FOUR MONTREAL FIREMEN DEAD AS RESULT OF MOST DISASTROUS FIRE IN CANADIAN METROPOLIS IN YEARS

MONTREAL, June 22.—Four Montreal firemen died as a result of the most disastrous fire in Canadian metropolises in years. The fire broke out at the large three-story brick and blind factory of Fabian Avenue, near the intersection of Duvernay and Levis streets. The fire was caused by a cigarette thrown carelessly by a passerby into some shavings lying in the Fabian Avenue doorway. The fire spread rapidly and was extinguished by the City fire company on Fabian Avenue. The fire caused the death of four firemen and the injury of three others. The factory was completely destroyed. HOUSEWIVES PLEASED FARMERS SATISFIED EVERYBODY IS HAPPY

Housewives with baskets and shoppers who came in automobiles keep the visiting truckster and gardeners busy all day long; officials of consumers league, pleased with the success of their initial effort, plan for continuation of campaign along more elaborate lines. The market was a success. It was a greater success than even the most sanguine of the promoters expected. The only question now is how soon will it become a permanent factor in the life of the city. From the time of opening at 8 in the morning until the late hour in the evening when the doors were closed, thousands flocked through the building, which for some months past has been deserted and neglected. It is estimated that during the day over 5,000 people visited the market, and these belonged to every class of the community, from the wealthy, in their automobiles, to the artisan's wife with her basket.

Other Explanations

"Another explanation: If the Consumers' League had controlled a sufficiently large fund of money, they could have gone into the food market and bought up the produce of the market, and then sold it at a profit. This would have been a very profitable business for them.

THE NEED OF A MARKET.

The outstanding feature of the attempt of the Consumers' league on Saturday was the demonstration that the people of Calgary want a city market, that they haven't got one, and that they should and could have one if the city went the right way about it.

The attendance of purchasers at this test market was very large. The accommodation was not good. The supply of produce was not adequate. Many preferred to divide their truck farms into subdivisions and sell their land for fairly good real estate. Besides, there was no market when they brought produce to Calgary.

Guaranteed a good market in Calgary, the market gardener or truck farmer will start soon enough. We can grow vegetables of all kinds, and even small fruits, in large quantities, poultry, eggs, and dairy products, and almost everything that finds a place on a market. But it is not done, and it will not be started without some considerable encouragement on the part of the citizens.

This is a fruitful country. Everything the farmer can raise he can bring in to Calgary and sell at a high price except grain, and, strange to say, grain is about all that he does grow.

The citizens have shown the council how badly they want a market. The council should take some steps to provide one. They should appoint a superintendent, but they should be unusually careful in the man, they select. Upon the choice they make depends the immediate future of such a market.

This war business seems to become a habit in some countries and the Balkans are still nibbling at it, and in Mexico it has become a steady occupation. In other countries preparations for war are even more costly.

Prince Edward Islanders have prohibited all automobiles on that island, evidently believing that the gasoline would somewhat discourage the fox crop. The Islanders are

A DOUBLE OUTRAGE.

The commissioners, according to report, have decided to withhold the increases in salaries voted to the more poorly paid officials of the city, to secure enough money to make a grant to a charitable institution in this city. Instead of the increases starting on January 1, they will start on April 1 or July 1. Only officials getting less than $90 per month will be affected. The increase in the salaries of the commissioners and the mayor took effect on January 1.

This means nothing more or less than that the underpaid officials are forced to pay for the citizens in general who benefit by the philanthropy. That is unfair. It is brutally unfair.

And that is not the worst of it either. For some reason the commissioners are taking an extra three months from the employes of the electric light department. No explanation has been made of this rather remarkable decision. The department gives a very neat profit to the city every month. The clerks are underpaid. Of the twenty-one in the department, two receive $65 a month, thirteen receive $70 a month, and three receive $75. That is practically less than a living wage for men who desire to maintain full citizenship and keep a family in this city.

Yet the city forces these underpaid employes to pay $30 to the Convalescent Home, which the citizens should pay. That is a double outrage.

As the Albertan has suggested repeatedly, the city should make a change in its service department. At present Calgary underpays its officials and has no proper system of increase or promotion. The employes should not be forced to pay the debts of the whole city, or give their hard-earned money to make up for the mistakes of others.

Because at the city market on Saturday the marketer could not always get strawberries for five cents a box in a pound of sugar thrown in to flavor the bargain, some people are inclined to believe that the market is not quite what they expected it to be.

Some people like to wander about among the hills on Sunday afternoon, and others who can afford it are content to motor in the country, and there are some others who take part in Sunday school work, and there are others who delight in none of these things, and to whom the Sunday afternoon is not the enjoyment that it should be. We have no boating or amusement of that kind which makes the day so pleasant in other places. What to do on Sunday is a question that deserves some consideration.

An Edmonton alderman has discovered that money voted for the street railway extension has been used for the prison farm and municipal golf course. Edmonton need not be lonesome in this strange method of financing. But never, never again, in Calgary.

The carpenters in Toronto have threatened to go into politics and show the minister of public works just how things should be done. And with a contingent of carpenters on the floor of the house, cabinet making should not be too difficult.

It seems that when President Frank Gray of the Western Canada League rebuked the Saskatchewan Quakers that the turning of the other cheek was the last thing that either Cairns or Hurley thought of. That may be all right for the other Quakers, but baseball is baseball.

The price of wheat is higher in Winnipeg than it is in Minneapolis. When the western farmer is selling his wheat the price in Minneapolis is higher than in Winnipeg.

