NO PARLIAMENT TO BE SET UP UNTIL JULY 15

Ulster Provisional Government, Called Into Session Today by Sir Edward Carson, is Stated to Be Holding Province in Trust for United Kingdom.

Canadian Press Despatch. BELFAST, Ireland, July 9.—The first meeting since it was formed of the Ulster provisional government has been called for tomorrow at the request of Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader.

According to Capt. James Craig, the result of the meeting will have an important bearing on the Irish situation, but he declared that there is no intention on the part of the Ulsterites, whatever happens, to set up a parliament for themselves in Ulster. They claimed the right merely to hold the province in trust for the constitution of the United Kingdom in order that Ulster should continue to be an integral portion of the British Empire.

Will Disappear Automatically. The clauses of the constitution of the provisional government, which until now have not been disclosed, expressly provide that "upon the restoration of the direct imperial government, the provisional government shall cease to exist," and "the provisional government while it is in power shall maintain and enforce all the statute laws now in force in Ireland, other than the statute establishing a home rule government."

Arrangements have been made to receive Sir Edward Carson on his arrival tomorrow. Four hundred Ulster volunteers armed with rifles, with fixed bayonets, will escort him to the place of meeting.

NOT BLUFFING, SAYS CRAIG.

BELFAST, Friday, July 10.—Capt. Craig supplemented his statement regarding the Ulster provisional government by saying:

"The particular reason why I am anxious to make this explanation which I do with Carson's consent, is because we felt that we were entering upon a very important phase in this extraordinary situation. Naturally we think that the people will expect to have broken to them, as it were a day ahead at all events, the upshot of the meeting tomorrow. It is the first time since the provision government came into existence eighteen months ago that a special meeting has been called by Carson. It is looked upon as peculiarly significant on this occasion it has been called by Carson's special invitation. Nothing has leaked out so far as to what is exactly to be done at the meeting, but that something will be decided upon on Friday, we will undoubtedly carry out in the same spirit."

Big Force Organized.

Since the provisional government came into existence it has organized a force of over 700,000, the flower of our province as regards education, ability, enthusiasm, physical endurance, a force which can well be compared to many of the majesty's reserve forces. The men are fit to act, and capable and willing to act with their comrades in a body to accomplish whatever may be set before them."

NEWPORT, R.I., July 9.—A message was picked up here from the naval wireless station at Arlington, Va., saying that the steamer Atlantic City was in distress three miles north of Barnegat, and in need of assistance. BRITAIN AND UNITED STATES TO ENTER INTO NEW TREATY

Ambassador Page's Announcement That Commission to Arbitrate Points of Difference Will Be Created Aroused Great Enthusiasm at Peace Centenary Meeting in London.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, July 9.—American Ambassador Page, speaking at the Peace Centenary meeting in the Metropolitan Tabernacle tonight, made reference to a new treaty between the United States and Great Britain. After referring to the cordial relations now prevailing between the United States and Great Britain and complimenting Viscount Bryce on the part he had played in clearing up all differences between the two countries, the ambassador said it was the policy of the American people to have an alliance with none; where there was perfect friendship alliances were not needed.

The old arbitration treaty between the two countries, however, had been renewed for another period, and he was free to announce that a new treaty was being concluded whereby a commission was to be set up, to which either government could refer any question arising between them. Both governments, he added, promised not to begin hostilities until this commission had investigated matters and submitted its report.

That treaty, the ambassador declared, was now virtually completed. The announcement evoked a great outburst of cheers.

KARLUK'S CREW REPORTED SAFE

Capt. Bartlett Denies That He Intimated Probable Loss of Eight Men.

Canadian Press Despatch. NOME, July 9.—Captain Robert Bartlett of the Canadian Arctic Expedition today positively denied that he had sent any report which could be construed as indicating that eight men of the Karluk's crew were missing and probably lost.

Captain Bartlett said he was at a loss to understand how the Canadian officials obtained the information, which they gave out as coming from him, and said that as far as he knew all the men who were on the Karluk when she was wrecked in the Arctic ice last February were safe on Wrangel Island.

PARTIES HOPEFUL OF ELECTION EVE

Leaders in Manitoba Close Stiring Campaign With Strong Appeals for Support.

Canadian Press Despatch. WINNIPEG, July 9.—Election eve in Manitoba finds both parties conducting a whirlwind finish, both confident of success and both awaiting the final verdict of the electorate with considerable optimism. Sir Rodmond Roblin, premier, has placed before the public a summary of the 14 years' record of his government and of its legislative accomplishments. T. C. Norris, leader of the Liberal opposition, appeals to enfranchised Manitobans on a platform of what he describes as progressive and corrective legislation. Progressives, in introducing new forms of government, and corrective, in the repeal of what he believes to be unwise legislation, instancing the Coldwell school amendments.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK

The Canadian people and the American people are down to hard pan and bating. But the American farmer is in better shape than the Canadian. He does not so much per head, and he has a big crop in sight. The Canadian farmer has a fair show of a good crop; but he will still have to be saving.

The manufacturer in both countries is waiting for the farmer to buy more of his goods.

The American farmer and the American manufacturer are in better shape than the Canadian, but have less confidence. The Canadian has less money; he'll get more; but he'll have to save it.

The railways in both countries want a lot of money to spend; they are getting it here; they are still looking for it over there.

