FRENCH PRISONERS OF WAR ARE INTERNED IN HANOVER SWAMP

PROTEST IS MADE TO THE GENEVA SOCIETY

President of International Red Cross is Asked to Intervene.

Paris, Aug. 11.—The Marquis de Vogues, president of the central committee of the French Red Cross, has sent a formal protest to Gustav Ador, president of the International Red Cross committee at Geneva, against the German government's treatment of French prisoners of war in retaliation for alleged mistreatment of German prisoners. This protest, dated Aug. 4, is based on a report by Baron Danthouard, the plenipotentiary accredited by the French government to represent the French Red Cross at war prisoners camps.

Baron Danthouard states that a thousand French prisoners have been taken from camps at Erfurt, Ohrdruff, Damstadt, Friedland, Munster and Mersburg and sent to the Hanoverian swamps, "a region of notorious unhealthfulness, there to be employed in draining and cleaning land. For most of these men, unaccustomed to such work, this is physical and mental torture and killing fatigue in the misery of improvised quarters. This barbarous penalty is cold-bloodedly inflicted on innocents with the undisguised purpose to terrorize their families and emphasize through them moral pressure on French public opinion and government."

MORE GERMAN WARSHIPS DAMAGED IN OPERATIONS AGAINST ENEMY AT ENTRANCE TO THE GULF OF RIGA

London, August 11.—Dispatches to-day says that several more German warships are reported damaged in their operations before the Gulf of Riga, in which they are co-operating with land forces proceeding against the town. Their object is believed to be to bottle up the Russian war vessels in the harbor. What ships are there is not known. The whereabouts of the Russian dreadnaughts even is a mystery. The German ships damaged are reported to have suffered by mines.

DRAGOONS LEFT FOR TRAINING THIS MORNING

Batch of Upwards One Hundred and Thirty Men Go Away.

131 men, 20 from the Second Dragoons and 111 from the 25th left this morning on the 10.29 G.T.R. train for Niagara camp. Each detachment lined up at its own headquarters and marched separately to the station, entering together in two special coaches. The coaches were then backed into a siding and attached to the rear of the train as soon as it arrived.

There was tremendous enthusiasm and jubilation among the men of the Brant Dragoons this morning before leaving for the train. They gathered in the tent, cheered and sang songs and applauded heartily the short speeches delivered to them by representative citizens.

OTTOMAN ATTACKS ARE BEATEN BACK AND SHATTERED

Allies Hold Two New Points on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

London, Aug. 11.—The commencement of new and greater efforts to force the Dardanelles and thus bring succor to the Russians, who are still being hard pressed by the Austro-Germans in Eastern Poland and at the same time to influence the Balkan States, is the feature of the war news to-day. For some time the news from the Dardanelles from the British standpoint has been more cheerful. While no details of the operations there have been given out, the public has been allowed to learn that the hope for a successful issue in the fighting on the Turkish peninsula was brighter.

The renewed attempt against the Turkish positions, which apparently is in full swing, seems to be a concerted one. Attacks are being made at the tip of the peninsula, along the coast on a front of 300 yards has been made, and at Sari Bahr, where an important crest has been occupied, according to General Sir Ian Hamilton, Commander-in-Chief of the British forces.

STIRRING MARTIAL SUCCESS

Capt. Colquhoun Rises to Colonelcy in One Year

MRS. M. A. COLQUHOUN ON TUESDAY RECEIVED A CABLEGRAM FROM HER HUSBAND STATING HE HAD JUST BEEN GAZETTED TO COMMAND OF THE FOURTH ONTARIO AS LIEUT.-COLONEL.

A COINCIDENCE On August 9th, 1914, Capt. Colquhoun volunteered his services, and on August 9th, 1915, he was gazetted Lieut.-Colonel of his battalion on active service. This is a unique feature of a stirring year of war.

Such is the happy intelligence the Courier is pleased to be able to give its readers. Few military careers have been watched with greater interest, and fewer still have been followed by such a wealth of genuine affection by members of the 38th Battalion. Captain "Mac" now "Colonel"—it is one of the most meteoric and inspiring promotions of the war.

A native-born Canadian and Ontarian, of Scottish descent, he has ably shown all the inherited talent of a military people in his sterling qualities, and in the appreciation his superiors have shown has brought to his country and his regiment laurels that will be held proudly by all concerned.

Many promotions from time to time have been made, and the interest of the public has at most times been but cursory, the view being that such rapid achievement of coveted rank was phenomenal to the extreme; but a living example of its reality is thus made to Brant boys, which will doubtless have its effect in inspiring them to an emulation of such a feat.

BRITISH WARSHIP TORPEDOED OFF NORWAY COAST

Destroyer Hits Mine; Only Eighty Rescued From the Cruiser India.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—(By wireless to Sayville.)—The British Auxiliary cruiser India, of 7,900 tons, has been torpedoed off the Norwegian coast. Eighty members of the crew were saved. The India was attacked at a point north of Bodø, when entering the North Sea on Monday the 6th. The rescued men were picked up by the Swedish steamer Goestland.

The India belonged to the Peninsular and Oriental Line, and was built in 1896. The place of attack on the India lies along the steamship lane between England and the Russian Port of Archangel. Restford is a bay six miles long on the north-western coast of Norway. The loss of her crew were landed by a Dutch fishing boat. The Geiranger was a vessel of 1,087 gross tons.

London, Aug. 11.—In their latest aerial raid over the English coast, which occurred Monday night and yesterday morning, the Germans lost one of the Zeppelin airships which took part in it. It was attacked by gunfire while on its return home after having dropped bombs, and was so seriously damaged that it fell into the sea and was towed into Ostend, where allied airmen destroyed it.

GRAND TRUNK MEN AT SARNIA GIVING ONE GUN

Sarnia, Aug. 11.—The Sarnia G.T.R. men are showing their patriotism by purchasing a machine gun which will be used by a battalion now in London. Brakemen, conductors, firemen, engineers and shopmen are all contributing to the machine gun fund.

The men started to collect among themselves on Monday morning, and yesterday at noon they had over $600. After all the money is turned in a machine gun will be purchased and perhaps more guns will be bought by the railway men if they can collect a sufficient amount of money.

These men are also helping along with the patriotic work by giving to the Red Cross society and patriotic fund what money is left over from the Big Four picnic after all the expenses are deducted.