It would be more to the advantage of the western farmer if he had access to the Minneapolis market when he had wheat to sell, even if the difference was only two cents a bushel, than if he was shut out from the Minneapolis market, even if the price of wheat in Winnipeg exceeded that of Minneapolis by a dollar a bushel, when he had no wheat to sell.

The crop in the United States in 1912 was unusually good, surpassing any crop in recent history. The narrow market advocates rejoiced in this fact and said that a comparison of the price of grain in Minneapolis and Winnipeg would be of interest. In the early fall, before the grain of the Canadian farmers was ripe, the price in Minneapolis was lower than it was in Winnipeg. But when the farmer had harvested his grain and put it upon the market, the price in Minneapolis had increased again, and was considerably higher than in Winnipeg.

After the farmers had marketed their grain, the price in Winnipeg took the lead again. During the months of October, November, December and January the farmers of Western Canada marketed 77,756 cars of grain. With the exception of five days in October, when the Winnipeg price was a portion of a cent higher than the Minneapolis price, the Minneapolis price exceeded the Winnipeg price, sometimes by as much as 61-8 cents per bushel.

This year was the most favorable for the narrow market theorists. Still, even then the farmers of the West marketed at least 75,000,000 bushels when the price was on an average at least three cents a bushel higher in Minneapolis than in Winnipeg.

One week from today the Calgary fair will open in all its glory, only somewhat more so. The Calgary fair is something that we can very well without because it is a credit to the city and the province, and to all of Western Canada.

Calgary citizens regret that any promotion for Mr. A. Price, C. P. R. general superintendent of this division, will mean his departure from this city. He is a very excellent citizen, who stands for the best there is in Calgary citizenship.

The defence in the Pelkey trial has not yet brought any evidence to show that possibly the tragic blow was given or the injury received in some previous incarnation. Sir Max Aitken declares that Alberta borrows too much. With Sir Max paying 18 cents a bushel for oats in his elevator, he surely cannot expect that we can live in this country without borrowing.

W. J. Bryan, secretary of state in the United States, and several other things, has decided to carry his lunch to future and not take any chances with the haphazard in the United States capital, principally because it saves time to eat out of a sack, and it also saves the stomach when the home folks prepare the luncheon.

The freight rates in Western Canada may not be so very much higher than Jim Hill squeezes out of the farmers across the way on some things, though that is a matter of argument, but it is beyond dispute that compared with the rates in Eastern Canada, freight rates in Western Canada are abnormally high and must be cut down.

If a business man should chop down the wages of employes in order to raise money to give to a charitable purpose, the proprietor would be held up to the scorn of honest people as a candidate for the position of the "meanest man in seven counties." But that is precisely what the city has done with the underpaid employees at the city hall. It is mean.

WHO GETS HURT?

Come, let us eat the peanut trust, which fills all people with disgust. A few ungodly plutocrats, all decked with gems and stoupe hats, control the country's peanut trade, and they more legal lights to break such little laws as we may make. And when the little race is hurt, and we see those legal lights to break such little laws as we may make. THE JUNE GARDEN

Almost all amateurs have gardens in June but only a few are so voracious about them as they were in May. The June garden is quite easy to keep in good order. The detective may not know a garden from an asphalt pavement.

Where the weeds are highest and thickest there is the June garden. The weeds are higher there because the soil was enriched and put into good condition for the plants to grow. In May, however, the weeds had no chance in a garden. It is as unwelcome as a Lutheran in a St. Patrick's day parade.

A garden owner will rise at dawn in May in order to chase a weed into the corner of the garden and exterminate it with a hoe. In May the radical hoeing and exclusive. But in June the weed moves in and makes itself perfectly at home.

The garden is just like a new administration. All patriots begin new administrations with bright, clean boys and weeds of various opposite political affiliations with swearing vigor. The nation is never better than when it is just starting. The new administration has changed hands and the new and untried majority is sweeping over the old one.

A Cool Target. An incident that occurred in the experience of an officer illustrates the indifference to death and the courage characteristic of the Turkish soldier.

The officer, accompanied by a guard of Turkish soldiers, went to the edge of a cliff overlooking the sea. He was ascertaining the position of the water below. He fired a good many shots and what he should do that of the soldiers came to him and politely asked, "Do you not think that you have fired often enough at Sergeant Yussuf?" The supposed seal was indeed the sergeant.

Presently the sergeant came ashore, put on his clothes and came up the cliff smiling. The officer apologized handsomely and blamed himself freely. But Yussuf, like his companions, did not think them much to be concerned about. After all, the mark had been very small; it was natural to fire at it; it was natural that the officer would hit it, and he (Yussuf) had not minded it at all.

The Correct Amount. The class was being inducted into the mysteries of mental arithmetic. "Christy," said the teacher, "what was your mission in life? Was it to teach the young? Was it to shoot 'em up? Was it to shoot 'em up? Was it to shoot 'em up?"

Robert is not a bright pupil, and she only expected to have to repeat the sentence a few times. But, to her surprise, Robert was ready with his answer. "It would amount to a moving job, teacher," he said, "with that precious amount of money which is so pathetic in extent."

Of the two men standing at a street corner, one was of the type always aching to display smartness. "Watch me take a ride out of him," he muttered to his companion as he started to cross the street. He started to cross the street. He started to cross the street.

"Why, that's not the same story you told me last time," said the companion, "and the lady who said she was a ragged old tramp? Where in the name of heaven did you get that?"

"That explains it," he said, "I'd forgotten meeting you." Was the tramp's quiet retort, "I was in prison all last week."

Mysteriously. The grocer's son was a smart kid, smarter for his years than any one else in the village. He had a good many friends and was popular. In fact, even the inspector of the school found him an apt pupil.

