BULGARS PRESSING WAY THRU TURKISH DEFENCE MORE POSITIONS TAKEN

Monastir Fallen Says Unconfirmed Report—Servians Take Important Town in Albania—Turkey is Apparently Waiting in Hope of Split Among European Powers.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—(Can. Press.)—
The Bulgarian attack on the Tchetalia lines goes on unrelentingly. According to a correspondent at the front further Turkish positions have been captured, but their location has not been indicated, in accordance with the variable Bulgarian plan never to reveal information to the enemy. There is another unconfirmed report that Monastir has been captured. This and the capture of Dibra, an important town in Albania, by the Servians after heavy fighting, constitute all the military news of importance since Saturday.

Some idea of the bloody nature of this war may be formed from the fact that it is now estimated that 150,000 men have been put out of action on both sides since the opening of hostil-ties. The Turkish Government clearly has little hope of holding the Tchetalia lines. The despatch of 100 Ulemas to the front with the avowed intention to stir up religious fanaticism in the army is interpreted as the counsel of despair.

No Direct Appeal.
There is no confirmation of the report that the Turkish Government has opened direct negotiations with the allies. Turkey's immediate object appears to be to gain time, hoping for something from the rivalries of the European powers. It is also making urgent diplomatic efforts to prevent the Bulgarian troops from entering Constantinople. In this connection there is an idea prevalent in some of some important diplomatic action is on foot to this end.

With regard to the difficulty between Servia and Austria, the Vienna Reichspost, in denying that any common action by the Triple Alliance in Belgrade is intended, says that Austria has no special plan regarding Albania, but is only anxious to preserve Albanian national and political freedom, and, in this object, has the support of Germany and Italy. But, the paper adds, the mere assurance by Servia that she would not fortify her harbor on the Adriatic would give this security and her passage thru Albania cannot be conceded.

Danger in Autonomy.
According to an inspired statement, the view of the Balkan allies is that an autonomous Albania, instead of contributing to the peace of the Balkans, would be a source of perpetual trouble and disorder among the Albanian people themselves, who have never been independent. Have no national feeling and have various religious faiths and nationalities with no common language, not even a common alphabet, and do not form a homogeneous unit. These orders, it is understood, would inevitably spread to the surrounding states and would give the permanent settlement, Europe would be left with a troublesome Albanian question on her hands.

FURTHER TURKISH OUTPOSTS TAKEN

Bulgarian Attack on Tchetalia Lines Is Progressing Successfully and Troops Are Advancing.

VIENNA, Nov. 10.—(Can. Press.)— The correspondent of the Reichspost at Bulgarian headquarters says: "The Bulgarian attack on the Tchetalia lines is progressing successfully. Further points on the Turkish outpost lines have been captured."

The decisive attack will be carried with such force that the Bulgarians will reach the gates of Constantinople simultaneously with the fleeing Turkish troops. By immediate occupation of the capital they will prevent diplomatic interference and a massacre."

The Reichspost contradicts the report that common action at Belgrade by the Austrian, German and Italian ministers is intended. It says that Austria will continue to treat the Servian demands with good will and calmness. The monarchy is expected to preserve Albania's national and political freedom in this present support of the allies. The assurances that Servian would not fortify her national harbor give little security and add to the paper, Servia's passage thru Albania cannot be conceded.
The Socialist party held a monster mass meeting today to protest against the war. Resolutions were adopted and the workmen marched thru the Ringstrasse.

ROYAL GEORGE MAY NOW BE ABANDONED AT ENORMOUS LOSS

Fears Expressed That Vessel Would Go to the Bottom
if Pulled Off the Rocks Now.

NO EFFORT MADE TO FLOAT STEAMER

Will Remain in Present Position Till Next High Tides Which Come in Two Weeks.

QUEBEC, Nov. 10.—(Can. Press.)—
The Canadian Northern Railway line Royal George is still in the same position on the rocks, one mile east of Point St. Lawrence, and is likely to remain there until the next high tides, which do not take place until Nov. 28, when he may be pulled up, the vessel from her position on Saturday or today, which goes to prove the seriousness of her position, and the fear that she should be hauled off she would go to the bottom on account of the condition of her bottom. The condition of the Royal George is considered so serious that today a rumor was current that the company had come to the conclusion to abandon her to the underwriters.

On making enquiries on this regard the Canadian Press was informed that such a proposition had been made by a party from the west, representing the company, but it was not likely that the advice would be entertained for the reason that no owner or owners of ships in difficulty could abandon their property to the underwriters until they can prove that they have done everything possible to save the property concerned.

Rumor-Mongers Busy.
Shipping experts interested in the release of the Royal George do not deny that the task of hauling the ship off the rocks is a serious problem, but do not give up their hope for ultimate success.
Rumors say that the Royal George, while running off her course, and too near the shore in the vicinity of Ma-don Island, grounded and injured her bottom to such an extent that it was latter found necessary to beach the liner below St. Lawrence and this was responsible for her present position.

Equities were made to learn the truth of this rumor, which brought forth an emphatic denial. Besides, if such were the case there would be no reason to deny the facts, as they would be bound to come out in evidence at the forthcoming marine investigation to learn all particulars and fix the responsibility for the accident.

G. T. P. MAY SEEK ALLY IN JIM HILL

Railway Men Keenly Interested in Transportation Problem Between Winnipeg and Eastern Seaboard.

SITUATION IS VERY SERIOUS Delay on Government's Part Apparently Necessitates Seeking Relief Across the Border.

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—
The articles appearing in The Toronto World respecting traffic alliances and arrangements between the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and especially the attitude of the Grand Trunk interests toward the government-owned section of the Transcontinental Railway between Montreal and Winnipeg have aroused keen interest in the railway financial circles here. There has been so far no declaration of policy by any of the parties in interest, beyond the statement from the general offices of the Grand Trunk that the Grand Trunk Pacific would be bound to take over the eastern section of the National Transcontinental Railway, "when completed."

There have been several attempts on the part of the Dominion Government to hand over a portion of the big line to the Grand Trunk Pacific for operation, which would have to have been avoided by the Grand Trunk Pacific, relying upon section 20 of the contract between the government and the railway, which provides that the government should be bound to take over the said eastern division shall be leased to and operated by the company for the period of fifty years."

No Outlet to Sea.
Just now the Grand Trunk Pacific is faced by the fact that the government has not provided the promised outlet to the sea. The road is not even whisked as far east as Cochrane, and there are considerable portions of the road uncompleted between Cochrane and Quebec. More serious still is the situation at Evis and Quebec. The plans for the new Quebec bridge are not yet completed, and nothing has been done toward putting the enormous superstructure in place. The result is that the Grand Trunk Pacific will be completed between Winnipeg and the Pacific within a year, but the government will not be completed for at least three years.