On July the 21st he states they were on their way to the freedom of the city of Bristol to Premier Borden, the Bristol Times and Mirror expresses the city's pride in the centuries old historical association with the North American continent, and the close connection in modern times with the Dominion.

BORDEN SAILS FOR HOME IN TEN DAYS' TIME NOW

London, Aug. 11.—While reticence is observed with regard to the date of Premier Borden's return, your correspondent learns on good authority that his visit will come to an end within ten days. The demands both public and private, upon Sir Robert's time have in no way diminished. Deputations and personal callers continue to occupy his time; in fact, certain provincial representatives have failed so far to get an appointment.

Commenting on the presentation of the freedom of the city of Bristol to Premier Borden, the Bristol Times and Mirror expresses the city's pride in the centuries old historical association with the North American continent, and the close connection in modern times with the Dominion.

The freedom of the city granted to Premier Borden was not only a personal greeting, but a civic recognition of the noble part taken in the war by the Dominion Government and people.

BRITISH LOSS IS COMPARATIVELY LIGHT FOR BATTLE FOUGHT TO REGAIN HOOGUE TRENCHES

Enemy Resistance Destroyed by the Effectiveness of Artillery.

London, Aug. 11.—The British attack at Hooge on Monday is shown by additional details to hand to have been the most important offensive action in weeks. The British not only recovered all the trenches which they lost before the flaming German gas attacks on August 1, but more, taking a front of a thousand yards. Altogether this has been the most important offensive action in weeks.

The British guns preceded it by shelling the German positions on a part of the line in the Yser Canal region, north of Ypres. Sunday afternoon, to which the Germans replied in kind, including the heaviest shelling received by the ruins of Ypres for two months. At 2.30 o'clock Monday morning British guns loosed their thunder on the German trenches at Hooge, in front of Ypres.

THE SITUATION. Latest reports show that recent British gains about the village of Hooge were of an even more important nature than first appeared. Not much of an indent, perhaps, on the German front, but every little counts for a good deal in the Western theatre.

While nothing to shout very much about is coming through from the Dardanelles, it is very evident that excellent progress is taking place there. The task has proved tremendous, and will continue to do so, but no one now doubts that the object in view will be finally achieved, with very far-reaching results.

The baby-killers have been at their work again of the English coast, with a total of nine women and four children out of the fourteen who were killed. The toll is characteristic of German Kultur. There will be satisfaction in the circumstance that one of the marauding Zeppelins was destroyed.

The demand in the Old Land for the placing of cotton on the contraband list continues to grow. It is stated that some of the scientific men in the Fatherland have developed a substitute from pulpwood, but that its use is of a highly dangerous nature. The United States growers would, of course, be very hard hit if such an edict went into effect, but there is talk of compensation for them. No one doubts that if Uncle Sam found himself in a life-and-death struggle he would, if he could, declare everything contraband without any ado. It is hard, no doubt, for neutrals to suffer, but war is no respecter of either individuals or nations.

The revived talk of peace emanating from German sources is made on the basis of an admission that the Fatherland cannot be beaten. There is an old saying which runs somewhat after this fashion:

"They talk about a woman's sphere as if it had a limit; There's not a thing in all the world without a woman in it."

Substitute the word "professor" for woman, and that seems to be about the state of the case in Hunland. It is announced that a group of these intellectuals have already got together and decided that such peace terms must include free expansion for German Kultur and commerce, Belgium to become tributary to Berlin, France to cede much territory and pay a big indemnity, Russia cede Poland and part of the Baltic provinces, and so on.

The professors have another large-sized guess coming. The only peace terms which will ever take place will be at the dictation of the Allies.

A HOLIER-THAN-THOU CONTRAST.

The Toronto Globe rolls the Manitoba disclosures like a sweet morsel under its tongue.

In a leading editorial it says that "it would be just a little bit ungracious" to begrudge references to the Ross Government defeat in Ontario ten years ago, but it says, with regard to the disclosures of those days, that it is not appropriate to mention "prentice work like the Three Norths and the Minnie M."

'Prentice work, eh? The dark and the shameful days under the last years of Liberal rule in Ontario were such that even the Globe itself made the demand that there must be a thorough housecleaning, and that the barnacles must be removed with an "iron hand."

Not one of them was touched, for the very simple reason that they not only covered the bottom of the Liberal ship, but were in full command on the captain's bridge. Having made its protest, without the slightest effect, the leading Liberal organ gulped down the dose and continued to support the provedly rotten administration of the day by every effort in its power.

The stuffing of ballot boxes, the burning of ballots, the carnival of debauchery in the three Norths, and countless other things were proved right up to the hilt; but now, according to the Globe, were only "prentice work." Probably so as compared with other things which also happened.

Take the trip of the Minnie M. as one illustration.

Here was a boat filled with pluggers, which went from point to point on the lake, and the rascals on board voted in the names of dead men and absentees. When they asked what about taking the oath if challenged, they were told that would be all right—that the book handed them would have Bible covers, but be filled with secular printing inside.

The Globe protested against a long list of similar acts, but when nothing was done continued to hold up both hands for an administration under which such things occurred.

Compare the course of the organ in this regard with that of the Conservatives in Manitoba. As soon as wrongdoing was proved they repudiated the leaders under whom it had taken place as compared with the Globe sticking to leaders who had brought shame upon the fair name of this Province.

The Toronto Globe is heartily welcomed to all the satisfaction it can get out of the contrast.

MUNICIPAL RAILWAY REPORT. The report of the Commissioners of Brantford's Municipal Railway for the six months ending with June 30th cannot be regarded as otherwise than a satisfactory statement.

Everybody knows what the property was, or more correctly speaking wasn't, when the change took place, and the greatly improved cars, improved service and improved everything else have been worth a very great deal even apart from the financial aspect. It is gratifying to note that this also can be regarded as reassuring.

It will be noticed that the gross revenue exceeded expenditure by $8,257.75, which enabled the bond and mortgage interest and debenture interest on $200,000 to be paid. In addition the Commissioners have assumed other charges and the total leaves a deficit for the six months of $3,438.85, with Eagle Place extension not long running. Under the circumstances the Commissioners would seem to be quite justified in saying that they hope "during the next half yearly period the property may come to be on a self-sustaining basis."

The system, it is announced, is now operated entirely by Hydro Electric power. This means of course another indirect benefit to citizens, for the more Hydro power there is used the less become the general rates for that service.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. More babies killed; more iron crosses.

Brantford's municipal railway, in times which are somewhat stringent, is certainly making a good showing.