"Where does cutlery come from?" asked the inspector. "From Sheffield, sir," the boy answered. "Good—very good; and where does lace come from?"

"Brussels, sir." "Good—very, very good," the inspector claimed. "Now, where does coffee come from?"

"Why not? Why, because it's a secret of the trade?"

What's in a Name?

The old caretaker of an Episcopal church, as he sat on a tombstone in the churchyard, dismissed as trivial the question of his proper title.

"The good old creed keeps the same for all," he said, "though they may have changed the words they use. Look at me; here I used to be the janitor. Then we had a person who called me the sexton. Dr. Thirby gave me the name of virgin. And the young man we've got now says 'Eid the sacrifice.'"

"She Did What She Could?" A physician told a story of a philanthropic doctor in a mining town, who gave a new thermometer to each family with the urgent advice to keep their houses at a proper temperature.

When he was making his rounds one day he saw his thermometer changing in the room. He asked the woman of the house if she remembered his instructions.

"Indeed, sir, 'do," was the response, "I hang the thing right up there, and I watch the mercury to see if it does not get too high."

"Good," exclaimed the doctor. "And what do you do when the temperature rises above 70 degrees?"

"Why, sir," answered the woman, "I hang the thing right up there, and I watch the mercury to see if it does not get too high."

His Trump Card. A clergyman has given this account of infant recollections.

"My little daughter was a bit overborne by the weather, but she was very good, and consequently was put to bed early. She had not been under the covers more than five minutes before she called out:

"Mamma, I want to see papa." "Go to sleep, dear," answered her mother. "Papa can't see you now."

"In a few minutes she called once more—

"Mamma, I've got to see papa!" "I can't disturb papa now. He is very busy," the mother said.

There was a silence for nearly forty minutes. Then these words floated down the stairs:

"Mamma, I am a very sick woman, and I must see my pastor at once!" Then I went up.

The name of Dean Stanley will occur to many of us as that of a celebrated statesman of the pre-republican period.

A Cool Target. An incident that occurred in the experience of an officer illustrates the indifference to death and the courage characteristic of the Turkish soldier.

The officer, accompanied by a guard of Turkish soldiers, went to the edge of a cliff overlooking the sea. He was ascertaining the position of the water below. He fired a good many shots and what he should do that of the soldiers came to him and politely asked, "Do you not think that you have fired often enough at Sergeant Yussuf?"

Presently the sergeant came ashore, put on his clothes and came up the cliff smiling. The officer apologized handsomely and blamed himself freely.

Robert is not a bright pupil, and she only expected to have to repeat the sentence a few times. But, to her surprise, Robert was ready with his answer.

Of the two men standing at a street corner, one was of the type always aching to display smartness.

"Why, that's not the same story you told me last time," said the companion, "and the lady who said she was a ragged old tramp?"

"That explains it," he said, "I'd forgotten meeting you." Was the tramp's quiet retort, "I was in prison all last week."

Mysteriously. The grocer's son was a smart kid, smarter for his years than any one else in the village.

"Where does cutlery come from?" asked the inspector. "From Sheffield, sir," the boy answered.

"Good—very good; and where does lace come from?" "Brussels, sir."

"Good—very, very good," the inspector claimed. "Now, where does coffee come from?" "I don't know, sir," the boy replied.

"Why not? Why, because it's a secret of the trade?"

In your race for success don't lose sight of the fact that only through good health can you attain success.

The tension you must necessarily place upon your nerves, and the sacrifice of proper exercise you have to make at times must be balanced in some way.

"SHE got cold feet," Dr. Mahood, medical health officer, addressed the Business Women's club, summing up the reasons for the failure of the board of health to recognize the necessity of passing a bylaw providing for the proper disposal of poultry for sale in Calgary...

The Committee of Public Health may also take further action to secure the much needed bylaw governing the dressing of poultry, on which the board of health has so far taken an indifferent stand...

However, Mr. Manary, the license inspector, insisted on a drive way to the market, immediately after killing and dressing poultry for the Calgary market...

Reputations of Two No-Hit Men Too Much For the Bronchos

Boy Steele and Joe Northrup Pitched Mediocre Ball But Won Their Games; Steele's Eighth Consecutive Win; Scores Were 11 to 2 and 2 to 1

MOOSE JAW, June 22.—At a conference of the officials of the Western Canada Baseball league held here Saturday night the difficulties of the league were thrashed out and aired so thoroughly that the atmosphere has been cleared and all clubs will be back on the diamond and playing Monday.

Upon the trouble concerning the Saskatoon and Regina clubs being brought up the past action of President Gray was thoroughly endorsed by the remaining members of the board of control. The representatives of both the Regina and Saskatoon clubs present expressed their regret that the misunderstanding and difficulties between their clubs and the president had occurred, and Mr. Gray, in view of their explanation, and with the interests of organized baseball at heart, has agreed to overlook the past and start all teams to work at once.

Manager Bill Hurley and the Saskatoon team, together with Managers Hulén of Regina and Whisman of Edmonton have been reinstated upon probation. It was predicted that a meeting of the league would settle the difficulties, and it has done so.

The Edmonton Exhibition, which advertised several closing events for the summer horses at the Summer Show, has been closed for the season. The closing events were cancelled as they did not fill satisfactorily and will replace them with other events for the season.

The Iroquois took the measure of the Hillhurst team by the score of 9 to 2 in an exciting junior league game on Saturday night. The game was close until the seventh when Howard Glover, who had been pitching splendid ball all that time, went out and the Indians ran in three runs, which clinched the game for them.