The business outlook is, therefore, as good here as it is in the States. But caution prevails on both sides: here for the lack of money; there because of uncertainty as to the future. In one case it is a lack of cash. Both are likely to get over it.

JURY DECLARES CHAUFFEUR GUILTY

Inquest Into Death of Miss Ella Waller, Victim of Crossing Accident, Results in Manslaughter Verdict—Wilful Negligence Charged Against Samuel D. Kennedy

"That Miss Ella Waller came to her death in the City of Toronto, County of York, from injuries received by being crushed when a Canadian Pacific Railway train struck a motor car in which she was riding, and that the said injuries were caused by reason of the negligence of the said motor car driver, and that the same Samuel D. Kennedy did in the manner aforesaid wilfully kill and slay aforesaid Ella Waller, and the jury, further state that the crossing where this accident occurred is an exceptionally dangerous one, and strongly recommend the city authorities and the railway commission to take proper steps at this crossing in order to safeguard the general public."

Such was the verdict returned last night by the jury investigating the McClelland avenue crossing accident after listening to the evidence. Witnesses gave a good deal in regard to the rate of the speed of the train when it was approaching and passing the crossing. He admitted that he could have stopped the car before reaching the track, which he did not do. Upon reaching the track he declared it was too late to start the car forward or clear the track by moving backward, so he did the only thing he considered possible.

LORDS DEVOTE WHOLE EFFORTS TO AVOIDANCE OF CIVIL STRIFE

LANSLOWNE DEFINES POSITION

Question of Safeguarding Protestant Minority in South and West of Ireland is Left Untouched—Home Rule Amended Bill Thru the Committee Stage.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, July 10.—The committee stage of the amended bill closed last night. Nearly all of the most important amendments had been disposed of on Wednesday, and the greater part of last evening's sitting was spent in discussing the proposals which the opposition leaders do not regard as essential for meeting the great need of the moment, the prevention of civil war.

On this point Lord Lansdowne made an important statement. He told the house that he and his friends had considered whether they should put down amendments for safeguarding the interests of the Ulster minority in the south and west. They had come to the conclusion that in view of the present situation in Ireland it was in the public interest that they should concentrate their amendments entirely on the question of avoiding civil strife.

Would Complicate Issue. "We should complicate the issue and divert public attention from the main question," he said, "if we made ourselves responsible for a number of other proposals designed to protect the Ulsterists in the south and west."

He reserved the right of supporting any of the other amendments, but he pointed out that the responsibility of his friends and himself for such other amendments would be wholly divorced from their responsibility for the amendments that they had themselves put down.

"To the amendments," he said, "we shall certainly adhere as being absolutely vital. With regard to the others we can only give them our general support."

POLICE CAPTURE BOY WHO STOLE JOY-RIDE

The principal pastime of Roy McKibbin, aged 11, of 535 Euclid avenue, appears to be in borrowing a horse and rig and taking a joy ride around the city. The horse and rig, which is the property of J. J. Ramsay, 89 Indian road, was left standing on Indian road crescent at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. When Mr. Ramsay came to look for it it was gone, and he immediately notified the police, who telephoned a description all around the city. It was 7:30 before the mounted officer recovered the stolen buggy and arrested McKibbin, charged with theft.

ONTARIO HIGHWAY CAMPAIGN IS UNDERWAY

Traffic Census-Takers Will Visit Cities to Determine Roads Which Civic Councils Must Maintain—Farmers' Share Not Much Beyond Ordinary Taxes.

The program of the Ontario Highways Commission is rapidly taking shape, and officials expect that by the end of the summer preliminary construction gangs will be sent out on the roads. In two weeks a temporary staff of traffic census takers will be distributed among the cities of the province to study the demands of the different counties and to determine the share which each city should take in the support of the highways running out into the respective counties.

These men will be especially detailed to settle the size of the suburban areas containing roads which are of unusual importance to city business, and for which the civic council will be expected to provide maintenance. The intention of the commission is to so divide up the cost in every instance that the parties concerned will bear proportionate shares with the government looking after the balance. Thus, in certain areas surrounding the cities, roads will be made practically self-supporting. Between these and through the purely rural districts the financing will be provided by the motor tax arranged for in special legislation. Farmers, in the main, will not be expected to go much beyond their customary taxes for road support, and these highways will as nearly approach strictly government ventures, as any which the commission are planning.

Taking of Census. The staff of census takers will be supplemented as occasion demands and a chief officer will be stationed at commission headquarters to tabulate reports for final consideration. The census taken prior to the published plans was designed altogether from a rural standpoint. The idea in view was to gain information as to the needs of the farming community in the getting of their products to the nearest market centre. In the tabulation no notice was taken of automobile traffic. This, however, is increasing daily in Ontario, and is being recognised as one of the most important factors to be dealt with.

Campaign of Education. One of the aims of the commission is sending out the motor survey parties and the new traffic experts is to educate city and county councils, as well as farming communities, in the real purpose of the government enterprise. Provincial Highways Engineer McLean, who is in charge of the administration, states that considerable misunderstanding exists at present and that before long concrete examples of the ultimate system will be shown.

As far as actual construction in the province is concerned, activities this summer will be slight, the energy of the regular government department and the commission merging towards the one end. A government demonstration highway is now nearing completion in the vicinity of Aylmer. It is 4000 feet in length and constructed of macadam and concrete. There are now several of these in different parts of the province serving as links in the general highway system and demonstrating the benefits of public co-operation in road building.