Mr. Rowell, leader of the Ontario Opposition, was one of the speakers at a demonstration in Winnipeg to Mr. Norris, new Premier of Manitoba. Newton has to travel far afield to get a side swipe at fruits of victory which he is utterly unable to garner on his own account.

Prominent citizens in Warsaw have been seized as hostages by the Germans. If anything should happen which does not suit the Kaiser's high-mightiness, then these innocent men will be made to suffer. The sweetness and light associated with Kultur is all the time becoming more and more demonstrated.

CLAIMS $200 FOR TREE

Strathroy Woman Sues Town of Strathroy For Cutting It Down.

Strathroy, Aug. 11.—Claiming $200 damages for the act of a gang of hydro men who cut down a tree in front of her residence, Miss Mary O. Graham brought suit against the town and the case was heard in court before Judge Elliott yesterday.

Evidence was contradictory on a number of points and it was decided to adjourn the case until the court should be able to hear the evidence of Foreman Ballantyne, of London, under whose orders the wire gang is said to have been working when the tree was chopped down.

DID MUCH DAMAGE

By Special Wire to the Courier. Fort De France, Martinique, Aug. 11.—Considerable damage was done on the water front here by a violent storm with a heavy wind from the west which broke last evening following a very perceptible drop in the barometer. The sea rose high and docks were flooded and merchandise destroyed. Other material damage was not heavy. News from the interior of the island regarding the effect of the storm is lacking as the telephone lines are down.

SHIPPING DAMAGED

By Special Wire to the Courier. St. Vincent, British West Indies, Aug. 11.—A severe wind storm with high winds from the southwest, which began early yesterday, put a stop to coastal traffic and inflicted considerable damage on local shipping. Two local vessels were driven ashore in Kingstown harbor and several lighters were destroyed or damaged. The storm continued during the night, and to-day the beach of the harbor here were strewn with debris. There were no serious losses to property on land.

John Kohtala cut his wooden leg in two and was found trying to batter his way out of jail at Hagerstown, Md.

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease. For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. Get Hood's. No other medicine acts like it.

FOURTEEN PEOPLE

"The following casualties have been reported: Killed—One man, nine women and four children. Wounded—Five men, seven women and two children.

"One Zeppelin was seriously damaged by the gunfire of the land defenses, and was reported yesterday morning being towed into Oostende. She had since been subjected to continual attacks by aircraft from Dunkirk and has been under heavy fire, and it is now reported that after her back broken and her rear compartments damaged, she was completely destroyed by an explosion.

"The night was extremely dark and was accompanied by thick fog in places, which rendered night flying by aeroplanes very difficult. It is regretted that Flight Sub-Lieut. R. Lord, who was one of the pilots sent up to engage the enemy, was killed on landing in the dark.

A despatch to the Havas Agency from Dunkirk says that a Zeppelin airship near Ostend yesterday morning. The Zeppelin was first attacked by a British aviator, who, according to information reaching here, succeeded in seriously damaging the dirigible, and its destruction was completed by French aviators from Dunkirk.

FRENCH AIR RAID

Berlin, Aug. 11.—An official communication issued here yesterday tells of an allied air raid Monday evening on the town of Sanktingen. Eight persons were killed and two wounded in the latter town.

The communication says: "Monday forenoon, from 6 to 8, enemy aeroplanes attacked Zweibrucken and Sanktingen, which are outside the military district. From 15 to 20 bombs were dropped on Zweibrucken, causing only unimportant material damage. At Sanktingen eight persons were killed and two wounded."

The places mentioned are not in Bavaria proper, but in what is called the Rhine Palatinate, a district bounded by Alsace,orraine, Prussia, Hesse and Baden, being geographically quite separate from the Kingdom of Bavaria, which is over 50 miles to the eastward at the nearest point. Zweibrucken is about 45 miles north-west of Strassburg, and an equal distance east of Metz. The town contains the chief court of the Palatinate, which occupies the old castle. It is the former seat of the Dukes of Zweibrucken.

PRESS ASKING

asks The Daily Mail. Dealing with the public meeting which is to be held to-night to make cotton contraband, The Daily Mail continues, "What a commentary it is on our official way of doing things that in the second year of the war popular agitation should be necessary to urge our politicians to take a step that ought to have been taken immediately after the outbreak of the war."

The newspaper argues that declaring contraband will at once discourage American exports by reason of the heavy penalties exacted from shippers and make regular the position of Great Britain in the eyes of the United States Government through Great Britain compensating growers for their losses.

BRITISH LOSSES

while the British were busy consolidating their gains and preparing against counter attack.

POSITIONS CONSOLIDATED.

On Tuesday the positions gained, including the whole of Hooge village, were consolidated, but owing to the intense artillery fire south of the village, certain trenches were rendered untenable by either allies or enemy and the men abandoned them. This had no effect, however, on the British position.

THE BRITISH REPORT.

Sir John French, Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in France and Belgium, in a report given out yesterday by the Official Press Bureau, says the British troops have slightly withdrawn from their line south of Hooge, near Ypres, but have consolidated the village of Hooge. The report of Field Marshal French follows:

"North-west of Hooge and in the ruins of the village itself we have consolidated the ground gained yesterday, repulsing the weak infantry attack during the night. Yesterday afternoon there was no infantry fighting, but there was a violent artillery engagement, as a result of which all the trenches in the open ground south of Hooge became untenable by either side, and we have now slightly withdrawn the position of our line which lay south of the village.

"This makes no material difference to our position.

"The total number of prisoners captured by us yesterday was 150."

ENEMY'S LOSS TERRIBLE

The Daily Chronicle publishes the following despatch from Philip Gibbs at British head quarters, describing the capture of the trenches on the loss of our trenches on July 4 was an unfortunate episode, but it was confidently expected that position would be recovered without great difficulty. That expectation kept us on tenter-hooks several days, and last night when at some distance from Hooge there was a sound of heavy gunfire, there were many men in my billets who listened silently with the sudden drawing of breath because they knew work was beginning. On one little spot in Flanders there was a group of people staring up into the sky. Around them for miles was the great panorama of the war zone with Ypres as the centre, and into darkness leapt sharp swords of light and bursting stars which left reddish clouds above the black woods and fields. That bombardment in the night of infernal beauty and terror was the preliminary bombardment shortly after dawn, answered by the enemy to the east, west and north of the Ypres salient. So, for many miles and over a wide territory there was a bursting of great shells and storm clouds of shrapnel. At four o'clock our fire was concentrated upon the lines at Hooge and from all our batteries at long and short range were flung torrents of fire. When the foe was frightened and the order was given to the infantry to take the trenches, the condition of the enemy's lines must have been terrible beyond words, and their death roll was very heavy in those destroyed dugouts and behind broken parapets. Our own casualties are so far reported as slight, for the artillery had done most of the work and overcome the enemy's response. Prisoners who were taken, about 150 in all, up to the time of writing, were in a dazed and demoralized condition. The enemy has not prepared a counter attack, and our men are consolidating their positions after the victory, which cannot yet be told in detail."

