Sir Robert Finlay Argues That Newfoundland Fisheries Issue Turns on Seven Ouestions.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
THE HAGUE, June 6.—Sir Robert
Finlay to-day opened the case on behalf of the Canadian Government. His speech is expected to last a fortnight. By arrangement the speeches of Messrs. Robson and Root will not be delivered until the close or the arbitra-

Finlay to-day showed that the matter for arbitration turned upon seven questions concerning the interpretation of the treaty of 1818. He argued that Britain could regulate these fisheries without the co-operation of the United States, forbid the employment of non-American citizens in the fisheries, collect customs and other duties on vestigations. lect customs and other duties on vessels and freely define what territorial waters formed a bay, forbid fishing in Newfoundland Bay, and deprive fishing vessels of commercial privileges. He gave a long historical review of the question, showing that the United States itself, contrary to its present attitude, had considered as bays territorial waters the entrance to which attitude, had considered as bays territorial waters the entrance to which was more than six nautical miles wide. He then quoted diplomatic documents refuting the assertion that prior to the conclusion of the 1818 treaty, Britain had already limited her jurisdiction to the three miles limit, including bays. The tribunal will meet four days a week and remain in session four hours a day. At this rate the argument will not conclude before the end of August, possibly the middle of September.

The preliminary meeting was held in the court of arbitration building, but the room is insufficient for the court and the representatives of the contending parties, therefore they decided to try to get more commodious quarters. It was expected that Dutch official life would put itself out for the purpose of meeting the wishes of the tribunal, but it took no interest whatever in the search for commodious quarters. Eventually the tribunal discovered in the top flat of the parliament buildings a high ungainly, unlighted, unfurnished attic, vacant. BUILDERS NOT HAMPERED the Labor They Need, They Say.

The Builders' Exchange last evening issued a statement saying that "the so-called strike on the part of the aborers was not invited by the builders. Many of the builders were paying from 28 to 30 cents per hour to their best men and were prepared to said about $660 a year. It was sug-gested that the men's salaries be in future $45 per month for first year, $50 ed as individuals and not as an association. But it was plainly evident by the procedure of the officers of the union that recognition of that union was their sole object. "At a meeting of the members of the exchange, held yesterday, it was unanimously agreed that the market was amply supplied by labor necessary for their pursuits by those who are not members of the laborer union, the members having reported personally that all their buildings were in operation."

the 42 foot strip of land reserved for railway purposes on the east side of the Don River. This reservation begins 33 feet east of the river bank. These tracks are designed to give facilities to industries in the locality, and the city intends, with the commission's consent, to extend them into the Ashbridge's Bay area, which is rich in industrial possibilities. The westerly fourteen feet of the reservation are given to the Canadian Northern, from Winchester-street, to a point south of Queen-street, as part of its main line running track, "as soon as its pians of city tracks and terminals are laid out and approved by the railway commission showing the said strip to be a necessary part of such system."

the said strip to be a necessary part of such system."

City Should Be Fair.

Ald. Maguire held that the city was treating the Canadian Northern as an alien and not as the only great railway which had selected Toronto for its headquarters, pointing to the manner in which the C.P.R. and Grand Trunk favored Montreal as against Toronto's interests. He questioned the fairness of demanding disclosure of terminal plans as a condition.

Ald. Chisholm moved that the board of control consider an arrangement which would allow the C.N.R. to begin laying down its tracks at once. He thought that if the railway were restricted to; approaching a certain point on the east side of the Don below Queen-street, the danger of the railway securing access to the jeal-

To Do Without Experts. In deciding to extend the intake pipe 500 feet out into the lake, council acted in direct opposition to the advice of Medical Health Officer Sheard, who only a few days ago gave the board of control the emphatic opinion that to do so would be a sheer waste of money so far as benefits backgrights and the concerned, fits, bacteriologically, were concerned, as analysis had shown sewage contamination was even greater at this point than at the intake. Controller Spence alone, however, supported Dr.

Sheard's position.

