Fish is also cheaper, haddock, dore and perch having dropped two cents per pound, while halibut is six cents cheaper than it was two weeks ago.

MANITOBA FARMERS SUPPORT PREMIER

Members Decide Not to Enter House as a Separate Party During the Session.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 21.—The United Farmers of Manitoba today issued a statement favoring the prohibition of liquor importation, and advocating a "dry" vote in Monday's referendum. Rev. Thomas Nevill, provincial organizer for the temperance referendum committee, said today the vote in British Columbia, which has had any serious effect on the Manitoba vote. "Bootlegging," he said, "had become so obnoxious in that province and so wide-spread, through the side-door of importations, that the women looked on government control as something that would relieve the prevailing bad conditions. If they were voting on the Canada Temperance Act, which would have put out importation, I believe they would have carried it."

FOSTER CABINET DOES NOT PICK ANY MINISTERS

DEFEATED MINISTERS REMAIN IN OFFICE

Premier Refuses to Make Any Statement on Situation or on Prohibition.

No Minister Yet

It is quite evident that the Government has been unable to secure from among the Farmers-elect one who would accept the portfolio of agriculture. It was announced here today that David Mercereau, M.L.A. of Sunbury, has put in his claim for that portfolio, and if he does not get it, there will be a "rumor" in the ranks that will not be pleasing. "Dave" is a farmer, and a good one. He is also independent and not thoroughly in sympathy with the Foster regime. If he really wants that portfolio there is a feeling here that he will receive it, although it will not be a pleasing appointment for the premier.

Prohibition Question

Many conflicting reports have gone forth regarding conferences over prohibition matters. This question is one of much concern to the public, but again the premier refuses to make any statement satisfactory to either friend or foe of the Prohibition Act.

Father is Called. A feature of the trial was the questioning of the murdered girl's father, Reuben Bouscock, by the prisoner's counsel, as to whether the father knew before the body of his child was found where it was hidden, and his emphatic denial of any previous knowledge.

Public indignation over the outrage remains at a fever point. McNeal pleaded not guilty.

GREAT STRIKE IN BARCELONA

Barcelona, Oct. 21.—Metal workers to the number of 25,000 have gone on strike here.

MINE STRIKE MAY END IN AN ELECTION

Fear Growing That Leaders Are Losing Control of the Million Mine Workers.

RAIL AND TRANSPORT WORKERS THREATENING

Lloyd George Refuses to Recede from Position Demanding Larger Mine Output.

London, Oct. 21.—The cabinet discussed tonight the grave situation arising out of the threat of the railway and transport workers to force the government to negotiate with the miners. Two grave questions are exercising the political and industrial world: the first, to what extent the labor leaders are losing control of the works; second, whether a political crisis and an appeal to the country will develop out of the miners' dispute.

It is stated that James Henry Thomas, General Secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, has exerted the greatest efforts to get in action taken by the railwaymen postponed for a few days, but that his influence was overborne.

Premier Meets Labor. Mr. Lloyd George was in formal conversation with some of the labor leaders today, but little hope seems to be entertained that the government will recede from its position in insisting upon an increased output of submission of the dispute to an independent tribunal on a condition of an increase in wages.

Even had the government been inclined to recede from this position, it is felt that it could hardly do so now in the face of the railwaymen's threat. Undoubtedly the solidarity of the workers as shown by the action of the railway and transport workers, comes somewhat as a surprise to the public, because the miners' strike is unpopular with almost the entire community. The seeming inconsistency is explained by some of the labor leaders as due to the universal belief among the workers that the government under pressure of big business interests had decided that a halt must be called to the continual increase in wages.

MINE STRIKE MAY END IN AN ELECTION

Fear Growing That Leaders Are Losing Control of the Million Mine Workers.

RAIL AND TRANSPORT WORKERS THREATENING

(Continued from page one.) Robert Smith, the miners' leader, speaking in Glasgow tonight, accused the government of desiring to remove the hindrances to cheap and greater production, which were found in the present powers of the trades unions. He promised that if increased wages were granted, the miners would cooperate with the owners and increase the output by 20,000,000 tons in four or five months.

Effect is increasing. The effect of the coal strike is appreciably felt by the various unions affiliated with the national transport workers' federations, the members of which are being thrown out of employment in increasing numbers by the coal stoppage. The reports of the stoppage of work from various branches, which were laid before the executive on re-assembling today were serious. From 50,000 to 100,000 transport workers are idle and hundreds of thousands of other workers in other callings have been obliged to remain idle, according to Secretary Robert Williams, who declared "it would appear better to widen the issue indefinitely and get the dispute settled, in preference to allowing ourselves to drift without either compass or rudder."

WOMEN SHOULD STUDY COLOR

The Choice of Shades is Essential to the Becoming Dress.

Color plays an important part in the artistry of dress as does the material themselves and color selections for the thin woman are even more essential than for the rounder, or stout. Also the choosing of undergarments to a great extent makes or mars the appearance of the fragile type of woman. After learning to avoid bulging underclothing, the thin woman should put her mind to the study of colors. The vivid she must avoid—the Orientalization of costume is not for her as a steady thing, although it is permissible, with discretion, to adopt it in the evening if she knows how to make up for the costume. It is wiser not to attempt to unless her artistry is assured.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Thousands Have it and Don't Know It. Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furrowed, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, better eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. The condition soon broadens into a deadly disease in the form of an unassimilated food. The blood is polluted, and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

NOMINATIONS INCORRECT IS CLAIM MADE

Official Recount at Dalhousie to Decide Who Won Provincial Contest.

Special to The Standard. Dalhousie, Oct. 21.—At 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon, after the counting will open Court in Dalhousie to make his final declaration of the recent provincial election.

On Friday last, at the first opening of this Court, it was found that one ballot box from Eldon did not contain the deputy returning officer's report. Because of this the sheriff refused to give any official figures. It was ascertained, however, that the figures were as follows for this poll: Stewart, 37; Diotte, 80; LaBillets, 24; Duncan, 24; LeBlanc, 15; Harrison, 14.

Without Eldon, Mr. Diotte's majority over Harrison, the high man on the government ticket, was 57 votes. Including Eldon, his majority is 217 now. Stewart, of course, is very much higher, showing a majority of 463 in the total over the highest Government man.

The Complete Figures. The complete figures as they will appear today are as follows: Stewart, Conservative, 2,109; Diotte, Conservative, 1,783; Harrison, Government, 1,644; LeBlanc, Government, 1,645; LaBillets, Independent, 1,599; Duncan, Independent, 1,062.

25,000 MAJORITY FOR GOVERNMENT LIQUOR CONTROL

British Columbia Gives Decisive Lead for "Wets" in Referendum Voting.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 21.—The province of British Columbia by a majority estimated at 25,000 expressed itself yesterday as preferring government control and sale of liquor to the prospect of continued prohibition. Although there are many districts yet to be heard from, the vote in the cities and towns is conclusive and decisive so far as the fate of the prohibition act is concerned.

The city of Vancouver, which at the former referendum gave a majority of ten thousand against the present act. Approximate totals show that 125,159 votes were polled in British Columbia yesterday—easily a record. The latest returns show 75,844 for prohibition and 49,325 for prohibition, giving a net moderate majority of 26,729.

Premier John Oliver, voicing surprise at the result of the liquor referendum, said last night that in view of the expression of public opinion, the necessary legislation to repeal the existing act, and to bring into effect government control, would be brought down by the Government. The will of the people would have to be met.

Through his magnetic personality and his powerful argument, he succeeded in convincing the rank and file of the telephone operators that although until Clancy's arrival on the scene the decision to go out was by no means universal, Clancy won, however, and received congratulations from the workers.

Lashon is a town of 12,500 population and owes its name curiously to its destruction by fire in 1797. GRACE DARLING

"GRACE DARLING"

To the Rescue!

"Grace Darlings of the Sea"

Sailors instinctively respect women. Their ancient and honorable code is: "Women and children first."

But the sailor's life is a lonely one and perilous. He is out of contact with women the greater part of his time.

On the other hand, the romance of the sea and its perils awakens a certain mother-instinct in women.