Ray Stannah, on the mound for the Iroquois, pitched good ball throughout, only allowing three hits. He received good support. Charlie Mills and McCaulough were the best of the Hillhursts. Lineup: Iroquois—Meholt, R. Stannah, E. Stannah, Pashak, Scott, Carroll, Hicks, O'Brien, Reddick. Hillhursts—Thompson, Glover, McCaulough, P. McGregor, C. McGregor, Dawson, Mills, Amnis, McDougall. Umpire—Willard Halliday.

Games This Week: Tuesday—C.P.R. vs. Hillhurst. Thursday—Iroquois vs. Pirates.

THIS IS LADIES' AND SHRIMPERS' DAY

In order to celebrate the signing of the baseball truce, President Gray has arranged that this day shall be Ladies' Day, which is a day when all members of the ladies' clubs who are members of the league will be given a special privilege to sit on the bench during the game and to see the game from the box seats.

Truce Was Signed But It Was Not Real Peace Conference

ALTHOUGH reports from the Moose Jaw baseball meeting which came over the wire indicate that the moguls sat down and had a quiet time similar to a meeting of the mutual admiration society, everything was not quite so lovely as the telegraphic story would indicate, according to Sam Savage, president of the Calgary Baseball Club. Sam returned from the meeting last night, and although rather reticent about going into particulars, it was learned that the dove of peace which fluttered around the table at Moose Jaw, almost escaped from the room on several occasions.

The meeting at Moose Jaw was more in the order of a truce signing affair than a real bona fide peace conference, and there will be another meeting of the board of control probably on Tuesday, July 1, in Medicine Hat. At this meeting things will be thrashed out in a very thorough manner, and some momentous questions decided.

The most interesting feature of the whole thing was the suspending of Ray Whisman, manager of the Edmonton team, the team which Frank Gray owns. He was suspended for avoiding the league rule. Everyone would have thought that this would have been the first step which Mr. Gray would have taken, but Mr. Savage explained that the league president from a great deal of thought.

Whisman, it appears, signed all his players on regular contracts. These contracts were low enough to get by the league rule. But in making these contracts he is said to have made a definite agreement with the players for a certain sum. The regular contracts were returned over to the club. Whisman had hoped to collect enough to pay the extra money from the fans, but he failed to make such a poor showing.

As Many Sports As Possible Will Be Accommodated This Season; Soccer Men May Make Change at Victoria and Hillhurst Parks

The committee on the attainment of public playgrounds, which was organized last year, has today adopted a broad policy for the attainment of public playgrounds in the city of Calgary. The committee has decided that as many sports as possible will be accommodated this season.

The committee has also decided that the soccer men may make a change at Victoria and Hillhurst parks. The committee has decided that the soccer men may make a change at Victoria and Hillhurst parks.

LIVE SHELL BOOM IN PRACTICE TODAY; SEALED ORDERS RULE

Soldiers Will March into Open Country before Knowing Destination; Scouting Party to Follow on Trail

Live shell practice will start at the encampment this morning, the general movement being south, according to information given out by Colonel E. A. Cruikshank, commanding the military district. This will mark the opening of actual warfare work at the big encampment of the public.

The first cross country marching will also take place this morning, but the usual military secrecy is being maintained regarding the movements of the troops. One party, the Reds, will march away from the encampment, under sealed orders, these orders to be opened after the officers and men reach a certain distance from the camp. Nobody, aside from Colonel Cruikshank and members of his staff, knows the exact nature of the orders at present, and although it is anticipated that the men will remain away from the camp all night, nothing definite on this subject will be given out to the soldiers.

After the Reds have been away from the encampment for a certain length of time a scouting party will be sent out to locate them, and reconnoiter. The orders of this party are also being kept secret, and will not be known to the officers and men until they, too, have reached a certain distance away from the camp site.

The Reds, or party leaving the camp first, will be under command of Colonel Kemmis, of the 23rd Alberta Rangers. Included in this party, besides the 23rd, will be the 15th Light Horse of Calgary and detachments from the corps of guards and the medical corps.

The Blue force will consist of a squadron from the 19th Alberta Dragoons, and another squadron from the 21st Alberta Hussars. This detachment will be under the command of Major Griesbach.

With the arrival of the 103rd Rifles of Calgary this morning the total strength of the camp will mount well above the 2,000 mark. Colonel Cruikshank has not been notified regarding the exact strength of the 103rd, but says that he will be agreeably surprised if the regiment turns out more than 250 men. However, he is expecting that at least 200 officers and men will be in line for the march to the camp this morning.

With the arrival of the Edmonton regiment yesterday, the total strength of the camp mounted to 1,989 men, 326 reporting from the 101st, of Edmonton.

LESSONS OF WATERLOO FOR THE STRENUOUS BATTLE OF LIFE... Rev. S. Marshall Gives Stirring Address to Large Crowd of Soldiers Who Attend Central Methodist Church From the Reservoir Camp... Home-Guard Defence Corps Issues Warning to Invaders From Encampment

Mr. Marshall gave a graphic picture of the great battle and all the stirring events of the course of that day to be remembered daily.

Qualities of Soldier... The qualities common to a good soldier (or a good Christian) were then illustrated from this historic battle scene. One must be at his post whether in victory or defeat. They must be imbued with the spirit of the soldier. One of Napoleon's soldiers when operated on for the extraction of a bullet exclaimed, "Cut a little deep and you will find my general's name." So the Christian soldier must have the name and image of Christ given upon his very heart. They must then implore their obedience to them.

March On, March On... The topic discussed was attentively listened to and greatly appreciated by the large audience, and they left the edifice with the cheering words of the speaker still ringing in their ears.