New Postoffice. The contractors are making good progress with the foundation for the new postoffice, the cement work being nearly completed.

Members of the Eglington Methodist Church held their annual picnic yesterday at Jackson's Point. About 100 left by special Metropolitan cars at 8.30 in the morning and reached their destination about 11. A good program of sports and games had been arranged and the outing proved a great success. The party returned to the city about 10 p.m.

Samuel J. Carson, a well known resident of York Mills died yesterday after a two weeks' illness, at the home of his brother Wm. Carson, J. P. York Mills. The late Mr. Carson was a prominent horse man and highly esteemed in the district. The funeral will take place on Friday at 8 o'clock from his brother's house.

Great changes are being made by David Burrell of York Mills in the stable building adjoining his hotel. Already he has had erected a fine garage on the east side of the street, with a frontage of 40 feet and capable of housing 12 automobiles.

As soon as the stables are completed work will be commenced on the wrecking of the old stable buildings on the west side, to make way for the building of a row of new residences. The houses, ten in number, will be built of brick and will rent for from $10 to $12 a month.

Mr. Burrell proposes to open a new street directly opposite the hotel, to connect with Mason street, adjoining the Fraser property. This new street will be very convenient to those residents in the vicinity of Mason street, as it will provide them with a much-needed thoroughfare to Yonge street. Recently Mr. Burrell refused $25,000 for this property.

The annual picnic of Todmorden Anglican Church, held yesterday at Centre Island, proved to be as big a success as those of previous years. Over 100 people were present. A full program of races and other events was run off after the picnicers arrived there at about 11 o'clock in the morning. All the attractions of the park were taken advantage of during the day, and a return was made at about 9 o'clock last night, when the children returned cheerfully very tired, but also very happy. Rev. Mr. Bryant was in charge of the picnic and had a very busy time supervising the activities of the youngsters.

BUY MOTOR BUSES FOR CITY SUBURBS

Robins, Limited, Organize Company for Relief of Citizens.

SERVICE TO BEGIN SOON

Careful Study of All Classes of Vehicles Made—Best Selected.

While the city council shivers on the brink of private enterprise is about to take the plunge in establishing a system of motor buses for suburban traffic. The company which is inaugurating the system is the result of the labors of F. B. Robins of Robins, Limited, and the capital is being supplied by British investors.

At the same time, it was not until the present week that an actual contract for the supply of all the buses was made. A careful examination of all classes of vehicles now operating has been made and this examination has resulted in the selection of three classes, two made in Britain and one in the United States. The two British firms who will supply are the Commercial Company of Luton, England, and the Halley Industrial Motors Co. of Glasgow.

Five Contracted For. For initial proceedings five buses have been contracted for, the bodies for which will be specially constructed by Preston Car Co. Each car will accommodate twenty-six passengers and will be of the single deck variety. Careful research has convinced the promoters that a bus can be operated through the year in the sections to be covered and that the public will readily avail themselves of the service.

Start in Two Months. It is expected that the first motors will be ready within two months and a route on Yonge street north and west to Bathurst street will at the first be served. Immediately west of the north end of Yonge street lies an ideal residential section which is now being subdivided. The main thoroughfares are to be paved and the buses will serve this territory as well as other parts of North Toronto. No scale of fares has yet been arranged, but it is probable that the fares will be graduated according to distance covered and will be sufficiently reasonable to attract a large traffic. The motive in establishing the enterprise is to provide a cheap and popular service, and Mr. Robins is being complimented on his foresight. Those concerned in the new company predict that the service will be a duplication of the north end service in other city suburbs at no distant date.

WHILE BUILD TEN HOUSES. As soon as the stables are completed work will be commenced on the wrecking of the old stable buildings on the west side, to make way for the building of a row of new residences. The houses, ten in number, will be built of brick and will rent for from $10 to $12 a month.

Canada's Welfare Rests Upon the Western Crop

The condition of the crops in the Canadian West is a barometer that indicates the kind of weather big and little business in this country is going to have next fall and winter.

If there's to be plenty of work and money in Toronto, it will to an extent depend on how hard the harvesters must labor to gather in the grain.

The next ten weeks in the West are fraught with great interest to everyone whose personal prosperity is synchronous with Canada's prosperity. You want the straight facts of the condition of the crops. You want to know where you are at. Then read the weekly crop reports in The Sunday World. They give the straight facts.

There is a Reason why the man or woman on vacation desires to separate themselves from their business environment, but there is no good reason why you should cut yourself off entirely from the knowledge of what the "Other Fellow" is doing.

The Daily and Sunday World will follow you on your vacation. Fill out the following form and mail or deliver to:

DOG POISONERS ACTIVE MANY DOGS ALSO STOLEN

A number of dogs, valuable and otherwise, have been poisoned, lost or stolen recently. The Toronto Humane Society is sure that poisoners are busy throughout the city, for purposes unknown. Over fifty cases have come to their attention in the past six weeks. Many dogs have also been stolen or lost, and it is their belief that persons, also unknown, are making a practice of this thievish in order to sell them to vivisectionists. The society is trying to collect sufficient money for a fund, which will be used in an endeavor to put a stop to this work in the future.

BABIES ENJOYED CRUISE ON BAY

Five Hundred Infants and Mothers Took Trip Yesterday on Island Queen.

More than five hundred babies and their mothers, as guests of the child welfare branch of the health department, spent several hours yesterday afternoon on the lake.

