SPECIAL hat sale and display Saturday night.—SWIFT'S.

THE increasing amount of business done in Watford is noticeable by the receipts at the G. T. R. station. In August 1910 the amount of $1,561.40 was received for tickets sold, while for the same month in 1911, $2,093.60 was received, an increase of $532.20. The incoming freight for August 1910, amounted to $1,166, while for August 1911 amounted to $1,593, an increase of $427. The charges on outgoing freight for August, 1910 amounted to $1,371, and in 1911 for same month, $2,178, an increase of $807. The September increase was also correspondingly large. Business has increased so rapidly that the present G.T.R. office men are kept exceedingly busy endeavoring to handle the work expeditiously. People having much freight business with the company are of the opinion that extra help should be employed in the freight sheds.

OWING to the very disagreeable state of the weather the fair night were not as well patronized as they would have been had the weather been fine, but fair sized audiences greeted the performers at both halls. Those who attended the Bowler's concert in the Music Hall had a delightful evening. The Bowlers are noted for presenting nothing but the best talent to their patrons, and this concert was no exception to the rule. Miss O'Neil is a young lady possessed of rare versatility and charmed her audience with her thrilling and dramatic achievements and brightness. Ted Parker's impersonations were excellent and his refined humor and clever puns kept the audience in excellent spirits. Mr. John Farrell presided, which assertion is sufficient to guarantee that the chairman's duties were well done. At the Silver Band concert in the Lyceum the celebrated magician Loran, and his company presented a most mystifying performance and held the audience spell-bound from start to finish. As one act followed another the company received increased applause, and the opinion was freely expressed that the entertainment was the best of its nature ever given in Watford.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bryce, 4th line, Warwick, Wednesday, Oct. 4th, at 12 o'clock, when their only daughter, Ethel Ruth, was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Hollingsworth, of Watford, by the Rev. R. Stevenson, minister of the Cong'l church. The bride was becomingly attired in white, and the couple entered the room to the strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Stella Craig. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents, besides the many good wishes of the attending guests. The young couple will make their future home in Watford.

There passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, one of the oldest and most esteemed residents of Warwick, in the person of Mrs. Joseph Scott. She had been in declining health ever since the death of her husband, a few years ago, but during the past year, she failed rapidly, and in the last month or so of her life, endured much pain and distress with true Christian fortitude. Janet Thompson was born in Glasgow nearly eighty years ago, on her marriage to Jos. Scott, in March, 1861, became a resident of Warwick, where she continued to live a quiet useful life, "till God's finger touched her and she slept." Besides a number of brothers and sisters, she leaves to mourn her loss, a family of two sons and four daughters:—Mrs. Chas. Bolton, Mrs. Jas. Macklin and Mrs. Frank Macklin, of Sarnia, Mrs. Wm. Wyatt, of Springbank, and Samuel and Walter at home. Her funeral on Thursday was well attended by sympathizing friends and sorrowing relatives, the service being conducted by Rev. E. B. Horne, Presbyterian minister of Watford, of whose congregation she was a valued and consistent member. Interment was made in Watford cemetery. Hers was the simple unostentatious life of ministry and service, and life's labor ended, she entered into rest. God called her to "where beyond these voices there is peace," but to those left sorrowing her loss, "she being dead yet speaketh."

ONE $1.50 stiff hat. It's a winner—SWIFT'S.

THE FAIR CALLED OFF.

Heavy Downpour of Rain Makes it Impossible to Hold Fair.

Never in the history of the East Lambton Agricultural Society was such bad weather experienced as on Friday last when the heavy continuous rain made holding a fair an impossibility. Thursday was a pleasant fall day and the entries and exhibits came in lively. Friday morning heavy clouds filled the sky and towards noon the rain began to fall in torrents and continued throughout the entire afternoon without cessation. Thursday's entries were more numerous than usual and one of the best and largest arrays of exhibits ever seen here was ready for inspection in the buildings and tents. Everything gave promise of a record year but the directors were doomed to disappointment, for no one who was not obliged to do so cared to face the drenching rain. There would have been a large exhibit of horses and live stock had the weather been fine, but raining so heavily, a quantity of the stock brought to town was not taken to the grounds, and that already there was judged with difficulty, the animals being chilled and wet and the judges unable to perform their work with accuracy under such trying conditions. Bands ceased to play and those engaged for the platform program were released. Had the weather been fine the attendance would undoubtedly have surpassed any previous year. Owing to the lack of gate receipts the financial loss will be heavy.