Patriotic hymns were sung most heartily by the immense congregation, led by Misses Smith and Foster and Messrs. Horns and Garbar. In closing Mr. Marshall endorsed the

SOLDIERS LOSE MONEY AND PRESTIGE IN DECLINING BRONCHO BUSTING ISSUE; COWBOY LOSES DIGNITY

Alec McCue and his cowboys picked up some easy money at the camp yesterday afternoon and administered a black eye to the troopers as far as riding bad horses was concerned. Practically the entire afternoon was spent by the soldiers and the spectators at the northwestern part of the camp watching for the broncho riding contest. When the fun started it lasted just three seconds.

The McCue boys were very careful to have a proper stage setting, despite the fact that the assembled cowboys draw the regulation sheepskin covers from his trousers. His shirt was open at the neck, and his cigarette made from granulated tobacco and brown paper he walked with a phlegmatic swagger, and he laughed the usual reckless laugh we are wont to associate with the cowboy. As long as his own horse stood still he was a fine figure of a boy.

At last the Black Demon was saddled, and the assembled cowboys drew back to allow Collins full swing. The line willing to run this amount of fun as the soldiers cared to go.

God Night, John Collins! Up to this point the story is a long one. There isn't much more, however. The Black Demon started skyward, then down to China, and then up again. His legs were straight out, his head between the two front ones, and his position like that of Eddie Foy when "Over the River" was broke.

Collins made a dash for it, but the Black Demon was too quick for him. He gave the little example of high and lofty tumbling ever witnessed outside of circus. He cowered for grass, then rolled and drilled the spectators with a prayer out of the scrapp of oats he had learned on the ranch.

McCue interests in the Black Demon, and started for the ground, the Black Demon at this time being tilted from an altitude of about 8,000 feet.

Linton Gun Race... New York, June 21—The New York Yacht club inaugurated the first of the big races of the season yesterday with the contest for the $2600 Viking cup offered by Sir Thomas Lipton. The course is from Huckleberry Island, off New Rochelle harbor to the west harbor of Rock Island, a distance of 200 miles.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE, CAMERA ARMED, VISIT THE CAMP GROUND

Automobiles, Teams and Bicycles Swarm Field; Street Cars Do Rushing Business

Yesterday was a day of visitors and cameras at the encampment. Not less than 10,000 persons from Calgary and vicinity visited the camp, and it seemed as though every third person carried a camera. At times the camera people became annoying, but the officers and soldiers, many of them devotees of the camera themselves, showed unusual patience and posed in all sorts of positions and groups for the snapshots.

During the broncho incident, however, the camera fiends several times literally drove out into the enclosure where the cowboys were attempting to saddle the Black Demon. He was soon ordered back by the soldiers and kept in his proper position. From the sidelines he snapshotted himself out of about a dozen films.

Strict orders have been issued by Colonel Cruikshank regarding the driving of automobiles in the camp grounds. The camp commandant is not averse to visitors—in fact, he welcomes them, but he has decreed that no interference with the routine of the camp will be permitted. Consequently automobiles are not allowed inside of the line of tents, but must keep outside the actual tentage space, and the soldiers have been instructed to turn back any drivers who transgress these rules.

At least 500 cars of all makes and descriptions visited the camp yesterday. Bicycles and carriages brought up the total of the vehicle list to about 1,000. Thousands of persons not fortunate enough to witness the broncho busting boarded the street cars, and the Chenevix line did a rushing business in tickets the night.

Every unit at the camp yesterday was lined up and photographed at least once. The officers kept their men in company and troop formation for an hour at a stretch and obliged all who wanted pictures. W. J. Oliver, the Calgary photographer, spent the entire day at the camp and has a collection of negatives embracing every possible feature of camp life.

Quartermaster... With six companies, and a total strength of 326 men, the 101st Edmonton Fusiliers arrived in camp yesterday morning, coming from Edmonton in a special train which, although it left that city more than an hour last night, arrived in Calgary only 20 minutes behind its schedule. The train arrived at the C. & N. yards at 10 o'clock and at 8 o'clock the entire regiment was under canvas at the camp, marching in with perfect formation, and taking its place at the extreme southern end of the camp.

With the Edmonton regiment came a band of 40 pieces under command of bandmaster Lieut. G. E. Horsch. This band, although in camp but two hours, reported for the church parade at 10 o'clock and took part in the services, furnishing the music for the soldiers in their regimental singing and afterwards playing "God Save the King" at the end of the sermon.

Veterans of many encampments paid high compliments to the temporary 101st, declaring that the men worked together and rendered their harmonies in far better style than the majority of the big bands which have toured the country under command of famous bandmasters.

Another unique feature of the Edmonton regiment's equipment was the big company tents an affair more than 100 feet long and about 45 feet wide, designed for mess tent for the entire regiment, and a shelter in the event of severe or inclement weather. This tent is placed to the east of the Edmonton band, and greatly resembles a huge circus tent of the three-pine variety.

The 101st was under command of Major and Acting Colonel E. A. Osborne. Accompanying it was Honorary Colonel G. E. Launer and Honorary Lieut. Colonel B. J. Saunders. The other staff officers to accompany the regiment were Major R. L. Harwood, directly to the soldiers. Dr. MacRae, president of the Central Alberta college, and chaplain of the Fifteenth Light Horse, preached the sermon. He was dressed in his military uniform, and before the services were concluded Captain MacRae expressed his general enthusiasm shown by his hearers. Assisting in the services were Captains Rev. C. Cruikshank of the 10th Alberta Horse and Captain Rev. H. M. Henderson of the 22nd Alberta Horse.

What Piano Shall I Buy?

The Gourlay comes as the real solution to this important problem—musical pleasure and education in the home.

On the purchase of a piano depends permanent satisfaction and pleasure, or disappointment and regret. It is therefore an investment that requires most careful thought and investigation.