All of the children were less than two years old, and the party comprised all nationalities.

Three nurses accompanied the party aboard the boat, and the island served pure milk from the Sick Children's Hospital to the babies.

Unless care is taken to clean it, some difficulty may be experienced when an attempt is made to renew the finish on an iron bedstead or any metal surface.

One cup rice, one cup milk, one teaspoon salt, four bananas, two table-spoons brown sugar.

Cherries last so short a time that one should have them quite often.

Wash the beet, being careful not to break the skin. Put into a steamer and cover generously with boiling water and boil until tender.

When making a journey with the litter baby, prefer not to warm too much food at one time.

What Should You Spend On Your Beauty Aids?

By LUCREZIA BORI

Special arrangements have been made with Senorita Lucrezia Bori, the famous prima donna soprano, who has created a wonderful impression in Europe and New York on account of her remarkable beauty and artistic attainment...

How much money is a business woman justified in spending for toilet luxuries? "Is it good sense for a woman who has her living to make to pay for beauty culture? How much of a factor in business success is so-called beauty?"

"If a woman does the work required of her better than any one else that could be hired for the same money, do you think it matters whether she has her wrinkles ironed out or not?"

I have never advocated the spending of large sums of money in a reckless pursuit of beauty. I have tried to tell you that right living, taking care of your health, being careful about your diet, keeping your system in order and being really clean luxuries or necessities?

Most successful business women are wise enough to try to look well. They dress becomingly. They keep their wrinkles out of their faces and their complexion clear and fresh. They take care of their figures. They want to look trim, active, energetic, competent.

The new type of successful business woman is not a freak. She is a well-poised, intelligent, and well-bred woman. There is nothing to distinguish her from any well-bred woman in that her "society."

I think it is of the utmost importance that the business woman shall keep her figure, her complexion, her youth, her charm. It is part of her business equipment. The man who owns a good salary and has a good position, or a business of his own, keeps himself looking worthy of his place in the business world. He knows it will gain him more.

Another good washing fluid for very soiled clothes is made with equal quantities of turpentine, kerosene and lime water mixed. Wet the soiled garments with the mixture and allow them to stand in water enough to cover them, wash with warm suds.

There are several meritorious washing machines on the market. One of the things to remember in using any of them is that the water should be boiling, and that the machine should be worked as rapidly and as long as is called for in the directions.

In washing, always try to have the water the same temperature throughout the wash. Before washing, all clothes should be wet thoroughly with cold water, and should be "set to boil" in cold water.

One of the things to remember on wash day is to have the kitchen freed of other work before the washing begins. Do up the breakfast dishes and get them out of the way. Of course this applies to the apartment or the small house where there is no separate laundry, the tub being in the kitchen.

Starching fine things where only the stiffness of new finish is desired, a cup of gum arabic dissolved in a quart of boiling water is better than starch. Squeeze the articles, instead of wringing them, shake out the wrinkles, and hang them to dry with due regard to the warp of the material.

GARLANDED GOWNS LATEST MODE

Chiffon Roses on Soft Tulle the Summer Fad

HERE is a new imported gown, presented as a reformation of the charges of improper dressing which are made from time to time against the American woman.

Could anything be more simple and charming? It is one of the trousseau gowns for a young woman whose position in life is such that she can have practically everything or anything in the way of clothes that her fancy dictates. She is invariably notably well dressed. Yet not one of her gowns is any more conspicuous than the one shown.

This gown is developed in pale pink charmeuse of the most simple and exquisite quality. It is of that peculiar shade of pink which holds a hint of creamy-gray in its folds.

The tunic and bodice are draped in one piece, the folds being left at the waistline so there is no need of a girde. The edge of the tunic is left selvege after the mode of the present making.

The underskirt has the effect of draping, which is a matter of shaping rather than of actual tucking-up in any given place, and has the clinging lines at the hem.

The tunic slopes gradually and with a most graceful line from the front to back, reaching long enough at the sides, so as not to mar the line over the hips.

The bodice is sleeveless, and is draped across the bust and over the shoulders with loose folds of tulle. While the draping of the bodice is close enough at the waist to outline the figure it is left in slightly full folds over the bust, and is adorned with pink chiffon roses with silver hearts set at regular intervals.

Nothing could be simpler and nothing more becoming to a woman of almost any age or type.

It is perfectly in style, yet there is nothing to criticize in its lines.

In speaking of the charges made against the American woman's dress, an American modiste who goes abroad twice a year to buy French models says: "It is the fault of the buyers more often than the fault of the makers, and still more the fault of the wearer when gowns are such that the words 'immodest' and 'indecent' can justly be applied to them."

The truth about "the girl in the case" distinguishes this new series by Miss Dalrymple. Her character studies will not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of "Peter" with interest.

MARY'S Christmas list grew. Finally in a spasm of desperation I picked it up from the library table one night and looked at my wife.

"Well," said Mary, flushing, "cross her off the list then, if you feel so cranky about it."

I crossed Mrs. Raynor off with a black mark that betokened considerable enmity.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why the Handkerchief Is Considered Unsanitary.

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

THE Queen's lace handkerchief may or may not have been responsible for one of the wars between France and England, but that plain, everyday handkerchief of yours is responsible for more maimings and deaths than a dozen wars.

The linen handkerchief is an anachronism in these days of hygiene and bacteriology. In the pre-Bastardian days, when germs and microbes were mere theoretical figments of a few super-heated imaginations, handkerchiefs were all very well in their way.

