other cases of minor importance.

James Green, of Hamilton, in consequence of a family embroilment undertook to commit suicide, first by hanging and secondly by jumping into the Bay. He was prevented from carrying out his intention on both occasions.

Centre Riding Nomination.

Mr. John Beattie, Returning Officer for this Riding, has appointed the nomination to be held at Fergus, on Tuesday, the 6th of August, and the polling on the 18th of the same month.

The Centre Riding.

We have reliable information from this Riding, which goes to show that Mr. Ross and his friends are working with ceaseless activity, and are meeting with the most cheering success. Dr. Orton and his followers are also canvassing late and early, and are bragging at a great rate about the impression they are making. Much of this, however, is but empty boasting. Still the Reformers are not unmindful of the energy and perseverance of the Tory candidate, and they are wisely laying their plans and carrying out their canvass with a thoroughness which has not hitherto been attempted in the Centre Riding. Both parties feel that Peel will be the turning point in the election, and they are accordingly giving a great deal of their attention to that Township. But the other parts of the Riding are not forgotten. On Wednesday night Mr. Ross held meetings in Douglas and Cummock, which were attended by Messrs. Stirton and Young. To-day Mr. Stirton attends one of Mr. Ross's meetings in East Garafraxa. Our Reform friends in the Centre should see that the local committees are thoroughly organized, and that every part of the Riding is carefully canvassed.

POLLING DAYS.

R., Essex, London, Lanark, North Leeds, Welland, Kent, Wellington, Peterboro, Pelee, Wellington, C.R., Grey (North), Muskoka.

ELECTION NEWS.

The writ for North Grey election has been received by Mr. A. M. Stephens, returning officer, who has appointed August 8th for the nomination, and August 15th for polling day.

Mr. M. C. Cameron having retired from the Centre Division of Haron, a convention was held at Seaforth, on Wednesday, at which Mr. H. Horton, of Goderich, was nominated as the Reform candidate for Centre Haron.

The nominations for the city of Ottawa took place on Wednesday. Mr. J. M. Currie, the former member, and Mr. J. B. Lewis, a leading barrister of the place, were returned by acclamation.

The canvass in Hamilton proceeds with unabated vigour. Committee and ward meetings are being held every night, where reports of the canvass are heard. Messrs. Irving and Magill are working with that energy which merits unbounded success. Report at present gives a large majority in their favour—and to all appearances there is not the slightest doubt of their being returned by a large majority. The so-called Tory, Coalition, No Party, Union, Progressive Reform, Secret Service money, and the People's Government candidates are working with desperation—they find that their cause grows weaker every day, and that, like the change of their own politics, for the worse.

Hon. Mr. Mackenzie had a splendid reception in St. Thomas on Wednesday. An immense crowd of people had assembled at the station who greeted the leader of the Liberal party with great cheering as he appeared. An address was presented to him, after which he made a splendid speech on the market square. The demonstration was a magnificent success, and presages a great victory at the polls for the Reform party in the two Elgins. In the evening a public dinner was held in the Lisgar House, in honor of Mr. Mackenzie's visit, and as a continuation of the magnificent demonstration of the afternoon.

Mr. McGregor is at present suffering from a severe attack of illness, and is consequently unable to take the field in opposition to Mr. O'Connor in Essex. We are happy to learn that, under the circumstances, Mr. Arthur Rankin, formerly member for the county, has consented to take Mr. McGregor's place. We understand that he will be supported by all shades of the Opposition in the county.

The Reform canvass in Kingston is progressing most satisfactorily.

The Garibaldians.

PREPARATIONS FOR A NEW EXPEDITION. (From the London Crusader, June 22.)

Authentic information received this week from Genoa, Venice and Rome, leave little room for doubting that the Garibaldians are preparing for some new expedition. Enrollments are being made openly at the old offices of the party, more especially at Venice, and a correspondent of the Bien Public, of Ghent, telegraphs that thirty Garibaldians left Rome on June 12 for Spain. We confess that we are at present unable to state whether their destination be Spain or Nice. There is great agitation at the latter town and a Radical newspaper there has just been suspended for declaring too boldly for "Union with Italy." The "Hero of Aspromonte and Mentana" has always openly declared that, after Rome, Nice was the place which he would attempt to revolutionize. It is quite possible the Italo-Prussian alliance may be openly proclaimed against France soon, and that a Garibaldian invasion of Nice may be the first step planned by Prince Bismarck toward the further dismemberment of France, by stripping her of Nice and Savoy.

