KUROPATKIN ARRIVES AT MUKDEN IN SAFETY.

But Part of His Rear Guard is in Danger of Being Cut Off—The Russians Evacuating Mukden. Mukden, Tuesday, Sept. 6.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Part of the Russian army, which is coming to Mukden by wagon, is in danger of being cut off. All day and night Monday the Japanese in the hills on the east bank of the river shelled the Russian troops. In one instance the Japanese infantry attacked a large force of Russian infantry and artillery, which had been taken to the hills running parallel to the Japanese to protect the flank of the retreating army.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Sept. 7.—With eleven towns, out of 246 cities and towns yet to be heard from, late and revised returns today indicate that the Republicans carried Vermont yesterday by a plurality in the neighborhood of 31,800. This is a Republican gain over 1902, when the plurality at the state election was 23,312. The total figures for all but eleven towns gives Charles J. Bell, Republican, 46,815 for governor and Bill H. Foster, Democrat, 14,871, or a plurality of 31,944 for Bell. The vote for congressmen ran slightly behind that for the head of the state ticket. Congressman Kittridge Haskins and David J. Foster being re-elected.

STREET CAR MAKES BOY A CRIPPLE. Lad Run Over On Brussels St. Today—Part of His Foot Amputated. A young son of George Beckingham, of 133 Elliott row, met with a serious and very painful accident this morning as he was crossing Brussels street. The lad in question is only seven years of age and is going to school for his first term. This he did quite happily as a healthy boy can be, and was playing on Brussels street in front of the Centennial school house with a number of other boys when in some unknown manner he fell under a passing street car and had one foot crushed.

AGAINST CHAMBERLAIN. British Trades Union Congress Opposes the Imposition of Protective or Preferential Duties. LONDON, Eng., Sept. 7.—The Trades Union Congress today's session adopted by an almost unanimous vote the following resolution: "That in the opinion of this congress, any departure from the principles of free trade would be detrimental to the interests of the working classes, on whom the burdens of protection would press most heavily and injurious to the prosperity of the nation as a whole. The protective duties, by increasing the cost of the people's necessities are unjust in incidence and economically unsound, and maintaining capital at the expense of labor, and that a system of preference or retaliation by creating custom for industries of other countries, would be a hindrance to international progress and peace."

CHANGING HANDS. J. D. McKenna the New Editor—It Will Remain Independent. J. D. McKenna, who has been connected with the press gallery, at the house of commons, Ottawa, for a number of years, has been negotiating for the purchase of the Sussex Record, and the extensive job plant connected with that paper. Mr. McKenna, was asked today as to the truth of a Sussex despatch to the effect that he had been negotiating for the purchase of the paper, whereupon he gave an unqualified denial. The Record, Mr. McKenna says, will be run as an independent journal. At the present, as independent journal. At the present, it looks as if the imaginative correspondent of the Telegraph is aiming at long range political capital.

BURIED TODAY. Many Sorrowing Friends Attend the Funeral of Mrs. C. E. Scamell. This afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. Charles E. Scamell, whose unexpected death on Monday brought grief to a large circle of relatives and friends, took place from her late residence, 118 Orange street. The funeral procession left the house at 2:30 o'clock proceeding to Trinity church, where Rev. Canon Richardson officiated. The Trinity choir in surplice sang the solemn music. Among the large number present were the ladies of the Trinity church branch of the Women's Auxiliary, with whom up to the time of her death Mrs. Scamell had been an active worker. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery. The funeral of the late John Carney took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, Hanover street. The remains were taken to the Cathedral, where Rev. Father Coughlan conducted the burial service. Interment was made in the Old Catholic cemetery.

THE JAPS OUTRUN. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—4:45 p. m.—From the latest advice received by the war office the authorities now believe that the danger of Field Marshal Oyama cutting off Gen. Kuropatkin has practically passed. According to their calculations the whole Russian army should reach Mukden tomorrow night. General Kuropatkin and Kuropatkin have been marching northward along parallel lines, both armies being greatly hampered by heavy roads, the Japanese in a rough region and the Russians along a flat country.