The overwhelming vote against engaging the expert engineers, G. H. Benzenberg, Milwaukee, and E. H. Keating, former city engineer, to re-port on what should be done came as Foster is Patriotic. Discussion was started by Controller Foster, who proposed that Principal Galbraith of the School of Practical Science and T. Aird Murray be substituted for Messrs. Benzenberg and Keating on patriotic grounds. He quoted from The Canadian Engineer to show that Canada abounded in native sons who were qualified to undertive sons who were qualified to under-take engineering works of any size, and Controller Church backed up the assertions, but the motion along this line was dropped when the plan to en-gage experts was discarded altogether. Ald. Maguire deprecated an alleged tendency of council to engage experts on almost every question. Messrs. Rust and Fellows should know best. If Mr. Rust were incapable, his resig-nation should be demanded.

Ald. May held that the proposal to get experts was another evidence that the board had lost faith in Mr. Rust. "I think myself that Mr. Rust is not up to the standard required by the city and we should get another man of higher calibre," he said. What Spence Would Do.

Controller Spence tried in vain to stem the tide. He admitted that Mr. Rust recommended the extension of 500 feet to get beyond the drift of sand, but charged that the public for such extension was inspired by the ope of escaping another typhoid epidemic, while tests showed that only by extending to 2000 feet would the quality of the water be improved. The city had no right to make any extension without being guided by the best engineering advice, and he would rather spend the money on doubling the forces on the trunk sewer and filtration plant and having these works rushed night and day. Ald. Dunn Gets Angry.

"Contemptible" and "picayune" were terms used by Ald. Dunn with reference to the alleged tardiness of the board of control in proceeding with the building of the new fire stations for which funds were voted last January. The discovery that the contract for the Howland-avenue station didn't call for its completion until March 1911, particularly incensed the man of the fire and light committee. "The picayune manner in which the board is trying to get out of building the fire stations brands them as a lot of schoolboys. I know of no act more deserving of condemnation." The board received this flery slaught with placid serenity and offered no explanation. Three readings were given the by law authorizing the issue of $134,900 in debentures for the acquisition of parks and playgrounds, taking advantage of the permission given by the legislature to devote half a mill on the 1910 assessment revenue to this purpose. The entire amount is swallowed up in the purchase of the Arnold-square and Elizabeth-street playgrounds.

"Toronto Illustrated" from A. E. Hacker, at $1250, met with some opposition In reply to Ald. McBride, Controlle Spence admitted that these books were the same as those which the city has been sending out for the past two or three years, save for a few additional views. Ald. Hambly remarked that picture books were interesting, as shown by the success of "Buster Brown," but he doubted their effectiveness in attracting industries. Ald. McCausland demanded informa tion as to whether the board intended to appoint a commissioner of indus tries. Controller Spence vouchsafed that the board hadn't dealt with the matter, and ignored the alderman's query as to whether the board intend ed to do so. Ald Dunn's motion to have copies the book inspected by the aldermon before buying was voted down. The board held that they should be secured

No opposition was offered to all pointing a special committee to con sider placing the city's waterfront and harbor under a commission. It will be composed of the board of control and chairmen of six standing committees. "Special committees are a farce," nounced Ald. McBride, in refusing go on a committee to report on revision of the water rates so as to make them more equitable and also to relieve water users in the outside districts notably Swansea, "who may be found to be charged unreasonably high prices therefor." Ald. Heyd was substituted. Early Start Voted Down, Ald. Phelan got good support for his plan of starting council meetings at 2 p m. instead of 3 p.m., but failed to on a close vote. No opposition was offered pointing a special committee to consider municipal government by commission.

On Ald. Dunn's motion, the board will ask the city engineer to report on the advisability of rushing the work on the filtration plant by putting on three shifts of eight hours each. Civic employes who belong to the 12th York Rangers can go to Niagara camp without loss of salary. Ald. McCarthy obtained this concession.

ed to the fumes.

Chief Croker not only led the rescue work, but he and Captain "Big John" Sullivan took the body of one of the men from the ruins.

Just as the firemen broke in a window on the top floor, they were met by a sheet of flame and a fierce back draught which almost blew some of them from the window sills.