Meanwhile the Grand Trunk Pacific is busy providing branch lines and is gathering in a lot of grain with prospects for an enormous increase for years to come. It can haul a considerable quantity of this to Fort William, where it has a magnificent modern elevator, but during the last season it was embarrassed by the embargo placed upon its grain by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, which possessed the only outlet after the close of navigation.

Those who are in close touch with affairs here and not unfriendly to the Grand Trunk say that the Grand Trunk Pacific had no choice, but to seek an alliance with the Hill interests and thus find some other port than Fort William and some other railway facilities to the east than those controlled by its rival, the Canadian Pacific. Even more urgently will the Grand Trunk Pacific be driven to find an outlet over U. S. railways during the next few years, during which the grain which will increase money fold. It would not be surprising if the Grand Trunk Pacific should refuse to lease and operate the government-owned section between Winnipeg and Montreal, on the ground that it had not been completed within the time provided, or at all events within the time contemplated by the parties to the contract.

LABOR MEN MAKE STRONG REQUESTS FOR WORKINGMEN

Premier Borden and Hon. T.
W. Crothers Interviewed by Strong Deputation From Toronto.

A HUNDRED THOUSAND WORKERS REPRESENTED

James Simpson Says a Great Financial Trust Is Being Formed in Canada.

OTTAWA, Nov. 9.—(Can. Press.)— Premier Borden received a deputation representing the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and the Letter Carriers' Association on Saturday, when important resolutions asking for the betterment of certain conditions affecting workingmen and trade unions were presented to him.

The congress was represented by President J. C. Waters; Acting Secretary James Simpson, Toronto; Vice-President F. Bancroft, Toronto; Joseph Gibbons, Toronto, and Wm. Lodge, Ottawa.

For the letter carriers the spokesmen were W. H. Hoop, Winnipeg; A.
McMordie, Toronto, and P. Menard, Montreal.

Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, was present, and both the premier and the minister of labor took the greatest interest in all that transpired.
Steel Workers.
President Waters introduced the deputation in a short speech in which he informed the prime minister that they were the representation of one hundred thousand workingmen. He especially drew attention to the conditions of the steel workers in Nova Scotia and asked that a royal commission might be appointed to look into the conditions. He said that not only were the hours of labor much too long and the wages too low, but that the workers were being treated as subject to monstrous treatment at the hands of the private police in the employ of the steel interests.

Premier Borden was much interested when President Waters proceeded to read what he claimed was an original letter written by a head of a steel company to the head of the company's secret police, saying that every movement, public and private of the officials of the United Steel Workers must be at once reported to the company and giving the most drastic instructions. The premier said that his remarks to the effect that the United Steel Workers never took up anything which they did not succeed in accomplishing. He promised his consideration.

Financial Trust.
James Simpson of Toronto brought before the premier a resolution calling for a federal bill granting cheap, simple and effective facilities for the formation of co-operative societies in banking business. He said that he believed that a great financial trust was being formed in Canada. Whereas formerly there had been as many as fifty banks, banking business was now in the hands of fifteen banks. He mentioned the steps taken by Germany in this direction and hoped that the government would soon take the matter up and pass a bill.

Mr. Borden, while promising his careful consideration, he could not at present make a definite statement.
The prime minister, however, showed much interest in the 15-hour day, and asked that the minister of labor let him have a copy of the United States bill.

Repeat the Act.
It also fell to the lot of F. Bancroft

SUCCESS OF BALKAN ALIES HAS RECAST MAP OF EUROPE DECLARES PREMIER ASQUITH

MAP OF EUROPE RECAST

Premier Asquith, in his Guildhall speech, said:
"Things can never be again as they were, and it is the business of statesmen everywhere to recognize and accept the accomplished fact."
"Even the campaign of Austria did not produce changes so suddenly startlingly and overwhelmingly complete as those which during the past week have been wrought by the Balkan confederacy."
"The map of Eastern Europe has been recast, and in the process it may be that ideas, preconceptions and policies which were born in what is now a bygone era will have to be modified, reconstructed or even go altogether by the board."
"Upon one thing, I believe the general opinion of Europe to be unanimous, namely, that the victors are not to be robbed of the fruits which cost them so dear."
"So far as this country (Great Britain) is concerned its relations with other powers, without a single exception, were never more friendly and cordial. The great powers are working together with a closeness of touch and a frankness and freedom of communication and discussion which are remarkable."
"There are other powers whose special relations are such that they cannot be expected not to claim a hearing and a voice when the time comes for a permanent settlement."
"It is at the moment the first and greatest of European interests to circumscribe the war's scope."

CHURCHILL EXULTS IN NAVAL POWER SECURED BY AID OF DOMINIONS

Expected to Hear in a Few Days Announcement From Canada of Immense Consequence to Empire—Sixth Battle Squadron in Commission Next Year—Germans Appreciate Frankness.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—(C. A. P.)—Winston Churchill who responded for the naval forces at the Guild Hall banquet, said: "The year has witnessed important naval developments. The fleet has been reorganized upon a complete symmetrical plan. An entire new squadron of very powerful ships has been placed in full commission; we have recruited the largest number of sailors and stokers of any year in modern times, and nearly three times as many men have been recruited in each month upon the average of the present year. Before the end of the season I shall submit to parliament proposals for improving the pay of officers and men of the royal navy.
This, if may be hoped, will further stimulate our already buoyant recruiting." (Cheers.)
"We had not proposed last year to create a sixth battle squadron until 1915, but by various administrative arrangements it will be possible to bring that squadron into existence, fully manned, on mobilization with active service ratings. This will increase the margin of security to which I have on several occasions referred in the commons." (Cheers.) Plain Talk Effective.

"No harm has been done during the year by plain speaking on naval questions. On the contrary, the effect has been extremely good. The Germans are a nation with robust minds and a high sense of honor and fair play.
They look at affairs in a practical, military spirit. They like to have facts put fairly and squarely before them.
They do not want them wrapped up lest they should be shocked by them, and the relations between the two countries have steadily improved during the year." (Cheers.)

DUCK HUNTER SHOT BLEEDS TO DEATH

Thomas Hunter of Lindsay charged Shot Gun, Bul-

ROPE AS TOURNQUET

Companion Tried Desperately to Reach Assistance but Lost Race Against
Time.