NOTES.

Gate receipts $56.00. Did you get wet, Friday? Over 2000 entries notwithstanding the rain.

There was a splendid show of fruits and vegetables.

J. McKercher had a fine display of harness in the hall.

It was pretty wet outside but some people had to get quite wet inside.

The stores and hotels were filled to the doors, the people being glad to get under any kind of cover.

The Directors will meet in Watford on Saturday, Oct. 21st to make necessary changes in the prize list.

Miss Lucy Tanner, of Wanstead, was the only child to compete for the Daughters of the Empire prizes.

The whistle of the merry-go-round gave an occasional blast but never a child in sight to make the ponies go.

If you notice any errors in the prize list notify the Secretary at once, do not leave it until you apply for your prize money.

We had the bunch of entries, and the other attractions too, but when the rain falls all the time. What are you going to do?

Swift Bros. had made arrangements for a big display of furs and ladies' coats in the hall, but the rain prevented them making the exhibit.

There may be mistakes in the prize list. Owing to the rain some of the judges' books were badly dilapidated and the writing illegible.

If a prize had been offered for the two most dejected men in the county, President Farrell and Secretary Kenward would have had no competitors.

The officers of the Society wish to thank those who gave cash subscriptions for their promptness in paying, also those who so generously increased the amount.

Watford is always to the front and generally has things a little better than the surrounding towns. This year we had more rain on fair day than any others can boast of.

Gillis Monroe was on hand ready to introduce the babies, but a fine healthy six months old baby would have been washed out of existence if exposed to the elements Friday.

The midway promised to be a good one, more side shows than usual being on the ground. Don Fulando, the educated horse, the devil fish, the wild west show, the ring and cane men, moving picture men and all the others had to "fold their tents and quietly steal away."

OPERATIONS AVOIDED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Belleriver, Que. — "Without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I would not be alive. For five months I had painful and irregular periods and inflammation of the uterus. I suffered like a martyr and thought often of death. I consulted two doctors who could do nothing for me. I went to a hospital, and the best doctors said I must submit to an operation, because I had a tumor. I went back home much discouraged. One of my cousins advised me to take your Compound, as it had cured her. I did so and soon commenced to feel better, and my appetite came back with the first bottle. Now I feel no pain and am cured. Your remedy is deserving of praise." — Mrs. EMMA CHATEL, Valleyfield, Belleriver, Quebec.

Another Operation Avoided. Poughkeepsie, N.Y. — I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for womb trouble but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did more for me than the doctors did. I have gained five pounds. I hope that every one who is suffering from female trouble, nervousness and headache will take the Compound. I owe my thanks to Mrs. Pinkham. She is the working girl's friend for health, and all women who suffer should write to her and take her advice. — MISS TILLIE PLENZIG, 3 Jay St., Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases.

CURED OF CONSTIPATION

Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N.S., writes: "For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills.

That was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial. They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

Why don't some flours behave?
Why don't they keep good?
Because they contain too much of the branny particles, too much of the inferior portions of the wheat—may be little pieces of the oily germ. Which act on one another—that's why some flours "work" in the sack. FIVE ROSES is the purest extract of Manitoba spring wheat berries. Free from branny particles and such like. It will keep sound, and sweet longer than necessary. Keep it in a dry place, and when needed, you find it even healthier, sounder, fresher, drier than the day you bought it. Buy lots of FIVE ROSES. It keeps.

Acute Dyspepsia

Restoration of Stomach Power Comes Quickly With the Right Medicine.

"My food seemed to decompose in my stomach," writes Mr. Ralph Clemmons, of Newbridge, P.O. "I had a stomach that failed in some way to perform its work. Digestion seemed more or less arrested and I grew thin, yellow, nervous. The stomach became distended and impeded apparently the action of the heart, for often at night it would do great stunts. At times I would vomit a mucous mass, and at these times my head ached most terribly. A friend, who had been cured of a similar condition, advised me to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills regularly, which I did. The result in my case was simply marvelous. Dr. Hamilton's Pills removed the cause, strengthened the stomach, excited the liver to normal action, the kidneys were released of excessive work. Health soon glowed within me. I can now eat, sleep, and live like a live man."

