THE FEARS OF WAR SUBMERGES PUBLISHERS

England Absorbed in Question of Probabilities of Conflict With Germany—Re- view of Situa- tion.

CHICAGO, March 21.—T. P. O'Connor, in his London cable to The Tribune, says:

Messina with its earthquake was not more disturbed than the whole English world this week. The naval scare fills the highest and lowest section of the population, and even the cooks in the kitchens are debating the topic with the same energy of rage and terror as the admirals and politicians.
The language in some of the newspapers is incredibly alarming. The Daily Telegraph and Mail talk as if the Germans already were half way up the Thames.

In the house of commons this week one of the leading Tories gave the lie direct to Germany, on the ground that Germany and England may be at war within twelve months.

Never, indeed, has the house of commons seen anything like the scene after Asquith's speech. When he sat down there was a long pause of stupefaction and terror, and then each member of the whole house decided to support him without a word of protest, as was saved by the intrusion of Arthur Lupton, that irresponsible Ishmael who is a law unto himself.

Since then the prickly feeling has been steadily increasing among the public and the widest rumors everywhere are prevalent, and phantoms of German treachery, and the hatred haunt the English imagination.

The Krupp are said to have raised gigantic loans last April to meet the demands of new Dreadnoughts, and the German admiralty is said to have chosen secret places for the hurrying up of new Dreadnoughts.

The bankers of these Dreadnoughts are declared large enough to carry soldiers on the short journey. The situation is shakily.

Political Situation is Shaky.
In the meantime the political situation is profoundly shaken by the panic.
Asquith's speech is interpreted as intended to confound and destroy Lloyd-George, and Churchill in revenge for the humiliation of the English in the Haitian and other imperialist wars.

Indeed, the two sections of the opposition are in a state of hostility to each other.

The Nation, the newspaper organ of the peace party, financed by a group of the Quaker cocoa manufacturers, writes today:

"We have a Palmerstonian prime minister pressing the case for peace armaments. We have to thank God that a Gladstonian chancellor of the exchequer is laboring valiantly and not alone in the double cause of economy and peace."

It is assured, however, that no cabinet disruption is going to take place and that Asquith's program according to the Liberal and Churchill, and probably Balfour has saved the situation for the moment and the Liberal party by announcing the vote of censure and thus rallying all the Liberals to the side of the government and the government program.

Other friends are loud to fury by the campaign of Lord Charles Beresford's party in the press calling for the downfall of Sir John Fisher, first lord of the admiralty, and the confected, fierce campaign converging on Fisher.

Probably a reaction will set in next week, and Germany's denials of any ambitious program probably will be proven truthful, but for the moment the situation is tremulous. The example of the whole nation goes half mad and everything rocking as in an earthquake.

The two sections that are unmoved are the Irish and English labor. John Dillon rushed into the breach for peace, economy, and self-control, when the after Asquith's speech and most of the labor men held firm, but even the Irish ranks are so broken that several prominent labor men join more loquently than anybody else in the chorus of panic and dread.

Open Fight in Ireland.
In Ireland, Redmond at last has been forced to take open action against O'Brien's latest attempt to produce a new organization and he tells the Irish people plainly to choose between him and O'Brien, between the Irish people and the land-lords and the landlords; between O'Brien's new organization and the United Irish League; between unity and a new split.

O'Brien's campaign opens to-morrow under this deadly blow from Redmond, and probably this decisive and heavily blown Redmond is the beginning of the end of O'Brien's infatuated attempt to disrupt Ireland.

The Irish party meet next Tuesday, and will all upon the new organization and the United Irish League, and thus give the choice to the small body of O'Brien's followers.

The party decision is to accept the decision of the United Irish League, the curious and paradoxical fate of democratic governments. It is at times and in times like these that the forces of autocracy are at their weakest, and it is winning the forces of democracy.

By its legislation the present min-

AND WHAT WILL CANADA DO?

MELBOURNE, Australia, March 21.—(C.A.P.)—The proposal to present a "Dread-nought" to the royal navy meets with warmest public approval.
Several of the party leaders express themselves in favor of making an immediate offer.