But nowadays, when each little drop of mucus, of perspiration, and of pretty much any spot of the body is known to reek with multitudes of microbes, the unhappy consequence of wiping your mouth, your nose, your forehead or any other fragment of your anatomy with a linen handkerchief, or, for that matter, any other kind, is to catch up the ultra-microscopic animalcules and bacteria and spread them to the next face that is mopped with them.

Say what you will against the pesky housewife, with its habit of spreading germs with its feet, its delicate tread and minimum of foothold places for bacteria to cling, yet its opportunities to extend diseases, bad as they are, are negligible compared with the overlooked pocket handkerchief.

When, in addition to its usual unwholesome, the host of influenza bacilli and other "colds" germs are poured into the folds of this all too handy mop, it needs no elastic imagination to realize what contagions are thus spread broadcast each time this white badge of iniquity is waved.

A Recent Inquiry. Dr. Carl Hewson, a young bacteriologist, recently investigated and counted the number of bacteria in hundreds of freshly laundered handkerchiefs. These were compared with a similar examination of ordinarily soiled handkerchiefs.

Finally a third research was made upon the handkerchiefs used for "colds," "coughs" and "sore throats."

The pathologist found that even the cleanest and sweetest of newly ironed linens had a large group of microbes in them. Happily, most of these were of the harmless, non-disease forming kind.

The handkerchiefs which most persons use and soil in the usual course of human events had all sorts and conditions of bacteria in them. There were small ones and large ones, thin ones and fat ones, pus germs and blood poisoning ones, in short, those which cause boils, pimples, blackheads, dandruff, pink eye and other minor diseases.

Of the third group, the linens used by individuals sick with various ailments, almost all varieties of vicious bacteria from tuberculosis to diphtheria were present in abundance.

The Modern Substitute. "What shall I do?" you ask fondly, "with my old family friend, the handkerchief? What is to replace it?"

Is it really necessary? If you need a handkerchief to wipe away the briny tears, cast your clean lace, linen and paper handkerchiefs into the gullet, and take up the use of little tampons of sterilized, absorbent cotton.

Envelopes to fit lady's hand, sachets and boxes of cotton are enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. E. Hirshberg, care this office.

The causes are varied and unknown. Hence salve made in any drug store will stain it harmlessly.

Dr. Hirshberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally, if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. E. Hirshberg, care this office.

Answers to Health Questions. M. A. B.—What shall I do for face breaking out in white spots and itching? Small doses of thyroid extract, watched by your doctor, and sesame oil with resorcin, 10 grains to the ounce, should stop it.

A. M.—What will take a dark ring off my neck? Chlorate of potash; weak oxide acid—a poison; peroxide of barium—slightly caustic, and exposure of the neck to sunlight and seawater. Be cautious in their use.

H. R.—What causes lines under the eyes? Is there any remedy? Worry, excitement, loss of sleep, late hours cause them. Retire early and cease worrying.

Useful Hints for the Housewife

By Ann Marie Lloyd

DOING my own washing" is the limit of economy and martyrdom in the eyes of many housekeepers.

Yet, washing is not such a mountainous task if one goes about it with a calm spirit, a level head, good cheer and will.

Head work is just as important in washing as in any other achievement. The great painter said he mixed his paints with brains. Mix your soapsuds and do your washing with brains and see how much easier it is.

Select the sort of your clothes. Those that are stained, and lay them aside for special treatment.

Remove the water for washing with some harmless washing fluid which will loosen dirt without eating the clothes, and soak the very soiled clothes in turpentine. It is one of the most useful of washing aids. It will loosen dirt without the slightest injury to the fabric.

An excellent washing fluid is made by dissolving two pounds of soap in three gallons of water, adding a tablespoonful of turpentine and three tablespoonfuls of household ammonia. Soak the clothes in this for two or three hours before washing.

Clothes treated in this way will not need boiling. They can be put in the water when you start the wringing, and hang them to dry when the breakfast is out of the way they will be ready.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie: For nine months I have known a sweet, pretty girl who works in our office. She is simple and modest that I love her with all my heart. I think of her all day and dream of her all night.

Could it mean that she does not want me? It is very hard for me. What shall I do? AGE 18. WELLS. Nineteen, can't you talk English? Can't you smile, can't you see that a delightful morning? Can't you even look pleasant every time you see the girl, and see what that will do?

What Our River Names Mean

The strait of Juan de Fuca was named after an old Greek sailor who explored its shores in 1592. The Minnesota river, was named by the Indians from the words, Minn-Itah, meaning "green water." The Menominee, in Wisconsin, was named from a tribe of the same name. The word means "wild rice."

The Good Night Story

The Golden Heart—By Vernon Merry.

A LONG time ago a young farmer, out hunting, met an old woman, who asked him for charity, because she had nothing to eat and had no money.

"Down the road you will see a tall tree, and in that tree nine crows fighting over a cloak. Take your gun and shoot into the flock; one of the crows will fall dead with the cloak at your feet. Keep the cloak, for it is a wishing cloak, and take out the bird's heart and carry it always with you.

Put the heart under your pillow, and every morning you will always find a gold piece there."

The young farmer did exactly as the old woman had told him. He shot the crow and took its heart and carried the wishing cloak home with him. Next day he put on the wishing cloak and made a wish. In a second he was standing before a castle, talking with a beautiful girl.