LINDSAY, Nov. 10.—(Special.)— Thomas Hunter, a larrigan maker in the R. M. Beal Leather Co. factory, was fatally injured today while duck shooting. Hunter left Lindsay accompanied by a boy named Cleveland in a rowboat this morning. A double-barreled shotgun was placed in the bottom of the boat with both hammers cocked to be in readiness in case a stock of ducks were seen. While rowing the "craft Hunter's foot slipped and struck one of the hammers, discharging the shot into his thigh. The accident occurred at Green's Point, a few miles north of the town.
Cleveland wound a piece of rope around Hunter's thigh in an effort to stay the flow of blood. Then he rowed the boat toward the town. After going half a mile a passing motor boat was hailed, but Hunter died before reaching the wharf from loss of blood, the discharge evidently having cut several blood vessels. He was just two years out from Scotland, was 25 years old, and leaves a wife and five children.

Europe Unanimous in Opinion That Victors Must Not Be Robbed of Dearly Won Fruits —Changes Sudden and Over- whelming, But Powers Work Harmoniously to Prevent Spread of War.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—(Can. Press.)— (Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency)—The Guild Hall banquet held this evening, was as usual a brilliant function. Those present included cabinet ministers, members of the house of commons, distinguished officers of the army and navy, dignitaries of the church and representatives of the corporation. The Right Hon. Herbert Asquith, the prime minister, made an important pronouncement upon foreign affairs in responding to the toast of His Majesty's ministers.

"We are living in anxious times and as spectators of great and momentous events," he said. "The Balkan armies are in effective possession of Macedonia and Thrace, Saloniki, the gateway thru which Christianity first entered Europe, is occupied by the Greeks, and we may any moment hear of the fall of Constantinople itself."
"It is a satisfaction to be able to assure you that, so far as this country is concerned, its relations with other powers, without a single exception, were never more friendly and cordial.
The great powers are working together with a closeness of touch and a frankness and freedom of communication and discussion which are remarkable,
and which may seem almost unintelligible to those who believe that since for certain purposes, and for certain groups, they must therefore in a time of European crisis, be arrayed in opposite camps.

Powers Not to Blame.
"Nothing is further from the fact.
The powers have been blamed in some quarters because they did not succeed in averting the war. They sought, and sought honestly and earnestly, by diplomatic pressure and without resort to force to secure conditions of order and good government in the European provinces of the Ottoman Empire."
"But forces were at work beyond the control of any diplomatic manipulation. The Balkan states having matured their plans, perfected their equipment and co-ordinated their reciprocal action, decided that force was the only effective remedy, and that they and they alone were prepared to use it.
They took the matter in their own hands."

"Things can never be again as they were, and it is the business of statemen everywhere to recognize and accept the accomplished fact. When Pitt, mortally stricken by the news of Austerlitz, came here to die, he told those about him to roll up the map of Europe which hung on the wall. But even the campaign of Austria did not produce changes so suddenly and overwhelmingly complete, as those which during the past week have been wrought by the Balkan confederacy. The map of Europe has been recast, and in the process it may be that ideas, preconceptions and policies which were born in what is now a bygone era, will have to be modified, reconstructed or even go altogether by the board. Upon one thing, I believe the general opinion of Europe to be unanimous, namely that the victors are not to be robbed of the fruits which cost them so dear." Result Wholly Desirable.

"So far as I know there is no disposition anywhere to belittle the magnitude of the struggle or to dispute the decisiveness of the result. We in this country have no direct interest in the exact form which consequent political and territorial redistributions may ultimately take. There are, however, others whose special relations, geographical, economic, ethical and historical, with the scene of the conflict and its destination are such that they may be expected not to claim a hearing and a voice when the time comes for a permanent settlement."
"I purposely refrain, at this stage from even indicating in the most general way the points, some of them of difficulty, which must inevitably emerge for solution. For the moment, and so long as a state of belligerency continues, the government so far as their influence goes, deprecate the pressing and raising of isolated questions, which, if handled separately and at once, seem to lead to irreconcilable divergencies, but which may assume a different and, perhaps more practicable aspect, if they are reserved to be dealt with from the wider point of view of a general settlement."

Must Limit War Zone.
"War is terrible, tho' it may free time to time be a necessary form of arbitration when a deadlock arrives in human affairs, and none of its worst horrors has been absent from the campaign which is now being waged.
It is at the moment the first and greatest of European interests to circumscribe its scope. For that object the great powers have labored as with one will. So far they have labored successfully, and it is our hope and belief that they will continue to labor to the end. At such times as these, the burden of responsibility which falls upon the shoulders of the government is onerous as it always is, is exceptionally heavy, and it is a source of sincere gratification to the government to know that we can speak in the councils of Europe in the name and with the authority of a united people."

The Toronto World Proverb Contest is a test of skill and diligence, designed to encourage thought and research on the part of the young and provide a pleasant mental diversion for everyone.

Every day, for a period of seventy-five (75) days, there will appear in the Toronto Daily and Sunday World, an illustration, cartoon or other representation of a commonly used and well-known English proverb.

The correct answers, to serve as a basis of awards, are being selected according to their common use by the Contest Manager and three representatives of The Daily and Sunday World, and will shortly be placed under seal in a Safety Deposit Vault.

HUMBER PARKWAY SCHEME BEFORE COUNCIL TODAY

Proposal Probably Will Be Settled Finally—Prolonged Discussion Promised Over Proposed Hospital Bylaws.

Nothing new or of unusual importance is expected to come before the city council at today's session, unless sprung by an individual member on his own initiative, which is most unlikely to happen these pre-election days.

The money bylaws expected to be submitted to the people on Jan. 1, will receive the whole and undivided attention of the members of council at the special meeting for that purpose, which will be held next Monday, Nov. 17.

The Humber Boulevard project will be rehearsed and reargued today. Ald. Sam McBride, with the ostensible intention of demonstrating to the public how it is supposed to have been misled by the lack of publicity given to the agreement between Home Smith and the city fathers, has asked for light on ten questions bearing on the subject, which will be answered by the departmental heads at the various phases of the question today.

Supporters of the scheme are feeling very optimistic over recent developments. One vote would have carried it last meeting. Since then, some members of council have revisited some, have visited in the past time, the Watson and Kennedy properties, and other sections, with the result that they are now prepared to offer their attitude, knowing that the city limits will extend that far in a short while.

At election meetings held during the past week the electors have been very insistent over the question, with the result that those members of council who really support the project will be required to support the project.

The Riverside Business Men's Association made things particularly awkward for Aldermen Hilton and Robbins when questioned as to why they voted against the project.

The Sick Children's Hospital bylaw for $250,000 may give rise to some discussion today, as there exists a conflict of opinions as to the propriety of submitting a bylaw of $250,000 to the King Edward Hospital Fund. Controller Church is boasting the Sick Children's Hospital grant, but may prove something of a stumbling block in the way of the grant towards the fight against consumption. The committee in control of the funds for the latter state that any grant given by the city will be utilized for the upkeep of local institutions and organizations. Dr. Hastings is to report on the matter.