Croker issued a call for volunteers to go to the aid of the injured men. Nearly a hundred men lined up before the chief, and out of this number he selected a dozen. These firemen scaled the ladders to the top floor and fought their way into the furnace that plazed before them.

It was a desperate fight before they succeeded in getting to where their comrades lay senseless on the floor.

MR. FLEMING'S AIR LINES.

Toronto called Mr. Fleming's bluff when it told him to go ahead and build the lines he wanted. Now he has a legal reason why he should not build them. He does not really want to build any more lines.

The Stare argues against any changes it has a sufficient investment in Toronto Street Railway. It thinks it is getting a higely satisfactory return on that investment. It sees no reason from a business point of view to tie up any more capital on a limited iranchise. The traffic will increase and the cars become more crowded. Besides.

MRIN FLEMING'S AIR LINES.

The Star goes on in an ambiguistic it was a most impressive spectacie. Mr. Stock had to wait four hours in the line in order to see the triping in the line in order to see the triping in the line in order to see the triping in the line in order to see the triping in the line in order to see the triping in the line in order to see the triping in the line in order to see the triping in the line in order to see the triping and the triping and the would merely refer to our editorial on May 16 to settle that point.

The Star argues against any changes presumably because as things are The Star can get anything it wants to its chief client, the street railway.

The Star reactionary as usual, finds government here "reasonably efficient" How would The Star Printing and Publishing Company of Toronto, Limited, like to have a "reasonably efficient" management? No business that is not conducted in a first-class way can survive, but the city is expected by The part of the granary of the empty of the empty of the empty of the four hours of the line in order to see the line

New York Central Cancels Orders Pending Freight Rate Settlement.

NEW YORK, June 6 .- W. C. Brown president of the New York Central Railroad, issued a statement to-night confirming the report that the New York Central had cancelled orders for freight cars costing $3,000,000, and that in addition, instructions requesting bids for freight cars totalling in cost $4,000,000 had been withdrawn. He added that expenditures for improvements amounting approximately to $8,000,000 had been held up, pending $$,000,000 had been held up, pending settlement of the freight rate question. He also said that negotiations in Paris affecting the sale of bonds and debentures of the Cleveland, Cincinnatti and Chicago Railroad and the Michigan Central, totalling $27,500,000 had been discontinued in view of the unfavorable impression created in France by developments here.

Sensational Trial Opens.
BERLIN, June 6.—The trial of Fran Von Schoenbeck-Weber, of exalte birth and high rank, on a charge of instigating the murder of her nusband Major Von Schoenbeck, on Christma Day, 1907, and of being an accessor; to the murder committed by Captain Von Goeben, began to-day at Allen-

Trial on Charge of Suborning Perjury Bostpened Till September Under Unusual Conditions.

"The crown believes and is firmly convinced that there are no such witnesses in existence as those whose names appear upon the receipt presented by Atlas to show payment of the $400 from her late husband's estate to the Widow Simonf. We have in our possession the affidavit of the mayor of her village, Gorno Nevalaini, declaring that no such men reside in the village or are known ever to have been there. We have further the word of the British vice-consul at Monastir, that he has prosecuted a thoro enquiry and can find no trace of these alleged witnesses. And we have the further assurance of the widow and the other witnesses from that village that no such men were present at the signing of the power of attorney, that no receipt was signed or money paid, and that no men bearing the names appearing as witnesses to the receipt are known there. known there.

"Notwithstanding all this and in view of the wide circulation of reports that the prosecution of Atlas has been rather a persecution, the crown has seen fit to consent to a postponement of the hearing, so that the counsel for the defence may be convinced that no such witnesses exist."

—Statement of assistant county crown attorney

The above statement was made by L. Monahan, assistant coun-crown attorney, at the close crown attorney in the of yesterday's hearing in the general sessions, when the charge of subornation of perjury charge of subornation of perjury against George H. Atlas, was traversed to September. Atlas will come up for sentence upon charges of forgery and theft on Thursday.

The postponement till September is on the understanding that if the witnesses are not then forthcoming Mr. Robinette will advise Atlas to plend guilty. Atlas signed a document to this effect.

At the opening of the court Mr. Robinette moved for a stated case for the court of appeal upon the grounds without a jury.