The thousands of Gourlay owners throughout Canada are the most enthusiastic supporters of the Gourlay tone-producing qualities. It retains its intrinsic value—winning true and sympathetic friends wherever it is played or heard.

Gourlay Piano

a recognized place among the best grade pianos of the world, is based on detailed perfection of workmanship, and finest qualities of materials. Each stage of construction reflects the highest human skill in piano making.

The cost of manufacture has always been a secondary consideration—first and only thought being given to quality and perfect workmanship.

BUMPER CROP CERTAIN NEVER LOOKED BETTER

Frequent Rains of the Past Two Weeks Have Put Grains Forward Until the Middle of July; From Practically Every Section of the South Comes Reports of a Most Optimistic Nature

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., July 21.—Some of the oldest residents of Alberta assert that never, with but few exceptions, have they seen better prospects for a bountiful wheat crop all through this section, than now appears to be next to certain this year. For the last ten days or two weeks there have been frequent rains that have soaked the earth and made the growing grain attain an unusual size for this season of the year. And, to cap it all, last night more than an inch of rain fell all through this section. In fact, grain growers generally feel pleased over the almost certainty of a large production of the best grain, even though very warm weather prevails later to a considerable extent. Rains have been particularly heavy in the Medicine Hat district, as well as in many other parts of Southern Alberta, and the grain is doing well and ripe and ready for harvesting, which spells many additional dollars to the grain grower and farmer generally.

REPORTS FROM MORGENTHAU, CARDSTON, SPRING COULDS AND OTHER POINTS IN THIS SECTION state that while the rain was not particularly heavy at first, the crops were not suffering but more rain, which has fallen this week, has done much good. The spring wheat and oats at Raymond needed moisture at just the time when it has fallen this week and the outlook is improved. Heavy rains have fallen in the section around Calgary, greatly benefiting the crops, although the hail storm there a few days ago did some damage. Generally, however, the grain outlook in this section is exceedingly encouraging.

AROUND RED DEER the crops all look well due to the abundance of showers that have prevailed in that district recently. The grain growers generally are justified in anticipating an extraordinary crop, and are making preparations accordingly.

THE MASTER MINDS of Sackville street and the other business men of the city are now being made for the harvest by the farmers, and the railways, as well as getting ready for the handling of the great tonnage that will surely result, unless something unforeseen happens in the meantime.

GRAIN has been general in the Calgary district, as it has been around Medicine Hat, and the crops are in a very good condition. The outlook is largely improved with still more rain, of which there is good prospect.

HEAVY YIELDS IN GRAIN are assured at Carmichael, Monarch, Diamond, City and other points, because of the heavy rains that have fallen there in the last week or so, and the outlook is good.

GOOD PROSPECTS are reported in the Okotoks section, there having been a great benefit to the growing grain. Satisfactory crops are also reported from the Strathcona section, though more rain would be welcomed by the farmers generally.

WITH PEACE IN THE BALKANS, MONEY WILL LOOSEN

Sir William Whyte, After Three Months in England, Discusses the Financial Situation

Montreal, June 22.—Money is quite as tight in England as elsewhere, and it will remain so until the Balkan trouble is thoroughly cleared up. It is hard to say what will happen in the near future, but if the great powers remain in accord they can possibly bring sufficient pressure to bear to ensure amicable relations, said Sir William Whyte on his return to Canada last night after a three months tour of Great Britain.

"TRADE CONTINUES VERY GOOD," he added, "and conditions in general, despite financial stringency, are prosperous." Sir William said that as far as Canada was concerned there was a definite sentiment in England that some of the cities had been borrowing something from the Liberal party in the matter of the navy bill would not have been so much thought, very much influence on the British investing public.

"IT WILL DOUBTLESS INFLUENCE SOME," he said, "but the great financial houses will not be affected. After all, there is no use cutting off one's nose to spite one's face." Discussing British and foreign politics, Sir William professed profound admiration for Sir Edward Grey, whose prestige, he declared, has been greatly enhanced by recent developments. He also considered the prime minister a truly wonderful statesman.

SIR WILLIAM SAID THAT ALL INDICATIONS pointed to a record year in immigration. He had spent some time in Scotland and in that country a particular flow of people to Canada was causing concern. The brain and brawn carried out at the Christmas after his death.

The specimen will be sent to San Francisco for analysis.

ELECTRICAL STORM IN NEW YORK
New York, June 22.—A severe electrical storm, accompanied by heavy rain, hail and high winds, which struck this city late last night, did considerable damage, mostly in the outer sections. Trees were blown down, plate glass windows smashed, suburban telephone and telephone service demoralized and trolley communication crippled by fallen wires and washouts. In Queens, a large building, damaged by lightning was burned, and others in Jersey suburbs were hit by bolts and burned in Newark, a factory roof was blown off. As the storm was at its height, the Jersey City ferry boat, the "New York," was struck by lightning and the vessel, shot down the river, struck a half a dozen cables standing near by. They were struck by lightning and the boat struck was badly burned.

London, June 22.—Malaya's warship which disappeared last March, in conjunction with the Canadian destroyer which was reported to have been sighted in the Indian Ocean, was the subject of a question in the House of Commons yesterday when Sir John Ross enquired of the first lord of the Admiralty as to what he intended to do with it. In reply Mr. Churchill made a significant statement in introducing the navy estimates involved the employment of Malay hatching, in conjunction with any other that may be necessary for the present time to elaborate on this suggestion and as the matter will be completed until 1915, the matter can well remain in abeyance.