Be advised—Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they are sure to do you good. 25c per box, at all dealers, or The Cattarhoze Co., Kingston, Canada.

ST. VITUS DANCE

Cured Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Chorea, or as it is more generally known, St. Vitus dance, is a disease that usually attacks the young children, though older persons may be afflicted with it. Its most common symptoms are a twitching of the muscles of the face and limbs. As the disease progresses this twitching takes the form of spasms in which the jerking motion may be confined to the head, or all the limbs may be affected. The patient is frequently unable to hold anything in the hands or to walk steadily, and in severe cases even the speech is affected. The disease is due to debility of the nerves and is always cured by Doctor Williams' Pink Pills, which enrich the blood, tone and strengthen the nerves and thus restore the sufferer to good health.

The following is a striking instance of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do in this trouble. Mrs. Chas. Phipps, Pelee Island, Ont., says:—"At the age of fourteen my eldest daughter, Edith, became much run down, and the trouble developed into St. Vitus dance. First her left arm became affected, then the left leg and entire left side. She grew so bad that she actually could not hold anything in her hand, and could only go about with a sliding, jerking motion. Notwithstanding that we were giving her medicine, she seemed to be growing worse, and finally her speech became much affected. We became so much alarmed about her that finally her father got a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and we began giving her these. In the course of a few weeks she was much better, and before all the Pills she was again enjoying perfect health. This was again enjoying perfect health. This was in 1908, and as she has not had a symptom of the trouble since, I feel justified in saying the cure is permanent."

Be sure you get the genuine pills which are sold by all medicine dealers or may be had at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Petrols will have a Brewster 5 and 10 cent store.

The Albion Hotel, Stratroy, has been closed to the public.

John Langwith, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, at Point Edward, dropped dead Tuesday. He had been talking to friends in the sitting-room, and arose to walk into another room, when he apparently fainted. Friends rushed to his assistance, and it was found life was extinct. Dr. Hayes, of Sarnia, was called, and pronounced death due to heart failure.

A QUEER LEGEND.

Fedor Kosmich, the Hermit, May Have Been a Russian Czar.

A curious legend is associated with the name of Alexander I. of Russia. It is to the effect that the emperor in 1825 was sojourning in the Crimea. When near Taganrog his coachman by some means managed to overturn the carriage of a court courier named Markof, who was killed.

According to the legend, Alexander I. of Russia died in Siberia in 1864, but history records that he died at Taganrog in 1825. It seems that in 1825 a mysterious stranger appeared in Siberia.

Then again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is formed.

Only the other day Mr. Marsh, of 101 Delormier Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Company and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema.

Catarrhal Bad Breath

Corrected Quickly by the Use of Catarrhazone

Catarrh is an inflammation. Where there is inflammation there is always more or less offensive secretion. Inflammation may be of the very active sort, but it is often of the slow kind, and this is the particular form in which the breath is rendered offensive and the presence of the sufferer becomes an offence to every person of delicate sensibility.

Bad breath is in itself sufficient to urge you to correct it, because one dislikes to be unpleasant to his friends, but this form of catarrh is dangerous because it supplies a habet for the development of Consumption or of other diseases of the throat and lungs.

Bad breath is an evidence that the microbes have found a good resting place and are carrying on their evil inroads into the health of the body.

Catarrhazone acts at once and destroys these minute organisms, but it does more—it heals the inflamed surfaces in which they found a nesting place and consequently removes both cause and effects of their action.

If we only highly estimated the value of prevention and used Catarrhazone at the beginning of a cold or just before it becomes well seated, the deadly ravages of Consumption would be stayed and the terrible agonies of sufferers of Asthma or Bronchitis completely abolished.

There is no remedy as effective for bad breath, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., as Catarrhazone. Besides being healing and soothing it is germ destroying. Nothing ever offered to the public can compare with it in its promptness, efficiency, and permanency of action, and you can buy it from any dealer in medicine throughout the Dominion of Canada, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 sizes. Buy from The Catarrhazone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

QUICK WON

Though There Was a Beginning to the Courtship Some Time Before

By F. A. MITCHEL
Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

The summer was drawing to a close. The leaves had not yet taken on their autumn colors, but that haze one so often sees during the close of the hot months hung about the hills and the valleys.

A gentleman whose apparel bore a distinctive foreign cut alighted from a train at a railway station and, leaving his belongings, set out on a road leading to an attractive country place.