CONSTANT FIGHTING. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—No difficulty is being experienced at the Sun river, where the bridges had been provided for crossing the stream. There has been constant fighting at Mukden, but so far as known by the war office nothing of importance has occurred since the retreat began. The general staff is naturally concerned about Gen. Kuropatkin's plans especially whether he intends to stop at Mukden. His decision probably will depend on the intentions of the Japanese. Contingent preparations will probably be made to evacuate Mukden, and there is considerable evidence that Kuropatkin is compelled to go north will make a stand at Tieling, where the Russians wintered last year.

POLICE COURT. Three Drunks Sentenced and Boy Up for Throwing Stones. In the police court this morning three common drunks were fined four dollars each or ten days in jail. They all went to jail, although they pleaded hard for liberty. One young man said he belonged to Bangor and was a barber by trade, but his excuse was not considered sufficient, and he will be given a chance to follow up his trade in the big King street institution. James Dallen was up on a charge of throwing stones. He explained that some one hit him with a stone and he threw one back. As the man who made the complaint was not present the case stands over. Dallen is fourteen years of age and is employed in a saw mill. He has not been working for a few days past in consequence of a slight injury to his right hand.

KNIFE PLAY AVERTED. Two Italian passengers who alighted from the Boston train nearly got into a clinch at the Union depot this morning. They were in the corridor of the building at the time and their loud talking attracted the attention of passengers, but as it was all in Italian no one was the wiser as to its meaning. One of the disputants pulled out his coat, and the prompt appearance of Officer Stevens prevented their coming to blows and possibly averted some knife play.

GREAT BATTLE IN URUGUAY.

2,000 Men Killed and 4,000 Wounded. Government Troops Defeated and Routed By Rebels in a Three Days Battle. NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A special cable to the Herald from Buenos Ayres, dated September 6, says: "Two thousand men were killed and 4,000 wounded in a battle lasting three days between the Uruguayan government forces and the revolutionists. Gen. Vasquez, minister of war, who led the government troops was defeated and he has retreated abandoning arms and munitions. While Gen. Vasquez recently reported to the government that he had won an important victory over the revolutionists it seems from later news received from the field that his own forces were routed. In a recent battle the revolutionists were driven back and Gen. Vasquez, while pressing his victory was suddenly met by stubborn resistance. The rebels re-assembled their scattered forces and engaged the government troops. For three days the battle raged with terrible losses on both sides. Gradually the rebels drove Vasquez back and according to the last reports the minister of war was in full retreat. The latest reports indicate that the next state senate will be solidly Republican, the Democrats losing their present five seats and that the Democrats will lose about ten representatives. The campaign was hard fought by both of the leading parties, the democrats bending their efforts to a reduction of the republican majority of 31,000. The republicans conceded a falling off from these figures owing to the loss of the gold democrat vote, but a plurality of less than 25,000 for the head of the republican ticket would have been construed as a reverse of republican sentiment."

DAUGHTER OF MILLIONAIRE SENATOR FULFORD MARRIED. (Special to the Star.) BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 7.—A very fashionable wedding took place this morning at Wall street church, Rev. T. J. Mansell officiating, when Miss Dorothy Marston Fulford, eldest daughter of Senator Fulford, was married to Arthur Hardy, of Brantford, son of the former premier of Ontario. Hon. A. S. Hardy, Senator Fulford's gift to his daughter was a handsome house and furnishings adjoining his house in Brockville.

STRIKE SETTLEMENT DEFEATED. CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Voting by the local unions interested in the question whether the stock yards strike should be declared off or not is over and the ballots are to be counted this morning. The result will be first made known to the conference board of the Allied Trades Council and after that body has taken "final action" it will be known definitely what the strikers are going to do. "The proposition has been defeated," said President Donnelly.

HARVESTERS WERE HUNGRY. Edmund D. McCraith, the restaurant keeper at the depot, says that the presence of the harvesters last week gave him one of the toughest jobs in his experience as a caterer. Despite his limited table and counter room, for a time he fed the harvesters at the rate of 100 per hour. He never met such ravenous eaters and he was compelled constantly to replenish his food supply.