And, tomorrow, many women will, in sweet charity and helpfulness, devote themselves to raising funds for the work of the Navy League, by selling tags.

If ever a Tag as a symbol was worth its price, it will be worth it tomorrow.

Get tagged early. Give liberally for it.

PLENTY FOLLOWS ADVANCING ARMY OF GEN. WRANGEL

Live Stock and Produce Suddenly Appear When Anti-Bolshevik Forces Enter.

By B. F. KOSBOTH.
(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.)
Alexandrovsk, Southern Russia, Oct. 21.—Pushing on independently, ahead of General Wrangel's headquarters, in an American Red Cross car with Major Ryan, chief of the South Russian unit of the American Red Cross, your correspondent was the first newspaperman to reach Alexandrovsk, the Bolsheviks only three days before.

The opposite bank of the Dnieper was attacked by the army and the Bolsheviks "big Bertha" in reality a 6-inch gun, for everything is on a small scale in this belated war—dropped shells on the railroad depot and all around the city hall where General Pleven, commanding the first corps, and his staff are quartered. One shell exploded just outside the American car whose windows were shattered by its jagged fragments.

Apart from its military interest, this independent expedition into territory newly delivered after many months of Red misrule was highly instructive. Order and organization follow us closely in the wake of General Wrangel's army as ammunition and supplies, and the conditions of existence return in the factored towns and villages of Russia as the crusaders' forces advance. In Alexandrovsk the street cleaners were already at work sweeping thoroughfares, still under Bolshevik gunfire, free of the filth and refuse accumulated during the Red occupation.

Food is plentiful.

The markets were plentifully supplied with fresh-past poultry and agricultural produce, geese, ducks and chickens appeared and coked in every courtyard and cattle bowed in the stables. Yet, while the Red were here, this was a city of starvation. The market stands were empty of food, cattle and poultry vanished mysteriously, and markets were obtainable except for bread, hoarded by the Bolsheviks at exorbitant prices to the inhabitants divided into three classes—the "proletarian" received three times as much as the "bourgeois."

The three agricultural districts of Russia are thus transformed into economic void under the Red regime because of requisitioning and robbery. Induce peasants to hate their livestock, and the Bolshevik government's policy of firing peasants kills all trade and commerce, encouraging only fraudulent speculation. The Bolshevik economic legislation spreads famine everywhere, even more rapidly than the deprivations of the Red army, and it is only when General Wrangel's "bourgeois" forces appear on the scene that the hidden wealth of this rich land is once more surprisingly revealed.

Prisoners' Farewell Messages.

In one of Alexandrovsk's main thoroughfares there stands a small two-story brick building. Its windows heavily barred with iron gratings. Here the "Cherovitchka"—extraordinary committee—held its macabre sessions with a "Lenin" word was law in Alexandrovsk. One bare dirty room was used as a prison. Its walls are covered with inscriptions made by prisoners awaiting trial or execution—most often in Russian terms.

"Say goodbye for me to my wife, Marie Fedorovna, living at Kharkov," reads one heavy scrawl. "Tell my brother, Peter Alexandrovich, I pray he may take care of my little children," writes another victim. "I have done nothing, yes, I must die, for they will not listen," protests a third.

They are in the same vein, these tragic last words—recommendations to relatives, farewells to wives, sweethearts and friends; piteous appeals for divine mercy.

During the ten months of Red rule in Alexandrovsk, a city of but 10,000, more than 2,000 persons were executed by order of the extraordinary committee. The executions took place until the last days before the arrival of General Wrangel's troops—conclusive proof that all the Bolshevik assertions that the reign of terror has ceased are false.

Alexandrovsk is held by the Marko division, whose commander, General Trezakov, received the unexpected American visitors at his headquarters in a little village situated opposite the wooded island which here divides the waters of the Dnieper, and from which his troops had driven the Reds a few days before.

Typical of Wrangel's Men.

A slender, active man, not over forty, speaking no language but Russian and thereby revealing his lowly origin, General Trezakov is typical of the efficient, energetic young men whom General Wrangel has promoted to lead his fighting divisions. He had just returned from a nocturnal tour of inspection among the outposts on the island in the Dnieper, and the Reds had fired on him and wounded his horse.

"It vexes me, for he is a thoroughbred," he said simply. Some maps spread out on a table and a telephone alone marked the low-ceilinged bedroom in the little farmhouse as a division commander's office.

The Spartan simplicity of new Russia's warriors under the Wrangel regime is splendid. So is their devotion to duty and hard work. Both form a wonderful contrast to the conditions which existed under Czar Nicholas, and even under General Denikin. It really looks as if out of the stress of civil war a new race of Russians is being evolved in Baron Wrangel's army—a race of efficient, hard-working, democratic men, almost American in their strict attention to the business at hand.

Twenty-four hours later General Trezakov's troops threw a bridge from the island to the right bank of the Dnieper and crossed the stream under fire, taking the Reds completely by surprise and dislodging them from their positions. Now the Bolsheviks "big Bertha" can no longer shell the American Red Cross camp in Alexandrovsk.

Occasionally the office peeks the news, but the majority are kept busy.

SAVED CHILD FROM DEATH IN SEWER

New York Fireman Crawled Along Underground Pipe to Rescue Girl.

New York, Oct. 21.—Crawling more than eighty-five feet on his hands and knees in two feet of dirty sewer water, fireman Frank Ely, of hook and ladder company No. 11, rescued Katie Heming, two and a half years old, of 123 St. Mark's Place today, when the girl had been lost in the sewer for half an hour, following her disappearance from Tompkins Square Park, Seventh Avenue and Avenue B, where she had been playing with her brother, Joseph.

The girl was with her mother and grandmother in the park and crawled under a wire fence in the park to a manhole, which had been uncovered by boys of the neighborhood. She fell into the hole and landed in two feet of water. Becoming confused, she started to walk and had crawled about eighty-five feet before panic overtook her.

Her mother first noticed her disappearance and notified her mother, that Katie had fallen into the sewer.

Park Foreman Hero.

Mrs. Pauline Heming, mother of the girl, summoned a man named Lawrence, who as foreman of the park department force stationed there, who in turn called Police Sergeant Mulholland and Policeman Hill of the East 87th Street station. Sergeant Mulholland telephoned for the fire company, and when he returned was forced to call for help to keep the frantic women back from the sewer, near the East River.

He was lionized when he brought the girl to the surface.

GAVE BEEF TEA TO MACSWINEY WHILE HE SLEPT

Lord Mayor Was Very Wrathful When He Tasted Cordial After He Wakened.

London, Oct. 21.—Official confirmation came from two sources this morning of the reports that Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork had been fed during a period of unconsciousness.

The bulletin of the Irish Self-Determination League, dealing with the condition of the lord mayor's on the 10th day of his hunger strike in Brixton prison, announced that the prison doctors had forced meat juice into MacSwiney's mouth during a fit of delirium which the prisoner suffered last night.

From the Government side, it was stated at the Home Office that the lord mayor had been fed last night. It was explained that the prison doctors were under instructions to use any possible means to keep him alive, but that during consciousness he resisted attempts to administer nourishment. Their attitude, it was stated, was that when the mayor is unconscious and unable to resist, they are carrying out their orders, if they can, then give him food.

"Tricked" Says MacSwiney.

The League's account of the feeding said that the lord mayor, upon regaining consciousness detected the taste of the meat juice and said to a sister near him: "They tricked me, and I did not know it."

Lapsing into unconsciousness again, the lord mayor waved his arms wildly and shouted: "Take it away, MacSwiney was delirious during the feeding, and he said that the doctors were forcing food on him."

Answering another question, Mr. Short said it was not true that evidence had recently come to light showing that nourishment had been administered on other occasions.

NIGHT IN MAUSOLEUM SINN FEIN PENALTY

Belfast, Ireland Oct. 21.—And example of means used to enforce Sinn Fein decrees has been reported by Dublin Castle. A man had refused to pay a sum awarded against him by a republican court. He was kidnapped, taken to a churchyard, and given a lighted candle and locked in a large vault, where he was told: "By the time the candle is burnt out you may decide to change your mind." The kidnappers returned a day later, by which time the candle had been long extinguished, leaving the prisoner alone in the dark with five coffins. Under threats that the treatment would be repeated, the fine was paid.