Both appeals are dismissed, without costs. Judgment is to be entered for the plaintiff on their motion for judgment on further directions for the amount found due to them by the report as so varied. The defendants are to pay the plaintiff's costs of the action, and reference (except in so far as increased by the claim for interest), and the costs of the motion for judgment.

Trial. fendant.

Judgment: The plaintiff, a resident of Findlay, Ohio, brings action to recover the sum of $430 paid to one Webster, whom he alleges to have been at the time an agent of the defendants. The money was paid, Carter asserts, in connection with a proposition of defendants that a syndicate should be formed in Findlay to purchase from them 10,000 acres of land in the Province of Saskatchewan. If the syndicate was not completed, that is, if purchasers were not secured for the whole 10,000 acres the money of the subscribers was to be returned without any deduction whatever. The syndicate was not completed, subscribers were secured for but 2830 acres. The plaintiff handed Webster a cheque for $430, fifty cents an acre on the 960 acres for which he subscribed. The cheque was payable to the defendants, who duly collected it. They were willing at one time to return $330 to the plaintiff, but they now rely on the agreement signed by Carter and contend that the $430 has thereby become forfeited. Judgment for the plaintiff for $450, interest from date of writ, and costs.

that it remained intact to the end of the play.

Nor could any one say that the intense interest was due to the charm of the delightful comedy presented at this first performance of the company. That, since it is one of those productions which depend for success on interpretative ability, possibly for that reason are all the more representative of the art which appeals to the risible faculties of the audience.

The comedy offered by the Percy Haswell Players is an adaptation from the French made by Cosmo Gordon Lennox. It retains something of the vivacity of its original without the elements which are commonly assovivacity of its original without the elements which are commonly associated with French comedy. But it is not so much a comedy as a farce, frankly amusing without any pretension to any more pretentious title. The theme of a temporary marriage to enable an estate to descend to an heir, prohibited from marrying a lady, the wealthy relative disapproves, has been often used. But in this instance it is treated with a certain freshness t is treated with a certain freshness which redeems any hackneyed quality and affords scope for novel interpretations in themselves highly amusing.

There are only seven characters in the comedy, which of itself requires a certain dramatic interpretation.

Indeed, the frequent laughter that accompanied the performance was the best of all tributes to the exellence of the company and their in terpretative ability.

with her part. It does not call for more than the lighter art of comedy, but it was sufficient to show that in other roles Miss Haswell will win equal distinction. Her company gave her thoroly good support. Miss Helen Hilton gave an artistic rendering of the part of Madame De Semiano, Richard Gordon, as Sir Reginald Belsize, and Robert Smiley, as John Travers, were excellent, and Bryant Washburn, as Hampton: William Crimans, as Norbury, and Miss Rachel Crown, as the French maid, made the most of their parts.

The play was beautifully staged and in response to repeated calls Miss Haswell, surrounded by those of her company who appeared, made a little speech of thanks, asking particularly that her coming presentation of "As" ou Like It" should be awaited.

Not Their Heads.

At least one minister of the gospel does not hold with the sentimentality of the men of the cloth who have draped themselves picturesquely about the neck of "Rev." George M. Atlas, convicted of forgery and theft. He is Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, pastor of the Bond-street Congregational Church.

Speaking from his pulpit on Súnday, he said: "The verdict of the jury in the Atlas case was a just verdict, and it is the only one that could have been returned upon the facts. It is the verdict that any twelve men from any of the city churches must have given had they not been preachers themselves.

"The great trouble with the preachers is that they work too much with their hearts, and not enough with their hearts and not enough with their hearts.

Are You Paying for a Home Or Paying for Nothing?--Which?

Perhaps you never thought about the paying of rent as a waste of money. The fact is the wage earner's only chance of ever owning a home is to convert the money he pays for rent into payments on his own property.

Our Home-Owning Plan is As Easy as Paying Rent

With the advantage that when you have paid a certain length of time you are owner. When you pay rent for a certain length of time you move OUT and own NOTHING. When you OWN A HOME and need money, or wish to move, you can SELL your property, usually for more than you pay for it.