Ald. Rowland has a motion before council which he may bring forward to the effect that he will seek legislation to permit the expropriation of the street and land adjoining Rosedale driveway from Park road to the Don Valley in order that this property may be eventually set aside for boulevard purposes.

Ald. McBrien wants to have the fire and light committee styled "Fire and Light Commission" and that the street lighting be placed under the jurisdiction of the board of control, owing to the fact that the Hydro-Electric Commission is to be created by the Commission. This may be ratified this afternoon.

Street extensions and improvements will receive the attention of council today.

EUROPE'S EARLY TOWARDS BRINK OF CONSUMPTION

Such is Opinion in French Diplomatic Circles, Tho Amicable Settlement Is Hoped For.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—(Can. Press.)—"Dangerous but not hopeless," is the way the political plight in which Europe finds herself is summed up in official circles in Paris. The diplomatic controversy between Austria and Serbia, over the question of Serbia's access to the Adriatic has the centre of the stage, overshadowing all else, even the war itself.

Efforts at mediation have been postponed because of this, as the complication retards the attempts to bring the powers into accord. A hopeful feature in the situation lies in the knowledge that powerful influences are working on both sides to induce the disputants to find a compromise for the vexatious question.

Discussions of the complexities of this situation a prominent diplomat said: "I think we should not be too pessimistic. It is almost certain that the chapters before the gloom is dispelled, but I think that we can reasonably expect that Austria and Serbia will eventually settle their differences in an amicable way."

REV. CANON ABBOTT PREACHED SPECIAL SERMONS AT CHURCH OF ST. MARY MAGDALENE.

History Authorized For Use in Schools Imparts Information Which Would Make Ontario Gasp.

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Rev. Canon Abbott, M.L.A., who has been fighting for a long time for better common schools in this province, has found a real gem in the shape of an English history authorized by the Quebec council of public instruction in 1909, a special edition for Canada having been published by J. E. Morin. On page 272 of this book the following is to be found:

"The English possessions in North America are called New Britain, New France, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, New Wales, New Wales to the west of Hudson Bay, New Caledonia to the west of the great lakes, while the shores of New Caledonia are called New Cornwall or New Hanover."

Mr. Langlois says that people will suppose that Abbe Drouin's history of England is an edition sixty years old, but nothing of the kind. It is sold in this country in an edition of 1909, a report being made by the Legislature during the session of 1910.

JUBILEE SERVICES HELD IN MODERN BUILDINGS

St. Anne's Anglican Church and Parish House Second to None—Bishop Sweeney Compared Past and Present of Parish and Referred to Toronto's Remarkable Growth.

St. Anne's Anglican Church was crowded to the doors at each of the two jubilee services yesterday, in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the parish of St. Anne's.

From a congregation in 1862 of less than one hundred, there are now listed on the church rolls over fifteen hundred families, and it was estimated at the evening service between seventeen and eighteen hundred of a congregation were present.

Bishop Sweeney compared the past of the parish with the present, and on which he declared that the parish of St. Anne's was a model of a parish, and that the parish of St. Anne's was a model of a parish, and that the parish of St. Anne's was a model of a parish.

MARKED PROGRESS MADE IN MISSION MOVEMENT

What Has Taken Place in Japan Will Follow in China, and Scope of Laymen's Missionary Movement is Increasing—Strong Speeches At Fifth Anniversary.

"An astonishing deliverance of frank words and powerful thought" was President Falconer's description, on Saturday night of Bishop W. Boyd Carpenter's address to the Laymen's Missionary gathering at St. James' Cathedral Parish House.

The presence of the distinguished English bishop and Canon of Westminster attracted a notable gathering of the Toronto clergy of all the Protestant denominations.

After a fervid and optimistic picture of the triumphal march of foreign missions given by J. C. White, the Rt. Rev. W. Boyd Carpenter spoke in dramatic contrast. Quiet, precise, simple and almost deferential in tone and language the eminent theologian spoke in a conversational strain.

There was a marked change in the aspect of missions now compared with that of a century ago. This had become more marked since the Christian denominations had so many of them left the low plains of denominationalism and ascended to the mountain top of co-operation, from whence a wider vision was attained.

Good Earnest Men. The missionaries of a century ago were good earnest men, but they went out with the idea that with the exception of Mohammedanism, the non-Christian lands had no religious light. They discovered in India and the Orient, that the religious teachers were in many instances their intellectual peers, and frequently possessed a culture, that of Oriental type, which excelled their own.

lands already possessing religions of their own have been demonstrated. The efforts of the spread of Christianity in a land or an empire are both remarkable as to individuals and the community.

It was stated by high officials in India that at one time the native rulers were unconcerned when neighboring provinces were swept by famine, difficult to send supplies to the starving. Now through the influence of the Christian missions, a different sentiment prevailed, and the native rulers vied with each other in co-operating to relieve distress.

The influence of Christianity in great nations was exemplified at a time a few years ago, when the exchange of the Atlantic, but the exchange of the Christian sentiment caused the crisis to be safely passed.

In Asia great changes are imminent. What has taken place in Japan, and the movement of many active in the Laymen's Movement, is in progress in China. Before long China will be at least a power to be reckoned with. The thought of paying off old scores might occur. If it did not, it would be because of the influence of the Christian missions in Asia.

It was the duty of the Christian Church to combine their foreign mission movement, whether the countries were nominally religious or not, because Christianity set forth the highest ideals of national life, and was the only religion possessing the power to regenerate mankind.

After the address, John A. Patterson, K.C., moved a resolution reaffirming the aims and objects of the Laymen's Movement as adopted at the founding of the Canadian Council at St. James' Parish Hall five years ago.

SOCIETY WOMEN BY DEBUT

While Christ Is Responsible For the Suffragette, Says W. E. Prescott in Sermon.

That Christ is responsible for the suffragette and that the devil made the society woman with the large hat on a small head, was the statement of Rev. W. E. Prescott at the Bathurst Street Methodist Church last night.

The speaker declared that in the past woman had been almost everywhere. She had been wherever man has chosen to place her, and among these appointed points was in the stall with the cattle and upon the high mounts of the gods. This, he said, was the only age in which woman stands upon her own footing and he believed that the equation between man and woman was about to be solved in the only way possible, that through friendship as between them must be made upon exact justice.

"I hold no brief," said he, "for window smashers or tax throwers. It is a shame that these things should be done, but thru all the years man has been throwing axes and smashing windows. Woman is not alone in this, she has had ample example."