PASSERS-BY HURT IN FEUDIST FIGHT

Caught in Crossfire of Duel—Church Robbed While Choir Was Singing.

New York, October 21.—Two shootings in widely separated parts of the city caused injury to four persons. Several saloon robberies were reported to the police and four arrests were made. While the choir in Christ Church, at Broadway and Seventy-first street, was singing an anthem last night a thief entered the vestry room and stole fare and cash aggregating $200.

Joseph Potts, 30 years old, a clerk, of 218 East 138th street, was shot in the right thigh and Mrs. Magdalena Marcol, 60 years old, of 2183 Second Avenue, was shot also in the right thigh early in the evening when they were caught in the cross fire of two rival feudists who exchanged shots in front of a building at 124th street and Second Avenue. The duelists, who emerged from a group of men engaged in a fight fled when the two passers-by fell to the sidewalk.

The police were heard a block away by Patrolmen Crane, Ryan and McLaughlin, of the East 104th street station, who ran to the place in time to see the shooting. Three men were caught, and taken to the East 104th street police station, where two, who said they were Paul Hines, one, of 432 East Seventy-ninth street, and Joseph Comarato, were held on charges of felonious assault.

A Revolver which William Murray, 50 years old, a wealthy business man of Richmond Hill, carried to protect himself, and a large sum of money he carried, was wrested from him today by a hold-up man. The

GENERAL LUDENDORFF A PRIVATE SOLDIER

Berlin, Oct. 21.—General Erich Ludendorff, Germany's noted military strategist, and for two years practically the Commander-in-Chief of more than seven million officers and men composing Germany's army, is now a private in the Bavarian Home Guard. General Ludendorff recently moved from Berlin to one of the suburbs of Munich, where he applied for admission as a private in the local company of the home guard and was accepted. Should disorders break out the former head of the German army may have to shoulder a rifle and patrol the streets side by side with an ordinary household.

EXPLOSION KILLED 400 CHINESE MINERS

Peking, Oct. 21.—An explosion and fire in the Long-Shan coal mine in China province killed upwards of 400 Chinese laborers on Thursday last, but news of the accident reached here only today. There were 119 survivors. An accurate accounting of the number of men employed in the mine is not available, but an official report by the mining company places the dead at 422. The explosion occurred in next to the lowest level, smoke causing most of the deaths.

GERMAN THREAT TO ATTACK U. S. SHIP AT KIEL

Still State of War Between Two Nations Destroyer Captain is Told.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.)
Berlin, Oct. 21.—Although an armistice prevails between Germany and the United States which are formally still at war, the commander of the American Destroyer Broome was recently surprised to find that part of the German Navy still considers the period of actual hostilities unexpired. He was served with a threat that he would be fired on if he anchored at Kiel harbor.

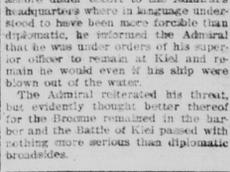

The Broome crossed the Kiel Canal enroute to the Baltic and received wireless orders at Kiel to await there the arrival of an American cruiser. She applied for a mooring berth, but instead was notified by the German Admiral in command of the port that as the United States was still at war with Germany, the Broome must depart immediately or she would be fired on.

Talked Very Emphatically.

The destroyer commander went ashore under escort to the Admirals' headquarters where in language understood to have been more forcible than diplomatic, he informed the Admiral that he was under orders of his superior officer to remain at Kiel and remain he would even if his ship were blown out of the water.

The Admiral retorted his threat, but evidently thought better thereof for the Broome remained in the harbor and the battle of Kiel passed with nothing more serious than diplomatic broadsides.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. MORE MILES PER GALLON

WINTER GASOLINE

WHEN you start your car those cold days you will appreciate the low boiling points of Imperial Premier Gasoline—those low boiling points make starting easy.

When you check up your mileage you will recognize the value of the heavier fractions in Imperial Premier Gasoline—these supply the power economy demands, they mean More Miles Per Gallon.

If Imperial Premier were a blended gasoline, its combination of high boiling points and low boiling points might mean nothing. But Imperial Premier is a straight distilled gasoline.

From its lowest boiling point to its highest boiling point its chain of power is continuous and unbroken.

The big buyers of gasoline, the buyers who know most about gasoline, those who decide only after careful tests, use Imperial Premier Gasoline exclusively because they have convinced themselves that there is no better gasoline made.

A gravity test means absolutely nothing. You may not care what crudes are used or how your gasoline is refined. What you motorists do want is gasoline that will give you good service and good mileage during the winter. This is what we promise you in Imperial Premier Gasoline.

The more you find out about gasoline, the surer you will be that it is impossible to buy at any price a better gasoline than Imperial Premier Gasoline.

The verdict claims Bloomfield defeated by a large margin. The editor of this paper says it means a sportsman in a word and never evened an infraction of the Press contents, however. Disagreement On Montreal Fight

Some Sporting Editors Claim McTigue-Bloomfield Fight Was a Draw.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—Hardly two of the Montreal sporting editors agree on the fight last night between Mike McTigue and Jack Bloomfield. The Gazette credits McTigue with out-pointing the British middleweight champion. The Star argues the Irish fighter could have knocked out his adversary if he had not been so lazy. The Herald gives the result as a draw and points out that both men shone in their own department. McTigue as a rugged fighter, and Bloomfield as a beautiful fighter. Le Canada and Le Devoir also says a draw should be the verdict. La Presse claims Bloomfield defeated McTigue by a large margin. The sporting editor of this paper says the Englishman is a sportsman in every sense of the word and never even approached an infraction of the rules. La Presse contends, however, that McTigue is not embarrassed by any such delicate scruples.

BUSINESS MEN'S VOLLEY BALL

The Y. M. C. A. Business Men's Volley Ball League is starting tomorrow afternoon. Six teams were entered in the league last year and it proved a very popular one with the city's business men. Practically all of last year's fans are coming back in the game and with a leaven of new material which is to be introduced the old timers predict that "some game" will be staged this season. It's a case of "then he took up golf," but quit that game for volley ball.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS' CLUB IS ORGANIZED

The Y. M. C. A. Business Boys' Club met at the "Y" last night and organized for the coming year. Morris McMurkin was elected president and seven new boys were voted in as members of the club. Plans were made for the holding of a talk and social every second week throughout the winter. Four teams were picked out under the leadership of Jack Frost, Ray Lawson, Jack Porteous and Morris McMurkin. They will participate in a programme of basketball and other athletic games until Christmas, when a new league will be formed.

NOVA SCOTIA FOOTBALL

Halifax, Oct. 20.—The rugby football season is well underway, and next month there will be many big gridiron contests. St. F. X. will play Dalhousie in the intercollegiate league at the Wandsworth ground, the middle of the month, and Crescents will probably play Mount Allison, November 15, or earlier, it being understood that the locals are negotiating with the New Brunswickers to play here. Dalhousie may come up for a game with Dalhousie the latter part of November. St. F. X. and Dalhousie will be the only intercollegiate game to be played on the local grounds. King's having the home game with Dalhousie this year.

Frank J. Power Popular Starter

Throughout the Maritime Provinces and the State of Maine

The many thousands of "rail birds" throughout the Maritime Provinces and the State of Maine, easily recognize the above picture as that of Frank J. Power, the veteran starter of horse races and one of the most reliable and popular officials that ever stepped into the stand to officiate. Starter Power has the reputation of being a cool-headed man who knows the racing game from start to finish, and there is not a driver in any section or an audience but are perfectly familiar with his duties, and the drivers take no chances in trying to pull off any tricks when the Halifax man is the one chosen to send the field away. In appearance he greatly resembles a certain Local Government Minister, and while in New Brunswick has been frequently taken for the Hon. P. J. V. W. Power has only recently finished a very successful season throughout Maine and the Lower Provinces, the last event being the overcast meet at Woodstock.

