The following nerrative of facts connected with the perion of the 4th of December, is furnished by eye-witnesses and ectors in that ulfarr. It has been with held to this date, that time might be allowed for ex-encement to subside, and oppartumly afforded the anthement to subside, and opportunity afforded the an-thors of any erroneous or lissly stetements, given ef-f-Erisliy, or otherwise, to make the necessary correc-tions. But the time has arrived when it would be highly culpable longer to withhold its publication.— Several wocks have elaphed ance the appearance of two statements of the affair, both extromely deficient null erroneous in many important points, and grently reliculated, whether intentionally or not, to inslead the public. As no corrections of these statements have been made, either by their authors or others, a longer allone would read to anching and arrestims the openbeon made, either by their euthors or others, a longer mience would tend to sanction end perpetuate the mis-conceptions they heve but too generally produced—
The contributors to this narrative think it due to the public, and to themselves, that there should be no inseconceptions in an affair of so much importance—that "even-hended justice" should be meted out to ell concernod. They, therefore, unrafluenced by partialities or prejudices, and solely for the cause of truth, authorit their statement to the public belowing them. eubnit their statement to the public, pledging themselves for its correctness in all its ensential points, and themselves rendy to substentiate what the ettack.

To give a correct view of the sffsir, it is necessary to commence the astrative with a brief outline of circumstences some weeks entecedent to the day of the ettack.

From about the first of November it was reported, end generally believed, that large bodies of Briganda, from ell perte of the United States, were wending their way to the State of Michigan for the purpose of invading our country. The point of attack was verifrom ell peris of the United States, were wending their way to the State of Michigan for the purpose of invading our country. The point of attack was vericusly attend to be Middan, Sandwich, and Windsor. The inhebitants of the two letter places were kept in a constant state of excitenent and alarm hy their proximity to Derroit, the reputed head-quarters of the enemy, and the want of sufficient means to repel any serious invasion. To add to their anxiety and elarm, Mejor Reid, of the 30d Regiment, who held the commend at Sandwich, was called to the London District, and that important trust devolved no Col. John Prince, and the timportant devolved no Col. John Prince, The effective force at that time consisted of Company No. 1, and 11 men of Company No. 2, Provincial Volunteer Militia commanded by Capt. Sperke, and 4 Companies of Col. Prince's battelion, commanded respectively by Captains Fox, Lewis, Thebo and Ellint. The Coptain Lewis was committed the cherge of the important posts at Windsor.

With so small a force it was necessary to maintain the greatest watchfulness against any sudden sattack;

the greatest watchfulness against any sudden attack; end to ensure that rigilance so essential to our esfer; nearly all the inhabitants of Sandwich, not connect. deaving all the inhantants of sometimetry, into content, ed with any of the above companies, acied as voluntery night patrol. As more definite and certain information of the Britagends was received, our actuation became the more alarming. Some of our most respectable and influential inhabitants waited on Colonel Prince with a rewere placed without judgment, and their duties were performed in the most slovenly and unsolder-like manner. Indeed, it became but too apperent to every reflecting observar, that the post was lieble and likely to be aurprised whenever the enemy might think proper to make the experiment. Under such circumstances, Francis Baby, R-bert Mercer and James Dougall, Esquires, addressed a request to Col. Airey that a part of Capt. Bell's Company, (No. 2 Provincial Volunteers) then doing duty as sentinels at Maldan, might be sent to Windsor, and Cept. Lewis-Company he called to Malden to take their place. This request, most unfortunetely, as the sequel proves, was not granted. was not granted.

On Friday, the 20th of November, infurmation was received from unquestionable euthority, that a large body of Brigands, say from 400 to 500, were nesembled on the farms of Mr. Marrantete and Manesembled on the farms of Mr. Marrantete and Major Fursyth, about 3 miles below the city of Dertoit. Their watch-firee on that evening were distinctly seen from Bendwich, and atimulated the Volunteer Partollas to double vigilance. On Saturday, the 1st of Decamber, intalligence wes brought that early on that moroing the greater part of them had loft their camp and spread thannelves among the lower order of taverns in Detroit, making "Uncle Ben Woodworth's" their head-quarters. It was eaid that e considerable body hed also passed the city and encomped in the vicinity of the "Poor House," on the Fort Grestor road, about 2 miles out of tows. On Sunday, the 2d, it was known that the encampment on the farm of Mr. Marrantat had been visited by a detachment of United Stetes troops, headed by Gen. Brady