Now, the young girl was as good as she was beautiful, but her stepmother was a wicked witch, and made the girl do what she wanted her to do. The old witch made the girl try to get the golden heart and the wishing cloak. To get it the pretty girl told the farmer that she would like some of the emeralds that were to be found on the distant mountain, but that she had never been able to go there because it was so far off.

Distance, of course, was nothing to the farmer. He took the girl into his arms and wished himself there, and instantly they were standing on the mountain.

After they had gathered all the emeralds that they wished the poor young farmer fell asleep, because the old witch had given him a bottle of magic water to carry. When he fell asleep the beautiful girl took the golden heart and the cloak and wished herself back again.

When the farmer awoke he felt very badly over the lovely girl's treachery, and did not know what to do with himself, because he had lost every treasure that he had. Then, while he was sitting on top of the mountain, a cloud came along and carried him away. It dropped him in a garden. In this garden he met again the old woman to whom he had been so good in his own country, and he told her his troubles. She gave him two cabbages, and told him exactly what to do to get his treasure back with him. Without, but he disguised himself so that they did not know him. He invited them to eat a salad which he made from the cabbage, and, instantly, they were turned into donkeys. He drove them to a stable, and told the man there to take care of them, but to beat the old donkey every morning, as she was a very bad animal. Then he went back to the castle. After some days the stableman came and told him that the old donkey was dead, and that the young one was very sick. Now, the farmer still loved the beautiful girl, so he had her brought to the castle, and fed her with the second cabbage the good woman had given him. Instantly she was turned into her own lovely self again. She was so sorry for what she had been made to do to the young man that he forgave her, because he loved her very much. She found his cloak and the golden heart for him, and they were married and lived happily ever afterward in the castle.

HAMILTON RINK WINS FINAL BEGG'S CANADA RINK FAILED

Surprise in O. B. A. Trophy - Association to Swift's London Four - Percy Lifts the Consolation - The Scores.

By a Staff Reporter. NIAGARA, July 9. - Contrary to expectations, B. P. Raw's Hamilton rink beat G. M. Beggs' Toronto rink in the final of the O.B.A. trophy competition this afternoon, thereby winning the championship of Ontario.

Beggs' rink made an excellent showing throughout the tournament, defeating some of the best rinks entered in the competition. His defeat came as a surprise to the bowlers assembled here for the 25th annual tourney of the Ontario Bowling Association.

The association match went to the London Thistles, captained by S. D. Swift, who defeated J. H. Burns' Niagara rink 13 to 4. The Niagara men played in hard luck from the start of the round, and it was one of the most one-sided contests of the tournament.

Prizes were presented to B. P. Raw, C. M. Beggs, S. D. Swift and J. H. Burns this afternoon. The presentations were made by Sir John Willison for the Canada rink, Toronto, who is the bowling association's new patron. The recipients of the prizes made brief replies to Sir John's presentation speech.

The tourney will come to a close tomorrow at noon with the presentation of the prizes and the winners for the major match.

Niagara-on-the-Lake has been decided upon for next year's tourney. Following are today's scores:

C. C. A. REGATTA AT ST. CATHARINES

Canoe Men Will Be Royally Entertained - All Arrangements Made.

Messrs. R. W. Wilson and Jas. J. Deane of the western division have sent over to St. Catharines yesterday and completed arrangements for the annual western division regatta to be held on Saturday, July 18, on the Henley course at St. Catharines. General Manager Deane of the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Railway, who is president of the St. Catharines Canoe Club, has promised to have the course and grandstands in perfect condition for the regatta.

Messrs. Schram, Bell and Adie were appointed to look after all the details at St. Kitts. The townpeople are very well pleased that the canoe men are doing their city the honor of holding their annual regatta over the Henley course and are boosting this event. They intend to show the canoeists that they have the best course on the continent, and also that they patronize water sports to no small degree.

The St. Catharines Club will have entries in several of the events. They have some likely looking juniors and women, not being surprising that they are in the money in some of the races. A special excursion has been arranged for the canoe men and their supporters, leaving Toronto on Saturday morning by boat at 8 a.m. and also at 11 a.m. and arriving in St. Catharines at 10.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m. Tickets are now in the hands of the secretaries of the local canoe club, and as the excursion is limited to 500 there will be some rush for the passes.

The St. Catharines Board of Trade are working hard for the entertainment of the visiting clubs, and some big surprises await Toronto canoeists when they arrive at St. Kitts. They intend making this the greatest regatta in the history of the C.C.A., and with the energy that they are putting forth there is no doubt but that it will be one big day in the Garden City.

By a Staff Reporter. PICTON, July 9. - Different courses of Collingwood had been cancelled yesterday. The R.C.Y.C. George Cup regatta, however, is on and the contest for that trophy. GOULDING CAME CLOSE TO RECORD. Did Over Eight Miles in the Hour - The Twilight Meet Results. Central Y.M.C.A. held another twilight meet at Varsity stadium last night and a good crowd was on hand to see the fun. The scratch men were given some lively propositions to step around and the finishers were well-timed and exciting.

GOULDING'S HOUR WALK WAS THE FEATURE of the evening and he stopped the first mile in 6.36, which is some stepping at that. He continued his way at a very even pace and had covered eight miles and within 342 yards of the finish. This is a very good showing for such warm weather. He had another month's training and a cooler day he would chop that margin down a lot.