International Schooner Race

Two Additional Vessels Wish to Enter Contest—Great Interest Taken.

Boston, Oct. 21.—The international fishermen's race in which the Esperanto will represent the schooners of Gloucester against the Delawanna, champion of the Nova Scotia fleet, in a match off Halifax, beginning October 30, was the subject of telegrams today from acting Governor Cox, to Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia and H. Dennis, publisher of the Halifax Herald, originator of the race. "Massachusetts is genuinely enthused over the event," the acting governor said in his message to the premier, adding that it was his hope that it would serve "not only as a high mark of marine sportsmanship, but also as another tie that closely binds us to our cousins across the border line."

May Best Boat Win. Acclaiming R.M. Denis' "Splendid sportsmanship which will make the dream of years, the international fishermen's race, a reality," Governor Cox's message to the Halifax Herald publisher concluded: "May the best boat win, and may that boat be ours." The crew of the Esperanto has been completed, with nine of her twenty-five men captains, who have themselves commended ships out of Gloucester, but who will take orders from Skipper Marty Welsh, for the race. Another of the foremost hands will be James B. Connolly, writer of sea stories. It was announced at the state house today that Governor Coolidge had designated Arthur L. Millet, of Gloucester, as Massachusetts' commissioner for the race. Other Boats Want to Enter. Halifax, N. S., Oct. 21.—That interest in increasing in the international ocean race of Halifax on October 30, between the Nova Scotia schooner Delawanna and the Gloucester schooner Esperanto, is evidenced by the fact that two more vessels want to enter the contest. Today Captain Angus Walters of the Lunenburg schooner Gilbert B. Walters, got in communication with the local race committee and requested that his boat be allowed to compete. Walters was the boat that finished a close second in the recent ocean event here, and which met with an accident a mile from the finish. The Boston schooner Josephine De Costa wants to enter the race. H. R. Silver, chairman of the committee, tonight said that it would be impossible for four boats to compete in the race. He said that such a proposition would be too great to finance at the present time.

Basketball Fans Meeting Tonight

Will Discuss Matter of Forming Senior and Intermediate City Leagues.

A number of basketball fans are meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tonight to discuss the matter of forming a senior and intermediate City Basketball League again this coming winter. The League was prevented from being as great a success as it might have been last winter by the decided superiority of some of the teams over the others. It has been suggested that the Y. M. C. A. Senior and intermediate teams of last year be both made particular teams at the same introduction of a new Y. M. C. A. intermediate team would make things more interesting in the intermediate League. If the two strong Y. M. C. A. Senior and intermediate teams of last year could be used as the nucleus of four new teams this year, the Senior League should also provide some evenly contested and hard fought matches. The matters will be thoroughly discussed at tonight's meeting, following which a general meeting of all basketball fans throughout the city will be called.

Good Season Expected. This season's basketball should prove very interesting as several of last winter's teams showed considerable ability and towards the close of the season were playing a good game. The Refinery boys in particular showed a particular aptness at the game and will doubtless give an even better account of themselves this winter. The majority of the Y. M. C. A. boys were new to the game last year but will have the benefit of a season's experience this winter, and have the material for a strong team in both the Senior and Intermediate Leagues. The St. Andrew's boys played last year and will do even better this season. The High School boys will always be looked for a good showing in every line of sport and they make no exception for basketball. All things considered a City Basketball League should prove a grand success this winter. The formation of such a League should meet with the hearty support and approval of all basketball fans in the city.

Y.M.C.A. High School 'Gym' Class Meeting

Organization Completed for Coming Season—Gordon Wilson Chosen President.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. High School "gym" class met at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday and organized for the coming season. Gordon Wilson was elected president of the class by acclamation and a committee of five consisting of George Stammers, Bill Curran and Donald Robertson, were appointed to act with him. Owing to the fact that several of the class are also members of the High School football team, the basketball league will not start until towards the end of November. A schedule is being drawn up at the present time and the High School Basketball League this year will be made a six-team one. There is some likely basketball material among the boys and a snappy league is being looked forward to.

THAT RECOUNT.

It is much to be regretted that a newspaper of the standing of The Globe should be unable to intelligently discuss any controversial matter without showing such an amount of bitterness as it does. Because Mr. Baxter, as he was perfectly justified in doing, took objection to certain formalities in the application for a recount, he is held up by The Globe to every opprobrium for it, as alleged, attempting to deprive Mr. Bentley of the seat in St. John County, the seat which the sheriff declared to be lost by eight votes. "We would point out to our contemporary that the application was made ex parte, and no opportunity was afforded Mr. Baxter to show cause against it. The Globe's statement that "Mr. Baxter's course, if it does not express certain knowledge that he is not the "right" owner, clearly indicates "right" by a count of the ballots," is about the silliest and most childish contention that was ever put forward. The votes have been counted once and added up several times and the result has been declared to be that Mr. Baxter's total is eight more than Mr. Bentley's. We would draw attention to the fact that the application for the recount only questioned the validity of one vote, which, if substantiated, would still leave Mr. Baxter seven ahead.

Judge Armstrong will probably appreciate The Globe's method of expressing his views. "At least he says he agrees," meaning, we presume, that while legally he feels that Mr. Baxter is in the wrong, politically he prefers to say he is right. The quotation can carry no other interpretation. The Globe's keen regard for broad principles, as against technicalities, is of somewhat recent growth, and is, we fear, merely aroused for the occasion. We would remind our contemporary of the incident in Queens-Sunbury in 1911, when Col. H. H. McLean was declared elected over Mr. Wilmot by eleven votes. An application for a recount was made to the Judge of the Queens County Court, Judge Wilson, at his office in Fredericton, and a recount was ordered. Before the recount was had, objection was taken that the order was made outside the jurisdiction of the County Court of Queens, although made by the Judge of that Court, and Judge Wilson had to admit that the objection was well taken, and the recount had to be abandoned. Yet The Globe had no fault to find then, although the objection was more technical than that made in the present instance by Mr. Baxter.

"If Mr. Bentley did receive more votes than did Mr. Baxter, the seat is 'morally' his. It is more, it is legally his. But the count of the votes as declared by the returning officer shows that he did not, so that ends it. And Mr. Baxter is entirely justified in endeavoring by all legitimate methods to prevent the returning officer's return being set aside, by the first responsible that comes along and attempts to get it done.

CONCERNING PRICES.

In the opinion of some of the city merchants, those people who have been looking for a reduction in prices are not at all likely to see their anticipations realized just at present. In fact the assertion is made that in some lines prices may even go higher than they are, on account of the present rate of wages, cost of transportation, etc. If this statement is correct, it is difficult to account for the price reduction sales that are now being advertised. If there is no prospect of a general fall in prices, why the hurry to get rid of stock on a probable rising market?

It is said that manufacturers of many commodities are stocked up to the limit, and are compelled to curtail their output. Wholesalers are in the same plight. Retailers are curtailing orders, because the public is not buying to the extent it did. Money is getting scarcer, and people are less inclined to pay the prices demanded during the past year or two. Something is bound to give way. No one, of course, anticipates a sudden slump; but with the tendency there is among the buying public to more economical purchasing, prices must come down if it is to be kept up. The sales and luxury taxes, too, are having quite an effect upon the purchasing feeling. Some of the people, which will need to be stimulated in some way or other unless prices fall.

Prices cannot be kept up artificially, because the public will not stand for it. The recent revelations regarding sugar have not been without their effect; and if there is a tendency, as appears to be the case, for prices to fall in the United States, similar conditions will inevitably obtain here.

RESISTING THE "REDS."

The call by President Moore, of the Trades and Labor Congress, and his conservative associates, for active defence by Trades Unionism in Canada is based on evidence that the Moscow "reds" are attempting a fresh to the right Trades Unionism, and discredit leaders who insist on a sane co-operation with the other elements of a community. Part of the declaration of the Third Internationale—the Moscow Revolutionary organization—on this subject is:

"The newly formed general staff of revolutionary trade unionism representing eight million members calls upon the trade unions throughout the world to repudiate those leaders who voice the criminal policy of collaboration with the bourgeoisie, moreover to enlist themselves under the banner of class war to the bitter end for the emancipation of mankind.