He declared that woman owed her rights to equality to Christianity, and that the first time, rivalry began to waste up and to allow a spirit of gall-sating jealousy to prompt them to try to undo the work of God, and to rob from us the fruits of our enterprise, even the actual cash money and the money value of our time. When we show by our boldness and energy that we move beyond the old, and that we are going right, it is not only that we are making a lot of money, not only for ourselves, but for ourselves, and that Premier Sifton is not likely to allow such legislation to stand as a precedent for future Siftons to follow. The principle involved is too manifestly against public policy and too far-reaching.

Frederic L. Sifton is now in London looking after that end of the government's defence. He will be represented by C. J. Maston, K.C. of this city, and a London solicitor by the name of Buckmaster. Sir Robert Finlay, K.C. of Toronto, will represent the A. & G. W. Railway, and Canada East Construction Company, and B. Bennett, K.C. M.P. of Calgary, will present the case of the Royal Bank.

CLARK OF A. & G. W. RAILWAY SAYS PRIVY COUNCIL WILL SUSTAIN THE APPEAL AGAINST ALBERTA GOVT.

W. R. Clarke, president of the Alberta & Great Waterways Railway, whose suit against the Alberta Government has developed into one of the most remarkable legal battles in the history of the Dominion, stated in an interview with the World yesterday that he feels confident the Privy Council, to whom the final appeal will be made early next month, will uphold the judgment of the Supreme Court of Alberta and order the northern route to be proceeded with at once.

Mr. Clarke had been in Toronto conferring with his solicitors, Aylesworth, Wright, Moss & Thompson, regarding the approaching appeal. He left for New York last night.

We were the first people who had the courage and practical belief in the Macleod route, and the first surveys to be made to it," said Mr. Clarke yesterday. "We paid for the first survey of the route, and we had demonstrated at great expense of time and money that all sorts of natural reasons in that country were only awaiting river and rail transportation to be aroused from their dormant condition."

He had made arrangements with the Alberta Government to build the farthest north railway in Canada, which others have tried to do, and after they had concluded financial arrangements upon the basis of that agreement, then, for the first time, rivalry began to waste up and to allow a spirit of gall-sating jealousy to prompt them to try to undo the work of God, and to rob from us the fruits of our enterprise, even the actual cash money and the money value of our time. When we show by our boldness and energy that we move beyond the old, and that we are going right, it is not only that we are making a lot of money, not only for ourselves, but for ourselves, and that Premier Sifton is not likely to allow such legislation to stand as a precedent for future Siftons to follow. CHECK SPREAD OF CONSUMPTION

All Congregations in Ontario Will Hear of Movement on First Sunday in December.

Unanimous endorsement of the proposal to observe Dec. 1 as Tuberculosis Sunday is being expressed by the prominent public men and clergymen who have been approached by the National Sanitarium Association in connection with the subject. Among the many letters of enthusiastic approval and sympathy already received, are those of the prime minister of Canada, Hon. R. L. Borden; N. W. Rowell, K.C., leader of the Ontario opposition; Mayor Hocken of Toronto; Archbishop Hamilton of Ottawa; Bishop Sweeney of Toronto, and Rev. Dr. Curman, general superintendent of the Methodist Church. The three latter pledge themselves to interest their clergy in the proposal, and in the general campaign which is being carried on by the association to check the ravages of consumption in Ontario.

Special interest attaches to the letter of Archbishop Hamilton, because of the personal note which it contains. His grace writes: "No one has stronger claims upon me to be intensely interested in all efforts for the recovery and restoration of tuberculosis patients than my own daughter, whose probabilities of life were at one time judged to be less than four months, is after nine years of persistent and courageous efforts, restored to perfect health and vigor. I am strongly of the opinion that we owe it to our congregations to afford them full information as to the successful war which is being waged against tuberculosis, and their duty to be financially, if not personally, engaged in it. I will do my best to induce all our clergy to bring the subject before their people on the earliest possible Sunday."

CHURCHILL EXULTS OVER NAVAL POWER

ing the year, they have steadily improved side by side, with every evidence of our determination to maintain our naval supremacy. The best way is to make these arrangements thoroughly healthy and comfortable, is to go right on and put an end to this naval rivalry by proving that we cannot be overthrown. Fine Response.

"But after all, what has made this year memorable in the history of the navy has been the spontaneous, simultaneous movement of the great dominions of the crown towards effective participation in imperial naval defence." (Cheers.)

Sheriff Cooper in proposing this toast referred to the hopes he cherished of union between the English speaking peoples for the purpose of mutual defence. "Well, at any rate, my lords and gentlemen, union between the English-speaking peoples of the British Empire for the purpose is already on the high road to consummation." (Cheers.) "The year began by the government of New Zealand placing their splendid battle cruiser at our disposal." (Applause.) "The year has witnessed a steady development of the Australian fleet unit and consequent relief to the British naval resources from this strong useful naval organization."

"And in a few days when the Canadian parliament meets, we may expect an announcement of a naval policy worthy of the power and glory of the great dominion, and of immense consequence."

Rugby Results Prospects

Note and Comment

Congrats again to the Argonauts. They played at the expense of the Rough Riders on Saturday at Rosedale, rocky and rightly earning their reward.

It was in the line that the Argonauts displayed the most superiority over Ottawa and there's where they may show a sufficient margin to stow away Varsity if these two teams met in the semi-final a week from next Saturday, as the present situation indicates.

Varsity's victory at Kingston was gained with not much to spare. The two teams were evenly matched, but the Argonauts should have won this game, as many believe they ought to have done the week before over McGill.

Jack Maynard jumped into the ranks when fortune hung in the balance. Then after Varsity forced the play and with his peerless half-back improving his physical form the city boxing champion is possible that Varsity will prove the fourth consecutive occasion champions again.

If they decide on the flip of a coin and Varsity win the toss, there will be two Rugby Union final games in Toronto next Saturday, Aleris at T.A.A.C. in the Ontario and McGill at Varsity in the Intercollegiate. Rosedale will be impossible for Rugby next Saturday, as the field is engaged for the Bridgen Cup soccer final.

Large Crowd Enjoy Seventeen Bouts on Opening Night of City Boxing Championships in Arena—Summary and Draw for Tonight.

Seventeen bouts were decided on opening night of the city boxing championships. Of these, ten went the full three rounds, and seven were ended by the wallop of the loser abandoning the contest before the limit.

There was a splendid gathering of lovers of the many art, who enjoyed nearly three hours' milling. The bouts started shortly after eight o'clock, and there was scarcely a wait from start to finish.