On reaching the gateway, flanked by stone pillars, he noticed one of them a sign, "No Trespassing."

He proceeded up the walk toward the house and, reaching a terrace where through trees he could see an attractive vista, sat down on the grass, took out a cigarette and began to smoke. He was aroused by a feminine voice behind him.

"Did you not see the notice that no trespassing is allowed on these grounds?"

"The gentleman arose and uncovered with ceremonious politeness. "I did," he said.

"Then I do not understand why you should avail yourself of the place for lounging."

"To tell the truth, I have a strong prejudice against such notices."

"Why so?"

"For several reasons. Firstly, I question the natural right of any one to appropriate to his or her exclusive use any portion of the planet. But this is based on philosophic principles too deep to enter upon just now. Secondly, there is, I think, selfishness in refusing others the enjoyment of attractive and restful grounds."

"Perhaps if you owned a place like this and saw persons camping on it and injuring things you would feel differently."

"That would not alter the case, as I have stated it. I am capable of putting myself in your place and can appreciate your feeling."

"Oh, we don't own the place; we merely rent it."

"What kind of a person is the owner?"

"I don't know, never having seen him. He is a noble, good man."

"Is he handsome?"

"Why do you ask that?"

"A woman's idea of a man is often influenced by such matters."

A trifle of indignation flashed in her eye. "I assure you," she said, "that it is a very much more valuable trait than physical beauty that has prejudiced me in favor of Mr. Chenoweth."

"Chenoweth! That's an uncommon name. I am in very close touch with a man of that name."

"Our Mr. Chenoweth is abroad."

"That's where I met my Mr. Chenoweth."

"He's been travelling in Switzerland. We had a letter from him dated Geneva yesterday. He was to sail immediately for America."

"I made an ascent of Mont Blanc with my Mr. Chenoweth not a month ago."

"What's your friend's first name?"

"Bert."

"Albert? Our landlord is Albert B."

"That's it—Albert Borland Chenoweth."

"Isn't that strange that you should know him so well? Now, are you surprised that I have spoken so highly of him?"

"I certainly am surprised. I never saw anything in him to warrant such an encomium."

"You didn't? You are not very loyal to your friend."

"I didn't say he was any especial friend of mine."

"You said you are in very close touch with him."

"Did I? That doesn't necessarily mean that I admire him. But I am open to conviction. If you will give me your reasons for your own admiration you may succeed in planting it in me."

"Perhaps we had better go up to the house, since you know our landlord so well. I shall be pleased to offer you some refreshment."

"Thanks very much. I will go with you with pleasure."

"When they were comfortably seated in the drawing room the lady said: "Now I will tell you why I so admire Mr. Chenoweth. We and Mr. Chenoweth have a mutual friend, Mr. Chard. Father is a retired clergyman, and such, though they may be of the kingdom of heaven, are not usually burdened with worldly goods. Mr. Chenoweth had an opportunity to

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders. A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Recall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Recall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. J. W. McLAREN, WATFORD.

rent this place for a good sum. Mr. Chard, thinking it would be vacant, tried to get it for father for a nominal rental. When Mr. Chenoweth heard about it he told Mr. Chard that father might have it. What do you think of that?"

She gave a triumphant glance at her companion.

"Oh, Chenoweth, I suppose, feels that every well to do person should respect the cloth, and there's no better way of accomplishing that than by doing one's duty to the cloth. Chenoweth is a church member, and it is no more than right that he should give his share to the church's support. In letting your father have this place at a nominal rent he merely gave his share. I've no doubt he cut off some other contribution in the same line to make up for it."

"Well, I do think—"

She stopped. Words did not come fast enough to express her condemnation of such pessimism.

"There may be another reason for his action," continued the stranger, "a selfish reason. Now I think of it, he told me that he had heard of a very kind act by a young lady; that he had seen this lady at some function or other and had conceived a great admiration for her. He had asked to be presented to her, but just as the presentation was about to take place the girl took her departure. Chenoweth called the next day for Europe. I shouldn't be surprised if this girl and you were one and the same person. If so there was no generosity at all in your landlord's act. He simply made a gift to a lady he admired. We can all do that."

This statement seemed to interest the girl immensely. "Did he tell you her name?" she asked.

"I think I would know it if I heard it."

"It wasn't Cathorne, was it?"