"The International Council of Trades Unions proclaims war, not peace, on the bourgeoisie of all countries; that is the substance of our agitation. Our programme is the overthrow of the bourgeois forces; the bringing into effect of the dictatorship of the proletariat; of irrepressible class struggle both nationally and internationally, and to form an immovable alliance with the communist international.

"Be it known that we regard those leaders of trade unionism as our class enemies who are of opinion that negotiations and compromises will solve the social problems; who seriously think that capitalists will hand over the means of production on the achievement of working class majority in Parliament; who think that trade unions can remain 'neutral' at a time of collapse of the old social order and at a time when the destiny of the world is being determined; and who preach social reconciliation at a time of rapid class warfare."

The Mail and Empire professes to see signs that the "red" movement within the ranks of Canadian Labor is subsiding. The unequivocal attitude of leaders like President Moore is having effect. The One Big Union is dying. If Canadian Trade Unionists hold steady, and think of the welfare of the community at large, as well as of themselves, they will gain more in the end, and help the nation also to surmount its post-war difficulties.

GOVERNOR COX'S HEROICS.

"It pleases him and don't hurt us." That is how reasonable Britishers, with a sense of humor and proportion, regard Governor Cox's heroics about the freedom of Ireland. When Mr. Cox dilates on his distant view of America guaranteeing Ireland's freedom after independence has been achieved, under the provisions of the League of Nations, we remember that Mr. Cox is Democratic candidate for the Presidency of the United States. We also remind ourselves that America, as yet, has precious little to do with the League of Nations. When Mr. Cox protests that Ireland has a perfect right to fight, we remember that the election campaign, Irish-American vote and all, is in full swing in America.

After all, we are very well used to these conventional gambits, and we understand the rules of the game. Governor Cox improves on a well-worn example by trying to put salt on the lion's tail. It is not a sensitive part of the lion's anatomy. Besides, election fancies and Presidential facts are separate pairs of shoes.

AFRAID OF FACTS.

Even the most courageous men, says the London Express, are sometimes afraid of facts. A man who has willfully faced Mills bombs and shrapnel is cowed by the fact of his importance in another sphere of life. Man's hardest task is to master of himself. Only by letting circumstance can he realize his own individuality; only by laughing at the fates is he able to give himself a full chance. Any man can succeed if the fates are with him, if he is endowed with special gifts. But there is little honor or pleasure in such success. The man to be envied is he who boldly faces adverse circumstance and meets it to his own purposes. The hero is the man who takes the thing that is and makes it, despite itself, what it might have been.

The Provincial Government is said to be considering the question of placing the wholesale dispensing of liquor in the province in the hands of a commission, but no definite decision has as yet been reached. We can quite understand that there are many features to be considered before the step is decided on. Funds must be raised from some source or other, and it would be folly to kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

The Telegram says that since election day the opposition press has published much misleading matter, etc. It had described Premier Foster as "weak" and "overhauled by Mr. Veniot," as The Telegraph described him on Saturday, it would not have been misleading at any rate.

Books Are Slow.
(New York Correspondent.)
New York book stores are going through the worst fall season in history. It is said that sales have dropped off tremendously. It may be the writer is away off in the wilds where he has built his own house and is living in a primitive fashion. One might imagine how he goes on an orgy of spending when he reaches New York. But primitive habits are hard to break. The last time he was in town he gave a dinner for four at the Waldorf and tipped the waiter a dime.

No Need for Money.
(New York Correspondent.)
A magazine office received a card note from one of its leading contributors, a sort of social frill, as he called it, saying that he would not need any more money until next year. "I don't know what to do with it," the writer is away off in the wilds where he has built his own house and is living in a primitive fashion. One might imagine how he goes on an orgy of spending when he reaches New York. But primitive habits are hard to break. The last time he was in town he gave a dinner for four at the Waldorf and tipped the waiter a dime.

The Modern View.
(Perth, Australia, News.)
There may be persons even now who regard a university as a superfluous luxury, a sort of social frill, as a source of "unproductive expenditure," and who would like to see the university grant diverted into road and bridge making, railway construction and public works channels. Such short-sighted individuals fall utterly to grasp the most pregnant truth that has been forced upon the intelligence of the whole civilized world in the last half century—namely, that national effectiveness and success are dependent upon education. Furthermore, the higher education is carried, the higher and more powerful becomes the national force and character.

Tired of Public Life.
(Sydney Post.)
Mr. Mackenzie King, Opposition Leader, has completed his political tour of British Columbia, and is now addressing public meetings in Alberta. How he will fare in Alberta remains to be seen. How he fared in British Columbia may be inferred from the fact that there is to be no supporter of his nominated in the Yale-Caribou by-election, shortly to be held. The contest is between a Government supporter and a Farmer-Labor candidate. Yale-Caribou will be the eighth constituency in which the Mackenzie King party has failed to name a candidate in a federal by-election this year. Such a record of defeats by a political party is unprecedented. And yet Mr. King continues to affirm that he is desirous of another year's election. The inference must be that he is tired of public life.

Catechism For Canada's Citizens

Interest is Challenged by a Question—Daily Problems for Standard Readers.

Answers to Thursday's Questions.

1. In forming a cabinet the Premier selects such men of his party as have shown capacity for administration. The names are then submitted to the Governor-General, or the Lieutenant-General as the case may be, for approval.
2. When a member of Parliament is asked to enter a cabinet he is made a member of the Privy Council for Canada, and is entitled to be called "Honourable," and he must return to his constituency for re-election as a cabinet minister.
3. Sometimes a premier may wish to include in his cabinet a man who is not a member of Parliament; it is then usual for some member to resign his seat in favor of the newly chosen minister, who then becomes a candidate for election in the constituency.
4. A quorum is the least number of members of a society who are permitted to transact business, the number is usually fixed in the constitution, otherwise a majority of the members is required. To prevent a "tie" the quorum should be composed of an uneven number of members.
5. Some of the exemptions from municipal taxation are: 1. Property reserved for Indians or owned by the Crown, 2. Churches and cemeteries, 3. Public educational institutions—such as universities, colleges and schools, 4. Seminaries for religious, philanthropic, or educational purposes, 5. Municipal halls, courthouses, zoos, sanatoriums, 6. Public roads and squares.
6. The Hon. R. W. Wignane of St. John, N. B., has been called to the new Cabinet at Ottawa as Minister of Customs and Inland Revenue.

Questions.

1. What makes for a successful Secretary of any Society?
2. Can you name six more exemptions from Municipal taxation?
3. How many wards are there in the City of St. John? Can you name them? What is the name of the ward where you live?
4. What is meant by the expression "The Bill is up for its first reading"?
5. What do you mean by census?
6. By the Representation Act of 1914 it is provided that the House of Commons is to consist of 234 members distributed by provinces, do you know how this distribution is made, and do you know the number of members that New Brunswick has?
7. Who is the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, and where does he live?

Study Problem: Is it practicable for the municipality to erect dwelling houses to be rented to the poor classes?

Women's Hospital Aid Meeting

Reports Received—Mrs. F. E. Williams, Denominational Vice-President.

It was announced at the regular meeting of the Women's Hospital Aid held yesterday that Mrs. F. E. Williams had consented to act as denominational vice-president for the month of October.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who presided, stated that Mrs. Williams was the choice of the Methodist ladies and her appointment was greeted with applause.

Amid applause, Mrs. T. Carleton Lee accepted the office of first vice-president, until the annual meeting.

Financial Statement

In the absence of Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, Mrs. E. A. Young acted as secretary. Mrs. R. Duncan treasurer gave the financial statement as follows: A balance on hand of $5,569.00, with $3.49 in the Flower Fund. Flowing for the past four months have been donated.

A letter was read from Mrs. Charles Stanford, telling of accounts received from her sister, Mrs. Nicholson of Middlesex, Conn., describing Hospital Day in that city, and the raising of nearly $200,000 for a special appeal. On motion a vote of thanks will be written to Mrs. Nicholson, thanking her for her interest and helpful suggestions. Miss Addy told of Hospital Day at Newport.