The Sydney Herald urges definite action, declaring that should each overseas dominion offer one the moral effect would far exceed the intrinsic worth of the vessels.
The New Zealand Government has offered to defray the cost of a first-class battleship of the latest type. The money for this purpose will be forthcoming immediately, and, if necessary, funds will be raised for the construction of a second battleship.

GREEN GOODS SWINDLE BROKEN UP BY POLICE

Couple Arrested—Claimed to Have Machine to Make Money While Victim Waited.

An alleged counterfeiting or swindling game was broken up last night when M. Steiner and his wife M. Steiner, Austrians, were arrested by Detectives Wallace and Armstrong. There are supposed to have been five operatives in the game, but three of them must have got a hunch and skipped out.

As there was no real counterfeiting apparatus discovered the couple are not charged with the device as counterfeiters, but as plain "vags."

They weren't genuine counterfeiter, anyway, they only claimed to be and this is where the swindle comes in.
A large egg-shaped, mysterious looking brass affair with a battery and some machinery in it was found among the effects, which it is said, was presented to prospective victims as being capable of turning out brand new crisp bank notes of any amount.

The machine was supposed to pay so much real money to receive probably twice as much phony stuff that would be detected.

As far as the machine, nobody has not stated on the ground that the game was only introduced a couple of days ago.

The machine was a hopeless failure at 10.30 last night in the Mint Hotel on Terault-street. He is 32 and she is 28. They are said to have had a real person visit their room yesterday, and the argument was held in the morning.

The gang of five came to Toronto last week from Rochester, and it is said they lived permanently in Montreal.

FRENCH STRIKE IS ENDED NONE TO BE DISMISSED

Committee Wait on Minister of Public Works, Who Manifests a Conciliatory Spirit.

PARIS, March 21.—The great strike of the employees of the postoffice department, which has practically isolated Paris and cut off France from contact with the outside world for the past week, collapsed to-day. The strike committee made the first move to effect a settlement, virtually suing for peace. The government met the committee half way.

This afternoon representatives of the men called on M. Barthou, minister of public works, ostensibly for the purpose of protesting against the charges that they had cut the wires, but they communicated the terms on which the allied associations collectively would resume work. These were, by the resignation of M. Simyan, first, the resignation of posts and telegraphs; second, that no employee should be dismissed on account of the strike.
They also desired the assurance that the delegates of the association hereafter should be permitted to lay their grievances directly before the minister of public works.

M. Barthou said that the government could not discuss the resignation of an employee except with parliament, but officially he practically gave the delegation the satisfaction they demanded on other points, explaining to them, however, that the government had not yet exercised its right of dismissal.

HOW THE SENATE WILL REVERSE TARIFF

Inheritance Tax, High and Low Schedule, and Duty on Tea Are Features That Seem Generally Un- popular.

NEW YORK, March 21.—(Special.)— The Tribune's Washington correspondent writes:

The present plan of the senate leaders, if carried out, will involve radical changes in the Payne tariff bill. There is determined opposition to the inheritance tax in the upper government, and it is necessary to some, and may be materially changed. The provision is unsatisfactory and will be altered. There are, of course, numbered individuals who object to the proposed changes in the duties on tea, pulp and print paper, but those cut-lined are shared in by most of the men prominent in the senate.

Its opponents say that the inheritance tax is properly a source of revenue for the states, and should be imposed by the federal government only in an emergency, such as meeting the expenses of war. On this ground an effort will be made to strike it out.

The policy of a maximum and minimum tax was first advanced by Senator Lodge, and later supported by Senator Lodge, who introduced a resolution some years ago creating a commission to investigate the subject. But mittee to investigate the subject. Such was that of Messrs Cannon and Payne, with that of Messrs Cannon and Payne, The senators believe in fixing the rates of duty and then granting concessions to those nations which make concessions to the United States.

Some senators believe that the Payne duties on tea provided by the Payne bill will put a large burden on the importation of that product before the bill goes into effect, but will result in comparatively little revenue to the government for some time thereafter.

There are powerful influences at work to obtain a duty on coffee, but the same argument is being used against that, namely, that heavy importations in anticipation of the bill would result in an almost total loss of revenue after it became operative.