"Seems to me it was something like that. Now, I remember; the first name was Marcia."

The lady's face was suffused with a becoming blush.

"Is that your name?" asked the stranger.

There was no reply, no need of a reply; the blush told the tale.

"I regret to have made a real trespass," he added, "not on Mother Earth, which we should all own in common, or that part of it which Chenoweth considers he owns, but on a private affair of yours. Now let us turn the subject on to something else."

But Miss Cathorne's feelings did not appear to be at all injured by the trespass, and she showed no disposition to change the topic of conversation.

"What kind of a looking person is Mr. Chenoweth?" she asked.

The stranger glanced at her with evident surprise.

"Why do you look at me that way?" she asked, with a slight blush.

"When you first spoke of your landlord—"

"Please don't call him our landlord; call him Mr. Chenoweth."

"Well, when you first spoke of Mr. Chenoweth, you said his looks were of no especial moment."

"I said that his kind heart was of greater importance."

"Well, all I have to say about Chenoweth's appearance is that he is a very ordinary looking man."

"Tall or short?"

"Rather on the beanpole order—something like me."

"Intellectual?"

"No. A theorist; very impractical. There's a bit of romance in his composition; just the fellow to perpetrate such a thing as he has in your case."

"Don't call it a thing, please; it's very lovely."

"A maid came to the door and said the gardener would like to see Mr. Chenoweth."

"Mr. Chenoweth!" This came from Miss Cathorne. The stranger's face took on a very disturbed look. "Mr. Chenoweth is not here," continued Miss Cathorne. "He may be here, though some time next week."

"David says, miss, that he saw Mr. Chenoweth coming up the walk with you."

The lady looked puzzled. The stranger arose from his seat, walked to a window and looked out. The gardener, who had been standing at the front door, came to the drawing room, and, making his way to the stranger, said enthusiastically:

"How do you do, Mr. Chenoweth? I'm mighty glad to see you back to the old place, sir."

"David," said the stranger, offering the gardener his hand, "you've given me away. I took a fancy to remain incog. for awhile, and you've spoiled it all."

"I don't know what that is, sir. When did you get back?"

During this bit of welcome landlord and tenant were, to say the least, an interesting sight. Chenoweth, who had drifted into the deception and thought that he could give the cause of his liberality without detection, was quite dumfounded at this exposure. He had forgotten that the gardener always went with the place. As for Miss Cathorne, she turned alternately red and white and didn't seem to know whether she was herself or some one else. When Chenoweth got rid of the gardener the two stood at either end of the room, both studying the figures of the rug.

Finally the man stole a side glance at the woman. Then he stole another and another. There was no evidence in her appearance that she would reopen the conversation. He must do so himself. But what was he to say? He had never intended such a denouement. It had all been so delightful; this talking about himself to one who did not recognize him, that he had been led, as it were, to the coping of a roof, where he had danced along at a giddy height with no more consciousness of his position than a somnambulist. He had been awakened by the gardener, and now the question was, Would he lose his balance?

Presence of mind saved him. He had brought on a premature love affair. The only thing to save him was to push forward to an immediate climax. Since he could not think of anything to say that would untie the knot, he yielded to an impulse of something to do. This was well, for in love impulses in the right direction are trump cards. He walked slowly across the room, and as he did so she half turned from him. Coming up behind her, he took her hand.

It was not withdrawn.

GREAT MEDICINE.—Tonti, one of the pioneers of French Canada, lost a hand and wore an iron hook as a substitute. He was in the habit of boxing the ears of refractory Indians with this iron hand, and they have remarked that it was "great medicine." Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is great medicine; it takes hold of pain with an iron hand and knocks it out of the system.

TIRED RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

A North Carolina Man Suggests a Remedy.

Greensboro, N. C.—"For a long time I was so run down and debilitated that I could hardly drag around. My appetite was poor and I could not sleep nights. I had tried different so-called tonics without benefit. I was advised to try your cod liver and iron tonic. Vinol, and I am so glad I did, for it gave me a hearty appetite. I soon commenced to sleep soundly, and I feel strong, well and more active than I have for years. Every run-down or debilitated person should just give Vinol a trial." K. Allsbrook.

What Vinol did for Mr. Allsbrook it will do for every weak, run-down or debilitated person in this vicinity. To show our faith we will furnish the medicine free if it does not do as we claim. Come in and get a bottle on these terms.