Hospital Board Vacancy

Mrs. Travers sent a written account of the committee, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. W. W. White and herself, who interviewed the Municipal Council regarding a reported vacancy on the Board of Hospital Commissioners. On being told there was no vacancy on the Board the Aid Committee asked that the name of their nominee be kept on file until a vacancy occurred. Mrs. Smith reported further on their course of action, saying that no one must be discouraged. Not one woman but two was needed on the Board and she had no fear but that the Aid would get them. She did not like the system of waiting for nature to provide a man of an office but thought that Premier Foster had made it possible for two additional women to be appointed.

No reports were given by denominational vice-presidents except Mrs. Andrew McDonald, who, acting for Mrs. Doody, told of two annual members from the Cathedral and Mrs. Sims who reported one life member, Mrs. F. T. Dunlop. A final report was received from Mrs. J. V. McMillan who stated that Centenary has two new annual members, Portland Street Methodist Church four. Out of 520 tickets Mrs. McMillan has sold 319.

Visiting Committee

For the visiting committee, Mrs. A. C. Shelton told of visiting on the five Tuesdays and of a special effort made to make the day after Thanksgiving a festival for the patients. Grapes for all patients contributed by the executive and Percy Thomson, were much appreciated. A Russian sailor, who had been at the Hospital for five weeks, was sent newspapers through the kindness of Walter Brindle of the Seaman's Institute who will also visit the map. A Scotch sailor was looked after. Of two homeless babies at the hospital one is supposed to belong to the Methodists, the other to the Roman Catholics. These cases are being followed. Thanks for flowers were given Mrs. J. Fraser Gregory, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Myles, Fairville, and Mrs. R. Duncan Smith, for magazines sent to St. George's, St. Jude's and the Church of the Good Shepherd. Miss Alice Estey was thanked for a fine gift of children's books. Mr. Henry Wallace had been an excellent member of the committee. It was felt that more ladies should be asked to visit and not repeat the lists.

Mrs. A. J. Mulcahy and Mrs. Young reported for the magazine committee.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

OLD DOBBIN

I am thinking about you today, Old Dobbin. It was long ago, wasn't it? I loved you, and I rather think that you loved me, too. You listened so attentively to my oratory talk! And you seemed to like to have me around—to hop on your back and go to the trough down town for your water, and to come each morning and night to give you your hay and feed.

How beautiful your coat of glossy brown—how luxuriant your mane and tail!

What times we used to have with the old two-wheeled cart, and how we loved to "race into town" together—because you always knew I had a surprise for you at the end.

I miss you, Old Dobbin.

Do you remember when we ran over the ditch and broke the spring and how sorry you were—because you knew that I would be sorrier—later? Old Dobbin, I've wanted you back a lot of times since.

You never minded the rain—or anything, Old Dobbin. You were always ready for a fight or a frolic. You never complained. In memory of you, Old Dobbin, I've painted a thousand Dobbins since, and fed them apples and things—and tried so hard to be kind—to people.

I hear your merry whinnow all now, Old Dobbin. The gentle pat of your trot into town is sweet music to my heart when I'm tired. And tonight, Old Dobbin, when I lie down to rest, I think I shall say a little prayer to the god of Dobbins—who must be somewhere—and ask him if he won't yet let me in for just a little time—while I become a boy again, in my dreams, and play once more with you!

Sunday School Conference Opened

Delegates Enjoyed Supper at Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria—Able Addresses.

The importance of the Sunday School to every citizen is being emphasized at meetings of the St. John Sunday School Conference, which opened yesterday.

A supper was held last evening, at the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria, which was attended by a number of ministers and Sunday School officers. Charles R. Wasson, president, was in the chair.

The next speaker was Rev. Waldo C. Machum, Baptist Sunday School Secretary for the Maritime Provinces, who set forth the standard of excellence for the Sunday School as follows: "It should have a workers' conference, an annual canvass for members, a Cradle Roll, a Home Department, organized 'teen age and adult classes, a teachers' training class, graded lessons; it should teach missions and temperance, send representatives to Sunday School conferences and summer schools; support the denominational board financially, and most important of all, seek to win converts for Christ."

The following were introduced to the conference: Rev. W. C. Machum, P. J. Millican, Presbyterian Sunday School Secretary; Rev. W. A. Ross, General Secretary of the Maritime Sunday School Association; A. M. O'Leary, Y. M. C. A. Secretary; Miss Mary Allison, Y. W. C. A. Girls' Work Secretary; and Miss Jackson.

L. W. Simms submitted a proposition for a home visitation of the entire county to be undertaken under the direction of Mr. Wasson, of the International Sunday School Association.

Prayer was offered by J. E. Rogers, and the meeting adjourned to Central Baptist Church.

Evening Session.

After prayer and Scripture reading by Rev. F. H. Bone, an address was given at the evening session by Rev. Millican. In his address, pointing out the importance of the Sunday School to the Church, the speaker pointed out that the Bible is filled with stories of children, and that the character of Jesus set a child in their midst. The slowness of the Church to realize the necessity of heartily working for the Sunday School was referred to and several helpful suggestions given.

For Business Men.

"The Appeal of the Sunday School to the Business Man" was the subject treated by W. C. Cross. He believed, he said, that the Sunday School gave an insight into the world of business, and that it was something to give, and also that the business man can give support and co-operation. To the business man, the Sunday School offers constructive work, an insight into the Bible, an opportunity to exercise executive ability, training, and the privilege of teaching child life. The Sunday School's character is in the Kingdom of God." Mr. Cross stated that this year at Acadia College salaries of professors had been raised 25 per cent. above last year. He praised teachers, and spoke of their influence for good. He was sure that the Sunday School could do much for a business man who would enter as a scholar.

Rev. F. H. Millican.

It was announced that Hon. Dr. Roberts was unable to be present, and his place was taken by Rev. F. H. Millican, Presbyterian Field Secretary, who gave an inspiring talk. He pointed out the small time given for religious instruction to Protestants; children in comparison to that spent by Jewish and Roman Catholic scholars. The Protestant religion stands for freedom and the liberty of the individual, and it is the duty of that religion to uphold the world's democracy. Mr. Millican showed that many Sunday School scholars are lost to the Church each year. He said people failed to realize the religious capacity of a child and lack of definiteness in teaching.

Rev. A. S. Bishop announced the Teachers' Training Classes, which will be held each week in November at the Church of England Institute, and in which all the Protestant churches are co-operating.

Mr. Wasson announced this afternoon's meeting at Central Baptist and tonight's at German Street, Baptist.

Rev. W. A. Ross pronounced the Benediction.

When Mother Went Out To Vote

Afterwards She Hurried Home to Go on With Her Usual Occupation.

Mother was out early to vote. She left her wash-tub, and putting her hat on straight went to the duty of suffrage. Then she went home and fixed up the children and started them out to school. They waited for her with faces against the pane.

In the voting booth, she showed as much sense as men and voted, we doubt not, with as much intelligence. If we stop to think that trousers, cleans, whiskers, do not vote, but that minds, hopes, ideals and impulses do the voting we see it differently.

Not petcoats but purposes take the ballot into the booth. Humanity is not 10 per cent. male—it is fifty-fifty. Voting is no right; it is a duty. "When ever suffrage is restricted, it must be restricted not along sex lines, but along some other lines, if any. Intelligence, capacity, responsibility—these are the touchstones of the ballot, not sex."

Mother was excited! She held her breath when the mystic word "check" sounded. She wanted to show her ballot, marked, to her husband to see if it were done correctly. O! "The secret ballot!"

The Booths.

The booths smelt of sachet-powder instead of moose. Men hung around a little longer and watched the eager women perform in the first of the immortal rights in Maine. Historic day and moment. Long desired!

"Then mother put away her new 'rights' and thought of her old duties. Children, calling; washing to be done; cooking to be done; bills to pay; food to order; mending to be done; home work hurried.