The senators from the Pacific states want the Dingley rates continued on lumber, coal, lead, hides and wool.
They have heard of the proposed reduction of the Payne bill, and are opposed to the proposed reduction in the rates on pulp and printing paper. In the main this protest comes from Washington, and is looking of the paper manufacturers of those states have been wiring their senators and representatives to-day to resist the reduction of the Payne bill.

The paper men say they will be hurt worse than the manufacturers in New York, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania. They point to the fact that the Canadian manufacturers are running their plants with a loss of labor, and that it is impossible to compete with the factories in British Columbia under these circumstances.

Representative Charles H. Grosvenor of Ohio, who has been the principal representative of the wool growers during the consideration of the tariff bill, said that both the Ohio and Western growers were well satisfied with the Payne bill.

There are one or two provisions relating to wool and other products that we don't fully understand, but the general plan recommended has our approval," General Grosvenor said.

LEAVEY FOR DEBATE IN HOUSE.

There will be ample opportunity for amendment and debate in the house during the consideration of the Payne tariff bill. This has been definitely decided on by the leaders.

JACK JOHNSON SIGNS

Accepts Hugh McIntosh's $60,000 Offer —Jeff Will Sign, Too.

CHICAGO, March 21.—It took Hugh McIntosh, the Australian fight promoter, only a few minutes today to see Jack Johnson, the heavy-weight champion of the world, to consent to fight James J.
Jeffries, the retired champion, for a purse of $60,000, after a short conference here-to-day. Johnson expressed himself as perfectly satisfied with the terms ofered by McIntosh.

The Australian promoter is confident he will get Jeffries' consent and that the fight is certain. McIntosh will return to New York to-morrow, and will be back here in a few days with Jeffries' signature to the articles. A McIntosh's offer is a purse of $60,000 and 40 per cent. to the loser. Each man will be required to put up a forfeit of $5000 when he signs the articles.

"I am all right, George. I am sick with a care-free laugh, on Saturday night just after he had swallowed a bottle of carbolic acid.

He was sitting at a table in the furthest corner of the Toronto Quick Lunch at 301 Yonge-street, in full view of a number of patrons, at 10.55 Saturday night, and he spoke to George Annis, the chef in the dining-room, and he spilled some of the acid on his fingers.
He put it up to his mouth and took the contents.

"She ran over and said, 'What are you doing, Charlie?' and before he answered she ran out to the kitchen and told the chef.

trying to get him to come back, but every time he tried to hold

AFTER CANADIAN FORESTS

Yankee Lumbermen Trying to Get Per-

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Amercompany has been successful in getting a reduction in the lumber sched-ers of Canadian timber have temporarily transferred their activities from Washington to Victoria, B.C.

The same paper asserts that members of the ways and means committee have been informed that some of those who advocated free lumber before that committee are now at work to have the provincial parliament which now run twenty-one years, made perpetual.

It is said that there is an organization composed almost entirely of citizens of the United States and that an investment of a quarter of a million dollars will be made for the purpose of getting more complete control of the Canadian forests.

This organization, it is further said, will enter Canadian politics on a large scale, and it is declared that both parties are seeking its favor.

Altho it did not succeed in getting members on the free list, the cutting of the rates in half is considered advantageous to double the value of their holdings and to warrant the investment of a Canadian lumber holding company.

REV. DR. JACKSON CLEARS AWAY ERRORS

"Common Sense" and "Myth" Misinterpreted—His Faith Not Shaken in Divine Au- thority.

To a gathering of men which filled the great auditorium of Shebourn-street Methodist Church, Rev. George Jackson spoke yesterday afternoon on the question, "Does the Old Testament Contain a Divine Revelation," which concluded a series of five addresses to men on Old Testament interpretation.

Rev. Mr. Jackson began by stating that a heated controversy had unfortunately arisen since they had last met.
Some things had been said which one would hope would be speedily forgotten.
His hearers had been warned against him a preacher whose public teachings were unchristian, that he had outraged Ingersoll. To such statements his only answer would be to show that there were others whose hearts may have been turned which he would do anything in his power to correct.