This announcement was made by Six James Whitney yesterday afternoon. He said that three tenders had been received—one from the Grand Trunk Railway Co., offering $617,000. The other two tenders were from the C. P. R., the first offering $380,000 for the strip fronting on King-street, having a depth of 10 feet, and for the remainder of the property the sum of 405,000, and offer of $800,000 for the entire parcel, which has been accepted.

It is not known to what actual purpose the C. P. R. will devote this land; probably it will be used for freight yards, but in any event assurance is said to have been given that the King street frontage will not be desecrated by unsightly greight sheds; rather, this portion of the property will be used to extend the office accommodation in the city, for which the company

-Conditions in India Similar to Egypt.

LONDON. June 5 .- The government, ter arranging in order the civil list, the arranging in order the civil list, he finance bill, the regency bill and he revision of the Protestant declaration. Will have leisure for considering the succession in India after the retirement of Lord Minto and the state of Egypt. Lord Carrington and Lord Crewe have been credited with an ambition for the office of viceroy, but one lacks vigorous health, and the other cannot be spared from the upper house in the impending struggle. Lord Beauchamps claims have also been advocated, and Lord Kitchener's admirers have contended that he ought to be sent back to India instead of being dondemned to idleness at Malta.

There has been, since Mr. Roosevelt's speech, considerable talk about sending Lord Kitchener to Bypt, and recalling Sir Eldon Gorst, and Lord Selborne has been named as one who would make an ideal viceroy in India. The recall of Sir Eldon Gorst would be a more fulsome tribute to Mr. Roosevelt's influence than a self-respecting government could be expected to offer. The British policy in Egypt will be stiffened in consequence of the expresident's warning, and Sir Eldon will remain where he is. Lord Selborne, who received a warm welcome at Southampton and Blackmoore Saturday, its a Unionist whom the Liberal have kept at an important post in South Africa, and a long-time Liberal peer will probably be chosen for viceroy, of India.

Many Cobalt properties of only 40 acres, is a very moderate price. Many Cobalt properties of only 40 much more money and few of the Cobalt properties had such rich surface showings.

I was shown over the properties a few days ago by Mr. Sweet, who was most courteous in answering questions and showing me the discoveries.

No development work has been done. No shouts have been put into the native slives. Many of the veins have been got in trenching and the silver was left in the trench as discovered and was covered up. The trenches soon filled in with water and to bale out water and show the discoveries meant nearly a day's work. The discoveries have been carefully guarded and very few people were allowed to see them. Three of the veins are almost solid silver, which sticks out of the calcite and clings to the disbase walls. One is two inches in width, one is an inch and a half, and one three-quarters of an inch. Two of them have a strike pair of the purchase and southwest.

There are also on the properties 20 veins, showing a strong mineralization and cobalt bloom with some silver. The surface has only been scratched in a few places to disclose ver. Too Lenient in India?

One is the Right Hon. Henry Chaplin, who writes agreeing with Mr. Roosevelt, while the other is Sir Francis Younghusband who suggests that if the colonel had visited India instead of Egypt he would have returned with exactly the same ideas.

"For some little time," writes Sir Francis, "the naturally healthy blood of England has been suffering from the fumes of sentimentalism. The heart has been right enough in itself, but its action has been stifled in an exotic atmosphere."

The whole district south of Hangingstone gives promise for great min-ing possfoilities with development. I have traveled over a great part of it and my conclusion is that the disturbance at the time of the diabase eruption extended over a great area. I have also traveled over the district around Smoothwater, which lies five or six miles east of the district south of Hangingstone, and here I found a similar diabase formation with capping here and there of coned and otherwise hurt; J. The authors of the exaction to be attempted are the delegates to the provincial accomplices, who have the support of organizations of merchants.

One feature which made its imprint upon my reasoning faculties, is the fact that not only is the diabase of vast extent, but the mineralization of it is so widespread. Some of the richest veins are wholly in the diabase and far remote from any contact with other formations. I find that the prospectors look for contact veins here see they do at Cobalt; but where I port of organizations of merchafts.