COW TESTING PAYS IN NUMEROUS WAYS. Valuable Animals Are Discovered by This Method as Well as the Bad. One of the many advantages reaped from systematic cow testing is the fact that it not only detects cows of indifferent value (saving dairymen the burden of providing for worthless cows, instead of providing for cows of good value), but also it has frequently discovered valuable cows. For instance, a farmer, Ontario, who had a small, under-sized native cow, intended to sell, not placing much value on the present, testing showed that she is one of the best in the lot, both for milk and fat production. Don't sacrifice good cows.

This recalls another cow at Ayem Cliff, Quebec, bought at auction for $25 because she was so small. Indeed she was put in with three others as the poorest in the herd of the man who was selling cow. The present owner believes in cow testing, and has refused $100 for her. She gave 32 pounds of fat in seven months. The present owner built up herds that average 800 or 900 pounds of milk per cow are just those men who know, thru their own experience, that cow testing pays. The present owner, who may not very fine appearance, but they may not really well. But the tested cows, that do produce, that do wear well, that do give you in sixty or seventy dollars each during the seven months' factory season.

IMPORTANT PAPERS FOUND IN LONDON. Records of Estates of Black Prince Discovered in Age-Blackened Book. A document of extreme historical interest has just been discovered in London. The owner of a box of old papers recently determined to go thru them and having examined them he found a large volume bound in age-blackened parchment a long series of entries on which were written the names of the Black Prince (1373-75), son of Edward III, and pronounced it to be records of the English knights of the Order of the Garter in connection with them, and of other kindred subjects. There is a reference in such references extant. The Black Prince (1373-75), son of Edward III, fought at the battles of Crecy and Poitiers, and was one of the great characters of English chivalry. He was one of the original Knights of the Garter.

LOCAL LACROSSE TEAMS SATURDAY

There is only one topic in sporting circles this week, and that is the big lacrosse match at the Island Saturday, when the city boys, the Toronto and Tecumseh, meet for the third time this season in a Big Four championship contest. In the two previous contests the games were so close that one went into overtime, and the other was only settled in the last minute of play. Each team has a victory to their credit over their rivals, and both are determined to gain the edge on Saturday. Yesterday both teams held a strenuous practice, with Hancock, runner out, and De-central, every member of the squads in uniform. It should be close and exciting all the while, and the players will try to put on a show as if they were competing for the Minto Cup, for they desire to put on a show over their city rivals. The ticket sale opened at 38 West King street yesterday and the demand for spectators exceeded all anticipation for a lacrosse match in the last ten years.

DOMINION CRICKET CHAMPIONSHIP.

Sporting Editor World: As is generally known the Grace Church Cricket Club are sending in a team to Winnipeg at the end of this month to meet the Wanderers Club in an endeavor to regain for Toronto and Ontario the position of the John Rose Robertson Cup. This trip entails a considerable expense, the greater by reason of the team being borne by the players themselves; but it is found necessary to raise a sum of $500 to cover the transportation expenses. I feel that the club can confidently appeal for assistance to your readers, not only to those who are now intimately connected with cricket, but also to those who, having old associations in mind, are willing to encourage the sporting effort to lift the cup. I may be permitted to mention that the majority of the members of the team are workmen of the artisan class, who are in receipt of quite nominal salaries. The trip to them means, in most cases, the loss of wages in addition to their personal expenses. Any donations will be gladly received and acknowledged by me. Wm. Paria, 82 Arnelis street, captain Grace Church Cricket Club.

ST. ALBANS V. CITY HALL.

A cricket game was played between the above clubs at Varsity lawn on Wednesday, July 8, at 5 o'clock, and resulted in a win for the City Hall by 80 runs. The Hall batted first and gave a good batting display, making 80 runs in good style. Muckleston took four wickets for 38 runs for St. Albans. A Green made a grand 16 for St. Albans until he fell a victim to a good catch made by Phillips. Manton and C. Muckleston did the bowling for the Hall, the former taking five for 35 and the latter four for 25. The following are the scores: St. Albans—W. H. Garrett, c Phillips, b L. Manton, 5; F. Green, b C. Muckleston, 10; W. Green, c Phillips, b L. Manton, 10; L. Manton, 10; C. Muckleston, 10; R. Kent, c Phillips, b Manton, 10; F. Saxon, b C. Muckleston, 10; N. Banks, run F. LONG DISTANCE RACES AT SAUCER TRACK

Manager Kramer of the Motordrome has made another ten-strike. After securing Henkman, the Detroit daredevil, he signed up Henri Ayrault, the famous French long-distance expert, to appear in a series of endurance races at the Motordrome, starting Saturday night. This series is for the international endurance championship, and the Frenchman will have to beat the "Big Three" already here, namely, Carlslake, Henkman and Leonard. All the races in this series will be long-distance affairs, starting with 25-mile drive Saturday night. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday nights of next week, further long races will be featured in the competition, the final flight to be a one-hour race on Saturday night, July 18th. Ayrault is famed as an endurance rider, but Carlslake has also become famous as a marathoner, while both Henkman and Leonard are well known riding at all distances during the past month. During last season the Frenchman was the only man who could hold his own with Carlslake at the long-range game, and the pair are anxious to meet again. The other riders at the Toronto saucer, including the Barclay Twins, Joslin, Harding and Burchell, will also figure in these contests, while Joe Barbason, the popular and conscientious Toronto boy, will start as well. Barlong-distance work. With the big series, extending over four races, the management has made arrangements for the awarding of a $2000 purse for these races, the winner to take $1000. The results are to be decided on points. This is the largest purse that has ever been hung up for a similar series.