It is here to be abserved, that elthough so many on both sides of the river were lulled into funcied security by the erts of the Brigands, yet, all were not no deceived. Several loyel subjects residing in Detroit had decrived. Several loyel subjects residing in Detroit had ferrotted out their deep laid plans. Three of these truly "pariotic" fellows having o'ttained certain intelligence that en attack would be made on Mondey night, came over late on the afternoon of thes dey and gave information in the Barracks to that effect. One of the three enrolled the same evening in Capit. Lewis's Company; enother, hit companion, remained with him in the Barracks; sod the third, hanned with him in the Barreess; sou inc hird, knowing his doom should the Brigands prove success, ful, proceeded to Malden. The two lorner fell mar-tyrs to legalty and love of country, while gillandy defending the Barraeks. From Pelette's farm the Brigands marched down to Windsor without being challenged or opposed. When they had neerly errived at the Barracks, necupied by they had nearly errived at the Barracks, occupied by a part of Cept. Lowis' company, two of heir number, who hed been sent in sdvance to reconnecte, were met and challenged by the Cavalry Parulle. As they did not enswer the chellenge, the Parulle turned and rode beck to the Barracks, end relating the circumstance to the Sentinel proceeded to report to Capt. Lewis, whose questers were shout 1.4 of a mile forther down the road. As soon as the two men lind approached within sight of the Sentinel he chillenged, and receiving no enswer, levelled his piece to fire, the enemy simultaneously dong the sense. By a name senda was received, our attuation became the more and receiving no enswer, levelled his piece to fire, the slarming. Brily and W. R. Wwod, Esqs. who had game nome distance in advance, that the enemy, (about 13) in turber) had been drawn up coross the road, but were then flying to the left into no orcherd belonging to Frencis Bay. Esq. Instantly the unlink led by Capp. Bell, struck off the road into the nechard of Mr. James Ling and J ette, and marching up slong the fence opened a well directed fire upon the enemy. In the mean time Caputa Sparke with his reommand and the volunterr inhabitum is who had joined him, continued his march directly up the road and on arriving of the upon where the onemy had left it, discovered them enseanced in the the enemy had left it, discovered them ensconced in the or orelard and in the uct of returning the fire which had been opened upon them by Cappins Fox and Elhori. Caprim Sparke wheeled his command all the road & after pouring a well directed fire, led his gallant followers over an intervening fence to give the brigands the nicel. But the rascals waited no the touch of British bayoners—returning the fire, they "broke cover" and field across the fields in the direction of the woodn—Pursail was stread by the whole harva and continued. nea across the theids in the direction of the woods,— Pursant was given by the whole party and continued to the edge of the woods by Captains. Fox and Elliott, preceded by Capt. Theba, whose judicious poention brought him well to the left of the enemy. Several of the brigands were kilded in the clause, among whom were their lenders Pattian and Harvell, the "Big Kantockian is and one of their standard hearers (whose colors were captured by Easign Rinkin of Captain Sparke's company) and a great number were wounded.