Around Cobalt, the con-glomerate and Keewatin thru which the diabase forced itself, pressed upon the intrusive formation and retained the mineral in the veins. Nearest the contacts was the greatest pressure, and the contact veins are usually the richer. The diabase fissured the Kee-watin and the conglomerate, and the mineral elements into the matrix. For this reason, the conglomerate and Keewatin at Cobalt in contact with the diabase had furnished some of the richest veins in the Cobalt camp. So at the Blackburn and Big Six here are contact veins of great richness. But around Hangingstone, the pressure has been done to the cooling of the diabase itself. There has been no great escape of gases to cause a large section of the inflated mass to sink and create a lake, and what lakes there are, are small, not deep and due to the gradual contraction which has created the small valleys and swamps. Another Wave of Liquidation Permeates the Wall Street Market-Canadian Speculative Securities Begin to Indicate Weakness.

As anticipated, liquidation is coming into the Canadian exchanges much more rapidly than has been the case

Joseph says: Bearish attack on Sugar is likely. Buy Steel. Average long Chesapeake and Ohio. Buy Pacifics on dips. Take on New York Central.

The rallying of Saturday's last hour may continue moderately to-day on possible rumors of a favorable development from Washington. If such expectations are not realized we do not be-lieve a rally will hold at present and it is to be anticipated that the prefessional element, while possibly assisting recovery operations, will sell on extension of Saturday's strength, reports from that direction indicating continued bearishness, but with the view ex-pressed that for the moment the tech-nical position is good and liquidation has subsided temporarily.—Financial

The wave of liquidation seems to have ceased for the time and the in-dications are that the decline is over or a while. The public came into the harket at the close of last week, and here is every reason to believe that any good stock is a purchase for a few points. Steel continues to be the bar-ometer and we believe it to be a pur-chase at this time for a turn. The pessimistic sentiment which has been so evident of late is not as great as it was, and the belief that conditions have been painted in darker colors likely been played .- Town Topics.

Steadiness was all that characterized the Toronto stock market to-day. Some small rallies developed from the weakness at the end of last week, but on the advances stocks were to be had without difficulty, dian securities have not by any means appreciated the reaction which has taken place in American stocks. Such does not usually occur on got thru its troubles, and it is acting on former records that traders believe that the Toronto stock market will develop furthe: weakness at

Dominion Millers' Association Secretary Reviews Facts in Connection With Elevator Scandals,

The World:

"While Ontario millers have learned by bitter experience that the Manitoba wheat they get is not always as good quality as they pay for, their complaints of mixing and manipulation of the grades have been met by denial and scorn, so the report of Warehouse Commissioner Castle, published in full in The Winnipeg Tribune of May 27, would prove very interesting to them, especially as it reports that the Winnipeg Grain Exchange regard the matter of such a grave character that they may take action regarding it.

taken by the appointing of extra has been possible. That Commissioner Castle in his report was not disposed to judge the elevator company too harshly, is, I think, pixinly shown by the following quotation: "From the statements submitted by Mr. Gibbs, it appears there were inspected out of the elevator during the week of Dec. 12 106,399.50 bushels mitted by some shipments, which have been by some shipments, which have been by some shipments, which have been mitted from the elevator receipts some than the total receipts sent to me, but this might be explained by some shipments, which have been mitted from the elevator receipts by mistake, and if so it would rest by mistake, and if a fair allowance were made for mistakes in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for mistake in measurement, it would be so for northern to 370,000 bushels, and if a fair allowance were made for the fair allowance were made for the fair allowance will be for northern to 370,000