KILLED BY RANGERS.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Harlingen, Texas, Aug. 11.—Two brothers named Brady, were killed here to-day by Texas Rangers. The Bradys were formerly residents of Harlingen and were alleged leaders of Mexican outlaws. The Rangers came upon them with a number of Mexicans and it was said the Bradys fired upon the Rangers, the encounter taking place west of Sebastian, where the two Austins were killed last Friday.

YANKEE KILLED

Corpus Christi, Tex., Aug. 11.—A United States infantryman was killed by Mexican bandits at Palm Gardens, about two miles east of Mercedes, Texas, last night. The dead man was one of four soldiers guarding Palm Gardens. The bandits appeared suddenly in the darkness and fired upon the guards. Their shots were replied to, but the result is unknown here.

WORLD PRESS ON THE WAR

SPLENDID, EVEN IF TERRIBLE. New York Tribune.—It is well that the world, in recognizing the horror, should not forget the grandeur and the nobility of the past year. Hereafter men will journey from the uttermost parts of the world to Liege and Louvain, as they have travelled from the Antipodes to study the Plain of Marathon. The field of Marne will be as memorable in human history as that on which France checked Attila or overcame the Saracens. In our own time, and in newspapers freshly come from the press, we have read of deeds that are as splendid as any in human records, disclosing the readiness of man to die for his ideal, of peoples to sacrifice all for liberty. We have lived through one of the most splendid as well as one of the most terrible of years, whose burden of suffering for the contemporary world may yet be justified by the gain for all who come hereafter.

SOUTH AFRICA'S ACT.

London Daily News and Leader.—If Campbell-Bannerman had done nothing but give self-government to South Africa he would have a place as high as any among the Empire-builders of the past. To his faith in the doctrine of liberty we owe the wonderful transformation in the spirit of South Africa and the glorious achievement we celebrate to-day. Without that faith and the courage to act upon it, South Africa would have fallen away from us in this dark hour without a struggle. Instead it has become the first bringer of good tidings—not merely the tidings of the completed victory, but the tidings of loyal service to the country that was great enough to be magnanimous and just in the hour of success. Liberalism has had many spiritual victories, but never a victory more swift, more dazzling than this.

A RESOLUTION OF STEEL

London Daily Telegraph.—The one supreme virtue at this hour is fortitude. It is not merely fortitude to talk peace; it is an infamy. Peace, concluded now, would mean the blatant triumph of Force, and we might as well pull down St. Paul's and erect on the site a temple to the Prussian Moloch. Let us quote the golden words of Burke on this subject: "War never leaves where it found a nation. It is never to be entered into without a mature deliberation. When so taken up, it is not to be abandoned without reason as valid, as fully and as extensively considered. Peace may be made as unadvisedly as war. Nothing is so rash as fear; and the counsels of pusillanimity very rarely put off, while they are always sure to aggravate, the evils from which they would fly." For Great Britain and her Allies this is a war for Right, Liberty and Freedom, and the sentences of Burke might well be written up round the Cabinet room if there were need. But there is none. The King and his ministers have a resolution of steel. So have the people.

WHO'LL RESPOND?

One subscriber to the Machins Gun Fund has offered $250 and will make it $500 if someone else will match his gift with another $500 for one gun. Anybody to this? If so, communicate with the Courier.

AN EXPLANATION.

The absence of a band in connection with the send-off given the boys who left for camp this morning, was generally commented upon. There seems to have been a mix up in the matter. Speaking on behalf of the city, Acting Mayor Ryerson wishes to voice a sincere apology. He states that had he known of the lack, he would at once have given orders for the same.

City Clerk Leonard received a petition from Thomas Hill and others this morning which requested the laying of a concrete curb on the west side of Church street from Brant Avenue to West Mill street. The petition will be brought up before the next council meeting.

SOLDIER HONORED

On Saturday afternoon last Mr. Maxwell Halstead, a recent addition to the ranks of the 25th Dragoons was made the recipient of an address and wrist watch when his fellow employees of the Barber-Elis platen press department, gathered at his home on Park avenue, to wish him farewell and Godspeed. Miss Olive Berberich made the presentation in a charming manner. Although taken completely by surprise, Mac made a characteristic reply. After mutual expressions of good will, the company adjourned, hoping Maxwell would soon return and take up his duties, and bespeaking for him a brilliant record in the service of his King and country.

WILLING HELPERS

A number of young enthusiasts met in the Courier office last night in reference to the machine gun fund. It was decided to hold baseball games at Agricultural Park on Saturday afternoon next and take up a collection, the proceeds to be given to the machine gun fund committee. An arrangement was made whereby at Agricultural Park, when the McBride team will play two games, one with the Alerts and the other with the strong Holmedale team. A pick-up team from the Verity Flow will play the champion Beaver soft ball team. As the Canadian League team is playing at Ottawa, there should be a large attendance at these games as there will be good sport, and the money collected will be immediately handed over to the machine gun fund committee.