YOUNG men's suits, made to order, $15.00 to $16.50, clothing like big fellows wear.—SWIFT'S Tailoring Dept.

Another of the pioneer settlers of Brooke joined the great majority on Saturday last, October 7th, in the person of Mr. William Saunders, who passed away at the residence of his son, Mr. Alex. Saunders, Sarnia, at the ripe age of 83 years and 4 months. Deceased was a native of Kilkenny, Ireland, and when about 18 years of age came to this country with his brother and three sisters and settled in Lanark. He moved to Brooke township in 1850 where he remained until a few years ago when he went to live with his son in Sarnia. He was the nineteenth settler in Brooke Township, and the first tax collector for Brooke and Warwick. He organized the first Orange Ward in Warwick and brought the charter from Ireland. In 1852 he was married to Miss Jane McGregor, daughter of the late Mr. Archie McGregor. His wife predeceased him in March, 1910. The surviving sons and daughters are Mr. Alex. Saunders, registrar of the surrogate court for Lambton County, Archie M. Saunders, M.D., Shiloh, Ohio; Duncan U. Saunders, M.D., Diamondville, Wyo.; Mrs. M. Oxenham and Miss Esther Saunders, Toronto; Mrs. A. D. Hone and Miss Minnie Saunders, Watford. The remains were brought to Watford on Monday evening and the funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, St. Clair street, to the Watford cemetery, the Rev. S. P. Irwin, B.A., rector of Trinity church, conducting the service. The pall-bearers were W. S. Kelly, B. Richardson, E. D. Swift, W. S. Fuller, D. Roche and J. A. Williams.

Miss Altha Bowbeer, Detroit, niece of the bride, played the wedding march and during the signing of the register Miss Ida Alderson sang "I for You and You for Me." After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Acton left for eastern points before going to their home in Kingston. The bride travelled in a navy blue tailored suit with blue and green hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Acton were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts including cut glass and silver. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain.

A very serious accident happened last Saturday afternoon to Mr. Alex. Johnston, who lives just a little north of the village. He was engaged in cutting clover with a mower, when the horses became frightened and ran away, dragging Mr. Johnston for some distance before they could be stopped. Dr. Taylor and McLean were both called and dressed his wounds and he is doing as well as could be expected.

TEETHING TIME WORRY.

Baby's teething time was once a source of worry to all mothers—it is yet a time of worry to many, though there are thousands of mothers who have learned the secret which banishes this worry. Mothers who worry, who see their little ones suffering from difficult teething; who are worn out by day and kept awake by night by the cries of the baby in distress, should follow the example of the thousands and give their little ones Baby's Own Tablets—the remedy for worry—the never-failing banisher of baby's pains. Concerning them, Mrs. H. Monette, Jr., Rapide de l'Orignal, Que., says:—"My baby cried day and night and suffered from his teeth. A few doses of Baby's Own Tablets made him healthy and happy and his teething easy and painless. I would not be without them. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

McInnis—Miller.

The marriage took place at high noon on Saturday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. H. Palmer, Chamberlain, of Miss Thurza H. Miller, formerly of Regina, to Mr. Walter McInnis, news editor of the Daily Standard. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate relatives by Rev. Mr. Jones, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride wore a smart tailored suit of navy blue broadcloth, the coat opening over a white blouse embroidered in blue, and a becoming hat in the navy tones. The young couple arrived in Regina from the north at 7.30, after which a large dinner was given in their honor at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McInnis. The house was beautifully adorned with flowers, roses, carnations and lilies-of-the-valley, making the table most attractive. Following the dinner, a reception was held when a number of friends called to extend congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. McInnis left at midnight for Winnipeg, en route to New York and upon their return from their honeymoon, will take up their residence on Halifax street.

Acton—Bowbeer.

Tuesday evening, October 3rd, at the residence of the bride's mother, 58 Northumberland street, Toronto, a pretty wedding was solemnized in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives when Harriet Beatrice, youngest daughter of Mrs. C. Bowbeer, was united in marriage to Archibald A. Acton, Kingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Acton, Watford. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Dr. C. W. Bowbeer, St. Clair, Mich., wore a pretty dress of ivory satin and pearls, tulle veil hemmed with pearls and caught with lily-of-the-valley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. MacPherson, pastor of Chalmers church, Toronto, assisted by Dr. J. Stenhouse.