"Two points in my previous lecture," explained Rev. Mr. Jackson, "on the early narratives of Genesis, appear to have led to very considerable misapprehension, and I wish to take this opportunity to add brief explanatory words."
"First of all, in regard to what I said about the use of 'common sense' in the interpretation of Scripture, the thing was further from my thought than the setting up of 'common sense' as the supreme arbiter and test of holy Scripture. All I meant, and I said, was that the particular objection to which I was replying, nothing more was necessary than the use of the same common sense method which I always used to the study of other biblical literature."

"That, of course, 'common sense' alone will not put a man into full possession of the truth of the Scriptures; spiritual things must be spiritually discerned, and if a man is spiritually blind all the common sense in the world will not reveal to him the deep things of the Word of God. I did not say this in the lecture, because it did not lie within the scope of my argument to do so; but surely the absence of an affirmation should not be construed into a denial."

"The Word 'Myth.'"
"Again, great objection has been taken to my use of the term 'myth,' as applied to some of the early stories in the book of Genesis. I admit that the term is not free from reproach, because, unfortunately, to the minds of many it suggests simply what is false.
But this is a misunderstanding of the word. A nation in its infancy clothes its thoughts in a mythical form, just as a little child loves to clothe its imagination in the garb of fairy tales. And just as we in the picture-world of the child to reach him, so has God used the primitive ideas of primitive man in the external truths concerning Himself.
Thus, in the opening chapters of the book of Genesis, we learn that God is the creator of all things, that He has made in His image that sin has degraded that which He made 'very good,' and so forth.

"But nothing I said in my previous lecture in any way weakens my faith in the inspiration of the Old Testament or its Divine authority."
"The whole object of the following lecture is to show that the historical study of the Scriptures, so far from disturbing that faith, establishes it more firmly than ever."

"The fact that I do this method of study touch our faith in Jesus Christ as Son of Man, Son of God and Saviour of the world, whatever the consequences of accepting the point of view of modern criticism, for myself I desire most solemnly to reaffirm my faith in Scripture as the unshaken Word of God, and as the only perfect Word of faith and life, and in Jesus Christ as the one hope of sinful race, 'My Lord and my God.'"

OBJECTIONS TO "FEEDERS"

Branch Lines in New Brunswick Said to Be a Bad Bargain.

OTTAWA, March 21.—(Special.)— That there will be a strong protest from the west against the proposal that the government buy branch lines in New Brunswick to act as "feeders" to the Intercolonial is assured.

When the investigation on the "assets" of the Dominion, as suggested by H. B. Ames, has taken place, it will reveal the meagre condition of most of those lines. It will show that they were constructed out of old rails and fastenings obtained from the Intercolonial on credit, which have not yet been paid for, and probably never will be.

Besides, in some cases, these lines are dependent for their equipment upon Intercolonial cars. They were all subsidized at the outset.

"Yet it is property of this kind," said a western M.P., discussing the subject, "that the government is being asked to acquire at a considerable cash outlay."

BOY STILL MISSING

Hundreds of Letters of Sympathy Received by Parents.

SHARON, Pa., March 21.—Weary and worn, showing in his face the terrible strain under which he has been for the last three days, J. P. Whittle, father of Willie Whittle, the kidnaped boy returned this morning from a fruitless trip to Cleveland.

The father refuses to sleep at all, and keeps up thru sleep with power.
To-day physicians gave orders that Mrs. Whittle be not allowed to see any visitors.

Hundreds of letters from all over the country continue to pour in from friends and strangers alike, tendering sympathy.

Whittle did lead $10,000 in Flatiron Park, Ashland, Ohio, last night, as requested by an unknown writer, but the police heard of it and lay in wait.
No one came.

POLICE PENSION FUND.

The permission sought by Toronto from the legislature to grant $10,000 per year for forty years to the police benefit fund is worthy of careful consideration by the private bills committee.

By voluntary assessment to the extent of seven per cent. of their salaries the police have accumulated a fund of $300,000, and on this fund some twenty men have already been retired. To an equal number of the force, as now constituted, superannuation is past due, but these men are retained on active police duty year after year for lack of financial facilities to retire them.

These constables are long past the age when the hardships of active patrol duty should devolve upon them, and the efficiency of the force is further impaired when the absence of a sound pension system deters desirable men from joining.