the trenches and passed the Premier, Sir Robert Borden, who on the battalion being halted for his inspection, complimented the men and stated how proud the Dominion was of her troops, and admired the fine bearing of the battalion as it stood to arms on the roadway. During this time a heavy bombardment was undergone, and the town in which they had halted was suffering severely from shell-fire. TOUCHED WITH REAL SOLDIERLY FEELING, and deeply grieving the loss of his gallant machine gun commander, Lieut. Washington of the 13th Royals, Hamilton, Colonel "Mac" pays a little tribute to him that will be appreciated. The last scene in the woods, the heavy shells hissing overhead, the grim scenes of war—in its simplicity the letter is touchingly realistic. "Sunday in the Trenches—Just a line to say I am well, but I feel very blue. We buried Lieut. Washington, our machine gun officer, yesterday. He was from the 13th, Hamilton, and was one of the very few officers left of the old Fourth. He had been through all the engagements we have been in and never got a scratch. You know the big battle of Ypres was fought on 23rd April, and poor Washington was killed on the 23rd July. There are only four of us left now—that is, of the old officers of the 4th Batt. I was talking to him just fifteen minutes before he was killed. I was going my rounds in the firing line at the time. Lieut. Washington was one of the best officers I had, as brave as a lion. No matter how hot the battle, he was always as cool as if on parade. I feel my loss very keenly. We buried him with full military honors in a nice little military cemetery in the woods. There was a heavy bombardment on at the time from both sides. You could scarcely hear what the minister was saying for the hissing of the shells over our heads. I am writing his father in Hamilton. "We have been very lucky so far this time in. We have only six casualties to date, and I do hope we shall not have any more."

flatteringly of the little town of Paris and its splendid record in providing recruits. "Are there any kickers here?" asked Colonel Fisher, M.P. "If there are let them step forward and I will present them with a football." Mr. Fisher also added that in view of the stand of the Methodist conference at Toronto he would not dare present them with cigars, but would content himself by giving them several packages of playing cards. Captain Monteith, barrister at law of Stratford, who will be in command, gave a brief address, making a good impression in spite of some grim references as to what he would do to them in the way of discipline when at Niagara. The captain is not yet in uniform but will join the camp probably at the end of the week. The ladies of the Patriotic league then presented each man with a package containing socks and handkerchiefs, following which the march was made to the station, each soldier carrying his improvised kit bag. A great crowd gathered and the send-off was enthusiastic. THE SECONDS. The Second Dragoons gathered at the Armories and were also presented with packages of socks and handkerchiefs. They were accompanied to the station by the 38th detachment, who acted as a sort of guard of honor. After the train had gone the remaining Dragoons and the Dufferin Rifles marched back to headquarters. The Dufferin Rifles marched particularly well and stepped out smartly and in order, so much so that several of the crowd were heard to say that they looked about the best ever in Brantford. Colonel Muir, Major Brooks and Q-Master Plummer, accompanied the men to Niagara returning in a few days. FACES COURT-MARTIAL Still Another Deserter From 34th Arrrested in Galt. Still another deserter from the ranks of the 34th Battalion fell into the clutches of the local police yesterday, when Bert J. Wood, 50 Day avenue, was arrested. He had sent back his uniform to the military authorities several days ago, and upon their information he was arrested. The military escort arrived from London yesterday afternoon and escorted Private Wood and C. J. Skirten, who was arrested Monday, back to London for court-martial. ON WAY TO VIENNA By Special Wire to the Courier. Washington, Aug. 11.—The American note rejecting the contention of the Austro-Hungarian Government in permitting the exportation of munitions of war to enemies of the Germanic allies "is not in consonance with the definition of neutrality," was on its way to-day to Vienna, Ambassador Penfield to whom the note was dispatched, probably will present it to the Austrian Government tomorrow. The communication is in reply to the Austro-Hungarian note of June 29. The note it was said, re-states that American exporters have right, under international law to send war supplies to belligerents able to purchase and receive them. Three business men had their pockets picked while attending Magistrate Yates' court at Philadelphia. Newark Board of Education was upheld for excluding from schools the son of Clarence Curtis, who would not be vaccinated.

London, Aug. 11.—The sinking of four more craft was announced this afternoon. They were the British steamer Oakwood, the Norwegian bark Morna and two trawlers, the Young Admiral and the George Crabbe. The crews of all the vessels were saved.

The Oakwood was last reported at Liverpool on July 28. She was a steamer of 4,279 tons gross, 360 feet long, 48 feet beam, 28 feet deep, and was built in 1903. She was owned in London. The Morna sailed on March 28 from Portland, Oregon, for the United Kingdom. She was of 1,512 tons gross, was built in 1877 at Liverpool and was owned in Stavanger.

The postmaster is endeavoring to trace this party, forwarded the letter to Mr. S. F. Passmore, M.A., Port Dover, who cannot, however, lend any assistance, as he is not acquainted with the writer. He suggests that the Courier publish this fact and endeavor to find the writer through its columns.

the trenches and passed the Premier, Sir Robert Borden, who on the battalion being halted for his inspection, complimented the men and stated how proud the Dominion was of her troops, and admired the fine bearing of the battalion as it stood to arms on the roadway.

During this time a heavy bombardment was undergone, and the town in which they had halted was suffering severely from shell-fire. TRIBUTE TO OFFICER.

Touched with real soldierly feeling, and deeply grieving the loss of his gallant machine gun commander, Lieut. Washington of the 13th Royals, Hamilton, Colonel "Mac" pays a little tribute to him that will be appreciated.

"Sunday in the Trenches—Just a line to say I am well, but I feel very blue. We buried Lieut. Washington, our machine gun officer, yesterday. He was from the 13th, Hamilton, and was one of the very few officers left of the old Fourth. He had been through all the engagements we have been in and never got a scratch. You know the big battle of Ypres was fought on 23rd April, and poor Washington was killed on the 23rd July. There are only four of us left now—that is, of the old officers of the 4th Batt. I was talking to him just fifteen minutes before he was killed. I was going my rounds in the firing line at the time. Lieut. Washington was one of the best officers I had, as brave as a lion. No matter how hot the battle, he was always as cool as if on parade. I feel my loss very keenly. We buried him with full military honors in a nice little military cemetery in the woods. There was a heavy bombardment on at the time from both sides. You could scarcely hear what the minister was saying for the hissing of the shells over our heads. I am writing his father in Hamilton.

"We have been very lucky so far this time in. We have only six casualties to date, and I do hope we shall not have any more."

Nineteen were arrested for catching gold fish in New York Central Park and selling them.

DRAGOONS

flatteringly of the little town of Paris and its splendid record in providing recruits. "Are there any kickers here?" asked Colonel Fisher, M.P. "If there are let them step forward and I will present them with a football." Mr. Fisher also added that in view of the stand of the Methodist conference at Toronto he would not dare present them with cigars, but would content himself by giving them several packages of playing cards.

Captain Monteith, barrister at law of Stratford, who will be in command, gave a brief address, making a good impression in spite of some grim references as to what he would do to them in the way of discipline when in uniform but will join the camp probably at the end of the week.