THE NUTS OF A. D. 1913; WHAT THEY ARE LIKE

(By Frederick Heath, in The Daily Mail, London)
At a time when things must be very vivid if they are to be seen, and starting in color and effect if they are to attract attention, the 1913 "nut" has found that to be a true success, it must be something like a nut. For the "nut" has a passion for catching the eye, and is almost as great as his passion for clothes.

THE WHOLE POINT of being a "nut" lies in this: that you look so different from other people that the other people appreciate the difference and feel proud of it. It is the knowledge of the "nut" according to his knowledge of the world of fashion, and it is in this that the "nut" differs from the ordinary man.

THE "NUT" MUST BE CONFESSED that the "nut" of 1913 has not been found yet. It is a matter of time, but it is not a matter of months. The "nut" must possess the sartorial sense which is the same thing as the Professor of Burglary.

New York, June 23.—Rudolph Rader, professor of burglary, made a confession this afternoon to Judge Swan in the back of a pool room on the lower East side. Rader said for some years he has held "daily classes in stealing. His pupils and alumni, of whom he mentions many by name, have stolen half a million dollars' worth of horses and merchandise, he estimates. Also, he says, they act as central office detectives, plain clothes men and uniformed police, thousands of dollars to avoid arrest.

A dozen or more burglars have told the police from time to time of Rader's school. But somehow he eluded arrest and kept on teaching his "trade." They got him when a favorite pupil "squealed." This afternoon he sent word to Judge Swan that he wanted to confess.

Several closely written type-written letters, listed in the judge's desk, told what he said.

Time and again, Judge Swan said, Rader declared with his name and dates that he paid men in the police department to let him remain free. One time, Rader said, he paid only $100 to avoid arrest when caught stealing a truck load of merchandise worth $10,000. The only time he was "burned," he said, was when a detective refused to divide a $500 reward received for recovering stolen goods and not being able to sell them, handed them over to the detective to claim the reward.

VAST ASTOR ESTATE, AMOUNTING TO $26,000,000, DIVIDED AMONG HIS YOUNG WIFE AND THREE CHILDREN

MISS ALICE MURIEL ASTOR?
MISS ALICE MURIEL ASTOR?

MRS. JOHN JACOB ASTOR

The first official report on the estate of Colonel John Jacob Astor, who died in the Titanic disaster, April 15, 1912, shows that the total estate is $26,000,000. William Vincent Astor, twenty-one years old, elder son of Colonel Astor, will receive the largest share of the estate. His part will amount to $8,000,000. John Jacob Astor, 30, the infant son of Colonel Astor, will receive the benefit of a trust fund of $3,000,000. Mrs. Madeleine Forde Astor, the widow, received an amount taxed at $7,087,500.

PELKEY CASE WILL GO TO THE JURORS TODAY FOR FINAL DECISION

Only Few Witnesses Remain to be Heard for the Defence, Including More Medical Testimony; Charge of Chief Justice Harvey to the Jury will be of Unusual Interest as no Supreme Court Judge Has Ever Been Called on to Decide in Such a Case Before.

TODAY will be the last day of the Pelkey trial. That is, of course, unless the jury takes some inordinate time to decide the case, and unless the addresses of the chief justice and counsel are very long. There remain but three or four witnesses to be called for the defence, and the taking of evidence should be over by 11 o'clock this morning. Thereafter A. L. Smith will address the jury in favor of Pelkey and James Short, K.C., in support of the case of the Crown against the accused. This will follow the charge of His Lordship Chief Justice Harvey to the jury, after which the jury will retire to decide the case. It is likely that the decision will come sometime in the afternoon.

The chief interest will centre round the charge of the Chief Justice to the jurors. The matter which is most to be considered is whether the contest was a prize fight or not, and opinions on that point differ. An attempt was made by the defence on Saturday to have the case withdrawn from the jury on the ground that there had been no evidence produced of a prize fight, but His Lordship said that the decision of that point would have to go to the jury.

Charge Will Be Important.
It is an interesting fact that this is the first time that a chief justice has been called on to preside at such a trial, and there are really no precedents of extraordinary value on the legal aspects of the case, so that the chief justice will have to make his own judgment on this matter. In the Pelkey case, a charge will be made to the jury which will be of unusual interest as no Supreme Court judge has ever been called on to decide in such a case before.

Juror's Ask Question.
At the opening of the trial on Saturday morning, Harold W. Riley, appearing for the defence, asked for the recall of Mr. Carson, and on the manager for Mr. Carson taking the stand, he was asked if Mr. Carson had been administered any drugs on the morning of the contest. The answer was in the negative. The dead man had eaten only eggs and toast. He was not in the habit of using drugs or hypodermics before entering the ring. This was the answer to a further question by the jury.

Dr. Moshier Explains.
The jury was then brought back to the court, and Dr. H. H. Moshier explained. He said that the dislocation was always on the side reverse to the side on which violence was caused. He said Mr. Carson's body was salvoy all over. Answering Mr. Short's question, he said there were two men, the doctor of the West, having come to this conclusion that the man who was killed was not dead by the pressure of the blow on the medulla.

Bourassa Speaks in Winnipeg.
Winnipeg, June 23.—A large and representative Winnipeg audience assembled in Manitoba hall tonight to hear Henri Bourassa, the Nationalist leader, lecture on the Nationalist view of Canada's relationship to the British Empire. Notwithstanding the counter-attack of the apostolic delegate, a large number of Mr. Bourassa's compatriots were present. He was very enthusiastically received by the English speaking portion of the audience. The lecture was in the majority and his argument was followed with attention.

McCarthy Fell Heavily.
Dr. Spink was the next witness. He said he was called to attend the boxer and did not look for such a violent blow struck. He claimed that he had seen no blow given at the time of the fight, but that he had seen the boxer fall. He said that he had seen the boxer fall and that he had seen the boxer fall. He said that he had seen the boxer fall and that he had seen the boxer fall.