Many of them to expedie their flight releved them-Many of them to expedite their flight releved them-selves of their arms, account ements and simunitation, and even of pairs of their clothing. One man of Capi, Elliout's company was kiled, and another wounded in this short but brilliant uffair. Capitain Sparke finding the pursua in excellent hands halted his party when shout half a tailo from the inein road, preparatory to marching back to dislodge any party who might have remained in Windoor. Just et this time Col. Prince under his first ennerance on the field? Though made his first eppearance on the field? Though some think he may have arrived a few moments sooner, as being dressed in a listian shoung cost end fir cap, he hight not have been immediately recognised. However that may be, et this important moment, he informed Cantain Sparke and the other officers of the party that he had just received intelligence that up-werds of two hundred Brigands were marching down from Detroit on the American side for the purpose of crossing over and attecking Sendwich in front, end that enother body hed gone round through the groves to estack it in the resr. From this stetement of Col. Prince, it was deemed adviseble to retire to Sandwich without delay, in order to defend that pleco, where all without delay, in order to defend that pleco, where all our annuntion, provisions and the only gun we possessed were deposited. The men who were in tritinghout purtual of the flying foe were immediately recalled, and Col. Prince ordered the whole force to march back to Sendwich at double quick time. Hefore the party lett the field A Justas Cheeseman of the 2d Essex, who shad aciad as a volunteer, torough up a prisoner whom he lasd taken. He surrendered him to Col. Prince, who ordered him to be elout upon the application of the spot, and it was done accordingly. Previous to the enumencement of our retrograde movements and during its progress, several persons joined us, bringing various accounts of the strength of a rear guard or revered the brigands which was still in possessius of various accounts of the strength of a rear guard or re-serve of the brigands which was still in possessius of Windsor. This body, headed (as is said) by Ganeral B rse, as the time the section commenced in the orch-ard, was drawn up in front of the burning barracks, it alterwards advanced nearly opposite the place where Capiani Sperke heed crossed the fence. Just et this time, D. A. C. G. Morse, and Doctor Ilume, ol the Medical staff, and biters seems from Sandwich in a wuggon, and drove directly up to it, timeking it was a part of our own militis. As Mr. tinking it was a party of sur own militia. As Mr. Morse jumped out of the waggon in froin, and was ebuut to address them, he was stopped by a young woman, who informed him of their true character.—Mr. Morse quickly communicated the intelligence to Mr. Morsu quickly communicated the intelligence to Ductor Hune, and ratreated round the corner of an adjoining house. As the Doctor attempted to retreat, holding a pietel in his hand, and keeping his "face to the foo," the brigends presented their pieces at him. Mr. Tyes Baker, who had also approached the party, believing them to be friends, celled out, "the not annot that man, he is the Doctor," and seeing one of their pieces flesh, in the attempt to kill him, ggain celled out, "do not shoot that man, he is ser doctor." Colonel Prince was made sequanted with these facts and currently solicited by Mr. Dongall and others, as he had now 299 men upon the ground, to send up a farce in disclude the enemy. This he refused to do, giving us his reasons, that the information could not be correct—that the party of Wit door must be model stronger than represented—that his post was at Soudwich, and it he should leave the words. it, he would, by so doing, subject himself to trial by a Court Mariia, and the limbby of being shoh." He further stated that he had on the first alarin, despatched at express to Milden for some Regulars and a field piece, and that he did not that it edvisable to move egniss the enemy mult their nrival, which might be expected in two or three hours. The appearance of this reinforcement was now most anxiously looked for, us it was pleinly seen that no movement would be made until it had srrived. In the mean those informetion continued to be received from many respecta-bla individuals who hell been closely reconnourcing, of the weakness of the enemy and their evident larm end dread of being stacked. It was confidently an ted that even 50 men enabl disperse or make prisoners of the whole party; and Emign Rankin, of the Fro-vincit volunteers, solicited Col. Princo for that number, with whom he gallently volunicered to drive the polluting ruffsans from our soil. His request was depolluting ruffians from our soil. Hie request was de-nied—audhte enemy remained for hour in possession of the villege without eny attempt being mede to dis-lodge them; and worse ectually permitted to merch off at their leisure, with drum heeting, and culors fly-ing. After they hed vacated Windsor, homeman af-ter horseens lurried down to apprize Col. Prince that they hed retreated to the Windmills, (their place of debarkation) and were esceping by canoes to Higo Island; this intelligence, however, did not cause Col. Prince to phense his determination to remain.

Stendy into intelligence, however, and not cause Col. Prince to chenge his determinence to remain at Sendwich until the arrival of the Regelera. When we had waited as hour or longer for the ex-pected reinforcement, a prisoner who had been woun-ded and taken after the suggegement was brought into pec'ed reinforcement, a prisoner who had been wounded and isken after the angagement wice brought into town. He wes conducted, surrounded by severel of our men, towards Col. Prince, who was then standing in the most frequented part of our men street. As the prisoner approached he was told by one on the officers to make his peace with God, es he had hut e few minutes to live. The wretched men holding up both his hands, pleaded most cerneally for marey, but Col. Prince canumanded him to be shot upon the spot, and the same officer who had first eddressed him, probably to disengage him from those by whom he was surrounded, ordered him to "run for his life"—and in an instant educan muskets were levelled for his execution. At this moment Col. Wilmer Elliott, of the 2d Essex, who chenced to be near at hand, excleimed "D—n you, you cowerdly rescals, are you going to murder your prisoner." This exclemation, for one instant retarded the fire of the perty, but in he next the prisoner was brought to the ground; he spreng instant retarded the fire of the perty, but in the next the prisoner was brought to the ground; he spreng again to his feet, and ren round the corner of a fence, where he was met by a person coming from an opposite direction and shot through the head. From papers found upon his person, it eppered his name was "Bennett." It is to bo regretted that this painful affair took place in our most making street, and in the lair took place in our most public street, and in the presence of severel ladica and children, who had been attracted to the doors and windows by the strange events of the morning, but who little expected to witevents of the morning, but wo little expected to wit-ness so swull e tragedy. Another brigand named Dennieon, also wounded and unarmed, was taxen ef-ter the action end brought in during the course of the morning. Cherles Eliut, Esq. happening to be -resent when the prisoner was about to be shot by Col. Prince's orders, ontreated that he might be reserved to be dealt with according to the laws of the country; but Col. Prince's reply wes "D—n the rescal shoot him," end it was done eccurdingly.