The ladies of the Patriotic league then presented each man with a package containing socks and handkerchiefs, following which the march was made to the station, each soldier carrying his improvised kit bag. A great crowd gathered and the send-off was enthusiastic.

THE SECONDS. The Second Dragoons gathered at the Armories and were also presented with packages of socks and handkerchiefs. They were accompanied to the station by the 38th detachment, who acted as a sort of guard of honor.

After the train had gone the remaining Dragoons and the Dufferin Rifles marched back to headquarters. The Dufferin Rifles marched particularly well and stepped out smartly and in order, so much so that several of the crowd were heard to say that they looked about the best ever in Brantford.

Colonel Muir, Major Brooks and Q-Master Plummer, accompanied the men to Niagara returning in a few days.

ON WAY TO VIENNA. By Special Wire to the Courier. Washington, Aug. 11.—The American note rejecting the contention of the Austro-Hungarian Government that the action of the United States in permitting the exportation of munitions of war to enemies of the Germanic allies "is not in consonance with the definition of neutrality," was on its way to-day to Vienna.

Expenditure 34,221.89 $8,283.90 Net revenue— From this there has been paid: Bond and mortgage interest $3,257.75 Debenture interest on $200,000 5,000.00 $8,257.75 (Both for six months to June 30th) The following charges have been assumed by the Commission: Local improvement and tax for interest on pavements, 1st installment $1,251.00 Sinking fund, By-law 1284-1323 2,214.00 $3,465.00

The net result after payment of interest on the date assuming of taxes and sinking fund, is a deficit for the current six months of $3,348.85. Your Commissioners are hopeful that during the next half-yearly period the property may come to be on a self-sustaining basis. The rate has increased from 14.7 to 17, and the bettered service, the extension to Eagle Place and the southern suburbs of the city, together with the traffic consequent upon the acquiring of Mohawk Park, should all conduce to a larger earning in the near future.

A system of accounting for all materials and supplies has been installed and the management is carefully watching all details tending to a reduction of operating expenses. The outlay for improvements and betterments during the period covered by the accounts was $78,253.81, the principal items of which were: Eagle Place Loop, $23,847.01 New cars 14,607.53 Paris power plant 5,495.55 Rebuilding, etc. old cars 15,076.01 Grand Valley betterment 7,828.99 Rebuilding power house for terminal 5,808.86 Completing Paris station 4,054.00 Sundries 1,118.55

The work was all necessary and has been completed at the minimum of cost, day labor having been utilized whenever possible. The total valuation of the city's property under the management of your commission on June 30th was $455,327.11 with a liability including city pavement and tax account of $458,765.96.

Practically all the funds, $270,000 provided for under By-law 1284-1323, have been expended and further extensions cannot be undertaken until additional funds are provided.

The system is now operated entirely by Hydro Electric power furnished at Brantford, Paris and Galt, and through the facilities afforded by the improvements at the old power house, Brantford's street car and lighting utilities are virtually working together under one manager, although under two commissions.

Your Commissioners desire to express their appreciation of the loyal service of all the operatives and officials connected with the street railway system. They also desire to thank the Mayor, the members of the council, the city officials and overseers of the works department for their help and advice on all occasions. C. H. Hartman, Chairman. W. R. Turnbull, Commissioner. A. K. Bunnell, Commissioner.

SENATORS EASILY TOOK YESTERDAY'S GAME

RYNERSON HAD AN OFF-DAY AND SENATORS BUNCHED RUNS IN THE SECOND FRAME—HOME RUNS WERE MADE BY COOPER AND POWERS AND A TRIPLE BY SMYKAL—SCORE WAS 7-2.

The Brants didn't get a chance to do anything against Ottawa yesterday. Rynerison pitched the first three innings and was out of form. The Senators were quick to realize this and took advantage of him in the second. Through two singles and numerous passes they gathered together four runs.

After Smykal had smashed out a triple in the fourth, Rynerison was pulled and the new pitcher, Belting, was sent in. For the remainder of the game he allowed only four hits to be made. His twirling was very good and he will stay in the club for a while at least.

The first innings for both teams was uneventful, each man being retired in order. In Ottawa's second, they made a lead of four. With two out, Payne was walked, Smykal singled and Powers was given his base through an error to Dunlop. Then Roberts was walked and Payne forced in. Bashing forced in another when he was hit by a pitched ball. The fourth was scored on Dolan's single to centre field.

In the fourth Smykal ambled around the bags after placing one by the left field fence, and in the eighth, with a man on second, Pettie Powers drove out a beautiful liner over the same fence. That placed the Senators out of reach, and although the Brants were not shut out, they could not make more than two runs.

The Brants were not allowed to get even a single until the seventh frame. Ivers singled to left field and made second on an error of Bashing's. Comstock drove out a long double to centre field which scored Gabby. In the next, with two out, Cooper sauntered up and proved that he was a hitter by knocking one clean over centre field fence.

That ended the Brants' rally, and they did not get another show in.

FOURTEEN INNING TIE
 St. Thomas, Aug. 11.—St. Thomas and Guelph played a 14-inning tie here yesterday in one of the greatest ball games seen here in years. The game was finally called on account of darkness. Fulton, late of the defunct South Michigan League, playing left field for St. Thomas, started his brilliant catch of a terrific smash by Schaeffer in the 13th inning preventing what threatened to be a magnificent game, the visitors getting to him in but one inning, the tenth, when they bunched his hit for two runs. Score: R.H.E. Guelph . . . 000000000000—2 8 2 St. Thomas . . . 000000000000—2 7 1

LONDON 1, HAMILTON 0.
 London, Aug. 11.—Lamy's three-base hit over King's Head and Perry's sacrifice fly in the ninth inning gave London a 1 to 0 victory over Hamilton here yesterday. Dolan and Caesar staged a pitchers' battle, although the London man proved stronger in the pinches. The locals got eight hits off Dolan, but two came in one inning. Remarkable fielding featured the game, the London team starting particularly in this respect. Score:—

SPORTING COMMENT

Rynerison went well in the third, but when the first man up in the 4th hit a triple he did the dead march to the bench. Belting relieved him and considering everything, pitched a very fair game. He doesn't make the runner hug the bags enough and as a result stealing is made much easier for them. But the game was lost when he came in, so it didn't much matter. The Brants couldn't touch Roberts at all until the 7th. Only two men reached first up to that period and they walked. After the 6th they touched him up in fairly large quantities and had the local pitcher not cracked, might have pulled out a victory.