The city in making the grant should make it conditional on the police maintaining their contributions at the present standard, which is considerably in excess of that in other cities of equal size. The firemen's fund now receives $750 every year from the city. The police force contains about 400 men, the fire fighting force about 250. These branches of the civic service entail exposure, hardship and danger to the men, and there is every justification from the standpoint of efficient administration for assisting in establishing a sound pension fund.

The provisions under which the men participate are onerous, and the period of service long. Under the present regulations after thirty years' service a man can only draw a pension equal to half the amount of the salary he received when he had been a constable for twenty-five years.

The necessity for aid from the city is obvious, and it should be borne in mind by the legislature that the position of a city of 350,000 inhabitants is exceptional and cannot be judged by considerations applicable to smaller communities.

MASSEY HALL.

As a matter of principle The World is opposed to exempting property of any kind from the incidence of city taxation. Concessions of this nature are simply indirect subsidies and are unjust to the general body of ratepayers. We have always approved the attitude of the Baptists in connection with the exemption of church property and we are not inclined to depart from our conviction even in the case of the Massey Hall. This, however, does not mean that the city should not accept a share of the expense of maintaining this splendid civic asset—quite the contrary. Massey Hall has done much for Toronto musically and no more commendable or valuable gift was ever made to a community than this particular instance of the late Mr. Massey's generosity. The fact that exemption was promised before its erection naturally adds to the obligation to give assistance, even if objectionable in that form. But there is no reason why it should not be given outright and frankly as to a building which has been of immense public service and is now indeed indispensable. The trustees are willing to give the city representation on the board in return for exemption and will no doubt be equally ready if relief takes another form. The World thinks the city council should confer with the trustees and assume responsibility for a definite part of the expense of maintaining the Massey Hall in good condition and repair.

ENCOURAGE GOOD PLAYS.

One of the facts that make clerical denunciation of the theatre futile is that almost all such criticism is destructive rather than constructive and the practice invariably in the same direction. Last week Toronto's attitude in this respect afforded a typical example of the way how not to improve the theatre. Two of the finest plays of recent years were presented in the leading theatres. In tone, in morals, in point of literary quality, of dramatic workmanship and of stagecraft they rank with the strongest plays of the generation.

In "Salvation Nell's" sermon on the text, "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden," there was delivered one of the most powerful gospel messages ever heard. A sermon on the same text yesterday seemed lifeless—bloodless, in comparison. It would have profited the church in Toronto to have had its lost sheep hear Mrs. Plake preach the gospel of the poor man's Christ. But the attendance was only average, and there was no preponderance of good people over ordinary play-goers in the audiences.

Not long ago one of the same theatres was packed and gave an extra performance to accommodate the crowd drawn to see the kind of thing that is associated with the worship of Bacchus and Bellal. The theatres will continue to supply what the people want. There are enough high-minded theatrical managers and playwrights to furnish good plays of very slight encouragement. If the church people are in earnest about the elevation of the drama and the stage they should support such plays as serve that end. Their presence in the theatre would determine the kind of dramas that would become popular and the less pious might gradually acquire the taste. As it is, the good people encourage the performance of demoralizing plays by refusing to support good ones.

FUTURE OF MASSEY HALL.

Editor World: My attention has been called to an article as to the future of the Massey Hall and the possibility that it may be closed unless the city council accede to the demand for its exemption from taxation. From the reports in the papers I was under the impression that this had been acceded to on the condition that a representative of the corporation be added to the trustee board of Massey Hall. The article states that the hall may not long be carried on but that under the terms of Mr. Hart Massey's will, it will be sold and the proceeds devoted to charity. Would it not be a wise thing in this event for the city council to purchase Massey Hall and make it in reality the City Music Hall, retaining and honoring the Massey name? This would settle the question of tax exemption, relieve the trustees of any pecuniary loss, and Toronto would have its City Music Hall in line with the great cities of England, the United States and Australia.

SUES ROSEBERY FOR SLANDER

Former Employee is Asking for $50,000 Damages.