The Piedmontese Government has been working hard at fortifying the Riviera between San Remo and Genoa, and several German military men have been lately inspecting the country. Should the Garibaldians land in France, we may expect to see the French Pontifical Zouaves reformed, and the two old enemies meet face to face. If they are left to fight it out, without the interference of Prussia, we have little fear as to the result. But the correspondent of the Bien Public and other well-informed persons in Italy believe that some point in the south of Spain is the rendezvous, and that on the abdication of Amadeus, which it is expected will shortly take place, an attempt will be made to proclaim a republic at Cadiz. Thus Spain will be menaced by a second Italian occupation, and this time an armed one.

If this be the case, we may expect to find the old enemies—Garibaldi and Zouaves—face to face; for, while it is understood at present that King Charles VII. is unwilling to accept the services of any foreigners in his attempt to drive out the usurper, yet it will be a different question when he has arrayed against him ten thousand, perhaps, of the scum of the Italian ports and of Alexandria, in addition to the numerous troops which the Spanish Republicans can now undoubtedly raise. However, "forewarned is forearmed," and whether the Garibaldians are destined for the Tyrol, for Spain, or for the Vatican, we trust the Catholic associations of Europe and America will be ready, and that when the inevitable hour of action comes the "red-shirts" will find the "Crusaders" prepared to meet them.

CHAPTER VIII.

A CHANGE OF MASTERS AT ARDGOWAN. "This has gone quite far enough," he observed, in a half-suppressed and resolute tone.

"Yet one who speaks and acts with authority," retorted Nathan, darting towards him a triumphant glance.

"I am a paid servant, there is one piece of service which I am for doing, and that is keeping you and your brother from usurping a position in which you have no claim.

"Quit the place, I suppose you mean?" said Stephen, livid with rage. Nathan nodded.

"I don't show signs of being friendly, why, it would just be better for all parties that you took yourselves off."

"Oh, we didn't expect it," said Garret, with the utmost coolness. "No, and you may expect the contrary.

"Well now, Captain," rejoined Nathan with a sneering smile, "as I know you ain't bold enough for murder, I am not afraid that our hold will go as soon as you think."

"Our game is won at length," she breathlessly whispered. "It is," replied Nathan, "and sooner and easier than I thought."

"Have they seen the papers?" "Yes, and stood out for a bit against them, but the letter did it."

"And I am mistress here," she exclaimed—"mistress of this mansion, of these grounds, of all this wealth and grandeur."

"Hush, command yourself, for heaven's sake," he warmly rejoined. "We are secure so far, but don't forget that there is a hold by which we keep the place—the child."

"He will grow strong," she vehemently returned. "He shall have the best of nursing, the best medical skill; no money shall be spared, Nathan, to bring him health, for are we not rich—rich?"

"Well, money can do a great deal to procure health—money and care—but there is no doubt he is naturally weakly, and will take great attention."

"Which I shall not fail to bestow. Am I not his mother? Think not because I am a Creole I have not a mother's heart; or if I had not, think not I will forget what hangs upon his life."

An Outside Opinion. (From the Montreal Daily Witness.) The prospects of the Reform candidates in Ontario appear to be good, and the same wave of popular retribution that swept the late Ontario Government from power threatens to overwhelm the present Ottawa administration.

DR. HOWE ON THE USE OF FELLOW'S HYPOPHOSPHITES—Pittsburg, Mo., March, 1872. Mr. Jas. I. Fellows—Dear Sir: During the past two years I have given your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites a fair though somewhat severe trial in my practice, and am able to speak with confidence of its effects. In restoring persons suffering from emaciation and the debility following diphtheria, it has done wonders. I constantly recommend its use in all affections of the throat and lungs. In several cases considered hopeless it has given relief, and the patients are fast recovering; among these are consumptive and old bronchial subjects, whose diseases have resisted the other modes of treatment. For impaired digestion, and in fact for debility from any direct effect in strengthening the nervous system renders it suitable for the majority of diseases. W. S. Howe, M.D.

No intelligent mind can fail to observe how the various and ever varying wants of the community are attended to by the enterprising merchants of Guelph. Instancing Hardware, in Mr. Horsman's Establishment, so noted for many years as the repository of every thing in his line of business, it is some what astonishing to take a comprehensive view of the variety of his stock: Guns, Pistols, Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, House Furnishings, Floor Oil Cloths, Mats, Ivory Table Cutlery, Plated Ware, Bird Gages, Flower Baskets, Smoothing Irons, Tea Trays, Wringers, Mangles, Lamps, Mechanics' tools. Besides the great assortment of Farming Implements, Scythes, Snaiths, Rakes, Forks, Hoes, Building and General Shelf and Heavy Hardware, Oils, Paints, Colors, and Varnishes. One gets from this slight idea of what it is to carry on with enterprising spirit a large Wholesale & Retail Hardware Establishment.