It was a dull game irrespective of the score, there being really no features. Cooper walloped out his daily home run as did Powers and Dunlop make a few nice assists. Streeter showed up well enough. In the 8th with Shag at third and one gone Smykal hit sacrifice fly to Streeter and some disgust was manifested by the crowd because he couldn't peg to the plate to catch Shag running in. As a matter of fact no outfielder living could have thrown the ball in from where he caught it, in deep, deep left. On the whole the game was

FUNDS NOW AVAILABLE

Extension to Waterworks at St. Marys will be started at Once.

St. Mary's Aug. 11.—Mayor Coupland received word yesterday that the town debentures of $12,500 for water and light extension had been accepted by the bond dealers. The water and light board held a special meeting last Monday night and decided to go ahead immediately, now that the funds are available, with the reconstruction of the street lighting system and the installation of the auxiliary gasoline plant at the power house.

The board appointed John Irvine engineer to fill the vacancy left by Alf. Crocker, who enlisted last week.

The Thames Quarry Company is getting ready to make the necessary extensions to its plant in order to work the quarries on both sides of Water street. A new crusher building 30x60 feet will be erected near the Chatham, Aug. 11.—Local Jews have started a campaign to secure funds to relieve the sufferings of their countrymen in Russian Poland. Various members of the race have pledged themselves to give various amounts weekly towards the cause, and an appeal is also being made to citizens to assist.

Over $500 was realized last night in a dance given at Erie Beach, by the young ladies of the summer resort, in aid of the Red Cross funds. A large patch of potatoes donated by Mr. Lister, was raffled off and won by Ed. Gerber. The funds were further increased by auctioning of various articles.

southeast corner of the quarries property.

The St. Mary's boy scouts started yesterday to collect old razors for the use of our men at the front. They are making a house to house canvass. Captain Ashby of the Salvation Army has been notified by headquarters that he is to be transferred. No further information has been received, but it is possible he may go to the front as chaplain, as he offered his services in that capacity some months ago. Capt. Ashby is one of the brightest young men in the service and his removal from here, it is insisted upon, will be much regretted.

BLENHEIM'S RATE 22

Blenheim, Aug. 11.—The town council held a special meeting last night, the most important business being the passing of the estimates and fixing the tax rate for 1915. The estimate provides for a rate of .22 mills on the dollar, which is satisfactory, considering the heavy demands being made this year upon the public funds. The council is also continuing the work of building concrete sidewalks and curbs, and before the close of the year there will be a vast improvement in the appearance of the town streets. At present the work is being done by Contractor J. Scoyne, but the council is advertising for further tenders and a second gang may be put on the job.

HOW LONDON GETS THE MEN

Many and various are the ways in which Great Britain is securing men for her army. The lot of the youth who has not donned the khaki is not an easy one. He is attacked by pretty women and plain women, old woman and young girls, who one and all question him as to why he has not joined the colors. His eyes are assailed by pleading or peremptory posters and his ears with the drone of the bagpipes or the list of the horns as the recruiting bands march through the streets.

These bands collect how and where they can. They are to be seen all over London making plucky platoon, while little groups of men and beardless lads follow them, and are finally piped off to the recruiting stations with never a word spoken. The would-be soldier is merely taken to the next thing he knows he is being examined and questioned by army inspectors. If he passes the requirements he speedily becomes a khaki-clad soldier and buckles down to hard work.

The most interesting feature of the new recruiting campaign is the number and variety of the posters. They change from week to week, almost from day to day. About twenty designers and writers are at work upon them in London alone.

The London of gay theatrical and other advertising posters is a thing of the past. Almost all the available space is used for recruiting bills, and of these there are large posters for fences and small ones for shop windows, and particularly brief ones for taxis, buses and motor vans.

The briefest one is the "Join Now!" in red, white and blue which adorns many a cab, but some taxi drivers prefer the question, "When Are You Going?" or "What About You?" or again the advice "Rally Round the Flag," while one driver has "No Khaki, no Kisses."

The picture posters are the most successful in bringing recruits, the designers say, and indeed some of these are really stirring, as for example that fine group by Frank Brangwyn, which has been so widely reproduced—the sturdy Briton surrounded by weeping women and children.

The Nelson Monument at Trafalgar Square has its lions holding up four reproductions of the same highly colored picture, a soldier and a workman grasping hands, while underneath is described "Fill Up the Ranks. Pile Up the Munitions" and above "We are Both Needed to Serve the Country."

A poster much seen is a Gibsonesque father with a child on each knee, their faces turned up to his as they ask, "Father, what did you do in the great war?" Another variety of this idea is a Boy Scout making the same embarrassing inquiry of a very handsome but harassed looking gentleman.

There is generally a group gathered around the picture which shows a house struck by a bomb and a woman with a child at her skirts and a babe in her arms in the foreground and the query, "Men of Britain, will you Stand This?"

Two pretty women are in the foreground of another poster, while a line of soldiers can be seen through a window and a notice underneath reads, "The Women of England Say Go!"

A group of marching soldiers "is watched by a crowd and on the inscription you read, "Join the Ranks, Don't Stand in the Crowd."

A map shows Calais, Ypres, etc., says, "Come Over Here; You're Wanted!" And the same inscription is used in connection with the illustration of a soldier shading his eyes and looking as though for comrades.

"If the Cap Fits Wear It," is written across a large khaki cap, and "Surely You Will Fight for King and Country" has a map of England and a portrait of King George in place of the words "King and Country."

A distinct failure in recruiting poster art is the one which shows a large and sulky lion with some cubs and the declaration that the "Old Lion Helped by the Young Lions Will Win." This is badly drawn and colored and without any appeal, yet for some reason or other it has outstayed some of its betters.

A highly tinted portrait of Lord Roberts bears underneath the words, "He Did His Duty; Are You Doing Yours?" and a pictured group of different types of men announces that "Every Fit Man Should Fight."

The omnibuses which pass recruiting stations have recently admonished the public to "Follow This Bus to the Front," and the whole side of the fence on the Kingsway is covered with this demand in red, white and blue lettering: "Join. More Men Are Needed at Once!" and again "If You Can't Join the Army Get a Recruit."

Other spaces display these sentences: "Each Recruit Means Quicker Peace for England; Join Today!" "Halt! Go Into the Army, Help the Boys at the Front!" "Fight for Freedom With the Strength of Free Men." "Young Men Wanted. Apply at the Recruiting Offices." "Britons, Your Country Needs You." "You Think a Lot of Your Pals at the Front, but What Do Your Pals Think of You?" and "Will You Not Help Your Country in Her Hour of Need?"