LONDON, March 21.—A case in which Andrew Learmont Drysdale seeks to recover $50,000 for alleged slander from Lord Rosebery, whom he formerly employed, came up in the court of sessions of Edinburgh, Friday. Counsel discussed the question whether in his case he should sue for libel, and Lord Salvesen reserved his decision on the point. It was contended on behalf of Drysdale that Lord Rosebery, in sending him a letter stating that he wished to hold an investigation, and afterward causing a safe in Drysdale's office to be broken open and his (Lord Rosebery's) books, papers and money to be removed, had calumniously represented that Drysdale had been unfaithful in the discharge of his duty. Lord Rosebery's counsel denied that there was anything in that method of getting his books and papers to justify an allegation of slander. He said that an employer was not committing slander by harboring a suspicion of a servant. Counsel for Drysdale pointed out that his client had been in the service of Lord Rosebery 25 years, managing an estate bringing in about $125,000 yearly. Drysdale did not question Lord Rosebery's right to get the papers. It was the manner of getting them that he complained of.

WORLD GETTING BETTER THINKS REV. DR. CHOWN

Temperance Sentiment Steadily Gaining Ground—Big Campaign in Ontario.

That the movement for moral reform and temperance is gaining world-wide impetus was the confidently expressed opinion of Rev. S. D. Chown, speaking in Broadway Tabernacle last night. He had noticed in Paris that the walls of the gay city showed posters giving warning of the evil effects of alcohol, indicating a remarkable vanguard of sobriety. In London he found that the reform crusaders were looking to Canada for ideals. The house of lords had temporarily restricted the movement to cut off 22,000 licensed liquor places, but ultimately the object would be gained.

In the United States many millions of people were living under the laws, and the refusal of a Democratic state convention to insert a liquor plank in its platform, although offering under prohibition things under license. As for Ontario, there were more local option campaigns which would reach a consummation next January than during the past year. If the three-fifths clause were taken off, the water wagon would soon run its way all over the province," he asserted. "The sentiment of our people is growing and the liquor trade is saved only by the effects of the clause." He characterized Toronto's license reduction campaign as a "young man's battle."

The Manitoba government had adopted the best local option law in Canada, and in short time there would be a magnificent campaign for local option in Saskatchewan. In Alberta the hour for closing the saloons had been set for 10 p.m., and the local alliance expected complete prohibition in five years. In British Columbia the prohibitive bill was introduced to give temperance its exemption from taxation. From the reports in the papers I was under the impression that this had been acceded to on the condition that a representative of the corporation be added to the trustee board of Massey Hall.

The speaker regretted that missionaries being sent forth from Canada had still to apologize for the country that sent them out. A country under the license system was an exclusive-making one. He longed for the time when it could be said there was no drunkenness in Canada, no tolerance of social evil, and no under-paid hirelings.

University Sermon

Rev. John McNeill of Walmer-road Baptist Church, who was the speaker at the University of Toronto, in his university sermon, said that the Father of Jesus was the ultimate Father of the realm, of all final knowledge. He said that the Father of Jesus was the ultimate Father of the realm, of all final knowledge. He said that the Father of Jesus was the ultimate Father of the realm, of all final knowledge.

Mr. McNeill is always very happy in his quotations which as a rule are not hackneyed. He deserves credit for calling attention to the poem composed by Frederick W. H. Myers, "St. Paul," in which he quoted the exquisite final lines with effective emphasis. He spoke of Myers' psychic researches doubtfully, and said the value of his work remained to be proved. Such is the ingratitude of the church to science when they are closest together.

Mr. McNeill had something useful to say on the text, "If the light that is in thee be darkness how great is the darkness of thee." He said that he declared, and he warned his hearers against the possible atrophy of all the spiritual organs, and especially of spiritual vision by the failure to realize and use them. Christ should become, not only the object, but the pattern of faith.

Here are a few more of Mr. McNeill's ideas picked at random.

The word Father, said the preacher, on the lips of Christ, was a larger and richer word than God could ever be on the lips of man.

The gracious, sweet and thoughtful Father had placed all His treasures on the lowest shelf where the little children could reach them.

Mental pride and spiritual blindness go hand in hand. The doom falls on every high-minded Pharisee. The secret of the Pharisee, which philosophy demanded, the crown and goal of all things, was personality. Its riches, its expression was in Jesus when "Wherever the soul was simple and childlike and teachable it absorbed the mystery."