The amount of illegitimate profit made in this way is not by any means the most serious item, for the fact is that the price of every bushel of wheat the farmers of the Northwest raise is reduced because this degraded No. 1 Northern is shipped to Great Britain, and when the buyer there receives the wheat and finds it not up to the quality which he was entitled to receive, then he fixes the price on all the wheat of that grade he purchases for the balance of the crop on the value of this degraded No. 1 Northern, because he cannot afford to take any chances. In this way, altho only a few million Commissioner Castle says: "In view of this, I do not consider that any action of this kind should be taken at action of this kind should be taken at the present time, but that the elevators should be weighed up as soon as practicable and if it is then ascertained that discrepancies exist to the extent above indicated, or to any serious extent, that the question of cancellation of the Empire Elevator Company's license should be seriously considered." camot afford to take any chances. In this way, altho only a few million bushels may be manipulated during the season, the farmers lose on the whole crop that they raise. The damage to the Ontario miller is even greater, as he is compelled to bring his grain thru the public elevators at Fort William and trust to the government grading, as he is not in a position to buy his wheat direct from the farmers at the mill door, as the millers in the Northwest are. In order to retain his trade both here in Ontario and the Eastern Provinces, he must have as good wheat to manufacture his flour as the big Manitoba miller can get, and it is ap-Perjury Difficult to Prove.

In reference to the Port Arthur elevator, Commissioner Castle reports:
"Mr. Hudson advises me that a proce-"Mr. Hudson advises me that a prosecution of the party making the statements for perjury would be very difficult to sustain, that the prosecution for the mixing of grades would slso be a very difficult one to sustain, and that the magistrate might give the company the benefit of the doubt walker an actual weightup of the and that the inagistic many the company the benefit of the doubt unless an actual weigh-up of the grain in the elevator had been made. It would also involve a protracted and expensive contest. In view of this I do not consider any action of this kind should be taken at present, but that a weigh-up of the elevator should be made as soon as it can be done practicable and in the event of it then being ascertained that any serious discrepancies still exist in the grades, the question of canceling the license should be considered."

I ask you to contrast the mildness Manitoba miller can get, and it is apparent from the revelations made in Commissioner Castle's report that the only way this can be done is for the government to own and operate the elevators at Fort William.

The Farmer's Interest. That every farmer is deeply interested in having the wheat fully up to grade is shown by the discussion at the last annual meeting of the Experithe last annual meeting of the Experimental Union on the damage caused to Ontario farmers by foul seeds imported in Manitoba wheat screenings. The Manitoba Yarmer is docked in weight for the foul seeds, etc., in his grain, and if it was cleaned properly at Fort William it would remain there instead of being shipped down to the Ontario mills, where the foul seeds are taken out with the screenings, and thus reach the Ontario farmers, whereas if the government operated the elevators the wheat would be properly cleaned at Fort William, where it should be.

As the elevator charges at the elevahe arrives at in the case of the Con-solidated Elevator Company, who did everything they could to assist the enquiry, by producing books and docu-ments on request, and while the over-shipments of No. 1 northern in their case only totaled 61,807 bushels, and the shortage of No. 2 northern amounted to 24,164, and No. 3 northern 38,051 bushels. This, they contended, was owing to the loaning of wheat to the owing to the loaning of wheat to the Lake Shippers' Association, and they were only fined $50, yet Commissioner Castle reports: "In view of the action taken by the magistrate and the explanation of the elevator company I think that further action should be deferred until it is practicable to weigh-up the elevators and ascertain to what extent, if any, mixing has been carried on. In event, however, of its being ascertained by the weigh-up that mixing has been carried on, I would recommend that the company's license be canceled for tweive menths."

be innocent.

The results shown in Commissioner Castle's report are of such a nature that every right thinking man would support the government in proceduting elevator companies both on the charges of perjury and of the mixing of the grades, even if all does involve "a protracted and expensive contest," and in punishing them to the utmost limits of the law, and thus showing the foreign buyers of grain carrying the Dominion Government certificate that they can rely on the utmost protection being given shipments made under the government's guarantee, as otherwise the buyers will lose all faith in the government certificates which we have always contended should be no unassailable as a Dominion bank bill, because it means in the eyes of the buyer that the government pleases its self that the quality is genuine.

A Short-sighted Policy.

After the many millions spent by the government in providing facilities to develop our great Northwest, it would appear to be a very short-sighted policy to leave the most important trade of that country at the mercy of a group of unscrupulous men when the government, by investing $7,000,000 or $8,000,000 more, which would return handsome profits, can not only meet the wishes of every branch of the grain trade except the operators themselves, but at the same time provide an absolute guarantee, as far as that is possible, to buyers that they will get the grain they pay for and thus protect its high reputation.