REFORM OF AMERICAN METHODS MEANS LOSS OF CONSIDERABLE BUSINESS AMONG BANKERS

London, June 23.—Currency legislation, as proposed in Washington, is the sole topic of discussion among leading bankers. According to one London authority who suggests reforms in American banking and currency means the loss of a good deal of fine business in London.

"Take, for instance," he said, "the case of cotton shipments. These are now financed by London. Under a bank system more progressive than that which prevails in the United States, this financing would be done in America. London recognizes the injury a change might inflict on her. She finds, however, ample compensation for this loss in the consideration that she would be relieved of anxiety concerning her gold, for London has reached the point where she is more concerned about her gold than about immediate profits.

It is also urged that currency reform can only strengthen the financial position of the United States. Progressive legislation in this regard is important to the whole world, for the United States is so vast and so rich that it has become an insupportable factor in the money market. That which upsets the United States upsets every other country.

"American assets are made more liquid," said another banker, "London will not be pressed in times of emergency. We heartily welcome a more elastic method of currency."

Another firm, the sphere of whose operations is world-wide asserted that the "new legislation once enacted, instead of 10, London would have cause to tremble for her financial supremacy. The United States has more gold than any other country. Unfortunately it is scattered and uncentralized. The interest on the government of the United States financially is proved by recent bank statements. Five New York banks have in the aggregate a reserve greater than that of the Bank of England."

Some are more skeptical as to the power of President Wilson to achieve the legislation he supports, but all regard it as a step in the right direction.

An Absolute Deadlock Prevails and All Europe Awaits Issue on Tenterhooks

London, June 23.—Unless Bulgaria and Servia can be induced to take up a less uncompromising attitude in the dispute over the division of their territorial spoils or the powers put prompt and effective pressure on them, a renewal of war in the Balkans still seems probable.

A state of absolute deadlock prevails and all Europe anxiously awaits the next move. Austria thinks war is almost certain and Bulgaria is a stronger military position now than before.

WOULD HAVE PROVINCE BUY BONDS OF THE MUNICIPALITIES

Vancouver Trades and Labor Council Suggests Bond Purchases

Vancouver, June 23.—With a view to alleviating the lot of the unemployed in Vancouver and other parts of British Columbia, the trades and labor council last night passed a resolution calling on the provincial government to purchase the unsalable bonds of cities and municipalities. The resolution, introduced by Delegate Pettipiece, and unanimously passed, was as follows:

"Whereas there is a large number of unemployed in Vancouver and adjoining municipalities; and

"Whereas the aggressive encouragement of governmental and other agencies is largely responsible for the unprecedented influx of immigrants; and

"Whereas there never was a time when the workers were capable of producing so much wealth and got so little of it in return in the form of wages; and

"Whereas this has caused another period of capitalism designated as a 'financial stringency'; and

"Whereas it is almost impossible for Pacific coast cities and municipalities to dispose of debentures for public works purposes; and

"Whereas the provincial government has announced a surplus of some $1,000,000; therefore be it

Resolved: That Vancouver Trades and Labor Council instruct its secretary to communicate at once with the city clerk and clerks of neighboring municipalities, urging their respective bodies to at once make application to the provincial government to purchase all unsalable civic and municipal bonds; so that desirable public works may be undertaken and the unemployment problem mitigated before the winter months."

METHODIST PASTORS PREACH FIRST TIME IN NEW PULPITS

Rev. F. W. Locke at Crescent Heights; Rev. E. S. Bishop As Assistant in Central

Rev. F. W. Locke, the newly appointed pastor of Crescent Heights Methodist church, preached his first sermon in his new pulpit yesterday at 11 o'clock in the morning. The subject was "The Love of Christ." That said the preacher, is the highest, the noblest, the most overwhelming, and the most inspiring of all the inspirations which it is possible for anyone to speak. But let this and pray that we might be able to comprehend what is the secret of this love and then, as if realizing he had said an impossible thing, he added, "I cannot know." This love embraces all and is abundant for the needs of all.

"The preacher then drew analogies concerning power and class by asking: "What is the secret of power?"

Evening Service.
His subject in the evening was "The Love of Christ." The sermon was described as a good remedy for sin; and the results of it to those who have accepted it. The speaker showed the inevitable result of letting their religion be a lifeless form of words and the result is moral and spiritual death.

Mr. Locke is by no means a stranger to the West, having come to this country over ten years ago and having been a student in the old Bible School at Mission and is known to many of the old timers here.

He has served his church with distinction at Verdun, Crystal City, Calgary and Neepawa, Manitoba, and at the Methodist church here in Calgary. Mr. Locke was the recipient of a valuable present from a devoted congregation.

KRYN GORTZEMA A Friend Gives Good Advice to Kryn Gortzema

To the Calgary Sanatorium:

I suffered with rheumatism for some time in my legs, back, arms and neck. I tried different remedies, but I got so bad I couldn't do my work. One day I met a friend of mine and he mentioned my suffering to him. He told me to come to Calgary, and he had the same thing last fall and he took the Bako Oven treatment and was cured, and he thought it would cure me.

I came to Calgary and took the Bako Oven treatment three weeks. Today I am completely cured. I don't even have a sign of my former trouble. Why, I couldn't even walk before without wincing. This is surely the best treatment to those suffering with rheumatism. I am willing to answer all inquiries addressed to me, for I believe we should all aid in helping our fellow men know where they can be relieved of their suffering.

Yours very gratefully,
(Signed) KRYN GORTZEMA