OPENING THE CAMPAIGN.

Unless the ominous signs of the time cause the government again to hesitate before placing its case in the hands of the people, R. L. Borden's speech in York Theatre tomorrow night will be the beginning of a campaign which will culminate in a general election inside of three months.

The political situation has changed somewhat since Mr. Borden was elected. Then, as now, the country was apparently on the eve of an election and the Conservatives were organizing their forces for the fight.

Conditions are different now. The government last year evaded open battle, but was forced into a few important skirmishes. With hardly an exception they were lost.

Since Mr. Borden took charge of the Conservative party its representation in Parliament has increased and its share of the popular vote has been increased in even greater proportion.

So it is with a feeling more solid than hope, a feeling of high confidence, that the Conservatives of St. John will greet tomorrow the man who is to lead them in the contest which shall finally try their confidence.

Two hours after the vessel struck she careened over on her beam end and the crew were obliged to get in the rigging on the weather side of the ship.

The State of Vermont, long regarded as the political barometer of the United States, went Republican yesterday by the highest majority in its history.

1878 shows that no long as the Republican majority in Vermont was over 25,000 that party won in general contest. The majority yesterday was over 31,000.

Sporting News.

BASEBALL. St. John, 10; Portland, 8. On the Shamrock grounds yesterday afternoon in the presence of a very small crowd the local Portlanders defeated the Portland, Me., team. The game was slow and uninteresting till the last inning. With the score 9 to 4 against them the locals settled down to business and amid the greatest excitement won out. It was one of those peculiar innings that prove the uncertainty of the game. Britt opened up the run with a pretty double. Malcolm was hit and Donovan's single filled the bases. Rogan's single scored Britt and Malcolm. Treartrick drew four and the bases were set for a double play. The right-center in two men. George went out on a foul fly and Britt succeeded in getting hit, forcing in the score that tied the game. Slasher McCormick took the limit and walked on four, forcing in the winning run.

HARVESTERS LOST HIS LEG. Page three of the Star contains an account of the doings of the harvesters while passing through the province of Quebec and amongst other things of their cutting off the wooden leg of a cripple. It would appear from the accounts that the cripple was a stranger who happened along and fell a victim to their tricks, but it is now known that he was one of the harvesters. Both officers Collins and Stevens at the station remember seeing the cripple as he passed through with the harvesters and say that he was one of the liveliest of the crowd.

LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS.

Information Laid Against M. A.

Harding Who Looked the Inspector In--Another Case.

Information has been laid against M. A. Harding, of Main street, for violation of the liquor law by selling liquor after hours Saturday night. The case was to have been heard at the police court this afternoon.

The evidence against Mr. Harding was secured by Inspector John B. Jones and Sergt. Kilpatrick last Saturday. Between ten and eleven o'clock the lights went out with a click, leaving the place in darkness. Some men who were in a room in back, not knowing what to make of it and not recognizing Mr. Jones, asked him for information. Not receiving it satisfactorily, Kilpatrick outside. "What's the matter?" he said. "There's nothing doing here. We're all locked up."

"Locked up, are you?" queried the sergeant. "Sure" was the reply. "Well," was the rejoinder, "if that's so, the inspector's locked in. You'd better open up again and let him out."

About this time Mr. Jones called the sergeant into the bar to get the names of those present as witnesses, and after one of them had vainly tried to blow out the policeman's electric flash light, the names were secured. Hence the case today.

It is also stated that the inspector on Saturday night visited one of the leading hotels and secured damaging evidence of violation. The story is that about eleven o'clock he walked into the hotel in question. The bar door was locked, but as he was not recognized he was admitted. He was then taken to the brilliantly lighted bar, where a number of thirsty individuals were congregated.

One of them pulled out his watch. "By George," he said, "inspector, you're just in time. We'd have been closed up in five minutes. It's almost seven o'clock."