To the great eausfaction of our anxious people, a To the great emisfaction of our anxious people, about 11 o'clock A. M. a datachment of 100 men of the 34th, under cept Broderick, a few artillerists and a field piece, under Lieut. Airey, and some 40 or 50 Indiana under Geo. Ironside, Eaq., gelloped into Saxdwich. Watting only e few minutes to inquire the sate of affairs at Windsor, which place they were told was still in possession of the brigands, (although it had actuelly been evecuted long befree) they proceeded at full speed up the road in secreb of the enemy. Col. Prince followed the Regulers with the whole find command and ell the mele inhabitants, except soma 16 or 18 men of the Artillery company under Capt. Chewett. This canall force with a nine pound field piece, were posted at the north entrence of the stores, emmunition, &c. &c. When Col. Prince reached Windsor, he was informed that one of the hrigands

As soun as Gen'l Brady was apprised of the invasion of our country, he dispatched Major Payne with a detechment of U. S. Troops and a field piece on board the Steamboat, to act as circumstances might receive. Major Payne, at the time the hr ganda were making Major Parne, at the time the brgands were susting their escape in cences, was cruising to the channel between the Island and our shore, and as it was afterwards exerteined, intercepted and made prisoners of number, whom he delivered to the sushorities at Detroit. Cupt. Broderick finding there was nothing furthar to be door, commenced his return to Sandwich, leaving the personers whom he hed taken to be brought down nuder charge of e. Dragoon and some others. Col. Prince efter meeting the Regulars on their retern continued his march to the Windmills, and chou 1.4 mills below them, fell in with Broderick's prisoner. He outlered the men to be taken from the guard and to be shown unon the soft, which was dung accordingly.

About the time Capt. Broderick had commenced his return, the Indiens had gone in pursuit of some of the enemy who led teken to the woods. After a sharp of the cheen who led teken to the woods. After a sharp of the cheen who led teken to the woods. After a sharp of the cheen who had the same after being espured was fired epon, wounded and reteken. When the prisoners were first brought out of the woods, tha cry was, "beyonet them," but Marin, one of the Indian hravas, ropled,—"No, we are christians—we will not murder them—we will deliver them to our officers to be traeted as they think proper." They were theo brought to Col. Prince who had now commenced his return to g Sandwich. When he had arrived opposite the burning harrecks, he ordered the wagon in which the prisoners hed been pleeed, to be wheeled off the road, As soon as it had reached an open spot in the rear of the ruins, he commanded the men to be taken out and shot. At this critical moment, Charles Elliott, and Robert Marcer Eug. and the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Senual Jemes rushed forwerd and entreated Col. Prince, not to commit murder by sbooling the prisocers, but hegged him te leave them to the laws of the compatic language,—"For God's sake do not let emphaire language,—"For God's sake do not let en white man murder whet an Indian has spared."—
Col. Prince yielded to the entreaties of the gentlemen, remarking to Mr. Elliott, that he would hold him responsible for his interference, as his (Col. Prince's) orremarking to Mr. Elliott, that he would hold him re-

On the following day 5 or 6 gentlemon velunteers went out about 14 miles and captured do it necessing in a holy at the Piver St. Clair and errived in Detroit on the following Friday, and parties of 2 to 5 continued to eccape for a everal days, and even 2 to 5 continued to escape for aeveral days, and even weeks efter their defeat.

The number of the enamy killed in , the engagement

The number of the enamy killed in the engagement with those afterwards abot was correctly ascertained to be 32; and the prisoners taken, brought in and committed at Sandwich and Malden emonat to the seme number. The prisoners takes to Chatham are said to exceed 20 in number. Many of the miguided end guilty figures, no doubt perished in the woods from cold, hungar and wounds. Our less was 4 killed, and 4 wounded,—none mortally.

In closing this narrative, it will not be deemed pre-aumonous to say that the greatest prisis is due to Cant aumptuous to say that the greatest praisa is due to Capt Sparke, his officers and the Provincial volucteers, for their gallantry and skill—nor to add, that the officers and men of the militia are entitled to our high consideration for their coolness, bravary and promptitude.— The only epinics we will hazard, where we profess to also solely facts, is thet if the brigands flatteed them-aclves they should be joined by our gallent Canadian Militia men, we think they are by this time cured of no vain a deluzion.