For the heat worn and the weary—REGAL

The Doctor ordered Regal Lager for me!

"I don't know how I look but I do feel splendid. Yes, I was all broken down, in the Spring---came near having nervous prostration. I could not sleep. My appetite was poor---my general health bad. So the doctor explained that I wanted a tonic and prescribed---what do you think? REGAL LAGER. Ever since, I've been drinking Regal daily, a glass with dinner, and one going to bed. Of course, as my husband says, it's a very mild brew---very pure, and it possesses valuable tonic properties. It certainly has benefited me. Why not have a case sent up to your house? Its taste will win you, and it's really very good for you."

REGAL is brewed by the Hamilton Brewing Association, Hamilton, primarily for temperate folks and the home.

INCREASE RATES FOR ADVERTISING

Canadian Press Association Concedes Charges Are Too Low at Present.

It was unanimously conceded at the afternoon session of the Canadian Press Association in the King Edward Hotel yesterday that advertising rates throughout the country must be raised.

A number of delegates disagreed with Mr. Donby, claiming that the local advertiser was the mainstay of a newspaper and that if a sliding scale is adopted the regular home merchant should receive the preference.

MALBROOK'S SONGS ARE MOST POPULAR

What's the world's most famous song? A London paper recently asked this question and then proceeded to make an unexpected answer, namely, that it is not "Auld Lang Syne," "Annie Laurie," "Home, Sweet Home," "God Save the King," "The Watch on the Rhine," "The Marseillaise," or "The Last Rose of Summer," all of which would seem to be probable candidates for the honor.

HON. H. R. EMMERSON IS DEAD CAREER IN POLITICS NOTABLE

Former Premier of New Brunswick and Minister of Railways in Laurier Cabinet Passed Away at Dorchester, N.B., Yesterday — Long Power in Politics of Province.

Was in Laurier Cabinet

HON. H. R. EMMERSON, who died at Dorchester, N.B., yesterday.

Canadian Press Despatch.
DORCHESTER, N.B., July 9.—The Hon. H. R. Emerson, former minister of railways in the Laurier government, and at one time premier of New Brunswick, died at his home here this morning.

Mr. Emerson practised law here and was made a B.C. in 1859. He was at one time manager of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, and occupied with a number of other important commercial enterprises. He was for long a power in politics in his province. He was a vice-president of the Maritime Liberal Association. He unsuccessfully contested Westmoreland for the house of commons in 1887, and sat for Albert in the New Brunswick Legislature from 1890 to 1896 and was a legislative councillor in 1891-92. Then he returned to the representation of Albert. He was minister of public works in New Brunswick from 1892 to 1897, and premier and attorney-general from 1897 to 1900. Since that time he has sat for Westmoreland in the house of commons. He was appointed minister of railways and canals in the Laurier administration in 1904, resigning following the exposure of a scandalous deal in the purchase of the Duke of York at governor-general of Canada.

Mr. Emerson favored the utmost freedom of trade along the British lines. He was a leading Orangeman in his province and a Baptist in religion. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. F. H. Deacon, Toronto; Mrs. Harry K. Bowes, Ottawa; Mrs. Julian Cornell, Amherst, and Miss Bernice. His mother, Mrs. Emerson, also survives. She is 83, and has been prostrated by the shock of her son's death. The cause of Mr. Emerson's death was heart failure.

RECOVERY WAS EXPECTED.
A telegram received last night at Toronto, from Mrs. F. H. Deacon, daughter of the late Hon. H. R. Emerson, to the effect that he was improving rapidly that she was about to leave for home. This was followed later by word of his sudden death at 11.20 a.m. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at Moncton. He is survived by his eldest daughter, Mrs. E. H. Deacon of Toronto; Mrs. Julian Cornell of Amherst, N.B.; Mrs. H. K. Bowes of Ottawa; Henry R. Emerson of Amherst, and Miss Bernice Emerson of Dorchester.

MUNITIONS STILL POUR INTO ULSTER

At Derry Yesterday Furniture Van Containing Arms Was Seized.

CRISIS IS IMMINENT

Gun-Running Exploits May Cause Bloodshed at Any Moment.

LONDON, July 9.—The growing tension in Ulster is reflected in the eager efforts being made to get in a good supply of ammunition. The Morning Post's Belfast correspondent writes that a steady flow of cartridges and a trickle of rifles into the province, which the coast blockade does nothing to prevent. An occasional seizure is made, as was the case at Derry today, when a furniture van lined with munitions fell into the hands of the police. An attempt was made to get together a force of volunteers to resist the seizure, and if there had been a few more minutes the available customs police would either have had to give way or fight.

Might be Right.
This correspondent further says that if at any particular moment of the contention the police are in a palpably stronger force, the volunteers give way. If the volunteers are stronger, the police give way. All general crisis may be precipitated at any moment by an unanticipated collision over some minor gun-running exploit. On the other hand, there is the Liberal Chronicle's correspondent's declaration, after visiting Analsone in County Down, where it was said forty machine guns for the Ulster volunteers were landed, that the whole story is a fabrication. Ulster could safely declare her independence if all her reported gun-running exploits were true. The Unionist Telegraph's correspondent also denies this machine gun story.