Fatherhood was not an idea that could be found in the lives of men and lifted up and glorified and attacked to the idea of God. It came from above. The truest education is always religious and the truest religion is always educative.

We hail the leaders of thought who interpret our knowledge in terms of the concept of fatherhood. Tennessee was studying botany in this light when he wrote "Flower in the Crannied Wall."

A man's education only reaches the climax when he reaches the facts of fatherhood, but fatherhood itself. Christ proclaims Himself the solitary child into the realm of the knowledge of the Father. "No man cometh unto the Father but by Me."

The spiritual consciousness of Jesus found a direct response in the highest spiritual consciousness of His disciples. They were sure that in Christ they had found the great reply to the spiritual need of their hearts.

COBALT---Mining Markets Irregular With Some Stocks Weak---COBALT

MINING STOCKS ARE HEAVY AT CLOSE OF THE WEEK

Drives Are Made Against Some Shares and the Market Becomes Highly Irregular.

World Office. Saturday Evening, March 20. Local mining markets started this week's trading with a better tone than expected, but rales on the market to close the week on the weak showing a shrinkage in prices from last Saturday's closing.

The issues that attracted the attention of traders on the short side of the market were Temiskaming and Beaver. The former lost some 20 points. It was rumored that forced liquidation was taking place in this stock, but the opinion of brokers generally was that it was simply a bear raid. Beaver lost quite 10 points on the week's trading.

The price of silver. Bar silver in London, 25 5/16 oz. Bar silver in New York, 95 3/4 oz. Mexican dollars, etc.

NORTH IS EXPANDING BY PROSPECTING PROCESS

Experienced Prospector Predicts Much Wealth Hidden by Snow.

"The Man on the Trail," while traveling back to the "front," as the cities are called by men in the bush, met Henry A. Tower, an experienced prospector who has followed mining rushes in all parts of the world, from Australia to Nevada.

He says that in spite of the discoveries already made some good silver prizes will be sprung after the next-up season, when it will be a mere opportunity to really find out the extent of the wealth now hidden under the snow.

Referring more directly to the south end of Gowganda Lake, Mr. Tower was emphatic in his faith that the O'Kelly, Welsh and Fairburn claims would take a prominent part in establishing the reputation of the camp.

WHY DON'T YOU GET IN?

YOU were never offered a better opportunity to get in on the GROUND FLOOR in a Silver Mining Proposition than is offered you TO-DAY by the MacGREGOR Syndicate.

SAFETY It's a safe proposition because of the splendid location and silver formation, adjacent to the famous O'Kelly, Bartlett, Mann and other rich discoveries.

PROFITS Being owners of the properties, the Syndicate will reap all the benefits coming from the sale of shares in the $2,000,000 company it is proposed to form, when, according to Syndicate agreement, each share in the Syndicate will give you 6,000 shares in the company.

The MacGREGOR Syndicate is being formed for $20,000 to own and develop three 40-acre properties at the south end of GOWGANDA Lake. The shares are $100 each; one or more shares may be taken. A rich chance for the man of modest means.

You'll surely lose money if this chance gets past you. Settle the matter TO-DAY.

Agreement of purchase may be seen at our office. Makes cheques payable to ROYAL BANK OF CANADA.

POLICE BENEFIT FUND ENTITLED TO A GRANT

Toronto the Only City Anywhere That Compels Men to Pay Such Heavy Percentages.

To-morrow the private bills committee of the legislature will once more consider the request of the city council to make an annual grant of $10,000 to the Police Benefit Fund.

The history of the fund and some of the reasons why a grant should be passed are set out in the following terms:

Prior to 1882 when the benefit fund was first inaugurated, the city had to pay considerable sums to policemen who were incapacitated from duty from various causes.

By the city coming to the aid of the fund by an annual grant of $10,000, which is proposed, these old men could all be let out on pension on account of their age.

And as the board of control and city council are unanimously in favor of this and believe it to be in the interests of the city, and as the Whitney government has only recently passed a similar bill unopposed for the firemen's benefit fund, it is believed that the Police Benefit Fund will doubtless get similar consideration.