The semi-finals tonight in the Arena will require another 27 bouts or more. As expected, there were several defaults for various reasons and it now looks like getting thru the final on Tuesday night.

Bout No. 7-112 class—R. Roberts (Riverdale) v. P. Russell (West End). A good bout. Roberts was awarded decision in final round.

ARGONAUTS DOWNED ROUGH RIDERS

Won 23-11 and Secured Big Four Championship After a Grueling Battle—May Win the Dominion.

Argonauts stamped Ottawa, 23-11, in the final of the Big Four. The Argonauts simply outplayed the Rough Riders at all stages of the game, and, coupled with a few lucky breaks, ran up an overwhelming score. The grounds were packed long before the game commenced, including a strong aggregation from Ottawa.

HOCKEY SEASON BEGINS JAN. 1

First League Game in Arena on Jan. 1—Exhibition a Week Earlier—Rules and Regulations.

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—The annual meeting of the N. H. A. was held here on Saturday. Probably the most important change asked for was the return to the seven-man team. This amendment was proposed by Martin Rottel, Ottawa.

The proposition to form a professional hockey commission was also discussed, and it was the unanimous opinion that it would benefit hockey, but not under the conditions laid down in a telegram from the Patriots of the Pacific Coast League.

The message demanded that the management of the league be given the right to select players to play an exhibition game in Toronto on Saturday, Dec. 21, while the Wanderers and Canadians were given permission to play an exhibition game in Montreal on Saturday, Dec. 21.

The schedule was adopted, which shows the season is to start in Montreal on Saturday, Dec. 21, while the Wanderers and Canadians were given permission to play an exhibition game in Toronto on Saturday, Dec. 21.

VARSITY AGAIN DEFEAT QUEENS

In Seething Mass of Mud Varsity Wins in Last Quarter by 9 to 3—Campbell Was the Hero.

KINGSTON, Nov. 8.—Varsity won in the last quarter from Queens here today by 9 to 3. On a field seething in mud the Blue and White met Queens on Saturday before a large crowd.

Varsity were confident of winning, although they did not underestimate the game in the first quarter, when they were given over to an all-round handshaking and congratulations on past performances or reminiscences of other days.

Fogler and Moran Win Boston Bicycle Grind

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Joe Fogler of New York spurred into the home stretch at the finish of the six-day bicycle race at the Boston Arena tonight and won the contest.

Fogler, with his team-mate, Jimmy Moran of Chelsea, had set a new world's mark for six days' riding—a total distance of 1361 miles.

Eight of the thirteen teams originally entered finished in the following order: Fogler and Moran, Root and Light, J. Bedell and P. Clark, and J. Hill and J. Thomas, Wells and Mitten, Drobach and J. Hill, and J. Hill and J. Thomas.

The Carman and Diefenbacher, Gerstlitz and Lotius, and Walsour and Collins teams dropped out an hour before the finish, being unable to pick up the lap they needed to overtake the leaders.

MCGILL BARELY WINS FROM PARKDALE

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—McGill did not play to advantage in the exhibition game played with Parkdale on the campus Saturday afternoon, though they came out with a victory. It was only in the last quarter that the red and white showed their best form, and it was in this period, at the commencement of which the visitors had a lead of one point, that the aspirants for championship honours scored their only touchdown.

The game ended with a score of 16 to 13 in favor of McGill, who, however, were playing without Lee, Fairley and Billington. Considering the fact that nothing was at stake on the result, quite a fair-sized crowd witnessed the play.

HON. JAS. BRYCE MAY RESIGN

British Ambassador to United States Said to Have Decided to Quit Office.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(Can. Press.)—James Bryce, the British ambassador to the U. S., has tendered his resignation and will return to England. There has been no official announcement of the resignation, and the embassy will make no statement, but it was learned tonight on high authority that Mr. Bryce informed President Taft of his action at the White House yesterday.

Hon. James Bryce went to Washington five years ago as British ambassador to the U. S., and his connection more or less intimate with the reciprocity pact, his diplomatic service has earned nothing but highest encomiums. The Unionist press and speakers of Britain assailed the ambassador with considerable vigor for the part he was alleged to have played in seeking to draw Canada away from the mother country, but such criticisms seemed to fall lightly from his shoulders, he answering them with the statement that he merely discharged his formal duties. He returned only a few months ago from a trip to Australia, and expressed at that time no intention whatever of soon leaving Washington.

THE MORE MEMBERS OF HOLD UP GANG

local hotel, where she was disguised as a widow. Henderson will be released today.

At the house of Alice street the police seized an optum outfit, camera, razors, etc. A suitcase full of cloth was traced from there to an apartment house on Huron street, where it was secured.

Since the arrests of seven other members of the gang last week the detective department had been searching for the other members in this notorious clique. They suspected who the people were, but did not know where to find them. It was known that the dope peddlers had taken rooms in the vicinity of Trinity-square, so as to communicate easily with one another.

After receiving information Detectives Taylor, Twigg, Young and Murray were assigned especially to the case. A careful survey of the neighborhood of Trinity-square brought the officers to Alice street, just behind the square.

It was not long before evidence was secured connecting the occupants of the rooms at 36 Alice street, with those arrested in the Trinity and Duke street houses last week.

Accordingly the detectives raided the premises about 10:30 Saturday night and made two arrests. Acting upon instructions they searched for a new suitcase. It was not there. However, a new camera, a razor, a new hat and the optum outfit were taken.

The next visit was paid to an apartment house on Huron street. Here the suitcase turned up. It was full of new fall suitings. The residents of the house, respectable people, stated that it had been left there by one of the women who gave a plausible excuse. Although the department was aware that another woman had not been found when the Trinity square house was raided, it appears impossible to locate her. A quiet but systematic search of the usual refuges for this class of people ended with no results.

Inspector of Detectives George Kennedy and Sergeant of Detectives Alex Muckle had been devoting considerable attention to the case. Their work combined with other circumstances led to the visit of Detectives Taylor and Young to a large hotel at 1130 Saturday.

Woman Recognized.

There was no one in the hotel, who to the casual observer appeared to be a criminal. The register showed a Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson of Cobalt. The officers were advised that the wife was in deep mourning. One glance at the woman and the detectives recognized her as Mrs. Helen Cole, who lived with Geo. Hayden in the house on Trinity square, which was raided. So they took both Mr. Patterson and the Cole woman to Court street police station. The man explained that he was visiting in town. His story was substantiated by proof that he has large money interests in the Cobalt mines. He will be allowed out this morning.

Hold in Chicago.

George Cole, husband of Theresa, and an all-round bad man, was arrested on Saturday in Chicago, and is held there. His wife says that she gave him $14,000 to purchase a motor car, for her and she skipped out with the money.