Unsexed! Of course she was unsexed. Had been to the polls; met her friends; marked a ballot; given acquainted with "political serpent" and seen the political "flaming sword" and otherwise damaged her life irreparably. But mother does not know it. Not a bit of it. Mother somehow feels that she has a new responsibility that she is equal to assuming. She feels that she has a mind that is capable of working. She feels that her opinion

Women's Canadian Club Executive

Business Transacted, Plans Discussed and Committees Appointed.

The executive of the Women's Canadian Club met yesterday at the home of the president Mrs. Leonard Tilley. There were present Mrs. E. A. Schofield, Mrs. F. C. Beatty, Mrs. G. E. Barbour, Mrs. A. Foster, Mrs. W. P. Bonnell, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, Miss A. Tingey, Miss Grace Leavitt, Miss Clara McGilvray and Mrs. D. C. Leavitt.

The resignation of Mrs. W. H. Shaw from the office of first vice-president was received and Mrs. John Thomson accepted the position. By the unanimous vote of the executive Mrs. W. H. Shaw was elected to that body.

Mrs. Tilley announced that the Club will have an interesting speaker in November and for December. It is suggested that a story teller be procured who would on the afternoon of her visit to St. John address a gathering of children at the Imperial Theatre, Mr. Egan McMurphy is the speaker for January.

Committees were appointed as follows: Miss Beatty, convener, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. W. P. Bonnell, Lectures, Mrs. E. A. Foster, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, Mrs. Courtland Robertson, delegates to the Local Council of Women, "Miss Tingey convener, Mrs. E. A. Schofield, Mrs. T. L. Coughlan, Mrs. G. E. Barbour, Mrs. J. R. WAS HOSTESS TO FIFTY CANVASSERS

Those Connected With Y. W. C. A. Special Appeal Were Entertained.

Mrs. James F. Robertson was hostess yesterday afternoon at the tea hour to fifty canvassers for the Y. W. C. A. special appeal. The gathering was a delightfully informal one, bright and inspiring talks being given by Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Tapscott and Miss Ethel Milligan. The workers were all enthusiastic over the success of the campaign and received their lists and literature prepared for start today on their rounds.

An annual subscription has been promised by one member to the Travellers' Aid in memory of her arrival in Paris when friends failed to meet her. A "Y" worker cared for her until her friends were located and in gratitude for this gift it will be made to the Y. W. C. A. Travellers' Aid every year.

Mrs. W. W. White said that tenders had been received from Manchester Robertson Allison Ltd., Amund Brothers, J. Marcus and A. O. Skinner for rugs. The feeling was very strong that furnishings should be brought in St. John whenever possible. Mrs. White said she felt encouraged regarding the number of rooms which will be furnished by individuals and societies and gave the following list of those who offered: De Monts Chapter I. O. O. F., Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Vasson, Mrs. R. and Mrs. Joseph Laker, Robert Moran, New York and Mrs. Percy Thomson.

A message was received from Mrs. J. H. Doody, Roman Catholic denominational vice-president, stating that her church members will furnish the large library at the Nurses' Home. This fine offer was enthusiastically accepted. There now remain to be furnished the superintendent's two rooms, the matron's two rooms, a lecture room, class room and a small room on the first floor as well as a number of bedrooms.

Mrs. White asked that thanks be sent to these and also to P. B. Ellis and other members of the Press who had published news of the Aid. Mrs. White referred to the fact that Miss Hetalick has resigned and four other nurses, and urged the advisability of improving matters in connection with the Hospital and Nurses' Home.

A tag was adopted for Tag Day and the meeting resolved itself into a committee to appoint special conveners and make arrangements for that undertaking.

Women Voted "WET" IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Vancouver, Oct. 21.—The great surprise in the prohibition ranks in the voting in the province was that the women did not generally support the "dry" law. With more women voters than men, prohibition leaders could not see how they could lose. But the result showed that women were as much divided as the men voters. From sixty to sixty-five per cent. of the fair sex had gone with the moderation side.

SEASONABLE RECIPES.

Relishes and Salads.

A delicious cabbage relish is made by putting into the preserving kettle one pint each of lima beans and string beans, one cupful of diced celery, one cupful of green pepper, half a cupful of minced onion and two cupfuls of finely shredded cabbage; pour over all a quart of vinegar mixed with half a cupful of sugar and one-half cupful of salt. Seal as for canned fruit. If the beans are not very young, parboil in salted water for half an hour before adding to the other ingredients.

For the sautéed sprouts use freshly cooked or leftover sprouts. Drain thoroughly and saute in a little hot pork or bacon fat. Dust with salt and paprika before serving.

The Delmonico cabbage salad is made from a pint of shredded cabbage, half a cupful of chopped nut meats, one cupful of diced canned pineapple and a diced banana. Dress with a whipped cream salad dressing made with a boiled foundation, pineapple juice, egg and sugar and heap into lettuce cups.

In getting better acquainted with the cabbage family it is well to remember that the coarser outer leaves will answer for soup or the cabbage rolls and the inner white part of the crisp leaves and when eaten raw the Cheese and Cabbage Canapes.

Shred the cabbage finely and crisp in the searbox. Mix with each large cupful of the cabbage one teaspoonful of minced pimentos, two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, one tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce, half a teaspoonful each of lemon juice and French mustard and two tablespoonfuls of vegetable oil. Spread on crisp toast slices that have been spread on one side with anchovy butter. Cut in triangles.

BLESSINGS.

Like the pretty autumn leaves
Gently falling on the way,
So, blessings, rich and manifold,
Strew my path today.
Health and strength and bounteous cheer,
Friends and home and loved ones dear,
While countless blessings through the year,
Each day have whispered—"God is near."

Blessings, blessings everywhere,
Proclaim His tender love and care.

And am I thankful?
I would very thankful be,
But lest I should "forget"
I pray, help me to remember Thee,
And help me to remember Thee,
That all my blessings come from Thee,
Even, only, always.

SOVIET SHIPS IN BLACK SEA

Constantinople Constantinople Under Guard for Days Against the Entente.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger, Washington, Oct. 20.—Allied ships have put out from Constantinople to intercept Soviet naval vessels and merchant marine that are en route to transport supplies and ammunition to Trebizond, according to news from the Near East today. Bolsheviks in Asia Minor are in need of supplies, it is reported, in order to push their campaign for the Near East and thence to Persia into India and the rest of the world. The plan outlined at the conference and it is decided to give the fleet from Trebizond and the Black Sea.

To Aid Armenia.

It was reported today that some European powers are endeavoring at last to aid the Little Republic, Armenia, which is battling against two branches of the Bolsheviks, from Bessarabia and the Caucasus. The effort of Allied powers to intercept Bolshevik fleet and engage it in Black Sea is reported to be a part of the new effort to aid Armenia. The Bolsheviks are at least to vent its spread into Asia.

Several arrests have been made in Constantinople and the movement of Soviet agents who were endeavoring to establish a foothold from which challenge the authority of the British and French in Constantinople. The action between the British and French in the Near East is said not to be because of the commercial rivalry. That is given as one of the reasons for the success of the Soviet agents.

Uprisings in Siberia.

Uprisings in Western Siberia against the Soviet authorities are reported from Harbin, and the movement is said to be spreading with the advantage of the anti-Bolsheviks. Tom Tark, Ishim and Kurgan are declared to have been liberated from the Bolsheviks. The defeat of the Soviet forces made easier by the withdrawal of troops from Western Siberia to fight the Chinese in Manchuria, so by the dispatching of Chinese troops eastward with a possibility of attacking Mongolia.

CABBAGES USEFUL AT THIS SEASON

Other Members of Vegetable Family Which Help Our Meal.

With the coming of the cool days even the vegetables take on heartier character, and as most of the members of the cabbage family are sufficiently hardy to stand a meal in themselves (with a sauce and a garnish of crisp celery) they will be found very useful in making the home dinner under the weather to help out a meal of rather meagre proportions.

When boiling cabbage cut in quarters and remove the stem portion. Have the boiling salted water at a drop and in each piece, seeing the water boils again before adding other portions. Cook uncovered, putting the pieces down under the water until all are softened through. Cook until the cabbage is tender, thoroughly, chop and turn into the rest of the double boiler; add butter and paprika to taste, a generous portion of butter and about half a cupful cream or top of the bottle. Set in the home dinner under the weather in ten minutes and serve very hot.