The entire third floor of the Carlton Hotel bears quotations from English heroes printed in huge letters on boarding. On the Pall Mall side you read: "England Expects Every Man This Day to Do His Duty" and "No Price Can be Too High when Honor and Glory Are at Stake," and on the Haymarket side, "Who Dies While the England Lives?" and "He Gives Freely Who Gives First."

Not many people stop to read the long quotation from the inquest on the Lusitania victims, which is placed all over London to arouse indignation. It is too involved and too long, and Lord Kitchener's letter calling for more men suffers from the same fault for recruiting purposes.

Californian justices of the peace cannot charge for marrying but may accept tips, says the Attorney General.

Russia's Prohibition is Very Real Indeed

All the world knows that Russia is teetotal by Imperial decree, writes John Foster Fraser, in the London Standard. Not only is the manufacture of vodka stopped, but heavy is the fist of the law if there is the sale of brandy, or wine, or beer. You die at the Astoria, a sort of second-class Savoy, and the "band" bangs out Yankee rag-time tunes and gives you "Tipperary," and the waiters speak all European tongues (save German), and everybody is in good humor—but there is no wine to make the heart of man glad. You drink Russian mineral water, or grape juice, but mostly you drink kvass, which is made from bread and tastes like insipid ginger beer. I have had friends in the pretty houses of my country, and I am not saying that there are not subterranean means whereby you can get very bad wine at very high prices, but it has to be drunk in secret.

Russia has, in the proportion of 999 cases to a thousand, become a total abstinence country. It is something of an ordeal to the newly arrived Englishman, not so much that he wants alcohol, but because of the moment of forgetfulness, standing within sight of the American bar before dinner, he will suggest a cocktail. "Certainly, certainly," is the response, but with sarcasm. Then the truth dawns—you are in Russia.

Huns Resort to Kilts and Khaki

How the Huns resort to the use of the kilts and the khaki, and of the white flag in their endeavors to get within striking distance of the Canadian lines, is told in a letter that has just been received by the ladies' auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineers from four C.P.R. men who are at the front with the 10th Battalion. The letter, which is headed "Enroute to Berlin," is signed by C. F. Hatcher, Donald McNaughten, V. S. Griffiths and H. A. McCullough, of Calgary. Since the letter was sent Donald McNaughten has been officially reported killed in action.

During the course of the letter a graphic description is given of the part played in the battle of Ypres by the "Fighting Tenth," who, although outnumbered seven to one, took the wood at the point of the bayonet and held the German trenches against the heavy rain of lead poured in by the machine guns of the enemy.

During the days that followed, the Germans tried several times to deceive the Canadians, to the extent of putting on kilts and shakos and uniforms taken from the dead, and by the further use of the white flag. Fortunately, however, the Canadians, by the use of field glasses, discovered the ruse and the attack was easily repulsed.

The writers convey the information that the old battalion has been recruited up to full strength again and that a call is expected now at any time. Mention is also made of the address made to the troops by Gen. Alderson, and of the receipt of scores of telegrams from all parts of the world, congratulating the westerners on their conduct since taking the field.

HARVESTING STARTS

Farmers Take Advantage of Fine Weather to Get in Crops.

Wyoming, Aug. 11.—Although rains have delayed harvesting, the time has not been entirely lost to the farmers, who have seized this opportunity to take first steps toward preparing for the fall wheat crops. This early plowing will afford an occasional cultivation of the fields. Unless wet weather continues much of the wheat ground should be in good condition for early sowing.

The clear weather of the past few days has revived optimism, the farmers making all speed in cutting the oat crop. This task, however, is full of interruptions for many, while in some

THE FROBS

By Special Wire to the Courier.
Several minor cases were heard in police court yesterday as the result of civic holiday celebrations. One case not connected with the holiday, however, was the fining of an Ingersoll man for disposing of light weight bread in this city. A plea of guilty was entered.

SHOT THROUGH HAND.

Wilfrid Trotter, of Woodstock, Injured accidentally while Hunting Woodstock, Aug. 11.—Wilfrid Trotter, a young lad residing on Victoria street, was shot through the hand while out hunting to the north of the city yesterday afternoon. The young man was crawling through a fence when the trigger of the rifle came into contact with the fence. The discharge set the bullet into the fleshy part of the right hand, coming out on the other side. After having his wound dressed by a doctor the young man was sent to the hospital, where he is doing nicely.

Germany to Free Poland From Bondage

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, Aug. 11.—A despatch to The Morning Post from Budapest says: "With regard to the future of Poland, the Berlin correspondent of a semi-official Hungarian news agency telegraphs as follows: 'Since August 1 only orders for the army are allowed to be executed, but this will not give employment to one-tenth of the great body of textile operatives which have been brought to a standstill. This has created a considerable amount of unemployment. 'The manufacture of ready-made clothing which in normal times plays a large part in the German industry has been stopped for some time owing to want of raw wool from Australia and New Zealand. The woollen mills are at present restricted to supplying the still dearer very good quality of uniform who do not require civilian clothing at present. 'One industry which has suffered acutely is the manufacture of toys and other articles of German industry and Thuringia millions of pounds worth of these toys used to be sent to other countries, but this export trade has now almost entirely ceased and a number of factories have been closed, second only in importance to that of London, has come to a complete stop. It must, however, be well understood that German exporters are only now beginning to be aware of the pinch of the blockade which has entirely vanished. 'The British government allowed more than two months' grace as far as May 15 or even June 1. 'Now, however, the number of bankruptcies is advancing considerably and great distress is spreading in industrial circles, the more so because the United States efforts to bring pressure to bear upon the blockade have entirely vanished. 'In the last month we have had occasional opportunity for comparing forecast with fulfillment and it must be admitted the enemy has good cause to be proud of the advance he has made. Even from the ground one has been greatly impressed by the speed and climb of the German machines which have penetrated lately some distance inside the firing line. It has been instructive to watch the daring work of our shells were dotted the proof of the pilot's faith in the engine he was handling and the ease with which, when he had had enough of it, he turned his nose towards the upper air and left a white trail of shells bursting helplessly below him. 'In these months we were given to understand by the ineradicable German inclination to boast about the future that experiments were being made with new types of engines and machines, which were to result in the production of some superior to any craft that had ever taken the air.