In the opinion of the detectives, the gang thieves in the gang have been visiting local tailoring stores. Three men enter the store about the same time, and while one engages the tailor the other two pick up the suitings and slip out. This is not a modern form of holding up a tailor without a gun.

The ten men of the gang now under arrest, will be held pending answers from other cities.

YORK COUNTY

The reports from all over the county are unanimous in saying that the roads are in a worse condition than they have been for years. The reason given is that teams are hard to get even at $5 per day, instead of only $3 in many places, and the laborer demands $2 per day instead of only $1. Hence the taxes are higher and less road work is being performed.

The Toronto and York Radial Railway Company are endeavoring to get a franchise from Aurora to supply electrical energy to that town. The company has been successful in securing street lighting, etc. Mayor Baldwin, Reeve Knowles and Councillor Bassett have a committee to investigate the matter.

The officers of the Stouffville Curling Club for the season are: Rev. Estabrook, chaplain; G. Perry, president; J. S. Dougherty, vice-president; H. W. Sanders, secretary-treasurer; representative members, W. B. Sanders, W. H. Adams, A. H. Lawson, A. C. Burkholder, J. Perry, Ralph Mac.

The Stouffville Tribune man got his sword unsheathed and is fighting for pure food. This is what he says: "I have been reading something about the purity of the food we eat. It is a pity that so many of our people are ignorant of the value of the food they eat. They taste the food and say it is good, but they are not aware of the fact that it is full of poisons. I have been reading about the poisons in our food, and I am determined to do something about it. I have been reading about the poisons in our food, and I am determined to do something about it. CHILD SHOT THRU HEAD.

NORTH BAY, Ont., Nov. 10.—(Can. Press.)—On Saturday morning Arthur, three-year-old son of Jos. Leclair, was shot thru the head with a bullet from a revolver and died today. His mother was in the house, and had barely left the house when the children went into the room of an uncle who lived with the family, and took a .22 calibre rifle, opened the door and found a revolver.

There were three children in the room at the time, and a boy of 12, the children all reached for the revolver, and the older boy, reaching for the revolver, was shot thru the head and nearly killed, when his finger closed on the self-cocking trigger and the explosion followed.

A small informal dance was given in the evening for the assistants.

Prof. Michael Hambourg gave a supper at the King Edward on Saturday night.

An interesting wedding was that celebrated in New St. Andrew's Church, King street, when Miss Amelia Warnock (Katherine Hale), daughter of the late James Warnock of Galt, and of Mrs. Warnock, Doucort road, Toronto, was married to Mr. John W. Garvin, Lovell road, and a handsome and white chrysanthemum and greenery adorned the chancel, where Rev. T. Crawford read the service, and the intimate friends and relatives of the bride escorted the bride, who was unattended, was escorted up the aisle by her brother, J. Evans Warnock. She was attired in an amethyst velvet travelling dress with French velvet hat to match, with crown of oriental brocade and adorned with gold and red feathers. Her train of satin and chiffon had touches of oriental brocade to match her hat, and she carried a bunch of violets. A gold wrist watch and a brooch of pearls and emeralds gifts of the groom, were also worn. Directly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Garvin left for New York to spend their honeymoon. They will reside on Glen road, Rosedale. After the ceremony Mrs. Warnock gave a tea at the King Edward.

Mrs. Henry Roberts of Spadina road is giving a tea today to introduce her daughter, Miss Alison Roberts.

Mrs. C. H. Beatty and Mrs. Arthur Denison were among those giving not-out dances last week.

The debutante luncheon will take place at McCloskey's today.

The engagement has been announced in England of Miss Amelia Warnock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warnock, 31 Queen Anne street, Cavendish Square, London, and grand-daughter of Lord and Lady Strathcona, to Mr. John W. Garvin, eldest son of James W. Garvin, Kilsnoo, Lanrester Rectory, Cornwall.

The Daily Hint From Paris

A GAY BLOUSE.

An ecru pongee, with bright red and green figures, was made up into this convenient little garment.

The neck and sleeves are laced with black ribbons and a black belt is worn. The skirt was a red cashmere, pleated to a waist of white lawn, but the blouse would be very pretty worn with a blue serge.

Teething Disorders

There are a number of things to be thought of while the baby is teething. One of them is the necessity of keeping his clothing dry when he drools very much. A small bib if waterproof material under his padded cotton bib is useful for this. It is unwise to let wet clothing remain on his chest. Another thing to watch is his strong tendency to put everything he can get his hands on in his mouth. He must be carefully watched to see that he does not find buttons, pins and other small articles. A soft rubber ring, kept scrupulously clean, is good for him to bite on, or a teething-ring biscuit may be given at times.

But the hot little gums gently several times a day with a piece of absorbent cotton dipped in boric acid solution. Disorders that may really be attributed to teething are some fever, restlessness, porphyria indigestion, such as occasional vomiting or curds in the bowel movements. Never take it for granted that any sign of illness in your baby is "only teething." Many a baby might have been saved if a doctor had been called, instead of a neighbor, if the disturbances I have mentioned continue for more than two days without showing signs of improvement, or other cause than that of teething, or if, when there is fever or indigestion, give a dose of castor oil at once, and weaken the food. Plenty of boiled water should be given between meals. If there is constipation, give more orange juice and oatmeal gruel. You may need to give milk of magnesia. Sometimes teething babies have carache. Apply dry heat to the ear, a hot water bag wrapped in flannel. In this case, keep the nasal passages clear by cleansing with boric acid solution. Convulsions are not at all as common as nervous young mothers think. But in such a case, the baby's head must be kept cool, and his feet warm.

Madame and Chuchotte

BY MARGARET BELL

There were four of us, Madame, whose other appellation is Simone, my friend, whom I took with me, last Madame's English proved not so fluent as her present would have us believe, and Chuchotte, a darling little French spaniel of thirteen summers. But Madame's English was as fluent as the language was ever spoken, with the added charm of the finest Parisian accent. The man, named Chuchotte came bustling upon us, when the door was open, endeavoring to acquaint us with the fact that we were intruders. But Madame's cordiality, assured us that we were welcome. It was a decided shock of agreement. For they had told me in the hotel that Madame was a tall weird creature with black hair and of an immovable silence; that she wandered thru the corridors, and that she would come to the door, and that all the hotel lackeys fled from her path in terror, for it was rumored that a witch had come to dwell with them. And here, over this weird creature had been touring the halls and corridors for a week, casting her spell over all who chanced to cross her path. So much for the authority of a hotel desk. Madame had arrived in Toronto exactly 9 hours before we set out on our journey. She had been whirled away in a tap so a fig for information gleaned by a bit of silver. The smiling five feet four of foreign fascination had suborned her and not the slightest suggestion of a