If a milder flavor is liked, two three-fourth onion cubes may be added half an onion to the water in which the cabbage is cooked and the liquid saved as the basis for a good sauce. Both cabbage and cauliflower were good additions to any soup to a Brussels sprouts, which look much like individual tiny cabbages should be carefully looked over.

SCIENCE PROVES THE DANGER OF BLEEDING GUMS

Medical science proves that healthy gums cause serious ailments. People suffering from Pyorrhea (a case of the gums) often suffer from other ills, such as rheumatism, nervous disorders, or general weakness. These ills have been traced in many cases to the Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about the teeth.

Four out of five people over 40 have Pyorrhea. It begins with tenderness and bleeding from the gums, recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and, or, must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs. Get your health and your teeth. Keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and make daily use of Forhan's For The Gums.

Forhan's For The Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress in time, and used consistently identifies cannot do it. Forhan's will keep the gums firm, healthy, the teeth white and clean.

LIES WATCH SOVIET SHIPS IN BLACK SEA

Constantinople Constantly Under Guard for Plots Against the Entente.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.)
Washington, Oct. 20.—Allied warships have been put out on Constantinople to intercept Soviet naval vessels and merchant marine that are endeavoring to transport supplies and ammunition to Trebizond, according to advices from the Near East today. The British fleet in Asia Minor are in direct communication with the British command in the Near East and through the Persian Gulf to India and the rest of Asia. This was the plan outlined at the Entente conference and it was decided to keep the door at Trebizond and thence to the Black Sea.

To Aid Armenia.

It was reported today that some of the European powers are endeavoring at least to aid the little Republic of Armenia which is battling against the two branches of the Bolshevists, those from Russia and the Persians. The effect of Allied powers to intercept the Bolshevist fleet and engage it in the Black Sea is reported to be a part of the new effort to aid Armenia and to crush Bolshevism, or at least to prevent its spread into Asia.
Several arrests have been made on Constantinople and Southern of Bolshevist agents who were endeavoring to establish a foothold from which to challenge the authority of the British and French in Constantinople. The situation between the British and French in the Near East is said not to be happy because of the commercial rivalry. That is given as one of the reasons for the success of the Soviet agents there.

Uprisings in Siberia.

Uprisings in Western Siberia against the Soviet authorities are reported from Harbin, and the movement is said to be spreading with the advantage of the side of the anti-Bolshevists. Tomsk, Tark, Ishim and Kurgan are declared to have been liberated from the Reds. The defeat of the Soviet forces was made easier by the withdrawal of troops from Western Siberia to fight the new effort to aid Armenia and to crush Bolshevism, or at least to prevent its spread into Asia.

A Patient Man.

"I wish I had one of those fellows here who are trying all the time to get into communication with Mrs. Why?"
"I could use him right now. He'd just the man to try to get the four telephone numbers I've got to call."

Other Members of Vegetable Family Which Help Out a Meal.

With the coming of the cool fall days even the vegetables take on a heavier character, and as most of the members of the vegetable family are efficiently substituted for meat, a meal in themselves (with a good sauce and a garnish of crisp bacon), they will be found very useful in planning the home luncheon or supper or to help out a meal of rather meagre proportions.

When boiling cabbage cut in quarters and remove the hard stem portion. Have the boiling salted water ready and drop in each piece, seeing that the water boils again before adding the other portions. Cook uncovered, pressing the pieces down under the water until all are softened throughout. Cook until the cabbage is tender, drain thoroughly, chop and turn into the upper part of the cabbage boiler; add salt and paprika to taste, a generous piece of butter and about half a cupful of cream or top of the bottle. Set over hot water to let the steaming steam heat in for ten minutes and serve very hot.

If a meat flavor is liked, two or three bouillon cubes may be added with half an onion to the water in which the cabbage is cooked and the bouillon saved as the basis for a good soup. Both cabbage and cauliflower water are good additions to any soup and to a few sauces.

Brussels sprouts, which look so much like individual tiny cabbages, should be carefully looked over and redded in regard to size, which varies greatly. Then put the smaller ones on to cook and add the larger ones at the end of eight minutes. In this way they will all be cooked to the right degree of perfection, instead of having some hard and the remainder mushy.

To get rid of fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week, simply take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime and you have reduced weight to where you want it. No wrinkles or fibrosis will remain to show where the fat came off.

They are for sale by all druggists at 1 for a good box. If you prefer to have them come to you by mail, prepaid, in plain sealed cover, send amount to the Montreal, 37 Garfield Building, Dept. 1, which will be glad to deliver, express and collect. Be yourself, slim, trim and attractive.

Medical science proves that unhealthy gums cause serious ailments. People suffering from Pyorrhea (a disease of the gums) often suffer from the teeth, such as rheumatism, anemia, nervous disorders, or advanced vital organs. These ill-effects have been traced in many cases to the Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about the teeth.

Bour out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea. It begins with tender and bleeding gums, and if not treated, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs. Guard your health and your teeth. Keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and make daily use of Forhan's For The Gums.

Forhan's For The Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time, and used consistently. Ordinary dentists cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean.

LUXURY PRISON WAS BRITTON JAIL FOR BRIEF TIME

Then Detectives Learned of Illicit Trade in Whisky, Candies and Tobacco.

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.)
London, Oct. 20.—Recent discoveries in London's chief penitentiaries have resulted in a Home Office order for close investigation throughout. For some time the authorities have had reason to suspect that luxuries and distillates at various times were being smuggled into certain London jails.
Detectives were introduced into the buildings, and the result of a close watch was the discovery of a store of whisky, chocolate and cigarettes in a room where many of the prisoners are employed during the day. Several warders have been suspended, and the drastic investigation is going on.

The prison in question, Britton jail, where the Lord Mayor of Cork is being held, at present houses a fair number of men with means. What an inmate does when he wants things from outside is this: He gives his address to a man who is being released, and who agrees to call and ask his relatives to send money to the address of a warrier. The money is forwarded, and with it an appeal to spend part of it in comforts for Mr. So-and-so. Sometimes the warrier "bites." Sometimes he gives the prisoner away. It was as the result of a plan that the Home Office has instituted this enquiry.

DIDN'T WANT HUSBAND TOLD OF HER DEATH

New York, Oct. 21.—When Captain James W. Ford, of the Oriental Steamship Company's Chester Valley, returns to New York from Constantinople early in December, he will learn of the death of his wife, Ida M. Ford, who died in the Homeopathic Hospital, Newark, early in this month. His wife made a last request that her husband be not notified of her decease until his ship returns to New York harbor. His ship was in Constantinople at the time.

He would be nervous and not be a good captain. It is the reason she gave for her request.

MEN AND BUSINESS

(By Richard Spillane)

For rouge, face powders, cosmetics and perfumery the women and girls of America spent $750,000,000 last year. So the luxury tax returns show. That is at the rate of more than $2,000,000 a day for every day in the year.
If paint and powder made them more attractive the outlay would be understandable, but instead it made many of them disgusting, if not hideous.

The expenditure for furs amounted to $500,000,000. There is some justification for that.
Jewelry sales amounted to $500,000,000.
Here are some other items mainly chargeable to men: Cigarettes, $300,000,000; cigars, $510,000,000; chewing gum, $50,000,000; tea cream, $250,000,000; soft drinks, $350,000,000; candy, $1,000,000,000.

Altogether, the luxury bill of the country for one year totals more than $2,000,000,000. That is nearly the total of the national debt.
At dinner the other night one of the most prominent clergymen in Philadelphia said hundreds of families in this city were living in cellars because they could not get proper quarters in which to live. He said the conditions were going to be much worse because there was quite an influx of immigrants. What is true of Philadelphia is true, no doubt, of every American city of considerable size.

"You look disgruntled," said the shoe man.
"Yes," snapped the hatter. "I had a little rub just now and a couple of prospective customers walked out without being waited on."
"They seldom get away from me," declared the shoe dealer. "I take their shoes off as soon as they come in."