AMUSEMENTS

Jimmy Powers—Alexandra

At the Alexandra Theatre, commencing this evening and for the balance of the week, James T. Powers, musical comedy's brightest star, will be presented by the Messrs. Shubert in "The Little Bride," the new operetta in which Mr. Powers scores a hit during the spring at the Casino, New York City. Beautifully and otherwise, the production is intact as given at the Casino. The story, originally German, has been Americanized by Arthur Anderson and Mr. Powers, and they have evolved a sequence of events laughable for their face value, and made more intensely so by the versatility and the amusing personality of Jimmy Powers. Miss Wheaton and Miss Hughes as the "two brides" lend particular charm to the roles, according to the program. The production is fresh from her present triumph at the Winter Garden, and these scores will recall the other triumphs of the season, as the French created pleasant roles in previous musical hits. The scenes, two in number, are lavish pictures of Russian and German court life, and the melodious score will be rendered by a greatly augmented orchestra.

Grace George in a New Play

Add the best beloved actor on the American stage, the most brilliant young actor in England, and a story that became a world-wide success in less than two months, and you will obtain an idea of the cumulative interest that attaches to the appearance at the Alexandra Monday evening, Nov. 12, of Miss Grace George in Compton McKensie's play, "The Girl in the Red Coat." The first Toronto performance was a number of incidents from the famous novel of the same title, but is rather an adaptation than a translation. Mme. Simone at Princess Madame Simone, the famous French actress, who is playing in English, supported by a splendid company of English and American players, will make her first appearance here tonight at the Princess Theatre. Simone will present for the first time on any stage "At Versailles—1780," a comedy by that well-known author, Louis N. Parker. Her most recent works, "Demander Walk" and "Disraeli" have been enormous successes. The Liebler Company have provided a most elaborate scenic environment for this latest romantic comedy. This will be the only presentation of the play outside of New York, when it will begin an extensive engagement at Wallace's Theatre here on Monday, Nov. 19, under the managing director of the Liebler Company, Casimir Parler, husband of Mme. Simone. Several well-known New York managers will be present.

Musical Events

RECITAL BY PUPILS OF PROF. HAMBURG

Prof. Michael Hambourg, who is one of the most picturesque musical figures in the world, was the presiding genius at the matinee recital given by pupils of the Hambourg Conservatory at the Royal Albert Hall, College street, on Sunday afternoon. The program was a charming one, interspersed with vocal solos by pupils of Madam Innes-Taylor, George Dixon, David Ross and Miss Edith Fitch.

"Over Night" at the Grand

Philip H. Bartholomae, the author of "Over Night," the most successful comedy that is booked at the Grand this week, selected the Hudson River as the scene for his plot, because of its romantic environment. And what adds more to the point than to take four loving hearts, and send them up the moon-lit waters, banked by its great cliffs, is the fact that the author's Point all food for love, though and land them in the old-fashioned hotel under such hovering shades of Washington Irving? but just to give it a bit of spice the author rather mixed things at the start, and in a way the authors sometimes have, leaves a common-sense day behind, which causes all the trouble.

Travesty Drama at Shea's

"More Sinned Against Than Usual," which headlines the bill at Shea's Theatre this week, is a delicious travesty drama, but the only familiar bucolic scene is the scene for his plot, because of its romantic environment. And what adds more to the point than to take four loving hearts, and send them up the moon-lit waters, banked by its great cliffs, is the fact that the author's Point all food for love, though and land them in the old-fashioned hotel under such hovering shades of Washington Irving? but just to give it a bit of spice the author rather mixed things at the start, and in a way the authors sometimes have, leaves a common-sense day behind, which causes all the trouble.

Alma Gluck's Program

Mme. Alma Gluck, who sings with the Symphony Orchestra on Thursday night, commenced her American tour two weeks ago, when she gave her annual recital in Carnegie Hall, New York, to almost capacity house. The tour will extend thru the middle states, and after giving concerts in several cities in perfect condition, she will return to New York before sailing to Europe in the "Empress of Japan." Speaking about her opening concert, the critics of the metropolis have said: "Alma Gluck is one of the best artists on the concert stage who can fill that vast auditorium, Carnegie Hall, with meteor-like success; the young soprano has risen to stand among the chosen few." The New York Sun also comments on the same event: "As her beautiful voice was in perfect condition, she entertained the audience charmingly." The program for Thursday night will be the difficult Mozart aria, "Il re Pastore," and a group of songs by Wagner, Brahms, Liszt, Rosenstam and Weingartner.

Thrilling Scene at Gayety

The very climax of theatrical novelty has been reached in a feature introduced by the "Star and Gaiety" Theatre this week. It is introduced in "The Flirting Widow," the extravaganza presented by this theatre organization, and consists of a ship at sea in a storm, and is just as realistic and interesting as if you Give your workmen plenty of light

UPON the proper lighting of your factory depends the efficiency of your men, the quantity and quality of work turned out, the saving of raw material, the minimizing of accidents to tools and machinery, as well as assuring the safety of your workmen.

It is not necessarily the quantity of light that gives the best service, but the proper distribution of that light. Lamps suited to your needs, when properly placed and fitted with right kind of shades and reflectors, will enable you to get the maximum of light at a minimum cost for current.

Some factories have demonstrated that with improved lighting conditions the efficiency of their workmen increased to as much as 15 per cent.

Take time to thoroughly investigate your lighting conditions. A Toronto Electric Light Company specialist will be glad to assist you. He will suggest a plan of lighting best adapted to meet your particular requirements without obligating you in any way.

CONTROL YOUR PASSIONS.
Editor World: An article having appeared in Wednesday's Toronto World, as to a very able theory in argument to the prohibitionist, has caused this reply. The writer claims that it is natural for a stevedore, after a hard day's work, to take a glass of beer or some other stimulant which he justly needs. Let me inform him that no matter how tired or dusty a man is after a day's work, it is no excuse for him, after reading this reply, to fly to drink for invigoration. If he is dirty, let him strip, take a warm bath or sponge down, followed by a cold bath or sponge down, then drink a glass of hot milk or water. This is the great mistake today. People neglect their bodies at the expense of their health; then fly to stimulants and drugs to bring that feeling which every man and woman should have who possesses good health, and this belongs to anyone who desires it. The rules are simple. Bedroom window open at night, breathe thru your nose always, take twenty minute exercise daily, get eight hours' sleep. Bathe as often as possible with hot and cold water, eat moderately of wholesome food, and last, but by no means least, control your passions by your will.
